THE PLYMOUTH COUNTRY CLUB WILL OPEN PUBLIC GOLF COURSE

The Amrhein Farm of 190 Acres Has Been Purchased and an 18-Hole Golf Course Has Been Laid Out.

The Amrhein farm, located six miles west of Plymouth on the North Territorial road, which was purchased by a group of Plymouth and Wayne men some time ago, has been converted into a golf course, which is to be known as the Plymouth Country Club. The property consists of 190 acres, and the topography of the land is admirably adapted for a golf course.

Wilford Reid, a golf course expert and a professional golf player of the Detroit Country Club, who supervised the laying out of the 18-hole course, pronounces the new course as one of the most beautiful in this vicinity and in fact in the whole state.

The land is rolling and is ideal for a golf course. A very pleasing feature of the course is a small lake within its boundaries, which will be an added attraction to players and visitors at the new golf links. The course will be open to the public for playing in about two weeks.

The necessary equipment for maintaining the course has been purchased, and is expected to arrive here in a few days. Plymouth lovers of the great sport have long felt the need of a golf course near the village, and especially a public course, which will give an opportunity for a larger number of people to enjoy the sport. A splendid road leads to the new club, and it will be only a few minutes run by motor. The officers and members of the Plymouth Country Club are as follows:

President and Manager—Dr. B. E. Champe.
Vice President—Julius Kaiser.
Secretary—Irwin Pierce.
Treasurer—Roy A. Fisher.
C. A. Fisher, William Petz, Dr. F. B. Hoyer and Ralph McNaughton.
A formal announcement of the opening of the new course will be given in this paper in the near future.

A PLEASANT OCCASION

About ninety people, mostly old residents of Leroy, met at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cool, south of Plymouth, Sunday, and enjoyed a picnic, meeting and visiting with old friends, many of whom they had not seen for years.

Among those present, were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thacker and son, Forest, and friend, Percy; Mrs. George Closson and sons, Harry and Roland, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Closson and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Closson, Otto Norton, Adam Rossman, Lunetta Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Travis of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Dell Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kofbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lawrence and three children, Clifford Baker, Mrs. Cora Norton, Will Ketchum, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer and children of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Will Carr, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, Asar, Edith and Bertha Brown of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. John Cool of Galien; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grommons of Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. George Driver and Mrs. Bertram of Fowlerville; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rogers and children of Jackson; D. B. Ketchum of Leroy; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cool and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner and son, Stillman, of Plymouth.

Several pictures were taken of different groups, after a fine dinner eaten under the shade trees. At leaving, all expressed their appreciation of a pleasant day, and hope to make the reunion an annual affair.

ZONE A HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Waterford school entertained Zone A. Saturday, September 25th. Miss Jackson was hostess. Mrs. Charles Waterman, Mrs. Arthur Gotts and Mrs. Charles Steinhebel were foremost in preparing the noon meal.

Some prominent people at the Zone meeting were: Fred Fischer, assistant commissioner; Dr. Leisinger of Detroit Teachers' College; Mrs. Sharps, school nurse; Miss Gwinn, social work; Miss Howe of Detroit Teachers' College; Miss Osgood; Miss Oulphant, librarian; and Mrs. George Mitchell, Jr.

The next meeting is to be at Cherry Hill school, October 23rd. Those interested are invited to attend.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

"Fire Prevention Week" has been set for October 3-9. The nation's fire loss for 1925 was $562,751,466 according to figures just made available by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the country's authority on the matter. "This is a horrible price to pay, most of which is for carelessness. Not only does danger lurk in the cigarette or cigar thrown carelessly away, the box of matches left where the children can find them, the uncleaned chimney, the cluttered attic, but building construction is also to blame for much of this gigantic toll which has increased over four hundred million dollars since 1923, and which last year alone snuffed out twenty thousand lives.

Insurance experts, fire department officials and engineers tell us that 75 per cent of this enormous loss of life and treasure is preventable. During "Fire Prevention Week" see that you do your part in helping to remove the fire hazards around your property. Join with this community in wiping out an evil that may bring us death and desolation when we least expect it.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND TEAM CAPTAINS HELD FINAL MEETING

A meeting of the new community executive committee and team captains was held at the campaign headquarters office last Friday evening. Nearly every member was present, and it was a very enthusiastic and happy final meeting.

Bryant C. Morris, who directed the campaign here for The Hockensbury System, Inc., of Harrisburg, Pa., made his final report of the campaign just closed. His report showed that a total of $212,000 of stock had been sold, and that there was a total of 250 stockholders. It was a most satisfactory report and was unanimously adopted and accepted.

It was decided that the first stockholders meeting would be held at the High school auditorium on Tuesday evening, October 4th, at 7:30 o'clock, when it is hoped that every stockholder will be present.

The matter of choosing a name for the new hotel was discussed by the members present, and it was decided that every stockholder in the new hotel should be given an opportunity to submit a name, if they so desire. A notice to this effect will be mailed to every stockholder. After the names have been submitted, the matter of a selection will be left to the board of directors, yet to be elected. The name receiving the majority vote of this board will be the one adopted for the new hotel.

The meeting approved the erection of a large sign on the lot at the corner of South Main and Ann Arbor streets, the site of the new hotel, which will contain the information to passers-by that Plymouth's new hotel will be erected thereon and will open in 1927.

The officers and members of the executive committee and sales organization are very grateful to Mr. Morris and The Hockensbury System, Inc., for the business-like manner in which they have conducted the successful campaign here, and for the help which they have so kindly offered to give until the hotel is completed. The relations of this company and the local committee have been extremely pleasant from beginning to end.

FARMERS TO STUDY CORN BORER AT MONROE, OCTOBER 5TH.

Ralph Carr, county agricultural agent, has sent out a circular letter to the farmers, urging them to go to Monroe, Tuesday, October 5th, to study the effects of the European Corn Borer, and to learn the methods that are being employed to combat its ravages. The meeting will be held at the Monroe County Experiment Station at 10:30 a. m. This station is located about three miles northeast of Monroe near the county farm on the south side of the River Raisin. The best route is to take the Telegraph road until you cross the river at Monroe, then turn to the right.

WEDDINGS

WALKER-CLINE

Miss Florence Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cline, and Ward W. Walker, son of Robert Walker, both well known young people of Plymouth, were united in marriage, September 27, at the First Baptist church in Toledo, by Rev. Albert King Morris. The bride was beautiful in a white satin and ermine de chine dress, daintily trimmed with black satin and jet buttons. She returned to Plymouth, and left Tuesday for a week's motor trip through the northern part of the state. On their return they will take up house-keeping in a furnished home on Farmer street for the winter. They have the best wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life. Mrs. Walker was a graduate of the 1925 class of Plymouth High school, and Mr. Walker of the class of 1921.

