PLYMOUTH HEAR TOP IN SALE OF RED CROSS SEAL

Annual Report Shows Good Work Done Here By Committee.

The Annual Bulletin of the Detroit Tuberculosis Association has just come from the press. An interesting comparison is made of the results of the Christmas Seal Sale in the 23 towns in Wayne County for 1929-1930. Plymouth, as has been true each year since the Christmas Seal Sales were started by Mrs. C. H. Bennett several years ago, stands near the top of the honor roll in 1930 in the amount raised.

Mrs. Charles O. Ball, Plymouth chairman for the past four years, states that the Wayne County Committee was greatly pleased with the results shown here and that this committee, with the Plymouth committees, wish to thank everyone who in any way contributed to the success of the 1930 campaign. Others on the Plymouth committee included Mrs. Herz D. Moore, Mrs. Paul Butz, Mrs. Arlo Emery, Miss Athalie Hough, Mrs. C. E. Wallbridge and Mrs. C. T. Sullivan.

Twenty-eight schools in the Plymouth district were visited to collect the money. The Plymouth district covers a wide area extending east to Frazer's Lake, east to Grandville Gardens, north to Salem and Livonia, and south to Michigan avenue. These schools did exceptionally well in 1930, selling more seals than in previous years.

During a snappy drive lasting less than 48 hours, the children in the Plymouth schools, under the supervision of Miss Smith and his corps of teachers, sold seals amounting to $195.33.

The following figures show the results in Wayne County for the past two years:

	1929	1930
Belleville	8 68.56	8 51.00
Brighton	318.89	236.24
Dearborn	1,049.18	1,102.78
Eastland	105.00	117.00
Eastrop	60.54	52.40
Gibraltar	20.00	15.54
Grosse Ile	115.56	147.48
Grosse Pointe	271.76	332.96
Hammtramck	328.55	403.77
Highland Park	689.73	548.25
Inkster	75.36	75.36
Lincoln Park	111.30	122.22
New Boston	4.31	23.03
Norville	94.25	127.00
Plymouth	454.36	420.10
Riverton	553.38	590.45
River Rouge	162.22	301.19
Riverview	20.00	26.05
Romulus	53.61	65.20
Trenton	90.00	121.61
Waltz & Willow	4.61	2.75
Wayne	182.80	216.87
Wyandotte	678.96	827.45

The money raised through the sale of seals goes directly to the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium, at 12th St. and Tuxedo avenue, where Dr. Howe and an efficient staff of nurses, not only cure or arrest many advanced cases of tuberculosis, but carry on an extensive educational plan of prevention—the result of which is extremely effective and far reaching.

Last week we introduced our new kind of ice cream to our customers, and we feel proud to say that it was more than successful. The folks who tried it came back and told us it was delicious and the best they ever tasted, also pure and inexpensive at 35c a quart. That makes us feel good, and as long as our patrons give us the opportunity to prove to them the difference between our high superior quality ice cream at the lowest price of 35c a quart. This week we will give our customers another chance to try the Black Walnut cream which is made of pure cream and fresh black walnut meats. That is why we say our product is the IT of the ice cream. We do not use substitutes or artificial flavor. Try this in a brick at 35c a quart, in Black Walnut and Vanilla mixed. Compare this with other kinds and if you are not satisfied we will return your money back to you. Palace of Sweets.

MEMBERS OF THE D.A.R. SEND CLOTHING TO MOUNTAIN CHILDREN

REGULAR MEETING OF PATRIOTIC GROUP PROVES A MOST INTERESTING ONE.

The regular meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at the home of Mrs. Sidney D. Strong, Monday afternoon, April 27th.

The vice-regent, Mrs. Donald S. McKim, presided over the business meeting, during which one new name was presented by the executive board and some action on the Ketchum bill on Conservation was taken; it was also reported by the committee on patriotic education that three boxes of garments for the southern mountain schools are ready to be sent; also some yarn for Ellis Island.

The chapter also voted to place one U. S. flag in the Central and Stark-Wellington schools.

Following the business meeting a report of the 40th Continental Congress held in Washington from April 20th to 25th, was given by the regent, Mrs. Dwight T. Randall, who had just returned from there.

Mrs. Randall gave a very interesting description of the dedication of the Michigan hall in the cathedral of the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge. She stated that there were forty-five bells in the cathedral, and during the dedication, Michigan, My Michigan was played with the bells.

Following this impressive ceremony, the party, which included seventy-two Michigan women, returned to Washington and were entertained by the Michigan State Regent, Mrs. Chas. F. Bathrick at a buffet luncheon in the Chalmers Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge. She stated that there were forty-five bells in the cathedral, and during the dedication, Michigan, My Michigan was played with the bells.

Prisoner Gets Life Sentence

Deputy Sheriff George Springer was called last Thursday as a witness in the case of Sherman Robinson, ex-convict and habitual criminal, to tell of his arrest of the fellow in Plymouth, back in August, 1928. Following the testimony of Deputy Springer and eight other officers called from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and New York, Robinson was given a life sentence in Marquette.

This conviction recalls his arrest here on a charge of box car robbery. Deputy Springer, late one evening, received a call that two suspicious-looking men had parked a truck in York St. Going to the house, he got his sawed-off shot gun and waited from 10:00 o'clock in the evening until 3 o'clock the next morning when the two men returned. He arrested both of them, and when looked at the jail in Detroit, it was found that both were ex-convicts. Investigation during the day showed that they had robbed box cars here of nearly $1,000 worth of goods. They were convicted and sentenced to Jackson for a seven and a half year term.

Robinson was recently arrested again for another offense, and officers advised that he could be taken under the habitual criminal act. It was for that reason that Deputy Springer was called.

Kiwanians Told of Modern Homes

Modern homes are the most economical to maintain, was a statement made by E. E. Leggett of the Celotex Co. in an address delivered before the Kiwanis Club of Plymouth at their noon luncheon at the Hotel Mayflower last Tuesday. Assisted by the display of a moving picture he explained the manufacture of Celotex from the sugar cane pulp to the completed board. The last reel showed the application of Celotex as an insulating sheathing and lathing material in the construction of a modern home, and gave a very graphic illustration of the loss of heat through walls and ceilings of the old type un-insulated house.

