COMMITTEE GIVES RETAINED ZONING REPORT

Group Working Under Chamber of Commerce Making Progress.

"A question, common among business men and other public-minded persons, is just what is city planning, what problems does it attempt to solve, will it weather the test of sound economics, and will it make for a healthier and happier community? The reason for the general incorrect understanding of the true purposes of city planning is because the phrase has in the past been referred to as a general cure-all for municipal ills and associated with all kinds of idealistic dreams." This quotation is taken from a pamphlet prepared by the Civic Development Department of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

In last Friday's issue of the Plymouth Mail, it was stated that the City Planning and Zoning Committee would briefly outline the purpose of a city plan. The statement of this committee follows:

"We realize that we have undertaken no small task in making a study of a subject covering as much territory as city planning and zoning. We make no claim of being experts on this subject. We are merely convinced that great and lasting benefits can be obtained for the general welfare of our community by city planning and zoning, and are willing to give of our time and thought to gathering together and digesting a great mass of material on this subject in order to pass it on to the public for general information. We are now in the process of gathering this material from such authoritative sources of information as the Civic Development Department of the United States Chamber of Commerce, the Division of Building and Housing of the United States Department of Commerce, and local chambers of commerce in communities which have taken these constructive steps in recent years.

"In advance, therefore, we acknowledge our indebtedness to these sources of information for the greater part of the statements, opinions, comments, facts and figures which we will pass on to the citizens of Plymouth and surrounding territory. Let it also be understood in advance that all opinions and observations whether our own or quoted from recognized authorities will be strictly impersonal in character.

"We have selected the following brief description of city planning from the same pamphlet quoted at the beginning of this article. City planning is the proper coordination of all phases of civic development, to the end that a city may grow in a more orderly way and provide adequate facilities for living, working and recreation. To serve the community best, a comprehensive city plan must coordinate all physical improvements even at the possible expense of subordinating individual desires. City planning applies the financial principles of business corporations to civic development. It means the budgeting of future improvements to secure an orderly and uniform growth for the entire community and prevent over-expansion of one phase of development at the expense of others. To permit such uniform civic growth, the first step is to secure legislation necessary to enable a city to acquire a city planning commission with power to prepare a constructive program.

"We have also selected the following statements from authorities on the subject as well expressing the fundamental purpose and benefits of a city plan.

"W. Clement Moore, a prominent business analyst, whose approach to city planning is that of a man whose work is making business firms on how to cut down costs, says: 'I became interested in City Planning and Zoning because my work has forced me to study industrial costs. I have specialized in taxation for fifteen years, and I have been surprised by the vastly greater benefits by citizens of well-planned cities for each dollar spent, as compared with cities where the progress is haphazard and development a matter of necessity.'—John Hilder.

"A plan should not be a breeder of expenditures, but rather should be a medium whereby needed improvements can be properly balanced, one against the other, and carried out to the greatest advantage with a minimum of waste."—Russell V. Black, City Planner, Philadelphia, Pa.

PLYMOUTH BAPTISTS USE FACILITIES OF RADIO STATION WJBK

REV. AND MRS. NEALE ON AIR EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY.

Rev. and Mrs. Neale of the First Baptist Church of Plymouth, are now broadcasting twice each week over the Detroit radio station WJBK, Tuesday and Friday at 12:30 p. m. You may hear them in programs of gospel music combined with a brief message.

Mr. Neale says of these broadcasts, "It is our plan, God willing, to make Tuesday's program one of gospel music entirely. Any requests or comments our hearers would like to make we shall be very glad to receive. At present I expect to bring a short message combined with appropriate music on the Friday program."

Several other churches in nearby towns, such as Wayne and Farmington, will give independent but similar broadcasts on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

WJBK comes over well in the daytime hours, and a few people have reported difficulty in getting it. In one case, it is reported that several ladies gathered in one home where reception was good in order to hear the program.

Miss Roe, the pianist at the Baptist church, accompanies Mr. and Mrs. Neale in all their broadcasts. Elsewhere in the Mail there is news regarding the work of Miss Roe's pupils, who are appearing in a recital to be given at the Baptist church Monday evening, June 8th.

CHAS. M. MATHER RETURNS TO RESUME BUSINESS HERE

After an absence of eighteen months from his lumber and coal business, the many friends of Charles M. Mather will be pleased to know that he is again back on the job. During the last year and a half he has been in Dixfield, N. C., with his daughter, Mrs. Irving Blunk, who has returned to Plymouth with him. While in Dixfield, Robert Todd had had control of the business here. With the return of Mr. Mather, Mr. Todd stated that he would again re-enter the contracting business keeping his headquarters in Plymouth.

MRS. CHARLES EBERT

Louise Ebert, wife of Charles Ebert of Louisa, Va., was born in Dundee, Monroe County, Michigan, on the 14th of July, 1888. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. John Grasse. In her infancy she was received into membership in the Lutheran church by holy baptism.

She was married to Charles Ebert, then of Monroe, in the year 1921, and lived there with him and their family some years until they removed to Plymouth.

Suffering for a long time from heart trouble and realizing that her days on earth were numbered, she fully prepared herself for that last great journey to her Fatherland. The Lord took her into His rest last Tuesday morning at three o'clock.

She leaves her husband, Charles Ebert; three sons, Gust, Walter and Ed., all of Plymouth; two grandchildren and one brother, John Grasse of Monroe.

Interment took place at Riverside cemetery, Thursday afternoon, the Rev. Edgar Horne officiating.

May the Good Shepherd grant that we, too, may fall asleep in peace, when our life's day is done. Until that day we speak:

"Hold Thou Thy Cross before my closing eyes,
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks and earth's sad shadow flees,
In life—in death—O Lord, abide with me!"

Dr. and Mrs. Freeman B. Hoyer and little son, and Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Todd and sons of Northville, spent the week-end at Lake Pickereel, Newaygo.

COMMISSION WILL MAKE NEW AGREEMENT ON FIRE PROTECTION

The Village Manager was instructed by the Commission to notify all parties receiving fire protection outside of the Village that new agreements on this service would be drawn up, and that if this protection is desired contracts through which a better understanding can be prepared.

This action on the part of the Commission was brought about by the refusal of one outside party to pay for an alarm calling on the local department and later cancelling the call before the truck got away. The Village is obliged to pay the firemen for this call and it was felt that the district from which the call came should reimburse the Village for this sum.

The taxpayers of Plymouth are maintaining a fire department of high standard at considerable cost, and if this service is furnished outside of the Village, assurance that a reasonable and equitable charge should be made.

The new agreements will be drawn up in accordance with the recently enacted state laws and protection will be furnished only to those districts accepting the agreements by the proper officers.

Bids on New Pump Received by Village Commission

Bids covering new pumping equipment for the water plant were opened by the Village Commission, Monday night. The equipment included both horizontal and vertical pumps of 500 and 700 gallons per minute capacity. Selection of the bid most satisfactory for the local purpose will be made by the Commission as soon as the bids are tabulated and studied by the Manager.

The old pumping unit in daily use at the water plant has been in service for many years, during which time it has operated at least eight hours per day and in the summer months it runs continually for several weeks at a time. This pump was originally rated at 500 gallons per minute capacity, but now is producing only about 400 gallons per minute. As soon as the new pump has been purchased and installed, the old unit will be completely overhauled.

