

ANNUAL MEETING CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Banquet and Election of Officers Will Be Held at Hotel Mayflower Tuesday, December 13th.

The annual meeting of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce will take place Tuesday evening, December 13, with a banquet at the Hotel Mayflower, at 6:30. A splendid dinner will be served in the crystal dining room, and the tickets are $1.00.

Following the banquet, the annual election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. Everyone in Plymouth is interested in the Chamber of Commerce, and there should be a large attendance at the coming banquet. Get your ticket early.

Tickets will be on sale at the following places: Information booth, Blank Bros., Gayde Bros., Plymouth United Savings Bank, First National Bank, Plymouth Mall Office, R. R. Parrott, Community Pharmacy, Frank Rambo, Dodge Drug Store, Raymond Bachelor, and by all directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

DAISY EMPLOYEES ASSOCIATION HELD BANQUET

Saturday evening, November 26, the Daisy Employees Association gave their annual banquet to members of the Daisy Company, Employees Association and friends. After a sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner, the guests were entertained by speeches, music and dancing.

The association members were more than compensated for their efforts by the appreciation, cooperation and friendly feeling shown between the company and the association.

Byron Becker, president of the association, was toastmaster. Mr. Hough, being unable to attend, sent his message by Cass Hough. The principal thought was that the Association not only "grow and prosper, but that 100% of his employees be association members."

C. H. Bennett expressed his appreciation at being able to meet with the association, while a year ago he was kept away by illness. He corroborated Mr. Hough's plea for 100% of the employees being association members.

Other toasts were given by M. M. Willett and C. H. Rauch.

The address of the evening was delivered in his usual pleasing manner by Prof. George A. Smith, his subject being, "Ready to Cut Clothes."

One of the interesting numbers on the program was the following poem, composed by Mrs. Jennie Westfall, an association member, and delivered by little Miss Katherine Compton:

In the morning we must rise
From our beds before sunrise,
And breakfast over, haste away
To work on guns another day.
Some for many years have worked,
And never at their duty shirked.
The reason why, I now will tell
The Company always treats them well.
A few have been dissatisfied,
And for higher wages tried,
But watch them when cold winter comes
They'd like to come back and work on guns.
When other factories close their doors
And say, "Oh work we have no more,"
The Daisy's doors are open wide
And business running at high tide.
So, faithful ones, let's always work,
And never at our labor shirk.
For this we know, it profits us,
To keep the Daisy prospering.
And 'tis through death knocks at our door,
And we're called from earth forevermore,
Our group insurance, friend will find,
Protects the loved ones we leave behind.

ROTARY DISTRICT GOVERNOR VISITS LOCAL CLUB

Omar Steele, district governor of Rotary in this district, made an official visit to the local Rotary club last Friday. Following the luncheon Mr. Steele made a very interesting talk to the members of the club, in which he brought a splendid message, defining the principals and ideals of Rotary. He especially admonished the Plymouth Rotarians to ever keep in mind the motto of the organization, "He prospers most who serves best."

The governor found the club in a very flourishing and prosperous financial condition and highly complimented the officers for their good work.

DINNIE UPTON COMING TO PLYMOUTH

POPULAR COACH WILL TELL ABOUT "THE PLAYER IN THE SHADOW."

One of the most interesting speakers you know of will be here in Plymouth a week from next Monday night, with some of the funniest stories you ever heard, with some gripping stories of athletics from his own personal experiences, and when you come away you will feel that everybody in Plymouth missed something if they weren't there to hear him. That's Dinnie Upton.

Do you remember the old days when Grand Rapids Central High was winning all the championships in Michigan's football? Do you remember that the championships were not limited to football, but ran into all the other branches of sport as well? Do you remember that along with the championships the reputation for play as clean as it was hard? Do you remember who was their coach? That's Dinnie Upton.

During the war the war department drafted the outstanding coaches from all over the country to take charge of athletics in the training camps. As the war progressed the most efficient of these were given charge of whole departments, including from six to fourteen camps; and one of these gave up his place of head of the western department for a commission in the flying service. That's Dinnie Upton.

You sort of shrink from lectures, don't you? But whatever it's labeled you will want to know the liveliest speaker of the day and hear what he says about community building. That's Dinnie Upton.

The thought of service before self. The desire to perform those duties of civil life that will mean the greatest good for the greatest number. The aspiration to win victories for the benefit of those who watch us as we play our game. So to construct the family, civic and national life that tomorrow may find each better than today. That's community building.

This is the third number on the Redpath Lyceum course sponsored by the senior class to be given Monday, December 12th, at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Single admission 50 cents.

NEW BUS LINE TOUCHES PLYMOUTH

Beginning Thursday, December 1st, a new bus line service between Walled Lake and Wayne, connecting Novi, Westville and Plymouth, with service every hour and a half, was inaugurated. This service is being operated by the U. & I. Transit company, with headquarters in Northville, in the Northville hotel building.

The buses will leave Plymouth for Wayne at 6:00 a. m., 9:15 a. m., 12:35 p. m., 3:55 p. m. Buses leave Plymouth for Northville, Novi and Walled Lake at 7:00 a. m., 10:15 a. m., 1:35 p. m., 4:55 p. m.

CHRISTMAS CLUB CHECKS TOTAL NEARLY $25,000

MERCHANTS WILL RECEIVE BENEFIT BY SAVINGS WHICH LOCAL BANKS HAVE DISTRIBUTED THE PAST WEEK.

Nearly $25,000 in Christmas Club checks has been paid out to residents of Plymouth and vicinity by the two Plymouth banks during the past week.

Local merchants, of course, will benefit to a large extent from the sum which comes into the hands of depositors, through the distribution of Christmas Club checks just at this time of the year, preceding Christmas. A large sum will also form a nucleus for a savings account, and will be left with the banks.

The Christmas Club Savings plan is becoming more popular each year, and more people are taking this easy method of saving a little sum of money by depositing a certain sum each week.

CAMPAIGN BANNER OF 1856

K. H. Starkweather, of this village, has presented to John S. Dayton, village attorney, an old Republican campaign banner of the historic period of 1856. The banner, hand painted on linen, now yellow with age, hung in the window of a Plymouth home during the first campaign of the Republican party. The Republican party had but recently been organized in Jackson, Mich., and at its first convention nominated John C. Fremont for president and William Lewis Dayton for vice-president. The banner, in large letters, simply reads "Fremont and Dayton." The original Republican candidates, as every school boy knows, were defeated by the Democrats, or by James Buchanan for president and John C. Breckinridge for vice-president. They served only one term, after which the Republicans scored their initial victory and elected the now immortal Lincoln. One of Lincoln's first acts as president was to appoint Mr. Dayton as minister to France in 1861, and in this high office he (Dayton) continued until his death in Paris in December of 1864.

As William Lewis Dayton, the statesman, was a kinsman of John S. Dayton, of Plymouth, the local Mr. Dayton especially prizes this old campaign banner and at the time of presentation by Mr. Starkweather intimated that it would be framed for better and more permanent preservation.

  - February 17—Plymouth at Wayne. Dearborn at Ypsilanti. Farmington at Northville.
  - February 24—Northville at Ypsilanti. Plymouth at Dearborn. Wayne at Farmington.
  - March 2—Farmington at Plymouth. Ypsilanti at Wayne. Dearborn at Northville.
  - March 9—Plymouth at Ypsilanti. Northville at Wayne. Farmington at Dearborn.

OFFICER AT PRISON FARM DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT

William Herr, one of the officers at the House of Correction farm, was seriously injured in an automobile accident in Detroit, last week Thursday evening. He was taken to Receiving hospital, suffering from a fractured skull. Mr. Herr died Monday evening. He was 25 years of age, and had been employed at the House of Correction farm for about two years, and was an efficient officer and highly esteemed by all who knew him. The remains were taken to his home at Portage, Pa., where the funeral services and interment took place.

Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Mrs. Sarah Cook, Mrs. R. O. Mimmack, Mrs. Albert Gayde and Mrs. Flora Ratten bury delightfully entertained one hundred ladies at a bridge luncheon at the Hotel Mayflower, Thursday afternoon.

OWNERS TO GET DRIVING CODES

ALL WHO BUY LICENSES WILL RECEIVE CONDENSED VERSION OF MICHIGAN LAWS.

Every person who buys a new automobile license plate for 1928 is to be handed a copy of a digest of Michigan's motor vehicle laws prepared under the supervision of John S. Haggerty, secretary of state. The officials says the pamphlet is intended for pocket use by operators of motor vehicles. It condenses the laws in convenient form for ready reference.

The text of the digest follows:

Driver's License. Every operator of a motor vehicle must obtain a driver's license. The person licensed must be over 14 years of age, and his or her application must be approved by the local chief of police or sheriff, or by the commissioner of public safety or any officer appointed by him to approve such applications.

Edward Plachta, who has charge of the local office of the department of state, at 182 Liberty street, Plymouth, commenced issuing license plates Thursday, December 1st. The office hours are from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

There will be no extension of time granted automobile and truck owners who fail to obtain plates by January 1st. John S. Haggerty, secretary of state, announces.

With the new branch in Plymouth local auto owners will have no difficulty in getting their license plates within the prescribed period this year.

BLANK BROS. ADD ANOTHER DEPARTMENT IN THEIR STORE

Blank Bros. have added another department to their already very complete department store. A special department has been arranged at the rear of the store where a complete line of ladies' dresses is being displayed. New display cases have been installed, together with pretty furnishings, which makes this department very attractive.

A splendid selection of dresses of the latest designs are being shown, and there is no doubt but that this new department will meet with popular favor with the ladies.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO PLACE BRONZE TABLET ON THE MAYFLOWER HOTEL

Members of the D. A. R. chapter, League of Women Voters, Kiwanis and Rotary clubs, respectively, with the Woman's club, will have luncheon in the Crystal dining room at 12:15 this Friday noon, following which will be a program of unusual interest.

FORD ANNOUNCES THE SHOWING OF NEW CAR

Ford Reception Friday to Show Public Models of New Cars in Photographs and Charts.

Local Dealer Making Preparations for All-day Exhibition at Sales-room Today.

After six months of "saying nothing but saving wood," Henry Ford today announced the specifications of the new Ford car which succeeds his famous Model T. A large listing of these specifications presents a picture of an automobile that in performance, appearance and mechanical features has heretofore been associated with a considerably higher price class.

Usual speed and acceleration are among the outstanding features of the new car. It is announced as being able to make 55 to 60 miles an hour, with ease. In recent tests it has made even more without difficulty. What is more important, it is stated that when traveling at such speeds, it holds the road easily, and with comfort to driver and passengers. It is also stated with equal positiveness, however, that it performs in an equally spectacular manner on bad roads. In its design, Mr. Ford has held to his original idea of a car which can meet all conditions and types of roads.

Appreciating the constantly increasing importance of acceleration, the Ford Motor company has given a great deal of study to this feature of the new car. In high gear tests with two passengers in a Tudor sedan it has shown an acceleration of from 5 to 25 miles an hour in 8 1/2 seconds.

The new Ford car also introduces a new type of four-wheel brakes. An exclusive Ford development, they are of the mechanical, shoe-expanding type and are self-actuating. The brake pedal and the hand brake each operates all four brakes. It is stated that this is the most reliable and simplest type of four-wheel brake, and also the easiest to adjust, all adjustments being made from the outside without removing any parts.

An engine that is practically vibrationless develops 40 horsepower at 2200 revolutions per minute. This low revolution speed in ratio to the high horsepower is illustrative of the unusual efficiency of the engine. Also, it means longer life, the lower engine speed insuring less wear on engine parts. The low revolution speeds also a substantial factor in lessening vibration. The bore is 3 7/8 inches, stroke 4 1/4 inches. The unusually large crankshaft, which is both statically and dynamically balanced, weighs 28 pounds. This balancing, combined with the lightness of aluminum alloy pistons, further combine to reduce vibration and increase riding and driving comfort and safety.

In addition to freedom from vibration, it is announced that the car is unusually quiet, a great deal of attention having been paid to this feature by the Ford engineers. In the engine, the timing gears are made of bakelized fabric, which is much quieter than metal. The cams on the camshaft have been so designed as to prevent valve clicking.

The coachwork of the car is as distinctive as its performance. There is a noticeable European touch in line and contour. It is not only designed for exterior beauty, but has as well the interior roominess, convenience and luxurious appointments to be found in much higher priced automobiles. On an instrument board of satin-finished nickel are mounted the speedometer, gasoline gauge, ammeter and ignition lock, with a dashlight in the center. The new military-type sun visor, with crown roof and round corners, are features of the closed models. Unusually narrow pillars and very wide doors and windows give maximum vision. Nickel radiator shell and headlamps further accentuate the exterior attractiveness, while choices of four colors in pyroxylin finish are offered.

