PLYMOUTH HIGH WINS FROM YPSI

IN ONE OF THE BEST GAMES OF THE SEASON, THE LOCALS GET A 20 TO 7 SCORE OVER ROOSEVELT HIGH LAST FRIDAY.

We take the following account from the Daily Ypsilanti Press regarding the game with Roosevelt High and Plymouth High foot ball eleven at Ypsilanti, last Friday afternoon:

Roosevelt High football team lost a hard fought game to Plymouth High 20 to 7 Friday afternoon at Roosevelt Field when the visiting team twice got breaks in the last two minutes of the game and turned both of them into touchdowns.

The game started off even enough, neither team being able to make much headway with the ball in enemy territory. Roosevelt took the ball from the kick off and by a series of line plunges advanced it from their 45 yard line to Plymouth's 30 yard line and here they lost it on downs.

In the third quarter the local team found itself and scored its lone touchdown. Groom after receiving a point on his own 35 yard line made a nice return, bringing it to midfield. Successive line plunges by Jimmy Mott, House and Milton Mott brought the ball from the 50 yard line to the 2 yard mark from where Jimmy Mott in two attempts at the line crossed the final chalk mark for the touchdown.

With her two minutes to go and Roosevelt leading 7 to 6 the break occurred which gave the visitors the chance to win the game. One of the Roosevelt backs fumbled on his own 20 yard line and a Plymouth lineman recovered. One attempt at the center of Roosevelt's line failed but on the second down Rambo circled his opponent's left end for the second touchdown. Hickey drop kicked for the extra point.

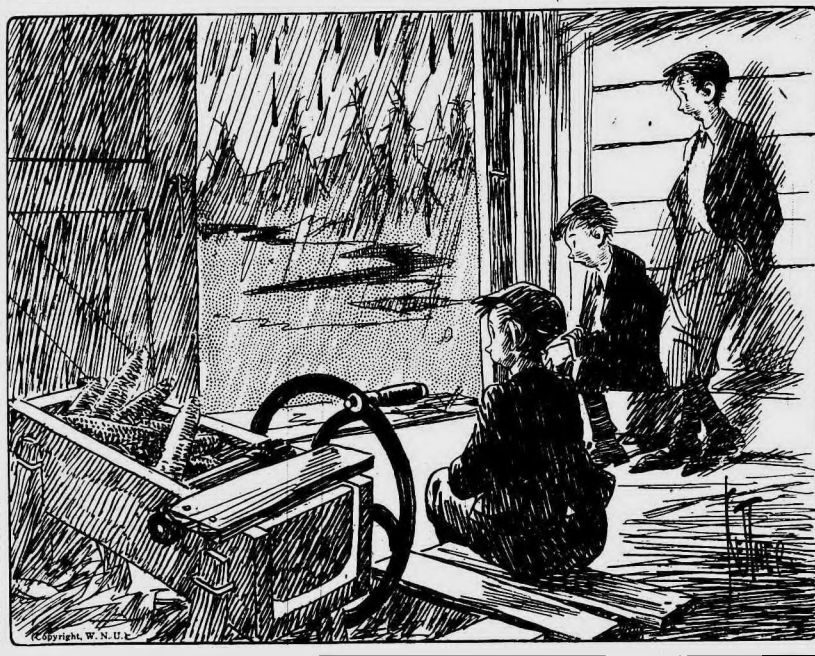

With the score 13 to 7 against them and less than two minutes to play the local team launched a desperate attack which netted them around 55 yards. C. Spike started things when he returned the kick off from his 20 yard line to his 35 yard mark before being downed. A forward pass, M. Mott to House, netted 14 yards. Another pass, Groom to House, put the ball on Plymouth's 32 yard mark. Capt. Groom then ran around Plymouth's left end for 8 yards. Another pass by Groom was intercepted by Rambo who raced from his own 10 yard line the 90 remaining yards for a touchdown. Hickey again drop kicked for the extra point.

To have victory apparently within their grasp and then to lose so decisively is certainly discouraging for Roosevelt but the local boys can find solace in the fact that they put up the best exhibition in this game that they have shown this year, and that a good team beat them.

Rambo was easily the star of the visiting team, scoring all three of their touchdowns, and playing a nice game defensively. Hickey, Carney and Wood also played well for the winners. Dondt, Plymouth's star backfield performer, was unable to play in the game because of an arm injury suffered a week ago.

DEHOCO'S WON BASE BALL TOURNAMENT

NORTHVILLE DEFEATED WAYNE 14 TO 5, AND THE DEHOCO BOYS DEFEATED NORTHVILLE IN THE DECIDING GAME 5 TO 4, AT THE HOUSE OF CORRECTION FARM LAST SUNDAY.

The folks that attended the last games of the season at the Detroit House of Correction farm last Sunday, enjoyed the most extraordinary and unique exhibition of base ball this summer. Extraordinary and unique they were because an old gent 53 years of age, known by his friends as "old Harry German," pitched a both games with rare judgment and great effect.

The second game was a spectacle that fans will never again witness. Some young men have tried to pitch two successive days and have found it a difficult task indeed. But "old Harry" thinks it is a picnic to get in the box and never leave it. Sunday, the people speculated as to who would pitch the second game that afternoon. It was evident that Northville was to be the winner of the first game of the elimination tournament.

When the game was called, behold the pitcher on the mound. It is no one but the "Grand Old Man" himself. And how he pitched! Some of the lusty sluggers of which the Farmer boys have boasted throughout the summer, were brushed aside by Harry's elusive curves and super control. It was too bad he was not the winner. But losing it does not take the glory and admiration that the fans must have for this remarkable base ball celebrity. Harry has been playing base ball for 30 years. Quite a record.

Rowland should be a very proud young fellow to have had the opportunity and then to be the winner in the best game played this summer at the Farm Grounds. He pitched a brilliant game, allowing the opposition six scattered hits. He had to pitch against some big time players in Vern Spencer, who was with Buffalo; Earl Stimpson, who played in the Mint League, and Meed who is a slugger of no mean ability.

The game was a nip and tuck affair from the first inning on. The veteran Hank Perry came through with a single in the seventh that sewed up the game for the Farmer Boys. Budnick, the diminutive second sacker, was the biggest thorn in "Old Harry's" side, getting three hits, and made two of the five runs. The tense moment of the game was in the ninth. Northville had Harry German on second with two out. Earl Stimpson was up. Captain Hunter advised Rowland to purposely pass Stimpson and pitch to the next batter. Rowland was undaunted by Earl's slugging ability, as he pitched to him, and the result was a grounder right into his hands, and Harry was left stranded on second with the tying run.

