Death of Mrs. Henry Lehman

On Wednesday evening, April 25th, at 7:15 p. m., Mrs. Catherine Lehman passed to her reward, after a lingering illness of four months, never fully recovering from an operation last December.

Mrs. Catherine Gertrude Lehman was born in Mountain, Ontario, Canada, June 4, 1873, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth Brown. She was educated in Kempenfelt school, later coming to Detroit, and finishing her course with the Madames of the Sacred Heart at Grosse Pointe, Mich. In 1902 she was united in marriage to Henry Lehman, at the Cathedral parish in Detroit. After a brief stay in Houghton, Mich., where Henry Lehman managed the telephone company, they returned to Detroit, and remained there until five years ago when they moved to Plymouth, making their home with the Rev. F. C. Lefevre.

Two children were born to this marriage, Elizabeth and Catherine, the latter, Mrs. F. H. Hales of Detroit. Left to mourn their loss are her husband, Henry, and daughters, Elizabeth and Catherine; also two sisters and four brothers.

The funeral services were held from Our Lady of Good Counsel church, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, April 30, and burial at Holy Sepulchre.

A solemn requiem high mass was chanted by Father Lefevre, assisted by Father V. Harker and Father Gaffney. The Reverend Fathers J. Schuler and A. Graeber assisted at the side altars, while the following clergy were present in the sanctuary: Reverend Fathers C. Dolan of Milford, E. DePoyat, F. McQuillan, M. Walker, I. Chapman, C. Uenberg, all of Detroit.

A very consoling and inspiring sermon was preached by the Rev. V. Harker extolling the strong characteristics of Mrs. C. Lehman's life, her great love for her God, and her unflinching interest for the church; a truly christian woman, a loving mother, and a faithful wife. He exhorted all to imitate her virtues, and this world would be a better world.

A large congregation was present at the funeral services, proving that she was loved by all who knew her. The choir solemnly chanted the requiem of the dead, with Miss N. Mollitor at the organ. John Schomberger very pleasingly rendered an Ave Maria.

Those present from out of town, were: Mrs. John McCoy, a sister of Tupper Lake, N. Y.; Miss Elizabeth Brown, a sister, from Mountain, Ont.; William Brown and wife, a brother, from Mt. Clemens; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Donnelly of Sandwich, Ont., and a large number from Detroit.

Mrs. Catherine Lehman, though not a resident of Plymouth for many years, quickly made friends, and grew to be esteemed by all who came in contact with her. She was always interested in the life of the community, and her one ambition in life was to bring cheer to all. Thus Plymouth lost a good christian woman, and a loyal citizen.

ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The Plymouth High School Alumni association wishes to bring to the attention of its members that their Scholarship Loan Fund which was established in June, 1927, is now in operation and any of our high school or college students desiring a loan may get an application blank and any information desired from the office of the superintendent of schools or from one of the members of the Scholarship Loan Fund committee: Norma Cassidy, Floyd Kehrl, Robert Joffile. To have this fund working and helping our members will be carrying out the purpose for which it was established, so do not hesitate to use it. Applications are treated confidentially.

Avery Barras, educational director of the Detroit Public Library, will address the May meeting of the Plymouth League of Women Voters, May 14th, on the subject of "New Books and International Relations."

Have Michigan Folks Got Good Feet?

INTERESTING DEMONSTRATION WILL BE HELD IN PLYMOUTH.

How many people in Plymouth have good feet? How many people within a radius of 50 miles have good feet?

These questions may seem odd, but according to authorities on the feet, only three out of ten persons have really normal feet. All the rest are either pestered with corns, annoyed by callouses, suffer with tired, aching feet, weak ankles, sharp shooting pains in the legs, or they endure, often for hours, agony with bunions. Yet all of this suffering is unnecessary, declares Dr. Jammers, a foot expert of Chicago, who is coming to Plymouth on Friday, May 11th.

While here Mr. Jammers, who is a representative of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, the famous foot authority, will give a free demonstration of Dr. Scholl's method of foot correction at Willoughby Bros. Walk-Over Boot Shop, Main street.

This store has issued an invitation to all foot sufferers to come and let Mr. Jammers look at their feet. He will, they declare, be pleased to show them how easily they can be rid, forever, of their aches and pains by simply being correctly fitted with shoes or perhaps with light appliances which are worn in the shoes.

POLICE CHIEFS WERE HERE

About sixty-five police chiefs from Wayne county and adjoining counties were entertained by the Village of Plymouth and the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday. The visitors were entertained with a splendid dinner at the Hotel Mayflower, after which the business meeting of the association was held. The Mail goes to press too early to give any of the details of the meeting in this week's issue.

Minstrels Gave Splendid Show

The Dearborn Darktown Minstrels gave a splendid performance at the Penniman Allen theatre last Friday evening. The entertainment was under the auspices of the Men's Club of St. John's Episcopal church. The program opened with the traditional circle, and the solo numbers with chorus were exceptionally well rendered.

The quartet number by Messrs. Frank Taft, Joe Atkinson and Roy Eadstrom, was especially good. The four end-men furnished a great deal of amusement with their jokes. Joe Parr, always a favorite in Plymouth, made a hit with his specialty number. The program closed with a sketch entitled "The Melancholy Dame." The parts were all well taken, and it pleased the audience immensely. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was the music of Al Solinger's orchestra.

This is the second year that the Dearborn Minstrels have appeared before a Plymouth audience, and we hope they will return again next season.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK HAS NEW CLOCK

Through the generosity of Glenn Smith, the First National bank is the proud possessor of a large mahogany-finished wall clock, which is to be erected to the left of the large window of the bank in the near future. Mr. Smith is to be congratulated upon his originality and foresight in selecting this gift.

Detroit News Choristers Coming to Plymouth

Announcement has just been made of completion of arrangements for the first appearance of the Detroit News choristers in Plymouth. The choristers have proven themselves very popular in their own city and requests for performances from various organizations there continue to pile up without abatement. In fact, the demand for appearances in Detroit has been so great that up to now, at least, the policy has been to confine activities to places within the limits of their own community. However, the finance committee of the Starkweather Parent-Teacher association entered into negotiations with the News last March and their efforts have now been crowned with success. The Detroit News choristers, first time out of Detroit, have agreed to appear in Plymouth on Monday evening of May 21st.

The Detroit News choristers are not, perhaps, strictly professional. The personnel is made up entirely of regular employees of the Detroit News. The members, 18 in all, were selected for outstanding musical ability and come from various departments of this great newspaper. Months were spent in training and rehearsal before the first public appearance was attempted. The only strictly professional man in the group is Director Protheroe, who was especially engaged as trainer. The group will be accompanied to Plymouth by Miss Bernice Dralner, accompanist.

The Detroit News choristers, appearing upon the platform in spic and span Tuxedos, and backed by their talent present a striking appearance. A variety program is promised and one which is sure to be pleasing to all. This being the first time the choristers have consented to appear outside Detroit, local citizens and music lovers will doubtless give them a warm and hearty reception. The program will be given in the auditorium of the new Starkweather school, which is known to have good acoustic properties. It is expected that a half-tone engraving of the choristers will be in readiness for next week's issue of the Mail and more information will be given then.

Plymouth Road to Get Church

SITE WEST OF RIVER ROUGE IS PURCHASED BY BISHOP GALLAGHER

A seven-acre tract on the Plymouth road, a mile and a half west of River Rouge Park, has been purchased by the Rt. Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, bishop of the Detroit Diocese, from the Frischhorn Real Estate Co., as the site for a new Catholic church and school.

This announcement follows the purchase of a large tract for church and school purposes on Chicago boulevard two miles east of River Rouge Park, and indicates an extensive building campaign by the church due to the rapid growth in the vicinity of River Rouge Park.

The new site is bounded by Evangeline, Priscilla, Gleason and Norborne avenues. It is one block south of Plymouth road where the Diagonal highways, Fordson and Southwestern cross Plymouth and is two blocks west of Beech road and one block north of Chicago boulevard. The selection of the site was based largely upon this convergence of 120-foot highways which provide through routes not only to all parts of the section surrounding but also to more distant parts of the city.

Erection of a chapel will begin in the near future.—Detroit News.

J. K. SHONTZ FAMILY MOVE TO PLYMOUTH

It is with regret that we record the removal of J. K. Shontz and family to Plymouth, where Mr. Shontz will be connected with the Holland Furnace company as branch manager.

The family has been prominent in Dundee life, especially in musical circles. Mrs. Shontz has always been willing to give her services as pianist at all times, besides serving a large class of piano scholars. Bob will also be greatly missed at both musical and school functions. His musical ability has won him a place among solo violinists of the National State orchestra and the people of Dundee will watch his career with great interest.—Dundee Reporter.

High School Presents Musicale May 11

In order to show the work of the music department in Plymouth High School, a musicale is to be presented Friday, May 11. Every student who is in any way connected with these musical organizations is to have some part in the program. Several new features are promised besides those of last year. There are to be some new vocal numbers which are to be selected from the Glee Clubs and the Junior Chorus. This will be something which should appeal to the people of Plymouth, as nearly everyone likes to listen to duets and quartets of mixed voices.

Tickets for this entertainment will be on sale this coming week. The entertainers are to sell these tickets themselves, so they certainly should be rewarded for their labors by a large audience. So when some boy or girl comes to your door selling the tickets which cost twenty-five cents, just remember that this is the big musical event in the high school of the year, which no one can afford to miss.

The following program will be presented:

The Rev. E. Mosner, pastor, performed the ceremony. Attendants were Reinhold Tillman and Miss Charlotte Tillman. The couple will reside in Utica, Michigan.—Bedford Record.

ROTARY CLUB ENTERTAINS PLEIERS

The Plymouth Rotary Club had as guests at the luncheon last Friday, Edward Schibe and William Brock, famous around-the-world fliers. Mr. Schibe gave a splendid talk on their adventure from the time of its inception to its successful ending. He took his hearers over the entire trip, describing their experiences in the different countries which they visited. It was a very interesting talk, and also very instructive. There was a large number of visitors present at the luncheon.

MOTHER.

We again approach a holiday everyone in Plymouth, big and little, old and young, is proud to observe. The observance of Mother's day is not only beautiful in sentiment, but it is appropriate, for where in all the world can we find anyone whose heart has been as close to our own, or anyone who has done as much for our comfort, welfare and happiness?

No shrine has yet been found about which mankind worships as happily as about mother's knee in his tender years, and within the sunshine of her smile as he grows to manhood. No hand can give him greater comfort, no words can sound as sweet upon his ears. The very name of Mother carries all that love and hope and true happiness can mean.

That is why, whether she be living or dead, the honoring of one's mother comes as the nearest approach to a perfect holiday. If she has passed on to that rich reward awaiting all who have known motherhood, wear on this Mother's day a flower in her memory. If she is living, and yet afar, write her the letter that will cheer her heart and in way repay her for the anxious hours she spent in guiding your footsteps in the way she would have you go. If she is with you, do what millions of men would now give all they possess to be able to do—put your arms about her and make her know that, after all, you still treasure her love above all else, and hold her dearer as each day goes by.

Mother has lived long years of her life for you. Surely you are glad of this opportunity to live one—Mother's day—for her.

A FRIEND TO ALL.

Despite the fact that more money has been lost, and more people discouraged at poultry raising, chickens and eggs still continue to be one of America's greatest industries. In fact, government figures show more people directly interested in the production and consumption of eggs than any other food commodity. While the value of the products of the American hen is always great, in 1927 alone it reached the enormous total of one and one-quarter billion dollars.