Simplicity in design has also been carried to the ignition. There is only one coil, in a waterproof case. There are no vibrators to adjust, and no exposed cables to work loose or short circuit from water. The distributor is located in a readily accessible position on top of the engine.

Centrifugal water pump, large radiator and airplane propeller-type fan provide a cooling system which makes the car very difficult to overheat, except from abuse, such as running without enough oil or dry radiator.

From 26 to 30 miles to a gallon of gasoline, depending upon driving speed, is the gasoline consumption announced. Feed to carburetor is by gravity.

The oiling system, also a distinctive Ford design, is a combination of pump, splash and gravity feed. The new transmission is of the selective sliding gear type, with standard shift, three speeds forward and one reverse. The main shaft runs on ball bearings, the counter-shaft on roller bearings and the reverse idler on bronze bearings, a power-saving design unusual on light cars. Shifting of gears is noiselessly and easily accomplished, at the pressure of a finger.

Multiple dry-disc clutch, rear axle of three-quarter floating type housed in electrically welded steel, and spiral bevel gear drive are interesting features. The axle shafts carry none of the weight of the car, the wheels running on roller bearings on the housing. Newly developed springs of the transverse semi-elliptic type and hydraulic shock-absorbers prevent excessive up-and-down movement and remove side sway.

Irreversible steering gear, which prevents shocks from being transmitted back to the hands of the driver, makes handling exceptionally easy. Maximum steering safety is further provided by a gear housing of welded steel forgings, and a steel tube steering column welded into the housing, making a sturdy and exceptionally safe one-piece unit.

Ford-designed steel spoke wheels, completely welded into a one-piece assembly, are provided.

There are six models of the new car. They are the phaeton, roadster, sport coupe, coupe, Tudor sedan and Fordor sedan.

The local dealer is preparing for a public reception today (Friday), when models of the new line will be shown in photographs and charts.

DEBATE HERE DECEMBER 8

Next Thursday evening, December 8th, Plymouth's debating team will meet that of River Rouge here in Plymouth High school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock. This is the second debate in the State league series and the first that Plymouth has had at home this year.

River Rouge has the affirmative and Plymouth has the negative side of the proposition. Resolved, that the direct primary system of nominating candidates for public office in the United States should be abolished. This is a question which has aroused much discussion recently, because of the huge sums that have been spent in the primaries of Illinois and Pennsylvania. Every voter has a special interest in the subject.

The Plymouth debating team consists of Leona Beyer, Harold Hubert and Franklin Atkinson. They won their first debate from Fordson with a 3 to 0 decision. Help them win their decision Thursday evening, December 8th.

The direct primary is one of the four study topics for the League of Women Voters this year, so the Plymouth League of Women Voters is especially urged to be present to gain information on the subject.

The Women's club, the W. C. T. U., the D. A. R., the churches, the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs all claim an interest in civic affairs. These organizations will show how great their interest really is by their attendance at the debate Thursday evening, December 8th, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

What do you think about the primary?

WHY FLOODS COME.

The sad experience of Vermont, New Hampshire and Massachusetts, coming so soon after the terrible disaster in the Mississippi valley, brings up an old question that more than one Plymouth citizen has asked in recent years, and that is what really causes these floods. Why are they far worse now than they have ever been before? Does it mean that conditions have changed, and that in the future we must have more floods and more serious ones?

Man seems to have had quite a hand in recent floods. He has for years been cutting off the forests in the hilly parts of this country, and all this permits the rainfall to run off more quickly. Once the moss and undergrowth on the hillsides absorbed a vast amount of moisture, and that served to hold back enough water to prevent floods. Today none of it is held back; it all flows off the hillsides directly into the streams, and their destructive sweep is certain to result.

This is the opinion of men who have for long years studied floods and methods of preventing them. They argue that so long as we cut trees and do not plant trees in their place we are piling up trouble and encouraging floods. They offer but one solution, and that a simple one. Plant trees and keep on planting. For hundreds of years we've been cutting them, and each tree felled has helped to bring floods. The remedy is simple. The hard job is to get the American people to accept it.

WHY NOT TRY THIS?

With Thanksgiving over and but one more big holiday this year we want to take just a moment to talk to Plymouth readers who still cling to the old habit of waiting until a day or two before Christmas to prepare for it. They would be surprised, doubtless, if they knew how nicely some of their neighbors have solved an old problem that used to cause a lot of vexation. And yet they are as smart as their neighbors, and can do the same thing.

You already know about what you are going to give, and to whom. The very thing you will give is even now to be had at our local stores, or will be in a day or so. Why not go in now, when there isn't a rush as there will be a day or two before Christmas, pick out what you want, or order it if it isn't in stock, make a little down payment on it and have it laid away until you call for it? Or, better still, pay cash for it, take it home, put it away and have it off your mind. Get several such purchases out of the way this week, and some more next week; and then, just a few days before the big holiday, after stocks have been picked over and the choicest things sold, you can thank your stars that your own problems are solved. You can sit down and take it easy, and let those who still stick to the old last-minute shopping habit suffer the discomfort and worry.

You will be resting easier in both body and mind, and you'll be in better shape to enjoy your own Christmas than you ever were before. Try it this year—start in now—and when Christmas does arrive you'll be silently thanking us for the suggestion.

BEATING THE BORER.

Uncle Sam's corn crop is harvested and to the surprise of his experts it ran many million bushels ahead of their early estimates. They had allowed for a vast amount of destruction from the corn borer, and while the pests undoubtedly did destroy a large amount of corn, the campaign waged against them in various sections during the growing season retarded their work. The corn borer is just another of the many pests that have come to inflict the farmer since the days of Adam, and while it may never be entirely stamped out, it is good to know that the fight is proving effective. We have heard some farmers around Plymouth argue that the borer is here to stay, and that corn raising is no longer a paying proposition; but this year's harvest doesn't bear out that statement by any means. If we have harvested a bumper crop with the corn borer battle just starting, why won't the harvest be even more profitable when the fight is carried still farther?

OBITUARY

Mary A. Brown was born at Plymouth, Michigan, July 10, 1847, daughter of Reuben A. and Betsy Ann Kingsley Brown. When a small child her family moved to Newburg. She received her education at the Patchen school, and later taught at Newburg, Cooper's Corners, Lapham's Corners and at Plymouth from 1872 to 1874.

On July 1, following the close of school, she was married to Clarence S. Sayles, and they made their home in Canton township until 1911, when they moved to their Harrey street home, where she passed away Wednesday morning, November 23, and where funeral services were held Friday morning. Mr. Sayles preceded her to the other life, nearly three years ago.

Mrs. Sayles was one of seven children, four of whom survive her: Dr. L. R. Brown of St. Paul, Minn.; Randolph Brown of Kalkaska, Mich.; Mrs. Frank King, Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Lucy Smith of Plymouth. She also leaves one daughter, Mrs. Elam W. Moyer, and two grandsons, Ralph and Howard Moyer; also nephews and nieces. She first joined the church at Dixboro in 1897, transferring her membership to the Plymouth Methodist church when she moved here in 1911. She was a very faithful member, always ready to do any service asked of her. Jesus Christ was very real to her, and her life was closely patterned after His. Her life was a benediction to all who associated with her. To know her was to love her gentle kindly ways.

A LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

Santa Monica, Calif.,
Nov. 18, 1927.

To Plymouth Mail:

We arrived in Santa Monica on November tenth, after a delightful trip. We had no serious car trouble, no bad weather and fairly good roads all the way. We did not use our tents at all after the first week, as we found cabin camps everywhere, most of them quite good. As a rule they are furnished with a bed, a table, stove and a couple of benches or chairs; of course, one has to furnish their own bedding, but one would prefer to anyway.

We saw so much that is interesting, and enjoyed the trip so much better this time than we did when we came before, partly because we had good company and partly because we took more time to really enjoy the places we saw.

We spent a day at the Painted Desert and the Petrified Forest; they are both such strange freaks of nature and both are so beautiful. We stayed two days at Colorado Springs and visited the wonderful Garden of the Gods and Cheyenne Canyon and Seven Falls, which is such a lovely place. High rocks towering hundreds of feet above on each side of the canyon and a clear cold stream of sparkling mountain water rippling along at the foot. A deep quiet pool is there with large trout in it. They are protected, so have become almost impudent. We spent three days at Grand Canyon, and I will not even try to describe the beauty and wonder of it, for it cannot be done.

We are all very pleasantly settled here in Santa Monica, and prepared to enjoy the hot weather. I have just been reading in the evening paper about the blizzard and cold back there, and think we are very fortunate. Mr. and Mrs. Innis have a nice apartment on 9th street, and we have about the same on 6th street.

We find a great many changes since we were here before, such nice wide boulevards everywhere now and so many lovely buildings. We visited Mrs. John Wilcox one day; she was a former resident of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Riggs came up to see us and the Innis' Tuesday evening. They both look extremely well.

This trip was such a sudden affair—almost on a moment's notice, as it were, that there were some friends whom I did not see to bid good-bye, and if any care to write me I shall be glad to receive letters and will try to answer. I am glad to hear from my friends always.

We are both quite well and so are Mr. and Mrs. Innis. We hope to soon receive the Plymouth Mail regularly, and that will keep us in touch with Plymouth folks. Will write again later.

With best wishes to the "Mail" and its readers.

Mrs. Ernest C. Vealey,

The Judge's Joke

THE AVERAGE MAN IS PROOF ENOUGH THAT A WOMAN CAN TAKE A JOKE—

Man, Oh, Man.

At the Grand Canyon. "Tell me, what are some of the chief beauties of the neighborhood that we must not miss?"

"Well, there's old man Johnson's daughter down by the mill, and Tom Jones' wife up that there mountain."

Please Stay Put.

Stude—"I hope you will pardon my dancing on your feet. I'm a little out of practice."

Co-ed—"I don't mind your dancing on them. It's the continual jumping off and on that aggravates me."

My Gracious

"I hear that you and Dolly have quarreled."
"Yes, I found something about her that I didn't like."
"What was that?"
"Another fellow's arm."

Truth in Advertising.

Prospective Roomer—"But you advertised a bed-sitting room."

Landlady—"Certainly; this is it."
"Well, I see the bed but where is the sitting room?"
"On the bed."

The Optimist.

Doctor to Dying Man: But my dear man, why must I tape up your fingers?

Patient: So they won't hurt when I play the harp.

Lotta Practice

"Are you on the water wagon for good?"

"Why, sure."
"Well, you ought to know the feeling. You've been on a thousand times before."

Ain't It True?

English Prof: What is a poet?
Pa (Dutchman): A poet is a fellow who writes verse and verse and verse.

Such Service

Are you through with the finger bowl, sir?"
"Through? I haven't even started. I'm waiting for some soap."

Thumbs Up

Wet: I don't feel any rain.
Wetter: No wonder! You've got your hand turned wrong.

Only a Companion

"Why did your pop say I reminded him of a telescope?"
"Because you're so easy to see through and you magnify everything."

Indians Erect Hall for Tribal Dances. Tower, Minn.—Nature's limitless theater has given way to a snugly heated hall for the Indian's savage dances.

Poets have sung of the beauty of the Indian dance performed on the rolling plains, against a background of towering trees and mayhap a twinkling lake or two. But when the Chipewia Indians in the Lake Superior country of Minnesota set ready to observe the change of the seasons with savage steps, they repair to a well-lighted and heated hall, take down their clubs and head-dresses from neatly labeled hooks around the wall, and do the dances of their forefathers in comparative comfort.

They erected a building just for that purpose—because it's more comfortable. There is a concrete floor and a pit for the drummers. John Wauwegan, son of an old chief and one of the drummers, explains that when the dances were held outdoors the dust from the terpsichorean grind, which frequently ran into days, all but smothered dancers and drummers.

An "orchestra" pit in the center of the hall accommodates the drummers. Headdresses, beads, bells, snashes and war clubs are hung around the wall with a peg for each person.

Dances soon will be in full swing in observance of the fall harvest of wild rice and blueberries.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKeeraghan entertained at dinner, Thanksgiving; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and children of Ypsilanti, and Mr. and Mrs. Percy H. Gray of Detroit.

