TO PROMOTE GARDEN CLUBS IN PLYMOUTH

Ex-Service Men's Club Will Provide Land For Needy People.

The Ex-Service Men's Club Relief Committee which during the fall and winter just past, acted as agents for the charitable citizens of Plymouth in the distribution of relief funds, food and clothing to the unemployed and unfortunate of the community, feels that although the worst of the suffering is past, there is a continuing work to be done along relief lines. Many of those who have been helped must continue to be helped and the best and wisest help now is helping them to help themselves. Through the efforts of the Club's Relief Committee and the Chairman of its sub-committee, the Garden Club Committee, several citizens of the community have donated plots of ground, which can be utilized to grow garden crops. These will be turned over to anyone who may wish to supplement a vanished or inadequate income, by planting and growing a supply of garden truck.

Elsewhere in the Mail an application is printed and any who may wish to avail themselves of the offer may fill in and mail the application. In the spring, householders usually have many odd jobs such as lawn mowing, tree pruning, simple painting and repairing to be done. Several ex-service men are available at this time to do these jobs. One or two cannot do the heaviest work as they have just plucked through a sick spell, but others can. Comrade Algure or Comrade Harry Murray of the Relief Committee will contact any citizen wishing to provide a job to an ex-service man.

Wednesday at the Ex-Service Men's and Ladies' Dance, St. Patrick's night at Masonic Temple.

Kinda missed a good time if you weren't. In addition to the dancing the Joint Committee presented Elvira and Chloé Lesse, two charming young ladies, who entertained those present with a variety of folk and interpretive dances.

Every Tuesday night is Troop P-2 Boy Scouts night at the school auditorium. The Ex-Service Men's Club is sponsoring this troop. Bill Gamble will welcome any citizen to visit his boys. Is your boy eligible to be a scout? If so why not help him to join one of the three troops in Plymouth. Come over and see P-2 any Tuesday. You are welcome.—Ex-Service Men's Club Cor.

DeMOLAYS HOLD BOWLING CONTEST

The Fellowship Chapter, Order of DeMolay, held a bowling tournament at Northville, Tuesday, March 24. Stephen Horvath won first place with scores of 135, 108, 136—(379). Our Chapter "Dad," Ernest Henry, put up a cup for the winner. This was the first event of this kind sponsored by the local chapter. Quite a bit of interest shown, but we are hoping for more during the events to follow.

DeMolays will be very sorry to hear that Rodney Mack, a member of our chapter residing in Farmington, is laid up in bed with a broken neck, as the result of an automobile accident. The degree work was put on at the regular meeting Thursday, March 25, for a class of four candidates.

Our most home meeting will be held at David Estep's home on Amelia St., Wednesday, April 1. A tennis tournament will be sponsored by the Chapter starting Friday, April 3. Our next regular meeting will be at the Masonic Temple at Northville, Thursday, April 9th.

AMERICAN LEGION WILL MEET TONIGHT

The Myron H. Beals Post No. 32 and Ladies' Auxiliary will have their regular meeting Friday evening, March 27, at Jewell-Blanch Hall, at 7:30 p. m. sharp. At this meeting, the following things of importance should be settled: Our home uniforms, flags and poppy sale. Arrangements have been made to have Farmington Post members meet with our post, and they promise to have their initiation team to initiate all our new members. And we expect a large attendance.

After meeting, refreshments will be served and card party will be given. Ex-service men that wish to have bonus application, copy of discharge or loan on bonus, apply to our adjutant, Floyd Eckles, or the post commander, C. Donald Ryder. Many activities are being planned for the near future. One will be a card party by the Ladies' Auxiliary, April 9, 1931; complete details will be in next week's issue.

STATE POLICE PLAN DRIVE ON MOTORISTS WITH FAULTY LIGHTS—WARNING IS GIVEN

The Wayne detachment of the Michigan State Police gave notice to Plymouth motorists today that within a few days they would inaugurate a campaign on motorists who drive their cars with faulty lights. Sgt. McElroy stated that in order to spare trouble he advised every motorist to have their lights checked and even as an extra precaution for them to carry spare bulbs in their car.

The campaign will be county wide in an effort to reduce accidents caused by cars having faulty lights. Plymouth auto owners are asked to cooperate in every possible way.

ENTHUSIASM HIGH FOR HOME COMPLETE EXPOSITION HERE

Plans for Plymouth's second Home Complete Exposition are practically completed. Around twenty-five booths for exhibits were sold when space was placed on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office last Monday morning and it is probable that every available foot of floor space for display purposes will be sold by the time the exposition opens.

Judging by the comments by those planning exhibits the display will be even more attractive, entertaining and educational than last year and it will be remembered by those who attended last year's exposition that the displays were very attractive and set a high standard which will be hard to surpass. A complete story covering the event will be run in the April 3rd issue of the Plymouth Mail. Watch for it. Merchants desirous of having additional advertising space in connection with this event will kindly call the Plymouth Mail in regard to space.

Rotarians Entertain At Ladies' Night

An attractive place and oriental time was enjoyed by the members of the Rotary Club of Plymouth and their Rotary Annus last Friday evening, March 20th at Meadowbrook Country Club. It is a custom of the members of the Rotary Club of Plymouth to entertain their Rotary Annus periodically. The event last week was one of the most outstanding in the history of the Rotary Club.

The surroundings of Meadow Brook certainly made it an ideal place for the party. The spacious dining room of the Club was decorated in true St. Patrick fashion and the tables were interesting in that the same St. Patrick scheme was followed out. An usual one of Meadow Brook's fine dinners was served to those present and was very much enjoyed.

MIMMACK IS NAMED NEW PRESIDENT

Old Commission Accepts Resignation of Adolph Koenig as Manager.

Members of the new Village Commission at their first regular meeting last Monday night elected unanimously Robert Mimmack as president of the village. Mr. Mimmack who takes the office of president succeeds George Robinson who has held that office for the last year. As is the custom of the commission to elect a new president each year the commissioners felt that in the selection of Mimmack they had a man who would have the interests of the village at heart at all times, and one who would make a most successful successor to George Robinson whose record while in that capacity is one to be proud of.

Members of the old commission, Robinson, Weidman, Kehrl, Hoyer and Mimmack held their final meeting that evening at which time they closed the official business for the year. The old commission accepted the resignation of Adolph Koenig, resigning the position of manager. Hoyer who also tendered a motion to the commission extending to Mr. Koenig a sincere appreciation for the outstanding work he has done while in the capacity of clerk and manager of the village.

Mr. Koenig has been village manager for a period of three years moving his family here from Pontiac, Michigan, where he acted in the capacity of assistant city manager at that city for three years previous to his acceptance of the position here. His plans for the future are as yet unannounced.

The new commission consisting of president Mimmack, ex-president Robinson, Hoyer and Leonard designated Mr. Learned to act temporarily as clerk. No other appointments or actions were taken at the meeting.

entertaining program was offered, which was in charge of the Club's service committee of the Rotary Club of Plymouth with Henry R. Lusk as chairman. Mrs. Hazel Moon, daughter of Rotarian "Bill" Connor sang two numbers much to the delight of those present. An old friend of the Rotary Club of Plymouth, Joe Parr from Dearborn, entertained with his usual ability. The committee in charge of the program were lucky in being able to secure the services of Thomas, a talented musician from Detroit.

The program was topped off by a very fine musical act in charge of Rotarian John Patterson, who was assisted by his son, Daniel, and Charles McQuinn. The selections offered by Don and his associate, Mr. McQuinn, were very much enjoyed. If there is anyone in this vicinity who has never had the privilege of hearing John Patterson play on his harmonica they may miss a treat.

Newton Falls is the home of several large steel plants employing a large number of men and is generally known as a very prosperous and progressive town. It is located between Akron and Warren in one of the best industrial centers of Ohio.