RADIO AND READING

We heard a Plymouth man arguing the other day that radio is discouraging the practice of reading; that many people who once spent the evening hours in reading now spend them in listening over the radio. We cannot agree with him. Many people who were non-readers before radio was discovered are now taking one or more newspapers. They hear things over the radio they want to know more about, and as they hear news of the world over the radio they form a greater desire to know the news of their own town and community—so they subscribe for the newspaper. Now through the long winter evenings they have a double-enjoyment, for they can tune in for a good program of music, and sit by a warm fire and read their paper while it is coming in. So instead of discouraging reading the radio is doing it with it. Had you thought of it that way? Now is a good season to start the radio. But be sure your subscription to the newspaper is also taken care of.

ABOUT VOTING

We see where an organization has been formed in this country that has for its sole object the development of plans whereby more voters can be made to see the importance of going to the polls on election day. We believe this new organization is a good thing. We know, at least, that it has set out a big job for itself, and especially if all sections of the country are anything like our own.

There is one thing we would like to impress on voters around Plymouth, and that is that the agitators, the obstructionists, are most alert when election day arrives. They go to the polls and vote. As a result we are constantly in danger in getting into public office in this country a far different type of men than we prefer to have there. Unless every taxpayer exercises his right of suffrage and goes to the polls on election day the time may come when the radical element in this country will cast votes enough to swing elections their own way. Then we to our cherished institutions.

Why wait until it is too late to show that you have the best interests of your state and your nation at heart? Why make the mistake of thinking that "just one more vote won't change things either way"? It isn't a patriotic thing to do, and neither is it a safe thing to do. Make up your mind that from now on you are going to take a hand in the running of your state and your nation. But you can only do it by going to the polls and voting, regardless of what the other fellow does.

STRAY DOGS

You may not have realized it, but the problem of stray dogs is more serious in the rural districts than it is right here in Plymouth. The stray dog, or any dog, for that matter, in town is not as great a menace as he is in the country, because in town there are too many eyes to watch him and keep him out of mischief. In the country he can do great damage to live stock and poultry and get away before anyone detects his presence. The losses to farmers around here through the destruction of chickens by stray dogs will run into many dollars annually, while no one will ever be able to estimate the loss they occasion through their destruction of game.

It's pretty hard to conduct a "clean-up" campaign in the country to rid it of stray dogs. They are never in sight when a hunt for them is prosecuted. They hide away by day and do their prowling at night, and seldom is the victim of their slaughter enabled to get in range of them with a shotgun. In town scores of citizens will turn out to rid the community of a dangerous or worthless dog. But the rural districts are at their mercy. rural residents are suffering great monetary loss as a result of their depredations, and no solution of the problem is in sight. Every farmer, apparently, must look after his own interest in this respect. And no one can blame him if he uses his shotgun freely.

A BRIGHT BOY

One of the big auto tire companies of this country recently offered a four-year college scholarship for the best essay on the importance of good roads. And believe it or not the winner is 16-year-old John Texera of Honolulu, Hawaii. We believe most everyone around Plymouth will be glad of a chance to read what John wrote. So here are the high points in his essay:

"The farmer is the basic member of society. He feeds the world. Upon his prosperity depends the prosperity of the country. The bakery makes the bread but the farmer furnishes the wheat; your factories make tin cans but it requires the farmers to fill them. Hence the good roads lead from the farm to the railroad station, from station to factory, and from the factory back to the station and the homes everywhere. Highways make possible the interchange of products. They are the links in the great commercial chain. Without them we are isolated communities; with them, we form a nation."

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet Thursday, October 28, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. D. A. Joffe, 354 North Main street. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Mary Hillner. Mrs. Phoebe Patterson, who attended the national convention of the W. C. T. U., held in Los Angeles, California, will be the speaker for the day, and there will be musical selections. Everyone will be welcome, and it is hoped there will be a good attendance. Members, whose yearly dues are still unpaid, are urged to pay them, if possible, at this meeting.

AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION ON BALLOT

TERMS FOR SHERIFFS, LAND CONDEMNATION, METROPOLITAN PLAN INCLUDED.

Four proposed constitutional amendments and a suggestion that a convention be held in 1927 to write an entirely new constitution will be submitted to Michigan voters in the general election November 2nd, for approval or rejection.

The proposed amendments were introduced by resolutions adopted by the 1925 legislature. They provide:

1. That sheriffs be permitted to hold an unlimited number of successive terms. They are now limited to two consecutive terms.

2. That municipalities be empowered to condemn more land than is actually needed for public improvements. This amendment is known as the excess condemnation proposal. It is designed to permit cities to condemn more land than actually is needed for boulevards, street widening or other improvements, so owners will not be left with small, worthless parcels on their hands, and municipal programs may be carried out.

3. That two or more cities, villages or townships may combine to create metropolitan districts for the purpose of acquiring, owning and operating public parks, sewage disposal plants, drainage, water, light, power and transportation facilities, subject to the approval of electors in the affected districts.

4. That the compensation of the members of the legislature be increased from $800 for the regular session and the two year term to $1,200, and that their pay for extra sessions be $10, instead of $5 a day for the first 20 days.

The proposal that a constitutional convention be called is provided for by the constitution of 1908, which makes it mandatory upon the secretary of state to place the proposal on the ballots of 1926, and each succeeding sixteen years thereafter.

If the voters decide in favor of a revision, delegates to the convention would be elected in the regular spring election of 1927—the delegates to each senatorial convention. The convention would open in September, 1927, and continue until the revision was completed. The rewritten constitution would then be submitted to the voters in November, 1928, for approval or rejection. Each delegate would be paid $1,000.

Only a majority is necessary to carry the amendments of the revision proposal.

NEW ROUTE TO FLORIDA

Because of detours resulting from road construction operations in several places on the route to Florida, a new route has been advised by the Plymouth branch of the Detroit Automobile Club. The route that is recommended follows the old one as far as Chattanooga, Tenn., through Cincinnati, Ohio, and Lexington and Knoxville, Tenn. Then it branches west from the former route through Rome, Ga., and Newnan, Georgia, to Griffin in the same state, just south of Atlanta. The route then turns south through Americus to Thomasville. There it turns east along the Georgia southern border until it joins the former route at Valdosta. From there on the old highway leads south into the Everglade state.