Miss Naomi Colburn returned to her school Monday, after spending a pleasant Thanksgiving with her mother at Fenton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Root and daughter, Miss Ruth, and friend, Miss Ethel Kaiser, attended a party at Cherry Hill Friday evening.

The P. T. A. of Frain's Lake, is giving a dancing party at Dixboro hall Friday evening, December 2nd.

MUNICIPAL NOTES BY THE MANAGER

The laying of the 42 outlet storm sewers on Harvey street, was started Tuesday morning, November 29th. There were six feet of creek laid the first day on Harvey. Through Mr. Rathbun's driveway opposite Arthur street, there has been laid 100 feet of 24-inch creek, up to the end of November. The digging for the 36-inch creek through the driveway is all being done by hand, but the digging for the 42-inch creek is being done by Ivan Oliver's Bearex excavator.

The Village of Plymouth received a $100,000 check from Superintendent Edward Denniston of the Detroit House of Correction, for the services our fire department rendered at the prison farm fire of November 5th. Supt. Denniston expressed his thanks and appreciation, and hopes he can be of service to the village sometime.

The rains of the last few days have caused a number of our sewer trenches to settle. The village workmen and a Ford truck spent part of Tuesday and all day Wednesday filling holes.

NORTH VILLAGE HOME FURNISHING CLASS.

The North Village Home Furnishing class met at the home of Mrs. M. K. Hillman and Mrs. Karl Starkweather on November 22nd, with an enrollment of 16. After the meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. James Gallimore, Mrs. West, leader, took up the subject, "Design in the Arrangement of Home Furnishings." This is a very broad subject and one which requires a great deal of thought if one wishes to make every room in the home a good design.

Some of the principal topics discussed on the creating of good design were good proportion, unity, simplicity and structural decoration.

One woman who has not joined one of the home furnishing study groups are missing something very worth while as well as entertaining. No matter how attractive you may think your home is, after attending one of these classes you could not get home soon enough to rearrange that chair, table or group of furniture to make an apparent change in the proportions of your room or to express a feeling of rhythm in the room by the changing of other objects in respect to lines, color or lights and darks.

After this very interesting lesson refreshments were served by Mesdames Hillman, Starkweather, Murray and Holman.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph West, Starkweather avenue, on December 21st.

WATERFORD

The Waterford Friends Sunday-school will be transferred from the home of Mrs. Corene Dunbar, to that of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller, beginning December 4th, at 2:30 p. m. Preaching at 3:30. Mr. and Mrs. Miller send all a cordial invitation to attend.

Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steinmetz, were Mrs. Belle Driver and Mr. and Mrs. Ruel A. Durfee and son, Howard, of Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Gates entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. Hager, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cooke and baby, Harry Eckenrode, Mrs. M. Burmaster, Mrs. M. Shiffaut, and son, Gilbert of Detroit, last Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Gates' birthday.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church will hold a thimble party Wednesday afternoon, December 7, in the basement of the church. Mrs. Walter Westphal of Detroit, will be hostess for the afternoon. Everybody welcome.

Harry S. Lee returned home last Monday, from a hunting expedition in Georgia. While there, Mr. Lee shot a wild turkey, a very hard bird to bring down, and we believe entitles Harry to the honor of being the champion hunter of Plymouth for this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gray pleasantly entertained the Pleasure Club at their home, Wednesday evening. Honors for the evening's entertainment of cards were awarded to Mrs. J. J. Wollgast and Earl Gray, while Mrs. Ralph Cole and Fred Bovee were consoled. At the close of the evening, lunch was served.

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH.

Minister, Rev. A. J. Parker.

Services on Sunday, December 4th: Morning at 10:30: Subject, "Second Coming of Christ in the Light of Modern Events." School at 11:45. Pictorial service in the evening at 7:30. Subject, "The Book of Joshua." Song service at 7:15. Collection.

Annual church business meeting Tuesday, December 13th.

Next church night on Friday, December 16th.

Special Christmas effort with Christmas tree and Christmas program on Saturday, December 24th.

Young people's happiness party on Thursday, December 29th.

Meeting for prayer in the church Wednesday at 7:30.

Salem Federated church was crowded on Sunday evening last to see and hear the pictorial lecture given by the Rev. A. J. Parker on the Passion Play of Oberammergau. A fifteen-minute song service was conducted by H. Stanbro, after which the minister led the meeting in prayer. The lecturer first gave an outline of the history of the play, telling how it originated and the special cause which led to its inception. The congregation was then shown types of homes and people in the renowned village of Oberammergau, and many interesting facts were brought before the notice of the people. The chief characters in the play were next thrown upon the screen and introduced by the lecturer. Following this the opening scene in the play itself was presented, and from the commencement to the end the crowded congregation watched and listened with rapt attention to the different scenes as they passed before them on the screen. Brilliant and life-like pictures revealed in a realistic way the beauty and sacredness of this world-famous play. Illustrated songs were rendered during the service, and although the lecture lasted one hour and a half the time seemed to pass all too quickly.

Next Sunday evening the minister will resume the pictorial studies of the books of the Old Testament, commencing with the book of Joshua. From an educational and spiritual point of view these Sunday night services are becoming increasingly interesting and helpful and large congregations are being attracted to the meetings.

The young people associated with the Federated church at Salem held their first "happiness party" for this season in the church basement on Friday evening, November 25th. A large number of young men and women gathered for the opening night, and with officials and friends of the church spent a most happy and enjoyable time together. The first part of the evening was given over to a musical program which was held in the church and was kindly contributed by the following:

Pianoforte duet—Mrs. and Miss M. Carson.

Songs—W. Foreman.

Violin solos—Mr. Haray.

Instrumental selections—Messrs. Donald and Lloyd Staer and Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Parker.

Readings—Mrs. F. Foreman.

Songs—Miss M. Carson.

After the musical program everybody adjourned to the basement, where tables were daintily laid for a generous pot-luck supper, which many willing hands gladly helped to serve. The room was then cleared for games, and for the remainder of the evening the sound of youthful spirits and happy hearts made the rafters ring with joy.

The next young people's happiness night is to be held on Thursday, December 29th, and is to take the form of a Christmas and New Year's party.

You can well understand what sort of a man he will grow up to be, when we tell you—that he sneaks up on the tackling dummy at football practice.

GAS PLANT MANAGERS AND SALESMEN HERE.

The following are attending the meetings of managers and salesmen of the Michigan Federated Utilities, being held at the Hotel Mayflower this week: M. Dably, Marshall; Guy Craue and James Steinhauer, Owosso; T. Combs, Alma; L. Simons, Alpena; Wm. Bowman, Sault Ste. Marie; S. Holt and Carl Hauer, Mt. Clemens; Mr. Ealy and Mr. Cheney of the Chicago office.

STARK SCHOOL NOTES

We all had a fine Thanksgiving, and are glad to get back to school again.

Our school newspaper is to be published this week. It will be our first edition of the year.

Oscar Luttermoser and Ralph Wachtel won dictionaries for having the best maps in geography.

We have had toxin anti-toxin at our school.

The bazaar, which was put on by the P. T. A., was very successful.

Miss Jameson, our helping teacher, visited school Tuesday of this week.

We have started our Christmas decorations, and hope to have them up soon.

SAFE WINTER DRIVING

Safe winter driving begins with a readjustment of one's schedule to allow more time for travel between the home and office, store, shop or plant, says Raymond Bachelder, secretary of the Plymouth Branch of the Detroit Automobile Club. The allowance of an extra five, ten or fifteen minutes, depending upon the distance one has to travel, may mean a difference much more significant than that denoted merely by the time. Mr. Bachelder points out.

"It is impossible to tell how many accidents may be traced to the individual's failure to adjust his driving schedule to winter when so many things conspire against ordinarily speedy motor travel," says Mr. Bachelder. "It is not to be doubted that the number would be impressively large were it possible to compute."

"Too fast for conditions" is an accident cause that is most outstanding in winter, even though, on the whole, cold weather driving is slower. It is well to remember that 'conditions' are radically different. Streets are slippery and the weather is cold, making for more difficult handling of the car, and the temptation of pedestrians is to rush ahead regardless of traffic, to conspire against safety.

The remedy for these conditions, plainly, is to take more time. If the motorist usually allows ten minutes for his morning jaunt to the office, why not make it fifteen for winter? No better way to spend five minutes can be devised. If this allowance is made, there will be no driving that is so fast that a sudden stop may mean a fatal skid. It will mean time to let the reckless driver, pass. It will be adequate for more caution in congestion, permitting one to drive farther behind the next car, which will make stopping possible in case an emergency arises.

"Such a readjustment of one's early morning routine is not difficult, and it will bear fruit in the form of greater traffic safety."

CALL YOU CAMEL? SHE'S FROM PARIS

French Women Have Variety of Pet Names.

Paris.—"Cabbage," "White Rabbit" and "Five-Footed Calf" are among the multitude of pet names the Frenchwoman picks out of the vegetable, animal and mineral kingdoms to bestow on those she loves.

"Touyou," formerly applied exclusively to little dogs of the Fido variety, is hung on husbands and sweethearts with great generosity these days. Ordinary names seem to lack the broad scale of feeling women wish to express.

"My Little Cabbage" is used currently by the push-cart fruit and vegetable sellers who gather in the city markets in convenient side streets. It is applied to servant girl or mistress alike regardless of size or shape.

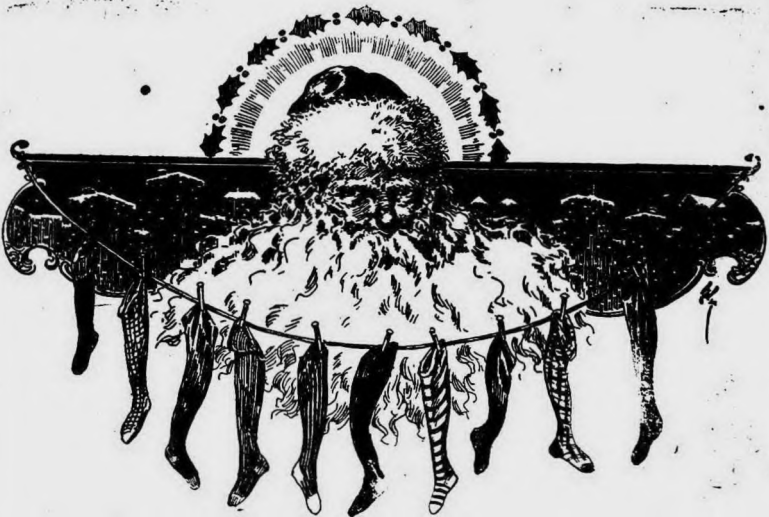

"My Little Blue Doll," "Green Rabbit," "Kitten," "Cat," "Golden Angel," "Duck," "Yellow Chicken," "My Sugar Hen," "Love," "Agile Rabbit" are terms of endearment that flow from the mouths of women in France.

One extravagant phrase is "My Camel of the Desert," which is capable of several meanings. As an expression of affection it might take a prize, but shouted at a taxi chauffeur it would start a fight. "Camel," for some occult reason, is a challenge and a battle cry. In anger, but a mother or wife can make it a poem.

Then there are a dictionary full of names spoken in mock anger such as "Sewed-Up Mouth," "Mule Head," "Indescribably Individual" and "Twisted Head."

Now that the football season is ended and several million husky young men will not be so busy—why, we'll start a basketball season.

Both Republican and Democratic dyes threaten bolts next year if their respective conventions do not behave. What is this—the iron age?

LIVING INDIAN MAY BE 180 YEARS OLD

Doubters Admit He Must Be at Least 145.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Thirty years before the Stars and Stripes were adopted as the American standard in the midst of the War of Independence, a man who still lives first saw the light of the sun, if Indian gossip be true.

The man is Captain Sam, or Sam Fish, whose cabin is in the Indian village near June lake in the high Sierras.

No one knows how old is Captain Sam. Residents of the region affirm he is the oldest man in California, perhaps the oldest in the world.

Captain Sam does not say. What matters a few moons more, a few moons less, when so many have passed over his head?

Tribal tales indicate that Captain Sam is one hundred and eighty years of age. White men who scout this figure admit it is not improbable he had seen 145 winters.

There are more than one hundred Indians in Captain Sam's family. Those far along in years recall tales he once told at camp fires, years ago. Nowadays, white men strive in vain to have him impart his memories of the past.

The stories of his relatives indicate that Captain Sam was a grown man, a leader of his tribe, when the Donner party went through the upper Owens valley nearly a century ago.

This was the first party of whites to traverse the region. Relatives of Captain Sam recall the accounts he gave them of his astonishment at seeing white men and women for the first time.

