

RIFLE SHOOT PROGRAM IS COMPLETED

Kiwanis Have Made Final Arrangements For Oct. 7th to 10th

Final arrangements have been made for the big rifle shoot and carnival to be held in the Plymouth arena on North Main street, October 7 to 10, under the auspices of the Plymouth Kiwanis club.

The affair has been arranged for the purpose of raising funds for the Kiwanis club children's fund, and because of the exceptional demand the Kiwanis are anxious they are exceedingly anxious that the big affair prove a success.

Men, women and children will be permitted to take part in the rifle shoot competitions. People who have never before used a firearm will get a real thrill in shooting at targets.

To make it worth while, the Kiwanis have planned a number of prizes that will be awarded to the successful contestants. There will be prizes for various teams and individual prizes.

In addition to the rifle contests, there will be special attractions every evening. On Wednesday evening, October 7, the Plymouth band will give a concert. "Baldy Wenzel," who is said to be a whole circus, will be present to do his part to provide some real entertainment for the visitors.

On Thursday evening, October 8, there will be another concert by the Plymouth high school band. The Galen Sisters of Detroit, will give a novelty dance program, and Lee Ribbar has been engaged to present a number of special musical numbers.

On Friday evening, October 9, the Northville School Community band will give a program. Some special features the committee is not ready to announce, will be provided for this evening.

On Saturday evening, October 10, the final night of the big affair, a home talent colored minstrel platoon will show the professionals what to do to amuse a big crowd. This, according to President Ernest Allison of the club, and General Chairman Elison Huston, is going to be one of the big features of the whole show. Arthur Winters of Canada, has also been engaged for a special number on the final night.

In addition to all of this there will be dancing every evening, the cotillion dance orchestra having been organized for the series.

VILLAGE HAS NO AUTHORITY

Official Explains Poor Fund Cannot Be Used For Village Labor

Village President Robert Minnauck in answer to the question asked in last week's issue of the Plymouth Mail as to why the village officials of Plymouth did not make some provision during these days of plenty for the calls for assistance that are bound to be made this winter from some of its unemployed residents, stated that the village authorities had nothing to do with the handling of the poor fund.

"The money the village pays for the care of the poor and unemployed, goes to the township officials and they handle it. We would like to do some of these things that other cities are doing, but it is entirely out of our jurisdiction. I think it would be an excellent thing if a lot of our surplus fruit and vegetables were canned. We would like to have considerable work done around the village, the parks and in the cemetery, but of course the money the village raises for the poor fund cannot be paid by the village to men who are out of work and are being aided from this fund for doing village work," explained President Robert Minnauck.

In many places around Michigan as well as in other states, city officials, instead of putting into effect the "idle" system, place men to work and pay them wages for doing something that is of a benefit to the taxpayers. The men receiving help would much rather secure it in that way, it has been found, say officials.

Plymouth village officials are doing all that they can do to assist at the present time. An effort has been made by the village to find employment for a number of men who are badly in need of help. The village manager's office has by exhibiting a number of residents of Plymouth secured some employment for several of the unemployed. Some of these men have been hired by private owners to do some cleanup work.

City officials of Ypsilanti are not only carrying on considerable public work but they have worked out a plan to do what the Mail suggested would be a good thing for Plymouth, they are having canned a large amount of vegetables and fruits that will be distributed by the city this winter among the unemployed.

The officials organized groups among the women of the community who are donating their time and experience to carrying on the work that is bound to prove of such benefit in a few months to come.

METHODISTS IN MANY CHANGES

Rev. Field Has Been Made Superintendent For Port Huron

Sweeping and important changes were made among Methodist churches in this part of the state by the Detroit Conference, which was held in Detroit early this week.

Rev. F. A. Lendrum of the First church of Plymouth will be transferred to the First church in Port Huron, where he will be made superintendent of that church being appointed to occupy the pulpit of the Plymouth First church.

There is also a new district superintendent for the Ann Arbor district, of which Plymouth is a part. Rev. J. A. Halimaker being selected for this important post. The new superintendent comes from the West Lawn Church of Detroit.

Rev. Lendrum leaves Plymouth after a splendid service of six years. During the time he has been in charge of the local church he has won for himself as well as the church hosts of friends. He has taken an active part in community affairs and his departure from Plymouth even though it is to a larger field, will be keenly regretted.

Rev. Lendrum has served as president of the Kiwanis Club for a year, and in leading the city he will be forced to resign as a trustee of the organization.

The new Plymouth pastor is one of the outstanding younger men of the conference. He has served the Adrian church for three years. Previous to that time, he was pastor of the Whitfield Methodist church in Detroit.

He has gained considerable distinction for his work among the young people of the church, having served some years ago, as president of the Epworth Leagues of Michigan.

Plymouth residents will be interested in knowing that Rev. Frank M. Field, a former pastor of the church here, has been made district superintendent of the Port Huron conference. Rev. D. D. Nagle, who served here a number of years ago, has been assigned to the Methodist church at Hudson. Rev. Joseph Burton, another former pastor of the church, remains in the Upper Peninsula conference.

Rev. Norton will preach his first sermon in Plymouth Sunday morning and Rev. Lendrum will occupy the pulpit at Adrian for the Sunday morning services.

Rev. William Richards who has served the Northville church for some years, has been transferred to Belleville, and Rev. Frank H. Minor of Belleville, goes to Northville.

Other nearby Methodist pulpits assignments are: Denton, Rev. W. E. Ainsworth; Dixbury, Rev. C. G. Ball; Farmington, Rev. F. C. Johnson; Hamlet, Rev. Harry Fellon; South Lyon, Rev. W. A. Gregory; Wayne, Rev. W. B. Heyler; Whitmore Lake, Rev. A. P. Rickard; Straubinger, Rev. Charles F. Wolfe.

New Feature, 25 Years Ago, to Be Printed In Mail

Following several weeks of compilation work, the Plymouth Mail files covering a period of nearly half a century, have been bound into volume form and will soon be available for general reference work.

An effort has been made to secure every copy of the paper printed during all the long years of its life and in this the Mail has been particularly successful.

As a result of the new files of the Plymouth Mail, the paper is this week able to start a 25 years ago column which will, without question, prove of interest to the residents of the community. Not only will the older residents of Plymouth read the new feature in search of items they remember, but newer residents of Plymouth will read them in order to gain a bit of knowledge of what their community was doing a quarter of a century ago.

The Mail is sure that the 25 years ago news will be an interesting regular feature of the paper from now on.

ASK FOR GRADE SEPARATION IN NEW PARKWAY

Road Commissioners Plan To Carry On Project Early Next Year.

Provision for the construction of a grade separation under the Pere Marquette railroad tracks just east of the Ford Wilcox plant on the northeast side of Plymouth is made in the 1932 budget of the Wayne County Road Commission submitted to the board of supervisors for their consideration at the fall meeting now being held in Detroit.

The grade separation is part of the proposed construction necessary in the development of the Wayne County Parkway, which, when completed, will practically surround the entire east and north sides of Plymouth.

The proposed new bridge for the Pere Marquette is on a line almost directly north from the present entrance to the Plymouth-Riverside park, and will permit all traffic to pass through the park without delay or danger from railway train service.

The commission estimates that the grade separation will cost something like $200,000. Immediately upon its completion a paved highway running from the present Riverside park entrance directly north under the Pere Marquette tracks will be built. From this point the paving will follow along the River Road, through the Ford property, which has been donated by Henry Ford for park purposes, to the Plymouth-Northville road. The new paving will cross this highway at grade at present. The intersection will be on the north side of the river some 200 feet from the bridge over the stream.

The new parkway road continues from this point almost directly west, where it will cross the Rouge River over a beautiful new concrete bridge that is rapidly nearing completion. For fear that this bridge might not be completed in the specified time, men have been working night and day for the time recently. Powerful lights have been placed in such positions that it has not been difficult for night work to be carried on.

The commission had hoped that possibly the parkway might be completed this year, but LeRoy Smith, engineer-manager for the Wayne County Road Commission, states that this piece of work will not be put on the 1931 program.

During recent weeks the high wire fence on the east side of the Wayne County Training school has been moved and the new parkway cleared of weeds and tall growing grass. Employment has been given to a large number of needy men and this is one of the main reasons why the highway officials are anxious to have as much of this improvement work done now as possible.

Practically all of the expense is in labor. The officials believe that by completing as much of the grade separation costs, something like $250,000, will come from the state automobile weight tax. The balance of the expenditure will come from the county mill tax, that it is anticipated will be levied for a continuation of this work.

The Starkweather school P. T. A. will hold a regular business meeting Tuesday, Sept. 29, at 7:30. Surprise feature.

MOTHER SEES NAME OF HER SON HONORED

Mrs. M. E. Beals at Banquet When Daisy Co. Gives Colors To Post.

Thursday evening, September 17, one hundred and fifty Legionnaires and their wives and guests crowded into the dining room of the Presbyterian church to enjoy by all comparisons the most successful and inspirational event ever sponsored by the Myron H. Beals Post of the American Legion, the banquet held to observe the presentation of beautiful new post colors by the Daisy Manufacturing Company. The honorees of the evening were Plymouth's Gold Star mothers headed by Mrs. M. E. Beals, mother of Myron H. Beals in whose honor the local post is named.

The decorations prepared under the direction of Mrs. Floyd Eckles, were very attractive, and the dinner prepared by the Ladies of the Presbyterian church was excellent. Don Patterson's orchestra played popular melodies during the dinner. When the last bite of pumpkin pie had gone the way of all good pumpkin pie, trying Ulrich led in the singing of several times made popular during the World War, headed by "Beautiful Katie." Mrs. Roger Vaughn then sang two selections accompanied by Mrs. Bertha Brown, and Mrs. Wilfred Ford played a medley of war songs.