At the beginning of his talk he stated that if each individual home-owner would check up, he would find a number of repair jobs around his home that should be taken care of at this time if at all possible. This should be done as one contribution to the relief of the unemployment situation. An interesting fact brought out by his talk was that when Celotex is used as a lathing material, the so-called lath marks on a wall or ceiling never appear.

Russell A. Roe was the chairman, and is to be congratulated on obtaining an interesting speaker.

On Monday night, May 4th, the club celebrates "All Kiwanis" night, and the Chelsea Club are to be guests and put on the program! Dinner at 6:45 p. m. at the Mayflower replaces the regular Tuesday luncheon.

May 12th the Plymouth Club goes to Chatham, Ontario, to be guests of the Chatham Club in celebration of exchange week between the U. S. and Canada. Last year the local club entertained the Windsor Club here. A large delegation are planning on attending this year.

Mrs. Barbara Kessler of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting relatives in town for a couple of weeks.

EX-SERVICE CLUB TO PRESENT MRS. F. M. ALGER IN ADDRESS

EVERYONE IS INVITED TO HEAR THIS INTERESTING SPEAKER

The third in the series of talks scheduled as part of the Americanism and Patriotism activities of the Ex-Service Club will be provided the citizens of Plymouth on Monday evening, May 11th, 1931 at Jewell-Blanch Hall.

Capt. Denniston, the first speaker in the series spoke under the club auspices and as part of the club's contribution to the National Patriotism Week of his personal observation of those soldiers who were placed under his care during his years as prison administrator.

Mrs. K. H. Campbell, club woman and sociologist spoke on the care of women law offenders and their housing in Michigan compared to other states. The third talk in the series will be on the highly controversial topic of prohibition, seriously regarded by many as the most important problem before the American public today.

The Ex-Service Men's Club, composed of Veterans of all United States Wars, men who eagerly went forth as crusaders in the cause of liberty and democracy feel that before them all sincere thinkers and speakers may express their views that have a bearing on the proper use or abuse of our cherished ideals of liberty and democracy.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Henry P. Lott, Suburban Chairman, representing Wayne, Plymouth, Belleisle, New Boston, Flat Rock and Rockwood; Mrs. Fredrick M. Alger, Chairman of the Michigan Branch of the Woman's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, and Mrs. Stuart A. Frazer, Chairman of Committees of the Organization, will speak particularly on the recent trip of their group to Washington where they were introduced to President Hoover.

Village officials, members of the Board of Commerce, the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, the fraternal organizations and the various women's clubs and groups of Plymouth and surrounding towns are cordially invited by the Ex-Service Men's Club to attend Mrs. Alger's talk at 8:00 p. m. Monday, May 11th, at Jewell-Blanch Hall.

Sees 23 Witnesses; Robber Decides To Enter Guilty Plea

Ned McSherry, arrested in connection with the robbery of the north side branch of the Plymouth United Savings bank a number of months ago, decided to plead guilty after his trial for the offense had started last week before Judge James Chonot in Detroit.

Deputy Sheriff Springer, who was in charge of the case for the prosecutor's office, had presented eleven witnesses against the prisoner when McSherry's attorney asked Judge Chonot for a recess.

It was then that the offender made known his intention of pleading guilty. Twelve other witnesses who had been summoned were dismissed and McSherry was remanded to jail for sentence later.

He was associated with Harry Tambasso in the local robbery. This offender was arrested and sentenced to prison about two months ago. Mr. Sherry claimed that he only got a share of $3,000 stolen from the bank. There was $300 stolen, Tambasso according to officers, having stolen part of the proceeds from his associate in the robbery.

ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER MAKES PLEA FOR MORE CARE IN AUTO DRIVING

BOTH DRIVERS AND PEDESTRIANS URGED TO USE GREATER PRECAUTION ON STREETS.

H. O. Rounds, director of the Safety and Traffic Section of the Automobile Club of Michigan, addressed the members of the Rotary Club at their regular Friday meeting last week.

The intent of Mr. Rounds' address was to show how, through various means, traffic accidents can be prevented. He pointed out how the passage of the Workmen's Compensation Act in Michigan immediately set manufacturers to work, through safety engineers, to prevent industrial accidents, and how immediately successful this work was.

But with a much larger death rate from traffic accidents it is only recently that a similar educational plan has been evolved to teach both drivers and pedestrians just how most accidents can be prevented. Mr. Rounds made the statement that all accidents are the result of emergencies and with a proper understanding of the causes of accidents most if not all, can be avoided. Starting with the safety patrols in primary schools, this accident prevention education is being carried through the entire grammar school course, and an attempt is now being made to carry it even farther, into the children's home, so that the parents can be as well posted on accident causes as their children.

Mrs. Harry Lee Is Seriously Burned

When a cleaning fluid that stood in a pan in the kitchen exploded Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Harry Lee of West Ann Arbor road was badly burned about the face and hands and the residence set on fire. There was no fire of any kind in or about the kitchen and it is believed that the explosion resulted from an electric spark from Mrs. Lee's body when she touched the pan to move it.

Her injuries are not of a dangerous nature, although exceedingly painful. Damage to the house is estimated at something like $4,000, and if it had not been for the timely arrival of the Plymouth fire department the entire structure would have burned. The fire spread by the exploding fluid, made rapid progress and was burning under the roof of the kitchen when the Plymouth firemen arrived.

Prison Officials Visit Institution

Members of the Detroit House of Correction board of trustees spent all day Tuesday with Capt. Edward Denniston at the institution going over with him details and plans for the installation of the new equipment to be installed in the buildings recently completed.

Work has been progressing most satisfactorily at the new prison, and before the end of a few weeks the entire institution will be moved from Detroit to this place.

