TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL ALUMNI BANQUET A SUCCESS

Two Hundred Fifty-Six Alumni and Friends Present at High School Building Last Friday Evening.

The twenty-seventh annual alumni reunion and banquet was held in the High school auditorium, last Friday evening, June 25th, at 6:30 o'clock.

HIGH SCHOOL REUNION

The annual reunion of the High school was held in the old school building at the corner of the Arley and Perrinville roads, Saturday, June 26th.

After the banquet, the president of the Alumni Association, Mrs. Zada McClungh-Chappel, presided at the fifteen-minute business meeting.

Perry Hix, president of the P. T. A., called the roll from last year's register, and many responded with short speeches and anecdotes of old school days.

Old songs were sung at the opening and closing, and it was voted to have the P. T. A. take charge of the reunion for next year.

President—Ruth E. Huston-Whipple. Vice President—Alta Fisher. 17. Sec'y-Treas.—Letha Rowland. 26.

Executive Committee—Fannie Spicer-Doerr. 37; Zalda Pinckney-Johnson. 63.

Dramatic Committee—Fern Kensler-Block. 19; Jack Taylor. 23; Clara Gayde-Alexander. 17.

Scholarship Fund Committee—Norma Baker-Cassady. 10; Robert Jolliffe. 06; Floyd Kehrl. 21.

Following the business meeting a short program was given, with Louis Gottschalk, '91, of Detroit, as toastmaster. A violin solo was very beautifully played by Daniel Patterson, '23.

Next year's reunion will be the last Saturday in June, and it is hoped that all will make plans now and look forward to a pleasant time with old friends next year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stafford of Farmington and formerly of Plymouth, who was present at the reunion, taught in the High school in 1862.

A piano recital by pupils of Miss Corinna Penney, Mus. Bac., assisted by Daniel Patterson, violinist, was given at the M. E. Community Hall, Wednesday evening, June 30th.

The program was ended by a twelve-minute sketch, entitled, "40 Years Ago," which was written by Ruth E. Huston-Whipple, '13, and directed by Fern Kensler-Block, '19.

The evening was concluded with dancing from 10:00 to 11:00, for those who wished to dance and with visiting for the others. The occasion was a very happy one, long to be remembered by all who were present to enjoy it.

Work was started last week on the construction of a spur track from the Michigan Central railroad at Wliards to the site of the new Ford dam and proposed textile mill on the Huron river, southeast of Ypsilanti.

The grading on this project was completed last year and the receipts of large quantities of rails, ties and other construction material has added strength to the rumor that work on the new Ford unit on the Huron will start soon after the completion of the side track.

Statements issued last fall by the Ford interests stated that a three million dollar textile mill was to be erected on a site near the new dam, the cloth to be used in the company's enclosed cars.

A letter from Fanny Ableson Briggs of Sallie, was read, expressing regret at her inability to be present; also a telegram of regret from Ira Hough of New York City.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stewart, 13122 Wark avenue, Detroit, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday evening, June 19th.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin black ermine, trimmed in pearl and silver beads.

After an informal reception, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for a two weeks' motor trip through the east.

The bride commenced her educational career in the kindergarten of Plymouth school, and went through four grades here.

There is a fine new greenhouse being built by R. Metford. Mr. Metford had twelve years' experience in the greenhouse business when he lived in Redford, growing vegetables and potted plants.

Why We Celebrate

As time is measured, 150 years is but a span, and yet just 150 years ago on the Fourth of July there was born a nation destined to lead the world.

There was not a republic on either hemisphere 150 years ago; there was not a country in the world that assured its citizens freedom of speech, a right to a voice in making the laws that govern them or the permission to worship according to the dictates of their own conscience.

Today we approach the anniversary of the signing of that declaration of independence. Plymouth comes again with her sister towns and cities in this great sisterhood of states to celebrate in a fitting manner the signing of the document that created a nation of free people, home-loving people, God-fearing people, a people proud of their nation and proud of those who made such a nation possible.

In a full page advertisement in today's Mail, Earl S. Mastick, local dealer for Dodge Bros. Motor cars and Graham Bros. trucks, announces the opening of his new sales and service in the new Palmer garage at the corner of Golden road and South Main street.

On Saturday, the formal opening of the new garage will take place. A display of the several models of Dodge Bros. cars and Graham Bros. trucks will be one of the features of the opening. Souvenirs will be given out to both the ladies and gentlemen, and the people of Plymouth and surrounding country are invited to call and inspect the building at this time.

The new building is owned by Frank Palmer, is of brick and steel construction, and is 50x90 feet in size. The front part of the building is given over to the salesroom, which has a floor space of 30x36 feet; also the business office and lavatories for both ladies and gentlemen. CANNING TIME

It's true that we can buy most everything to eat from our milk to our meat, in cans, and possibly from the standpoint of the new bride, who was too busy love-making to learn how to cook, canned goods are a blessing. But ask the Plymouth housewife who has been married long enough for the novelty to wear off, and she'll tell you that one great American art that is never going to be lost is the art of home-canning.

She will have any number of arguments in favor of not letting it die out, too, and one of them will be that no matter how big commercial canning plants may be, how many people they employ or how fine the quality of fruits and vegetables they use, "it never tastes like home-canned stuff." And as a general rule the family will side in with her. Then, too, she will explain that by using the products of her own fruit trees and garden, she can save money by doing her own canning. And, finally, she will convince you that she is a believer in preparedness, and that by having a closet well-stocked with home-grown goodies to be used during the long winter days, she will always be prepared should company drop in unexpectedly.

These are only a few reasons why the home-canning custom is kept alive, and they are good ones, too. So good, in fact, that the girl who wants to be sure of pleasing a husband and making a good housekeeper should now that another canning season is here set about learning how it is done.

THE PEDDLER AGAIN

Plymouth is one of the best towns in this state, and one of the best smaller towns in the United States. Her merchants are aggressive, honorable men, whose promises can be accepted at par. Their stocks of merchandise are well assorted and ample to meet the requirements of the town and surrounding community. We venture the assertion that practically every article needed in the home or on the farm can be found right here in our home stores and bought as low as it is priced elsewhere.

Our merchants are without exception always ready with their time and money to do anything that will make this a better community in which to live and raise a family. All of which brings us to this point: This country is now flooded with peddlers, selling everything from patent collar buttons and new-fangled sleeve supporters to kitchen ranges and traction engines. Some of it is standard merchandise—most of it is not. But whether it is or not, the fact remains that the most expensive merchandise in the long run is that sold from door to door; that the cheapest and most satisfactory is that you get through regular channels and with the guarantee of a dealer you know. The automobile has brought several things that are not for the best interest of our smaller towns, regardless of the blessings that have come with it. One of the things it has brought that isn't going to be of any benefit to us is the "auto hobo." And another is the house-to-house peddler.

HOW MUCH HERE?

In a report published by a New York bank, we read this remarkable statement: "The annual loss from stock swindling in the United States is estimated at not a cent less than one billion dollars a year." And we are wondering what per cent of that loss falls each year on citizens of Plymouth and neighboring territory. More than one local citizen knows from the number of tempting circulars and booklets sent him through the mails that he is on the "rucker list" of some of these cohorts that the government has not yet succeeded in driving out of business. But the wise man either drops these tempting offers in the waste basket, or if there appears to be something of merit in them, takes the offer to a banker, who is always glad to give advice concerning them, fairly and frankly. It may be that the sharks will collect another billion dollars this year, we don't know. But they won't get very much from the fellow who seeks the advice of a banker before investing his money.