HEFFNER-ARMBRUSTER

The first fall wedding of the year to be solemnized in Our Lady of Good Counsel church by Rev. Fr. Frank C. Lefevre, was that of Miss Regina Margaret Armbruster and Jacob Heffner, which took place Saturday morning, September 18, at ten o'clock.

To the soft mellow strains of the "Bridal March" the bridal party was led by the little flower girl daintily dressed in white. At her left, walked "Master Ring-bearer," dressed in black and white satin, and carrying the ring tied to a large white lily. Then followed the bridesmaids with their escorts, after whom came the maid of honor, Miss Mary Drobina of Monroe, and Stephen Heffner, who attended his brother. The bride then followed on the arm of her father.

Miss Armbruster was charmingly attired in white satin, and carried a bouquet of white roses, valley lilies and baby breath from which hung long streamers of tiny white ribbons occasionally caught with a bud or leaf. Her veil was daintily arranged about her head and held in place with little tufts of the veiling. A little lad in white carried the veil.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor looked lovely in white pussy-willow taffeta modeled after the bride's gown. Each carried butterfly roses. Wreaths of tiny silver leaves worn about their heads completed their attire.

Miss Armbruster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Armbruster of Plymouth. Mr. Armbruster is manager of the Piston Ring Co. Mr. Heffner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Heffner of Detroit.

The out of town guests were from Milwaukee, Chicago, Monroe and Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Heffner left for a wedding trip, and upon their return will reside on Ann street, Plymouth.

BOCK-PROCTOR

A very pleasant event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Proctor, on Thursday evening, September 23rd, when their daughter, Vera A., was united in marriage to Frank Bock, the ring ceremony being read by Rev. Paul Havens of Newburg. The bride was dressed in white georgette, covered with beads and wore a veil hung with orange blossoms, and carried white rosebuds. She was attended by Miss Margaret Wilson, gowned in pale green, carrying pink roses.

WEDDINGS

The groom was attended by Floyd Proctor, brother of the bride. A lovely wedding supper was served to sixty-five guests following the ceremony. The young couple left for an eastern trip, and will be at home after October 10th, on Middle Belt road.

PETSCH-GARCHOW

A very pretty home wedding took place Saturday, September 25th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Garchow, when their daughter, Mae, was united in marriage to Carl Petsch of Livonia. Miss Leona Garchow, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and James Ollett of Detroit, cousin of the groom, as best man.

The bride was dressed in white georgette over white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in peach colored headed georgette over pink satin, and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

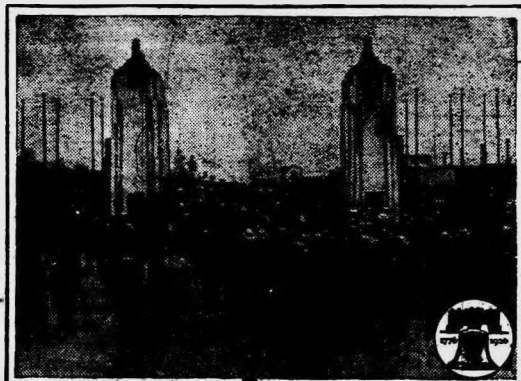

The house was elaborately decorated in pink and white. A beautiful arch was erected, which was also of pink and white, under which the bridal couple stood, while the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Oscar Peters of Wayne.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to thirty-nine near relatives of both bride and groom. The young couple will be at home on the Five Mile road to their friends, after October 1st.

WILL HAVE LECTURE COURSE

Under the auspices of the Senior class of the Plymouth High school, the Redpath Lyceum Bureau will present an entertainment course here again this season. The course will consist of five numbers, and the opening number will be given Wednesday, November 3rd. The course given last season gave good satisfaction, and a splendid list of attractions have been booked by the committee in charge for the coming course. More particulars will appear in this paper in the near future.

THE STORMING OF THE GATES

This picture is typical of many such scenes enacted daily at the main gates of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia where the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence is being celebrated. The "shot" was made from outside the gates and shows the long sweep of historic Broad street, the main artery of the exposition. To the left can be seen one of the capitol of the Palace of Liberal Arts and Manufactures which covers nearly eight acres of grounds and which houses some of the finest exhibits ever seen. The Exposition will continue until December 1.

PLYMOUTH'S MODERN TELEPHONE SYSTEM IS NOW IN OPERATION

Village President Harry C. Robinson Pressed the Button Tuesday Afternoon at Four O'clock that Placed the New Equipment in Operation.

The Local Exchange of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., one of the Most Modern and Best Equipped in the State.

In the presence of high officials and managers of various exchanges of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., and invited guests, Village President Harry C. Robinson pressed the button at exactly four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, that placed the new telephone equipment, which has been in course of installation at the local exchange for the past year, into operation. Those who were present to witness the ceremony were assembled in the switchboard room on the second floor of the new building. Manager Roy E. Crowe of the local exchange, called the gathering to order, and in a few remarks introduced Mayor Robinson and requested him to press the button which inaugurated the new system.

Mr. Robinson then spoke words of appreciation on behalf of the village, for the modern and up-to-date equipment which had been installed by the Bell company to give its Plymouth patrons the best service possible. He called attention to the fact that Plymouth was the second town in Michigan and the third in the United States, that now has this modern equipment in operation, which, by the way, is the first word in telephone achievement. Mr. Robinson also spoke of the wonderful improvement in telephone equipment and service in Plymouth today and that of forty years ago.

Following Mr. Robinson's remarks, Manager Crowe, presented the mayor with the electric button, which set the system in motion as a memento of the occasion. On the button was a silver plate, upon which was inscribed, "Dedicated by Mayor Harry C. Robinson to inaugurate Common Battery System at Plymouth 1928-1926."

All Plymouth telephone lines have been transferred to the new switchboard, and the local exchange is now located in its handsome new home at 729 Ann Arbor street.

Now that the service has been transferred to the new switchboard, there is a change in the method of signaling the operator, in that it will no longer be necessary to turn the crank on your telephone as you will be able to signal her by removing the receiver from the hook.

Audible ringing and audible busy signals will be provided with the improved service. The audible ringing signal, which will be heard in the receiver within a few seconds after the operator has connected you with the number called, is an intermittent "turr-turr-ringing" sound and indicates that the called telephone is ringing. The audible busy signal is a rapid "buzz-buzz-buzz" sound which will be heard in the receiver, when the line you called is busy. The use of these signals will make it unnecessary for the operator to give you a verbal report that she is ringing your party or that the line you called is busy, as has been the practice heretofore.

Each party line subscriber will be signaled by one ring and will not hear the ring of any other party on the line. Therefore, always answer your telephone whenever your bell rings.

Great care should be taken not to disturb the receiver hook after you have given the operator a number, and have been connected with your party. Disturbing the receiver hook will disconnect you automatically from the called line and your signal will appear again on the switchboard. The operator answering that signal may not be the one who handled your call the first time and therefore may not know that you were disconnected or what number you called. If for any reason you are disconnected or have difficulty with an established connection, give your call over again to the operator who answers you.