Mrs. Fred Gertz spent Monday with her son and family in Detroit.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATE ON ANNIVERSARY

Local Members, Rebekahs Observe the Founding of Fraternity.

The Odd Fellows and Sister Rebekahs celebrated the one hundred and twelfth anniversary of Odd Fellowship Tuesday evening. There were over a hundred present including visitors from Detroit, Ypsilanti, Belleville, Grandville and Caro. An interesting program was presented by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs which lasted about an hour and a half. Afterwards, led by Postmaster Robert Todd, they marched to the dining room where the Rebekahs had prepared a delicious lunch and had decorated the tables with pink perennials and white tapers. The flowers were graciously loaned by the Rosedale Flower Shop.

Postmaster Todd then gave a brief outline of Odd Fellowship history which follows in part:

Thomas Whitey, a modest mechanic, a manufacturer of coach springs, was born in London, England, Jan. 15, 1782. In September 1817, he joined the (then) western emigration and landed in Baltimore. In his native land he had become a member of the Manchester Unity of Odd Fellowship. After advertising twice in a Baltimore newspaper he succeeded in finding four others interested in Odd Fellowship. They opened a lodge in Baltimore on April 26, 1819. The first bark of Odd Fellowship was launched by the faithful five brothers at the Seven Stars Tavern, on Second St.

Tomquish Lodge No. 32 was instituted Dec. 21, 1847 by Grand Master Alfred Treadway. There were just five charter members, William Beers, George Starkweather, Alfred Barker, M. A. Moser and J. Scottsgood.

The history of Tomquish Lodge previous to 1863 is indefinite for all records were destroyed in the fire of April 17, 1863. At that time there were about fifty members. Since 1863 that there have been 293 admitted by initiation or card.

Previous to 1890 Tomquish Lodge met on Monday evenings on the third floor of a building which stood on the site now occupied by the Woodworth Bazaar. Since then they met on Tuesday evenings at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wallbridge, York Ave., Rosedale Gardens, for the semi-annual piano recital given by the Junior pupils of Mrs. Wallbridge.

The recital was marked by the ease and poise of each child, both in playing and in announcing to the audience the names and composers of the numbers to be played. Mrs. Wallbridge, a gifted musician, is able to bring out the musical talents of those who study with her, as evidenced by the artistic playing throughout the recital.

The convention continued over two days, Monday and Tuesday, and while not as largely attended as some previous district meetings it was featured probably by some of the best talks heard at any of the conventions in a number of years.

Piano Recital Pleasing Event

A happy and enthusiastic group of young people, with their mothers and a few friends, gathered at the home of Mrs. C. E. Wallbridge, York Ave., Rosedale Gardens, for the semi-annual piano recital given by the Junior pupils of Mrs. Wallbridge.

The following officers were unanimously elected for the coming year:

Traffic Laws To Be Enforced Here

The police department under the direction of Chief Vaughn R. Smith, is to conduct a campaign against speeders and reckless drivers. Several complaints have been received recently relative to drivers failing to stop at through streets and "stop" intersections, also complaint of excessive speed and reckless driving.

The police officers have been instructed to pay particular attention to these violations, and local citizens are requested to cooperate with the department in order that the streets may be made as safe as possible for pedestrians and motorists.

Several drivers have been warned recently about the practice of driving with improper lights and for improper parking which causes congestion in traffic. These matters also will be included in the campaign of the police department.

Plymouth Girl Becomes Bride

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church at Plymouth, Mich., April 23rd, at 10:00 a. m. when Miss Mary Elizabeth McCallan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil B. McCallan of Sunset Ave., became the bride at a Reception High Mass, to Lawrence J. Walsh, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh and the late Michael Walsh of Deer Austin, Mich.

The marriage was performed by the Rev. Fr. John McMillan of St. Theresa parish, Detroit, cousin of the bride. He was assisted by Rev. Father Conrad Link, head of the Deutscher Societae College, and the Rev. Father Fabian Kelly, who is rector of the church, who has ten children.

The altar was beautifully banked with ferns and white carnations.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle with a long train. The tulle fell from a cap trimmed in Rhinestones and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white American Beauty roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride's mother wore a dress of crepe de chine trimmed with gold embroidery, and the groom's mother wore black satin trimmed in black lace.

After the church service, a breakfast was served in the crystal room of the Hotel Mayflower, at which over ninety guests were present. After the breakfast, the happy couple and guests returned to the home of the bride's parents on Sunset avenue, where a reception was held until evening, when the bride and groom left for an extended trip to Chicago, Wisconsin and northern Michigan. On their return they will be at home to their many friends on Webb Ave., Detroit.

THE TRAGEDY OF PLENTY

The Branch County News is a paper that is published at Coldwater, in the heart of one of Michigan's richest farming centers. The News happens to be a paper that is circulated largely among farmers and its editor therefore keeps in pretty close touch with conditions on the farm.

The heading over this editorial is the heading the News used last week in an editorial telling of the inability of farmers in Branch county to HIRE HELP. Yes, that is right, farmers are having difficulty in these times of so-called unemployment, to hire help.

The News' editorial tells the story of these "hard times" and "unemployment" follows:
"A farmer living near Quincy recently remarked that he was unable to secure a good man to work for him. He said that a number had applied for work but he was unable to find one who was a sticker and a good worker. A dairyman living near Coldwater had a similar experience and is still seeking some one who will work hard and not leave him after having earned enough money to fill his gas tank.

"We can name numerous other similar occurrences that have happened in Branch County in late months. If such cases were few we might discount some of them for other reasons but the cases are too numerous. Another tragedy of the present situation is that many men accustomed to easy jobs have passed up chances for work and have allowed their energetic wives to earn the living for the family. The pool halls and other loafing places are full of such men each day.

"The city administration was criticized for the wage scale of thirty cents per hour paid on the Jefferson street sewer project. William June, street commissioner, who was in charge of the work had to take all the men sent to him by the Unemployment Bureau. The result was that while there were many in the group who were good workers there were many others who were the non-sticking kind and who would not work hard. The city could have paid forty cents an hour and at a lower total cost if Mr. June had been allowed to pick his own men.

