OCTOBER 26-27 OPENING DAYS FOR HOTEL MAYFLOWER

Beautiful New Hotel Open for Inspection Wednesday Evening, With Banquet and Reception on Thursday Evening.

Workmen Now Putting on Finishing Touches While Equipment and Furnishings Are Rapidly Being Put in Place—Everything Ready for Opening Day.

HOTEL MAYFLOWER EDITION.

The day following the opening of Hotel Mayflower the Plymouth Mail will publish the largest edition devoted to a structural project ever issued in Wayne county.

The circulation of this edition will be widespread over this section of the county, together with many business places in Detroit. It provides the advertiser with an opportunity to secure a great additional coverage over the normal circulation.

Demand for space in this edition has been unparalleled and we have found it necessary to add additional pages, but advertisers are warned that copy must be in this office not later than Tuesday, October 25th. Requests for extra copies of the Mail should also reach the office not later than the above date.

KIWANIANS HEAR INTERESTING TALK

Kiwanians listened to an evocative health and good cheer at the regular meeting last Tuesday noon, when A. P. Ballou, district manager of the New York Mutual Life Insurance company, spoke on the Evolution of Kiwanis.

In smooth, sparkling phrases, Mr. Ballou defined what the evolution and progress of the mass was directly in proportion to the development of the individual. Kiwanis had become a great national force for good only because the individual member was fused with a desire for betterment, declared the speaker.

Extremely inspirational and with a splendid command of metaphor and contrast, Mr. Ballou's message burned deep into the hearts of his hearers. His discourse was one of the best that has been given before the club this year.

For a time Mr. Ballou was the governor of the Kentucky-Tennessee Kiwanis district and is well known for his enthusiasm in the work.

Following the discourse a vote was taken in regard to changing the meeting place from the Methodist church to the new hotel. A majority favored the change, and upon motion the action was made unanimous.

The program reflected a great credit on Alton Richwine, chairman for the day.

PLYMOUTH AUTO CLUB MANAGER IS RACE JUDGE

Among the judges at the National dirt track championship races at the Michigan State fair grounds October 16th, appears the name of our smiling auto club manager, Raymond Bachelder. The contest was under the official sanction of the A. A. A. and it was due to the untiring efforts of W. D. Edenburn that the race was brought to Detroit.

Lesser notables acting in official capacities with "Bach" were Governor Green, Cliff Durant and Captain Eddie Rickenbacker.

Mrs. Ruth E. Hagton-Whipple gave a talk on the subject, "Are You in Politics?" for 200 Y. M. C. A. girls in Detroit Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Blank and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith left Wednesday morning by motor for Florida. They will be gone several weeks.

The Grenoble Hotels, Inc., operators of Plymouth's new community hotel, The Mayflower, announce the formal opening of the hotel for Wednesday and Thursday, October 26th and 27th.

The opening of the Hotel Mayflower will be marked by two important events. On next Wednesday, from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock p. m., inspection of the hotel will be open to the stockholders, their friends and the general public.

The high school band will furnish music during the late afternoon, and the high school orchestra and the glee club will render musical selections during the evening hours.

On Thursday evening will occur the official opening of the new hotel. There will be a reception from 6:30 to 7:00 o'clock, when a banquet will be served. During the reception and banquet, Daniel Patterson's orchestra will furnish the music. Following the banquet, a program has been arranged, with C. H. Bennett, president of the Community Hotel Corporation, presiding. Among the speakers will be George A. Smith, superintendent of the Plymouth public schools, and several representatives from the Grenoble organization. Dancing will follow this program.

Workmen are now putting on the finishing touches to the new hotel, and furniture and equipment are practically all installed, and everything will be in readiness for the grand opening next week. A detailed description of the new hotel will be found in the Mayflower edition of the Mail next week.

ROTARIANS HEAR ABOUT FIRE PREVENTION

The members of the Plymouth Rotary Club had the pleasure of hearing a most timely and interesting talk on fire prevention by Hillmer Fox of the Michigan Fire Prevention Bureau of Detroit, at their luncheon last Friday. The speaker called attention to the fact that for the first nine months in 1927, the fire loss in this country had been $247,341,400, or one-fifth less than in 1926.

The speaker called attention to the following:

Fires in the United States in 1926 destroyed over $500,000,000 worth of property, eighty-five per cent of such fires being due to carelessness.

Fires and the upkeep of fire departments and water works in the United States average annually $800,000,000. The cost of fires each year is one-half the cost of the new buildings erected in a year.

The legal doctrine of personal and financial responsibility for preventable fire loss is steadily gaining ground.

The annual per capita fire waste in the United States is $5.00, in Europe, 33c. Cause: The latter has better construction, less carelessness, personal responsibility.

If buildings in the United States were as fireproof as in Europe, the annual cost of fire losses and protection would be only $30,000,000.

Over fifteen thousand are killed and 50,000 are injured annually as a result of fire.

He also pointed out that the fire loss governs the rate of insurance.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS THIS AFTERNOON, FRIDAY, OCT. 21

A "feast" of good things for lovers of music, fiction and dramatic art, is the program for this afternoon, under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Shattuck.

FORMER PLYMOUTH PHYSICIAN HONORED

AWARDED $500 AND A GOLD MEDAL FOR ESSAYS AND RESEARCH WORK PERTAINING TO HYGIENE.

DR. PECK RECEIVES WORD OF HIS CLASSMATE'S WONDERFUL ACHIEVEMENTS.

Major Edward G. Huber, assistant to the Fourth Corps Area Surgeon and stationed at the corps headquarters at Fort McPherson, Atlanta, Georgia, has been awarded the Henry S. Wellcome medal and prize of $500.

The competition upon which this award is based is open to all medical officers, former medical officers, acting assistants and contract surgeons of the army, navy and public health service, organized militia, U. S. volunteers and the reserves of the United States. The 1927 competition, won by Major Huber, included essays, investigations, discoveries and reports of research on laboratory work on the following subject: "In consideration of the physical disabilities found in the drafted men and the volunteers of the World war, what practical hygienic measures are advisable for school children in the United States?"

The first draft of the essay which has won the former Plymouth physician such a signal honor contained 25,000 words, an essay practically free of theories. According to his investigations and study, it is not the important thing to make physical examinations of school children, correcting their defects, etc., as it is important to prevent them.

Major Huber will be presented his medal and prize of $500 at a formal meeting of the Association of Military Surgeons next week at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. After the presentation Dr. and Mrs. Huber will leave for Europe to continue his studies along public health lines. About two years ago Dr. Huber received his doctor's degree in public health from Harvard university. At that time only 12 physicians in the United States were entitled to the honor.

CAPT. DENNISTON GIVES BANQUET FOR DE-HO-CO TEAM

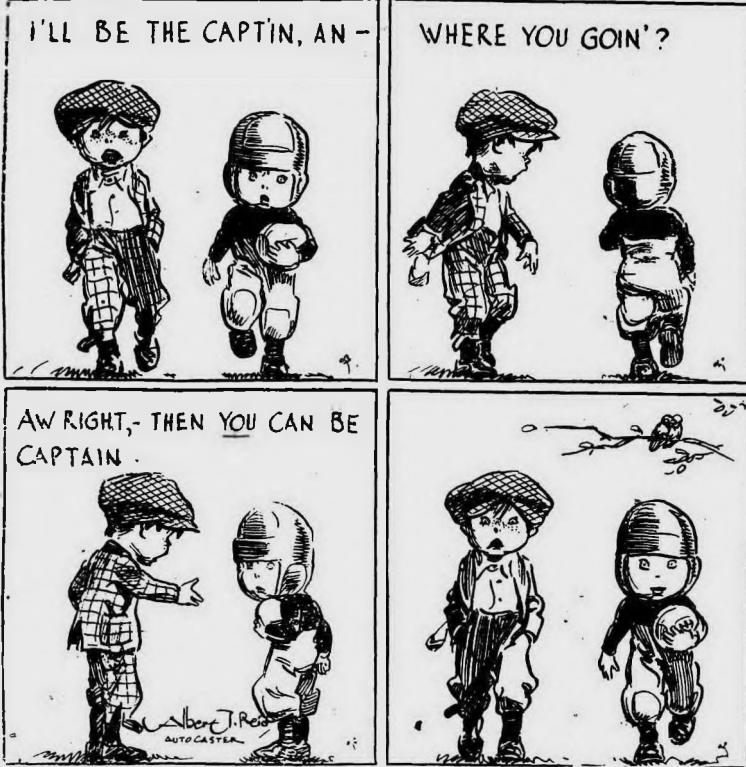

The De-Ho-Co baseball club, champions of the Inter-county league, were guests at a banquet given in their honor by Captain Denniston at the Statler hotel, Saturday evening, Oct. 15th. In addition to the ball players there were about one hundred and twenty-five invited guests, all of whom were followers and supporters of the team during their successful season. M. J. Quinn, of Chicago, acted in the capacity of toastmaster, and during the evening called on Edward J. Lyons, president of the Municipal Employees' club of Detroit, who responded with congratulations to the De-Ho-Co club for bringing to a city department the championship of the league. Thomas O'Mara, president of the Inter-county league, was also called upon and spoke briefly of the merits of the team. Elton Egan, editor of the Northville Record, thanked the De-Ho-Co club for winning, not only for the team but also for Northville, as he so happily pointed out that the people of Northville considered the De-Ho-Cos as part of Northville and were as proud of them as though they bore the name of that village.

