THE EVENT MARKS FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE STORE IN PLYMOUTH.

In a full page advertisement in today's Mail, Paul Hayward, Men's Wear, in the Penniman Allen building, announces the first birthday party of that store on Saturday, October 6th, between 9 a. m. and 10:30 p. m. The event also marks the showing of the new fall merchandise with which the store is fully stocked.

It was just one year ago that Mr. Hayward opened his store in Plymouth and during that time he has enjoyed a splendid patronage from the people of Plymouth and surrounding country.

Not only has the store had a large local business, but they have customers in Royal Oak, Pontiac, Detroit, Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor, who are regular patrons of the store.

The Hayward store features the Kuppenheimer suits and overcoats and the Wilson Brothers Underwear and the present showing which the store is making in these lines contains all the very latest and smartest ideas in men's wear.

Another feature of the Hayward store that has had much to do with its popularity is the gymnasium which has been opened in the spacious basement of the store. Here will be found a punching bag, boxing gloves, and a hand ball court. The gym has been provided with showers for the convenience of those who care to enjoy its privileges, and it is open to everybody. The newly organized Hockey Club have the use of the gym on Tuesday and Friday nights.

Mr. Hayward and Orlo Owen, who is associated with him, have made a host of friends since they have been in Plymouth and they are to be congratulated on this, the first anniversary of the store, on the success which they have achieved.

A most cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the birthday party, which will have many unique features. There will be plenty of music and other attractions.

Through the courtesy of William T. Pettigill, coffee and doughnuts will be served free to everyone who attends the party on Saturday, October 6th.

ROTARY GOVERNOR VISITS PLYMOUTH.

This was Governor Hedke's first official visit to the local club, and he congratulated the members on the excellent condition in which he found the affairs of the club.

Merrymakers Revue At Local Theatre

A BIG TIME SHOW, TOGETHER WITH FEATURE PICTURE AT PENNIMAN ALLEN THEATRE, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, OCTOBER 7-8.

Manager H. R. Bush of the Penniman Allen theatre announces another special attraction along with the regular feature picture at the stage theatre for Sunday and Monday, October 7-8. The special attraction is no other than "The Merry Makers Revue," a big stage show, presenting light people in a fast, peppy, singing, dancing, musical and comedy act. This company comes highly recommended. It is a different sort of an entertaining unit, with the revue type of show as the base, with a number of comedians to keep the pace fast and furious. They are clever and capable artists, who know how to entertain, thus assuring a delightful entertainment.

The feature picture is Clive Brook and Irene Rich in "The Perfect Crime," one of the real big pictures.

The price of admission for these two nights of extraordinary entertainment will be the same as usual, no extra charge.

LEAGUE CHAMPS IN POST-SEASON SERIES

DE-HO-CO WILL MEET STRONG ECORSE TEAM AT WYAN-DOTTE SATURDAY.

THE SAME TWO TEAMS WILL PLAY AT DE-HO-CO PARK NEXT SUNDAY.

A post-season series to determine who are the real champions of this district has been arranged between the Ecorse State Bank, Downriver league champions, and De-Ho-Co, winners of the Inter-county league championship.

The first game will be played at Wyandotte, Mich., Saturday, October 6, and the second meeting will be at De-Ho-Co park Sunday, October 7. In event a third game is necessary the battle will be decided by the toss of a coin and the game will be played the following Saturday or Sunday.

The Ecorse State Bank team has some of the best ball players seen in action in these parts in some time and their supporters are confident they will be able to down De-Ho-Co. The De-Ho-Cos are equally confident of winning the series and they point to their Inter-county league record to substantiate their contentions. During the season they won 16 and lost four of the scheduled league games and met and defeated such strong teams as Pontiac, West Point and Holly. In addition to winning the Inter-county league championship they also won the elimination series held at the Livingston County fair at Howell and the series played at the Northville fair.

This will be the last game played at De-Ho-Co park this season, and as the Ecorse team is by far the most formidable opponent De-Ho-Co has been called on to meet, an interesting and hard-fought game is in prospect. Sunday's game will start promptly at 3 p. m. and local fans are advised to be on hand early to insure good seats, as a capacity crowd is expected.

Kiwanis Club Hears Interesting Talk

CONGRESSMAN GRANT HUDSON WAS SPEAKER FOR THE OCCASION.

Through an oversight several items were unintentionally left out of last week's Mail, among them the report of the Kiwanis club meeting last week Tuesday. Several visitors from out of town were present, among them Postmaster Neal and Editor Eaton, of Northville.

The speaker was Congressman Grant Hudson of the Sixth Congressional district, of which Northville is a part.

The congressman spoke of the great industrial development for this part of the country, saying that industries were fast removing from the Atlantic seaboard to the Detroit and Great Lakes area. The speaker stated that the completion of the St. Lawrence deep waterway system would make Detroit the greatest inland ocean port in the world, thereby making the growth of the communities surrounding Detroit a spectacular certainty. The congressman said that without a doubt the next congress would pass the Boulder dam bill, which would not only give a great water supply to the Pacific southwest, but would also give to that section of the country an unlimited power supply.

The speaker lauded the progressive spirit of Plymouth and Northville, and spoke in the most commendatory terms of the work of the Kiwanis club and similar luncheon clubs in the communities in which they exist.

The meeting was in charge of Roy E. Crowe, who introduced the speaker.

PLAN SERIES OF SOCIAL GATHERINGS

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS AND PYTHIAN SISTERS WILL HAVE FIRST SOCIAL MEETING TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 9.

At a recent meeting of Plymouth lodge, No. 238, Knights of Pythias, it was planned to have a series of social or get-together meetings this fall and winter, the first meeting to take place Tuesday evening, Oct. 9, at the lodge rooms. Every other month the Pythian Sisters will entertain the Knights and families and every other month the Knights will entertain the Sisters and families. The Knights will entertain this month on the above date and next month it will be up to the Sisters to entertain the Knights.

It is hoped that these social meetings during the coming months will do much for the good of the order and stimulate renewed interest in both organizations.

The officers and members who have arranged these affairs will be sorely disappointed if it does not bring out the majority of its members, if not all of them, and with the present accommodations in their new hall on Ann Arbor street East, at the point of the park, a good time is sure to be had. Keep the date in mind, Oct. 9.

His remains were taken to Ypsilanti, where he resided, the same evening.

B. J. HOLCOMB ENTERS CHICAGO UNIVERSITY

POPULAR PLYMOUTH EDUCATOR NOW STUDYING IN DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION IN THAT UNIVERSITY.

B. J. Holcomb, who for nine years taught chemistry and agriculture in the Plymouth public schools, left last week Friday for Chicago, where he entered the University of Chicago, where he is studying for a Ph. D. in the department of religion.

Mr. Holcomb already holds a Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan and a Bachelor of Science degree from the Michigan State college.

Mr. Holcomb will be greatly missed in Plymouth, where he has taken an active interest in church, school and fraternal affairs. He was sponsor for the Hi-Y club and Aggie club advisor. He was teacher of the young people's class of the Methodist church for the past five or six years and had charge of the recreational work since the building of the new church home.

For two years Mr. Holcomb served as lecturer for the Wayne County Pomona Grange.

Mr. Holcomb is a member of the local Masonic fraternity and has passed through all the chairs of the Royal Arch except one, which he would have occupied had he remained here this year. He is also a member of the local Order of Easter Stars and was parson in 1927.

For the past few summers Mr. Holcomb has taken a group of boys to the summer conference at the Torch Lake Y. M. C. A. camp. At the recent Methodist conference held at Sault Ste. Marie he was admitted to the Detroit church conference.

Mr. Holcomb's many Plymouth friends will wish him an abundance of success in his new work.

Plymouth's Newest Enterprise Opens

PERFECTION LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING COMPANY COMMENCED OPERATIONS MONDAY.

The Perfection Laundry and Dry Cleaning company, Plymouth's newest enterprise, commenced operations Monday. The plant is located in the building at 875 Wing street, just off South Main street, which has been completely remodeled to meet the needs of an establishment of this kind.

A representative of the Mail visited the plant Monday and found them working in all departments. There is probably not a better equipped plant to be found anywhere outside of the larger cities. Mr. Corey, the owner and manager, has left nothing undone to give Plymouth a modern laundry and dry cleaning establishment.

The laundry is equipped with an electric garment press for pressing, a large mangle, one three-compartment washer, one two-compartment washer and one single-compartment washer and an extractor.

The dry cleaning department is equipped with a washer for cleaning, extractor and a drying oven.

A large tubless boiler supplies plenty of hot water for the plant.

The public is invited to visit the plant at any time and see this modern equipment in operation.

GAS COMPANY BUYS INHALATOR

THE NEW DEVICE WILL BE AVAILABLE TO COMMUNITY SHOULD AN EMERGENCY ARISE.

P. H. Deal, assistant manager of the local branch of the Michigan Federated Utilities, announces that his company has purchased a portable I-I-H inhalator, a resuscitation device for administering carbogen (95 per cent of oxygen and 5 per cent of carbon dioxide) to victims of asphyxia from gas, smoke, carbon monoxide, petroleum vapor, collapse and other causes, which will be kept at the Plymouth office of the company, and will not only be for use in the event of an accident to an employee of the company, but will be available for any emergency call where a device of this kind is needed in the community.

This is a device that has long been needed in Plymouth, and the gas company has displayed a generous spirit in offering its use to the community should the occasion arise.

Mr. Deal appeared before the village commission Monday evening and informed that body of the purchase of the inhalator and the company's offer of its use to the community. He also extended an invitation to the commission, the fire department, police department and the doctors of the village to attend a demonstration of the new device given by an expert to the employees of the gas company at the village hall last evening.

Serious Auto Accident On Moreland Road

THREE MEN INJURED WHEN AUTO HITS ELECTRIC HAND CAR.

A serious accident occurred last Friday forenoon at the Moreland Road crossing of the Pere Marquette railroad, when an automobile driven by Donald Pierce, of this place, hit an electric hand car upon which were riding several section men. The hand car was thrown from the track into the ditch. Louis Partrifiro, section boss, was cut about the head and shoulders, and Joe Robson suffered a fractured collar bone. Daniel Gomez was the most seriously injured, it being found necessary to amputate one of his legs below the knee. The injured men were brought to Dr. A. E. Patterson's office, where they were given surgical attention. Gomez was later taken to the Pere Marquette hospital in Detroit. All of the injured are getting along nicely.

Alton Martevia was riding with young Pierce when the accident happened.

MRS. S. L. BENNETT PASSES AWAY

FUNERAL SERVICES WERE HELD MONDAY AFTERNOON FROM THE RESIDENCE.

Mrs. Sewell L. Bennett passed away at her home on Starkweather Avenue at an early hour last Saturday morning, September 29th. Mrs. Bennett had been in failing health for the past year. She was a lady much beloved by all who enjoyed her acquaintance and she will be greatly missed in this community where she had resided her entire life.

