

RED CROSS DRIVE ENDS SATURDAY

Plymouth Citizens Are Responding to Call for Renewal of Membership.

The annual Red Cross drive for memberships, which opened in Plymouth last Monday morning, has been carried on very successfully during the past week. Plymouth citizens have responded fairly well for a renewal of their memberships in this great organization, and it is hoped by those that have the local campaign in charge that the total number of memberships will be equal to that of former years.

As has been stated in these columns before, one-half of the membership fee remains with the local chapter, to be expended in our own community. Red Cross memberships have taken care of the local baby clinic during the past several years, which has been of inestimable value in this community. This one thing alone is worth the price of a membership in the Red Cross. During the past year a class in "First Aid" instruction has also been given to members of the fire and police departments.

If you have not yet renewed your membership, do so today or tomorrow. Booths for memberships are open in the banks of Plymouth during banking hours. The drive in Plymouth closes Saturday evening, October 25th.

State D. A. R. Regent Guest of Local Chapter

The October meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at the home of Mrs. Donald N. McKinnon on Church St., Monday afternoon, October 20. The business meeting was presided over by the regent, Mrs. Dwight T. Randall.

Mrs. Roger Vaughn, chairman of the social committee, offered plans for a bridge-throw to be given by the chapter at the Mayflower Hotel; these plans were accepted by the chapter, arrangements to be made and the date to be announced later.

With Mrs. Gilbert Brown at the piano, Mrs. Roger Vaughn sang "Bobby Brown" and "A Bowl of Roses" after which Mrs. McKinnon, chairman of the program committee, introduced the guest of honor and speaker of the afternoon, the state regent, Mrs. Charles B. Hatfield, whose charming personality and gracious manner wins all of her hearers.

She gave an inspiring address, mentioning among other activities of the society, the work being done at Ellis Island, among the foreigners under Americanization lines; the contributions to the southern mountain schools and colleges; the support of student loans, stating that Michigan leads in this work; reforestation—the D. A. R. of this state owning now 129,74 acres and the chapters are endeavoring to double the acreage.

Her reference to the Memorial at Valley Forge, and her information concerning the proposed Michigan Hall in the Capitol, was very interesting. Mrs. Hatfield also urged the organization of patriotic societies and clubs among children in the schools and explained the need of teaching patriotism very young in life before other influences are rooted.

Light refreshments were served by the social committee with Mrs. Lendrum and Mrs. Randall at the tea table.

BROOKS-RUSSELL

Miss Margaret Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Russell of Highland, was united in marriage to Charles Brooks, also of Highland, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fye, Rev. E. Hoencke performed the ceremony, after which a wedding dinner was served to fifteen guests at the Fye home. This is the third wedding to be performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fye, the bride's mother and her sister also being married there. Mr. and Mrs. Russell were former Plymouth residents.

A very pleasant birthday party was given by the Plus Ultra club last week Monday, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Blingler's mother, Mrs. Norris. Five hundred furnished the entertainment with first honors received by Mrs. A. E. Drews, and second by Mrs. P. B. Houchins. A delicious luncheon was served.

REPUBLICAN PARTY LANDSLIDE IS PREDICTED NOV. 4

Following a highly successful state wide tour with the other Republican nominees for state offices, Wilbur M. Brucker, nominee for governor, entered Wayne County this week and started on a period of intensive campaigning which will carry him up to the eve of election. Every community in the County and Metropolitan Area will be visited by the Republican standard bearer, while many other meetings will be made by Paul W. Voorhies, nominee for Attorney General, Frank D. Fitzgerald, nominee for secretary of state, and Howard C. Lawrence, nominee for state treasurer.

From headquarters of the Wayne County Division of the Republican State Central Committee, 1012 Book Tower, a statement was issued that leaders of every faction of the G. O. P. in this area have submerged personal ambitions and have united behind Brucker and the rest of the state ticket, to make the Republican victory on November 4th, unparallelled.

Leaders of every group in the county have established themselves in committee headquarters and have formed a part of the greatest campaign activity shown by the bridge's mother and sister. Solidification of these various groups has now been effected and a highly efficient organization is functioning throughout Detroit and the county, and in the adjacent counties of Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Monroe.

Funeral Services For David Daly Held Saturday

David Dayton Daly was born in Reed City, Michigan, October 14, 1915, and passed to the spirit realm on October 16, 1930, at Harper hospital, Detroit. Practically all his life was spent in Plymouth. He was a member of the Baptist church, and was a sophomore in the local high school.

He leaves to mourn their loss, his father, Mr. H. H. Daly, two brothers, Kendall and Lester Daly, one sister, Mrs. James Stull, and many relatives in different states. A host of friends and school mates also mourn his going.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, with Rev. Walter Nichol officiating. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Relatives from out of town who attended the funeral were: Mrs. David Cheek of Mt. Pleasant, Illinois; Mrs. Rilla Grant, Mrs. William Gring and Mrs. Etta Gardner, all of Decatur, Illinois.

Village Manager A. J. Koenig and Treasurer George W. Richwine attended a conference of village officials at Ann Arbor, Wednesday of this week, which was held under the auspices of the Michigan Municipal League. They reported a very interesting and profitable meeting, with a fair representation of officials from villages in the vicinity of Ann Arbor.

The Mission Study class of the Presbyterian church will meet at the church Tuesday, October 22, at 6:30, for a pot-luck supper.

PLYMOUTH-RIVERSIDE PARK NEARING COMPLETION

Considering both utility and beauty, a more appropriate setting could not be found for the Comfort Station at Plymouth-Riverside Park.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BOARD FAVORS BEWARE OF CIGARET TAX

The following wire was received within the last few days at our chamber of commerce office from Harvey Campbell, vice-president and secretary of the Detroit Board of Commerce. "What stand has your organization taken upon reappointment? Will active favorable campaign be waged by business men in your district? Is local sentiment favorable or otherwise?" Secretary Moore immediately conferred with the board of directors of our chamber of commerce, and reports that they wish to go on record as being heartily in favor of the stand taken by the Detroit Board of Commerce favoring a "yes" vote on reappointment amendment, and opposition to the proposed cigarette tax.

REAPPORTIONMENT—A State Constitutional Amendment To Appear on the Ballot November 4th—This amendment to the state constitution provides for the apportionment of the state into legislative districts in a manner which will insure to each section fair and equal representation. It will end domination by minorities and establish rule by majorities. It will correct the glaring defects and inequalities in the existing law. It will give to each citizen exactly the same voice in matters of taxation and legislation; it will compel apportionment every ten years, as provided by law, and will conform to the constitution. It is not the purpose of this amendment to favor any section of the state but to insure to every county fair representation according to the number of its inhabitants. Neither is it the purpose of the industrial counties to do any injustice at any time to any of the other counties. The interests of the industrial sections of the state are identical with the interests of every other section. No section of the state need fear any legislative discrimination under the provisions of the proposed amendment.

Every voter in Wayne County, as well as in other thickly populated counties in the state is being asked to vote "Yes" on this amendment. C. C. McGill, Secretary, Public Affairs Bureau Detroit Board of Commerce, points out that only by the approval of the voters will the people of the state be given equal and fair representation in the State Legislature, and that unless the measure is successful at next month's election, the present unfair degree of representation will endure until the next Federal decennial election in 1940.

The amendment provides for the apportionment of the state into legislative districts on a strict basis of population and insures to each district its just quota of seats in the Legislature. Mr. McGill goes on to state:

"Under present conditions, every industrial district in Michigan, and especially Wayne County, is suffering

The Woman's Club Met Friday

The Garden Study Group with Mrs. Mark Chaffee as chairman, presented a very interesting program to the Woman's Club last Friday afternoon at the Hotel Mayflower.

Miss Doris Hamill, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Woodworth, at the piano, delightfully rendered two violin selections. The club feels very grateful to Miss Doris for the cheerful manner in which she has always met its requests for music. The ladies trio composed of Mrs. Wm. Bake, Mrs. Max Moun and Mrs. John Olaver, with Mrs. O'Conner at the piano, sang several pleasing numbers. C. W. Hayes, sent by the Woodward Gardens of Birmingham, chose for his subject, "Rock Gardens," and told how attractive a back yard or vacant lot could be made by building one.

The next meeting of the club will be held Friday, November 7th, at 2:15 p. m., in the crystal room of the Hotel Mayflower. The program will be in charge of the Modern Novel Group with Mrs. Don Packard as chairman. Mrs. R. H. Reck will read a paper, "The Joys of Being a Woman," which promises to be very humorous. Mrs. E. E. Cooper will give a review of Miss Helen Hull's latest novel, "The Asking Price." Miss Hall dedicated this book to her aunt, Miss Anna McGill, for many years an active member of the Plymouth Woman's Club.

Members are urged to keep this date in mind, and plan to attend.

DOWN OUR STREET AND JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Isn't it true that most of us do not know what is just around the corner? Come with me on a little journey down our street, and after we have seen the pleasantness and comforts and beauty of our street, let us turn to "just around the corner" where—but let's begin our journey at the beginning. "Our Street" is broad and shady and peaceful. In summer the way is lined with stately spreading elms and maples, that meeting overhead form a fairy archway of green, protecting the wayfarer from the sun's too scorching rays. Children play in safety and in comfort along our broad streets and ample walks. Our velvet lawns are playgrounds green that echo back the music of the healthy children's shouts. Houses line our streets, houses that in fact are more than just a living place, but homes, built for security and comfort and happiness.

There is a home, midway down our street that invites us by its smiling open welcome. Let us journey in and rest awhile on the broad porch, and in fancy listen as it tells a tale. "I am a home built by love." All around me is love, and my walls surround and encompass all loving kindness. I was but a house of material brick and board and steel until the miracle of love transformed me into a home. Mother love surrounds the kiddies that were surely sent from Heaven to dwell within my walls. Father love protects and watches over them, and my I guard them all with jealous care. God gave to mine the blessing of health and fortune. He gave to all my neighbor homes upon our street the happiness which is mine.

Now let us journey on again down our street. Winter comes before we end our journey and the end of our street is near. Lights glow from windows, reflecting in the snow the warmth of cheer and happiness within the homes. Our street ends and we turn "just around the corner." A chill wind seems to spring full force upon us. Surely we have traveled far from our street! But no, we turn our heads, and still to be seen faintly glowing is the gleaming radiance of our street's reflected glow.

