WAYNE TO HOLD SAFETY DRIVE

SHERIFF'S OFFICE, AUTO CLUB AND CIVIC HEADS CO-OPERATING IN CAMPAIGN PLANS.

As a result of plans mapped out at a meeting held last week Wednesday, under the joint auspices of Sheriff Geo. Walters and the Detroit Automobile Club when mayors, village presidents, chiefs of police and school officials heard the outline of the Wayne County Safety Campaign, the schedule has been laid out opening on March 15.

The campaign opens in Hamtramck on Monday, March 15th, and thereafter River Rouge, Lincoln Park, Ecorse, Wyandotte, Flat Rock, Romulus, Trenton, New Boston, Belleville, Northville, Plymouth, Wayne, Dearborn, Springwells, Redford, Brightmoor and Melvindale will have special days set aside for safety programs.

It is only by educating people in general that accidents can be decreased," declared Capt. Gilbreath, "and in this campaign we are enlisting the co-operation of the officials of every city and village in the county as well as in the city of Detroit."

Detroit is to have a special Safety Week, starting Sunday, April 18, with a big safety parade and closing April 24. Detroit Safety Week is under the joint direction of Sergt. H. O. Bounds, supervisor of the Bureau of Public Safety of the Police Department, and L. J. Van Scholck, manager of the Safety and Traffic Section of the automobile club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vealey spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ora Chilson at Redford.

SOME IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED BY VILLAGE COMMISSION

At the Coming Village Election In March the Voters Will Have an Opportunity to Approve or Reject Several Bond Issues.

The Future Growth of the Village Makes It Necessary That These Improvements Be Made This Year.

PLYMOUTH DEBATERS WIN FROM BIRMINGHAM

Last Thursday afternoon, Plymouth's affirmative debating team defeated Birmingham's negative, in Plymouth High school auditorium.

The program began with two fine selections by the High school orchestra, under the direction of Miss Forsyth. Then Wilbur Murphy led the audience in yells for both teams.

The Birmingham debaters delivered their constructive arguments well, but showed less skill in refutation; their third speaker in particular, lacked fluency in rebuttal, and ended the final argument for the negative without a summary or definite conclusion.

The Plymouth debaters showed themselves thoroughly familiar with their material and were superior in adaptation and in the delivery and directness of their rebuttals.

This decision means that Plymouth has won three of its four State League debates this season, and thus hopes for a Detroit Free Press trophy for the school, and for entrance into the state elimination debates.

Professor Starr is much appreciated by the growers, and a good attendance is anticipated.

PLYMOUTH DEBATERS WIN FROM BIRMINGHAM

The Village Commission has started on the sanitary sewer work for 1926. They have adopted a schedule of mains and laterals to be laid, which will serve the territory listed below:

- North Branch— Mill street from Union street to Hardenburg. Amelia street from Mill street to Liberty street. Blanche street from Amelia street to Starkweather avenue. Farmer street from Amelia street to Starkweather avenue. Spring street from Amelia street to Starkweather avenue. Davis street from Farmer street to Pere Marquette Railway. Liberty street from Amelia street to Mill street. Holbrook avenue from Liberty street to Pere Marquette Railway. South Branch— Main street from Ann Arbor street to Penniman avenue. Penniman avenue from Ann Arbor street to Moreland. Harvey street from Ann Arbor street to Junction avenue. North Side Main street from Penniman avenue to Pere Marquette Railway. Williams street from Harvey street to Arbutus street. Adams street from Church street to Farmer street. Maple street from Main street to Pine street. Wing street from creek to Forest avenue. Forest avenue from Wing street to Sutherland avenue. This will cost, by the engineer's estimates, $80,000. Of this amount, $80 per benefit will be assessed against the benefited property, and the rest will be raised by bonds which will be requested of the voters on March 8th. As soon as this division can be figured out, the respective amounts will be made known. This is in line with the policy adopted of branching out further each year until the sanitary sewer system is complete.

The rapid extension of house building in this village into subdivisions which for years have laid vacant, is forcing the village to lay more and more water mains to take care of the newly opened lots.

Also the new bond issue of last year has increased the bond maintenance until this fiscal year we will have to account for $11,880.00 in payments on interest and principal.

PAYS COMPLIMENT TO OLD HOME TOWN.

In renewing his subscription to the Mail, Mark H. Ladd, a former well known Plymouth resident writes as follows: "It is with pleasure we note the progress Plymouth is making, you sure will have a city ere long, and one of which the citizens may well feel proud, for it is one of the beauty spots of America. Of course, we have what Californians call beautiful towns, but I do not find many that will compare with my own home town, long may it prosper."

A GREAT COUNTRY
 It won't be so very long now until the green gets back in the trees and residents of Plymouth and vicinity will be making garden and putting in their crops. Which reminds us that while the amount raised by Prerogative in this particular section combined may seem small, the entire harvest of any one crop is sufficient to make us realize what a wonderful country we are living in.

For instance, take corn. We read some figures a few days ago to show just what the three leading corn states in the union—Iowa, Missouri and Illinois—can do in a good crop year. If you would place the last year's corn crop of these three states in wagons 10 abreast, to each of which is hitched a team of horses and then back of these place another row of 10 and start the procession out from Chicago, it would move as a continuous line to New York City, then across a pontoon bridge to London; across another bridge to Paris, and from Paris to Moscow. And going by way of Moscow the procession would show the Bolsheviks how little American "peasants" earn. It would reach on to Siberia, across the Pacific to San Francisco. Back in this country it would proceed across the Rocky mountains, over the plains and into Chicago. And when the first 10 teams reached Chicago, the last 10 would just be leaving. That's hard to believe, but statisticians have figured it out.