She was a member of the Baptist church for 52 years, and while her health permitted, was active in the work of the church in all of its departments.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett celebrated their golden wedding anniversary two years ago.

Ida J. Lyndon was born in Canton township, Wayne County, Michigan, April 16, 1856. She was the daughter of Samuel and Jane Lyndon. She attended school in Canton, also in Plymouth. She was married to Sewell L. Bennett, November 23, 1876. Two children were born to them, Paul L. who preceded his mother in death in 1919, and Walter S. now residing in Detroit.

She is survived by her husband and one son and three granddaughters, Mrs. George Burr, Miss Marion Bennett and Miss May Bennett, and two great granddaughters, Sanford Paul Burr and Jane Helen Burr. She also leaves one brother, Alfred D. Lyndon and one sister, Mrs. Dora A. Cole, to mourn their loss.

The funeral services, which were largely attended, were held from her late home Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Rev. Sayles, of Stockbridge, a former pastor of the local Baptist church, and Rev. Donald Riley, the present pastor, officiating. Mrs. William Bake sang two beautiful selections. The numerous floral offerings spoke in mute evidence of the love and respect of relatives and friends. The interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

COUNTY ROADS SHOW GROWTH

543,382 MILES OF IMPROVED HIGHWAY REPORTED BY COMMISSIONERS.

Wayne County now has 543,382 miles of improved road, according to the twenty-second annual report presented last week to the Board of Supervisors by the Board of County Road Commissioners.

This mileage includes all state trunk line, Federal aid, Inter-county Covert and county Covert roads as well as 22,406 miles of road "over" which we have relinquished jurisdiction to the City of Detroit and other municipalities," the report says.

In conjunction with the State Highway Department on trunk line, Federal aid, Inter-county Covert roads, County roads and assessment district roads we have completed 1,094,124 square yards of concrete of an average thickness of nine inches, bringing our total yardage of concrete up to 8,091,382.

Some years ago we established 40 feet of concrete as the ultimate minimum width of our improved roads and in our larger efforts this past year has been to widen existing concrete roads of a lesser width to our ultimate minimum. We shall continue, however, to build 20-foot concrete roads from time to time to serve local traffic and to act as feeders to our super-highways, trunk lines and secondary roads. Such service roads are designed for future widening to take place as soon as traffic demands increase to such an extent that the 20-foot concrete becomes congested or unsafe.

A 40-foot concrete road has a much greater traffic capacity than two parallel 20-foot concrete roads. In addition to being a safer road on which to travel.

Sixty-seven modern highway bridges have been built in Wayne County since 1910, and in addition five bridges have been built to accommodate a second strip of concrete, making double bridges in such cases. Two additional bridges are now under construction, while one bridge has been abandoned and the stream filled.

"We regard our tree planting program as one of our greatest constructive activities," the report continues. "As time goes on and these trees obtain a substantial growth, to drive over a perfect road under the grateful shade of a cathedral arch of American elms and hard maples, will cause the traveler in Wayne County to compare mentally the esthetic beauty of our roads with the famous roads and esplanades of the old world."

Over 32,000 trees have been planted to date and each spring and fall sees additional planting, with long stretches of highway already showing the results of watering, mulching and spraying until a fertile growth is attained, are other activities of the tree planting program.

There are now 12 public comfort stations in the county parks and along roadsides, the most recent being that at Mt. Clemens drive and Harner avenue.

REDMEN ENJOY PLEASANT EVENING.

Ottawa Tribe, No. 7, Improved Order of Redmen, held their first get-together meeting at their camping grounds in the village last Friday evening, Sept. 24. They were honored by having with them Brother Wessels, Great Sachem of Michigan; Brother Butterfield, Great Junior Sagamore, and Brother Martz, Past Sachem of Ohio. The latter gave a very interesting talk on Redmanship. A good program of music and songs was arranged, with numbers furnished by the following: Ben Stuart, Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Roy Wheeler, Miss Nellie Langendam and Brother Maurice Langendam; Misses Margaret and Jessie Goebel, Misses Genevieve Pinkerton and Madeline Weller.

After the program a bountiful repast was served and all had a most enjoyable time.

Much credit for the successful evening was due the committee of arrangements: Brothers Roy Wheeler, E. A. Goebel, Ray Larsen and others who assisted. The Sisters of Pocomonies also gave their assistance, which was much appreciated by the committee. There were seventy-five present.

IF THE things which make a house a home, not the least is the small electrical convenience outlet that permits you to "plug in" a lamp or an appliance just where and as you like it—no unscrewing of lamp bulbs, no dangling cords from lamp sockets to trip your steps or disturb your temper.

An outlet costs very little—it adds to comfort very much. Why not consult an electrical contractor about this matter. Or, let us advise you.

WHY THEY COME BACK

No one ever quite outgrows his boyhood. If he was born and grew up in a rugged country of hills, rocky soil and barren farmlands, he will have traces of those things in his soul to the balance of his days. The man from Texas can never be quite like the man from Vermont; the Dakotas and the Carolinas will always be different types. But the man born in any of these states always has a soft spot in his heart for his birthplace. No matter how far these horns in Plymouth may move away, there always remains a tie they cannot sever. Memory makes it stronger with age. There is always a softening of the heart toward the old home.

That's why our residents are always glad when those who were born and reared here come back for a visit. That's why the hand of welcome is always extended them—we know that there is something worth while in a heart that always retains a respect and veneration of the place in which childhood's days were spent.

Maybe we're not growing as fast as the big cities in which they now make their homes; but that doesn't matter. The man or woman whose heart is right comes back to see the places and faces they first loved. Since it gladdens their hearts and gives them happiness, then we are all glad, in a way, that the place of their birth hasn't changed so much.

EVERYBODY PAYS

Estimates sent out by the government placed the amount spent for roads in the United States this year at $1,800,000,000. That makes 1928 the biggest road-building year in our history, made possible largely because of the tax on gasoline now assessed in almost every state in the union. The old cry that those living along the roads pay for them and their upkeep won't hold good any longer. To day the motorist is paying a big share of the cost of building and maintaining the roads over which he drives—and a lot he never has and never will drive over. With the motorist doing his part there is no longer needed for any man fighting a road-improvement proposition, because the ground has been cut from underneath all his arguments against it. It's a case of one for all and all for one now—and the whole country is better off by reason of it.

AMERICA'S BIG HEART

Fortunately for all of us, nature seldom reveals such terrible moods as those exhibited in the hurricane which recently reduced the interior of Porto Rico to ruins and battered parts of Florida. The West Indies have many of these violent storms, but as a rule they are short and local, though very severe while they last, being accompanied by terrible thunderstorms.

The most recent storm left an appalling trail of destruction, death and suffering behind it in a part of the world poorly prepared to handle such wholesale misery. The people of Porto Rico have barely more than the necessities of life, even in their most prosperous years. Some have never heard of a doctor save quacks of their kind who impose upon them, and the trained nurse is even more rare. In that hot climate, where sanitation is poor, sickness spreads rapidly and death strikes swiftly. For that reason it seems providential that we have an organization like the Red Cross. It was on the job within two hours after the hurricane struck, it is still on the job, and it will stay there until suffering has been relieved and the homeless again have a shelter over their heads. To our way of thinking, the Red Cross, representing as it does the big heart of this nation—is the noblest relief agency ever known. When we consider that one single dollar pays for a year's membership in it, we wonder why every man and woman in Plymouth is not enlisted under its banner. And as it prosecutes its good work among the suffering in Porto Rico and Florida we are wondering if this isn't a most opportune time for our citizens to send in their dollars to Red Cross headquarters at Washington City, and thus become a more substantial and helpful part of "America's Big Heart."

AN UNSETTLED QUESTION

Politics and the weather are always favorite topics of conversation in Plymouth and it is hard to pass thru a day without encountering someone discussing one or the other. But a new topic that promises to outstep them is "What make of car is best?" One man gallops through four different makes in four years, then hasn't a good word for any of them. Another drives an old fiver longer than that and still swears by it when it reaches the junk pile. In fact, it's a difficult matter to find in any crowd two fellows agreeing that any certain make of car is best. They've good words for every type and make, but always there is a little something that is better about another kind. All of which leads us to but one conclusion, and that is that since nobody seems to know exactly what is the best car made it's a good idea to know a lot about all of them before you invest in one.

KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN

"If you want to do the motorists of this community a favor and maybe save somebody's life," suggested a Plymouth citizen recently, "call attention to the habit some of them have of ignoring traffic when changing a tire along the roadside." And it is a good suggestion at that. One does not always have a puncture just where the road is wide. But it is easy to get the car as far off the body of the road as possible before starting to work on it. It is also easy to keep a sharp lookout for approaching machines, and to avoid working on a curve, where, when an approaching driver may not see you until it is too late for him to miss striking you as you stand alongside the car. Every motorist knows the danger we refer to, yet not all of them use the care they should when changing tires. That's why we're passing on the suggestion—maybe it will cause someone to think, to see its serious side, and thereby save themselves injury or possible death.

REBEKAH NOTES.

The Rebekah Degree club met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Ray, Sr., Thursday, Sept. 27. They had a splendid meeting and social time, after which cards were played. They adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Gruth, 311 North Harvey street, October 25.

It is of double interest to us all that the day of our supper is the opening day of the general convention of this church, at Washington, D. C., where bishops, ministers and laymen from all parts of the country will consider the general church program for the next three years. What are we doing to further their work?

The children's corner is still growing. This week we have a new setup book and a complete new set of pictures on the wall. The boys' crosses were judged last Sunday; all were so good that it was very difficult to decide. Let's remember to use our corner in God's house.

Paris—Dogs are taking up aviation! At least, they make pretty good passengers.
Be that as it may, Frieda Hempel, opera star, has chartered a special airplane—as well as two fast automobiles—for her Pomeranian dog Toto.
Toto was not well and his mistress wanted the London veterinarian who had attended him before to look him over.
She telephoned to Le Bourget for a plane, hired a car to take her there, flew to Croydon and took another car, which had been ordered by telephone.

Courses To Women

EXTENSION COURSES IN HOME ECONOMICS OFFERED TO WAYNE COUNTY WOMEN.

Much enthusiasm is evident regarding the Home Economics courses which are being offered this year to women of Wayne County.

The course in Home Furnishing is intended to add touches of beauty to the home with emphasis on upholstery and slip covers, lighting both natural and artificial showing artistic effects gained through lamps, and color notes found in accessories such as candles, pottery and pillows.

The other course "Color in the Costume" is outlined with special reference to the individual and her needs. Each woman will make a notebook for herself based on the study of personality and type, her personal coloring and the color which capitalizes her best characteristics. The use of accessories and planning a harmonious costume will be high points for each woman which will lead to a final scoring of the assembled outfit.

Any woman in Wayne County is eligible for membership in these classes which are now being organized provided she is willing to assume the responsibility of doing the work and attending the meetings regularly once each month for a period of four or six months.

