Plans are being made for the dental inspection of all the children in Plymouth schools by our local dentists in October.

The first permanent tooth a child gets is usually not a tiny one in front below as most parents suppose, but a molar, the largest and most important tooth in the whole permanent set.

These sixth year molars do not replace baby teeth. They come in behind the baby set. You can tell these sixth year molars by counting the teeth from the front toward the back, counting spaces also if any teeth have

Old King Winter About to Ascend His Throne

A few short weeks and we'll be face to face with these cold, raw mornings when it requires a real effort to start out. Cold hands—cold feet—cold motorgs hard to start—all the troubles of cold weather motoring ahead—would it not be more pleasant, more convenient to ride the bus to Detroit, provided, of course, these improvements are carried out?

O. E. S. Reunion Next Tuesday

A most delightful affair in the annals of Plymouth Chapter, will be the reunion next Tuesday evening. Beginning with a dinner at 6:30 p. m., there will follow a musical program, after which the officers will put on a special program and memorial service in the lodge room.

As this is the first reunion Plymouth chapter has undertaken, a small badge bearing the name of the station and date of term, has been sent to each past officer, as a means of classifying, and with the hope they may be helped in recalling little incidents for our reminiscence program.

Each member is privileged to invite a guest. The worthy matron, Mrs. Luella Buzzard, and officers desire to make this a most enjoyable occasion for old and new members, past officers and friends. There will be many who will enjoy seeing our beautiful lodge room, and to mingle and visit in real happy social fashion. This is an open program to the guests.

Mrs. Winifred Downing, chairman for the dinner, would appreciate your calling her if you plan to attend or bring a guest. Dinner, 50c. Phone 528J.

CYNIC'S JIBE AT ROYAL FLUSH IS ONE FATAL ERROR

Skeptic Rails Against Hoax-istry of Holder and Is Shot to Death.

New York.—To the long list of poker skeptics who died with their boots on was added the name of Frank Concession.

Frank Harris, hitherto a peaceable Brooklynite, listed his name on the scroll of those whose outraged emotions have catapulted the cynic into the poker players' valhalla.

Some of the boys—ten of them to be exact—were passing the evening in a store at 101 Prince street. It was their custom on certain evenings to hire this store. Shortly after midnight most of them had had enough and only Concession, Harris and three others were sitting tight.

Sometimes They Frame 'Em. Many Americans have dabbled at draw poker to a ripe old age without seeing a royal flush. It is a custom in some parts to frame them, tear up the rest of the pack, and write or wire to the local congressman.

When the eventful hand was dealt Harris saw that he had four hearts—ten, jack, queen and king.

Harris began to perspire slightly and looked cautiously at the others. They all seemed to have fairly good hands. None drew more than two cards. Concession stood pat.

Harris asked for one card. He inserted it carefully into the middle of his hand and then spread them. Up jumped the ace of hearts.

Harris swallowed his Adams' apple twice and glanced around to see if anybody had noticed his swallowing.

Up Jumped the Ace of Hearts.

It. The betting was brisk. Harris was a monument of caution. When finally it was evident that no more money would ever be wheeled into that pot the cards were shown.

With a whoop of joy, Harris spread out his royal flush and implored the others to imprint indelibly on their eyeballs. With a roar of disgust Concession flung his own hand on the table, arose, and made a speech.

A Speech of Bitterness.

The substance of Concession's speech was that the chances are 23 1/2 to 1 against, fling a straight flush that is open at both ends, that they are boundlessly greater against obtaining the one card needed to make it a perfect royal flush. Concession concluded his remarks with an apothegm.

"No honest man," he said firmly, "ever holds a royal flush."

Concession then grabbed approximately his share of the pot and ran out.

Harris ran after him shouting. Several blocks away Harris overtook Concession and shot him through the heart.

Factory Tries Out Colors on Workers

Wolverhampton, England.—Wolverhampton is building a rainbow factory. Instead of whitewashed walls, this factory will be decorated in stripes of many colors. The workers will be garbed in striped overalls of vivid hues. Even the steam and water pipes will be painted in unusual colors. The factory will produce paint and varnish, the "rainbow" factory being an experiment in the effect of colors on the spirit of the workers.

Burglar Caught, Asks to Be "Bumped Off"

Butte, Mont.—"Why don't you guys bump me off?" asked Roy Neulman, thirty, when police interrupted him in the act of cutting through a skylight of a merchandise store. "I've been a no good crook ever since I was thirteen. Here's your chance to get me out of the racket for keeps."

Play, With Snake

Tusculum, Ala.—Finding a rattlesnake in his yard, John Lawrence, a year old, at this place, began playing with it. The mother, seeing the child's danger, killed the reptile with a chair. The baby was unharmed.

Hide Wooden Legs

Indianapolis, Ind.—After hiding the wooden legs of William Neiberger, a cripple of this city, robbers ransacked the house while he looked on helplessly. Later he called police.

Cabbage Known to Ancients

The ancients knew many varieties of cabbage, the curled, the ruffed and sprouts. Cauliflower, which entered France in 1634 from Cyprus, had been pronounced by one Roman herbalist the sweetest and pleasantest to taste of all the coleworts, but of no value in medicine, an enemy to the kidneys, unwholesome and hard to digest.

Molded Meat Loaf Ready to Serve.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

A well-seasoned veal or beef loaf is one of the tastiest and most attractive dishes made from the cheaper cuts. Lean meat may be selected and bought especially for making it, or parts may be trimmed from cuts that will be cooked in other ways, put through the grinder, and thus utilized separately. In either case there is little or no waste. The recipe below, from the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, is for a veal loaf seasoned with salt pork and savory vegetables.

Veal Loaf.

4 cups ground raw veal 1/2 cup chopped parsley 1 cup finely diced salt pork 1/4 cup chopped onion 1 1/2 cups milk 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs 2 tsp. salt 1/2 cup chopped celery 1/4 tsp. pepper 1/2 tsp. celery seed

Fry the salt pork until light brown and crisp and remove the pieces from the pan. Make white sauce of the milk, flour, and three tablespoonsful of the pork drip, eggs. Cook the celery, parsley and onion for a few minutes in the rest of the pork drippings, and add to this the bread crumbs and seasonings. Combine all ingredients, using the hands to mix thoroughly. The mixture will have a sticky consistency. Lay a piece of parchment paper on a rack in an open roasting pan. Mold the meat loaf on the paper with the hands. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) for 1 1/2 hours. Do not cover the pan and do not add water to it. Remove the loaf from the paper and serve hot, or chill it for slicing cold.

Much better results are obtained when the loaf is molded and baked in the way described in a wide shallow pan than when it is packed into a smaller pan and baked like a loaf of bread. Cold veal loaf, sliced very thin and garnished with parsley or water cross, is most attractive for lunch. It is excellent, too, as a sandwich filling, either with or without a leaf of lettuce and a spoonful of mayonnaise.

Today's Reflections

Our only hope is that some of our Plymouth residents who are always finding something to harp on are as fortunate in finding a harp in the next world.

Shakespeare said "All the world's a stage" but he couldn't find words to express just how most of us love a dress rehearsal.

Willbur Voliva of Zion City says the world is flat, but New Yorkers claim it only tastes that way on account of prohibition.

We know of several motorists around Plymouth who are so stubborn that if they ran into a telephone pole they'd claim it was on the wrong side of the road.

SAVE MONEY

Ownership of a Pontiac Big Six is an experience in economy. True, most people choose Pontiac, not because it is so inexpensive, but because of the many big car advantages which it provides. But it is a fact that with a Pontiac you actually save money. You save—

When You Buy ... When You Drive ... When You Trade It In

You save when you buy a Pontiac because it is the lowest-priced car ever produced which offers so many advantages. You save when you drive because, according to a large corporation which employed 996 cars of 33 different makes during 1928, Pontiac costs one cent less per mile to operate than any other low-priced six. You save when you trade it in because the demand for used Pontiacs has always exceeded the available supply. Come in to see and drive the car which offers all these advantages.

ROSEDALE GARDEN SCHOOL NOTES

(Last Week's Items.)
The school nurse, Miss Reed, visited us for the first time this year on Monday. While she was here she tested us on posture and most of us passed with good marks.
The Parent-Teacher association will hold their second meeting Wednesday evening, October 2nd. Every since Friday the children have been making leaves out of colored paper for the invitations.
Friday afternoon all the children that had not been absent or tardy the previous month had a half-holiday.

Our menagerie is quite small now. The only things left are the tomato sphinx and the turtle. The walking stick and the snake didn't seem to like their home but others are quite contented.
We have a new table in the room where we keep our library books. When the pupils are through with their lessons they are privileged to go to the table and read.
By Judith O'Dea.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Fred Procknow, who passed away one year ago today, October 11, 1928. She always had some cheerful words, and her smiles we see them yet. Her tender love for everyone we never will forget. She suffered patiently and long. Her hopes were bright, her faith was strong. The hands of Jesus stilled her breast, and in his arms she sank to rest. Sadly missed by her children.

Municipal Notes

BY THE MANAGER

Dead trees and trees which are in such condition that they may prove dangerous in a high wind are being removed from village streets and parks to make room for new young trees, which it is hoped to set out this fall or next spring. Any of our citizens knowing of dead or dangerous trees upon our streets near their homes will confer a favor by referring such information to the village officers. At its regular meeting last Monday evening the Commission authorized the construction of a sanitary sewer in Evergreen avenue, from Blanche street to Junction avenue, a lateral storm sewer and water main in Jener street from Brush street, a half-block northward, and a sanitary sewer for the benefit of the east side of S. Main street, from near Dodge street to the U. S. R. parking lot. Street lights were also ordered installed at S. Main street and Palmer avenues, and at Garfield and Maple avenues. Many sidewalk repairs have been made in the village since sidewalk repair notices were sent out early last month. Walks that have not as yet been taken care of will be repaired by contractors employed by the village, and the cost assessed to the owners of the property abutting the walk.