Many telephone numbers have been changed and a new telephone directory has been issued to subscribers. Plymouth citizens are very proud of their new telephone exchange and in extending congratulations to the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., for the splendid new telephone building and the wonderful new equipment, we voice the sentiment of the whole community.

WILL RESUME THURSDAY NIGHT SHOWS.

E. R. Lash, manager of the Penniman Allen theatre, announces that the Thursday night shows will be resumed, beginning Thursday night, October 7th. The attraction will be "Fascinating Youth." Don't forget the Thursday night shows.

HARVEY B. FISH PASSED AWAY LAST SATURDAY.

Harvey B. Fish passed away at the University hospital, Ann Arbor, Saturday, September 25th, 1926. Mr. Fish had undergone a serious operation on the day previous to his death. He had been a resident of Plymouth for the past seven years, and was well known and liked by a large circle of friends and acquaintances because of his jovial and optimistic nature and his constant endeavor to help others.

The funeral services were held from the Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon, September 28th. The services were very impressive. Rev. Fr. Lefevre spoke a few words of sympathy and Rev. Walter Nichol conducted the services. Two beautiful vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. Wm. Bake, with Mrs. Carl Sherr as accompanist on the piano. The services at the grave in Riverside cemetery were in charge of Plymouth Rock Lodge, No. 47, F. & A. M. There was a large attendance both at the Funeral Home and at the cemetery. A number of his former associates of the Pere Marquette R. R. Co., by whom Mr. Fish was employed prior to his death, attended the services.

Harvey B. Fish was born February 12, 1877 at Oakville, N. Y., the son of James and Harriet Fish. He was united in marriage October 8th, 1902, to Josephine Maher of Oneonta, N. Y. The deceased leaves besides his wife, two daughters, Helen and Dorothy; his mother, a twin brother, Harry C., of Hancock, N. Y.; three sisters, Mrs. E. J. Irish, Laurens, N. Y.; Mrs. Mabel C. Green, Oneonta, N. Y., and Mrs. L. G. VanWick of Detroit.

One of town relatives attending the funeral were his brother, Harry, of Hancock, N. Y.; sisters, Mrs. Mabel C. Green of Oneonta, N. Y., and Mrs. L. G. VanWick and husband, of Detroit; Mrs. Fish's mother, Mrs. Margaret Keirns and sister, Mrs. John Lynch, of Albany, N. Y., and brothers, William Maher of Dover, New Jersey, and Frank Keirns of Scotia, N. Y.

UNUSUAL REUNION CAME NEAR TO TRAGEDY.

Mrs. Caroline Matthews, who makes her home with her niece, Mrs. Nettie Moore, was visited last Sunday by her three sons. This was the first time for fifty years that the family had been together. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Matthews, son, daughter and granddaughters of Seattle, Wash.; Milford Matthews, daughter, son, wife and baby of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; and Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews of Kent, Ohio.

In the evening, Emerson Matthews drove Mrs. Moore's car to Northville, and on the way home, undertook to pass another car driven by Ira Kingsley. They struck a wash-out in the road, turning the car on its side and wrecking it quite badly. Milford Matthews sustained a bad cut on the face and a bruised shoulder; Emerson Matthews had several scratches on his face, and Mrs. Moore was pinned in the car in such manner that the ligaments of one foot were lacerated.

THE BEST EXERCISE

We suppose practically everyone in Plymouth has heard of Edward Payson Weston, famous long-distance walker. Almost three-quarters of a century ago he started out to prove that walking is the world's most valuable exercise, and that it will add years to one's life. Today he is eighty-five years of age, but is still able to earn his own living and is doing that very thing as handily as around a New York restaurant. He has never been seriously ill and never in need of a doctor. His medicine and his tonic has consisted of fresh air. He started out to prove that walking is healthful, and he has certainly done so. There is a lesson of value in this man's life, and that is to get all the outdoor exercise you possibly can. Don't let the auto wear you away from the healthful exercise of walking. You may find it more comfortable to ride, but if you'll forego a little riding and do more walking you'll be on earth longer to do both.

A GREAT INDUSTRY

There was a convention at West Baden, Indiana, a few weeks ago of men who make the hatching and marketing of baby chicks their business. More than 400 of them gathered there, and among the number were men now doing a gross annual business running into six figures. The average Plymouth citizen knows there is such an industry as the hatching and sale of day-old chicks, but he doesn't know that so many are operating immense hatcheries for this purpose, or that the industry represents many millions of dollars. A lot of money has been lost by people inexperienced in poultry raising—but far more has been made by those who know its secrets. Since the parcels post came along to make it possible to ship day-old chicks as great a distance of 1000 or 1500 miles, the chance of making money in this field of activity is unlimited. It is a business that can be established and built up in this community as well as in any other.

UNCLE SAM'S REQUEST

If your postmaster pleads with you to paint up your rural mail box and its support, do not think he is an interfering busybody. He is merely carrying out the instructions of his superior officer, for Postmaster General Harry S. New has made a general request of this kind. He wants every rural route to be transformed into a "great white way," with the staggering posts straightened up and the weather-beaten boxes gleaming with new paint. There are more than 45,000 routes and millions of boxes. If you'll paint your mail box, your neighbors will fall in line, and you will make the post-office officials happy. You'll also be adding to the life of the box. It does not take much paint to do it, so while you're at it, why not get enough to cover the front fence and the gate? Nothing like paint to preserve metal or wood—and nothing like a shining mail box and a nice white front fence and front gate to make your home place more attractive to those who are passing by.

FALL FIRES

Cities bear the major cost of fires, of course. But the farmers are by no means immune from loss through this destructive agency. According to government reports residents of rural districts lost $150,000,000 from this source last fall. There are six million farms in the United States, so this represents an average loss of $25 yearly. The report says there has become a persistent increase in this loss, and also that it is greatest in the fall season, since grass and trees are drying out and fires are more easily started.

We are getting to the season when there are more and more people in the woods and fields than at any other time of year; more smokers are dropping matches or lighted cigarette stubs or knocking out their pipes or going away and leaving their camp fires burning. So for the next several weeks, we may expect the rural districts to pay an awful toll of loss through fires which could have been avoided.

And while we are on the subject it is not amiss to call the attention of Plymouth citizens to the advisability of going over their flues and stove-pipes and chimneys and furnaces. Summer rains may have left the chimney in bad condition; it doesn't take much to wash the plaster from between the brick. No way of telling without investigating what may be in the stovepipe or the flues. Now while you have time go over this part of the house, instead of waiting until the last minute. Any time is a bad time to be burned out, but right now, with winter approaching, is about the worst time of all. Take a little time now, inspect your flues and chimneys. Be on the safe side.

REDUCTION IN LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE RATES.