Captain Denniston then was called upon and modestly refrained from praising the De-Ho-Co boys, but at the same time he intimated that he had the best team of amateur ball players in the State of Michigan. The guests were in accord with him. Captain Denniston presented each member of the ball club with a check and a gold watch chain emblem of a baseball. After the banquet the assembled players and guests danced and enjoyed a sociable evening.

Mrs. Ivan Grey and Mrs. Fred Heister were delegates from the local Rebekah lodge to the meeting of the Grand lodge held at Adrian this week.

OCTOBER WEDDINGS

LIVRANCE-WOLFROM.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Utley Wolfrom, on the Seven Mile road, Wednesday, October 12th, at 4:00 p. m., when their daughter, Ina, became the bride of Herbert C. Livrance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livrance, of Plymouth. Rev. Oscar J. Peters, of Wayne, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family and a few intimate friends.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Ethel Garabow, cousin of the bride, the wedding party took their places before an altar made of palms and pink and white garden flowers.

The bride, who was beautifully gowned in white beaded georgette over satin and who carried a shower bouquet of aphelia roses, was given in marriage by her father, Little Rowena Livrance, niece of the groom, acted as flower girl. Mrs. Clarence Wolfrom attended the bride as matron of honor and carried a bouquet of red roses, while Clarence Wolfrom acted as best man.

The decorations were simple but very pretty, a pink and white color scheme having been carried out throughout the entire house.

Following the ceremony a most delicious three-course dinner was served to the guests. Immediately after which the happy couple left on a trip through northern Michigan.

The bride was a graduate of the N. H. S. of the class of 1922 and is at present employed for the fourth term as teacher of the Wilcox school.

The bride was given several very delightful showers. The Misses Helen Tuck and Elsie Staman entertained at the former's home with a miscellaneous shower, while Miss Doris Livrance and Mrs. Henry Livrance entertained at cards.

FINLAN-MIEDEN

St. Joseph's church at Maybee, was the scene of a very pretty nuptial ceremony on Saturday morning, October 15th, when Miss Theresa Mieden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mieden, became the bride of C. Harold Finlan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Finlan of Plymouth, Mich. The ceremony was performed at 9:00 o'clock, with Rev. John Lapis officiating. Following the mass, a solo entitled, "Because," was sung by Henry Maloof of Detroit.

The bride was lovely in a gown of georgette crepe beaded in crystals. A close fitting cap of rose point lace with clusters of orange blossoms at each side held in place the long veil of tulle, which was dotted with tiny orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, baby chrysanthemums and lilies of the valley, showered in long white satin streamers.

Miss Gertrude Mieden, sister of the bride made an attractive bridesmaid in a gown of shaded green georgette, and carried pink roses and sweet peas. Edmund Cummingskey, a cousin of the groom, assisted as best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party, and at 1:00 o'clock, a dinner was served to about sixty-five guests.

Just before leaving for points east, the bride and groom enjoyed a ride in an airplane, piloted by Allen Hoffmann of Carleton, Mich. They will be at home to their friends after November 1st, at 331 Arthur street, Plymouth, Mich.

MINEHART-HART

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Procknow Saturday, October 8th, at 8:00 o'clock, when their daughter, Gertrude Hart, became the bride of August Minehart. Rev. Peters performed the ceremony at the Wayne Lutheran church.

Miss Lillian Minehart acted as maid of honor, and Adolph Minehart as best man. Others to witness the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stabanau, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stabanau, Miss Alma Minehart and James Sailer. Francis Hart and Rohda Stabanau were the two little flower girls, and Freddie Procknow and Gladys Hart carried the rings in the center of white lilies.

After the ceremony all went to the home of the bride, where supper was served. After the supper, music and dancing furnished the pleasures of the evening. All departed at a late hour wishing the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

FOOTBALL

Plymouth high school football team plays their second league game Saturday morning, October 22, at 9:00 o'clock at the tourist camp, with Roosevelt high school of Ypsilanti. This game will be hard fought by both teams. Last year Plymouth beat their team and help them win.

M. S. C. EXTENSION WORK.

The second year's work on household management or the care of the home, as the course is now called, was begun October 14th, by a meeting at the home of Mrs. Tallman, under the leadership of Mrs. Glenn Renwick. The subjects taken up were "Brushes and Woodwork." An amusing coincidence was the appearance of an agent with "Better Brushes."

Fourteen ladies were enrolled for this course. Mrs. Renwick presented the subjects in a very interesting manner.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Wm. B. Petz, on Ann street, November 21st.

D. A. R. HELD MOST INTERESTING MEETING

The October meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. George Holstein Monday, October 17th. After the business meeting, a very interesting program was enjoyed by the members and guests. Mrs. D. N. McKinnon read the message of the president-general of the D. A. R., Mrs. Dwight Randall gave a splendid report of the state conference at Albion.

For the first time three small chapters united to entertain the state conference, which is usually held in a much larger city. The Marshall, Tecumseh and Albion chapters entertained the delegates in Albion homes, and also gave them a tea and reception.

The retiring regent, Mrs. Lucius Holland of Bay City, has many things to her credit, among which are the organization of three new chapters at Tecumseh, Dearborn and the Sarah Ann Chapter of Plymouth. Two outstanding features of the evening meetings were the lectures. The first evening, Captain R. M. Larson of Chicago, spoke on "A Nation's Cross Road." The second evening, Rev. J. Ambrose Dunkel of Indianapolis, spoke on "The Three Vital Principles of Americanism."

Michigan is one of eight states having living daughters of the Revolution, and during the conference a message was sent to Helen M. Barrett, Michigan's one living daughter.

In 1928, the state conference is to be held at Ypsilanti.

The Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter was invited to attend a meeting of the Louise St. Claire Chapter, held at the Woman's Club building in Detroit, at 10:30, October 20th. A large delegation from the Plymouth chapter attended to see the French film, "Vincennes."

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT LOCAL THEATRE

The management of the local theatre has gone to considerable expense in securing this attraction, which will be given in addition to the regular pictures on the screen. Everybody will want to hear these favorites here next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Admission, 40c for adults and 20c for children.

REV. PALMER HARTSOUGH

PLYMOUTH MAN WRITES SONG

REV. PALMER HARTSOUGH, 84, WRITES NEW SONG FOR KALAMAZOO COLLEGE.

"MUSICAL MESSENGER" ASSISTANT EDITOR AND COMPOSER OF MANY PIECES OF CHURCH MUSIC.

Kalamazoo College has a new school song just being set to music. It has been composed by the Rev. Palmer Hartsough of Plymouth, Mich., former student of the institution.

Here's the way the song goes: Come all ye good singers and sing a good tune; Come all ye good people and sing as in tune; Come, doctors, come, lawyers, and give good and true; A boast for the college in Kalamazoo! A boast for the college in Kalamazoo!

The chorus follows: Ye - be - lie - ve - in - God - For Christ for the college; With gift for the college; We'll lift for the college the best we can do; A toast for the college; A toast for the college; A boast for the college in Kalamazoo!

OTHER STANES
She shines a great beacon of learning and light; She calls to all lovers of truth and of right; Give midst the world's fire and its halcyon; A boast for the college in Kalamazoo!

The loved alma mater bids kindly and good Her splendid alumni to give as they should From places of honor in pulpits and pew A boast for the college in Kalamazoo! Come, young men and maidens with minds in the sky.

The Rev. Hartsough wrote the words for the song and it is being set to music by the Fillmore Music House of Cincinnati. It is entitled "A Boast For the College in Kalamazoo."

The Rev. Hartsough entered Kalamazoo College in 1865, and during his attendance there he made a reputation in musical work. After leaving college, he became associated with the Fillmore Music House, and for a number of years assisted in editing the "Musical Messenger," and books of Sunday-school and church music.

For nearly twenty years, he was in the ministry of the Baptist church.

The Fillmore Music House has just published, with him as co-author, "Hymnal For Joyous Youth," a book containing 26 of his own songs. It has published recently a new song now in sheet music form entitled "I Believe in God."

On receipt of the music of "A Boast For the College in Kalamazoo," the song will be tried out at the school. Students and faculty are waiting eagerly for the first group singing of the new college song.—The Kalamazoo Gazette, Sunday, Oct. 9, 1927.

JOBS FOR "OLD TIMERS."

Plymouth citizens who listen to the old argument that a man's usefulness is ended when he reaches 50, and who may have been inclined to believe it, can now take new hope.
Many of us recall the statement made by Dr. Osler a few years ago that all men over 60 should be eliminated for the good of the race.
Now, "Doc" is shown to have been an alarmist. A New York firm is advertising for male and female help "above 40 and under 70." The head of the concern says they get better work from middle-aged people than from youth; that those of mature years take their work more seriously and turn out a better product, that not only brings more money but that gives greater satisfaction. The action of this company may set other concerns thinking, with the result that before long there will be plenty of work for those who have been led to believe that they are "old timers" and inclined to longer hold up their end in the game of life.

