

ANNUAL TOWNSHIP ELECTION NEXT MONDAY, APRIL 2

Besides the Election of Township Officers, Several Other Matters Will Come Before Voters.

Annual Town Meeting Will Be Held at Village Hall at 1:00 O'clock P.M.

The annual spring election will take place in Plymouth next Monday, April 2nd. The election this spring is anticipated somewhat due to the fact that aside from the election of the usual township officers, there are several other matters to come before the voters at this time. As usual there is only one ticket in the field, the Republican, for township offices.

A primary nominating election will be held at this time in both precincts to provide for an expression by the qualified voters of the several political parties of their choice for the nomination of their party for president of the United States.

Another proposition which will be submitted to the voters next Monday will be the matter of contracting an indebtedness in the sum of $500,000.00 and issuing bonds therefor, the proceeds of the bond issue to be used for the construction of a hospital unit at the Elmhurst hospital and infirmary.

The question of lighting all the paved roads and also those parts of North Territorial and Moreland roads in Plymouth township, will be submitted to the voters next Monday. The township board has figures which show that the rate of taxation for the township would be raised $1.50 per $1,000 valuation if the lighting project is carried out. On another page of this paper, the matter of costs, etc., is fully set forth, and should be carefully considered by the voters.

There is a feeling on the part of many of our citizens that Plymouth should get in line with other communities where the lighting of the highways has been or is going to be carried out.

The annual town meeting at which the annual appropriations are voted upon for the ensuing year, will be held in the room on the second floor of the village hall at 1:00 o'clock p. m.

As usual there will be two voting precincts, one at the village hall and the other in the hall over the Beyer Pharmacy in north village.

Former Resident Dies In West Virginia

The remains of James Tait, a former resident of this vicinity, were brought here from Alderson, West Virginia, his late home, last Friday evening. Mr. Tait died Wednesday, March 21. The deceased was 73 years of age. He leaves his wife and three brothers, William, Julius and George Tait. He was born in Dearborn township, and left here about twenty years ago, to make his home in West Virginia.

Funeral services were held from the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Sunday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. Walter Nichol officiating. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

Little Girl Injured

While walking on the walk in front of the Hotel Mayflower Tuesday morning, Margaret Horvath, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Horvath, stumbled and fell into an open manhole leading into the basement of the hotel, a distance of about twelve feet. The manhole had been opened to put some material in the basement. She suffered a laceration on the forehead which required two stitches to close, and several bruises. Dr. H. B. Brisbois rendered the necessary surgical attention. She is getting along nicely at her home at Brush and South Harvey streets.

Mrs. C. G. Shear delightfully entertained the Stitch and Chatter Club at a luncheon at the Hotel Mayflower, Wednesday at 12:00 o'clock. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of the hostess and Mrs. Coello Hamilton. The table decorations were daffodils and orchids and yellow tapers.

Better Homes Preparations Proceed

PROGRAM COMMITTEE MET AT HIGH SCHOOL WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Wednesday afternoon the program committee met at the Plymouth High school under the chairmanship of Ralph Carr. This meeting was to make further plans for the National Better Homes Week, April 23-28. Among other things Mr. Carr stated that Mr. Peterson had the boys' work exhibit well under way. Mrs. Bentley next reported that Wayne county was divided into six P. T. A. zones, and that since this division was already made they would use these same zones for the better homes campaign. There will be vice-presidents in each district, and each district will have its own program, as well as the central program at Plymouth. Teachers from all parts of the county are being asked to cooperate. Upon being asked as to the general attitude of the P. T. A. towards this campaign she replied that although no definite stand had been taken by this organization she was sure that they would back it.

Mrs. Dykhouse said that she had sent letters to the home economics teachers of the county suggesting that they do special work along lines such as budgets for the average family income, clothing budgets, food lists and the arranging of linen closets. She also stated that the music and arts departments under the direction of Miss Schrader and Miss Forsythe would render any service that they could.

According to Mr. Carr, arrangements for speakers have been steadily going on. Prof. Lowrie of the University of Michigan, whose specialty is flowers, will be the speaker at one of the meetings. Dr. Carr, of the state department of health, is to speak at another meeting. J. B. Hubert, of Plymouth, will talk about the financing of the home; and the night of the 27th Mr. Hastings of the state conservation department will show six reels of some of the most remarkable wild life pictures ever taken. You will see birds that you never saw before and you will see the kindly mouse in his native haunts. Monday night, April 23rd, W. J. L. Detroit News radio station, will broadcast a program from their studios.

The demonstration house for Wayne county is located in Maplecraft subdivision, in Plymouth. The builders of this house are Crumble & Wood. This house will include a playroom for the small children and a boys' workroom. The grounds around the house are to be landscaped and someone will explain the shrubs and why they are planted in a certain place. Also each branch library will have displays and reading tables for better homes. The better homes campaign started in 1923. Its program is to show what people of moderate means can do to improve their homes without the expenditure of large sums of money. This is the first year Wayne county has done anything towards this movement, and if one can judge from the preparations that are being made it will certainly be a wonderful start.

Death of Mrs. Kate Walker

Mrs. Kate Walker died at her home west of Plymouth, Tuesday, March 27, at 8:15 p. m., at the age of 86 years. The funeral services will be held this Friday afternoon, March 30th, at 2:00 o'clock, from the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, with interment in the Riverside cemetery.

P. B. Whitbeck, who has been spending the winter in Florida, returned home Thursday evening.

Woman's Club Held Interesting Meeting

THE SPANISH DRAMA AND INTERPRETIVE DANCES HAD STRONG APPEAL.

In the absence of Mrs. R. E. Cooper, Mrs. George H. Robinson was elected president pro-tem.

The nominating committee, as elected, is Mrs. John Bliekestaff, Mrs. Frederick Landrum and Mrs. F. B. Park.

The Garden Day program and luncheon, under the supervision of Div. XIII, with Mrs. J. M. Larkins as leader, has been changed from April 6th to Friday, April 13th, the 6th being Holy Friday. It was also decided to invite the Arche Club, Woman's Literary Club and The Conservation and Improvement Circle, all of Wayne, to participate in this luncheon and Garden Day.

The leader of Div. XII, Mrs. G. S. Barr, being unable to attend, Mrs. Charles O. Ball very efficiently conducted the program.

Miss Irene Humphries very gracefully and with perfect rhythm, interpreted in dance two lovely numbers, "Valse Blone" and "The Sylvia Ballet." Mrs. C. O. Ball gave a brief biography of the life of "Martinez Sierra." Miss Athalie Hough wrote a very fine outline of the "Cradle Song" by Sierra, which was read by Mrs. J. W. Bickenstaff. Mrs. Ball gave a short sketch on the life of "The Brothers Quintero." Mrs. F. Burrows read a short synopsis of the play, "A Sunny Morning" by the Quinteros, the characters of which were splendidly and touchingly interpreted by Miss Anna McGill and Mesdames D. F. Murray, Charles O. Ball and D. N. McKinnon.

Mrs. Robert J. Gillingham and Mrs. George A. Alderton, who are attending the University at Ann Arbor, were visitors of the club.

D. A. R. Will Hold Pioneer Exhibit

The pioneer exhibit sponsored by the local chapter of the National Daughters of the American Revolution, will be given at the church house of the Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon and evening, March 30th. The admission for adults will be twenty-five cents, and school children will be admitted for ten cents.

This exhibit is one of special interest particularly along an educational line. The lares and penates of our pioneer ancestors are becoming scarcer and rarer as the years go by, and are therefore of much greater value to those who are fortunate enough to possess such treasures. This is an unusual treat for the people of Plymouth, and it is hoped that as many as can, will avail themselves of this opportunity.

"Pay Promptly" Advertising Campaign

A campaign to improve credit conditions in Plymouth and Northville, and to inform the public how the credit world functions, will be conducted by the members of the Merchants' Service Bureau. The advertisements will start in next week's paper and continue until the end of the bureau's fiscal year.

Those who are not closely in touch with retail trade conditions will be surprised to learn that the average volume of retail business in the United States is estimated at $200,000,000 a day, of which amount statisticians claim 87 per cent is transacted on credit; yet the average retail credit loss is but one-half of one per cent.

There was a time when many unscrupulous persons could buy on credit when they were not entitled to it, but that time has passed. A network of credit clearing associations has been built up throughout the country, which makes it possible for the business men in a few minutes' time to learn the correct paying habits of their prospective customers.

These credit associations are banded together by a national organization known as the National Retail Credit Association, with headquarters in St. Louis, Mo. There are now throughout the country 1,000 bureaus which are members of this great organization.

The Merchants' Service Bureau of Plymouth and Northville, which has its office in the Hotel Mayflower building, is the local branch of this great credit network.

SHAWLEY-ROE

Miss Ernestine Roe, daughter of E. S. Roe of this place, was married to T. L. Shawley of Ypsilanti, by Rev. McDowell, pastor of the Northminster Presbyterian church at Toledo, Saturday evening, March 24th. They were attended by Miss Marie Roe, sister of the bride, and Harold Smith of Detroit.

The bride is teacher of English and public speaking in the local schools, and is one of Plymouth's most popular young ladies. The groom is a salesman for the Electric Machine Mfg. Co. of Minneapolis. The young couple will make their home in Plymouth for the present.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Cowan of Detroit, Monday, March 26, at Providence hospital, a son, Robert Hough. Mrs. Cowan will be remembered as Miss Corlette Hough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hough of this place. Mr. Cowan is connected with the Detroit Trust Co.

Comedy, "Turn To the Right" Presented Here

There was a good attendance at the Penniman Allen theatre Wednesday evening to see the presentation of the comedy, "Turn to the Right," given by the Lloyd Green Post, No. 147, American Legion, of Northville. "Turn to the Right" is a comedy in a prologue and three acts by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazard. The play was given under the direction of E. L. Alexander, of Plymouth, and the splendid way in which it was staged and the most excellent humor in which each one took their parts reflects great credit upon Mr. Alexander, as well as upon the players themselves. The entire performance was highly pleasing and greatly appreciated by those present.