While the smaller cities, towns and villages still contribute much to the general success of poultry raising, it is on the farms and in poultry yards that production piles up, and where the "big money" is made. Plymouth citizens who keep chickens are largely in the business to serve only their own needs; and yet if they will figure a little they will be surprised to find what a good profit can be had from even the smallest flock. In no other food is there as little waste as in eggs. No other food can be eaten in as many ways—boiled, raw, fried, scrambled, poached, steamed, shirred or scalloped; and no other food serves as satisfactorily in both sickness and health.

We're paying this little tribute to the American hen because she deserves it. She is the friend of humanity, and one we cannot get along without, since all cooking is based on eggs. Here's hoping her numbers never decrease and that come what may—strikes, floods, fires or earthquakes—she will always be found on the job.

BUSTING A TRUST.

While the world is interested in ocean flying and busy throwing up its hat and cheering the last ones across, a big part of it is getting considerable happiness out of something else that has just come across the ocean. That something else is news from England that she has decided to take the ban off of rubber shipments after Nov. 1 and to cease monopolizing the market. How many motorists around Plymouth know that in the past it has cost

American car owners $9,000,000 every time England jumped crude rubber prices one cent on the pound? Reflect on that and you'll understand why there is cause for rejoicing now that her strangle-hold on the rubber trade has been broken. Every man who uses tires will feel the effect of it after next November, or maybe sooner. Ocean flying is all right, but this news about rubber is the best thing that has come across the Atlantic for a long time.

BUTTERED SIDE DOWN.

We've always felt that when one runs across anything that will add to his pleasure, taste or comfort, he ought to pass it on to his neighbors. So when a citizen of Plymouth told us a few days ago that he always eats his bread and butter with the butter side down, because it tastes much better that way, we decided to pass the suggestion on. He declares that if people knew how very much better bread tastes if eaten that way, instead of the way it has been eaten for thousands of years—buttered side up—everybody would change over immediately. After all, eating bread with the buttered side up is only habit, like many other habits that we could benefit by breaking. At any rate, it can do no harm to try the gentleman's suggestion. Try eating your bread with the buttered side down and see if you notice any difference in the taste.

THE OLD FOLKS.

We occasionally hear a member of the younger generation railing at the old folks, and referring to them as "old fogies" and "behind the times." When we do we renew our thanks to the Almighty for providing Plymouth with old folks. They supply the balance so necessary in not only this but every day and age; they can profit by years of experience, while youth has yet to go through the fire. This "pep" in youth is all right, and a part of life, but the world needs, and cannot get along without, the wisdom and sagacity that come with the years, and the opinions and advice that only old folks can give. One generation must act as a check on another, and must halt at the right time a recklessness that would be dangerous if not checked. These are but a few of the thousands of reasons why, as much as we love boys and girls, we thank God that we also have old folks.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says he can't figure how old maids can get so much joy out of life with no husbands to complain about.

It has just about gotten so in this country that when a man pleads guilty everybody thinks he is crazy.

"Never try to guess a man's name by the initials on the umbrella he's carrying," advises Dad Plymouth.

What worries us personally is not what congress is doing about taxes but what we are going to do about them.

"Every now and then," asserts Dad Plymouth, "you hear someone yelping about a misstatement in a newspaper, when the fact is that if everybody was as careful about what they say as the newspapers are there wouldn't be so much trouble in the world."

Dad Plymouth says that when you see a woman dressed up like a circus horse accompanied by a shabby looking man you can easily guess who opens the pay envelope at her house.

The prettiest women in the world today are the ones you see in magazine ads advertising some kind of kitchen equipment.

"Before a man is married," says Dad Plymouth, "he needs an entire closet to hold his clothes, but after he's married he can find room for all his belongings in one of the drawers of the sewing machine."

STUDENTS MANIFEST INTEREST IN MASTER PLAN OF HIGHWAYS.

Intense interest in the study of the Master Plan of Superhighways on the part of students in 50 high schools within the Detroit Metropolitan area is apparent in the enrollments in the prize essay contest being conducted by the Detroit Automobile Club according to a statement issued by officials of the club this week.

The contest, open to students in high schools within a twenty-mile radius of Detroit, will close the week of May 15 and it is planned to conduct the competing students in tours over the established super-highways some time before the contest ends. Prizes of $250.00 in gold are the substantial objectives in the contest but the interest and study and the discussion in the home of the students will be of inestimable value in the development of the Master Plan. It is pointed out.

Descriptive literature, reports of interested commissions and other material pertinent to the subject has been planned in the school libraries and teachers of English and school principals are cooperating.

It is hoped that 500 essays will be submitted and reports already turned in indicate that that number may be reached.

NEWBURG

May 31st is Mothers' day. There will be special music and a sermon by the pastor especially for mothers.

The L. A. S. met at the hall on Wednesday for a pot-luck dinner and business meeting in the afternoon.

Those who did not see "Mrs. Tullis of Shanty Town" last night can see it tonight (Friday) at Newburg hall.

There were eight in attendance at the Epworth League banquet from Newburg in Pontiac last Friday evening.

Several ladies attended the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. in Plymouth last Thursday.

Mrs. George Helm and son, Harold, of Garden City, visited Mrs. Thomas Sunday afternoon.

Newburg friends are congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Clement on the arrival of a 10-pound boy Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and Mr. J. Schomburger, 2b, visited Mrs. C. E. Ryder called on Rev. and Mrs. Havens at Pontiac Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutler are driving a new Graham-Paige automobile.

The new teachers for next year are Miss Walters, Miss Bulle and Miss Hargrove.

Miss Alice Gilbert, of Rosedale Park, Detroit, spent the weekend with her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert.

The mother and daughter banquet will be held Friday evening, May 11th, at 6:30 o'clock. The speaker of the evening will be Mrs. F. Lendrum, of Plymouth.

NEWBURG SCHOOL NOTES.

Mildred Gilbert.

Last Thursday Miss Reid brought Dr. Zip to our school. He gave us a very clever entertainment of magic. At the same time telling us of the value of milk, cereals, fruits and vegetables, and told us we should eat plenty of green vegetables to make our checks pluk. Dr. Zip pumped the milk from one of the boy's elbows because he drank the milk incorrectly. The boy then had to drink the milk by taking a sip, then tasting it, and so on.

Miss Lynch, of the Tuberculosis society, told stories to the grammar and primary rooms. Miss Bessie, of the Tuberculosis society, read the intermediate room a story of "The Squidder Who Sat on the President's Shoulder."

The intermediate room have decorated their room with apple blossoms.

The fourth grade are having special language work in imagination, vocabulary building, sentence construction, paragraph building and logical story form in building a story about Moses. The intermediate room are also mounting birds, copying information, making outlines and stories. They will complete with folio.

Miss James brought us our gold star certificate, which we are proud of.

Miss Gerboth and Miss Welliver were also our guests during the past week.

We have two new pupils, Marlon Allen, sixth grade, and Margaret Allen, first grade.

We are proud of our baseball boys, because they have won all of the three games they have played this year. The last game they played was with Plymouth seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys, while Newburg had three fourth grade boys, one eighth grade boy and others in the grades between. Shouldn't we be proud of Newburg? The score was 8 to 2. These were the runs made:

Clarence Levandowski 2
Kenneth Gates 2
Warren Bassett 1
Russell Stevens 1
Corless Allen 1
David Gates 1

Miss Franklin, who was the student teacher, visited in Mrs. Campbell's room Friday.

P. T. A. will be held the eighth of May. There is to be a business meeting and a free entertainment, after which will be sold candy, cake, pie and ice cream. All come!

A Baltimore barber was arrested for shaving a man on a Sunday. The policeman who caught him in the act allowed him to finish the shave, but presumably checked him from suggesting extra services to his customer. Wasn't that punishment enough for any barber?

Nethem Defeated in Opening Home Game

Nethem was defeated in the opening game at home, by the Liberty Athletic Club of Detroit, 9 to 4. Cunningham pitched winning ball, and to prove this statement, he struck out twelve of their batters, besides getting a single and a double for himself.

But Stjohnd won his game by his boys tightening up in the pinches.

Every last Sunday of each month, the five leading hitters' names will appear in the Plymouth Mail.

Oddities

From HERE and THERE

Spider Walled 14 Years in Concrete Lives.
Cedar Rapids, Ia.—An Iowa spider has been dug out alive after fourteen years in a concrete bridge. A gang of roadmen blasted away a culvert to widen a bridge. After a large slab of concrete was broken up, a spider's nest was seen in the center.

They dug it out and found half a dozen spiders, of which one was alive. A few minutes after getting into the air it seemed as lively as if never imprisoned.

The culvert was constructed fourteen years ago. There was no opening of any kind in the slab where the nest was found.

U. S. Hens Regain Supremacy Over Rivals.
Washington—Their rightful place in international trade has been won back by American hens during 1927. They provided more goods for export from this country than their foreign rivals were able to create for imports.

During several years the hen of the United States has been laying back in the race for foreign trade, but a magnificent come-back has been staged. American exports of poultry products—mostly eggs—during 1927 have been figured out by the Commerce Department to have a value of $9,584,000, while imports were worth but $6,935,000.

A horse tongue has gotten many into a tight jam.

Seed treated with DIPDUST 23 Sound—2 Decayed
Same seed treated with corrosive sublimate 4 Sound—21 Decayed

Which Seed Will Produce the Most Potatoes?

Compare the results of the new instantaneous Dip-DIPDUST with the old-fashioned "two-hour soak" treatment. Above is a photograph taken on the farm of A. Schlichtweg, Froehold, N. J.

White vines were still green, 25 consecutive DIPDUST and corrosive sublimate treated hills were dug. Dipdust hills had 23 sound and only 2 decayed seed pieces. Corrosive sublimate hills had only 4 sound and 21 decayed seed pieces.

DIPDUST is much more effective than the old-fashioned ways of treating seed potatoes. Besides, you can treat your seed potatoes as fast as you can scoop them up. Just dip them in Dipdust solution and out again and your seed is all ready to plant. One man can easily treat from 200 to 400 bushels of potatoes per day.

There is not the slightest danger of injuring the sprouts or even cut seed. DIPDUST controls surface-borne diseases, such as Rhizoctonia, scab and black-leg, and protects cut surfaces from seed rotting organisms in the soil. It insures sturdy, profitable plants that will increase your yield from 15 to 25 bushels per acre.

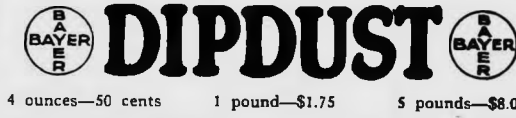

HARRY O. DICKEY, Elk River, Minn. "It was easy to see the difference between the treated and untreated parts of the field during the growing season (Early Ohio seed potatoes). The DIPDUST treated plants came up better and appeared healthier and sturdier than the untreated plants. At digging time I compared the yields and found that the DIPDUST treated rows ran 165 bushels while the untreated rows gave me only 140 bushels per acre."

GUARANTEE
Plant a few acres of DIPDUST treated seed in alternate rows with untreated seed. If, at digging time, you are not satisfied, return the empty DIPDUST cans to us and we will refund price paid.

One pound treats 15 to 20 bushels of seed potatoes.
Treat your Corn and Vegetable Seeds, too.

You can now also disinfect your seed corn and vegetable seeds with DIPDUST and increase your yield by preventing many of the diseases which cause poor germination, weak, spindly plants and poor quality crops. Simply use as a dust treatment. It is easily and quickly applied and costs but a few cents per acre. One pound of DIPDUST will treat six bushels of seed corn, or from six to eight bushels of vegetable seed.