And now when you start in to make your garden or plant your crop, whether it is corn or something else, just try to realize what a wonderful country you are permitted to plant in.

THEN AND NOW
 We note that a Kansas City paper is printing a "comparative market report" that we feel sure would interest Plymouth people. In one column is printed the current market prices and in an opposite column the prices that prevailed in 1876, fifty years ago. The report shows that in '76 corn was quoted at 18c a bushel, potatoes 14c a bushel, cornmeal 75c a hundred, but flour was $3.25 a sack. Eggs were 10c a dozen, growing chickens $1.50 a dozen—and country school teachers were getting $25 a month. Fifty years is but a brief span, measured by the yard stick of world history, but when we compare prices of 50 years ago with prices of today, it is readily seen that we have come a long way in that brief time. That is everybody seems to have come long way except the school teacher, who is really the only one left among us who has any kick coming.

SOME THOUGHTS OF HAPPINESS
 If you cannot be a good companion for yourself, your chances for real happiness are small. Your own society makes a great part of the difference for you between a happy life and an unhappy one. Those who are bored when left to themselves have small intellectual resources. The happiest are nearly always the busiest. Rest doesn't mean much to a man who is always resting. What does amusement mean to him who devotes all his time to it?
 Observe the happiness of children. They are pleased with small and simple things. They are happy because they take spontaneous delight in things that do not cost much and are easy to make and do. This brings to mind that wonderful saying: "Unless ye become as little children, ye shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven."
 And that other saying: "The Kingdom of Heaven is within you." There is no happiness without adaptability, without the power of receptiveness.
 Unless you have and cultivate and make your own the faculty of adapting yourself to your conditions, and

The Commission last Monday, had a short session in the afternoon, so that several of the members might attend the Northville Rotary charter meeting. An adjourned meeting will be held tonight (Friday).

We shall have to call auto drivers' attention to the fact that the orange light in our traffic signals, is a "stop light" just as much as is the red. The green light is the only one under which one may drive. Also, please do not make a left hand turn except when the green light shows.

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce has started examination of the items proposed for our 1926 village budget, with the idea of making suggestions and recommendations from the standpoint of the tax payer. This cooperation is much appreciated.

We still receive a number of complaints about people who do not keep their walks clear of snow. We wish everyone would make it a point to have their walks safe in this respect.

The village crew had to get busy and clear the snow banks from in front of the business places in town. It is some time since this has been necessary.

If you will read the commission proceedings in this issue of the Mail, you will see that the commission transacted an extra large amount of business on the 1st.

"We Serve Michigan" Michigan Railroads Welcome Good Roads

MICHIGAN is one of the states that has made the greatest progress by the extension of its good roads. Its industrial importance has been greatly fortified by the development of a system of internal communication. It can still advance under a careful and judicious extension of this program. With the passing of transportation from the mud age to the hard road age there are indications that we are experiencing in the United States an industrial revolution as important in its effect as was that which marked the introduction of the macadam road and the steam railroad in England. This is evinced in the expansion of our national income.

For instance, the wealth of our nation—investment on our plant—in 1912 was 186 billions of dollars while our national income—the annual turn-over—was 30 billions of dollars.

The wealth of the nation in 1922 was 321 billions of dollars, and our national income over 80 billions. It took only a six-dollar investment to make a dollar in 1912. An increase in efficiency of 33 per cent. in a decade.

THE utility of the railroad, as a freight carrier, has been increased many times through the complementary agency of the good roads system. The traffic in the old days could only be drawn from about eight miles on either side of the right-of-way of a railroad. Now, the railroad's range of activity is five to six times greater. True, these new transportation agencies present some problems that embarrass at times, but better transportation in whatever form it may be, operates to the general good.

The railroads do ask for reciprocal regulation. Michigan is in the vanguard as an industrial state. Let us retain that position. The Michigan Railroad Association approves the state's proposed program for more good roads because it will yield a large return on the investment.

In loving memory of our dear father and husband, Wm. H. Maynard, who left us one year ago, February 21, 1925. He was true and ever patient. Through the years he struggled on; those hands at rest forever. Made the home that now is gone. Sleep on, dear father, and take your rest. God called you home as He thought best. Sadly missed by his wife and children.

Friendship Put Above Insistence on Rights

Our town is a world in miniature, I suppose. What's the word for what I want to say? A microcosm? I haven't the dictionary handy. We have in our small way the same emotions the county and the state and the republic and ultimately the world have in their several large ways. Well, here is a funny thing about our town:

We get angry about everything. We take sides about battleships, most of us would not know a battleship from a scout cruiser, but we get red about them. We scrap over the aviation quarrel. If the market goes up half of us crack our voices and beat our hands on the counter down in Eph Wiles' grocery store. If it goes down the other half of us oblige. But we are always angry. Always vociferating and swearing and calling names.

I wonder if the rest of the world is that way? Or are we just a miserable, bad-tempered little fist of a town?

Two years ago a poor-natured, red-eyed, bent-legged imitation of a human being kept chickens next door to me. J. P. relates, in the Kansas City Star. They did not do my roses and other flowering shrubs any good. He was within his rights in keeping chickens, of course. I am a reasonable man and I would be the first to admit that. I was also within my rights to keep an acre and what an acre-able can do to a hen must be seen to be appreciated. Our language over the back fence appalled me after I cooled down. Maybe it appalled the other fellow. Anyhow he came to me in my office one day.

"Let's talk it over," he said. "I don't want to be on bad terms with a neighbor and I do not mean the names I called you, and as for the hens I'll pop 'em in the pot."