EAST PLYMOUTH

Don't forget the good old fashioned chicken supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiman in Plymouth, November 3rd. Get your tickets now at Reiman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Collins of Robinson Sub. spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pettibone on Ford road. Lyman Pettibone of Ypsilanti, had dinner with his brother, E. E. Pettibone and family, Monday.

Mrs. John Macdonald of East Ann Arbor road spent Monday and Tuesday of this week in Detroit.

Miss Charissa Hix of Ferrisville, was a Plymouth visitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hanchett and sons of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Collins of Robinson Sub., were Sunday callers at the E. E. Pettibone home.

Mrs. Josephine Hix spent a few days this week with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Reiman and family, in Plymouth.

Mrs. Archie Collins and Mrs. Josephine Hix called on Mrs. Arthur Hanchett, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Hanchett and Mrs. Guy White Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. E. E. Pettibone spent Wednesday afternoon at Northville.

The curb on the new South Main street pavement has been completed by the Wayne County road crew. They are now backfilling and smoothing off the dirt back of the curbs. The curbing is a nice piece of work and adds a lot to the looks of the street.

The Edison company has reset their ornamental light posts from Ann Arbor street to Wing street, and these will be working again shortly.

We are sending for two inch and three inch water meters, to set on the lines supplying our two school buildings. The Commission, at their last meeting, voted to assess the district for water use.

Huhn & Dickinson are busy through laying the sanitary sewer lateral on Maple avenue, from Pine street to Main street. They have been doing this by hand. The big digger has been repaired, and has finished the Blanche street lateral from Amelia to Starkweather, and is now on Grand avenue.

The State Sanitary Engineers' man was here the other day, looking over the new disposal plant with the village manager. Arrangements were made to prepare for certain daily tests and inspections required by the state at plants of this nature. Examination of the outlet where the discharge from the plant enters the river showed the effluent to be clear enough so that minnows were swimming in the outlet pipe. Evidently the purification of the sewage is complete enough to be very satisfactory.

The statements for the special assessments on the sanitary sewers have been mailed out. These statements bear the date of October 15th, and the first installments are due and payable within 30 days. Quite a number of people are paying their assessments in full now, which plan has numerous advantages for both the village and the property owner. For him it saves seven or eight dollars in interest which would be charged at the rate of 6% on the deferred payments. For the village it saves bookkeeping, and, if a sufficient number pay up in full, it may mean a reduced special assessment bond issue, which would be a big advantage, of course.

FERRISVILLE SCHOOL NOTES

We organized our Citizenship Club, September 17, and the officers elected are as follows: President, Arnold Hix; vice president, George Kartje; secretary, Margaret Knorfake; treasurer, Bernadine Berneski; librarian, Paul Gebhardt; chief health inspector, Marion Bock.

We are busy planning a Halloween party, which the children will have Wednesday afternoon, October 27th.

The school board have purchased a lovely new sectional bookcase for us. We appreciate their kindness very much.

A meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held at our school, Friday evening, October 15th. Mrs. George Bentley, president of the Wayne County Council of Parents and Teachers, gave a talk on the reasons for the Parent-Teacher Association. The entertainment given by the children of the Citizenship Club was as follows:

Play, "The Discoverer."
Recitation, "The Pumpkin's Laugh"—Donna Bridger.

Recitation, "A Song," by James Whitcomb Riley—Melvin Snyder.
The Spook Orchestra gave several musical numbers.

Apples were passed around for refreshments. The meeting was enjoyed by a large audience.

A box social and program will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knorfake, November 12th. The proceeds will be used to replace the phonograph taken from the school.

EARLIEST FORM OF MONEY IN AMERICA

"Pine Tree" Shilling First Colonial Currency.

The "Pine Tree" shilling was the first money made for common use in the American colonies, particularly for New England, and dated 1652, says Farran Zerbe in "The Story of Money," issued by the Chase National Bank. It continued to be struck for some thirty years thereafter, but all the coins bear the same date. A manufacturer by the name of John Hull had the contract to coin this money. By his contract he received one coin for himself out of a certain number made for the colony. By virtue of this contract Hull managed to become a very wealthy man, and the state wished to cancel the contract, but the shrewd gentleman would not allow it. It is related that at the wedding of his daughter he had a balance set up, on one tray of which his daughter stood, while coin was put on the other tray until a balance was reached. That was her dowry—her weight in coin.

Before and during the Revolutionary war there were some interesting notes issued in America. For example, there was a note issued by the Sons of Liberty in Boston in order to finance the cause of freedom. These notes were brought out in 1773. An original specimen, of great rarity, is in this collection. Its face value was 24 shillings. Paper money was in common use in the Colonies from its enforced use in Massachusetts in 1690. In Philadelphia checks were made out in the eighteenth century which did not mention any bank, but merely started out as follows:

"Cashier of the bank. Please pay to the order of," etc.

The reason no bank name appeared on the check was that Philadelphia there was only one bank—the Bank of North America—and so no mistake could possibly arise as to where to go for final payment.

One of the most interesting of the Continental paper moneys was an early note issued in 1780 by the state of Massachusetts Bay, now Massachusetts. The purpose of this was to finance the state's quota of the Continental army. The note reads as follows: "Pay 250 pounds on the first day of March, both principal and interest to be paid in the then current money of the said state in a greater or less sum according as five bushels of corn, sixty-eight and four-sevenths pounds of a part of beef, ten pounds of sheep's wool and sixteen pounds of sole leather, shall then cost, more or less than 130 pounds current money at the then current prices of said articles, the same being thirty-two times and one-half what the same quantities of the same articles would cost at the prices affixed to them in a law of this state in the year of our Lord 1777."

Lapland Girls Studious

Eager for knowledge of the outside world, Lapland girls in Sirma, near the border of Finland, are enthusiastic students in the Y. W. C. A. traveling school, according to a report from Froken Braathen of the World's Young Women's Christian association, with headquarters in London.

To reach the girls of Sirma the teachers of the winter school traveled 60 miles in an open sled on a frozen river. Many of the girls had difficulty in reaching the points where the traveling school made temporary stops. For the summer course two young girls traveled more than 100 miles in a rowboat.

The Y. W. C. A. courses include handicraft, cooking, anatomy, nursing and first aid. In a recent report the association says that within the past year its traveling secretaries have visited 23 of the countries that have flourishing associations of many years' standing.

Suburbanites

Both Gilmore Walker and Tommy Malloy, film editors, have moved into suburban residences and are always comparing notes on their respective places. The other day when they met, Walker said:

"I like my place better and better; it's great in the morning to hear the leaves whispering outside your window."