"Better Homes" Week Is Over
More than 2,500 people have, in the last week, visited the Wayne County model which is situated in Maplecraft subdivision of Plymouth. People from all parts of the county visited the home as well as people from Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor.
Here it might be well to mention that the committee as a whole wishes to express appreciation of the hearty support of the people of Wayne County during the campaign. Special notice is given to the merchants of Plymouth, and to the other towns around Plymouth, for the way they helped push the Better Homes week. These merchants assisted in every way possible by advertising and by furnishing the home.
The programs were attended by people varying in number from fifty to two hundred. Those who were present at these meetings realize the great value of them, and are a good endorsement for the conduct of the campaign.
Here is a list of some of the special features of the home, which will recall to your mind those you did not notice:
1. The floor vestibule.
2. Two coat closets.
3. Rain proof entrance windows.
4. Pictures and their hanging.
5. Curtains, but not draperies, (draperies being left to choice of future owner.)

8. Downstairs: lavatory, sink, flushing toilet.
9. Rubber stair treads with nosing to protect edge of step.
10. Girl's room, with wardrobe of clothing, including work from Plymouth High School and Girls' I-H Clothing Clubs. (A description of wardrobe appears on Plymouth Prints page today.)
11. Mirror inside closet door.
12. Nursery arranged by Health Department.
13. Kitchen:
a. Noiseless electric refrigerator
b. Cleaning closet
c. Linoleum extending into closet and cupboards
d. Kitchen stool and ladder

In the words of Mrs. Dykehouse, local chairman of Better Homes in America, "The campaign was very successful. The committee was very well pleased with the project, and wishes to thank the people of Wayne County for their cooperation and help."

The Distinguished Guest
By JANE OSBORN
(Copyright)
PLEASE page Mr. Brown and tell him that I have had engine trouble but that I will be at the hotel in half an hour. This is Miss Mathers speaking. Mr. Brown will understand.
Dorothy Mathers was telephoning from the garage in a little village half way between Mardon college and the bustling city of New Kent. She had still had twenty miles to go, but with level road and little traffic she hoped to get her distinguished passenger back in college in time for the lecture which was slated to begin at half-past three. Ridley Brown was a very renowned philosopher, who had been engaged to lecture at Mardon college on his "Impression of America," and Dorothy Mathers was the niece of the college president, who had been sent by her uncle to fetch the distinguished savant from the hotel at New Kent where his train stopped.
Dorothy arrived before the impressive entrance of the hotel in New Kent exactly at the expiration of the half hour. A young man with a smart suitcase stood expectantly waiting. She barely brought the car to stand still, smiled and beckoned as she opened the door of the sedan.
"I'll put my case in there," said the young man. "But if I may I'll sit in front with you."
"By all means," agreed Dorothy. "I'm Dorothy Mathers, Doctor Brown's niece. How do you do, Mr. Brown?" Once she was in the clearer stretches of the country—headed toward Mardon—Dorothy told Mr. Brown that she hoped he had not been waiting long. Indeed not, he said. In fact, he had just arrived and had expected to wait for another hour or so before she arrived.
"But the jammer comes off at half past three," said Dorothy.
"Half-past three?" questioned Mr. Brown. "Why, I thought it was after dinner—eight or half-past. I've got evening clothes—Heavens, I can't go through with it in the things I wear."
"I'd like to know why not?" assured Dorothy, and then they drove on in silence.
"I had no idea you would be like this," was the next remark from the distinguished guest.
Dorothy giggled. "I didn't know you had ever even heard of me."
"How could I have helped it?" said Mr. Brown, and Dorothy felt that he was becoming rather absurd.
For awhile they said nothing. Some how it seemed as if they talked at cross purposes. Then Mr. Brown asked whether they would go right to the church, and Dorothy said they would go right to the chapel, if that was what he meant.
And as they drew nearer to the college chapel where the lecture was to be held Mr. Brown grew more and more perplexed. Dorothy led him into the small room behind the platform. A much distraught looking college president met them there. And seeing Dorothy's companion he looked more distraught than ever.
"But word just came that Mr. Brown couldn't be here," he said. "And the chapel is packed now. Mr. Brown's mother-in-law had passed away."
"My mother-in-law—passed away," stammered the Mr. Brown present, and then somehow explanations followed. The Mr. Brown present had come from the East to be best man for a friend. He had been told that the girl who was to be maid of honor—whose name he had forgotten—would meet him at the hotel and drive him out to Brookdale, where the bride lived.
"But what shall we do?" the distracted president asked. "The students are waiting for a lecture. If we had known before we might have got a substitute. But it is so late—"
"I made a speech last week," suggested Donald Brown. "I had an engineering job in Africa—had a chance to do some big game shooting—a few thrilling experiences."
The professor took a little dubious but saw no way out of the difficulty but to accept the young man's offer.
No speaker who had ever been heard in the college chapel held and thrilled and inspired his audience so completely as did Donald Brown that afternoon. Students and professors crowded round him afterwards to congratulate him and ask for further details of his adventures. It was generally understood that he was an old friend of the president's clever little niece, and had come to fill the gap at the last minute. And during all his congratulations Dorothy stood by his side. When she made a stir to move he held her back with a strong hand upon her arm.
Then at last when they had gone he turned to Dorothy. "Now I'll try to get to Brookdale for the wedding."
"Come along," said Dorothy and led the way to her car—and left the dismayed president gaping with surprise as they sped down the campus street on their way.
"It has been a glorious drive," Donald told her just before they reached Brookdale. "Maybe we'll be on our way to our own wedding some day."
"Silly," said Dorothy, "people don't drive together to their own weddings."
"Not unless they elope," suggested Ridley.
"Then let's elope," said Dorothy. "And sure enough—two weeks later they did."
The young woman in the stern of the little boat had whispered softly the word "yes." "But stay right where you are, Jack," she said hastily. "If you try to kiss me you'll upset the boat."
"How do you know?" hoarsely demanded Jack, a horrible suspicion already taken possession of him.

De-Ho-Co Victorious In First Start

The De-Ho-Co club won their first game of the season from the fast Municipal club of Detroit on Sunday by a score of 10 to 9. About a thousand fans turned out to witness the game, which was played with ideal baseball weather.

The visitors were leading 9 to 8 in the eighth when De-Ho-Co scored the tying run on two clean hits. In their half of the ninth the first man up singled and made second on a bad leg to first and scored on Con-siderman's clean single over third, winning the old ball game.

The veteran hurler, Harry German, pitched the first half of the game and was relieved by Constantine, who held the visitors well in hand while his team-mates pounded out their victory.

Many good plays were made, but the outstanding one was a catch made by "Dutch" German in center field. The ball looked like it was going for a sure home run, but "Dutch" ran into deep right center and speared the ball with one hand on the dead run. Eddy Johnston was the "big boy" with the bat for De-Ho-Co, getting three hits in four times up.

Two very pleasant and interesting features of the day were the raising of the flag and the pennant won by De-Ho-Co last year by the Ex-Servicemen's club of Plymouth, and the band concert by the Detroit Recreation Department Boys' band. They also furnished music during the game.

On Sunday next, May 6th, the De-Ho-Co club plays the West Coach club, a semipro club of Detroit at De-Ho-Co park. Both teams are now in A1 condition and a real ball game is assured.

Find Ancient Tracks Across Grand Canyon

Washington.—New finds of fossil footprints in the rocks of the Grand Canyon of Arizona, but this time on the north rim, 14 miles from the site of previous discoveries on the south rim, are reported by Dr. Charles W. Gilmore of the United States National museum and Glenn F. Sturdevant, government naturalist of Grand Canyon National park.

Slabs bearing the foot imprints of small reptiles or salamanderlike amphibians were found at two levels, one in the Cocconino and one in the Supai formation. These correspond with two of the three formations on the other side of the canyon in which tracks have been found during the last few years, but further exploration and examination of specimens will have to be carried on before it can be determined whether the levels match up exactly and whether the tracks represent the same kinds of feet.

The fossil footprints from the south side of the canyon thus far discovered represent 26 species, distributed among 23 genera.

Starts Plans for Biggest Free Fair

OFFICIALS OF ASSOCIATION ARE BUSY WORKING OUT THE DETAILS.

Plans for Northville's big free fair are under way. Secretary Floyd Northrop and other officials of the organization this week began completing the minor details that must be given attention in the next few days.

Already work has been started on the premium book, which is to be made larger than ever before. Because of the fact that the fair is to be a free one this year, the officials are looking not only for a much greater attendance but a greater number of entries in the various departments.

President Schrader of the association recently declared that every effort would be made to have this year's fair the biggest and best in the state, outside of the state fair and possibly Louisa. He pointed out Northville is the second community in Michigan to adopt the free fair plan, and that it had been adopted only after carefully investigating results at Louisa.

"We have talked with officials of the Louisa Free Fair Association. Gov. Green has been at the head of the fair for years and Fred Chapman has been associated with him. We have talked with both the Governor and Mr. Chapman and they all agree that we have adopted the right course in starting a free fair," said Mr. Schrader yesterday.

Work on the new grandstand is to be started in the near future. According to Ray Richardson, chairman of the committee having charge of this important improvement, the grandstand will be one of the most modern that can be constructed. It will be of concrete and steel and will seat at least 5,000 people.

There are many other improvements contemplated at the fair grounds by the directors of the fair association before the opening of the fair in September.—Northville Record.

Visits Ford Plant

The local plant of the Ford Motor company received a rather distinguished caller the other day. He was F. O. Wells, grand old man of the tap manufacturing industry, of Greenfield, Mass. Mr. Wells, now some years retired from active industry, is considered by many as the father of tap making as it is now known in this country. He had his hand in the organizing of many companies and was making taps as far back as the early seventies.

Mr. Wells, as he walked into Ford's Plymouth tap-making plant, with his full, robust frame, snow white hair, snow white Col. Cody beard, together with his kindly, jovial demeanor, presented a striking appearance. Wells, though understood to be wealthy, was sufficiently democratic to ride out on the bus from Detroit and then walk the several necessary blocks to the Ford plant. He remained several hours and highly complimented Mr. Gallimore, superintendent, on the efficiency and modernness of taps as made in Plymouth.

Mr. Wells, being a hotel man as well as a retired tap manufacturer, and owner of the pretentious Weldon hotel in Greenfield, took time to inspect Plymouth's new Hotel Mayflower before leaving.

AN EXPRESSION OF THANKS.
We hereby wish to publicly thank all the neighbors and friends for their great kindness in our late sickness and death; especially do we wish to make mention of the McLellan and Heene families, and F. D. Schrader. A kind thought is always kinder in sickness and in death, and we appreciate beyond words the kindness of all.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Bertha Schmidt Reinholz, who passed away three years ago, May 8th, 1925:
She bore her pain, she bore it well;
Oh, what she suffered none can tell.
Peacefully sleeping—resting at last.
Life's weary trials and sufferings past.
She did not fall to do her best;
Her heart was true and tender.
She did work hard for those she left;
That's something to remember.
Some may think we are not lonely.
When at times they see us smile;
Little do they know the heartache
That we suffer all the while.
Sadly missed by all her children.

County Women's Achievement Day

About two hundred women from all parts of Wayne County came to Plymouth to attend the annual achievement day held Friday, April 27th, at the Starkweather school.

Many came early to visit the Better Home in the morning, before the program started. The usual exhibits were dispensed with as the various groups had spent much time in furnishing the house in keeping with their ideas of what constituted a well furnished home. The principles of arrangement and grouping of furniture, color schemes and accents, pictures and their hanging, flowers and their arrangements were all points to be considered. Labor saving equipment and other essentials to managing a home were duly considered. Books received a proportionate space in the built-in book cases as well as in other convenient spaces in the house. Evidence of the work accomplished by the health department was seen in the sun bath for babies, the scales and measure for height and the furnishing of the nursery.