RAISING OUR MINDS

Folks around Plymouth who have frequently wondered if there is danger in using a radio set while lightning and thunderstorms are in progress will be interested in a statement just issued by the engineers of the United States Underwriters Laboratory. "Lightning is hard to check," say the engineers, "but more people are lightning struck out under trees than any other way. One might, indeed, be a target at the end of a properly insulated radio set, but no more so than at the keyboard of a piano, or with knife and fork in hand at the dinner table, or patting the keys of a typewriter."

These men have only given out their statement after long and careful tests and experiments, and it will probably bring a satisfactory sigh of relief to every radio owner in the United States.

MUNICIPAL NOTES

BY THE MANAGER

The Thomas Nolan Company has finished the sewer laying on their contract. They still have a lot of clean up and inspection work to do.

The Bluhm & Dickinson Company have made better progress lately on Harvey street. The ground has been much more in their favor.

The A. R. Crowe Company is nearly through with the sewage disposal plant. The fence is complete around the luffoff tank. One line of pipe is to be dug up and the joints relayed to make them right. This contract is well worth one's time to visit.

John Gray painted our flag pole in Kellogg Park, and placed new balliards. The General Machine & Iron Works will repair the lower joint in this pole to correct the looseness which has developed there.

We have new ordinances being polished up which will give us better control of our village dump, the parks and other village property.

We wish people would be considerate this season with respect to some of our streets. The sewers have left the roadways so that it will require a number of gradings before they will stay in shape. Also they will be extra dusty, for some of the finer material from the sewer trenches has been left on the surface. We have road oil coming in August, sufficient to give all our streets a light coat, as in years past. The only relief we can give until then is from what small quantities of waste oil we can collect from the garages and service stations.

Part of the water main material contracted for at the last commission meeting is here. It is expected that the 6-inch water main is shipped.

The fire chief is giving all our fire hydrants the once over, greasing up the cap threads and painting them all.

LESS RAIN THAN USUAL LOWERS LEVEL OF LAKES.

The persistent lowering of the water levels in the Great Lakes during recent years has caused wide discussion both in the United States and Canada, and has been under congressional investigation, as well as the subject of international correspondence.

The weather bureau of the United States department of agriculture has just completed a compilation, which throws some light on this question, since it gives the amount of rainfall and snowfall in the basin of the Great Lakes for the 50-year period ending with 1924.

Broadly speaking, this study shows that the removal of the forest, the drainage of swamps, and the cultivation of the soil have no measurable effect upon the precipitation and consequently upon lake levels. There have been, however, pronounced variations in respect to rainfall during individual years; for example, heavy rains during the ten years from 1877-1884 reflected in high water in Superior in 1876, and in Huron and Michigan in 1885-1886. Moderate, but diminished precipitation from 1885 to 1916 is shown in lower lake levels, and, finally, there have been nine years of rains much lighter than usual, from 1917 to date, seen in the result of very decided lowering of the water levels of the Lakes. Past records of rainfall indicate that after a prolonged period of deficient rainfall, normal rains or rain in excess of normal may be expected to prevail.

CONCERNING THE USE OF COMMERCIAL PLATES

We are asked by Alan G. Straight, commissioner of Public Safety, to publish the following: Act 302 of the Public Acts of 1915 as amended by the Legislature in 1925, which defines "commercial vehicle" as all motor vehicles used for the transportation of passengers for hire and those constructed or used for the transportation of goods, wares or merchandise, might be interpreted as prohibiting the use of pleasure cars for hauling small amounts of grain or produce to town or the hauling of sample cases, camp equipment, etc. However, this Department does not place that interpretation on the law. We believe that a farmer or any other citizen has the right to use his pleasure car for the hauling of his own produce to town or for hauling other articles of merchandise for himself, without being compelled to purchase a Commercial License for the car. We believe that the Legislature intended this particular section to apply only to those vehicles used or constructed solely for the purpose of hauling passengers for hire or for hauling freight. This Department will not make any arrests for alleged violations of this section of the law where a pleasure vehicle may be used to haul produce or personal goods by the owner.

To Tax Feet

After a fixed date all Chinese women under thirty whose feet are still bound will be taxed a sum equal to three dollars a month. This is an effort on the part of two Chinese militarists, not only to add to the country's revenue but to abolish a vicious custom which has persisted from time immemorial in China, in spite of many comparatively modern attempts to create feeling against it, and so in time to do away with it.

Legend has it that the custom started in early times to prevent women from running away to seek adventures. It has recently been estimated that there are still 70,000,000 pairs of deformed feet in China, and that in the coming generation there will probably be more.

Seek Lost Malay Kingdom

The "lost Malay Kingdom" is thought to have existed in the island of Jolo, which is the southernmost of the Philippine group. Leading Filipinos are planning an expedition there to uncover, if possible, any records of the old kingdom, which is believed to have existed about 1750. The accounts of the "Malay kingdom" are disbelieved in some high places, and for this reason the expedition has been proposed. There is no particular question that Malays lived there, but the existence of the "kingdom" is doubted.

U. OF D. WILL STAGE GREAT HISTORY SHOW

Pageant of "1776" Will Reproduce Stirring Scenes of Revolution.

The pageant of "1776", which is being produced by the University of Detroit Alumni Association, will open in Detroit July 3 at the University of Detroit Stadium, Livernois avenue at Six Mile Road. Those who are seeking theatrical entertainment appropriate to the significance of the Fourth of July holidays will find the pageant is what they are looking for.

Vividly and accurately, "1776" commemorates the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in pantomime, fireworks and vaudeville. The University of Detroit has purchased nine six-cylinder automobiles, completely equipped, one of which will be given away every night to holders of lucky ticket stubs.

Patriotic, Educational.
The story of the early struggles of our forefathers for the liberty which is now our national heritage is told in "1776". Many of the most stirring climaxes, such as the Boston Tea Party, the Ride of Paul Revere, the Signing of the Declaration of Independence and the Battle of Yorktown will be reproduced in real life, presenting not only one of the greatest spectacles but also one of the most inspiring presentations ever offered. This gigantic spectacle is the greatest historical masterpiece ever presented in pageant form and will be given in glowing sets of fire with 1000 people taking part, 15 acts interspersed throughout the intermission and $40,000 being expended in fireworks.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear son, Junior Bell, who departed this life three years ago, July 3:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
There is a longing in Junior
Only could come home.
Friends may think that we've forgotten
When at times they see us smile,
But little do they know the heartache
That lies behind that smile.
Parents and Sister.

OBITUARY

Dorothy Jean Caldwell was born in Constantine, Michigan, July 30, 1907, and died in Albion on the 21st of June, 1926. Dorothy had been attending Albion College and, while she was only in her Freshman year, she made a record both in scholarship and friendliness, which endeared her to her instructors and the student body. It is seldom that one so young was as thoughtful of others. Modest and unassuming, she brightened the way of all who met her, for she faced life with a smile, and we know that Heaven must be more perfect because she is there.

The guiding principle of her life may be expressed in the following verses, which she wrote shortly before her death:

FOR TODAY

I want to be a friend today
To all whom I may meet:
I want to have a cheery smile
For those along life's street;
And if there's one in need of me,
I want to give him sympathy.
I want the willingness to help,
With tasks that don't appeal;
To smile and hold my temper so
When day is done, I'll feel
That tho' my heart is very sad,
I've made a lot of people glad.
I want to be a loyal friend—
A true friend—for today;
To let no falsehoods from my lips
Mar anything I say;
To speak no ill of anyone,
To know I'm true when day is done.

BASE BALL NEWS

DEHOCCO CLUB VS. POLICE DEPARTMENT.