"Times during and after the war until last year were abnormal. Almost everyone could find a job whether he was a hard and consistent worker or not. Such is not the case today. One cannot get pay for doing nothing and cannot float from one job to another as before.

"Today we find some industries and fields of endeavor that are calling for trained workers while other fields have diminished their number of employees and the chances are that they will never require as many again. New inventions constantly call for new workers while the older industries pass out of the picture.

"To offset the natural decrease in production of the automobile as the market became supplied the radio came to the front and absorbed a great deal of workers and can still take more who have trained themselves for the work. Television, the field of statistics and other occupations will require more workers in the future.

"A period of unemployment is an excellent time for men to prepare themselves for newer and more promising occupations. But how many are doing it?"

IS IT A FAILURE?

"The whipping post law is through one end of the legislature and is likely to pass. The bill, if signed by Governor Brucker, will tend to pacify most of the capital punishment advocates. We were in favor of the idea but have become convinced that it will not be used. Imagine the average judge ordering so many lashes to a home town boy whose family he has always known as law abiding and decent citizens. With this effective handicap the likelihood of the law being enforced against strangers is not very probable. In other words the measure has the same weak feature of the proposed capital punishment, viz.: the rich and influential criminals will escape its provisions."

The above editorial paragraph appeared in last week's issue of Murl DeFoe's Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

We wish to emphasize the chief point he makes in his statement pertaining to the whipping post bill —

"The measure has the same weak features of the proposed capital punishment, viz. the rich and influential criminals will escape its provisions."

In other words Editor DeFoe's statement hints that no longer is the judiciary branch of our government conducted equally for all classes of our citizens. In fact, what he says is not a hint. It is a direct statement that the rich and influential escape the provisions of our laws for the punishment of crime.

And if this statement is true, then it is true that the judiciary department of our government is a failure.

It is to be regretted that so many things have happened in recent years to cause people to lose respect for the courts, and in those selected for the administration of our laws.

But in the face of all these happenings, the discovery that some judges are "side-kicks" so to speak of the underworld, the easy way in which rich criminals evade the laws, we are not yet quite willing to admit that there is and can be no honest and equal enforcement of our laws.

Just at present everyone is discussing the acquittal of the men tried for the murder of Jerry Buckley. From our observation but one of two newspapers in Michigan has commented in one way or another about the verdict. Whether it is through "respect" for the courts, or for some other reason, they have refrained from discussing the case in any way. But you can't find a person on the street who has not discussed the case and the verdict. "Well, what else could you expect?"

In other words the average person believed that there would be no conviction in the case.

Why? Possibly Editor DeFoe's comment is a partial answer to the question.

However, there is not the slightest doubt that the time has arrived for the country to do something towards re-establishing public confidence in the courts and in the men selected not only to enforce but to administer our laws.

THANKS

Some two or three weeks ago the Plymouth Mail published an article by its editor pertaining to California. Mr. Plym C. Davis, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Alhambra, one of the beautiful, bustling little cities near Los Angeles, in some way secured a copy of the paper containing the article. The Mail editor has received the following letter from Secretary Davis:

"I note on Page 7 that you have a very splendid article regarding our wonderful state—California. May I offer to you the congratulations of the officers and members of the Alhambra Chamber of Commerce for the truthful manner in which you have stated the general facts regarding Southern California.

"The only criticism that could be offered, if it may be termed a criticism, is that in the last paragraph of your splendid article you give the credit of the great "Driving forces" that have made California, to the banker and other business leaders. This, of course, is true except that our bankers and leaders have co-ordinated their efforts through one of the oldest civic organizations, namely the Chamber of Commerce. My own experience as a business man for many years in the city of Cleveland before migrating to this beautiful country, assures me that only united action through some civic body can produce results that have been shown in California.

"One of my particular reasons for addressing this letter to you is to compliment you upon the type of citizens which your city produces. It so happens that two of my personal friends in this city, Dr. Ralph A. Hix, one of our prominent osteopathic physicians, and Clarence Kellogg, one of the foremost pianists, came from Plymouth, and I have the honor to be associated with them in one of our service clubs.

"The city of Alhambra now boasts of being the healthiest city of its class (20,000 to 50,000 population) in the United States. We must also congratulate your state in having the cleanest city among the largest cities of the United States, both these cities having won first place in their respective class in the "interchamber health contest" just decided by the grading committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

"It is so seldom that we have the pleasure of reading truthful statements regarding the state of California in our eastern papers that we feel that great credit and appreciation is due to you for this splendid article, and we want the patrons of your paper to know that they, at least, have a truthful editor in their state."

BRIGHTER DAYS

With reports being issued every day of additional men being returned to work and with one of the most beneficial rains that has fallen in nearly two years and at a time when its need was the greatest, surely we have plenty of reason to feel that the future looks brighter than at any time during the past two years. In fact the optimistic spirit that prevails at the present time is the most hopeful indication that we have had in many a moon.

WE'LL KNOW SOON

The 1931 trout fishing season opened today, May first. By the end of another week we will know who's who in the fishing world of Plymouth—and maybe, too, we'll know all about who's who in the biggest fish story telling contest.

YOUR WAR GARDEN

Do you remember that little garden you planted during the World War? Some one told you it was a duty to your country, and although you know little about gardening you proceeded to dig and plant. Later on you got a real thrill when you reaped your reward.

This year a little war garden in the backyard or out there in the orchard would be mighty convenient. If you are not working full time you could utilize some of your spare time in planting and taking care of this garden. Later on, a dish of fresh peas, some freshly plucked corn, or a heaping dish of lima beans would come in mighty handy on a table that has not been any too heavily laden of late.

Get a few seeds and revive that wartime garden of yours. The boys over there were fed as a result of wartime gardens once. Now these same boys can plant the same kind of garden and feed themselves again. —William Klamer in The Dearborn Press.