After a short program in the morning, consisting of reviews and reports by Miss Edna V. Smith, home management specialist, and Mrs. Marion Hoffman, home furnishing specialist; also the project forecast for next year by Miss Lois Corbett, Home Demonstration agent, the Baptist ladies of Plymouth served a very nice dinner to the guests. Miss Schrader and the High School orchestra lived the noon hour by several musical numbers.

The afternoon program was built around the home and its ideals. Miss Loretta Dawson from the Wayne County Library, gave several interesting facts about books for the home, books for the various members of the home, how to select good books, what one sees inside a good book, the different editions and publications. A thought which Miss Dawson left paramount with the audience was to be rooted by, not buried in books.

A few records were played by Miss Corbett, relative to music in the home. Children seem not to grasp a great deal through the radio, as it appears that they need to hear the same numbers more than once. Music for the young child, the older boys and girls and for adult members of the family were all played.

Mrs. Louise Campbell, state home demonstration leader, gave a more than usually inspiring talk on the meaning of a Better Home. After bringing out all of the details of home inside and out, and what one sees in passing along the road, or visiting a home or living as a homemaker, Mrs. Campbell charged each woman to go home with the attitude of a stranger and honestly ask herself, "Who lives here? What kind of people would actually have a home of this kind? How can I really make it a Better Home or a more attractive place than it now is?"

After the program, many of the women returned to the demonstration house to enjoy its hospitality once more, and to carry home with them ideas which they thought practical and transferrable.

Fall Plowing Will Pay

GUARANTEED BEET PRICE MAKES CROP FAVORABLE WITH MICHIGAN FARMERS.

Farmers who fall-plowed their land last year can get an increased tonnage of sugar beets, which will pay the costs of fitting the soil, according to statements by the farm crops department at Michigan State college.

Experimental work at the college has shown that fall-plowed land produces from one to one and a half tons per acre more than similar soil plowed in the spring.

Beets are grown under contract, and a fair price is assured the grower for the tonnage which he produces.

Specialists at the college say that the beet labor situation is improved this year. A better class of labor than usual is available, and farmers in the beet areas are finding that the beet workers help out in haying, silo filling and threshing.

Weather conditions at beet harvest time have been very bad for the past two years, but, as beets are one crop which has a sale price that is known in advance of harvest time, it is expected that Michigan farmers will plant a normal acreage of beets.

Robbers entered the Greensburg, Pa., post office and stole $20,000 worth of stamps. We suggest that if they are caught they should be made to lick them all.

Five hundred students at Yale recently jammed themselves into a space accommodating only 200, to listen to a lecture on Shakespeare, which ought to encourage those who think our college boys are not interested in higher things. The lecturer, by the way, was Gene Tunney.

Corn Borer Control Plan Outlined

In view of the fact that no federal appropriation for the payment of farmers for extra work performed in the control of the European Corn Borer will be made for the year 1928, the federal and state officials have decided that the only thing left for them to do is to handle the situation in such a manner as to get the best results with the limited amount of money available from the state appropriation.

In order to best handle the situation, it has been decided that ALL territory infested with the European Corn Borer and placed under quarantine by the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Michigan on December 1, 1927, under Quarantine No. 210, is, and will remain under quarantine, and no movement of corn or corn particles from this territory will be permitted. The quarantined area will then be divided into two parts: first, that part to the west which is the less than one percent area, and second, the counties to the east which is the one percent plus area and includes the counties of St. Clair, Macomb, Wayne and Monroe; Lenawee county except the townships of Woodstock, Rollin, Hudson and Medina; Oakland Co. except the townships of Groveland, Holly and Springfield; Lapeer Co. except the townships of Marathon, Rich, Deerfield, Oregon, Mayfield, Elba and Lapeer; Sanilac Co. except the townships of Greenleaf, Evergreen and Lamotte; also the townships of Salline and Northfield in Washtenaw Co.; the townships of Fremont and Dayton in Tuscola Co., and the township of Bingham in Huron Co., including all cities and incorporated villages in the above enumerated townships and counties.

In the one percent plus territory, which includes the counties above named, the rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner of Agriculture for the State of Michigan on September 20, 1927, which is No. 210, will be in full force and effect. All portions of this territory which are not cleaned by the farmers during the time specified in the rules and regulations will be cleaned up by the Federal Government in cooperation with the State of Michigan, and a charge made against the property the same as last year. In view of the lack of federal appropriation no compensation will be paid any farmer, either in the one percent area or any other area in the state.

While this department regrets the fact that the farmers are not going to be reimbursed for the extra labor performed, nevertheless, we realize that the infestation, especially in some counties in this territory, has reached such proportions as to make it necessary, for the preservation of the corn crop, to have a thorough clean-up.

It is hoped that we can all work together this year, and do a good job in the control of the European Corn Borer. With the large number of moths that are coming across from Canada, it is necessary that this be done or the corn crop of Southeastern Michigan will suffer materially.

AT THE THEATRE

"DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AS THE GAUCHO"

Eulogizing a day when Gauchos bold rode the boundless pampas and the law of might made right. Douglas Fairbanks comes forth in his thrilling new United Artist production, Douglas Fairbanks as The Gaucho, which will be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, May 6 and 7. A more colorful romance than this South American story, with its majestic scenery, its tense rivalries and conquests, could scarcely be conceived. Again, Fairbanks, actor-producer, brings to his world audience a screen narrative destined to rank with the epics of all time.

The star has the role of a bandit chief, the leader of a horde of Gaucho riders, who cross the mountains and occupy a stately shrine city whose wealth is the prey of the cruel usurper of the country. A madcap mountain lass (Lupe Velez), thrilled by the notoriety of the Gaucho chief, joins him on route. News of the outlaw's presence reaches the usurper (Gustav von Seyffertitz), who puts a price upon his head.

A beautiful girl of the shrine, (Eve Southern), whose healing as a child brought fame to the place, stirs strange emotions in the outlaw. The jealous mountain girl betrays him to the commandante (Michael Vavitch), who has placed his garrison in the city by the usurper's orders. A treacherous Gaucho lieutenant (Charlie Stevens), dismisses the band on a false message, and the outlaw is captured. Witnessing his cure at the shrine from the touch of a plague-stricken beggar (Al MacQuarrie), the mountain girl understands the "girl of the miracle" for the first time, and too late tries to prevent the arrest. She rides off to bring the Gaucho band to the rescue.

From his cell the Gaucho chief sees the shrine girl and her protector, the good padre (Nigel de Brulier), under arrest. He digs his way out and joins his oncoming riders, outnumbered by the dictator's troops, the Gaucho stampedes a vast herd of steers and gains the city as the soldiers are routed. The shrine girl and priest are released from the scaffold. The dictator and commandante are taken by the Gauchos, and the outlaw rides away with the girl of his choice.

No brief resume of the play can do justice to the skillfully constructed action. Enough to say that the imagination is captured at the beginning of the prologue and held to the close of the story. The whimsical humor of Fairbanks and his newly intriguing stunts are a seasoning for the vital movement of the play, whose flavor combines that of some rare old Spanish legend and the romantic moods of the borderland. Doug's adventures are of the sort that delight young and old. His riding, leaping and remarkable dexterity with the bolas serve to emphasize rather than detract from his scenes of superb acting. In Sherwood Forest or in the shadow of the Andes, he remains the gallant adventurer, ever with a surprise for his audience.

"THE ESCAPE"

Spiffy direction and some of the best characterizations seen here in movies are among the outstanding features of "The Escape." Fox Films production featuring Virginia Valli, which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 8 and 9.

New York is the locale of this modern version of Paul Armstrong's great stage hit and few directors have succeeded in catching the true spirit of the Metropolis as has Richard Rosson in handling the tenements and the night club scenes. The production is marked by the utmost fidelity throughout.

William Russell playing opposite Miss Valli, gives one of the best performances of his career.

George Meeker, well-known on Broadway but something of a newcomer on the screen, is admirably cast as the young physician who loses caste as he descends into the depths of New York night life. His portrayal is clean-cut and wholly satisfactory.

Nancy Drexel, another new player, goes over remarkably well as the wilful young sister of Miss Valli. It is said she is only 17. If this is the case, the next three or four years should be piteous ones for her. She has great promises and a thoroughly convincing screen presence.

William Demarest, another stage star, is cast as Trigger Caswell and acquits himself so creditably that one cannot help wondering why motion picture producers have not cashed in on his outstanding personality. He does not have to look "hard." He simply lives the part.

Miss Valli's characterization as May Joyce, a struggling girl of the tenements, will stand out for many months as the best thing she has attempted on the screen in many moons. It is a rare portrayal.

"A NIGHT OF MYSTERY"

What was lost in the stage play has been amply made up in the screen production of that celebrated Sardon drama, "Captain Ferreol," under the title of "A Night of Mystery," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Thursday and Friday, May 10 and 11.

Adolphe Menjou is the star of this Paramount picture, and presents a fine characterization, as the dashing

Captain Ferreol, of the French-African Chasseurs, the idol of women but an admirer of only one.

The story makes good screen material, and it is drama from the start. Tense moments are to be seen throughout, and the plot is particularly gripping.

The tale centers about the love of Captain Ferreol for the beautiful Therese D'Eremonet, and the admiration of Gilberte Bodsartel, a married woman, for Ferreol. Ferreol spurs the latter's attentions, but one night while visiting her, he sees a man murdered. The slayer has seen the love trust, and threatens to tell all he knows if Ferreol accuses him. Later, the brother of Therese is tried for the killing. Ferreol must keep his silence or ruin the reputation of Gilberte, the wife of the judge hearing the case. If he does remain silent, he will break the heart of the girl he loves.

That situation brings about a thrilling climax, enacted as only a star of Menjou's magnitude and ability could do it.

In the supporting cast are Evelyn Brent, Nora Lane, Raoul Paoli, Frank Leigh, Claude King, Margaret Burt, and William Collier, Jr.

"WHY SAILORS GO WRONG"

Based on the riotous theme of the original story by William Conselman, Sammy Cohen and Ted McNamara, the incomparable comedy team, will open in Fox Films "Why Sailors Go Wrong," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre Saturday, May 12.

Sammy and Ted form the Hebrew-Jewish comedy team, which has made such a sensation during the last year as the comedy relief of some of Fox Films' biggest productions. The boys got their first break playing together when Raoul Walsh selected them for important roles in "What Price Glory."

In this production the two are now featured in a picture with a laugh every moment from beginning to end, proving official faith in them as a great team of laugh provokers.

The story is about a taxicab driver, played by Sammy Cohen, and a hansom cab driver, portrayed by his partner Ted McNamara, who are cast by circumstances from a thriving metropolis to a tropical island. This environment of cannibals and hula girls proves a unique background for the comedy situations and adds to the humorous incidents.

Exteriors for the picture were taken in some of the most picturesque spots in California, proving that a comedy can be made more interesting with beautiful settings. Some of the places where the exteriors were made were on a palatial yacht, Balboa Park in San Diego, one of the largest parks in the world, and at Laguna Beach, noted for its large colony of artists.

Besides Cohen and McNamara, Sally Phipps and Nick Stuart are featured as the youthful lovers, and others included in the cast are Carl Miller, E. H. Calvert and Jack Pennick.

WHEN OPINIONS CHANGE. THE HIGH PRICE OF BOOKS AIRPLANES AND EQUALITY AN UNWISE TAX

The German and Irish liars insert the words: "Thank God," or "By the Grace of God," in every message describing their safe landing through fog and storm across the ocean after thirty-six hours of danger.