PENNIMAN - ALLEN THEATRE OPEN SIX NIGHTS EVERY WEEK

HOW SOME BUSINESS MEN ARE FACING THE FALL SEASON

"For the past five weeks our factories have averaged more than 185,000 pairs daily, six days a week, which is more than 10,000 pairs a day in excess of our production for the same period a year ago. . . . Our company is just beginning one of the most comprehensive advertising campaigns in its history."—W. H. Moulton, president, International Shoe Company, St. Louis.

"For the first six months of 1931 the Thom McAn stores sold 500,000 more pairs than in any like period of their history. This rate of unit increase, I am confident, will be maintained or exceeded in our fall business."—Frank Melville, Jr., chairman of the board, Melville Shoe Corporation, New York.

"If we had no faith in signs that point to a slow but definite recovery in business, we would not rush our plans for a more intensive advertising campaign for increased sales on all our major Lohm & Fink products this fall."—Edward Plaut, president, Lohm & Fink, Inc., New York.

"Sales of the American Tobacco Company continue favorable because the company has intensified its efforts, principally through enlarged investments in advertising."—George W. Hill, president, American Tobacco Company.

"In many places business has been better than expected for the opening of the 1931-32 season. Our company has increased its advertising appropriation for newspaper space."—Adolph Zukor, president, Paramount-Public Corporation.

Manager Lush Announces New Fall and Winter Schedule

BOOKS FOOTBALL THRILLER SERIAL "Football For the Fans" Will Start Saturday Afternoon

Beginning Saturday afternoon the Plymouth Penniman-Allen theatre starts its fall and winter season and will be open every night of the week, excepting Tuesday evenings.

There will be two shows each night. Manager Harry Lush having booked for the season the best that the motion picture field offers.

It was found last winter that the increased patronage of the Plymouth Penniman-Allen theatre justified more than three shows a week, and for a time last winter the local theatre conducted the same schedule it will now carry regularly during the fall, winter and spring.

Saturday afternoon of this week, as an extra presentation, Manager Lush will start the release of "Football For the Fans," a picture that will run for six successive weeks.

This picture is regarded as one of the most popular of its kind ever made. Many of the country's famous football coaches and players take part in the pictures.

It was made under the direction of Howard H. Jones, coach of the famous University of Southern California team.

The first release which takes place Saturday, shows such famous coaches as Alanzo A. Stagg of Chicago, Josh Sutherland, Ray Morrison, Chief McShan, Spring training of football teams will be featured.

Also in the additional releases which will be shown during the following weeks will be demonstrations of wedge playing, kicking, deception, the forward pass and penalties. The country's best football players and coaches helped to make all of these pictures.

Every football player will be interested in these pictures, as it will give an opportunity to have some noted coach or player demonstrate just how some winning plays are made.

It is probable that the Plymouth high school football team will attend these series in a body.

Besides the football picture releases, "The Hood and Lillian" mystery will be featured in the Tuesday picture, "Murder by the Clock."

For Sunday and Monday evenings will be shown "Honey-moon Lane," Eddie Dowling, one of the newer stars of movieland, is the featured actor of this film.

Next week Friday and Saturday will be shown "Daughter of the Dragon," another mystery play that has won much favorable comment.

There will also be Saturday and Sunday matinees at the Plymouth Theatre, starting tomorrow. Saturday matinees will start at 2:30 o'clock, and Sunday matinees at 3 o'clock. The Sunday show will be continuous from the time it opens in the afternoon until 11 o'clock at night.

VETS CAPTURE BOY SCOUTS TO FORT SHELBY HOLD BIG RALLY

Invading Legion Hosts Plymouth District Boys Will Be At Camp Brady Over Week-end.

Plymouth went to war this week! Every American Legion member, re-enforced by hundreds of Plymouth civilians, invaded Detroit, captured old Fort Shelby and held full control of that city for an entire week. The advance from Plymouth was led by Commander Harry Barnes of Plymouth Myron H. Beals Post.

Hundreds of thousands of other Legion men and their friends from all over the United States, took part in the great victory march into the city.

Never was the capture of such an important point celebrated in such a general way as was the complete surrender of Detroit to the veterans.

Needless to say the celebration didn't end with the fall of darkness. Nights were more noisy than days. Days were given over almost entirely to parades and traffic jams.

Five hours from Hotel Statler to a point on Grand River where traffic could move was excellent time for hundreds of Plymouth residents who moved out from the center of attack to get a bit of fresh air.

At any rate Detroit did itself proud in the royal entertainment it extended to the veterans of the World War. Never was there such a spirit of cordiality shown and never did any city extend a more cordial welcome than Detroit and its neighbors in the metropolitan district. It was a great convention that there is no question about that.

SCHOOLS WILL OPEN MONDAY

Officials Say It Is For Sure This Time—Find No Epidemic Here

Following consideration at another special meeting, the board of education has decided to reopen to public schools of Plymouth Monday morning, September 28.

After publication in the Mail last week that the schools would open last Monday morning, continued hot weather and a general fear on the part of some parents as to possible infantile paralysis contagion, had kept the schools closed for another week.

The action of the board came after it was too late for a change to be made in the newspaper article.

School board officials have advised the Mail that there will be no change in the opening of the school Monday morning, unless there is an unexpected emergency.

There have been no cases of infantile paralysis here and none in this vicinity. In Detroit where there were the greatest number of cases schools were opened Wednesday and doctors in that city state that the spread is believed to have been entirely checked as practically no new cases have developed.

PROTEST USE OF TORCH SLAYING CAR FOR A SHOW

Parents and relatives of the four young people, Vivian Gidd, Anna May Harrison, Harry Love and Thomas Wheatley, are protesting the use of the car in which the victims were burned, as a sideshow exhibit in a travelling carnival.

The wreckage of the burned car is said to have been bought by a showman from the insurance company, and is being used in a show, advertised by high priced billboards. Newspaper clippings are said to be displayed with the car.

Although officials have said that they feel the use of the car in such a manner to be "unethical," they know of no way by which it may be stopped on legal grounds.

D. A. R. Members Confer Honor

Mrs. F. A. LENDRUM PRESENTED WITH ORGANIZING REGENT'S PIN.

The Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. F. A. Lendrum on Pentonway, Monday afternoon, September 21st.

The regent, Mrs. Dwight T. Randall, presided over the business meeting, at which two new members were proposed.

Immediately following the business meeting, Mrs. Randall, with a few well-chosen words, presented an Organizing Regent's pin, in the name of the chapter, to Mrs. Fredrick Lendrum who, with Dr. Lendrum, will soon leave Plymouth to take up her residence in Adrian.

During the program in charge of Mrs. Hattie Baker, Mrs. Charles Root, chairman of the Flag Committee of Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter, assisted by Miss Barbara Horton, demonstrated the correct use of the flag, and Mrs. Randall as State Chairman, Presentation of Historic Spots, gave a very interesting account of the unveiling of the tablet on Mackinac Island, August 15th, by the D. A. R., marking this island as Michigan's most historic spot. The monument was placed in Marquette Park, and Mrs. Randall stated that she was given every assistance by the park superintendent, who assured her that it added greatly to the prestige of the park and the island to be selected by the D. A. R. for this honor.

The chapter regent, Dr. D. P. Yerkes of Northville, acted as chaplain during the ceremony of unveiling.

Mrs. Randall also gave a description of the unveiling of the marking of the same day of the tablet morning of the spot. The monument was 240 acres, forty-five miles west of St. Ignace on U. S. No. 2.

The D. A. R. stresses conservation, and through the state chair-

Firemen Will Play Sunday

Strong Detroit Team Is Coming To Plymouth For Contest

The well known Detroit Fire Department baseball club will meet the Plymouth team, Sunday, September 27th, in one of the most outstanding games of the season. Burroughs Park, located one-fourth mile east of Plymouth on Plymouth road, will be the scene of the contest.

New Theatre Sign Placed

One of the brightest and latest illuminated theatre signs manufactured by the Michigan sign manufacturer at the front of the Plymouth Penniman-Allen theatre.

It is so arranged that the names of the current shows are displayed in lighted letters just as they are on some of the more modern theatres in the big cities.

The new sign will greatly add to the already well lighted Penniman-Allen theatre. Through the replacing of other signs, it will be possible for the name of the show to be seen for nearly a block in either direction.

Manager Harry Lush has made an excellent arrangement as the new sign is a most attractive one.

Did You Know That

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Whipple are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Elston Austin Whipple, September 21st.

The Esther shoppe has fall shades in Flarey draper, a complete line of Printzies and Redfern coats, $19.75 to $65.00; dresses in fall styles and fabrics, $3.75 to $19.75; and hand-painted post cards for all occasions.

The opening dance will be given by the Redmen at the Grange Hall, Saturday evening, September 26th, at 8:30 p. m. There will be some good snappy music with round and square dances. A cash prize will be awarded at the end of the season to the lady and gentleman having a record for the most regular attendance. Ladies will be admitted free. Admission for gentlemen on opening night, 35c, and 50c on following Saturday nights. Any one wishing lunch will be served at a slight charge. Come and enjoy yourself. Everyone welcome.

That electric clock Larry Johnson of the Bangor Hardware store offered as a special prize a week ago, is now owned by Manager Croft, the new local executive of the Michigan Federated Utilities.

Fred Bredin, manager of the Middlebelt Golf Course, and his son, Robert, celebrated their birthday anniversary last week Monday evening at their home on Harvey street. A large number of friends gathered to help make the event a pleasant one.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN MEET

The Business and Professional Women's Club observed its third birthday with a dinner party at the Hotel Mayflower on Tuesday evening, September 22nd. Irene Brown and Lila Tregge, who were present for the evening, had provided roses and a delectable birthday cake as decorations for the table. After a very fine dinner, which received well deserved attention, Vice-President Rose Hawthorne called the meeting to order and disposal of routine business matters.

The hostesses had arranged tables for bridge, and the members enjoyed several games. Irene Bajley won first prize, and second prize was awarded to Katherine Harma, guest member from Mt. Clemens. Club dues for 1931 are being collected by the Michigan Federated Utilities and is temporarily located in Plymouth.

The next meeting will be held on October 13th, and will be an outdoor meeting.