BEST LAW OF ALL

Talking to a Plymouth citizen who recently returned from a motor trip that took him into strange territory, and quite a few cities of considerable size, he voiced a suggestion we consider well worth passing on to all of our readers who operate autos. "I found the best way to keep from breaking any of the laws," he said,
"was to observe the law of common sense as I went along."

In other words, if he was in doubt about passing a street car, or making a left turn on a busy street, or coming to a stop at a railroad, he used common sense. They can't arrest you for not driving past a street car nor for coming to a dead stop at a railroad crossing, but it may be that under a special law they can arrest you if you don't. So why not use common sense and do the things you know you can't be arrested for? The same is true of speed. The speed limit may be 12, or 20, or 40 miles an hour, but if roads are heavy with traffic common sense should teach you that safety lies in slowing down, no matter how fast the law says you may go.

We hadn't thought of it in that light before, but we feel sure that those who drive cars can escape trouble more often by observing the law of common sense than by trying to learn the scores of laws and regulations that keep most drivers forever muddled and forever afraid to drive in strange territory. We also believe that the man who does meet with arrest for a traffic violation will explain punishment quickest if he will explain that he was trying to obey the law of common sense.

THE NEWEST FAKE

If you get a post card from a firm or individual notifying you that they have a newspaper clipping mentioning your name, and that you will be interested in it, don't bite. It's only the latest scheme to separate you from a dime or a quarter. These people write all over the country for sample copies of newspapers. From them they clip their items, and without stating what paper the clipping is from, they offer to mail it to you on receipt of a certain sum. Curiosity leads hundreds to answer, and when the clipping comes they find, nine times out of ten, that it was clipped from their home town paper and that they had read it before. The mails are being worked to a standstill by these sharpers with this new form of graft. Don't let your curiosity get the better of you, but toss the offer away and save your dimes and quarters.

A SENSELESS MOVE.

Considerable space is being devoted in some of the big dailies just now to Germany's request for an "impartial investigation" of just what nation was really to blame for the World war. Already she is in a hot argument with France, and England and Italy are about ready to enter the row. Little Belgium has refused to take part in such a plan, and therein she shows good judgment. Many families around Plymouth were represented in the great struggle, and we believe the mothers and fathers of those who took part in it will agree that Belgium is right in declaring that the war is over, and that no good can come of trying to fix the blame. It can only produce bitter arguments, and in the end no one will be convinced. Fighting the war over again can't bring back those who perished in it, nor can it change the outcome of it. Like every other calamity, the best way to treat it is to say the least about it, but to hope and pray that never again will nations be so eager to fly at each other's throats, or to start another war that might prove even more destructive.

SECOND NUMBER ON REDPATH LECTURE COURSE

Crosjean Trio Will Give Next Entertainment at High School Auditorium, Thursday Evening, October 27th.

The Crosjean Trio

A premier musical entertainment company, presenting a wealth of novelty in a varied program, is the Grosjean-Marimba-Xylophone Trio, which will be the second number on the Senior Lyceum course, at 8:00 o'clock Thursday evening, October 27th, at the High school auditorium.

This popular company features the marimba-xylophone, a musical instrument which combines the best qualities of the marimbaphone and the xylophone, and interprets with exquisite total effect, classical and popular music. They also use the saxophone, banjo, clarinet and piano.

A decidedly pleasing part of this company's entertainment centers in the character impersonations of Miss Floss Grosjean. This talented young woman, who is the director of the company, has won enthusiastic approval from audiences everywhere for her true-to-life character delineations.

The Grosjean company is composed of three talented and experienced artists, who offer to Lyceum audiences an interesting and original musical entertainment.

Jack Woods, a member of the first Lyceum entertainment given this year, made the following statement about this number: "The Grosjeans appeared with us in Lansing, and they are simply wonderful. Their xylophone player is the best on Lyceum circuit and would rank with the best on vaudeville circuit if he were willing to change. Their music is popular, and very well done. They are one of the highest salaried companies the Redpath Bureau employs."

Season tickets are on sale at a reduced price—$1.50 for adults, $1.00 for students. These can be purchased from any senior. A season ticket will admit you to four good numbers, the first being Grosjean Trio; the second Dinah Upton, a popular lecturer, will be here December 12th; the third number will be Doctor Milton Jones, Redpath's leading scientist and lecturer. The last entertainment will be Reno, the maracatu, whose feats have entertained young and old in all parts of the world.

ORGANIZED UNDER VIGILANTE PLAN

BANKS OF WAYNE COUNTY ORGANIZED TO COMBAT BANK ROBBERS.

"The three counties which are as yet unorganized will be in step with the program within two weeks.

"The next important step under our vigilante program, is the training of the men organized; the equipping of our forces with modern and efficient arms; the establishment of target ranges and a systematic procedure for local target practice. We realize that the efficiency of our program is dependent on the carefulness with which all of these details are worked out.

"The best evidence of the success of the vigilante program, as put in operation throughout the state, is in the evident fact that the professional yegg men and bank robbers have decided to operate in other fields less amply protected and less vigilantly secured against their methods.

"It will be interesting to the public to know that the vigilante program is now in operation in six states.

"The number of bank robberies in Michigan have been reduced 84% in this one year, and bank losses have been reduced 79%. The reports from our state headquarters indicate that the officers and members of the vigilante committees in each state are taking as much interest in the success of the campaign as they would in a successful military operation."

"Eighty of the 83 counties in Michigan are now organized under the vigilante campaign, launched by the Michigan Bankers Association last spring," according to E. W. Yost, vice-president of the Trenton State Bank and president of the Wayne County Bankers Federation.

"The success of our vigilante system is already apparent. The bankers are thankful for the cooperation we have received from all law-abiding citizens. We realize, as does the public in general, the fact that we are simply cooperating with the law enforcement officers of our state, county and community. The officers have cordially assisted us in every practical way.

Both of the local banks are members of the Wayne county organization.

HOUGH SCHOOL NOTES

Esther Merriman, reporter

We have two Christmas boxes for the Junior Red Cross, to fill before October 21st. One is for the girls to fill and the other is for the boys. They are almost filled. They will be sent to some poor children in Europe.

Our teacher, Miss Houz, will attend the zone meeting at the Kenyon school, Plymouth No. 9, Fr., October 22. The afternoon program will begin at 1:30. Let us have a good representation of fathers and mothers from the Hough district present in the afternoon.

Miss Gwinn visited our school Friday.

The fourth graders have studied "Two Mothers and Their Families," by Bouqueroan. The fifth and sixth graders have studied "Autumn," by Mauve, and "The Gleaners," by Millet. The seventh and eighth graders have studied "Sir Galahad," by Watts.

Miss Jamison visited our school Wednesday. The last time she came she gave us some tests which were enjoyed very much. She also gave us our gold star certificate which we earned last year.

The children are making health posters.

We have a blackboard border of pumpkins.

At our last P. T. A. meeting, we gave a program. We gave a puppet play, which the parents enjoyed very much.

Those who have not been absent or tardy since school started, are: Alma Buehler, Hilda Buehler, Pauline Gust, Barbara Hix, Marlan Hix, Esther Merriman, Jeanette Merriman, Edith and Mary Mettetal, Marie Miserik, Lester Reddeman, Phyllis Reddeman and Bernice Witt.

Miss Corbett will speak at our next P. T. A. meeting, which will be held November 7th. She will talk about hot lunches. The P. T. A. are planning to have a Halloween social. Watch the paper for further announcements.

We are going to carry on club work in our school.

Seaweed Harvest of Importance in Japan

Japanese soldiers do not give much trouble to the quartermaster's department. In the field they are capable of great endurance on a diet of dried rice, dried fish, dried seaweed, and pickled plums. The seaweed is wrapped round the rice and used as a "relish" to it. Given a tiny fish, a steppan, and the ration mentioned, they are perfectly content, whatever the weather and however long the marches. Seaweed is grown specially for food purposes, being cultivated with as much care as any other crop. After the typhoon season, the women may be seen bearing great loads of young trees which have been stripped of their leaves, though all the small branches are left intact. These are drawn into the weed on the shore, acres of brushy saplings being arranged in long, parallel rows where the tide ebbs over them twice daily. Gradually, the green fernlike weed collects on the branches, and flourishes there until the farmers harvest it. It is then carefully picked over and dried for future use.

ST. JOHN'S MEN'S CLUB HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

The Men's Club of St. John's Episcopal church held the first of a series of get-together meetings which they are going to hold every month during the fall and winter months, at the Parish House last Tuesday evening. The ladies of the Guild served a splendid supper to a large number of the members of the club and invited guests, which included a delegation from the Episcopal church at Wayne.

Preceding the supper all joined in singing some peppy songs. Following the supper, Sidney D. Strong presided over the program. The first number on the program was a vocal solo by Joseph Tracy, rendered in his usual pleasing manner, and responded to an encore. Rev. Frank Copeland of Wayne, a former rector of the local church, was called upon and made a few happy remarks. He was followed by Benjamin Stuart, with a vocal solo splendidly rendered.