The professional atheist, unwilling to believe anything that "has not been proved to him," would find his opinions changing, in a big earthquake, or above the ocean in a fog.

Senators denounce the high price of books.

Mr. McKellar, from Tennessee, says: "Novels worth two bits" can not be bought for less than $2 . . ."

The price of novels is not so important. But the high cost of books containing positive knowledge, that would enable uneducated millions (including many college graduates) to educate themselves, is disastrous.

That a book should be sold for four or five times what it cost to produce it, is as bad for the publisher and for the author, as for the reading public.

When will American business, generally, learn that big sales with small profits, as shown in the automobile industry, are most profitable.

Lindbergh took thirty-six young Pacific girls up in the air, in installments yesterday, giving those charming creatures something to talk about forever.

Women may thank the good Lord for granting the flying machine. They can fly on the average as well as any man, and the airplane is another step toward real equality.

Effort to abolish the unwise tax on automobiles develops the fact that the Government collected a thousand million dollars from automobile owners and spent only six hundred millions on better roads—not fair to the men that pay for the cars, "war tax included."

The war ended some time since and the foolish tax ought to end.

A company is formed to build seadromes, ocean landing places to be scattered over the Atlantic. The theory is that trans-Atlantic airplanes would land, get fuel and start again.

But by the time the Atlantic is "dotted with seadromes," planes will fly across the Atlantic as easily as they now fly across the English Channel.

In the second place, if it is hard for fliers in somewhat foggy weather to find the Hawaiian Islands in the Pacific, how difficult would it be for them to find a landing place "dot" in the Pacific? As hard as finding a turtle asleep on the Pacific.

Dr. Winifred Sackville Strayer, who is a lady, says "Man is superior to woman, mentally, physically, artistically and psychologically."

"That is not all true, especially the 'physically and psychologically' part of it. But suppose it were all true. Michael Angelo's Moses is a finer product than Michael himself. But Michael Angelo made it.

Whatever a man is, some woman made him, and the producer is nobler than the product. Better be a coconut tree than a coconut.

A young boy, his spine straightened in a hospital, seems to have had his mind "straightened" at the same time. Before the operation he delighted in pulling wings off flies, and other cruelties. That is ended.

A healthy brain demands a healthy body. The greatest musician cannot produce harmony with a violin or piano out of tune. Millions are living that might be made better men and women if trephining could remove pressure from the top of the brain. Lack of reverence might thus be eliminated.

HEALTH EXAMINATIONS IN RURAL WAYNE COUNTY.

Below is the statistical report of these clinics:

Number of clinics held, 34; number enrolled, 930; number of pre-school children examined, 30; number of schools visited, 20; number examined, 798; parents of 297 children present at the examination.

Defects found: Vision, 79; hearing, 19; mouth breathing, 178; tonsils, 290; skin, 35; teeth, 411; palate, 9; cardiac, 8; lungs, 20; cervical glands, 108; orthopedic and posture, 34; phthisis, 52; thyroid, 501; under weight ten per cent or more, 76; over weight twenty per cent or more, 14; nutrition, 139. These 1,542 defects found in 643 children.

Corrections found: Tonsils, 79; teeth, 20; vision, 9; phthisis, 43; number found vaccinated, 253.

The health examinations in rural Wayne county have been arranged for through the public health department of the office of the Wayne county school commissioner.

The Tuberculosis society of Detroit and Wayne county has financed the several local physicians who have been visiting the schools.

This work has been carried on for several years past by a physician supplied by the Tuberculosis society. Inasmuch as Dr. Charles A. Wilson indicated this work and did the larger part of the examining in years past he has been chosen to supervise the work.

The local physicians who are co-operating are: Dr. J. H. Lewis, Dr. H. H. Proud, Dr. M. R. McGarvey, Dr. H. Brisbois and Dr. H. Spurling.

The teachers make the preliminary inspection of pupils, assisted by the nurse.

An effort is made to have all parents, school board and parent-teacher association representatives present the day of the examination.

There is an honor roll on which are placed the names of all pupils having no defects. All children whose parents are present also have their names on the honor roll. As the defects are corrected the children's names are placed on the honor roll.

Every child enrolled in the school is invited to take advantage of the examinations, although it is not compulsory. Any pre-school children brought to the school are examined if parents request it.

Slips are sent home or given to the parents. Later a letter goes to the family doctor stating that a health examination has been made at the school and that he was named as the physician of certain families. It is stated in this letter that the nurses of this office wish to co-operate with him in any way he may desire in order that the defects may be corrected.

As soon as possible the nurse will make home calls to discuss the findings with the parents and urge corrections.

Attached are printed slips, forms, etc., to be used in the examination. The marking system of the Detroit board of health is used. Records are transferred to the cumulative record of the individual pupils in the school and then to the files in the office of the county school commissioner.

The examining physician explains to parents and children also the defects present. This all requires a great deal of time, but since numbers is not our aim, we stress the educational side.

We have had some very speedy corrections in several schools and some of the defects the parents were entirely unaware of. One child had certain corrections made at once which have been invaluable to his normal development. This case alone seems to justify all the work done.

We believe this is one of the most progressive and important phases of our work and we carry it on with great enthusiasm.

CHAMPIONSHIP DEBATE

Last Friday evening, April 27th, in Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor, the championship debate for state honors, was staged. This last stage of debating proves to be very exciting and interesting, not only for the contestants, but for all interested in the field of debating.

The two schools that were the final contestants were Zeeland High School and Royal Oak High School. The question for debating was: Resolved, That the Direct Primary System Should be Abolished.

The Ann Arbor University band played several numbers and the boys' Glee Club of Jackson sang. These selections were highly appreciated by the audience.

Royal Oak proved to have the stronger debating team, and carried off state honors, much to the delight of Royal Oak enthusiasts, but somewhat to the disappointment of Zeeland High School supporters.

Plymouth was interested in this final contest and several Plymouth people journeyed over to Ann Arbor. Those present were: Miss Allen, Miss Gury, Mrs. Shawley, Mac Donnelly and Franklin Atkinson.

P. H. S. DEFEATS WAYNE, 9-8

Winning their first league game from Wayne on Thursday afternoon, Plymouth started a hard baseball season for Plymouth, in which they are going to score high and win the rest of the games in a different way than this one from Wayne.

Substituting Pankov for our regular pitcher, did not prove healthy; so Rip was put in after the first inning, in which Pankov walked two, one striking in a run, and two strike-outs to even it up, but four runs were scored for Wayne in this first inning.

Rip pitched the last six innings with only four strike-outs against Wayne's eagle eyes. Dolezky struck out only four in six innings as Plymouth did not take their last hit and Pankov pitched the first for Rip.

This game must have been an odd one for a baseball fan to witness, as every move went against common rules. Plymouth made only four hits while Wayne made six, and Plymouth had eight errors to Wayne's six in this single game, which is sure starting the league season in an odd style.

Based on errors and steals were the feature plays. Plymouth stole seven bases, one of which was a successful steal for home, which lost the game for Wayne, when their coach stepped onto the field to talk to the pitcher.

Atkinson, seeing the other coach's foolish play, waited until they were badly talking, and ran home as Jack Lundquist, the umpire, stood smiling at the unusual play. Wayne stole bases, three men were put out on trying to steal, and a man reached third base on errors, and then stole home in the first part of the fourth inning.

In the first part of the sixth inning, Freeman made a hit. Zamburis, next up, knocked a fast, straight ball, a safe hit, but Rip gripped it as it sailed at him, and Freeman could not get back in nothing but, so Rip put him out on first, with the first double play of the season.

This game is to be well remembered as Wayne put up the best fight they have had for years; but Plymouth won, nine to eight, so that is enough.

Table with 2 columns: Player Name and Score. Includes Zamburis, Wells, Dolezky, Janner, Tyler, Birl, Caplis, Gandy, Freeman, Schuyler, and Totals.

"BETTER HOME" WARDROBE

All the people who visited the "Better Home" in Maplecroft subdivision, during the last week, April 22-28, will agree that the girl's room was perfectly adorable. It was perfect in every way and delightful for the average girl in her teens. In the furnishings of a girl's room, there is a certain neatness, and her character can be read by the atmosphere of the room.

Most girls take the utmost pride in keeping their rooms sweet and clean, and there-in have a little sanctuary of their own where they may come and go as they choose. This room in the "Better Home" particularly typified the dainty, neat type of girl. In her clothes-room were the different articles of wearing apparel, all carefully arranged and arranged neatly. This wardrobe was made and furnished by Plymouth High School home

A MODERN MORALITY PLAY

As it has been the custom this year to give programs for assembly on Wednesday afternoon, the fifth hour, so the twelfth grade English class under the direction of Miss Allen, conducted by Miss Johnson, gave a modern morality play last Wednesday, April 25th.

The forms through which the English drama passed in its development, are: Pagan plays and saint plays; miracle plays; moralities; interludes; comedies and tragedies.

Miracle plays originated in Europe in the second century, and were paraphrases of Biblical events. These were presented in churches with the priests as actors. In the fifth century they were strengthened by the addition of religious dialogue and very simple scenery. Plays with such characters as Daniel, Lazarus and St. Nicholas as heroes were common in England in the twelfth century.

Miracle plays were presented in the public squares and places of cities, in the fourteenth century. They consisted of cycles which often covered from 25 to 42 important events of Biblical history. Overman, in Germany, is still noted for his passion plays, which vividly portray the chief events in Christ's life, and these are given by a simple village people with inadequate equipment, yet in such a manner as to attract the attention of the whole world.

Moralities were plays in which the several classes of vices were personified and allegorical representations were used in an attempt to correct abuses which had gradually crept into the miracle plays to the great scandal of the church.

The play given by the English class belonged to modern times. It is entitled, "Two Shalters and a King," written by a modern contemporary author, Edna St. Vincent Millay.

The play deals with a King, Chance, Tidy and Slut. The King is bewildered with his state of affairs and calls upon someone for help. Chance happens to be listening and advises him to obtain a wife. The King is horrified at first, but by the thought, but soon succumbs to it as a fine idea. He goes to every kitchen in his kingdom to find a tidy wife. Tidy always has her kitchen shiny and neat, but on the day the King visits, the kitchen has just been torn to pieces, and the King is completely disgusted. He will not listen to her entreaties, or listen to her story.

Slut is an extremely untidy person. A dish is broken upon the floor and the curtains and table cover are all askew. On the day the King visits her kitchen, she had decided to clean it for a change, and so when he arrives it is as neat as wax. He takes Slut as his wife. After he discovers who his wife is, he is greatly relieved but that does him no good. (Chance has done her duty, but the King has chosen wrongly.)

These characters were played very cleverly, and were taken by the following people:

- King—Lynn Partridge
Chance—Hazel Rayner
Tidy—Ina Campbell
Slut—Elizabeth Murray

PUBLIC SPEAKING STUDENTS TURN SALESMEN

Dupmobiles, Graham-Pages, model homes, Kodaks, gas ranges, electric sweepers, and cleaning compounds have been "on sale" the past week by members of the public speaking class.

Salesmanship talks constitute a part of this semester's course, and for several days in the class periods, the individuals tried to "sell" their wares to their classmates. First they put their prospective customers in good humor by some bright remark, and then proceeded to show pictures and demonstrate the advantages of their respective articles.

Frederick Sheary succeeded in "selling" Mrs. Shoney a Hoover electric sweeper, by pointing out its value to the young bride.

Lynn Partridge failed to buy a small Eastman Kodak from Chase Willott only because of lack of funds. Mr. Willott did the camera justice by demonstrating the simplicity of its use and the sharpness of the pictures.

For proof of the latter he showed a few samples. The mistakes of each picture, he explained, were the fault of himself or the object rather than of the camera.