She was a Sunday-school teacher in Detroit as well as in our St. Paul's church at Livonia Center. She was a member of the Ladies' Aid also. She was laid to rest from this church on Tuesday afternoon, September 22, by Pastor Rev. O. J. Peters, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Livonia, Michigan.

MRS. MARTHA KARRICK

Martha Magdalene Karrick, nee Knapp, was born in Detroit, December 23, 1895. Soon afterwards she was brought to her Saviour in Holy Baptism. She attended catechetical instructions and was confirmed in our faith in the Good Hope Lutheran church of Detroit. She was united in marriage with Thomas Karrick in this same church June 27, 1925. She then came to live in Nankin township. After a long and painful illness of several years, she departed this life at her home, corner of Farmington Road and Ann Arbor Trail, on Saturday, September 19, 1931. Her earthly pilgrimage was 35 years, 8 months and 27 days. She leaves to mourn, her husband, Thomas Karrick; four sisters, Mrs. Hattie Morrisfield, Mrs. Clara Reddig, Mrs. Elizabeth Twydel and Mrs. Amanda Williams; a brother,

Warren B. Gorton

Warren B. Gorton, who died on Monday, September 14, at his home on Forest avenue, at the age of sixty-two years, lived in Mason and fourteen days, was born in Plymouth township, September 29, 1863, the only child of Thomas B. and Esther Doane Gorton. He was married December 18, 1888 to Nettie Hearn, and to this union three children were born, Forrest W., and George L. of Plymouth, and Walter of Aberdeen, Maryland. Mrs. Gorton died February 11, 1928. On April 29, 1913, Mr. Gorton was married to Josephine Salzer of Mason. His entire life was spent in Plymouth, with the exception of four years that he lived in Mason. He had been in failing health for the last twelve years, eight years of which he has been an invalid, lovingly cared for by his wife who still survives him. He leaves also, besides his sons, five grandchildren to mourn their loss.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, September 17, with Rev. Lendrum officiating, at Schrader Bros. funeral home. Burial took place at Mason.

GLOBE PLANT IN BANKRUPTCY

Oldest Industrial Business In Northville Closes Its Doors

The Globe Furniture company of Northville, one of the oldest in that city, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. Its plant, which has been operated on part time during recent months, has been entirely closed down and no one at present knows whether it will ever again be opened.

For a great many years this concern was one of the busiest industries Northville had.

During recent years the company has specialized in the manufacture of church furnishings. Pulpit fixtures and pews in many of the churches in this part of the state were made by the Globe.

Charles Dolph has been president and manager of the company. M. J. Murphy, who has been vice president and secretary, resigned a few months ago. He plans to spend the coming winter in California. Mr. Dolph has not announced his plans for the future.

F. L. Becker, who has a very productive garden on the south side of Plymouth, is just now harvesting one of the finest carrot crops he ever grew. Mr. Becker has for a number of years provided Plymouth business places with the majority of the carrots used for local markets. He has made a specialty of this one crop, although during the year he produces numerous other kinds of vegetables and berries.

MR. HINES IS RIGHT

There has been some talk about cutting off the mill tax in Wayne county that is being used for highway and park development. From what information that can be secured, a group of Detroit real estate men who claim to represent a number of Detroit property holders, have been telling the voters of Wayne county that it would be a big saving to the home owners if this tax should be cut off for a few years.

These Detroit real estate men are dead wrong, and we cannot believe they are so solicitous of the interests of the small taxpayers as they would have us believe. The home owner pays such a small part of this tax that he does not feel it in the slightest. On the average small home it probably amounts to two or three cents, maybe not quite so much each year.

The biggest part of this tax is paid by Detroit industrial concerns, Detroit apartment houses, Detroit business blocks, Detroit wealth and other large Detroit taxpayers. An exceedingly small percentage comes out of the county outside of Detroit and practically all of the money is being spent in the county outside of Detroit.

Mr. Hines, when protesting against the cut of this item from the tax bill declared that practically all of the money goes towards the payment of wages. He stated that the taxpayers, if they didn't spend this money for wages, would have to spend it for doles and he believes that everyone is vastly more benefited by the payment of wages than by passing out doles.

He is absolutely right. A trip any day around this part of Wayne County will show that he is right. Drive along the new parkway and see the hundreds of laboring men working each day—WORKING AND GETTING PAY FOR THEIR WORK.

Note also the benefit you are personally getting from this work. Is it not a thousand per cent better for the taxpayer to pay these men for doing something worth while than to let them loiter about the streets and pass out doles to them?

You have got to do one or the other. There is no question about that.

Mr. Hines believes it is better to keep these men working, doing something to create more convenience to the public and adding to the natural beauty of Detroit's surrounding territory. We agree with Mr. Hines and we hope that a small group of Detroit real estate men will not be able to force many additional hundreds of men into idleness.

ETHICS

Ethics means a high standard of morals. Possibly it may mean in a broader sense the science of honorable duty.

But in the modern understanding of things it means that it is perfectly right for one class to accept money that has been paid by terrified parents to kidnapers and possibly that has been gained by the assassin's bullet. Arthur Brisbane, probably the most extensive editorial writer in the world, hit the nail right on the head the other day. He said:

THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION meeting next Thursday at Atlantic City, might discuss the assistance that the legal profession, on and off the bench, occasionally offers to criminals.

The mayor of one of New York's big cities, who understands criminals, says this exact words are given: "Two coppers, young and honest, pick up a couple of criminals. The latter say 'Boys, can we talk to you?' The young coppers ask, 'Talk about what?' 'The criminal says, 'Well, we have got $1,000 here, $500 apiece for each of you. Does that talk?'"

"The coppers, young and still honest, take the two criminals to court. A criminal lawyer puts up a holler about the Constitution, and the rights of his clients. They are released. The lawyer gets the thousand dollars, and the criminals, as they leave court, turn to the two policemen and say, 'You boys are suckers; you might as well have got the money as have him get it.'"

OUR ASSISTANCE

Plymouth regrets greatly that its nearby neighbor to the north has been hit so hard by conditions that several of its business places have been forced to close up. It will be many, many years before the disastrous effects can be overcome, but Plymouth stands ready and willing to assist in every way possible. We offer our resources to Northville, or good will and friendship. The greatest good can be accomplished by Northville residents themselves, by forgetting the past and joining in one great force to put the community back in the progressive way that it had been traveling. Rumors can raise havoc and it is just seemed that some of the citizens of the place were bound to close up both of the banks, which they did. The worst of it all is that these who will suffer the most were the ones who remained loyal to the finish. The wagging tongue boys and girls of Northville have had their day. Let them now join with the other forces and try and undo the damage they have done. Northville can be and should be one of the finest little cities in the state. Its future depends entirely upon what its citizens do now.

LET'S SELL THE STATE

News dispatches from Lansing state that the deficit created in various state funds during the first eight months of Governor Brucker's administration is larger than for the entire six years of former Gov. Grosbeck's administration. Figure out what the deficit would be if the present governor should remain in office for six years and if the ratio of going into debt continued to increase in the same proportion during the six years as it has during the first eight months of his administration, and you will decide maybe that it might be better if we sold the whole state to some second hand dealer.

HIS SPEECH A CONFESSION

At a recent meeting of advertising men in Chicago a representative of one of the big mail order houses said: "We have a bureau whose duty it is to read all the papers from the country towns and villages. There is not a paper of any consequence that we do not get. This bureau looks over these papers and when we find a town where the merchants are not advertising in the local paper we immediately head that territory with our literature. It always brings results far in excess of the same effort put forth in territory where the local merchants all the time use the home paper."

Advertising is not magic. There is no element of the black art about it. In its best and highest form it is plain talk, same talk, selling talk. Its results are in proportion to the merit of the subject advertised and with the ABILITY with which the advertising is done.—Exchange.

DETROIT ACTS

Two weeks ago the Plymouth Mail suggested that it would be a mighty fine thing if the city of Detroit purchased some of the tons of vegetables and fruits going to waste about here and canned them for use among the needy of that city this winter. The Detroit Times saw fit to reprint the editorial from the Mail and urge the city to carry out the suggestion. Mayor Murphy's unemployment committee has been very large amount of fruits and vegetables have been purchased about here and on the eastern side of Detroit. The canning factory out at the Detroit House of Correction has been running almost constantly during the past two weeks. Vegetables and fruits have not only been saved but Detroit's hungry will this winter have a chance to eat some of the high grade fruits and vegetables grown about here. Need-grade fruits and vegetables are pressed to know that the suggestion of the Plymouth Mail found such a ready response.

LET US GIVE THANKS

There has been much said about the supreme court's decision in which the judges said that the governor did not have a right to cut off certain items appropriated by the state legislature for certain expenditures. But there has been exceedingly little said about the decision putting to an end the construction of two new armories in Michigan—yes new armories in times of peace way up here in Michigan.

The state legislature last winter passed two appropriation bills carrying a total of something like $200,000 for new armories to be erected, one at Grand Rapids and one at Alma.

These bills had the support of the Governor, and when passed, he signed them.

Through some error in the enactment of the measures, the supreme court knocked them sky high and the taxpayers of Michigan are not going to be called upon to prepare for war either in Grand Rapids or Alma.

Of all the absurd measures passed at a time like this, the bills providing for the construction of additional armories in Michigan were probably about the worst.

We are heartily in favor of the organized military forces. Michigan is fortunate in having an excellent organization, headed by some of the finest men in the state, but we cannot conceive of any possible reason, no matter how slight, for the building of two elaborate armories when the money could be spent in so many other useful ways.

If Michigan had sufficient housing for all of its unfortunate children, all of its sick, insane, tubercular and other dependents, and if times were not so hard, it might possibly be alright to build new armories, even though these are times of peace and we are trying to forget all about war and its horrors.

Surely Mr. Brucker must agree that proper care for unfortunate children and the dependent sick is much more important than the building of structures for military purposes. Indeed we should be pleased that the supreme court's decision knocked out the construction of these two needless buildings.