The Police Department, No. 9, of Detroit, journeyed to the Dehoco Club grounds last Saturday, and met the same fate as befell Departments Nos. 7 and 10 previously. If the police of Detroit have a better team in reserve, the Farmers would welcome them. In the third with two singles, one base on balls and one error, the "Cops" scored three runs. They really thought they had the game won, and they would have had the Dehoco boys continued playing ball as they were at the time. There is no question but the Dehoco Club would have gotten a very good and deserved beating had they not successfully fought out the "Cops" assault. But after the third, the Dehocotes settled down and played the brand of ball they are capable of. Rowland pitched a good game, striking out twelve men and passing but two.

DEHOCCO CLUB VS. INDEPENDENT ORDER OF FORESTERS

The fans who saw the game between the Dehoco Club and the Independent Order of Foresters, last Sunday, at the Detroit House of Correction Farm Grounds, saw something they will probably wait a long time to see again. That was a no-hit, nine-inning game pitched by Constan. There should have been but one man to reach first and that was Link, who was passed by Constan in the fifth after two were out. He was permitted to steal both second and third, and then scored on Denniston's error, when he dropped Jaska's throw to get Hallo. The I. O. F. team must be given credit for playing a good game back of poor pitching. The Farmer boys were hitting the ball hard and often. The I. O. F. team made three errors to enlarge the Dehoco score. Knox, in center field, was credited with five put-outs and Hallo in left with two. Bathey and Denniston each connected with one of Dolan's books for a home run and Perry poled out a triple. In all, a total of fifteen hits and fourteen runs were made off Dolan and Sanford. The Foresters made one run on a walk, two stolen bases and an error.

Rowland and Constan both are looking good and going fine as the results of the last five or six games will show. The Farmers are playing back of them, and from now on the fans will see some fine games played. The Dehoco Club boys are priming their guns for the Firemen on July 5th, the team that annihilated them earlier in the season, and we are betting on the Dehoco Club to win the coming battle.

A "Correct" Likeness of Washington

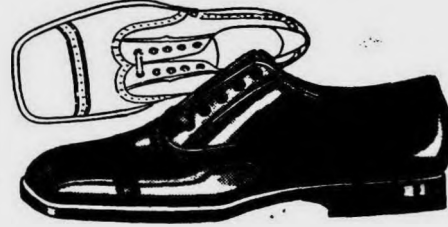

This heroic statue of the commander-in-chief of the first armies of the United States was made for the city of Portland, Oregon, though not yet delivered there by the artist. The western municipality has loaned it to the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 and continuing until December 1, to celebrate 150 years of American independence. At the foot of the sculpture is shown Pompeo Coppini, the sculptor. Dr. Henry Waldo Poe, of Portland, declares the face to be the most correct likeness of Washington ever modeled.

LIVESTOCK EXHIBITS WILL BE PARAMOUNT AT WASHTENAW COUNTY FAIR.

Washtenaw Fair live stock superintendents, exhibitors and county breeders association officers are endeavoring to make the live stock exhibit the outstanding feature of Washtenaw's Greatest Fair—August 31 to September 4.

In addition to the more common breeds of cattle, namely Shorthorns, Holstein-Friesian, Jersey, Brown Swiss, Guernsey and Herefords; the display this year will include representatives of the Ayrshire, Aberdeen Angus and Dutch Belted breeds. This will be the first time in the history of Washtenaw Fair that Aberdeen Angus and Dutch Belted have been included. (Aberdeen Angus is one of the leading beef breeds and Dutch Belted a dairy breed quite rare in Michigan).

Of special interest to Guernsey breeders and fanciers will be "Old Jille," a nineteen (19) year old cow owned and exhibited by E. O. Outwater of Lima township. This cow has raised seventeen (17) calves and in her third year of the Cow Test Association work just completed produced 8066 pounds of milk and 353 pounds of butter fat and gave a profit over feed of $142.80.

Exhibits in horse, swine and sheep classes will be exceptionally high standard. A large number of exhibiors are planning to take their stock directly from Washtenaw Fair to the Michigan State Fair. Several draft team exhibitors intend entering their horses in team pulling contest, Saturday, September 4th.

Judges who will officiate are as follows: Horses—Dr. A. T. Cornell, Traverse City; Beef Cattle—Professor J. W. Edwards, Michigan State College; Dairy Cattle—G. E. Taylor, Michigan State College; Sheep—Verne Freeman, Michigan State College; Swine—J. W. Edwards, Michigan State College.

The above are all competent men and all exhibitors are assured fair and courteous treatment.

GROWERS WARNED TO THIN PEACH CROP.

With prospects of the largest peach crop since 1922 confronting them, Michigan fruit growers are being warned to thin their crop this year.

Only large, well graded and well packed fruit sells to advantage when the market is well supplied, according to H. D. Hootman, extension specialist at the Michigan State College. Federal forecasts place this year's peach crop at 12,000,000 bushels more than that of 1925. Therefore, the advice to thin this season.

"Peaches should be thinned following the 'June Drop' and before the pits harden," says Mr. Hootman. "The old rule of thinning peaches, leaving them six inches apart on the individual branches, is a good one. However, each tree is a problem in itself and the rule of a six inch distance between fruits must be adapted to fit individual cases.

"In the light of present prospects, Michigan fruit growers cannot afford to grow small peaches; neither can they afford to weaken their trees by over production."

Unexplored Canada

Seventy-five per cent of Canada has not yet been seen by white men, according to R. H. Knight of Ottawa, president of the Association of Dominion Land Surveyors, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. He pointed out that travel is confined to the known routes and few persons ever visit the uninhabited regions that lie beyond. Only a small portion of the country has been mapped, Mr. Knight said.

From surveys made last year, it was discovered that the province of Ontario has about 1,500 square miles more territory than was previously estimated. During an exploratory trip in the northwest section of Canada, never before visited by white men, a series of lakes, 200 miles long, were discovered. It was also found that parts of the province of Quebec had sunk.

LOVE MATCHES NOT UNCOMMON IN EAST

Occident Has No Monopoly of Romance.

Western women often pity the oriental for her enforced seclusion and her lack of liberty; above all for the husband who is forced upon her by her parents. And yet love matches are by no means unknown in the East, according to Dorothy Buck, writing in the Buffalo Express.

Mokhtar-ben Renchid-ben-Mansour, a young merchant of my acquaintance, was a much-sought-after young bachelor of Tunis, but proved adamant until some one smuggled to him a snapshot of the daughter of a kaid.

He instantly fell madly in love with it and the women of his family hastened to call on her and bring back reports.

"It is all a mistake," said a spiteful feminine cousin. "She is no more like that photograph than I am. She has a distinct cast in one eye, and limps."

"She is lovely," said his sister, "and appeared interested in thee! They say she is very sweet tempered."

"She has no dowry," said his mother, "and is almost betrothed to her cousin. I do not think it is worth while upsetting the affair."

The unhappy young man did not know what to think, but eventually got engaged, and remained in a torture of doubt until his wedding day, when he found that his bride was all and more than he expected. Theirs is an ideal marriage, though unblessed by those sons that are supposed to be essential to happiness.

Such romantic matches as this are by no means infrequent, and are usually successful, perhaps because beauty, placidity, and affection are all that a Mussulman asks of his wife. But I know of other matches still more romantic, whose beginning lay in a childhood's friendship, necessarily broken by the seclusion of the little girl at the ordained moment, and whose fruition came in an early marriage.

Under the law of Islam a man is not only permitted but urged to divorce a childless wife, and this brings about many tragedies—for the childless wife is often the best loved.

There have been instances when family pressure has forced an Arab either to divorce his wife or to take another, and the result has been a tragic love-pact. The two, rather than be separated, have been found dead in each other's arms.