George McLeod, who was employed in the Mail office for a number of years, while Mr. Samsen was publisher of the paper, will accompany the latter and will take a place in the office just purchased by Mr. Samsen. Mr. McLeod expects to move his fam-

FIFTY YEARS OF HAPPINESS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Trinkaus celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home at 1022 1/2 Holbrook avenue, Plymouth, Saturday evening, March 21. Among the guests present were friends from Detroit, Pontiac, Rochester, Northville and Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Trinkaus received a goodly number of gifts including money in gold, a radio set, a number of beautiful floral pieces, and cards.

Prominent Church Worker Taken After Two Weeks Illness

The funeral of Mrs. H. A. Spicer, who passed away at her home on Ann Arbor Street Tuesday evening, March 17th, after a two weeks' illness of double pneumonia, was held from the Methodist church at 4:00 o'clock on Friday afternoon.

Due to the illness of her pastor, Dr. F. A. Leonard, the services were conducted by her former pastor, Rev. Frank M. Field, now of the Oak Park church of Flint, whose comforting remarks included several beautiful and appropriate poems.

During the services Miss Winifred Joffile rendered a number of beautiful selections on the organ.

Three sons-in-law, H. S. Doerr, Wm. H. Wakely, Dr. H. W. Mason; and three nephews, J. A. McKinstry, Wm. Clayborn and Wm. H. Barber, acted as pallbearers. The numerous lovely floral offerings expressed the esteem and love of her many relatives and friends.

Mrs. Spicer, who came here as a bride some fifty-seven years ago, leaves to mourn her loss her aged husband, four daughters, two sons, nine grandchildren, one great-grandson, besides a brother, three sisters and other relatives and friends.

The long life of love and sweet selfless service has endeared her to all who knew her, and she will be greatly missed by not only her own, but by neighbors and friends and the church which she has served so long and so faithfully.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

Members and guests of the Woman's Club enjoyed an especially fine program last Friday afternoon at the Hotel Mayflower. The Child Study group presented Mrs. Ernie Enroll, head of the Minnie DeJorjels School of Detroit. This school is located on the east side of the city, and cares for children of the pre-school age whose mothers find it necessary to seek employment outside the home. Its hours are from 8:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m., and it is supported by the public welfare department.

Mrs. Maxwell Moon, accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert Brown at the piano, sang two beautiful ballads—"An Irish Lullaby" and "Slumberloot." Milton Moe, accompanied by Miss Gladys Schradler, played two violin selections. Joseph Ribbar, accompanied by Miss Schradler at the piano, rendered two trumpet solos. The club wishes to thank Miss Schradler and her young musicians for the part they took in this program.

Twelve Plymouth Redmen Attend Meet at Lansing

Twelve members of Ottawa Tribe No. 7, of Plymouth, made the trip to Lansing for the monthly Redmen meeting, last Saturday evening, and also took along a candidate from Plymouth. There were three candidates altogether, upon which the Plymouth degree team conferred the Adoption degree. The Chief's degree was ritualized by a mixed team consisting of two from Plymouth, one from Detroit, one from Battle Creek and one from Lansing.

Between the conferring of the Adoption and Chief degrees, a four-round boxing bout was staged by two young boys; also a good wrestling match by two amateur wrestlers from Lansing.

Northville Legion Gives Banquet

On Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the new Presbyterian church house, Northville, Lloyd H. Green Post, No. 147, the American Legion, is sponsoring a community banquet. About 325 plates will be sold at $1.00 each, and they are expected to be at a premium. Appropriate music and entertainment will be plentiful, and the list of guests and speakers includes Legion and state officials of the highest standing. Congressman Seymour H. Persons, of Lansing, is expected to deliver the principal address, and short talks will be given by Alton T. Roberts, executive vice-president of the Convention Corporation; Mrs. Ethel Smith, department president of the Ladies' Auxiliary; the British consul to Detroit, Captain Campbell of the Canadian Veterans; Robert Brand, late of the Wayne County Council, and Father Patrick Dunningan of Flint, will occupy the chair of toastmaster. Others prominent in two great numbers to mention will be introduced.

This affair should appeal to all the ex-service men as well as the citizens of Plymouth, and the Northville Post would be glad to welcome all who care to be with them at this time.

A limited supply of tickets are in the hands of L. H. Alexander at the Plymouth United Savings Bank, and he would be glad to dispose of them as long as they last, to those who care to enjoy this delightful evening with the Legion Post and citizens of our neighboring village.

PLYMOUTH LIBRARY SECOND IN COUNTY VOLUME CIRCULATION

Certain very interesting facts regarding the Plymouth Wayne County Branch Library are available through a study made by the Chamber of Commerce of the annual report of the Wayne County Library. According to this report the Wayne County Library serves thirteen branches and fourteen stations. Of this considerable number the 40,490 volume circulation of the Plymouth Branch ranks second, being exceeded only by the Ecorse Branch. The Plymouth Branch also takes second place in the number of volumes in collection and ranks well up toward the top of the list in number of new patrons, total number of patrons and in inter-library loans received.

According to Wayne County Library officials from the standpoint of circulation per population, and annual circulation of five or more volumes per year may be considered satisfactory. From their standpoint they consider that the Plymouth Branch Library serves the Village of Plymouth, the balance of Plymouth township, the north half of Canton township and Northville township not including the Village of Northville, with total 1930 census population of approximately 9500. This figure compared to the total population shows a satisfactory percentage.

From only one standpoint does the Plymouth Branch Library compare unfavorably with some of the other branches and that is from the standpoint of patrons per population. Wayne County Library officials state that 23.12% is considered a figure which should be reached. The percentage of the Plymouth Branch in this respect as of February 1, 1931, was 21.3%, whereas two of the branches show percentages varying from 35 to 45 percent. With an ever-mounting circulation, however, this percentage will undoubtedly steadily increase.

Articles appearing in this paper from time to time have told of the mounting popularity, number of volumes and circulation of the Plymouth Wayne County Branch Library. This has become a well known fact in this area to support the library, but growth has brought problems to the local library board of directors and staff. They are constantly in need of more space for shelving and for reading room purposes. This need has become so acute in recent months that steps are now underway to lease part of the other ground floor half of the building where they are now located. This additional space will help considerably. It is but a course of time, however, until the same problem of more space will again be crying for attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vaughn entertained informally Saturday evening, in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Emens of Jackson, at their home on Edison avenue, Maplecroft. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn were Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Emery, Dr. and Mrs. S. N. Thams, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mastick, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Bristol and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dykhouse.

The local Churches are to observe Holy Week with union services at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Monday evening the Rev. Walter Nichol will be the speaker, and on Tuesday evening the Rev. Oscar J. F. Seitz. Each Church will hold its own mid-week service on Wednesday evening, and on Thursday evening the Sacrament of the Holy Communion will be observed, a union service as in recent years, with all the pastors serving at the altar. The Good Friday service will begin with an organ recital at 1:45 p. m. and will close at 3 o'clock. Each pastor of the participating Churches will bring a message, emphasizing the "Seven Words from the Cross."

It is hoped that the people will enter with enthusiasm into the observance of Holy Week, giving freely of their time, and using every opportunity to invite their friends to unite in this endeavor to exalt our Living Christ.

The evening services will begin at 7:15 o'clock and the Good Friday service as stated above.

NEW CONCERN LETS CONTRACT FOR BUILDING

To Manufacture Screws As New Addition To Local Industry

According to a statement from the Chamber of Commerce, Plymouth will have a new little industry in the very near future. Arrangements which members of the Chamber of Commerce and others have been working on for several weeks have been completed and a contract has been let to erect a small brick and concrete factory building with about two thousand square feet of floor space at 575 Amelia St. The contract was awarded to Clinton Gotschalk.

A Mr. C. R. Stringer will own and operate the plant. Mr. Stringer recently resigned his position as division superintendent for the Federal Screw Company, Chelsea Division, Chelsea, Michigan, to go into business for himself. Mr. Stringer has been active in the screw manufacturing field for the last fifteen years. According to a statement from the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Stringer is highly thought of in screw manufacturing circles and comes highly recommended.

Mr. Stringer made the following statement for publication, "our little plant will have a capacity of between sixty-five to seventy thousand units per day. We will manufacture small screw products for a diversified field. Our equipment consists of Brown and Sharp automatics and second operation machinery. We will start off on a small scale. Allowances have been made for expansion as conditions warrant it."