The speaker of the evening, Charles B. Kellogg, postmaster of the City of Detroit, was then introduced by the toastmaster. Mr. Kellogg stated that it gave him a great deal of pleasure to come to Plymouth, as he was born in this village sixty-eight years ago, his father at that time being pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this place.

The speaker's address was confined to the functioning of the postoffice and the postal service, and the great part this department of our government had in serving the public. The speaker traced the origin of the postal service from its very humble pioneer beginning up to the present time. He presented facts and figures that were very interesting and instructive, as the average person has little conception of the magnitude of the business done yearly by the postoffice department. He said it was the largest business in the world today, and that 3,000,000 pieces of mail were dropped into the mail boxes of this country every hour of the day.

He spoke in the highest terms of the air mail service, saying that it had revolutionized the postal service as much as had the railroad train over the post riders and the early stage coaches. He pointed out that a letter mailed from Detroit at 2:00 in the afternoon, would be received in San Francisco at 5:30 the following afternoon. He closed his address with a glowing tribute to Charles Lindbergh, who had done much in advancing the scope of the air mail service. It was a most pleasant and profitable evening for all who were present, and the members of the club are looking forward to the next meeting in November.

WRONG CABLE CUT OFF.

The Michigan Bell Telephone company has been busy for the past ten days installing a complete telephone system in our new hotel. The final touches to it will probably be deferred until just before opening time.

On Wednesday forenoon the cable man, in endeavoring to put into service the fifty-line cable leading into the new building, picked up the wrong cable and cut it off, and incidentally he cut out of service all of the telephones on the west side of Main and south side of Penniman from the hotel to the postoffice. Several hours of fast work was necessary to get the lines back into working order again. A majority of the business men viewed the situation as a sort of vacation period, and Manager Crowe was the recipient of a considerable amount of good natured joshing.

O. E. S. INITIATION

The meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, held Tuesday evening, October 18th, at the Masonic temple, was well attended and much enjoyed. After an excellent dinner, the members and visitors repaired to the chapter room where the initiatory service was given. Several members of the Ypsilanti chapter were present, adding to the friendliness and enthusiasm of the occasion. Their matron, Miss Gertrude Murray, gave a very interesting talk, briefly outlining the good times they had planned for the winter and invited us to join them.

We are much indebted to Miss Ruth Forsythe, Calvin Whipple and Miss Gladys Schrader for the music. We also enjoyed having our past patron, C. H. Rauch, with us.

MOVED TO DETROIT

Arthur E. Warner visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Warner, on Ann street, Saturday night. He has moved his family from Nashville, Tenn., to Detroit, where he has joined the staff of Haskins & Sells, certified public accountants. Mr. Warner has been employed as an accountant in the Packer & Stockyard U. S. Department of Agriculture for the past six years.

HOME FURNISHING CLASS

The North Village group of the Home Economics Extension school of M. S. C. met at the home of Mrs. Dan Murray, Mill street, on October 11th, with Mrs. Murray temporary chairman, presiding. The following enthusiasts who enrolled, are: Mrs. Ralph West and Mrs. Wm. Fishlock, leaders; Mr. Harold Compton, Mr. George Holstein, Mrs. Karl Starkweather, Mrs. Schroder, Mrs. James Gallimore, Mrs. Paul Ware, Mrs. W. K. Hillmer, Miss Nellie Riddle, Mrs. Jack Kenter, Mrs. Thomas Denham, Mrs. D. W. Riley, Mrs. John Shackleton, Mrs. George Wilks, Mrs. Dan Murray, Mrs. Otto Boyer, Mrs. Frank Hamill and Mrs. Rudolph Kehl.

Mrs. West, with the ability of a professional leader, introduced and explained to the class the aim and content of the project, the study of home furnishings.

The use of the furnishings now at hand in the home, to get the most artistic effect, will be emphasized in this course. It is hoped the project will also help with the problem of getting the desired effect when adding new furnishings to the home which are to be used along with the old ones.

Expensive furniture, furnishings and decorations do not make an expensive house into a home. A small inexpensive cottage may be more of a home than a $50,000 house.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dan Murray and Mrs. Karl Starkweather.

CHERRY HILL

Mrs. Bert Stuart and Bernice spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. Edmund Stuart, of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Earle Dentline and Bobby were Sunday guests of Mrs. Milo Corwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sears, of Milan, spent Sunday with Mrs. Susan Corwin.

The home furnishings class, one of the extension classes of the Michigan State college, met with Mrs. E. W. Moyer on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jane Huston, aged 88 years, died Friday morning in Kalamazoo.

She is survived by nine children, Mrs. Nettie Cobb, of Belleville; Mrs. Ida Smith, Denton; Mrs. Mary Gill, Kalamazoo; Owen, Dwight and Newton, who reside in the west; Charlie, of Kalamazoo; Leon, of Plymouth, and John, of Monroe. ### MUNICIPAL NOTES

BY THE MANAGER

At the request of a petition from the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Commission, at its regular meeting of October 17, 1927, granted changing the name of Centennial Park, situated opposite the new schoolhouse on Holbrook avenue, to Bradner Park, in honor of Wm. Bradner an early public spirited citizen of Plymouth who gave the land for the park; and also changing the name of Gravel avenue to Fratlek avenue, in memory of Abram Fratlek, an early settler of this town, whose home was located at the corner of Main street and Gravel avenue, and as the west half of Gravel avenue was donated to the town by his daughter, to be used as a street.

The sewer contractors, Bluhm & Dickinson, are all done except repairing walks, crosswalks, etc.

The village will buy their own water mains this year.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL NOTES

Kindergarten, Miss Sundberg—We have our room decorated with black cats, bats and Jack-o-lanterns for Halloween. Also the children are having milk both morning and afternoon.

First Grade, Miss Lape—The first graders are enjoying Halloween stories and poems. We have made Halloween decorations for our room.

Second Grade, Miss Stader—The children in the second grade are very much interested in spelling. The new spelling books for the A-plus papers are causing competition. The room is prettily decorated for Halloween with things cut out and made by the children.

Third Grade, Miss Holt—Jewel Starkweather, in the B class, won the automobile race between spelling classes. Phyllis Stewart of the A class was second.

Fourth Grade, Miss Balfour—The fourth graders have just finished making ideal breakfast, dinner and supper posters. Tomorrow we begin making our vegetable charts. The fourth grade boys and girls are glad to have Russell Kirk in school again, after an absence of three days.

Fifth Grade, Mrs. Moles—All but one of the children in Mrs. Moles' room had their names on the honor roll for last week. They are making booklets about South America.

Fifth and Sixth Grades, Mrs. Lee—In the 5-A and 6-B grades, for each A-plus mark in spelling, we get a small red star, and for every ten red stars we get a big gold star. The 5-A grade is making geography booklets on China and Japan. Monday all but one student received A-plus in spelling. The sixth graders are learning the poem, "The House on the Side of the Road." The children are beginning a story of either coffee or rubber, to put in the South America booklets. We are very proud to have a new flag flying on the pole in front of our new school. The playground now has a May-pole and monkey ladder.

Wednesday, October 19th, ten members of the Plymouth League of Women Voters motored to Dearborn to attend the Dearborn league's annual school of citizenship. The subject for discussion was "The Direct Primary." Included among those who attended were Mrs. A. B. VanAkin, Mrs. Roderick Cassidy, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. Nettie Dibble, Mrs. Sarah Armstrong, Mrs. Wm. B. Petz, Mrs. Phoebe Patterson, Mrs. Hattie Baker, Mrs. Henry Baker.

The Misses Elsie Stamm and Helen Tuck entertained about thirty guests at the latter's home Friday evening, October 7th, the event being a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ina Wolfrom, a bride of the present week. The home was very attractively decorated in pink and white. Games and music furnished most of the entertainment. About 10:30 the bride-to-be was placed in the center of the room and gifts presented in a very clever way by little Elizabeth Mercier. She brought her play wagon loaded full of gifts. Even the wagon was prettily decorated in the predominant colors. After the presentation of the gifts dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.—Northville Record.

PLEASE NOTICE
We will pay 10 cents each for the first copies of the Plymouth Mail dated April 1, May 13, and August 5, brought to this office.

F. W. Hillman spent part of the past week in northern Michigan.

Frederick and Tholorn J. Lendrum spent the week-end in Delaware, Ohio.

Paul Nash will have a paint demonstration, Friday and Saturday, October 21 and 22. See his ad.

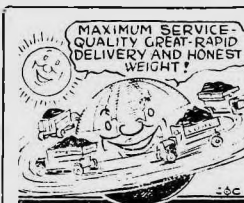

Miss Helen Freitag and Miss Becky Rosen, of Detroit, were weekend guests of Miss Helen Fish.

C. A. Fisher and sister, Mrs. Minnie Harmon left Sunday for a few days visit with their sister and husband at Wallouin Lake.