Hearing on Budget Held June First

The public hearing on the annual village budget was held in the Village Hall on June first, before a committee consisting of Commissioners Leonard and Henderson and the Village Manager. The purpose of the hearing is to provide an opportunity for anyone to make suggestions or criticisms on the various items appropriated for the ensuing year.

Very little interest was shown at the hearing, therefore it can be assumed that the appropriations are satisfactory to the general public.

The total budget has been reduced more than 20% from the 1930 total possible. This reduction was made possible by reduced salaries of officials, reduced personnel and elimination of appropriations for new work to be paid from budget funds.

The Village Commission realizes the necessity of tax reduction and has done everything possible to bring this about without in any way curtailing the public service heretofore rendered. The service items in the budget have maintained at the same standard as before and it is the policy to render every possible public service required in the Village.

Calcium Chloride Applied by New Method

The application of calcium chloride in liquid form was used in Plymouth for the first time this year. The cost per ton is slightly less by this method than the cost of using the material in flake form.

The Village Commission and Manager would like to hear the comments of local residents concerning this method of application, also whether or not in the opinion of local residents, the solution is as effective or as long-lived as the chloride in flake form. This information will be of assistance in adopting a policy for the future.

Rev. Roland Traver Speaks to Rotarians

Last Friday the Rotarians and their guests had the pleasure of hearing a very stirring, inspiring and timely memorial talk by Rev. Roland Traver, pastor of the Gilbert Memorial Baptist Church of Mt. Clemens, Michigan. Rev. Traver emphasized the spirit of justice permeating all the wars in which the United States has been a combatant, and also emphasized the fact that patriotism in time of peace is as essentially desirable as it is necessary in the time of war.

Wayne Drops Game To Speedy Nethem Team

Horvath and R. Levandowski held Wayne to three hits as their mates pounded out victory. Two of the hits were scratch infield hits that should have been handled cleanly. Horvath gave up one hit and that was in the fifth inning. His wildness caused his removal in the seventh when he was out of five men. The holding feature of the game was Horvath's catch in the ninth inning.

The leading hitters for the day were McIntyre of Wayne, who had a perfect day at bat, getting one hit out of one official trip to the plate, and three walks; and R. Levandowski, who got two doubles out of three times up, and two walks.

Come out next Sunday and see the home boys battle Gross Pointe Independents at Rousseau Park, Newburg. Nethem also defeated Wayne, Mercurio 9 to 0, by forfeit, when Wayne failed to appear on the diamond at Newburg.

PLYMOUTH HAGGERTY DROPS FAST MEMORIAL DAY GAME TO NATIONALS

The Detroit Nationals defeated Plymouth-Haggerty, 7 to 3, Decoration Day, at Burrongs Park, in a game that was called four times on account of rain, only to be resumed after each downpour. The first game of a double-header was called off when the time came for the start. At two o'clock the second scheduled game got under way and was not finished until it was five-hirty.

This victory over Plymouth cost them their first defeat of the season. Canfield, who was on the mound for the Detroiters, allowed only six scattered hits, while the visitors collected ten off Frank Rogezman. The Nationals started the first inning by driving out four hits that totaled three earned runs, but it was the four runs in the seventh that did the trick for them. Plymouth filled the bases three times only to be set down with no scores after they failed to hit. The weather and the condition of the field made it very uninteresting for the fans, for it showed up the game.

Plymouth is looking forward to the time when they may meet up with the Detroit Nationals again which is in September, and hoping the results will be different.

HIRAM JOHNSON

There are two Hiram Johnsons. California has one, Michigan the other. In one respect the two are alike. Both are intensely interested in politics. In the last state campaign, Michigan's Hiram Johnson, who is editor of the interesting and well edited Saranac Advertiser, was a whole-hearted supporter of the administration now ruling at Lansing. His comment in last week's Advertiser pertaining to the legislature and the work it did and did not do, will be interesting to Mail readers. It follows:

"The legislature has adjourned, and its members gone home. Like the members of the legislature whom he asked 'What was the most constructive piece of legislation enacted?' we will have to say we cannot find any. In our judgment, the session was the most useless, unwise and foolish session of any session of the legislature in the history of our state and in no wise carried out a single campaign or party pledge.

"Its state budget is the highest in the history of the state. Then, on top of this they passed the malt tax, a two million extra tax to build a new sanatorium, a two million motor registration tax for the state police and extra half million from trout fishermen for the conservation department, and additional tax of several thousands of dollars from the truck bill for the highway fund. Just keep in mind that all of these are an extra tax raising the property tax. Now is there a single person in the whole state who can offer any reasonable excuse for a single one of these extra taxes for the purpose for which the legislature has levied them, at this time? This legislature was elected on a platform of reduction of the general property tax. If all of these taxes had been turned in to the general fund for the reduction of the property tax, the members then might have said they made an effort to do something along a line to help the taxpayers, but no, each and every one was turned into a new fund or to enlarge some special service. Not a single one, that a good business man could justify under present conditions.

"There was no leadership or program during the whole session. The only hope the people now have is that Gov. Brucker will show his leadership and backbone and veto the appropriation items until he brings the tax levy down to the lowest possible amount. He should not under any circumstances, ever call the legislature back in session, it would do no good and only make that much extra expense. What is wanted is another example of statesmanship along the line that former Gov. Chase S. Osborn showed when he used his veto on the budget and showed the legislators that they were not the whole thing. Will he do it? We sincerely hope so, and if he lives up to his pledge, he must do this for the people of Michigan."

HE IS RIGHT

Speaking the other day before the students and faculty of the Detroit City Law School, Representative Oscar C. Hull of Detroit, who has proven himself to be one of the outstanding members of the Michigan state legislature, declared the principal problem facing a state legislator today is whether he shall serve merely as a messenger boy for his constituents, carrying out their selfish aims and wishes, or whether he shall be a real representative of the people, working to do some good for the state he is elected to serve. Continuing, he said in part:

"Tax bills are often introduced placing a burden of taxation on Detroit and Wayne County not shared by the out-state counties which benefit equally from the revenues to be derived from the proposed bill. These bills cause bitter debates and, quite frequently, hard feelings between the Wayne County and out-state legislators. But, in defense of these rural legislators, it can be said that they are merely trying to carry out the selfish wishes of their constituents who are quite willing to receive benefits at the expense of Wayne County.

Mr. Hull said that in his opinion a considerable economy could be effected by the Legislature if it could bring about a suspension of road-building throughout the state for two years. Such a move would bring about a saving of $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 yearly, which could be diverted to more pressing needs, he said, but here, again, the out-state legislators disregard the welfare of the state as a whole in order to meet the demands of their constituents and oppose such legislation on the ground that their communities are entitled to roads equally as good as those in Wayne County.

Unfortunately, what Representative Hull says is true. It is safe to say that nine tenths of the legislation proposed at Lansing during a session of the legislature is for the purpose of serving some selfish interests or for the idea of "spitting" somebody or something.

Michigan's greatest need is for more men of the caliber of Representative Hull in the legislature. He is one attorney serving in a legislative position who has refused to use his public office for personal gain or for the advancement of selfish legislation.