"When I made the decision to start up for myself I made a very careful survey of the greater metropolitan area and chose Plymouth because of its strategic location and fine transportation and manufacturing facilities. I like Plymouth and wish to express my appreciation for the cooperation I have received."

Mr. Stringer has made a fine impression with the local business men he has contacted to date, and very one wishes him an outstanding success in his new undertaking.

PHOTOGRAPHIC EXHIBIT CALLED OUTSTANDING

The display of photographs of members of the Plymouth Rotary Club in the show window of Schrader Bros. Furniture Store, is attracting national as well as local interest.

F. E. Penney, special demonstrator and art critic of the Eastman Kodak Co. of Rochester, New York, studied each photograph carefully and made the following remark to L. L. Ball, Plymouth's own art exhibitor, who made the pictures: "It is as good a group of photographs as I ever saw. They should be exhibited at the Michigan Photographers Association meeting to be held in Grand Rapids in April."

Dudley H. Bratton, field representative of the Photographers International Association of America, viewed the exhibit Friday, and congratulated the Rotary Club and Mr. Ball upon the presentation. Mr. Bratton said it was an unusual achievement for one hundred per cent of the forty-two Rotarians to have their photographs made for the exhibit.

In commenting on the achievement, Mr. Bratton made the additional statement: "The composition and lighting are very good; the features and expressions are clearly reproduced. What a wonderful thing it is that the art of photography has been developed to the extent that it is so the thoughts, ambitions and the motives that accentuate the actions of individuals can be kept through photographs, as inspirations for present and future generations."

Men are careless about having their pictures taken. When they are honored by positions of local, state or national importance, few have recent photographs that can be used for newspaper or magazine. Hazards are increasing every day; we never know when accidents will occur; more and more business and professional men are realizing the need of good photographs and the example set by the local Rotary Club through the efforts of Mr. Ball is commendable and outstanding."

A RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS

Under a warm southern sun an old man sat whittling one afternoon on a bench by the side of a barn. But the shavings did not fall continuously. Between times the aged man would puff reflectively at an old cornob pipe, apparently in deep contemplation.

One of his cronies came upon him in one of these reflective moods and chided:
"Well, Pop, figuring out your recipe for happiness?"
"Yes," answered the whittler. "I am happy. And why shouldn't I be? I drink in much sunshine. I try to be tolerant. I have smiled my way through a great many years. I do not bother about my enemies. I pay a lot of attention to my friends. I try to be of some use in the world, and always try to look forward. And, say, do you know that all these things keep me so busy that I haven't time to be anything else but happy?"

Happiness, after all, is largely a matter of mental attitude. If our hands are busy helping others and our thoughts are concerned with only the bright things of life, we have placed ourselves in a position where the world may well envy us. If we can whittle and smoke and smile, there are a lot of persons worse off than we are.

WORK AT HAND FOR ALL

"One good community nurse will save a dozen future policemen," declared President Hoover recently, in calling attention to the fact that there are 10,000,000 neglected children in this country. It is hard to believe that this nation, with all its advantages and opportunities, has such a large number of neglected children. Yet no one can question the President's figures, for they are the result of wide investigation.

Every community, no matter how large or how small, has its proportion of neglected children. And every resident of that community can and should help in overcoming that neglect. A greater call to service, either to individuals or to organizations, can be heard than that of making real men and women for tomorrow out of the neglected boys and girls of today.

SENATE TAUGHT ANOTHER LESSON

The United States Senate, evidently bent on fighting rather than legislating, has finished second in its latest tilt with President Hoover, and the country at large is applauding the victory of the White House.

In attempting to recall its confirmation of three members of the newly-created power commission, the senate not only overrode all precedent, but violated the sanctity of the executive department of the government against legislative meddling.

So complete was the turn-down given it by the President, and so plain and to the point were the counter-charges he made against the members of the upper house of congress, that the senate apparently lost all its pugnacity against executive appointments. For the members of the new tariff commission were confirmed with scarcely a ripple, despite the fact that a bitter battle had been promised by some of the insurgents.

The senate is not adding to its own luster nor benefiting the country in any way by its continual antagonism of administration policies. Its arrogance is defeating its own ends. It is rapidly losing public respect, and this is about the last thing the senate can afford to do.

WHAT CIRCULATING MONEY WILL DO

An old bit of comedy business, often seen in minstrel shows and variety, and probably still in service in burlesque, is the one in which four or five characters, each of whom owes $5 to one of the others, pass a $5 bill around from hand to hand until all their debts have been paid and the bill is back with its original owner.

While the intention is comic, the bit is in fact a graphic illustration of how easily a large mass of debt can be wiped out if money is put in motion and kept in motion. The Atlanta Chamber of Commerce is employing exactly this device now by starting three $50 checks in circulation with the idea of cancelling debts of $15,000 before they are deposited in a bank. The checks are drawn to over-size bank orders with room on their ample backs for hundreds of endorsements. In smaller communities where the scheme has been tried, the indorsements were forthcoming in a few days, and the checks posted in the bank as a practical example of what money can do if it is allowed to keep moving.

In Atlanta a sugar broker is donating the checks, one to the Salvation Army, one to a local welfare agency, and a third to an indigent widow, with directions on the checks that they be kept in circulation for 60 days. By that time a large number of Atlantans will have been given first-hand lessons in elementary economics, besides relieving themselves of debts of $50 apiece.—Detroit News.

A CATHEDRAL RESTORED

News from France that the magnificent Rheims Cathedral has been almost completely restored, after the terrible damage it suffered during the war, will be most pleasing to every lover of architectural beauty. Americans will take especial pride in the fact that this restoration has been made possible largely through the generous donations of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., of New York.

Rheims Cathedral is one of the finest specimens of Gothic architecture in the world, as well as one of the most historic. It stands on the site of a former church in which Clovis, founder of the kingdom of the Franks, was baptized in the year 496. There is a French legend to the effect that a dove brought from heaven a sacred vial of oil for this baptism.

The present cathedral was begun in 1212 and completed about a century later, but numerous alterations have been made from time to time. Here Joan of Arc caused Charles VII to be crowned in 1429, and here the kings of France were crowned for several centuries.

Many of the elaborate sculptures which adorn the cathedral were destroyed or damaged by bombardments during the war, but fortunately photographs and casts existed to enable artists to copy the lost masterpieces. So, once again Rheims Cathedral stands forth in its pristine glory and transcendent beauty.

HEELS AND TOES

We all should know in a general way what our competitors are quoting and what general policies are pursued on various matters.

That is a basis of business acumen. But to make the doings of a competitor a chief concern and a determining factor in one's business policy and procedure is a big mistake.

I'd rather have a competitor wondering about what I am going to do than to be the one to wonder. I'd rather be worried about than worry.

While we all must emulate, respect and keep up with competitors (real competition) there may be a lot of needed energy wasted by those who should be less fearful, in checking up the cents on price sheets, grieving about a lost order or two and listening to rumors about the other fellow (mostly exaggerated).

I'd rather be the one talked about than to talk.

I'd rather be imitated than to copy.

I'd rather start something than to tag after.

I'd rather be a hunter than a poacher.

I'd rather a competitor waste his time checking up on everything I do and am supposed to do than to spend time trying to detect him in some alleged error.

I'd rather have a man on my heels than on my toes.—Exchange.

THE FIVE AGES OF MAN

"Daddy, I know how to do everything," said the little boy of five.

"What I don't know isn't worth knowing," said the young man of twenty.

"Well, anyway, I do know my own trade from A to Z," said the man of thirty-five.

"There are very few matters, I am sorry to say, that I am really quite sure about," said the man of fifty.

"I have learned a bit, but not much, since I was born; but knowledge is so vast that one cannot become wise in a short lifetime," said the man of sixty-five.—Courier.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

REFUSE WORK AT 7.50 A DAY MERE ACCOMMODATION

During the heavy snow storm of the past few days the city has employed men with trucks to haul the snow from Main street. Up to Monday evening the city paid them $1.10 an hour, and the bills handed in Monday evening at the commission meeting were at that rate.

