Dearborn Minstrels Will Appear Here

Plymouth people are looking forward with anticipation to the entertainment to be given by the Dearborn Darktown Minstrels at the Penniman Allen theatre, Friday evening, April 27th. The Dearborn troupe gave an entertainment here last spring, and everyone enjoyed it immensely.

The show is being staged here under the auspices of the Men's Club of St. John's Episcopal church. The program this year is entirely new and is said to be the best one yet produced by these talented entertainers.

Tickets are on sale at the gas office and the DeLuxe Music Store and all members of St. John's Club. Admission 50c and 75c. Remember the date, Friday, April 27th, Penniman Allen theatre.

Will Hear Address By County Official

PLYMOUTH LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS PLAN IMPORTANT MEETING

James E. Chenot, assistant prosecuting attorney of Wayne County, has been secured to address the April meeting of the Plymouth League of Women Voters. The meeting will be held Monday afternoon, April 23, at 2:30 o'clock, at the Hotel Mayflower.

For some time the Plymouth League has been desirous of securing Mr. Chenot, who will speak on the subject of the "Prosecuting Attorney's Work in County Government." Every citizen in Wayne County has a direct interest in the efforts of the prosecuting attorney's office. This is an unusual opportunity for Plymouth citizens to learn a little more about a branch of government which is often responsible for the safety of our lives.

Mr. Chenot is a very busy man, and so it is hoped that every citizen who believes in good government will show appreciation of Mr. Chenot's effort to be here by hearing him at the Hotel Mayflower, Monday, April 23.

Plymouth Boy on College Track Team

Pierre Kenyon, of Plymouth, has a fine opportunity to prove his worth as a member of the varsity track team of Michigan State College this spring. Only 47 men have reached the ranks of this group of athletes.

This is his third year of competition and he is rivaling his teammates for the honor of representing the Spartans at one or both of the big events of the year—the Pennsylvania and the Ohio State meets.

With plenty of good material appearing for practice nightly and with promising thin-chads coming up from the ranks of the yearlings, Coach Ralph H. Young and Assistant Coach "Mort" Mason are optimistic as to State's record this year. The East Lansing men have a record to shoot at, the record made last spring, and the prospects look bright for success.

VILLAGE COMMISSION HOLDS BUSY SESSION MONDAY NIGHT

President J. W. Henderson Reappoints George W. Richwine Village Treasurer for Ensuing Year.

Village Manager Koenig Reappoints Fire and Police Chiefs and Superintendent of Public Works.

Special Attraction at Local Theatre

The management of the Penniman Allen theatre announces an attraction extraordinary, for next Saturday and Sunday evenings, April 21 and 22. The Frisco Harmonists, composed of a company of five high class artists, who have appeared in the largest and best theatres in the country, will appear here on these dates. Their program of singing, dancing and instrumental selections will be one of the best ever heard here. Besides this attraction, there will be the feature picture on Saturday night, Milton Sills in "Burning Daylight," and on Sunday night, "Rose of the Golden West." Both of these pictures are splendid, and have been highly commented on by the press.

Manager Lush is bringing the best attractions to the local playhouse that it is possible to secure, and Plymouth people are enabled to see the same high-class feature pictures that are seen at the largest theatres.

PAVING BOND ISSUE CARRIES

FOUR HUNDRED AND FORTY-SEVEN VOTED AT THE SPECIAL ELECTION HELD WEDNESDAY.

The special election held Wednesday to submit to the electors the proposition for borrowing the sum of $40,000 and issue bonds therefor, for the paving of street intersections and one-third of the cost of constructing storm sewers in connection therewith, and for paying in front of public property on several streets, brought out a total of 447 voters. Two hundred and ninety-five of this number voted yes, and 149 no; three spoiled ballots.

These 64% of the total vote was needed to carry the measure, thus the proposition received a plurality of 25. The streets upon which the paving was asked by the petitioners were: Arthur street from the north line of Penniman avenue to the south line of Blanche street; Blank avenue from the north line of Church street to the south line of Farmer street; Ann street from the north line of Williams street to the south line of Junction avenue; Harvey street from the north line of Penniman avenue to the south line of Farmer street; Adams street from the north line of Church street to the south line of Farmer street; Penniman avenue from the east line of Main street to the intersection of Ann Arbor street; Ann Arbor street from the east line of Main street to the crosswalk at the intersection of Penniman avenue.

The big vote that was recorded Wednesday, is an indication that Plymouth citizens are decidedly interested in any movement that is for the progress and betterment of Plymouth. The result of the election Wednesday is a step forward.

PLYMOUTH TO HAVE A NEW STANDARD OIL AND GAS STATION

The contract for the new station to be located on the southwest corner of South Main and Brush streets, has been given by J. M. Larkins, to Crumble & Wood, local contractors, who will begin work at once. This station will be modern to the minute in all details, and will be known as the Harry W. Miller Standard Oil station of Plymouth. Watch the Plymouth Mail for opening announcement.

Moved Store to New Location

Strahner's 5c and 10c store has moved from its former location in the Corner building on Penniman avenue, to the store just recently vacated by the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. on the same street. The store will be open for business Saturday, but the formal opening will not take place until Saturday, April 28th. Watch next week's Mail for announcement.

"All Aboard" Again Tonight

The musical comedy, "All Aboard," which was presented at the high school auditorium last night by local talent, to a capacity house, will be given again this Friday evening. The Mail goes to press too early on Thursday to give any detailed report of the entertainment, but it is pronounced by those who have seen the dress rehearsal to be one of the very best of the kind ever given in Plymouth.

If you did not see it last night, be sure and go tonight. The entertainment is under the direction of Miss Beatrice Lynch, and is under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church.

MISS RUTH HETSLER

district, presiding. The declamation contest was won by Ruth Hetsler, of Plymouth High School, with the declamation "A Vision of War," by Robert G. Ingersoll. The other contestants in declamation were Carolyn Simcock, of Belleville High School; Jay Thompson, of Northville High School; Evelyn Wright, of Dearborn High School; Alida White, of Fordson High School; Fred Allen, of Wayne High School.

The winner in oration was Franklin Atkinson, of Plymouth High school, with the oration, "Our Foreign Policy." The other members contesting were Elmore Gene Porlin, of Northville High school; Robert Green, of Belleville High school.

The judges for the contest were

SCENE ON THE GOLF LINKS OF THE PLYMOUTH COUNTRY CLUB

The Plymouth Country Club announces the informal opening of the 1928 season, at the club golf course, located six miles west of Plymouth on North Territorial road. The club has one of the finest natural courses to be found anywhere in this section of the state, being perfectly adapted to a sports course, with plenty of natural hazards, and has been highly commented on by noted golf enthusiasts. The first nine holes were completed last year, and work is to be started very soon on the second nine holes, making it an eighteen hole course when this work is completed.

The permanent greens of the present course, planted with bent grass, will be ready early in June. A water pumping system has been installed and is ready for use, with plenty of good water available. A club house will be erected upon the property in the near future, for the convenience of the members and the public. Signs directing visitors to the grounds have been put up by the club on all main roads leading to the property.

The tract of land comprises 190 acres, which, besides the golf course, includes a water-front playground that will appeal to members and their families who are looking for an ideal recreation spot amid beautiful surroundings. This course is not only open to the members, but is a public course as well, where the general public can go and enjoy the great popular game of golf at a nominal fee.

The Plymouth Country Club will, without a doubt, prove an added attraction to many who may wish to establish a home in Plymouth, and who desire this form of recreation. The club is composed practically of Plymouth residents, who own and control the property. The officers are as follows:

President and Manager—Dr. E. E. Champe

Vice-President—J. A. Kaiser
Secretary—Irwin T. Pierce
Treasurer—R. A. Fisher

These officers, with the following, compose the board of directors: C. A. Fisher, Dr. F. B. Hoyer, Wm. Petz, Ralph McNaughton and Paul J. Wiedeman.

The officials of the club extend a most cordial invitation to those interested in golf and the general public as well, to visit the golf course at any time. The course is located back a short distance from the highway, but a large sign at the entrance points the way.

The village commission met in regular session Monday evening, and transacted considerable business. A petition signed by a large number of the residents of Ann Arbor street, protesting the recent re-naming of that street to University Way West and University Way East, was received by the commission. Quite a number of the residents were present to lend their support to the petition, and several spoke in its behalf. The commission disposed of the matter by rescinding its former resolution changing the name of the street, and granted the request of the petitioners, that the street retain its old name of Ann Arbor street.

A copy of a resolution adopted by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, asking that the commission reconsider the new water rates recently adopted by the village. A motion was made and carried that the president appoint a committee to act in an advisory capacity and make recommendations relative to a revision of the water rates.

President Henderson appointed George W. Richwine as village treasurer for the ensuing year. The appointment was confirmed by the commission. Mr. Richwine has served as village treasurer for the past eight years, and has proved himself an efficient and obliging official and his re-appointment will meet with the general approval of our citizens.

Village Manager Koenig made the following appointments, which were also confirmed by the commission:

Chief of Fire Department—Fred Wagenschutz
Chief of Police—George W. Springer
Supt. Public Works—William Redeman

All of the above appointments will meet with general approval, as all three officials have served in the capacities for which they have just been re-appointed, faithfully and efficiently.

The village manager announced that a communication had been received from the contractor for the Penniman avenue paving, stating that work on that street would be started next Monday, weather permitting.

Herman Eichler Passes Away

Herman Eichler, for many years a highly respected resident of this village and vicinity, passed away at the Ford hospital, Detroit, where he had undergone an operation, Saturday, April 14th, at the age of 77 years, 8 months and 14 days. The deceased was born in Germany, July 27th, 1850. He came to this country in 1888, and settled in Detroit, later coming to Plymouth where he was engaged in farming until 1910, when he and his wife moved to the village. Mrs. Eichler passed away two years ago. Mr. Eichler was a man of sterling worth and character, and had many friends.

He is survived by two sons, Roy Gustave Eichler of Anamoose, North Dakota, and Herman Eichler of Detroit, and one daughter, Mrs. C. A. Miller of Detroit. He also leaves ten grandchildren and four great grandchildren; one brother and one sister in Germany.

Funeral services were held from the home Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. Bredy, pastor of the Second German Baptist church of Detroit, officiating. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. William Bake entertained the Wednesday Bridge Club this week.

Mrs. Donzetta Smith has returned home from St. Petersburg, Florida, where she has been spending the winter.

AN EXPENSIVE PEST.
 It is pretty hard to realize that common, ordinary house rats destroyed $200,000,000 worth of property in the United States last year. Yet this is the statement the government is sending out, and it has no reason for magnifying the destruction. In this new and interesting bulletin, dealing with a pest that every Plymouth citizen is familiar with, it is pointed out that the rat is not only a deadly enemy of mankind but he is one of the most costly, when his destruction is measured in dollars and cents.

Rats kill and destroy far more than they eat; they increase fire hazards by carrying matches to their nests and chewing them until they burst into flame, and they carry fleas which are often loaded with disease germs, thus starting epidemics which sweep entire communities. They multiply rapidly and quickly overrun any place in which they are allowed to gain a foothold. Last year, it is stated, the loss in corn alone consumed by rats reached a total of $7,000,000.

While the government is glad to furnish advice on getting rid of these pests, the suggestion is offered that school pupils be encouraged to hold rat-killing contests, with prizes offered by local merchants to those bringing in the greatest number of dead rats. It has been worked in scores of communities with good effect, according to the bulletin; and on second thought it might not be a bad idea to try it out in the rural school districts of this community.

STICKING TO IT
 Plymouth citizens will be interested in an announcement by the Department of Agriculture that while 604,000 persons moved away from farms to towns and cities in 1927, that was 230,000 less than moved off the farms in 1926. The movement has released a vast army for industrial labor, while the farms have not suffered because motor-driven machinery has replaced them and prevented a labor shortage.
 The decrease also indicates that those who stick to farming are becoming better satisfied; they are doing more work with less help and should, therefore, find the financial returns slowly growing better. There is no longer heard in this country the old "back-to-the-farm" cry. Those who succeed far outnumber those who fail, and when that is the rule, in farming or in any other business, there is no cause for alarm.