It's a queer thing, but from being ready to hit him with an ax I softened up right away. We reached a compromise—and I'll not tell what it was; the secret of how to keep the peace between roses and hens should be salable—and we have been friends and our wives have been friends ever since.

Both of us had been within our rights, of course. But it is better to be friends.

Why is it that you know 940 cures for the other fellow's cold, and then can't cure one of your own when you get it?

BRIGGS SCHOOL NOTES

By Harlow Wagonschutz
We had a Valentine party Friday, February 12th. We had a heart hunt, and the one who found the most hearts was given a chocolate heart. Daune Greenlee got the prize of the little children, and George Rexin got the prize of the other grades. Then we opened the Valentine box. Carl Peck read the names, and Philip Rhoda and Phyllis Peck passed them out.

We had a very good lunch consisting of sandwiches, pickles, Valentine decorated cakes, and jello with whipped cream. After lunch, we gave Carl, Philip, Rhoda, Phyllis and Betty Peck presents.

The Peck children moved away Wednesday, February 17th.

Beniah Wagonschutz and George Greenlee are on lesson 26 in Curtis tests.

School was closed Tuesday afternoon on account of Charles Rutenbar's funeral.

A CARD—We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the beautiful rocker given us as a farewell gift. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peck and Family.

Mr. and Mrs. Straphanger and their daughters will attend the old-time dancing party and entertainment at the Masonic Temple, Wednesday evening, February 24th.

OBITUARY

Charles Rutenbar was born in Germany, May 12th, 1874. In his infancy he was baptized and later confirmed in the Lutheran faith. At an early age he came to this country with his parents, settling in Wayne county. On the 27th of February, 1897, he was united in marriage with Marie Pankow of Livonia. This union was blessed with six children, four sons and two daughters. In the year 1911, the deceased moved with his family to the present homestead in Livonia township. A little more than a year ago a grown-up son, Harvey, preceded the father into eternity. On January 28th, Mr. Rutenbar was taken to St. Mary's hospital for an operation. This at first seemed to be successful, but complications set in, and after a short illness of about two weeks, he died Saturday, February 13th, at the age of 51 years, 9 months and 1 day. He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow, Marie Rutenbar; three sons, Harry, Bert, and Charles, Jr.; two daughters, Mrs. Elsie Fent and Miss Evelyn Rutenbar; his aged mother, Mrs. Johanna Rutenbar; four brothers, Herman, William, Albert and Edward; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Westlake, Mrs. Emma Wright, Mrs. Eva Fent; besides other relatives and friends.

The deceased was for many years a faithful member of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Livonia Center, whose faith he shared, trusting in the Savior Jesus as his only Rock and Anchor in life and death. Burial took place Tuesday afternoon, February 16th, from his late home and the church, with interment in Grand Lawn cemetery, Redford. Rev. Oscar J. Peters officiating.

BASKET BALL

Boys' Game

By Katherine Wilcox
One of the most exciting games that the people of Plymouth have ever witnessed, and by far the most exciting of this season, was played last Friday night, when our strong Plymouth team met the equally strong Northville team. There has always been a strong feeling of rivalry between the two towns, and both teams came out on the floor determined to win. For about half the game, the Northville five seemed to be playing the better game, for the odds of the score, 14 to 8, were against us. But when the half was over, our boys came out on the floor with a determination to make up the difference, and they did, scoring so rapidly during the last quarter, that they were only two behind, the score being 17 to 19.
The game was just about over, and although our boys had tried repeatedly to get the ball in our basket, the Northville fellows held them well. It was a tense moment, then the ball became Plymouth's, and was passed to Carney, who hesitated a moment, then shot out the ball half way across the floor. While the ball was in the air, the final whistle blew, and then the ball dropped into the basket and tied the score for Plymouth, making the score 19 to 19.
After much arguing, it was decided to play overtime, and in the three minutes that followed, Plymouth scored 5 points and Northville, 1, the final score being 20 to 24 in favor of Plymouth.
Carney played an excellent game, and of the 24 points in Friday's game, 13 were made by Carney and 11 by Doudt. Doudt is to be complimented on his remarkable basket shooting, being high point scorer of the league, with a record of 78 points in 6 games.
The line was as follows:
Plymouth Northville
Doudt F Thompson
Crumm F Lefever
Hubert C Fraser
Lockwood G Campbell
Carney G Smith

Girls' Game

By Katherine Wilcox
Last Friday night, a large crowd witnessed the final girls' basket ball game that has been played on the home floor this season. Our defeat on Northville's floor at the first of the season, was fully avenged. The playing of both teams showed a marked improvement as the result of hard practice. At the end of the first half, Plymouth led by a score of 13 to 8.

Northville then began to improve, and by the end of the third quarter, the score was 15 to 16 in favor of Northville. The fourth quarter was fast, one team scoring and then the other. The feature of the game was the accurate and quick passing of the Plymouth team, and as the end drew near, the score was 20 to 20.
With only a few moments to play, the Plymouth centers passed the ball to our forwards, and just a second before the whistle blew, we scored a 2-point basket, making the final score 22 to 22 in favor of Plymouth.
Mr. Anderson, the referee, pleased everyone. His decisions were indisputable, and he seemed to know the rule book from cover to cover.
The line-up was as follows:
Plymouth Northville
Draper F Huff
Hillman F Sessions
Bird J. C. Horan (c.)
Bennett R. C. Riley
White (c) G Lauray
Miller G Austin
Substitutes: Plymouth, none. Northville—Schultz for Lauray, Lauray for Schultz. Field goals—Plymouth 10, Northville, 9. Foul goals—Plymouth