County Tax Boosted Fifty Per Cent

From Detroit Free Press, Oct. 4.

A 50 per cent boost in county taxes, exclusive of the annual levies for county roads and special purposes, or approximately a 35 per cent increase if those items are included in the comparison with the tax figures of a year ago, was ordered yesterday in the budget approved by the Wayne county board of supervisors. The county levy total is now in excess of that for the state in Wayne.

The figures were striking in contrast with those of the state levy, which for the ensuing year in Wayne county are approximately 15 per cent less than those of a year ago.

A Decided Boost.

The gross county and state levy for the ensuing year, as approved by the supervisors in the budget, will amount to $29,228,712.29, as compared to $24,708,402.88. Of this total, the county tax will be $12,450,128.95, as compared to $8,079,841.86.

In addition, at this session of the board of supervisors a proposal of the county board of auditors that a proposition for a special quarter of a mill tax for 10 years be submitted to the electorate in November was approved. This special tax, it is estimated, will raise approximately $14,625,000 in the 10-year term. It would be expended for capital cost improvements at the various county institutions, which have been declared to be inadequate for county welfare and social requirements.

Detroit Bears Brunt.

Of the total state levy of $10,002,251.27, which will be spread in the county, $8,030,712.29 will be met by Detroit property owners, while $2,001,238.98 will be raised in the outside districts.

The county road tax this year will be $3,296,993.47, as compared to $4,002,845.78. The county road commission recommended the reduction in its annual report to the supervisors. Special purpose taxes will amount to $473,411.65, as against $306,184.56 a year ago.

The total assessed valuation for the county is established at $4,476,658,500, an increase from $4,272,931,201 a year ago. The total tax rate this year will be $8,894 per $1,000 of assessed valuation as against $5,585 a year ago. This amounts to an increase of 11 1/2 cents per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

The new state tax rate for the county is $2,256 as against $2,816 a year ago; for the county $2,830 as against $1,931 a year ago. The road tax decrease is from $357 per $1,000 valuation to $717.

The items showing an increase in this year's county budget and the 1927 appropriations are:

Care of tubercular patients, increased to $2,288,587; cost of boarding prisoners from $100,000 to $350,000; increase County road assessments from $701,521.80 to $1,045,572.50; expansion of county normal training school from $7,409,338 to $9,663,773; juvenile court from $891,000 to $1,045,400, including maintenance and care of dependent children; and expansion and construction work at the Elsie infirmary from $464,658.15 to $1,020,996.17.

Salaries Are Increased

The salaries of several county officials were given an impetus in the new budget. It will provide $7,500 a year for Otto Stoll, register of deeds, an increase from $6,500; a jump from $8,000 to $8,500 for Justice of the Peace; an increase from $7,500 to $8,500 for the circuit court commissioners, and an increase from $6,500 to $8,000 for the county auditors. Under the law only two justices of the peace will benefit under the new salary increase, those being the two elected at the coming election; while only one county auditor, William Gutman, will benefit under a similar legal arrangement.

One of the final acts of the supervisors' meeting was the passage of a resolution to go on the November ballot which will, if carried, provide for an amendment to the state constitution to increase the salary of state legislators. The present salary amounts to about $1,800 per day. The resolution would provide the way for an increase to $3 per day. The board heartily endorsed the proposed move.

Approving the plan of Corporation Counsel Clarence E. Wilcox, a committee was appointed to revamp the county drainage system. The committee includes John Stevenson, city representative to the state legislature; John W. Reid, commissioner of public works; Wilcox, Robert M. Tompkins, prosecuting attorney, and William Gutman, county auditor. The committee was ordered to submit its recommendations before Jan. 1, 1929.

Speculation is rife as to what effect the proposed change in administration of county drainage management would have should a nominee for the position of county drain commissioner be elected in November.

Plan More Airports.

Another resolution, passed in the last minutes of the session, called for a committee of five supervisors, which were not appointed, to act in the selection of minor airports throughout the county. The resolution, presented by Councilman George A. Walters, called for construction of several subsidiary airports in addition to the site of Goddard and Middle Belt roads, which was approved last week. The resolution passed was contingent upon whether there were any funds remaining from the $2,000,000 appropriation for a county airport which was authorized by the electors at the last election.

Financing plans for the proposed joint city-county administration building were also approved. Should the $20,000,000 bond issue be approved by the voters on November 6, the supervisors will order that the bonds be placed on a 10-year program to decrease the burden on the taxpayers. Another resolution was passed which provides that the county's $2,000,000 airport fund shall consist of serial 20-year bonds of $100,000 each.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS.

The Plymouth League of Women Voters had a very successful meeting last Friday at the Hotel Mayflower, with 75 members and friends present. Mrs. Walter Jobe, of Detroit, gave an interesting talk on Al Smith and the Democratic platform.

Mrs. Henry Adams, executive secretary of the Wayne county league, gave a brief series of league announcements, and invited members to the league party to be held at the Detroit yacht club Friday, October 5.

Then the members of the Northern League of Women Voters of Detroit joined on the play, "A Day at the Races," under the direction of Mrs. Henry Hosmer and Miss Dorothy Purditt in a humorous, entertaining way. In foreign voter, the unregistered woman, the woman who could not fold her ballot, and all the other unexplained types performed for the enlightenment of our Plymouth voters.

The play was pronounced a jolly success by all who saw it.

The league voted to hold its meetings on the second Friday of each month, so the next meeting is next Friday, October 12, at 2:30, in the Crystal room of the Hotel Mayflower. This will be a candidates' meeting, at which candidates for Wayne county offices and as many state candidates as possible will be heard.

The Republicans have promised to send a speaker to give the Hoover talk which was scheduled for last Friday.

Miss Lina Darce, our township clerk, will give the demonstration of ballot marking and ballot folding which is being requested by a large number of women.

Plan to attend and enjoy the candidates' meeting October 12 at 2:30. It will help you vote intelligently Nov. 6.

BRIGGS SCHOOL NOTES.

By Nellie Vorbeck, Secretary-Treasurer.

Briggs school is beginning its second month of work Thursday, for we have organized our Citizens' Junior club and adopted our constitution. We elected the following officers Sept. 10: President, Evelyn Ironbar; vice-president, Aldie Melow; secretary-treasurer, Nellie Vorbeck; girls' health officer, Rose Stedgasser; boys' health officer, Arthur Rannerman.

We have 44 pupils enrolled and during the month of September our percentage of attendance was 96.6. Our new teacher is Mrs. Mamie B. Wolfe, of Detroit.

Our grounds have been nicely cleaned and our chain swings, which were taken from the playground, have been replaced.

CHERRY HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bordine and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Milton Beach, of Vassar.

Miss Florence Smart spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smart.

Mrs. Ella Webster, Mrs. Susan Corwin and Hattie spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sears in Milan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Minchart, of Plymouth, were Sunday guests of Edward Minchart.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bordine and Gordon and Mrs. Allen Bordine, of Detroit, called on Mrs. Susan Corwin Sunday.

Twedy Harkin, of Milan, called on Mrs. Ella Webster Tuesday evening.

Several from this vicinity attended the farewell party of Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Blake Tuesday evening. They were presented with a chest of silver. They are moving to Dundee.

Miss Ruth Wilkin left Tuesday morning for Chicago, where she will take a course in social service work and prepare for missionary work.

Several women met at the church and organized a class in home furnishing. This course is sponsored by M. S. C. Mrs. E. W. Moyer and Miss Maude Dennis were chosen to meet the specialist from the college once a month and receive the lessons, which they will then present to the local group. Mrs. Bert Smart will be in charge of class enrollment.

Mrs. A. C. Dunston is slowly improving and able to sit up a little each day.

Miss Arley Elliott is driving a new Chevrolet car.

CENTRAL SCHOOL P. T. A. HOLD MEETING.

The first regular meeting of the Central School Parent-Teacher association was held Monday afternoon, October 1, and was largely attended.

The little folks of Mrs. Root's 1st A grade gave some very interesting demonstrations of their work in reading and writing, and the progress made by these tiny folks since school opened is surprising.

Several very interesting and satisfactory reports were received from the chairman of committees, which shows the work for the year is being taken up with a will and a desire on the part of all concerned to "carry on" to the desired goal.

Let's all turn out to the meetings and work together for the good of all concerned.

MUNICIPAL NOTES
BY THE MANAGER

The report of the police department for the month of September indicates that speeders upon our streets paid $100 in fines and costs during the month. Speeding is an expensive pastime upon Plymouth streets, motorists will find.

One to the many inquiries made relative to the why and the wherefore of the so-called "service charge" upon water bills, a slip giving a full and complete explanation is to be enclosed with each water bill mailed out this month. Read this blue slip when you receive it with your water bill—you'll find it of interest.

Plans are going forward to sell our special assessment storm sewer and paving bonds the evening of October 2. Many thousands of dollars have been paid out to sewer and paving contractors in anticipation of these bond funds, and the sale of these bonds will again restore village finances to an even keel after the summer's extensive construction program.

Paving upon North Mill street is approaching completion and should be finished this week. This leaves but the block on North Harvey street from Farmer street to Junction avenue still to be completed this season.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth is of the opinion that these fellows who want to change the calendar and make the year 13 months long are only trying to put their Christmas buying off a little longer.

"I like a man with a sense of humor," says Dad Plymouth "but not the kind of humor some fellows see in a flat tire."

"I don't know much about color harmony," asserts Dad Plymouth "but I do know that green does not become a woman if she gets it through envy."

According to Dad Plymouth a few men are good for goodness sake, but most of them are good because they are married and have to be.

"No woman," says Dad Plymouth, "can be happy in a house that's built so she can't change the furniture around every week or two."

RATHER UNUSUAL

PRESTO! RIVER VANISHES!

Meeker, Colo.—A portion of the headwaters of the White River, at Trappers' Lake, above here, disappeared overnight. The portion was three miles long.

One morning last week all the residents could find of the stream was a dry bed in which lay thousands of trout, dead and dying.

An overflow from Trappers' Lake, Colorado maintains a fish hatchery, starts the headwaters of the White River.

Suddenly it was noticed that the river was not where it ought to be. Instead there was a great hole into which the water had disappeared.

Search of three miles of the river bed disclosed that there was no running water in the stream. A little further on, however, the water reappeared, coming from a hole in the side of the hill. Then the course of the river continued.

It was generally believed the stream had cut into an underground passage or lake that may have been caused by an earth shock or a slipping of earth and that the crevice provided an easier course for the river.

NOT TRESPASSING

Canden, N. J.—Two men arrested for swimming in a private lake were released when it was shown that they had not touched the bottom of the lake. The men had entered the lake on a side which was not private.

If they had allowed their feet to touch bottom, they would have been guilty of trespassing. That was the decision of Judge Katzenback, who freed the swimmers.

