District Governor

Visits Rotary Club

On Friday of last week, M. R. Keyworth, governor of the 23rd District of Batray Juternational, made his of distant visit to the local club. At eleven o'clock a. m., the officers and committee chairmen of the Plymouth Rotary Club met the district governor in conference at the Mayilower Hotel. The reports for the past year were reviewed and there was a general discussion of the work and problems of the local club with suggestions for more helpful service.

The registration of the qualified voters of Plymonth District No. I Fractional, closed Saturday evening at 8:00 p. m. The enrollment for the school election is large, which shows a goal interest in the proposition upon the part of the taxiauyers. This is very pleasing to the Board of Education because the directors of any corporation are always glad to know the will of the stockholders in the corporation.

The need for the Community Center and grade room has been stated in previous issues of the Mail. A perspective and first floor plan of the proposed school was in last week's edition of the Plymouth Mail and now it is left to the individual taxpayer who has aircady reststered to determine whether or not Plymouth is to have the splendld Community Center upon which the Board of Education has given them the privilege to vote.

Some things to be remembered in a consideration of the question are:
Our district's valuation is $8,606,-400.

Our district's valuation is $8,600.144.00.

By law, we are allowed to issue bonds to the extent of $15% of the washessed valuation or $1,250,052.00.

The present bonded indebtedness is provided by $255,000.00 if the bond sense carries, the indebtedness will be necessed to $475,000.00, which is a tittle over 1-8 of the amount which he district could legally bond for.

The district today is renting a gymaxim for the grade pupils at the excesses of $76,00 per month. The rentagon of the added facilities was necessary in order to safeguard the health of the boys and girls in the grades 1 of and to furnish added space for digh school classes.

All of the adjoining towns to Plymuth have definite gymnasium facilities and on December 16 will be determined thether these same facilities will be xtended to the boys and girls of lymouth.

We should also seriously consider in making our decision, as to whether we really believe the normal boys and girls who attend Plymouth Public Schools are not entitled to the same davantages as are provided for detective and criminal boys and girls by the State of Michigan.

HOCKEY AND SKATING RINK OPENED TO PUBLIC

THE NEW RINK IS LOCATED ON FARMER STREET, ADJOINING EDISON SUB-STATION.

The Plymouth Hockey Club has opened up its new hockey and skatling rink on Farmer street near the P. M. Irracks, and there will be skatling afternoons. 2:30 to 5:00 p. m., and evenings, 8:00 to 10:00, weather permitting. The Hockey Club and supporters have speat considerable money and time in getting the rink in shape, and they now have a fine sheet of lee 80x180 feet, ready for skatling and hockey games. There also is a heated building partitioned off into two dressing rooms for hockey cams, a room for public skaters, check room and refreshment stand.

The hockey team practiced on the lee this week, and those who were on last year's team all declared the condition of the ice was better than that which they had played on many times last winter in Detroit.

Due to the changes in temperature, no hockey games have been scheduled, however it is expected there will be 35c for adults and 20c for children's season tickets, stating sessions will be 35c for adults and 20c for children's season tickets, $4.00. Season tickets and all skatling sessions and hockey games which of course will depend on the weather will be season tickets are $7.00; children's season tickets, $4.00. Season tickets and all skatling sessions.

Considering the number of skatling sessions and hockey games, which of course will depend on the weather man, the season ticket is very reasonable, as it would only take 20 sessions to use up the price of an adult's ticket. The price of a child's ticket would have a season ticket of a child's ticket will be same thing can be done in Plymouth.

ON THE SAFE SIDE

It's all right to keep the home fires burning, but our friends around Plymbouth will do well to remember at this season that the U. S. is now averaging one home fire every four minutes in the day. Last year's fire waste in cash agures ran over one-half billion dol What is even more important, 8,000 lost their lives in them.