Steam Power Old Idea

No great invention ever was the work of one mind, they will tell you at the patent office. Everybody supposes that Watts invented the steam engine in 1782, but history records the first steam engine was operated in Egypt 224 years before Christ, and that the inventor was a Mr. Hero of Alexandria and not Mr. Watts.

Hero wrote knowingly of the expansive forces of steam, described the cylinder, piston, and slide valves; built his own stationary engine and used it for raising water. There are records of improvements on Hero's design, or of other steam engines, in 1601 and 1620 in Italy, and 1638, 1680 and 1712 in England and France. It is just like the discovery of America, Columbus gets the credit but the Norsemen and others beat him to it—Capper's Weekly.

Try This One at Home

A feature of a modern school building is a shower room. In one Indianapolis grade school the boys were permitted to take shower baths on certain mornings during the week if they provided their own towels.

One morning after the shower period two boys reported to the principal and she noticed that they had no bundles that might contain towels. Thinking the used towels had been left loose in the shower room, she inquired, "Boys, where are your towels?"

The boys looked at each other, hesitated, and finally one said, "Well, we both forgot our towels this morning, so after we had our baths lazy chased me around until I got dry, and then I chased him around until he got dry."

Cancer Cure Scooped At

Medicinal cure for cancer is not a problem that originated in recent years, as is attested in a letter that came to light in the catalogue of the library of Dr. George C. F. Williams of Hartford.

One of the items to be offered is the written advice of Dr. Benjamin Rush of Philadelphia, a leader of his profession, to Dr. Josephus B. Stuart, who seems to have thought he had a cure and sought high professional support for his opinion. He was advised to let the cure alone, on the ground that if it did any good Stuart would get little benefit, and he would be blamed for all the failures. The letter is dated May 24, 1810.

Popular Christian Names

The ten most popular names in America, according to Simon Newton, who compiled them from telephone and city directories, are John, William, James, Charles, George, Thomas, Henry, Robert, Joseph and Edward. In an average list of 100,000 names, John appears 8,280 times; William, 7,611; James, 4,258; Charles, 4,253; George, 4,171; Thomas, 2,710; Henry, 2,308; Robert, 2,308; Joseph, 2,268; and Edward, 1,897 times. Names of average popularity are Leonard, Nathan and Norman, which range as numbers 65, 66 and 67, respectively, on Newton's list.

OLD CHURCH BELL MADE BY REVERE

In Historic Sacred Edifice in Massachusetts.

On a hill in West Barnstable, Mass., overlooking the broad sweep of marshes and lowlands toward Barnstable harbor, stands the old white Congregational church, says the Boston Globe. It is contended that this society is one of the oldest religious organizations in the United States, having been formed in Southwark, England, in 1618. Rev. Henry Jacob was the organizer of the society, and in October, 1639, members of the little Southwark flock emigrated to the United States, where they settled at Great Marshes, later called Barnstable.

The old church, which has attracted the attention of hundreds of summer visitors, was built in 1717. It was remodeled recently. During its history it has had 22 pastors. The present pastor is Rev. F. D. George of Centerville.

Today the interior of the church bears small resemblance to the original. But the old framework, the solid-hewn timbers, can still be seen in the attic. The bell in the steeple bears in large letters the name "Revere." The old records show that it was sold to the town in 1807 by Paul Revere. It is believed to be one of the few Revere bells in existence.

Of the gilded cock on the steeple the records say that it was made in England and was first placed on the steeple of the church in 1723. Of the pastoral succession of the church it is written: "Rev. Henry Jacob, who in 1618 organized in Southwark the first Congregational church, resigned his pastorage in 1624 and emigrated to Virginia where he shortly afterward died. He was succeeded as pastor of the Southwark church by Rev. John Lothrop, who had recently withdrawn from the established church."

"With diligent wisdom and careful foresight he shepherded the little flock through eight difficult years, and at the end of which time, in April, 1632, while they were gathered in worship in the house of Mr. Humphrey Barnet, a brewer's clerk in Blackfretars, Tomlinson, an agent of Blackfretars, made a raid upon their secret sanctuary and arrested 42 of the worshippers, while 18 escaped. They were released except Mr. Lothrop, who was held for two years. His wife died during his imprisonment. His children became beggars but afterward received help from the bishop at Lambeth."

"Mr. Lothrop by a decree of April, 1634, was released on condition that he leave the country. Consequently he landed with the other members of the persecuted flock, from the ship Griffin, in Boston, on September 18, 1634, and soon proceeded with them to Scituate, where they tarried for a few years. In October, 1639, having moved again, they arrived at Great Marshes which soon was called Barnstable."

Bleak Northern Country

Lapland is in Arctic northwestern Europe, a bleak region on the Arctic ocean. It is so far north that for two months in the summer there is continuous daylight, and likewise in winter there is unbroken darkness for two months. Lapland, politically, is a part of three different countries, Norway, Sweden and Russia. The southern boundary is somewhat indefinite, but Lapland's 130,000 square miles consists of the Norwegian provinces of Nordland, Tromsø and Finnmarken; part of Sweden's province of Norrland and all of Norrbotten; northern Finland and the Kola peninsula, which belong to Russia. The inhabitants number about 25,000, and are the smallest race in Europe, their stature averaging less than five feet.—Kansas City Star.

The Dog Star

The dog star is a gigantic body, vastly bigger than our own sun, and so distant from us that its rays need over eight and a half years for their journey earthwards. Those that started in October, 1917, will not reach us until this year.

If our earth were one of its planets, the mid-winter days would be more glaring than those of our present summer. We know that one world circles round Sirius, for large telescopes disclose a huge globe which moves round it as we move round the sun.—Exchange.

Power From Straw

The South Australian director of chemistry recently emphasized the possibilities of manufacturing power alcohol from straw.

In a test, he said, one ton had yielded 60 gallons, but a much higher return was likely if a company were formed to establish the industry on a permanent commercial basis.

Though straw is wasted in South Australia for the manufacture of sufficient alcohol to take the place of all the petrol imported.

Aster and Preacher

Winthrop Ames at the Federal Council of Churches' dinner told a story about a sermon.

"A great actor," he began, "said to a great preacher one Sunday morning:

"Well, sir, your sermon—it was brief."

"I am very glad to hear that," said the preacher. "I was afraid I might have been tedious."

"Oh, but," said the actor, "you were tedious."

Today's Reflections

Before they can carry an election a good many candidates first have to learn how to carry water on both shoulders.

After a Plymouth man has done a whole lot of it he doesn't care whether you call it "perspiration" or just plain sweat.

Statistics show that married men live longer than single ones, but they also have to pay taxes longer.

A government report says the average size of an American family is 4.9. Every Plymouth father knows who that nine-tenths is.

An insurance expert says girls of today are taller than those of former years, which may explain why some skirts seem so short.

It is estimated it costs $6,761 to rear a girl until she is 18, and $6,801 to bring up a boy. The difference represents about four trips to the hairdresser.

The average Plymouth man's life is now divided between worry over two tubes—radio and inner.

Well, it also happened that when people were more easily shocked they were also more easily fooled.

Now that the North Pole has been discovered again, why doesn't someone discover an airless automobile tire?

The rooster that thought the sun came up in response to his crowing wasn't any more foolish than the fellows who think the world comes up in response to their "blowing."

You can't be sure of a Plymouth girl's sweet disposition unless she maintains it while helping mother with the dishes.

No matter how cheap political talk may be, the candidate who says the wrong word at the wrong time usually finds it pretty costly.

Nothing makes a Plymouth boy madder than to be kept after school just because his father happened to work the arithmetic problem wrong.