A card party from 8:00 to 10:00, and dance, from 10:00 to 12:00, is being held at the I. O. O. F. hall, Friday, October 11. Admission 25c, music furnished by Melody Group.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Anna C. Westfall, who passed away one year ago, the 12th:

Of a loved one called to rest
She will always be remembered
By the ones who loved her best
Sadly missed by her daughter and granddaughter.

CANDIDATES ON HOME STRETCH

suite together with all the other fine prizes. If you can trust your judgment as to your competitors' strength based on facts and observations and lay your plans accordingly, there is yet time to turn the tide and win a sweeping victory. Are you going to be one who will finish at the head of the list or are you going to be content with what you have now and see the efforts of those weeks go to waste and the reward that should have been yours wrested from your grasp by more enterprising candidates? It is entirely up to you. Remember you are working for something of real value and naturally it means a great deal to the candidate to secure one of the better prizes and the best frame of mind for success is just a willingness to work hard for it, but whatever you do, put up a real battle for it during the few remaining days of the campaign and make it a desperate battle to the finish and WIN.

Kampaign Comments.

Mrs. Nellie Beyer of Rosedale Gardens is still winning her way to the top of the list. Just a few extension subscriptions will place your name at the top of the list where the big prizes grow.

Miss Helen Beyer is still gathering a few votes to add to her score and will no doubt make a fine showing at the finish.

Kenneth Cool dropped into the office the past week with a few more subscriptions given by his friends. Now is the time, Kenneth. Later will be too late.

Mrs. Goodwin Crumie is still leading candidate with a fine margin of votes to her credit. Mrs. Crumie is active every day and the results are encouraging.

Mrs. W. L. Froyman is calling on her host of friends for their promised subscriptions and is building her score for the big day, October 19th.

Mrs. Esther Hillman has showed her pace just a little the past week but the coming week will no doubt show Mrs. Hillman has not been inactive. Work extensions, Mrs. Hillman, they are your friends now.

John Quartel is coming along with his share of promised subscriptions. Mrs. Quartel is helping her husband and getting telling results. Work extensions strongly Mrs. Quartel, they count big and help build your club score.

Walton Richwine has seemed to slow up on his score. Why he delay Walton? This opportunity will soon be gone.

Mrs. Kenneth Stevens continues to bring in those winning votes and says she will be at the finish with a fine score.

Mrs. Clara Todd seems somewhat discouraged with her score the past week but we will wager our best suit that Mrs. Todd will be among the top winners on that big day, October 19th.

Mrs. Ida Thomas, of Newburg, is taking in the surrounding territory and getting results that count. Build clubs Mrs. Thomas and the results will take care of themselves on October 19.

William Wolfram, Jr., is coming along with a score that will surely bring home the bacon for William, Jr. Mrs. Wolfram is helping her son and is getting those winning votes to place to William Jr.'s credit. They make a team that will be hard to beat.

WATERFORD SCHOOL NOTES.

Last Friday Geraldine and Floyd Schroder left us. Geraldine was in the second grade and Floyd in the beginner's class.

We are going to have a Halloween party. In our last Citizenship meeting it was suggested that we have a school museum. The motion was carried, and we are bringing curious things or things from foreign lands to add to our collection.

Seventeen children were neither absent or tardy the first month of school.

Our report cards have not been received for the first marking period, because they have been changed this year, and we have not received our supply of them. Mr. Rowland attended the zone meeting of the Hough school Saturday morning.

EVERYTHING you want or need in a modern automobile

There is nothing quite like the new Ford anywhere in quality and price

UNTIL you ride in the new Ford—share its comfort—know the thrills of guiding it easily and safely through thickest traffic or stepping it up on the open road, you cannot begin to appreciate the value that has been built into this car.

It is difficult to believe that so much beauty, quiet, comfort, safety, speed and power can be had at such a low price. It would be impossible if this new car were made by anyone but Ford.

The low price of the new Ford and its exceptional performance are the results of manufacturing practices and economies as unusual as the car itself. The new Ford is more than a new automobile. It is the advanced expression of a wholly new idea in modern, economical transportation.

For here, at a low price, is everything you want or need in an automobile—beautiful low lines and choice of color... four Houdaille hydraulic two-way shock absorbers... Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield... fully enclosed, silent six-brake system... vibration-absorbing engine support... quick acceleration... 55 to 65 miles an hour... typical Ford economy, reliability and long life.

Come in and let us demonstrate the performance of this car. You'll get a real thrill in driving it.

"The laws of the Universe are not indifferent, but are forever on the side of the most sensitive"

—Thoreau

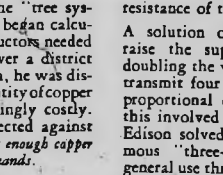

LORD KELVIN, eminent British scientist, when asked why no one else had invented so simple a thing as the Feeder System, replied: "The only answer I can think of is that no one else was Edison."

In spite of the advantages of the feeder system, one of the first difficulties encountered in supplying a large district was the limited distance that could be economically reached with the 110-volt supply, since the longer the electric main, the larger was the electrical loss due to heat caused by the resistance of the main.

Up to the time of the Pearl Street Station, the arrangement of conductors used for arc lighting was known as the "tree system". When Mr. Edison began calculating the size of the conductors needed for distributing current over a district nearly a square mile in area, he was dismayed to find that the quantity of copper required would be exceedingly costly. Among the criticisms directed against him was that there was not enough copper in the world to supply his demands.

"Let There Be Light"

A solution of the difficulty was to raise the supply pressure, since by doubling the voltage it was possible to transmit four times the distance with proportional energy loss. But to do this involved further difficulties. Mr. Edison solved the problem by his famous "three-wire" system, now in general use throughout the world.

To economize on conductors, Mr. Edison invented a new system of amazing simplicity, called the "feeder" system. The "tree" system was just what its name implied. At the dynamo, the main which energized the conductors to the customer's premises was of a proportionately large cross-section, like a trunk, and gradually tapered off as branches were fed from it and it approached the farther extremity of the system. This was necessary to prevent the lamps nearest the generator from becoming dangerously overheated because the voltage diminished from the generator to the most distant lamp; but it required an outlay for copper so enormous as to be absolutely prohibitive in modern service of large areas.

Instead of connecting the dynamo to a pair of main conductors from which the lamp filaments were fed, three conductors were used. Two dynamo wires were joined together, the middle wire serving as a neutral conductor when the load was equally divided on the two others and as a balancing conductor to carry the difference when there was uneven loading. Each of the other two wires were connected to an outer terminal of these dynamo. The total number of connected lamps were divided as nearly as possible into two equal groups, half of them connected between the middle or neutral wire and one outside wire, and half between the middle and other outside wire—the third wire serving both groups. This meant an additional saving of 62½ per cent in copper over his "feeder" system, and electricity could be transmitted one-third greater distance without extra loss of energy. The three-wire practice at once became standard for all low pressure systems.

A patent was issued to Mr. Edison in March 1883, and the first three-wire system was installed at Brockton, Mass. A year later, the first theater and the first fire-engine house to be lighted from a central station were connected. In the engine house, the striking of the alarm during the night automatically lighted all the lamps and permitted the horses to take their places under the harness. Thus, for the first time, electricity lessened the work of the fire department.

This is the fourth of a series of historical mementos published by The Detroit Edison Company in honor of acknowledging his influence on the development of the Electric Light and Power Industry.

The fifth will appear in this paper next week.

OUR AUTO DEATH

It would appear from the most recent reports of the Department of Commerce that the auto accident situation in this country is not improving. In view of all that has been said and written on the subject this is disappointing. It emphasizes the fact that American motorists are not increasing their prudence and carefulness in proportion to the increase in driving dangers.

During the four weeks ending September 7 there were 710 deaths in 78 of our largest cities, as compared with 622 deaths in the same time last year. In each of the last four months more than 600 people have been killed by machines, a total of 2400 deaths in one-third of a year. And the worst driving months of the year, November and December, are yet ahead of us.

Not all of the fatalities are confined to our large cities by any means. Hundreds of towns like Plymouth are adding one or more to the list each season, and helping to boost the total up to a deplorable number. Each and every motorist should make up his mind to do all he can to prevent accidents in his driving. It is the moral duty of all good citizens so to walk and drive that they will not cause injury or death to any other citizen. If all will keep this in mind there is no reason why the number of deaths, and the number of accidents in this country each year cannot be substantially reduced.

THAT "SUCKER" LIST

A "sucker list" of 5,000,000 names from all over the United States is on sale in New York City, according to a Wall Street correspondent to some of our large daily papers. The list is made up of men and women who have played the stock market and are known to be susceptible to tempting lures. The names are sold for five cents each, and you can buy as many or as few as you want and in whatever part of the country you desire them. We feel sure this may explain to more than one Plymouth man who is accustomed to receive get-rich-quick offers by mail just how his name fell into the hands of the concerns addressing him. If you have ever "bit" at one, you're sure to be invited to bite at another, for your name is going to be peddled about as long as it brings five cents each time it is sold. There are tricks in all trades, as you've doubtless already learned, and selling a "sucker list" appears to be just another trick.