Often Captain Sam sits in the sun by his cabin door, holding in his arms his latest descendant, a pupoose of three months. He has lost track of the generations of his family. The pupoose is believed to be his great-great-great-great-grandson.

Yearly the Plutes and other tribes hold a four-day festival of sports and tribal dances at June lake. Nowadays, Captain Sam is carried thither on a birch litter, and is honored with revivals of ancient ceremonies.

Each year when the festival is completed—this year it was held the first four days of July—the celebrators wonder if Captain Sam will be with them when the next fete comes around.

Egyptian Queen's Tomb, 4,500 Years Old, Found

Cambridge, Mass.—Discovery of the tomb of Queen Meresankh III, which closes gaps in Egyptian history of the Fourth dynasty, has been made by the Harvard university museum of the arts expedition, says a report received here from Dr. George A. Reisner, head of the exploring party. Queen Meresankh was the great-granddaughter of Queen Hetepheres and King Snerefu, mother and father of Cheops, builder of the great pyramid.

The report says the newly discovered tomb is remarkable for the vivid colors of the relics and inscriptions which seem to have retained all their brilliancy after 4,500 years.

The burial chamber was plundered thousands of years ago and no valuables have been found. Two inscriptions, one on either side of the doorway, reveal that 272 days elapsed between the queen's death and her burial.

Plan Loud Speakers for Indian Mosque

Calcutta.—Microphones and loud speakers are to be installed in the new Nakhuda mosque here, which when completed will hold more than 14,000 worshippers. There will also be two minarets equipped with powerful electric lights for calling the faithful to worship.

The old historic Nakhuda mosque was demolished some time ago and a new edifice is now being constructed to take its place. This building will be of reinforced concrete with a steel frame and will be complete with all the latest devices of modern science which will enable the congregation to hear better the injunctions of the imam.

The pulpit of the imam will be on the first floor but will be visible from the two floors above.

German Family Holds Longevity Record

Berlin.—The record for longevity probably belongs to a German family named Luntzel. Frau Franziska Quentell, born Luntzel, who lives in Berlin, has just celebrated her hundredth birthday. Of her nine brothers and sisters three lived to be more than one hundred years old and five were past ninety when they died.

Frau Quentell, who was born on a farm, organized the first League of Patriotic Women in Germany and was its president for 25 years. She is in full possession of all her faculties, and follows current events with keen interest. The Prussian prime minister sent her an official message of felicitation on her birthday, and accompanied it with a piece of porcelain from the state porcelain works as a gift of the government.

Prize fairy story of the year. "Women's skirts are to be longer."

The inventor of that new mile-a-minute speed boat, which has a fish tail propeller, seemingly has wiggled his way to fame.

"In the words of Lincoln," said a local coal dealer during the recent warm fall weeks, "you can't fuel all the people all the time."

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Sunday morning, three young men from the University of Michigan will be at the church, to take charge of an older boys' class in the church school. A cordial invitation is extended to all who may be free to join this class at 11:30 a. m. The class will be particularly for those of high school age and older.

The Men's Club business meeting is called for Tuesday evening at 7:30. A full attendance is urged.

The Epworth League had a Thanksgiving party at the hall, Friday evening, and all enjoyed a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carney spent Thanksgiving in Toledo. Mr. and Mrs. J. Turnbull and son, Ralph, spent the week-end at the Carney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder entertained Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackinder and Mrs. Carrie Hatt spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Raymo at Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith entertained Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mellbeck at Sunday dinner.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gummel and two sons spent the week-end at the Guthrie home.

The Misses Anna and Ada Youngs motored to Kingston, Saturday, taking their Aunt Kate home.

Burt Paddock and sons, Charles and Dwight spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ryder. Mrs. Mary Paddock and daughter, Florence, also called on Mrs. Ryder.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell spent Thanksgiving in Detroit, with Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Sr.

Leigh Ryder, Fred Schmidt and Henry Grimm returned Tuesday evening, from a two weeks' hunting trip on Thunder Bay River. Mr. Schmidt was the lucky one, getting a deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy and family ate Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Ostrander, at Wayne.

The gift remembrance a man would choose for himself awaits your selection in this Christmas Store for Men. Whether for use or adornment, every masculine accessory that ministers to his comfort or caters to his fancy is here. These are the styles, the colors, the patterns that men prefer, chosen with but one purpose in mind—that the man who wears them will find them to his liking. Will your choice for him be neckwear... or shirts... or pajamas? Or perhaps, handkerchiefs... hosiery... or a muffler?

We have them for you, one and all, assured in style and worthy in wear and value; something to please your taste—and his—at every price. Come soon, while selections are at their best, and your search for "gifts men appreciate" will be richly rewarded.

Thousands of cases which have become chronic and caused months and years of suffering could have been easily avoided had the sufferers but understood the principles of the science of chiropractic and called a chiropractor as FIRST AID.

DON'T WAIT UNTIL CHIROPRACTIC IS LAST AID.

Don't let disease get a hold on you. Chiropractic is the natural way to health. It is a certain way. If you will investigate it you will always go to it for FIRST AID. It will not be necessary to appeal to it in desperation, as a LAST AID measure.

WALTER HASTINGS ENTER-TAINS PLYMOUTH.

The Plymouth Kiwanis club had as its guest and speaker Tuesday noon Walter Hastings, of the department of conservation.

Prior to taking up the department work in April of this year, Mr. Hastings had spent a great many years in the study of birds and animal life, and he became quite widely known as an authority on this subject. A six-reel motion picture, entitled, "Wild Wings," has been created by him and his assistants. Some of the exposures indicated a resourcefulness that at times made the audience wonder how it could be done.

In speaking of Michigan and its natural beauty, Mr. Hastings stated that he had traveled all over the country and it was hard to find, even in spots, a natural beauty that was comparable to our own state of Michigan. Without any desire to add a political touch to his talk, he said that he wanted to pay just tribute to Governor Green, who is making an earnest effort to reconstruct the conservation department into an organization that would do the things for which it was created. He also mentioned that the passing of James Oliver Curwood was a most regrettable occurrence, as he was one of the few naturalists in Michigan who had the courage to stand up and oppose the destruction of our natural resources. The very fact that practically all of our streams in the southern portion of Michigan are nothing more than open sewers in which fish could not live should create resistance to the practice that would end this condition forever.

Mr. Hastings entertained the school children later in the day, and in the evening a fair sized crowd assembled at the high school for an evening entertainment.

There are several more reels of pictures in the making at the present time, and undoubtedly Mr. Hastings will be asked to return to Plymouth at some future date.

HOME FURNISHING CLASS.

The Canton Home Furnishing group met at the home of Mrs. George Travis on Canton Center road Tuesday, November 29th under the leadership of Mrs. John Bloemans and Mrs. Frank Palmer, with Mrs. Joseph Wagner, chairman. The point emphasized in this lesson was design in the arrangement of furnishings. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, December 20th, at the home of Mrs. Frank Palmer.

BAPTIST BAZAAR AND SUPPER

The ladies of the Baptist church will hold a bazaar and supper at the church, Friday, December 9th. Supper 50c and 35c.

MENU
Fresh Baked Ham, Southern Style
Escalloped Potatoes Squash

Cranberry Frappe Pickles
Rolls Coffee
Mince Pie Cheese

BAZAAR AND SUPPER

The Livonia Lutheran L. A. S. will hold their annual bazaar and supper Saturday, December 3, afternoon and evening. There will be lots of pretty gifts, home made candy and fishing pond for the kiddies. Supper will be served from five o'clock until all are served. Come and bring your friends. Everybody welcome.

SCHOOL NOTES

The ancient history class of Miss Asman's, has had a contest recently. It was between the boys and girls. The topic of the boys was "The Glory of Greece;" the topic of the girls was "Ancient East." The contest was won by the girls. Mrs. Harzer, Miss Schmid and Miss Asman were the judges. The boys now will have to give the girls a party in the near future.

Modern history classes have been studying the life of Napoleon. Some very interesting details were learned about Napoleon and the ladies, which were very humorous.

The study of the Constitution of the United States will be completed this week.

The week before the Thanksgiving vacation, the Misses Frazer, McIntosh and Still of Detroit, who have charge of the Girl Reserves work, came and talked to the high school Junior Girl Reserves at a joint meeting. Groups out of Detroit had asked for a special secretary for the Girl Reserves. Now the groups out of Detroit will have a new secretary, Miss Still.

At three o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Walter Hastings talked to an assembly of the junior and senior high school grades, along the same lines as he talked to the Kiwanis Club.

Miss Grace Manson has been secured to talk on vocations for girls, in the future.

Mrs. Murray and Miss Allen attended the State Principals Association, which was held in Lansing, Thursday and Friday, December 1 and 2.

Miss Roe and Miss Allen will attend the Detroit English Club at the new Masonic Temple, Saturday, December 3. Will Durant, the author of the story of Philosophy, will be the main speaker.

The citizenship classes are studying the project work, the one being studied now is about the home.

The high school cooking class has worked on luncheon and dinner dishes. Some of the dishes were custards, croquettes, fried cakes and omelets. The girls brought the cooking materials for the plum puddings and the cranberry sauce and jelly, so that they could take them home for Thanksgiving.

The lunch room was opened this week, and there are reserved tables for high school and grade children. Cooking girls are planning wholesome meals, and there is no dish on the menu over ten cents.

The play "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy," was presented by the junior class on Thursday, December 1, and will be repeated December 2.

Rosalind Heike

What good is a center on a football team? Who would want to play it? Wouldn't you a lot rather play out where folks could see you? If you couldn't star on a team, would you play on a team with a real star as soon as on one without any? What good is there in practicing if you have to sit on the side lines when the game is on? Have you thought of some of these questions, and wondered what the answer is? If you have, you will want to hear Dinnie Upton's answer in "The Player in the Shadow," Monday, December 12th.

The girls in the eighth grade cooking classes have finished their breakfast unit and are now working on luncheon dishes. Nut bread, stuffed eggs, various kinds of sandwiches and soups have been made. At Thanksgiving time, dates were stuffed and cranberry sauce and jellies were made. In connection with the date lesson, some useful and valuable material was sent by the Date Company for class use.

The sewing classes have been making decorative stitches, to be used in connection with their Christmas gifts. The outline, twisted running, cable, darning, diagonal catch, feather stitch and blanket stitches are some that have been made. Each girl selected one of these stitches and used it in the making of a dust cloth. Some very attractive dust clothes were made. The girls have also hemstitched napkins, towels and handkerchiefs for Christmas.

The high school lunch room has been redecorated, and looks very neat. It opened Tuesday, November 29th, with the following items on the menu: Escalloped potatoes, 10c; cream of tomato soup with crackers, 5c; warm rolls, 2 for 5c; milk, 4c; chocolate pudding with whipped cream, 8c.

The high school glee clubs are working on Christmas songs for a Christmas program to be given in assembly.

The high school orchestra is practicing diligently to appear both Thursday and Friday, December 1 and 2, at the Junior play.

The sophomores defeated the freshmen in a game held after school, Tuesday, November 22. The final score was 17 to 5.

The seventh and eighth grade manual training classes have begun working on Christmas toys for the Northville sanitarium. Many magazine racks, book ends and three sewing cabinets have also been produced.

All of the boys' physical training classes have been playing basketball the past week.

Mrs. Halliday—Those neither absent nor tardy this year: Jane Dodge, Beth Northrop, Anna Margaret Ruse, Lawrence Stoneburner, Leland Card.

Miss Weatherhead—Miss Weatherhead's 2-A and 3-B moved to Room 1, last week Wednesday. We like our room very much. Donna Anderson and Betty Barnes are absent on account of illness. We had a Thanksgiving party last Wednesday. We dressed up like Pilgrims and Indians, and had a parade. Billy Sturgis' birthday was the day after Thanksgiving, so he brought peanuts and popcorn for all the children, so they could enjoy his birthday, too. We all thanked him.

Miss Fenner's Room—The girls in Miss Fenner's room gave a treat to the boys, last Wednesday, the day before the Thanksgiving vacation. Although the girls won the spelling contest, they decided to treat the boys. Now spelling captains have been chosen; they are: Team 1, Forbes Smith; team 2, Lucille Wilder.

Miss Farrand's Room—We have enjoyed the Pilgrim stories very much. Mrs. Stetson visited our room Tuesday, November 22. Thelma Lunsford has returned, after a week's illness. Our border consists of history pictures of early Pilgrim life. The World Champions have seven stars; the Michigans have five stars. Carroll Hammond brought a pretty plant to school. Lola Mae Barlow has been transferred to the Pontiac school.