Business may be getting back to normal, but the cotton stocking factories will never be working over-time any more.

NEW SUBMARINE CABLE CONNECTS ST. IGNACE AND MACKINAC ISLAND.

Sixty-four and a half tons of especially made submarine telephone cable will be laid, during this week, connecting St. Ignace with Mackinac Island—almost four miles away—so members of the 100 families residing on the island the year around and the tens of thousands of tourists who visit that historic spot each season might have vocal communication with the outside world when and as they want it.

This cable will replace that laid in 1899, which was badly damaged by the dragging anchor of a lake freighter which was forced to anchor during a severe storm. The old cable was broken about 200 feet from the shore of Mackinac Island and, because of ice, storm and cold, it was impossible to make permanent repairs. However, temporary repairs were made, the men working on scows and in the most extreme weather, so the island people had communication with the mainland throughout the winter.

The new cable will contain 18 circuits for use for toll or long distance purposes, connecting the very efficient local exchange with the 17,000,000 other telephones of the Bell System in this country and Canada and another island, far-away Cuba, also reached by submarine. It is anticipated by telephone engineers that the new cable to be laid this week will be sufficiently large to handle increasing business until 1943. A very large volume of messages is handled from the island each year.

The placing of the cable will be a spectacular piece of work and one of great importance to the people of the state as well as to tourists and travelers. Plant men of the Michigan Bell Telephone company's northern division which embraces all of the Upper Peninsula, will place the cable, with D. I. Dixon of Menominee, division plant superintendent, and Lyman Green of Menominee, division construction superintendent, in charge. The cable, which was manufactured in the Hawthorne plant of the Western Electric company, has been shipped to St. Ignace, where it is being coiled on a large barge in figure "8" form, loop upon loop, so it will readily slip off into the water as the boat is towed across the Straits of Mackinac.

At Mackinac Island, the cable will land at the foot of Market street, from where it will go into aerial cable leading to the central office of Mackinac Island City. At St. Ignace, 21,500 feet distant, the submarine circuits also will connect with the central office by aerial cable and from there by open wire and cable and submarine cable circuits to other points. The greater volume of messages from the island will, of course, pass through two cables, the new one to be laid this week and the larger cable extending from St. Ignace to Mackinac City, in the southern peninsula, which connects the two peninsulas of the state and was laid in 1918.

Church Being Re-decorated

BAPTIST NOTES

The morning sermon was taken from Gal. 6:7, "Sowing and Reaping." The flowers last Sunday were beautiful and made the room cheerful.

In the evening service the pastor used the text, Romans 8:2, three laws in the verse, the first destroying, the other two taking away their power.

B. Y. P. U. was led by the president, Stillman Warner, the topic being "The Making of the Bible." Elbert Seger is to lead next Sunday evening.

The society had a weenie roast last Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Altenbaugh, two miles south on Mill street.

The plan is to have several picnics during the summer months, as we did last summer. The superintendent of the Sunday-school is to announce next Sunday the afternoon we will go to one of the parks or tourist camp for picnic supper.

If you haven't filled out your card in the every member canvass, do so at once, and ask Mr. Grainger for envelopes for your offering.

Revising Ancient Avignon

After Avignon became part of France, during the first French revolution, it was the scene of many horrible massacres and retaliatory massacres. In 1822 degradation may be said to have been complete, for the Palais des Papes itself was turned into a barracks, and served this use for nearly a hundred years. Since 1906 a serious attempt at restoration has been going on. Recently the palace was opened as a museum, to which interesting objects are being added regularly. The first collection to be started for it was a series of effigies of the popes. Copies were made of those on their tombs and brought to the new museum, several being presented by M. Colomb, conservator of the palace for the past seventeen years. Others have been given by the French government, by Czechoslovakia and by M. Theunis, ex-premier of Belgium.

Billions in Other Worlds

In the vast universe in which the earth is a mere atom there are perhaps 60,000,000,000,000,000,000 people. At least that is what the figures of Prof. Frederick H. Seares of the Mount Wilson observatory indicate. For he has counted 30,000,000,000 stars, each of which has at least one attending world. Allowing 2,000,000,000 people—the estimated population of the earth—for each of the worlds, he arrives at the staggering total above.

Venerable Artists' Model

One of the busiest and most capable artists' models in Italy today is a man more than eighty years old. He lives in Rome, and is considered by native and visiting painters and sculptors as the model par excellence.

Old German City Sinking

Oelenitz is sinking and not one house in this ancient town in Saxony remains perpendicular. It is believed that new subterranean streams are undermining the entire section and that it is only a matter of time until all buildings must be abandoned. Whole blocks have dropped about ten feet, the cellars immediately filling with water. Other buildings are five feet out of plumb, making them resemble miniature Pisa towers. Geologists have gone to Oelenitz to investigate the causes with the view of finding methods of draining the hidden streams should the trouble come from that source.

Court Bars Short Gowns

Skirts must fall within six inches of the ground at the conservative Swedish court. In fact, all the ladies who are actually attached to the court wear black gowns with trains three yards long on official occasions. The sleeves to these official gowns are short and of white satin. Foreign women appearing at the Swedish court may wear any color they prefer, but their gowns are supposed to fall down on the ankles.

Dust Fires

No record of a spontaneous dust explosion has ever been obtained, says a report made by the American Chemical society. A spark, flame or other source of fire must be present to ignite the dust.

In the last year $3,000,000 worth of property was destroyed, 45 lives were lost and 28 people were injured by explosions of dust and fires resulting from them.

Knew What He Wished

The making of doll houses was a part of the daily program for a week at the Riverside kindergarten. The boys and girls were greatly interested in the project, and seemed anxious to have every detail true to life.

One five-year-old completed his house and came to his teacher with the request:

"Please make a 'Measles' sign for my house."—Indianapolis News.

Says Rudyard Kipling

"Made" Modern Soldier

Rudyard Kipling was at Simla for brief periods of leave during the middle eighties. He was then sub-editor of the Civil and Military Gazette of Lahore. His "Plain Tales From the Hills" used to appear on the front page of that newspaper, over the initials "R. K."

We thought he was never in Simla long enough at a time to get the intimate knowledge of the social atmosphere which his writings portrayed. And we concluded, rightly or wrongly, that he was greatly helped in this respect by his clever little sister, who spent several seasons running at Simla.

It was she, I think, who told us that her brother used to walk down the road to Jutogh, where was stationed a British battery of mountain artillery, and that on the road he used to stop and converse with British soldiers, and thus got many of his quaint expressions and turns of language. He used to do the same at Lahore, going down to the fort to meet the soldiers.

And now for a curious thing. I myself had served for many years with soldiers, but had never once heard the expressions that Rudyard Kipling's soldiers used. Many a time did I ask my brother officers whether they had ever heard them. No, never.

But, sure enough, a few years after the soldiers thought, talked and expressed themselves exactly like Rudyard Kipling had taught them in his stories. He would get a stray word here or a stray expression there, and weave them into soldier talk, in his priceless stories. Rudyard Kipling made the modern soldier.—From "A Soldier's Memories in Peace and War," by Maj. Gen. Sir George Youngblood.

I. O. O. F. NEWS

We are still able through these lines to give the brothers our doings in their lodge for the past week. The weather being warm, all the brothers were in shirt sleeves, and the meeting ran smoothly without much perspiration, and an interesting meeting was held.

This was the last meeting for the officers in charge for the past six months, and the brothers expressed their views and congratulated them on their ability as leaders in this work.

Next Tuesday evening is the installation of our new officers, and every brother is urged to come, for we are going to have a real time. A pot-luck supper is to be held, so every brother come and make this installation a real one for Tonquish.