Great Picture Coming To Local Theatre

HAROLD BELL WRIGHT'S "THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS" NEXT SUNDAY AND MONDAY.

The management of the Penniman Allen theatre announces the coming of one of the most outstanding picture films of the day, Harold Bell Wright's "The Shepherd of the Hills," on Sunday and Monday evenings, April 1 and 2. A most elaborate screening has been given to this most famous Harold Bell Wright classic. Alec R. Francis plays the title role, with Molly O'Day as "Sunny" Lane. They are ably assisted by a great supporting cast. The novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills," is one of the most widely read of American novels. It is estimated that fifty million persons have read this book.

The publisher of this paper formerly lived in an Ohio town, Milan, where Harold Bell Wright once attended school. Many of the citizens remember him well and tell of his great literary genius as a young man and how he would spend long hours of the night writing, only to destroy the manuscript the next morning. This picturesque little town among the Ohio hills was the birthplace of another great genius, Thomas A. Edison.

Jackson Family In Auto Smash

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Fagan, of 128 Pierce avenue, Jackson, Mich., with their three children, suffered severe lacerations about the face and head early last Monday morning just south and east of Plymouth, on the Golden road pavement. On their way to Detroit, and nearing the Pere Marquette crossing on this road, Mr. Fagan, on account of the foggy atmosphere, did not see the flashing red lights in operation until he was almost upon the tracks. In breaking his car and swerving to the right to avoid a collision with an approaching freight train, his car skidded into the ditch, overturning and throwing the occupants through the glass windows and windshield. W. S. Bake and L. J. Tefft, Plymouth residents, who were just behind the Jackson car, helped the injured family out of the wreckage and brought them to the office of Dr. Luther Peck, who rendered the needed surgical assistance.

NEW VILLAGE COMMISSION TAKES OVER REINS OF OFFICE

J. W. Henderson Chosen as President of the Village Commission for Ensuing Year.

Commission Calls Special Election for Wednesday, April 18th.

Inter-city Rotary Meeting at Monroe

Members of the Rotary Clubs of Ann Arbor, Monroe, Northville, Plymouth, Adrian, Tecumseh, Wayne and Ypsilanti, Michigan, and Toledo, Ohio, will attend an inter-city meeting of Rotary clubs held at Monroe Monday evening, April 2nd.

L. R. Sutton of Tappan, Mo., a hardware retailer and third vice-president of Rotary International, will be the guest of honor and principal speaker.

Mr. Sutton is coming to the Monroe meeting directly from Rotary conferences which he attended in Mexico City, Mexico; Havana, Cuba; and Panama City, Panama. It is expected he will bring the Rotarians in this section of the country a message from the Rotarians in those countries. Tom, as Mr. Sutton is generally known among his friends and associates, has been instrumental in organizing a great number of Rotary clubs in South and Central America. His address will undoubtedly touch upon the tremendous spread of Rotary in that part of the world.

Mr. Sutton was born in Saginaw, Michigan. His family moved to Denver, Colorado, where he attended school and later the University of Colorado, after which he went to Mexico where he is now head of a company which does a general hardware jobbing business throughout Mexico. Besides his regular business he is president of the Fabrica de Clavos de Tappan, S. A., director of the Banco de Tappan, founder and director of the Tampico Oxygen Producing Company, S. A., one of the founders and directors of the American Chamber of Commerce of Tampico and served as its president in 1918.

He is married and has two sons and four daughters. Mr. Sutton served as one of the organizers of the Rotary club of Tampico, Mexico, and is a charter member of that club. In 1922 he was elected a director of the Tampico Club and in January, 1923, the Board of Directors of Rotary International appointed him governor of the Third Rotary District, comprising the territory of Mexico. At the Denver convention in 1923, he was elected a director, and at the Oxford convention last June he was named third vice-president.

A board of registration was appointed to meet at the village hall Saturday, April 7th and 14th, to complete the registration of the qualified voters of the village.

The resolution and election notice in complete appears upon another page of today's paper.

One application for the position of village manager was received by the commission and placed on file; Stuart Hicks, who has been employed by the village as assistant to the village manager, tendered his resignation to the commission, to take effect April 1st.

Free Movie For Children and Mothers

Those who were present at the last "Robin Hood" performance given by Willoughby Brothers, in which the famous film "Robin Hood," featuring Doug Fairbanks was shown, will be happy to learn that Willoughby Bros. are going to give a similar free show on April 4th, at 2:30 p. m. This time the popular film "One Minute to Go," featuring the movie star "Red Grange," will be shown and all the children in the vicinity are invited.

"One Minute to Go" deals with an interesting story in which some thrilling football playing is exhibited. Enjoyable recreations will be given by children of the community and every child who attends will receive a souvenir. Robert Champe will take the part of Robin Hood in an interesting prologue and epilogue to the film.

Tickets for this performance will be given out at Willoughby Bros., Walk-Over Boot Shop, today and Monday. Those who wish to attend this show have only to come to the store at that time and receive tickets free of charge. As the number of tickets is limited, the children are urged to come for them promptly at the appointed time as "First Come First Served" will be the policy.

The last meeting of the village commission before the new commission took over the reins of government was held at the village hall Monday evening and was attended by a large number of citizens. After transacting some unfinished business the old commission adjourned sine die and the members of the new commission took their chairs.

The commission is now composed of Henry J. Fisher, F. J. Pierce, J. W. Henderson, Paul J. Nutting and Carl G. Sherr. The first three members were on the commission last year, while the last two, with Mr. Henderson, were elected at the annual election of March 12th.

The commission chose J. W. Henderson as president for the ensuing year. Mr. Henderson has served in that capacity before and is a good presiding officer and well versed in municipal affairs.

One of the important matters of business transacted Monday evening was the passing of a resolution for the paving of the following streets, together with necessary storm sewers for drainage: Arthur street from the north line of Penniman avenue to the south line of Blanche street; Blunk avenue from the north line of Church street to the south line of Farmer street; Ann street from the north line of Williams street to the south line of Farmer street; Adams street to the north line of Church street to the south line of Farmer street; Penniman street from the east line of Main street to the intersection of Ann Arbor street; Ann Arbor street from the east line of Main street to the crosswalk at the intersection of Penniman avenue.

The resolution also calls for a special election of the qualified voters to be held on April 18th, 1928, for submitting to the voters the proposition of borrowing the sum of $40,000 and issuing bonds therefor for the purpose of paying that part of the expense of the paving and storm sewers to be paid by the village at large, which is the expense of paving street intersections and in front of public property.

A petition for the paving of East Ann Arbor street and another appropos the proposition had been received by the commission, but no action could be taken because the petition favoring the paving lacked the necessary 50 per cent of signers required. However, it was suggested that if another petition were circulated the paving could be carried to Hamilton or Fairbourn avenues.

A board of registration was appointed to meet at the village hall Saturday, April 7th and 14th, to complete the registration of the qualified voters of the village.

The resolution and election notice in complete appears upon another page of today's paper.

One application for the position of village manager was received by the commission and placed on file; Stuart Hicks, who has been employed by the village as assistant to the village manager, tendered his resignation to the commission, to take effect April 1st.

William Todd Dies In California

Arthur Todd received a message last Friday, stating that his brother, William Todd of Santa Monica, California, and a former well known Plymouth resident, had passed away in a hospital in that city, and whose critical illness was mentioned in last week's Mail. Besides his wife and two children, his father, James Todd, and brother, Robert Todd, were with him when the end came.

Mr. Todd conducted a barber shop here for a number of years, and had many Plymouth friends who will sincerely regret to learn of his untimely death.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 o'clock Monday morning, with interment in Santa Monica. The family has the sympathy of their many friends here.

GLOOM MAKERS.

Anybody who doesn't know any better might conclude from reading a few daily papers that it's about over with America, and that she is "going to the dogs" in a hurry. And the professional gloom maker is back of it all. There's more happiness than misery in the world today; more good people than bad people; more kindness than cruelty; more sympathy than censure. But the papers print the crimes instead of the kindness; the gloom maker seizes upon this, and with drawn face starts in to tell how fast America is "going to the dogs." Don't you believe it. If a gloom maker meets you on the streets of Plymouth and starts to pour out his story of woe and to wonder "what the world is coming to," dismiss him with a smile. Tell him it's the best world you ever lived in, and that it suits you, since you are not in position to change it. Then suggest that he take a spring tonic or a good liver stimulant.

NO TIME FOR ALIBIS.

Along about this time of year some people begin to use the alibi of the little boy whose mother ordered him to wash his neck and ears. "What's the use in washin' 'em," he whined. "They'll get dirty again." That's the alibi some property owners advance when the season arrives for cleaning up their premises and putting their house and surroundings in shape for spring and summer.

We're again around to the spring season, and there is no excuse for dodging or offering alibis. Good health and a more attractive community demand that everybody clean up their premises. Dead leaves and grass, piles of ashes and tin cans, along with other rubbish accumulated during the winter months must be disposed of, and without further delay if we are to safeguard the health of Plymouth residents and prevent what might prove a deplorable epidemic. Cleaning up means ridding the community of disease germs that are certain to bring disease and death if left to breed in dirty and stagnant places.

As a usual thing, our people never need a warning along this line. But always there are a few who lag back and offer alibis for not joining in the annual clean-up. It is to them we make this appeal. You wouldn't deliberately wreck your neighbor's health. Then why jeopardize it? Why expose him to disease and death by your failure to clean up your premises? Now let your conscience be your judge.

PLENTY OF HELP.