COUNTY FAIR GOES UP

Eaton county voters turned down the proposition for the county to take over the Eaton county fair association grounds and buildings just south of the city. The measure was lost by 2 to 1 vote. The rural sections of the county being most emphatic in declaring the idea impractical. It is probable the fair will continue this year, but its future looks none too bright. —Fred D. Keister in the Louis County News.

CRIME DECLARES A DIVIDEND

The Buckley case is the best modern evidence we have that police work in metropolitan areas against gangsters is a fizzle. We seriously doubt whether continuously efficient police work can be conducted under civilian authority.

The Buckley case also proves that technicalities are more important than any effort to attain justice.

The Buckley case also indicates that our judiciary can be quite helpful to the criminal class by pointing out loopholes whereby criminals may escape punishment.

The Buckley case also proves the incompetency of our prosecuting attorney's office.

The Buckley case also proves that the citizen-taxpayers are taken and treated as a group of saps—they pay out $15,000 for a political sideshow which was destined to be a legal flop.

The Buckley case also indicates that the time has come to consider whether there should not be an overhauling of police-legal-judicial procedure, in an effort to attain a degree of safety for the public and a modicum of justice and punishment for wrong-doers.

The handling of the case has been a disgrace to modern government from top to bottom.—F. W. McGriff in the Redford Record.

THE SALES TAX

The sales tax failed to pass the house by one vote. That does not mean that it is killed. It has raised a regular ballaboo among the house members. Those who worked for the bill threaten to go into the districts of those who voted against the bill and defeat them for re-election. The bunkum is handed out that the bill was for the purpose of hitting the chain store. The people of Michigan are not quite so dumb that they cannot figure out that a sales tax hits every one who lives in Michigan! Those who voted against the bill will be the hardest to beat in the next election, if we are not mistaken! —Frank Bryce in Grand Ledge Independent.

We are sorry to see them go, as we shall miss all.

Often, when you are upstairs, the telephone rings. Perhaps it is the grocer, or your husband, or Aunt Sue. Each time, you must hurry down the steps to answer, and then plod back up again to finish your work. An extension telephone installed upstairs would save that wasted energy. And at night, it would be a safeguard in emergencies, such as sickness or fire. Such telephone convenience and safety costs surprisingly little... less than 3 cents a day. Spearing Season Now Frowned On

The game fish population of Michigan's streams is being seriously menaced by persons permitted to use spears on certain streams of the state at this time of the year, according to the state conservation department.

Unless more observance of the law is noticeable before the end of May when the spearing season ends, the effects of this year's plants of game fish will be considerably lessened because of the fish illegally taken by spears. The situation is all the more acute because game fish are being taken prior to their spawning period.

The Law Enforcement Division of the Department of Conservation, reporting the situation, said that its field force is experiencing difficulty in adequately enforcing the spearing law.

Because of the excessive violations, it has been necessary to place every available man along the streams to prevent violations. The Division reported. Several district officers have asked for more assistance, saying that trout, bass and bluegills and other game fish are being speared by the hundreds and every day finds these game fish floating down stream, killed by spears. One officer reported finding from three to five speared rainbow trout floating down the Annis River every morning.

The temptation to take trout and other game fish, as well as non-game fish by men permitted to use spears on non-trout streams has grown enormously since the last spearing season. It was said. There are many more men spearing fish this year than last. The water levels of most streams are so low that the fish are easily taken aggregating the situation. Spearing has not been confined to non-trout streams during April and May as permitted under statute, but has been extended to trout streams and inland lakes, according to the divisional reports.

Several arrests have been made for spearing in trout streams, closed to all fishing until May 1.

While the average man arrested for spearing trout has but a few of these fish in his possession, a few cases have been uncovered in which large numbers of trout have been taken illegally.

Recently two Cadillac men were convicted of spearing rainbow trout. Three hundred pounds of trout were taken by them from the Little Manistee River near Peacock. Three men were convicted of taking 300 pounds of rainbow trout from the same river. The fish averaged nine to ten pounds each.

Several reports have been received by the Department from Detroit that rainbow trout, brought down by truck from the north, had been offered for sale there. The reports were received too late to apprehend the violators.

Spearing in non-trout rivers and streams, with or without the use of artificial light, is permitted by law until May 31 for the taking non-game fish, including bullheads, carp, catfish, cisco, dogfish, garfish, mullet, pilotfish, rockhopper, sheepshead, smelt, snickers and whitefish. During the month of May more men with spears will line up along non-trout streams as pike (great northern, grass or pickerel) may then be taken.

Hurt At Walled Lake; Gets $11,500

Two judgments totaling $11,500 were awarded to Henry L. Poppler, Detroit, by a jury in Circuit Court recently, after two and one-half days' deliberation for injuries suffered at the New Casino bathing beach by his son, Wayne, 29 years old, on September 8, 1929. Poppler is a senior at Central High School, Detroit. Poppler was awarded $1,500 as guardian of his son and $10,000 for loss of his son's services and cost of medical aid. Both judgments are directed against Louis H. Toilette, owner and operator of the Walled Lake bathing beach. It is charged that Toilette suffered an injury while sliding on a water toboggan, his toboggan turning sideways, causing a piece of metal to enter his knee and a second piece to cut a large gash in his thigh. He said he was permanently injured and suffered con-

Mastick Makes Record In Sales

How's business? If you were to ask Earl Mastick, Dodge dealer for this locality, he will immediately tell you it's the best it has ever been with him. During the month of March he delivered 16 new machines, his previous record being in 1929 when business was at its best. That year his best month was only 14 machines. But his March, 1931 business was better in many other ways than his record month of 1929. There is not a used car in his garage, every one having been sold. That's also a big different than it was in 1930. The growing spirit of optimism is genuine and the outlook for the future hopeful, in the opinion of a group of Dodge Bros. Sales executives who returned to Detroit recently from a series of trips into various sections of the country. In the party were general sales manager W. M. Purcell, passenger car sales manager W. M. Purcell, director of sales, because of the injury. He said he had planned to enter West Point and follow an army career, but the injury prevented this. He also lost one year of school, he said. The physician claimed the slide was in perfect condition and the injury was caused by negligence on the part of the boy.