We step along the way, chilled and uncomfortable. No softly glowing lights to guide us here. Only the moon shines down and turns to eerie shapes the houses that once were homes. Shall we enter one of these and see the sadness of just around the corner? Careful, the steps are gone, the old porch floor is swaying beneath our feet. We knock and the door is open. Within, the cold is abated, but still in vain the rickety stove strives to make warmth. A two-year-old plays upon the floor, his only toy an empty can, which he rolls upon the uncarpeted floor. His feet are unshod, his only garment a flimsy dress, nothing else. His supper was a crust of bread, a crust of very hard bread that his tiny teeth found hard to break.

Our journey ends here. The Ex-Service Men actually made this journey. "Our street" is yours and mine. "Just around the corner" is not a myth. That two-year-old was true, and "just around the corner" was actually in Plymouth.

The Ex-Service Men served in war, they also serve in peace. Their relief committee needs children's clothes, underwear and shoes. Call Chasman, Algire, 615W or Mrs. Mumbly, 320, and your donation will be called for.

RACER, FORMER PLYMOUTH MAN, DIES IN CRASH

Lynn Eldridge, 32-year-old novice driver of racing automobiles, and a former Plymouth man, died in the General hospital in Los Angeles, California, Wednesday, October 15, of injuries suffered Tuesday night, October 14, when his racing car skidded on a turn of the Ascot park track, slid to the top of the embankment and hurled over. He received a crushed chest and a fractured skull.

The racing officials stated that it was the first fatality resulting from night driving on the track in the two years that the age light races have been held.

At the time of the accident, Eldridge was preparing for his participation in the weekly races to be held the next night. According to witnesses, he appeared to lose control of his car. The track, being only five-eighths of a mile around, is particularly hazardous, and is a test for the foremost of drivers and racing machinery.

Funeral services were held Monday, with the American Legion in charge. Interment was made in Los Angeles. He is survived by a son, Stanley, of this place, a daughter, Joyce, and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Hutchins, both of Ewart, and his mother of Grand Rapids.

Kiwanians Will Be Hosts To 8 Clubs

On Tuesday evening, October 28th, the local Kiwanis Club will be host to the other eight clubs of the Sixth Division at an Inter-Club meeting to be held at the Masonic Temple. The ladies of the Eastern Star will serve a chicken dinner at 6:30, after which one of the most elaborate programs ever presented by Plymouth will be given. The highlight of the evening's entertainment will be the internationally known and much heralded Jules Brazill of New York and Miami, Mr. Brazill is one of the most widely sought men on the American platform. His summers are always taken up by the largest conventions in the United States and Canada, and we were very fortunate in securing him for this engagement. The Pontiac Kiwanis orchestra will furnish the music and they are considered one of the best musical organizations in Michigan. The Governor of the Michigan District, Rev. William Chapman of Traverse City, will be among the guests present as well as Guy Elot-Claupe, A. Dock of Detroit, and La. Gray, Elect Harry Brownless of Dearborn.

The guest clubs will be Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Dearborn, Fordon, Ecorse, Wyandotte, Wayne and Ypsilanti. The meeting is in charge of the Inter-Club committee of the Plymouth Club with Dr. Luther Peck as chairman. The doctor will also fill the capacity of master of ceremonies. The local club are expecting a capacity crowd of about four hundred at this event making it one of the largest meetings of its kind held in the Michigan District this year.

F. I. JENKS, 67, DIES SUDDENLY

ARMISTICE DAY DANCE NOV. 11

Myron H. Beals Post American Legion, In Charge; Public Is Invited.

Our local American Legion Post, the Myron H. Beals Post, No. 32, has an important busy year ahead of it. To help provide funds to carry out post activities, an Armistice Day dance is announced for Tuesday evening, November 11th. The dance will be held at the Masonic Temple and Don Patterson's orchestra will provide the music.

Every Post in the state of Michigan, and particularly those in Wayne County, has a real job cut out in helping to prepare for the 1931 national convention of the American Legion. In helping up the convention for Detroit, the Michigan delegation in the recent convention in Boston have made possible what is likely to be the biggest party ever witnessed by Detroiters. Convention experts who attend all kinds of conventions declare that the American Legion National Convention is the greatest, most spontaneous, most largely attended of any gathering that is called on regular sessions in these United States. The recent parade in Boston was 28 miles long. It started at 10:20 a. m. and lasted until 8:30 p. m., and was witnessed by an estimate of three million people. Of course, the parade is the most spectacular feature of the convention, but the real work in connection with such a mammoth undertaking goes on quietly behind the scenes.

According to the October 17th Legion News, Detroit faces a tremendous task in preparing to entertain the delegates and guests who will be with us during American Legion Week next year. Every person, and particularly every Legionnaire must stand ready to serve when called upon. Scores of committees will have to be appointed. A thousand and one angles will present themselves.

Our local Post will be called upon to take an active part and wants to be in a position to respond. This Armistice Day dance will inaugurate their fall and winter activities. It is hoped that the public will generously support this dance as an indication of interest in the Myron H. Beals Post. A real party is assured.

Apportionment Is Explained To Local Kiwanians

Robert D. Wardell addressed the Kiwanis Club Tuesday on the subject of "Apportionment." He stated that the State of Michigan had a population of 4,500,000 and with 100 members in the House of Representatives should have one representative for each 45,000 people, but under present conditions the districts were divided according to acreage and in consequence we were having taxation without representation. The industrial sections of the state with 67% of the population are paying 87% of the taxes and have a 37% representation. Wayne county pays 75% of the taxes with 30% of the population and has a 21% representation.

An amendment to the State Constitution will be submitted to the voters of this state on Tuesday, November 4. This amendment provides for the apportionment of the state in a manner which will insure to each section fair and equal representation.

The amendment is of vital concern to the people of Wayne County and other industrial areas, and, if approved, will mean the end of unfair legislation and unjust taxation. It will establish rule by majorities and will correct the glaring defects and inequalities in the existing law which permits the division of the state upon the basis of the number of acres of land rather than by the number of people. It will give to each citizen exactly the same voice in matters of taxation and legislation. It will compel apportionment every ten years, as provided by law, and will not permit the will of an unfair legislature to defeat the will of the people or the intent of the constitution.

The adoption of this amendment will help to kill the Snow Bill providing for a state income tax, which would be a further burden on people in our area and would not relieve taxes on property. This bill as introduced provided for a penalty for failure to pay, one year in jail, a $1,000 fine, or both.

Representative Wardell was given close attention throughout his talk. Roy Crowe had charge of the program and is to be commended for bringing in a speaker to talk on this subject at this time.

LOCAL BOY SCOUTS ENTERTAIN ROTARIANS

Four "M" Club Met

The Rotary Club of Plymouth, at its regular noon luncheon meeting last Friday, had the opportunity to witness a presentation of a program by the Boy Scouts of Plymouth, under the direction of Scoutmaster Sidney D. Stronch which took the form of the customary procedure at a regular Scout meeting. Present were eight local boy scouts with Senior Patrol Leader Gordon Roy.

As an interesting part of the program short talks were presented by four of the Scouts in attendance upon various phases of their scouting experiences. The scouts speaking and the subjects were as follows:

Duane Koenig, "Reasons Why I Became a Boy Scout," "My Seven-Mile Hike."

Forbes Smith, "The Rotary Camp of 1929."

Billy Kirkpatrick, "Experiences at Camp Brady."

The program was carried through with the snap and energy characteristic of Boy Scout activities, and was well received by the Rotary Club. The Plymouth Rotary Club sponsors Boy Scout troops 1 and 2 of this Village.

A Correction

A mistake was made in the heading of the article which appeared in last week's Mail, relative to the death of Mrs. Sarah White. The heading read "Sarah Harrison," which was her maiden name, and it should have read "Sarah White." We are sorry the mistake happened, and are glad to make the correction.

Mrs. George Loomis was the guest of Mrs. John Simpson of Green Oak, last week-end.

HOW FARMERS STAND

With a view to finding out how rural residents of the U. S. stand on many important questions a national farm paper has just finished canvassing 14,000 farmers, in every section of the country. Since some of these questionnaires came into this territory, residents of Plymouth are sure to be interested in the result.

Four-fifths of those who responded are not in favor of making divorce easier. The same ratio expressed themselves as being in favor of keeping the present federal prohibition laws as they are. Few declared financial grievances. But the big surprise came in reply to the questions concerning farm relief. There was an absolute show of indifference, many leaving this question unanswered altogether.

Whether this indicates a belief among farmers in the futility of interfering with natural matters is a question. But in the matter of farm sizes, a vast majority favored the "family-size" farm, family owned and family operated. The new idea of "chain farming," where one man or group of men own and operate several farms, was frowned upon. The farmer apparently doesn't care to have his profession gobbled up by a few, nor does he want any more price-fixing than exists today at the expense of the small, individual farm owner. It is an interesting survey and it shows, taken all in all, that the farmers still are capable of doing some sound and sensible thinking for themselves.

RAGS AND BONES

What to do with old rags and bones and waste of most every kind used to be quite a problem with Plymouth citizens. But have you noticed that in recent years you don't seem to hear anyone worrying about their disposal. In fact, the problem has solved itself in recent years, and in the solution there has sprung up an industry estimated by Uncle Sam to do a billion dollar business annually.

While the collection of waste is very old, a revolution in methods has come out. Persons not yet old can remember when boys used to do the collecting of rags, bones and bottles, selling their accumulation for a few pennies. Today there is a more sanitary disposition of all waste. Throughout the country, at handy intervals, are enormous concerns devoted wholly to salvaging waste paper and rags, while big fertilizer plants utilize all the bones they can get, and at fair prices. Waste paper goes into the manufacture of cardboard boxes and other rough-paper use. In this way it helps to conserve the forests, adds to the national wealth and gives many people employment, as well as paying a premium on household thrift. Paper should be saved, not destroyed, as it is now in so many homes whose occupants do not realize that in destroying it they are taking something away from the created wealth of the country.

It is the day of small things. The old adage, "Waste not, want not" seems to be more generally observed now, and with greater profit to every one, than at any time in the history of the country.