Since electricity is now being carried by high tension wires into every nook and corner of the country the old-time hired man is in grave danger of losing his job. More and more electricity and gasoline are being used to grind feed, saw wood, husk and shred corn, thresh, clean grain and hoist hay. But electricity hasn't reached out into the field yet to any great extent, so those relieved from work around the barn can turn to the plow, to sowing and to reaping. It is this which leads to a surplus of labor in the country this spring, and that precludes a shortage in this respect. Some communities may be hard up for farm labor, but taken as a whole, there is plenty of it to be had, and at fair prices. It is plentiful as crops are being put in; it should be when the harvest comes on, from all indications. So this former worry seems unnecessary in most communities, and goes far toward making it look like a prosperous year agriculturally.

Today's Reflections

No matter how flashy they paint a new auto it'll never look surprising enough to scare a locomotive away from a crossing.

Most Plymouth women get as much satisfaction out of knowing they are not behind the times as their husbands get in knowing they are ahead of their bills.

It begins to look as if all the relief the farmers will get from congress will come when congress quits talking and adjourns.

Eighty-two cents out of every dollar we pay in federal taxes goes for war. That leaves 18 cents for congress to fight over.

What has become of the old-fashioned Plymouth boys and girls who could enjoy an evening spent playing "old maid" or "authoress"?

It used to be a woman could make her husband a necktie out of one of her silk skirts. Now she can make a silk skirt out of one of his neckties.

If eating is a necessity why didn't nature arrange it so all women would enjoy cooking and dishwashing?

The greatest faith any Plymouth woman can show in her husband is to sit quietly in the back seat and let him do the driving.

A St. Louis man has worn the same pair of shoes 25 years. But something tells us his pants wore out faster than that.

We heard the other day of a Plymouth man who is on the verge of a nervous breakdown because his wife is always telling him how nervous she is.

We can imagine a neighbor woman having a spite fence put up but not one that hasn't got a knot hole handy.

Why is it that the weight of a woman's first taking is equal to twice the ingredients?

WEATHERMEN TO HELP IN SPRAY CAMPAIGNS

SPECIAL FORECASTS WILL ASSIST GROWER TO GIVE ORCHARD ADEQUATE PROTECTION.

A special daily weather forecast service carried by the newspapers of Michigan is expected by the horticultural department of Michigan State College to assist in the campaign to prevent a repetition of the heavy losses that apple scab caused Michigan orchardists last year.

Spray applications for the control of this disease must be thorough and timely. The weather forecast will carry information on probably wind and rain conditions for the three days following the forecast, and this information should permit the fruit grower adequately to protect his orchard.

Field investigations by college specialists this year have shown that the overwintering stage of the apple scab fungus is in an advanced stage of development and that an early outbreak of the disease is likely.

First control measures for the disease should be started soon after the application of the dormant sprays. This spray should be lime-sulphur at a strength of two and one-half gallons of lime-sulphur in 100 gallons of spray. Add one pint of nicotine sulphate for aphid control if nicotine was not used in the dormant spray.

If bud moth is present in the orchard, add three pounds of lead arsenate to the spray material.

Starting April 15, timely spray warnings will accompany the special weather forecast service.

WHITBECK'S CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Klavitter and sons, Ernest and Russell, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Clark, of Ypsilanti, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Bengert.

Mrs. George Miller, who has been confined to the bed by sickness the past week, is some better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dethloff and son, Linwood, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hank spent Saturday evening at Tecumseh at the home of their sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buck.

Miss Carol Gale, of Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Harry Hayner and daughter, Vera Lillian, of Jackson, are spending a few days with their sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. William Bengert, at this place.

The Helping Hand society will meet the third Wednesday in April at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schutte for dinner. All will be welcome.

Albert Prochnow and family, of Detroit, called on his brother, A. C. Prochnow, on his way from Northville, where they had taken one of their daughters to the sanitarium for treatment.

Mrs. C. A. Parrish and daughter, Donna, of Ypsilanti, spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. Agnes Parrish.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kaiser and son were calling on Mrs. Kaiser's mother recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dethloff and son spent Sunday at the parental home at Perrinville.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says it's getting so that instead of parents thinking their children need a chaperone the children think the parents should have a guardian.

The people have nothing to do with cooking up a presidential candidate, but they have a lot to do with settling their hash.

"The grease spot on a man's vest may worry a man's wife," says Dad Plymouth, "but it's the bald spot on top of his head that worries him."

The reason a lot of grocers didn't spend the winter in Florida was because so many of their customers forgot to pay their bills before they went down there.

Dad Plymouth says if skirts ever get so long they won't have to be pulled down every six seconds the nose will get powdered oftener.

"Why is it," asks Dad Plymouth, "that some fellows imagine a neighbor woman is interested in hearing them tell things about themselves that their own wives got earache listening to 20 years ago?"

Kitchen ranges can now be had in bright colors. But it will take more than a pink stove to make some girls love a kitchen.

If you think the sea is restless you ought to watch Dad Plymouth when he gets in sight of a show window full of fishing tackle.

It has also been our observation that a lot of men who go to the dogs are usually willing to meet the dogs half way.

The Plymouth man who can't see anything in his job should stand off and take a peek at himself. Then he will know what is the matter.

The average Plymouth man wouldn't object to having company for Sunday dinner if he could sit so far away from his wife she couldn't kick his shins under the table.

No doubt some of the 274 men who are now engaged in a foot race across the United States objected to running down to the corner grocery for a loaf of bread when asked to by their women folk.

Attention, Voters of Plymouth Township

The following petition has been presented by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce to the Township Board:

We, the undersigned, being voters of the Township of Plymouth, believing we should keep up to the surrounding conditions, do hereby petition the Township Board to submit to the voters of Plymouth township the proposition of lighting all the paved streets of Plymouth township:

The following letter accompanied the said petition:

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.
Eastern Michigan Division,
Northville, Mich., Feb. 1, 1928.

Hal P. Wilson,
725-27 Hammond Building,
Detroit, Michigan.

Dear Sir: In compliance with your request, I am submitting a diagram and sketch showing the highway lighting required to properly illuminate the paved roads of Plymouth township.

Our engineering department advises that there will be nine lamps on South Main street, Plymouth township; there will be 18 lamps on the Plymouth-Canton Town Line road, nine of which will be billed to Plymouth township, and nine to Canton township. On the Plymouth road, east of Plymouth, there will be 21 lamps; on the Plymouth road, west of Plymouth, 35 lamps; on the Ann Arbor road, 95 lamps; on the Five Mile and Phoenix roads, 108 lamps. 51 of which would be billed to Plymouth township and 57 to Northville township and on the Northville road there would be 15 lamps, making a total of 235 600-candle-power lamps in Plymouth township; nine 600-watt lamps in Canton township, and 52 600-watt lamps in Northville township. The annual cost of this size lamp is $48.00, bringing the 238 lamps to $11,280.00. If Canton, Center and Northville townships did not care to go in with Plymouth township in lighting the roads which are common to both, there would be a reduction of 60 lamps charged to Plymouth township, and the annual bill would be $8,400.00.

At the present time the installation of this lighting system could be completed in approximately 30 working days. However, there are unavoidable delays in securing permission to construct these lines and in securing material, which, under the most favorable conditions would probably require a total of 60 days from the time of signing the order to its completion.

We are expecting a large increase in our construction activities this spring over last spring, and as we are required to handle our construction orders in rotation, I would not attempt to promise at this time any definite time for the completion of the work. However, you may rest assured that there would be no avoidable delay.

Yours truly,
E. L. MILLIS,
District Agent.

At $8,400 annually the rate of taxation for Plymouth township would be raised $1.00 per $1,000 valuation.

In addition to the above, a later petition was presented to the board asking that Moreland road and North Territorial road in Plymouth township, be included in the above lighting proposition, which the board consented to do, and will place the same upon the ballot. This will increase the lighting cost 50c per thousand dollars valuation for the first year.

Signed,

"Things Worth While"

ALUMNUS GIVES HIS ORATION BEFORE STUDENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL.

Every year Plymouth has some person leaving the school whose name later is known in college for his speaking ability. Two years ago several Plymouth people found their high school on the map when Kenneth Bartlett, a Plymouth graduate, debated against the Oxford debaters on the Albion team. Many other old students besides him could be mentioned for the work they have done. Therefore the high school students were very glad to have an old graduate come back to Plymouth to give his oration before them last Wednesday. Ira Kingsley, a member of the class of '25, won fourth place in oratory at the college contest which was held in Albion recently. This honor has given him the right to participate in the Phi Kappa Delta national convention which is to be held at Heidelberg college,iffin, Ohio, this Friday. The Phi Kappa Delta is the national honorary forensic society which sponsors debating, oratory and extemporaneous speaking. The name of Mr. Kingsley's oration is "Things Worth While."

It is a plea for America to do away with the luxurious, happy-go-lucky life which she is now leading and look deeper for the better things of life. America has been much criticized for her pleasure-loving life and it is a question which the people of the United States should consider. Mr. Kingsley's oration was especially well given and the students of Plymouth High school are all wishing him luck at the contest iniffin this Friday.

Episcopal Men's Club Supper

The March Men's Club supper was a great success; some seventy-five people sat down to a delightful meal prepared by Chef Wellman and his helpers. After the dinner a duet was rendered by Messrs. Stewart and Tongue, also a solo by Joseph Tracy. The speaker of the evening was Edward S. Evans, of the Evans Auto Lending Company of Detroit, who with a companion, Linton Wells, a newspaper man, holds the world's record for a fast trip around the world. The trip was made in a little over 28 days, by boat, auto, rail and airplane. Mr. Evans' story of the trip was indeed interesting, and was told in a simple manner. He experienced many a thrill and not a few narrow escapes. Here and there his story sparkled with bits of humor. His disappointments and obstacles were many, and it often looked as if he would have to give up but he persevered and when he arrived home he had bettered the former record by about a week. His trip was made in 1926, when flying was not so advanced as it is now. Mr. Evans' talk was followed by two reels of movies of the trip, and we were able to see for ourselves a great many of the things we had heard about. The Men's Club is greatly indebted to Mr. Evans for his fine talk and the showing of the pictures. They believe this meeting to be the best they have had, and hope to continue the good work at later meetings.