Our sick list is still the same, and the visiting committee report a few serious cases at present, which need urgent help. We are looking on the bright side, so everything will turn out right.

This meeting was another open night, as we had more lodge business than we could finish, and had no time for degree work.

Our list of candidates is growing, and we expect by the second week in July to have another large class to start the degrees.

Now, brothers, don't forget next Tuesday, July 5th, and a big time as well as a real time for every brother, who comes. And don't forget your basket.

The attendance was not up to standard, due to the weather, but next week the electric fans will be running and lots of ice water to drink. Come.

Little Journeys in Print

Ideal weather for traveling, and the brothers took advantage of it, so here they are.

Brothers William Trimble and Steve Jewell spent Monday at Wolverine Lake, and, as usual, fishing.

Brother William Forney was the guest of John Beens of Detroit, at Half Moon Lake, and Bill says, some real bass.

Brothers J. A. Flewelling and Lynn Schrader journeyed to Detroit, Sunday, and took in the auto races.

Brother Dan Jolliffe and wife left Wednesday for a two weeks' visit with their many friends in western Canada.

Brother Fred Stanible and family motored to Howell, last Sunday, and visited their host of friends there.

Brother Charles Hudley and the whole family spent the week-end at Tippeco Lake.

Brother C. Warner and family were guests of Brother Hadley on Sunday.

Brother Wheeler and family spent the week-end at Pettibone Lake, fishing, and a real catch was reported.

Brothers F. Sherman and Al Hartung again journeyed to Walled Lake, last Saturday, and of course they were fishing.

Next Sunday and Monday being holidays, we expect the paper to be full next week.

A CARD—We wish to thank our relatives, friends and neighbors for the beautiful floral offerings and sympathy shown us during our recent sad bereavement; also the singers and Rev. George E. Gullen for his consoling words.

BOY SCOUTS HELP IN FORESTRY WORK

Thousands of Trees Planted in Many States.

The combination of boy and hatchet has a mythical potency which is anything but reassuring to trees, especially those of the cherry family. But when you take the boy without the hatchet—or with a hatchet which he has been taught to use with discrimination—and when you foster his love of nature and train him in the ways of conservation, then you turn him into a valuable force of friendship and helpfulness toward the vanishing forests. And this is what has happened to the boy scouts, according to the Boy Scout Weekly Bulletin. As we read:

Forestation work in many states calls attention to the public spirit of boy scout troops. In New York 85,000 trees were planted last year through their efforts. Forty-five thousand of these, Alexander Macdonald, conservation commissioner, reports to the national scout office, were planted in scout forests. The remaining 40,000 were placed elsewhere, in co-operation with the New York State Forestry association.

Thirty thousand registered boy scout forest guides are co-operating with Pennsylvania's department of forests and waters, according to R. Y. Stuart, secretary. They post fire warnings, patrol the woods and fight fires as far as permitted by the legal sixteen-year age limitation. The troops in Pennsylvania planted 44,200 trees last year. Considerable other work was done by scouts of which the department had no record, it was said.

From Massachusetts comes acknowledgment of the planting last year of 6,500 trees by scouts. The boys also assisted in extinguishing forest fires and in fighting the blister rust.

And another chronicle tells us that birds as well as trees are "the special wards of scoutdom," and that "a building boom in birdtown" each spring is one of the happy consequences of the boys' tree-planting activities. Moreover:

In every part of the country boy scouts have tree-planting and reforestation projects under way. Two of the largest programs are reaching completion at Macon, Ga., and Memphis, Tenn. Camp sites of several hundred acres are being planted.

Flowers, shrubs and vines have special roles in the planting project of Logan, Utah. Scouts have pledged their help in every phase of this campaign. Thousands of poplars, the tree that Utah made famous, are to be put in Logan canyon. In the town all yards are to be cleaned. The boys will clean up their own gardens and help widows, sick people or other persons who have difficulty in managing alone the work on their premises.—Literary Digest.

Radium Times the Blood

The latest use to which radium has been put is to show the rate of flow of blood in the veins. The method adopted is to put the animal used in the experiment into a lead box with one foot sticking out of a hole in the side. A solution of salt in water to which is added a small portion of a radioactive compound of radium, is then injected into a vein in the animal's ear.

The time is noted and a careful watch kept on an electrical device attached to the foot. When this device reveals that radioactive rays are being given off from the foot the time is again noted and the difference between the two times gives the rate of flow of the blood from ear to foot.—New York World.

Ungallant Lover

Attorney General Ottinger was talking in Albany about certain concessions. He went on:

"These men are acting like young Smithers. When young Smithers proposed to Miss Hookinson she answered disdainfully:

"No, Mr. Smithers. No. Of course I don't dislike you as a friend, but marriage—Oh, no, really. Do I make myself plain?"

"Smithers gave a loud, harsh laugh. "Well," he said, as he got up from his knees—"well, you've had something to do with it, of course, but undoubtedly nature was the chief offender."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Substitute for Platinum

For years chemists have been looking for a metal to replace the costly platinum and its alloy, platinum-iridium, in engineering and research. At last they have found a new material called tantalum, which, says Popular Science Magazine, promises a new era in electric work and chemical engineering where great resistance to heat and acids is required.

Tantalum has many astonishing properties, according to Prof. James R. Withrow of Ohio State university, and not the least of these is that it lasts 1,000 times longer than platinum and is twenty times cheaper.

War on "Beauty Shops"

Fear that the alluring smiles and soft words of Japanese women barbers in Honolulu would lure customers away from the shops run by the opposite sex has resulted in the appointment of an anti-firting committee by the Japanese Barbers' association there. One barber from each of the 24 districts in the city was selected to act on the committee which will watch feminine shops in an effort to end tonorial flirtations.

"We Serve Michigan"

Building Up Markets

THE constituent lines of the Michigan Railroad Association will expend nearly $25,000,000 this year for additions and betterments to the respective properties. These outlays will provide for greater safe-guards to human life, more comfort for the traveling public, increased facilities and better freight service.

Michigan Railroads may justly claim more than their modest slogan—We Serve Michigan. They have contributed to the upbuilding of the industries of the Commonwealth, as perhaps no other group of rail lines in America has done. Two decades of tremendous industrial expansion justified this far-sighted policy of the railroads.

In encouraging industrial up-building, the railroads have also, in a measure, created a Home Market that absorbs the bulk of the products of our farms, orchards, gardens, etc., right at home. So true is this that with increased production, the railroads are annually hauling farm commodities less and less. All of these—except the hay crop—are consumed at home.

THIS tremendous Home Market is the ideal market. But the expansion policy means more. It has created an outlet for similar products grown in other states. The track market at Detroit, for instance, handles 40 different perishable commodities from the cars direct to the dealers—a single transfer only. To illustrate: Fresh tomatoes are found at the green grocers for seven months in the year, thanks to expedited service and the refrigerator car. Shipments are made from Old Mexico and five southern states before the Michigan crop has matured. This is so for the entire list of fruits and vegetables.

With our present railroad system the average wage earner of today enjoys a far wider range of delicacies on his table the year round than did the Kings and Nobles of Europe of a century or more ago.

THE Michigan Railroad Association, then, takes justifiable pride in announcing its program of improvements and betterments for the current year which will further aid the state's industrial advancement, give even greater importance to the Home Market, and contribute still more towards raising the standard of living of all the people.

The Peoples Motorbus Co. and the Detroit City Railway are getting together on a plan for operating city buses to Farmington. It is expected that plans will go into effect July 1st. Picked Up About Town

"One way a woman can keep from worrying about getting fat," says Dad Plymouth, "is to have a half-dozen children to worry over."