Misses Dorothy Hillman, Katherine VanAken and Barbara Bake received sorority bids at the state college at Lansing last week. They chose Chi Omega.

A new and modern front has been installed at the Paul Nash hardware store. The large plate glass windows make a splendid improvement and gives Mr. Nash much better advantages for displaying goods.

Anyone having old shoes or clothing which they have discarded will please send the same to the village hall, where it can be put to good use by the unfortunates who apply there for a night's lodging.—Chief of Police.

A good many Plymouth fans have received their football tickets for the great game to be played tomorrow at Ann Arbor between the football teams of the University of Michigan and Ohio State. These are two old rival schools and the game tomorrow is drawing the largest attendance ever assembled in Ann Arbor. It is the dedication day of the opening of the new university stadium and every available seat to the number of 90,000 has been sold. If Plymouth is fortunate enough to secure the services of any professional or business man in Plymouth tomorrow afternoon, it will be due to the fact that probably this or that professional or business man was unable to procure a seat at Michigan's new stadium.

SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

As five weeks of school were over Wednesday, report cards were given out. We feel now that we are firmly started upon a new year.

The French-12 class is reading a new book, Dunns' "La Toulepe Noire," which has its setting in the Netherlands in 1672.

The junior class gave the first of the informal dances to be given this year in the high school auditorium, Friday night, October 14th. The music was furnished by Schaffer's orchestra. Many of the parents served as chaperons.

The Alumni play this year was spoken of as the best ever given. Tuesday and Wednesday nights the auditorium was filled, a very unusual happening. The play, "The Flipper Grandmother," was something that has never been tried before. Dancing added much to the play. Each one, by practice, made the play a success.

Thursday evening the seniors presented the first number of the Red Path Lyceum course to be given this year. Jack Wood's Bell Ringers and Mable quartette furnished an interesting entertainment. This enjoyable evening promises four more good entertainments to be given soon in the high school auditorium. Get your season tickets now from a senior.

The junior class has chosen its new play, on which they will start work immediately.

The Girl Reserves put on a successful campaign for their doughnut sale last Saturday.

Slides were shown in American History class, on the Revolutionary period. They proved interesting.

Anna Wagenschutz was chosen as the representative of the Commercial Club, to the student council.

The Senior Girl Reserves, Alice Gilbert, Dorothea Lombard, Hazel Raynor, Ina Campbell, Joy McNabb, Leona Beyer, Leslie Eastwood, Ruth Hamilton, Velma Petz and Miss Allen, went to Detroit, to a setting-up conference Saturday.

The debaters, Franklin Atkinson, Leona Beyer, Harold Hubert and Ruth Root, are working for their first debate. The first debate of the season is November 18th.

Mrs. Whipple's English 11 class is studying Washington Irving. The high school orchestra, consisting of eighteen members, appeared in public for the first time, Tuesday and Wednesday, at the alumni play. Maynard Larkins acted as soloist. They have a very promising year ahead.

At a meeting of the junior and senior classes, Miss Allen read the entrance requirements for most colleges. She explained about filling out college blanks and that the Plymouth high school average for recommendation to college was 85. This does not mean that if one has an average below 85 he will not be admitted, however a college may take a pupil in if it decides without the high school's recommendation, but inasmuch as high schools are pledged by the university, partly according to the success of its graduates in college, the school cannot stand sponsor for those who are in the lower third of a class with standings consisting mainly of C's. Some colleges refuse those in the lower third, and some accept such candidates.

The student council has chosen the officers for the coming year. They are: Mac Donnelly, president; William Lake, vice-president; Leona Beyer, treasurer; Franklin Atkinson, secretary. This council consists of a representative from each class and club in the high school. The purpose is to represent the students in all their activities. A number of controlling laws are made during the year, and disputes are settled. It is a government of high school students.

Mrs. Hillman substituted for Mrs. Crumble several days last week.

GRADE NOTES

Mrs. Holliday's 4-A hygiene class is making fresh air posters, and her 5-B hygiene class is making breakfast posters.

Miss Farrand's 5-B and 5-A room has a new pupil, Mary Lenker. This week they are having a special study of Columbus, and they have had a reading test.

Miss Fenner's 6-B room is having a spelling contest between the girls and the boys. Each day they write down the number of words missed in each team. At the end of the week they find the total number of words missed. At the end of this month, the losers must treat the winners.

On October 12th, Columbus Day, they had a little program. Those who took part were: Alexander Konazeki, Robert Champe, Daniel Carmichael, Marianna Jolliffe, Mildred Maul, Margaret Buzzard, Catherine Dunn and June Nash.

Miss Hallahan's 6-A and 6-B room graded their penmanship with Palmer scale. Ruth Bailey had the highest score in the reading test.

Nora Otterwell has left kindergarten, and gone to Toronto, Canada, for the winter.

The boys and girls of Mrs. Root's room are talking about preparations for winter in their nature study class. Group One is reading in the new Elson primers.

Mrs. J. L. Olsaver was a visitor in the room last Monday.

Room 4, B-2, Mrs. Blossom's room—We are making small dictionaries for the purpose of learning the alphabet and increasing our vocabularies. Last week we had 100% health record. We have made black cats and orange pumpkin faces, and now are looking forward to Halloween. Group 2 is making good progress in the silent reading methods. Some pupils are now working in lesson 12.

Miss Weatherhead's room had forty names on the honor roll for September. They made Jack-o-lanterns in art, Tuesday. The 3-B grade had a reading test Monday, and most of the pupils did very well in it. Marydell Kennedy moved away last week.

—Ernest Archer

CAMP FIRE CEREMONIAL

The Camp Fire girls entered singing "Wohelo," and the guardians gave the hand sign. Miss Shaftmaster lighted a candle, and gave the torch bearers desire. Then she passed the light to Miss Lyke, Miss Cary and Mrs. Stevens. Virginia Giles lighted the candle of health, assisted by Zephira Hunk and Elaine Hamilton. Marion Gust lighted the candle of health, assisted by Helen Goebel and Dorothy Fisher.

Jean Strong lighted the candle of love, with the help of Elizabeth Nichol and Jeanet Blickestaff; they all sang "Wohelo."

The following girls lighted the candles representing the laws: Lucille Honey, beauty; Helen Compton, knowledge; Margaret Sackett, trust; Evelyn Starkweather, service; Irene Livingston, health; Ellen Smith, work; Virginia Woodworth, happiness. Then the members gave the hand sign.

Miss Cary gave a Camp Fire poem, after which all the girls marched around the candles representing law and lighted their small candles.

Carrie Gorton extinguished the light of work, with Mary Jane Hamilton and Christine Nichol. Mary McKinnon, Dorothy Hubert and Doris Hamill extinguished the light of health. Lavern Birch, Gladys Zietsch and Alfie Lee extinguished the light of love.

All the girls sang "The Sheltering Flame," which concluded a very impressive candle lighting service.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL NOTES

Kindergarten, Miss Sonberg—One child enrolled this week, making 37 children now enrolled in the kindergarten. The children are making things for Halloween, such as black cats, bats, owls and Jack-o-Lanterns. (Too late for last week)

First Grade, Miss Lajo—The first graders are making health booklets this week. We all are working hard for a star in penmanship. A very good paper means a star. The first grade B-class, is ready to begin reading in their primers this week.

First and Second Grades, Miss Stader—The 2-A has completed the book, "Good Times on the Farm," and now reading "In Animal Land," which they are enjoying very much. The pupils in Miss Stader's room are working on health booklets. In these books are pages where each day's health chores are marked. Those with perfect pages receive a silver star on the front of their books. The second graders have spelling books, which they made for putting their A-plus in spelling.

Third Grade, Miss Holt—The A and B spelling classes are having a race from New York to San Francisco. Means of transportation, they choose, there are nine cities on the route. For every perfect lesson they move ahead one city; for every imperfect paper they go back one city. The B class is ahead at the present time.

Fourth grade, Miss Balfour—The fourth grade boys and girls are making health charts and ideal breakfast posters for hygiene class. Ruth Norman leads the 4-B spelling contest, with ten perfect papers in eleven days. Doris Fishlock leads in the 4-A contest with a perfect score.

Fifth Grade, Mrs. Moles—The 5-B graders in Mrs. Moles' room have made some booklets about coffee. They also have made some health posters, which are very nice.

Fifth-A and Sixth-B Grades, Mrs. Lee—The 5-A class has finished the health posters for hygiene. The 6-B has finished maps of South America. Rosemary West and Fred Hertzler have been chosen as the champion readers of the sixth grade. The students are studying hard and later will challenge them to a reading contest. The 5-A pupils are memorizing "October's Bright Blue Weather." The 6-B is memorizing "The House by the Side of the Road." The whole room has made nature study charts of mounted specimens of bark, twig and leaf of the trees of our locality.

Homer Miles is a new pupil in the sixth grade. He came from Tennessee. Verna Lee is leaving the sixth grade. Her parents are moving to Grand Rapids. We wrote stories of Columbus on Columbus Day, October 12th. We have a room honor roll, and each student who receives fifteen stars during the month earns a free reading period. Mrs. Lee is reading "Donkey John of Toy Valley," to us. We have a beautiful bouquet of late pastries, brought by Mary Price. Edna Slater fell, while playing on the school grounds, and broke her collar bone. She is back in school, with her shoulder in a sling.