THEY'VE GONE HOME

The Michigan state legislature quit Friday and returned home, leaving the taxpayers a bill of something like $30,000,000 to pay for each of the next two years. The legislature did what it thought was for the best interests of Michigan. The Governor claims to have maintained a "hands off" policy and has permitted the legislature to sail the seas of high finance for the past five months without a pilot. Some of the legislative leaders declare that he has meddled with considerable legislation, especially bills that provided additional fees from the taxpayers. At any rate the taxpayers have not been relieved of any of their burden and everybody who owns property or drives an automobile is going to pay more than ever before to keep the state government going.

PRETTY GOOD READING

When one picks up a newspaper these days and reads such headlines as "Employment Gain Over Last May Reported," "Trade Conditions Show Improvement," "Farmers Elated Over Crop Prospects," we have reason to feel that business is better than a year ago and that the swing back to normal conditions has started. One prominent Michigan banker last week declared that after this year's big crops are harvested, there is bound to be a general prosperity that has not been experienced for a number of years.

AN EXTRA SESSION

Editor Frank Bryce of the Grand Ledge Independent is another editor who thinks that an extra session of the legislature is a useless and unnecessary thing. He declares that no good will come from it, but that "It would be a fine thing instead of finding some new way to tax the people, they would find a way of bringing state expenses within the present income. That's what every other corporation and individual has had to do."

HUMOR

About the biggest "laugh" that has come to light in recent weeks—better than anything that Judge, Puck or Life ever produced—is a "conference call to Michigan progressives" issued by Judge Edward J. Jeffries and others to "forward-looking men and women of the state." The Judge and his cohorts believe they can solve the financial and industrial problems of the world. The judge believes he is the feller to do the job—a judge who is elected to administer justice and during extra hours associates with bootleggers and their kind in business ventures. Yes, Sir, he is just the type of a guardian angel the country needs. That is, he thinks so.

Rosedale Gardens

Vacation Days are here again, with June and roses, et al. we have to report that play is in season almost every day. The old game of snakes is on with some boys every afternoon, whilst some daddies all seem to get in a hand or bar or two before dark.

Memorial Day spent mostly indoors by all, owing to rain from dawn 'till dark, the many visiting from city side admired daddy gardenites handiwork 'tween the showers. This was the slowest holiday on 'S-12 ever, not excluding Xmas. Even last Sundee traffic was light until dark. When many lake cottagers were homeward bound.

When the cloudburst came at six past meridian, the Land Co. boys manned the sewer pumps for a half hour, thus living up to an old tradition set some time (years) ago—"that the only holiday a maintenance dept. man gets is when he goes farther away than the weather." However, Sundee broke fair and cooler and gave all a nice rest, for the week's calendar has many gardening and grass cutting chores on schedule.

Frost all over now, we never have frost after the County Hwy men tar and feather 'S-12, which they have just completed. That is, we never have, so folks are now safe in setting out the tomato plants and kindred kind.

Church Last Wk. was attended by all but a countable few. Questioned by a neighbor gardenite, one lady hereabouts said her hubby didn't go because "he was a latitudinarian." Hastily we left vicinity of R green grocers and said conversationalists and repaired straightway to the dictionary dept. of R. Library and looked up said husband's fault and found it not so very felonious at that—what about it, Burt? Sorta out of nondescript, though, aincha ole top?

Returned to our midst are the members of the Marks family, taking up residence in R Emporium Building—west flat.

Moved last week, the Ramon Dix family. To Lakeside for the summer, their home to be renovated and sold to a Clark family of Detroit. The Walter Palmers have also left for their far distant parts—Caliprancia.

The Ill Mr. R. O. King had been reported very ill after his operation two weeks ago, is now reported very much improved. We are looking and hoping for his speedy recovery and return home.

Away on business, to St. Louis, Mo., is Fred C. Welner, York Ave., and M. E. Stover and W. Bond and C. H. Schefler. It is again reported that business all over is better than Wayne Co., Mich. This we have observed, is the large number of men employed (125,000) on part time in the Ford industries, who, naturally have not the spending power as heretofore.

Gardening is in full blast all over, or we should say on the way to full growth. Varied is the color of early blooming of shrubs and some garden flowers as bachelor buttons, sweet williams, etc., are coloring forth.

Campfire Girls

The Campfire Girls of Rosedale had a party for the boys Thursday, May 28. The main purpose was to teach the boys the "Virginia Reel" and to earn an honor in campfire.

The entertainment was planned by Mr. Bowdler, and refreshments by our guardian, Miss Evelyn Porteous. Many games were played before we danced the "Virginia Reel" and refreshments were served afterwards.

We appreciate the help of Mr. Bowdler and Miss Porteous, for the planning of the party.

CADY NEWS

The Cady P. T. A. met last Friday evening. The president appointed all the committees for the coming year. The program for the evening was presented by pupils from Mrs. Truesdell's room. A lunch was served later. This was the last meeting of the year.

A truck to take the pupils from Cady school to Elizabeth park picnic June 6, has been arranged for. It will leave at 9:30 a. m.

The boys and girls collected enough money to buy some lovely shrubbery for our front lawn. We are very proud of our well-kept yard.

Cady school closes June 12. Each room is planning a party for the last day.

In the upper room the following pupils have perfect attendance for the year: Alice Stottmeyer, Tracie Dittmar, Esther Schmittling, Marjorie Shotka and Edwin Bryan.

Our school board has just purchased a new Spencer camera.

The following pupils are in the 8th grade graduating class and will receive their diplomas at Trenton High School on June 6: Walter Newman, Alice Stottmeyer, Howard Newman, Esther Schmittling, Marjorie Shotka, Julia Mylnek, Mable Medaugh, Bertha Gruner, Tracie Dittmar, Kenneth Thompson, George Prokop, Virginia McDewitt, Edith Green, Alexander Vincent, Robert York. The following teachers have received contracts to teach another year: Mrs. Ames 6th, 7th and 8th grades; Miss Utter, 4th and 5th grades; Mrs. Green, 2nd and 3rd grades; Mrs. Truesdell, first grade and kindergarten.

Rambling Around with Michigan Editors

WASTE OF PUBLIC FUNDS

Some time ago Oakland County, through former Drain Commissioner Arthur Spencer, issued bonds amounting to $2,750,000 for payment of the so-called Southfield drain. State Senator James E. Lawson is putting a bill through Lansing, cancelling the bond issue, but allowing the county to issue $700,000 worth of general obligation bonds to cover the cost of work already done on the project. The Southfield drain project is Exhibit A of the sheer waste of public funds that a public official may blunderingly put the taxpayers to—George Averill in Birmingham Eclectic.

It is a strange thing but one would think in times of depression that people would move out of the industrially stricken cities and get into the country where rent is cheap and a garden and a cow would guarantee a household from hunger. Yet what do we find? There are fully as many vacant farm homes today as when factory men were making ten dollars per day and thought it would never end.—Muri De Foe in The Charlotte, Republican.

MORE GAS TAX

Ten states have increased their gasoline tax rates so far this year, and others are contemplating similar moves. At present the average tax rate for the nation is 3.98 cents per gallon and it may exceed four cents before the dawn of 1932.