Kindergarten—Vernor Ashley entered kindergarten last week, and Dale Ford was transferred from the Starkweather school. There are now 27 in the kindergarten A and thirteen in kindergarten B. Carol Campbell, Barbara Zietseh, Martin Horvath, Ruth Kirkpatrick, Archie Perkins, Gordon Robinson, Catherine Spitz, Virginia Shaw have been neither absent nor tardy so far this semester.

Miss Dixon—Myra King is ahead in the 3-A spelling contest, and in the 3-B, Barbara Hubbell and Marlon Gorton are tied for first place.

Mrs. Blossom—We have eight people who are normal in weight this month. This is four more than last month. Earl Levans is on the highest lesson in spelling. The children have finished their health calendars for November. Nearly everyone drank milk very day last month.

Mrs. Root—The children in the 1-B grade have sense training each day, which is a good foundation work for number work which comes in the 1-A grade. It introduces a study of relation that can be understood and appreciated before more formal number work is taken up. The children are taught not only to make discrimination, but are cultivating the habit of always forming in a general way an estimate of comparative values. They are decorating the room for Christmas. They are taking up the relations side of Christmas, and have had the story of the "Birth of the Christ Child" told them with the thought of loving and giving emphasized, and are making scrap books for other little children. The following boys and girls have not been absent or tardy this semester: Evelyn Bower, Bobby Perkins, Harold Hills, Catherine Schrader, Clara Northrop, Douglas Sockow, Arlene South, Junior VanAlta and Jean Woodworth.

Camp Wetomachick

A ceremonial meeting was held at Mary Jane and Elaine Hamilton's, last Tuesday night. Several girls were to become Woodgatherers, but could not, because the pins, rings and honor beads had not come. The girls entered singing "America." Three girls lighted the lights of Work, Health and Love. They formed a circle around the fireplace. Mary McKinnon gave a talk on "The First Thanksgiving." Different members of Camp Fire who went camping last summer, told what they did. The lights were then extinguished, and the meeting was closed by a "Ghost Story."

Jennie Scarpulla

The week of November 14 to 18 was "Art Appreciation" week in the junior high English classes. At the close of the week, a test was given over fifteen artists and their paintings. Mary Urban, a 7-A student, wrote a perfect paper. The following people received a 90% to 95% average: Kenneth Greer, Irene Humphries, Ernest Archer, Robert Haskel, Roberta Chappel, Marjorie Clay, Audrea Kreeger, Christine Nichol.

Civic League

The Civic League met last Wednesday. A Thanksgiving program was given. New officers were elected: President, Helen Goebel; vice-president, Vaughn Taylor; secretary, Virginia Woodworth; monitor, Jimmie Stimpson. The committee for the next program is as follows: Caroline Cutler, Billy Kirkpatrick, Rachel Fal-lot.

A FIVE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLAR INSTITUTION

A RADIO TALK BY HERBERT F. RAWLL, PRESIDENT OF THE CHRISTMAS CLUB AND PUBLISHER OF THE INDUSTRIAL DIGEST FROM W. R. N. Y., NOV. 25, 1927. 8:30 P. M.

For the past three years it has been my privilege to give the members of the Christmas Club a radio report of the activities of their organization, the largest club in the world. Its membership this year is 8,500,000, many, if not most of my listeners are members of this American Institution.

Your club this year accumulated a little over $500,000,000.00. More than 8,000 banking institutions in this country are paying this money to its members between November 26th and December 31st.

The operation of the Christmas Club is very simple—anyone can join, there are no dues, no fines, your own bank in your own community is your club headquarters, there you enroll by making your first week's payment—you add a little bit every week and when the holiday season rolls around—there it is waiting for you in a lump sum. You get all your money back just when you need it most—three weeks before Christmas.

The Christmas Club, in itself, as operated by its member banks, is maintained without profit. In fact, it is more often an actual loss to the bank, based upon its use of your funds for the short period of the club term—but it has served to stimulate thrift in tremendous proportions, to bring millions of people a better understanding of the usefulness of the bank and the many ways it serves its community. Only in this way can the Christmas Club in your bank be considered a profitable undertaking for the people, for the community and therefore for the banking institutions of our country.

That you may realize the extent of its contribution to American thrift and welfare, the Christmas Club has been actually responsible, during its 17 years of service, for 10,000,000 permanent savings accounts in American banks, that is—10,000,000 people found the urge to permanent savings by first using the services of any bank through the Christmas Club.

I think it interesting to analyze just how this happened—many of you will recall the reserved and dignified attitude of our banks 20 years ago. They followed a policy of "keeping their functions a secret"—you were supposed to know where the bank was and what it was for and how it was supposed to help you. If you hadn't given the matter a thought—the fault was yours—no message of inspiration or of human contact from the bank ever reached you.

All the Christmas Club did was to tell the bank's secret, make it known that it was a human institution—and the credit, for whatever its accomplishments, belongs to you—because you were eager to know the secret, and once having it you capitalized it to your own advantage by adapting the many opportunities afforded to you by a banking connection in the thrifty conduct of your own affairs.

The ready adaptability of our people to quickly grasp these ideas of economic progress is worth a moment's reflection. Some of you within the sound of my voice may recall a recent statement by the English historian H. G. Wells, when, in speaking of our Western civilization and referring particularly to America, he said "It will be a race between education and catastrophe."

No doubt he had in mind the possible danger of our great American industries advancing beyond the understanding of the people.

In giving thought to this problem I have wondered if "Big Business" as we like to call it, has not kept its functions a secret.

We, in this country, have come to take very much for granted our standards of living, that at once have become the envy and marvel of people of other countries. We accept them as our every day right. Seldom do we pause to consider the organizations of commerce, transportation and industry that have, in reality, made these standards possible.

By introducing efficient methods of large scale production, by putting distribution upon a plane of efficiency heretofore undreamed of, such tremendous economies have been effected as to place within the reach of millions of American families an elaborate schedule of necessities that were the luxuries of pre-war days.

These are the contributions that Great American Industries are making to our national prosperity.

These present day great industrial units of commerce, transportation and service no longer meet the condemnation so common during the trust-busting era of a generation ago.

Today, we find them just as human, just as democratic, just as anxious to serve you as your community bank. They are, in fact, your servants—they profit only by the service they render the public. Perhaps their usefulness, their purpose, has been kept too much a secret.

All of us are sharing more and more in the activities of these representative American enterprises, as consumers—either directly or indirectly—and all of us can likewise share in their profits as stock-holding partners. Just as the Christmas Club gave a more intimate knowledge of the bank and created the urge for millions of people to become permanent savers, a more complete understanding of the functions and purposes of big business, will likewise create the urge to become permanent investors in the enterprises of our soundly managed American corporations.

Much progress in this direction has been made within the past few years. Your own bank is the place to seek advice on what is a sound investment and what companies are worthy of the confidence of the investing public. We are fast becoming a nation of investors as well as a nation of spenders. We cannot stop spending without throttling our prosperity, but we can create permanent wealth while we spend, and when this nation can boast as many individual investors as automobile owners, it will then have more automobiles and will have accomplished a great deal toward advancing education in that race with catastrophe that Mr. Wells fears for our civilization.

All of you that are waiting for your Christmas Club checks, have no doubt, made up your mind just what you are going to do with the money—but it may be interesting to know just what will happen to this huge sum of $500,000,000.00 that will be released within the next few days.

A few months ago a questionnaire was sent to many thousands of members, and if we take the result of this investigation, this is what we find:

- $193,000,000.00 will be re-deposited in permanent savings or used for investment.
- $150,000,000.00 will go immediately into stores in the rush of Christmas buying.
- $66,000,000.00 for year-end bills and installment payments.
- $27,000,000.00 is to be used for taxes.
- $26,000,000.00 for mortgages or interest charges.
- $23,000,000.00 for insurance premiums.
- $10,000,000.00 for education.
- $5,000,000.00 for charity.

Thus it will be seen that 60% of this fund, or $300,000,000.00 will be used for what we might call constructive uses. Now you will readily understand why you have made this plan a success—it is your membership—the way you use your membership money that gives the Christmas Club a proper place in our economic stability.

Most of you, naturally, are concerned with the Christmas immediately approaching, but it will be with us again in 1928, and you will want to prepare for that Christmas too. Write in a week or two you can join the Christmas Club for next year; your own bank will make this very simple and easy for you.

Thank you, and I hope you are all numbered among the eight and a half million that will receive Christmas Club checks within the next few days.

ALTHING BODY 997 YEARS OLD

Parliament of Iceland Also Has Problems.

Reykjavik.—The oldest democratic parliament in the world is claimed for the althing, the parliament of Iceland, which in 1930 will celebrate its millenary.

It was in the year 930 that all the chief peasants and traders were called together to decide upon the new faith as against the pagan Wodan cult, with the result that Christianity was accepted by an overwhelming majority.

To celebrate the occasion a church will be built on the Thingyala plain as well as a national theater in Reykjavik, the capital.

The althing has seen many changes in the 997 years of its existence, but it is considered that never at any time has it been more balanced than now.

The elections during the summer changed the situation completely, inasmuch as the Peasant party got 19 seats against 16 to the Conservatives, who were previously in power. As the althing counts 42 seats, the victorious party, however, will have to co-operate with the five Social Democrats and the sole representative of the Independence party. The single Communist will be left alone to attack the new government from the left.

The new premier, Tryggvi Thorhallsen, was originally a country parson, and is now editor of the Timan (the Times), the leading paper of Reykjavik. His government will have to face the problem of stabilizing the currency, of building water plants at the many and powerful waterfalls and of constructing railways and motor roads.

A point of special interest is the proposal to use for domestic and industrial purposes the warm water of the geysers, the many natural fountains where boiling water spurts as it does in the Yellowstone park springs.

Whales' Dives Beat Those of Submarines

London.—Whales make the stoutest submarines look exceedingly tame when it comes to diving. According to R. W. Gray, a British naturalist, they reach depths of 700 to 800 fathoms, or from 4,200 to 4,800 feet, when they are attacked. They do not make a gradual, sloping descent, either, but straight down. This behavior is known to whalers as "sounding."

In the old days, when whales were hunted with hand harpoons or with gun harpoons of a type that did not kill them quickly, the huge sea beasts frequently died at the limit of their dive, and getting them back to the surface was a long and arduous task. Sometimes in shallow water they crashed into the bottom and thus killed themselves.

Mr. Gray is of the opinion that the thickness of the whale's blubber, or protective layer of fat, may have something to do with its "sounding" ability. He notes that the Greenland whale, which has very thick blubber, can reach much greater depths than its relative, the marshall.

Buy's Twain's Letters; Bare Money Worries

New York.—An account of the emotion and struggles of Mark Twain when his million-dollar fortune was being swept away by the publishing house he had bought, was given by the author in a collection of letters purchased from a private estate by Aron Mendoza, dealer in old books.

The letters revealed him as harassed, but kindly, honest far beyond his legal obligations, and writing to keep his mind off his troubles.

"I mean to ship 'Pud'head Wilson' to you," Twain wrote his publisher during one of the years of depression. "I am almost sorry it is finished. It was good entertainment to work at it and kept my mind away from other things."

Excuses All Good

New Rochelle, N. Y.—Ignatius Collins was in court for running his car past a stop signal. "I have three good excuses," he told the judge. The excuses were triplets. Sentence was suspended.

First-Class Jap

Tokyo.—It costs the equivalent of $35 gold to be married in first-class style in any of the larger Shinto shrines in Tokyo, according to a scale of charges just made public.

The $35 ceremony includes the attendance of high priests, a clerical orchestra with flutes, cymbals and pipes like those used by Pan, and all possible trimmings. Second-class weddings cost $25, and so on down to weddings classed as "pine," "bamboo" and "plum," the plum style necessitating a shrine fee of $7.50.

In Tokyo, as elsewhere, it is not the initial cost but the upkeep that counts, and the groom of a first-class wedding may spend thousands of dollars upon the wedding reception and dinner and more thousands upon the gifts to guests.

Take 'em or Leave 'em. He (hitterly)—"Men are fools to marry."

She—"Yes, I agree with you. But what else can we marry?"

GIBRALTER ROAD WILL BE FIRST BUILT UNDER COVERT ACT IN 1928 ROAD BUILDING PROGRAM.

The first road to be built under the provisions of the Covert act in the 1928 road building program will be the Gibraltar road in Brownstown township, according to a statement of Edward N. Hines, member of the board of Wayne county road commissioners.