AGE SCORES AGAIN

We want to remind the younger generation around Plymouth who think that the idle house or the cemetery are the only places left for the man who is past fifty that it is always best to get the facts before handing down a decision. The man who stood at the helm of the giant Graf Zeppelin and piloted it around the world a few weeks ago is 61 years of age. Dr. Eckener, the man who invented it and built it and went around the world with it is also beyond the 60 mark. Just add these to the list of those who have set new world records or broken old ones, and you'll probably conclude that maybe, after all, a man isn't a back-number when he turns the fifty mark and starts down on the other side. This latest evidence of ability to accomplish a modern miracle by skill and daring at an advanced age serves not only to provide us with something to think about, but it ought to prove that Will Rogers was right when he said in speaking of the business and industrial world that "it's an old man that blows the whistle and an old man that owns the whistle."

A NATIONAL PEST

In a bulletin recently issued by the United States Department of Agriculture the statement is made that a single meadow mouse eats a bit more than an ounce of green feed every day—23 pounds a year. It is also asserted that a hundred mice to an acre is not at all unusual in a good many sections of the country, and in years particularly favorable to them they may run as high as 1,000 to the acre. So a hundred would eat a ton of green clover, and on fifty acres that is 50 tons, or about 25 tons of seasoned hay. These are staggering figures when we halt to consider them, and yet they are accepted as correct by Uncle Sam, for he is just now waging a new campaign against this expensive pest. New and successful methods are said to be working out successfully, so it might be a good idea for anyone in this section who is a victim of field mice to write the Department of Agriculture at Washington without delay and get first-hand information on how to stamp them out.

A TIP TO CONGRESS

With 23 percent of all of the autos in the United States owned on farms, there seems to be no good reason why congress can't render the rural residents of this country much-needed aid by speeding up road building. Each year the government spends, under the present Federal Aid act, the sum of $75,000,000. This, it must be remembered, is pro-rated among 48 states. And everyone in Plymouth knows that no state can build very many miles of road out of the small share it received when that sum is split so many ways.

Nothing has improved farm life and nothing is going to still further advance it as good roads have and will continue to do. The rural resident has been brought into closer touch with public affairs, and is taking a more active interest in demanding his rights as a citizen. An indication of this is seen in the fact that rural mail routes are now in excess of 1,270,000 miles, while five families are served per mile with an average of 3,810 pieces of mail handled per mile.

At the close of 1928 there were 24,493,124 motor vehicles in the United States and 5,426,900 of these were on farms. On the opposite side of the picture we find that 43 percent of the farms are located on unimproved dirt roads. Only a small percentage are on hard-gravel or paved highways. With such a situation prevailing, could there be any more sensible farm relief that Congress could provide through a more generous appropriation for highways?

COOPER SCHOOL NOTES

Our school has formed a Safety Club, and elected four seventh graders for patrol service, which consists of captain, John Frankiewicz; lieutenant, Matilda Laughlin; other members, Irene and Irey Smith. All children have signed their pledges and received their safety buttons.

Miss Reid, our school nurse, made us a visit Monday. All pupils were weighed and measured, given a posture test and a vision test. We are proud of the six members who were rated "A" in posture. Children who found they were underweight are working hard to get up to standard before the next monthly weighing.

Our Citizenship Club decided we needed a new flag. We are buying it ourselves by selling one gross of lead pencils. On the pencils are lettered, "Sold for the Flag Fund." In a week's time, we have sold over a hundred pencils. All pupils are proving their ability as salesmen.

The school board has purchased a new wire fence for the school yard, and expect to put it up soon.

Report cards were given out Friday.

Ruth Barton, one of the children who attended our school last year, made us a visit one afternoon of last week.

PERRINSVILLE SCHOOL NOTES

The children of the Perrinsville school organized a Court of Honor, Monday, Sept. 30. This was to keep more order on the school grounds and in the schoolhouse. Those who took the offices in the court are: Judge, Elmer McKee; prosecuting attorney, Helen Brown; chief of police, Walter Love; lawyers, Ruth Brown and Marvin Kubie; detectives, Clyde Lox and Josephine and Frank Guozjak; policemen, Ruth and Hiram Brown and Alfred Cutler; jurymen, Helen and Agnes Brown, Clyde Love, Naomi Snyder, Winifred and Edgar Voss and Violet Wall. There are eleven laws the children have to obey, and more will be added to the list later on.

There has been only one absence last week and this week, from school.

The eighth grade class held their class meeting Friday, October 4. At the meeting they decided to have a bazaar a few days before Christmas. Many things were suggested that could be made to sell at the bazaar. The eighth grade class also planned on having a Halloween party the Friday after Halloween.

After the vision test, Naomi Snyder found that she needed glasses. So her parents took her to the doctor and had her eyes fitted for glasses, and now Naomi can see much better.

The school board bought a new wool flag to put on the flag pole out doors. The children are making leaf, flower, insect and butterfly collections for nature study.

The trees are covered with all colored leaves now, and as there are trees all around the Perrinsville school is it a very pretty sight.

Whitbeck's Corners

ROLLED AND FANCY CHEESE SANDWICH

Different Chopped Vegetables May Be Worked in.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Neufchatel or cream cheese is used in both the rolled and the fancy sandwiches illustrated. The rolled sandwiches are spread with cream cheese mixed with finely chopped watercress. Chow chow, chilli sauce, or any other desired pickle mixture might have been used with the cheese in place of the water cress. Another good spread for these sandwiches, suggested by the bureau of home economics, United States Department of Agriculture, consists of equal parts of soft cheese, chopped olives, pimientos or green peppers, and nuts. Any two of these may be used with the cheese. Add salt and a little lemon juice if liked.

Dainty Afternoon Sandwiches.

The bread for rolled sandwiches should be fresh and elastic in texture, so that it will not crumble or break when rolled. Spread the sandwich mixture on the cut end of the loaf, and then with a very sharp knife, cut off the thinnest possible slice, roll it up, and trim the ends. Use cutters of fancy shapes such as hearts, clovers, stars, and others for the flat sandwiches. In spreading these, do not put filling too near the crust or parts likely to be trimmed off.

Many different chopped vegetables may be worked into cream cheese, seasoned, and used for sandwich spreads. Some of the best liked are parsley, water cress, lettuce, spring onions, chives, radishes, cucumbers, and celery. Onion or lemon juice may be included in the seasoning. These mixtures may also be used in the form of balls or stuffings for green peppers or celery to accompany salads.

Saws Way Into Jail and Begins Sentence

Lebanon, Ind.—Emmett Scott, forty-six, started three months' sentence and a new record at the Boone county jail here.

So far, to Scott belongs the distinction of being the only man ever to saw his way in to serve a sentence.

When Scott arrived to do his time he found that the keys had been lost and the doors of the institution locked against him. Under instruction from Sheriff Sandlin he got busy with a hack saw and opened up the gate to the bull pen.

Raises Tombstone for Wife to Aid His Suit

Budapest.—When Mrs. Johanna Rudl, during a walk through a Budapest cemetery found a gravestone on which she was announced as dead and her children, mentioned by name on the stone, as in mourning she decided to start a police investigation.

Within a few days she learned that wishing to marry again and finding it necessary in some extraordinary way to prove to the object of his affection how devotedly he could love a woman, her divorced husband had erected the monument. It was to show his fond wife how he cherished the memory of any woman who did him the honor of accepting him as a husband.

Earliest Censorship

The censorship of publications began probably in 1503, when the Venetian senate charged Musurus, "the greatest scholar of the age," with the task of exercising a censorship over all Greek books printed in Venice with reference particularly to the suppression of anything inimical to the Roman church.

You're out-of-date without an Eight!
Michigan registers 88% increase in eights

As proof of the tremendous growth in public preference for eight-cylinder cars, registration figures in this state for the first seven months of 1929 tell their own story. Eights above $1000 showed an increase of 88 per cent while Sixes in the same price field decreased 17 per cent.

The tendency is the same the nation over. In 43 states,* Eights above $1000 increased 94 per cent. Sixes declined 18 per cent.

Nobody can doubt the evidence. We are passing into an eight-cylinder era. Already, all of the finest American cars are Eights. In fact, 41 per cent of all makes are Eights, and the number is constantly increasing.

Spurred on by an Eight-minded public, Studebaker set out two years ago to build a high-quality Eight that could be sold at moderate six-cylinder cost.

Studebaker today leads the world in the manufacture of Eights—Eights that are champions—holders of 11 world records for speed and endurance and more American stock car records than all other makes combined—Eights which are remarkably economical—smooth, flexible, brilliant.

Before investing in your new car, drive a smart new Studebaker Eight—President, Commander or Dictator. Bear in mind that Studebaker's 77 years of manufacturing integrity stand back of every one of these cars. And remember, too, that your new car will be worth more a year from now—if it's an Eight!

WEST POINT PARK DEFEATS RIVER ROUGE 6-5 SUNDAY

ANDERSON'S HOMER ACCOUNTS FOR DE-HO-CO'S RUNS SCORED

Sunday afternoon, at De-Ho-Co Park, the feud between the Detroit House of Correction nine and the Risdon Creamery team was brought to an interesting conclusion, when the Farmers emerged on the long end of a 2 to 0 score.

This friendly feud started when Andrews, Risdon hurler, pitched Plymouth to a 3 to 0 victory over De-Ho-Co at the Northville fair, and was further incited when, on September 29th, the Farmers again faced him with his regular Risdon team behind him, and the two teams battled through nine scoreless innings, only to have the game called on account of darkness. The play-off was set for last Sunday and it was understood that Andrews would again pitch for Risdon, but unforeseen circumstances intervened, and his place on the mound was taken by the able veteran Milt Cross.

Cross got off to a bad start when Destefano, first man to face him, drew a pass, was sacrificed to second by Denniston, and Anderson hit a long home-run to deep left, scoring Destefano ahead of him. After this onslaught, Cross tightened up, and the final box score shows him allowing but six hits, two walks, and striking out four batters, quite a worthy effort by any pitcher.