However, it is interesting to note that the new high rates went into effect in the face of constantly growing opposition. In North Dakota, for example, the voters defeated a projected increase on a referendum proposal in November—only to have the legislature pass it later on. In Washington, where the rate was jacked up two cents a gallon, motorists are busy seeking a referendum, and a one-cent increase in Maine was passed only after a long and bitter battle in the legislature.

It may be that the tendency toward higher rates will be a good thing after all—the higher the tax goes, the sooner the public will take action. "Worm Motorist" is rapidly reaching the point where he will turn, as five and six cent rates stare him in the face.—Robert Gifford in The Eaton Rapids Journal.

Well, sir, what a surprise! Wheels keep right on turning, even though figures on a tape change from 240 to 85.

"If A Man Die, Shall He Live Again?" Asks A Western Newspaper

A prominent preacher declared in a sermon that belief in immortality was instinctive with man. This is true. Every race has its own religion. Even savage people recognize a supreme being or beings and believe implicitly in the existence of the soul.

Materialists explain this general belief in immortality as having resulted from man's instinctive fear of death. It is apparent that man is the only creature that realizes the fact of physical mortality.

Animals do not think of dying. Scientists hold that they do not think at all. But man is conscious of death from early childhood, say the materialists, hence he has sought to build up immortality to offset this fear.

Down through the generations, then, runs the argument: this devotion to belief in a future life came by degrees to be an instinctive thing. But the materialist looks upon it as having been created by man to meet and suit his own needs. It is to him a consolation, a further hope that death can't disappoint.

No man knows, of course, that there is a soul and that man is immortal. For no matter how powerful one's faith may be, it is undeniable that no one has the positive proof that there is life after death.

One may believe it as strongly as one believes anything and still be without positive knowledge of it. One may have implicit confidence, a faith unshaken, and yet admit that every bit of it is based upon trust. For some persons belief alone is sufficient. For others that is not enough. They desire the actual knowledge of a spiritual life, proof, demonstrations, and the like. Those who do believe in immortality look forward with the utmost confidence to another life after this one on earth. Those who do not accept spiritual life on any grounds are just as convinced that there is nothing beyond the grave.

Belief in a thing of this kind is not a voluntary process. The individual who has no belief in it cannot be shaken simply by being told to believe in it. The Christian who confidently expects eternal life after death could not make himself believe anything else under any circumstances. He is convinced that he sees the thing in the right way, and that ends the matter.

On the other hand, the individual who does not believe in immortality is in a similar position so far as his desires and powers may be concerned. He might be happier if he could believe in immortality, but he cannot force himself into this belief, try as he may. So belief in immortality is involuntary just as failure to believe it must be.

The individual cannot deceive himself. He either believes or he does not. He either expects another life or he considers that he reaches the end when he dies.

There has been in recent years a frequently expressed hope that the time would come when the fact of immortality would be proved conclusively. It is doubted that it ever will be proved, or disproved. The living and the dead are separated by a thin veil, to be sure, but no one can look beyond it from this side. Faith is the dependence of living man.—Stonx City Journal.

Coming Attractions At Penniman-Allen

"KICK IN"

Clara Bow, herself, is the big kick in "Kick In," the Willard Mack drama on the talking screen, which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre, Sunday and Monday, June 7 and 8. At last the red-headed "It" star steps out of her customary character and nashes on the screen a glimpse of the fiery Bow emotions.

"Kick In," Clara's first dramatic vehicle for the talkies, is a mighty, punchy story of love versus the law. It deals with the struggles of an ex-convict, Regis Toomey, to "go straight" in spite of the hounding of a vicious detective, the pleadings of his underworld friends, and the temptations of the "easy" road. Clara is the motivating force in the story, as the sweetheart who opposes her charms to the forces that try to drag the man she loves back to a life of crime.

Toomey, in the leading male role, has been created by man to meet and suit his own needs. It is to him a consolation, a further hope that death can't disappoint.

No man knows, of course, that there is a soul and that man is immortal. For no matter how powerful one's faith may be, it is undeniable that no one has the positive proof that there is life after death.

W. C. T. U. Observe Memorial Day at Home of Mrs. Stark

The May meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union held at the pleasant home of Mrs. Bethune Stark on the afternoon of the 28th was well attended. The program arranged by Mrs. E. R. Daggett, was interesting. It consisted of tributes to the mothers and fathers of our land, also some reading appropriate for Memorial Day. An amusing feature of the program was the roll call which was responded to by each member telling which task of the housework she liked best, and which she most disliked. There was quite a diversity of opinion as to which task was the most pleasing, but the one that seemed most objectionable was dusting.

The next meeting will be a birthday party, June 25th, at the home of Mrs. Clara Patterson Todd. At this meeting, each member will be asked to contribute a penny for every year of her age.

City Water Mains On Many Nearby Roads

Work on the new water main trunk line which connects the Warren avenue pumping station with the booster tank at Telegraph road is progressing rapidly and it is believed that this water line will be put into service by July 1.

The new main in the east Dearborn section is to be 36 inches and to run westerly on Warren to Telegraph road, where the main is reduced to 30 inches. Another 24-inch main is to be laid from the booster tank to Elsie, Wayne and Wayne County airport.

When this new water line is completed residents of west Dearborn and western villages will be adequately supplied with water and the pressure in this area will be greatly increased.

More machinery is going into operation at the Warren avenue plant every week and it is the plan of the Detroit Water Board to adequately serve the western section of the county by July 1.

Many of the villages have contracts with the Ford Motor company which expire July 1. An effort is being made by the Detroit Water Board to tabulate a system of suburban rates for all this district and it is believed that the residents will get their water for less money than they are paying at present.—Dearborn Press.

Cut School Tax By Cutting School Year

An economy measure that will result in a saving of $10,000 in reduced teachers' salaries was effected at a special meeting of the Birmingham School Board Thursday night when it voted to operate the 1931-32 school year on a basis of 9 1/2 months instead of the customary 10.

According to Leigh Lynch, president of the board, the action was required before the board would be granted a loan of $10,250 with which to meet expenditures of this and the coming year, and which it was necessary to borrow because of the large percentage of 1930 school taxes which are delinquent.

The concern which ultimately granted the loan, a trust company in Detroit, demanded, according to Mr. Lynch, that the board pledge itself to a $50,000 reduction in the 1931-32 school budget. The board had already contemplated a reduction of $40,000, half of which was to be met by the dropping of fourteen teachers from the staff, and the other half by a curtailment of operating expenses.

The board agreed at Thursday's meeting to raise the additional $10,000 by cutting two weeks off the school calendar, which approximates a 5 per cent reduction in the teachers' payroll. The payroll this year was about $200,000, according to Superintendent Clarence Vliet.

The cut will affect not only the teachers, but principals, the business manager, superintendent and all other employes on contract as well.—Birmingham Eccentric.

Christian Science Notes

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, De-nounced" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, May 31.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it" (Matt. 16:24,25).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "As human thought changes from one stage to another of conscious pain and painlessness, sorrow and joy—from fear to hope and from faith to understanding,—the visible manifestation will at last be man governed by Soul, not by material sense" (p. 125).

CATHOLIC NOTES

The last instruction for the First Communion class will be Saturday morning at 9:30. All the children are requested to be present.