NEWBURG

Rev. Johnson took for his text last Sunday: "And Joshua did all the things that God commanded him to do." Everyone should make an effort to increase the attendance of the Sunday school.

Alice Gilbert gave a report of the Epworth League festival, held at North Lake last Saturday. Newburg league had the largest display of canned fruit and magazines.

Charles D. Ryder, Jr., had his tonsils removed by Dr. Patterson last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ross and family, Donald Ryder and Robert Simpson, of Ann Arbor, called at the Ryder farm last Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Dallock and daughter Florence, of Highland Park, called on Mrs. C. E. Ryder last Thursday.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Ida Bennett, of Plymouth, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Jack Campbell entertained 30 teachers of the zone last Thursday evening at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Farrell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyers and Wm. Pfeiffer, of Detroit, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Guthrie last week Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ganssoly motored to Durand Sunday to visit Lewis Holsington and family.

At the official board meeting Tuesday evening they decided to hold a meeting the first Tuesday evening in every month.

Rev. Johnson reported a very fine church home-coming and program at Howell last Sunday. A large number from Plymouth were in attendance.

Mrs. Irene Bakewell-Laerve, of Nankin, and her infant daughter, Verajean, were baptised by Rev. Johnson at the M. E. parsonage Saturday, Sept. 23.

Callers at the parsonage Sunday afternoon were families of Emmet Clark and J. J. Gotchell, of Fordson, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shillito, with Mrs. Shillito's sister's family, of Flint.

Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Albany, of Highland Park, and Mrs. Charles Wells, of Caro, visited at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Wm. Johnson, on Tuesday evening of this week.

RADIO QUALITY that means Years of Pleasure!

THE remarkable tonal beauty of Day-Fan Radio is now offered in new models which are equally delightful in appearance. A set thoroughly modern in operation direct from house current, may be had in your choice of three distinguished cabinet models, of fine American walnut.

This set is new—in design, in simplicity, in satisfactory performance. But again, it is built to a standard for musical instruments that is old—that does not change—excellence of tone. In years to come the quality of Day-Fan musical reproduction will be appreciated as today.

The Day-Fan 8-tube A. C. receiver is more selective; it is sensitive to remote stations; it delivers splendid volume without distortion. Few stages of radio frequency, and push-pull amplification—two power tubes in combination instead of one—are mainly responsible.

Other important features: Single dial illuminated. Auxiliary volume control. Power supply built-in part of set. Complete shielding. Connection for plugging in phonograph pick-up. Protection against voltage variation.

Table model, $150, without tubes and speaker. Console (table model with speaker table) $205.00 without tubes. Console $295 without tubes.

Record Crops Are Grown by Boys At Training School

PAST SEASON HAS BEEN VERY SUCCESSFUL ONE FOR
"FARMERS."

The harvest is nearly over. The hay is in the barn, the sheep have been sheared, the garden crops put in cold storage—and the juvenile farmers out at the Wayne County Training school can this year boast of having produced enough from the farms and gardens of the school to feed the 500 or more healthy, fast growing youngsters who are being taught how to become useful men and women.

The record of production at the farm is indeed a most interesting one, especially when it is realized that every bit of the work has been done by the boys. Of course, the work has been under the supervision of trained heads. But after the boys have been told what to do they have accomplished the results themselves. In many cases they have gone ahead without the advice of supervisors and have been able to produce excellent results.

Not only have they produced tons and tons of crops and vegetables, but they have spent some of the season in canning many of the articles that could not be stored otherwise. On the shelves in the storeroom are over 4,000 cans of corn, 7020 cans wax beans and 2500 cans tomatoes. The tomato canning is not yet over. Of course these were not the only vegetables canned. Berries and fruits have been put up as good or better than could be done in a regular canning factory.

The following tabulation will give some idea of the amount of material produced during the present season by the boys of the training school:

Milk	174,974 lbs.
Pork, fresh	16,165 lbs.
Wool	702 lbs.
Beef, fresh	700 lbs.
Hides, beef	97 lbs.

4-H Clubs Are Organizing Here

Rural schools in all parts of Wayne County are organizing for 4-H club work, including Hot lunch, Clothing and Handicraft clubs.

There will be a meeting of all Club Leaders in the auditorium of the Dearborn Library on Saturday, October 13, from 9:30 a. m. until 12:00 o'clock. Miss Lola Belle Green and Mrs. P. G. Lundin, Assistant State Club Leaders, will be present to assist in explaining the work discussing methods, setting up standards and suggesting illustrative material which will be invaluable to teachers throughout the year.

Since it is so necessary for the clubs that the leaders be present at the training meeting, it is hoped that none will delay in sending in the application blanks to Miss Lois Corbett, or Mr. Ralph Carr, at Dearborn.

AROUND ABOUT US

The laying of the corner stone for the new church house that is to be erected by the Methodist of Northville, took place last Sunday with appropriate ceremonies.

The Wayne Credit Bureau, a newly established organization, is now in complete operation.

Efforts are being made to raise a million dollar building program for the Polish Seminary.

Williamston boasts of having the oldest voter in Ingham county. Mrs. Louise Allen, 88 years old, voted at the primary election by means of the absent voters ballot, being confined to her home by illness.

A peach that weighed 11 ounces and measured ten and a half inches in circumference was picked by George English, of Chelsea, in his orchard.

Between 25 and 35 houses in Dearborn were affected by the fumes of sulphur emanated from an old oil well in that town one night recently when there was a heavy fog. The sulphur fumes attacked the exterior paint on these homes and where there was white paint the night before, black and lead gray colors prevailed. Brass hardware on doors and buildings was turned black, in fact everything that would react to the hydrogen sulfide gas was affected. Extent of damage was given as approximately $30,000.

Northville now has day and night service at its Pere-Marquette freight depot where a freight and telegraph agent is on duty day and night. Business in that town has increased to the extent that this new service is deemed advisable by the railway officials. Freight now being received in Northville is double what it was a year ago.

Plymouth has reason to feel proud of its band. The youthful players came over to the fair on Plymouth day and made an exceedingly favorable appearance. The Plymouth organization is somewhat older, than Northville. Their suits, a white, with dark blue capes, were provided by the Kiwanis club of the neighboring city.—Northville Record.

Our Advertising

PERHAPS you have noticed, there are two kinds of advertising. One, that offers enormous "bargains" at any and all times—the other, quiet and sincere, that tells the simple truth. We do not indulge in the loud or noisy kind. We do not believe that Barsum was right—people don't like to be fooled. Our advertising, like our merchandise is reliable and represents things exactly as they are; it does not have to be discounted to arrive at the truth.

Wrist Watches for Athletic Men

NOT only good looking watches but also the kind that are unaffected by the strenuous activity of the golfer and man who indulges in other sports.

Such watches must have movements of fine jewelled construction and we have them, in cases of smart style and fine white or green gold filled quality.

All foremost makes to select from at prices of pointed fairness.

Today's Reflections

There's many a man paying for what some other man is getting, but he is too big a chump to know it.

Some people want the roads made safe for drivers, but as far as we're concerned in Plymouth we prefer to have the drivers made safe for the roads.

About this time of year the hay-fever victim firmly resolves to commit suicide, but keeps putting it off from day to day.

We've never been able to understand why women are pretty as those pictured in the washing-machine ads can't marry men who are able to have the washing done.

Older residents of Plymouth can remember the time when the "board of education" was a pine shingle.

It isn't a good idea to despise the little things. A little peanut can outride a wave that would sink a battleship.

The auto has been with us for 25 years, and yet a lot of people buy one before they find out they can't afford it.

Any Plymouth man who has been married very long will tell you that if you get through breakfast without a fight you're good for the balance of the day.

It's astonishing how ready even a mean man is to pay a debt when he discovers that he owes it to himself.

Some business men are actually glad when things are dull. Take the knife grinder, for instance.

Our advice to the Plymouth housewife starting out to buy a chicken is to keep in mind the fact that the good die young.

Few girls ever try to extinguish the spark of love as long as the man has money to burn.

Hard work is said to be nature's physician, but we know of several Plymouth men who prefer some other doctor.

Why is it some fellows eat oysters but a few months in the year yet crawfish the whole year around?

A woman spends a good deal of time powdering her nose but the only time a man's nose gets any attention is when he has a bad cold.

About the only way the Plymouth man who talks about himself can get an attentive audience is to do his talking to himself.

Love is said to make the world go around—but so does bootleg liquor.

Love is like a glass eye at a keyhole blind.

To Hold Poultry Meetings Next Week

Tuesday, October 9th—Blue Bird Farm at Northville.

Wednesday, October 10th—W. E. Gault, Belleville.

Poultry meetings, where the main topics discussed will be sanitation and preparation for winter, have been announced by Ralph Carr, Wayne County Agricultural Agent. These meetings will be held at the Blue Bird Farm, three miles west of Northville on the Base Line Road, at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon, October 9th, and at the farm of W. E. Gault, just north of the Willis Road in Sumpter Township at 1:30 Wednesday, October 10th.

Mr. Leon Todd, Extension Poultryman from the Michigan State College, will discuss the various problems of disease and insect control, subjects which are of vital interest to all owners of poultry. Mr. Todd will be pleased to have you attend and bring your problems to him.

P. T. A. AT STARKWEATHER SCHOOL.

The first meeting of the Starkweather P. T. A. was held Wednesday evening in the auditorium of the Starkweather school.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Ralph West, who made a few remarks and announced that Mrs. Pettingill, of the National P. T. A., would speak in the auditorium at the Central High school October 15, and we were all cordially invited to hear her.

Miss Stader will keep the banner in October, as she had the largest percentage representing her room.

The program was continued by two piano duets by Mrs. Earl Stevens and Evelyn Starkweather.

Professor Smith then gave a very interesting talk on the subject, "Know Your School." This talk was given at the Central school last week and we are very grateful to Professor Smith for bringing this same message to our P. T. A.

He informed us that we have 42 more pupils at the Starkweather school at the present time than we had a year ago.

The next meeting will be held the third Wednesday in October and we hope there will be a large attendance.

One of the rooms, it has not been decided which one, will put on a little program in their line of work that evening and the rest of the entertainment will be in charge of the Messrs. Starkweather, Krepe, Stevens and Miss Stader.