Reductions in long haul long distance telephone rates that will become effective October 1, will range as high as 25 per cent, according to a statement by Roy E. Crave, manager here for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, who quotes that the basic station-to-station (anyone) rate from here to New York, for instance, will be cut from the present $3.35 to $2.55. The reductions that become effective October 1, affect long distance calls from points within Michigan to points outside the state. Reductions on long haul messages between points inside the borders of Michigan were made effective July 10.

Effective, also, on October 1, will be the extension of the privilege of reversing charges on station-to-station (anyone) calls, which has applied only to particular person calls in the past. After that date, too, an earlier evening reduced rate period on anyone calls will be in effect, with a reduction of about 25 per cent from the day rate on such calls between 7:00 p. m. and 8:30 p. m. Between 8:30 p. m. and 4:30 a. m., the anyone calling rate over the long distance lines will be approximately 50 per cent of the day rate. These discounts will apply on calls on which the day anyone rate is 40 cents or more, the minimum reduced rate being 35 cents.

The changes October 1 also will include increases in rates on short haul calls over many distances between 24 and 110 miles, for the purpose of making the schedule consistent, the maximum increase, however, to be five cents.

PLYMOUTH DAY AT THE NORTHVILLE FAIR.

Last week Thursday was Plymouth Day at the Northville Fair, and just about everybody had planned on attending, but the weather man interfered to a great extent with a brand of weather that was not at all conducive to out of door entertainments. The business places generally closed at eleven o'clock, and the public schools were also dismissed for the day. The rain which came about the time the parade was to leave Kellogg Park kept many at home at this hour, and they went later to the fair. A band from Detroit was engaged for the occasion, and through the kindness of the Detroit Motorbus Co., they were given free transportation from Detroit to Plymouth, to the fair grounds and the return to Detroit. This act of courtesy on the part of the motorbus company is much appreciated by the committee in charge of arrangements and the citizens of Plymouth. The band furnished some splendid music on the fair grounds during the afternoon.

The foot ball game between Northville and Plymouth Highs was played in a sea of mud, and was won by Northville by a score of 13 to 0.

Today's Reflections

Some Plymouth men would make many sacrifices to be boys again.
Some of them would even agree to go to Sunday-school.

The fellow who has gone all summer with his long underwear might as well go ahead and leave it on now.

Women have such equal rights now that when two of them meet they don't know whether to kiss or shake hands.

Everybody in Plymouth knows something that will cure your cold, banish freckles or reduce your weight.

These channel swimmers might as well get ready to retire, now that the football season is here once more.

The reason some weddings go off as scheduled, is because the groom doesn't know as much about the bride as her younger brother.

The Plymouth man who trades one used car for another is setting a modern example of jumping from the frying pan into the fire.

As a general thing when a man hurries all day, it's hard work for him to keep from eating supper that way.

More than one farmer around Plymouth, who once frowned on Sunday motoring, can now be found out in front of his place every Sunday ready to sell farm produce.

Do you suppose there was ever a social function at which refreshments were served that the guests didn't say they were "delicious."

As a general thing after a man has lived on the same farm for forty years, he gets over the idea that the government is going to help him.

More than one Plymouth home would be far happier if the wife would only quit talking after she won the debate.

The breakfast food concerns at Battle Creek are using ads to urge people to "eat more corn products." They don't say anything about drinking them.

It took a lot of voting to do it, but Texas has finally convinced "Ma" Ferguson that a woman's place is in the home.

With the highways full of cars, let us be thankful that the occupants are full of hot dogs instead of liquor.

The fact that cold weather is just around the corner leads a good many Plymouth people to believe old Father
Time has traded his scythe for a modern harvester.

Think how much money could be saved in the average household, if someone would invent chinaware that would bounce.

PLYMOUTH REALTORS ATTEND STATE MEETING AT KALAMAZOO

C. R. Livengood Gave Splendid Home Town Talk on Plymouth Before the Convention Tuesday.

Plymouth was well represented at the State Convention of Realtors, which was held at Kalamazoo this week. Several members of the Plymouth Real Estate Board left Tuesday morning to attend the three-day session. C. R. Livengood was chosen to represent Plymouth in a five-minute speech contest conducted at the convention. This contest is held every year at the annual convention of the Michigan Real Estate Association. The time limit is five minutes, and the one who tells the most about the town he represents in the allotted time wins the cup. The cup was won by J. J. Fagan of Muskegon, last year. Mr. Livengood's greatest handicap was to tell anywhere near all of the wonderful things about Plymouth in the allotted five minutes.

The following Plymouth Home Town Talk was given before the State Realtors' convention at Kalamazoo, Tuesday, September 28, by C. R. Livengood: "If civic spirit is the gauge by which cities are measured, then I respectfully submit that my home town of Plymouth is a potential giant, for within the past ten days she has accomplished that which no other city in the entire United States has excelled and only one other has equalled."

"Plymouth needed a new hotel, $200,000 would get it, and community effort seemed the logical method. One hundred and fifty public spirited men, fired with enthusiasm, met at a banquet Monday evening, September 20th, pledged themselves to devote the entire week to this community undertaking and sacrifice their personal business."

"Tuesday morning following, they swung into the campaign with more civic fire than I had ever before witnessed in any body of men, and at 12:00 o'clock noon of the first day they had oversubscribed the amount by $10,000. In six hours the campaigners and the community more than accomplished what they had expected to do in six days. As a demonstration of civic spirit and progress we are proud to record it among the community accomplishments of Michigan."

"Plymouth has an enviable, strategic location midway between two great fundamentals of human progress, industry and education, and is richly surrounded by a third, agriculture. The commercial life of Detroit and the superior educational facilities of Ann Arbor are approximately equidistant and only a few minutes drive from my home town."

"Plymouth is the hub of a network of splendid concrete highways. They radiate like the spokes of a wheel in virtually every direction. We are proud to be known as a cross-roads town for it is in these cross roads that we recognize one of our greatest assets. Many of our present population had just driven through, admired the tree-lined streets and beautiful homes, and have returned to abide."

"Important though our cross roads of concrete are conceded to be there is yet another of even greater importance—a cross roads of steel that will ultimately prove a cross roads of gold for Plymouth and those industrialists who have the vision to locate there."

"Plymouth offers manufacturers not only a tremendous advantage in time in shipment of manufactured products to the north, south, east and west, but offers as well a home environment for workers and executives that may be equalled, but not excelled, in the state. Manufacturers today recognize the fact that the better the home environment the greater the shop production, and this is operating decidedly to Plymouth's benefit."

"Nationally known manufacturers, becoming more and more cramped in the great city, are even now surveying the industrial possibilities of my city, and one of the largest of its kind in the world has already selected a site for its future expansion. The splendid clean plants now located in Plymouth, provide a nucleus for an industrial development that will shortly electrify this state. Mark that well."