WHAT A FARCE

For a considerable period there has been under way in Lansing an investigation of telephone rates in Michigan. One of the alert newspaper correspondents in Lansing two or three weeks ago became anxious to find out something about the investigation that has been conducted to a large extent behind closed doors. He found that so-called "experts" hired by the state were being paid $50, $75 and $100 per day. In addition these same experts had a number of assistants in the alleged work they claimed to be doing. It was also revealed that in addition to the vast amount being paid daily to these "experts" that they were presenting the state a padded payroll and were keeping a considerable portion of the money that was supposed to have been paid to their assistants. The officials at Lansing approved of this thing until it was revealed in the newspapers and then they fired the experts—a lot of political supporters of the powers that be. But the worst part of the whole mess is the fact that the state passed on to the telephone users the entire cost of these political "experts" and their padded payroll assistants. When you go to pay your telephone bill keep in mind the fact that some portion of it has been paid to these "experts" and for their padded payrolls.

Now comes the public utilities commission, another group of political appointees, and demands from the telephone company information these so-called "experts" claimed they could not get. If it isn't forthcoming then "Well show you" they say. Sure they will—at the expense of the telephone user. If something could be done, if some system could be worked out which would keep the nose of these official, snooting, political "experts" out of business and away from business, business would be a thousand per cent better off and the lesser telephone rates we would all like to see, would become a possibility. But how can rates be reduced when the state permits political supporters of successful candidates to pose as "experts" and collect $50, $75 and $100 per day for their services in addition to approving padded payrolls for these same "experts"?

One of the great newspapers of the country a while ago declared that the present business depression in America is due very largely to the exceedingly unsatisfactory political conditions that have developed in the United States. The Lansing investigation into telephone rates and the way that it is being conducted, lends considerable truth to this assertion.

The newspaper stands as the greatest educational force in the world, declared Walter L. Dunham, president of the Detroit Savings Bank, in an address to the convention of the Financial Advertisers Association in Boston. It is the great balancer of public opinion, society's security against the hysteria of mob fear.

What Other Michigan Editors Are Thinking About

A "SKIN GAME"

Men in high public places get there because, in most cases, they are able to get more votes than their opponents. After being installed in office, most of them think of schemes for perpetuating themselves in office—and that is done by handing out patronage, and by making indefinite promises. Nevertheless, we wonder what some of the public officials think of themselves as they gaze into their shabby mirrors each morning. Shaving is, you must admit, a skin game.—George R. Averill in The Birmingham Eclectic.

PRETTY BAD, WE ADMIT

Dynamic Detroit, with nine candidates for mayor, so many that the vote will have to be split up, so they will have to take Murphy back; a judge arrested for reckless driving in Canada; the schools closed from infantile paralysis; their mode of jury selection under fire, makes it a good place not to have a charge account.—George Neal in The Orion Review.

A TOWN WITH BRAINS

Cassopolis is said to be the only town of its size in Michigan having two state trunk lines through its main business section, yet which does not annoy the traveling public with stop lights. We do not know if it is true or not that ours is the only town so listed, but we do know that there has never been a serious accident on Broadway due to a lack of stop lights, and that just a little courtesy on the part of drivers is worth more than a lot of stop lights.—Wm. H. Berkeley in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

AGAINST DOLE

If the citizens of the United States were reduced to the dole system it would soon reduce them to the standard of pauperized dependents. God forbid that a country as rich in all material wealth as the U. S. A. should damn its own soul by such a low down method. Let the rich give us work, for as free men we ask not a dole but only a fair wage for our labor.—J. E. McAluffen in The Linden Leader.

LOOSE TALK

The other afternoon we were in conversation with a bank examiner and, quite naturally, the talk was concerning the closing of banks. Among other things, the examiner made one statement worthy of repeating. He said, "Do you know that more banks are closed because of loose talk and unwarranted hysteria than by any inherently unsound financial condition?"

That is a somewhat startling statement but it would appear to carry considerable weight coming from a non-partisan source as it did. Crises of all kinds call for level-headedness, clear and sane thinking, and careful passing of judgment.—C. D. Barbank in The Ionia County News.

IT'S EASY—HAVE CONFIDENCE

With half of the gold of the world in our vaults and the prices reduced to rock bottom, still there seems to be no money with which to do business. What is needed above everything else, is confidence and still more confidence. We never can expect to get things going until confidence is restored. Just how can this be done?—Hiram Johnson in The Sylvania Advertiser.

25 YEARS AGO

Interesting bits of news Taken from Plymouth Mail

All business places in Plymouth will close at 6:30 o'clock after October 1st.

A new sidewalk is being built in front of Dr. F. P. Kenyon's place. New independent telephones have been installed by Edwin Taylor, Mrs. A. Plan, Thomas Patterson, James Leslie and Miss Anna McGill.

The Woman's Literary Club has made a contract with the Slayton Lyceum Bureau for a number of entertainments to be given during the winter.

Mrs. Jennie Vorheis is entertaining Mrs. E. M. Spaulding of Albion, New York, Mrs. Anna Whipple of Orchard, and Mrs. Anderson of Battle Creek.

Mrs. George Springer gave a surprise party on her husband's last Saturday evening, it being his 37th birthday. Invitations were extended to the Plymouth Gun club of which George is a member. An elegant supper was served by Mrs. Springer.

Frank Spicer, a former high school student, invited the teachers out to his home Monday after school to eat watermelons. The teachers' meeting was dispensed with and all went.

Mrs. E. C. Bassett of Newburg has a can of apricots which was put up seventeen years ago. She has received two premiums on them at fairs.

Wayne county's state tax is $604,670.18 this year.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church held its annual meeting Wednesday, at Mrs. Gale's. Mrs. William Van Vleet was elected president, Mrs. Budd first vice-president, Mrs. Rice second vice-president, Mrs. Gale secretary, Mrs. Paul Voorheis assistant secretary and Mrs. Dr. Travis treasurer.

Mrs. C. H. Rauch is visiting at Lansing and will be in Plymouth on God sending, only 10 cents. Harry Robinson.—Ad.

While Mrs. John Thompson, jiving west of town was driving last Friday the front axle of the buggy broke, throwing Mrs. Thompson to the ground and severely spraining her shoulder.

Gossip

Are you willing to sign your name to the story you are about to repeat regarding your neighbor? Would you go into court and swear to it? Well, you had better not repeat it then. It may harm your neighbor's reputation. The story may be false. You may then have obligations to make. You may also be sure that you will be put down as a gossip and busybody. You will not be trusted. It is best not to repeat stories about people. Never repeat any story unless you know it is 100 per cent true.

A Prayer

Thou who art the Vine and the Wreeder, keep us this day in the folds of peace and cooperation. Stimulate us with lofty thoughts that neither harsh tongue nor rash judgments shall prevail or disturb. The cloud of resentment, may it not darken our brows; the song of hate, may it not fall from our lips; the scrofula of uncharity, may it not nurse in our bosoms. Blessed Lord, take us and shield us, and if unworthy rebuke us; if our aims are low challenge them and spare us from the regretful way that ends in failure. When our own little earth breaks up, let the heavens open.

Real Craftmanship

A great deal of the joy of life consists in doing perfectly, or at least to the best of one's ability, everything which one attempts to do. There is a sense of satisfaction, a pride in accomplishing such a work, a work which is rounded, full, exact, complete, in all its parts— which the superficial man, who leaves his work in a slovenly, slipshod, half-finished condition can never know. It is this conscientious completeness which turns work into art. The smallest thing, well done, becomes artistic.—William Matthews.

The CHALLENGE of BETTER TIMES

For nearly two years we have read and listened to predictions as to when the depression would end. Most, if not all, of these predictions have been amiss.

We have heard so many wrong prophecies about the return of good times that right now we don't know what to believe—

But we can pin our faith on one thing: The depression WILL end. No depression lasts forever.

Even if hard times were to be completely over tomorrow however, you and I would still work for what we get. In bad times or good, the pace of business is fast—too fast for the man who is satisfied to take things easy.

A new prosperity will follow this depression—it is bound to. New fortunes will be made, new business leaders will find the way to the top. The rewards of the next three years will be plentiful—but they will not fall into the lap of the man who is merely waiting for something to turn up.

The rewards of the new prosperity will be reserved for the man who is prepared. That is the challenge of better times. It is a challenge to you as an individual.

If you expect to make the most of the new prosperity—to profit by it—you will have to be ready. You will need ideas, vision, initiative—and a willingness to try new plans and new methods.

Individual success is reflected in community advancement. That is why every Plymouth business man, every Plymouth worker, should be alert to changing conditions and grasp the new ideas which are sure to spell success.

WORTHY OF YOUR CONFIDENCE

Through dealings with the public since the time of its establishment this bank has proved itself worthy of the public's confidence.

You, too, will find us worthy of your trust, and ready to serve you to the best of our ability.

With this assurance, you are invited to bring your banking business here.

NATION'S CAPITOL WAS INTENDED AS BURIAL PLACE OF GEORGE AND MARTHA WASHINGTON—TOMBS UNDER DOME

Thousands of Americans, on visits to the nation's capital city, have seen the two spaces under the dome of the capitol made ready for the burial of George and Martha Washington.

A few who have gone through the great building without a guide or previous information concerning it, come away with the mistaken idea that they have seen the actual tomb of the First President and the First Lady.

"For more than a half century" meant, when Custis wrote those lines, from the very moment of Washington's death.

"Resolved by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That a marble monument be erected by the United States in the capitol, at the city of Washington, and that the family of General Washington be requested to permit his body to be deposited under it; and that the monument be so designed as to commemorate the great events of his military and political life."

"And be it further resolved that the President of the United States be requested to direct a copy of these resolutions to be transmitted to Mrs. Washington, assuring her of the profound respect Congress will ever bear to her person and character; of their condolence of the late afflictive dispensation of Providence; and entreating her assent to the interment of the remains of General Washington in the manner expressed in the first resolution."