AN APPRECIATION

As a representative of this community The Record regards it as its duty as well as its pleasure to speak a word of appreciation in behalf of Mrs. Kate Allen of Plymouth, whose interest and enterprise made the new playhouse possible. Happily Mrs. Allen had the means to erect the handsome Penniman Allen Theatre and auditorium at Plymouth and the new theatre at Northville, but having the means to do these splendid things and doing them are two distinct propositions. How many women or men of means care very much about the little home town these days? They are attracted city-ward for their investments and very often all their interests are outside of the communities in which they reside, or in which they have accumulated their money. Not so with Mrs. Allen. She was interested in her home town and gave Plymouth a building that any city in the state might well feel proud to possess, and now she has become interested in Northville and has given this community a theatre that has but few equals in the state, and no equals in towns the size of Northville. These buildings will be more enduring than any shaft of granite that could be erected, because countless thousands year in and year out will realize and appreciate that a woman's enterprise and kindly interest made these places of amusement possible, and the influence of the entertainments given will be far-reaching. The lives of children will be brightened and inspired and the lives of the older folk will be enriched.

To Mrs. Kate Allen of Plymouth and Northville, the people of this community are deeply grateful.—Northville Record.

THE THEATRE

"BRIGHT LIGHTS"
Robert Z. Leonard has become famous for directing pictures that appeal primarily to the heart and the eye. Never does he burden his audience with any well-meant lesson or "moral," as he believes that entertainment as such should never become "preachy."
So in his production of "Bright Lights," which is the attraction at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, February 20th, there is no moral, unless it is to "be yourself."
Charles Ray and Pauline Starke are costarred in the picture. Ray plays the part of the rube, who unsuccessfully tries to imitate the city slicker in order to impress his chorus girl sweetheart.
Lilyan Tashman, Lawford Davidson, Ned Sparks and Eugene Bessner will be seen in the supporting cast of the picture. The scenario was written by Jessie Burns and Lew Lipton from a short story by Richard Connell.

"LORD JIM"
A work of the late Joseph Conrad, hailed by critics and public as the greatest writer of sea stories, has been brought to the screen for the second time in history in Paramount's screen version of "Lord Jim," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, February 21 and 22.
This story is regarded as not only a classic among famous sea tales, but also as one of the most touching romances and stirring novels of adventure in modern fiction.
Percy Marmont, Shirley Mason, Noah Beery and Raymond Hatton are featured in the principal roles of the production, which was adapted for the screen by John Russell and directed by Victor Fleming, who made "Empty Hands," "To the Last Man" and "Adventure."
In deserting his ship, Percy Marmont, as Jim, second mate of the ship Patna, had failed in the traditional ruling of the sea—"passengers first," and had thought first of himself to the ultimate destruction of those he was supposed to protect. Trying to flee from this world, he eventually found he was fleeing from his own conscience—that the words of "coward" that kept ringing in his ears were the words of an accusing conscience, not of the outside world. On the lonely and savage island of Parasuan, he walks into certain danger and almost certain death. Redeeming himself with himself, he forces a stockade and is victorious. With new confidence, because of his first victory over himself, he eventually becomes the ruler of the island. How he meets a pretty, native girl, gives his life for her in atonement, is one of the greatest stories of present day literature.
As a Paramount picture, "Lord Jim" is bigger and finer than any adventure-drama ever filmed. If you have an idea that this is a "high-brow" tale, don't fail to take it in. You're in for a mighty agreeable surprise.

"STAGE STRUCK"
Supporting Gloria Swanson in the Paramount picture, "Stage Struck," which will be shown next Wednesday and Thursday, February 24 and 25, at the Penniman Allen theatre, is one of the finest casts ever to appear with the popular star.
Lawrence Gray, who had a prominent role opposite Miss Swanson in "The Coast of Folly," is leading man in "Stage Struck," an Allan Dwan production by Frank R. Adams and adapted for the screen by Sylvia La Valle.
Gloria, as Jenny Hagen, a waitress in a one-arm lunch in a small western town, decides she's going to become an actress because young Gray, who also works in the restaurant, likes actresses. One of the famous Ohio River floating theatres comes to town and she gets a chance to "do her stuff" which is terrible. There are said to be more laughs in these scenes than in the entire length of "Manhandled."
Ford Sterling, who started them laughing by his comedy antics in "The Trouble With Wives," is manager of the show boat. This is another great part for him.
Gertrude Astor, who recently brought to a close a successful vamping season on the West Coast and traveled East to support Gloria in "Stage Struck," plays the leading woman on the floating theatre. Miss Astor was recently seen in "Satan in Sables" and "The Pleasure Buyers."
Carrie Scott, Marguerite Evans, Emil Hoch and Margery Whittington complete the line-up of leading players.
Forrest Halsey wrote the screen play.

"STAGE STRUCK"
Supporting Gloria Swanson in the Paramount picture, "Stage Struck," which will be shown next Wednesday and Thursday, February 24 and 25, at the Penniman Allen theatre, is one of the finest casts ever to appear with the popular star.
Lawrence Gray, who had a prominent role opposite Miss Swanson in "The Coast of Folly," is leading man in "Stage Struck," an Allan Dwan production by Frank R. Adams and adapted for the screen by Sylvia La Valle.
Gloria, as Jenny Hagen, a waitress in a one-arm lunch in a small western town, decides she's going to become an actress because young Gray, who also works in the restaurant, likes actresses. One of the famous Ohio River floating theatres comes to town and she gets a chance to "do her stuff" which is terrible. There are said to be more laughs in these scenes than in the entire length of "Manhandled."
Ford Sterling, who started them laughing by his comedy antics in "The Trouble With Wives," is manager of the show boat. This is another great part for him.
Gertrude Astor, who recently brought to a close a successful vamping season on the West Coast and traveled East to support Gloria in "Stage Struck," plays the leading woman on the floating theatre. Miss Astor was recently seen in "Satan in Sables" and "The Pleasure Buyers."
Carrie Scott, Marguerite Evans, Emil Hoch and Margery Whittington complete the line-up of leading players.