AN OPTIMIST GONE
 No man has for the past fifty years been more familiar to the American people than Chauncey M. Depew, and the death of few prominent men could have created as widespread sorrow. It is due to the fact that Chauncey M. Depew spent the latter years of his life in preaching optimism; in arguing that there are more good people than bad ones in the world; in asserting that the world is growing better instead of worse; in proclaiming that we have the greatest of all nations and that we should show our appreciation of it by working to improve our own condition and the condition of our neighbors. He uttered messages of cheer, and newspapers carried them to the millions. Chauncey M. Depew's death comes at the age of 93. No man ever crowded any more helpfulness to others into the years allotted him.

EVER TRY THIS?
 Just what to do with household articles she no longer has use for is a worry to more than one Plymouth woman now engaged in the annual task of house-cleaning. We know house-cleaning is a big job, and we are anxious to make it as light as possible. For that reason we again want to offer a hint that many have taken advantage of in the past, and solved their problems. Someone would be glad to have the old stove, chairs, bed or floor-covering you are discarding for something new. And they would be glad to pay a fair price for it. But without knowing what you have, how are they going to bring about an exchange? A few cents—much less than you would think—will tell everybody for miles around just what you have to dispose of, when those few cents are spent for a little reading notice in these columns. In that way you get actual cash for what you don't want, and someone else gets what they do want at a bargain.

 Drop in and let us explain how this kind of house-cleaning problems can be solved at little cost.

GETTING TUNED UP.
 The old custom of taking a "spring tonic" is neither due to superstition nor habit. Ask your family physician and he will explain that along about this time of year one's blood commences to thin, and the return to warm temperatures bring on muscle changes that we often attribute to laziness, and refer to as "spring fever." The doctor will tell you it is natural, and while not serious should have attention. Especially is this true among those of mature years.

The market is flooded with "spring tonics" and many of them do what their makers claim for them; but old nature hasn't been a sleep on the job.
 She has furnished a few that man has never been able to excel. Along about this time of year months water for "a mess of greens." That is one of nature's spring tonics—greens and all the early garden truck you can get hold of. Sulphur and molasses serves the same purpose in the juvenile world; sassafras tea meets the requirement in many localities;
 but nothing takes the place of greens two or three times a week, and sauerkraut is recommended as being fully as efficacious.

"That tired feeling" and "spring fever" are common complaints among Plymouth citizens just now; and the spring tonic is in order. Everyone must do his own prescribing, of course, or leave it to his own family doctor; but nothing can beat nature's own remedy—and nothing is easier to obtain than "a good mess of greens."

MUNICIPAL NOTES

Spring street cleaning upon uptown and principal paved streets was the order of the day last Friday. A total of thirty cubic yards of dirt was removed as a result of this initial effort.

Engineers and contractors expect to begin paving operations upon Penn-man avenue the coming Saturday.
 Excavating will undoubtedly be in progress next week.

Persons living near the improvement and desiring good dirt may secure same by calling the village manager.

Kellogg park and Central park were raked last Saturday, improving their appearance considerably. However, papers were blowing across Kellogg park as usual Monday morning.

Traffic lines were placed across Main street in front of the village hall to facilitate regulation of traffic at this point by the Boy Scouts.

Many demands are being made for the filling of holes and the grading of unimproved streets. Our grader has been kept very busy the past ten days trying to keep these streets in passable condition.

A contract was awarded by the commissioners Monday evening to C.
 W. Grainger for the remodeling of the second floor of the village hall, to fit it as a commission chamber and municipal courtroom, as well as for other public gatherings. Remodeling is expected to be completed by May 15th.

Campfire Girls

Were Entertained
 Under the able leadership of Mrs.
 Cassidy, with the assistance of Mrs.
 Moon and Mrs. Whipple, the Girl Reserves and the Campfire Girls were delightfully entertained in the Crystal dining room of the Hotel Mayflower Friday evening last. A group of Romanian ladies and girls came out from Detroit. They were charming in their native costumes and they entertained the audience with a representation of how they spend their evenings in Romania.

Janet Blickenstaff, in her Campfire costume, gave a resume of the Campfire organization, and Joy McNabb reviewed the aims and aspirations of the Girl Reserves. Doris Whipple and Velma Patz were very attractive in an Irish dance. A group of ladies under the leadership of Mrs. Wilson, then delighted the audience with a song,
 "Winken, Blinken and Nod." Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

This entertainment was given for these organizations by the Woman's club.

THOUSANDS SEEK AID OF NEW MIRACLE MAN

Sleepy Mexican Hamlet Suddenly Becomes Famous.

Monterey, Mexico.—From a sleepy, obscure hamlet of less than 200 people, Espinazo, far removed from a railroad, on the border line of the states of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila, has suddenly sprung into national fame. More than 10,000 people are living in tents and camping in the open around the town, all drawn there by the mysterious performances of Nino Fidencio, who is looked upon as a miraculous healer of all ailments of body and mind.

The excitement over his so-called divine power in the treatment of diseases has not only spread to all parts of northeastern Mexico but it has penetrated the Rio Grande border district of Texas. Pilgrims by the thousands arrive daily in all sorts of conveyances and on foot at this strange Mecca where they clamor to gain an audience with the lowly peon Fidencio, that he may relieve them of their physical or mental burdens and sufferings.

Rich, Poor Seek Aid.

Rich and poor seek his aid. It is not unusual for whole families to wend their way to Espinazo in slow-moving ox carts, and swiftly passing them along the rough, worn road are men, women, and children in limousines and other high-priced automobiles, some of them coming from Monterey and other of the larger and more distant cities of the country. So large has the crowd become and with hundreds augmenting it daily that President Plutarco Elias Calles has been appealed to take cognizance of the situation with a view of remedying perilous health conditions that the thousands of afflicted people who have gathered in Espinazo have brought about.

Gov. Aaron Saenz of Nuevo Leon and Gen. J. A. Almazan, commander of the military zone of that part of Mexico, have gone to the town and conferred with Fidencio with regard to the situation. It is declared that an epidemic of contagious diseases of various kinds is threatened among the pilgrims. Several hundred lepers are reported to be among the afflicted persons who have sought relief at the hands of Fidencio. Many smallpox cases have been carried into his presence. The death roll among the faithful believers of the healer's power has been so great that a cemetery was laid out in the town recently, and it is already filled with the dead.

Branded as Charlatan.

Comparatively little seems to be known about Nino Fidencio. He is thirty years old and first made his appearance in the little ranch village about three months ago. Among the employees of the ranch were several who were afflicted with paralysis, blindness, and other chronic disorders. Fidencio called these sufferers together and informed them that he would cure them of their ailments. At this seance he went through the performance of boiling various kinds of wild herbs in a great cauldron and then, while he chanted in a mysterious way, he threw a handful of the brew upon the patients, telling them that they were healed. Strange to say, they were apparently cured of their diseases. The news of his apparently miraculous power spread quickly and he became the center of interest of the people for miles around.

The public health department of Mexico has pronounced him a charlatan, but the government authorities hesitate to prohibit him from carrying on his healing practices for fear that to do so would cause an uprising on the part of the thousands who believe in him. To keep order in the town a large force of federal troops is now located there.

Spinster Wills $650,000 to Her Chauffeur

Pottsville, Pa.—The will of a fifty-five-year-old spinster, filed here for probate, left an estate of more than $650,000 to her forty-year-old chauffeur and lifelong friend, James F. Currens, who is the only beneficiary under the will of Miss Ermina C. Elsler, who died recently, also is sole trustee of the fortune.

Currens had been in Miss Elsler's employ for many years.

47 Generations Rest in His Family Tombs

Ada-Bazar, Turkey.—Itehid Safet Bey, deputy to the national assembly, claims that he has the largest collection of ancestors in the world. In two mansoleums, one at Siras and one at Ada-Bazar, he can put his hands on the caskets of his forebears in an unbroken line of 47 generations.

The family of Safet Bey was started in Turkey when one of his forebears migrated into Anurolia from Turkestan 450 years before the Turks, who were to found the Ottoman empire, swept in under the leadership of Orhan. Before they joined with the Ottoman lords, the ancestors of Safet Bey fought against them side by side with the crusaders.

Each generation has produced a writer worthy of mention in histories of Turkish literature.

The HOME of your Dreams

Dear old Pal, how I miss you; I'm lonely tonight;
Dear old Pal, just to kiss you would make things seem right,
For the sweetest of memories come back to me;
I'm longing to hold you again tenderly.
Every star in the night brings your message of love,
And its far shining light tells me you're up above.
I hear you calling to me now, it seems;
Oh, how I miss you, Pal of my dreams.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

THREE THINGS

Gabriel Wells had a Christmas card in which he says that there are three things that constitute a rounded out life: Power, Pleasure and Peace.

The more we think of it the more this seems to be a very good definition. There is not much satisfaction in a life of no power. What gives zest to sport is the employment of our powers and we all applaud the victor, that is, the man who shows the most power. This includes both mentality or mental action and skill.

As for pleasure, they have learned a great lesson who have found out the abiding pleasures of life are those that come from serving others. The pleasures that we experience in merely receiving gifts of benefits, merely enjoying things that are our own, the pleasures of possession and amusement are temporary and they fade.

But one who devotes his life to bringing joy into the lives of others has an unending source of satisfaction. Peace comes from the firm establishment or connection of life with certain fixed principles. There are some things which, when we have decided upon them, we lay on the shelf. They are not to be reopened. One who is continually arguing the fundamentals is always in hot water and unsatisfied.

That is the advantage of a belief in God. It is something fixed and settled, a central sun about which all of our other thoughts and opinions may revolve. Of course the belief in God does not imply any congeries of fantastic connotations. One's belief in God may take many forms, but it must have a central core of repose. A life without inner repose is constantly buffeted to and fro by contrary passions.

One who has power sufficient to enjoy his ability to overcome obstacles who takes pleasure in giving pleasure to others, and who has inner repose enough to keep him content in the center of his being, can be truly said to live a somewhat complete life.

GIBRALTAR STRAIT BALKS SWIMMERS

Channel Conquerors Find Going Too Rough.

Washington.—The channel swimming fad has struck a snag—at Gibraltar.

The English channel and the Catalina channel, off California, have been traversed, and Manhattan island has been "circumnavigated." Yet the Strait of Gibraltar, less than a dozen miles across, has defied swimmers.

Gibraltar, contrary to popular belief, is not Europe's nearest point to Africa, the National Geographic society points out. It is eight miles north of the nearest crossing. The fortified rock and town occupy a peninsula about six miles across the Bay of Algeciras from the neck of land on whose tip nestles the sleepy town of Tarifa.

Tunnel Is Proposed.

Frequent ferries ply between Gibraltar and Tangier, diagonally across the strait. They will continue to link the continents until a tunnel is bored under the strait. One has been proposed and the estimated cost of such a project is some $80,000,000. Such a tunnel would afford Spanish railroad connections with the new line from Fez to Tangier. One thousand sleeping cars, reverse the crossing that hitherto made with elephants.

Travelers who complain of the English channel crossing would have even rougher going on the French steamers between southern France and Tangier. An entering surface current from the Atlantic chafes against a strong undercurrent flowing out from the Mediterranean, to the discomfort of passengers and defeat, so far, of swimmers.

From Gibraltar, on clear days, one can see Sierra Bullones, the "Gibraltar" of the African side. These promontories were the pillars of Hercules of the ancients.

A ferry passenger at Gibraltar soon gets a clear view of the 400-foot rock which for two centuries, has been England's Mediterranean sentinel. Across the gulf the tiny white houses of Algeciras dot the shore. Then, as the boat swings out into the strait, ruined Moorish castles and the houses of Tarifa, flanked by vast orange groves, appear. To the south rise African peaks where Barbary pirates signaled for attacks upon ships as they sought to enter or emerge from the Mediterranean.

World's Ships Pass Here.

The ferry is a good place to get a panorama of the flags of the world; for there is a procession of ships constantly passing this "neck of the bottle" which focuses the shipping of the Western world, of the inland sea's own busy ports and the numerous trans-Mediterranean cargoes which pass both the strait and the Suez canal.