Mount Vernon, December 31, 1799 "Sir, While I feel, with keenest anguish, the late dispensation of Divine Providence, I cannot be insensible to the mournful tributes of respect and veneration which are paid to the memory of my dear deceased husband; and, as his best services and most anxious wishes were always devoted to the welfare and happiness of his country, to know that they were truly appreciated and gratefully remembered affords me no inconsiderable consolation.

the request made by Congress, which you have had the goodness to transmit to me; and, in doing this, I need not, I can not, say what a sacrifice of individual feeling I make to a sense of public duty.

"Martha Washington" In transmitting this letter to Congress, President Adams closed his communication with the words, "There can be no doubt that the nation at large will be highly gratified by any arrangement which may diminish the sacrifice she made of her individual feelings."

On the faith of this compact, says Custis, President Monroe ordered two crypts or vaults constructed in the basement story of the capitol, under the dome. But the resolutions of Congress were not carried out, and Martha Washington was not required to make this "sacrifice to her individual feeling," although to her dying day she stood ready to make it.

Again, in 1832, the hundredth anniversary of Washington's birth, Congress was agitated with a desire to bury George and Martha Washington in the monumental tombs intended for them under the dome of the capitol. A new set of resolutions was passed, requesting the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House to make application to John Augustine Washington, then the owner of Mount Vernon, for permission to remove the bodies of George and Martha Washington to the capitol, in conformity with the resolution of 1799.

It must be remembered, too, that Mount Vernon was then in private hands. The owner was of the Washington kin, but there was then no guarantee that the estate would be forever preserved, and Congress entertained a natural desire to insure permanent honors to the Greatest American.

Like the resolution of 1799, this second one of 1832, with its plan for a solemn and state reburial of George Washington on February 22 of the one hundredth year after his birth, fell through. And now that Mr. Vernon, through the efforts of patriotic women, has been forever preserved, few would wish to see Martha Washington called upon to make even this belated "sacrifice of her individual feelings," and rejoice that she and her husband rest "By the verdant bank of that rushing river Where first they pillowed his mighty head."

The Redmen are giving a dance at the Grange Hall, Saturday night at 8:30.

NEW BURG

Sunday-school and church service the same as usual next Sunday. School opened again Monday.

A most little surprise was sprung on Clyde Smith, Saturday night by Mrs. Smith who had invited several of the young married set to celebrate Clyde's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Shawley of New York, called on Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith last week Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Drews returned Saturday from a week's visit with Mr. Drews' parents at Drews, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryder and son, Bert, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ryder and son and Mr. and Mrs. Rolf of Grand Rapids, were Sunday callers at the Ryder home-stand, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder had the honor of hearing President Hoover and Governor Brucker and other notables speak at the Olympia, Monday morning, in Detroit, at the American Legion Convention.

Sunday callers on Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zanders and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keller of Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Ostrander and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vanlarkem of Wayne.

Mrs. Wm. Bartel is recovering from her recent illness.

Rev. Purdy's friends are glad to welcome him back to this charge for another year.

Charles and Dewight Paddock, Marshall Purdy and Harold Stevens were in the city to see the big parade Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Douglas of Detroit, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McNabb last Wednesday night.

Miss Joy McNabb left for Albion College last week Friday.

FIRST FALL DAY BRINGS PLENTY OF HOT WEATHER

Fall arrived light on time Monday, but everyone had an idea that it was mid-summer, so hot was the day. A few cold days last week were most welcome to residents in this part of the country who had sweated under one of the hottest September suns in many years.

The mercury ranged anywhere from 88 up to 92. Some say it was much higher. In most stores and offices 88 was the average mark of Monday afternoon.

The first night of fall was one of the most sultry nights of the entire year. Evening breezes did little to change the temperature. Nearby showers on Tuesday brought lower mercury readings. But fall is here and it will not be long before snow shovels will be in use.

FAMED MUSICAL ARTISTS COMING FOR U CONCERTS

Plymouth music lovers will be interested in the varied musical fare by ten of the leading artists and organizations of the musical world to be offered in the ten concerts of the fifty-third annual Choral Union Concerts, announced by President Charles A. Slink of the University of Michigan School of Music, sponsor of the series.

John McCormack, Irish tenor, whose appearances are always marked by the singing and excellent choice of program, will open the concert on October 21. On October 27 the Boston Symphony orchestra will be heard. Long noted as one of the finest bands of instrumentalists in America or Europe, the orchestra is led by Serge Koussevitzky, whose penetrating musicianship has made him noted as an interpreter of both classic and modern works.

Previous to his assumption of the conductorship of the Detroit Symphony orchestra, Oesip Gabrilowitsch was known on both sides of the Atlantic as one of the most brilliant pianists of the Russian school, and now his occasional solo appearances are eagerly sought. His distinguished playing, especially of works of the classic and romantic schools, is not surpassed.

November 17 will be the date of his Ann Arbor recital. John Charles Thomas, famous American baritone, will be heard during November or December, the exact date being unscheduled as yet.

The two annual concerts of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra have for years been features of the Choral Union series. This year the orchestra will appear on December 15 and January 25, the first time under Gabrielowitsch and the second under Rudolf Seigel, guest conductor. The Don Cossack Russian Male Chorus, composed of expatriate Russian army officers of the old regime, were heard in Ann Arbor last year and have been re-engaged for January 13. Last year this organization astounded critics and lay listeners alike in all musical centers of the country with their singing of Russian folk, war and religious songs. Their ensemble singing, ranging from softest pianissimo to vigorous shouts in the war songs, has been a revelation.

Yehudi Menuhin, American boy prodigy of the violin, will come to Ann Arbor on February 4. This is a "lucky break" for the University city, since Menuhin's recitals are always remarkable, but limited in number because of his youth. Percy Grainger, Australian-American pianist, will be heard on February 10. Perhaps most noted for the liveliness and gaiety of his playing and his clever arrangements of American and English folk tunes, Grainger is always very popular. The series will have a gala finale when Rosa Ponselle, possessor of one of the finest soprano voices in opera or concert, as well as a vivacious personality, is heard on March 7.

HE LANDS A 120 "POUNDER" THEN CALLS A DOCTOR

Everybody has read stories of deep sea fishing battles where swordfish and other species of the ocean have whipped the sea into a foaming mass, but when a 120 "pounder" is hooked in a private lake and paraded up the main street of a town to be viewed by all the townfolk, that is something to talk about.

But there is a difference in this story of "120-pounders" for in this case the 120-pounder was Clifford Smith and the angler was Dave Bolton, two well known Plymouth lads who find real pleasure in following the recreation of real fishermen.

The two lads were on a fishing trip up near Brighton when the youthful Bolton had taken a position in the boat similar to that of a look-out. He was all ready to make a cast with a favorite red and white bassareno that he uses for "big fish."

With all the might required to get 250 feet of line out into the water, he made his cast. There was a terrific tug on his reel and a splash of the line that made him think he had landed a whale. As his youthful companion let out a cry, he was sure that he had something big on his hook—and he surely did—for the artificial bait had caught securely in the back of Clifford's head.

Unable to extract it, he hurried to shore in the boat and with the bait dangling from Clifford's head, took him to the hospital in Brighton, where it was extracted without serious injury to the "120-pounder."

Dave Bolton declares that he is through with fishing for this year, but the victim of the accident states that it hasn't frightened him a bit and to prove it he left alone last Monday to spend the week at Whalen lake near Baldwin, with Mr. and Mrs. Myron Marshorfer, where he will complete the fishing trip that ended last week in a hospital.

Saturday night at 8:30, the Redmen will give a dance in the Grange Hall. Ladies admitted free. Gen. Hemen, 35c.

SNIPES OR RAILS CAN BE KILLED UNTIL DEC. 15TH

The Michigan Conservation Commission has fallen in line with the Federal Government by declaring a one month waterfowl hunting season.

The Commission, at its September meeting voted to conform with the shortened federal season, empowering state conservation officers who do not hold federal game law enforcement commissions, to enforce the one-month season. Without such action by the Commission, the Michigan officers who do not also hold federal commissions, would have been powerless to arrest persons for shooting ducks during November and the first fifteen days of December. The 1931 legislature established a state open season on ducks, geese, coots and brant from October 1 to December 15 but the federal authorities rescinded the season to one month: from noon C. S. T., October 1 to October 31. The bag limits on ducks, geese, brant and coots has not been changed. The season for jack snipe and gallinules or rails, are not changed by the federal regulations. The season on these birds will remain the same as those set by the legislature. The jack snipe season starts at 12 o'clock noon, October 1 and ends the night of December 15. Ten snipe may be taken in one day; 20 may be in possession at one time and 50 may be taken in the season. The gallinule or rail season is from 12 o'clock noon October 1 to November 30. The bag limit on gallinules is the same as for snipe. Neither bird may be hunted earlier than one half hour before sunrise or later than sunset each day.

Rooster Wears Pants

A rooster owned by Mrs. J. E. Winkley, of Seattle, Wash., wears trousers. The fowl was hit by a car. Mrs. Winkley, thinking it dead, began plucking its feathers. Then the rooster revived—and Mrs. Winkley made the trousers to cover its nudity.

LAND PIKE THAT WEIGHS ELEVEN POUNDS AND HALF

When Mauna G. Blunk and Goodwin Crumble go fishing, they come back with something besides fish stories as evident by the display of pike they were making about town Monday forenoon.

Carrying a pike over his back that was nearly three feet long, Mr. Blunk went into Pettengill's grocery store to have his catch weighed. Even though the fish had been out of the water for something like 24 hours, it tipped the scales at eleven and a half pounds. Two other pike weighed about four pounds each.

The big catch was made in Maxfield lake, west of Highland, with live minnows.

Ford has offered to construct a modern state police building and the Common Council of Ypsilanti has offered a tract of land, 125 by 66 feet, known as Gilbert park, as a site for the project.

Only TRUTHFUL TIRE ADVERTISING WINS!