Sunday is First Communion Sunday. First Communion will be made at the eight o'clock Mass. There will be a general Holy Communion Sunday for the parish instead of the second and third Sundays of the month.
The Wyandotte district of the Holy Name Society will hold a rally at St. Alphonsus Parish, Coolidge and Warren Aves., Sunday at 3:00 p. m. The men of this parish are invited to attend.

St. Francis Seminary, St. Francis, Wisconsin, the alma mater of Father Lefevre, celebrated its diamond jubilee May 27th to May 27th. Telegrams of good wishes for a very speedy recovery were sent by the classmates of Father Lefevre who was unable to attend.
Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Donovan of this parish will quietly celebrate their 25th anniversary tomorrow. Congratulations.

Mrs. James Zielaska, Sr., is again confined to her room, due to illness.
We learned with regret of the death of Frank Reynolds of Grand Rapids, and formerly of this parish. Mr. Reynolds died in Rochester, Minn., Sunday, May 31.

Sixteen young men were ordained to the priesthood last Sunday, by the Rt. Rev. Michael J. Gallagher of Detroit, at the Cathedral. One of these young men is the brother of our neighboring priest, Father Bolger, of Wayne.
Father Lefevre is improving slowly and is as yet unable to be about.
Among the graduates at West Point, New York, is Terrence Hickey, son of J. B. Hickey.

BAPTIST TRIMMED BY ROCKS

Jolliffe's Rocks came out of a two-game slump Tuesday night and turned back the Baptist team by the score of 17 to 8.

Although the Baptist scored eight runs, the Rocks played a much better fielding game than they have for the last two weeks. The fielding features of the game were catches made by Matheson in right field and Hoffman at short. Both were very difficult catches. The batting features were home runs by Stevens, Fisher and Rattenbury. Stevens and Fisher each got two.

The Baptist team put up a good fight until the fourth inning when the Rocks scored six runs to take the lead which was never threatened.

The Rocks were all dressed up in their new sweaters furnished by H. W. Jolliffe who has the large men's store on Main street.

State Laws, By-Laws, Brother-In-Laws, Outlaws Put Him In Bad Way: And Then Come The Red, White And Double Cross

A bank recently received the following letter from one of its customers entitled: "To My Creditors:" "I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it impossible for me to send a check in response to your request. My present financial condition is due to the efforts of Federal Laws, State Laws, Corporation Laws, By-Laws, Brother-in-Laws, and Outlaws, that have been foisted upon an unsuspecting public. Through various laws, I have been held down, held up, walked on, sat on, flattened and squeezed until I do not know where I am, what I am, or who I am. "The laws compelled me to pay a merchant's tax, capital tax, excess tax, property tax, auto tax, water tax, light tax, dog tax, cigar tax, school tax, mail tax, syntax, dog tax, and carpet tax. "In addition to these taxes I am required and requested to contribute to every society and organization that the inventive mind of man can organize. To the Society of St. John, the Woman's Relief, Navy League, Children's Home, Home for the Aged, the Police-Master's benefit, the Durcas Society, Y. M. C. A., Jewish Relief Home, Near East Relief and the Gold Digger's Home. Also every hospital and every charitable institution in town. The Red Cross, White Cross, the Black Cross, the Double Cross and the Purple Cross.

"The Government has so governed my business that I do not know who owns it. I am suspected, inspected, disrespected, examined, informed, required and commanded and compelled until all I know is that I am supposed to provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need and desire and hope of the human race and because I refuse to donate to all or go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away I am cursed, disowned, boycotted, talked to, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am nearly ruined. The only reason I am clinging to life is to see what hell is coming next."

IONIA BANKS WILL CHARGE FOR ACCOUNTS THAT FALL UNDER $50

Service charges for checking accounts that fall below fifty dollars at any time during the month are to be charged beginning June 1 by both Ionia city banks. Notices are to be sent out to all patrons tomorrow by the Ionia National and the State Savings banks.

The cost to patrons will be fifty cents per month for carrying accounts below the fifty dollar minimum. A charge of 25 cents will also be entered for every time a check is returned marked "Insufficient Funds."

These charges, it is declared, are necessary to cover bookkeeping expenses for a number of accounts that are now carried at a loss by the banks when the sums on deposit fall below a certain minimum. Balances that are kept over the fifty dollar total will be exempt from service charges and will be carried free as in the past.

The service charge plan was inaugurated generally by eastern banks two years ago when surveys revealed that the institutions were losing money on accounts that fell below certain figures.

While it has been found necessary to adopt the plan in Ionia officials of both city banks point out that the charge has been modified here. In most places where the service charge is in existence a constant monthly balance of $100 is required and one dollar per month is charged when this minimum is not kept.—Ionia County News.

CHEVROLET INVADES EVEN POLAR REGIONS

Two Chevrolet agencies are maintained at almost opposite ends of the earth, one in the shadow of the north pole, the other in the distant region of the Antarctic, declares Ernest Allison, Plymouth Chevrolet representative.

Up in the sub-Arctic, 69 parallels of latitude remote from the equator, where daylight is hardly more than imaginary and the reindeer is still the chief means of transportation, A. S. Anco sells Chevrolets, in Horstad, Norway. It is almost the outpost of civilization. Fewer than six hamlets are nearer than Horstad to the North Pole. More than 8500 miles to the south, practically at the tip of South America, V. Camello operates the southernmost automobile dealership at Porvenir, in what has been called the bleakest spot on the globe, the eternally gales-lashed island of Terra del Fuego. Porvenir rests on the 57th parallel of latitude and is practically within the Antarctic circle. With a single exception it is the most southerly town in the world. Camello operates another automobile agency across the stormy Straights of Magellan, at Magallanes, formerly Punta Arenas, famed in maritime tales and history and a veritable haven to sailors navigating the nearby seas. The stormiest known anywhere. Thus, points out M. D. Douglas, general parts and service manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, the automobile has circled the earth with a band more than 8500 miles wide, and adds: "The automobile in a generation has penetrated and gone beyond the regions of the reindeer on the north and the lama on the south, the hardiest beasts existing. It would be interesting to know how many cars operate in these remote sections. We interesting. Its characters are alive, and there is in it the truth about the virtues and defects of the younger generation. Decidedly the book is readable.

FLAMENCO, by Smith. A stormy, blood-curdling yarn. A girl of gypsy blood causes trouble in a county family. Much of the violence and excitement have their remote origin in a gypsy feud which breaks out in Seville at the beginning of the book. The period is the early nineteenth century.

HARD LINES, by Nash. What Ogden Nash does is to take words apart to see what makes them tick, and put them together so that they click. And not necessarily in the condition in which he found them. Any one who is under the impression that the English language is not sufficiently flexible should study "Hard Lines." It demonstrates that our mother tongue can be made to behave in a manner hardly becoming a mother, but irreproachably amusing.

RING OF THE LOWENSKOLDS, by Lagerlof. One never finishes a novel by Selma Lagerlof, the first woman ever to receive the Nobel Prize, without a feeling of intense satisfaction. Dealing for the most part with her Swedish peasants, she yet manages to achieve something with universal significance. Instead of leaving her novels with the impression of having read of something far away and remote from our own lives, we find that what remains is her deep understanding of human nature and a conviction of unity among widely varying individuals.