Tangier, southern landing place for the ferry, reveals a new world after a brief trip. Lofly minarets flank huge domed mosques, silently proclaiming that the city still is Moslem, while its narrow streets, often sheltered so that the blazing sun finds only a slit, are crowded with turbaned Moors whose long, white burnouses drape their stalwart bodies from head to heel.

Semaphore With "Ears" Success For Autoists

Baltimore, Md.—A traffic semaphore with "ears" has been pronounced a success by Inspector George E. Lutz, head of the city's traffic police, after a test in actual traffic recently.

Installed at the corner of Falls road and Belvedere avenue, the signal in normal position shows a green light to traffic on Fall road, a through highway. A motorist wishing to cross the main highway stops at a line in the road ten feet from the intersection and sounds his horn. Microphones tuned to pick up the sound from this spot reverse the signal for 18 seconds to allow him to pass.

The purpose is to avoid the delays caused by automatic lights at times when there is no traffic on a cross street. The new signal was invented by Charles Adler, Jr., a Baltimore electrical engineer.

Bans Heroic Records on Soldiers' Graves

Washington.—Headstones marking the graves of members of the American expeditionary force who died in France. Secretary Davis of the War department has ruled, shall be marked in such a manner as to accord equal honor to all. Suggestions for including such inscriptions as "killed in action" or "died of wounds" have been rejected by the secretary and all headstones will bear only the name, rank, organization and date of death. "The thought must not be overlooked," the secretary said in his ruling, "that all of our men went overseas with the same cause in their hearts, willing to give their lives. Whether they died in the front lines or from disease, caused by exposure, they made the sacrifice for the preservation of one and the same ideal and should be accorded equal honor."

Will Hold Annual Achievement Day

Friday, April 27th, is the annual achievement day for women of Wayne county, who have been studying the Home Economics extension courses offered by M. S. C. The women throughout the county are invited to Plymouth, visit the Better Home and to attend the programs to be held at the Starkweather school.

The meeting will open at 11:00, when a business meeting will be held at the school. Mrs. Louise Campbell, state home demonstration leader, will give a short talk on the meaning of the Better Home. Dinner will be served by the Baptist ladies at noon, and music by the Plymouth High School orchestra will be enjoyed at that time.

The afternoon program will be resumed at the Starkweather school at 1:30. Special music for the home will be a part of the afternoon session. Wm. A. Barras, educational director of reading, from the Detroit library, will give an interesting talk on books for the home.

This is an open meeting for anyone who may wish to attend.

WATERFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bechtel have returned to their home in Waterford for the summer, having spent the winter in Hastings.

Mrs. Elmer Perkins has been confined to her bed for the last few days.

The Genesis class will meet with Corone Dunbar this week Friday evening at the corner of Lake street and Noel avenue, in Northville.

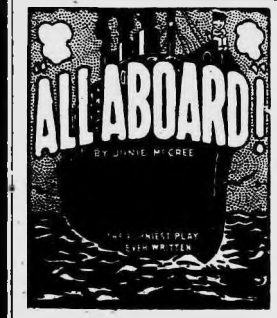

Joseph Gallie and family have moved into one of W. H. McKerreghan's houses. Mr. Gallie is employed on the Greenman farm.

Dear Friends:

The boss has just handed me a big contract today. He says he wants me to write an ad about his line of ornamental vanity cases—little powder and perfume containers for the ladies.

I'm kind o' helpless when it comes to describing those things. About all I can think of to say is that they are beautiful and I have an idea that any lady would love to have one.

The best way is to come in and see them yourself. I know this isn't the way to write an ad, but I don't know a blamed thing about these vanity cases.

TICK.

Maybe you know of some "Sweet Girl Graduate" who would appreciate one of them.

Kiwanians Had Enjoyable Time

LOCAL KIWANIS CLUB GUESTS OF CAPT. DENNISTON AT DEHOCO FARM

Captain Edward J. Denniston, warden of the Detroit House of Correction, entertained the entire Plymouth Kiwanis Club at a luncheon at the institution's farm near Plymouth last Tuesday.

The affair was largely attended, and was marked by the club's presentation of a handsome clock to the captain; two solos, without accompaniment, by Rotarian Dick Valentine; a splendid paper on "The Rules of the Game" by Oliver Goldsmith; a short address by Mr. Koenig, newly appointed village manager, and the initiation ceremonies of Kiwanis' newest member, Stephen Wall, head guard at the penal institution.

Before the luncheon was served, a hand ball game was indulged in between the Reds and Blues. When the latter were defeated by a score of 17 to 8.

Don't forget "All Aboard," at the High School auditorium, tonight, Friday, April 20th.

STARKWEATHER P. T. A. HOLD ENJOYABLE MEETING.

Around eighty members and friends of the Starkweather Parent-Teacher association met in the auditorium of the school on Wednesday evening last, where a very fine program was given. Mrs. Ralph West, president of the association, called the meeting to order.

A banner made and donated by Mrs. Otto Beyer was presented to the people. Miss Stader, second grade teacher, assisted in the lettering for the banner, which was very well done. The banner is given to the room for a month which has the largest attendance at the P. T. A. representing the room. At this meeting Miss Dalton's room, the fourth grade had the highest percentage of attendance. The children will certainly be proud to possess this beautiful banner for a month, and no doubt the children will urge their parents and friends to come to the May meeting.

The following interesting program was given:

Duet by Helen and Joseph Ribar. Solo by Mr. Stewart. Talk by Superintendent Leonard of Farmington schools on "When Dad Visits School."

Phono solo by Mrs. Honey. Superintendent Leonard's talk was from the viewpoint of both parent and teacher. His main thoughts what did expect from the school were:

- 1. Health of the boys and girls will be guarded.
2. Fundamental processes of education will be mastered.
3. An attitude to want to earn a living.
4. Taught to be good citizens.
5. To lead boys and girls to use their spare time efficiently.
6. Efficient home membership.
7. Build up the character of a child.

Parents should also assume responsibilities, namely:

- 1. Getting the child to school on time in a proper condition.
2. See that the child gets plenty of sleep.
3. Parent gets acquainted with the teacher.

4. Treat teacher as an expert in his or her profession.

Mrs. Ralph West and Mrs. D. F. Murray are chairmen of the May program and are going to put on a music appreciation program which will be very interesting.

All present gave Superintendent Leonard a rising vote of thanks for coming and are looking forward to similar enjoyable meetings.

Hints for the Home

by Nancy Hart

Don't Miss This!!

When brewing tea, put a lump of sugar in the teapot. Then if the tea is spilled on table, it won't stain the cloth.

Egless, Milkless, Butterless Cake
Boil one cup brown sugar with 2 1/2 cups water, 1 cup seeded raisins, 2 ounces sliced citron, 1/3 cup lard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, and 1 teaspoon nutmeg about 3 minutes.

Cool, add 2 cups flour sifted with 5 teaspoons baking powder and beat well. Bake in a greased loaf pan in moderate oven about 45 minutes. Cover with white frosting.

How To Boil Cracked Eggs
You can cook cracked eggs without losing any of their whites if you add a teaspoon of salt to the water in which you boil them.

A Prize Winner
Real money was paid for this helpful hint: "A good way to know that you are at the bottom of your cellar steps is to paint the last step white." Clever, isn't it?

Keeps Vegetables Green When Cooking
A lump of sugar added when boiling green vegetables helps them to retain their color and is just as effective as the use of soda.

To Keep Fruit
In keeping fruit, let it be spread out in a light, airy place, no two pieces touching. If piled together, or if stored in a damp, dark place, it will decompose quickly.

To Clean Grimy Furniture
Dirt and spots that have become firmly fixed on polished or painted furniture yield easily when rubbed with a cloth wrung out of warm (not hot) water and soaped well with yellow naphtha soap. Dry quickly, rub with soft flannel—and see how clean and new the furniture looks.

Removes Scorch Stains
In most cases scorched spots will disappear from the cloth if the spot is rubbed with fresh bread crumbs.

To Brighten and Protect Rugs
To bring out the color of rugs and carpets, brush them up with a mixture of a cup of vinegar to a gallon of water.

For general sweeping, dry salt scattered on the carpet also helps to preserve colors and to check the ravages of moths.

A Little Excursion in Love

By WILLIAM WINSTON

(Copyright 1928)

WILLIAM CHANDOS and Evelyn Banks were about the same age, their families were of the same social station and the bank accounts of their respective fathers were of about the same caliber. Evelyn and William both played golf and tennis and in youth had attended the same Sunday school. A marriage between them seemed the most natural and suitable thing in the world. The young couple were never quite sure whether they arranged the match themselves or it had been arranged by their parents. William, upon thinking the matter over, distinctly recollected having proposed and being accepted, but just how it came about was rather a puzzle to him.

Evelyn was in the same state of mind. She remembered that William had one night asked her to be his wife and that she had agreed.

Then one day Evelyn woke up. A short time afterwards William woke up. And their awakenings caused each of them considerable consternation. Evelyn had seen the "one man" and William had met the "one woman." Evelyn's "one man" was a bustling young fellow, Philip Van Zandt, who had come to the small town on some business mission. William's "one woman" was a young lady from New York, Anna Pearsol, who was visiting an aunt. The aunt, proud of her handsome niece, had given teas and card parties for her, and Evelyn, William and Van Zandt had, of course, been there.

As soon as William cast his eyes upon Miss Pearsol his heart began to flutter. And when he was introduced and she spoke to him it fluttered again.

And when Evelyn cast her eyes upon Philip she felt that he was the most glorious Apollo she had ever seen. His manners were as perfect as his clothes; and he could talk on any subject, had been everywhere and knew any number of celebrities.

William, of course, saw the impression which Philip Van Zandt made upon Evelyn and Evelyn saw the impression which Miss Anna Pearsol made upon William. "What he can see in her I am sure I don't know," said Evelyn to herself, "but I am glad he does see it, whatever it is. It will make things easier, perhaps. Oh, why did we ever become engaged! And how can the engagement be broken without great rows and a social scandal? But it must be. Fancy my settling down for life to the humdrum existence which William and I would live together." And William thought, "It can't be possible that Evelyn sees anything in that four-flusher Van Zandt. No, I think she is just pretending to take an interest in him to plague me. Poor girl, I know it is going to break her heart, but I see now that we could never live together in content. I should always be longing for a larger vision, a wider horizon than Evelyn could comprehend."

William did not cease calling upon Evelyn—outwardly they still maintained the appearance of an engaged couple. But each felt uneasy in the other's presence. Each had a guilty feeling. When a girl is preparing to throw over the man to whom she is engaged she generally does have a guilty feeling. So does a man when he is about to throw over a girl. Matters must come to a crisis soon. But each was loath to begin the painful operation.

At last Evelyn mustered up all her courage and one evening, as they sat together in her paternal parlor moodily trying to make conversation, she said: "William, I have noticed that you are very much interested in that young lady from New York, Miss Pearsol, who is visiting her aunt here. Perhaps—you know we neither of us have seen very many people outside of our own little town here—perhaps we were rash to become engaged before we had seen more of the world."

"Perhaps so," replied William, frowning up. "But as for my being stuck on Miss Pearsol, I notice that you seem mightily taken up with that Van Zandt fellow. We'll break off the engagement if you say so; but for heaven's sake don't go and throw yourself away on that fellow."

"Very well, we'll break off the engagement then," said Evelyn, "but let me warn you that that Pearsol girl is a mix-up if there ever was one," snapped Evelyn. "If you don't promise me that you will have no more to do with her I won't let you off from your engagement."

"And if you don't promise me that you will have nothing more to do with that Van Zandt fellow I won't let you off, either," said William.

The fact was that each was intensely jealous, as lovers ought to be. The wanderings of their affections had been only little temporary excursions, induced by the novelty of new personalities. They had never loved each other as fervently as they did at that moment. If they hadn't loved each other they would not have been so jealous. Instead of breaking their engagement they had simply got into a lover's quarrel.