—Rosemary West, Sixth grade

ST. PETERSBURG READY FOR WINTER VISITORS

FLORIDA CITY HAS PREPARED FOR GREATEST INFLUX OF NORTHERN TOURISTS IN ITS HISTORY.

By John Ludwick
St. Petersburg, Florida, October 18.—This famous winter resort city is prepared for the greatest influx of northern vacationists in its history and has plans arranged for the entertainment and housing of more than a quarter million sojourners, "snow-shippers" from every state in the union.

Plymouth is expected to send double the number of winter visitors here this season as compared with last year, when nine spent the cold months in the Sunshine City.

Those of the Plymouth residents who were here last winter, many of whom have already arranged to return, include W. T. Conner; Jerry Gordon, 286 Blunk Ave.; Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Mason; Mrs. Maggie L. Sherman, 1312 Penniman Ave.; J. C. Wilcox; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Wilske; Mrs. Beka Witt, 215 Adams St.

Most of the Plymouth winter visitors here are members of the Michigan Tourist Society, an organization formed several years ago for the purpose of forming new acquaintances and providing for weekly meetings, entertainments, picnics, boat excursions and card parties. The society will meet to re-organize in November, when new officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

St. Petersburg has left nothing undone for the entertainment of its great host of winter visitors this season. New recreational features have been added in the public parks including additional lawn bowling and roque rinks, shuffle board lanes, horse shoe and quill courts, tennis courts, trap shooting and archery ranges, chess, checker and domino facilities, and many others.

Moses' famous concert band of 24 pieces will open a sixteen week engagement here in January, when free programs will be given twice daily in Williams Park. The New York Yankees baseball club, pennant winners in the American League, and the Boston Braves in the National League, will return here for spring training in February.

Golf tournaments of national interest have been arranged for the four courses in St. Petersburg, while regattas and other outdoor sport events of general interest are also on the calendar of entertainment. At this early date, plans are being laid for the ninth annual Festival of States celebration which will be held in early March.

With the completion of causeways connecting St. Petersburg with its famous gulf islands, additional bathing facilities are now available for thousands during the winter season. The Sunshine City's new million dollar recreation pier is another attraction that will serve as a big tourist mecca in season. It juts one mile out into Tampa Bay, and it is here where land fishermen can enjoy their fill of that particular sport.

St. Petersburg's winter season is under way this year, three months earlier than ever before. Already more than 2,000 motorists have come in from the summerless north to spend "summer in the winter" here.

Every tourist hotel will be open by the middle of December, while most of the hostleries are now receiving season guests.

Picked Up About Town

Declaring that some styles never change, Dad Plymouth points out that the newly married couples are still being photographed with the groom's hand resting on the bride's shoulder.

Too many people seem to be afraid that the conversation will drag unless they talk until they haven't anything left to say.

"Another thing I can't understand," says Dad Plymouth, "is why a man always insists on home atmosphere at a hotel and hotel service at home."

There is so little money earned in attending to other people's affairs that we often wonder why some people don't quit it.

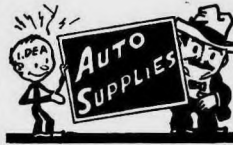

"When a wife tells her husband she simply must have $10," declares Dad Plymouth, "she is only living in the hope of getting $2."

Dad Plymouth says he doesn't need an almanac to tell him when winter is here. His wife does that when she orders him to throw away his straw hat.

The U. S. loaned other countries money enough to wage a war on, but we'd bet that right now we couldn't borrow enough from them to buy a sack of flour.

"If you travel about on trains and street cars," asserts Dad Plymouth, "you will find that not all the hogs are sent to market in stock."

Dear Friends:

I don't s'pose there's anybody in the world that hates an alarm clock worse than I do. But I never would get up in the morning if I didn't have one.

The boss got a lot of new alarm clocks in the other day and wanted me to say something nice about 'em. I can't do it. They're a blamed nuisance.

But if you have to have one, like I do, then I'd advise you to buy one of these. They cost from $1.00 to $10.00. And I'll tell the world that they'll get you up in time.

Only Buick has an engine Vibrationless beyond belief

BUICK'S remarkable freedom from vibration is due primarily to three vitally important factors. First—the inherent smoothness of the Buick Valve-in-Head six-cylinder engine. Second—rubber engine mountings, front and rear. And third—the scientific and almost perfect balance of the entire Buick crankshaft assembly.

Only Buick enjoys these advantages. And only Buick provides the silken performance—the unvarying smoothness at all speeds—the longer life and greater serviceability of an engine vibrationless beyond belief.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

LEARN FROM ELBERT GARY'S LIFE.

The death of Judge Elbert Gary attracted attention to one of America's most picturesque figures. He drew attention to another one of those remarkable careers so characteristic of America. From a poor boy working for a few dollars a week to a multi-millionaire and to the head of probably the largest corporation in the world.

Judge Gary never discovered anything new. In his resume of the elements of character we are struck by his emphasis upon the old-fashioned virtues. About all the virtues there are are old-fashioned. There has never been discovered any substitute that was workable for being honest and upright.

Gary's Ten Commandments of Success which he formulated for a man with a reasonably healthy constitution and average mentality are as follows:

1. Be honest, truthful, sincere and serious. Being slippery and tricky may gain you temporary advantage, but in the long run it will be your undoing.
2. Be considerate of others. Don't try to get ahead by pulling somebody else down. The more progress you make the less you will want to take advantage of others.
3. Guard your health, both morally and physically. The main thing to rely upon in a crisis or an emergency is being in fit condition.

4. Get an education. Know the fundamentals, such as arithmetic, spelling, grammar, geography and history. Also get all the technical education you can.

5. No matter how much natural ability you have, it must be stimulated by persistent efforts to improve the mind and store it with useful information. A good memory is of incalculable benefit.

6. Have clean habits of life and select right companions. You should know men of experience and higher rank than yourself. Nothing says character like undesirable companions who are only bent on self-indulgence rather than self-improvement.

7. Be ambitious honestly and back this ambition up with energy, persistence and thoughtfulness. "I have had to fight steadily against laziness all my life," he says.

8. Be loyal to employers, friends and country. A reputation for loyalty induces people to give you positions of trust and responsibility.

9. Cultivate stability. Don't be a rolling stone.

10. Most important of all: Observe the Golden Rule. This gets you further in the long run than any other maxim of life.

THE THEATRE

"THE POOR NUT"

The best way to describe First National's new feature picture, "The Poor Nut," which comes next Saturday, October 22, to the Penniman Allen theatre, with Jack Mulhall in the title role, is to say that it will be enjoyed by everyone, from mother and father to the last kiddie.

"The Poor Nut" is the screen version of the state play of the same title which ran for a year in New York. It is a clean, extremely funny story of college life, built around a young man who suffers from an "inferiority complex" which is finally removed through the work of a pretty co-ed and his own victory as a runner on the cinder track.

A real track meet, the big annual affair of the University of Arizona, is shown in the picture and is one of the outstanding features of the film. Real athletes in real competition instead of the usual "framed" motion picture affairs takes this sequence out of the usual run.

"The Poor Nut" was directed by Richard Wallace. In the cast, in addition to Mulhall, are Charles Murray, Jane Winton, Jean Arthur, Cornelius Keefe and many other prominent screen players.

"THE CALLAHANS AND THE MURPHYS."

"The Callahans and the Murphys," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday and Monday, October 23 and 24, is a classic in screen fun. From the opening reel to the final fade-out it chronicles the hilarious combats, feuds, quarrels and reconciliations between two neighboring Irish families of the New York tenements. Two lovable but belligerent Irish mothers raise their broods next door. Wealth comes to one family, romance to both, then misunderstanding and what looks like tragedy becomes comedy of the gayest type.

Adapted from Kathleen Norris' famous story, it scores a new triumph on the screen. George Hill, the director, has based the comedy on natural situations and real-life happenings. An unusual cast, including Sally O'Neil, Marie Dressler, the famous stage comedienne, Gertrude Olmsted, Polly Moran, Larry Gray, Frank Currier, Drew Demarest, Tom Lewis, Turner Savage, Monty O'Grady and Dawn O'Day have made the film one prolonged howl of mirth. A biting story that grips the heart is woven throughout the plot.

"DANCE MAGIC"

"Dance Magic," which proved to be one of the most widely read stories of the year when it was published serially in The Ladies Home Journal last winter, comes to the Penniman Allen screen in picture form Tuesday and Wednesday, October 25 and 26, and will live up to all its advance notices of action and story interest.

With Ben Lyon and Pauline Starke in the leading roles, the piece is exceptionally well cast, surprisingly well in view of the fact that almost every player but the two principals was recruited from the Broadway stage without previous screen experience.