Quite a number of men and trucks were on hand Tuesday morning to go to work. City Commissioner McArthur, however, informed them that their services were not really necessary, but in order to give them work the city would pay them 75 cents per hour for trucking. They refused to work, and the commissioner put the city truck to work and handled the snow situation very satisfactorily.

While under ordinary circumstances possibly it is worth $1.10 an hour for a truck and driver, yet under the present conditions, we question the wisdom of refusing to work for 75 cents per hour, especially when the work is given as a mere accommodation in order to give men the opportunity of earning something instead of remaining idle.—Eaton Rapids Journal.

A FRANKLIN MEMORIAL

Two centuries and a quarter after Benjamin Franklin's birth a great memorial is under construction in Philadelphia, which will fittingly perpetuate his great genius and patriotic services by a tangible monument of practical as well as sentimental significance.

It will be a memorial such as Franklin himself would appreciate most if he were living, being devoted principally to a museum of the graphic arts which will illustrate the evolution of writing and printing since the earliest recorded attempts of man to express his ideas by visible means. For, be it recalled in an epitaph written by himself for his gravestone, his only designation is "Benjamin Franklin, Printer." The memorial building will have a total floor space of more than 500,000 square feet and will cost five million dollars. It will also have a large endowment fund. In the building will be the Franklin Institute, with more than 60 individual museums, libraries and departments devoted to scientific knowledge.

Benjamin Franklin, measured by every standard of accomplishment, is perhaps the greatest figure America has ever produced. As journalist, scientist, statesman and diplomat he exerted an influence of incalculable value to his country and to the world. To him, no less than Washington, is due the success of the American Revolution, because it was Franklin's consummate diplomacy that secured the aid of France at the crucial moment of the war for American independence.

It is to the credit of the citizens of Philadelphia that at last Franklin is to have a memorial in keeping with his greatness.—The Ionia County News.

STUPIDITY VS. WICKEDNESS

A glimpse at current history sometimes makes one wonder if ordinary human stupidity and incompetence do not cause more trouble and more suffering than all of the malice and wickedness in the world. An example of this is found in Winston Churchill's "World Crisis," that fascinating description of the World War as a member of the British cabinet saw it.

Churchill, as first lord of the admiralty, was the moving spirit behind the ill-starred Gallipoli adventure. The expedition was crippled by dumbness and failure from the start; and nowhere was this more clear than in the tragic Suvla Bay landing.

French and English troops had already obtained a foothold at the lower tip of the peninsula. Further up the peninsula the Australians had come ashore and established themselves. In neither place was it possible to make much progress against the strenuous Turkish trench system.

So a flank attack was planned. Under cover of darkness, a division of troops was thrown ashore at Suvla Bay, several miles up the coast. This division was to press forward promptly, cross the peninsula, and take the defending Turks in the rear. If it succeeded the peninsula would be taken. Constantinople would fall.

The division got ashore at dawn. In the foothills to oppose it was a scant battalion of Turkish troops. The division had only to move quickly to gain its goal. The Turks could not possibly stop it.

But stupidity and incompetence now entered the scene.

The general commanding the division was a stolid and sedentary gentleman accustomed to caution and methodical bit-by-bit movements. Instead of ordering his men forward as soon as they got ashore, he had them dig trenches on the beach to prepare to repel an attack. In the afternoon hundreds of them were dismissed and allowed to go in bathing. All in all, this man wasted 24 priceless hours before he set his troops in motion.

By this time it was too late. The Turks had had time to bring up reinforcements. A large percentage of the British division was sacrificed. Gallipoli held out. Constantinople was not captured, and the war in this sphere lasted three years longer.

All of this—a price simply staggering to contemplate—came because one man in a position of authority was either stupid, incompetent, or both.

Can there be a more dreadful testimonial to the mischief that those two qualities can create?—The Deschorn Press.

"TO MAKE THE NIGHT HIDEOUS"

WE HAVE all heard or read this phrase which is practically always associated, and correctly so, with sleep which is disturbed by the roars of those who, by their howling, boisterousness and other noises, make slumber impossible.

While this phrase seems apt enough to be modern, we owe it, in fact, to no less a person than our own Will Shakespeare, in whose work, "Hamlet," we find what is probably its earliest recorded use in the sense indicated.

Training School Children Given Real Entertainment When World's Greatest Magician Performs There

By C. G. Kardas
Student at the Wayne County Training School.

A truck from Detroit, bearing the equipment of Howard Thurston, the magician, arrived at the school grounds Monday afternoon. The equipment was carried into the auditorium and arranged in order. About a half hour later, the children were seen to be inching to the auditorium to see the magic of Mr. Thurston, who was chosen by Dr. Robert H. Haskell, superintendent of the school, as the next attraction to entertain the children.

During the month of March, the children of the school were visited by a minstrel show from Ohio, Charlie Chaplin in "City Lights," and Howard Thurston, the magician. Before the performance began, a cameraman stepped forward on the stage and took pictures of the 600 smiling faces of those in the auditorium who were anxious to see Mr. Thurston and his magic. Suddenly the curtains drew back, and Mr. Thurston stepped out and the audience started to applaud, but were soon quieted when the magician drew a fire whistle from his pocket and whistled for silence.

Mr. Thurston's first act was to take the cards and do some magic with them. He asked one boy to choose a card and then come on the stage. The boy was asked by Mr. Thurston to say, "Rise, line of hearts, rise," and the card was ascending in the air.

The last act Mr. Thurston performed was to have a girl come onto the stage, look at him, turn, and fall into the arms of two men who placed her in a square box and locked it tight. A saw was brought to Mr. Thurston and he, with the assistance of his servant started to cut the box in half. The boys who were asked to hold the feet and head of the girl got scared and fled from the stage. When the cutting was done, the box was taken apart, and then was placed back together again. To the surprise of the children, the box was opened and the girl jumped out wholly without a scratch.

Mr. Thurston had the cameraman take pictures of every act he performed. Dr. Haskell presented Mr. Thurston with a bouquet of flowers. Time flew fast, and soon the magician bid the children good-bye and went on his way to Detroit. He was accompanied on his trip to the school by his daughter, Jane, two servants and another magician.

It's new... a real advance! Super-Shell Ethyl

Livelier, quicker anti-knock gasoline... because science has found a way to REMOVE EVERY SLOW-VAPORIZING, LAZY PARTICLE

Now... science's new, perfected anti-knock fuel... amazing system of "bubble cap trays." Here all the harmful, heavy "fractions" so often left in gasoline are "scrubbed" out. Into a special pipe flows only the volatile, lively gasoline which Shell blends with Ethyl fluid! Thus Super-Shell Ethyl gives you finest engine operation. Quick starting. Smooth, even power. High anti-knock value. Now... see what really fine performance your motor is capable of giving. Try this new Super-Shell Ethyl today. One test will convince you.

Shell engineers developed it. They knew that inferior gasoline—no matter what was added—doesn't deliver best performance in your car. They set out to make anti-knock fuel utterly free of slow-firing, harmful, "heavy" gasoline particles. Months of experiment... then they succeeded!

It is a matter of "washing" the gasoline in a series of huge refining towers where the gasoline vapors travel over Shell's

J. Austin Oil Co., - Wayne, Mich.

ARE YOU SURE THAT YOU KNOW ALL YOUR WAR RISK INSURANCE RIGHTS?

When veterans of the World War responded to the call that brought them into the service, our government adopted an important measure for their benefit and for the benefit of their loved ones. This measure provided for the granting of war risk insurance. The benefits of that insurance, being monthly installments of $7.50 on the usual $10,000 policy, were to be paid not only in the event of death, but also in the event of total permanent disability.

The significance and true meaning of "total permanent disability" has been generally misunderstood. Does it mean a bedfast of helpless physical or mental condition? Such has been the popular conception of the meaning of those terms, but that is wholly erroneous. Within a few months after the passage of the War Risk Insurance Act, the Director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance defined total permanent disability as any impairment of mind or body which renders it impossible for the disabled person to follow continuously any substantially gainful occupation and existing under conditions reasonably certain to continue throughout his life.