Petitions for three Covert act roads were filed with the commissioners after the Wayne county eight million dollar road program for 1928 had been decided upon. The demand for the Gibraltar has been so urgent and citizens of the district in such heavy accord, that it will be constructed in the early spring. The road will be built from Flat Rock east to the junction of Fort and Allen roads and will be twenty-foot concrete pavement on a new 150-foot right of way conforming to the Master plan of super-highways.

At the final hearing on the petition for this road 86 per cent of the property owners in the proposed assessment district were represented. Wayne county will pay the cost of half the road and the other half will be borne by the special assessment district and Brownstown township.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says he has an idea that the candidates for president of Mexico are not pestered very much by life insurance agents.

What's in a name? Doesn't a "groundless rumor" always cover the most ground?

"Gene Tunney ought to make some woman a good husband," says Dad Plymouth, "because he declares he won't marry until he is through fighting."

A bride will begin married life with only one skillet and one kettle, but she has to have at least two card tables.

Dad Plymouth says the only fellow who can afford to be a sluggard is the one who has a rich aunt to go to.

"My idea of a true friend," says Dad Plymouth, "is one who can stick to you closer than a creditor."

Dad Plymouth calls our attention to the fact that the old dirt road on which the traveler paid toll with money has given way to the concrete speedway where too many pay toll with their lives.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE VILLAGE COMMISSION.

Plymouth, Mich., Nov. 7th, 1927.
A regular meeting of the Commission in the Commission Room of the Village Hall, Monday evening, November 7th, 1927, at 7:00 p. m.

Present: Commissioners Henderson, Learned, Pierce, Hondorp and President Fisher.

The minutes of the regular meeting of October 17th and the special meeting of October 25th were read and approved.

The following bids for the sale of bonds were opened:

- First National Company, Detroit, 4 1/2% par plus premium $370,000;
- Guardian Detroit Company, Detroit, 4 1/2% par plus premium $429,000;
- Howe Snow Company, Detroit, 4 1/2% par plus premium $250,000; Joel Stock and Company, Detroit 4 1/2% par plus premium $272,000; Bank of Detroit, Detroit, 4 1/2% par plus premium $420,000;
- Stammann, Harris & Oatis, Toledo, 4 1/2% par plus premium $428,000;
- Branan Besworth & Company, Toledo, 4 1/2% par plus premium $432,200;
- Detroit Trust Company, Detroit, 4 1/2% par plus premium $411,000;
- Security Trust Company, Detroit, 4 1/2% par plus premium $468,000;
- W. K. Terry Company, Toledo, 4 1/2% par plus premium $455,000.

A motion was made by Commissioner Henderson and seconded by Commissioner Pierce that the bid of the Security Trust Company, Detroit, Michigan, for 4 1/2% interest plus par a premium of $468,000 be accepted.

Carried.
A motion was made by Commissioner Learned, seconded by Commissioner Pierce, to approve the action of the Board of Review regarding the assessment on the Hough-Nash storm sewers.

A motion was made by Commissioner Learned, seconded by Commissioner Pierce, to approve the action of the Board of Review regarding the 1927 sanitary sewers.

The following bids for the construction of Pennington avenue storm sewer were received:

- Don Ostrander $13,015.90
- Bilum & Dickinson 11,678.50
- Harold Hamill 11,575.40
- H. H. Huns 13,287.50
- W. G. Hoy Co., A Items 13,887.50
- R. D. Baker Co., A 9,822.40
- B 9,697.00
- Frank Ealy, B 10,879.00
- Thomas J. Nolan, A 12,272.50
- B 12,272.50
- 10,883.00
- Frank Ealy, A 10,883.00
- The Pontis Construction Co., A 12,537.00

On motion made by Commissioner Hondorp, seconded by Commissioner Henderson, the bids were referred to Mr. Sheehart for tabulation. Later upon the recommendation of Mr. Sheehart, for the R. D. Baker Company, for $9,822.40 was accepted and the President and Manager authorized to enter into a contract with that firm.

This being the time appointed for the hearing of objections and suggestions regarding the construction of storm sewers and the paving of Pennington avenue, an opportunity was given for the presentation of objections or suggestions. No objections were offered.

Mr. Harry Wrench, representing the Michigan Federated Utilities, suggested a plan for the reduction of gas rates to take effect December 15th. After considerable discussion a motion was made by Commissioner Henderson, seconded by Commissioner Hondorp, that the rates suggested be adopted.

A petition was received from a number of residents objecting to gas odors and the escaping of gas from the Harvey street sewer. A motion was made by Commissioner Henderson, seconded by Commissioner Pierce, that the complaint be referred to the President, Mr. Fisher, the Village Manager, the Health Officer, Dr. R. E. Cooper, and Mr. Wrench, the manager for the Gas Company.

The question of a renewal of bond to be furnished by the Gas Company was discussed and final disposition delayed until such time as Mr. Wrench could take the matter up with headquarters in Chicago.

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Hondorp, who moved its adoption, supported by Commissioner Pierce.

Resolved by the Commission of the Village of Plymouth, Michigan, that the period of usefulness of the storm sewers and pavement to be constructed on Pennington avenue is hereby declared to be not less than thirty years; that the period of usefulness for water extensions and improvements is hereby declared to be not less than fifty years.

Carried.
On motion made by Commissioner Henderson, seconded by Commissioner Learned, the following resolution regarding the assessment of certain storm sewers to be constructed on Pennington avenue in the Village of Plymouth was offered and carried.

Resolved, by the Village of Plymouth, State of Michigan:

Section 1. That it has been declared by this Commission a public necessity that certain storm sewers on Pennington avenue be constructed in the Village of Plymouth.

Section 2. That of the estimated cost of that part of said improvement the Village of Plymouth shall pay $3,680.00 and $7,332.00 shall be assessed against the private property particularly benefited by said public improvement, said property so particularly benefited hereby designated as special assessment district and being all of the lots or lands as described as follows:

All lots or parts of lots and parcels of land bounded by a line starting from a point at the northwest corner of Pennington and Moreland avenues, thence easterly along the eastern line of Pennington avenue to the eastern line of Harvey street; thence northerly about 100' along the east line of Harvey street; thence southeasterly about 175' along a line parallel to Fralick avenue (formerly Gravel avenue); thence northeasterly about 350' along a line parallel to Harvey street; thence southeasterly about 125' along a line parallel to Fralick avenue; thence northeasterly about 200' along a line parallel to Main street; thence northerly about 250' along a line parallel to Adams street; thence easterly about 150' along a line parallel to Church street; thence northerly about 175' along a line parallel to Adams street; thence easterly about 175' along a line parallel to Church street; thence northeasterly about 875' along a line parallel to Main street, to the west property line of the P. M. R. R.; thence northeasterly along the southwesterly property line of the P. M. R. R. to the east line of Moreland avenue; thence southerly along the east line of Moreland avenue to the south lot line of Lot 12 Sunset Sub; thence easterly about 150' along the south line of lot 12 Sunset Sub to the east line of said lot; thence southerly about 780' along the east line of lots 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 of Sunset Sub, and lots 61, 60, 59, 58, 57, 56, 54, and 53 of Virginia Park Sub, to the south line of lot 53, Virginia Park Sub; thence northeasterly along the south line of lot 53 Virginia Park Sub to the east line of Moreland avenue; thence southerly along the east line of Moreland avenue to the northeast corner of Moreland and Pennington to the point of beginning.

Also all lots or parts of lots and parcels of land abutting on the south side of Pennington avenue from Moreland avenue to Harvey street.

Section 3. RESOLVED FURTHER, that the said storm sewers shall be and are being constructed in accordance with the plans, specifications and details as now on file in the office of the Village Manager.

Section 4. RESOLVED FURTHER, that Arthur V. Jones, Assessor of the said Village of Plymouth, is hereby directed to make an assessment on all lots and parcels of land described above along which said sewers shall run, its proportion of the $11,000 as nearly as may be to the benefits which each of the assessed parcels of land will receive by reason of the construction of said improvement and after having made said assessment to forthwith report the same to the Village Commission.

Ayes: Commissioners Henderson, Hondorp, Pierce, Learned and President Fisher.

Nays: None.
Carried.

A motion was made by Commissioner Hondorp, seconded by Commissioner Learned, that the Manager be granted permission to attend the convention of Civil Engineers to be held in Jackson November 11th and 12th.

THE THEATRE

"THE GORILLA"

For thrills, chills and a thousand laughs see "The Gorilla," the mystery comedy melodrama that comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday and Monday, December 3 and 5, with Charlie Murray and Fred Kelsey featured as the two demon sleuths, Mulligan and Garity. "The Gorilla," written by Ralph Spence as a stage play, its screen version is one of the fastest, spookiest thrillers to be seen here in some time. "The Gorilla" himself is a weird, menacing looking ape, and every time he appears the crowds shriek as if he were right in the audience.

Anyone who has seen the stage play will recognize the cast of players and the story plot—except the ending. That has been changed so that a complete surprise is sprung when the final scene is enacted.

The new screen team of Murray and Kelsey live up to their advance notices. They make a typical pair of detectives who suspect everyone in the place but themselves.

Alfred Santel, the director, is to be commended on his clever handling of a difficult story. It is closely knit and full of action. The photography is eerie and weird and proves again that a mystery angle can be carried out with all the thrills, without pistol shots, screams and other sounds usually found in a play of this type.

Situations are built upon situations, until almost everyone is implicated—also the gorilla.

An excellent cast, including Alice Day, Tully Marshall, Claude Gillingwater, Walter Pilgoun, Gaston Glass, Brooks Benedict, Aggie Herring and Syd. Crossly, make up the inhabitants of the mystery house. Edward Small, of Asher, Small and Rogers, presents "The Gorilla" for First National.

"METROPOLIS"

Metropolis: city of the future. Utopian city. City above, city below. Above, in dizzy heights, the brain and glitter. Below, in endless depth, the workers. Between these two brains and hands the center is missing. A city without a center is a city without a heart, without a soul.

Below, among the tortured, dull drudges lives an apparition, a saint, Mary. Comforter to the oppressed. Above, among the tinsel and might, is Eric Masterman, only son of the master mind of Metropolis. Mary appears and conquers him by her mystic power. As in a dream, he follows her down to the worker's world, to be the deliverer of her people. But John Masterman hears of Mary and suspecting trouble, attempts to separate her from the workers. An artificial being in the form and face of Mary is created and told to go forth among the matchmakers and peach humblers. Instead, she tells them to riot and destroy. They smash their machines, water inundates the city and all are in danger of drowning. While the men and woman are dancing, they suddenly remember their children who have been left right in the path of the rising waters. Then, but you'll find out what happens when Paramount's latest VFA importation "Metropolis" is shown at the Penniman Allen theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, December 6 and 7. Fritz Lang directed "Channing Pollock adapted it for local use.

Incidentally, it might be said that "Metropolis" is one of those pictures which intelligent moviegoers can hardly afford to miss. The critic of the New York Telegram wrote "If you never expect to see another film, be sure to see this spectacle. Welcome to Metropolis."

"MADAME POMPADOUR"

Dorothy Gish and Antonio Moreno, two American players, can be credited with a great deal of success which "Madame Pompadour," British National's new Paramount release, is sure to win. In the picture which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Thursday and Friday, December 8 and 9, they show potentialities of becoming as popular a romantic team as the Vilma Banky-Ronald Colman combination. The love story which these two tell as Pompadour and her impoverished sweetheart is one that will be remembered long after the spectator has left the lobby.

Herbert Wilcox, the man responsible for "Nell Gwyn" directed, under the supervision of E. A. Dupont, the director of "Variety," Francis Marion's adaptation of the Schaefer-Welch play is an expert piece of work. Roy Overbaugh has contributed some gorgeous photographic effects.

In the supporting roles, a group of English players give excellent support. The following, especially, stand out in important roles: Henri Bose as King Louis XV; Gibb McLaughlin, Comte Marrepas; Nelson Keys, Duke de Courcelette; Cyril McLaglin, Gogo; and Tom Reynolds, Prunier.

The story is one of France in the eighteenth century. It traces the life of Pompadour from her humble beginning right up to the height of her fortune. It seems that the king's favorite wasn't always content with what she had. Pompadour ventures out one night and enters an inn where she meets and falls madly in love with Rene Laval, a poor young poet. The plot develops with amazing speed until well—Pompadour is saved from disastrous ruin by her own quick wits. "Madame Pompadour" will provide a pleasant hour's entertainment for the average movie fan.