Hartner again did the hurling for De-Ho-Co and continued the good work started the previous Sunday. During the nine innings Herman allowed but six hits, walked one, and struck out seven, and as he prevented the walkman from scoring, thereby ran his string of consecutive shut-out innings up to twenty.

Several scintillating plays were features but the outstanding one was a double play started by Gilles. With Isola on first, Vanderworth drove a hard smash on a line between short and third, but "Buddy" was off with the crack of the bat and made a gloved-hand stab, taking the ball over his shoulder while running at top speed. He was out of position to throw to first, but he whipped the ball to Jaska who threw to Denniston, doubling Isola off first.

Risdon's best scoring opportunity came in the sixth inning, when Commerford opened with a single, was forced out at second by Hayden, who in turn advanced to third on Drinkert's double, and Haunel walked. Alling the bases with only one out. In this critical situation, Hartner came through by striking out Isola and causing Vanderworth to pop-up to Denniston.

Anderson was the big noise with the stick for De-Ho-Co, getting two singles in addition to his home-run, in four attempts, while Hayden, with two singles, and Drinkert with a double, did the heavy clouting for Risdon.

Following is the box score of the encounter:

Pheasant Season Opens October 25

Plymouth hunters will be interested in knowing that the 1929 pheasant season will open at noon, October 25th, the conservation commission has ordered, using the discretionary power act. The opening of the season at noon instead of daylight as in the past follows requests of sportsmen who said under the old system most of the pheasants were shot early the first day and had no chance to scatter. It is thought that by opening at noon the first day, the birds will have an opportunity to spread through the hunting districts.

Cougars and Olympics Start Practice Oct. 21

The Cougars and Olympics will start their practices October 21st when 31 players will be on hand. Only one change has been made in the coaching and training staff, Jack Adams and Frank Forston will continue as managers of the two teams, but Frank Allen, trainer of the Cougars, will not be back this year. Honey Walker, who trained the Olympics for the last two years will train the Cougars this year. Donnie Hughes, of Ottawa, is the new trainer engaged and he and Arthur Bordeau will train the Olympics.

The players who are to report are: Doly Dolson, Reg Noble, Harvey Rockburn, Harold Hicks, Bobby Connors, Eddie Goodfellow, Carson Cooper, Lawrence Aurie, James Herberts, Geo. Hay, Bernard Brophy, Herbert Lewis, William Brydge, Herbert Stuart, Rusty Hughes, Bert McInouly, Roland Mattie, Stuart Evans, Frank Daley, Jimmy Creighton, Pete Bellefeuille, Stanley McCabe, Furrand Gille, Johnny Newman, Tommy, Filmore and Frank Steele.

OAKLAND LEADS IN VIOLATIONS

Oakland county led all other communities in July in the number of game and fish law violations. There were 37 prosecutions with 100 per cent conviction. Most of them were for taking undersized fish from inland lakes. Five hunters in other sections of the state had their rifles and shot guns confiscated for carrying them in game cover without a permit.

Big Campaign ends one week from Saturday Night

last period vote offer in effect

MISS HELEN BEYER

MRS. IDA THOMAS

CLOSING RULES OF THE CAMPAIGN

In order to maintain the strictest secrecy as to the number of votes and the amount of cash collections turned in by each candidate during the last days of the exciting race for the automobile and the other fine prizes, the big campaign will be brought to a close under a sealed ballot box. The last count of votes by the campaign manager will be made Monday, October 14th. No subscription collections will be made after Saturday night, but instead the candidates themselves will deposit their own collections in the sealed ballot box located in the Plymouth United Savings Bank. By so doing no one, not even the publisher or the campaign manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the various candidates, which precludes the possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the smallest detail. The sealed ballot will be placed in the Plymouth United Savings Bank October 14th and will remain there until the judges have made the final count of votes Saturday night, October 19th. The big drive will end Saturday night, October 19th at 8 o'clock and the count of votes by the judges will be made immediately after. At that time the committee of judges will break open the sealed ballot box and commence the count of votes to decide the winners of the various prizes. The winners will be decided by adding the total number of votes turned in by the candidates to the campaign manager, together with the club votes, up to and including Saturday, October 12th, to those contained in the sealed ballot box as the candidates will themselves personally check their own vote records and cash collections with the campaign department ledger thereby insuring to the candidates a true and accurate check of their own vote and cash collection record. The report of the judges will be announced immediately after the close of the count showing the whole total of votes cast by each candidate from the time they first entered the campaign. The names of the official judges will be announced in next week's Mail, and the prizes will be given out on the following Monday.

DEARBORN SHUTS OUT PLYMOUTH

WHAT, STUDYING AGAIN?

Of course, we are all interested in what our ex-seniors of 1929 are doing. Quite a few are attending colleges. Rhea Peck, Dorothy Bentley, Margaret Dunning, Ruth Hamilton and Harold Hubert are attending the University of Michigan. My, my, but where are the boys? Harold, like an orphan, is the only boy among these girls.

The "innates" of the Ypsilanti Normal College are Alvin VanKorn, Ruth Roor, Rosalind Heike, Donald Herrick and Lawrence Livingston. Bill Bake, Elizabeth Spicer and Heloise Travis are enjoying the rights of being freshmen again, but this time at Michigan State College.

Albion College also has some Plymouthites, that is, Alice Gilbert and Cecil Packard. Detroit lured Elizabeth Burrows to Marygrove College, and Alleen and Evelyn Bailey to the Detroit City College. Christine and Sarah McLellan and Ramona Segnitz to the Providence Hospital and Chase Willett and Avery Gates to the Detroit Business Institute. Virginia Groth goes to the Cleary Business College all alone.

Not all, however, are studying. Some have already begun to work for their "bread and butter." Gerald Simmons is working at the Ford garage, while Florence Schmidt is working in the Credit Bureau. My, what a separation! Janet McLeod is helping at home. Bernard Cool has gone way off to Royal Oak. Dale Rittenhouse is quite busy at Kroger's. A similar job at the A. & P. keeps Nettie Hawkins occupied. Irwin and Charles Foster are good boys and help their father along. Leola Sackett is a busy stenographer for the Plymouth News.

SMILE FOR THE FUTURE

"Look pleasant, now and smile your sweeties." No wonder our seniors are chasing around in such bedazzling glory, since picture-taking for the Plythean and the class picture, is on the program. Is it not queer to think that a certain fleeting unpleasant or happy expression may be caught forever in the Plythean, to which your classmates will refer when they think of you or hang up in perpetuity for the future classes of Plymouth High school to view? Perhaps several years from now your children will gaze at those pictures and say "Wasn't my father or mother a jolly looking person when he went to school?" or "Gosh," if that is still current slang at that time, "that can't be my dad." Therefore, it greatly behooves the seniors to smile sweetly and pleasantly.

An Accidental Surprise

We were all given a surprise last Thursday morning—a complete surprise because not even the usually cognizant faculty were aware of it until it actually happened. At the end of the period when that proverbial restlessness of student nature always seems to manifest itself, the fire bell rang. We were all grateful for someone's benevolence in curtailing the class period, but it happened, as in the discovery of most great things, to be an accident.

It seems some one in Central grade school was testing the fire alarm, only to find out that ours was connected to it. However, it required one minute and fifteen seconds for the 385 students to leave the building, while the thing should be accomplished in exactly one minute.

PEP MEETING

Classes were dismissed at 11:20 on Friday, October 4, for a pep meeting, and all the pupils went to the auditorium for cheers and songs. After the opening cheers it was announced that the following things would be sold at the game: Hot dogs, by the H-Y; pop corn and megaphones by the Girl Reserves, and candy by the Junior class.

All were urged to attend the game, and after singing the "Fight Song," the meeting dispersed.

BAND

At the pep meeting Friday, we were very much surprised to see the curtain rise, and see the band. We have surprises in assemblies but we did not expect one here. The band led us in our snappy fight song and also played other pieces.

Alvin Collins, with all his pitching ability, is a bookkeeper at the Dodge garage. Poor boy! Beryl Smith with all his logic, has turned to be a salesman for his father by selling Pontiac-Oakland cars.

Dorothy Tuck and Russell Wendt are working at the Detroit branches of the People's Wayne County Bank. Elmore Carney works for the Wayne County Road Commission. Pauline Deal is no doubt taking orders hurriedly from her father at Alma. Ted Johnson may be seen at the Mayflower Hotel at present. Charles Beagle, last year's football captain, is clerking at Boyer's Haunted Shack. One may also pay a visit to Norma Brown at Strohauser's. Irene Krauter, the valetictorian, is taking dictation from Mr. George A. Smith. Hazel Beyer is employed by the Eckles Coal and Supply Company.

Sarah Cutler is studying art at home under the direction of her mother. Velma Petz is working at Dodges' at present, but she intends to take up nursing in the spring. Robert Tefft is putting all of his logic and theories on the aeroplane he is building.

Others are at home quite undecided. Wesley Smith, Henrietta Burch, Fred Rich, Lucille Ash, Lorraine Corlett, Lawrence Hanchett, Harold Reitzke, Doris Strobbling and Doris Whipple are so far thinking of their future ambitions. Russell Sockow's going to Ypsilanti Normal was interrupted by his illness. Norman Atchinson is working at home, because fate had its way. Mrs. William McLellan, better known as Alma Wagenschutz, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sandlos, or rather, Elizabeth Hayball of former times, have life-long jobs being housewives.

Boys' Tennis Tournament

The boys' tennis tournament which includes all the boys in Plymouth High School, was in the third round today. There has been only one upset since the tournament started, this being Melvin Blunk's beating John Randall, 6-3, 6-4. There are four of the favorites to win still in the tournament. These are Milton Moe, Charles Ball (runner-up last year), Frank Clemens (champion), and Lynford Fritz. It looks as if there will be a real battle in the semi-finals, for if everything turns out right Milton Moe will meet Lynford Fritz and Charles Ball meets Frank Clemens, and both these matches will be hard fought.