STARK

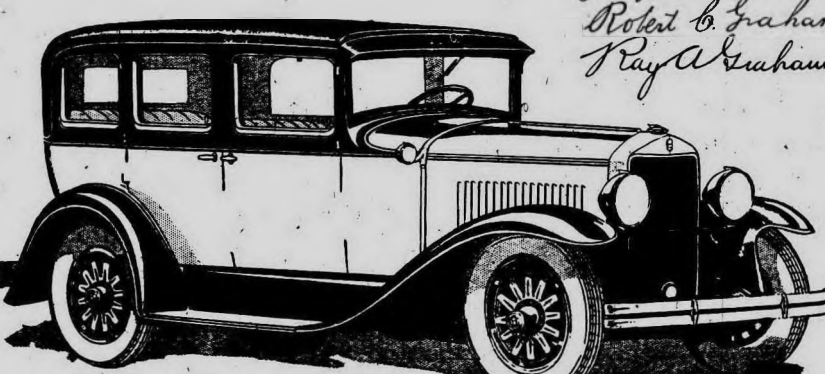

The Stark P. T. A. held their first meeting of the season Sept. 26. After the business meeting Mr. Ross gave an interesting talk on health. Sorry more of the members were not present to hear him. Mr. Merz presented the school with a large painting of the float which took first prize at Elizabeth park last June. There was a rising vote of thanks. Next month there will be a Halloween party. Members and those interested are cordially invited to attend and all are requested to be masked.
Mrs. Blake, President.

OUR SECOND ASSEMBLY

Wednesday afternoon our regular weekly assembly opened with the singing of "Morning Star" by Margaret Wood at the piano; after which Mr. Emens gave announcements regarding debating, ninth hour which is to be held every night at 3:45 o'clock; the annual or "Plythean" and also the student council which is composed of: Principal, Assistant Principal, Girl Reserve and H-Y representatives and the one chosen of the two nominated from each class.

Beryl Smith, representing the H-Y club, reminded all of the fruit auction to be given by his club Wednesday afternoon school. There is to be a surprise at every assembly, and this week it consisted of two parts, Edna Proctor, a Junior, pleasantly rendered two accordion solos, "School days" and "My Wild Irish Rose." The Junior class indeed was surprised to find that they had among them so interesting an entertainer. Virginia Giles showed the girls how vital student council tickets are to the success of our high school. Elmore Arney added that Plymouth's reputation alone ought to induce every one to strive to be the first to bring his fifty cents. Judges must be provided for every debate and to the community and school fills the responsibility of paying these. Let's all be honest, for the attitude we entertain toward such events will encourage the same sort of attitude toward everything all through life.

Three accordion solos, "Yankee Doodle," "Beautiful" and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" by Donald Proctor, a freshman, proved to be the second part of our surprise.

Mr. Matheson, the boys' coach, told us that eleven of the twelve necessary parts which comprise the team are ready, and that the twelfth part, the student body, is the real spirit of the success or failure of our first game at Ferndale Friday, the twenty-eighth. The remainder of our assembly was in the form of a pep meeting with "Fight Songs" and lively yells.

OUR PUBLIC SPEAKERS

A practice debate was held Wednesday with "Resolved that a Federal Subsidy for the development of an American Merchant Marine is Unwise" as the subject matter. Doris Williams, Helen Biere, Lester Daly, Alice Gilbert, Lawrence Rudick and Harold Hoberg constituted the negative side; while Margaret Dunlop, Pauline Ingh, Ruth Ross, Maudie Dunn, Elsie Peck and Irene Kraster made up the affirmative. Mr. Perkins, the coach of debating, was more than pleased at the live interest shown by the competitors. The class is working in squad system; there being four teams at present. November 16th is the date decided for our first league debate. We are not sure with whom. For practice debate opponents there are Highland Park, Ferndale and possibly Ypsilanti.

ACTIVITIES OF THE JUNIOR CLASS

The Juniors met for the purpose of deciding on their class rings and pins. The former class, using this design, preferred green gold but our Juniors in general chose the red gold with the same design. Mr. Wehling, from Detroit, took measurements; after which our meeting was turned over to our class president, Gable Kenyon, and to Miss Cory and Mr. Cobb. Miss Cory met with the executive committee to decide about those who would do well selling tickets for our splendid lyceum course. After the advertising books came the balance of the week will be spent selling tickets. It is hoped that the faculty, Junior class and their parents will buy tickets this week. We do not wish them to buy just because the high school is giving it, in other words not on school sympathy; but because through our efforts they feel they will derive $1.75 worth of real pleasure. The class has tried to secure the best entertainment course possible for the community.

John B. Ratto, impresario, is the first number. He impersonates historical characters, famous individuals of whom everyone knows, as well as community life. Honor will be interspersed throughout. The next is Brown, Meneley Brothers, who will interest young and old alike with their beautiful cathedral chimes, songs, solos and duets.

One of the most outstanding evenings is the one when we are privileged to have Lew Saret, the woodsman, poet and lecturer with us. Do not associate this man with your idea of the ordinary lecturer. In cities he commands two dollars a seat; for, as you will see, he has the calibre of winning everyone over—that of fascinating people. He has seen life in all its phases; has had vast experiences with nature in the open as well as in the cities, until he has acquired a power to sense situations. In "Slow Smoke" he imitates the call of birds, animals, deer, as it comes from seclusion to drink.

The last evening, Vierra's Hawaiians will be with us. They will beautifully interpret music of the far away south sea islands. The Junior play will be the fifth number of this course.

Our class hopes to put over a big thing this year, and in order to make real the dream we now visualize, we need the cooperation of our school, parents, teachers and community.

HOME ECONOMICS

The high school girls have finished the breakfast unit. On Friday one half of the girls served breakfasts that they had studied and prepared to the remaining half. On Monday the sections alternated and the group that formerly served were served by the others. At present the classes are working on reasonable vegetables—ways of preparing their importance and good to the body.

THE FIRST TEACHER'S MEETING

On Wednesday, September 26, the faculty, their wives or husbands, administrators and wives, and the school board were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith in the high school library. It was in the form of a "get-acquainted" party. Games were played, and everyone joined in merrily to gain not only acquaintanceship with the new ones, but also to have a good time. The prizes were given to each of two persons present and that the thirtieth person they shook hands with would be given a prize. For eight minutes there was lively hand-clapping and greetings, after which Mrs. Claude Finzard and Miss Madge Johnson were presented with remembrances. The prize-winners led the way to the auditorium where ice cream and home made cookies were served.

FOUND—A CRICKET.

September 25th, Robert Holmes displayed a mole-cricket. This species was found at the White Star Gas Station at Northville. The most remarkable feature about the mole-cricket is the shrill sound that it makes which is very much like that of a human being. They are called mole-crickets because they burrow in the ground like moles. They are present in the body being chiefly suited for that mode of life. The front tibia, especially, are fitted for digging for they are greatly broadened and somewhat like hands, or the feet of a mole. They feed upon the tender roots of various plants and where they are common, become serious pests. They are rarely found in this section of the country.

MINUTES OF 8TH GRADE GROUP MEETINGS.

The eighth grade group meeting was held September 26, 1928. The meeting was called to order by Miss Lyke. Melvin Blunk was elected President. Christine Nichol, Vice President; Marjorie Clark, Treasurer; and Irene Humphries, Secretary. Marjorie will appoint some other girls and boys to help her with her work.

The Athletic Manager is Merle Wier, providing we have interest games.

The dues are to be paid before the next report cards come out. Each person pays 25 cents a year.

Jane Humphries.

YOUTH AND AGE

We have seen some queer people in school this week. Little girls with short dresses and hair-ribbons, sashes, and lollypops; old ladies with long dresses and sunbonnets, shawls, and spectacles. For the Senior Girl Reserves have been initiating new girls, as well as those transferring from the Junior group. Monday noon they ushered all the initiated girls into an assembly room where each one had to recite a nursery rhyme. Then the Senior, the Junior and the new intermediate society of Girl Reserves met in the auditorium for a regular get-together song program.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUBS

We put this matter of fact name down because that was what it was before the girls in the first meeting of the senior club last Tuesday decided to call it the "Senior Home Club." The officers elected were: President, Louise Grandstaff; Vice President, Frances Learned; Secretary, Georgian Britcher; Treasurer, Elmore Sack.

Under the direction of Mrs. Dykhouse their first project is the nurse's room. The eleven girls enrolled have made curtains and helped with the general attractiveness of the room. They are planning to enjoy themselves at a Halloween party.

There is a Junior club also—under the direction of Miss Birkenstein. They are making stuffed animals for the children in the hospital at Ann Arbor.

SHALL WE GO TRAVELING?

Travel—what does it suggest—the pyramids of Egypt, the grandeur of Greece and Rome, the solemn stillness of the old Cathedrals, the jungles, the lure of the Far East, the grave perils of the North, and above all the beauties of our own country—America, the Beautiful.

It was with the above thoughts in mind that the Travel Club was organized. At the first meeting the officers were elected but owing to unavoidable circumstances it was necessary to elect them again, this time resulting in the following officers: President, Heloise Travis; Vice President, Harold Reitzke; and Secretary and Treasurer, Nettie Hawkins.

Helen Bridge was appointed chairman of Program Committee; Harold Reitzke of Name and Pin Committee; and Marian Taylor chairman of Finance Committee.

Together with Miss Astman, our advisor, we intend to take imaginary trips to distant lands—from the outposts of civilization to the land He trod two thousand years ago; to the places of interest around here, such as Detroit, Ann Arbor and Lansing we hope to go ourselves on or during week-ends. Don't you think it will be fun? You see, most of the members have been to different parts of the United States and one member, Helen Bridge, has been to Europe. With such material we hope to plan our club meetings.

At this week's meeting, Nettie Hawkins and Heloise Travis intend to tell and show us the things of beauty our Creator has given us in the underground caverns that abound in the mountains which enclose the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia.

MISS "MAC" VISITS GIRL RESERVES.

Miss MacIntosh, one of the principal leaders of the Girl Reserves in Detroit, came to visit and help our Girl Reserve club on Thursday. Because of her interest in girls and her understanding of them, they have lovingly nicknamed her "Miss Mac." She helped us with ideas for the year's programs and our social and service activities.

THE DRAMA CLUB

At the first meeting of the Drama Club about thirty interested students came, but to our great disappointment not a single boy came. Of course we were sure we could manufacture some of the girls into boys but you know how it is.

However, at the last meeting some of the girls had dropped and five boys had entered. Probably the boys will have a chance to act in almost every play we study, there being so few of them.

Miss Johnson explained to us the many fields of fascinating work which center around the actual acting, such as estimating, stage setting, managing, carpenter work, lighting, make-up, play-reading, play-writing and prompter.

We plan to give our first production, a charming Japanese Play, "The Joy Lady," toward the end of October.

FUMBLES COST GAME.

When Plymouth journeyed to Ferndale Friday, Sept. 28, for their first game of football this season the school let out at three o'clock, so that there was a splendid representation from the students and teachers on hand.

When Plymouth reached there they found Ferndale on the field practicing signals and throwing the plectrum around. When the heads came on the field they were greeted with a big yell that put the pep into the team, and they knew that they had plenty of backing.

Plymouth had time to warm up with signal practice before the referee blew his whistle; we drew the north end and Ferndale the south goal.