These facts should serve as a ter rible warning to those who are start ing this winter without an inspection of chimneys, flues, pipes, stoves and furnaces. Rust eats its way through ordinary stovepipe far more rapidly than one would think. The elements in summer easily put flues and chim neys in such condition as to make them a menace from the very momen they are put into service again. There is but one way to tell if these important parts of your heating system are safe, and that is by a careful inspec of sensible gifts, the kind that afford service and comfort. It doesn't necessarily bave to cost a lot for it to do this.

So far as we are able to determine. Plymouth people are going to get as much happiness out of this Christmas as they did in other years, but they are not going to waste a lot of money doing it. Our merchants tell us the tendency of the buying public is to confine its purchases to useful things. While they still offer gimcracks for the children, of course, they are centering attention on sensible gifts for older members of the family. Today articles of clothing and things for the while they still other generacks for the children, of course, they are cen-tering attention on sensible gifts for older members of the family. Today articles of clothing_and things for the home are considered the best Christmas presents.

Making a spending orgie out of Christmas was wrong in the first place, because it was never intended for it to be celebrated that way. Make up your mind to give something serviceshle this time, and remember the price tag doesn't count—it's the spirit that prompted the gift. Do that and you will make yourself and the community happy, and you will feel better later on when you realise that you had a joyous holiday without having squandered any money in procuring it.

SOME SOUND ADVICE

According to figures just sent out the records built up over a period of from Washington, the postoffice department lost approximately $5,000. It preserve them.

1000 last year on carelessly addressed "At the same time we are fully orce of clerks hired to hunt up ades on mail matter cost Uncle Sam dresses on mail matter cost Uncle Sam $500 a day; and the expense in other offices throughout the country was in proportion. With the mails growing heavier as the holiday season ap-proaches we feel that everyone in Plymouth who mails a letter or pack-age will profit by taking a second look at the address before it leaves their age will profit by taking a second look at the address before it leaves their hands. "Wrap securely, address properly, mall early" is Uncle Sam's brief but sensible advice to his mail patrona. If everyone would obey it millions of dollers in pastage, clerical entries and actual possesty then would be aveed every year. This a second giance—be some you're right—then mail it.

WHERE IS HE GOING?

When a boy trudging along the highway puts up his hand and yells, highway puts up his hand and yells, "Hey, give me a lift, Mister," the motorist who really has the best interest of the boy at heart will quickly ask himself: "Where will I take him?" Welfare workers declare that more halfgrown lads are going to the devil in city slums today than ever before, and that this is because it is so easy for them to travel from farms and for them to travel from farms and towns like Plymouth, a great distance without having to pay for it. Boys from our farms and smaller towns are shining targets for disaster in a city. They gravitate to the poor and wretch ed sections, and there encounter evils they knew nothing of at home. Don't think you are making a mistake if you fail to encourage the boy by giving him a ride. You may be doing him a

As in the past, the services were under the anspices of some organization, this time under the leadership of the Butternilk Club of whom all have heard, and but few of the ladies have seen in action, that is collectively speaking. Service was opened with community singing of a number of the old-fashioned hymns approriate to the season, sermon and the occasion.

As the quarter refused to sing further, we had a few more hymns before Joining each other at the social feast in the dining hall, at which time and place we found pienty of cookies and coffee and lots to talk about until about nine o'clock, when we folded up the chairs and gathered in the kiddles to home and wash the dinner dishes that had been left standing in the kitchen sink in our hurry to get to church on time. Now that was all very nice, and we all enjoyed ourselves, and possibly you, dear reader, were among the missing. So remember next Sunday evening, rain, snow or blow, it is no harm or sin to leave the dinner dishes and rush off to church, because we start promptly at seven, so that we may get home early with the kiddles. Don't forget next sunday cempany is no excuse, bring them over also!

Dot Reid is the niece of the late Wally Reid, the screen actor and she is carrying on where Wally left off. "I wish our house had been there, mother; we—wa would have let them in." little Mary interrupted.

Mrs. Carney stopped to stroke the curly head with her work-worn hand, then went on: "In Iroland there is a beautiful legend that very often Mary, with the little Christ Child in her arms, comes back to earth on Curistmas eve, and wunders around seeking a shelter for herself and Jesus. And less she might seek a place in vain, a Christmas candle is placed in every home to guide her."