Grade Music

In the grade music classes are children have been divided into three choirs according to the range of their voices. They are seated in their definite choir each class period. This enables the teacher to know just how the voice is developing from day to day.

The grade children are learning autumn songs.

The sixth grade is studying music memory. The pupil who has the highest mark goes to the concert in Detroit on October 22.

The children are doing individual work this semester. Part of the class hour is taken up with the pupil singing a song for the rest of the group. This develops poise on the stage and helps the child to perform for other people.

Finals of Elections

The assembling of the seventh and eighth grades on Wednesday last, completes the election of officers for both junior and senior high schools. It seems that general "come-togethers" or assemblages of everyone has delayed this procedure a bit, but now both grades announce their selections. The seventh grade, under the patronage of Miss Wells, Mrs. Crumble and Mr. Winkelman, has for their choice: Harold Cline, president; Billy Swadling, vice president; Ruth Edson, secretary; and Thelma Lunford, treasurer. The eighth grade, with Miss Traut, Miss Perkins and Miss Kees as advisors, chose: Robert Champe, president; Daniel Carmichael, vice president; Catherine Dunn, secretary; Rosemary West, treasurer; and Delight Taylor, student council representative.

Plymouth Hi Music

The first concert of the Music Memory is to occur in Orchestra Hall, Detroit, Tuesday, October 22. The sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grades are showing much interest, and it is hoped that Plymouth will win a place in the country this year.

Bobbie Champe made an appearance at the Woman's Club, Friday, October 4th. He sang "Sleepy Valley" and "The Pagan Love Song."

A few selections were given at the Central P. T. A. by the Girls' Double Quartette, Tuesday, October 8.

The music department is to have the honor of sharing a program with Governor Green at the Salem church, Tuesday, October 15. The following people will entertain: The High School Girls' Quartette, Robert Champe, Teddy Baughin, Maynard Larkins and Joseph Ribar. We would like as many Plymouth people as can come to drive up there that night and boost our music from Plymouth.

The Divine Right of Kings

"Did you ever know that the people in history book pictures can move, talk, and even hear and see?" I never had known it before until last night. While studying my lesson I came to a chapter called "The Divine Right of Kings." After reading it and thinking about it, I was soon feeling very, very thankful that I did not live in France two hundred years ago. Suddenly I noticed the picture of the man with the long curls and proud face; he was looking intently right at me, as if he were reading my very thoughts. Then to my amazement he began to move his lips and—well he actually began to speak.

"So you don't like the idea of kings being God's representatives, do you?"

"I was so surprised I could find no way of answering him; instead I turned my eyes shamefully down to my desk."

"Arching his haughty eyebrows he continued, 'To be king means to hold a great, noble and delightful profession. The French people do not have to worry about governmental affairs; all they have to do is to rely upon me, their ruler and king! See how easy it is for the people of France to leave all matters in my hands. Are not the French people thankful to God for having such a wise and good king? Do you doubt that I am God's representative on earth? Am I not the power of France? Are not all powers ordained by God? Should not every person be subject to these higher powers? If, God, because of the sins of the people, sends the people of France a bad, cruel ruler, they must accept him as a justly-deserved punishment. The authority of a king is indeed great, and I, Louis XIV, am truly a representative of God to the people on earth.'"

"As he uttered these last words, his proud mouth closed, his eyes lost their sparkle, and his whole face took the same position as when I first looked upon it. I knew he had finished talking to me. Although I was quite frightened as he talked, I am glad to be able to say that a real king, with embroidered robes and even curls, talked to me, and I hope that other history characters will prove just as real and lively as Louis XIV."

The above is an example of what the students are doing in Miss Ford's modern history class. It was written by Persis Fogarty.

Debating and the Positive Traits

The negative personality is not desirable. In the training camp of our nation the positive personality it is that is sought after. The negative personality, when confronted by a problem, shrinks from the problem or passes it by. The positive personality accepts all pertinent problems, faces them squarely and advances to solve them. The negative personality melts away in the crowd of mediocrity. The positive personality demands ascendancy and recognition. The negative personality is doomed to small gain, narrowness of gain, small pleasure. The positive personality climbs the way of character, happiness, reputation and success.

Debating is a personality builder. In its essentials it is keen competition between persons, in a social situation, eliciting an expression from the person. The debater forgets all except that this situation must be met. It must be met, and with this in mind as his great thought, he involuntarily utilizes all his resources to meet it. He cannot be negative before the group. Only the forward movement, thought, act, expression can help him in any way. Debating "calls a person out." The negative personality may dream, but only the positive personality can build that dream into an earthly form useful to man. This type of personality debating helps to develop. Support debate for its value in calling out and establishing the positive traits of character.

A New Club

An Oral Composition club has been organized in the second hour 8-B English class, which is conducted every Friday by the pupils. The officers elected were: Evelyn Rorabacher, President; Wilbur Kincaid, vice-president; Rose Mary West, secretary.

Last Friday they chose to give picture talks, and each was given two and a half minutes to speak. The object of this club is to improve spoken English.

SKELTONS!

Two dimwitted senior boys almost found themselves a couple of P. H. S. closed skeletons one morning this week. They had sought the janitor to unlock the door of a closet which contained sundry things that they were looking for. Absent-mindedly, the janitor locked the closet door leaving the two investigators within, much to their vexation, until a passer-by heard strange noises therein and came to their rescue.

Plymouth was crushed in a game with the heavy yet fast Dearborn team. The game was marked by long runs and passes by Dearborn, and in the last quarter by desperate struggling by Plymouth. Ken Gust, our captain, was in the game for about three plays, and then he injured his knee which has kept him on the sidelines previously and had to be taken out. After Ken was taken out, the fellows all tried to make up for his absence and played a much better game.

Our Pride

What better inspiration could we have than the resolute statue of our beloved Lincoln, which greets us each morning as we enter the corridor? The man who sacrificed all for education that he might be ready for his opportunity when it came, inspires us to try and do our duty to the opportunities that are given to us.

This was a very fitting gift to the high school from the class of '29, and undoubtedly will serve as a reminder to many students that there are ways of making possibilities of "impossibilities."

VOCATIONAL CLUB

The vocational club, which was recently called the Life Planning Club, has elected their officers as follows: President, Amy Blackmore; and secretary, Lydia Joy. This club, under the direction of Mr. Cobb, is discussing such problems as may arise for the students.

Starkweather Notes

A most attractive health poster has been arranged in Miss Stader's room. In the background is a castle of health with openings showing children inside, one brushing his teeth, one sleeping with the window open, and one taking a bath. On the lawn are other healthy children taking their outdoor exercises, and these children are white, which denotes perfect health. Outside the gate are those who are underweight, and those dangerously overweight must cross the stream on stepping stones to health before reaching even the Gate of Obedience.

Miss Parmenter's room was the health poster for September.

Mrs. Moles' pupils have been learning all they can about Edison, and Thursday they wrote their stories about him for the contest.

Among The Teachers

Some people believe what teachers say, and Mr. Emens is no exception, for the surprise arranged for him by the teachers on the staff last year worked beautifully. He and his wife were invited out to dinner, carried around town on various errands for said dinner, while another teacher had been left in his home telephoning wildly to garages for help to his broken car, a few doors away down the street. So the house was open for tables to be carried in, a dinner previously cooked to be set on these tables, and then the principal and his wife were brought past their own house on the way to the dinner "out" as they supposed. Bridge was played later, and Mr. Emens won the prize.

Friday night of the same week, a group of married teachers were invited to the home of Coach and Mrs. Matheson, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Emens. A two course luncheon was served, and a gift of an iridescent bowl given the guests of honor. Bridge was the entertainment of the evening.

In attendance at the Genevieve Hamper production of the Merchant of Venice, in the Whittney Theatre, Ann Arbor, Monday, October 7, were our dramatic coach, Miss Johnson; Miss Nye, French teacher; and Miss Strukey of the Starkweather school.

The members of the staff who have joined the Detroit English Club for 1929-30, are the Misses Perkins, Nye, Smith, Cary and Allen.

Senior Assembly

Because it already is the fifth week of school and because a football game with Dearborn was coming on, Marion Gust, the treasurer of the Student Council, announced that the scholastic tickets were on sale.

Mr. Emens has explained how the girls of the high school may receive

Following this report, Russell Wallace, president of the senior class, invited the members of the school to the senior dance to be held on Friday, October 11.

Then a surprise! Ted Baughin, senior, sang "My Song of the Nile," in accompaniment of Miss Gladys Schrader at the piano. Everyone applauded so that Teddy sang "Just a wee bit more" to satisfy.

Billy Kirkpatrick, the president of the Forensic League, urged those who are interested in any phase of public speaking to join. Two meetings are held each month. Not only does this seem a serious affair, but also there is plenty of entertainment, as some sort of amusement follows each business meeting, and parties are held outside of school.

Because of the coming of the home game with Dearborn, Coach Matheson advised pupils to stand about ten feet from the side lines, thus giving every one an opportunity to see. He also informed them that the Boy Scouts would enforce this.

But Curtis, a member of the junior class, announced that candy and cracker jacks would be sold at the game by his classmates.

Yells led by Joseph Schroeder and Frank Learned, Jimmie Stimpson and Russell Wallace, set after the determination of winning on Friday.

Another surprise and quite a grand one. Miss Ford really not only surprised her audience but astonished it as everyone knew that she could teach history well, but no one knew that she could play and sing. She played a medley of marches, followed by a old southern song. Then—now let us listen—came the best part of it all.

Miss Ford sang in a beautiful soprano voice, "Just Awearin' For You," accompanied by her own playing at the piano.