Into the parlor came bustling Evelyn's mother. "Oh children," cried she, "have you heard the news? Philip Van Zandt and Anna Pearsol were quietly married last night at the Methodist parsonage."

"He's welcome to her," said William. "She's welcome to him," said Evelyn.

Dies Trying To Save Dog.
Lowell, Mass.—Harold Preble, thirteen, of Forge Village, a suburb, loved his pet collie dog even unto death. Young Preble sank in a mud hole and was suffocated in attempting to rescue the animal. Kenneth, fifteen, tried to save the younger boy but himself had to be rescued by a passerby.

Enameled Pans
Enameled pans can be cleaned by scouring with crushed eggshells and soapy water.

To Remove Mud Stains
When the fabric has been splashed with mud, allow the spots to dry thoroughly, then brush off as much mud as possible. Cover with a mixture of salt and flour and keep in a warm place for a day or so. Shake and brush carefully.

400 EXTRA DRY

SHELL GASOLINE

SNAPPIER
MORE LIVELY

At the price of ordinary gasoline

Keep a record—watch your expenses—make comparisons—see for yourself how much LESS it costs to run your car on 400 "Extra Dry" than any other gasoline that sells at the regular price.

Full mileage from every gallon. Yes—and that's only one of the many good results you may expect from this superior gasoline. Instant starting in any weather—swift getaway when the green light flashes—acceleration that thrills and exhilarates—and in addition to all this, a cleaner, sweeter-running motor with less expense for valve grinding and general overhauling.

The reason is plain—Shell Gasoline is refined by a revolutionary process that takes only the most volatile elements from the crude. It is extra dry, which means it is ALL gasoline. Every drop vaporizes—every particle is converted into power—there are no impurities or greasy particles to clog up the spark plugs, pass the pistons unburned and dilute the oil in the crankcase.

Treat your car to this better gasoline. You will find it on sale at all Shell yellow-red service stations and Shell Dealers at the regular price—not one cent extra for its extra quality, or the extra service it will give you.

The Mayflower hotel dining room was attractively decorated with flowers, lattice work and garden tools, which were loaned for the occasion by E. O. Huston.

R. F. Valentine sang "A Winter's Song" and "Blush Rose." He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Czarna Penney. A double quartet, consisting of members of the club and directed by Mrs. Pearl Joffe Wilson, sang "Winken, Blinken and Nod," accompanied by Margaret Wood and Czarna Penney.

The Arche Club, Women's Literary club and the Conservation and Improvement Circle of Wayne were guests of the club.

E. E. Gunther, Michigan's most eminent and outstanding landscape gardener, addressed the club on "How You Can Make Your Town More Beautiful."

"Beautification of a City," said Mr. Gunther, "is a question of good engineering, architecture and landscaping, of which the last plays a very important part. American cities have more conveniences than the European cities, but are lacking in outside beauty, although interest in gardens and landscaping is greatly increasing in this country. The trouble with the American people is that they race through the country at the rate of 60 miles an hour and do not see the beauties of nature which are passing before their eyes."

"The gardens of the fourteenth century were very formal and hedges were used extensively, which were kept well trimmed. The Italians emphasized the element of space. Flowers were banished from the English gardens of the eighteenth century and occupied a space by themselves.

"One of the big items of gardening is work, which should be eliminated as much as possible. Lawns that are not cluttered with all kinds of little plants are the most attractive and are more easy to take care of. Trees are suitable for street planting but most of our trees are planted too close together and thereby lose much of their beauty. Firms are very effective when used for framing the corner of a house. Trees and shrubs can be arranged in very picturesque and attractive ways without trimming. Gates and walks should form a part of the garden picture. Paths that are straight are more majestic than are winding lanes. Garden seats should not be too crude. Substantial stone benches should be used. Garden houses should be put where space is available. These should be screened in so that one can sit in them and enjoy the plant and insect life which surrounds one. Gardens on different levels have a quaint charm. These can be arranged in terraces with stone steps leading from one level to the other.

"Rock gardens are very much admired but are quite difficult to manage. The stones must be so placed that they give the effect of having been there for years. Mossy stones are very helpful for this. The rocks can be arranged on different levels but they should have the proper location. The side of a natural bank is the most practical place. Flowers can be planted between the rocks and should be arranged in a natural position. Sometimes broken pieces of sidewalk with the rough side facing outward can be arranged very well."

Mr. Gunther went on to explain how many of our wild flowers, which have very beautiful foliage even when they have ceased blooming, can be planted under trees and in shady places and thereby cover the bare spots of earth on which grass refuses to grow.

His talk was illustrated with lantern slides, some of which were very beautifully colored. Others showed the right and wrong ways of arranging and planting a garden.

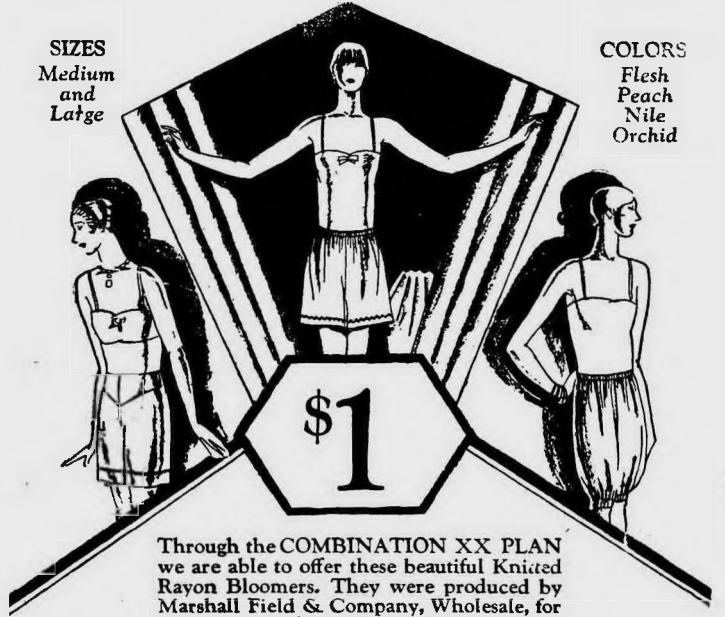

The annual election of officers of the club for 1928-29 will take place on Friday, April 20th.

NEW FEATURE GREAT SUCCESS

NEW TRANSMISSION MAKES CARS GO FAST AS ENGINES GO SLOW.

GRAHAM-PAIGE FOUR-SPEED GEAR BOX BRINGS IMPROVED PERFORMANCE, COMFORT, DRIVING EASE AND ECONOMY.

By Louis Thoms, Chief Engineer Graham-Paige Motors Corporation.

General interest in the first passenger cars to bear the name of the three Graham brothers has been so keen that but little emphasis has been placed on one of the most significant features of the Graham-Paige announcement—that is, that the modern type four-speed transmission, providing superior pick-up and climbing ability, smoother running at high speeds, ease of operation, and improved fuel economy, has been adopted for use on three series of six-cylinder cars as well as the eight.

For years it has been the ideal of engineers to build automobiles capable of high road speed at low engine speed without sacrificing rapid pick-up and hill-climbing ability. However, these two performance characteristics are directly opposed, for a high gear ratio necessary to hold down the engine speed, decreases accelerating and climbing ability, while a low gear ratio, for good pick-up and hill-climbing, requires excessive engine speed for fast travel, with its evils of noise and vibration.

Solving Engine-speed Problem.
The Graham-Paige solution of the problem is a high-geared rear axle, insuring low engine speed at high road speeds, with a quiet and efficient internal-gear third speed that provides brilliant acceleration and hill-climbing ability.

The action of a car with the improved four-speed transmission is quite new. In third, it has increased pulling power ordinarily obtained by the use of second; yet this third gear is capable of driving the car at 50 or 55 miles an hour, and does so without the usual gear noises.

In direct drive, with a rear axle ratio of 3.64 to 1, engine speed is 25 per cent lower than in cars of average gear ratio. At 60 miles an hour the engine of the Graham-Paige revolves no faster than in a three-speed car at 45 miles an hour. At this comparatively low engine speed engine noise is minimized, and there is not the roaring or the vibration of engine and drive shaft, that results from very high engine speeds.

The improved four-speed transmission is not an experiment. It was used during the last year in a previous eight-cylinder Paige model, where its advantages were found to be so great that it was adopted for four series of the new Graham-Paige cars. It now becomes available to the many motorists whose purchases are made in the medium price class.

Standard Gear Shift Used.
The Graham-Paige four-speed transmission is controlled exactly as is the usual three-speed transmission, for the standard shift, as used in virtually all American cars, is employed. This desirable feature is possible because the lowest gear of the four speeds is used only for extremely hard pulls in mud or sand, or on grades of extraordinary steepness.

The car is regularly started in second gear, and shifted through third into fourth (direct drive), and these three gears are engaged by moving the lever in exactly the same manner as in going from first to second to high in three-speed gear boxes.

The driver of a standard shift car, in fact, would drive a Graham-Paige correctly even if he were not aware that it had a four-speed transmission.

Most hills are taken by the Graham-Paige in fourth gear, but no driver will delay shifting to third whenever it is advisable, as he can have no uncertainty about making the shift positively and silently. Changing from fourth to third, in fact, does not require any study; anyone can do it on the first attempt even at very fast road speed. This ease of changing gears permits a driver to take full advantage of a run for a steep hill, continuing in high until a shift is seen to be advisable, and then shift at 45 miles per hour or faster; he need not wait until the car has lost speed in order to make his change to third. New Gearing is 98 Per Cent Efficient.

It is the superior efficiency of the internal gearing that enables it to do what it does. This form of gearing delivers power to the drive shaft with a loss not over two per cent, while with external spur gearing the loss is from five to twenty per cent. Drivers who have felt the heat from a transmission after a long climb in second gear realize that much power is wasted in the gears. The quiet operation of the three-speed internal gear drive is a direct index of its efficiency. Drivers habitually impose undue loads on their cars in high gear to avoid a climb in intermediate, because of its noise. With the quiet third gear of the Graham-Paige they will no longer have any reason for remaining in high when a change would be advantageous. Third speed, being capable of driving the car 50 to 55 miles an hour on the level, will take it up steep hills faster than high gear, and without either overloading the engine or racing it too fast.

Economy in operation, not only in fuel and oil consumption, but in general maintenance and increased resale value, is an important advantage of the four-speed transmission.

Economy in Low Engine Speeds.
It is an easily demonstrated fact that, mile for mile, the car with the four speeds and high-gear axle is bound to use less gasoline and lubricating oil, and to deteriorate less rapidly, for the simple reason that its engine, transmission and drive shaft make 25 per cent fewer revolutions than these parts do in the three-speed car of average gear ratio. Moreover, the saving in wear is actually much greater than 25 per cent, because an engine that runs at a low speed is in better condition after any number of revolutions than it would be if it made just as many revolutions at high speed.

At the end of 10,000 miles the four-speed car's engine has made only as many revolutions as the three-speed car's engine has at 7,500 miles—and every motorist knows that the last thousands of miles are the hardest and the most costly.

A G High School To Judge at State Meet

THE WINNERS WILL REPRESENT MICHIGAN LATER IN YEAR AT NATIONAL STOCK SHOW.

Students enrolled in agriculture in the Smith-Hughes high schools in Michigan will make their annual pilgrimage to Michigan State College on May 3 and 4 for the contests held during Junior Farmers Week.

The 166 high schools which teach agriculture sent 1042 of their pupils to East Lansing last year. The boys, this year, will compete in grain and livestock judging, participate in a public speaking contest, and be guests at a banquet and a varsity baseball game.

Speakers on the banquet program will be R. S. Shaw, acting president of Michigan State; W. H. Pearce, state superintendent of public instruction; E. E. Gallup, state director of vocational agricultural training, and Harry Kipke, football coach at the college.

The Reo Motor company will be hosts to the junior farmers and will throw their plant open for the inspection of the boys on Friday, May 4.

The winners in the dairy cattle judging will represent Michigan this year at the National Dairy Show, and the premier livestock judges will represent the state at the Royal Livestock Show held in Kansas City.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says the reason some fellows don't get a smaller size hat is that they don't know the world is laughing at them instead of with them.