KINYON SCHOOL NOTES

We received word from Lansing, regarding the water we sent there to be tested. We are all glad the water is O. K., and appreciate the well.
The school enjoyed a Valentine box last Friday. Each child received many Valentines. Ice cream and jello were served.
The third, fourth and fifth grades have started a reading chart. They are trying to find out just how many words they can read and comprehend in one minute.
We have sold nearly four hundred packages of Jello. We are going to buy a picture with the money.
The first graders have finished their Winston readers, and are waiting for their new books.
We have three gold stars on our gold star card.
Miss Bird attended the last zone meeting at the Walker school.
Miss Corbett at last brought the surprise which she called the Gypsy for the children. It was a victrola which the children enjoyed.
Miss Cochrane visited school last week and remained for the evening. She gave a talk to the P. T. A. It was enjoyed by all.
The eighth graders are busy studying the Civil War.
The second semester exams begin next Wednesday.

We expect the Millers home about the last of March.
The nurse was out last week, and weighed the children.
We surely enjoy hot lunches these cold days.
The first graders have finished learning, "Where Go the Boats" and "The Duel."
In Agriculture, we are studying Farm Management.
Since the snow storm, "Spot the Turkey" has been the favorite game.
Don't forget the Night Cap Social to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Forshee, on Friday, February 26. Ladies, please bring a night cap.
A fine program and entertainment is being planned. Come and find the Parcel Post Sale. Bring your friends.

Just what the options on a large number of farms in this vicinity, most of which are north and east of town, all means is a matter of considerable speculation on the part of our citizens, and even on the part of those who have optioned their places. It is no secret that someone or some corporation desires a large acreage in this vicinity, and it is a practical certainty that they are going to have it, but for what purpose we cannot say—because we do not know. We hope to be able to give you full particulars in a few weeks, however.—Brighton Argus.

Canton Center School Gives Valentine Party

A most effective Valentine Party was given at the school, by the teacher, for the girls and boys of the school.

She also sent out some invitations to the ladies of the district. The tables were beautifully decorated in Valentine colors, and a fine Valentine box was also partaken of by all. Games of various sorts were enjoyed by all the ladies. A little remembrance was given the winners, who were Mrs. Charles Finnegan, Mrs. Clyde Truesdell and William Rooke.

A very delicious supper was served, which consisted of escalloped potatoes, salads, sandwiches, pickles, cakes, coffee, peanuts and candy.

Mrs. Ernest Frank and son, Arthur of Plymouth, were guests of the school, as were also Mrs. Peter Furlong and Miss Maud Dennis of Cherry Hill, and William Rooke and Ila Rooke of the Free Church school. All departed at a late hour, after a most enjoyable afternoon.

AROUND ABOUT US

Morris Greedy, a life-long resident of South Lyon and vicinity, is dead at the age of 79 years.

The South Lyon Board of Commerce entertained the village officials at a banquet, last Tuesday evening.

Thomas S. Leith of Brighton, has been elected president of the Brighton Manufacturing Co., a new industry in that village.

A lodge of Improved Order of Redmen has been organized at Wayne, also the ladies' auxiliary of the organization, Pocahontas Lodge.

The annual hall of Orient Chapter, O. E. S., of Northville, will be given this Friday evening, February 19th, at the High school gym in that village.

The annual Farm Boys' Conference is to be held at Walled Lake at an early date this spring. The Walled Lake Junior Ag. Club will have charge of the local arrangements.

Dearborn again held the attention of the world, last Monday, when the first commercial air mail route was opened. New mail routes have been established between Dearborn and Chicago and Dearborn and Cleveland.

Pontiac parties are planning to erect a dance hall, restaurant and boat house at Oakley Park, Commerce Lake, in the spring. This building is to be a three-story affair on the lake shore, the dance hall on the third floor being on a level with the top of the bluff.

The Merchant-Farmers' banquet, an event eagerly welcomed each year by Howell's business men and their farm-guests, will be held in the Masonic dining rooms, under the auspices of the Howell Board of Commerce on Thursday evening, February 25th. C. W. Otts, manager of the Flint Board of Commerce, has been secured as the speaker of the evening.

The Packard Motor Car Co. of Detroit, has purchased a tract of 675 acres of land two miles south of Milford, lying along the old Milford plank road. It has not been definitely stated that the land is for a proving ground, but Packard representatives have intimated that it is for a purpose similar to that of the General Motors proving ground, near Milford.

The largest still ever found in Oakland county was located southeast of Lakeville, last week, after a barn had burned to the ground. The origin of the fire was found to have been caused by the still. An investigation of the premises led to the discovery that a thousand gallon still had been in operation for some time. A reserve tank under the straw stack, piped from the barn, exploded when the stack, not far from the burn caught fire. About 200 five-gallon cans, for the transportation of the moonshine, were also found. —South Lyon Herald.

At a joint meeting of the Wayne-Oakland and Wayne-Macomb superhighway commissioners and the Detroit Rapid Transit Commission at Detroit, recently, a road improvement project was decided upon that means much to this section. The Base Line road, known as the Eight Mile road, which divides Wayne county from Oakland and Macomb counties is to be made a superhighway 204 feet wide from Grand River road to Clarenceville two miles east of Farmington to its intersection with Vernier road in Macomb county, when its direction will deflect slightly to the south along that highway to Lake St. Clair. The Vernier road section is to be 120 feet wide. This improvement will prove a big factor in relieving Grand River avenue congestion.