The talk of Ramona Segwitz appealed not only in composition and attractiveness, but also to the appetites of the class. She easily succeeded in proving how delightful are the Schist Company's cookies. After making everyone's mouth water (which we at first thought very unkind), she very generously passed around a case of samples. Needless to say her talk was the most appreciated, and Mrs. Shawley has been asked to allow "certain members" of the class to give sales talks each week.

ORCHESTRA AND GLEE CLUB

Our orchestra is not only in demand in our own town, but last week it played in Northville at the Masonic banquet. Again as at many entertainments before, Elmore Carney and Harriet Hubert accompanied the orchestra and gave several vocal numbers. Before we know it, our school will be quite popular because of its orchestra and singers, which help out on the program so often.

The Hotel Mayflower was the scene of the orchestra's appearance yesterday. The occasion this time happened to be the Chamber of Commerce meeting. Our musical organization are often asked to assist in the Plymouth Club's programs, and their entertainment is usually enjoyed. At the Methodist church last Wednesday, the girls' glee club sang for the women of that church.

Miss Schrader has charge of these different musical groups which are progressing greatly under her leadership.

THE BAND

After a few weeks of non-appearance, the band again came into the public eye when it played at the baseball game last Friday. Their music was very stirring, and should have put new life into the players as they felt that they really did have some support from their classmates. The band has been steadily growing, and in the second year are several players who will be able to take their places in the regular organization next year. Mr. Dykhouse has charge of this work, and is succeeding very well.

STARKEATHER SCHOOL

Mrs. Lee's pupils work hard in order to earn a free reading period each month. Last month Joan Cassidy, Mary Kincaid, Tom Packard, Vera Bajorek, Willard Kincaid, Doris Lockwood, Catherine Compton, Helen Ribar and Rosemary West earned a free reading period.

Six B are dramatizing the play, "The Brushes Quarrel," in which they crown King Toothbrush.

Mrs. Lee is reading the well-known book, "Fennel," to her pupils and they enjoy laughing at the things he did.

GA and GB received the highest T score last month in reading and spelling than ever before. Next month they expect to raise the score again.

Mrs. Miles' 5th grade studied the picture, "By the River," by Henry Lerolle, a French artist, last week.

CENTRAL SCHOOL

June Nash received her atlas with her name printed in gilt letters on the outside for being the champion speller of the Central grade school.

Last Friday the girls of Miss Willmore's room recited off their moving pictures of Atlanta's Race. They were very interesting and the pupils were sorry when it was all over.

Once again the boys are forging ahead. We know they could do it. This time it is in spelling, and they are now ahead of the girls in Miss Willmore's room.

Eleven pupils of Miss Hallahan received gold stars in spelling, which is the same as fifty perfect lessons.

Miss Hallahan's hygiene class are learning a health play, to be given some time in the future.

Jack Gordon and Betty Moulton spelled Miss Farrand's room down last Friday.

Della Kaiser is a new pupil in this room.

Miss Farrand's pupils saw geography slides of the North Central and South Central states one day last week. These were interesting and did a lot towards fixing the products and geographical features of those states.

Lillian Baseman, who was in Miss Weatherhead's room, has moved to Bay City.

The second grade is studying their last picture, the "Return to the Farm."

Donna Anderson brought a plant to Miss Weatherhead's room, while one day last week Jean Hadley brought her guinea pigs and showed them to her classmates.

Many of the teachers have sent the penmanship papers to the Palmer company. All but four of the papers Miss Blossom sent away received a gold star button. That made those little second grade pupils feel happy.

Many pupils have been absent from both schools during the last few weeks with colds and the "flu." Nearly every day sees one or more of these absent ones coming back, and they all are welcomed.

All newspapers in Italy have now been ordered to print daily lists of all persons arrested and the reasons for the arrest. Vanity being what it is, we are sure those mentioned in these columns will treasure the clippings!

FRENCH CLASS HAS STEAK ROAST

Spring is certainly here when we hear people speaking of "steak roast" weather this year. Winter seemed to enjoy staying with us so much, that it didn't want to leave, and here it is with May already upon us. We have hopes that she may bring some warmth.

The French class has been planning for some time to have an outdoor meeting, but even thoughts of France wouldn't change the weather. Then last Wednesday, the class decided it couldn't wait any longer even if it froze, so that is how Miss Benton park witnessed a French picnic as the first "steak roast" of the year.

NAVY AVIATOR GETS REVENGE ON ARMY

Outstunts Record Holder in Other Branch.

Washington.—Lieut. Alford J. Williams, navy aviator and speed record holder, has gained revenge for his branch of the service over its friendly enemy, the army.

Back in 1925, Lieut. James H. Doolittle of the army affixed pontoons to his land plane, entered the Schneider international seaplane race and flew away with first place in the record time of 232 miles an hour. Then, on May 25, 1927, he performed the unprecedented feat of turning an "outside" loop, and chalked up another mark for the army.

The honors are even now. Lieutenant Williams has not only duplicated Doolittle's feat, but created a stunt new to aerial acrobatics—an outside loop from an upside-down position. In addition to shattering an army record he used an army type land plane.

How He Did It.

At a height of 3,000 feet, the navy pilot's plane described a horizontal figure eight, 600 feet high, the first loop made on the Doolittle pattern, and the second starting after a half roll, while flying upside down.

In a normal loop the aviator puts the nose of the machine down slightly to obtain maximum speed, then, pulling back on the control stick, rises slowly at first and then more rapidly as the top of the loop is made. Just after the top is reached, he shuts off his motor and lets the machine fall through the last half of the loop, which looks like the letter "E" in script.

The "outside" loop begins and is completed with the airplane's head on the outside instead of on the inside, as in the conventional loop. The new maneuver begins and ends with the pilot flying upside down.

In a normal loop the pilot feels he is glued to his seat. In the "outside" a force seems to pull him out of the cockpit.

"Everything seemed to rush to my head," Lieutenant Williams said, "and for a moment I was blinded."

Crisis Comes at Half Circle. The crises of both loops were reached when they were half through, he added, and there was a strong temptation to believe they had been completed. He admitted his flying senses deceived him, and he concluded he was through with the circle when in reality he had gone but halfway around.

Fliers estimate that the centrifugal force exerts a pressure of eight to one, making it necessary for the seat of the plane to be able to support a weight of 1,200 pounds. The difficulty experienced by the pilot in maintaining his own position with reference to the controls, with the blood rushing to his head, was well known to the pilots at the naval air station at Anacosta, who witnessed Williams' flight amid gasps of amazement.

French Hoard of Gold in Secret Flooded Moat

Paris.—A fortress with a moat guards the gold of the Bank of France. Deep in the cellars of the last-built branch of the bank, in an old aristocratic palace, there is always an armed sentinel with orders to let no one but the chief director enter. The entrance to the strong room is a metal safe door seven feet thick. Inside, the gold is stored in other, supposedly burglar-proof, boxes. The moat, 65 feet deep, has a swift 10-foot flow of water in it, diverted from an underground river.

Should some master cracksmen reach the big steel door, he would be in a smooth steel corridor, the floor of which would disappear from under him once he began operations. Below him would be the swift stream and all about him polished steel surfaces offering no grip. What devices there are to cause the floor to vanish are secret. Officials are so certain of the safety of their treasure that they are willing that burglars should know where France keeps her billions.

Smokes Way to Degree

St. Louis.—One student at Washington university here is helping to pay for his education by breaking in new pipes. He charges a nominal fee for aging the briars, and reports a lucrative business.

Law Makers Keep Eye on Weather

Washington.—Members of the house of representatives often pause while hastening to the floor for a roll call vote to find out how the weather is "back home."

Fastened to the wall in the corridor behind Speaker Longworth's rostrum is a huge weather map, which is marked daily to indicate atmospheric conditions all over the nation. Direction of the winds is shown by arrows, the color of which indicates whether sunlight, rain or snow prevails.

This silent spokesman for the weather bureau finds an audience almost every hour of the day. Those especially interested apparently are the representatives from agricultural sections.

The Runaway Car

By BEATRICE LESTER

(Copyright.)

DERRY LANCE lifted the dish cover and regarded the bacon and eggs with a skeptical eye. "All the world loves a lover," he quoted glumly.

"But—"

"But—I have not finished my breakfast," added his guest, Billy Latham. "Of course, we all know that the world loves a lover, and all that, and of course I am aware that not one fair daughter of Eve cares two whoops for you! Right?"

"Right," gloomily assented Perry as he helped himself to a hot roll. "It is all your own fault," went on Billy Latham. "You are a reclusive—a woman hater—yes, indeed, dear boy! And yet you wonder why you have reached the advanced age of thirty and have never loved a woman!"

"A girl would do," avowed Perry.

"Once upon a time you were engaged to a girl."

"She thought I was a flat. All that she liked about me was my bank-book."

"All girls are not alike, Perry. But on your old clothes and come with me for a tramp. We can act as agents for Potcleaver's cooking utensils—eh?"

"Get about a bit and see the world through clearer eyes?" Perry laughed heartily.

"A lark, I'll say," replied his friend. "Come, Perry, it is a fine day. Let's go out and buy a rummy looking old car and some sample pots and pans!"

"Wait until I change my clothes and pack a bag."

Half an hour later the two young men drove away from the garage.

"Some pranks those rich fellows play," grinned one of the workmen as the car disappeared.

"It is Lance's vacation—they say when he does work that he's at it day and night—writes books, you know."

Billy Latham was at the wheel of the hired car. They had excellent luck in selling the pots and pans and they took many orders for them, but no money would be paid until the goods were delivered. That first night they stopped at a village tavern. They ate a hearty supper, filled out their order blanks and mailed them at the post office and afterwards slept like the proverbial tops.

Other days and the sun was like gold and the air like rare wine that acted as a tonic, lifting their spirits high. Girls they had met in numbers—not one of them with the usual beauty, spirit and fire that Perry Lance yearned for in the girl he might love and who might love him.

One day he thought he had met her when a tractor passed them—a small tractor driven by a girl dressed in khaki overalls with a black smudge on her cheek.

"That is a wonderful girl, Perry," remarked Billy Latham.

"Yes," said the other briefly.

"Enough," cried Billy and stepped on the gas.

What happened to the vital parts of the old car just then no one could ever afterwards discover, but it darted forward and by jumps and bounds proceeded on its way. The two young men pulled levers, pressed pedals and pulled out knobs, but, in spite of their experience with all kinds of motor cars, they thought of jumping out before they overtook disaster. Even the steering gear became jammed and refused to function. They had passed the tractor at top speed and the girl's warning voice floated after them.

Behind them sounded the deep blare of a motor horn and the rumbling clatter of the tractor. Then it shot past them at top speed.

"There will be a crash now!" muttered Billy.

Perry tugged desperately at a lever. "Ye gods!" yelled Billy. "She's put the tractor across the road!"

Perry stared ahead and saw the girl jump from the tractor and run toward them. It did not surprise him when she jumped on the running board of their car which was evidently bound for destruction.

"Get off!" she shouted.

"Get off yourself," she laughed at him. "Come, jump off before it strikes!"

This being good advice to follow, she jumped off gracefully with a little running movement in the road and the two young men followed.

The driver was not going fast but it hit the tractor with a sharp impact that seemed to settle her own disorganization, for when she stopped with no damage to either one beyond a shattered windshield on the small car, the three of them looked at one another cheerfully.

"We have to thank you—" began Perry when she beckoned them both to the top of the rising hill. They looked down a hundred feet upon an ocean beach.

"The government is closing this road—you passed the traffic sign at the cross roads," said the girl. "We are building a stone wall right here next week."