What has become of the pessimist who used to start worrying about this time of year for fear we would have a drought in August?

"One of the hardest husbands to live with," asserts Dad Plymouth, "is the one who thinks his wife was lucky to get the husband she did."

If about half of this country had its way Lindbergh would be tuning up his plane for a flight to Mars.

According to Dad Plymouth, the only happy marriages are those where both parties never get over the idea that they were made for each other.

"My idea of a lucky man," says Dad Plymouth, "is the one who has dyspepsia while his wife is on a strict reduction diet."

Minnesota flour mills are said to be breaking all records for producing flour. Must be a big demand for political pie crust this season.

Dad Plymouth says that people who try to conceal their ignorance by using a few big words succeed at it about as well as the woman who tries to conceal her age with paint.

Plymouth students who returned to the University of Michigan, Monday, following their spring vacation, were: Dorothy Dibble, Katherine Wilcox, Julia Wilcox, Clifford Wood, Genevieve Bird, Marlon Boyer, Katherine Learned, Juanita Coe, Mrs. Marjorie Woodward and Frederick and James Lendrum.

Edwin Smith has been elected president of the Wayne Rotary Club.

The new Presbyterian church being built at Brighton, will be ready for occupancy July 1st.

A combined show and sales room, facing Grand River avenue, is being erected on the property of the Island Lake Greenhouses.

The Exchange Club of Northville, will construct a tennis court for the children of that village to use during the summer months.

Dr. Robert Haskell, superintendent of the Wayne County Training School, addressed the Rotary Club at Wayne, last week Tuesday, at their luncheon meeting.

One of the finest bottling plants in the country for the manufacture of soft drinks has been placed in operation at the plant of the Silver Springs Water Company of Northville.

Four thousand white spruce trees were planted at Highland last Saturday. The work was done under the supervision of R. F. Koodsman, extension forester of Michigan State College.

The Flower Acres Nursery has sold to the House of Good Shepherd, over 8,000 strawberry plants and 1,500 rhubarb roots, besides many other goods from the new nursery place on Heck road.—Northville Record.

The Exchange Club at Redford, is sponsoring a Clean Up and Paint Up campaign in that place. The local clean-up is part of a campaign being carried on in Michigan in which a trophy is being offered for the cleanest town in the state.

Judson Shub, member of the Redford high school swimming team, who recently won honors in the Michigan State college meet at Lansing where he won the state diving championship. Bob Tinham took second in the 100-yard breast stroke. Both are eligible for the national meet to be held at Evanston, Illinois.

Laying of pavement on Grand River avenue between Burt road and the Wayne county line was scheduled to begin on April 16, according to plans of the Wayne County Road commission. The completed highway will consist of two strips of 40-foot concrete pavement and will extend over a length of about three miles.—Redford Record.

TRUCK IS EQUIPPED TO AID SPECIALISTS IN BETTER SOILS CAMPAIGN.

A specially equipped truck carrying a staff of soil doctors has been scheduled by the soils department at State College to visit 28 Michigan counties this season.

Several meetings will be held in each of the counties. The truck carries display cases that show some of the results obtained by better soils practices that have been used by farmers of the state.

Samples of soil and marl will be tested at each stop. Michigan is rich in marl deposits but there is said to be a great variation in the value of this material from different pits.

The rapidly increasing use of commercial fertilizers by Michigan farmers makes this subject one which takes up much of the time at each meeting. The value of the fertilizers is very seldom questioned; but adapted analyses, the time and rate of application, and whether to apply the fertilizer in crop rows or to sow the material broadcast are questions which have to be answered in every locality.

Counties which will be visited by the truck are: Emmet, Charlevoix, Presque Isle, Antrim, Otsego, Alpena, Oscoda, Manistee, Wexford, Ogemaw, Iosco, Arenac, Oceana, Newaygo, Kent, Mecosta, Ottawa, Clinton, Allegan, Tiscola, Sanilac, Barry, Ingham, Livingston, Kalamazoo, Calhoun, Berrien and Branch.

Today's Reflections

The Plymouth woman who buys without asking prices never had to work for the money.

There's always something. If Lindy keeps on flying he may get hurt and if he quits the workmen in the model factories will get laid off.

There is one thing you can bet on. If a man's bank account is o. k. you will find that he thinks the government is.

Sometimes a Plymouth woman gets so hard up for something to brag about that she will boast that her husband once had his picture in a patent medicine ad.

Another reason for so many divorces is due to the fact that too many girls get hitched up before they are able to support a husband.

What has become of the old-fashioned Plymouth girl who used to go into a "decline" when she was disappointed in love?

When a married woman falls out with her sister-in-law, she sees to it that the neighbors learn the real age of the married woman.

We see where a prisoner in Germany has started serving a sentence of 211 years. He will probably find the first 100 years the hardest.

It's the dangerous age when a Plymouth girl gets so she doesn't care any more about what the neighbors say than she does about what her parents say.

Some people make you wonder what they would get out of life if everything was so perfect they couldn't do any knocking.

We've always noticed that the advice people offer us shows no signs of ever having been used.

An optimist is any Plymouth motorist who can smile at a flat tire and be thankful that it isn't a broken axle.

There's one nice thing about airplane travel. The roar of the motor drowns out all comment from the back seat.

There is no use to talk economy to a man who pays three dollars for getting his car washed while his wife is doing the family washing at home.

Nothing surprises a Plymouth family more than to learn that the bad boy who used to live next door has turned out well.

CONTROL OF POWER SOURCES. FRANK B. WILLIS. WAR AGAINST RATS. AMERICAN FLYING.

Canada's Government encourages use of electric power, particularly on farms and in small communities. Water power is developed fully to generate the current, and all are assisted in its installation.

Farmers are taught to grind feed with it, pump water and do their other work.

And, by the way, United States farmers are urgently invited by the Canadian government to settle in Canada.

Our attention here is concentrated on a different problem. We want to make sure that the right people get possession of our power sources, the right people being those that control power and peddle it to the people. As to farmers and others that buy and use power, our Government has not found time to think about them.

Prophecy is usually dangerous, particularly dangerous for farmers when government prophecies go wrong. The Government forecast on potatoes last fall predicted a crop greater than the real one. Many farmers sold in a hurry at low prices, some were not marketed, many fed to stock.

Then the shortage was seen, price went up, a few wise people made the money, NOT the farmers.

The sudden death of Senator Willis, in his battle for Ohio's Presidential delegates, ended tragically one phase of the 1928 campaign.

Senator Willis would have preferred to die fighting. Those that know Secretary Hoover know that Senator Willis' death will cause him sincere grief.

A powerful man, never sparing himself, Senator Willis forgot that there are limits to the heart's endurance. A tired heart often succumbs in the most powerful man, wearied by constant strain.

The dead man's widow attributed the Senator's attack to the fumes of smoky flares that he had been inhaling constantly, in the course of a political parade.

A weak heart, fighting against poisoned air, is in danger.

The League of Nations proposes international war against rats, their complete extermination.

Such a war, made to include mosquitoes and flies, would be the best war in history. It would save every year in lives and money as much as the big war cost in any year.

No more rats, no more bubonic plague.

No more mosquitoes, no more yellow fever or malaria.

No more tse-tse flies, no more sleeping sickness.

No more house flies, no more filth dragged over food of young children.

It would be interfering with Nature's plans, perhaps. Darwin says a pair of tropical flies and their maggot offspring can dispose of a lion's carcass in a few hours. Kill all the lions and the flies would not be needed to dispose of the carion.

George Haldeman and Eddie Stinson, Americans, broke the world's endurance record in the air, flying without stopping fifty-three and one-half hours.

The French Government offers a million francs to any French flier that will win back some flying records formerly held by French fliers.

A little encouragement from our Government would make it impossible for any nation to compete with American flying.

The first flying machine was made here. Lindbergh was born here. We have the money and engineers. This ought to be the flying nation.

This comes from Italy: "Major de Bernardi has established a new world's air record, 318 1/2 miles an hour."

Will solemn naval gentlemen that call flying machines "only an auxiliary" be good enough to tell what chance slow-moving ships on the surface would have against a flock of airplanes with that speed?

On the great mountain called Nashan, in Manchuria, far up where air is pure and clear, Japan, as a monument to the new Emperor, will build the greatest astronomical observatory in Asia.

That observatory, with a sixty-inch reflector and thirty-inch refracting telescope, will be a much nobler monument than any rearing horse of bronze.

Little Johnnie put his gun,
Just behind his nurse's ear;
Pulled the trigger, just for fun;
Strange that nurse didn't hear!

Building Many Miles of New Toll Cable

Michigan Bell Telephone Company Building 200 Miles of Cable.

In carrying out its plan to connect the cities of both sides of the state and intermediate points by means of a long distance telephone cable, the Michigan Bell Telephone company is building approximately 200 miles of cable, at a cost of nearly $2,000,000, during 1928, according to Roy E. Crowe, manager of the company's Plymouth exchange.

When completed in 1930 the big telephone highway will connect with Port Huron, Mt. Clemens, Bay City, Saginaw, Flint, Pontiac, Birmingham, Royal Oak, Detroit, Wyandotte, Trenton, Monroe, Toledo, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Battle Creek, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Niles, Benton Harbor and other points along the route of the cable, and will join the New York-Chicago-St. Louis cables. The total length of the cable in Michigan will be more than 850 miles. Over parts of the distance there will be parallel cables. The total ultimate cost of the project is estimated at $10,000,000.

To this cable, at various points, will be connected several thousand miles of open wire toll circuits, tying in every telephone exchange in the state. More than 22,900,000 long distance calls are now passing annually over the cable and open wire circuits of the Michigan Bell company, and by the end of 1930 it is expected the number will be increased to 30,000,000. During the next two years another 200 miles of cable will be added to complete the plan.

This does not mean, however, that the Michigan Bell company will cease to build toll cables after 1930," stated Manager Crowe. "Their construction will continue indefinitely. This is merely a definite plan that has been arranged, and a goal to be reached at that time. As long as the use of long distance continues our company will continue to build cables."

In the eastern part of the state the Detroit-Bay City cable was completed last year, as was a parallel cable to Pontiac from Detroit. That second cable will be extended to Flint and Flushing Junction in 1930. A third parallel cable for the use of calls from the Royal Oak and Birmingham exchanges is now under construction and will be completed next fall, it is anticipated. The Detroit-Port Huron section, completed and in use as far as New Baltimore Junction, also is scheduled to be finished in June. Smaller cables already completed connect Detroit with Roseville, Centerline, Redford, Dearborn, Farmington, Northville, Plymouth, Wayne, Wyandotte and Trenton.

"For the past several months construction has been progressing on the link of the cable that will connect Ann Arbor and Kalamazoo. This portion is scheduled for completion before the coming summer. Kalamazoo and Niles will be connected next year. The Benton Harbor-Niles leg was placed in service in 1926, and the Niles-South Haven branch will be built during 1929 and 1930. Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids were connected by cable last fall, and the cable will reach Grand Haven in 1930. Lansing will be connected Jackson, during the coming year.

"Detroit and Toledo were connected by cable several years ago, and by early summer a second cable connecting the two cities also will be placed in service. These two cables are of particular importance in that they connect Detroit and all of eastern Michigan with the big transcontinental cable extending from the Atlantic coast to Chicago and St. Louis. It is over these cables that all the calls between Michigan points and European countries are routed."

May Organize A Business Woman's Club In Plymouth

Considerable interest has been manifested here relative to the organization of a Business and Professional Women's Club in Plymouth, which the Ypsilanti club has been trying to effect among the business women of Plymouth, and it is very likely that as soon as the preliminary arrangements can be completed there will be such a club organized here.

This organization is non-political and non-sectarian, and all serious-minded business women are urged to investigate its objects and purposes and to become a member of an organization here. The main object of the Business and Professional Women's Club is to promote the interests of the business and professional woman.

NEW YORK GIANTS APPOINT CHIROPRACTOR ON HEALTH STAFF.