Many are the veterans who returned from service shattered in mind or body, or both, not realizing the seriousness of their condition. They returned to their homes with a hope for health which in numerous instances could not be, and whose attempts at resuming and following occupations soon demonstrated the impossibility of their being able to carry on. In all such cases, where the disability was of a permanent nature and began while the veteran's insurance was in force, his policy matured and he became entitled to payment of installments of his insurance. In such cases, the fact that he paid no premiums after his discharge from service is immaterial to insurance rights. Very few veterans paid premiums after they left the service, but their insurance did not lapse if they became totally and permanently disabled as above defined within the life of their policy.

The fact that a veteran worked some, even though it were over a considerable length of time, when the effort that he put forth was injurious to his health, was an effort that he in fairness to himself could not make, does not prevent a finding of total permanent disability during such employment.

It is also true that in practically all cases where the veteran was given a compensation rating of 10 per cent or more from date of discharge and later became disabled so as to be unable to follow continuously any substantially gainful occupation at a time when he was entitled to uncollected compensation, the insurance became payable, and regardless of failure to pay premiums.

That a veteran's discharge certificate set forth that his physical condition was "good" or failure of the Veterans' Bureau to rate his disability as total permanent at any time; these facts do not in any case prevent recovery of his insurance if he actually became totally and permanently disabled as above defined within the life of the policy.

In many of these cases, the veteran or the beneficiary of his insurance has been advised by the United States Veterans' Bureau that insurance benefits are not payable, but that is not to be considered as settling the matter, as insurance rights have been established in a great many instances upon it having been shown that the Veterans' Bureau was mistaken in regard to the true nature and extent of the veteran's disability.

It is estimated that in half of the instances of veterans who have died of tuberculosis since the war, their insurance is payable. And where the death from that disease was within two or three years after the war, insurance rights exist in almost every case. These benefits are also payable in cases where disability and death have been occasioned by other diseases or disorders. It is not to be understood that it is only in case of death that insurance benefits are payable, as many of the living veterans whose disability entitles them to payment of their insurance.

Comparatively few of those entitled to insurance benefits have filed their claims. All claims not filed with the Veterans' Bureau will very shortly be barred and outlawed. Therefore, it is of most urgent moment that as far as possible, applications be immediately presented and filed in the Bureau.

It is the purpose of The American Legion to contact as far as possible all cases where insurance rights may exist, and see to it that these benefits which Congress has so generously provided for shall be paid. Comrades who have been badly disabled since time of the war or who know of instances of deceased veterans, or other disabled veterans, where insurance benefits are not being paid, should write to Robert J. Byers, Department Adjutant, American Legion, 802 Barlum Tower, Detroit, Michigan. Comrade Byers will see that every case is carefully investigated, and the claims of those entitled to insurance benefits will be given immediate attention. This will be done regardless of whether or not the claimants are members of this or any other veteran organization.

July 3, 1931, is the expiration date for filing claim with the United States Veterans' Bureau or instituting suit against the government for recovery of war time insurance.

Brighten Mirrors and Windows

To wash windows—remove dust from sash and frame with a small brush or soft dry cloth. On the glass use a chamois or soft cloth wrung out in a warm borax solution without soap (two tablespoons of pure borax to a gallon of water) giving special care to the corners of the panes, and washing the outside first. Dry quickly with the same chamois wrung out tightly in clean water, or with a soft cloth.

To wash mirrors and picture glass, use the same method as for windows, being careful to have chamois or cloth wrung dry.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Holy Week
"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow." "Could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation."
On Palm Sunday, March 29, the Pre-Communion service will be conducted at 10:00 o'clock, followed by a sermon, an anthem by the choir, and the blessing of the palms for distribution to the congregation. This is the beginning of Holy Week, the commemoration of our Lord's last days of suffering. The only way to eternal life and the joys of Easter is the Way of the Cross. Surely, we shall all keep this holy week with prayer and some small measure of sacrifice.

On Good Friday night at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a service of Evensong. Prayer with a brief period of meditation on the Crucifixion of Christ. A message received from Bishop Pagani calls upon all our people to make a special, earnest effort to observe this solemn day with fitting worship. Christ gave all for us; what shall we give in return?
A series of community services will be held on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday night in Holy Week, and on Good Friday at 2 p. m. The people of this congregation are urged to attend as many of these services as possible. Full notice of the program will be found in another part of this paper.

The Junior Brotherhood will meet as usual on the Wednesday night in Holy Week, at 7:30 o'clock.
Tonight, Friday, March 27, a Fish Supper will be served by the Woman's Guild. Everybody come!

Christian Science Notes

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, March 22.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth!" (Rev. 19:6).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "In proportion as the belief disappears that life and intelligence are in or of matter, the immortal facts of being are seen, and their only idea of intelligence is in God. Spirit is reached only through the understanding and deignification of eternal life and Truth and Love" (p. 279).

CATHOLIC NOTES

NEW INSTITUTION TO SERVE 37 COUNTIES

A population of 455,879 in an area of 22,761 square miles, comprising the 33 northernmost counties of the Lower Peninsula and the four easternmost counties of the Upper Peninsula, is affected by the movement under way in the present session of the Legislature to build a State Tuberculosis Sanatorium in north central Michigan. The 37 counties designed to be served by the institution are indicated in black on the map.

A hospital of 250 beds is being sought for the area on the basis of the 200 deaths occurring annually in it over a five-year period. One bed per annual death is accepted throughout the country as the minimum number required for adequate care of cases. Other areas of the state are well above the ratio of one bed per annual death.

An outstanding argument advanced in the Legislature for construction of the institution is based on the overcrowded conditions existing in all the tuberculosis sanatoriums of the state. Michigan State Sanatorium, Howell, has a waiting list of 130 patients, which the proposed Northern Sanatorium would absorb. At the same time it would permit patients from the north of the state to secure care near their homes, relatives and friends, and without undergoing lengthy travel extremely dangerous to their health.

The much discussed malt tax is regarded as the most likely financing medium for the sanatorium. While this bill may meet resistance and a possible veto from the governor, house and senate members believe that there are enough votes available to pass it even over the gubernatorial veto.

Chevrolet Adds New Coupe to Line

A new body style, the five passenger coupe, has been added to the 1931 line of Chevrolet Sixes, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager, announced this week.

The new model is Chevrolet's latest addition to its deluxe line, another of which, the convertible cabriolet, was brought out early in January, and through which Chevrolet is establishing a new order of quality, luxury and individuality in the low priced field. The new type, which brings the number of passenger models in the Chevrolet line to eleven, is priced at $595. F. O. B. Flint, Mich. The five passenger coupe is of the two door, close-coupled type with the sport treatment carried throughout. Body is by Fisher. Finish is in new Duco combinations of ember gray on body, with Cooperstown green wheels, and the roof and rear quarters in Sheffield green. The trim stripe is cream.

Interior arrangement is practically the same as that of the two door sedan, affording abundant leg room for all passengers. The front seats are separate, the driver's being adjustable. The other has a thin back and can be tilted forward. The rear seat holds three persons comfortably. The three-bladed door is exceptionally wide, permitting easy entry for passengers.

The interior appointments are of the deluxe type throughout. The upholstery is optional in Bedford cord or mohair. The instrument board is specially designed. There are arm rests, an assist cord on the right side, ash tray and curtains on the rear side and rear windows.

Exterior treatment is in keeping with the interior. A package compartment in the rear deck has a large capacity and is easily accessible. Radiator grille and cowl lights in chrome plate are used. Chromolium plating is also freely employed on headlamps and other exterior hardware. The regular Fisher VV windshield is used. Five wire wheels are standard equipment with the spare carried in the rear.

The new model is now in production and dealers throughout the country are being stocked for immediate delivery.

Rosedale Gardens

By J. W. WALKER

Baby Girl Mrs. William J. Flannigan, 10019 Cranston avenue, is receiving congratulations on the safe arrival of a baby girl, last Tuesday, the seventeenth instant. Now little Mary Patricia's charms are being extolled to all by her big brother, Jimmie (just half past four). This is the third month, the third baby, and the third girl to arrive this year.