"MAKE IT SAY 'PLEASE'"

"Make your auto horn say please!" That is one of the orders recently given out to operators of a nation-wide bus line by its manager. But the bus drivers have no monopoly on it—every individual motorist around Plymouth can adopt it with a good deal of credit to himself. Make your horn say "Please" instead of "Get out of the way" and see if the fellow in front doesn't respond more readily. Besides, you will miss the frowns and ugly words that usually come from him when you blast your horn as though you were swearing at him. Courtesy is still the greatest safeguard against accident. Courteous drivers, drivers who are considerate of others, figure in the fewest accidents. That is a proven fact. So why not profit from the order being given the bus drivers? Why not accept a sensible suggestion when it comes your way? Start now and see how much better you get along when you make the horn say "Please" instead of "Get out of the way."

HOME-TOWN PROPHETS

The weather prophets, whatever the season, are generally first heard from in New England. So it is appropriate that there should come out of Stony Point, Vt., a prediction from an old patriarch to the effect that the hardest winter in 20 years is now staring us in the face. He declares long, hard winters invariably follow a long dry spell such as the country experienced during the past summer. But don't worry. There are weather prophets galore around Plymouth and if you will interview any one of them he will probably tell you that the Vermont prophet is "talking through his hat." He will have plenty of proof to back up his argument, too. It's a poor weather prophet who can't call up a lot of signs to substantiate his prophecies. If you believe in patronizing home industries—and you should—then practice it now. Patronize your home-town weather prophets. You'll make them happy by recognizing their "talents," and the weather will go right ahead being just as good or just as bad as it wants to, anyhow.

CHEAPER LIGHT

A lot of pause every now and then to kick about our light bill, not stopping to compare the cost of light now with that of earlier days. In 1817 George Washington's birthday was celebrated at Philadelphia with a great ball. To illuminate the ballroom torches were applied to 2,000 wax candles, which produced 1,000 candlepower for five hours. The cost of that illumination was $150. Today by throwing a switch, the modern ball room can obtain the same amount of light for fifty cents—one three-hundredths of the cost 113 years ago. Isn't there a bare possibility that we have come to take modern improvements so much as a matter of fact that we forget to be thankful for them? There is an old proverb to the effect that we never miss the water until the well runs dry. Maybe in the matter of light we will never be able to fully appreciate our present ones until something comes along to take them away from us, or to force us to go back to the grease candles of our forefathers' day.

CHAMBER of COMMERCE NOTES

WHEN SELLING REGAINS ITS COURAGE

Is our vaunted American selling only a fair-weather phenomenon? Has it no stamina? Does it crumple up and take the count at the first blow?

It would seem so. For years the world has watched with amazement, not unshared with envy, the selling forces of America in action. We have modestly acknowledged the applause. We know we were good.

And we were. American selling was hard-hitting, tireless, resourceful, enthusiastic. It not only created demands but it helped buyers to find the means to satisfy those demands. It raised standards of living overnight, and in the joy of accomplishment it sang as it worked.

Came the stock-market squall of last October. Hesitation. Overreaction. Pessimism. Fear. Rumors of failures and panic. The spirit of buying depressed.

Did Selling roll up its sleeves and eagerly welcome a trial of its strength and resourcefulness? It did not. It joined the milligrammers. It crowded the waters at the walling wall. It acted like a tired old man after a long walk on a sultry day.

What a pitiable spectacle of America's strong man lugubriously repeating hackneyed alibis. "Overproduction" was a favorite one. But overproduction became a fact only as underconsumption out-generated selling. And on its own field, for it had cracked the hard nut of underconsumption many a time. But Selling gave up. Too far to fight. It said, "Nobody to buy, nothing to buy it with."

Shortly before, millions were eager for more and better food, warmer clothing, more comfortable shelter; millions desired greater conveniences; millions yearned for the luxuries of travel, art, music, books. They were willing to work hard and exchange their labor and services for those things.

Yet selling accepted the strange story that overnight millions lost these desires, that a miracle had happened and human nature had undergone a remarkable change. Nor were "the consumers broke." The record since then belies that assumption.

No; "selling" false rumors and calmly put us in the hospital. The real selling forces of the nation lost heart and nerve. Some openly joined the enemy. Others lent aid and comfort by ill-loyal inactivity.

"It's a great time to call upon sales and advertising managers," said a business man to me the other day. "They'll sit back and listen to you for two hours. A year ago you got a five-minute appointment for three weeks from Thursday. Too busy, selling. But today, nothing doing, and nothing to do. All the time in the world."

There probably was never a time in recent history when selling was at such a low ebb in the United States. To the everlasting credit of American selling there are a few who have kept the faith, who have relished a stout fight and who are coming through as victors. Such has always been the case. Obviously, war depression, flood or fire disturbs the settled order. The churning process brings up from the bottom strange faces and strange names.

When the fair-weather sun shines again, there are new faces in an industry's picture—new leaders at the helm. Never doubt, you will see their names in the business headlines of tomorrow. They have come up from behind, energizing new ideas with a fine courage while old leaders were proving to themselves that it couldn't be done.

But the pity of it is that a glorious march toward greater comfort for greater numbers halted because the motive power of American business—our selling forces—lost vision and courage.

When American Selling regains its old-time courage, then get ready for better times.

Farmington-Plymouth Game Here Today

ROCKS AND LINCOLN PARK FIGHT TO SCORLESS TIE

In a game filled with thrills the blue and white held the powerful Lincoln Park gridlers scoreless. Both teams had good chances to score but were unable to do so. Plymouth twice placed the ball within the 10-yard line by long passes, but were unable to put the oval across the line. Brisbols muffed Lincoln Park's chance with a fumble on the 2-yard line.

Plymouth used the passing game to a great advantage, while Lincoln Park depended on their giant fullback, Dishon and Brisbols for the end runs. So far neither team has been defeated but in some cases a tie game is as bad as a defeat.

FIRST QUARTER
Bannerman kicked off to Walkmaster who ran the ball back to midfield. On the first play he fumbled and Curtiss recovered for Plymouth on Lincoln Park's 45 yard line. A pass, Lanker to Curtiss, was good for 32 yards. Wagenschutz lost 2 yards on an end run. Lanker made 3 yards at tackle. Another pass, Lanker to Curtiss, gained 9 yards. Curtiss went off tackle for 4 yards. Lanker made 4 more in the same place, but Plymouth was penalized 5 yards for offside play. Bannerman made 3 yards at tackle. An incomplete pass gave Lincoln Park the ball. Dishon smashed tackle for 5 yards. Brisbols gained barely a yard at tackle. Walkmaster failed to gain.

Dishon went around end for 3 yards. Dishon punted to Wagenschutz on Plymouth's 40 yard line. A pass was incomplete. Dudek lost 13 yards when the pass from center got by him. Another pass failed. A short pass, Curtiss to DePorter gained 20 yards. Lanker kicked outside on his own 40 yard line. Walkmaster failed to gain. Brisbols hit the line for 3 yards. Dishon made four more at center. Dishon went around end for 3 yards and a first down. Lincoln Park was given a 15 yard penalty for pushing. A pass gained 15 yards. DePorter intercepted a pass on his own 38 yard line but could go no farther.

SECOND QUARTER
A pass, Lanker to Curtiss, gained 50 yards and placed the ball on the 12 yard line. Bannerman fumbled but recovered. Lanker failed to gain at tackle. A pass was grounded. Lanker fumbled the pass from center losing 20 yards. Brisbols went around end for 3 yards and made it first down on the next play. Curtiss gained another first down around end. Walkmaster failed to gain. Cetnar made 2 yards off tackle. Plymouth was given the ball on downs. A pass was incomplete. Lanker failed to gain. Wagenschutz made six yards at tackle. Randall took Dudek's place at fullback. A pass was incomplete. Lanker made 5 yards at end. Curtiss kicked to the 20 yard line. Cetnar went around end for 2 yards. Walkmaster failed to gain. Brisbols made a yard at tackle. Dishon kicked to Wagenschutz on the 40 yard line. Curtiss made 2 at end. Wagenschutz failed to gain.

HALF
Dishon kicked to Lanker who tried a lateral pass to Randall across the field but the officials ruled it a forward pass and Plymouth was penalized 15 yards. Lanker gained a yard at center and Lincoln Park was given 5 yards for off-side play. Lanker failed to gain, but Randall made enough yardage for a first down. Lanker went through tackle for 3 yards. Wagenschutz was stopped for no gain. Lanker made 5 yards at tackle. A pass was knocked down by Walkmaster. Randall failed to gain. Curtiss got 30 yards at tackle. Lanker picked up his fumble and gained 4 yards. Lanker gained 15 yards at tackle. Randall made 3 at tackle.

FOURTH QUARTER
Wagenschutz made first down. Curtiss fumbled and Lincoln Park recovered on the 30 yard line. Walkmaster made 2 yards. A pass was incomplete. Walkmaster made 4 yards at end. Dishon kicked to the 30 yard line where the ball was downed. Brisbols intercepted a pass and ran to the 22 yard line. Dishon made 3 yards at tackle. Brisbols made 3 more in the same place. Walkmaster made 2 at guard. Dishon and Walkmaster made 5 more. Brisbols fumbled and Ferguson recovered for Plymouth. Lanker raced for 20 yards off tackle. Curtiss made 6 more in the same place. Strange went in for Brisbols at left halfback in the Lincoln Park backfield. Lanker made 5 yards for first down. Curtiss made 2 yards at tackle. The pass from center was very high and Randall lost 20 yards. Basset took Ferguson's place at center. Lanker kicked to Walkmaster on the 50 yard line. Walkmaster made a yard at tackle. A pass was incomplete. Randall intercepted a pass on his own 81 yard line. Curtiss failed to gain. Dudek replaced Curtiss. Wagenschutz fumbled but a Plymouth man recovered. A pass was knocked down. Plymouth 0, Lincoln Park 0.

THE GIRLS PLAY SOCCER
Who will win the girls' soccer tournament? That is a question yet to be answered, for to present the juniors have won two and lost two, while each of the other class teams has won one and lost one. It is still anybody's race, and each team is trying hard to win.

Plymouth Have Practice Debates With Royal Oak And River Rouge H. S.

The debate season was informally opened when on Tuesday, October 14, Alice Chambers, Zerapha Blunk and Lester Daily went to River Rouge for the first practice debate. River Rouge upheld the affirmative and Plymouth defended the negative. The constructive speeches were six minutes and the rebuttal three minutes. Neither team had spent much time on the question, and as a result there were many inconsistencies in both cases. Ruth Hetsler, debate manager, acted as time keeper for Plymouth.

The following Thursday, Royal Oak came here for our second practice debate. Plymouth found Royal Oak stronger, in both constructive and rebuttal, than River Rouge. Claire Shontz was time keeper. Those who spoke for Plymouth were: Ernest Archer, Harold Stevens and Marian Gust.