If they didn't have company now and then some couples never would say anything nice to each other.

"Even at that," declares Dad Plymouth, "it's safer to have a woman on the back seat driving than in the front seat hugging the driver."

The fellow who recently predicted there would be another revolution in Mexico doesn't seem to have strained his predicting apparatus much.

Dad Plymouth says things are about even in this world. What a man saves on federal taxes he has to pay out on increased local taxes.

We happened to remark a few days ago that any fool can drive fast nowadays, and Dad Plymouth finished it by saying, "Yes, and any fool does."

Scientists say that of all noises a baby's cry has the greatest carrying power. And Dad is usually the carrier.

"From the number of people now going to the North Pole," comments Dad Plymouth, "it looks like a hot-dog stand up there would be a paying proposition."

When a Plymouth woman starts on a trip she can have a good time worrying over how terrible it would have been if she had forgotten to bring along something that she didn't forget.

THE THEATRE

Mlle. Modiste

The modernizing influence of the movies touches even the operetta in Corinne Griffith's latest First National picture, "Mlle. Modiste," coming to the Pennington Allen theatre, Saturday, July 3rd.

This film version of the famous Victor Herbert musical piece shows Fin, whom old-timers remember as a vivacious Parisian mannequin, saleswoman and songstress, into quite a modern Parisian-American maid.

Her styles are not those of the late nineties, but up to the minute. In fact, according to E. M. Asher, general manager for the Corinne Griffith Productions, which made the picture, all the costumes shown in the picture were especially designed for it.

The story of "Mlle. Modiste" as Mlle. Griffith has filmed it deals with the romance and business success of an irresistible French girl who combined the two rare faculties—a good business mind and a romantic soul. The threads of the story are wound around the girl's business success after Hiram Bent, a wealthy St. Louis banker, falling a victim to her sales ability, buys the establishment which employs her, makes her the proprietor of it and proceeds to exploit her as a mysterious "Mlle. Modiste," queen of Parisian fashions, while an impatient, jealous sweetheart, Etienne de Beauvray, army officer and society leader, finds difficulty in solving the mystery of Bent's interest.

Norman Kerry is seen opposite Miss Griffith, while Willard Louis essays the character of the mercenary Hiram Bent, slave to Fin only as an investment. Rose Dione, Dorothy Cumming, Paulette Duval, Mario Carillo and Tony Merlo head the supporting cast, which numbers among its members a score of beautiful and shapely models who participate in a fashion revue and costume pageant.

Robert Z. Leonard directed "Mlle. Modiste." Adelaide Hellbron is responsible for the adaptation of the operetta to the screen.

"TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP"

Harry Langdon, First National comedy king, is shown working on the rock-pile in "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," his first feature-length comedy. The picture comes to the Pennington Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, July 4th and 5th.

The unfortunate circumstance is the result of the comic's stealing fruit from the wayside while engaged in a cross-country hike. Under the impression that stolen fruit is sweeter than that which is normally procured, Harry purloins a watermelon and other delicacies.

A posse of irate farmers catch Harry red-handed with the loot. After a thorough search the missing watermelon is found hidden under his shirt.

Harry works on the rock-pile until a general jail delivery frees him. He carries his ball and chain with him, however.

The theme of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" is a cross-country walking race. Harry enters it to lift the mortgage from the house and also to win the hand of a very wealthy and beautiful girl.

In the course of the hike Harry meets with all the misfortunes that a cross-country walker can possibly be afflicted with. In addition to the prison incident, he is caught in a cyclone and hurled over the Great American Desert.

This cyclone was a masterwork of screen photography. The movie cameraman had to be lashed to trees and posts to prevent being blown away.

The story of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" is an original with Harry.

Harry Edwards, associated with Langdon since the days of his short comedies, directed. The supporting cast includes Joan Crawford, Tom Murray, Edwards Davis, Alec Francis and Brooks Benedict.

"FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE"

The humanization of screen comedy can be directly attributed to Harold Lloyd. He, more than any other individual in filmdom, has been responsible for lifting the movie fun-makers out of the rut of "slapstick" and elevating them to the high plane they enjoy today.

The process of evolution, which has been steadily advanced through "Grandma's Boy," "Society Last," "Girl Shy," "Hot Water" and "The Freshman" is continued with his initial Paramount release appropriately entitled, "For Heaven's Sake," which comes to the Pennington Allen theatre, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, July 7, 8 and 9.

Advance reports indicate that the human note so dominant in all of Lloyd's previous productions is again a fundamental factor in his latest comedy. Underlying the uproarious fun and comic foolery is a wholesome thought that gives the photoplay an appealing flavor.

Briefly, the story is that of a rich boy who discovers after a life of idle ease and luxury that real happiness is to be found in helping others. His experiences in the slums of a big city, where he goes to assist a hardworking, though none too successful missionary, are hysterically humorous, yet get over the thought Lloyd sought to impress when he started to make the picture.

Jobyna Reiston, who added feminine distinction to several of Lloyd's former successes, again lends her charm and beauty to the role of leading lady. It is for love of her that Harold goes through many laughable trials and tribulations in his effort to reform a group of hardboiled gangsters.

The story was written especially for Lloyd by Ted Wilde, John Grey and Clyde Bruckman. Sam Taylor wielded the megaphone.

181 NEW FIRMS ARE ORGANIZED

COMPANIES INCORPORATED IN MAY HAVE CAPITALIZATION OF $19,891,000.

New companies incorporated in Michigan in May numbered 181 and had an authorized capitalization of $19,891,000, according to figures compiled by the American State Bank of Detroit and released through John J. Barium, president.

The number of new corporations formed continues the rapid rate, which has been maintained since the first of the year, and compares with 191 new concerns formed in April with an authorized capitalization of $19,611,000, and 249 in March, capitalized at $11,323,000. Approximately 980 new companies were formed during the first five months of the year, having a combined capitalization of close to $65,000,000.

Four of the new corporations formed last month had authorized capitalizations in excess of $1,000,000. These included the Berkey & Gay Furniture Co., of Grand Rapids, with an authorized capital of $4,000,000; the International Development Corp., of Detroit, with $2,950,000; the Goffredson Truck Corp., of Detroit, with $1,500,000, and the Cliff's Power & Light Co., of Ishpeming, with $1,200,000.

In addition to this new wealth, established companies increased their capitalization by close to $12,000,000, compared with approximately $52,000,000 in April and $43,000,000 in March. Foreign corporations licensed to do business in the state had a total capitalization in excess of $28,000,000, as against a little over $4,000,000 in April, and $4,875,000 in the preceding month. The total last month was increased materially by the American Car & Foundry Motor Co., with a capital of $10,000,000.

Detroit led in the number of new companies incorporated in May with a total of 101 compared with 119 in April and 134 in March. Grand Rapids was second with 15, while Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw each had four. Cities with three new companies included Highland Park, Battle Creek and Port Huron.

Real estate firms again led the field of new incorporations with a total of 56, as against 60 in April and 62 in March. Building and contracting firms were second with 10, while automobile and accessory dealers and manufacturers ranked third with seven.—Detroit News.

REALTOR BUILDS FOR THE PUBLIC

THAT HIS PROPERTY MAY NOT DECREASE IN VALUE, HE FORMS A UNION.

(By Edward A. Lovely)

A realtor is really a manufacturer of home sites. He takes a piece of raw lands, plats it and improves it with graded streets, sewers, water, good landscaping and other good conveniences. He then restricts it in more or less ways to appeal to a type of home seekers that will best cause values to increase later. The realtor can control every item of interior improvement he gives to his property but, unlike other forms of manufacture, his land suffers or is enhanced in value by the character of the development that goes on around it.