Reading Glasses will not be necessary soon, in fact they are not entirely necessary now in some corners of our gardens, as the iris, tulips, etc. are peeping up, birds are catching some early worms, boys are at marbles, kites and jumping ropes are also in evidence, and last, but never least, the daily baby buggy parades have started. Spring, beautiful spring!

Achievement is a big word and much. The not nearly so much as parents and visitors at R school were treated at the 4-11 Club's annual achievement day last Monday, the day of days for our boys and girls. The handwork of the youngsters brought forth praise from all.

Then right here let it be said that the girls have demonstrated their ability to help mother and the boys their ability to do those odd jobs that so many daddy Gardenites seem to delight in shirking to the extreme sorrow and dismay of mothers Gardenite.

Welcome to the community are Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Shea, who have moved in the L. S. Sneliker home, 11033 Blackburn. Garden Ideas are being exchanged, bulbs and seeds being swapped quite freely nowadays. Last Saturday and Sunday we noted several, in fact many Gardenites, who put on the denium, rubbers and old hat instead of the "usual" frock morning coat and high silk hat. The reason therefor was it was time to get out and clean up the garden, shrubbery and flower beds. To quote the person—"the male attendance at Sunday morning worship always falls off in the Spring and springs up again in the Fall."

So you see, old chap, ole dear (etc.), that even the rector is up to the trick of gardening on a-Sundee ante meridian.

One good thing about this Sundee gardening is, (outside of flowers), that we still retain the family fiver safe and sound on Monday, which is more than a lota city Sundee drivers can say. Also sound heads and bones.

La Flu or la grippe, or some such animal has touched its blight on several Gardenites lately. Misses Ethel M. Belden and Estelle M. Ludwig; many of the kiddies have had bad colds, and were kept home as sort of protective and preventive of spreading. Now all have recovered and everyone is happy.

Clean Up Week The Land Co. boys, Supt. Al Honke and Walt Giesler are aiding and abetting the cleaning up of all trash and ash piles. So from now on the dandelions and weeds will have vacant lots all to themselves until the weed cutters start to work.

And Construction Supt. Chas Wilson is also feverish as the alterations jobs are within a couple of weeks of completion, so now construction may come along any day now with the Peckles trucks hauling in blocks and bricks.

For wash bowl and tub, use borax cleaning powders, soap, turpentine, dry on a cloth, mop or brush. Borax instantly removes deposits of mineral soap and grease. Pure borax is odorless and acts as a deodorant. Strong hot water.

MRS. MARGARET FYE 1854-1931

Mrs. Margaret Fye of Hollbrook Ave. passed to her everlasting happiness last Thursday, March 12th, finally released from a severely painful illness which had marred the peace and joy of her last years. She succumbed to her illness only after her heart had become too weak to continue the fight, when she was again seized by an especially severe attack the Sunday before her death. She brought the days of her earthly sojourn to the grand sum of 76 years, 8 months, and 16 days. Born at Detroit in the year 1854 and remaining for the most part in this vicinity, she is mourned as one of the oldest members of our community and congregation. She was the daughter of Gottlieb and Christine Schwab, was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran church at Detroit, and in the year 1871 was joined in holy matrimony with John A. Lutz at Waltz, Michigan. The union was blessed with five children: John Lutz of Plymouth, Chas. Lutz of Bekermann, George and Henry Lutz of Pontiac, and Mrs. Clara Russell of Seymour Lake, Michigan. Mr. Lutz preceded his wife in his eternal rest in the year 1915. The deceased then married Mr. Henry Fye on July 9th, 1917. He remains to mourn her departure with the five children, twelve grand-children, four great-grandchildren, two brothers: Will Schwab of Carleton, Len Schwab of Plymouth, and Mrs. Fred Marsden of Detroit.

Mrs. Fye for long, long years was a faithful member of both the Ev. Lutheran church as well as of the Ladies' Aid Society. Her burial took place Saturday afternoon, March 14th, the services being held in the St. Peter's Lutheran church, the interment being made at Riverside Cemetery, Rev. E. H. Hoyer officiated and spoke to a large group of mourners and friends on the Scripture text, taken from Jeremiah, the 31st chapter, the 3rd verse: "I have loved thee with an everlasting love, therefore in loving kindness I have drawn thee."

SMITH—Ida Mrs. Died at her home 28228 Waverly Avenue, Nankin Township, Saturday, March 21st, 1931, at the age of 60 years. She is survived by her husband, William Smith, and one daughter, Mrs. Violet Hank of Canton Township. Funeral services were held Tuesday, March 24th, 1931, from the above residence, at 2:00 P. M. Rev. Knowles of Garden City, officiating. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

SNYDER—John was born in Detroit, 70 years ago. His boyhood was passed in Detroit. While yet a boy with his parents, he moved to Greenfield Township on Seven Mile road. Here he lived on a farm for 22 years. While here he met and married Miss Julia Frankel. To this union were born six children all of whom are living: Mrs. Lillian Eckert of Royal Oak; Mrs. Mamie Law of Hudson, Mich.; John E. Snyder, Nankin Mills; Walter Snyder of Clinton, Mich.; and Melvin Snyder, Nankin Mills. At the age of 33 Mr. Snyder moved from Greenfield township to Livonia township near Plymouth road. Here he lived on another farm for 28 years. Nine years ago, he moved to his present home in Nankin Mills. Mr. Snyder has had unusually good health all through his life. About two months ago he was taken ill with the flu. Later dropsy set in which re-

SNAPPY PLAYING IN VOLLEY BALL

Great competition is faced by many teams in both the junior and senior leagues in volley ball. The present schedule has been under way for over three weeks, and many very exciting games have already been played. The three upper classes, and the faculty have especially furnished great excitement. Without a doubt these games are very beneficial, and the real purpose of high school athletics is brought out. Over one hundred boys participated in these games and every one of them received wholesome exercise.

The seventh and eighth grades are putting their hearts and souls into these games to develop their bodies. Plymouth has something to talk about in the way of athletic directing because Mr. Matheson is accomplishing a very worthy work. Every night at 3:45 the locker room is filled with a bunch of lively boys. The Methodist church and the high school auditorium furnish the courts on which to play. Although volley ball is much newer than basketball in Plymouth, it is just as well enjoyed and it allows a greater number of participants.

TRAVEL NOTES

After a discussion of arrangements for visiting the Detroit News Building, March 28, along with the Pilgrim Prints and Plythean staffs, Miss Flegg talked to the Travel Club about Warkins then and Niagara Falls, two of the places she visited last summer.

Although Niagara is much more famous than Warkins Glen, the latter is by far more beautiful. Approaching from the east, one drives through very high hills which, although they are not so tall, are really small mountains. If one is ambitious, he may climb up the stairs which have 432 steps, or he may take a taxi to the top and walk down. Miss Flegg felt that two and a half miles going down stairs would be easier than going up, and so she chose the taxi. There are many pretty water falls, and there are some caves here, too. When one goes into these caves, just the knowledge that these rocks grow is enough to make him feel that he is in a land of magic, and there are so many pointed, queer-shaped rock formations hanging down from the rock roof overhead that he feels sure fairy land could not be more charming. While Niagara gives one a feeling of power and of beauty, Warkins Glen leaves an impression of beauty which far surpasses that left by the famous American falls. Miss Flegg urged us all to see both of these places some time if we ever have the opportunity to do so.

ANNUAL BANQUET HELD IN DETROIT

The annual Girl Reserve banquet held at the Detroit Y. W. C. A. last Saturday, March 21, was attended by five of the Senior Girl Reserves, Doris Holloway, Marion Toff, Jane Lowell, Doris Williams, Eva Starkweather, and also by Mrs. Holloway and Miss Allen. The Plymouth club was greatly honored at this banquet, as Doris Holloway had been chosen toastmistress, a duty that she carried off excellently.