Those surviving are Bert, of Detroit; Frank, of Plymouth, and Mrs. Charles Adams, of Detroit. They moved to Plymouth 28 years ago. Her husband died in 1927 and since then she has made her home with her son, Bert, in Detroit. Early in life she united with the M. E. church and was a good Christian mother. ## Central P. T. A. Held Enjoyable Meeting

The members and friends of the Central School Parent-Teacher Association met in the auditorium of the high school on Monday evening last, where a very pleasant and profitable time was enjoyed. Mrs. C. H. Buzzard, president of the association, called the meeting to order, after which the evening's activities were turned over to Mrs. Charles Rathburn, chairman of the program committee. The following interesting program was given: Selections—High School orchestra, under the direction of Miss Gladys Schrader. (a) March, "Army Reserve," by Mackie-Beyer. (b) Overture, "Paramount," by Mackie-Beyer. Easter Songs—A group of pupils from Miss Weatherbee's room. Miss Mary Howe, of the Detroit Teachers' College, then gave a very fine talk on "The Child and the Community," the main point brought out being the responsibility of all adults in the community in the proper development of the child. Her subject was very capably handled, very interesting, and gives much food for thought. Following the program, excellent refreshments were served. These were furnished and prepared by the Detroit Edison company, on the electric range recently donated to the high school. Envelopes were presented by the Detroit Edison Company, to those present, containing a number of very fine recipes. During the time refreshments were being served, the orchestra furnished enjoyable music. There was a large attendance, and all present voted the meeting a success, and look forward to similar enjoyable occasions in the future.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL P. T. A. HOLDS A VERY INTERESTING SESSION

The regular monthly meeting of the Starkweather School Parent-Teacher association was held in the school auditorium Wednesday evening, March 21. The session proved an interesting one. Aside from discussion of usual business matters the Starkweather unit had designated the occasion as "thrift day."

Charles O. Ball, second vice-president of the Plymouth United Savings bank, addressed the audience on the subject of thrift. Mr. Ball spoke from the point of view of the banker. Mrs. Ciella Moles, teacher of fifth grade and chairman of attendance committee of the Starkweather P. T. A., followed. Mrs. Moles addressed her hearers on the same subject, but from the position of teacher. The program committee expressed disappointment because of failure in causing a presentation of the subject from the viewpoint of parent. Subsequently the audience was invited into an open discussion of this all-important phase.

The meeting had been called to order by the president, Mrs. Ruth West. That the chief executive of the Starkweather unit has the personality and the charm and the energy to make the organization function with smoothness and dispatch was patent to all. Any civic organization is bound to be spirited and to accomplish things with an executive at its head of the type of Mrs. West.

A quartet of toddling girls from the kindergarten rendered several of their little songs in pleasing fashion. The girls were Betty Ebers, Helen Jane Springer, Dorothy McLaughlin and Doris May Starkweather. The last named also amused her audience with a couple of selections played on her child's piano.

Since the principal theme of the evening was that of thrift, Mrs. Hilda Smye-Stevens, consistent with principles, sang two Scotch songs in her pleasing and characteristic manner. Mrs. Stevens was accompanied on the piano by Miss Melissa Roe, local teacher of piano. Miss Roe also presented two piano solos on her own account.

The Starkweather P. T. A. was organized at a rather unfortunate time. The P. T. A. year begins in April, but last April the Starkweather school was not in existence. Therefore the Plymouth P. T. A. had been considered a more or less impotent factor anyway. It was late in getting organized. The Starkweather unit did not get under way until early last month. This does paying members full dues for a year with only about three months of actual membership. This month dues are again being collected but the time will extend for the full year.

The dues, however, are only 25 cents for the yearly term and 25 cents will neither make nor break anyone. Eighty per cent of dues received are sent to the Wayne County Council and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers for benefits to be received. Every parent or teacher or friend of a parent or teacher or child is invited to pay 25 cents and have his name definitely enrolled upon the membership.

There are more than four reasons and a half why parents and friends of Plymouth school children should join one of the two local units of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. The reasons can be easily ascertained by an attendance at one of the sessions. They are open to the public. The P. T. A. is not an organization of gossiping mamas nor cantankerous old maids; and the point is stressed that the term "parent" includes the father as well as the mother.

The greatest single institution in the United States today is the public school system. The greatest potential wealth in America today is found within the walls of her public schools. It behooves all citizens to think on these things. Actual membership in and interested attention to the P. T. A. is a move in the right direction.

Now that there are two P. T. A. organizations established in Plymouth, and organized under the peculiar circumstances as found here, the movement locally is destined to become a more vital and definite thing. As it is believed that the Starkweather unit, with a far less number of parents and patrons to draw on, already has a greater membership than the Central unit, this would seem to throw out a friendly challenge to the Central unit. Indeed, the Starkweather P. T. A. promises innovations and big things never before attempted by the P. T. A. in Plymouth. The committees are busy and the public will hear about them soon. The rivalry, of course, can only be friendly, but the more of that sort of rivalry the greater will be the benefit to the community in general and the school children in particular.

Some new committee members were appointed at the last session of the Starkweather P. T. A. The old officers were re-elected by acclamation to serve for the coming year. Officers and committee members of the Starkweather Parent-Teacher association are as follows:

President—Mrs. Ruth West.
Vice-president—Mrs. Mary Beyer.
Secretary—Mrs. Ruth Wilcox.
Treasurer—Mrs. Marg E. Starkweather.
Committees.
Program—Mrs. Mary Beyer, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Patch, Mrs. Louis Rybar.
Achievement—Mrs. Bruce Miller, chairman; Mrs. Nellie Bird, Mrs. Hilda Smye-Stevens, Mrs. George D. Michell, Jr.
Attendance—Mrs. Ciella Moles, chairman; Mrs. George Fisher, Mrs. Mary Beyer.
Finance—Karl H. Starkweather, chairman; Bruce Miller, Mrs. Bertha Brown, Mrs. Harold Compton.

GRANGE NOTES

Plymouth Grange, a 389 entertained Plymouth Grange last Saturday, March 24th. There was a large attendance and a good program was given. C. V. Ballard, the state leader of county agents from the M. S. C., gave a fine talk on the subject, "Farming in Wayne county," also R. P. Hicks of the Public Utilities Commission of Lansing, gave a splendid address his subject being "Better State-ship."

Our Grange has been postponed from Thursday, April 5, to Thursday, April 12, on account of the celebration of the Golden Jubilee of Flat Rock Grange on April 5, to which all Grangers are invited. The celebration starts at 6:00 p. m. and continues until 12:00 p. m. Make an extra effort to be as all will have a wonderful time.

At our next meeting on April 12, the first and second degrees will be conferred on a class of candidates.

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held its monthly meeting Thursday, March 22, at the home of Mrs. Fannie Doerr. In the absence of Mrs. Doerr, who had accepted an invitation to a birthday party in Ypsilanti for that day, Mrs. J. W. Stewart acted as hostess. Rev. Nichol was present, and conducted the devotional service.

The members were pleased to have with them again, the president, Mrs. E. R. Daggett, who recently returned from the sunny south.

The speaker, George A. Smith, gave an address which was interesting and educational. The importance of the primaries was made clear, and the women were urged to avail themselves of their opportunity to vote.

The Misses Anna and Ada Youngs gave a pleasing program of Indian melodies which was greatly enjoyed by all present. Arrangements were made for the annual meeting which occurs in the Presbyterian church April 28th, with a pot-luck dinner at 12:30 p. m. The yearly programs are ready for distribution. They are very neat and pleasing.

HALF MILLION TO BE SPENT ON NEW MAYBURY UNITS

Sanatorium will be one of the most complete in the country.

Plans are being prepared for new buildings costing half a million dollars at the William H. Maybury sanatorium in Northville during the present summer. Some of the preliminary work has already been started and during the next six months one of the largest building programs will be carried on since the completion of the first unit of the sanatorium.

Mr. Maybury is personally directing all of the details for the extensive improvements, and when the new buildings are completed it will be one of the largest of its kind in the country, as well as one of the most up-to-date.

The brick work on some of the buildings in the children's unit is already under way and will be completed early in the summer.

The two main new structures to be erected will be for the use of patients in Wayne county outside the city of Detroit. Up to the present time the sanatorium has been confined almost exclusively to the use of Detroit residents.

Some weeks ago it was decided that provision should be made for the care of patients outside the city limits. The first structure to be erected will be large enough to provide beds for 125 adult patients. The other structure will not be as large, and will be used exclusively for children. It will have 40 beds.

Outside of the two new structures to be erected and the improvements on some of the other buildings, much will be done to beautify the grounds. Mr. Maybury has already done much to make the grounds beautiful and he is going to do more. One of the possibilities is a small golf course for the use of a large number of employees. There are many excellent locations about the place for a course. In fact, it would be possible to make it as large as desired as there is plenty of ground for one.

The erection of the new buildings means more population for Northville, as many of the new employees must find living quarters in this place.—Northville Record.

SEE ALFALFA SEED AS FUTURE STATE CROP

MICHIGAN GROWERS ARE HAVING SUCCESS WITH NEW VENTURE; PRODUCTION ON INCREASE.

Alfalfa seed growing in Michigan will probably soon be established on a permanent and dependable basis. This is the opinion of the farm crops department at M. S. C., based on the experiences of farmers during the past three years and a few isolated instances that date back as far as thirty years.

H. C. Rather, of the farm crops department, states that 573 bushels of alfalfa seed were certified last year by the Michigan Crop Improvement Association. He estimates that this amount is less than one-eighth of the total production of about 4,500 bushels grown in the state last year, which will plant approximately 27,000 acres.