"At key points, visited we found the general spirit was one of decided optimism," said Mr. vanDerZee, the spokesman for the party, "but of course in some instances, because of local conditions, this optimism was not so pronounced." "The New Dodge cars are the real basis for this optimistic attitude of our dealers, the group learned. Dealers everywhere expressed themselves as very well pleased with the possibilities existing in the 1931 line. Beauty and low price, coupled with the fact that the present cars include the features that the buying public demands, have made a distinct impression upon them. Furthermore, dealers admire the factory policy of not overstocking their salesrooms and storage facilities with new cars."

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Barrows and daughter, Phyllis, were dinner guests of G. B. Branch of Detroit, last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John Schindler (nee Haggie Truesdell) have just returned from the south where they spent their honeymoon. They have taken up their residence on Hicks road, Wayne, Mich.

At midnight a delicious luncheon was served, the tables being beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses, the gift of Capt. and Mrs. Denton, each table having its own cake bearing five candles. Mr. and Mrs. Wall were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, wooden and otherwise, and a world of good wishes for many returns of this happy event.

The crystal dining room of the Hotel Mayflower was the scene of another delightful affair Saturday noon, when Mrs. B. E. Champe, Mrs. Chas. Garlett and Miss Regina Polley entertained at a bridge-luncheon and linen shower in honor of Miss Gladys Schrader, the bride-elect. One table, centered with a miniature bride, held all the lovely gifts to the honoree. At another long table, which was attractive with an arrangement of pink and purple flowers, were seated the guests to the number of thirty-eight. Guests were present from Detroit, Northville and Plymouth.

The Junior bridge club held the first of a series of three parties, Thursday, May 23, when the hostess for the evening entertained at a progressive dinner and bridge. The guests assembled at the home of Mrs. Lisle Alexander on Mill street, where they donned gay, coolie coats and hair ornaments and amid bright lanterns and burning incense, enjoyed an oriental dinner. Following a long winding route, the party was then escorted to the home of Miss Regina Polley on Main street, where three tables of bridge were played. The honors were awarded to Mrs. Ralph West and Mrs. Kenneth Harrison. After this the guests were taken to the home of Mrs. Goodwin Crumie on Arthur St., where dessert was served. Other hostesses who assisted during the evening were Mrs. B. E. Champe and Mrs. Mildred Barnes.

If YOU were

WOULD you give a mortgage loan and not require sound security? Of course not.

Banks insist upon dependable security for the safety of their investments. That is why adequate insurance protection in a sound stock fire insurance company is so important.

This protection meets the needs of your banker and enables him to arrange a mortgage and extend credit on your property. It does more than that—it secures your own equity in the property against loss by fire.

Let us make a periodic survey of your insurance.

HERE IS THE WAY TO MAKE NEW GRASS GROW

The old saying "A stitch in time saves nine," is particularly true when applied to making a new lawn. For once a lawn is planted very little can be done to change it, without digging it up and starting all over.

Several important factors govern successful lawn making: first is the foundation. With the foundation made right everything else can be made right.

The ground should be thoroughly plowed or spaded to insure good drainage and to permit deep rooting. A lawn can be no better than its root system, and a deep extensive root system cannot be produced on a soil so heavily packed that the roots cannot penetrate it.

After the ground has been thoroughly broken up, it should be harrowed or raked to break up the clods and then leveled off, sloping it gently away from the house to permit surface drainage. A heavy roller should then be used to firm the soil. If a roller is not available a wide board may be used to tamp the soil.

A common mistake is trying to make a new lawn on the excavated subsoil usually dug from the basement and thrown on the surface, covering the few inches of valuable top soil that existed on the surface. Such a soil will not make a satisfactory seed bed and if this was done in your case, it is advisable to have enough top soil hauled in to cover the surface to a depth of about three inches. If top soil cannot be conveniently secured, a fairly satisfactory seed bed can be prepared by mixing sand with the excavated soil if it is the heavy clay type. This can be done by covering the surface with about an inch of sand and working it into the surface soil. A thin soil, that is, one composed mostly of sand and gravel, can be made cohesive and retentive of moisture by mixing clay with it in the same manner.

PIKE SEASON WILL BE OPENED TODAY

One hundred and sixty Michigan lakes will be open to fishing May 1. These lakes have been designated as "pike lakes" by the Conservation Commission and fishing is permitted for all species of fish except bass, bluegills and sunfish.

Fishing in "pike lakes" opens simultaneously with the opening of the trout season. On that date, May 1, trout may be taken in all rivers and streams that have been designated as open to trout fishing May 1 to September 1, inclusive. This includes all of the principal trout streams of the state as the feeder type of stream only is closed. Trout may also be taken in the lakes in the upper peninsula that have been designated as "trout lakes."

Regular feeding with a complete, balanced plant food will take care of the entire food requirements of the lawn and will also take care of the humus requirements since proper feeding produces a deep extensive root system, a part of which normally decays each year as new growth takes place, leaving the dead roots, the finest kind of humus, right in the soil where it will do the most good.

As to the kind of grass, for the Northern States, except in very shady spots, Kentucky Blue Grass and mixtures of the hardier grasses are best suited. Tim Trivialis is an ideal grass to sow in those places constantly in the shade.

Where seeds are sown, it is doubly important to keep the seed bed moist until germination takes place. The young grass should not be allowed to dry out even for a short period.

If the lawn is properly made in the beginning, it can be kept in prime condition for an indefinite time by watering it and feeding it regularly with a complete, balanced plant food.

A LONG, STRONG PULL—ALTOGETHER

Communities do not, like mushrooms, grow overnight. So far from that, the doubling of population in Trenton from 1920 to 1930 is something quite out of the ordinary, something to be talked about, something, indeed, to be quite proud of.