"I like that part of it," admitted Tommy, "but it sure gets my goat to hear the lawn mow."—Los Angeles Times.

Go to Church by Radio

Dressing up for the Sunday radio church services is the weekly observance at the ranch home of Hardy Farmer, about twenty-five miles from Junction, Texas. There is no church near the ranch, so the Farmers tune in on services broadcast from various stations. Mrs. Farmer explained that dressing for the occasion assures serious and proper observance of the religious services and thereby affords religious training for the little nine-year-old daughter in the family.—Indianapolis News.

Japanese Wire Industry

There are 11 companies in Japan manufacturing electric wire. Their combined capital is estimated at $18,145,000, with individual capitalizations ranging from $66,300 to $6,231,000. The manufacturers have shown particular skill in the production of various lines of small and medium gauge copper wire, both bare and insulated. In 1909 the production of wire and cable totaled $2,941,700 in value; it increased to $24,156,500 in 1926, and amounted to $43,736,900 in 1925.

THE CROP REPORT

NEARLY ALL CROPS HAVE SUFFERED FROM ADVERSE WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Some extent from adverse weather conditions during September. Rain occurred on about one-half of the days of the month and was considerably above normal in amount in most sections. The wet weather interfered with wheat seeding and the harvesting of beans, buckwheat, clover seed and late hay. A killing frost on the 26th occurred in all except a few southwest counties and a narrow strip along Lake Michigan. This stopped further development of corn, beans, potatoes and buckwheat, causing extensive injury to fields of corn and beans that had not reached maturity at the time.

Corn: Early fields in the southern districts reached a fair degree of maturity before the frost, but late fields and much of the acreage in the central and northern districts was frozen while in the early dough stage, so that much corn will be soft and of low feeding value. A special injury resulted in finding about 45 per cent had reached maturity, 30 per cent was in the hard dough stage, and the remaining 25 per cent was below the hard dough stage. The condition is rated at 74 per cent, which is equivalent to a production of 51,868,000 bushels. Last year's crop amounted to 65,680,000 bushels. Because of the unusually early frost, more than usual is being put into silos.

The forecast for the United States is 2,679,988,000 bushels as compared with a production of 2,900,581,000 in 1925. The average condition is 72.4 per cent.

Spring Wheat: The average yield of spring wheat is estimated to be 16.5 bushels per acre, making the total crop 82,000 bushels. The production last year amounted to 90,000 bushels. The quality is 80 per cent.

The crop for the entire country is estimated to be 213,336,000 bushels against 270,879,000 in 1925. The quality as reported is 87.1 per cent.

All Wheat: It is estimated that 30 per cent of the Michigan crop, or 5,450,000 bushels, was marketed prior to October 1.

Oats: Many oats were damaged by rains while standing in the shock, and are more or less discolored. They are also light in weight. The yield averaged 33 bushels per acre, making a total of 56,001,000 bushels produced in 1925, as compared with 53,248,000 in 1925. The quality is 79 per cent.

The national crop amounts to 1,282,411,000 bushels against 1,501,900,000 last year. The quality is relatively low, being rated at 78.9 per cent.

Barley: The yield is estimated at 28.5 bushels per acre, or a total production of 3,565,000 bushels. There was some rust and rain damage resulting in considerable discoloration and light-weight grain. The quality is reported at 85 per cent, or three per cent below the average. The 1925 crop was 3,087,000 bushels.

The total crop of the United States is estimated at 196,702,000 bushels, or about 21 millions less than produced last year. The quality is 84.3 per cent.

Buckwheat: Frost injured some late fields, and there has been difficulty in harvesting during the rainy period. As a result, the condition has declined to 79 per cent which represents a crop of 804,000 bushels as compared with 754,000 last year.

The combined production of states growing this crop is placed at 15,067,000 bushels which is 420,000 more than reported in 1925.

Potatoes: The frost of September 26 killed the vines in most sections and is bringing the late crop to maturity. In many counties this has been beneficial but it has shortened the yield in late planted fields in other localities. The northwestern counties of the lower peninsula are yielding heavier than last year. Montana and adjacent counties are reporting lighter yields. There is very little rot, and practically no blight. Potatoes are mostly of fine quality and digging of the late crop is under way. The condition is reported at 80 per cent, as compared with a ten-year average of 69. Last year it was 76 per cent. The estimated production is 27,888,000 bushels against 24,411,000 in 1925.

The crop of the entire country is now estimated at 350,824,000 bushels, slightly less than the previous month's forecast but 27 and one-half millions more than last year's relatively small production. This figure is fully 30 millions below the normal consumption needs.

Beans: Much difficulty has been experienced in harvesting the crop, due to frequent rains. There has also been much damage by rains, especially in the east-central counties, to the unharvested fields. Late fields had many green pods when the killing frost of September 26 occurred, and these will not mature properly. Considerable acreage in the eastern part of the state is too poor to harvest. As a result of the adverse weather conditions, the average yield has been reduced to an average of about ten bushels per acre, or a total production of 6,140,000 bushels. There will also be a heavy pickage, the loss being greater in the heaviest producing counties, so that the merchantable portion may fall as low as 5,000,000 bushels. October weather conditions will, of course, have considerable influence on the final results, which cannot be accurately determined until the harvest is completed.

There is a reduction in the United States' crop also, it now being estimated at 16,970,000 bushels as compared with 19,100,000 in 1925. The forecasts for other leading states are as follows: New York, 1,608,000; Montana, 391,000; Idaho, 1,320,000; Colorado, 1,197,000; New Mexico, 783,000 and California, 4,941,000 bushels.

Sugar Beets: The reported condition of 85 per cent is two per cent above the average and indicates a yield of around nine tons per acre from the acreage to be harvested, or a total production of 928,000 tons. The sugar content is much better than it was last year.

The combined production of the sugar beet states is estimated at 6,797,000 tons. Colorado leads with a prospective crop of 2,642,000 tons. Michigan ranks second in production.

Time Hay: The average yield of all kinds is estimated at 1.25 tons per acre, making the total crop 3,654,000 tons as compared with a crop in 1925 of 2,971,000. The ten-year average yield for the state is 1.33 tons per acre. The quality is generally good with the exception of the last cutting of alfalfa which has been injured by frequent rains. The yield of clover is 1.30 tons; alfalfa, 2.25; millet and sudan, 1.75; soybeans and cowpeas, 1.45; and other hay 0.95.

The country's hay production is placed at 83,158,000 tons, a little more than three millions less than last year.