"There are two things which Michigan alfalfa seed growers must keep in mind," says Mr. Rather. "One is to watch the bloom in order to determine whether or not it will set seed satisfactorily. The other is to keep seed producing fields free from weeds."

"If the weather is reasonably bright and clear, the alfalfa may be allowed to come into full bloom. If more than half of the blossoms are forming into seed pods, the stand may be allowed to go to seed with reasonable assurance of success. In case the majority of the blossoms are stippling off, the alfalfa may still be cut for hay and the value of the crop saved."

"In southern Michigan the opportunity to secure seed is presented in both the first and second cuttings, while in northern Michigan the first cutting must be depended upon for the seed crop."

Progress Demands Results

Asthma is a chronic affection of the respiratory apparatus, characterized by great difficulty in breathing, recurring at intervals, accompanied by wheezing sounds, a sense of constriction in the chest and sometimes cough and expectoration.

The symptoms of chronic asthma are variable in the different cases.

From the Chiropractic standpoint the prognosis is very favorable and recovery is nearly always the rule. The Chiropractor seeks to so adjust the subluxated vertebrae that all pressure is released from the spinal nerves, thus permitting free and unhindered transmission of the mental impulses from the brain to the bronchial tubes, which results in normal expression and normal function, hence normal breathing.

Chiropractic adjustments never do harm, when given according to the Neurocalometer Reading. They are quickly given by means of an original scientific movement made by the hands alone.

INHERITED KNOWLEDGE. DRIFTING FROM RELIGION. THE UNEMPLOYMENT CRISIS. CALIFORNIA'S GOOD ROADS.

Men are interested in animal genealogies. Ants, wasps and other insects have developed marvelous inherited knowledge, which we foolishly call "instinct," because they were millions of years before men came.

Science shows that men will continue on earth, barring catastrophe, at least 100,000,000 years more.

Some day babies will be born inheriting accumulated knowledge and ready to attack new problems. That will be a race worth while.

Head Fabre's account of surgical operations performed by mud wasps that never saw father or mother, took no lessons and were born to know how.

The Rev. Dr. Stratton, in California to debate on evolution, says our people, youth especially, are drifting from religion and all respect for the laws of God or man. Our nation and race are threatened. He is sure of it. Some centuries ago earnest, well-meaning priests of Greece and Rome, were saying the same thing.

And when Christianity came along those ancients were sure the world was going to the dogs. They went, but the world improved.

Unemployment, according to experts, is less serious than it was. That's small comfort for a man without a job.

Big business says you must expect unemployment crisis. They will always recur. They said that once about financial panics, but the Federal Reserve System ended them.

Big business is old and age accepts new ideas reluctantly.

The marvelous thing is that unemployment is not worse. In the automobile industry today thirty-three men do as much as 100 could do in 1914, thanks to improved machinery and methods.

Next year California will spend seventy-eight million dollars on good roads, and California has more good roads than any other state already. In consequence, California leads in automobile ownership, which means family comfort.

If other states, with good roads, could build up automobile ownership as California has done, there would be sixty million instead of twenty-four million automobiles running in this country. Other states might think that over.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, able Supreme Court Justice, who realizes that the Constitution was made by and for men, not men for the Constitution, is seventy-eight years old. He continues working, obeying his motto, "rest is not the destiny of man." A big monument would reward Justice Holmes if he could tell what the destiny of man really is, how we got here, whence we came, whither we go from here, what happens after we go.

But about such questions a learned Supreme Court Justice knows as little as an Eskimo watching for seals in the ice hole.

Science and religion are and must remain separate. Science gradually reveals to men that which they can explain and understand. Religion, which changes as men's civilization changes, represents the effort to know and understand that which men can never know or understand. Religion, destined to remain a matter of faith, never to be proved, is at least as important as science. Science gives knowledge, safety and wealth. Religion gives peace.

SCHOOLCRAFT ROAD PAVING SOUGHT

PETITION ASKS 204-FT. WIDTH FROM TELEGRAPH HIGHWAY TO PLYMOUTH.

Paving of Schoolcraft road to the super-highway width of 204 feet from Telegraph road to the village of Plymouth, is sought in a petition just filed with the Wayne county road commission. This would add another 12 1/2 miles of concrete to Wayne's highway system.

Schoolcraft road, directly bisecting the territory between Plymouth and Five Mile roads, and paralleling the Pere Marquette railroad, already is paved from Wyoming avenue to Southfield road. It now is planned to continue the pavement to Telegraph road, where, if the petition is favorably acted on, the super-highway width would start.

The petition now in the hands of Harry W. Butler, secretary of the road commission, is signed by a large number of business men, realty developers and residents of the territory affected. The check-up of petitioners already has started, and if the required percentage is contained in the petition, the commission will act on the improvement immediately, according to Mr. Butler.

Spreading of special assessments and other problems attendant upon the carrying out of such a project, however, will take several months, and, if approved, it will probably be fall before actual work on the paving can be started, he pointed out.

ELECTION NOTICE

A primary nominating election will be held in both precincts of Plymouth township on Monday, April 2, 1928, to provide for the expression by the qualified voters of the several political parties of their choice for the nomination by their party for president of the United States, as prescribed by Act No. 351 Public Acts of 1925.

A special election will be held Monday, April 2, 1928, to submit to a vote of the electors of the county of Wayne, the question of contracting an indebtedness in the sum of $500,000.00 and issuing bonds therefor, the proceeds of said bond issue to be used for the construction of a hospital unit at the Eloise Hospital and Infirmary.

All township officers will be elected at this time.

Also a proposition to light all paved roads in Plymouth township, and those parts of North Territorial and Moreland roads in Plymouth township, will be submitted to the voters.

"NO MAN'S LAND"

The golf team will have to play or practice on the school athletic field, as the Plymouth Country Club will not be open until about the day of their first game with Redford on April 16, here. Plymouth plays there the next Monday. Some satisfactory way will have to be found that will eliminate all but four of the men. These four will then have a little time to practice for the first game of the sport that has been recently added to Plymouth's school activities.

GRADE TATTLER

Starkweather School
The fifth grade library club is flourishing now. Last Friday Beulah Starkweather was the chairman. As usual, short book reports were given by the following pupils: Pauline Martin, Ellwood Elliott, Stanley Passage, Kenneth Davis, Donna Bridger, Marian Brown and Irving Geier. It is hoped through this club to instill into the children's minds the influence of good books to us.

The children of the fifth and sixth grades are working hard for the school championship in spelling to be held sometime in the future.

Russell Schille has returned to school after being absent all this semester on account of his eyes.

Miss Lapan's first grade pupils are making booklets on picture study. The first picture that they studied is one of a small sweet-faced child—Baby Stuart, by Anthony Van Dyke.

They also have made spelling booklets. Merle Fisher, Joe Palouse, Donald Mielbeck, Bernice Lawson and Francis Meligan are the star spellers of the first grade.

These tiny kindergarten pupils of Miss Sandberg have been neither absent nor tardy this semester: Ruth Ash, Stella Drake, Gladys Salore and Julia Ambrose. There are no boys on this list, and I wonder why. Are the boys going to let the girls get ahead of them in attendance?

Central School

Alvin Wagonschutz is still absent because of illness, but his friends in school keep him well posted about what's going on, by letters to him.

Miss Hallahan's pupils and others, in fact, are working hard on their penmanship drills, which will be sent in soon. Many of the pupils hope to win little buttons for their improvement in penmanship.

Far to the west of us lie the countries of China and Japan, and this past week the 5-A pupils have been making booklets about these ancient countries.

Miss Farrand's pupils in arithmetic have two teams, one the United States Winners and the other the Tiger's Teeth. So far the ferocious team, "Tiger's Teeth" has been in the lead, can they keep it up? We shall see later.

Betty Clark has returned to Mrs. Halliday's room after an absence of three weeks.

Barbara Nutting's birthday was one day last week and to celebrate the occasion her mother brought a basket of cuts to Miss Dixon's room. Needless to say an enjoyable time was had by all the youngsters.

Hetty Griffith spelled the 3-A down last week.

Mrs. Weatherhead has three new pupils, Lillian Buscaino, Ila and Harriet Smith.

She also has a large vase of pussy willows which Francis Dugan and Lois Schanefe brought to her.

Some of the second grade pupils sang at the P. T. A. last Monday night.

SOPHOMORES GIVE PLAY

In turn the sophomores gave their program. They surprised the high school classes by staging a one-act play which was different from the previous musical programs given by other classes.

The play entitled: "A castle in Spain," was a scene in an old ladies' boarding house. Four characters comprised the cast:

Miss Dyre—Katherine Truck
Mrs. Mitchell—Helen Schmidt
Mrs. Blair—Marguerite Wood
Mrs. Fullerton—Margaret Sackett

The scene opened in a room occupied by two elderly ladies with the landlady trying to persuade one of them to remain. Miss Dyre, being a very disagreeable person, made the room uninhabitable for the other lady and so Mrs. Fullerton decided to move. She could not be persuaded to stay but packed her things and left. After she had departed, Mrs. Blair became Miss Dyre's roommate. She was a very prim little old lady, always tidying and fussing about the room. Miss Dyre sat knitting continually and always with her head bent low over her work. Her voice had a little whine and sounded as though she had lost her last friend.

Mrs. Blair decided it would be extremely down-casting to be cooped up with this unhappy person, so she thought up an idea to separate them. She secured a piece of chalk and drew a line through the center of the room, partitioning it in two equal sections. Miss Dyre then received a lecture on the division. The line was to act as a complete separation as much as a wall. Neither was supposed to hear or be able to see what the other was doing. Mrs. Mitchell, the landlady, came in to find how her new boarder was progressing in these quarters.