"Oh, children," she went on her voice taking on a radiant note, "it is a beautiful sight to look out on Christa beautiful sight to look out on Christ-mas eve and see every hill and valley in Ireland dotted with little golden lights; the whole country looks like one big Christinas tree."

She stopped a few moments as if memory carried her back over the years and she was looking on the scene once more; then, at the insist-ence of the children, went on:

"I—I don't know for sure. Jimmie, but I do know that very often others that the Christ Child loves are needing ald or shelter. Sometimes it is only a kind word, or a bit of encouragement, maybe, but if we give it, and give it cheerfully at Christmas, we are really doing it for Him and—and giving Him the shelter that they refused in Bethlehem long ago. "Insmuch as ye do it unto the least of these, ye do it unto Me."

Silence fell upon the room after the story was finished. Even practical-roinded Jimmie asked no other question. All the children seemed to be looking toward the little candle that was shining so bravely in the window. Now, after the story that they had listened to, it was no ordinary candle that they were looking at; it had grown to be something as red. something inspiring.

And in the years to come, no matter where the Carner children might be scattered over the earth, always the lighting of the Christmas candle would bring back the memory of this hour, and for all of them it would always be a symbol of the love and desire to help others at Christmas for His sake.

Nora Carney had been born in Ireland. Now, her home was in the midst of a great western pratife, but, as her children gathered around her, she told them the story of the coming of the Christ Child and the reason for the lighting of the Christmas candle as her own mother used to tell it to her long ago, around a glowing peat fire in far-away Ireland.

"You know, children," she began when Jesus came there was no place for Him. Joseph and Mary were so titred and so weary after the long journey into Bethlehem, but every place they sought a shelter they got the same answer "no room." People

WEATHER STRIP DEMAND GROWS

MANUFACTURERS CLAIM COAL SAVINGS REACH 30 PER CENT THROUGH INSTALLATION.

With the persistence of the last cold weather spell in Plymouth and surrounding country a decided reaction of home and office owners has been registered among weather strip suppliers, who have, according to the manufacturers, supplied a record service of furnishing and installing metal weather strips for windows and doors.

"Three all-metal speaks for doors and

"These all-metal seals for doors and windows assure not only a conserva-tion of fuel by keeping the cold out-side, but by barring rain and snow keep the interior of the building clean." a leading manufacturer declared.

"The sturdy construction of this equip-ment makes it a life-time investment for every type of building, taking care of any expansion or contraction of the bhilding materials."

Weatherstripping has become a necessity to the home seeker, that builders, as well as home owners with the desire to re-sell, are finding it necessary to include this feature among the fundamental conveniences of a home in order to make it attrac the to the prospective buyer," he said.

Asked when the demand for this product reached its height, another manufacturer said. "In the summer and fall, when the home owners and building managers are preparing their building against colder weather. Sav-ing in coal by weatherstrips are some-time 30 per cent," he stated.

We call attention of water consumers, particularly those whose services have frozen in past winters, to the need of exercising the greatest prevaition to prevent such freezing, particularly during periods of sudden drops in temperature. You can't fool us men about Christmas. It is just a scheme to sell goods. The stores are behind it. Looked at through masculine eyes, it is just a lot of merchandise in a state of flux, just a bunch of bundles criss-crossing. Every November, we can tell you all about Christmas.

But have you noticed how, long about December 15th or 20th, we men, too, begin to go a bit goofy? We have to have our annual masculine scoff, but we have observed that we always get in on Christmas just before the gates close.

Do your Christmas Shopping early at our store. See our Window, Saturday, December 14th for Special Offering.

Ridles, jokes and sewing are not usually thought of in connection with each other, but the Needlework Club combined them with a great deal of fun at their last meeting. It had-been previously proposed that a different member should entertain the club at each meeting while the rest of the members sewed. Marke Brown was chosen as first entertainer, but as she was absent it was up to the members to entertain themselves, which they did very ably as mentioned before. The Every Member Canvas which was begun last Sunday, is not quite completed, but the results have been rery encouraging, especially in the number of new people making piedges this year. Is "Every Member a Worker!" Surely this is not too much to hope for in the service of Christ's church.