Pastures: Pastures have improved and were reported at 88 per cent, or eight per cent above the average.

Clover Seed: The crop is well filled in some sections but failed to fill in others. The condition is rated at 63 per cent as compared with 67 last year. The acreage promises to be light.

Apples: The apple crop is estimated at 9,063,000 bushels, or 68 per cent of a crop. As a result of the large crop for the country as a whole, prices are low, closer grading will be practiced, and there will be more loss and waste than usual, thereby reducing the percentage that is considered as commercial. The commercial portion is estimated to be 1,591,000 barrels of which 51 per cent, or 811,000 barrels is made up of winter varieties. The quality is excellent, especially in the southwestern heavy-producing section.

There appears to be an abundant apple crop in nearly all states, as the national estimate is 234,252,000 bushels. This is the largest production since 1914. The 1925 crop was 164,616,000 bushels.

Peaches: The total production of peaches is estimated at 1,564,000 bushels, or 92 per cent of a full crop, the largest since 1916. Last year's light crop only amounted to 592,000 bushels. The quality is rated at 82 per cent, the fruit being slightly deficient in color and sugar content, and, in some orchards, is under size.

The aggregate production for all states amounts to 67,242,000 bushels against 46,565,000 in 1925, making it the largest crop ever grown.

Pears: The outlook has improved throughout the season and now shows a condition of 76 per cent, equivalent to a production of 945,000 bushels as compared with 450,000 in 1925.

The total crop of the United States amounts to 25,024,000 bushels, seven millions more than last year and four and one-half millions more than ever produced in a single year before.

Grapes: Grapes have been slow in ripening, but in the main commercial district escaped the frosts that have occurred elsewhere in the state. There has been only slight damage from rot and other diseases. The crop is estimated at 78 per cent, or 67,860 tons. Last year's production only amounted to 22,100 tons.

THE THEATRE

"THE NON-STOP FLIGHT"

That motion picture producers have so long missed the smashing melodrama and the tremendous power of such a subject as the U. S. Navy's history-making flight to Hawaii, with Commander Rogers and his courageous crew floating in the disabled PNS for nine days on the tumultuous rollers of the Pacific, is a surprise. Emory Johnson was the only man who saw the possibilities for filming an airplane epic in this spectacular event, which perhaps received more front page publicity than any other occurrence in a decade. And he has turned out for F. B. O. a dashing, surging production, based on the compering of the Pacific and written by his talented mother, Emilie Johnson. "The Non-Stop Flight," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, October 23, is reported by critics everywhere as the finest work this brilliant young director has yet achieved, even eclipsing such pictures as "The Third Alarm," "The Mailman," "Westbound Limited" and "The Last Edition." Mr. Johnson has assembled a great cast, and one of the most interesting inanimate "actors" in the drama is the great PNS herself, which the director obtained with the assistance of the U. S. Navy.

"FORLORN RIVER"

Zane Grey's genius for story telling and Paramount's superlative skill in picturing his colorful tales of the old West in all their gripping realism find celluloid expression in a new melodramatic thriller with the unusual title of "Forlorn River."

This is the very latest of Mr. Grey's adventurous tales and recently appeared serially in the Ladies Home Journal. The picture comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, October 24 and 25.

"Forlorn River" deals with a band of cattle rustlers who were the terror of the northwest cattle country when that section of the West was America's last frontier. Around this exciting clash between the desperadoes and the honest ranchers, the author has woven a dramatic romance that has an unexpected twist.

The principals involved are an outlaw, who is a fugitive from justice; a cattle rancher's daughter; and her boyhood sweetheart, Jack Holt. The picturesque role of "Novala," the mysterious outlaw; Arlette Marcel, noted French beauty, is the appealing heroine; and Edmund Burns is the third angle in this three-cornered love affair. Raymond Hatton, whose comedy characterizations have made him a favorite with picturegoers, plays the part of a tramp cowpuncher in his habitually humorous style.

The story was adapted by George C. Hill and directed by John Waters, who wielded the megaphone on another of Mr. Grey's stories, "Born to the West." Particular interest attaches to the remarkable scenic background, inasmuch as the entire production was filmed in Zion National Park, Utah, a primitive and majestic setting of great natural beauty.

Film fans, who have come to expect certain things in a Zane Grey photoplay, will find them in overflowing measure in this new opus. There is an abundance of hair-trigger action, stunt riding, gun fighting, in addition to an assortment of typical western thrills.

"MANTRAP"

Hailed as a "different" picture of the great outdoors, "Mantrap," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, October 27 and 28, furnishes something distinctly novel in pictures.

"Mantrap" is a powerful love story which ripples with the humor and satire of its distinguished author, Sinclair Lewis, who will be remembered for "Main Street," "Babbitt" and "Arrowsmith."

It is the tale of a summer camping trip taken by Percy Marmont, a young New York lawyer, who is tired of listening to woman clients asking for divorce; and a stocking manufacturer, Eugene Pallette, who proves to be at large on a camping trip.

Of course, Marmont doesn't get away from women, love triangles or marital infidelity by going to the Canadian woods. Instead he finds himself drawn into a domestic love situation as one of the principal characters.

Clara Bow is the girl, and she is nothing short of magnificent. The part was simply cut out for her from start to finish, and how she does walk away with it! As a manicurist in a Minneapolis barber shop, who unexpectedly finds herself married and living in a hum-drum Canadian trading post, Clara has the best role of her career.

Ernest Torrence, on whom everyone has come to depend for sure-fire entertainment, has a splendid part as "Joe Easter," the post trader, who makes his first trip to a big city in 15 years. It is a part replete with both humor and drama.

"Mantrap's" powerful conclusion is drawn against the spectacular background provided by a forest fire. The direction is ably handled by Victor Fleming.

If you know of an item of news, send or phone it to the Mail Office.

Today's Reflections

A quarter won't buy much any more but some Plymouth men like to carry one just for the memories it revives.

When a fellow faces a judge he knows there is no truth in the old saying that "the more a man gets the more he wants."

Possibly the reason the fellow who is going to get married doesn't ask for a month off is because he knows that a week's honeymoon will be plenty.

We heard a Plymouth man say not long ago that instead of making liquor hard to get prohibition has made it hard to drink.

Popular song writers are those who rummage the classics for their melody and steal their words from one another.

If things get any thicker in Mexico it will soon be time for the government to pull off a good bull-fight.

Why isn't a Plymouth married woman the better half when she is always getting the better of the other half?

A miracle moving picture is the one where the hero licks seven rough guys without skinning up his knuckles.