The future looks before Trenton very, very bright. It has a lot of promise. It makes it a fairly safe prophecy that the growth of the past ten years will be duplicated in numbers, if not in proportion, in the next ten years.

When one considers its location alongside a great river, yet higher and drier and healthier than any of its neighbors to the north, and close to the fourth largest city in the nation, it is not far-fetched or over-optimistic to make such a prophecy.

A growing population, a growing community needs planning for, looking after, guardianship, affection. Trenton needs that today, and has needed it for years. It isn't enough to sit idly by and allow whatever to happen may happen. And the queer fact is that while some of us are willing to leave our private affairs to the mercy of circumstances, we are citizens perfectly willing to let our community drift into the future without piloting, or sounding, or buoying along the way.—Arthur Downs in the Trenton Times.

GREEDY
Willis Brewer, ex chairman of the Board of Auditors drew a salary from Oakland county of $7,000 a year. In addition to that he was given an automobile allowance of $1,020 per year. Verily, some people can't stand prosperity. G. S. Rowe in the Milford Times.

"My Electrocchef automatic oven makes baking and roasting easy. I never have to guess at the right temperature, because I know every minute exactly how hot the oven is. Christian Science Notes
"Prolation after Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, April 26.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "So Israel, return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity. I will be as the dew unto Israel; he shall grow as the hilly, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon" (Hos. 14:5-7).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. If divine Love is becoming nearer, dearer and more real to us, neither is then submitting to Spirit" (p.239).

EPISCOPAL NOTES

"The prince of this world is judged."—Jesus to his disciples, as recorded in the Gospel for the Fourth Sunday after Easter.
The worldly spirit of selfishness, materialism, and sin is doomed to failure. The Holy Spirit of Christ, which is the spirit of good will and good deeds is destined to triumph. God can overcome in us all that is contrary to His Will, that through us by the Holy Spirit He may do His own work. He asks us to give Him our lives that He may live in us.
This Sunday the Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10 o'clock. In this service as in no other, christians and the power of God's Spirit flooding into their lives. In a world that so demands strength of character and soul to meet the daily problems and temptations of living, spiritual food is quite as important as bodily sustenance. Christ offers the Bread of Life. Shall we not heed his invitation, "Come unto me."
The annual Children's Service for the church schools of the diocese will be held in St. Paul's Cathedral on Sunday, May 17th. It is desired that a good number of the pupils of our school may attend this service. We are calling for about four or five drivers of cars to volunteer early to help in transporting the children to and from the Cathedral. Help make this pilgrimage possible for your children!

HOBBIES THEME OF MEETING

Hobbies are a decidedly important factor in determining and shaping character; therefore they are strongly stressed in Girl Reserve clubs and usually take up at least one important discussion of the year. The Junior Girl Reserves had their hobby program last Friday, April 24. A skit written by Andrea Krewer was presented by her group which had charge of that day's program. This sketch presented in a general way the purpose of the seasons and their relationship to each other and to different hobbies. Following this a general discussion was held on the subject.

TALKS ON FOUR FIELDS GIVEN

A vocational survey in four fields, Business, Nursing, Teaching and Home Economics, was the feature of the Senior Girls Reserve meeting last Friday, April 24. Miss Alice Safford of the real estate business here in Plymouth was the speaker for the business survey. She spoke of the very many opportunities that girls now have in the business world compared with the time she entered it. Then regarding the only thing that women were considered capable of doing and people coming to the bank in which she worked found it very difficult to believe that a woman was able to hold down that job. She also spoke of a survey made by the National Association of Professional Business Women that would be very useful to a girl planning on entering one of the professions. In all, she believes that there are very many interesting fields open to girls who must now face open competition instead of condemnation and distrust.

Mrs. Strasen, the school nurse, then spoke on the subject of nursing. Her most urgent recommendation to girls taking up that line of work was higher education. In certain training schools some credit is given for college work. But she advised girls not to take up that work unless they were very strong physically and were absolutely sure they would like and make a success of it, as there is such an abundance of nurses that training schools are not taking any new classes this year. However, she said that if any girl had set her heart on that work and would stick to it, there is nothing more worth while and interesting.

Then Miss Fiegel, a history teacher in the high school, spoke of teaching. She said that anyone who likes to be in contact with and to help other people would like teaching, but if people try one's nerves, not to think of it. She also stated that as in both business and nursing, educational requirements are being steadily increased. She cited the hours as one advantage with the opportunities for travel and further education.

In the few minutes left, Mrs. Dykhouse, the home economics teacher, spoke of the opportunities high school graduates have as dietitians especially at the University Hospital, where a girl may work up to her own diet kitchen.

GEOGRAPHY CLASS MAKE NOTEBOOKS

Because the members of Miss Han's commercial geography class are busy giving reports on different products and industries of various South American countries, many of the students have made notebooks illustrating their reports. A notebook called "Industries of Brazil" made by Irene Ziolsko contains pictures of rubber trees, coffee plants, and sugar cane. How coffee is picked and how the coffee beans are dried is illustrated.

As the T-B geography class is studying the industries of Trenton, Homer Tennant brought some raw silk to show the difference between it and the manufactured article.

NEWS FROM STARKWEATHER

The children in Miss Strakey's room are making posters illustrating puzzles on a fence. The puzzles are represented by pussycats. The first grade children have finished their readers.

The children in Miss Steader's room are very much interested in making their nature study books. Both the first-A and second-B children are writing short descriptions of the birds and flowers that they have studied. The second-A children wrote their first organized story without help last week.

The children in Mrs. Moles' room have finished the second set of papers to be graded by the Palmer Co. The children started flower study this week.

The four-A arithmetic class is studying fractions. The five-B arithmetic class is studying the subtraction of fractions. The children in the five-B geography class are going to take imaginary trips to different European countries.

The six-A children have been learning a poem called "The Concord Hymn." They have also made posters for hygiene and maps of Australia. Douglas Eckles was chosen the best reader of the five-A and six-B grades. The children receiving 100% on their geography papers are Doris Compton, Jeanette Brown, Armeta Fallet, Helen Naterone, Marion Bulson and Jewel Starkweather.