She entered on Miss Dyre's side of the room, sat down and proceeded to talk to Mrs. Blair, not knowing that the room was divided. Mrs. Blair pretended not to hear a thing, and went about her work as though no one was about. Finally, Mrs. Mitchell walked across the line into Mrs. Blair's side; immediately the old lady came over and greeted her. She told the landlady that the room was divided. Mrs. Mitchell suggested that she and Miss Dyre accompany her on a drive. The two old ladies, overjoyed at the prospect of being taken for a ride, forgot their troubles and erased the separation.

The play was exceedingly clever, and the parts were well acted. The times were many years old and lent a fine interpretation to the play. They had puff sleeves and full flowing skirts. The characters were well made up and each one fitted her part to perfection.

BOY SCOUTS

The Beaver Patrol held its first patrol meeting at Maynard Larkins' home. As it was the first meeting we had to elect officers, who are: President, Gilbert Williams; vice-president, Frank Allison; secretary, Melvin Blunk; and scout leader, Maynard Larkins.

After the electing of officers, we thought of a stunt which will take place at scout meeting Thursday, March 22, and we think it will be a success.

Scouts attending meeting were: Gilbert Williams, Frank Allison, Maynard Larkins and Melvin Blunk.

SHOOTING AND ROLLER-SKATING

One has to take himself back about a hundred years, and imagine the Indians are pursuing him with bows and arrows, if he is to see clearly what the Junior Girl Reserves' athletic group is doing. Last week they wandered along Penniman avenue, using their bows and arrows, or at least trying to learn how to use them. Who doesn't like to pick up a bow, place the arrow, pull back a string and see the small pointed weapon go flying through the air to land in the very center of the target? Most people are very proud to be able to do this, but according to the Junior Girl Reserves one has but few chances to be proud. We can only say "Practice makes perfect," so if the girls continue their strenuous practice they may become as skilled as the Indian of old.

Not satisfied with expending their energy only on bows and arrows, the athletic group continued its activities with a roller skating party the latter part of the week. Roller skating may become a useful accomplishment as many people discovered at the University last year, when automobiles were banned from the campus. Now that it is spring and ice skating is gone, we expect roller skating will become a great sport not only with the Junior Girl Reserves but with other ambitious people.

CLEAN SPEECH CLUB ORGANIZED

Every so often throughout the school year, one hears something about "clean speech." Especially when the H-Y boys and the Girl Reserves put on the C's campaign is clean speech brought out. These organizations are high school clubs, so now the eighth grade students have decided to adopt this slogan. It began in Miss Gardner's 8-B English class when they decided to organize a club of their own. Of course, the first step in a club is to elect officers, so Christine Nichol was chosen as president, Elva Hill as vice-president, Audra Kreeger as secretary and James Holloway as treasurer.

They decided to meet during the class period every Friday, and have little programs which would prove beneficial to the students. Clean speech is not the only thing which is to be observed in this club, as the students are being taught how to conduct meetings and make speeches.

Last Friday the meeting was given over to Nature. Each member was required to make a two-minute speech on some point of nature which interested him. Speaking is a very good time to study nature, as most people are interested in watching things grow then.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES AND H-Y ARE WORKING ON PLAYS

The Senior Girl Reserves and H-Y boys are reading some plays which they expect to give in the future. These organizations have never given any plays before, but this year need of business has made them take this step. Instead of having one long play it is planned to have three one-act plays. These will not require so much preparation and ought to prove just as entertaining.

Now that the senior play is disposed of, more work will be put on these plays, and it is expected that an announcement of the names of the plays, the casts and the date for giving them will soon be published.

MR. CLEARY SPEAKS TO STUDENTS INTERESTED IN COMMERCIAL WORK

On last Monday afternoon, the Commercial Club entertained a very interesting speaker from Ypsilanti, Mr. Cleary is the son of R. P. Cleary, the well-known owner of the Cleary College in Ypsilanti. He came to Plymouth at the club's invitation to speak to them on business problems.

The meeting was called to order by Leona Beyer, the president. The first few minutes were devoted to singing, and then Miss Beyer introduced the speaker of the afternoon, who said that his topic was "Selling Ourselves." This title does seem rather odd, but before Mr. Cleary had finished he had explained his title fully.

In any sale there are three main factors: The thing to be sold, the salesman and the person to buy. If these three factors were rated according to the part they play in the sale, the salesman would be rated as three-fourths, and the product to be sold and the buyer as one-eighth each. So we find that the majority of the responsibility in a sale lies with the salesman. It is he who, in order to be a success, must know something about the product he is selling and of the people to whom he is to sell. Some salesmen are great successes for about two weeks, and then they absolutely fail.

If their sales manager should speak to them about the decrease in their sales, he gets such answers as these: "I could make sales all right if I had a good article to sell. No one in their senses would buy such a poor article as that," or "I could make big sales if I was put in a neighborhood where people wanted this article. Where I am, though, people are so stingy they won't buy anything." The poor salesman always tries to lay the blame on anyone or anything but himself, where the fault really is. To be a good salesman, one must have confidence in both the article he is selling and the people to whom he is selling.

The approach to a sale is often the point which really decides the buyer on what course he is to take. When a newspaper agent comes to the door and says to the lady of the house, "I couldn't sell you this magazine, could I?" he is apt to sell it. He has already stated that he couldn't, so why should he waste his words used in asking? A salesman should speak as much time in studying the approach to a sale if he is to succeed.

"We are all salesmen," stated Mr. Cleary. No matter what vocation we may follow, we will have to sell ourselves and thus will be salesmen. It is for us to prove ourselves what we profess to be in the sale or we will not succeed. The approach to this sale may be termed "high school," and the demonstration, "college." Then we are prepared to give our best to our employers and make them the gainers in the sale.

This speech of Mr. Cleary's was very much enjoyed by his audience, which was composed not only of Commercial Club members, but of others who were interested in commercial work. Every one thought that they had benefited by this short talk, and wish to congratulate the Commercial Club on getting so fine a speaker.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES

A unique program was featured in the form of a revival of the revolutionary period. Members of the club arrayed themselves in appropriate costumes and presented themselves as belles and beaux of the 1750's. Each feature of the program was announced by Page Dorothy Fish.

Opening the program the page introduced six girls, V. Peetz, R. Hamilton, R. Peck, P. Deal, H. Rayner and H. Carruthers, who presented a graceful number, which was made especially realistic by their attractive costumes.

The second part of the program was the reading of the Diary of Tibby Hobzibah Matilda Alminda Samantilly Brown, composed and read by Ruth Root, who made her part of the program interesting indeed, through an abundance of interesting facts and of humor.

"The Courtin'" a humorous poem dealing with this period, was read by Alice Gilbert, and was cleverly acted in costume by pantomime. Dorothy Bentley took the part of Huldie, and Florence Schultze that of Zekiel.

The whole club then joined in a program by singing such old songs as "Over the Banister," "Sweet Alice Ben Bolt," "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," and other quaint old melodies. Helen Carruthers, Anna Wagenschutz, Heloise Travis and Florence Schultze finished off the program with a few minutes of nonsense.

THE SOUTHERN ACCENT

A southern accent is something that no one but a native southerner is ever able to do. It is the result of northern flappers who, having visited in the south, imagined that they had acquired a cute southern accent. But their imitation was as far away from the accent as I would imagine would be the efforts of a Mississippi share-cropper to imitate the infrequent vocal sounds made by President Coolidge.

Jews, even when they are in the south, never acquire a pure southern accent. They may have a way of talking which to the undiscriminating northern ear, passes for a southern accent.

Even a negro never has a southern native white man's accent. Northern people with untrained ears often say to the negro talks like the white man, or vice versa. They do so about the same way that Germans of Belgium talk like born and bred Belgians.

The Mississippi is the only southerner who articulates with the loose-flapping movement of the lips that sounds something like negro speech, but the Mississippi's voice, like that of all southern whites, is placed in the back of his mouth and never has that tiny nasal quality that is peculiar to the earsounds of negroes and New Englanders.

Moreover, altho the idea is prevalent that the inhabitants of the southern states all have the same accent and manner of speaking, the natives of every state in the south can be distinguished by peculiarities of accent and methods of articulation.

There are slurrings peculiar to certain southern sections and there are special pronunciations of diphthongs, as for instance the "ou" in house and out, which the Kentuckian, Tennessean and Virginian does not pronounce as a diphthong at all, nor do they pronounce it precisely alike.

The variations may be stressed approximately as bay-yute and bow-oose and as ay-yute and ow-oot. There is also a telescoping of words peculiar to a locality, as, for instance, in Tennessee and Kentucky "bit of a" becomes "bitty," as in "a little bitty house." The variations in the pronunciation of "follow" may be shown as follows: Fello, feller, fellah, fellah, and fellaw. In certain sections many words undergo phonetic changes. In Tennessee, for example, we find that the native pronounces "dubious" as "jibberous."

SENIOR PLAY A SUCCESS

One of the finest plays of the season was staged by the senior class last Thursday and Friday evenings, March 22 and 23. People who attended have praised it as the best high school play they have ever seen. It had a deep plot which took thought to find the exact meaning. The play was not the ordinary one that is seen every day, but something different with a living zest. The end was a tragedy for the main character, a sad, sad conclusion.

This man had given up his desire to be a great artist when young, and went into an office in order to be able to support his family. As he grew older and became well-to-do, the desire to paint again gripped him. His wife begged him to stop his work for a year and spend the time entirely on art. This he did, using the attic for a studio. After a picture had been finished, one of a young girl, he was satisfied. It was done very artistically, and he hoped to have it hang in the art gallery among other famous pictures some day. The picture was placed in a fashionable home where many wealthy people went; he hoped to receive an offer. He did receive one for four thousand dollars, but after investigation found that his employer, G. T. Warren, had made the offer and intended to use the picture as a soap advertisement. This was a terrible blow to Mr. White, when he found that he was not an artist.

That night, a masquerade ball was being given to announce the engagement of his son, Roderick, to Veronica Duane. Malthus went dressed as an artist. He knew he was really not an artist, but only masqueraded as one, so he attended the ball masked as his own desire had always been.