"Plymouth today is a city of 5,000 population. It is my sincere conviction that the Home Town speaker at this convention in 1930 will report a city of not less than 25,000 population. We have the location, the facilities, and above all the civic spirit to bring this about."

"One glance at the map will disclose just why Plymouth is proud of her cross roads of concrete and steel. "Contact with her citizens will disclose a dynamic spirit that will surmount any obstacle and make of her one of the most important cities of the state. We invite you to watch this young giant grow."

PLYMOUTH REALTORS BOOST PLYMOUTH.

The Michigan Property Owner, a publication devoted to the interests of real estate dealers and published by the Michigan Real Estate Association, issued a special number last week, giving an account of the convention held by the Michigan Real Estate Association at Kalamazoo, September 28, 29 and 30. The Plymouth Real Estate Board, which has an active membership of fourteen members, has an advertisement in this issue, boosting Plymouth. The names of the members of the Plymouth Real Estate Board appear in the roster of active members of the Michigan Real Estate Association.

Community Building

Duty of Citizens to Work in Association

The city would profit greatly from a cultivation of the spirit of neighborhood pride, to keep their own premises in order, and beautiful, and also to work in association with one another to beautify the entire neighborhood in accordance with an agreement plan, says the Indianapolis News. A great deal could be done in this way through private effort, and in the doing of such a work in such a way we should learn to value more than we do now individual initiative. Also there would be a development of neighborhood spirit which would make for better citizenship.

It ought not to be difficult to organize—in as loose a way as might be thought desirable—neighborhood associations for the carrying out of what is as much a neighborhood as a municipal purpose. The coming together of neighbors to consider ways and means and methods would itself be helpful. It would be worth much for the citizen to realize that he is not dependent on government for everything he wants, and to discover that there is a great deal that he can do for himself. But, of course, beauty is the prime object to be sought, a beauty that would undoubtedly spread from neighborhood to neighborhood. Perhaps there are such associations already. There can hardly be too many of them.

"Get Together" Spirit Builds Up Community

There are little communities dotted here and there all over our vast country which are dull and uninteresting because they are a mere aggregation of individuals and not a community, as such. "A real community is a number of people so united in spirit and so interested in the advancement of their town that they are willing to drop their little differences and unite to form one great brotherhood."

If your town is dull it is because there is no organized effort to overcome that dullness. If the people who go about bemoaning the bareness of life in the rural districts would just meet together and in a sane, hearty way face the proposition, they would discover avenues of development of which they never dreamed. Wherever there are three or four families in a group there is almost invariably talent which will make for the welfare of all concerned. No community appreciates its resources until it places the social emphasis on its community life. Unsuspected talent is displayed when team work is adopted. Men and women who have never been tested are drawn out by the inspiration of doing something in common with others.—Marion Dallas in Montreal Family Herald.

Neighborhood Enterprise

There is no reason why the citizen should look to the city government to do everything for him. It is doing much, as it is—perhaps too much. People residing in a certain stretch of street—say a few blocks in length—could easily, and at low cost, through combined action, make the whole neighborhood, both inside and outside the property line, beautiful beyond anything now imagined. Other neighborhoods would be quick to follow the example, and the whole city would be the gainer. The streets thus improved and cared for would be more desirable than they are now, residence in them would be sought and prized, and as a result property values would advance. From whatever point of view the matter is looked at, the effect would be good.—Indianapolis News.

Eye to Property Value

People who are most vociferous in their appreciation of the sentimental values of their homes, who let it be known to all and sundry that they would never sell their home because of old associations, are frequently the readiest to sell if they get what they call a "good offer." They are really good salesmen, and their boasted affection for their homes is merely good sales talk. While this attitude may be a trifle calloused, there are few of us who do not keep a weather eye upon real estate values. We are proud and pleased when there is a "boom" in our immediate neighborhood. And rightly so. We are pleased whenever the property value of our home advances, because it has materially increased our potential estate, and proud that our purchase has proved to be a wise investment.

Picked Up About Town

According to Dad Plymouth, the fellow with a heart of gold never seems to have much of the stuff in his pocket.

Dad Plymouth says that if there is any one thing a woman hates worse than looking old, it is to have to wear clothes which look older than she does.

"The old-fashioned girl who married for a home," declares Dad Plymouth, "now has a daughter who is willing to marry for a car."

It isn't so bad when a fellow can average twenty miles to the gallon, but it's dangerous when he is getting about sixty miles an hour to the half-pint.

The nice thing about a felt hat is that you don't feel ashamed of yourself when you pass a cow.

Coming from good people isn't half as important this day in time, as going with good people.

Dad Plymouth says a lot of kids have pennies nowadays because there isn't many things they can buy with them.

"The only thing some men neglect more than they do their wives," declares Dad Plymouth, "is their religion."

What Do You Know About Your Human Machine?

Are you as familiar with your body as you ought to be? Did you ever sit down and try to analyze yourself, figure out to the best of your ability what a wonderful piece of machinery you are? Few people do this, and the fact remains that if people would give the human machine more personal attention, they would be better off in health. We are built precisely like the electric plant of today is built. As the late Elbert Hubbard once said in connection with a lecture he was giving on Chiropractic, "I feel that my body is a mass of wires." True it is, the nerves are the wires, and every tissue cell of the body is fed by a nerve, each nerve having direct communication with the brain, the dynamo of the human system, which generates nerve energy (health) and sends it to the tissue cell by the nerve. These nerves come out from the spinal cord in cables (31 pairs of them), each containing thousands of nerves, and these cables pass out between the vertebrae. When a vertebrae becomes displaced or subluxated, by reason of a fall, wrench, twist, strain or otherwise, pressure is brought to bear on these cables and the flow of nerve energy is impeded or wholly stopped, with the results that wherever these impinged nerves end there is incoordination (dis-ease). With the Neurocalometer, I am able to tell just what vertebrae are impinging the nerves, or in other words, we know the exact location of your trouble. The Chiropractor adjusts the vertebrae to normal, relieving the pressure and health is the result.

NEWBURG

There was a very good attendance at church Sunday last, to greet our new pastor, Rev. F. D. Walker, who took for his text, "Stand in awe and sin not." Fourth Psalm, fourth verse. The young people had a large choir. There were 37 in Sunday-school.

Services at the usual hour next Sunday. Every one most cordially invited to attend.

The church was beautifully decorated for the reception which was attended by about one hundred old and young, held in the church Monday evening.

At 7:30 the new pastor, Rev. F. D. Walker, also to bid her, and Mrs. Paul Havens good-bye and good speed as they go to their new field of labor at the Wilson church in Pontiac. Mrs. Charles Ryder introduced Rev. Walker, who responded in a most pleasing manner.