The girls left early for Detroit, as they had to decorate their table before the banquet. The program centered about colleges, and each school took its choice, beforehand, of the one it was to represent. Plymouth chose Michigan State Normal, and decorated the table with a centerpiece representing a large staff of music and with place cards in the form of artist's palettes and tennis rackets.

There were between three and four hundred girls present, representing about twenty-five high schools. At the beginning of the evening, the girls, under the direction of Miss Wecker, marched downstairs and around the room, inspected all the tables, and then took their places. Benediction was given by Mrs. Erle Layton Gates, general secretary of the City Y. W. C. A., and an excellent meal was served. The Cass Technical High School band and vocal ensemble entertained during the meal.

After the dinner the speakers were, of course, introduced by Doris. The first three were in the form of a debate.

neighbor a new dining room suite, and the maid a new dress. She then permits her self to be called mama, lets her husband go without shoes, tie, and collar as he desired, and does not feel as sure of her entry into society as before.

ANNUAL J-HOP A GREAT SUCCESS

About one hundred and thirty-five couples danced to the strains of Dave Diamond's Delta Robbia Orchestra amid the colorful decorations of tinsel and floral garlands in the high school auditorium. Pictures of Mother Goose nursery rhymes were hung on the walls. The azure ceiling was connected to the pictures with twisted streamers. A spider web hung on each side of the stage, while a life size "Jack and Jill" hung behind the orchestra.

At eleven o'clock eighty-eight couples led by the class president, Steve Dudek, and his friend Alice Chambers, formed the grand march. Daring instrumentalism, Miss Betty Jane Arnold of Detroit, sang three popular numbers which were greatly appreciated by the dancers. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Gallimore, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert, Mrs. Horton, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Stimpson, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Dykhouse. For the first time in several years, the J-hop was a financial success. The Juniors are looking forward to a bigger and better Senior Prom next year.

ALASKAN TRIP IS FEATURE OF DAY

Falling leaves, symbolizing a travel program, took up most of the Junior Girl Reserve meeting last Friday, March 20. Miss Parry of the Detroit Y. W. C. A., told the girls of the symbols of the Girl Reserves. Then the meeting was turned over to Margaret Bazzard who told of her trip to Alaska.

Alaska, the land few understand, with its majestic scenery and great contrasts between extreme cold and heat at least Margaret stated that it was very warm while she was there. She told of eating monstrous strawberries far exceeding any that we can raise here. The strawberries are an example of what Alaska can do when she starts out, for what she does grow is worth while. Margaret also spoke of seeing totem poles, glaciers, and even a whale on the trip back. She showed many pictures to help out her already entertaining talk.

NEWS FROM HOLLAND

James Livingston joined a club in the Open Road Magazine, and a boy in Amsterdam, Holland, having seen James' name and address in the magazine, wrote to him. The letter was printed. After reading the letter we found that the boys in Holland are interested in practically the same things as American boys are. The letter was something like this:

"Dear James:

I shall try to write correct English, but there probably will be some mistakes in it. I saw you are a scout. I was also a scout but I did not like it so much and as I only had Sunday free from house work I preferred to have that Sunday free to do the things I want. But now I have days that I don't know what to do then I would I was still a scout. Have you not flown? I want to fly but I have not done it. There is a great big boat in our country, the D. V. S. and I have done it. The Zepplin and D. V. S. but not the D. S. I have found the D. V. S. and more important, I think it will come over to your country. What are you wanting to become? I want to become a hydraulic engineer. Have you a bicycle? I have one but it is only natural for every one here has a bicycle. I have an uncle who was in U. S. A. and he said he only seen three or four bicycles on the whole trip. I am anxious to receive the first letter of you.

With many greetings,
 Nico Vd Veen"

CONTESTANTS READY FOR SUB-DISTRICT

Two weeks ago at a general assembly Irene Humphries and Harold Stevens were chosen to represent Plymouth at the sub-district declamation and oratory contest. Irene will give her declamation, Hagadorn's "You Are the Hope of the World," while Harold will give for his oration, "Russia's Challenge." The contest will be held at Plymouth, Thursday, April 2, at 8:00.

As Superintendent Smith is chairman of the fourth sub-district, he will be the presiding officer at the contest. The schools in our district which will compete in the contest, are: Northville, Wayne, Farmington, Belleville, Dearborn, Lincoln Park and Plymouth.

Last year Harold Stevens was the oratory contestant for Plymouth, and he led for first place; so Plymouth expects to win high honors next Thursday.

SURVEY OF MEAL HABITS IS MADE

In a survey made in the 8-A food class, it was discovered that out of fifteen girls there were only three who had come to school without eating any breakfast. Nine girls had had cereals, seven, fruit, and only two, coffee. In a further check-up, it was made known that there was only one girl who never ate between meals, ten of the girls finished on candy, others ate apples and fruit, while five of them unattached cookies when hungry. A similar check will be made next week; the girls, in the meantime, striving for a perfect record as to a well balanced breakfast, no coffee, less candy, and more fruit between meals.

COLLECTION DAY DELIGHTS GIRLS

Collections were the features of the day at the Intermediate Girl Reserve meeting on Friday, March 20. Miss Schroeder, a new Intermediate Girl Reserve secretary from Detroit Y. W. C. A., was the club's guest for the hour which began with a short business meeting. It was announced that the day on which question girls are to receive their arm bands has been changed to March 27.

The business settled, Miriam Brown showed part of her uncle's stone collection, a valuable one, indeed, for her uncle has made it a life hobby and even a vocation for a while. Agates, carnelians, Indian stone weapons, and many other unknown stones captured the girls' wonder and imagination. Then Beulah Starkweather told of the Ironbush collection which was on exhibit in the Detroit Institute last May.

 April 3—End of the second marking period.
 April 13—School resumes.

MUSIC NOTES

At the Cady School in Wayne, Jean Strong and Maurine Dunn sang "Alibi's Holiday" and "Sweetheart of My Student Days," last Thursday evening, March 19.

Allison Moe played on his violin, "Adoration" and "Somewhere in the Moonlight" at the Woman's Club in the Hotel Mayflower, Friday afternoon, and Joe Rihar played "Palka Militaire" and "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" on his trumpet.

ANOTHER SEWING BEE IS HELD

Another sewing bee was held by the Senior Girl Reserves who were not occupied last Friday, March 20, in preparing Plymouth's decorations for the annual Girl Reserve Banquet held in Detroit on March 21. Of course, embroidery took the prominent place in the girls' sewing.

During the meeting, Viola Luttermoss, chairman of money making group number two, announced the luncheon party that group is giving on Thursday, between 3:30 and 5:30. Lunch and an entertainment are included in the twenty-five cents admission fee. This group deserves a great deal of credit for being the first one of the four to carry out definite plans.

During the hour, Miss Allen spoke of an advisors' meeting, where they had discussed the tangible objectives of the Girl Reserves. The seventh, eighth and ninth grade girls have arm-bands, the twelfth have rings, while the tenth and eleventh have nothing. They have planned that these girls could earn bracelets and plaques.

While the girls sewed, Miss Allen then read an entertaining and amusing story, "The Little Mixer," by Shearson.

PLYMOUTH GIRL WINS FIRST IN POSTER CONTEST

Lorene Bailey, a tenth grade student of the high school art classes, has won first place in Class B, 14 to 18 years, in the contest for the best poster advertising the All Students Art Exhibit of Detroit, which is held under auspices of Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs. Ten pupils from Plymouth sent in posters but only Lorene placed.

It will be remembered that a Plymouth representative, Maurine Dunn, also won last year. As Lorene is only a sophomore, very probably our school will again carry away that honor.

SENIORS HOLD BANNER AGAIN

Mr. Bentley's group of seniors held the thrift banner again this past week when his group had a 91% average in banking.

How The FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM Benefits Business Industry

The Farmers and The Public as a Whole

The FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM of the United States is the result of the greatest and most beneficial piece of financial legislation ever enacted by any nation. For over 18 years—or since 1913—the Federal Reserve Act has been a law. Today wherever banking is known, the term "FEDERAL RESERVE BANK" stands as a synonym for strength, stability, efficiency and helpfulness.