Our seniors are very proud of the outcome of their play. The financial point is extremely gratifying because the house was full to capacity each night.

As the last curtain fell on Friday night, the cast drew a long breath, much relieved that it was over. They were sorry at the same time because practicing afforded them enjoyment, even though it was hard work.

Millard Nelson as Malthus White, was exceptionally fine. His acting was almost that of a professional, and he is to be given much credit for his fine performance. He shows excellent dramatic ability.

Mrs. White, played by Vera Stoneburner, was his devoted wife always in sympathy with his wishes. This part was interpreted in an excellent manner, and Vera deserves a large amount of credit which she has received.

Roderick White, taken by Mac Donnelly was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. White. They had many hopes for Roderick, and especially that of becoming an architect. Mac was certainly fitted for this character and portrayed it with marvelous ease.

Veronica Duane was played by Angelina Rousseau. Angelina was very good as Roderick's fiancée. Her appearance was exceptionally fine, and she also has received many worthy compliments.

G. T. Warren, the business man, employer of Malthus White, was played by George Brady. He was the typical business man and showed fine training.

Geoffrey Nichols, taken by Franklin Atkinson, was a friend of Mr. White, and a writer. Franklin played this part very well, being adapted to the character.

Ella, the maid and model, was played by Elizabeth Murray. She lent much humor to the plot by trying to imitate the social leaders. She was very clever, and has received many compliments.

Miss Johnson, director of the play, certainly has produced a fine production, and should receive a great deal of credit.

DR. DOUGLAS ADDRESSES HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Throughout the United States this week is being used as the National Tuberculosis Week. Plymouth has done much to help it, such as having a speaker and moving pictures to illustrate just what is being done to prevent this disease and how it may be prevented. Tuesday afternoon school was dismissed at three o'clock, and all the students in the upper six grades were required to attend an assembly. Dr. Douglas of the Mayhury Sanatorium in Northville spoke.

Besides speaking he showed two sets of interesting pictures which illustrated what he was saying. In his speech he presented four factors which help to prevent tuberculosis: Plenty of rest, pure food, exercise and the taking of regular physical examinations. Such diseases as malaria and typhoid fever are practically extinct now through the use of the rules of health. Tuberculosis can be cured through the same means, and it must be so treated if the deaths caused by this disease are to be lessened this year.

The students of Plymouth should have learned something from this meeting as most people do not realize the dangers of this disease until they are brought in direct contact with it.

GIRL RESERVES HEAR WAYNE COUNTY SOCIAL WORKER

Last Tuesday afternoon, Miss Gulim the social worker for the schools of Wayne County spoke to the Girl Reserves about health problems. Miss Gulim had been invited to speak by the Junior Girl Reserves, who invited the Senior Girl Reserves also. Miss Gulim goes about daily to all the schools within this county, helping the pupils to develop cleaner and better lives. Her work is much admired.

Screams came from beneath the trolley car. "Another case of the woman at the bottom of it," remarked the confirmed clinic.

Oddities

From HERE and THERE

Pet Turkey Numbered Among Radio Listeners!

New York, N. Y.—Here's a new kind of radio fan! One woman evidently believes her pet turkey gobbler listens in. She infers that much in a letter to radio station KOA.

Her gobbler disappeared from its coop one night, and after other methods for finding it had failed she requested KOA to broadcast for it!

$250 Diamond Found in Canned Peas

Ponarth, Wales. Talk about the pearls that may be found in an oyster! Here's a case of a diamond discovered in peas!

After eating canned peas, the two-year-old son of J. Spear became ill and disgorge a large cut diamond. Spear sold the stone for $10 to the man who had sold the peas.

Ranchman Buys Dog to Save Illusions of Visitors

Sunora, Tex.—Buster Halbert, Jr., has great respect for the illusions of his visitors.

They lamented that the sheep business is so prosaic that dogs do not appear with the flocks, as in pastoral scenes painted by artists.

Halbert has purchased a pedigreed shepherd dog to help make his sheep ranch more like the pictures, and therefore more charming and romantic-looking to his guests, whose illusions shall henceforth remain undisturbed.

What Price Husband?

Duluth, Minn.—A Duluth man advertised recently that he would marry any woman in the world for $10,000. Another Duluth man countered in the want ads with a $7,500 proposition. Now they are both being flooded with letters.

Farmer Crushed by Hail

Johannesburg.—Caught on the veldt in a terrific hailstorm, Piet Luger, a farmer, was battered to death by the stones.

Took Strings Off Beans, Now Seeks New Work

New York, N. Y.—Calvin N. Keeney of Leroy, New York, after a quarter of a century succeeded in getting the strings out of beans—and now everybody is growing them that way.

Keeney sold his first seed to a big grower who supplied Congressmen with the seeds they sent out to constituents and with lavish generosity they sent samples out everywhere, and with that Keeney's prize bean business blew up.

He has not been able to correct the faults of any other vegetable. His children are urging him to look for another job where the fruits of his toil cannot be pilfered by Nature herself.

Mower Makes Man a Millionaire

Columbus, Kas.—Twenty-five years ago H. E. Wright bought a 40-acre tract, selecting it because a hay mower was thrown in free according to the terms of the purchase.

He has received a million dollars in lead and zinc royalties from these 40 acres. He still owns them, but cannot use them for raising hay because on them are some of the best lead and zinc mined in Kansas.

Canada Overrun by Hawks and Owls

Icyok, Alaska.—The evergreen forests of Alaska and northwestern Canada are overrun with goshawks and white Arctic horned owls.

The abundance of varying hares, snowshoe rabbits and field mice has lured the big meat-eating birds from all parts of the north.

Trust the country editor to get to the bottom of things, as, for example, the one out in Oregon who says that the cause of modern baldness is the absence of hair.

Wall Paper

The new designs in wall paper now on display. Thousands of rolls at 1c and up.

Why You Should Buy Your Wall Paper at Our Store

Buying wall paper from small samples is like selecting a suit of tailor-made clothes from a small swatch of cloth—the finished effect may be different from what you expected.

The most satisfactory way to buy wall paper is to see it in the roll or put two rolls together and lay over the border. Then you see it exactly as it will look on your wall.

When you come to our store you can see the paper in the roll. Then, too, we help you figure the proper amount needed—if you run short we are close at hand to supply the missing paper; if you have some paper left over you can return the full rolls and get your money back.

We invite you to make our store your headquarters when you are down town. You'll find this a friendly place to shop. We're always glad to show you anything and you'll not be urged to buy.

Officials of the Stinson Aircraft Corporation of Northville, are making preparations so that by July 1, it will be possible to produce one airplane a day.

The Stinson Aircraft Corporation of Northville, will erect a new building at the airport near that village, that will accommodate all service work at the field.

An improvement which is being promoted by the Kiwanis Club of Wayne will add much to the beauty of the village—the landscaping of the plot of ground at the west end of Wayne where Michigan avenue and Main street join.

Both the village of Fenton and the township voted upon the ratification of the franchise to the Consumers Power Company to furnish them with gas. There were only three dissenting votes. Gas is promised by September 1.—Brighton Argus.

About 200 pupils of the Redford district schools attended the North American Flower show at Convention hall last week. Tickets were furnished the children through Earl Laing and Larson Bow by the courtesy of the People's State Bank of Redford and the First National Bank of Detroit.

Opening of the New Casino Shores Pavilion at Walled Lake, with a new orchestra of national reputation, is announced for Monday evening, April 9, by Lemis Tolotene, proprietor. Preparations for the opening are being carried forward rapidly and new decorations and other features will be ready soon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Highland celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary last week. They lived for 48 years on their farm east of Highland and for the past twelve years have lived in that village. Mr. Taylor is a Civil War Veteran, having served in Company E, Third Michigan Cavalry.—Brighton Argus.

A company has been organized at Novi for the manufacture of store cabinets. It is expected that the factory will give employment to 42 men at the start, with a goal of 200 employees by the end of the year. The factory building is to be located on the east side of the Novi-Northville road, north of and adjoining the Pere Marquette railroad tracks.

A representative of Henry Ford was in town Tuesday, and bought of William Porter a number of ancient bottles and furnishings for the old-time drug store which the motor magnate is restoring on his Dearborn estate. The articles date back to J. S. Hewitt's ownership of the store in the seventies or before, and have not been in recent use.—Milford Times.

Village officials have let a contract for the removal of the old village emergency water tower at the Stinson Aircraft Corporation plant, which was erected over 20 years ago. For the past six years, since the completion of the new water system, the tank has not been in use and in recent months it has become more or less of a hazard. Northville Record.

Papers and pamphlets dating back as far as 1833 are being shown to visitors at the office of Drain Commissioner Clayton E. Deake of Washtenaw county. The building is on a 15-acre plot, is constructed of granite and is in the English Renaissance style of architecture. The building is also completely equipped.

Both Northville and Novi townships will vote on light questions at the coming spring election. Novi township will vote on the question of entering into a contract with the Detroit Edison company for the lighting of all paved highways in that township and Northville will vote on the question of lighting the Seven Mile road from the Ridge road to Plymouth road. Seven Mile road is lighted all the way from Detroit to the Northville township line and there seems to be a general feeling that the highway should be lighted all the way into town. When one is driving from Detroit into Northville at night time, the difference is exceedingly noticeable.—Northville Record.

THE THEATRE

"THE SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS"

Realism and warm human characters, emotions dramatic because they are colorful—these are, after all, the things that make the best motion picture story material.

Proof is afforded here by the offering at the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, April 1 and 2, First National Pictures' film version of the Harold Bell Wright novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills." It is a worthy successor of the best big human screen plays of the past.

Admirable direction by Albert Rogel, who takes top rank in his profession by his work on "The Shepherd of the Hills," and splendid characterization by a group of at least twelve fine players, are outstanding reasons for the success of this film. Certainly the story material taken from the "best-seller," in Marlon Jackson's adaptation, is ideal film material.