TORCH CLUB

The Torch Club met at the home of Mrs. Matheson on Tuesday, October 8, and had a pot-luck supper, followed by an election of nine new members. The following were included: Frank Learned, J. D. McLaren, Melvin Blunk, Harry Brown, William Tuck, Kenneth Clark, Ed. Arscott, Joe Schroeder and Vincent Hurter. Mr. Smith, Mr. Day and Mr. Matheson were our guests.

The program for the evening was started by a baseball game between the old and new members. After the ball game the fellows came in and supper in the lunch room. This was followed by a speech from Mr. Cobb.

then you too would choose

The New BUICK

If you were to lift the body from the chassis of any one of a hundred cars—and compare the vitally important details of chassis design and construction—you would find Buick so outstandingly superior in all phases of fine car engineering that you would almost inevitably make Buick your choice. Here is what you would see in this famous chassis:

Buick's great new Valve-in-Head engine—developing 99 horsepower in the 124- and 132-inch models, and 80 1/2 horsepower in the 118-inch models. Unapproached in sturdiness, all-round performance—ability, reliability and economy as well.

Buick's new Controlled Servo Enclosed Mechanical Brakes—providing smooth, positive, silent braking, with minimum pedal pressure. And—because fully protected against dust, dirt and water—operating at maximum efficiency in any weather.

Buick's new frictionless steering gear and new Road Shock Eliminator—twin advancements introduced by Buick. The Buick wheel offering effortless control throughout its entire turning range—and the new Road Shock Eliminator assuring complete freedom from annoying jolts and jars.

Buick's new, longer rear springs, and new

Lively Duodraulic Shock Absorbers—front and rear. Combining to check both bound and rebound, and providing a degree of riding ease without parallel anywhere.

And, finally, such established Buick superiorities as the famous double-drop frame of toughest steel... the massive side and cross members reinforced at points of stress to insure greatest long life... the celebrated torque tube drive, Buick multiple-disc clutch, self-lubricating differential, and numerous other features.

When the list of Buick's chassis features—entirely aside from the irresistible appeal of Buick's new Fisher Bodies—reads like a roll-call of all that is soundest and best in fine car engineering... and when, in addition, you can buy a Buick for as little as $1225, f. o. b. factory... what wonder that all comparisons lead to Buick! What wonder that more than 2,000,000 people have invested their money in Buicks—and that from two to five times as many are purchasing this new Buick as any other automobile priced above $1200!

our director, and Mr. Smith, the superintendent. The guests and the members went to the kindergarten and saw the induction which was put on by the old members. The Torch Club put on a fine piece of work, and was highly complimented by their guests. This was the finest piece of work that had ever been put on by the Torch Club of Plymouth High School. The fellows had a fine time which we hope will give them a send-off for making this the finest and greatest of all years.

Central Notes

As an incentive to be on time and present every day, the children in the lower grades, who have perfect records, see their names in print at the end of each month. In Miss Wilmore's room, Madeline Burden, Nancy Durham, Patricia Evans, Robert Fortin, Joseph Fulton, William Guldner, Doris Lee, Leona Neidospal, Dorothy Rorabacher, Mike Arbuster, Robert Barchelder, Arthur Bluhm, Malcolm Carmichael, Janice Covell, Max Ellis, Cecil Glass, Owen Gorton, Phillip Hall, Dorothea Hance, Beth Livingston, Dudley Martin, Maurice McConnell, Kenneth Perkins, Shirley Reamer and Rita Schief have all been on time and present every day for the past month.

In language, the children in Mrs. Root's room have memorized the poem, "The Squirrels' Harvest," and in hand-work have cut out and colored squirrels. They have started making decorations for the room to be put up Halloween Week. In writing they are learning form and rhythm at the blackboard, and have gotten as far as the word "sun" in their penmanship books.

The milk bottles which show the mothers and fathers whether the little folks are under or over weight, will be given out today. Everyone in Miss Richards' room has brought magazines out of which they cut pictures for scrap books. Miss Cooper helped them make very attractive posters of a vase with some sort of fruit beside it.

The caterpillars in the jars on Miss Richards' desk, have spun their homes now.

There's a contest for everybody in Miss Weinman's room—arithmetic, spelling and leadership. They have made two picture booklets and squirrel posters.

Miss Barbara Barnes of New York, and Mrs. Harry McLumpkin of Tribes Hill, N. Y., visited Miss Dixon's room last Friday. Those neither absent nor tardy during September, are Virginia Bohler, Evelyn Bower, Herman Esch, Lloyd Ellis, Luciel Erickson, Eleanor Kroezer, Celia Lewis, Barbara Olsvaker, Joyce Sienmaker, Catherine Schrader, Arlene South, Elton Williams and Mary Lou Wright.

David Hale is back in school after a week's absence because of a fractured arm. James Thomas, Bobbie Soper, Wray Bailey, Orin Heidemann and Ruth VanAmburg have received points for clean teeth. Eleanor Cline stands highest in the McCall's Test in spelling.

Mrs. Seldonridge, Mrs. Straub and Mrs. Schultz were visitors in Miss Weatherhead's room last Friday. The Buicks have at last started to catch up with the Fords in the arithmetic contest. Geraldine Plachta, Doris Buzzard, Isabel Nairn, Betty Fortin and Frances Meighan were winners in a spell-down Thursday.

Miss Halliday's room won the health banner for September. The members of the class are making rain-fall maps of South America. The class was very sorry when June Naus left for Middletown, Ohio.

Jack Wilcox, a seventh grader, presented Miss Hallahan's room with a beautiful basket of hydrangeas. In the spelling test Wednesday, Esther Bichy received the highest mark in the "A" section, and Jean Brocklehurst was highest in the "B" class. Phyllis Ruitnor, George Kohler and Joe Merritt had the highest scores in the reading test. The whole class is extremely interested in writing themes on "The Life of Thomas Edison."

THE REBUTTAL BOX

Preliminary work in debating has been going on for three weeks now, and the squad has been showing some progress. A try-out was held Wednesday, the ninth. Those who upheld the affirmative were Laurence Rudick, Alice Chambers, Harold Stevens, Zerapha Blunk, Marlon Hadley, Adele Carson and William Hodson. On the negative side were Lester Daly, David Daly, Ruth Heisler, Emma Rowe, Cassler Stevens, Billy Kirkpatrick, Marshal Purdy and Norman McLeod.

The 1929 squad will be operated somewhat similarly to that of last year. There will be a squad A and squad B. However this year's team A will consist of six members, three affirmative and three negative debaters. After the six first team members are chosen, the remainder will compose team B. Practice debates with other schools will try to be scheduled for both teams.

The first debate of the Michigan High School Debating League will be held November 15th, slightly over a month from today. As yet, however, we do not know the side which we will defend, nor our opponent or even who will be on Plymouth's team. The squad meets regularly every Monday and Wednesday after school. During these meetings different phases of the question are discussed, problems disposed of, individual help given and after a while rebuttal discussion and practice debates between the two squads will be held during this period.

"LES VAGABONDS FRANCAIS"

Tuesday, we, the French Vagabonds, had a luncheon in the school cafeteria and the girls of the domestic science class served it. The menu was: Swiss steak, creamed potatoes, string beans with butter, rolls and butterscotch pudding. We talked French most of the time. The luncheon was greatly appreciated, and we thank Mrs. Dykehouse for letting us have it in the cafeteria.

At 12:45 we had our business meeting. We drew up our constitution and are now permanently organized. We are glad to hear that Virginia Tallbot has decided to join the Madelon Shindleron Secretary.

THE NEW "Y" BUILDING

The dedication of the Young Women's Christian Association building was very impressive. The service of dedication began at 8:00 p. m., October third. The purpose of the organization is to associate young women in personal loyalty to Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

Our Girl Reserve Club was represented by Elizabeth Strung, Helen Bridge, Hazel Rathburn, Catherine Nichol, Katherine Truck, Virginia Campbell, Mary Haskell and one of the advisors, Miss Ford.

On the sixth floor of the building is the Girl Reserve room. On the fourth floor is the gymnasium with a beautiful swimming pool and basketball floor, also other athletic interests. The balcony of the auditorium occupies the third floor, with the auditorium on the second. The lobby is on the first floor. In the basement is a very nice cafeteria. Here one can get good food at a very reasonable price.

Dad Plymouth says he never told his children, but that he can remember the time when he hated arithmetic and couldn't spell for sticks.

Nature has the better way. When wild things get too fat they don't eat anything until they're lean enough to catch something.

"A free land," says Dad Plymouth, is one in which the people are consulted about all their affairs—such things as going to war.

Dad Plymouth says he expects to live to see the time when states of trans-Atlantic flights will be so common that the newspapers will refuse to use them on page one.

"CHARMING SINNERS"

Marital conditions which exist at one time or another in nine out of ten homes are treated with a light, delightfully entertaining touch in W. Somerset Maugham's "Charming Sinners," the all-talking comedy-drama which will be shown at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Sunday and Monday, October 13 and 14.

Ruth Chatterton in the role of the offended wife; Clive Brook as the philandering husband; William Powell as the returned sweetheart, and Mary Nolan as the "other" woman head a cast of particular capability and brilliant power. The drama, from the pen of one of the best known and most popular English playwrights, is a scintillation, yet intimate, treatment of the old adage that what is "saucy for the gander is sauce for the goose."

"Charming Sinners" is laid in fashionable London, peopled with society men and women, smartly dressed, and treats the problem of a woman who knows her husband is philandering with her best friend in a clever and entertaining fashion. The story unfolds with twists and unexpected situations, developed from the characters. The dialog is brilliantly smart and the atmospheric scenes are beautiful to look at.