The New York Giants of the National League will be watched with more than usual interest in their 1928 pennant race, by the chiropractors and their following in Michigan. It was announced today by Dr. F. H. Stauffer.

This special interest in the New York team is brought about by the announcement, from the ownership and management of the New York Giants, that they have appointed Dr. Leonard Knowles, well known chiropractor and sportsman of Augusta, Ga., to keep their galaxy of baseball stars physically fit. Dr. Knowles joined the team at its spring training camp, and has helped to get them in condition to start the season. He will travel with them at all times, and will keep the men in physical fitness chiropractically.

It is a well known fact that physical fitness and baseball pennants go hand in hand. The outcome of the 1928 pennant race in the National League will be watched with interest by the chiropractors and their friends.

The Crop Report

The present prospects for a short wheat crop in Michigan this year, according to the April crop report issued today by Herbert E. Powell, commissioner of agriculture, and Verne H. Church, agricultural statistician for Michigan. The April 1 condition of Michigan winter wheat was, except for 1918, the lowest on record for this date, and the condition of winter rye was the lowest on record for April 1. Both wheat and rye started the winter in good shape, as was shown by the December, 1927, condition of 94 per cent for wheat and 92 per cent for rye, but snow did not cover the ground for long enough periods to afford much protection and there was too much successive freezing and thawing during February and March. In some sections the fields were also damaged by ice cover for several days. The April 1 condition of winter wheat was 74 per cent, compared with 86 per cent last year and the ten-year average of 84 per cent. The condition of rye was 79 per cent of normal, which was seven points below last year and nearly eight per cent below the average for April 1.

The United States April 1 condition of winter wheat was only 68.8 per cent, compared with last year's high condition of 84.5 per cent and the average of 81.9 per cent. The winter rye condition for the whole country on the same date this year was 79.3 per cent of normal, which is 6.5 per cent below average and 7.1 per cent below last year. The first forecast of production will be made next month after abandonment has been determined.

Wages being paid in Michigan for hired farm labor are practically the same as a year ago. Wages by the month were $41.75 with board and $58.75 without board. By the day the wages were $2.50 with board furnished and $3.20 without board. Farm labor seems plentiful throughout most of the state this spring, but wages demanded are still higher than many farmers can afford to pay.

A WORD ABOUT THE RUNNING HEAD

In the past, news of all school activities has gone under the rather unimportant heading of "School Notes." This year it was decided to print all school news as a sort of a paper in the Plymouth Mail. To be any kind of paper it, of course, had to have a fitting title, and so suggestions for a name for the paper were asked for, and turned into the Student Council and voted on. The name chosen was the "Pilgrim Prints." Next this paper had to have a running head that would embody this title. Miss Forsythe's art classes and anybody else who cared to do so, made drawings of a banner. The one selected upon was that made by Anzelina Rousseau, which appeared in the last issue of the Plymouth Mail, and will appear in all coming issues. The staff of the Pilgrim Prints wishes to thank Miss Rousseau for her assistance in the making of this paper.

STATION P.H.S.

"Station P.H.S. coming on the air at exactly 12:50 daylight saving time. Weather report as follows: Plymouth and vicinity—cloudy, rising temperature preceding to the southeast; probably rain. Lower Michigan—rising temperature, probably snow."

"The state announces today that route 30 between Sault Ste Marie to Detour was open for the first time since January 1."

"We will now broadcast the noon program. Chef Sugar Shaker's Orchestra, playing under the direction of Professor Scuppandyke."

"The first number will be played by the saxophone, and is entitled 'Tin Pan Parade.'"

"You have just heard 'Tin Pan Parade' by Chef Sugar Shaker's Orchestra. Their next number will be 'Ricketty Ricketty Shack.'"

"My Blue Heaven" is the next on the noon program broadcast from P.H.S. in the studio of the Plymouth High School. This number will be an instrumental duet by two members of the orchestra."

"Let a Smile be Your Umbrella," will next be played."

"The last number on the noon program will be 'Sugar Shaker's Quartette.' They will sing 'Sweet Adeline.' All right boys—ready?"

"Station P.H.S. signing off at exactly 1:30. We will again be on the air at 4:30 this evening, to broadcast Chef Sugar Shaker's dinner program."

—Curtain.

"Station P.H.S. broadcasting Chef Sugar Shaker's dinner program from the studio of Plymouth High School. 'My Ohio Home,' featuring a bass-viol and violin duet, will be the first number for the orchestra this evening."

"The next number, 'Among My Souvenirs,' will be played by two members of the orchestra on horns."

"We are very happy to announce that Professor Scuppandyke has kindly consented to give us an impersonation of an Italian. Ladies and gentlemen, Professor Scuppandyke!"

"Highways are Happy Ways."

"We have with us this evening, the famous Duncanson Sisters, who will give us a 'Topsy and Eva' sketch."

"As our last big surprise for the evening, we take great pleasure in announcing Katrina Van Dusen, the famous Dutch Clogger. She will now entertain the large radio audience with several clogging numbers."

"Our last selection by the orchestra is 'I Told Them All About You.'"

"This is Station P.H.S. signing off at 7:15 p. m., until 10:00 o'clock."

This is the program with which the eighth grade entertained the seventh, eighth and ninth grades last Wednesday, April 11. Many have said it was the cleverest program given this year."

The orchestra was composed of about fifteen of the members of the class. Their improvised instruments were exceedingly clever. Dorothy Hubert as Professor Scuppandyke, made a fine director for the orchestra. The quartette, composed of Dorothy Hubert, Janet Blikenstaff, Alice Chambers and Elizabeth Simish, rendered a humorous number in their efforts to succeed in singing 'Sweet Adeline.' Topsy and Eva were very good, and imitated the real characters to perfection. Mary Jane Hamilton took the part of Topsy and Elva Hill was Eva."

Elizabeth Simish as Katrina Van Dusen, clogged in a most effective manner, to the tunes of 'Auch Mein Lieber Augustin' and 'Where Has My Little Dog Gone?' This part was done very well."

The audience was very appreciative, and the program was most heartily applauded. This successful event will make the other classes use some mighty hard thinking to produce its equal. The sponsors of the program are to receive great credit for the program. It was certainly fine, and the rest of the classes regret very much that they were unable to enjoy the entertainment."

DEFEATED 4-1

The game started—Plymouth up to bat—the first three men had their swings and were out on two flies and a short grounder. The game went on, but ended 4-1, for Ypsilanti Central, and no one knows why."

Ypsilanti came to bat to finish that inning. A run was scored by the first man up, while two others got out for it; then Collins struck out the next man, and Plymouth came up for a good inning. The first man up, Collins fled out, then G. Simmons pushed Olds to second. Another man was put out. The crisis had come, but the wild pitcher tried the wrong way of putting them out. He hit and walked two men, bringing in Olds. An easily caught fly sealed the fun with three good men on bases. This made Rip Mack, and while his good bat was getting ready for the next inning, he struck out the next three."

Shift of Ypsilanti, trying the same thing, struck out the first man, the second fled out, then Olds made first, but Collins took his own medicine and struck out. The teams changed—and did the very same thing over, ending the third with one run each."

In the fourth inning, Skelt walked two. Then Welch of Ypsilanti made first, Conrad pushed him on by an error. Roberts showed them on but Conrad was put out at second. Digman made first, putting Roberts on second, bases full—but Collins struck out Skelt. The fifth, one out—Olds walked and two pretty flies put Ypsilanti at bat. The first two men up, Allwood and Bouden, made first on errors, the next struck out. Batterson filled bases; an error brought Allwood in, then a long fly did not stop Bouden, so he came in. Collins darkened, and made his ninth strike-out in good form."

The next inning was short, with only six men. The chance, first of the seventh—two strike-outs and an assist—Ypsilanti left their last bat go.—Game lost; no account of cold weather."

GRADE TATTLE

Starkweather School
Pictures pertaining to sea life are always interesting, and especially so are Winslow Homer's pictures, portraying the sea. Last week Mrs. Moler's fifth grade pupils studied the 'Fog Warning' by Homer, and enjoyed it. Rosemary West and Ruth Edson of the 6-A and 6-B respectively, are honorary spelling students for the year. Catherine Compton of the 6-A has a reading score of 67, and Ione Packard of the 6-B has a score of 60. These are the highest in the room."

The Citizenship Club met last Friday, and a very interesting meeting it was. The following papers were read and prepared by the pupils of the club: History of Soap—Catherine Compton; The Making of Maple Sugar and Syrup—Doris Lockwood; Migration of Birds—Joan Cassidy; Frogs—Helen Ribar; Alligators—Ruth Edson. Don't you think that meeting of the Citizenship Club was interesting and helpful?"

Miss Stader's second grade pupils have been studying the germination of seeds. To carry out the study further, they are going to plant morning glory seeds and watch them grow."

They are also studying the different parts of a tooth, and have been making a picture of a tooth."

Dorothy Jones moved to Hamilton, Mich., and is missed by the pupils."

All but one of Miss Lapp's first grade penmanship drills that were sent to the Palmer Company, were passed, and the pupils received awards."

Two more pupils have entered the first grade, making the total forty-three."

Central School
Lois Mae Barlow visited Miss Hallahan's room last Thursday afternoon. Every day last week, 91% of the pupils received one hundred in spelling."

The boys in Miss Penner's room are not ashamed to admit that the girls are ahead in spelling, but then they say that they can beat the girls in out-door work."

The dental contest staged in Miss Fenner's room is over with, and eight boys and fourteen girls were found to have perfect teeth. Again the girls have come out ahead."

The following pictures have been added to the picture study list of Miss Fenner's room: Joan of Arc, Return of the Mayflower, Oxeon Ploughing and Sir Gallahad. They are all well known and well liked pictures, and are among the world's greatest."

Miss Severs' pupils are making a vegetable border for the blackboard, and it is really quite interesting and attractive."

The fourth graders have studied Gainsborough's famous painting, the 'Blue Boy,' while the third graders studied 'Miss Bowles,' by Sir Joshua Reynolds."

Patsy McKinnon, a pupil of Miss Dixon, has the highest score in reading for her room."

In Miss Dixon's spelling contest, Marlan Gorton and Kenneth Kelly are ahead."

Mrs. Blossom's 2-A pupils have finished the study of 'The Torn Hat,' by Sully, and have started the study of 'Holy Night' by Correggio."

Everyone received a star on the Honor Roll for March. This ought to make the whole room feel proud."

Shirley Mantl, Rose Neidspat and Elton Williams were neither absent nor tardy last month in Mrs. Root's room. Harold Hills receives honorable mention by being tardy just once."

The silent reading seatwork pads used in connection with Book I have been turned in by the 1-A grade. The aim of these work books is to measure the pupils' comprehension and knowledge by giving them a list of statements about a certain thing, and having the students be able to select the true statement."

In number work, the first graders are trying to recognize, without counting, a number of objects in a picture or group. The amount never exceeds four or five. They are also trying to tell the difference in weight of certain objects and to recognize the circle, square and triangle."

Mrs. Root has started a Garden Club, and the pupils are learning how to plant gardens."

Charles Felkey of Miss Willmore's kindergarten, has moved near the Starkweather school, but Ann Johnson, Ietha Nostrand and Phyllis Samsen have entered the afternoon class, making the total 15 for the afternoon and 28 for the morning."

Out of the 113 penmanship papers Mrs. Bird sent in to the Palmer Company, 90 received awards. She was quite delighted over the amount."

This Friday afternoon at Northville, Helen Ribar, June Nash and Rupert Hadley, the school champions of the Plymouth schools, spell at the district contest held there. We all hope that they have good luck and come back with honors."

The first through the sixth grades are working hard on an operetta, 'Grandmother's Flower Garden.' It will be given in the high school auditorium some time in May. Every child is to be included in the musical play. The same operetta will be given at both grade schools, Starkweather and Central."

TEACHERS LIKE FRITTERS

Mr. Smith can and good fritters. If you don't believe that, just ask some of the teachers of Plymouth High School. They certainly ought to be able to judge as it was they who are the fritters last Tuesday after school. But then, who wouldn't say fritters were good when after a hard day's work one could sit down to eat them with plenty of maple syrup within reach."