WHEN we advertised the fact that Firestone was furnishing us complete lines of Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires that not only met the price but beat the quality and construction of every grade of special brand tires sold by mail order houses and others, the mail order houses made vigorous protests to Better Business Bureaus and made demands upon newspapers not to accept Firestone or our advertising.

We cannot blame them for they did not want car owners to know that they could get, at no more cost, a better tire made by a leading manufacturer, bearing his name and guarantee plus our guarantee and our service.

When car owners awakened to this fact, they came to us, compared the sections we had cut from Firestone Tires and special brand mail order tires, and were astounded

As a result, our business and that of... Firestone Dealers throughout the country, increased so fast that it has been necessary for Firestone to run their factories twenty-four hours a day and Firestone sold more tires in April, May and June than in any like period in the history of the company.

In our advertising we do not make comparisons involving laboratory tests which you cannot verify except in a laboratory—neither do we make comparisons of construction or price based on misleading classifications such as first line tire, second line tire or third line tire—we do not make comparisons to confuse and mislead you as to actual values and service—we only make statements and comparisons that you can verify for yourself in our store before you purchase the tire.

Come in today and get the greater safety, extra quality and extra values found on Firestone Tires.

When the National Better Business Bureau realized that their Bulletin No. 634 was being taken advantage of by some advertisers they issued a Bulletin dated July 10th as follows:

"In our Bulletin No. 634 entitled 'Definitions of Terms Used in the Tire Industry' we published definitions of First Line - Second Line - Third Line - Heavy Duty and Super Heavy Duty Tires.

"Our definitions pointed out, 'Although each manufacturer's or distributor's first line tire may represent his best standard size 4 or 6 ply tire, there is not necessarily any equality of competitive first line tires as to materials, workmanship or price.' This interpretation also applies to all lines of tires.

"We therefore recommend that advertising to the consumer shall avoid the use of these terms for the purpose of comparing competitive products."

"A 'Special Brand' Tire is made by a manufacturer for distributors such as Mail Order houses, oil companies and others, under a name that does not identify the tire manufacturer to the public, usually because he builds his 'best quality' tires under his own name. Firestone puts his name on every tire he makes.

Double Guarantee—Every tire manufactured by Firestone bears the name Firestone and carries Firestone's unlimited guarantee and ours. You are doubly protected.

"Why My Next Car will be A FORD"

WHEN you buy a Ford there are two things you never have to worry about. One is reliability. The other is long life. Here's an interesting letter from a Ford owner in North Carolina:

"My Ford was purchased May 8, 1928, and has been run 121,767 miles. It has never stopped on the road for repairs of any kind whatever except punctures.

"The brakes were relined at 101,000 miles. My gas mileage averaged 21 miles to the gallon, and on tires, 19,000 miles per tire. I travel over all kinds of road conditions—mountainous and flat.

"I consider this a wonderful record and I assure you my next car will also be a Ford."

This is just one of many tributes to the reliability and long life of the Ford. A Ford owner in Iowa tells of driving his Ford 73,000 miles in a single year. Another writes of 120,000 miles of good service.

Think ahead when you are considering the purchase of an automobile and consider what it will be like after thousands of miles of driving. Will you still be satisfied? Will you still say "it's a great car"?

If it's a Ford, you know everything will be O. K. It will be taking you there and back in good style; just as it has always done. And you will have saved many important, worthwhile dollars in cost of operation and up-keep and low yearly-depreciation.

CAVALRY CLUB WILL STAGE FALL HORSE SHOW AT SIX MILE-INKSTER ROADS, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3—PLAN MANY CLASSES

The Cavalry Club of Michigan, already well known throughout this area for its horse shows and its activities in stimulating interest in horses and horsemanship, will sponsor an autumn horse show and gymkhana on the club's own show field, Six Mile and Inkster roads, Saturday afternoon, October 3. The Round Brook and Oakdale riding clubs are cooperating in the event. The first class, for children under 10 years of age, will be called into the ring at 2:30 p. m. The program of events is expected to fill four hours.

Entries will be accepted from all stables in Detroit and the surrounding area. However, it is the purpose of the show to give the people of Northwest Detroit and the Northville-Plymouth-Farmington area an opportunity to develop their horses in their own district. There are more than 700 horses in Northville, Farmington, Plymouth and the northwest Detroit area and it is from this horse center that the entries will be mainly drawn. Comparatively few people, even those including those residing in the northwest section, realize the splendid riding facilities offered locally. Many are, however, taking advantage of the proximity of riding academies and daily enjoying the pleasure of riding across the fields and along the beautiful bridge paths in the district.

The program for the autumn show follows:

- Class No. 1—Children under 10 years of age.
- Class No. 2—Ladies' three-gaited horses.
- Class No. 3—Novice hunters.
- Class No. 4—Five-gaited horses.
- Class No. 5—Quarter-mile flat race.
- Class No. 6—Parent and children (under 15 years of age).
- Class No. 7—Others' chargers.
- Class No. 8—Open jumping.
- Class No. 9—Polo pony scurry.
- Class No. 10—Gentlemen's three-gaited horses.
- Class No. 11—Hunter class.
- Class No. 12—Three-quarter-mile steepchase over brush jumps.

Following the show a barbecue, Argentine style, will be served and during the evening the club will hold open house with dancing.

Further information regarding the autumn horse show may be obtained from Captain C. D. Keith at the Cavalry Club of Michigan, Redford 2847, from Captain V. A. Tareff at Round Brook Riding Club, Six Mile and Middlebelt roads, Farmington 344F13, or from Captain Wm. Wellwood, at Oakdale Riding Club, Redford 0803.

Boxes or individual seats may be obtained through the above mentioned clubs or from Lieut. Waldo T. Johnson, Med. Res., 204 Public Redford Theatre building, 17354 Lahser avenue.

Entries in the various classes may be made up to and including Thursday, October 1.

The show is under the supervision of Captain C. D. Keith, 319th Cavalry, and Captain V. A. Tareff, QM-Res.

Riches By Farm Hand
Farming may or may not be a paying occupation, but a Scottish farm laborer has proved that the job of hired man can be profitable. A farm laborer for 25 years near London, George Simpson, an elderly bachelor, died not long ago and left an estate of $20,000 in cash and securities.

Rosedale Gardens

St. Michael's Parish bulldoz is coming along nicely, the bricklayers almost have their job completed, even to nicely boxing in the huge chimney crocks that Mr. Eukies sent down from Plymouth. Bon Bagozzi had his chauffeur smashed up the other day, but appeared on the job with cane in hand, the better to direct the lathers and plaster artists, as well as the carpenters Adam and Wilbur Burton who have been making the stage in the auditorium, while master plumber Bill Burton has been stepping on the corners of the Federated Utilities gang at gas piping. All this rush, according to Al Henke, is the fact that the Altar Society simply must have everything in order in kitchen and stage in plenty of time for the Fall Festival. At the same time Father John E. Conway is expecting that all will be ready to have Mass in the new building possibly three weeks from Sunday.

Don't forget to give the entrance way and the east end the once over—nice stone and also tile work.

Alterations and additions are still keeping construction superintendent busy. Besides to "Rectory problem" there are the Bryant and King places feeling the touch of the entire force, and then Cousin Silvio is doing another job for the Bohndell's so that Bro. Gelbert Day and Cousin Leo and Uncle Robert Wilson may build a nice moorage to keep the family car from the winter blasts and the summer sun.

Legionnaires from all over the U. S. A. stop, looked, and listened hardily our development, the past week, all conceding the fact that we are as good as, if not better than like places from their "home town." Whatever the section they came from it is still home to them.

CADY SCHOOL NEWS

(Too late for last week)
Cady school opened Sept. 8. We have an enrollment of 155 pupils so far this year. The teachers for this year are Mrs. Ames, Miss Ulter, Mrs. Glenn and Mrs. Truesdell. The following pupils were elected at our citizenship club: President, Margaret Marcotte; vice president, Kazimer Kolomyski; secretary, treasurer, Morris Lord; boys' health officer, Walter Schrader; girls' health officer, Helen Virent.

Our school has a new well and a new cupboard in the library for supplies.
Our school board for this year is as follows: Mr. Dodson, Mr. Skerrett, Mr. Sisman.
We are learning new poems this week: "September," "The Road," "It Couldn't Be Done."

We were very happy to find that all 7th graders had successfully passed their state examinations. Our 8th grade has nine pupils. Last year we had 15 members.

Sad Ending to Meeting
Twenty years had passed since Frank A. Stedman and Robert Joslyn, boyhood chums, had seen each other. They met in the lobby of a bank at Boulder, Colo. Joslyn is vice president of the institution, Stedman a prosperous department store owner in Elgin, Ill. A moment after they shook hands Stedman who was 57 years old, fell dead of heart disease.

Refused To Be Convinced
At Prescott, Ariz., Mrs. Dorothy P. Shelly refused to be convinced the other day when a letter arrived from the federal veterans' bureau saying she was a widow and asking her to apply for the insurance. Ward Shelly, the husband, was not convinced either. He was by his wife's side when the letter arrived.

A FEW "DO YOURS" WHICH MIGHT AID IN SAFE DRIVING

Do you, when driving, observe the "SLOW" sign wherever placed? It was not placed there without reason.

Do you, when driving, observe or bus, stay far enough behind so that when you pull out to see if you can pass you have room to swing back on your own side if vehicles are approaching?

Do you ignore the Yellow Lines approaching hills or curves? They were placed there for your safety, do not cross them.

Do you try to beat the other fellow to it when the sign says "NARROW BRIDGE" or do you slow down and get under control?

Do you keep in the outside lane when making left turns on "curves" or turns, where the road is not plainly visible around the turn, or "take a chance" and cut in on the left side?

Do you slow down on curves when the sign says "35 Miles Safe Speed"—there is a good reason for placing that sign and it is for your safety.

Do you try to pass a slowly moving vehicle which you have trailed up a hill when it starts down, if traffic is closely approaching? Remember, it may greatly accelerate when it starts down and you will be placed in an embarrassing position.