Among the well known players of the legitimate stage who make their screen debut in "Dance Magic" are Isabel Elson, of "The Ghost Train"; Helen Chandler, from "Mr. Pin Passes By"; Harlan Knight, featured in "Lightning"; Francis Weldon, from one of the Shubert shows, and Francoetta Maloy, a dancer from "Queen High." Louis John Bartels, who won fame with his creation of "The Show Off" on the stage, and seen here recently in "Broadway Nights," and Mabel Swor, beautiful young blonde making her screen bow in "Dance Magic," round out the cast which Victor Halperin directed.

The story tells the struggles of a girl to free herself from the prejudices of her New England home against dancing, runs away to New York and becomes a star in a musical comedy.

Involved in a sensational murder, she finds refuge in the narrowness of the community she had fled, and finds there too the boy she loves but refused to marry, holding her career above all other interests.

Several elaborate settings feature the production, notably the hunt club scene and two beautiful numbers from one of New York's best known revues. The methods of the New York police in conducting a "third degree" form a thrilling bit of the action.

"Dance Magic" is one of the pictures you mustn't miss.

"WHITE PANTS WILLIE"

Jobony Hines will be the feature at the Penniman Allen theatre Thursday and Friday, October 27 and 28, in his latest First National picture, "White Pants Willie," produced under the personal supervision of C. C. Burr. The picture is a screen adaptation of the Liberty Magazine serial story of the same name by the humorist, Elmer Davis.

A splendid cast of players appear in support of the comedian with Lella

Hynes playing the leading feminine role. Others appearing prominently are Burb Dwyer, Walter Long, Henry Burrows, Margaret Seddon, George Kuwa, and last but not least, Bozo, the educated goose.

"White Pants Willie" is said to abound in humorous sequences, one of the most hilarious being a fast polo match played by crack players with the comedian being mistaken for a polo champion, thrust into the game and forced to win or lose the girl. Naturally the comedian's white pants play an important role and supply moments of genuine humor, starting the picture off with a gale of laughter that doesn't cease until the final fade-out.

ANNOUNCE OPENING OF RADIO SCHOOL

M. S. C. OFFERS WIDE VARIETY OF MATERIAL IN 24 WEEKS COURSE THIS YEAR—SPECIAL EVENTS LISTED.

The "school of the air" at Michigan State College will open Monday evening, October 24, broadcasting over WKA R, the college radio station.

Material of interest to everyone will be presented this year combining the offerings of 22 departments of the college. The first half of the program will be devoted to the arts and sciences and the last half to agriculture. In addition, special programs of music and football and basketball games will be broadcast.

Farmers of the state will play an important part in the school this year. Each of the lectures to be given by the department of agricultural engineering will be based on a power project as developed by some outstanding farmer. Prominent producers of the important crops will speak on the farm crops department programs.

Five departments which did not appear on the programs last year will be included in the school this year. The Boys' and Girls' Club department will give a series of 15 lectures and will include many of the champion club boys and girls of the state among their speakers. The athletic department will give a series of lectures on the major sports which will give the average individual a better understanding of these games. The other new departments will include electrical engineering, botany and the department of drawing and design.

The radio school courses will be given five nights each week from 7:15 to 8:30 o'clock. The program each evening will be divided into four ten-minute periods. The fall term which opens October 24, will continue until December 16. The winter term of 24 weeks will open January 2 and end April 20.

Catalogs giving a complete schedule of the courses will be ready when the school starts and may be procured by writing to WKA R.

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet Thursday, October 27, at 2:30 p. m., with Misses Cora and Nettie Pelham, 395 Ann Arbor street. Everyone will be welcome, and it is hoped there will be a good attendance.

The following is taken from a speech by Mrs. Boole, National President of the W. C. T. U.: "Prohibition has raised the standard of living in America; it has contributed to better homes, increased production and ownership of automobiles and radios, while the fact that all aviators must abstain from alcoholic liquors is testimony to the fact that the mental acumen and poise of the nation are advanced because of prohibition."

But She Did Love George

By ADELAIDE D. HUFF

SIDE by side, their desks only a few feet apart in the huge office of the Mutual Protective Insurance company, George Harris and Alene Sumner had worked for over two years. They had early formed a pleasant friendship, for from the first Alene had been attracted by Harris' frank, boyish face that lit up with enthusiasm or looked comically dejected according to his thought; but most of all she adored the trick he had, when puzzled, of running his hand through his heavy brown hair, often leaving a ridiculous wisp standing straight up. He was a product of the country, lured to the big city by the bright lights and the glamor and gaiety of which he had read so much; she distinctly and obviously was an urbanite. Yet there was much in common between these two. Straightforward, clean, ambitious, looking life squarely in the face without fear or flinching, they went through the hard day's work with a song in their hearts and in the short evenings played together like children out of school.

Alene had a convertible bedroom; that is to say, she could make her bed look like a cross between a wardrobe and a chiffonier merely by touching a spring and being careful to get all the bedclothes inside. In one corner behind a screen she had a gas plate and two or three cooking pans. So often after office hours they would stop in at a grocery and buy something to cook on the gas plate afterward. Alene would put an apron on George and make him peel the two potatoes which he would do with the utmost clumsiness and joy. After the supper was prepared, with a swish they would clear the little center table of its books and work basket and dainty cups and saucers would appear from behind the screen. Then they would sit down a little self-consciously, avoiding each other's eyes, but each one filled with a sense of expectancy.

It was at the fourth little supper for two that George put his hand across the table. "Let's go on this way forever, dear," he said coaxingly. Alene flushed and smiled as she timidly slipped her hand in his, and after that the creamy white mashed potatoes and the sizzling hot steak were left to congeal on the table unnoticed.

"But, George, darling, don't let's get married for a long time," Alene begged later. "I want to keep on working until we get enough to buy a little home of our own way out somewhere, and anyhow, we see each other every day and all day as it is, so why hurry?"

"Maybe you're right, dearest," he answered reluctantly, "but don't let's wait too long. Just think, it's that much happiness gone forever." The months sped by on wings of happiness, but toward the end of summer there came a little rift in the lute. It had been a terribly hot season and the work at the office had seemed harder than usual. Alene had lost her pep and her joy in things. She loved her fiancé as much as ever but his running his hand through his hair somehow did get on her nerves. She felt embarrassed now when she would look over and see that absurd wisp standing straight on end. At supper in the tiny apartment one evening she involuntarily let out a little shriek of impatience.

"George, for goodness' sake, I'll die if . . ." then she checked herself. She didn't tell him. She just couldn't, for it was the very little trick she had once liked so much and she had often spoken to him about it. Was she going crazy? Didn't she love him any more? At the thought, hot tears welled up in her eyes, overflowed and ran down her cheeks. In a second he held her in his arms and was soothing her, his own heart thumping with fear and anxiety.

"You're overworked," he said. "You'll simply have to stop and rest. It's just too much for a little thing like you anyway." If only he would stop talking. If only he would go away, she thought. She tried to laugh it off, promised to be all right by morning and finally got rid of him. But next day she was too ill to go to work and kind Mrs. Jones downstairs insisted in calling in her doctor.

"Mrs. Jones has told me all about you," began the physician in a professional tone. "All you need is a rest. You're not going back to work, young lady. Run off to the country for a couple of weeks and no company, mind. You'll be all right then, nothing serious the matter with you but you do need rest."

Alene gave in and at last went away. Out in the cool, peaceful country she found rest for her jaded nerves. Each day brought her fresh energy and soon she was happy again, yet she counted the days until she could get back to George. One night as she lay in bed in the dark thinking about him, she laughed aloud as she caught herself longing to see him run his hand through his hair as he used to do when puzzled. She was honestly homesick just to see him do it.

"And that was the very thing annoyed me most before I left," she raved in wonder. "Isn't it funny how overtigue and nerves can make you almost hate the one you love the most. . . . Good, old Doctor Wilson. I wonder whether he guessed." (Copyright.)

Today's Reflections

You often hear a Plymouth man refer to it as "running in debt," but those who do find that getting out is more of a crawl.

What has become of the old-fashioned hog who explained his over-eating by declaring he didn't want to die in debt to his stomach?

Maybe some fellows call their house a bungalow because the job was a bungle and they still owe for it.

Never lend money to the Plymouth man who says he'll pay you back tomorrow if you don't want to discover that tomorrow never comes.

The children usually regard father as a smart man in some respects, but they often wonder why he didn't have sense enough to start a candy store.

Why is it that the girl who can't walk two squares on an errand for her mother can dance 400 squares at night and pull up as fresh as a daisy?

It takes all kinds of people to make a world, including the Plymouth man who always has to borrow your lead pencil to show you where you are wrong.

When the reformers get to heaven they'll probably be miserable on discovering that there are no closed Sundays up there.

About the only time some Plymouth husbands are the big noise around their homes is when they are sound asleep and snoring.

The human body is a wonderful thing. Put a man on the back and it will make his head swell.

Once upon a time there was an editor who published the Ten Commandments and about half of his subscribers thought he was hitting at their morals and stopped their subscriptions.

Sometimes you run across a Plymouth girl who is still pretty much of a baby at 14 or 15 years of age, and when you do you run across the sweetest thing in the world.

We are also firmly convinced that people would not complain so much about high taxes if their money went for what they intended it to go for.