This "fritter party," as it might be called, has been an annual event in Plymouth for years, at least since Mr. Smith has been here to cook the fritters. All of the teachers and the school board are invited. They have only to come, while Mr. Smith guarantees them all of the fritters which they can possibly eat."

After all of the comments made by the teachers as to the delicious quality of this food, we expect that several of the students will decide to come back to Plymouth as teachers, so that they will be included in a similar party at some future time. We only hope that Mr. Smith stays to fulfil their hopes."

GIRLS ENJOY EVENING WITH WOMAN'S CLUB

Roumanian girls were discovered to be very delightful friends by the Girl Reserves and Campfire Girls at their party last Friday evening. The Woman's Club gave the girls the chance to meet these friends of another land when they entertained them at the Hotel Mayflower. Every Girl Reserve and Campfire Girl was delighted to go and doubly so when they found that they had an opportunity to make a new foreign acquaintance. Despite the shortness of an evening several of our girls have promised to write to these Roumanian friends."

At about eight o'clock the girls and women gathered in the crystal room of the hotel to hear the program, which had been prepared for them. Mrs. Cooper, the president of the Woman's Club, welcomed the girls and introduced the chairman of the evening's entertainment, Mrs. Norma Cassidy. It had been noticed that a group of Roumanian women had gathered on one side of the room. They now arose and sang their first song. Mrs. Cassidy explained that the Roumanian part of the program was the way which the people of the villages in Roumania usually spent their evenings."

Then a group of Roumanian girls entered the room dancing to their own humming. They usually are accompanied by the violin, but they used without one at Plymouth, they being their own voices instead. Very pretty they looked in their brightly colored costumes on which much of the work is done by hand. Most of the costumes had a large amount of beaded work on them, which was much admired by their audience. The laws which formed the headresses of some of the Roumanians was of a very fine quality. After more singing and dancing, this part of the entertainment was completed, and the Roumanians sat down to enjoy the American part of it."

Janet Blikenstaff of the Campfire Girls, told of the campfire work in Plymouth. She explained what several of the campfire honor symbols were. Almost every campfire girl has beads or a ring or a bracelet, which symbolizes some honor she has won, and is thus very dear to her. Everyone does not understand what is meant when these honors are referred to, so Janet told what each one represents."

As a representative of the Girl Reserves, Mrs. McQuinn, the senior Girl Reserve president, told of that branch of the Y. W. C. A. Too often one thinks of the Girl Reserves as a club of Plymouth only. Joy explained how it was an international organization which is quite a new movement in the Y. W. C. A. It does not end with high schools, as was proved when several examples of Plymouth alumnal Girl Reserves, who are working with other groups now, were given."

An Irish dance by Doris Whipple and Velma Petz was enjoyed. These girls have taken part in many programs before, and are always in demand for others. The last number was a song by a double quartet made up of some of the talented ladies of Plymouth. Illness on the part of some of the people on the program caused the club some worry, but the girls enjoyed every part of it, and are very grateful to the women who were their hostesses for the evening."

After the program, chairs were pushed back, and ice cream and cake were served. Dancing completed the evening's pleasure."

PLYMOUTH WINS FIRST PLACES IN BOTH ORATORICAL AND DECLAMATION CONTESTS

Again on the platform of Plymouth High School sat the young orators and declaimers, excited over the coming contest. They had all met and congratulated in their own school contests. Now they were there for a bigger thing—they upheld the honor of their schools. Each one was prepared to give his best, as in the hearts of all there loomed a hope that he or she might enter the district contest which is to be held May 4, as a representative of this sub-district. All the work which had been put into their speeches would not have been given in vain if they met this supreme test and came out victor."

This was the situation at the sub-district oratorical and declamation contests held last week Thursday evening. Mr. Smith, the sub-district chairman, had charge of the evening's program. He introduced each speaker and told their subjects. Lots had been drawn as to the order in which the students should speak. Ruth Hetsler of Plymouth was the lucky, or unlucky, one to speak first among the declaimers. Her declamation, 'The Vision of War,' was very well given, being marked for its impressiveness."

Fred Allen of Wayne, came next with 'Spartacus to the Gladiators.' One had to go back in ancient history with him to gain the speech's full meaning. He impersonated Spartacus very well. Dearborn was represented by 'Wright with the Bunker Hill Oration.' It was evident she had worked very hard on this, and although hampered by being in a strange auditorium, she was very clear and direct in her manner of speaking. Nearly every declamation contest has at least one 'Message to Garcia' on it. So when Caroline Simcock of Belleville came forward and spoke that everyone knew that Garcia's message had not lost its charm yet. Joy Thompson represented Northville, with the 'Spirit of Optimism.' Most people like optimists, so Joy should have left a good impression with the audience on that score. The speaker who concluded the declamations, was Alida White of Fordson. The 'Vision of War' seemed to be popular in this contest as Alida also gave that."

After this speech, the orchestra played while the declaimers left the stage and the orators entered. Only three schools were represented this time: Plymouth, Belleville and Northville. The orations of these three students had been sent in before the contest, and were judged for thought and content. This counted for half toward the final ranking. The other half is based on delivery. Elmer Perrin of Northville, was the first orator to speak. Conservation of our natural resources has only been recognized in the United States since the presidency of Theodore Roosevelt, but even in that short time it has grown to be one of the most important questions which are facing our nation. It is a known fact that something must be done to stop the waste of our natural resources, or future generations will be without the necessities of life. So Elmer Perrin's oration was of national interest, and his theme will explain it, 'Conservation in the United States.' 'Vandals and Vandallism' was the name of the oration of Robert Green of Belleville. We know of the Vandals of old, who were very strong barbaric tribes, but is an altogether different thing to be able to connect them with the present day. According to Robert Green there are many Vandals in our present life. They are stopping civilization through the social side of our life, especially the labor problems of the present day. This oration was very well written, and contained much which we might think about."

The last of the orators was Franklin Atkinson of Plymouth. Imperialism is something which most nations do not pride themselves on, yet most of them practice it. The United States has never admitted, although she has intervened in the Latin-American countries several times. It has always been a question as to what prompted our country to take this action. Franklin very evidently believes that we are imperialistic, and should acknowledge this fact. This is the topic which is taken up in detail in his oration, 'Our Foreign Policy.' After the speakers had concluded, there was the usual excited waiting for the judges' decisions. The judges in this case were Mr. Howe, principal of the River Rouge High School; Mr. Winkle of the speech department in the Michigan State Normal College, and Professor Wood, also of the Normal College. The judges always seem to deliberate for hours, while in reality they accomplish this rather difficult task in a few minutes. At last Mr. Smith came in, and the contestants took their places on the platform."

Plymouth had good cause to be happy, for both of her contestants won first places, and are to take part in the district contest May 4. Fred Allen of Wayne, was given second place in declamation, and there was not a second place given in oratory. At this time, Mr. Smith presented the students with the dictionaries awarded them by the Detroit News every year."

The speech department of Plymouth High School has grown greatly since it was established. When we win two first places in speaking contests again, there is cause to think that Plymouth is on the 'public speaking map.'"

BETTER HOMES WEEK—APRIL 22-28

The Better Homes movement was organized on a national basis in December, 1923, with Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, as its president, who says in part:

"The first essential for home life is a good house, in which the family may live in privacy and comfort, and justly take pride. The detached single-family dwelling makes home ownership possible, promotes thrift and foresight, and by giving the family a stake in the community, insures responsible citizenship. Durable construction, simple and dignified house, architecture, careful up-keep, appropriate furnishing, and good landscaping and gardening enhance community values and build up family self-respect and self-confidence. Sharing of household tasks by all members of the family and common enjoyment of home reading, music and play, develop mutual respect and affection, and engender the lives and characters of parents and children alike."

Such a well built, attractive house, built by (Crumble & Wood, builders, is being completely furnished throughout by the Home Furnishing classes of the extension work, conducted by Miss Lois Corbett, home demonstration agent of the State College. The grounds have been landscaped by Ralph Carr, agricultural agent, and are being made attractive with the planting of shrubs and trees by the high school class in agriculture, under the supervision of Mr. Holcomb."

A library of 'Better Home' books will be placed by the Wayne County Librarians, who will be at the house during the week, with lists of these books and various suggestions for 'Better Home' reading."

The nursery is to be furnished by Lois Burlington Sharp, Wayne County supervising nurse, with a sun bath for babies, first aid equipment, and suitable toys for small children."

A boy's workshop will be shown in the basement of the house, with work bench, tools and instructions for home work for boys."

This demonstration house is located in Maplecroft Subdivision, and will be open every afternoon and evening during Better Homes week, April 22-28. You are cordially invited to visit this 'Better Home,' and to attend the programs which will be given in the Plymouth schools during the week."

WHAT OUR MUSICIANS ARE DOING

Music seemed to be very important in all of our lives. At nearly every public gathering the audience wishes some music, or it is not satisfied. At most of the high school gatherings the orchestra is what furnishes the music.

Last week Thursday evening at the declamation and oratorical contests, their music was much appreciated. The churches of Plymouth often ask the different musical organizations of the school to either sing or play for them, so last Monday night the orchestra entertained at the Presbyterian church."

In Northville is the Maybury Sanatorium, where the patients are always delighted to have entertainment. Tuesday evening of last week was made very enjoyable for them by the music of the orchestra and singing by Elmore Carney and Harold Hubert. With all of these recent engagements, it will be recognized that there must have been much practice devoted to the pieces played. Besides this, all of the musical part of our school is working on a musical to be given some time in May. Miss Schrader is having charge of the work. Subscribe for the Mail.

Claims World's Record in Mail Service
New York—Maurice Graham, of the Western Air Express Company, is put forward as the holder of the world's record in air mail service.

Up to and including March 15, company officials set forth, he had flown 206,000 miles, 175,000 of them without a forced landing and never had been behind schedule or lost an ounce of mail.

The pilot nearest to him has 95,000 miles to his credit, and was forced down once by a heavy storm.

And When the Fish Was Opened—
Lexington, Ky.—Roy Pope landed a large cutfish at Springfield in which was found six young chickens.

It is presumed by Pope and several witnesses that the chickens died before hatching and the eggs were cast into the water. This theory is substantiated by the fact that egg shells were also found in the fish's stomach.

Von Hindenburg has sent the boy a greeting with a fine assortment of foreign postage stamps.

Great Display Of Fireworks

"A NIGHT IN BAGDAD" WILL BE SHOWN AT COMING STATE FAIR.

A highly fantastic display of Oriental revelry—"A Night in Bagdad"—accompanied by a fireworks exhibition said to be the most startling ever shown at a state fair in this country, will be one of the outstanding attractions at the Michigan State Fair here, September 2-8.

Making use of sumptuous scenic backgrounds depicting the ancient city of Bagdad—capital of the empire of Mesopotamia—this impressive spectacle will be shown for the first time Monday evening, September 3. A special cast of actors accompanies the production, with an enlarged ballet that will appear in many of the scenes showing the exotic life of the chief commercial center of its time. The presentation will be given nightly excepting Sunday, until the fair closes on Saturday evening, September 8.

In the story of the drama is presented the lovely Zobeide, favorite daughter of the austere Ibrahim, foremost Sheik of Bagdad, in love with a charming prince of India. Zobeide conquers with feminine arts the evil machinations of a jealous Grand Vizier who attempts to abduct her prince on the wedding night. Wicked genii, enchanted grottoes and castles, all lend their part in aiding the illusion, which ends in a blaze of fireworks and bombs marking the fall of an enchanted castle.

In addition to this attraction will be the daily concerts of Lieutenant-Commander John Phillip Sousa—the "March King"—and his band of 70 musicians and soloists who open the Fair Sunday afternoon, September 2, with a sacred concert in the coliseum. Sousa, on Sunday evening will give a second concert of patriotic compositions.

A general admission charge of 25 cents to the grounds, will admit the public to both of Sousa's concerts on the opening day. This will be the 35th tour of this veteran master of the baton and internationally lauded composer of military marches.