The Plymouth man who is always in such a big hurry to get across the street ahead of an auto ought to remember that the horse runs slow.

Work your face to be beautiful, says a Chicago beauty expert. But be sure to work it in the right place.

Somebody gave Jack Dempsey a four-leaf clover to put in his glove before the fight. Wouldn't a horseshoe have done him more good?

When we hear a Plymouth woman apologizing for her cooking before we sit down to the table we know we're going to get a good meal.

One nice thing about having two big political parties is we can always be sure of being poverty-stricken and prosperous at the same time.

Why is it some people never seem to know the time of day until the sun makes a straight shadow in the middle of the road.

When you hear a Plymouth woman declaring that "All men are just alike," you can bet she isn't intending it for a compliment.

If you call a pretty girl a duck she'll smile at you. But if you call her a goose—well that's something else.

You will get quick results and satisfaction from a liner ad in the Mail.

REALTORS TO ASK CON-GRESS FOR CHANGES
IN INCOME TAX LAW

NATIONAL CALL SENT OUT FOR INDIVIDUAL BOARD OPINIONS AND POSITION.

CONSOLIDATED VIEWPOINT TO BE PRESENTED TO JOINT CON-GRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.

Amendment of the Federal income tax law of 1926 or changes in the Treasury Department decisions under it so as to make provisions as to income returns in real estate sales coordinate equitably with usual and established business practice will be asked by the National Association of Real Estate Boards at the coming session of Congress, according to a letter which has just been sent out to the Association's member boards in 657 cities by its committee on Federal legislation and taxation.

Henry G. Zander, of Chicago, is chairman of the committee, and will lead the study of changes to be asked. Treasury Decision 2221, which includes the income tax regulations under the 1926 revision of the Income Tax Law and which has just been issued, is disappointing in many respects, the Association's committee states in its communication to member boards. "It is clear to your Committee that our remedy lies in seeking an amendment to the law itself."

The present wording of the law is handicapping real estate development and home ownership through unintentional penalization of firms offering the buyer homes on a long-time payment basis, the Association has already pointed out.

AMENDMENT OF THE MICHIGAN
REAL ESTATE LICENSE LAWS.

Amendment of the Michigan real estate license law to provide for its administration by a commission of three experienced real estate men who would serve without salary, and the adoption of a uniform mortgage law have been selected by the legislative committee of the Michigan Real Estate Association as special objectives for the year. These projects were selected after the returns from a questionnaire on the subject sent out to the various real estate boards of the state had been carefully considered. The commission suggested in the proposed amendment to the license law would replace the Securities Commission of the state in its function of administration of the law. The Securities Commission is composed of the Commissioner of Banking, the Commissioner of Insurance and the Attorney General.

Cheese in the Plural

Dr. Frank Vitzelly, editor of Funk & Wagnall's, says that "The plural of cheese is cheeses. It dates from 1380, and may be found in Langland's 'Vision of Piers Plowman'—'Twas in crumme cheeses.' The plural is used in instances where various varieties are considered, or numbers are specified: 'The cheese-monger stocks cheeses of all types—American, Erie, Camembert, Cheddar, Dutch, Edam and many others.' 'The farmer had 50 cheeses in his cheese-room.' In speaking of the article in its attributive sense or referring to it in bulk, the singular form of the word is correct, thus: 'Cheese sandwiches'; 'great quantities of cheese'; 'the cheese market.'"

A James Toast

Henry James was once dining with Theodore Cook, author of "The Sun-It Hours," on the latter's birthday. Lifting his glass of port, he rose with ponderous kindliness.

"My dear Theodore," he began, "I hold in my hand a glass, perhaps I should say goblet, filled to the brim with a fluid which has a poisonous and practically fatal effect on every nerve of my body; but I am asked to propose your health and if you imagine—if your friends here imagine—that by one scientific it may be ameliorated, I will drink it to the dregs." Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Sorts Cigars Quickly

Sixty times a minute a new cigar-sorting machine picks up a cigar, looks at it and selects the compartment where it belongs, according to the shade of its brown coloring. Mechanism then deposits it in the proper place. The new device, which is being utilized by several cigar manufacturers, is actuated by a photoelectric cell similar to those used in television. Light from the cigar falls on the sensitive alkali metal coating inside the cell, resulting in a shower of electrons which, properly controlled in an electric circuit, act on a relay circuit.

Many Kinds of Milk

According to definitions recently announced by the Department of Agriculture the word milk may mean any of the following thirteen kinds: Milk, pasteurized milk, homogenized milk, skimmed milk, buttermilk, goat's milk (and under this rating, ewe's milk), evaporated milk, sweetened condensed milk, evaporated skimmed milk, sweetened condensed milk, dried milk and dried skimmed milk.—Washington Star.

Highest Duty of Man, to "Serve the World"

Life is an endless quest, and its meaning is determined by what we are looking for. It is not necessary that we shall find what we seek, arrive at a predestined goal and be able to assure ourselves and the world triumphantly that the thing we have attained is exactly what we always wanted. What matters greatly is that we shall continue to strive and move onward. It has been wisely said that it is better to travel hopelessly than to arrive. And "a man sits as many risks as he runs."

But a mere restlessness does not make a lifetime noble and fruitful. Curiosity, though limitless and unappeased, of itself produces nothing. We have too much with us those who wish to be electrified continually by the tingling shock of fresh thrills and sensations, though the reaction leaves them spent. They seem to believe the world was made to amuse them; they are onlookers at a play, strollers through a museum, perpetual guests at a feast of bounty and of beauty, whoever remains outside and unfeared.

They need a vision; and it is forever true that "where there is no vision the people perish." They need to see that the world, though made for each of us, as Browning said, was made that we might serve it and not merely use it; might give to it and not simply take therefrom, and might add by the contribution of our tolling lives and thinking minds to the sum total of the truth and goodness that we found when we came here. Of little avail is the quest if the outcome is but treasure-trove that we put by for ourselves; and we are bound by the fact of our humanity as well as by our inheritance of the divine to remember always that "the best things any mortal hath are those that every mortal shares."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Potato Rich in Vitamines

The potato is an important source of vitamin B—the anti-neuritic vitamin, whose lack causes the disease known as beriberi. According to F. J. Lyman and Inez Blystone of the laboratory of applied chemistry at Ohio university, this essential element is distributed uniformly throughout the potato, and is stable both during cooking and storage. Meager in calories, the white potato supplies about 12 per cent of the American diet. Mr. Lyman and Miss Blystone have conducted a series of experiments in which they have found that rats thrive and grow at a normal rate on a diet containing as much as 80 per cent potatoes. When put off a diet of only 40 per cent potatoes from which other foods containing vitamin B were excluded the rats showed a rapid decline in condition, which disappeared as soon as a sufficient quantity of vitamin B was again supplied.