The practice debate scheduled with Ann Arbor this week has been postponed, as the squad will begin immediately on the organization and delivery of the ten-minute constructive speeches which will be used in league debates. Word has been received that the first league debate will be November 7, with Dearborn, at Plymouth; the latter will uphold the affirmative. Last year Plymouth lost to Dearborn 2-1; so Plymouth will hope to use this opportunity to allow Dearborn to taste defeat. No specific team has been chosen but those who participate in the debates will rightfully earn their places.

Sixth Grader Writes An Unusually Good Picture Explanation

The following description of Watts' "Sir Galahad," was sent in by Jeanette Brown, when each pupil in Miss Witte's picture study class turned in his explanation and description.

SIR GALAHAD
Sir Galahad is shown here with his horse, in the midst of a large forest. Both are tired and weary. The horse has been stopped to rest. Galahad is in search of the Holy Grail—the cup from which Christ drank at the Last Supper. At his side hangs his sword, which on his back lays the shield. Notice the vines and briars which are tangled about his feet. The dark blue color of the sky indicates that there is trouble ahead, but, as you see, the light clouds are spreading over the heavy horizon showing that success and reward is to follow after the trouble. Galahad was rewarded for the kind and good deeds for others during the twelve months and a day that he was seeking the Holy Grail. He at last saw the cup, proving to him that he had lived a pure, wholesome life. One of his friends, Sir Lancelot, was among the knights of King Arthur's Round Table to join the quest for the Holy Grail. Sir Lancelot, however, only saw it under a protected veil, guarded by angels. This showed that he had been true to his strength and bravery, and thought that he would see the Holy Grail plainly because he had won so many battles while fighting for the King. Sir Percival, another friend, had seen Sir Galahad in his travels. The former had noticed a change in the other. As the story goes, Sir Galahad was pale and thin because he had been helping others. One night he related his experiences to Sir Percival. He said that every night he saw the Holy Grail on the mountains, on the lakes, or in the marshes, as it slowly glided along a silver beam across the sky. He then told Sir Percival that he would take him to the side of a mountain to see the Holy Grail. They were descending the tall hill, when they came to a large, black swamp. A storm arose and Sir Galahad vanished, his armor gleaming brighter than a star. The next morning, the broken hearted friend found his companion's body by the sea. Tennyson wrote a poem about the noble knight, which reads: "My strength is as the strength of ten, Because my heart is pure."

Starkweather School Notes

In Miss Stuke's room the children have decorated the bulletin board with black cats, free hand drawings of Jack O'Lanterns and a lesson from their seat work pads. Miss Stader's first-A and second-B children have begun their picture study by attending to the one which hangs in their room, "Feeding Her Birds" by Millet. The students are making a great effort to remember their health chores before they go to school so they can always have the rules in their health envelope. Glenn Ford fell and broke his arm while playing on the monkey ladder. He will be at the Ann Arbor hospital for perhaps a week. A load of loose sand has been put under this apparatus to prevent any more accidents. The children are having an automobile race to promote good citizenship. The automobiles are arranged in racing form and the child that is the best citizen has his automobile go ahead of the others. Mrs. Moles' third grade nature study classes are learning to tell the leaves of the maple, pine, oak and elm trees. All of the classes are beginning a project on "How Oranges Are Grown for Children."

The five-B children in Miss Hunt's room are making a book of health rules to follow daily. They are illustrating these rules with pictures cut from magazines. They are also making some Halloween posters, and are writing stories about them. The students have started their picture stories and are enjoying them thoroughly. There were thirty-three students that received stars in spelling last Friday.

Rock "B" Team Bows To Redford

In a game featured by long end runs, line smashes, and frequent fumbles, the "B" team was defeated by the close score of 6 to 0, at Riverside Park, October 18.

The first quarter opened with Bowers getting off a high kick with the wind against him, and ended at the half with the score 6 to 0. The single punter for Redford came as the result of a series of end runs and line smashes. In the second half Bowers got off a long kick good for 50 yards. It was received by a Redford halfback on the ten yard line and fumbled when two tacklers bit him giving Plymouth a good chance to score as they recovered, but the Rocks were unable to put it across.

For the rest of the game the play seemed back and forth on the field. When the final whistle blew the score was Redford 6, Plymouth 0. The Plymouth line-up was as follows:
Ash, I. C.
Marsh, I. T.
England, I. G.
Langendorf, C.
Finn, R. G.
Anderson, T.
Carr, R. C.
Champe, C.

Campfire Girls Give To Detroit Community Fund

The meeting was opened with the secretary's and treasurer's reports. A letter had been received from Detroit headquarters asking for a pledge or donation for the Detroit Community Fund. The girls decided to send a check for two dollars. A check was also sent to national headquarters for national dues. A few minutes were spent in talking of the need for clothes to be distributed to the poor. After plans had been made for a Halloween party to be held at Jane Whipple's home, the rest of the hour was spent in finishing the paper knives and other leathercraft articles. At the end of the hour the finished pieces were left with Mrs. Stevens. The meeting was closed with the credo.

Music Dept. Furnishes Entertainment At Hotel

The entertainment for the banquet of officers and teachers from the rural schools of this vicinity was furnished in part by the music department of the high school in the personnel of the girls' double quartette and the high school orchestra. The orchestra played during the banquet and the double quartette was part of the program. They sang "Michael's Flute" by Rolfe, and "Springtime in the Rockies" by Wolsey. The sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grade music groups are preparing for their final test. The eleven pupils with the best papers will have the privilege of hearing the Detroit Symphony Orchestra play at Orchestra Hall on Tuesday, October 23.

There has been a new member added to the first orchestra, for Maurice Bloom, a violinist, has joined their ranks.

What The Commercial Club Is Doing

Some time ago the old members of the Commercial Club decided that the initiation to which the new members were subjected September 24 was not sufficient punishment, and so now require each new member to give a five-minute talk before the club. Last Tuesday, Beatrice Austin told about her trip to Niagara Falls; Vera Basset told about a trip she took to Watkins Glen; Mary Bennett spoke about diamonds. These talks were interesting and educational to the students. Next week three more will talk.

Who Will Win The Race?

That is the question that will not be answered for a long time, for the students of the 5-B English classes are having a chart contest that will last the whole semester. Each class is divided into sides—the Reds and the Blues, and each time a member of the class hands in an English paper he receives a check after his name on the big chart. Of course, the side gaining the most checks will be the winner. A huge graph showing the average percentage of marks of the two sides is represented by still another chart. As yet neither the Reds nor the Blues seem to be gaining—but the race is on!

Work Needed To Enable High School Pupils To Finish Their Courses

As the school year gets under way, one of the important features of the vocational work under the direction of Mr. Cobb is brought to our attention—that of assisting pupils in obtaining work. At the present time a number of pupils are working after school and on Saturdays. The choosing of a vocation is a vital problem that confronts every boy and girl and we find many of them grasping the opportunity to get as much experience as possible while in school in the types of work where their interest seems to lie. In addition to this group of pupils, there are a large number of boys and girls who are able to continue their schooling because they are able to work during their spare time.

If you have any odd job or part time work to be done, whether it be ironing, working for room and board, cleaning walks, raking leaves, caring for children, attending gas station, store work, tending furnaces, or any other type of work, a pay server can be rendered if you will kindly let us know what it is. Just get in touch with Mr. Cobb by phoning 62 or 610, and a willing and deserving worker will respond to your call.

Random Notes From The Nature Club

The Nature Club elected the following officers for this semester: President, Billy Swadlow; vice-president, Harold Williams; secretary, Arnold Ash; sergeant-at-arms, Ray Trimble.

The "Flower Grower" for October states that the jewel weed is an excellent cure for poison ivy, for the crushed leaves and stems are cooling and soothing.

Three sparrows are returning from the far north to spend the winter where it is milder. Occasionally we hear the blithe and ringing "auk, auk" note as the nuthatch as he runs up and down the tree trunks searching for food.

Original Dramatics Introduced To Drama Club

If someone has an idea that presenting an original act before one's fellow-clubbers-for-knowledge is great fun, please let us recommend his asking any one of the members of the Senior Drama Club who took part in an original act given during the fifth hour, Thursday, October 16. It was this way: The drama club was divided into about four or five groups, averaging seven people. Each of these groups was instructed by the officer in charge to have ready for presentation at the next meeting an original act. Chairmen were appointed and the groups went into consultation.

The arrival of the fateful Thursday seemed to be the signal for bedlam to break loose in the dramatics room. People hurried around the room struggling to organize their groups. The bell rang and the noise increased, but at the beginning of the festivities it decreased to the gentle hum of a boiler factory. The first group presented a scene backstage just before the curtain was to raise, with the leading lady missing! The janitor was improvised into a very charming leading lady indeed! The next was a trial, and the lack of feminine talent made it necessary for one of the boys to take the part of a very flirtatious girl. The third act was in a girl's school, portraying well the subjects a normal, healthy and happy group of girls speak of in their conversation.

Because of the shortage of time there were no more acts presented, the rest being postponed until the next Thursday. Miss Berg and Miss Gray were the judges and their choices were for first, the trial; second, the stage scene; and third, the girls' school.

The main criticism of Miss Ford seemed to be that the actors could not control themselves enough to keep from appreciating hilariously their own humor. Miss Berg offered some valuable criticism and the club adjourned to await next Thursday with mixed emotions, some with apprehension, some with dread, and still others, the actors of the last meeting, with a definite feeling of relief.

Torch Club Presidents Meet

The monthly Torch Club President Council meeting was held last Wednesday in the Y. M. C. A. building, Detroit. The Torch Club from Plymouth was represented by the president, Melvin Blunk, and advisor, Mr. Cobb. After dinner, the representatives from the different clubs exchanged ideas and discussed different issues which came up. Last Friday was the first regular meeting of the new Torch members. At this meeting, William Tuck gave a talk on the subject, "What qualities make up real leadership?" The discussion became so lively and interesting that it had to be carried over until the next meeting.

Senior Drama Club Presents Play In Assembly

Mr. Dykhouse opened the assembly with the announcement that Plymouth won the football game Friday from the Detroit Country Day School, 19-0. The same afternoon Lincoln Park won 20-0 from Northville. He also said that the game on the next Friday would be quite an important one as neither school has lost a game so far this season. Mr. Dykhouse asked that the school support the team by buying our student council tickets from the class presidents, by better yelling and by getting together to sing with the band.