Howard Cochran, president of the Epworth League, and Elizabeth Leonard, in behalf of the Queen Esther circle, voiced their appreciation of the interest Rev. and Mrs. Havens have shown toward their societies. A solo, "My Rosary," was sung by Mrs. Harry Lutz of Pontiac. Mrs. M. Era Smith gave one of Edgar Guest's poems on "Friendship." Misses Anna and Ada Youngs sang a duet, "Some Morning."

Mrs. Donald Ryder gave a humorous reading entitled, "The Minister To Tea," after which Mrs. James McNabb, in a neat little speech said that Mr. and Mrs. Havens had been with the people of Newburg three years, and were then sent to Pontiac, which caused a good deal of amusement. She spoke of the splendid work they had accomplished, especially among the young people, who were greatly endeared to them. Mrs. McNabb, in a charming manner, presented a beautiful picture of the Flower Girl, as a memento from the different societies. Mr. and Mrs. Havens both responded in a feeling manner, thanking the people, old and young, for the many kindnesses shown them during the three years' pastorate here. A reception was then held to meet the new minister, and bid Rev. and Mrs. Havens good-bye. Refreshments consisting of brick ice cream and assorted cakes were served. All enjoyed a social hour.

The L. A. S. will hold their regular meeting at the hall, next Wednesday, October 6th. No refreshments will be served. Don't forget the holders for the kitchen. Arrangements for the home-coming and bazaar to be held Friday evening, October 22, will be completed. All are urged to be present, and come prepared to straighten up the kitchen and dining room.

The Queen Esther Circle will meet with Joy McNabb, this Friday evening, to make plans for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Guthrie and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith motored September 17th, to Pittsburg, Pa., to visit Mr. Guthrie's grandfather. They had the novel experience of going two miles into the Bruin coat mines, getting quite a thrill out of it. They also saw the oil wells in operation, and spent one night in Cleveland seeing the sights of the city. They arrived home last week Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George Hallam underwent a major operation at the Deaconess hospital, Detroit, last week Thursday. Her sister, Opal Harshbarger of Escanaba, is keeping house during her absence.

Mrs. W. R. Greer called on Mrs. Hallam, Wednesday, at the hospital, finding her nicely convalescing. Her many friends wish for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Allen and daughter of Jackson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clark Mackinder.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder entertained Rev. and Mrs. Havens and daughter, Vivian, for dinner last Saturday. They also had Rev. Walker for Sunday dinner.

Edgar Stevens has a new Ford coach. Mr. Greer is driving a new Whippet car.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy entertained Rev. and Mrs. Havens for dinner, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rengert of Prain's Lake, spent Saturday night with their son, William, and family, of Robinson Sub.

Mrs. A. Parish returned home Saturday night, after spending nearly three weeks with her grandson, Clarence Hix and wife, south of Plymouth. John Gersoff of Crotonville, was a recent caller here.

Mrs. Parish called on Mrs. Walter Schiffler Tuesday. Little Russell is suffering again with his eyes, and goes to Detroit for treatment several times a week.

Don't forget the Helping Hand Society meeting to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hanchett of Northville, the first Wednesday in October, for dinner. All are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hix and the latter's mother, spent Monday evening at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Walter Schiffler at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Sheldon, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mott called on their sister, Mrs. Ames Parsh, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hix, recently. Her son, Charles of Ypsilanti, was also a caller there.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling son, Orville Eugene McKinney, who died two years ago, September 30th: A precious one from us has gone.

The voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled. How oft we think of you, dear Orville. And our hearts are filled with pain. Oh, this earth would be a heaven, could we but hear your voice again. God in his wisdom has recalled. The boon His love has given. And though the body slumbers here. The soul is safe in heaven. His loving Parents and Sisters.

ILLINOIS TOWN FINDS SOLUTION FOR INDUSTRIAL PROBLEM.

Effingham, Ill., has found a solution for its industrial problem, adopting the "bonus method" to attract to itself an industry.

Four years ago, Effingham financed a community hotel, the Benwood, under the direction of The Hokenbury System, Inc., of Harrisburg, Pa. The Benwood has been open since July 1923, and has done a good business from the very start, with another story added, in the spring of 1925, to accommodate increased patronage. The demand for rooms, now, is greater than they can supply.

When, therefore, the need for an industry became paramount, the Chamber of Commerce invited the same company of financial experts to make a survey of the industrial situation, and to direct the community financing program, with an objective of $150,000. The result was a total of $163,357, $112,157 of which was in the form of subscriptions, and $51,200 secured from the sale of 168 lots adjacent to the factory site.

Members of the Rotary Club backed the Chamber of Commerce as promoters; C. J. Moritz, contractor, and president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Fred C. Wenthe, lumber dealer, were associated as chairmen of the financing program.

With an agreement on the part of Effingham citizens to provide a factory, with a railroad spur, and water supply, the Vulcan Last Company agrees to employ 350 men and 250 women, continuously, returning in wages, in ten years, at least ten times the sum subscribed by the citizens, and the opinion is expressed that this will be accomplished within three or four years. The factory to be built becomes the property of the Vulcan Last Company at once, to be forfeited in the event of their failure to operate for ten years, and whatever the investment may be, over $100,000, is to be supplied by the company.

Incorporated in 1909 under the laws of the state of Ohio, the Vulcan Last Company operates nine plants for the manufacture of wooden shoe lasts, wooden heels and last blocks, the principal factories being in Portsmouth, Ohio, and St. Louis, Mo., with smaller factories in Wisconsin and West Virginia. Wisconsin is also the home of the raw material plants, located near forests, owned by the company, of the best northern hard maple to be found. Finishing plants are in Ohio, New York and Missouri, near large shoe centers.

Their product is used by the largest shoe manufacturers of the country, such as Endicott-Johnson Corporation, of Endicott, N. Y.; International Shoe Co., and Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis; Dunn & McCarthy, of Auburn, N. Y.; Craddock-Terry Co., of Lynchburg, Va.; Selby Shoe Co., of Portsmouth, Ohio; Krippendorf-Dittman Co., of Cincinnati; and others, who put out half a million pairs of shoes daily, using four million lasts.

A factory site of sixteen acres, on the main line of the Illinois Central Railroad, owned by the local Chamber of Commerce, is available for the factory. The size of the plant is to be 800 ft. by 150 ft., covering about two acres, and requiring at least five acres for storage. The company is to put in an additional power plant, and will install the most modern machinery in the factory, representing an investment of from $200,000 to $250,000.

It is figured that the coming of this industry to Effingham will give employment to the unemployed (there are now 250 employed in industrial occupations), and will bring in fifty new families, resulting in the building of new houses, increased business for the merchants and increased bank deposits. It is estimated that the weekly payroll will run from $7,500 to $10,000.

Effingham is near the center of population of the United States, and is considered by the Vulcan Last Company to be an ideal location for its Plant No. 10, which they plan to make their largest. The officials are much impressed with the community spirit manifested by Effingham business men, and are optimistic concerning the future expansion and development of the city.