"THE DROP KICK"

No motion picture star of today is better fitted to play the typical American boy than Richard Barthelmess. And Barthelmess is seen in this role in First National's "The Drop Kick," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre Saturday, December 10th.

As Jock Hamill, football hero at Shoreham College, Barthelmess enacts the American college boy of today in "The Drop Kick." The story deals with the trials and the tribulations of a football hero who, through circumstances, is suddenly plucked from his pedestal and fights his way back again.

With dramatic action, comedy, the thrills of a great football game and the fast fun of college life running through the story, "The Drop Kick" is one of the finest vehicles that this popular star has ever had.

Barthelmess is supported by a splendid cast including Barbara Kent, Dorothy Revier, Alberta Vaughn, Hedda Hopper, Brooks Benedict, George Pearce, James Bradbury, Jr., Eugene Strong and many others. The football teams of Stanford and University of Southern California appear in the football game, and the Ten National College Stars recently chosen by First National in a nation-wide contest, also are seen.

"The Drop Kick" was directed by Millard Webb and produced by Ray Hookett. It is one of the big pictures of the fall season, and will be enjoyed by everyone, young and old.

BRIGGS SCHOOL NOTES

By Evelyn Rutenbar, Sec.-Treas.

We had a birthday party and also a Thanksgiving party, November 23. The Citizens Junior Club invited as their guests, their mothers and also their friends. Those present, were: Mrs. Rutenbar, Mrs. L. F. Fend, Miss Riddle, Mrs. Diem, Mrs. Melow, Mrs. Schroder, Mrs. Rexin, Mrs. Ash, Mrs. Rauer, Mrs. Stoenigasser, Mrs. Salow, Mrs. Bannerman and Mrs. Rossow.

We had a Thanksgiving program. The third and fourth grades gave a play, "The First Thanksgiving." We also had other recitations by other children.

The fifth grade girls sang a song of "Thanksgiving." Henrietta Vorbeck accompanied them on the piano. For refreshments we served cakes, jelly and pop corn. Our birthday guests were: Abbie Melow, Celesta Late and Floyd Rexin. Our club presented Abbie with a fancy pin; Celesta, a puzzle, and Floyd, a game.

Our attendance for November was 94%.

Our blackboards are decorated with turkeys and baskets of fruit.

We have an attractive bulletin board.

We have finished taking toxh anti-toxin.

We sold pencils last week to win a silk flag for our school room.

Mrs. Watson and her sister, Miss Marjorie Peck, and Miss Katherine Brown of Toledo, attended the Zone A meeting at Cherry Hill, November 19.

GRANGE NOTES

The Lilly Club will hold a meeting at the Grange hall, Tuesday, December 6th, with a pot-luck supper and gift exchange. Each member is requested to bring a 10c gift, wrapped, and your name on it. Children will please bring gifts suitable for children. A committee has been appointed to make it a pleasant occasion. Be sure to be there early.

A CARD—I want to thank you, one and all, sincerely, for your kindness during my many weeks of sickness. I am truly grateful for your thoughtfulness. To the Masonic order, the Oddfellows and Rebekahs, the Yard and Signal employees, and many others, I appreciate it. I can assure you,

Claude L. Burrows.

MEMORIAM

In sad remembrance of our dear son and loving brother, Harvey E. Rutenbar, who passed away three years ago, December 3, 1924.

In the midst of our pleasure we are lonesome, surrounded by friends we are lonesome. A smile on our face and a headache. Aching and longing for you. How hard it is for us to tell. Our sad and bitter loss. But God, alone, has helped us well. To bear our heavy loss. So we will be brave, our darling. And pray to God each day. And when God calls us home from here Your loving smile will guide our way. His loving mother, Sisters and Brothers.

John Smith Was Agreeable

By JANE OSBORN

AT THE informal little dance in the clubhouse that night Madge Upton was fully aware that a certain rather nice looking young man, apparently a stranger, was trying to get up courage to ask her for a dance. Madge was rather pleased to notice that he did not dance, though it would have been easy enough for him to introduce himself to some of the other men who would present him to more girls than he could possibly dance with. Madge watched him as she danced with the other men. And when she saw him walking toward the door that led out of the clubhouse she said to the very young man with whom she was dancing:

"Oh, please excuse me, just a minute. There goes Mr. Smith—I want to speak to him before he goes." The very young man released his timorous hold of Madge's slender waist and she danced her way between swaying couples to the young man in question.

"Oh, Mr. Smith—I want to speak to you. You are Mr. Smith, aren't you?" Much to her surprise the young man said he was. She had intended to say that an aunt by marriage—she didn't want to make the connection too close—had told her that a certain young man named John Smith was going to stop at the hotel and would go over to the clubhouse and had asked her to look for him. She had expected the young man would say that his name was not Smith, but that he wished it were, and then she would say she was so sorry she had made the mistake—and he would say he was glad she had, and then she would smile and he would ask her to dance—and after that they would be as well acquainted as if he really were named Smith and her aunt had really asked her to look out for him.

"I have been wondering if you weren't the girl," said Mr. Smith. "You see my aunt said she had heard your aunt speak of you and that you were here and your aunt said she would speak to you about me. My name is John—John Smith."

"And mine is Madge Upton—"

"May I have this dance—or what there is left of it?" he asked.

Madge was spending the summer holidays with a married sister who had a cottage at the summer resort not far from the hotel where John Smith was staying, and it was quite natural that thereafter Madge and John should spend much time together—natural for John since he was a stranger and natural for Madge since his only serious competitor for Madge's society was the eighteen-year-old Walter. Walter wasn't to be taken seriously by the twenty-two-year-old Madge—but as days passed twenty-six-year-old John Smith was.

There were wonderful mornings spent together in the surf, afternoons sailing in Madge's catboat on the bay—evenings dancing together at the clubhouse. Madge introduced John Smith to some of the other girls, but always with a "keep your hands off my property" sort of way, and she never planned any parties where John might get acquainted with them.

Incidentally John fell in love with Madge. He had come to the Marden hotel merely as a resting place in his trip by motor to a spot some two hundred miles farther along the shore, where he intended to spend the three weeks of his vacation. After he had dined he had strolled over to the clubhouse, when the clerk at the hotel had told him that guests there had the privilege:

Then on a day—three days before the end of his vacation—he felt that the time had come to tell Madge that he loved her. It was somewhat troubled as he faced the ordeal.

They were sitting on the beach under the protection of Madge's enormous beach parasol which shielded them from the gaze of chance passers-by. Really a very appropriate—if not entirely original—setting for the important declaration.

Reversing the order of procedure that he had planned John Smith first told Madge that he loved her—and asked her to marry him. He was then ready for his confession—but Madge got ahead of him with hers.

"I did a perfectly dreadful thing," she said. "I wanted to know you so much that I made up about my aunt—I've never mentioned her since for fear you would find out I had deceived you. It just happened that I hit the right name—but then Smith is not unusual."

"Still it is not my real name," said her companion. "As a matter of fact my name is Archibald Pepperell—I said I was John Smith for fear—" but the erstwhile John did not finish.

"No, Archibald Pepperell. You don't mean that you are the nephew of Mrs. Gordon Burke?"

"The same Archibald," he said. "And Mrs. Burke is my aunt's very best friend—I've heard a lot about you—and all the time we have been both bluffing we might have been properly introduced."

"Then maybe you'll forgive me, suggested Archibald. "Maybe you'll marry me after all."

"Well, of course," said Madge. "I was rather counting on being Mrs. John Smith for life—not so easy to say Mrs. Archibald Pepperell—I'd always have to spell it out when I have things sent—still—"

But Madge got no further with her objections.

There isn't really much the boys can leave off, but even going without their bats makes them look almost as freaky as a girl wearing floppy galoshes.

HIDDEN 300 YEARS, TREASURES RETURN

Two Van Dycks and One Murillo Found in Peru.

Lima, Peru.—Two paintings by the Flemish master, Van Dyck, and another long-forgotten treasure from the brush of Murillo are about to make their reappearance in the world of art after more than three centuries of seclusion in the ancestral mansion of Señor J. I. Iruvarren de la Puente, descendant of one of the most celebrated members of the old Spanish nobility in Peru, the Marquis de Villafuerte y de la Puente.

The three works, valued at approximately $1,250,000, have been pronounced genuine by the late Theophilus Castillo, Peruvian artist and critic who enjoyed a high reputation in European art circles. They have been vouched for by other critics who have made special visits to Peru to view them.

Of the trio the most valuable is the Murillo, worth $1,000,000. Its subject is "Saint Joseph and the Infant Jesus." Its canvas measures approximately three feet in height by two feet in width.

The first of the Van Dycks is painted on copper, its subject being: "The Repentant Magdalen Distributing Her Jewels." It is rectangular and is smaller than the Murillo. This work is in a perfect state of preservation and is valued at $150,000.

The other Van Dyck is "The Worship of the Golden Calf." The owner values this picture at $100,000.

The pictures were brought to Peru more than 300 years ago by the Marquis de Villafuerte y de la Puente.

The owner recently decided to sell all three works and has offered them to the British museum.

Herd of Antelope Is Found in Texas County

Mercedes, Texas.—In the remote wilderness of chaparral in the border district between Mercedes and Laredo, a herd of antelope was recently discovered by Charles G. Jones, state game warden. Mr. Jones said upon his return to Mercedes that the ranch region of the border is still teeming with wild game.

"For three weeks I have been getting acquainted in Starr, Zapata and Jim Hogg counties and find game plentiful," he said. "There are thousands of quail, deer and wild hogs on every side. There are about 150 antelope in Jim Hogg county. If the hunter was ever careful in his life, let it be when he runs across these protected animals, for no one is allowed to shoot an antelope in Texas at any time."

"They are the most graceful animals that ever lived, and the hunter should view them for their beauty and not their meat. This little herd in Jim Hogg county is practically all that is left of hundreds of thousands of these noble creatures that 35 years ago roamed over the prairie sections of Texas."

Expedition to Study Life 500 Feet Below Pacific

Denver, Colo.—Plans for an expedition that has its destination 500 feet below the surface of the Pacific ocean were revealed here recently by George M. Williamson, one of the Williamson brothers who filmed Jules Verne's "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" 13 years ago. In the project announced by Williamson, three men will be lowered to a depth of 500 feet below the surface of the ocean in a steel ball-shaped chamber, and from heavy glass portholes, they will study deep-sea life. A specially built schooner carrying the party of scientists, who will perform the researches will sail from San Diego, Calif., within the next 60 days for the west coast of Mexico, where the first experiment is to be made, he said.

Stamps of Late Czar Bring Little at Sale

London.—Stamps once owned by the czar of Russia and which cost his government $250,000 to produce were put up for auction here recently. They failed to bring one-hundredth of their cost.

The stamps were offered on the instructions of a client in Latvia, whose representative attended the sale in case the reserve price was not reached. This was set at $3,750, which was the price once offered for the stamps when exhibited in America.

Although the bidding began at $1,000 and rose by $125 bids to $2,000 it went no higher.

ALAS, POOR BEARS.
FOR CHILDLESS MOTHERS.
THIS CHANGING WORLD.
HERE TO STAY.

Three hundred thousand dollars is bid for a New York Stock Exchange seat. The price moved up $130,000 this year, only a beginning.

Stock Exchange seats go up with stock prices. The public is always a bull.

Poor Wall Street bears! Virgil Jordan, chief economist of the National Industrial Conference Board, tells the Railway Business Association:

"A great industrial boom is coming that will make 1925 and 1926 look like a depression.

"Business expansion in 1928 and later will strain our transportation facilities and credit resources to the limit, and put the powers of the Federal Reserve system to a real test."

The average citizen will say: "Amen, let the expansion expand."

This news, if confirmed, will lighten the hearts of many women. Dr. Maglan, of Manchester, a scientist of standing, says that by an operation in gland trans-planting it has been made possible for hitherto childless women to bear children. Only those who know the intense sorrow of a woman, married and childless, can realize what this means.

The world accepts changes as they come. Not long ago crusaders in New York tried to prevent bicycle riding by women, called immodest, luring ladies too far from the house. Now they go 1,000 miles in motors, or try to fly over the ocean.

Next, Alderman decided that women must be forbidden to smoke in public restaurants. Now the big Pennsylvania Railroad puts ladies' smoking cars on its first-class trains from New York to Washington.

Nevertheless, women should not smoke until they are through with child bearing. Each child should have half a chance, and gets it, no matter what his father may do, when his mother doesn't smoke or drink strong liquor before he is born.