Mrs. J. H. Cox of Norwalk, Ohio, was a visitor at the parsonage last week.

"A-FOOT THROUGH ASIA MINOR"

Dr. F. A. Lendrum is to begin Sunday evening a series of studies under the theme, "A-foot with Paul Through Asia Minor." A right understanding of the historical settings will add very materially in a right interpretation of the different epistles, so the studies will be of value to all interested in Sunday-school work or Bible teaching. "With Paul in Galatia" will be the theme for next Sunday night.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Last Sunday morning, there was a good attendance, and we were all pleased to welcome back our old friend and first missionary, Rev. Harry Midworth, Rector of the Church of Our Saviour, Detroit, who celebrated at the Holy Communion, assisted by Rev. Charles Wesley, Rev. Harry Midworth preached a very appropriate sermon, leaving with us a thought for each week in Lent.

The choir has made a good start, and is occupying its old place again. The solo, "Come Ye Discouraged," was very well rendered by Joseph Tracy and Mrs. Brink, with Miss Pierson at the organ. We want one or two more voices for the choir.

The Sunday-school was very well attended considering the number of absences through sickness. Lenten mite boxes were distributed, and these will be presented at the altar on Easter Day, as an offering to general mission work.

The Father and Son Banquet, given by the H-Y, has been pronounced as a great success, and the Ladies of St. John's who served the banquet to over three hundred fathers and sons, are to be congratulated.

The Ladies' Guild is having a special meeting this week, at the home of Mrs. George Wilcox, and the "Men of St. John's" Club will meet at the home of James Gallimore on Spring street.

Lenten services will be held in the church every Tuesday during Lent, with a special Detroit preacher for each week, and the last Tuesday in Lent, some of the choir from the Church of Our Saviour will be with us. Rev. Charles Wesley invites the community of Plymouth to take this opportunity of hearing the different preachers at the Lenten services.

A LECTURE IN PLYMOUTH BY THE I. B. S. A.

A world wide movement is being made by the I. B. S. A., to prove by holy writ that it is time for the Jewish nation to again prominently take their place among the nations of the world. That there is much in the prophecy of the bible along this line, all must admit.

Come and let us point out to you some of the most familiar scriptures along this line. Topic, "Palestine For The Jew, Why?" E. H. Nelson, speaker; 7:45 p. m.; Beyer's Hall, north village, February 21. No collection.

BAPTIST NOTES

The weather last Sunday was ideal, and every church in the village ought to have been full. The pastor's sermon was the third chapter of John and tenth verse, "Art thou a master of Israel and knowest not these things."
 The music was much appreciated at the morning service.

The superintendent of the Sunday-school called the boys and girls to the platform, and gave promotion certificates to those who graduated into higher classes.

Ira Kingsley led the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday evening. Subject, "The Psalms." Next Sunday evening, the president is to lead. The subject will be, "The Reformation."

Twenty-five or thirty boys and girls were having a good time, last Monday evening at the church, playing games and having a general good time in the basement. Boxes were sold with all kinds of valentine decorations on them. Everyone sat down to the many good lunches served from the baskets. The proceeds go for basket ball fund.

You will want one of the new blotters, to help you remember the time of church service. Come and get one next Sunday, and put it on your desk. A picture of the church is also on the blotter.

Yes! there is a better gas

If all oil refiners tried to make gasoline alike they couldn't do it. They start with different kinds of crude oil, they work in different ways. Some gasoline is better, the rest can't also be better.

Indian gasoline sold in this territory is made at one refinery—where HAVOLINE Oil is made at Lawrenceville, Ill.—from one grade of crude—piped in from the surrounding oil fields. Not everyone can get Indian. The big output is marketed in a few states only. It is a better gas—uniformly better—and you're lucky to be in the limited territory where it is sold.

Movement for New Era
Italy's Mazzinian league, which, despite the radicalism and republicanism of its namesake, is profane and promonarchical, has made an interesting proposal to Sig. Mussolini. It suggests that the premier summon from all parts of the world representatives of the Italian race, and from the Capitoline hill, the hearthstone of the ancient Roman empire, proclaim the "charter of the new era, the duties of man." The "rights of man," proclaimed by the French revolution, "was only half of what the modern world needs, according to the Mazzinians, and the French revolution, whose work was continued by Mazzini, has been completed and made perfect by the Fascist revolution. Discipline, obedience and absolute loyalty to the nation and the state are among the duties the league wishes to have proclaimed.

No "Lost" Continent in Central Pacific

"Lemuria," "Mu" and all other hypothetical vast land areas forming "lost" Pacific continents, like the lost Atlantis of ancient European imagination, receive no credence on the part of Dr. Francis Xavier Schaffer, noted geologist of Vienna, now traveling in the Pacific area and the Orient. Doctor Schaffer is backed up in his opinions also by the scientists at the Bernice P. Bishop museum at Honolulu.

Though no land areas of continental size ever existed in the Pacific, Doctor Schaffer stated, there are regions of movable zones where emergence and submergence are constantly in progress.
"Such a line," he said, "goes all around the Pacific and connects the Antarctic continent with the continents of the southern hemisphere. It is easy, too, to see that the northern continents may more than once have been connected by way of the Bering strait and by the rising of the relatively shallow sea bottom between Greenland and Europe."

Dr. Herbert E. Gregory, director of the Bishop museum, disagrees with the theory advanced by Dr. J. Macmillan Brown, chancellor of the University of New Zealand, who claims that the Pacific islands are the remnants of a once great empire that collapsed into the ocean in a series of cataclysms.