ECONOMY IN NEW HUDSON LINE ALREADY ATTRACTING ATTENTION.

Although the new and improved steel Hudson coaches have been on the market here only about a month, and most of them in the hands of owners have not yet exceeded their breaking-in mileage period, reports of their high gasoline economy already are beginning to flow into the Sturgis Motor Sales, Hudson-Essex dealers.

That the new Hudsons, considering their high speed, abundant power and other fine car characteristics have an amazing quality of gasoline thrift, is the assertion of owners.

The greater fuel mileage noted on the new cars is thus explained by W. J. Sturgis:

"By an improvement in the intake manifold, the engineers for Hudson have made possible a better distribution of fuel. By getting the maximum of power from every drop of gasoline, much better fuel mileage than even the excellent mileage made with former Hudsons is now secured."

Two finished bodies with striping, steel construction in the coach, improved upholstery, nicked radiator shell, a rounded rear quarter and other refinements characterize the new series Hudsons. It is stated: refinements which have caused an immediate demand throughout the entire country, and an especially heavy rush in the territory of the Plymouth organization.

TEMPLE THEATRE
Detroit, Michigan.

Trini, Spain's foremost artist and most beautiful woman, headlines the bill at B. F. Keith's Temple Theatre, starting Sunday matinee. Trini offers a magnificent divertissement of French and Spanish dances assisted by Louis Betancourt's Marimba Band. Trini is a comedienne and a dramatic actress of rare attainment, and her vaudeville vehicle has been fashioned to give her ample opportunity to show these talents. Others listed: Dare and Wahl, "two ambitious youths," late of Ziegfeld's Follies; Moss and Frye, originators of "How High Is Up," and other new and old sayings; Harrington Sisters, vaudeville's sweethearts in a new song offering; Carleton Emmy's pets; Lorin Baker and Company in "Contradiction," the Genaro Girls, described as "The Acme of Flexibility," the Clever Dancers from Clownland, and the new screen subjects.

Can Do Without Light

Four hundred or more boys and girls, graduates of Wichita (Kan.) high school, were holding their commencement exercises. Just as Dean Schwieger of the University of Kansas began the commencement address the lights went out. The exercises were practically completed before the light came on again. So the class voted to change its class motto to "The first class bright enough to graduate in the dark."

They figured it out this way: Why should they ultimately bear the cost of a new wood floor when, with judicious applications of Acme Quality Floor Paint, they could keep the old floor beautiful and easier to clean and also preserve indefinitely its wearing qualities?

The delegates elected to the Wayne association last week, to meet at Wixom, September 28 and 29, were: Rev. Sayles and wife, S. L. Bennett and wife, Joseph Stanley.

The revival meeting, announced to begin next Sunday, is postponed on account of the severe sickness of the evangelist at his home in Akron, Ohio. At a later date we hope to have him with us, with his voice in song. The windows are all back in place, after needed repairs made in the Pittsburgh Glass Co., Detroit.

The report of the home coming day at the church, yesterday, September 30, will be given next week.

The B. Y. P. U. was to hold a steak roast at Phoenix Park, last Monday evening, but on account of rain held it in the church.

NASH

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

Nash entirely encases the front brake shoes which are of die cast aluminum. And thus keeps out all water and dirt from the mechanism. Note extremely large brake drum shown at left.

The Simplest and Most Efficient 4 Wheel Brakes

Standard Equipment—No Extra Cost

Another vital Nash mechanical superiority is the special Nash 4-wheel brake system—the safest, simplest and most efficient type known to the industry.

Fully equalized to right and left, front and rear, these brakes banish entirely the dangerous swerving characteristic of partially equalized brakes.

They are of unique simplicity in design, having fewer points requiring lubrication than any other mechanical brake system.

Their instant, powerful, but velvety ease-of pressure is scientifically distributed, 60% to the rear and 40% to the front.

The sixteen new Nash models now on display range in price from $865 to $2090 f. o. b. factory.

That our nation's fire-loss in 1925, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the country's authority on the subject, was $562,751,466?

Who pays this tremendous annual tribute to destruction? Not only the owners of the property destroyed. Not only the families of the 20,000 persons who die in fires every year. Every resident of the country pays his share.

These destructive fires—one dwelling house burns in our country every four minutes day and night. The National fire-loss is a National problem. For that reason, President Coolidge has set apart this week for public instruction as to the cause of fires and means of preventing them.

Our Contribution to Fire Prevention Work

As a contribution to Fire Prevention Work, this agency will distribute several hundred Pyrex Fire Extinguishers. Watch for further announcement of this offer.

THE THEATRE

"OLD LOVES AND NEW"

Marion Fairfax, world's only woman screen producer, selected a most admirable cast to usher in her first production, "Old Loves and New," which comes to the Pennington Allen theatre Saturday, October 2.

The ever popular Lewis Stone heads the cast of this adaptation of E. M. Hull's celebrated novel, "The Desert Trail." Barbara Bedford, a charming girl and a consistently capable actress, plays opposite him. Tully Marshall, the "man of the thousand faces," has a small but intensely vigorous part. Others in the cast are Walter Pidgeon, Katherine McDonald, Arthur Rankin, Ann Rork and Albert Conti.

It is superb entertainment, this "Old Loves and New"—a film replete with forceful situations, engrossing love interest, action and suspense, and a setting in the Near East that brings the mirage-like pictorial splendor of that far-off land before the eye in a glittering panorama of desert and tropical brilliance.

Lewis Stone stands out in new relief in the role of the faith shattered Englishman who buries himself among the Arabs of Algeria and becomes the "healer" of their physical and political ills. Stone divests himself of his inveterate somber reserve like a warrior stripping to battle armor and throws himself into his stirring role of a new fire and force.

Miss Fairfax has taken the melodramatic ingredients of the book and compounded them with deft skill with the beautiful love story and knowledge of native character that won this work by popular Mrs. Hull the palm as her finest story.

"Old Loves and New" was directed by Maurice Tourneur and beautifully photographed by Henry Cronjager. It is being released by First National.

"PADLOCKED"

That all modern youth is not flaming youth, and that parents should be their children's best friends and not their severest critics are the inevitable conclusions one reaches after viewing "Padlocked" at the Pennington Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, October 3 and 4.

This celluloid version of Rex Beach's absorbing Cosmopolitan Magazine serial hits the bull's-eye of entertainment because it appeals to the eye, the heart and the mind. Allan Dwan, the director, has given the picture an extravagant mounting that makes it pictorially attractive. Moreover, he has succeeded in keeping the story keyed to a high dramatic tempo throughout, so that the interest is sustained right up to the final fadeout. In this he has been ably assisted by Becky Gardner and James Shelley Hamilton, scenarists, who have contributed a smooth and logical continuity.