Linked into this great Federal Reserve System are banks all over the country, whose resources amount to about two-thirds of the total resources of all banks, thus there is gathered into one organization a tremendous strength of capital and reserve—which has a great bearing upon the financial strength and progress of every community.

Through the Federal Reserve System, Member Banks are enabled to meet the varying requirements of commercial and agricultural enterprises without delay.

Members of the Federal Reserve System share in the rediscounting privilege, by which the resources of this Nation-wide system embracing the strongest banks in the country, can be drawn upon whenever increasing business or emergencies demand more money than is available locally. This does not mean that reckless lending will be countenanced—but it does mean that CREDIT can be obtained for business or emergencies when it is based on firmly grounded lines.

On July 1, 1926, We became a member of the Federal Reserve System of the UNITED STATES, which permits us to present to our customers and friends the benefits and strength of the strongest banking system in the world.

We invite you to carry an account with us and benefit by our service and security.

Coming Attractions At Penniman-Allen

THE ROYAL FAMILY OF BROADWAY

What is most certainly the cleverest display of brilliant acting that film audiences have been privileged to see in many months, will be seen at the Penniman-Allen Theatre, where "The Royal Family of Broadway" will be shown on Sunday and Monday, March 29 and 30.

"The Royal Family of Broadway" is based on the famous play, "The Royal Family" by George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferber. It depicts the home life of a leading family of American stage performers.

But it is not the impressive quality of the original playwrighting alone which makes this play a wonderful movie. Most of the splendid attributes of this production are found in the stirring craftsmanship of Fredric March, Ina Claire, Henrietta Crossman and Mary Brian—as presentable a quartet of sterling actors as one could wish for.

March is seen as Tony Cavendish, the handsome son of the family who has deserted the stage temporarily for the Klieg lights of Hollywood where he has become the great and lordly lover of the screen. Miss Claire is his sister, the leading romantic and dramatic actress of the New York and outland stages. Miss Brian is her daughter, raised in the tradition of this family's theatrical history, but not yet launched into a career. Miss Crossman is the mother of Miss Claire and March—the grande dame of the Cavendish clan, whose loyalty of her family's name for stage exploits is more dear to her than anything else in the world. The manner in which this group of players portrays the lives of these believable personages is a tonic for the heart. "The Royal Family of Broadway" is rich in comedy, romance, pathos and drama. It is invested with sparkling glamor, it moves with the dazzling speed of a meteor.

"UNFAITHFUL"

Before marriage she joined in the adulation the world gave to the man she loves—after marriage she knows the hero-husband she married is unworthy of her love.

Such is the tense situation which turns Ruth Chatterton from a lovely and loving bride into a reckless, thrill-seeking globe-trotter in her latest dramatic sensation, "Unfaithful," coming to the Penniman-Allen Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, April 1 and 2.

Supported by suave Paul Lukas, the star who made "Sarah and Son," "Anybody's Woman," "The Right to Love," three of the greatest pictures of the year, in "Unfaithful" clinches her right to the title of the screen's first lady. She is beautiful, appealing, commanding superb. Chatterton has retained her most surprising talents for this master picture.

The story of "Unfaithful" is one of love and conflict and pride: of a husband who reveals himself faithless on his honeymoon; of a good woman whose wounded pride whips her to reckless actions which made her the most slandered woman in Europe. She matches her husband's spurious good reputation with a bad reputation of her own, equally spurious. And to save her from her mad abandon, Paul Lukas, who performed so superbly with Chatterton in other roles, comes to love her.

Directed by John Cromwell, the cast of "Unfaithful" proves itself equal to all the exacting situations which the play imposes. Fred Cavannagh, as the husband, is a believable and sincere actor handling a difficult role skillfully. Juliette Compton is the "other woman," a beautiful and accomplished actress.

"THE FLOOD"

"The Flood," Columbia's latest screen offering which will appear at the Penniman-Allen Theatre, Friday and Saturday, April 3 and 4, is a spectacular drama of broad, tremendous sweep. It has a clever blending of great human interest appeal and vivid action. In it one sees the mighty waters of the Mississippi unleashed in angry turbulence. Its head is Riverside, a sleepy old town by a slungish river. Hypocrisy, envy, jealousy, and greed, poisonous human emotions, smolder and flame; and the great river, like the humans on its banks, becomes turbulent. Its swollen waters rise and crash through man-made barricades. The flood quenches the flame of scandal, and in a highly dramatic, surprising denouement, a small town girl finds love and happiness.

Lovely Eleanor Boardman plays the part of Joan Marshall, the heroine, with a finished artistry that proves her acting ability. Monte Blue, already famed for his able characterizations, surpasses himself in this picture. David Newell is a convincing villain. James Tilling's direction will increase his established reputation.

TALKING OLD TIMES OVER

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

THERE'S lots of ways these latter days
To talk of things together,
With canteens, and picture plays,
And books, and stacks and weather.
Now, I have been like lots of men,
Considered quite a rover,
But now and then friends meet again
And talk the old times over.

I met Jim Brown, of great renown,
Who used to be my teacher,
And also down in Middletown
I ran across our preacher,
Who couples spiced and sermons
spiced.

With laughter for his leaves,
To whom the Christ of old sufficed,
The same old hope of heaven.

Yes, here and there and everywhere
You're always meeting some one
Who used to share your hours of care
When care would overcome one.
New friends are fine, to dance, to dine,
And now we're all in clover,
But richer wine old friends of mine
To talk the old times over.
To talk the old times over.

GARDEN HINTS HOW TO CULTIVATE AND WATER

Two Important Factors in Garden Success

Surface cultivation can be done effectively with a garden hoe or rake. The object is twofold, first the preparation of a fine surface mulch which prevents loss of water and aids in the circulation of air; second the uprooting and killing of grass and weeds that are ever competing with the cultivated plants for water, food and light.

Sprinkling should be done thoroughly when done and always in the evening. Wet the soil four or five inches deep and then allow it to dry out fairly well before watering again. Many good gardeners prefer to irrigate the garden plot by removing the nozzle from the hose and permitting the water to run between the rows for an hour or two.

Just sprinkling the top layer of soil does no good—in fact it does great harm by stimulating the development of feeding roots in the top layers of soil where there is great danger of their being burned during hot and dry periods. It thus prevents the growth of a deep root system that enables the plant to withstand prolonged dry weather. (Courtesy "True Temper" Garden Book.)

A Speedy Cultivator

This is one of the easiest and fastest working weedeaters and cultivators made. The curve of its sharp teeth is such that they penetrate the soil with every drawing stroke without chopping. It is especially useful around and between shrubs and hedge plants.

Speedy Cultivator

Invincible Cultivator This is a hand cultivator which covers ground rapidly.

Garden Cultivator

This practical hand cultivator combines three tools in one. A few turns of the hand wheel at the side release the tool in use and allow another to be securely locked into working position.

Fighting Monkey Gentle To Ward

San Francisco.—"Colonel," a belligerent Amazon monkey, has become a foster mother and nurse maid to a tiny orphan monkey.

The baby pic-nic'd macaque had been tenderly nursed at the Fleishacker zoo here by attendants using a hot water bottle, when it became an orphan.

The colonel, who appears to have a powdery disposition, went berserk in his cage with the other monkeys and in the melee had his tail chewed up. George Bistany, custodian of the zoo, took the Colonel to a veterinarian, who cut off all but five inches of the monkey's 10-inch tail.

So great was the Colonel's rage at losing his tail, that he chewed up three hot water bottles and had to be placed in a cage by himself.

Thon Bistany introduced him to the baby macaque. The curried Colonel forthwith clasped the motherless babe in its arms, and they've been inseparable ever since.

Travels 84 Miles To School Daily

Los Angeles.—If travel also is educational, as they say, some children out here on the edge of the great open spaces are being educated plenty.

One girl who lives far back in Mint Canyon transfers from bus to bus for a total of 84 miles a day to attend Lancaster, Cal., high school. Mrs. A. B. Perkins told the county school board here last night. She was one of several petitioners for a high school at Newhall, Cal.