"Geological evidence," said Doctor Gregory, "gives no proof that there ever was a large area of land in the central Pacific. No rock has been found which could be considered part of an old continent. The only way that geologists will ever be able to make a real test of these theories will be by an extensive system of borings which must extend through the coral and the comparatively new levels of the islands, and also by a carefully planned sounding of the Pacific ocean."—Science Service Bulletin.

Big Men, Big Heads

Michael Arlen snubbed a critic at a ten in New York, and the critic said to his wife afterwards on the way home:

"Why shouldn't Arlen snub me? His two plays are drawing full houses, and all great men are vain. Look at Gibbon."

"Gibbon, you know, wrote in his diary: 'I am the greatest historian that ever lived. No one can equal me in this direction.'"

"Victor Hugo wrote to Bismarck: 'The giant greets the giant; the foe the foe; the friend the friend. I hate thee furiously because thou hast humbled France. I love thee because I am greater than thou art.'"

"And Wordsworth said of the Swan of Avon: 'There is an immensity of trick in all he wrote. If I had a mind I could write exactly like Shakespeare.'"

"No wonder, then, I was snubbed," the critic ended; "for if Gibbon and Hugo and Wordsworth were vain, what must be the vanity of a chap like Arlen, who makes more in a week than they did in a year?"

Mystery Fishes

There are mystery fishes in the southern seas, and the hunt on by Harry Payne Bingham of New York is to try to locate and capture some specimens, there being special interest in the Rhinodontypicus, of which one specimen was found a few years ago by Capt. Charles Thompson of Florida, but the specimen was sick and supplied only a part of the information scientists are anxious to secure.

The rhino is, so far as is known, an inhabitant of the Gulf stream. Its huge body is fashioned without a single bone, merely a great mass of many tons of muscle and tendon. The rhino captured and shown at the Smithsonian is the only one ever found, and it has a measurement of over 40 feet, was a fierce fighter and was not landed until after 19 hours of fighting after it was pierced by a huge harpoon.

The Modern Star

Booth Tarkington was praising a movie actress who had made a hit in one of his films.

"She's as witty and modest as she is beautiful," he said. "Some time ago a director offered her a splendid contract to play the star part in a film based on the Godiva legend. With her beauty she'd have made a perfect Godiva, and the salary the director offered her was fabulous."

"Well, she read the Godiva script and then she returned it to the director. Across the cover she had written: 'It is more than I can bare.'"

Test for Papas

Members of the American Legion at Enid, Okla., who are mostly bachelors, have tired of having members arriving late at meetings asking indulgence of the other members because they had to put the baby to bed. The post has invited all "proud papas" to the habit of arriving late to bring their offspring with them and demonstrate their skill as nursemaids, in order to get a meeting started on time. The idea is to make it a contest to ascertain who is the best trained father.

Air and Flowers

Besides a laugh there is also food for thought, and perhaps a tear in little Emma's first day in California. She came here from New York and as the train came in at night, saw little or nothing until she awakened early next morning and hurried out of doors. A few minutes later she came rushing back into the house crying: "Oh, mamma, come, look! look! Uncle John's back yard runs all around the house!"

English Woman's Success

INVITE HOME BUILDERS TO MARCH CONFERENCE

REALTORS TO DIRECT STATE-WIDE EDUCATIONAL MEET IN DETROIT: PLAN PRACTICAL STUDY.

Problems which must be solved before the cost of home building can be reduced, will be considered at an important builders' conference, to be held under the auspices of the Michigan Real Estate Association, March 17 and 18, in connection with the Detroit Builders' Show.

It is announced that real estate brokers and builders of Plymouth are invited to attend this conference and to participate in the discussions.

Speakers of prominence will trace steps in house building from preliminary financing plans, through the fields of material, construction and plumbing and including furnishing the completed home. Speakers are expected to urge standardization of building codes, as several manufacturers report that widely varying specifications keep costs at a high figure because they are required to handle many lines of materials. Possibility of standardizing plumbing is also to be discussed.

Men invited to speak before the Realtors and builders of Michigan include Mayor John W. Smith of Detroit; John J. McClatchey, Philadelphia builder; Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance Company; B. J. Dallerg, president of the Celotex company, Chicago. Many other speakers will complete the program.

G. A. Kelly of Flint, is chairman of the Michigan association committee in charge of this conference. Other members are Louis G. Palmer and George W. Miller of Detroit; L. B. Ayres, Lansing; and L. M. Coural, Grand Rapids.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM ATTRACTS REALTORS

C. OF M. COOPERATES WITH REALTY BODY FOR TWO-DAY CONFERENCE, FEB. 24 AND 25.

The two day educational program offered by the Practical Conference for Brokers and Subdividers to be held at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor, February 24 and 25 under joint auspices of the Michigan Real Estate Association and the School of Business Administration at the University, promises to be the most pretentious undertaking of its kind ever held in the state.

Though the conference is designed primarily for real estate brokers now engaged in business, the public will be permitted to join the program upon payment of a small registration fee, which will include admission to the informal banquet to be held on the evening of February 24.

The Realtors will be addressed by Dr. Clarence Cook Little, president of the university, at the noon luncheon, Feb. 25. On the afternoon of February 24, Dr. Edmund E. Day, dean of the business school, who is directing the short course, will speak on "Economic Factors Underlying Appraisals." Discussion will be led by Herman Wyngarden of the faculty of Michigan State College.

Harry T. Clough of Detroit, secretary of the Michigan Association and executive secretary of the Detroit Real Estate Board, will be guest of honor at the noon luncheon on the opening day. President Guy S. Greene of the state association, will preside.

Prominent real estate men from Michigan and from points outside the state will complete the interesting conference program.