Ferndale kicked to Beegle to the ten-yard line, who ran it back for five yards. Plymouth tried a pass; incomplete. Plymouth kicked to Ferndale and it was blocked. Ferndale tried end run by Kruse for first down; they tried another for two yards; Ruppert, through tackle for one yard; Kruse end run, no gain; Kruse place kick but failed. Plymouth's ball on the twenty-yard line; Herrick through tackle, no gain; Plymouth kicked but was blocked; Ferndale's ball on the 15-yard line; first down through tackle, no gain; Geardy end run for one yard; Geardy through right tackle for five yards; pass completed to the two-yard line; Kruse made the touchdown from a line smash. Place kick was no good. Ferndale kicked to Orr on the 25-yard line, who ran it back to the 45-yard line. Plymouth then tried a pass, but it was incomplete. Plymouth fumbled the ball, but recovered it. Beegle round end lost a yard; Beegle kicked to Kruse, who ran it back ten yards to the 50-yard line. Kruse through center for 13 yards; first down; Ruppert round end for 21 yards; pass incomplete just as the quarter was over. Score at the end of the first quarter: Ferndale 6, Plymouth 0.

Second quarter: Ferndale's ball on the 25-yard line; Ruppert through line for four yards. Plymouth's ball on the 10-yard line; Plymouth round end and fumbled; Ferndale's ball on the 15-yard line. Substitution, Lankester for Herrick. Kruse end run, no gain; Kruse through line for three yards; pass incomplete; Plymouth's ball 19 yard line, pass gained three yards; Lankester end run gained five yards but Plymouth was penalized for off-side for five yards.

Third quarter: Ferndale kicked to Beegle on the 16-yard line; he returned the ball to the 25-yard line. Plymouth lost five yards on two end runs and kicked to Ferndale's 57-yard line; Straub tackled the carrier as soon as he caught the ball. Ferndale shot through the line for six yards and made first down on another plunge. After losing ground on end runs, and being penalized five yards for off-side, Ferndale managed to slide around end for three yards and kicked to Plymouth's 60-yard line. Plymouth plowed through the line for first down; Beegle swung around end for six yards, and gained one yard on a quarterback sneak. Plymouth then kicked to Ferndale's 60-yard line. Ferndale's line opened up a hole and Kerr gained four yards. Ferndale was penalized five yards for off-side play and Mills fumbled on the third play and Soekow recovered the ball for Plymouth on the 53-yard line as the whistle ended the quarter.

Fourth quarter: First down, Gust ran outside for no gain; Orr through tackle for two yards; Orr through tackle for one yard; Plymouth kicked to the eight-yard line; Kruse ran it back for two yards; Kruse through center for four yards; Ferndale penalized five yards for off-side; Plymouth substituted Herrick for Orr; Kruse punted, Beegle caught it and ran it back for two yards to the 28-yard line; Herrick through center, no gain; penalized 25 yards for holding; Gust round end lost three yards. Fumble Ferndale's ball; Ferndale substituted Parker for Gust; Kruse end run for four yards; Kruse through center for three yards; Ruppert through center for four yards and first down. Plymouth substituted Van Bonn for Lyke; Kerin through center for six yards and a touchdown. They failed to place kick.

Ferndale kicked to Beegle just as the whistle blew finishing the game. The final score, 12-0 in favor of Ferndale.

JUNIOR HIGH DEBATING CLUB.

Thursday, September 13, the Junior High Debating Club was organized to furnish opportunity for practice in debating. The following officers were elected: President, Richard Gordon; Vice President, David Daly; Corresponding Secretary, Kenneth Greer; Pilgrim Print Secretary, Rupert Hadley; and Usherette, Mary Konzeski. STARKWEATHER SCHOOL.

By Madelon Shingleton, Grade Editor.

The second graders of Miss Stader's room won the P. T. A. banner for having the largest number of parents present at the parent-teachers' meeting. However, to develop the spirit of giving among the children, it was passed on to the sixth graders of Miss Johnson's room, as they had nearly as many parents present.

The fourth and fifth graders of Mrs. Mole's room are learning two plays, to be given at the next parent-teachers' meeting.

The sixth graders of Miss Johnson's room have just completed a poem consisting of nine stanzas by the name of "Spring." This shows excellent work for children so young. This room also has the P. T. A. banner, which was given to them by Miss Stader's room.

The children in Miss Willmore's room have been coloring autumn leaves for a poster for their blackboard.

Mrs. Harry Wronck, Mrs. E. S. Coats, Mrs. Marie Bennett, Mrs. Lynn Felton, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Heller were recent visitors in Mrs. Root's room.

Hubert Wallace, from Milford, has just entered the first grade.

The children are making art books with the help of Miss Cooper.

In music Miss Schrader has been teaching them pretty songs. They especially like the one about the squirrel, "Bobby Humble," "The Big Bass Drum" and all the Mother Goose songs.

In the second and third grades, Miss Weatherhead's room, there are 14 who have been neither absent nor tardy during September. Owing to lack of space we are unable to print their names.

The children have been bringing pretty autumn leaves and flowers, which add to the brightness and gaiety of the room.

The fourth graders of Miss Farrand's room are studying South Atlantic states in geography. In art the boys and girls are working on North American homes and making books of Eskimos.

The sixth grade in Miss Fenner's room made acorns for a border for the blackboard. They are going to make Roman scrolls and have written stories of Julius Caesar and the founding of Rome.

The committee people are: James Livingston, Geraldine Vealy and Kenneth Norris.

In geography the pupils of Mrs. Holliday's room are studying rubber. The class voted that Jack Gordon and Melvin Michaels write the best fairy stories.

Daril Cline's team of Miss Hallahan's room won the contest in spelling this week. There was also a contest in reading between boys and girls. The boys won.

Concrete floors will reduce our costly fire bill

Popular sentiment has demanded that our modern hotels, apartment houses, schools, theatres and office buildings be fire safe throughout. To be thoroughly fire safe a building should have concrete floors beneath the hard wood, linoleum, carpeting or other surfacing. If we demand fire safe construction in larger buildings we should also demand it in our homes.

A large proportion of residence fires start in the basement. Concrete first floors will prevent them from spreading to the upper rooms. In addition, concrete floors prevent structural sagging and plaster cracking.

May we tell you about them?

Transatlantic Phone Service to all of Belgium Now Open

Transatlantic telephone service from America to all of Belgium will be established October 1, according to announcement by officials of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. On the American side, this service will include all parts of the United States, Cuba and the principal cities of Canada and Mexico.

The rate from Michigan to all points in Belgium will be the same as the present rates from this country to Brussels and Antwerp, or $51.00 for the first three minutes and $17.00 for each minute thereafter.

The hours for service for transatlantic calls to all foreign nations will change from Daylight Saving to Standard time on the same date, connections being possible from 6:30 a. m. to 10 p. m. Eastern Standard time.

Telephone service between America and all of Belgium includes many important tourist points such as Brussels, Ghent, Ostend, Waterloo, Liege and Louvain.

The rapid extension of telephone service across the Atlantic during 1928 is indicated by the fact that any telephone may now be reached in Great Britain, Germany, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, and in important cities of other nations. It is estimated that over 26,000,000 of the world's $1,500,000 telephones may now be interconnected.

Hints for the Home
by Nancy Hart

Have you an interesting picture in the kitchen—hung where it catches your eye many times during the day?

In this sensible age, you know, no one denies the appropriateness—if not the psychological necessity—of a glimpse of sunny, winding road over country hills when one is confined at kitchen tasks. Or perhaps the picture might be of some fragrant, old-fashioned garden, or of a child at play.

Cheerful scenes in the kitchen are often invaluable, both for decorative purposes and as a counter-irritant.

Vegetarian Menu.

- Cream of carrot soup
- Lima bean loaf with tomato sauce
- Creamed cabbage
- Buttered beets
- Apple and celery salad
- Steamed pudding
- Non-stimulating drink

Cookies for the School Lunch.

Heat 1/2 cup of molasses to boiling point, add 1/2 cup butter, then slowly add 1 cup prepared cake flour, 2-3 cup sugar and 1-8 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon ginger sifted together. Drop half teaspoons of batter three inches apart on an inverted pan. Bake in a slow oven until medium brown.

Asparagus and Egg Salad.

A nice way to combine canned white asparagus and hard-boiled eggs in salad is to mold them in alternate layers in lemon gelatin. Strips of pimento may be added if desired. Mold in square loaf pan, slice and serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

To "Set" Colors.

A teaspoon of Epsom salts added to a bucketful of water will set colors most effectively. Soak the fabric in the solution, then wash in the usual way.

Decaffeinated Coffee at Its Best.

Although decaffeinated coffee may be made as you would natural coffee—either boiled, percolated or by the drip method—it is best when brewed in a drip pot. Heat fresh water to boiling, pour over ground coffee one cup for every tablespoon of coffee and one for the pot. Place pot over low flame to keep it hot, but do not boil.

A Refrigeration Hint.

When the ice melts, the refrigerator is cooled; so do not cover the ice with paper, if you want the best results.

ERIC, THE ROBOT BE POLITE TO O'UAFI,
A HUMAN TIME CLOCK
NITROGEN REPLACING GOLD

An exhibition in London introduces "Eric, the Robot," a man-shaped wooden and metallic machine that rises to its feet, stretches out an arm to command silence and makes a speech.

The shiny, metallic man-machine, its slanting, yellow eyes lighted by electricity, frightens spectators.

Some workers will dread the possibilities of competition by machine-men. But there is no danger. When modern cloth-making machinery was first used England built forts to protect the machinery from enraged workers, convinced that it would starve them.

The machines employed more men than ever at better wages.

Every efficient new machine increases prosperity, especially that of workers, by increasing man value. With an ox team a man was worth $1 a day. With a locomotive he is worth $10.

Mr. O'Uafi, French Arab who beat all runners of the world in the Olympic marathon, is here.

Nature, producing him, seems to have had a grayhound in mind. His legs are almost as thin as a grayhound's, and, quite tall, he weighs only 124 pounds.

O'Uafi is a citizen of the French Republic, and, although many sporting Americans that see him run will not know it, his ancestors of ancient Arabia are ancestors whom our civilization and its science owe a great deal.

Those old Arabs were learned in science, mathematics and many lines when our ancestors in England were hiding in swamps and our ancestors in Ireland were running over hills and bogs not much dressed, their great king putting aside his cloak of raw bull hide in the presence of a French visitor, revealing a king with nothing on him.

Many words that we use every day, sofa, alcohol, many terms in chemistry, come from the Arabic.

Raymond S. Blunt, of Chicago, is called the human time clock. He remembers where he was, what happened every hour, every minute of the last ten years. In four months of this year, for instance, he spent 968 hours in sleep, 25 hours in church, 363 hours at meals, 48 hours on pleasure, etc.

That's interesting, but keeping track of time, hours and minutes is not as important as putting something into the hours and minutes. For instance, the minute in which Thomas A. Edison decided that two messages, as well as one, might be sent over the same wire at the same time, was more important to the world than all the well regulated hours in the lives of ten thousand other men.