DRAMA CLUB GIVES PLAY

The members of the Senior Drama Club enjoyed a very interesting program prepared by Margaret Holcomb and Vera Woods, Thursday afternoon. They first presented a short play, after which papers were given to everyone on which they were to write correctly the jumbled words pertaining to dramatics written on the blackboard.

The program in the masque was a series of short, impromptu acts by volunteers in the club. In the Senior Drama Club last week

HOWELL DEFEATS PLYMOUTH BY LARGE SCORE

Six runs resulting from a multitude of misplays and only two hits in the first inning was the great advantage for the Howells as they won the second game of the season to Howell by a ten to one score. With such a lead, Jones, the Howell pitcher, gained plenty of confidence and allowed Plymouth only three hits while his teammates touched Postiff for ten singles.

Gehringer, who by the way is a cousin of "Charlie" Gehringer of the Tigers, and plays the same position, lived up to his name by pounding out four hits and scored four runs. Why doesn't somebody span him up? In the third inning the Howells showed a real dash of baseball strategy by executing a triple play. Brogan was sent up to bat and responded by popping a short fly to Lancker. In the meantime both runners had broke from their bags and were forced out. Lancker, Gates to L. Bassett.

The referee's name was Bassett but he couldn't have been a relative or we would have won the game. For fourth out, Gates, Gordon and W. Bassett divided the hits among themselves. For Howell in the number of hits Pelkey was next with two hits in four trips to the plate. Jones struck out five and walked two, while Postiff fanned two and gave one base on balls.

DEARBORN TRACK TEAM DEFEATS BLUE AND WHITE

The crack Dearborn tracksters handed Plymouth a 85-37 defeat last Saturday, on the Dearborn field. The day was cold, and the slippery clay track made it impossible for the sprinters to establish any new records. Bannerman, Wagenschutz and Blunk did most of the scoring for Plymouth. They took 31 out of the 37 points. Plymouth's greatest weakness lay in the distance events, namely: the mile, 880 and 440 yard runs. Dearborn took 28 out of a possible 27 points. In the 100 and 220 yard sprints Plymouth broke even, and in the weight events Plymouth managed to hold her own. The Orange and Black, however, held the edge in the pole vault, high jump and hurdles. Plymouth was somewhat handicapped by the absence of some of her capable track men as they had to go to the band contest. There is much room for improvement on the track team, and there are several vacancies yet to be filled.

SENIORS ARE S. L. CHAMPS

By making a sensational finish one of the senior teams went through the season undefeated. That team was hard pressed in several games, but each time they showed their ability by coming through with flying colors. The seniors really deserve the shield that they shall get with the names of the members of the team on it as a reward for their playing. The other senior team made a grave stand throughout the entire season and came through as runners-up with only two defeats. The faculty, who probably furnished the greatest excitement and afforded the greatest competition, finished third being tied with a junior and two sophomore teams. The freshmen made a brave stand all season, but because of their inexperience and inexperience in greater competition, they finished toward the bottom of the standings, although they afforded many tense moments and brought out many enthusiastic yells.

The Senior League volleyball contest this year proved to be very successful. Over seventy-five fellows participated in the games.

Final Standings in Senior League:

Team	Won	Lost	Per.
Seniors	8	0	1.000
Sophomores	6	2	.750
Juniors	4	4	.500
Freshmen	4	4	.500
Faculty	3	4	.429
Seniors	3	5	.375
Juniors	2	6	.250
Freshmen	1	7	.125

SENIORS ARE MOST SAVING

Mr. Bentley's group of seniors have held the thrift banner for the fourth time in succession. The percentages have all been above 90%, the last average was 96%.

COUNCIL FIRE HELD MONDAY

The Camp Fire Girls held a Council Fire at the home of Esther Egge, Monday, April 20. The plans for the Friendship Council Fire with Northville and Rosedale were discussed. The girls then took their places for the regular Council Fire. The "Wahola Call" was given, followed by the professional, each girl giving the hand sign as she entered the circle. The "Meditation of Allegiance to the Flag" followed, and "America the Beautiful" was sung. The Candle Lighting ceremony was given in which the candles Work, Health and Love were lighted by Zeropha Blunk, Esther Egge and Janet Blikenstaff. After each candle was lighted, the "Candle Chant" was given. At the end of the ceremony everyone knelt and Zeropha Blunk gave the Camp Fire Etiquette. Zeropha then led the camp in the Camp Fire Law, after which the song "Oh Wahola" was sung.

The girls then repeated together the Credo. A discussion followed concerning the honors, ranks and plans for the Friendship Council Fire. The song "Sheltering Flame" was sung, and Jane Whipple, Madelyn Blunk and Elizabeth Nichol took their places for the Fire Extinguishing ceremony. This was followed by "The Star Spangled Banner" and the recessional.

After the regular meeting Janet Blikenstaff played several pieces on the piano, and a number of interesting reports were given. Jane Whipple gave the life of Madame Schumann-Heink; Janet Blikenstaff, the lives of five foreigners who have done a great deal for America; Madelyn Blunk led a discussion on World Peace; Esther Egge gave a book review of "David Copperfield" by Charles Dickens, and Elizabeth Nichol gave a book review of "The Promised Land" by Mary Antin. We enjoyed the refreshments served by our hostesses.

Pledge of 30 Years Ago Still Kept by Man of 86

A white-haired man of red carnations on Carl Morton's grave in Nodarska City, Neb., bears evidence that Frank Morse, now 86 years old, has kept his pledge throughout the years.

More than 30 years ago Morse met Morton, the son of J. Sterling Morton, former secretary of agriculture and founder of Arbor Day. Morse admired a red carnation which Morton was wearing.

"When you die," said Morton, "I'll put red carnations on your grave each anniversary of your death."

"If you die first, I'll do the same for you," Morse answered.

Morton died a short time later of pneumonia.

"This may be my last," said Morse as he walked, a bit unsteadily, away from the grave.