On Tuesday, September 4, the youngsters will be especially entertained on time-honored Children's Day. Admission to all shows and rides will be reduced to five cents, and a large number of lunch and refreshment stand operators will serve coffee and a sandwich for the same price. The children will also be guests of the fair management in the grand stand, where an exceptional view will be afforded of 18 fine acts of vaudeville in the afternoon.

There will be no let-up in the quality of the amusements at the fair from the time the full list of attractions open until the closing on Saturday. There will be seven days and nights of satisfying amusements and instructive interesting displays by state departments.

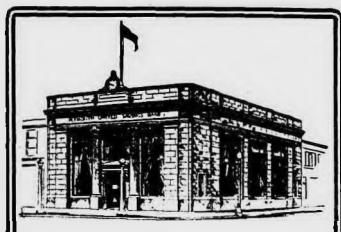

Harness racing—always one of the best attended and most interesting events at the fair—will be held on five afternoons from Monday to Friday inclusive. Stakes will be sponsored by the Michigan Association of Trotting Horse Breeders—assuring a highly attractive list of entries under the most careful supervision. The race track will be kept in its present fast condition. A number of prominent stables are already sending their horses to the fair grounds quarters at this time and trainers will be welcomed at any time.

On Saturday afternoon there will be an automobile race of national importance, sanctioned by the American Automobile Association and featuring many of the most noted and daring drivers in the United States.

Millions of Model T Fords are still in active service

For nearly twenty years the Model T Ford led the motor industry and it still is used by more people than any other automobile. More than eight million Model T Fords are in active service today—an indication of their sturdy worth, reliability and economy.

Because of the tremendous investment which people have in these cars and because so many of them will be driven for two, three, and even five more years, the Ford Motor Company will continue to make replacement parts until, as Henry Ford himself says, "the last Model T is off the road."

For the Ford Motor Company has always believed that its full duty consists not only in making a good automobile at a low price, but also in keeping it running efficiently for you as long as possible at a minimum of expense.

No matter where you live, therefore, you can still buy Model T Ford parts with the same assurance as formerly, knowing that they will give you the kind of service you have a right to expect, and at the same time protect the money you have invested in your car.

All Ford replacement parts, as you may know, are made of the same materials and in the same way as those from which your car was originally assembled, and are low in price because of the established Ford policy.

So that you may get the greatest use from your Model T Ford over the longest period of time, we suggest that you take the car to the nearest Ford dealer and have him estimate on the cost of any replacement parts which may be necessary. You may find that a very small expenditure will maintain the value of your car and will be the means of giving you thousands of miles of additional service.

AT THE THEATRE

"ROSE OF THE GOLDEN WEST"

A powerful drama of fiery-blooded youth, patriotism which burns like a white-hot flame and for which no sacrifice is too great and a great and touching romance which knows no bounds—of these heroic elements has George Fitzmaurice fashioned a powerful, compelling film drama in "Rose of the Golden West," his spectacular production for First National Pictures, which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday and Monday, April 22 and 23.

Not only is Fitzmaurice a master of drama and romance, but he is an artist in pictorial beauty and splendor, and in "Rose of the Golden West" he has a perfect setting and a lavish production for the canvas on which to display his mastery of exquisite cinematography.

The beautiful atmosphere of California in the days when romantic land was under Spanish rule has been captured for the silver-sheet as only Fitzmaurice could do it. A gay, care-free people, playing with love and life under luxurious skies in a kingdom where care was unheard of—this is the background upon which the director has stamped his moving, emotional drama.

No finer performance has been seen on the screen this season than that of Gilbert Roland's as the patriotic young caballero who is willing to sacrifice his love for what he believes is patriotic justice. Mary Astor, in the feminine lead, has never been seen to better advantage, and her striking beauty is matched only by the note of sincerity and emotion which she brings to her performance.

Montague Love and Gustav von Seyffertitz are outstanding in character roles, and Flora Finch contributes an unusual characterization.

The days when a man could ride for a week over the hills and valleys of California and never set foot off his own land, are pictured in "Rose of the Golden West," the George Fitzmaurice special for First National, featuring Mary Astor and Gilbert Roland. The story is laid in California, in the days of the Spanish dons and mission fathers.

"LOVE AND LEARN"

When a beautiful blonde girl sets out to look for trouble, she usually finds it and so do the people with whom she comes in contact. Esther Ralston does everything from making faces at policemen to kidnapping a judge in her Paramount picture "Love and Learn," which appears at the Penniman Allen theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, April 24 and 25.

Among other things the dynamic golden haired star does in this picture are drive an automobile through a police station window, fire a revolver in a crowded courtroom, overpower a matron and escape from jail and foil a plotted frame-up on the judge she had kidnapped.

Of course there is a serious purpose behind all of these escapades. The star is trying to keep her father and mother together. She thinks that if she occupies all of their moments trying to keep her out of jail they won't have time to carry out the separation proceedings they have started. Then in a few days, when her father's annual attack of hay fever comes along, there will be no more thought of separation. The old gentleman knows good care when he is receiving it and a trained nurse was never like the wife.

Lane Chandler, the handsome giant who recently thrilled lovers of western pictures by his feats with the six shooter and in the saddle, takes the part of the dignified young judge who learns about women in such startling fashion. Hedda Hopper has the part of the matter who can cure her husband's hay fever but who finds it hard to put up with his irritable disposition. Claude King is the father and Helen Lynch is the blonde vampire who tries to ruin the judge with her charms.

"THE HEART OF A FOLLIES GIRL"

The film producers just aren't allowed to keep Billie Dove, star in First National Pictures, out of cinema "Follies" roles. That, probably, is because the public thinks she is too beautiful to be garbed in ordinary clothes.

"The Heart of a Follies Girl," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre Thursday and Friday, April 26 and 27, is her latest stellar vehicle. In addition to the always appealing and colorful atmosphere of the Follies, and intimate probing into the lives of the famous chorus girls, however, the picture has a really powerful dramatic plot.

The screen play was adapted from Adela Rogers St. Johns' magazine story of the same title. It deals with the uncontrollable love of a Follies girl for the private secretary of a wealthy admirer, and subsequent sacrifices she makes for the impoverished and not quite worthy hero.

Her nobility of conduct eventually brings out the real man in her lover, and a logical happy ending results. Real pathos, high drama and suspense, love scenes with a punch and plentiful comedy, feature "The Heart of a Follies Girl" throughout. Larry Kent is the private secretary and Lowell Sherman the wealthy admirer.

Mildred Harris, Clarissa Selwyns and other well-known screen artists head a cast that also includes fifty shapely and beautiful dancing girls. John Francis Dillon directed the picture.

"LET 'ER GO, GALLAGHER!"

For genuine drama, thrill and appeal, "Let 'er Go, Gallagher!" a new Pathe-DeMille picture featuring Junior Coghlan, which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Saturday, April 28, easily heads the list of the wirtle screen dramas thus far produced this season. It is a film version of Richard Harding Davis' celebrated story of newspaper life and, directed by Elmer Clifton, it is clean, realistic, absorbing and rare cinema entertainment.

Junior Coghlan, as the office boy of a metropolitan daily newspaper who solves a mysterious murder, has the best role of his career. Harrison Ford, as Callahan, a dissipating reporter, gives an excellent performance, while Elinor Fair, society editor and fiancée of Callahan, is both charming and convincing. Ivan Lebedeff, as a fugitive murderer, is an excellent scoundrel whose work is exceptionally fine. In fact, every member of the cast appears at his best, the result being one of the most engrossing pictures seen here in many moons.

The picture is packed with startling situations and there is an abundance of comedy. The direction by Elmer Clifton was highly capable. You'll miss a treat if you fail to see this exquisite screen melodrama.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Those children who have not as yet made their first communion will begin their instruction this Saturday, so as to be prepared for the occasion the last Sunday of June. These instructions do not include the remainder of the children. Instructions are given each Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock in the auditorium.
The church will receive holy communion next Sunday, their regular monthly communion Sunday.
A sidewalk will be placed around the church in the near future, a new walk in front of the church and a walk into the auditorium and boys' society, a much-needed improvement.
Many of the self-denial banks are still out and it is hoped will soon be returned. Those returned last Sunday were heavy, full and much welcomed. Kindly turn your bank in so as we may meet our obligation with our new stations.
The baseball team will play their first game next Sunday at Hamburg, near South Lyon. The home grounds will be at the intersection of the Plymouth and Ann Arbor roads, Lafayette's stop. This offer has been given to the boys through the kindness of J. F. Rousseau and laid out by the manager, T. Levandowski. The new suits have arrived and are dandies.
A concert class began instructions last Tuesday, and if there are any more anxious to join the class let them report next Tuesday or Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the rectory.

We are glad to report that Mrs. J. VanBonn has returned from her hospital much improved from her operation.
Mrs. Hy. Lehman is still numbered among the sick and confined to her bed.
Next Thursday we celebrate the feast day of the parish, Our Lady of Good Counsel. Services will be held in the evening at 8:00 o'clock. Rosary, Litany, sermon and benediction. Let all be present at the services on this day, our feast day.
A photo of the interior of the church will be posted in the vestibule next Sunday and orders taken.
Mr. and Mrs. F. Kontz, of Pleasant View farm, are receiving felicitations upon the birth of a baby boy, Donald Martin.
Return your self-denial bank.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES
I. W. Hummel and the pastor, Mr. Nichol, attended the meeting of Detroit Presbytery, held at Scovel Memorial church, Detroit, on Tuesday. Among other matters of interest to the people of Plymouth was the announcement of the building this year of a church in Rosedale Gardens.
Mrs. Shaw's class will meet at the church Tuesday evening, April 24th, at 7:30 o'clock. Usual business and study will be taken up, social hour and refreshments following.

METHODIST NOTES

"The Master is come and called for thee."

We all enjoyed the violin and piano music and the singing by the young people Sunday night.
Tonight (Friday) is the second night of the L. A. S. musical comedy, "All Aboard," at the High school auditorium.
We all need to stop at intervals for prayer and meditation. Why not get the habit of dropping in for the prayer and praise service at the church each Wednesday at 7:15 to 8:00 p. m.?

Next Wednesday after school is an important time for the junior missionary children. It is their regular monthly meeting and also the last meeting of their year. It is the day when we bring and open our mite boxes. Who will have the largest amount in their box this year? The mothers of the children and the women of the missionary society are cordially invited to meet with us.
The Booster class gave a farewell reception for Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Jolliffe at the church last Wednesday night. Fred Thomas, as master of ceremonies, called on representatives of various organizations with which Mr. Jolliffe has been identified. Dr. Lendrum spoke of the high esteem in which the Jolliffe family is held by the church and congratulated them because they were so identified with the different organizations of the church as to be a distinct loss to the church. George Smith spoke very fittingly of Mr. Jolliffe's membership on the school board, George Burr represented the Sunday school and George Richwine the official board of the church, and Frank Barrows spoke not only as neighbor and friend but as a member of the Booster class, of which Mr. Jolliffe has been the teacher, and on behalf of the class presented Mr. and Mrs. Jolliffe with a gift of table linen. Mr. Jolliffe responded in his usual pleasing manner. Miss Czarina Penney played a beautiful number on the piano and also accompanied Miss Ruth Forsyth, who sang a solo. Both responded to encores. Following the program, the committee served delicious fruit punch and assorted wafers and an informal time was enjoyed. Mr. Jolliffe left on Friday for Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mrs. Jolliffe and the children will join him at the close of the school year.

FUNERAL SERVICES
For Edwin Barber

The funeral of Edwin Barber, of Canton township, took place from Schraeder Bros.' Funeral Home on Saturday of last week at 2:00 o'clock p. m. Rev. Walter Nichol, of Plymouth Presbyterian church, officiating.
Mr. Barber was born in Frome, England, 63 years ago. When a very young man he emigrated to Canada. Later he crossed to Detroit and 44 years ago he arrived in Canton, where he has lived ever since. His life was marked by a very high degree of faithfulness and a kindness which seemed never to fail.
Recently he made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wilkin, where he died April 12th. The many friends who attended the funeral bore testimony to the esteem in which he was held.