Gold has been the unit of value since men first found strange, heavy little yellow grains washed down by mountain streams, thousands of years ago.

Men have struggled for gold and died weeping because they couldn't take it along, and have murdered each other for gold.

Now cold science tells you, "Gold won't always be the unit of value." Nitrogen will replace it, being the foundation of our food supply, and of life.

Every square mile of air above the earth's surface carries twenty million tons of nitrogen, enough to last the world twelve years.

Any way of getting that nitrogen out of the air cheaply would be marvelously important, to farmers especially.

Judge Jarecki, of Chicago, says that city will enlist 10,000 men to guard the polls in November. He doesn't want any more "pineapples" politics. "Pineapple," you know, is Chicago's playful euphemism for an explosive bomb.

TOURS DOMINION TO SAVE FORESTS

Tree Planting Car Is Operated in Canada.

Edmonton, Alta.—A tree-planting car, operated by the Canadian Forestry association, has just returned from the West and left for Peuce river following a two months' trip over the lines of the Canadian National railway between Edmonton and Prince Rupert.

By the operation of the car the dominion government hopes to achieve direction of reforestation of burnt-over areas and at the same time to instruct townspeople, and others in more remote communities, in the care and protection of their forests.

The line of the Canadian National westward from Edmonton to the Pacific port of Prince Rupert, runs through heavily wooded territory, threading its way along the Fraser, the Bulkley and the Skeena rivers.

This is a country which owes its beauty as much to the heavy green forests which cover it as to the mountains with which it is hemmed. The increasing tourist traffic, coupled with lumbering and ranching activities, renders fire a real peril.

During their stay in British Columbia, the complement of the forestry car, accompanied lately by George Harcourt, representing the University of Alberta, held 351 meetings in the interests of forestry preservation. It is estimated that 60,000 persons attended these gatherings.

The distribution of placards took place at key points. These signs, bearing a brief conservation message, posted at cross roads, along the highways and the trails, present a pertinent message to the passer-by.

World's Tallest Building Is Planned for Chicago

Chicago.—Chicago gave birth to the skyscraper and now it is to retain the honor of having the tallest building in the world.

The Chicago Tower, which has been announced for construction in February, will rise 880 feet above the street level of Wacker drive, exceeding the height of the Woolworth building by 88 feet.

The Chicago Tower will have a gross floor area of 5,097,778 square feet which will make it the largest building in the world.

Nine classes of tenancy will be included in the new building. Besides a 75 story office building the skyscraper will house the Chicago Apparel Mart, a 440-room hotel, a 25 story garage, two clubs and two convention halls.

The building will be erected on air rights over the Illinois Central railroad tracks and its estimated cost is $45,000,000.

Walter W. Alschlager is the architect for the Chicago Tower.

Caterpillars Peril Crops in Portugal

Lisbon, Portugal.—A plague of flying caterpillars is threatened to destroy Portugal.

There has not been a similar outbreak since 1883 and Portuguese farmers, unable to cope with the situation, have called for government assistance.

The invading caterpillar has been identified as a night-flying agrotis. It is green or grayish in color, with darker markings, and has pale pink underwings. It can fly only during the first two hours after nightfall, but in that time does much damage.

New Barley, Alfalfa, Produced in Michigan

East Lansing, Mich.—Michigan's latest contribution to American agriculture is the new "Spartan" barley and "Hardigan" alfalfa. Both, in statewide production for the first time, will be offered on the market this year.

Spartan barley was developed in an experimental laboratory 12 years ago by crossing the Michigan "Two Row" and Michigan "Black Barless" varieties. It has an early maturity, a large yield, and does not have the usual rough beard.

Beekeepers Insure Selves Against Damage Suits

London.—Pioneer Beekeepers' association does not want to be stung by people who are stung by bees. As a result the association has insured its members against public liability. For about 12 cents a year beekeepers can be insured for claims up to $500. The third party risks are very small, for bees do not attack people unless they are interfered with.

Heart Stops Beating but He Isn't Dead

Warsaw, Poland.—Medical circles are greatly interested in reports from the village of Sienia, in the Vilna district, of a man whose heart action apparently has ceased but who still retains normal body temperature.

The man, Adam Woyznis, was struck by lightning and was considered dead. Shortly before his funeral his coffin was opened on his mother's wish and the man was found in what appeared a deep coma.

WOMAN STUDIES HAREM SECRETS

Finds Peephole in Ancient Seraglio Palace.

Constantinople.—An American woman, the first foreigner whom the Ottoman government permitted to enter the harem of Seraglio palace, has just completed an exhaustive study of that mysterious labyrinth.

She is Dr. Burnette Miller, head of the history department of Wellesley college, who returned to Stamboul this year to complete the investigations she began in 1907. Aided by a young Turkish girl, Mevrouke Hanem, a member of the staff of Constantinople College for Women, Doctor Miller is the first American to delve deeply into the shadowy history of the vast 500-year-old palace where Turkish padishahs and sultans and their hundreds and thousands of slaves lived hidden lives.

The American investigator discovered in her prowling through the palace that there existed one peephole by which the women of the harem could look upon men other than their sultanic master and their guardian eunuchs. High in the wall of the palace mosque where the sultan and his masculine followers worshipped, Doctor Miller found a tiny window covered with a golden lattice and discovered that this window connected with the rooms in the harem where the women gathered to pray.

During her final investigations this year Doctor Miller was given permission by the new republican Turkish authorities to enter every one of the hundreds of palace rooms save one. No human except the sultans, not even the sultan-smiling, religion-defying Mustapha Kemal, has ever entered that sanctum sanctorum where the beard of the Prophet reposes. Outside the heavily barred window of that room, 40 turbaned priests, in groups of four, chant prayers from the Koran day and night, year after year, century after century.

New Method to Aid Deaf Is Being Taught

Los Angeles, Calif.—Extraordinary results of a method whereby children born deaf are taught to speak and to "hear" by lip reading were disclosed at the demonstration school of the University of California at Los Angeles.

The new method, according to Miss Rachel Dawes, a demonstration school teacher, presages the abandonment of the sign language.

The course of study includes lip reading, spelling, writing, reading, number and language work in addition to tongue gymnastics, the last of which forms the most important part of the work.

"Music, too, is an important factor in arousing the child's consciousness of vibration," Miss Dawes said.

"Being unable to hear, the children must be taught how to take the correct positions for language sounds, which we call tongue gymnastic work. They must know where to put the tongue and how to give voice and breath for sound. Ten sound and syllable combinations have been learned by the children to date."

Scientists Hunt Poison to Kill Coddling Moth

Yakima, Wash.—Field laboratories have been opened here and at Wenatchee by the Department of Agriculture in an effort to develop a poison that will be superior to the lead-arsenate spray which at present is the only effective method of combating the coddling moth, an insect that causes huge losses to apple and pear growers.

Local orchardists are co-operating. They desire a poison that while deadly to the moth will be harmless to humans and which will not require a wash or other treatment that will shorten the life of the apple when in storage.

When aviators have to take an insanity test it's going to be too bad for some of these ocean flyers.

It pays to advertise. Old Diogenes carried a lantern for so long that today his name is a household word.

QUALITY AT LOW COST

Proof That Golf Is a Mental Disorder
Noblesville, Ind.—Dr. Earl Brooks, president of the local park board, propounds the following questions on human behavior: "I visited the park and observed 35 persons playing on the golf course. A heavy shower came up, but the players continued their game just the same. There were 63 persons in the bathing pool when it began to rain and every one of them rushed out of the water to the shelter house. I have seen that happen several times, and it is more than I can understand."

BIRDS AND WHALES SOON TO COME BEFORE LEAGUE

Probably Will Be Taken Under the Protection of the Geneva Body.

Geneva.—Birds and whales probably will be taken under the protection of the League of Nations.

As a matter of fact the league already has had a commission of experts at work for some time to see if an international convention cannot be launched relative to whales and other deep sea riches.

As regards the protection of birds, it is expected that the September assembly of the League of Nations will be asked to summon an international conference for the purpose of launching a new international bird convention to replace the 1902 Paris convention on the subject.

The migratory character both of birds and whales is such as to make any regulation relative to them necessarily of an international nature and hence within the scope of the league, while their economic value to the world as a whole is declared sufficiently great to justify the league's attention.

Both the convention on whales and the one on birds will have for their primary object the fixing of "open" seasons in such a manner as to relieve the world of any danger of the species becoming extinct. Whales, it is declared, are just as much in need of this protection as birds.

The initiative for placing the protection of the migratory birds under the auspices of the league has been taken by the international committee on bird protection and various members of the league council have promised to support the resolution before the assembly authorizing the league to call an international conference for next year.

The necessity of protecting birds will be urged especially from the standpoint of agriculture, where they maintain a certain balance against the insect world, and also from the standpoint of game food.

Here's Explanation of Lightning Bug's Light

Washington.—The fireflies, or "lightning bugs" that dance in the air over twilight lawns carry torches that burn on exactly the same principle as a lighted candle. That is, they combine a combustible substance with oxygen and produce light. The great advantage the firefly has unconsciously worked out over man-made illuminants is that his tail-light makes so little heat that it can fairly be called a "cold light."

The shining of fireflies, and of other animals and plants, used to be called "phosphorescence," because it looks like the light given off by a bit of rubbed phosphorus in the dark. That, however, is a misnomer, for it is not caused by phosphorus. The basis of the light is a substance called "luciferin," which means "light-bearer." By itself it does not glow, but a second substance known as "luciferase," present in all luminous organisms, causes it to combine with oxygen and this makes the luminescence. A further chemical reaction breaks the luciferase away from the combination, permitting it to be used over again an indefinite number of times.

Doctors Wage War on Infantile Paralysis

New York.—Believing that on the basis of the history of the disease they cannot look forward with any degree of assurance to an absence of outbreaks of infantile paralysis during this summer and fall, doctors and research men throughout the country are organizing for a concerted attack on any epidemic that may develop.

No satisfactory method of immunization from the disease has been developed, but there is now a convalescent serum, taken from the blood of recovered patients, which acts to nullify the virus if injected in the early stages of sickness.

Funds already have been established in San Francisco, Boston and New York to defray the expense of collecting and distributing this serum, which will be placed in the care of committees of physicians especially informed and qualified to direct its use.

Taught 57 Years

Huntington, N. Y.—Miss Sarah May has retired after teaching school continuously for 57 years, during which she was absent from duty only one day.

A negro was receiving bricks at the top of a ten-story building where some repair work was going on. Another negro on the ground was loading the bricks on the carrier.

The negro above accidentally dropped a brick, hitting the one on the ground squarely on the head.

He was indignant, and yelled to the one above: "Be a little more careful up there. That brick hit me and made me bite mah tongue."

PHANTOM ISLE STILL MYSTERY OF TROPICS

Sailors Tell of Paradise of South Pacific.