HI-Y CONSIDERS NEW MEMBERS

The last official meeting of the HI-Y as a whole group was held last Friday. This meeting was turned over to discussion of the membership for next year. Various names were brought up and considered for entrance next September. The officers for next year were elected and are as follows: President, Billy Henry; vice-president, Edwin Ash; secretary, Marshall Purdy; treasurer, Bill Kirkpatrick.

The club voted that Edwin Ash and Steve Dinko should represent the HI-Y in camp this summer. Expenses will be partly paid. All the members of the HI-Y feel that this year has been a great success in all activities. Every member took part in some activity. The Father-Son luncheon and joint meeting were both very successful. The juniors of the HI-Y hope sincerely that the seniors got something worth while in their associations this year, and that the fellowship gained in the HI-Y will last in future years.

ROCKS PLACE THIRD IN LEAGUE MEET

Handicapped by an all-day drizzling rain, the Suburban League teams held their annual meet on the Michigan State Normal College field last Saturday. Dearborn easily won this meet with Wayne second, Plymouth third and Northville fourth. Farmington was left behind as they were able only to get five points. Dearborn took first place, but their other points helped immensely in their winning the league trophy. Wayne exhibited something more in team work rather than individuality because they were able to win only one first place, but they dominated in the seconds and thirds. Plymouth and Northville had three initial places apiece. All three Plymouth places came in field events while Northville's came in the dashes and half-mile, and Farmington's lone tally of five points came in the last event of the day—the javelin.

The day was rather dark and the continued drizzle was annoying to the track folks. There was but one preliminary and that was in the 100-yard dash. Wagenschutz was winner of one heat, and Dusenbury of Northville, the other. In the final Wagenschutz got a muddy lane and finished fourth after a very poor start.

Bannerman had no trouble in winning the shot-put. He heaved it out 45 ft. 6 in. for a new league record, the only one of the day. In the discus Bannerman was his old self, for a fourth time he hurled the discus 110 ft. In this event he was third until his last try when he put it four feet farther than anyone else. Curtis was the only other event for Plymouth by jumping out 18 ft. 10 in. in the broad jump. Wagenschutz and Daly won points on the track. Wagenschutz got third in the 220 yard dash and second in the 800. DePorter jumped 5 ft. 2 1/2 in. for a third place in the high jump, and Melvin Blunk scored the only other point for Plymouth by getting fourth in the high hurdles.

PLYMOUTH IS BEATEN IN FIRST BY BELLEVILLE

Through a steady stream of errors in the first inning, the Rocks allowed Belleville to "chalk up" five runs which proved to be a barrier they could not climb over throughout the remainder of the game. Postiff, pitching for Plymouth, struck out two, walked two, but allowed eight good solid hits. Elward, Belleville's star twirler, fanned six, walking only one, and gave only two hits. The Plymouth boys played in the last five innings as they never before have played but could only make up six of the seven runs that Belleville made earlier in the game leaving the final score at 6-7, in Belleville's favor.

First Inning: Plymouth—Hix hit to Wagenschutz; Harris was thrown out at first; Gates hit to Elward and was thrown out at first. Belleville—Lipinski hit to Towle and was thrown out at first; Postiff hit to Wagenschutz; Spriggs singled, sending to Harris and Elward. Sets took a walk and later advanced to second when Weinkof was hit by pitcher; Kott fanned; Ciesielski singled, sending

GIRL RESERVES INSTALL NEXT YEAR'S OFFICERS

The ceremonial including the installation of next year's officers and the welcoming of new members into the club was carried out by the Senior Girl Reserves in the auditorium last Friday, May 29, during fifth hour. As usual the stage was set with the chairs arranged in the well-loved triangle of the club. The president, Amy Blackmore, gave the query, answered by Doris Williams who announced that fourteen girls had promised to carry out the ideals of the club and wished to join. She then led in the next members whose unlighted candles were lit by the president. The old members meanwhile sang the candle song.

Following the repeating of the code, slogan and purpose, and a short prayer, all sang "Follow the Glean." For the devotion of the day, June Jewell read the parable of the talents. Margaret Dunning, a former Girl Reserve, addressed the girls on bringing their gifts of love, friendship and service.

Then came the installation of officers, the old president, Amy, rising and lighting the candle of the new, Mary Urban, giving her the emblem of office and advising her how to carry it out. Each then crossed from her former place to the other's. This changing of office and places followed on down the line. Vice-president, Marian Telford, Ethel Wendt, secretary, Viola Lutenmeyer to Doris Bridger, treasurer, Marian Gust to Helen Reitzke; service chairman, Virginia Woodworth to Andrea Kreiger; program chairman, Evelyn Starkweather to Catherine Nichol; and social chairman, Alice Chambers to Elaine Hamilton. In each case the old officer lit the candle of the new, passed the emblem of office and advised how to carry it out. This transference of office was followed by a short prayer given by Margaret Dunning, the repeating of the mishap by all, and the ceremonial was finished.

Another former Girl Reserve, Velma Peitz, was a guest for the hour.

70 TO COMPETE IN HORSE SHOES

The horse shoe tournament for boys was started last week, and about seventy boys had signed up their names to compete in this new sport in school. Mr. Marston has four brackets for the horse shoe contestants, two for junior high and two for senior high. There will be singles in the junior high, in which 24 fellows will participate, and there are twelve pairs of doubles. It is very evident that there are several sharks in the junior high and there will be some very exciting games. In the senior high thirty fellows signed their names for the singles, and there are fourteen couples in the doubles. There are many boasts floating around the school about how good horse shoe pitchers some fellows are. There is no question as to how much interest horse shoes has created. There are two sets of boxes back of the school and they are both being used every moment of the spare time there is. The first round was to be completed last Wednesday.

SUMMER PROJECTS

Summer Projects are required for Smith-Hughes Home Economics Schools. This means that the state and local school make it possible for the high school girl to apply her school training in the home. It gives her a chance to develop thinking power, reasoning and judgment. The girl develops an appreciation and responsibility for home activities.

The project is to be a definite organized plan based on a real problem. This will provide for a repetition of class work and give the girl an opportunity to increase her skill.

There will be at least three conferences between the girl and teacher. The plan must first be checked with the girl and her mother, a visit to determine how near the girl reaches her goal and a final check up.

The girl's final report will be in story form. This will include: Name of project; date started and completed; purpose of project; reasons for selecting this project; aims to accomplish; difficulties and interesting or unexpected experiences.

Suggestions For Home Projects:
 1. To make the class work function in the final report for the home.
 2. To acquire and develop skill, including managerial skill.
 3. To develop appreciation and responsibility for the activities of the home in order to promote worthy home membership.
 4. To assist the home in effective utilization of the best in available resources of modern life.

Five essentials of home project are:
 1. There must be a definitely organized plan based on a real problem.
 2. It must provide for repetition of class work.
 3. It must include opportunity for increasing skill and information.
 4. It must present opportunity for training in management and independence.
 5. The final written report should indicate the value to the girl, be well organized, interesting, and correct in English and spelling.

Something old,
 Something new,
 Good management,
 And a report from you.