New Death-Dealing Device

A "death-noise," instead of a "death-ray" has been discussed before the National Academy of Sciences. The "death-noise" would have been inaudible to human ears, but it consisted of sound waves just the same, and it killed small fishes and other aquatic animals in vessels of water in less than a minute. By means of an electrical apparatus, high frequency sound waves have been generated at a rate of from 100,000 to 500,000 to the second; the upper limit of audibility to human ears is between 20,000 and 30,000. If a beam of these sound waves is directed toward the surface of the water, the surface is heaped up in a mound. The vibrations heat the water, a rise of nearly six degrees centigrade in one minute having been recorded.

Japs Urged to Drink Milk

Milk is to be introduced in Japan as a means of enlarging the stature of the people of Nippon. As the result of an investigation conducted by health authorities, it has been found that the lack in the diet of the bone and teeth building minerals, calcium, phosphorus and lime, is a primary contributing cause for the smallness in stature of the Japanese. Milk users, the officials reported, have been those peoples who are large, strong and vigorous, and who have reduced their infant mortality rate. In no other food, they said, was there as plentiful supply of the necessary bone-building materials.

Looking Far Into Future

Dwight L. Rogers of Providence, R. I.; Dr. James D. Gold of Bridgeport, Conn., and J. Benjamin Sedgwick of Pittsfield were a committee of three in charge of the centennial celebration of the North Cornwall (Conn.) Congregational church. The three were appointed to the committee just fifty years ago. The sesquicentennial committee, which will have charge of the exercises 50 years hence, comprises the following boys and girls: James Rogers, Benjamin Gold, Oliver M. Hart and Alberta Hurlburt.

First Paper From Wood

"According to an old, old legend, the Chinese first learned to make paper by watching the wasp build her nest," one learns from "Modern Aladdin and Their Magic," by Charles E. Rush and Amy Winslow. "A Chinaman, watching the wasp one day, discovered that she took a bite of wood, chewed it into paste, and smeared it on her nest. When the paste became dry it turned into something like our paper. Thus the Chinese learned to make paper from wood long before any other people in the world."

METHODIST NOTES

The Boosters' party has been postponed until Friday evening, October 29th.

The recreational committee has begun planning for the church house activities for the coming season. It is expected that there will be several teams in the field.

The Sunday-school activities and attendance have shown a remarkable increase during recent weeks. Stability is the order of the day.

BAPTIST NOTES

Sunday was a good day at the church. After the opening service, the pastor introduced to the audience, Rev. John Erskine, the evangelist, who has come to hold special revival meetings for two weeks; also he introduced Rev. Clyde L. VanPatten, who has charge of the music and young people's work. The meetings are starting off in good shape. You will enjoy both of the men as they preach and sing, so come every night.

Next Friday evening, the Boosters' choir will sing. About fifty young people have been trained for this service. Mr. VanPatten will also sing some of his fine solos.

Next Sunday morning, Evangelist Erskine will preach from the subject, “Growth.” In the evening service, his subject will be, “Two Certainties.” There will also be duets, trios and quartets. No service Saturday evening.

The B. Y. P. U. of Wayne Association will hold their fall rally at the First Baptist church of Plymouth, on the evening of November 5th. About 250 will come to swell the crowd from Howell on the north to Ypsilanti on the south.

Unseen Sources of Long Life

The basic sources of automobile value are not always apparent to the eye.

A motor car, like a house, may LOOK a great deal more substantial than it really is.

Because of this difficulty, more and more thousands are turning to Dodge Brothers product for insurance against disappointment.

The years have proved, and each year proves anew, that Dodge Brothers are as deeply concerned with the UNSEEN goodness of their motor car as with the seen.

The mileage it will deliver, the safety it will provide, the expense and trouble it will save the owner over a period of years, are quite as important to Dodge Brothers as the more obvious details of equipment and style.

Dad Plymouth says parents manage to remain sane until daughter takes a crazy notion to bob her hair. Then they go crazy too.

Always be careful about electing a politician who has strings tied to him. He has his drawbacks.

"The fellow who thinks life's a joke," says Dad Plymouth, "usually wakes up to find that the joke is on him."

Twenty years ago those who criticize our young people of today were young people themselves—and being criticized.

Dad Plymouth says about the only possession a woman has left that is as long as it ever was is her "minute."

The hunting season is here. When tramping across another man's property let your conscience be your guide.

"The most restless person in the world," declares Dad Plymouth, "is the young girl who is still wearing her hair long even though her best girl friend has just had her's bobbed."

"There are two kinds of wives who are apt to be disappointed in marriage," says Dad Plymouth. "One is the woman who marries the first man that comes along and the other is the woman who thinks she got the best man in the world."

PLAIN "WORKING GIRL" COW PROCLAIMED CHAMPION OF GRADE HOLSTEINS IN U. S.

A plain "working girl" cow has won the distinction of being the champion grade Holstein of the United States, and not only has made a remarkable milk production record in her own class, but has almost doubled the annual milk record of the average aristocrat in Cow Testing Associations—known in the dairy world as the purebred. This cow is Larrobel, crowned queen of the Holstein grades at the National Dairy Show just closed in Detroit.

Four years ago this champion was nameless and unknown—just one of a carload of ordinary cows purchased in New York state by James E. Larrowe of Detroit, for experimental purposes on his Research Farm. When taken to the farm this cow had what dairy experts call good conformation. That was the best that could be said of her as she was in poor condition and weighed but 985 pounds. She now weighs 1200. The future champion cost only $125. The experts on the Research Farm did not think much of her as material for building up a big producer, but when Mr. Larrowe was looking over his herd he discovered that this Holstein by proper feeding and treatment had developed into a wonderful cow. Her official cow testing records showed that last year she produced 13,032 pounds of milk, containing 481 pounds of butterfat—more than ten times her weight in milk. During the four years she had been on the farm she produced 47,572 pounds of milk, or an average of 11,893 pounds a year. Her best lactation period was 17,821 pounds in 360 days. It was pointed out by Mr. Larrowe that the average grade cow in Cow Testing Associations produces only 6,261 pounds a year, while the annual production of the average purebred is 7,182 pounds.