Hans Lagerstedt, who died at eighty-two with a beard seventeen feet long had claimed the world's long beard championship. He did something better than anybody else, yet no one made "a heaven path to his door" on this earth.

However, when Gabriel calls us all, his beard, longer than anybody's will probably attract attention and amaze the heedless angels.

Generally speaking, we are prosperous, those willing to work get along. But Mrs. Hildegar Wywias did not find it so. She struggled for five years with four children, feeding, clothing, paying rent, washing, cooking and working as a "garment presser" for $25 a week. She searched one expensive dress. That took a week's pay. Each month the rent took a week's pay.

Prosperous America was not prosperous enough for Mrs. Wywias. She broke the gas meter, opened all the jets, then knelt by the bed where her five-year-old son was sleeping, her three little girls asleep nearby.

All were dead, when found, with no more rent or food bills to pay. There is still room at the BOTTOM for those that would make conditions better.

Birth control and publishing information about it are approved by Britain's "National Council of Public Morals."

Theoretically women should have the right to decide how many children they will have.

But it is well that understanding of birth control has been postponed. It might have prevented the arrival of Napoleon and Carlyle, and surely would have prevented the arrival of Caruso, a nineteenth child.

Mrs. Penbody, head of the Women's Committee for Law Enforcement, says "ten million women are not only talking and praying, but working to retain prohibition, and see that it is enforced."

They need not work or pray to keep prohibition in the Constitution; nothing can get it out.

As for enforcement, there is room for much working and praying in that direction.

CLEAR UP A LINGERING COUGH

A lingering irritable cough is not so good. It reveals a wrong condition. But that wrong condition will quickly yield to the peculiar healing qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, a true cough remedy of proven medicinal value. From 651 E. 46th St., Chicago: "A stubborn lingering cough worried me, kept me awake tired me out, but it quickly yielded to your good Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, as my druggist assured me it would." Always dependable. Sold everywhere in Plymouth.

Dredges are working day and night on La Salle Gardens Subdivision at White Lake, in order to complete the construction of an island and boat canal before severe weather sets in. This island will be improved and used as a park, playground and recreational center.—Milford Times.

The loss sustained by the L. H. Gilmer Company in the fire at their plant Friday, is the heaviest that has visited Wayne in recent history of the village. Thought to have started by an explosion in the processing room at the plant, probably from spontaneous combustion, the blaze spread so rapidly that employees had barely time to escape to the street. Very few of the records in the office were saved.—Wayne Weekly.

Practically the entire city of Farmington and a considerable area of the township will be covered by the huge Farmington storm sewer drain, an order for which has been filed by County Drain Commissioner Arthur W. Spencer. As outlined for this newspaper by the Drain Commissioner's office, the drain will be the second largest to be built in Oakland County in recent years, and will probably cost about $800,000.—Farmington Enterprise.

Harry German has returned from a trip to southeastern Michigan and Indiana, where he visited with some old time baseball associates. Over at Quincy, Michigan, he spent a little time with Jimmie Hughes, and at Pioneer, Ohio, he visited with Chas. Cogswell. All were pitchers some 25 years ago in the Toledo team. At Angola, Indiana, he went quail shooting with Jack Somerlot, who formerly played first base for the Washington team.—Northville Record.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

RULES FOR INVESTORS.

It is about as hard to keep your money safely as it is to make it in the first place. It requires almost as much care, ingenuity and foresight as it does to earn the money.

Joseph R. Nutt, president of the Union Trust company, of Cleveland, has given us a list of questions which an expert analyst would want answered before reaching a decision about a bond.

By the way, one question a friend of mine who has large means said he was always asked about a bond was, "Will the bank buy it?" If the bond wasn't good enough for a bank it wasn't good enough for him. Mr. Nutt's questions are as follows:

What is the corporation's earning record?

Have the earnings been analyzed? Sometimes a sufficient allowance has not been made for maintenance and depreciation, although the earnings of the company amount to more than their interest charges.

What is the company's financial condition?

How much of the assets are in inventory?

Have the company's books been audited? Sometimes without auditing, the books may show a company to appear more prosperous than it really is.

What is the character of the company's business, competition, etc.?

One of the most important questions is, How well is the company managed?

Have all necessary legal precautions been taken?

Is the principal and interest guaranteed, what does that guarantee amount to and is it enforceable?

To what purpose is the issue?

Will the borrowing purpose be fulfilled?

Are future bond issues restricted?

Can the company redeem its bonds upon maturity?

Is a sinking fund necessary?

What are the precautions regarding taxation of the bonds?

Is the property free from liens?

Is the income return in keeping with general market conditions?

Investing has become a science. If you are untrained in it you can hardly depend upon your own judgment.

It is better to submit to an investment house or a bank in whom you have confidence.

SEEK HOOVER TO SPEAK AT M. S. C. FARM WEEK.

That Herbert Hoover may be one of the main speakers at the annual Michigan State college's farmers' week, to be held the first week in February, was revealed here today with the announcement that an official invitation had been extended the cabinet member.

William Oxley Thompson, president emeritus of Ohio State university, and Hon. John C. Ketchum, Michigan congressman, have been definitely announced as two of the speakers who have already accepted invitations to address the big state agricultural conference. Others who are considered as likely speakers are Dean Russell, of Wisconsin, and Dean Curtis, of Iowa, heads of the agricultural schools in their respective states.

NEW REDUCTIONS IN LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE RATES.

New reductions on long distance telephone rates from here to points outside Michigan 100 miles or more distant, were announced today by Roy E. Crowe, manager here for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. The new rates became effective December 1, in conformity with recent announcement of a Bell system rate reduction on long haul messages.

This is the second System-wide reduction made in a little more than a year, the first becoming effective October 1, 1926, with a saving to telephone users of the United States amounting to $3,000,000 annually. Annual saving to telephone users by the new reduction will amount to $1,500,000, it is anticipated.

The announcement follows closely upon an address by Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, before the convention of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners at Dallas, Texas, in which he said that the fundamental policy of the company was to furnish the best possible service at the lowest cost consistent with financial safety.

Station-to-station rates on long distance calls between points 400 miles or more apart are affected by the new schedule and the greater the distance the greater is the reduction shown. For instance, the basic station-to-station rate for three minutes from Detroit to Los Angeles is reduced from $8.75 to $7.25. Other sample reductions follow: To Denver, Colo., $4.50, compared with the present rate of $5.25; Kansas City, Mo., reduced from $3.10 to $2.80; Miami, Florida, reduced from $5.20 to $4.50; Newark, N. J., reduced from $2.25 to $2.20; New Orleans, La., reduced from $1.35 to $3.75; Providence, R. I., reduced from $2.85 to $2.65.

These reductions are quoted on day station-to-station calls. Evening rates, effective between 7:00 and 8:30 p. m., will be reduced to a level about half way between the night rates, effective from 8:00 p. m. to 4:30 a. m., and the new day rates. The night rates will remain at approximately their present levels. Evening rates are considerably lower than day rates and night rates are still lower.

The reduction to be made effective on long haul messages December 1, is a result of the use of latest improved devices and methods developed by the American Telephone & Telegraph Company and the Bell Telephone Laboratories, which have effected economies applying especially to longer circuits, it is stated. An important factor, also, is the steady growth of the country's net-work of long distance cables, which permits carrying greater numbers of circuits on single pole lines and makes the circuits practically proof against storm damage.

Today's Reflections

Maybe you've noticed that the Plymouth man who argues that success is all a matter of luck never seems to be very successful.

We do not know much, but we do know that a wife never fails to convict her husband on circumstantial evidence.

Another thing the consumer pays for, though he may not stop to consider it, is the magnificent art work in the automobile catalogues.

If you think times haven't changed go into any schoolhouse around Plymouth and see how few slates and state pencils you can find.

When confronted with two evils the average man will usually choose the one he hasn't tried before.

So few people stay at home any more that it's a wonder the burglars don't all get rich and retire.

The weather isn't the only thing over which the average Plymouth man has no control. There's his wife and daughter, for instance.

Modern girls do not seem to know the way to make a man run after a girl is for her to run away from him.

Science has revealed a great many interesting things, but the things the late styles reveal interest the men more.

The Plymouth man who won't take the trouble to go to the polls and vote usually does the most knocking about the ability of the people we do elect.

After all, the only difference between the East and West is that the West got over being wild.

We can't swear whether the earth is round or flat, but we do know that it takes all our time to keep our balance on it.

Why is it that a poor child can get as much fun out of a bed-roller for a plaything as the child of rich parents can get out of a toy made in Germany.

Mother may not have any use for the young man who is courting daughter, but if father regards the young man as a pin-headed dude mother immediately becomes the young man's champion.

Some Plymouth girls can't hide their bow-legs any more, but now that it is customary to give the face almost as many coats of paint as an auto body they can at least quit worrying about freckles.

Annoying

Night Coughs

Stopped Almost Instantly
Very frequently adults and children, especially children, have spells of night coughing due to bronchial irritations or while suffering from colds. These coughing spells, if not quickly checked, are very injurious to the health.

A famous physician's prescription called Thoxine, much better than patent medicines and cough syrups, acts on a different principle, relieves the irritation and stops the cough within 15 minutes or money back. Contains no chloroform, dope or other harmful drugs. Pleasant tasting and safe. 35c, 60c, and $1.00. Ask for Thoxine. Sold by Dodge Drug Co. and all good drug stores.

We are not particularly anxious that any of our good aviators attempt a round trip flight to Europe—but we do wish some of the many loans would try a return flight.

On Sunday evening next, the boys who attended the Older Boys' Conference at Pontiac last week, under the auspices of the Hi-Y organization, will present their reports at a union service to be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday at 7:30 p. m. The people of other churches and of the community generally should hear these reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver are working hard on the preparation of the Sunday-school Christmas program, which will be presented Friday evening, December 23rd.

The Busy Women's Bible Class will meet on Thursday, December 8th, at the home of Mrs. Champe, Ann Arbor street, west. There will be pot-luck dinner at noon, and the usual business meeting will follow.

METHODIST NOTES

The invitations have gone out for the annual L. A. S. and Missionary Christmas luncheon to be held at the church December 7th. Those who have not sent in the return cards are requested to do so immediately, so the committee can complete their plans.

Interest is growing in the Wednesday night church training night, but it is hoped that soon all the families of the church will join in these meetings, and enjoy this fine fellowship together.

Our hearts have been saddened at the going of the past week of our beloved Mrs. Sayles. We always knew if she was not in her pew on Sunday, that it was because of her inability to be there. She was most faithful, always being in her place for every service of the church, even when failing health made it difficult for her to get out. Her life was an inspiration to all, both old and young, and the church and community have sustained a distinct loss in her passing.

M. S. C. EXTENSION CLASS.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL NOTES

Helen Ribar, 6th Grade, Reporter
First Grade, Miss Lajo—We have been telling stories about our Thanksgiving experiences. We are all working hard on our number work books, and most everyone has one star. The A-plus papers in our books entitle us to a silver star.

Second Grade, Miss Stader—Our new word books are filling up fast. The children find new words at home in newspapers and cut them out. If they can say the word after they get to school, they paste it in their new word book. The children are working hard on their "good habits" project.

Third Grade, Miss Holt—After studying about the Pilgrims, the children made a Pilgrim village for a blackboard border.

Fourth Grade, Miss Balfour—We are glad to have Paul Albrecht with us again. Paul has been in the Ann Arbor hospital for two weeks, and we have missed him very much.

Fifth and Sixth Grades, Mrs. Lee—We are memorizing "The Landing of the Pilgrims." The fifth graders are making charts of the circulation of the blood. The sixth graders are making history outlines of all the early explorers. The Honor School Citizens from our room are: Catherine Compton, Ruth Michelin, Mary Price, Helen Ribar, Mary Kincaide, Gertrude Miller, Frances Spencer, Wilbur Kincaide, Jeanette Loth, Rosemary West and Billy Swadling.

The following students won a free period for earning ten stars on our room honor roll, and they used the time in making Thanksgiving posters: Wilbur Kincaide, Jeanette Loth, Mary Price, Catherine Compton, Helen Ribar, Rosemary West, Albertina Drews, Alvah Elzerman, Mary Kincaide, Billy Swadling and Harriet Mattinson.

Mrs. Lee is reading "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" to us.
Joan Cassidy was chairman of our Thanksgiving program Wednesday afternoon, and we all enjoyed it very much.
The fifth grade is dramatizing "The Two Merchants," in English class.