He asked that if any seniors had question about their credit list, to see him soon. After a couple of yells, it was announced that the second football team would play Redford, Saturday, at ten o'clock in the morning. Edward DePorter then announced that the Junior Drama Club was going to present a skit. This was an election campaign. Certain feminine members of the club marched out on one side of the stage bearing the signs "Miss Traut for Trust Officer," "Miss Pfeigl for Judge," "Miss Perkins for Sheriff," "Miss Wells for Mayor," and "Miss Schramm for Fire Chief." On the other side of the stage the group of boys bore these signs, "Mr. Bentley for Dog Catcher," "Mr. Smith for Traffic Cop," "Mr. Day for Night Watchman," "Mr. Evans for Chief of Police," and "Mr. Matheson for School Board." In rhythm with music, two members of each group gave reasons why one should vote for the men or the women. This made a "big hit" with the audience and was a very good introduction for the play "Enter Bona Exit Dad" that was next presented by the Senior Drama Club.

The cast portrayed very vividly the plot, taking place at the time when woman suffrage was first permitted and laying for the setting the office of a country grocery store. The walls were very artistically adorned with signs such as "Four Cans of Tomatoes for a quarter," etc. The men seemed to have run the town of Hartfield before woman suffrage was permitted, but they had a great surprise in store for them in the shape of the loss of their political jobs, and the women routed them from office and put in "young blood." The play seemed particularly humorous when Don Bronson had his older brother Bill with his back against the wall. We can imagine that it was the opportunity of a lifetime.

At the end of the play, Mr. Dykhouse announced that report cards were due on Thursday morning. After a yell and the singing of the fight song, the assembly was over.

Girl Reserves Soar High

Or at least to soar high was the Girl Reserves ambition according to the poster on which a tiny airplane sailed grandly above the clouds, but, it must be confessed, that the voices in the general song meeting last Friday landed with a thud instead of soaring on high. Somehow or other the girls this year cannot make the volume of last year, but then the senior group is not as large while the newcomers into the younger club have almost doubled them. Just you wait and see when these young voices are more sure of the songs, we shall soar yet.

The refueling of the Wednesday before, however, was very much of a success judging by the conversation overheard of the number of waffles and other good things that swamers into the refueling action took place at Riverside Park on the annual waffle roast of the Senior Girl Reserves.

There's at least one hazard to which the modern Plymouth girl is not exposed, and that is turning her fingers while she is pulling molasses candy. If life insurance companies would write policies for only as much as men were actually worth in the community they'd never earn any dividends.

"Look Before You Leap"

Save Money When You Buy
A New Roof
 Here's a Simple Yet
 Sure Way to Do It

INVESTIGATE
 Before You
"SIGN UP" with an
Out-of-Town Roofer

When a salesman or solicitor representing some unknown or out-of-town roofing company comes to your door to talk to you about putting on a new roof, don't be fooled into signing a contract right away. Don't sign anything right away, for if you do you will probably get "stung."

In fairness to yourself, have the salesman submit a written bid for the work, have him specify the number of squares that are required to cover your roof, have him specify the style of roofing he proposes to use and last but not least, have him submit a sample containing at least two square feet of the material he intends to use. Then have the salesman sign the bid, but DON'T YOU sign it.

Tell the salesman to come back four or five days later and in the meantime secure bids from the local lumber dealer for the same kind of material. Nine times out of ten you will find that the local lumber dealer will give you a better job of better material at a price 25% to 50% lower than the price offered by the out-of-town roofing salesman.

BE SAFE, DON'T SIGN RIGHT AWAY. If the salesman is sincere and honest he will be glad to submit a bid and leave a sample with you. But, if he tries to talk you into signing right away and tries to give some excuse saying he won't be able to come back later—then he is the man you want to avoid.

THE GUARANTEE

These out-of-town roofers will tell you that they will guarantee their roofing for 15 or 20 years. Their guarantee means absolutely nothing. They are in the business for only a year or two, and when your roof goes bad, they can't be found. One man whom we know and whose roof went bad, went to the out-of-town roofer and asked him to make good on his guarantee. He was told to go to the one with whom he had made the agreement, but this party could not be found. Your local dealer will give you all the guarantee it is possible for anyone to give you, and he is on the job all of the time. You know where to look for him if your roof starts to leak.

* NOTE—Slick roofing salesman have been fooling the public and selling Diamond Point Roll Roofing as Shingles which is not a Shingle at all. There's a big difference between roll roofing and shingles which we will be glad to explain to you.

Penniman Allen Theatre
MOOTION PICTURE PROGRAM
 Plymouth, Michigan

"LEATHERNECKING"

FOR once the Marines do not win a war!

They do storm the citadel of Honolulu society and capture the hearts of debutantes therein. The method used provides the hilarious theme of Radio's Playhouse "Leathernecking" which appears at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Sunday and Monday, October 26 and 27.

Further proof that "Leathernecking," adapted from the stage play, "Present Arms," is designed for laughing purposes only is seen and heard in the array of comedians in the story.

Five of them vie for the laugh honors. They are Ken Murray, Louise Fazenda, Ned Sparks, Eddie Por, Jr., and Benny Rubin. All succeed in capturing their share.

Of especial interest is the initial film debut of Irene Dunne, former Ziegfeld prima donna, who has the leading feminine role.

She reveals all the essential film qualities of a screen actress, and a singing voice of unusual charm. The new song, "All My Life," sung by her is especially captivating.

The Tiller Sunshine Girls, dancers from England, also make their film debut in "Leathernecking," in two elaborately costumed and prepared dance numbers.

Eddie Cline directed with an eye to comedy and story balance. Others in the cast include Lillian Tashman, Rita La Roy, Fred Santley, William von Brincken, Jack Crosby, Paul Gerrard and the Waddler brothers, Wolfgang and Werther.

"BORROWED WIVES"

A WIFE by midnight or lose an inheritance of nearly a million dollars. And the only girl in the world he wanted for a wife was inaccessible. Such is the predicament of a nice young man at the start of the story told in Tiffany's talking production, "Borrowed Wives," showing at the Penniman Allen Theatre on Wednesday.

day and Thursday, October 29 and 30.

Directed by Frank Strayer, this story by Scott Harting is concerned with a legacy and the whole plot is made possible because the young man who inherits the money has lied about being married. His grandfather left the money to his wife and unless he produces a wife by midnight the fortune will go to the boy's uncle. So the boy borrows a wife and then not only romantic complications ensue, but a lot of mysterious things happen in the lonely mountain lodge that is the scene of most of the story.

Rex Lease and Vera Reynolds portray the leading characters and are assisted in the mystery and romance by Nita Martin, Paul Hurst, Sam Hardy, Charles Sellon, Dorothea Wolbert, Harry Todd, Robert Randall and others. It is recorded by RCA Photophone.

"SWEET MAMA"

THE attraction at the Penniman Allen Theatre on Friday and Saturday, October 31 and November 1, "Sweet Mama," is a First National picture presenting Alice White in the principal feminine role.

A new leading man, David Manners, plays opposite at the head of a fine supporting cast. Among others in the picture are Kenneth Thomson, Lee Moran, Rita Flynn, Richard Cramer and Ralph Elliott.

"Sweet Mama" presents an entirely new slant. It is said, on the always interesting dramatic possibilities of gangsters and their chorus girl friends in modern big town life. It has been treated with the utmost truth and realism by both its author, Earl Baldwin, and its director, Edward Cline.

The combination of a gangster melodrama and the spicy, realistic peek into the lives of chorus girls and cafe entertainers gives Miss White a role that is said to be one of the most difficult, as well as one of the most effective, in her sparkling career as "America's blond flapper girl friend."

President, Dorothy Evans; vice president, Margaret Tuck; Secretary, Helen Slarto; girls' health officer, Margaret Slarto; boys' health officer, Floyd Eichstadt.

Instead of voting for children to do duties, the officers all have one committee to appoint. The president appoints the Room Committee; vice president, Play Committee; secretary, Water Committee. The health officers do not appoint committees to inspect the children but inspect them themselves.

—Margaret Slarto, 7th grade.

Sewing and Handicraft Club Parties

The Sewing Club girls went to the woods back of the school house and had a party. We played games and then ate our lunch. We had frankfurts and buns, apples and cookies.

About a week later the Handicraft boys had a party also. They played games and then roasted the frankfurts. The boys and girls had a very fine time.

We are also going to have a party for each month.

—Frances Jaynes, 7th grade.

To Have Safety Patrol

At our last Junior Citizenship meeting, October 14, we decided to have a Safety Patrol. We elected Lawrence McNulty for captain, Lucille Holman and Ernest Carnett on the Safety Patrol.

The All American Automobile Club furnished the school with safety cards. Before the children can get a safety button they have to say the rules to the captain. Those who have earned them are: Margaret Slarto, Elizabeth Roberts, Dorothy Evans, Delores Holman, Floyd Eichstadt, and Lawrence McNulty.

—Lawrence McNulty.

Our room is learning an Indian lullaby in our music class.

—Margaret Zimba.

We have an Indian village on our table. The fourth grade made wigwams of brown paper with Indian designs of colored paper on them.

The third grade made an apple orchard poster last week. The fourth grade made a poster of children gathering pumpkins for Halloween.

Mrs. Arlene Plankel's Room

We have organized a sewing club called the Fisher 4-H Stitches. We have first and second year classes.

Mrs. Ada Watson is the leader of first year sewing and Mrs. Arlene Plankel the second year. Our officers are: Margaret Tuck, president; Virginia Haigh, vice president; Elizabeth Roberts, secretary; Margaret Slarto, treasurer. We had a wrenner roast in the month of October at which all first and second year girls attended. A Halloween party this month.

Miss Eckhardt and Mr. Carr visited us Monday, October 20. Miss Eckhardt told the girls about sewing. She showed us some garments which she had made and left us some supplies.

The children of Mrs. Arlene Plankel's room are bringing plants to put on the window sills to make our room more attractive.

The 8th grade are working on a Class Progress Chart in Arithmetic. We have completed the first two tests and we are above the National Chart. We hope to raise our record next time.

Our room has made some attractive spatter prints of Maple, Oak, and Beech leaves. We have them for a blackboard border.