Do you obey the speed law when passing through small towns—20 Miles Per Hour? you know the residents of those towns love their lives, and their children the same as you do, why not extend to them the same courtesy you wish from them.

Do you make over when the car behind signals or do you just back and hunch and "hog the road"? Do you use common sense, backed by the Golden Rule or just drive like a "hoor"?

The Traffic Law protects you from the other fellow, learn it and observe it and help reduce accidents.

There were 107 fatalities and 1467 injury accidents in Michigan in 1930.

MRS. GOTTS, AGE 55 YEARS, DIES

Lottie B. Gotts, who resided at Cherry Hill, passed away at Providence hospital, Detroit, Thursday, September 17th, at the age of 55 years. She was the wife of Edward Gotts. The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, Plymouth, and later taken to her home at Cherry Hill, from which place funeral services were held Saturday, September 19th, 1931, at 2:00 p. m. Interment at Cherry Hill cemetery.

MORE WOMEN ARE WORKING, FEWER MEN EMPLOYED

A steady decline in the gainfully employed percentage of male population over 10 years ago has been shown in each census since 1900, while the percentage of gainfully employed females of the same age group has shown a constant increase during the same years. The Bureau of the Census shows in an analysis of the 1930 figures in an employment report.

Gainfully employed males in 1930 totaled 38,033,795, and females 10,778,794, together representing 48.5 per cent of the population 10 years old and over, or 39.8 per cent of the entire population. The percentage of men gainfully employed declined from 78.2 in 1920 to 76.2 in 1930, while the percentage of women increased from 21.1 in 1920 to 22.1 in 1930.

The Bureau's figures show that the increase in the number of females, gainfully employed, was greater in the decade than for the male population of the same category. But the Bureau was surprised that the increase on the part of the women workers was not greater.

It is common knowledge, it was explained, that more and more women are turning to employment and it was expected that the last 10-year period would show an increase in their numbers—larger than actually occurred. The Bureau has no information which explains why the increase was not larger, since the number of offices, shops, factories and other places where workers may be employed is said to be constantly increasing.

WILL DEVELOP A BIG BLUEBERRY FOR SWAMP LAND

A new crop for Michigan muck lands appears probable as the result of the discovery of excellent types of native blueberries which can be propagated by the process perfected by members of the horticultural department of Michigan State College.

Blueberries will not grow true to seed, and until the new method of rooting cuttings was perfected, it was impossible to produce enough rooted cuttings to make the planting of new areas profitable. The native, wild varieties vary so much in size and quality of berries that no great market demand could be created.

Fifty live Michigan people sent samples of native berries to the College horticultural department this summer, and from these, two excellent specimens were chosen for propagation. The best sample was sent in by Mrs. Fred Taylor, Grass Lake, and the next best by Mrs. Williams, Zeeland.

The bush from which Mrs. Taylor chose samples grew berries which were over one-half inch in diameter and of excellent flavor. The other bush was nearly as good.

The finding of the Michigan bushes which have survived the rigors of several seasons proves the hardiness of the varieties. Cuttings will be made and the plants grown from these will furnish enough cuttings for extensive commercial plantings. Michigan has large areas of swamp lands which are adapted to blueberry production.

FUNERAL OF MISS MATEN IS TODAY

AN INDEPENDENT FOOTBALL TEAM IS ORGANIZED

A team composed of former Plymouth and Northville high school players is rounding into shape to give Plymouth football fans a chance to see some real football this fall. This team plans to have a game every Sunday at the new field at Riverside park, beginning October 11. The fans can look forward to some real games as only fast teams from Detroit and surrounding towns are being looked.

LIGHTNING KILLS NOVI MAN DURING A SUDDEN STORM

During one of the sudden storms which prevailed late Wednesday afternoon all around Plymouth, but missed this place entirely, lightning struck and instantly killed Frank P. Raineri, 78 years old, as he stood under a tree in Novi. With his son he has conducted a small eating place near and here near the Standard Oil station called "Novi Gardens." He had apparently gone up to the tree as the storm broke to remove a pet chicken that had been fastened to the tree. Just as he reached for it, lightning struck the tree and he was instantly killed. Mr. Raineri and his son came here but a few months ago from Detroit.

YPSILANTI BOY DIES FROM FOOT BALL INJURIES

Wayne Merrifield, 21 years old, former Ann Arbor High athlete, died early Sunday morning as a result of injuries suffered in Michigan State Normal College's first football scrimmage held last Saturday morning.

Merrifield, a junior, was making his first bid for a tackle position on the Normal team. When he was carried off the field Saturday, it was believed that he suffered solely from a broken leg. He made no other complaints.

At the Normal Health Cottage, where Merrifield was taken, he later summoned physicians and they discovered the youth was suffering from a rupture of internal organs. He sank rapidly and died at 1 a. m.

Physicians, because of the youth's failure to complain of internal injury at the time the broken leg was set, are uncertain whether it was sustained in the same play. It was believed possible that the youth might have been injured in previous plays and not bothered by pain.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Hildebrandt Funeral Home in Ann Arbor, with burial being in Helaire, Mich., Merrifield's former home.

POSTMASTER IS ADVISED OF NEW YORKTOWN STAMP

Postmaster Bert Giles has been notified that the department is preparing to issue a special postage stamp in the 2-cent denomination to commemorate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Battle of Yorktown.

The stamp is rectangular in shape, .850 by 1.46 inches in dimensions. It is printed in two colors, the background being in red and the three portraits in black.

The Yorktown stamp will first be placed on sale October 20, 1931, at the post offices in Yorktown, Va., and Westchester, Conn. (Branch of Hartford). The new stamp will be available for purchase at other post offices and the Philatelic Agency on October 20.

Stamp collectors desiring Yorktown cancellations of the 2-cent Yorktown commemorative stamp may send a limited number of addressed covers, not to exceed 10, to the postmasters at the above offices with a cash or postal money order remittance to exactly cover the value of the stamps required for affixing.

NUTTY NATURAL HISTORY BY HUGH HUTTON

THE GREAT HORNED GOOP The goop is a very shy animal and comes out on the glaciers of the French Alps only twice a year to shed its spots. It eats nothing but icicles and baled hay wire. When young its tail is quite long, but the first winter it freezes stiff and pieces break off as the goop swings it about to knock the white trees out of the way.

Of course, he's nothing but a couple of peanuts and some tooth-picks with popcorn spines and ears stuck on with chewing gum. Cloves make very good horns, and a little work with a pen will fix up some nice eyes, spots, and rings on his tail. You can tell how old he is by the number of rings he hasn't broken off yet.

THREE KILLED BY SEWER CAVE-IN NEAR DEARBORN

Three men were killed instantly and two others injured seriously in a sewer cave-in at Southfield Road and Airport Drive, Dearborn, at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. The dead are: Charles Varlese, 7107 Hartwell Ave.; E. Foglitta, 3203 Emerson Road, and Cris Carrigni, 3201 Amazon St., all of Dearborn.

Ricco Tarrosani, 4560 Maple Ave., and George Panovitch, 357 Maple Ave., Dearborn, suffered crushed injuries. They were taken to the Ford Motor Co.'s First Aid Hospital in Dearborn.

The sewer construction, which is known as a storm and sanitary incinerator, runs between Dearborn's River Rouge. The collapse involved a stretch under construction of about 900 feet. It was estimated that 1,800 tons of blue clay were precipitated into the ditch which is about 25 feet deep.

According to Alfred Heineman, 1714 Electric St., Lincoln Park, construction foreman who witnessed the cave-in, the men were digging in the bottom of the pit. Blue clay which had been excavated had been piled along the edge of the embankment to a height of eight or nine feet. This, Heineman said, rested on a surface of water. A loan which was unable to support the tremendous weight of the clay. The loan slid into the ditch, carrying with it the heavier clay.

JOB, NOT DOLES, ENABLE GRAND RAPIDS TO CARRY ON IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM THAT ATTRACTS ATTENTION OF COUNTRY

Jobs instead of doles is the order in Grand Rapids; for every dollar the city spends in public relief Grand Rapids gets 80 cents in labor on public improvements.

All the physically able unemployed men in the city, paradoxically speaking, are at work on projects that have accumulated over a period of years, projects that have not required the city has on hand or can acquire easily out of funds regularly budgeted to the various city departments.

The finding of jobs in Grand Rapids was an easy matter for as have all cities, Grand Rapids had shelved numerous projects in years gone by largely because of lack of funds. The chief item of expense connected with most of these projects was labor. But since the supply of labor is all too plentiful and the city is faced with the task of providing food and clothing for an unusually large number, the decision was made to beautify and improve the city, both to the benefit of the city and the unemployed.

Some 2,000 men, many of them heads of families, are now busy building many of the things that Grand Rapids has wanted for a long time. The Grand Rapids method, which has been in operation since December, 1929, has been so successful in eliminating the financial dole that now the city receives three per cent of the cases receive direct relief. But this direct relief goes only to families without an able-bodied bread-winner or to families too large for the part-time efforts of the father to support.

Every able-bodied unemployed man in Grand Rapids who is in need of assistance is working under a system which enables him to get along satisfactorily without losing his self-respect. These men are creating a new park, widening and extending streets, building new sidewalks, rounding off street corners for the convenience and safety of motorists, laying water mains and sewer lines, setting axes for the city wood pile, filling in city lots, painting city buildings, and a hundred and one other things which various city officials have on their books.

Already these men have razed the buildings on the site for the new municipal auditorium on which many unemployed men are at work. A fine swimming pool in a city park has also been constructed, whose utility demonstrates the soundness of the Grand Rapids plan, as worked out by City Manager George Welsh.

Men being given jobs by the city receive their compensation almost entirely in scrip. Scrip is a paper money, good for trade only at the city's store. Workmen are paid at the rate of 40 cents an hour, but at the city store the prices of food stuff and clothing and other necessities are so low that the workman's salary goes a long way. The scrip plan was adopted largely for the reason that it simplified the transference of food and clothing to workmen and lessened the danger of mis-spending and fraud. At first, the Grand Rapids merchants felt that the establishment of a city store was discriminatory; however the efficiency of this method has been proved and now local merchants have changed their opinions.