Breakfast-Table Beatitudes

Such happiness as the gods allot to mortals each day begins at the breakfast-table—and may end there. The result depends on the breakfast.

The wise housewife understands that the breakfast table which gives greatest happiness to her family, and which, incidentally, saves her much work and worry, is that on which electricity is used for cooking.

With coffee from the electric percolator, perfectly made and always hot; with toast served hot and crisp from the electric toaster as wanted; with waffles, fresh, hot and delicious, coming as desired from the electric waffle-iron, surely guarantee is given that breakfast shall be a pleasant meal and the promise of a happy day.

These table appliances can be bought of any electrical dealer.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE VILLAGE COMMISSION

Plymouth, Mich., Oct. 4, 1926.
A regular meeting of the Commission in the Commission room of the Village Hall, Monday evening, October 4, 1926, at 7:00 p. m. Present—All five Commissioners.

The minutes of the regular meeting of September 21st were approved as read.

At the request of the Commission, Village Attorney Dayton then drew up the following resolutions concerning tax rebates which were offered by Commissioner Henderson who moved its adoption, supported by Commissioner Fisher.

BE IT RESOLVED, that whenever any person, or persons, shall apply to the Village of Plymouth for relief, either in the form of deferring the payment of taxes or otherwise in any manner whatever, and the person or persons making such application shall be the owner of any real estate, or any interest therein, of sufficient value to protect the said Village of Plymouth before granting such relief, the Village of Plymouth shall require the person or persons, making such application, to give a mortgage, or an instrument in the nature of a mortgage, on such real estate, or interest therein, as the case may be, to secure the payment to said Village of Plymouth of all sums representing relief given, or to be given to such applicant; that the sums representing said relief given, or to be given, shall be payable to the said Village of Plymouth, on demand, with interest, from and after demand, at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and in all cases applications for such relief shall be made to the Village Commission of said Village of Plymouth.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all mortgages taken pursuant to the foregoing provisions, shall contain a clause requiring the mortgagor to pay all taxes assessed on the real estate or any interest therein, covered by said mortgage or instrument in the nature of a mortgage, and in case there are buildings thereon, that the same be kept insured with responsible insurance companies for amount sufficient to secure the Village of Plymouth against loss; and, in the event of non-payment of said taxes and insurance, when the same shall become due and payable, the Village of Plymouth shall have the right to pay same and all sums so paid shall be added to the amount secured by such mortgage or instrument in the nature of a mortgage, and shall be payable on demand and draw interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, from the time of demand, until paid.

Carried.
At the request of the Village Treasurer, the Commission authorized the president to extend the treasurer's warrant for collection of Village taxes for thirty days.

The deed for an extension of Harvey street presented by William Erkman at the last meeting, was upon the report of the Mayor, accepted with the hearing as corrected by the Attorney.

Mr. William Streinich then applied for an extension of his license for the Penniman Allen bowling alley, which application was, on motion, granted. Concerning the method of assessment for sanitary sewers the following resolution was offered by Commissioner Fisher, who moved its adoption, supported by Commissioner Pierce.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the basis for the assessment for the Sanitary Sewer Benefits of the Village of Plymouth shall be according to the following schedule:

(1) LAND ON WHICH THERE ARE NO BUILDINGS: For each lot of usual size, and for each area having a frontage equivalent to a lot of usual size, One Benefit.

The Budget appropriation of $1300 to the water fund and $280 to the Cemetery fund were then on motion directed to be transferred to their respective funds.

RISHMAN RULES ON
"ISLAND OF WOMEN"

Former Rail Worker Worshipped by Subjects.

"The Island of Women," in the South seas, is one of the strangest of all monarchies. Its inhabitants comprise few men and many women, so that the native women constantly are involved in a struggle to win husbands, making polygamy expedient.

The monarch is an Irishman, possessed of a long red beard and a name typical of his ancestral country—Michael O'Shaughnessy, says Robert Dean Fribble in Wide World.

"King Mike," as he is widely known, was a section hand on the Southern Pacific railway in California when his attention was attracted by a picture in a newspaper of a beautiful South Sea island girl and he embarked for Papeete.

O'Shaughnessy had heard of the mysterious island of Women where men are so few that they are worshipped by the women, and he made it his objective when later he left Tahiti aboard a small trading schooner.

Ships engaged in trading in the South Pacific seldom visit the Island of Women and those that do put into the deep-locked lagoon which serves as the island's port seldom leave for some time. Life for the sailors is easy and luxurious and it is infrequent that the captains of such vessels do not have to resort to trickery to lure members of their crews away from the native women, who idolize all men.

O'Shaughnessy was the second white man to take up his home on the Island of Women, the first having been a veteran of the World war who went there on a trading ship he had boarded without knowing its destination.

The future King Mike went to the island with a determination to become its monarch, but little did he surmise that it would be his bright red beard which would cause the old native king to abdicate in his favor. The women were deeply impressed by the young American's beard and they came to regard him as being a sort of a deity.

"I found Mike in his luxurious town palace (he also has a simple little villa up one of the valleys, and a more pretentious bamboo abode on the cliffs)," says Mr. Fribble reviewing his visit.

"Greatness, it appeared, had been thrust upon him. When the people heard his full baritone voice, saw him dance an Irish jig, and felt the red bristles on his broad chin, he was accepted as a superman and regarded as the equal of the native king. But when he took unto himself six wives and later as he became familiar with the language, preached the doctrine of polygamy as he saw it, the old king abdicated and Mike ascended to the throne."

Valuable Dust

A fan effectively collects the filings and grindings in a shop where valuable metals are worked, and saves the portion usually lost in the cracks in the floor. The electric motor and controller operate the grinding wheel. At the left is a small motor-operated exhaust fan which draws the particles into a funnel-shaped opening, placed as near the work as possible. This discharges into a sack on the floor.

The simplicity of this arrangement and the savings resulting from its use recommend it highly wherever precious or semi-precious metals are worked.

Most jewelers do not heed the arrangement because the saving would be too small, but manufacturers have found the investment paid beyond all expectations.

Horse Still Holds Place

The American horse was for 200 years the sole means of inland travel and the great essential to all business in and between the various colonies made him a driving horse and none of the inventions of modern times, from the introduction of railroads to bicycles and horseless vehicles generally, has affected his popularity or his value. To the superficial observer it would appear as if improved means of vehicular transport would diminish the breeding of horses as well as decrease their value, but thus far such has not been the case. Good horses have a higher value than ever, and as the demand for cheap or poorly bred horses diminishes, the better bred ones survive.