METHODIST NOTES
“If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.” Matthew 16:24.
“My best gift to the world is the gift of myself. For I am a leader under God. As a leader I am responsible for my world, my relationships with others. My stewardship starts with the fact that I owe life and all I possess, the world in which I live and everything in it to God, who made them all. If I had created anything, I might talk of my ownership. I have originated nothing. I receive everything through the kindness of God.”
There are still a few vacant chairs at the Church Training night service Wednesday evening and all who desire to come will be welcomed. 7:15 to 8 o'clock.
Those having canned fruit or vegetables for Friendship Home, Detroit, are requested to leave it at Mrs. H. S. Duerr's, 447 So. Harvey St., or at Mrs. Wm. Tall's, 255 North Harvey St. by Monday, October 27. If unable to take it to one of these places, please notify Mrs. I. N. Dickerson. Also bring the dolls for Miss Greenman's box.
The Junior Missionary girls will meet with Mrs. Duerr, 447 South Harvey St., Saturday afternoon, October 25 at 2 o'clock. All girls wishing to belong are welcome. We are dressing dolls for the Christmas box. Bring your dolls if possible, but come anyhow.
Mrs. Carl and the other Missionary Society members are hostesses today, Friday, to the 10 and more Mother's Jewels and their mothers at the annual party at the church.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE NOTES
“Doctrine of Atonement” was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, October 19.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: “And in the same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.” (Luke 7:21).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, “Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures,” by Mary Baker Eddy: “The mission of Jesus confirmed prophecy, and explained the so-called miracles of olden time as natural demonstrations of the divine power, demonstrations which were not understood. Jesus' works established his claim to the Messiahship.” (p. 131).

EPISCOPAL NOTES
The preacher at St. John's this Sunday will be the Rev. W. D. Davis, rector of St. Jude's church, Fenton, who will bring a message concerning the general program of the Episcopal church. It is urged that all our people make a special effort to be present. The rector of this church will occupy the pulpit at Fenton that morning.
Next Sunday, the first in November, will be kept in commemoration of All Saints. This is the church's memorial day, and no communicant of the church should fail to make his communion at the service that day. It will also be the first communion of those who were recently confirmed. Two Hallowe'en parties are planned; one for the children of the church school on Thursday afternoon, from 4 to 7 p. m., October 30; the other, particularly for adults and the older young people, will be held Friday evening, October 31, at 7:30 o'clock. Masquerade. No charge for admission; refreshments will be on sale. Every member of the parish is invited to one of these parties.
The “Adventuring With Christ” program which met with very enthusiastic response last year, will be held during the second week in November, with services each afternoon after school, beginning at 4:00 p. m. This is for every child in the parish; an opportunity that should not be missed.
Bishop Page will conduct a great mass service at St. Paul's Cathedral Sunday night, when he will report on the Lambeth Conference. It is hoped some of our people will attend this service, at 7:30 p. m.
Remember, this Sunday morning—a special message on the great work of our church. Be present to welcome our guest-preacher.
Washington, D. C., miniature golf course owners have lost considerable revenue as the result of a police order to close at 11:30 p. m.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.

The Ready Service Class met on Tuesday, at the home of the president, Mrs. C. G. Draper. The meeting had been announced to take place at the home of Mrs. Henry Hondorp, but Mrs. Hondorp was called out of town owing to the sickness of her father. There was a good attendance and a fine dinner followed by a pleasant social hour.
The Mission Study Class will meet on Tuesday evening, October 28th, at the church. Cooperative supper will be eaten at 6:30 p. m., after which the regular class meeting will be held.

There are several kinds of powder that may be used to kill bugs, but the only kind that will kill a humber is gunpowder.
Marriages may be made in heaven, but we've noticed that quite a few of them turn out like the other place.
Wonder what becomes of all the furniture around Plymouth that is too old even for poor folks and not yet old enough for rich folks?
The proposal to have motorists give their car numbers will be all right providing some of them don't name them what they call them.

Dad Plymouth says that notwithstanding the life of a dollar bill is said to be only seven or eight months, he never had one to die on his hands.
“Marriage vows could be made a lot more accurate,” asserts Dad Plymouth “if the wording was changed to ‘Until debts do us part.’”

FORD ROAD IS WIDENED

PROVIDES TRAFFIC RELIEF TO DETROIT FROM WESTERN WAYNE COUNTY.

Ford Road, one of our important east and west roads, which was in previous years widened to 40 feet of concrete as far as Telegraph Road and 30 feet from that point to Wayne Road, has been continued as a 40-foot concrete road from Telegraph to Wayne Road and as a 30-foot concrete pavement to Canton Center Road, a complete distance of 11 miles, stated Road Commissioner Edward N. Illies recently.

Underdrainage was installed on both sides of this road to permit the closing of the deep open ditches and to provide shoulders adjacent to the concrete of sufficient width to permit emergency parking of vehicles. Ford Road intersects several important north and south highways and provides a relief route west from the City of Detroit for Warren, Plymouth and Michigan Roads, three of our most heavily travelled east and west highways.

The State Highway Department is planning to open up Ford Road beyond Canton Center Road to the Washtenaw County line and make this road a trunk line superhighway, reobscuring it as U. S. 112 in place of Michigan Superhighway.

With the completion of the paving under the viaduct carrying the Pere Marquette and Pennsylvania Railroad tracks over Fort Street just west of Woodmere Avenue, a dangerous condition as well as a source of numerous and irritating delays has been removed.

Fort Street has been widened to 120 feet to the River Rouge bridge and a new, wide, concrete pavement has been constructed. There are two 45-foot openings under the viaduct. The approximate cost of this grade separation project is $700,000.00, half of which is borne by the Pere Marquette and Pennsylvania Railroads, the balance being borne by Wayne County and other interested communities and public utilities. With the elimination of several grade crossings and the development of Fort Street as a 204-foot superhighway, this traffic artery is becoming one of the major travel streets entering Detroit, stated Mr. Illies.

The 27-foot dual strip concrete roadways on Jefferson Avenue or Lake Shore Drive, as it is now locally known through the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores, have been completed and will be opened to traffic shortly. The right-of-way has been increased to 120 feet from the Macomb County line south through Grosse Pointe Shores, a distance of approximately two and one-half miles. A center parkway, 22 feet in width, divides the traffic. This parkway will be landscaped, trees planted and the whole route will be made one of the most attractive routes in this area. The wider width of right of way was dedicated by the local community and abutting property owners.

D. of P. Entertained

Minnehaha Council, D. of P. of Plymouth had a pleasant surprise on October 9, when they met for their regular meeting at Beyer's Hall, to have a number of members from Waunita Council of Detroit, and also a number from Wahjamesa Council of Northville, come in to attend the meeting.

Minnehaha's degree team initiated five candidates, and everyone present enjoyed the work very much.

When the business of the Council was over, a lunch was served, and at a late hour everyone went home declaring they had had a very enjoyable evening.

Vote "Yes" On Reapportionment

from inadequate representation. The proposition simmers down to the position that representative government is at stake at the November 4 election.

"The Board of County Supervisors point out that Wayne County provides 75 per cent of the state revenues—it has 30 per cent of the state's population—it has but 21 per cent of the representation in the Legislature, the body that imposes taxes and spends the money.

"Forty-eight rural counties of the state, with a total population not equal to one-half of Detroit's, now have 27 representatives at Lansing while Detroit has but 17 representatives.

"Without adequate and fair representation at the Capitol we are beset with tax proposals aimed at the pocket-books of the industrial population. Too many times these special taxes are imposed. As an example of the special and nuisance taxes with which we are afflicted, we find the Cigaret Tax referendum on the same ballot with the Reapportionment Amendment.

"Oppose Cigaret Tax "Directors of the Board last Thursday took definite action in opposition to this cigarette tax. They took the position that the tax is unnecessary and a nuisance and call attention to the fact the imposition of this tax will be an entering wedge for all sorts and kinds of sales taxes. The state, they say, has not shown the need for the cigarette tax and has not provided for any definite use for it.

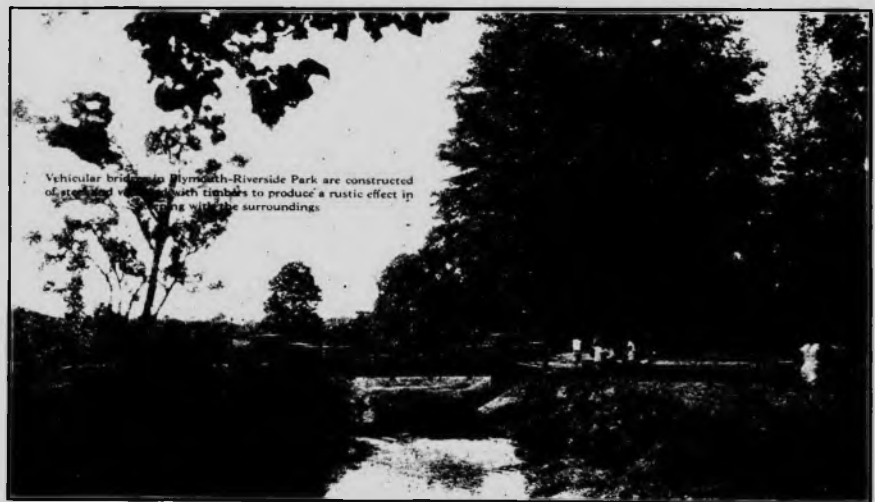

"Already there is six cents of taxes on every package of 20 cigarettes now selling for 15 cents. Two more cents of tax would bring the tax to eight cents on each package and there would be another cent of cost occasioned by the labor of breaking open crates and cartons and affixing state revenue stamps to each package.

"With the new tax imposed each package of cigarettes now costing 15 cents would cost 18 cents at least and 50 per cent of the cost would be in taxes. The commodity price would increase 20 per cent. This is a dangerous precedent. Taxes already form a substantial part of the cost of every purchase, without any direct local tax imposition being made. It is felt that asking the public for 50 per cent of the purchase price of a commodity in taxes is unjust and unnecessary. The directors also point out that by levying this new tax the state government has not shown any indication of relieving any other tax burden. A definite "No" vote is needed on this measure.

Dad Plymouth says that what this country needs as much as anything else is publicity for the other seventeen amendments.

HUNDREDS, INCLUDING PLYMOUTH CITIZENS, TAKE ADVANTAGE OF LARGER EARNINGS FROM AMERICA'S LARGEST INDUSTRIES.