Credit:
 If summer projects are undertaken for additional high school credit a sufficient amount of work must be completed to justify the amount of credit allowed.

Approved projects have managerial aspects which require judgment and thought and such projects are under partial supervision. On this basis a unit of credit is given for 100-140

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

MARGARET STRAUB, a sister of the illustrious Louis, was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, and then came to Plymouth, where she has carried on her education and this year is completing her high school course. Margaret is quiet and unassuming but is the possessor of a brilliant smile. She is a member of the Girl Reserves and the Glee Club, and every year she has improved. Her veteran experience helped, James Williams is a sophomore whose showing on the team has been very exceptional. He has won almost every match in which he participated. Great things are expected of "Jimmie" in the next two years.

Note should also be taken of the Plymouth substitutes. They have practiced whenever they could, and each one was ready to do his best in case he were called on to compete.

SOPH GIRLS WIN BASEBALL TOURNAMENT

The sophomore girls are the inter-class indoor baseball champions for the second consecutive year, having won the championship last year when they were only freshmen. The freshmen placed second.

There will be a baseball play-day with Northville, Wednesday, June 10, at Northville. Each class team from the seventh grade through the twelfth, will play.

The standings of the inter-class tournament follow:
 Team Won Lost Pct.
 Sophomores 6 0 1.000
 Freshmen 4 2 .667
 Juniors 0 5 .000

ye-olde home town of Plymouth, and yet, Plymouth isn't a port, so Arthus must be Frodick, the sailor lad's real girl. Arthus is a member of the Girl Reserves, the Girls' Glee Club, and the Travel Club. Her ambition is to become a stenographer; one would imagine a stenographer to the navy.

DORIS WILLIAMS was born here, too. Her activities have been Girl Reserves, Commercial Club, Plythean Staff, Leaders' Club, the Senior Play and National Council. Doris earned a school athletic letter and her ambition is to be a stenographer. If one were to ask Doris her favorite car she would undoubtedly respond, "A Pontiac coupe."

HENRIETTA WINKLER was born in Hannibal, Ohio. She is naturally bright, and seems to enjoy helping her less fortunate classmates. Her clubs have been Girls' Glee Club, Pilgrim Club, National Club and Girl Reserves. Henrietta's ambition is to become a musician, and she is already an unusual piano player.

THE COACHMAN

The "Coachman" then climbed down and did his stuff, a trumpet duet by George Todd and Maynard Larkins. Now came the "Godmother," riding along, Alice Chambers, toasting the faculty and the school board. Mr. Callimore, president of the board, replied for the trustees, and Miss Schrader, bearing the fairy's "Wand" of good wishes, replied for the faculty. The marking of time for the end was given in a trumpet solo by Joe Ribbar. However, in this case, Cinderella's evening was just a prelude to another ball for not just Cinderellas and princes, but for fan-girling boys and girls. The music was furnished not by court players but by the modern Blue Serenaders. However, unlike Cinderella, who was given until twelve, all these modern maidens lost their slippers at eleven, picked them up cheerfully, and went home still dressed in party regalia, and wishing that such an enjoyable evening was only beginning again instead of ending.

JUNIORS, SENIORS ARE PRESENT AT CINDERELLA BALL

Cinderella's ball, the Junior-Senior Banquet, held at the Mayflower Hotel last Friday, May 29, was attended by a capacity crowd all ready for the usual party enjoyments. Each diner found his place marked by the tiny lost slipper of Cinderella posing as the program, while the fairy pumpkin coach was drawn by gaily scampering mice across the speakers' table. The Blue Serenaders playing through the dinner added increased enjoyment to an already excellent meal.

As all Cinderellas' careers must begin in the "Chimney Corners," Zerepha Blunk introduced the toastmaster, Steve Dudek, president of the Junior class, from this spot. Of course, as it is the "Coach" that carries the merry-makers from place to place, Steve Dudek, impersonating this vehicle, first deposited the diners in "Cinders and Ashes," a lovely violin number played by Doris Hamill; then at the "Ball" where Billy Kirkpatrick gave the toast to the seniors. John Randall, senior class president, replied with a toast to the juniors. Next the "Coach" brought the "Princesses" to the ball, a toast to the girls by Hugh Horton; and then the "Princes," a toast to the boys, rendered by Janet Blickenstaff.

VOICE OF DRAMA

A group of seventh graders produced an original act that served as entertainment for all the dramatic clubs last week. This consisted of a magical exhibition proving again, that the hand is really much quicker than the eye. Some sort of magic work was also presented and after the performance the audience went out awed by such miraculous stunts as the mysterious disappearance of writing on a slate, the sound of a voice which answered questions but seemed to come from nowhere, and many others equal to stypifying.

and pay your bills when due. You'll never know true peace of mind until you form this worthy habit. Otherwise bills fret and fuss you at every turn and creditors lose their trust in you.

Of course you're honest and will pay some time. But fair play is a point of promptness rather than of honesty.

World Is Getting Hotter And Hotter Says U. of M. Lecture

Signs that the great glaciers which once covered a large share of the continents of the northern hemisphere are still declining in size and are now confined mainly to Greenland and the Antarctic continent, shows plainly that the climate of the earth is swinging back to the sub-tropical and humid character which has held sway during the many millions of years of its history, stated Professor William H. Hobbs, of the University of Michigan, noted geologist and Greenland explorer in the annual Henry Russel lecture which he gave at Ann Arbor.

Present day glaciers are of two main types, said Professor Hobbs. One type is the slow moving rivers of ice found in high mountain valleys. These feed from the snow which is accumulated on snow-capped mountains. The other is the casual eye, but scars on the valley floors indicate that they have all been much larger. More important are the continental glaciers, great ice sheets which almost completely cover Greenland and have an area of millions of square miles around the South Pole.

These ice caps, huge as they are, represent only the shriveled remnants of great sheets of ice which once extended over much of Europe and North America, reaching southward in North America as far as the Ohio and Missouri rivers.

The Greenland icecap covers the land to within a few miles or tens of miles of the ocean. For 30 or 40 miles inland the ice is cracked and hummocked, indicating that there is movement there. Beyond this is an area of smooth snow, so hard packed that it cannot be deformed with a shoe heel, while in the central one the surface is covered with a fine mealy snow and the temperature is as much as 25 degrees below zero in August. This area is the origin of the terrific storms which always blow outward over the ice.

This is the region in which Dr. Alfred Wegener, German scientist, had been working. At the time of his lecture Professor Hobbs expressed the fear that Wegener had already perished, a prediction since shown to be only too well founded since hope for Dr. Wegener's return has been abandoned even in Germany.

The Antarctic ice cap differs in size from anything in the northern hemisphere. Here there is land for several hundred miles around the pole but it is completely covered with ice of a great thickness so that only a few mountain peaks rise above the ice near its margin. This huge glacier extends outward into the sea for several hundred miles floating as the so-called shelf-ice and rising in the average about 150 feet above the sea. Admiral Fyrd's camp was located on the outer margin of this floating mass at an indentation known as the Bay of Whales. Proof that the Antarctic glacier was not always present is proven by the discovery of extensive coal deposits by Laurence Gould and other earlier explorers of the region. The fact that the plants, which formed coal required a temperature of sub-tropical climate indicates that the ice cap was formed by a change in world air temperatures, after the coal was deposited. Buried now almost inaccessible, this coal store may be uncovered in the distant future.