"Charming Sinners" is entertainingly intimate. It introduces the audience to a group of people which might be next-door neighbors. It uncovers a quiet situation which borders on the scandalous. It shows the reactions of a wife to a frightening reality and then takes the audience with her as she applies her woman's wit to extricate herself and her husband from the difficulty.

"Charming Sinners" is one of the big things the talking screen has produced. No one should miss it.

"THE FOUR FEATHERS"

Turned into screen actors for the first time, thousands of the "Fuzzy-Wuzzys" made famous in song and story by Rudyard Kipling play an important part in the film adventure story, "The Four Feathers."

The home of these aborigines is northeastern Africa, along the shores of the Red Sea and on the western side of the Red Sea Hills. They formed the shock troops of the army of 200,000 Dervishes that staged an uprising during the latter years of the nineteenth century and caused the British to withdraw from that portion of the dark continent for more than 12 years.

Feared in battle, the Fuzzys, declared by many to have been the aboriginal Egyptians who built the pyramids, are a distinct race, whose languages is like no other in Africa.

In "The Four Feathers," these Fuzzys, whose fathers fought and fell when opposed to British and Egyptian troops in 1883-1885 and again in 1898, form the chief menace. According to Merian C. Cooper and Ernest B. Schoedsack, the directors who spent more than eight months among these filming location scenes of the story, they are perfect screen material although the task of impressing them that the battles required were only make-believe, was not an easy one.

Included in the notable cast in the screen version of this famous story from the pen of A. E. W. Mason, which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, October 15, 16 and 17, are Richard Arlen, Fay Wray, Clive Brook, William Powell, Noah Beery, Theodor von Elz, George Fawcett, E. J. Ratcliffe, Noble Johnson and others.

"THE LOVE DOCTOR"

In "The Love Doctor" which will appear at the Penniman Allen theatre Friday and Saturday, October 18 and 19, Richard Dix returns to farce comedy, the type of picture he does the best, and also the kind in which he has met with the greatest success.

There are three other important roles besides Dix's part as the young society doctor who had handsome offices and shiny instruments but no patients. Opposite Dix as his office nurse is June Collyer, seen with Buddy Rogers in "River of Romance" and "Illusion." Her rival for the doctor's favor is Miriam Seegar, the little blonde who, in "Fashions in Love" inspired Adolphe Menjou to "such a passion of sandwich eating." Her lover in the picture is Morgan Farley, signed by Paramount after his work in "The Green Murder Case."

Lawford Davidson, a new Paramount player is also in the picture.

Henry Clay's Wedding

Old records reveal that Clay was married in 1799 by the minister of the Christ Church cathedral (Episcopal) to Miss Lucretia Hart, daughter of Thomas Hart. The Harts lived at the corner of Second and Mill streets, Lexington, Ky., and were members of the above named church. The marriage took place at the Hart home, which is still standing.

Chameleons Unique Reptile

The chameleon is the only member of the reptile family that can focus both eyes upon the same point.

Ant Eats Building As Mere Appetizer

LAZY INSECT WAITS FOR UNWILLING HOST TO CARRY IT HOME FOR MEALS.

The old-time, unwelcome guest who was reviled of getting his host out of houses and home now has his record dimmed by the northern, white ant which will not only eat houses but has sometimes satisfied its appetite by attacking warehouses and public buildings in Michigan, according to the statement of the entomologist at Michigan State College at East Lansing.

This insect is too lazy to walk to houses or other buildings for its meals and waits till its unsuspecting host carries cornstarks or wood in which it is concealed to the house or barns.

Usually, the presence of the ants in the buildings is not suspected until the winged form begins flying around the basements in late winter or early spring. An inspection of the building will then show where the ants have eaten tunnels in the sills and wood-work.

It is necessary to take immediate measures to control this insect when it once has become established in a building. Liberal amounts of kerosene applied in the nests and in places where the ants are working will usually kill them.

Several doses of the kerosene will probably be needed to completely rout the insects. Circular bulletin number 63 issued by Michigan State College, East Lansing, Mich., describes this pest and gives more detailed instructions for its control.

BONKURA PRAISED HIGHLY BY HAPPY MAN

ONLY BONKURA COULD RESTORE MY HEALTH AFTER ILLNESS OF MANY YEARS.

MR. FRANK BARNETT

"In Bonkura Treatment I found the medicines I always needed after I had been falling in health a number of years," said Mr. Frank Barnett, Frankfort, Ind. "Constant strain of hard work, lack of sleep, irregular meals and my stomach disorders brought about my rundown condition. I lost weight constantly, and had terrible pains in my back and sides."

"A friend of mine, who had been greatly benefited by Bonkura Treatment and praised it very highly, induced me to try it. The results were so remarkable, that I now, after using Bonkura only a few weeks, feel like a different person. I have gained weight, my stomach is regular, do not have to get up nights, enjoy sound refreshing sleep and have my strength and energy back. I cannot praise Bonkura enough and gladly recommend it to any sufferer."

STOMACH TROUBLE, CONSTIPATION AND RHEUMATISM YIELD TO POWERS OF NEW MEDICINE.

MR. HENRY WOODWARD

"I had been suffering for some time from miseries in my stomach," said Mr. Henry Woodward, 121 Madison street, Howell, Michigan. "I was always constipated. Nothing that I ate seemed to agree with me. On top of these ailments I suffered terribly from the pangs of rheumatism. At times it seemed almost impossible for me to move about."

"I used Konjola, and have benefited wonderfully. My stomach no longer bothers me in the least. My bowels now move freely and the constipation is a thing of the past. No more strong laxatives for me. The awful pangs of rheumatism have gradually left my body. I am glad to be able to endorse Konjola for the benefit of others. If only one other sufferer is helped as a result of my recommendation I will feel that I have done a good turn."

Perrinsville School Notes

(Too Late for Last Week)

Deien Brown

Mrs. Sweet, the teacher, is reading the story of King Arthur to the school children. The children all like it very much.

The topic in nature study last week was "winds." The eighth graders had to find out from which way prevailing winds came and from which way most of the storms came. The sixth graders had to find out why the hunter had to know which way the wind was blowing. The fifth graders had to find how the Boy Scout knew which way the wind was blowing from.

The school children have received the new Golden Song books and are learning a new song entitled "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia."

Miss Murray came last Wednesday. She weighed and measured the children and took their posture tests. Most every child is in the white group. There is only one in the red group. Perrinsville school is in group "C" now so Miss Murray is the nurse.

The children held their citizenship meeting last Friday, September 27, which makes the second one this year.

The Perrinsville Parent Teachers' association held their first meeting Friday evening, September 27. There were not many that attended. After the meeting the ninth grade girls that were here last year told of their trip to Niagara Falls. The eighth grade class this year are trying to raise money somehow to go on a trip also.

The Citizenship club has started the "Clean Up" campaign for the purpose of cleaning up the school yard and building in the holes.

We now have new curtains for the school which makes it look very nice. Mrs. Sweet took the eighth graders to the football game Saturday. They all enjoyed it very much.

Streets and avenues of any metropolitan city are crowded with horizontal traffic whose volume is carefully checked by city planners, but few people are aware of the heavy traffic which is handled daily by the city's "vertical roads" which are traveled by elevators.

J. Clyde Dale Cushman recently made a count of the number of people who used the passenger lifts in 10 big structures in the Grand Central district of New York, and he learned 38,080,850 persons were carried in 75 elevators last year. This was a gain of 2,497,502 passengers over the survey made in 1927 when 33,523,348 rode in 74 cars in 15 buildings. The figures were computed on a basis of a ten-hour day.

The combined height of the 10 buildings in which the totals were compiled would represent a monumental structure 303 stories high. Estimating each floor height at 12 feet, the tower would pierce the sky to a height of 3,636 feet.

The count was taken between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m., during 305 working days. Traffic on Sundays and holidays were not counted.

The 75 elevators made a total of 4,908,170 trips equal to a total of 415,041 miles or a distance equivalent to more than sixteen and one-half times around the world.

A comparison of the traffic in nine buildings during 1927 and 1928 showed a gain in population of seven or one-half per cent last year and a gain in mileage in the same period of five per cent.

CORRECT POSTURE AT WRITING DESK

Right and Wrong Position While Working.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Much has been said about maintaining good posture while at work doing the various household tasks that require muscular effort, but one must also think of the position assumed in other occupations that do not in themselves seem particularly tiring or likely to intensify bad habits.

Here is a demonstration of the right and wrong postures in writing a letter, or household accounts, or anything else that requires sitting at a desk. The pictures were taken by the United States Department of Agriculture in a Massachusetts farm home, and emphasize the points that have been repeatedly stressed by extension workers in this state, and, in fact in all states where attention has been given to good posture.

In the "wrong" picture, the woman is crunched over the desk with her shoulder lunched up, her head thrust forward and her feet twisted uncomfortably under her chair. A little exertion in this position will soon cause her back to ache and may help to make her permanently round-shouldered. In the other picture she is seen sitting with her feet squarely on the ground, her back straight, and her head following the line of her back naturally. This position is comfortable and not tiring.

REPORTS FROM ALL LINES ASSURE SATISFACTORY RATE OF ACTIVITY FOR THE FINAL THREE MONTHS.

By C. C. McGill Secretary,
Public Affairs Bureau, Detroit Board of Commerce

Indications of an entirely satisfactory fourth quarter of this year for mercantile and industrial concerns in Detroit are found in reports to the board of commerce from business establishments in all lines. Taking seasonal factors into consideration it is the opinion of leaders in several important lines that October, November and December will produce a volume of trade that will be entirely satisfactory.