The Junior Missionary children enjoyed a Christmas party at the church last Saturday afternoon. They, with the cooperation of the Women's Missionary society, are sending one Christmas box to a family in Northern Michigan and one to the orphans' home in Georgia; and will have a happier Christmas because they have helped to make some other children happy on the birthday of our Christ. ### BAPTIST NOTES

The B. Y. P. U. contest with Wayne passed the half-way mark last Sunday evening. It is proving to be a very desperate struggle, and as the score atmost colory it is anybody's contest. Up to last Sunday, Plymouth had a very 'alight margin over the Wayne attendance, but at the last meeting, even though Plymouth felt safe with an attendance of sixty-four, when the report came in from Wayne showing the unexpected number of inventry-nine, Plymouth was forced from the lead. At present Plymouth has a grand total of 217 and Wayne 223, which gives Wayne a majority of six. Shall we be able to balance the score next Sunday evening? If a worth-while program has anything to do with it the answer is emphatically YES!

A very unique service is being arranged for next Sunday evening. The

A very unique service is being arranged for next Sunday evening. The program wil be in charge of the young people of the past generation. The choir which sang in the church from twenty to thirty years ago will be one of the added features. Six of the serven other "older-young people" will demonstrate how they conducted meetings in the days of yore. Even the organist and the one who is to preside are ex-young people in different the program of the days of yore. The topic for discussion will be "What Have Young People to Gire?" Quite a bit of interest is being shown and a capacity crowd is expected. Don't forcet, the hour is 6:30 sharp. The evening service follows at 7:30 which is proving to be a very popular service. The orrelextra is one of our special features and the hearty cospel song service appeab to all. The pastor's theme for Sunday evening will be "Young People and Leadership." A very fine Christmas program is being planned. One of the main features is a dramatic pareant of the Birth of Christ. This play alone has twenty-five young people in it, and with the other exercises this should make a very_attracting program. It will be given I riday evening. December 20th.

The singing of Arthur Winters at the morning service last Sunday, was much enjoyed by the congregation. We wish to thank Mr. Winters for this helpful service.

The Mission 'Study Class report a largely and most enthusiastic meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kalser on Tuesday evening. The supper was excellent, and the program enjoyable. One feature of the evening was the reception from the class members of gifts of toys for children to be forwarded to Miss Conkiln's Mission School in Utah.

As this goes to press, the Woman's Auxiliary is-'meeting at the church, where George & Smith, superintendent of schools, is to deliver an address, and where the reports from the hazasr and church dinner will be received.

The Woman's Auxiliary is thinking and where the reports from the basar and church dinner will be received.

The Woman's Austiliary is thinking a great deal this week of their efficient president. Mrs. F. D. Schrader, who is in St. Joseph's Hospital. Ann Arbor. Mrs. Schrader was called to Beamsville. Canada, owing to the sudden death of her sister. Mrs. McArthur. On her return to Plymouth, she was taken suddenly ill, and has been for some days now in the hospital. All are hoping for a speedy recovery.

The Ready Service Class will meet next Tuesday, December 17, at the home of Mrs. I. N. Innis, South Main street. This is the annual meeting of the class. Reports of the year's work will be submitted and officers for the ensuing year will be elected. Members of the class are asked to bring with them their "Sunshine Borse." There will be cooperative dinner at noon, and the business and social meeting wfil follow. The program will include the cutting of the annual "Christmas Fle."

The subject of the sermon for Sunday morning, will be "Refuge." The evening service will be a union meeting of Plymouth congregations at which some of the delegates to the recent Older Boys' Work Conference at Grand Rapids, under the direction of Principal J. Emens of the high school, will tell us about the conference.

Mrs. Homer Baughn is in charge of preparations for the annual Sunday-school Christmas tree entertainment. The date is Monday, December 23. This will be a happy occasion.