Prudential Investors, Inc., of Detroit, licensed under the Treasury Department of the State of Michigan, offer a financial service which offers an opportunity to both the large and small investor to invest either cash lump sums or small monthly sums jointly in 31 of America's leading and most essential industries, namely: A. T. & T. (Bell Telephone) New York Central; United States Steel; General Electric; Sears, Roebuck; Pennsylvania Railroad and 25 other large corporations, all with proven dividend records, whose assets exceed twenty billion dollars and whose surplus and reserves exceed four billion dollars.

Plan Proves Popular

Hundreds throughout Michigan have already taken advantage of this safe and profitable plan, hundreds more are joining. Numbering among them are to be found some of Plymouth's leading citizens.

One of the outstanding features of the plan is that the investor may withdraw his investment at any time or if he prefers to leave the investment intact he may borrow up to 80% of the investment value.

Error Made Telling Alfalfa Seed Yield

FIRST REPORT GAVE YIELD IN BUSHELS INSTEAD OF CORRECTLY IN POUNDS.

Total alfalfa seed yields in Michigan this year, previously reported through error as 250,000 bushels of certified and 750,000 bushels of uncertified seed, are actually 250,000 and 750,000 pounds of seed in the respective classes, according to H. C. Rather, head of the farm crops department at Michigan State College. The corrected figures, while only one-sixth of the first report, place Michigan among the four leading producers of certified seed. Alfalfa, both for hay and seed, is one of the more recently introduced of Michigan's important field crops, and the production of alfalfa seed has been on a quantity basis only during the last few years. The shift from timothy and ordinary clovers to alfalfa has aided greatly in the building up of Michigan's dairy industry and in the building up of Michigan soils, and the farm crops department of the College expects still further increases in the acreage of alfalfa.

Pretty Roofs in Norway
Perhaps the roof over one's head has something to do with the happiness and love in the home beneath it. The American shingles were appropriate for the pioneer, the English slates practical, the tiles of Latin countries cool and picturesque, but even better is the old straw thatch laid on sometimes to a depth of two feet. However, of homes in country places Norway has the loveliest roofs of all. Sod is used for a thatch there, and after a season or two the entire house-top is a meadow of grass and wild flowers, on which young goats may often be seen feeding, and where butterflies and honey-bees always hover.

Gob Forbidden to Whistle
A gob can sing his head off if he cares to, but he must keep his whistle in his pocket. Whistling has never been permitted in the navy. This prohibition is not designed to repress one of nature's elementary means of expressing joy, or boosting one's courage, but is forbidden because it might be confused with the boat's pipe at a distance or below decks. In former days at sea sails were handled and much work accomplished by means of calls with the boat's pipe, the boat-swaain's badge of office.

Elementary
"My boy," said the business man to his son, "there are two things that are vitally necessary if you are to succeed in business."
"What are they, dad?"
"Honesty and sagacity."
"What is honesty?"
"Always do no matter what happens, nor how adversely it may affect you—always keep your word, and you have given it."
"And sagacity?"
"Never kiss a girl."
"A girl may close her eyes when being kissed," asserts Dad Plymouth, "but she doesn't when somebody else is."

SPRING DRILLING GIVEN APPROVAL

St. John of Ohio Favors Some Out-of-Season Work.

L. W. St. John, director of athletics at Ohio State, believes that some regulation should be put on spring football and other out-of-season drills of varsity squads, but he is not in accord with the idea put forward at Wisconsin to abolish these practices entirely. "Several years back," he says, "I attempted to get the Big Ten directors to set some limitation on regularly organized spring football practice—namely, to limit it to a certain number of weeks with a certain number of periods. I still feel that some limitation of this sort will eventually come. I think it will always be necessary to have a certain amount of out-of-season work in different lines of athletic activity for the proper carrying on of physical education course work. To attempt to abolish all out-of-season practice would be illogical and impractical. It would lead to a certain amount of evasion and suspicion. A certain amount of out-of-season football practice will always be desirable and serve to lessen the pressure in the fall. "With regard to basketball, I feel that some regulation as to the starting of regular varsity practice in the fall is desirable and that some such limitation as to spring basketball would be quite in order, although again, to abolish all such out-of-season work would be a serious mistake."

Director L. W. St. John.

Jack Bentley, former Baltimore and Giant first baseman, and left-handed pitcher, now with the York club of the New York-Pennsylvania league, announces that this is his last year on the diamond. Next year Bentley will link arms with a New York brokerage firm, and take his place in the ranks of the football stars, just out of college, selling stocks and bonds.

When Luque, the Cuban, pitches for the Brooklyn club of the National league, all the newspapers in Havana take a play by play account of the game.

At national open championships, professional golfers are announced only by their last names while the amateurs are honored with the prefix "Mister." At the Western Open championship at Inverwood all golfers received the prefix "Mister." The amateurs were not distinguished from the professionals.

This policy was pursued after the announcer on the first day introduced one pair as follows: "Mr. Walter Hagen and Chick Evans."
Leslie S. Gordon, president of the Western Golf association, decided that all contestants would be "mistered" after that.
Whereby the Western Golf association institutes another much-needed reform in tournament golf.

It was some time ago and the late Tim Hurst was umpiring a game when a young rookie, angered and chagrined at striking out, turned on the effervescent Hurst and proceeded to bowl him out most artistically, anathematizing him from head to breakfast, and finally winding up: "You blinkety-blinkety blank blank, you're blind as a bat!" Hurst regarded the young man menacingly, and finally blurted: "Cut out that blind as a bat part or I'll fine ye a hundred."

Christy Flanagan, ace of the Notre Dame backfields of 1925, 1926 and 1927, has been signed as assistant varsity football coach for Purdue. Flanagan won unanimous selection as all-western halfback and mention on a number of all-American teams. His best remembered feat occurred when in playing against the Army in 1927 he broke loose for a run of 87 yards that yielded the winning touchdown for Notre Dame, which triumphed 7 to 0.

When the Cubs blew up in the 1929 world series some of the members of the club expressed fear that the Chicago fans would be down on them this year. Actually quite the reverse has been the case and record crowds have been storming Wrigley field. The crowds which attended the recent Giant-Cub series exceeded those of the two world series games played at Chicago in 1929.

COLLEGE HAS SCHOOL FOR ORCHARDISTS

NEW DISEASES AND INSECTS KEEP FRUIT GROWERS ON WATCH AT ALL TIMES.

A four-day school, Nov. 17-21, at East Lansing has been planned for the owners of Michigan orchards and vineyards by the horticultural department of Michigan State College. New orchard pests and new means of controlling fruit insects and diseases make it necessary for horticulturists to keep posted on the latest developments in their industry, the members of the College department state. The fruit-tree leaf roller and the European red mite which are causing damage to apples in this state are two of the insects which will be discussed at the fruit grower's school. These insects are comparatively new species in Michigan and control methods are also recent developments.

Peach diseases and insects which will be subjects for study at the school are peach yellows and little peach, winter injury, bacterial spot, caryanthid blight, arsenical injury, circling bark beetles, peach borers, and the oriental fruit moth.

Practices of handling the orchard soils will also get their share of attention. The influences which fertilizers, soil water, and other factors have upon the size of the fruit, the frequency of bearing in the orchard, and the maintenance of soil fertility will be explained.

Class room work will include lectures, laboratory periods and discussions. Dand Plymouth says the laziest woman he ever heard of was the one who put popcorn in her pancakes so they would turn over by themselves.

Selling now a village may become a fifth class city, if the residents show favor. Petitions were drawn up by Village Attorney Roscoe Bonisteel providing for 200 signatures, the state law requiring that 25 per cent of the names be signed before the paper is submitted to the council.

More than 25,000 people from several states visited the Duns Scotus college and St. Anthony's shrine, Evergreen and Nine Mile roads, Sunday. Dedication services were held last Wednesday, and initial services in the shrine were held Sunday morning, with Rev. Urban Freundt in charge.

Work on drilling for a well for James Bird on Orchard avenue, Ann Arbor, the drill and a one and a quarter inch casing were suddenly thrown ten feet in the air by a terrific gush of water which shot more than 200 feet in the air, drenching the houses in the vicinity, and revealing an underground lake of a depth estimated at about 80 feet.

The Terres & Gunn Lumber and Supply company of Dearborn, donated a carload of coal to the Kiwanis Club for use in the welfare program being planned for this winter. The carload will contain approximately 75 tons of coal and will save the club at least $500 of their funds for use in other phases of their work.

Ralph G. Hogle, president of the Grand River Lumber & Coal Company of Redford, donated 50 tons of coal to needy families in Brightmoor, after a man, who had been arrested for stealing coal at the company's yards, told the police his family was destitute.

Mr. Hogle responded by donating coal to 74 different families.

The Dearborn high school which, five years ago, was considered by many as too large for the student body, has now been outgrown. It is now caring for 750 pupils when national school authorities have said its capacity would be reached when 600 were enrolled. It is expected that over 800 will be enrolled by next February.

Contract has been awarded at an estimated cost of $1,500 for a survey of the water situation in Dearborn, to determine whether it will be possible to obtain and maintain its own source of supply. Dearborn at present is supplied with Detroit water. The mayor hinted that it might be advisable for Dearborn to have an adequate water supply of their own, referring to the water shortages in communities neighboring Detroit and in the north end of Dearborn during the dry spell last summer.

A decision is expected shortly as to whether the trolley tracks on Grand River Avenue in Farmington will be torn up or not. It is expected that the decision will be for tearing up of the tracks, probably next spring, with some possibility of obtaining trackless trolley service from Detroit. Lack of funds for re-location of the rails in the center of the new right-of-way, and the strong inclination of the State Highway Department for discarding the tracks, are said to be factors which have practically decided the issue.

Rosedale Gardens

By J. W. WALKER

Tonight is the night when all good (and bad) Gardeners repair to the schoolhouse for the annual mums-bill. Ah! we get fun watching all the big ones and the little ones prepare for the outstanding event of the fall season; and won't we have fun tonight, and the old ball about "we knew it was you all the time!" will be heard more than once. But one thing the old prognosticators did not know will be who'll get first prize. A number of tickets have been sold, guess everyone got one or two or three or more. So long, see you all tonight!

Came one Mister Roy T. Mitchell and his wife from Lansing way the other nite, announcing their coming return to the community. Welcome back, says we, and its all like this: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rossman, who had leased the Mitchell home at 9810 Blackburn, have now leased the George Watson bungalow at 10008 Ingram Ave., whilst the Mitchells return to their own, the Rossman's to Watsons and Watsons to outtown "completing the triple play," as Ty Tyson was wont to say on baseball broadcasting, only thing is all are safe on Mitchell's home run.