New York.—For nearly eighty years sea captains have talked of the existence of a "lost" island somewhere in the south Pacific, a lonely paradise of green palms, gleaming beaches, all powdered coral and blue lagoons, all guarded by a ring of saw-toothed reefs over which the tortured sea boils in sheets of foam.

Passing ships have reported it lying low in the turquoise sea like an emerald, but when the hydrographers have tried to locate and chart it they have found nothing but the empty ocean.

Some persons have regarded it as a myth, others as one of the strange phantoms of the sea, while the more practical ones have declared it to have been one of the floating islands not uncommon in tropical waters. A few believe it to be so low lying in the sea that it is easy to miss.

Reported in 1859.

It was first reported in 1859, and one year later the United States corvette Levant dropped out of sight forever on her way from Hilo to Panama. There was some reason to suppose that she went to look for the island, for, while the corvette was in port at Honolulu in June, 1860, Lieutenant Stout, her executive officer, expressed great interest in the island and talked with several merchant captains about its probable location.

The Levant was heading southeast when she left Hilo and sailing a course which, if continued, would take her across the equator and into the latitude of the mysterious island.

Basis for Tale.

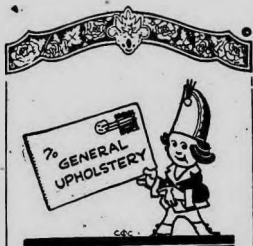

It was partly around the Levant that Edward Everett Hale wrote his imaginary tale of "The Man Without a Country," in which he prophetically wrote of the foundering of the warship, but fixed the date nearly three years later than her actual disappearance, naming the time of Nolan's death on the Levant, after fifty years of voyaging and transfers from ship to ship, as May 11, 1863, in latitude 2 degrees 11 minutes south and longitude 131 west, somewhere near 1,500 to 2,000 miles southeast of Honolulu.

On that date the Levant had in all probability been lying at the bottom of the sea for nearly three years, as she left Hilo in August, 1860, and vanished.

No vessel ever spoke to her at sea after she disappeared into the regions of the trade winds. While at Honolulu, Lieutenant Stout, with much pride, showed to his ship's visitors the stateroom Phillip Nolan was supposed to have occupied.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

THE EMPTY NORTH.

One of the most striking passages of that ancient collection of literature known as the Bible is "He banneth the north over an empty place." It is found in the Book of Job.

The queer part of it is that astronomically the north is a somewhat empty place. In a measure you can see for yourself that there are not many stars in that direction.

All this is called to mind when we read of General Nobille's flight over the Pole a short time ago. He discovered again what had already been discovered, that when you get to the North Pole you find nothing there—just frozen emptiness.

Think of all these years that men have dreamed of getting to the North Pole, and striven for it, and died for it. What does it amount to, after all?

It is simply a record to make, a sort of impossible line to toe, but all those fanciful dreams of Stimps, Hole, and the like, about there being an undiscovered country up there, are pure fiction.

The only part of this globe that is habitable is the temperate zone, and in a measure the tropics.

General Nobille's discoveries, as well as those of others, reveal that the north is to be added to the oceans and the deserts and the mountain ranges as pure waste. A deal of the universe, as far as we can see, is waste in the sense of not being habitable by man. We cannot live in the seas, and life is difficult in the high mountain ranges.

Considering how vast is the universe, and how many of the stars are simply blazing balls of fire utterly uninhabitable by any form of life, and how gigantic are the distances between the stellar bodies, and even what a great portion of this planet is not habitable, one's philosophy of life unconsciously limits the importance of mankind, and adds a new meaning to the exclamation:

"When I consider Thy heavens, the moon and the stars which Thou art mindful of, and the son of man that Thou visited him?"

THINKING OUT LOUD

A man advertises that he wants a job, admitting he has been a burglar for several years and saying he wants to get into a legitimate line. His training would probably be valuable in a great many businesses!

German matrimonial statistics show that married men live longer than bachelors. Probably they become so accustomed to trouble that it doesn't have any effect on them after a while.

A New Yorker charged with making out a false check tried to cut it in order to destroy the evidence against him. When he made out the check he probably didn't think that he himself would be the goat.

A pickpocket, when arrested for practicing his art, said he was only doing so in an attempt to raise the money for his bail bond. That's what we call enterprise.

The plumbers' convention at Atlantic City has voted for a 40-hour week. Do they mean forty hours of work—or waiting for tools?

Our idea of a good guesser: The man who predicted that Jack Dempsey would win the fight in the play he is starring in on Broadway.

"Silence is golden"—but you can't get the producers who are cashing in on sound pictures to believe it!

THE THEATRE

"THE PERFECT CRIME."

Is the "perfect crime" within the realm of possibilities? Criminals must think so, but the records of police departments which eventually bring them to justice show that this is a fallacy.

Israel Zangwill in "The Big Bow Mystery" delineated the character of a master criminalist who, weary of solving crimes which always left their clue to conviction, became obsessed with the idea of committing a crime so perfect that no clue to its perpetrator would ever be discovered.

He carried out the crime and then, to the dismay of Scotland Yard, who had brought an innocent man within the shadow of the gallows, proved to them that they had blundered. Considered a factor he had never brought into consideration, and love were the powerful motives that drove him to confession.

It is this remarkable story which William LeBaron has adapted to the screen under the title of "The Perfect Crime," to be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday and Monday, October 7-8.

A distinguished cast has been assembled for its gripping enactment. It is headed by Olive Brook and Irene Rich, with Tully Marshall, Edmund Breese, Ethel Wales, Carroll Nye, Gladys McConnell, James Farley, Phil Gastrock and Jane LaVerne in support. Unusual camera effects have been introduced to give this striking mystery drama backgrounds of remarkable beauty and atmospheric quality.

In connection with this picture there will be a vaudeville act, "The Merry Makers' Revue," with eight people in a fast, peppy singing and dancing and musical unit.

"A SON OF THE GOLDEN WEST."

Tom Mix and his horse, Tony, film stars inseparable in the minds of the multitudes of followers of western pictures on the screens of the world's theatres—have done it again.

Keeping faith with their admirers, tumultuous thousands of whom turned out in all of the great cities of the land to greet and acclaim the western star on his recent record-breaking vaudeville tour of the Keith-Albee Orpheum circuit, they have made a new picture which is sweeping the country in a wave of success.

In "Son of the Golden West," first of a series of special productions which Mix is making for FBO, this season and which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Wednesday and Thursday, October 10-11, he is seen in a character delineation which is a variation from his familiar cowboy roles—that of a "pony express" rider of the days when the pioneers were battling to plant civilization in the great west.

It is a gripping story of the colorful days before the plains became the "cow country," when Indians battled to check the white man's advance on their hunting grounds and outlaws preyed upon stage coaches and pony express riders for treasure and revenge. In its unfolding Tom and his wonder horse, Tony, are given ample opportunity to display the adventurous riding and clever stunts that have aided in their popularity, and scenes of splendid riders, as "bad men" or defenders of a government survey post, take part in the speedy action.

"Son of the Golden West" was directed for FBO by Eugene Furde and in the supporting company, headed by charming Sharon Lynn in the feminine lead, are included Tom Lingham, Duke R. Lee, Lee Shumway, Fritzie Ridgeway, Joie Ray, Mark Hamilton and Wynn Mace.

"LOVES OF AN ACTRESS."

"Loves of an Actress" is the most dramatic and spectacular production Pola Negri has ever made, despite the success of "Passion" and other big pictures.

That is the contention of Rowland V. Lee, who directed the Paramount star in this new achievement.

Lee has directed several other Negri starring vehicles, including "Barbed Wire" and "Beggars of Love," and he considers himself in a position to make comparisons.

"Loves of an Actress" provides Miss Negri with a great role, a role that calls for real acting ability," Lee says. "When you consider that Rachel was one of the great figures of all time on the stage, a celebrated French tragedienne, whose life and loves were full of tragedy and poignant drama, you can realize the necessity for an able portrayer in the picture version of her story."

And Miss Negri does her work admirably. She displays talents I have never before seen in one of her productions. I might even go so far as to say that she is superb—and that's a strong word to use."

Lee is credited with the continuity, and Miss Negri assisted him, providing data she herself obtained while in France last year. The picture comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Saturday, October 13.

Extension Courses In Home Economics

OFFERED FROM MICHIGAN STATE COLLEGE TO WAYNE COUNTY WOMEN.

Much enthusiasm is evident regarding the home economics courses which are being offered this year to women of Wayne county.

One course in house furnishing is intended to add touches of beauty to the home, with emphasis on upholstery and slip-covers; lighting, both natural and artificial, showing artistic effects gained through lamps, and color notes found in accessories, such as candles, pottery and pillows.

The other course, "Colors in the Costume," is outlined with special reference to the individual and her needs. Each woman will make a notebook for herself, based on the study of her own personality and type; her personal coloring and the colors which emphasize her best characteristics. The use of accessories and planning a harmonious costume will be high points for each woman, which will lead to a final sewing of the assembled outfit.

Any woman in Wayne county is eligible for membership in these classes which are now being organized, provided she is willing to assume the responsibility of doing the work and attending the meetings regularly once each month for a period of four or six months.

Further information may be gained by writing Miss Lois Corbett, home demonstration agent, Dearborn, Mich.

He—"Tomorrow morning you will meet me at the Cusy cafe."
 She—"But suppose mother insists on coming with me."
 He—"She won't. I have invited her to meet me at the same time at River restaurant."

Welsh Exhibit

Oldest of Laws

Cardiff, Wales.—The National Library of Wales is exhibiting an unrivaled collection of manuscript of the Laws of Hywel Dda, one of the greatest of medieval Welshmen, who 1,000 years ago peacefully united Wales and codified the laws and customs of its people.

The oldest existing manuscript of the laws was written on vellum some time about A. D. 1175-1200, in Latin, and is illustrated throughout by crude but graphic colored drawings depicting the king and his chief officers—the judge, the chief groom, the cook and others.

A little later, about A. D. 1200, comes the oldest manuscript of the laws in the Welsh language, known as the Llywy Du or Wen, or the Black Book of Chirk. This, too, is of vellum and is copied from an older Welsh manuscript no longer extant.

Fires Forest to Kill Girl Who Jilted Him

Toronto, Ont.—The story of an Indian who set fire to a forest in which the maid who jilted him had fled with his rival, came from the north woods recently.

Capt. Roy Maxwell, director of the provincial air service, told the story in describing the work of his department, part of which was to aid the royal Canadian mounted police in capturing the smitten Indian.

The Indian had been singing love songs to a girl of his race. She jilted him and fled with another suitor into the woods. Following them, the rejected suitor waited until the couple entered a forest area in the Lake Savant region. Then he methodically set to work to fire the whole area. A forest ranger surprised him at a task and extinguished the several fires the Indian had set. The brave escaped.

Enlisting the aid of the air service, the royal Canadian mounted flew into the wilderness to the Indian's camp and arrested him.