The realtor is powerless to control the development of surrounding property and very often this has mitigated against his own property, no matter with what controlled development he endowed it.

Realizing the importance of endowing a neighborhood with the same type of restrictions, a new method has arisen in which groups of reputable companies interested in the development of a locality combine to act in unison on their improvement and restriction plans. The result is that scientific planning for a wide area is used which insures the best type of community while the strength of the union often allows the quicker installation of community conveniences.

Such a development is Marquette Park, which extends a mile on either side of the Pere Marquette railroad, between River Rouge Park on the east and the city of Plymouth on the west. There are 20 square miles of property in this area.

Two highways traverse it from end to end—Plymouth road now paved, and the proposed 204-foot Schoolcraft superhighway. Some of the most important roadways of the county system cut through it running north and south. The district is uniformly zoned, restricted and platted to take care of all elements necessary to a high-class community.

The gateway of Marquette Park is Rouge Park, which the city acquired some time ago, and which it plans to transform into a very fine recreational area.—Detroit News.

NEW MORTGAGE LAW

Provision of the Michigan act in regard to foreclosure of mortgages, which required the service of process or notice upon the occupants of land included in the action has been repealed by action of the legislature at a special session recently closed. A substitute act has been passed which provides for notification through publication in a newspaper published in the county where the premises are situated, and the serving of a copy personally upon the individual in charge, or the posting of a copy conspicuously upon the premises themselves.

The Michigan Real Estate Association initiated the movement for the change.

HERE'S WHY 1926 CIRCUS IS BIGGEST
RINGLING BROTHERS ENLARGE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH TO DEDICATE MAMMOTH NEW YORK EDIFICE.
 A circus so big that it requires two added rings, eight stages, a wider hippodrome track and a 700-foot-long big top to display its marvels is now headed this way. It is the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows, to give performances at Detroit, July 9th and 10th.
 The five rings now used have been made necessary to present the added attractions got together in the spring to celebrate the combined shows first appearance in New York's New Madison Square Garden. This edifice is the biggest ever built for circus purposes. To fittingly dedicate it the Ringling Brothers themselves spent months in Europe mobilizing the biggest circus in history. This same show that for weeks entertained New York's millions is now on tour under canvas.
 The tournament is as brilliant as in the past but has been enlarged by the addition of such novelties as zebras and llamas broken to harness and hitched to gun-studded floats. Wee baby elephants ride at the tops of allegorical cars. The menageries of more than a thousand animals embraces such features as thirteen elephant youngsters with the smallest stationed side by side with the biggest pachyderms in captivity. Another innovation is the largest and handsomest tiger of which there is record.
 Performing horse acts are now presented in quintet—a troupe in each of the five rings. Those elephants who are performers appear in staller formation—five herds at one time. The number of men and women aerialists, barbeck riders, gymnasts and high-wire performers has been increased to eight hundred. There are three hundred and fifty trained horses, two hundred of which appear in a single display. One hundred double length cars are required to handle this gigantic amusement enterprise.

NEWBURN VS. ROUGH & READY
 Sunday, June 27th, the Newburn Tigers suffered their second defeat of the season, by Rough & Ready. Gertz allowed them four hits while the Tigers received eight, but luck was against the Tigers. This game contained the lowest score of the season, and kept the people on the seats until Cody beat Hlveley's throw to the plate in the ninth inning, when the winning run was scored.
 Next Sunday, July 4th, the Newburn Tigers journey over to Burrough's field, to play the Plymouth Merchants.
 Monday, July 5th, the Newburn Tigers will entertain Plymouth Merchants at Newburg.

Says Rudyard Kipling "Made" Modern Soldier
 Rudyard Kipling was at Simla for brief periods of leave during the middle eighties. He was then subeditor of the Civil and Military Gazette of Lahore. His "Plain Tales From the Hills" used to appear on the front page of that newspaper, over the initials "R. K."
 We thought he was never in Simla long enough at a time to get the intimate knowledge of the social atmosphere which his writings portrayed. And we concluded, rightly or wrongly, that he was greatly helped in this respect by his clever little sister, who spent several seasons running at Simla.
 It was she, I think, who told us that her brother used to walk down the road to Jutogh, where was stationed a British battery of mountain artillery and a company of British infantry, and that on the road he used to stop and converse with British soldiers, and thus got many of his quaint expressions and turns of language. He used to do the same at Lahore, going down to the fort to meet the soldiers.
 And now for a curious thing. I myself had served for many years with soldiers, but had never once heard the expressions that Rudyard Kipling's soldiers used. Many a time did I ask my brother officers whether they had ever heard them. No, never.
 But sure enough, a few years after the soldiers' thought, talked and expressed themselves exactly like Rudyard Kipling had taught them in his stories. He would get a stray word here or a stray expression there, and weave them into soldier talk, in his priceless stories. Rudyard Kipling made the modern soldier.—From "A Soldier's Memories in Peace and War," by Maj. Gen. Sir George Younghusband.

Reviewing Ancient Avignon
 After Avignon became part of France, during the first French revolution, it was the scene of many horrible massacres and retaliatory massacres. In 1822 degradation may be said to have been complete, for the Palais des Papes itself was turned into a barracks, and served this use for nearly a hundred years. Since 1906 a serious attempt at restoration has been going on. Recently the palace was opened as a museum, to which interesting objects are being added regularly. The first collection to be started for it was a series of effigies of the popes. Copies were made of those on their tombs and brought to the new museum, several being presented by M. Colomb, conservator of the palace for the past seventeen years. Others have been given by the French government, by Czechoslovakia and by M. Theunis, ex-premier of Belgium.
Billions in Other Worlds
 In the vast universe in which the earth is a mere atom there are perhaps 80,000,000,000,000,000 people. At least that is what the figures of Prof. Frederick H. Seares of the Mount Wilson observatory indicate. For he has counted 30,000,000,000 suns, each of which has at least one attending world. Allowing 2,000,000,000 people—the estimated population of the earth—for each of the worlds, he arrives at the staggering total above.
 Professor Seares recently completed counting the stars in the heavens. This seemingly impossible task, says Popular Science Monthly, he accomplished by mathematical calculations, although he could not see, even with the most powerful telescope, 97 per cent of them.
Venerable Artists' Model
 One of the busiest and most capable artists' models in Italy today is a man more than eighty years old. He lives in Rome, and is considered by native and visiting painters and sculptors as the model par excellence.
 The young-old man can hold the most difficult pose for hours at a time, scarcely seeming to move a muscle. To him, remaining still is no hardship. For the last sixty years he has been exploiting his natural gift, and in this time he has enacted virtually all of the immortals known for their physical prowess and beauty.
 Every muscle in his body is said to be as controlled as a pianist's fingers, and he keeps in trim by taking a daily dip in the Tiber.
Old German City Sinking
 Oelsnitz is sinking and not one house in this ancient town in Saxony remains perpendicular. It is believed that new subterranean streams are undermining the entire section and that it is only a matter of time until all buildings must be abandoned. Whole blocks have dropped about ten feet, the cellars immediately filling with water. Other buildings are five feet out of plumb, making them resemble miniature Pisa towers. Geologists have gone to Oelsnitz to investigate the causes with the view of finding methods of draining the hidden streams should the trouble come from that source.
Court Bars Short Gowns
 Skirts must fall within six inches of the ground at the conservative Swedish court. In fact, all the ladies who are actually attached to the court wear black gowns with trains three yards long on official occasions. The sleeves to these official gowns are short and of white satin. Foreign women appearing at the Swedish court may wear any color they prefer, but their gowns are supposed to fall down on the ankles.