Announcing the arrival at 5:00 post meridian the fourteenth instant, at the Ford hospital, Detroit, of a little brother for Fred Weiner, and a son to Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Weiner, 9900 York Ave. The infant will be named "Richard C." and is expected home with his mother Sunday, the coming week. We offer congratulations. Thus the boys this year far out-number the girls.

The School Board, P. T. A. and all are now thinking up how and when the school building will need to be enlarged to accommodate our fast growing throng of kiddies. Remember the old literature of five (5) years ago, the slogan "Where Rosy Cheeked Children Will Bloom!"

Miss Estelle Ludwig and Marion Virginia and Mildred Mabo have been ill at their home, 9908 Berwick, for more than a week, is why the "doctor" made several calls there. Some folks say it has been this terrible foggy weather, others otherthings, all we know they were quite ill and are much improved, thank you.

The coal man is in season. Bill Davis, Esq., his bricklayers, and Uncle Robert Wilson and his woodlathertelians are making bricks and sawdust fly way down on West Chicago way; so far it looks as if it will be a goodlooking job, and according to blue prints it will be the best ever, not only in size but shape and the appointments on the inside. Mister and Mrs. Stover should be proud of the place and are. Nice looking brick, too, notice it?

Sonny Mason is numbered among the ill, as is two Haron boys. Trade the old lawn mower in on a 1931 snow shovel and be in style. Now we have another girl baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Clayton J. Price, 11419 Melrose Avenue. Name for this little one has not been selected, but she weighed 7½ pounds on her arrival at noon, Sunday, the nineteenth instant. The snow brought something after all. There were just as few passersby past Sunday, as there were many Sunday fore last.

ROSEDALE GARDENS SCHOOL NOTES

Kindergarten and First Grade Miss E. M. Bolden

The children in the kindergarten and first grade have been dramatizing a story called "Belling the Cat."

We have a new pupil, Margaret Ann Millard, who entered the kindergarten this week.

We are going to have a doll corner in our room. Fred Millard brought a large box which he and the other boys are making into a doll bed. The girls are planning to make the mattress and bedding.

Mrs. Bowdlear and Mrs. Canliffe were recent visitor in our room.

Second and Third Grades

Miss Doris Smith

Warren Hoffman brought a baby owl to school on Monday. The children learned a new song "What Mr. Owl Knows." They also made drawings of the owl.

Ramon Dixn, who has been ill and out of school returned today. Mildred Walker is still ill. We hope she will be back soon.

Miss Quinn collected the old clothes last week. She thanked the boys and girls for their help in donating so many.

Fourth and Fifth Grades

Miss Peck

We are very glad that our Indian exhibit was shown at P. T. A. Mr. Hoffman caught a little owl. He brought it to school so that we could study about it. We are planning on having a party in our room on Halloween.

We have been studying design. Now we are putting design on tea files while we made of clay. We like to make them.

Sixth, Seventh, Eighth Grades

Miss M. Rowe

4-H Club Has Visitors—Miss Eckhardt, our 4-H club county leader, and Mr. Carr, also our 4-H club county leader, visited our school. Miss Eckhardt told the girls about sewing for first, second and third years. Miss Eckhardt's talk has made the girls very enthusiastic.

P. T. A. Meeting

Gathering at the school for the monthly meet were the teachers, the "A" officers and a great turnout of parents, this all on Moonstee eve last (the 20th inst.).

The Secy., Miss Margaret Rowe, read the minutes of the previous meeting, and they were approved; and the several letters about various activities of the P. T. A.'s etc. We were all urged to listen in on WJL U. of M. program at 5:30 p. m. each Sunday, as well as attend the Institute at the J. L. Hudson Store, announcement to be made in Detroit papers on the 15th, 16th, 17th of next month, hours 10:00 to 12:00 a. m., and 1:30 to 3:30 p. m.

Mrs. Burton, president, announced she had "borrowed" $50.00 to purchase soups for the kiddies' luncheon. It will be a revolving self sustaining fund. Milk, soap and cocoa will be served children bringing lunch to school, at actual cost.

We sang the "Together" song from the N. S. sheet. Mrs. Metzger was made a committee of one to look into the sewing machine question, as we only have one machine now for 22 girls.

Mrs. Lynde, child psychologist, Relief From Curse of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. Beyer Pharmacy.

Miss Jeanne Loftus entertained at the piano, and "the everything" of the little miss was just wonderful.

After all we had coffee, home made sandwiches and cake. Permission being granted, the men folks, led by Al Rohde, proceeded to dunk their cake in coffee and discuss ways and means of materials and tools for the boys' manual training class. Then all set goodnite and went home happy.

MAIL LINERS BRING RESULTS

THE TRAINING OF JUNIOR EXECUTIVES

A Prominent Business Man Says:

"Our business is expanding so rapidly that we have imperative need for several junior executives, but we simply can't find young men and women with the proper training. We can get plenty of stenographers and bookkeepers—capable ones, too. They are all right for the work for which they have been trained, but they do not understand organization and management, and their limited education makes it impossible for them to assume executive duties.

"Nowadays when an executive engages an assistant he knows that soon he shall have a better position at a larger salary, and he wants the young person he selects to be ready for that better position when it develops. He is looking around and considering his future requirements. Consequently, he exercises the greatest care in choosing young men and women for his organization, knowing that they will develop into the executives of the future.

"A fundamental knowledge of business principles and administrative methods has become the key which unlocks the door to the choicest opportunities and the commercial training institution giving executive courses of university grade in Business Administration is the logical place for such training. There the science of business is stripped of all its frills and furbelows and taught in a practical, business-like way by practical business men and women.

"The young man or woman who takes an executive course at such an institution will enter the business world with a thorough knowledge of business fundamentals and a clear understanding of the administrative duties of a successful organization. He will be a potential executive, and will have responsibilities, opportunities and promotion thrust upon him."

D. B. U. Executive, Secretarial, Business Administration and Higher Accountancy Courses Prepare You to Meet This New Demand

A Good Position for You

Private Secretary to The President

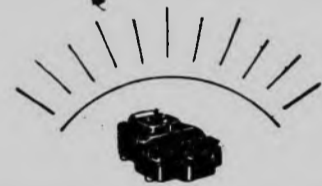

The other girls in the office wonder why "the boss" picked Miss Cross for this position. The fact of the matter is that the boss didn't have so much to do with it at all. You see it was like this:

Four or five years ago while Miss Cross was still going to high school she picked out this position for herself. She made up her mind that she was going to be private secretary to the President; then she made everything else give way to that idea. She worked hard at her studies at high school, then she took a special course of secretarial training at a good business school and finally on the job she did so much more and so much better work than was required of her in each position she held that she just naturally bulged out of the minor positions and right into the attention of the President. So there was not much "picking" for the boss to do.

Why She Chose the D. B. U.'s Secretarial Course

- (1). Limited to high school graduates and college people.
- (2). School approved by State Department of Public Instruction.

The NEW PROFESSION

FOR BRIGHT, CAPABLE YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN

ALONG with the typewriter, the calculating machine, the billing and book-keeping machine, has come the Stenotype, the machine way in shorthand. Proved by more than twelve years of severe testing, it is now coming into a new and greater demand among business men everywhere, because of far greater speed and accuracy.

It opens to young people a much shorter avenue to success.

A well-trained Stenotypist has no fear of the fastest dictators or the most technical dictation.

Because of the machine's accuracy and the readability of the plain type notes you know you will be able to bring back to your employer letters that say what HE said—without the slightest guesswork, nervousness or unbusiness on your part.

Think what that means to your employer and what it means to you.

Come in today for a free lesson and demonstration without the slightest obligation on your part. Let us show you how easy it is to learn, easy to read and easy to write—how it lifts you above ordinary business competition—how it can make you more successful—earn more money.

Bees Need Backing To Survive Winter

USE OF WINDBREAKS AND INSULATION ENABLES COLONIES TO ENTER SPRING IN GOOD CONDITION.

The protection of bees in Michigan apiaries from winter winds and low temperatures by the use of windbreaks around the bee yard and by packing the hives either in wooden or tar paper cases is recommended by specialists in apiculture at Michigan State College.

Bushy shrubs, evergreens, or groups of buildings can be utilized as windbreaks and should be on the north and west sides of the colonies of bees. When no natural windbreak is available, a board fence six to nine feet high built with boards spaced two inches apart will give ample protection from winds.

Occasionally, in mild winters, unpacked bees pass through the winters in good condition; but, in average Michigan winter temperatures, packed bees will be in enough better condition in the spring to enable them to produce one more super of honey than the unpacked bees.

In northern Michigan, three inches of packing material between the tar paper or wooden packing case and the sides of the hive will be needed but less insulation is necessary for hives in southern parts of the state. The cost of the tar paper case will be only about 15 cents a hive and an extra super of honey will pay packing costs for several years.

Colonies going into the winter should have a vigorous queen, three to five pounds of young bees, and 50 pounds of well-ripened honey. Bees which have too little food supplies can be strengthened by feeding sugar syrup, which is made by dissolving two pounds of sugar in one pint of water. If there is any question about the quantity or quality of the honey in the hive, the feeding of one gallon of the syrup to each colony is excellent insurance against winter losses.

SPIRITUALIST MEETING

There will be a spiritualist meeting next Thursday evening, October 30, at eight o'clock, at the home of John Rattenbury, 336 Ann Arbor St. Rev. Peter Krert of Detroit, will lecture and give messages. The public is cordially invited.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held in the Commission Chamber at the Village Hall, Monday, November 3rd, at 7:00 p. m., at which time objections will be heard to the proposed construction of a sanitary sewer main in Maple Ave. from S. Harvey St. to Jener St.

The lots and parcels of land proposed to be benefited by the aforesaid improvement, and therefore properly assessable for the cost of same, are as follows:

All lots and parcels of land abutting upon the south side of Maple Ave. from S. Harvey St. westward to and including Lot 68 of Nash Subdivision; also Lots 6 and 7 of Block 6, C. R. Kellogg Addition, and Lot 1 of Nash Subdivision; also the two adjacent parcels of land abutting upon the east side of Jener St. from Maple Ave. northward.

All persons interested in the above proposed improvement will be given an opportunity to be heard.

A. J. KOENIG, Village Clerk. 4912c