"Padlocked" is a story of paternal repression and its effect on a spirited young girl of today. Lois Moran, the wistful heroine of "Stella Dallas," gives an inspired performance as the modern daughter, who braves the dangers and temptations of Broadway night life in pursuit of a dancing career. Noah Berry, as the old-fashioned father, whose zealous reform efforts drive his daughter from home, scores a distinct personal triumph in a very difficult role. Louise Dresser, the third featured member, brings both sincerity and convincingness to her part of a society woman with a past.

Helen Jerome Eddy, Allan Simpson, Florence Turner and Charles Lane are among the supporting players who acquit themselves with distinction.

"FASCINATING YOUTH"

Novelty—thy name is Cinema. "Fascinating Youth," Paramount's latest comedy, comes to the Pennington Allen theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, October 6 and 7. It is no ordinary film—his hilarious concoction which so highly amuses audiences. Rather is it unique in that an original idea has been successfully employed.

The principal parts are all enacted by members of the Paramount Picture School. This, you will remember, was the outcome of last year's nation-wide hunt for hidden talent. The boys and girls appearing in the film, would seem to be the "cream of cream." And—strange to say—every single mother's son or daughter, does his or her work in a manner that would win laurels for any experienced player.

Perhaps credit for the picture's success is due Director Sam Wood. Certainly, it takes patience, experience and a lot of knowledge to make a flock of amateurs act as though they had lived their lives in front of a camera.

Bryon Morgan's story concerns itself with a rich youth who lives in Greenwich Village and has nothing else to do but stake Charleston parties. It must be admitted though, that all his little playmates are agile and adept dancers. Then along comes papa.

"Make good on a job I'll give you—or marry the girl I've picked out."

And so—that he may wed the girl of his own heart, our hero starts to make his father's dreary winter resort a success. How he does this, with the aid of his friends, goes to make a very amusing comedy.

Everything needed to produce a good picture has been included in "Fascinating Youth." We have youth, beauty, action, romance, thrills, sport and a hundred other ingredients—more than enough to go round and satisfy all fans.

In addition to the Junior Stars, a cast of experienced players headed by Ralph Lewis, is seen. And—there's a surprise contained in the film which is too good to divulge. Just go to—and regain some of your "Fascinating Youth."

GIRL AND BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts are beginning their new year with Mr. Snavely as Scoutmaster. Mr. Page and Mr. Weatherman have consented to be assistant Scoutmasters. Next Thursday evening, September 30th, the Boy Scouts are to have a pot-luck supper, followed by a business meeting. The mothers are to be guests of honor at the initiation. It has been decided that only Star Scouts can go to the foot ball games at Ann Arbor. The senior patrol leader is Stuart Rambo; the junior, Frazer Carmichael, and William Curtis is the troop scribe. Under the supervision of Miss Gretchen Smith, the Girl Scouts have been re-organized this year. The first meeting of the Girl Scouts was held Tuesday, September 14th. The newly elected officers are as follows: First lieutenant, Elizabeth Burrows; secretary, Ruth Hamilton; treasurer, Mary Haskell; flag bearer, Elizabeth Strong. The patrol leaders are Rhea Peck, Catherine Nichol and Esther Vickery. It was agreed that five cents dues will be paid at every meeting to help buy a flag. The new girls will join the Girl Scouts, September 29, and we hope to have an interesting program. —Georgina Mitchell.

FOR FIRST TIME IN FIVE YEARS PLYMOUTH LOSES GAME TO NORTHVILLE AT FAIR.

After our victory over Milford, this rebuff was hardly expected, yet our boys put up a good opposition throughout. Our routers were there to cheer up the team, despite stormy weather. The keenest rivalry has always been felt between Northville and Plymouth at these games, and this is the first time we have lost to Northville in five years.

The line-up for Plymouth was: Left end, E. Carney; left tackle, Foster; left guard, D. Meinzinger; center, O. Partridge; right guard, Foster; right tackle, Tillotson; right end, B. Hubert; quarter, T. Hickey; right half, Reiman; fullback, S. Rambo; left half, A. Crumm. Substitutions made were at left half, Doudt for Crumm, and right end, Carmichael for Hubert in first quarter. At left end, B. Carney for Carmichael in second half.

Plymouth kicked off and ran the ball back to Northville's forty-yard line; then they took it down the field for a touchdown. Plymouth kicked off to Northville, and Plymouth downed Northville on the thirty-yard line. Many attempts were made for another touchdown at half, but on account of the slippery ground, neither side was able to make it. The half ended with the ball in the center of the field.

Second half Northville kicked off to Plymouth's twenty-yard line; then they put it back, but Plymouth was stopped by the opposing heavy line, and Northville failed to make another touchdown. Doudt of Plymouth punted out of bounds on Northville's thirty-yard line, but Northville failed again to take the ball down the field. Plymouth with courage took the ball down the field with a goal to make, but Rambo of Plymouth, fumbled, and Northville recovering, attempted to score. Quarter ended.

Northville punted to Plymouth's forty-yard line, and a long end run was made by Doudt. More attempts to gain yardage were made when Doudt fumbled, and Northville thus recovering made another touchdown, running thirty yards. Northville kicked to Plymouth, and in a serious exchange, the game ended with the ball close to Plymouth's twenty-yard line. The final score was 12 to 0, favoring Northville. —Elizabeth Murray, Marion Hickey, Theron Palmer, Harold Hubert.

MUNICIPAL NOTES

LITTE MANAGER

The storm Friday night caused the village quite a lot of damage, in the way of holes in the streets, sunken walks and overflowed sewers.

We are making arrangements with the county, looking to the cleaning out of Tompich creek as far down as the golden road. The petition for the work farther down does not seem to be taking very well.

The county road commission has unloaded forms along South Main street, and will shortly be building the curb along the new pavement. This will allow us to do at least some of the finishing along the street this fall.

The village congratulates the Michigan Bell Telephone Company on its new building and exchange. This equipment, with its capability for expansion will take care of the vicinity of Plymouth for a long time.

The change in the telephone central made necessary the re-routing of the control wires for the fire siren. These have been brought to a switch in the operator's room in the new building.

Remember the Board of Review for the special assessments on the 1925 and 1926 sanitary sewers. This Board meets at the village hall tomorrow, Saturday, from eight until four o'clock. There are nine assessment rolls, one for each of the districts into which the area affected has been divided.

Try to follow a Pontiac Six for a day

The Pontiac Six is designed to travel rough roads without pitching, gallop or sideway. It is built to withstand the pounding of sustained high speeds. It will maintain the punishing pace of better than 50 miles an hour, for as long as you like—and easily, too!

And simply because, with that stamina are combined comfort, grace and beauty, as in no other low-priced six, the Pontiac Six continues its triumphant march toward the unchallenged sales leadership of its field.

Pontiac Six Landau Sedan, $895. Oakland Six, companion to Pontiac Six, $1025 to $1295. All prices at Factory. Easy to pay on the liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.