Registration will be made at the Michigan Union on the opening day of conference, but Realtors in various parts of the state who will attend are notifying John A. Doelke, executive secretary, at his office in Lansing, so that arrangements may be made to properly accommodate the large number who will attend.

ACTIVITIES OF MICHIGAN REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION

The Michigan Real Estate Association finds pride in the knowledge that it stands in the forefront of state organizations in its appreciation of Michigan's potentialities and in support of those activities which contemplate fuller expression of her possibilities. The association believes that there should be developed adequate means for giving to Michigan the publicity she so richly merits and has suggested that the matter is of sufficient importance to justify financial encouragement of the state legislature as well as that provided by other means.

Two years ago there was organized a Selling Michigan to Wolverines campaign, in which five-minute speakers toured the principal cities of the state portraying the possibilities of Michigan's agriculture, industry, horticulture and resort and tourist business. Thousands of people heard these campaigns and were thrilled in appreciation of the greatness of the Michigan revealed to them. The Michigan Real Estate Association, by whom that campaign was inspired, believes a similar tour should be made annually. The importance of this effort lies in the fact that as Michigan people are aroused to a greater understanding of the heritages with which the state has been endowed, there will develop that love and loyalty toward the state which animates Californians and Floridians. Such a sentiment would mean much to Michigan.

Our resort and tourist business of today no more than hints its possibilities. Our rich fruit belts, rivaling beyond our borders. Our satisfied labor, unlimited power, splendid transportation and proximity to one-fifth the nation's population, justify industrial expansion such as Michigan never has known. The high productivity and moderate prices of our farm lands offer a double appeal for rural development. The story of these possibilities should be told throughout America, and to this task the Michigan Real Estate Association has dedicated its service. Again she says:

"Michigan! You hunger for publicity."

At least one out of every five bills introduced before the state legislature affects directly or indirectly the ownership, occupancy, exchange or development of real estate. Because of the number of such measures and because of the importance of many, the Michigan Real Estate Association finds it necessary to maintain a Liaison office during the legislative session. By this means the Association is able to follow with carefulness the progress of all bills pending to such the support or discouragement that seems proper. Members of the Association, generally speaking, are not extensive property owners, and their willingness to give the time and meet the expense incurred by legislative work is forceful evidence of their desire to serve as first friend of property owners. The real estate license law inspired by the association was an unusual example of a restrictive measure sought by those whom the measure would affect. The law was sought in the interest of the public, and it has done much to dignify the position of the real estate man and safeguard the interests of investors and sellers. Bills having to do with marketing, development, mortgage finance, zoning and taxation are characteristic of the type of legislation to which the association gives its attention. Most of these are of small consequence to the real estate broker and his interest is justified only by his desire to serve the property owner.

ELM ENTERTAINS ZONE B

When the local communities get the idea of education, as the people of the Elm school of Livonia Township, then there is a reason why everyone looks to Wayne County for its progressive-ness along that line. Evidence of the wide awake spirit and accomplishment of the former was observed by the teachers of Zone B, who were guests at a zone meeting at the Elm school, Saturday, February 13.

When the teachers of Zone B had assembled in the upper grade room at 10:00 a. m., Miss Cochrane, helping teacher, began an open discussion of the agriculture leaflet. In succession, each leaflet in the monthly envelope, respectively: Geography, Language, Reading, History, Better Speech and Seat Work, was discussed, and the teachers' problems on these subjects were talked over and solved.

After the leaflet on Reading had been looked over, that subject being particularly emphasized during the last month, Miss Fern Shepherd of the Cooper school, demonstrated what could be done in silent reading. Her lesson was very interesting, and the work of her pupils complimented.

Primary History will be the engrossing subject for the following month. Five great characters in the United States will be studied, namely: Thomas Edison, Abraham Lincoln, George Washington, Alexander Graham Bell, Helen Keller and Clara Barron. Miss Lorraine Cochrane taught a lesson to the boys and girls of the Elm school, on the life of Thomas Edison. Miss Cochrane's work and the ready responses of the children were greatly appreciated by the teachers who will take home to their pupils the enthusiasm and inspiration received from their helping teacher.

Mr. Fischer, Deputy School Commissioner, gave a short professional talk to the teachers before the business meeting of the forenoon closed.

At the noon hour, the guests were seated at prettily decorated tables, and served a most delightfully appetizing chicken dinner. Mr. Fischer, as toastmaster, called on the various celebrities who were in attendance. All the thoughts expressed were those of appreciation for the generous hospitality of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Elm school.

During the short business meeting which began at 2:00 o'clock, the roll call disclosed the fact that the teachers had a one hundred percent attendance, and the total attendance was sixty-two, the largest at any single zone meeting of the year. Miss Shepherd extended an invitation to the members of Zone B to hold the next meeting at the Cooper school, located on the Middle Belt and Ann Arbor roads, March 13. Everyone interested is invited to attend the afternoon meeting.

The program of the afternoon delighted everyone.

Miss Lois Corbett, Wayne County Home Demonstration Agent, aroused a great deal of interest by her talk on "Musical Appreciation." She played four records on the victrola, telling in a clever manner, the story of each musical production.

The pupils of the Elm school gave a delightful program which indicated their expressive originality and ability. One feature was a dramatization of the process of naturalization of an American citizen.

Professor Frey, Director of the History Department of Ypsilanti Normal College, told in his usual appealing manner, a number of history stories. All who heard him appreciate his great ability as a story teller and enjoyed his stories.

The following people were called on for short addresses: Miss Olive Gwin, Red Cross Social Service Worker; Mrs. Lois Barrington Sharpe, Wayne County Nurse; Dr. Sharpe, Miss Lucille Webster, President of Zone F, George Bentley of Elm School, and Miss Oliphant, Wayne County Children's Librarian.