Companies manufacturing for the building trades and the automotive industry report that the last quarter will be below the third quarter, and also that the last quarter of this year will be somewhat below the last quarter of 1928. However, the last quarter of 1928 was unusually good and with that for a comparison, about half of the companies state that in the last quarter they expect business to be about normal or a little below normal.

Brass Industry Spotty.

The brass goods industry still remains somewhat spotty. Companies making a general line of brass goods expect business to be better the last of the year than it was the last of 1928. Companies in this line manufacturing largely for the building and automotive industry anticipate a seasonal slowing up.

The building industry normally slows up somewhat in the fall and although the prospects are for some decline, the last quarter of this year, prospects are considered normal, and it is expected that building will be about the same as during the fourth quarter of 1928.

The manufacture of cigars and tobacco, which plays a prominent part in Detroit's industrial activities, exhibits a steady and sound growth which is little affected by seasonal changes. Each quarter generally shows an improvement over the previous quarter and the next three months are expected to exhibit the usual trend.

The clothing industry in Detroit has recovered from the slump of 1927 and 1928 and reports business ahead of last year. The prospects for the next three months are considered normal or good.

Drug Outlook Good.

The drug and pharmaceutical industry, which plays no small part in Detroit's industrial life, reports a seasonally good outlook for the next three months. This industry sells its products very widely all over the United States and Canada, with some of the firms exporting a large percentage of their production to foreign countries. Because of the general distribution of its products, there is rarely little fluctuation in production, the output trend is upward, however.

Companies making electrical goods in this city report a banner year for 1929 and continued bright prospects for the fourth quarter of the year. It is expected that the fourth quarter will be ahead of the fourth quarter last year.

Machinery companies in this area making products for the automotive industry anticipate a decline in production this year for the last quarter as compared with the last quarter of 1928. The fall of 1928 was an unusually active one in the automotive industry, however. In general this business is considered somewhat below normal at the present time. Some companies report that they expect orders to pick up when the different automobile companies prepare for their new models to come out the first of the year.

The motor vehicle industry normally declines during the last quarter of the year, production giving way to preparation for new models to be placed on display the first of the year. The taking of inventory and re-tooling work points to a falling off as compared with the third quarter of this year, and the expectation is that the last quarter will be somewhat below the last quarter of 1928.—Free Press.

Christian Science Notes
“Unreality” was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, October 6.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: “The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers; let him not leave us, nor forsake us.” (1 Kings 8:57).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, “Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures,” by Mary Baker Eddy: “The Science of Christianity comes with fan in hand to separate the chaff from the wheat. Science will declare God aright, and Christianity will demonstrate this declaration and its divine Principle, making mankind better physically, morally, and spiritually.” (p. 466).
Sunday, October 13—“Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?”

CATHOLIC NOTES
Sunday is Holy Communion Sunday for the men of the parish.
Saturday all the children are obliged to attend their catechism instructions; the Dominican Sisters of Ypsilanti, have generously volunteered to teach the children their religious instructions. All that is needed now is cooperation upon the part of the parents. The Northville children will be assembled for these instructions. We feel proud of this offer and hope that their Saturday visits will be kindly appreciated.
Next Thursday night, October 17, the ladies will sponsor a supper in the auditorium. The public is welcome.

Next Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, Marion Smith will be wedded to Edward Klinski, and at the same hour her sister, Jennette will become the bride of William Lorenz—a double wedding. The services will be held in the auditorium. This is to be the first double wedding in the history of the parish.
Joan Kathleen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, was baptized last Sunday.
Two beautiful showers were tendered the coming Smith brides, by the young people of the parish, in the auditorium during the past weeks.
The Rev. J. Roark has been appointed assistant to Rev. L. Roberge of St. Mary's, Wayne.

The pastor attended the Eucharistic conference of priests at Visitation parish in Detroit, last Wednesday. Men, do not forget your Sunday.
The ladies of Our Lady of Good Council church are sponsoring an old-fashioned supper of sauerkraut, spare ribs, baked fresh ham, with all the trimmings—followed by old time music and dancing. A most cordial invitation is extended to all. The following ladies have kindly offered their services: Kitchen—Mrs. Minthorn in charge, assisted by Mrs. Tuchsas Mrs. Lorenz, Mrs. Passage, Mrs. Klinski, Mrs. Welzer, Mrs. Kutie, Miss Koss, Miss Mertens, Miss Pottle, Mr. Hunter, Mrs. Peter Miller, Mrs. Rosa Rhelner, Mrs. McLellan, Mrs. Eliger; Dining room—Mrs. John VanBonn in charge, assisted by Mrs. Eggleston, Mrs. Konnehan, Mrs. Boyde, Mrs. R. Mason, Miss Florence McLellan, Mrs. Wilske, Mrs. Hallahan, Mrs. Schloff, Mrs. King; tickets—Mrs. Rousseau.

Thursday, October 17. Supper served from 5:30 p. m. till all are served. Admission—Adults, 75c; children, 25c.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.
Mrs. Paul J. Wiedman, Blunk Ave., will entertain the meeting of the Ready Service Class on Tuesday, October 15th. There will be the usual excellent cooperative dinner at noon, and then the meeting will transact the necessary business and enjoy the program of the day.
A baked goods sale will be held at Stovers' Market, Saturday afternoon of this week. The Mission Study Class is sponsoring this effort. Some lucky people will have fine home-made cake, pie, etc. for this week-end. You may be one of the lucky ones.
Are we capable of judging wisely ourselves, or our neighbors? Wherein do we fall short? What is the Christian course in this matter? These and other questions will be considered in the morning sermon next Sunday. You are invited to share this hour of worship with the Presbyterian people.

BAPTIST NOTES
Our local B. Y. P. U. is growing both in interest and activity. Last Sunday evening there were 25 present for the young people's service. Refreshments were served at 8:00 o'clock, and the service followed from 6:30 to 7:30. A very fine program has been arranged for Sunday evening, and we welcome all the young people of Plymouth, who have no other church connections, to meet with us.

METHODIST NOTES.

“Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name; bring an offering, and come before him; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.”—1 Chronicles 16:29.
Monday, October 14, at 2:00 o'clock, Mrs. Wolfrom's Circle of the L. A. S. (the December circle), will meet with Mrs. Jessie Nash on West Ann Arbor street. All the members are urged to be present.
Wednesday, October 16, at 2:30 p. m., Mrs. Fillmore's circle will meet with Mrs. David Taylor on Deer St. This is the November circle, and all the members are cordially invited to come.
Wednesday, October 16, 7:15 to 8:00 o'clock, mid-week prayer and praise service. A service no one should miss. You are invited to be there.
Saturday, October 12 at 3:00 p. m., the Junior Missionary boys and girls will meet with Mrs. Card, 1279 W. Ann Arbor St., to organize their “work.” Mrs. Harry Irwin's circle of the Ladies' Aid will meet at Mrs. Gale's, 880 South Mill St., Wednesday, October 15, at 2:00 p. m. All ladies urged to be present.

EPISCOPAL NOTES
The Venerable Leonard P. Haggler, archdeacon of the Diocese of Michigan, will be the special preacher at the morning service this Sunday. We urge all members of the parish to make an earnest effort to be present. This is a “Go to Church Sunday.” No one else can fill your place.
Tuesday, October 15, Bishop Page will meet the various vestries in this neighborhood, at a regional conference to be held at St. Luke's church, Ypsilanti. It recommended that all members of the vestry plan to attend.
The regular monthly meeting of the vestry is postponed to Wednesday night, October 16.
Another very good Sunday in the church school. There are a few habitual absentees. Nothing can make the place of the church school in the life of your children. Nothing should.
Something to look forward to: “Adventuring with Christ.”

EPISCOPALS WILL OBSERVE “GO-TO-CHURCH” DAY
Sunday will be a “Go-to-Church” Sunday at St. John's Episcopal church, located at the corner of Harvey and Maple streets. The Venerable Leonard P. Haggler, of Detroit, Archdeacon of the Diocese of Michigan, will be the special preacher at the morning service, at 10 o'clock, and will afterward visit the church school.
Archdeacon Haggler began his work about a year ago, succeeding the Rev. Charles L. Ramsey, now of Jackson. Mr. Haggler made his first visit to St. John's church during Lent this year, when he preached at an evening service. He is a very fine speaker, and many who heard his address here will recall its great practical value.
The vestry of the church are urging that all members of the congregation consider this a Sunday for “home-coming” and make it a point to be in their appointed places for the morning service.
The church extends a hearty welcome to all people of the community to come and hear Archdeacon Haggler's message.

Character Formation
There cannot be any goodness unless it is a practiced goodness. Genius forms itself in solitude, but a character in struggling with the world.—George Meredith.

Has Many Risks
“He who seeks riches,” said Bill Ho, the sage of Chinatown, “must not be surprised if he loses his own purse to those whose quest is similar.”—Washington Star.

The Bells Ring Out
Sixty-three tons of metal are cast into the sixty-three bells of the carillon in the Scottish Rite cathedral at Indianapolis.

Red Used as Danger Signal in Ages Past
Milwaukee. — Evidence that red paint may have been used to denote danger 25,000 years ago was noticed in Naux cave, 50 miles from Toulouse, France, by George A. West, president of the Milwaukee public museum board, who has returned from a tour of Italy, France and England.
Vessels of red paint were found on the floors when the cave first came to public notice in 1906 and, wherever there was a dangerous passage, red dots, made, according to French scientists, by fingers of Cro-Magnon, inhabitants of the cave, were printed on the walls, according to Mr. West.
Mr. West said that he found evidence of four glacial periods in southwestern France, the last two of which coincided with two Wisconsin glaciers.
In the first period, estimated at about 500,000 years ago, the lowest type of culture is represented. Mr. West said. The only tools people then seemed to possess were broken rocks with jagged ends and rough edges.