SPARK CONTROL OF AUTO CREATES THE POWER SAYS U. OF M.

Motorists who are accustomed to using special fuels for their high compression engines may find necessary make efficient use of ordinary gasolines if their motors have an adequate spark control, according to a bulletin on engine performance made public by the University of Michigan Department of Engineering Research, which also reveals that contrary to the belief of most drivers a moderate degree of engine knock means an increase rather than decrease in power obtained from the particular fuel in use.

The investigation of knock and power production was carried on with the Universal test engine designed by the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, an engine in which compression, ignition and fuel mixture may all be varied while in operation, thus making possible continuous records of performance under many conditions. When subjected to compression above certain limits most fuels burn with a quick detonation of "knock" instead of a smooth explosion. Aside from its unpleasant sound and jarring effect, the average motorist believes the knock to indicate a loss of power. This fear is not wholly true, the Michigan study shows. Engine power increases slowly with increase of compression, even after detonation or knocking begins, and continues until very severe knocking occurs with every explosion, at which point there is a sharp drop in power.

More important is the finding that with an engine operated at a fixed detonation intensity, no increase in power may be secured by increasing compression unless the fuel is changed to one which has less tendency to detonate. If a high compression engine is to operate with ordinary gasoline the spark should be so retarded as to reduce its intensity of detonation and knock. In this manner the high compression engine may be run with regular gasoline with results at least equal to those obtained with a low compression motor, and with spark properly advanced the high compression engine will develop more power with the use of anti-knock fuels than will the low compression type under any conditions. The Michigan studies were the work of H. E. Zuck, formerly research engineer in the Department of Engineering Research.

Playing their last league game of this season, the Rocks netters journeyed to Farmington and returned with another victory marked up for them.

Moore, Plymouth's singles champion, easily took the first match from Russ (6-2) (6-1). (Champs, who usually brings in a win for the Rocks, was on an off-kick and lost the second match to Maas (1-4) (2-6), making the score tie one up.

Moore beat Russ (6-2) (6-1). (Champs lost to Maas (1-6) (2-6) Fritz and Rodman beat Russ and Maas (2-6) (6-1) (6-1).

Final Score— Plymouth 1 0 1-2 Farmington 0 1 0-1 Due to the fact that the seven league schools listed in the Suburban League, only Plymouth, Farmington and Wayne have tennis teams, the leagues do not offer a championship in that sport, but should they give a championship for the three teams that are in the League, Plymouth would have it for their team has beaten both Farmington and Wayne twice this season.

All speak of how nice the cemetery looks. Considerable work is being done such as graveling the driveway, fixing fences, etc.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. Gussolly and Miss Hattie Hoisington congratulate them on the narrow escape they had, when their car tipped over while on their way to attend the Memorial Day exercises at Plymouth, last Saturday morning, on the Ann Arbor road. Mr. Gussolly escaped without being injured. Mrs. Gussolly's collar bone was broken, and Miss Hattie was badly bruised and also her head cut, several stitches being required. Dr. Brishols was in attendance. The top of their Paige car was totally wrecked.

Newburg has occasion to be proud of Miss Joy McNabb, who has been elected president of the Albion College Classical Club, which is an honor organization for Latin and Greek students.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Mackinder and family of Grand Rapids, spent the week-end with their father, Clark Mackinder, who returned home with them for a time.

Thomas Wilson is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoisington and Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Keeth of Detroit, called on Mr. and Mrs. I. Gussolly and Miss Hattie Hoisington, Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Ryder called on Mrs. Harmon Smith, Monday evening.

Jesse Thomas is a great sufferer from a carbuncle. His son, Celia and son of Detroit, spent Sunday with him.

NEWBURG

The pastor gave a sermon pertaining to Memorial Day, last Sabbath, assisted by Miss Anna Youngs and the young people's choir who sang a special number entitled, "In the Garden". There were 71 in Sunday-school.

The Sunday-school was opened for the first time at Waynesford, Sunday, at 3:30 p. m. Thirty-eight were in attendance. Charles Padlock of Newburg, was appointed secretary.

The boys of the Busy Workers' class of the Sunday-school, with their teacher, Charles E. Padlock, are giving a carnival in the L. A. S. Hall, Friday evening at 7:30, June 12. The entertainment admission for adults is 10c, for children under 12, 5c; little tots, four years and under, free. Candy, pop corn, doughnuts and bean guesses and fish pond. All should take an interest in this and encourage the boys.

Malcolm Cutler, Sunday-school superintendent has resigned. Sorry to lose him. Mrs. Lydia McNabb will act in his place.

Glad to note the two lady evangelists, who had to discontinue the meetings here on account of sickness, are much better, and expect to be here again in the near future.

Jantzen MONOCHROMES

An inspiration in color harmony—the new Jantzen Monochromes! The upper repeat in a lighter, softer tone the alluring shade of the lacy skirt and trunks. For a smart accent, Jantzen adds a work in belt and buckle with a hairline stripe for color harmony. For all its two-piece appearance, this is a one-piece suit with the usual Jantzen swimming comfort and fit.

You may doubt Jantzen Monochromes with their regulation or sun-bath. Both styles fit perfectly—smoothly in front—snuggly to the back—at sea or on shore. And this fit is permanent—thanks to the marvelous elasticity of the famous Jantzen Stitch. New colors and models now on display—see them!

INSIST on the INSIDE FACTS For Your Protection Make These Comparisons Before You Buy Your Tires...

UNDERNEATH the surface is where you get the cold truth about tire values. It's the inside of the tire—the method of construction and the quality and quantity of materials—that determines its Stamina, Performance, Safety, VALUE.

We have arranged to show you cross sections of Firestone and special brand mail order tires. You can come here and make your own comparisons, uninfluenced by any sales propaganda.

We urge you to thoroughly check every vital point—rubber volume, weight, width, thickness, and plies under the tread. Then buy accordingly—ON FACTS AND FACTS ALONE. There can be no question or controversy when you get the FACTS yourself.

COMPARE PRICES

Automobile Manufacturers do not take chances with special brand tires. Why should you take the risk when you can save money by buying Firestone quality Oldfield type and in addition get our service?

Table comparing prices of various car tires. Columns: MAKE OF CAR, TIRE SIZE, Our Cash Price, Special Brand Mail-Order Tire. Rows: Ford, Chevrolet, Buick, Auburn, Jordan, Gardner, Marmon, Oakland, Peerless, Studebaker, Chrysler, Viking, Franklin, Rodon, Buick, LaSalle, Packard, Pierce-A., Stutz, Cadillac, Lincoln.

Double Guarantee—Every tire manufactured by Firestone bears the name "FIRESTONE" and bears Firestone's unlimited guarantee and ours. You are doubly protected.

*A "Special Brand" Tire is made by a manufacturer for distributors such as mail order houses, oil companies and others, under a name that does not identify the tire manufacturer to the public, usually because he builds his "first line" tires under his own name. Firestone puts his name on every tire he makes.

All we ask is this: Come in to our Service Stores and see for yourself sections cut from various tires. Compare Quality—Construction—and Price!