Maybe they call them step-fathers because one man had to step out before they could step in.

The man who comes to Plymouth and starts out by claiming to know everything usually winds up by asking the way back home.

Money Saving Facts About Concrete Highway Pavements

Concrete is durable. It will not shove, roll or rut. It remains as true and even as built. Concrete pavement is now satisfying taxpayers in many counties and every state in the Union. Maintenance cost is low. It does not require periodic resurfacing. Wet or dry, concrete provides the safest surface for traffic. Oil drippings will not cause concrete to disintegrate. Concrete pavements are clean, smooth, dustless, free from stickiness and usable twelve months in the year. 6,000 miles of concrete pavement were placed on highways in the United States in 1926. Concrete gives you more road surface value for each dollar invested than any other type.

CROP REPORT

A period of hot weather coupled with frequent rains and no frost during the month of September, hastened the Michigan corn crop to maturity and materially increased the prospects of a month ago so that 57 per cent of a normal crop is now expected, according to a statement issued by Herbert E. Powell, Commissioner of Agriculture and Verne H. Church, Agricultural Statistician for Michigan. Potatoes that were planted late are still growing, and bean prospects showed considerable improvement although rains late in the month delayed the harvest somewhat.

On October 1, one-half of the corn crop in the state was mature, much of it had been cut, and most of the silo filling had been completed. The forecasted crop of 35,765,000 bushels is still over eighteen million bushels short of last year's production. The United States corn crop prospects also increased greatly in September, and the nation's crop now promises to be only two per cent below last year.

Michigan oats turned out slightly better than in 1926, and also above average with a yield of 33.5 bushels per acre. The total production is nearly the same as last year, but the quality is much better and is above average. The U. S. oats crop was 3.6 per cent smaller than last year, with a yield of 28.1 bushels per acre.

The potato forecast is for the smallest crop in Michigan since 1916 or only 23,771,000 bushels. The condition of 80 per cent of normal on October 1, is ten points below that in any other important late potato state. Consequently, the production promises to be even above the normal consumption requirements, being estimated at 394,757,000 bushels. Because of late blight, considerable rot is reported in eastern states, and this will tend to partially counteract the depressing effect on prices of this large national production.

Many beans were harvested during September without damage and the quality is unusually good. The pick will be somewhat larger from the late portion of the crop coming from the eastern counties of the bean district where there has been some rain damage. The state yield is 9.5 bushels per acre, and the yield in all sections is below average. Based on the acreage of 662,000, this gives 6,289,000 bushels compared with 6,624,000 bushels last year, of which 5,300,000 bushels were merchantable.

With a yield of 28.5 bushels per acre, the same as a year ago, 5,415,000 bushels of heavy weight and excellent colored barley was harvested in Michigan. Buckwheat did not recover from the long drought and frosts of August, and the yield will be low. Drought has also shortened the prospects for sugar beets to 670,000 tons, but the sugar content will likely be above average this year. Prospects for this crop are much better in other states than in Michigan. Our hay was a big crop this year, and the average yield was 1.50 tons per acre for all tame varieties combined; first cutting were especially good. The yield is boosted by the increased acreage of alfalfa in the state.

Apple prospects did not change during the month in Michigan, and less than one-half the 1926 crop will be produced in both Michigan and the United States. The crop is generally good in the better commercial orchards of the state, but is very scabby and inferior elsewhere. The bulk of the Michigan peach crop which is 34 per cent of a normal one, ripened within a few days during the hot weather of mid-September, and had to be rushed to market with unusual speed. Trucks were unable to take care of the rush, and therefore the car-load movement was much heavier than anticipated. The United States has 48.4 per cent of a normal crop of peaches this year. The Michigan pear crop improved late in the season, and a production only 17 per cent below last year is now forecast. However, the grape yield in the state now appears to be less than growers had expected earlier, but the sugar content is high.

KANSAS AND FRANCE

—The Difference—

On either side of the Santa Fe express, in which this is written, the corn fields and farmhouses of Kansas fly past. It is a country unlike that through which the writer drove a few weeks ago in France on the way from Paris to see Clemenceau in his little cottage on the Atlantic at LeJard, not far from Bordeaux.

The trip through France, made in an automobile, was as rapid as this trip by train. In France you drive your automobile as fast as you like, but TAKE CARE YOU HURT NOBODY.

French roads are wide and straight, the car used by this writer came from Nice to Paris, 900 kilometers, 540 miles, in one day and did easily the 400 miles from Paris to LeJard between breakfast and dinner.

French drivers go rapidly, but carefully; if they hit anybody the law hits them. A member of the Chamber of Deputies went to jail for a year, all the influence of his friends could not save him. He struck a child, B. Forman of Rochester N. Y. can tell you of a French chauffeur accused of intoxication sent to jail for ten years. He killed a child, Mr. Forman saw the thing happen.

Here in Kansas you see great tractors providing power, machinery cutting and binding corn, great engines binding, threshing wheat, and tying the grain in sacks, all in one operation.

In France occasionally you would see a peasant and his wife cutting their grain with sickles in small fields of irregular shape. Fields were harvested with scythes. Here and there teams of horses drew mowing machines. Power driven agricultural machinery was not seen between Paris and LeJard.

Where mowers had passed you might see old grandmother and her little grandchildren bending over picking up wisps of grain with the right hand, putting them in aprons held by the left hand.

A hundred such gleaners were seen in a day's drive. They were less fortunate than Ruth, their gleanings meagre. There was no Boaz to command his young men, saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves and reapproach her not; and let fall also some of the handfuls on purpose for her and leave them that she may glean them, but rebuke her not."

With hand rakes the old grandmother and the little girl could have gathered all the gleanings in a short time, but that evidently was not allowed. Gleaning must be done by hand, the old body must stoop, and stoop all day long to pick up stray straws. When the grain had gone from the field an old shepherd would bring his little band of sheep. These would walk through the stubble eating the over-ripe grain that had fallen from the ears. Other bands of sheep led by an old man or woman with dogs to help, ate the grass along the highway edge. No sheep ever strayed onto the road before the automobiles. Dogs prevented that, and the sheep seemed trained. Beautiful animals, admirably kept, they waste nothing in France.

Here in rich America you ride miles through unending fields of corn or grain, pass great herds of heavy steers, deep in grass and tens of thousands of acres not used.

In France they use every foot of ground, waste nothing, not food or human labor, men and women work long hours, work hard with patience.

The peasants' houses are beautiful and old, their animals well cared for. Along the coast of Brittany and the Vendee, men and women and children work side by side. Men repair, at low tide, their fish nets colored light blue. The fishermen say "fish like color." On the flat lands you see little mounds of salt taken from the ocean by imprisoning waters in shallow pools for evaporation.

Once "La Gabelle," a heavy tax on salt, dressed the mistresses of French kings and made life easy for three lucky classes, royalty, clergy and nobility. It was death to the peasant to escape "La Gabelle" by taking his salt from the ocean.

Conditions are better now. The kings are sleeping in St. Denis, the few whose bones were not scattered during the Revolution. There are more schools than chateaux, more public libraries than galleys. The peasant is no longer forbidden to kill animals that ate his crops because lords and ladies wanted the pleasure of riding over those crops to kill the animals themselves.

But in every French family there is mourning. Each earnest hard-faced French woman tells how many sons or daughters she had "killed."

Bridging the Seasons

The function of the Electric Air Heater is to make a room comfortably warm in the chilly mornings and evenings that come so frequently before the house furnace is started.

The Electric Air Heater does not take the place of the furnace. It supplements it. An electric heater is simply a quick, convenient, and inexpensive means of heating a cold room when you want it warmed, and for as long or short a time as you may desire.

Even in full furnace season it will often be found desirable to have it at hand, especially in the bath-room mornings.

The Electric Air Heater is portable and can be used in any room where there is electrical connection. It consumes about 2½ cents worth of current an hour. It sells for as little as

CATHOLIC NOTES

Sunday is Holy Communion Sunday for the children of the parish.

Each child that has not completed the eighth grade, is obliged to attend the instruction class on Saturday morning.

A very interesting parish meeting was held in the church last Wednesday night, in order to decide upon the reconstruction of the present church; the plans of the addition together with a picture showing the looks of the church when completed, were presented for public inspection. The building if erected, will be a great improvement, and a need sorely wanted. More definite announcements will be ready for print next week.

The young people, Nethem Club are sponsoring a Halloween box masquerade social, at the Yuchasz farm house next Thursday night. Halloween amusements, dancing and card playing will feature the evening; a cordial invitation is extended to all, young and old. Come masked and prepared for a good time. A truck will be at the church at 8:00 o'clock, to take those who have no means of getting to the party.

The families to sponsor the November party have been announced, and it is expected that they will have a real entertainment for the public, November 17th.

The members of the choir practice every Friday night at 7:30 in the church.

The forty hours devotion, will begin November 11 and close November 13. The exercises will be conducted by a Dominican Father.

The Nethem club meets every Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock, in the mahogany room.

Do not forget the Halloween masquerade box social, Thursday night, October 27th, at Yuchasz farm house.