If Perry Lance discovered that Betty Dunlap was the one girl in the world for him, and if he wooed her as an agent, who can blame him? He found out that her father was the contractor who had this particular job and Betty was driving the tractor because she felt like a lark. This particular lark led both of them to the altar and they are both extremely happy ever after.

"Now I am getting into the game," said the tadpole, as the wild duck swallowed him.

Jamie gazed at Mary's eyes—He gazed upon her lips bewitching; Mary dropped her lids demurely,—Surely her ripe lips were twitching.

"You can trust Smithers. He's as honest as the day is long."

"Do you notice how short the days are getting?"

Dr. Frank Crane Says

FAT.

There used to be a line in a play that went "Nobody loves a fat man." At least nowadays no woman wants to be fat.

There is just one cause of fat, however. People should remember that they never put anything on their abdomen or hips in the way of fat that does not come through the mouth in the way of food.

It is nice to talk about these things and it is less humiliating than to admit that we eat too much.

The real cause of fat is that we eat too much and live too much at ease.

If some of the ladies who complain of too much obese tissue would make a practice of taking the broom and sweeping the floor and getting down on their knees and mopping up in the kitchen and doing the family wash, they would speedily recover their desire for slenderness.

The candy habit grows and grows. No better cure for an enlarged abdomen can be found than lending over a washboard and no better cure for plano-shaped legs than plenty of walking.

If we would get down to the staple life and move about more and not less our figure would show it.

Exercise for the sake of exercise is pretty hard to take, but exercise performed in the course of one's daily duties is not so hard.

Out ought to arrange one's life as much as possible to wait on one's self. The necessary action of the body in attending to one's needs will have a great effect upon one's shape.

I met a man in Paris some years ago and when I asked him on behalf of a friend where a good valet could be secured he replied that he did not know about valets, as for some years he had been trying to see how many things he could get along without and not how many things he could get.

See how much you can do without and arrange your life as much as possible so that you have to wait on yourself and you will not have trouble with your figure.

At an auction sale near South Lyon recently, 135 Barred Rock chickens brought the record price of $1,137.75. The buyer was a Detroit man who had purchased the farm, and wanted the chickens to stay on it regardless of price.

The Wayne County Road Commission has definitely decided to build a new bridge over the river on Plymouth avenue, just at the turn between the Stinson factory and the plant of the Globe Furniture Company at Northville, some time during the present year.

Fire of unknown origin totally destroyed the Bell Branch school on Telegraph road near Fenkel avenue last week Wednesday morning at eight o'clock. The loss was completely covered by insurance. Pupils had not yet gathered at the school for the morning session.

Purchase of a new fire truck, a triple combination motor pumping engine with a 600-gallon per minute pump, hose-body, and 60-gallon "booster" tank, was voted by the Farmington City Commission at a meeting last week. The truck was purchased from the American-LaFrance Company.

The Walled Lake Exchange Club has begun correspondence with several operators to procure a bus line as a means of transportation with communities nearby. Service was suspended last Sunday by the Peoples Motor Coach Line which operated the service between Pontiac and Ann Arbor through Walled Lake.

W. C. Mack of Ann Arbor has let the contract for the construction of a park on the shore of Whitmore lake. A piece of land which has always been known as the sandbar, he contemplates transforming into a beauty spot. The lake will be dredged and the dirt thus obtained will be used to fill in the low places. Trees and shrubs will be built around the property.

Dearborn and Fordson voters will decide on June 12 whether these two communities shall be united into one large city. The question of taxation, following the proposed amalgamation, is uppermost in the discussions at present. With the extensive holdings of the Ford Motor Co. in the proposed city, the argument is advanced that taxation in Dearborn will be extensively reduced.

Hundreds of Oakland county children have been bitten by dogs suspected of being rabies sufferers during the last year and officers of the county have killed thousands of dogs. The disease continues to spread and as a result the county's sheriff has ordered that no dog be permitted off its owner's premises unless the dog is muzzled. Deputy sheriffs are instructed to kill all dogs running at large unmuzzled. The new order extends the quarantine period until July 12.

Workmen this week started the construction of a large dance hall at the Meadowbrook hotel on the J. W. Lathrop property, at the intersection of the Seven Mile road and Meadowbrook avenue. The structure will be 30x60, and with the porches which will cover two sides it will without doubt be a popular place during the coming summer. The structure will be big enough so that basket ball games can be played within it. In fact, the backers of the hotel project are planning on caring for small conventions and meetings of a similar nature. Northville Record.

THURSTON AT SHUBERT LAFALETTE THEATRE, DETROIT.

Thurston, the famous magician, is breaking all records at the Shubert Lafayette theatre in Detroit. For two weeks now he has been playing nightly to standing room only, and the management feels that many people out in the state would like to be advised of this entertainment. On account of the mechanical nature of the entertainment and the heavy strain placed upon Mr. Thurston, it is almost impossible to play less than week engagements, so the said management is taking this means of advising you that Mr. Thurston will remain for two weeks more and that out-of-town orders will be given special attention. Four weeks for a magician outside of New York is unheard of in the history of magic.

Thurston's program this season is the most elaborate and mysterious in all his 22 years as a magician and entertainer. For two hours and a half this suave, amiable Mephisto is on the stage. One of the outstanding illusions this year is Thurston's latest invention, "The Vanishing Whippet and Ten Pretty Girls," in which a real automobile and its occupants are vanished on a fully-lighted stage. This illusion has been a sensation this season. "The Moth and the Flame" is a magician fantasy that is regarded as one of the most beautiful illusions ever staged. "The Mystery of the Bathing Beauties" has all the elements of a good mystery story or play. In "Gravitation Defied" Thurston plays an impish trick of the "Alice in Wonderland" kind. He proves by a sort of conjurer's topsy-turvy logic that Newton was all wrong about the apple falling from the tree. According to Thurston, Newton fell upward and bumped into the apple. One of the remarkable features of the program is the half hour interlude of Oriental music, in which such famous Hindu feats as "The East Indian Rope Trick," the "Hindu Basket Trick" and "Red Fire Magic of the Light Priest" are demonstrated by Thurston and his company of Hindu fakirs or magicians from Darjeeling, India.

In all there are over one hundred illusions and magical effects on the Thurston program this season. During the run at the Shubert Lafayette matinees will be given Sunday, Thursday and Saturday.

It has been discovered that many much-feared varieties of sharks are quite harmless—except, for one, the loan shark.

Dear Friends:

I know two or three men around Plymouth who repair their own automobiles, but I don't know anybody who cuts his own hair or tries to keep his own watch in repair.

Mr. Draper is our watch doctor. If your watch is sick he can tell you in a minute what's the trouble. And if an operation is needed he can perform it.

I recommend him personally. He fixed my watch the other day, and anybody who can make that watch run is an expert.

About Dog Bites and Mad Dogs

The following was taken from the Bulletin of the Wayne County Medical Society, and we believe will be of interest to our readers inasmuch as there is a quarantine on dogs in Wayne county at this time:

In order to appreciate the dangers of allowing dogs to run the streets when rabies is so prevalent and to know what to do in case one is bitten by a dog there are a few things which we all ought to know about dog bites and mad dogs. The first and most important group of things is what to do if a dog bites you.

If a dog bites you—
Catch him and confine him.

Go to your physician for first aid. Report the bite to the department of health, describing the dog and stating where he can be found. Also describe the extent and location of the bite.

If it is found necessary to kill the dog you do not kill him unless necessary; be sure that the head is not mutilated, as it is through the examination of the dog's brain that the diagnosis of rabies (mad dog bite) is made.

Upon receipt of information concerning a bite, this department, in cooperation with the police department, will see that immediate action is taken. If the dog which is definitely responsible for the bite can be found, he will be confined and kept under observation for ten days. If the dog is alive and well at the end of the ten-day period you need have no further worry about the bite as far as rabies is concerned.

If the dog becomes ill or dies of rabies within the ten-day observation period you will be notified to take the Pasteur treatment, which will prevent you from contracting rabies.

If the dog responsible for the bite is not known or cannot be found you will be advised to take the Pasteur treatment, because with rabies so prevalent there is reason to believe the dog may have been "mad."

If the bite is on the head or face you will be advised to take the Pasteur treatment immediately without waiting for the ten-day observation period for the dog.

In order to understand the methods of dealing with a dog bite, which are briefly described above, we should know:

1. That rabies is a disease which develops slowly. It takes from two weeks to several months after being bitten before the disease manifests itself.

2. That the closer to the head the bite occurs the shorter the time before the disease will develop. This is obviously the reason for starting treatment immediately when the bite is on the face or head.

3. That the Pasteur treatment, which will prevent rabies if given in time, takes from two to three weeks for completion. It must therefore be started within a reasonable length of time after the bite has occurred, although it is safe to wait for the ten days during which the dog is being observed, except in the case of a bite on the head or face.

4. That rabies, if it actually develops, is incurable. It is fatal. It is therefore of the utmost importance that treatment be instituted if there is any chance of the dog being rabid.

5. That the bite need not be a severe one in order to give the disease. The saliva of the dog coming in contact with a slight cut or rupture of the skin is sufficient to transmit the disease.

There are a number of rather common misconceptions concerning rabies or mad dogs which it may be well to correct.

1. Rabies, although far more prevalent in dogs than in any other animal, is not confined to them. Not infrequently cats have rabies and sometimes the disease is found in horses, cows, ground squirrels, coyotes, wolves and foxes.

2. Rabid dogs are not always afraid of water. In the first and even second stages of the disease he will wade and even swim if necessary.

3. A mad dog does not always foam at the mouth. In many instances the increase in the amount of saliva is not sufficient to be noticed.

4. Simply because a mad dog does not appear to be mad is no sign that he is not suffering from rabies. In the early stages the dog does not run around trying to bite everyone with whom he comes in contact. On the contrary, he is often very affectionate, but restless. Frequently he tries to find a proper resting place, but cannot seem to make himself comfortable.

In order to lessen the present dangers of rabies we strongly urge that:

All dogs be confined at home.

The petting of strange dogs be avoided.

That all dog bites be promptly reported to this department. If the bite is reported this department will advise you concerning it.

In the event of a person being bitten in Plymouth or vicinity the best procedure is to get in touch with your physician at once.

Hints for the Home

by Nancy Hart

When putting away the woollens let us not forget that modern science teaches us several interesting things about moths.

First, that contrary to old beliefs—flying moths do not eat wool. It is the tiny worms hatched from their eggs that do the damage.

Killing flying moths, then, doesn't guarantee protection, for invariably, when seen flying, they have already deposited the eggs on woollens somewhere about the house.

Moth balls, cedar chests and other "smelly" compounds have no effect on the hatching of moth eggs, so the only sure way to combat them is to moth-proof fabrics themselves.

This may be done by immersion in gasoline; by spraying with an odorless, colorless, moth-proofing solution, or by washing in water containing an odorless moth-proofing powder that gives the same result. This treatment makes fabrics so distasteful to moth worms that they will starve rather than feed on them.

"Making Their Own."

Now and then let the children make their own candy—like we used to do. Show them how to measure and prepare this simple recipe which makes two pans of pure, delicious candy, and keeps them interested, too:

Two cups granulated sugar (beet or cane), a pinch of salt, two tablespoons corn syrup, water to moisten. Let come to a boil; add one-quarter teaspoon soda, two tablespoons sharp vinegar and a big lump of butter. Cook until a firm ball forms in cold water. Flavor, and pull.

Three Shortenings for Cake.

Many modern recipes give us the alternative of using either butter, margarine or whipped cream in making cakes. When margarine is used for shortening a little less is required, for it contains less water and more fat than butter. One and a half cups of whipped cream equal a half cup of butter or use in cakes.