This production brings the Ozark backwoods and its quaint folk realistically and artistically to the screen. It is filled with color, drama, primitive feeling, romance, and the whole atmosphere that makes its locale glamorous.

Players who stalk convincingly across the screen in characterizations of the Wright novel are Alec B. Francis, in the title role; Molly O'Day and John Roles in the principal romance; Matthew Betz, Romaine Fielding, Otis Harlan, Joseph Bennett, Maurice Murphy, John Westwood, Marlon Douglas and other excellent artists. Splendid photography is contributed by Sol Polito.

"THE LOVE MART"

The Tivoli Cafe in New Orleans, more than a hundred years ago, was photographed for scenes in "The Love Mart." George Fitzmaurice's production for First National Pictures, with Billie Dove, Gilbert Roland and Noah Beery, which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 3 and 4.

However, the cafe was in the vicinity of Los Angeles, and the body of water which did service as a river in the Old South was Lake Lancaster. The set was built on the shores of this lake and the entire effect was a replica of what the original must have been in the brilliant days of the Louisiana metropolis, when romance rode and swords leaped from their scabbards at the slightest provocation.

Billie Dove was never leveler than in this film, dealing with a period when slave-running was at its height and adventure lurked around every corner.

Gilbert Roland has a dashing role as the hero of the romance. Noah Beery is a formidable villain as a slave-runner, while Armand Kaliz and others appear in appropriate and colorful characterizations.

The picture is sheer entertainment and is calculated to take the tired business man and his family out of themselves and the present day, into the glamorous atmosphere of the gilded past.

"THE WAGON SHOW"

"The Wagon Show," a western picture with a circus background, a story combining the thrills, romance, daring stunts and trick riding of the two, is Ken Maynard's latest feature, which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre on Thursday and Friday, April 5 and 6.

This regular departure from the regular western picture fulfills a long standing ambition of Maynard, for he spent many years as premier stunt rider with Barnum and Bailey, Ringling Brothers' circuses, and ever since he made his entry into pictures he has wanted to make one dealing with the circus and its people. "The Wagon Show" is the result, and so far has it surpassed even Charles R. Rogers, the producer and First National expectations that it has been released as a Ken Maynard Special.

The story has not been taken from any novel or published story, but was written expressly for Maynard and depicts a small one ring circus traveling through Montana and Wyoming during the settlers' days. It deals not only with the romantic glamor that always accompanies a tent show, but with the struggles and trials these people of the sawdust trail endured. The entire plot has been packed with the daring and thrilling stunts for which Ken has become world-famous. The entire story has been built upon a solid foundation of fact and carries a real surprise ending.

"THE ARIZONA WILDCAT"

One of the best told stories ever put into a western picture is found in "The Arizona Wildcat." Fox Films latest release to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, April 7th. Probably one reason for this is that it was written by Adela St. Johns especially for Tom Mix and his horse, Tony. Miss St. Johns is one of the best known writers of fiction, whose stories appear in such magazines as the Cosmopolitan and who is also the author of several best selling novels.

In "The Arizona Wildcat," she has written a story that is a perfect vehicle for the daring Western star. Tom is at his best in this picture, performing some of the most breath-taking feats with apparent ease and with a grin.

There are many new angles in this one, including the one where the cowboys beat a crack Eastern polo team at their own game. Also the idea of smooth eastern crooks plying their trade among the westerners makes for many humorous situations.

Dorothy Sebastian, in the role of heroine, gives a fine performance, and the other members of the cast, too, help to make an entertainment that is clean, sparkling with laughs, jammed with action and pulsing with a suspense.

But always and ever there is Tom and his horse, who show us that they can always be depended on to furnish something new in the way of nerve-stingling situations.

Communion next Sunday. Will you be there?

Mrs. Shaw's class held a successful meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Semitz.

There will be ordination of elders at the morning service next Sunday, when C. H. Biehy will be ordained and installed as an elder of this church.

Reception of new members Sunday morning will be followed by the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. All church members should be present.

You are urged to join the union Good Friday service at the M. E. church Friday, April 6th, at 1:30 to 2:30 p. m.

BAPTIST NOTES

The Young People's Bible Class will hold their monthly meeting Monday evening, April 2nd, in the church basement. After a pot-luck supper the business will be discussed, and a happy social hour will follow. Every member is urged to be present.

Dear Robert S. Womer, Sunday morning. His subject will be: "The Christian Sunday And Can We Keep It?" Mr. Womer is a school boy, twenty years of age, and is a very forceful speaker. He has spoken in some of the largest churches in Michigan, and comes to us very highly recommended.

Our study course will meet at the regular hour next Thursday evening. The subject will be: "How We Got Our Bible." A goodly number were present to study this interesting subject. We especially urge the young people to attend.

Friday evening, March 30, a B. Y. P. U. rally is to be held at the Baptist church in Novi. The evening will be an interesting one. There will be a jolly song service, then dinner will be served and music enjoyed. Rev. D. W. Biehy will be the speaker of the evening.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Sunday is Palm Sunday. The palms will be blessed before high mass and then distributed to the people. The gospel of the Passion of Our Lord will be read by J. Birch and S. Corbett.

Next week is known as Holy Week, and the passion, suffering and death of Jesus Christ will be reviewed in the church liturgy, through her services. It will be our good fortune to have Holy Week services this year on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Holy Thursday the services will begin at 7:30 a. m. and the people are requested to give at least one hour of the day to adoration. At 8:00 p. m. there will be a sermon, preached by the pastor, on the institution of the blessed sacrament, as it was on Holy Thursday that Christ instituted the sacrament of His love.

Friday, Good Friday, the day on which we commemorate Calvary's tragedy, will be observed with services at 7:30 a. m., mass of the Presanctified, and from 1:00 p. m. to 3:00 p. m., the way of the cross, will be made together with a sermon upon Christ's suffering and death, and close with solemn adoration to the cross.

Saturday, Holy Saturday, services will begin at 7:30 a. m., blessing of the fires, Easter water and baptismal water. A cordial invitation is extended to all, particularly for the Friday services from 1:00 until 3:00 p. m. Easter Sunday, the masses will be as always, at 8:00 and 10:00 a. m. Confessions will be heard on Saturday afternoon and evening, giving all an opportunity to receive Holy Communion for Easter. (Holy week is an important week in the life of the church and in the life of man, so enter into it with a serious intention and a firm resolve.)

The card party sponsored by the baseball enthusiasts was well attended and the boys are very much encouraged and are raring to go.
The Rev. W. A. Graeber called at the rectory during the past week and delivered the Lenten sermon a week ago.
Don't forget your self-denial banks. Make them heavy.

METHODIST NOTES

"Blessed are they that keep His testimonies, and that seek Him with the whole heart."
Thursday night is official board night.

Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, is the regular L. A. S. meeting. The hostesses are Mrs. A. M. Johnson, Mrs. W. B. Lombard and Mrs. Alton Richwine. Mrs. O. B. Borch will have charge of the devotions, and Mrs. J. Honey, of the music. There will be a reading by Miss Anna McGill. All the women of the congregation are invited to meet with us.

Holy week services will be as follows: Wednesday night, 7:15 to 8:00 o'clock, Dr. Lendrum will be the speaker. Thursday night, at the same hour, Rev. E. E. Dunlay of Farmington, will speak. Friday afternoon, from 1:30 to 3:00 o'clock, there will be a union service, with Rev. Donald W. Riley of the Baptist church, Rev. Walter Nichol and Dr. F. A. Lendrum taking part.

Easter morning at 6:30, there will be the usual praise and song service, than which there is nothing more inspiring; this praising God so early in the day. The regular Easter Sunday service will begin at 10:00 o'clock. There will be special Easter music and a special Easter sermon by the pastor. The public is cordially invited to attend any and all of these Holy Week services and get in the spirit of the glorious Easter, and of course we will all want to attend the Easter day services and celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. As I have been our pastor for many years, those wishing to honor their dead loved ones, are invited to bring either potted plants or cut flowers to the church for Easter. Those that are left will be distributed to the sick.

The sympathy of the congregation is extended to those of our members who have recently been bereaved: to Mrs. Hood, in the loss of her sister; to Mrs. F. Thomas, in the loss of her father; to Mr. Tait, in the loss of his brother; and to Mrs. W. B. Lombard, in the loss of her brother. May God richly bless and comfort all of them.
The play committee of Mrs. Hillman's L. A. S. circle are busy selecting a suitable play for their musical comedy, "All Aboard," which they are to put on next month. They are fortunate in securing some of the best talent, and we feel sure that the Rogers Company's professional producer will be pleased with the talent he has to work with.

CANTON HOME FURNISHING CLASS.

Wednesday, April 4th, the Canton Home Furnishing group will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Griffin, Canton Center road. The last lesson on "Design and Color in Floor Coverings" and "Braided Rugs" will be reviewed. Bring your illustrations for floor coverings and your rugs. The new lesson will take up the subject of Window Draperies. Projects for the coming year will also be discussed. Anyone interested in this lesson or projects for next year, is cordially invited. Meetings begin promptly at 1:00 p. m.

It costs more not to have good fences than to build them

YOU don't need to have that proved, do you? How many times have you lost enough crops and stock, through weak spots in your fence lines, to pay for many rods of good stout fencing? And what about good pasturage that went to waste in stubble fields, the corn lost that pickers overlooked, the grain wasted because it was lodged and couldn't be harvested—all because you hadn't the fields safely fenced so you could turn in your stock and convert all this waste into money? The farmer today can't stand these losses—and make a profit on his farm.

Steel Fence Posts

Come in and let us tell you how to stop them, how to turn wastes into profit, increase your income and raise the value of your farm—how to do it quicker, easier and more substantially by using good fencing erected on long-lived RED TOP steel fence posts.