Keeps Cut Ham Fresh.

In slicing from a large ham, rub the cut side and bone with salt. This will keep the ham wholesome.

Today's Reflections

How many of you can remember when a Plymouth girl got a thrill in the spring thinking about how soon she could hang out the hammock?

There are said to be 3,000 bootleggers in Washington city, but maybe that is only when congress is in session.

Why is it that some Plymouth women can sit down and worry over the fact that they haven't anything to worry about?

No man can control the weather—and few of them can predict it with any great degree of success.

A New York editor says when a man has been in politics 10 years he is fit for nothing else. Is that a knock or a boast?

The old-fashioned Plymouth boy who used to be yanked out to the woodshed every day and got a good lambasting because he was lazy now has a son who gets by by calling it liver trouble.

We have never cared to be a woman, but we've wished many times we could wear as few clothes as she does in hot weather.

Some men remind you of a sleeping dog. It doesn't take much to start them barking, but it's mighty hard to make them stop.

We recently heard a Plymouth woman say that if Satan were to blow his trumpet tomorrow some of the fault-finders would rise up to tell him his musical education had been neglected.

The department stores are advertising "chicken suits" for women. But even they can't make an old hen look any younger.

No Plymouth woman likes to hear her husband getting a bawling out from another man. She figures that the other man is usurping her privilege.

You may convince a Plymouth girl that some day her hair will be gray, but you can't make her believe dimples will turn to wrinkles.

One half of the world wonders how the other half ever raised the price of an automobile.

After a man has knocked the League of Nations all morning, and knocked the Bolsheviks all afternoon, and knocked prohibition all night, he will go home and inform his wife that if women didn't talk so much they could get more work done.

IF

If you had started saving years ago, You'd be rich today. Better start now, if you want to safeguard the future.

Your Health

You yourself can do more that will affect your health than any one. Where reason rules and care is taken, nature keeps the individual in perfect health.

You Pay the Penalty for Neglect

You cannot neglect your health, ignore the laws of nature, without paying the penalty sooner or later. But just give nature her opportunity to serve you and you will be free from disease and the possessor of glorious health.

The Chiropractor Exists for Just One Purpose

The strains, jars and twists that you daily subject your spine to cause the spinal segments to work out of place. You cannot adjust your spine. Nature cannot transmit her vital forces over the nerves when they are pinched between these misplaced spinal segments. Your chiropractor adjusts these vertebrae to normal alignment so that nature can keep you well. And when this is done nature does keep you well.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees Monday evening last, C. H. Bennett was elected president, and D. G. Brown secretary for the present church year.

Mr. Partridge's class was glad to see their leader back in his usual place last Sunday, after his recent illness. They will have a pot-luck supper meeting next Tuesday evening at 6:30 p. m., at the home of Amy Blackmore, Canton Center road.

The Woman's Auxiliary is planning a very special meeting for Wednesday, May 9th, at 2:30 p. m. You will not want to miss the program. It is to be unusually fine. And then refreshments are to be served, while the women enjoy a right down regular visit. Every woman of the congregation is nominally a member of this organization. All are invited. Each active member is urged to be present, and to bring with her at least one nominal member. The women are planning lots of interesting things for the year. Let the housecleaning wait while you join the other women in this good time and worthy effort.

The Busy Women's Bible Class will meet on Thursday, May 10th, at the home of Mrs. Oliver Loomis, 1053 West Ann Arbor street. Pot-luck dinner at noon, followed by business and social meeting.

Mother's Day will be observed Sunday, May 13th. Every mother and daughter should plan to share in this service.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Notice has been sent to the pastor that the Rt. Rev. M. J. Gallagher, bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Detroit, will officiate at the blessing of the church, and at the same time administer confirmation, July 1. Preparations will soon be made to give him a royal reception and welcome to Plymouth.

The first communion class is well under way, and will continue until the last week in June. There are about ten boys and four girls in the convent class while there are three adults.

The ladies of the parish mean business now, and transacted some lively business at their meeting last Wednesday afternoon.

It is reported that a new parish will be organized in Grandale Gardens, Beech and Plymouth roads, in the near future; but this parish, while being a neighbor, will not conflict with us, as all people getting the mail from the Plymouth postoffice belong to the Plymouth church. So this makes our territory on the east side of the McKinney road. We wish the new parish success.

Sunday is finance Sunday, the report will be read and comments made. The choir will again resume their weekly practices on Friday nights.

The baseball team is again in action. They lost last Sunday to Liberty Athletic Club, of Detroit, 8 to 4. Next Sunday they cross bats with the colored boys, Michigan Athletics, at Keego Harbor, near Orchard Lake, at 3:00 o'clock.

Word has been received that Charles Mertens was seriously injured last week, and is at St. Joseph hospital. Mr. Clemens. His sister, Mary, from here, has been at his bedside since the accident.

The funeral services of Mrs. Catherine Lehman took place last Monday, in the presence of a large congregation and a number of priests. Rev. F. C. Lefevre conducted the services, assisted by Rev. V. Harker, Rev. L. Gaffney, Rev. J. Schuler, Rev. A. Graeber, Rev. L. Chapman, and the Reverends E. DePuyat, C. Ulenberg, McQuillan, M. Walker, C. Dolan. The Rev. Vincent Harker preached the sermon. The choir was directed for the occasion by Miss N. Mollitor of Northville. Both the large and small choirs sang the requiem mass, and rendered the same in a solemn manner. John Schomberger sang an Ave Maria at the offertory.

There are still a few self denial banks out. Their return is anxiously awaited.

METHODIST NOTES

"A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth."

Have you thought that good habits are as easily formed as bad ones? Why not begin this week to form the habit of attending the mid-week prayer and praise service, 7:15 to 8:00 p. m. It will do you good.

It is not too soon to think about Mother's Day. If you cannot visit mother on May 13th, be sure to write her so she won't be disappointed. You are still a child to her, whether you are six or sixty.

Wednesday, May 9th, is missionary day, with Mrs. Fred Thomas, Blunk street, as hostess. A cooperative luncheon will be served at 12:30, followed by the business meeting, after which will be the program under the leadership of Mesdames Sara Ross, John Miller and W. R. Lombard. Mrs. Lloyd E. Wilson and Miss Winifred Jolliffe are luncheon committees. All women of the congregation are invited to meet with us.

It was a splendid address that Robert S. Womer, of Detroit, gave us last Sunday morning, on the subject, "The Christian Sunday. Can We Save It?" There was much "food for thought."

Twenty-four members of the Philathea class met Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. R. A. Patzsch on Starkweather avenue. Using the beautiful Philathea installation service, Mrs. F. A. Lendrum, in a very pleasing manner, installed the newly elected officers: Mrs. Wm. Tait, president; Mrs. Wellman, vice president; Mrs. Wm. Farley, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. I. N. Dickerson, teacher; Mrs. L. Clemens, assistant teacher. The newly installed president then conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Irwin had charge of the devotions, and Mrs. Wm. Kinney, the program. Refreshments were served, and all enjoyed a pleasant evening. Miss Hattie Holington invited the class to her home on Union street, for the May meeting.

Mrs. Hillman's circle extends an invitation to all the women of the church, to attend a "silver tea," to be held in the church parlor on Thurs-

The Ladies' Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon, May 9th, at the home of Mrs. Dreyfous. Let us all make a special effort to attend this meeting. The young people's class will hold their monthly business meeting Monday, May 7th, in the church basement. Pot-luck supper will be served at 6:00 o'clock. Business and social time will follow.

Beginning Sunday evening, May 13th, Miss Gladys Fox will be with us for a period of six weeks. Miss Fox is a soloist from the Detroit Conservatory of Music.

The annual church business meeting was held Wednesday evening, April 25th. All enjoyed the Christian fellowship while gathered around the supper table. About 35 were present at the business meeting which followed the supper. All officers whose terms expired were re-elected except Henry Stanley and Mrs. Sewell Bennett.

Since Mr. Stanley is unable to attend the meetings, Mr. Beckwith was elected as deacon to take his place. Our missionary treasurer, Mrs. Sewell Bennett, felt it necessary to resign the work this year on account of poor health. Mrs. Beckwith was elected to take her place.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

The minstrel show put on a week ago tonight was a great success. The show itself was improved over last year's entertainment. The audience was not as large as last year but was very appreciative. A substantial sum of money was realized for the men's clubs of both the Dearborn church and the local mission.

The Rev. Oscar J. F. Seltz and his wife moved to Plymouth Monday and are to be found at 853 Ross street, the first house west of Main street, on the south side. The church extends a hearty welcome to the new rector and his wife and hopes that St. John's will grow and prosper under their leadership.

The church yard is getting more filling dirt from the Penniman avenue excavation. The yard will soon be ready to seed.

NEWBURG CIRCUIT NOTES.

Don't forget "Mrs. Tubbs of Shanty Town" Thursday and Friday nights at the hall. Come or forever be sorry.

The mothers and daughters are all ready for a great time at the banquet in Newburg May 11th. Get your tickets early so you will not be disappointed.

Mother's day is just ahead and you can rest assured that "mother's" will not be forgotten on this circuit. Beech church and Sunday school have plans for their mother and daughter banquet, May 16th.

Garden City's mothers and daughters will feast together and sing together while the men work on May 17th, with special Mother's day services in the schoolhouse on May 13th at 7:30 p. m. Baptismal services at that time.

Everyone seems to have felt the invigorating influence of the spring season and are pushing forward for greater things this summer.

The "infant" at Waynford seems to be normal and thriving, promising greater things for the future.

LIVONIA UNION CHURCH NOTES

The Ladies Aid Society held a very delightful meeting last Thursday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Enell, 10043 Orange Lavn, Detroit. About forty-five were present. Mrs. Enell had very kindly arranged for the Grinnell Trio to give a very fine entertainment after the business meeting. This program was indeed enjoyed by all. At the close of the meeting, a delicious pot-luck lunch was served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Smith, at Redford, Thursday, May 31st.

All the children of the Sunday school will meet at the church next Saturday at 2:30 p. m., to practice for the Mother's Day program.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith and son, Richard, Jr., of Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Kingsley and son, Gerald, and Mrs. Sarah Ide of Wayne, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Redford. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith and son, Gordon, of Dearborn, and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Enell and family of Detroit, at Sunday dinner at Dye's Inn, on Grand River.

Attendance at Sunday school last Sunday was 82. A great deal of interest is being shown in the Sunday school.

BUICK leads the fashion parade

Fashionable throngs... sparkling motor cars... and standing out like a flock from Paris—today's Buick!

Fleet, low lines, suggesting rocket-like getaway and unrivaled power... glistening colors, vivid and varied as the harmonies of Spring... and soft, rich upholstery, delightful to the sight and touch.

Luxury like this ordinarily costs a thousand dollars more.

But Buick leads any other three cars in its field in dollar for dollar sales; and this tremendous volume makes possible unequaled value.

You may as well have a fine car, when you can buy it at Buick's price. Smart—youthful—colorful—Buick leads the fashion parade.

Why RED TOP Steel Posts Are Better

STARTING with RED TOP Posts and the RED TOP Driver this is what you alone can do:
Drive 200 to 300 posts a day through the hardest soil and align them perfectly. Complete a week's fencing job in a little more than a single day.

Red Top Steel Fence Posts

YOU can even build that new fence you've been thinking about—do it quickly and what's more—be done with that fence job for many long years.

Come in and let us show you on an actual post the differences that sold us on RED TOPS and make us recommend them so strongly. Then, too, we can show you how doing a little fencing will turn waste into profit. It's a good idea—one that will repay the fencing cost in a couple of years and, after that, make extra profits for you.