The men work only in half-day shifts. The number of half-days the individual works during the week is determined by his needs and the number of dependents. Men with large families may work every day while the man with one or two dependents may work two, three or four half-days per week. Single men naturally work less than married men and for the most part, the single men are taken care of in the city's Social Center, which is housed in an old church. When an individual makes application for assistance from the city, he is given a thorough medical examination regardless of his physical condition. City doctors determine whether or not a man is capable of work and whether or not he is fit for heavy or light duty. Those who have been residents of Grand Rapids a year or more are eligible for assistance.

The scrip labor plan has the striking advantage of keeping away the "scabs"—those men who are willing to take something for nothing even if they do not need it.

Grand Rapids prides herself in elimination of the pauper status from the lives of her hundreds and hundreds of fine workmen. Grand Rapids feels that the retention of pride in these workmen will react decidedly to the city's advantage in the future. Further, Grand Rapids, always a city of pleasing appearance, is rapidly becoming one of the most attractive cities in the country, a city free from drabness.

Grand Rapids is doing all this work through a simple financing process. Finances for relief work are obtained through bond issues, based on a special assessment of one-fourth of one per cent of the assessed valuation of property. This requires only a small outlay from the taxpayer and eliminates the guesswork that goes with voluntary contributions.

But the most striking thing of all is that as one saunters down the streets of Grand Rapids, dozens of dozens of signs will be seen reading, "Dancer—Men at Work."

RAIN SHORTAGE HURTS ALL LATE CROPS IN STATE

Another decided decline in Michigan field crop prospects occurred during August. A deficient amount of rainfall, coupled with an unusually dry soil, has effectively reduced the yields of all late-season crops according to the monthly report issued by Herbert E. Powell, State Commissioner of Agriculture, and Verne H. Church, U. S. Agricultural Statistician. Potatoes, beans and pastures have suffered the most severely. Corn, oats, barley, buckwheat, and sugar beets show decline in condition of from five to ten points. Fruit is abundant, but in price, well colored, and of fine flavor.

While the corn crop is slightly below average, it promises a production of 43,000,000 bushels. This is greatly in excess of the extremely poor crop of 25,276,000 bushels raised in 1929. Many fields are well cared and the ears are well filled. In many others, the ears are short and poorly filled. The crop matured early and silo filling has been nearly completed.

Oats and barley were very poor in the northern half of the state, but the yield increased southward and was very good in some of the extreme southern counties. The grain is lighter in weight than usual.

The condition of field beans dropped from 75 to 48 per cent of normal during August. This indicates a yield of only seven bushels per acre, and a total production of 5,804,000 bushels as compared with 122,200 bushels last year. Early plantings generally yielded the best. Many fields planted around the average date have few or no pods, and some acreage is too poor to warrant the expense of harvesting. Late fields were blooming at the end of August and may produce a best partial crop if September is favorable. The Nation's crop is placed at 18,725,000 bushels as compared with 21,967,000 bushels harvested last year.

Sugar beets have withstood drought conditions better than other field crops and the indicated production is 422,000 tons, which is an average of 7.5 tons per acre. Heat and drought have greatly lowered Michigan's potato prospects. Sections that have been favored with rains have a fair setting of tubers, but they are small in size and dependent upon more moisture soon if they are to reach marketable quality. Many fields are already past further improvement. The outlook is best in the northern half of the state. Prospects are poor in Minnesota and North Dakota, somewhat doubtful in Wisconsin, and rather poor in Maine and Pennsylvania where late light prevails quite generally and where the crop is ripening more or less prematurely. The total production for the United States is estimated at 361,636,000 bushels as compared with 343,236,000 bushels in 1931. With the existing unemployment situation and consequent low buying power of consumers, the price outlook is less favorable than last year if this production is actually attained at the end of the season.

Michigan peaches and apples are far more plentiful than in any recent year. There is about 50 per cent of a full crop of peaches, 60 per cent of a crop of grapes, 62 per cent of a crop of plums, and 70 per cent of a melon crop. Prices are low and the quality of all fruits is excellent. This is a year when householders can economize through extensive home canning, and thereby assist Michigan growers in disposing of their abundant fruit crop.

Coming Attractions At Penniman-Allen

"HUCKLEBERRY FINN"

Four delightful child actors and a distinguished cast of adults bring enjoyable entertainment to the Penniman-Allen theatre where Paramount's "Huckleberry Finn" the second of the Mark Twain classics to come to the screen, is showing on Sunday and Monday, September 27 and 28.

Young Jackie Coogan is again cast in the role of Tom Sawyer, in which he made such a hit in the moving picture of that name. And Junior Durkin continues his portrayal of Huckleberry Finn. Mizzi Green and Jackie Seal are just as enjoyable as "Huckleberry Finn" as they were in "Tom Sawyer."

Pat and jolly Eugene Pallette heads the cast of adults. He portrays one of the pair of desperados who lead Tom and Huck into mischief. Oscar Apfel is the other bad man. Clara Blandick is again seen in the role of the worried Aunt Polly, and Jane Darwell portrays the role of Widow Douglas.

"Huckleberry Finn" carries on the adventures of the real boys Mark Twain wrote about in "Tom Sawyer." Huck runs away from home to escape his father, and, in the search that follows, Tom Sawyer finds him. Together, the boys plan a runaway, fall in with two funny rascals, rescue two innocent girls from the wicked designs of the bad men, and win more honor and renown.

The direction of this picture is credited to Norman Taurog who made such a success of his first two kid-featured moving pictures, "Skippy" and "Forbidden Adventure." More than two hundred youngsters of all ages add zest to the ruffianing romance. The juvenile cast of "Huckleberry Finn" is larger even than that of "Tom Sawyer" or "Skippy" and the picture is one of the most highly entertaining pictures for youngsters of all ages, the screen has ever presented.

There are laughs, tears, thrills, heart-throbs and deep-down emotions galore in the amusing adventures of Mark Twain's immortal young heroes.

"HONEYMOON LANE"

There seems to be a trend, among the newer productions of Hollywood, toward simplicity and charm in talkie plots, a trend toward warm and appealing "heart laceration."

Eddie Dowling gives a splendid example of this seeming vogue in "Honey Moon Lane," his first picture since "The Ruthless Man," which comes to the Penniman-Allen Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, September 30 and October 1.

"Honey Moon Lane" is far, far removed from the blood-curdling, or jazzy films of a few months ago. It is brilliant with romantic fervor, seasoned with plenty of chuckles and outright laughs, and played by a brilliant cast of actors including Ray Dooley, Raymond Hatton, June Collyer, Mary Carr, Corliss Palmer, Noah Beery, George Katsouras, and Ethel Wales.

The story is one of how young love and faith entirely over-ride the machinations of plotters, thus and even ill circumstance. It's the romance of a young modern fellow and the girl of his heart. Her uncle, a gambling house operator, tries to break up the affair, but the faith of "Mother" Murphy, owner of a hotel which runs in opposition to the gambling house on lines of clean dealing, bolsters the lad's courage. Good luck takes a hand when a visiting monarch, Incognito, seeks rest at "Mother" Murphy's—and just when things seem darkest, fortune turns and the lovers and "Mother" win out.

Eddie Dowling, who as a brilliant playwright and stage star has the reputation of never writing of appearing in a "dog" production, upholds that tradition in this show. He and the beautiful Miss Collyer are seen as the lovers. Mary Carr is the adorable "Mother" Murphy. Raymond Hatton, a sure-fire comedian, assisted by that former wrestling champ, George Katsouras, appear as a couple of side-splitting gambling house bouncers. Noah Beery is the villainous uncle—and Ray Dooley, comedienne of "The Follies" for ten years, provides much fun as a sort of filter-tightest around "Mother" Murphy's hotel.

"DAUGHTER OF THE DRAGON"

These two outstanding Orientals, Anna May Wong and Sessue Hayakawa, are very much worthwhile at the Penniman-Allen theatre, Friday and Saturday, October 2 and 3, where they are featured with Warner Oland, the original Fu Manchu. In a new episode of the fascinating Sessue Hayakawa series, filmed by Paramount as "Daughter of the Dragon."

For those who like romance seasoned with puzzles, thrills and action evolved from lurking mystery, this production talks right out and says big things to any movie audience.

Miss Wong is an oriental actress of obvious personal points, who surrenders to her dying father's wish and drops a glamorous point of variance in London's theatrical armament to project a program of vengeance. With all his feudish application of chemistry and psychology, Fu Manchu was not a more resolute menace than the pretty daughter proves to be. Loved by an exalted gentleman of her own race, loving an English nobleman, she allows her heart dictates no chance to defeat the accomplishment of her oath.

The scene of action spins from Limehouse, London's gay white way, and murky Thames River, to luxurious estates of the titled. There are plenty of secret passels and passageways, ominous shadows, and a climax that will grasp your

PLYMOUTH GIRL ENTERS WOOSTER

Miss Catherine Nichol, 178 Main St., Plymouth, is among the students enrolled at Wooster College in Wooster, Ohio.

At the close of registration 828 students had enrolled at Wooster. The present economic depression did not cause the slump in enrollment expected. College authorities believe the total will be increased to 840, a mark below which Wooster has not fallen for ten semesters.

"Are you fit to be educated?" Dr. Charles F. Wishart, president of the college, challenged the Wooster students to do their best this year by his opening convocation address on that subject.

ELECTROCHEF'S "FLAVOR CONSERVING" OVEN broils this delicious balanced meal!

Broiling, according to dietitians, is used far too little. Because of its healthfulness and delicious flavor, the broiling method of preparing meals should be used often. Here is a time-saving broiled oven meal to appeal to the housewife. It can be prepared with only one utensil, and consists of tomatoes, broiled ham, and potatoes-on-the-half-shell (the potatoes having been previously baked). The ELECTROCHEF oven, with its "flavor conserving" heat, makes this broiled meal far superior to ordinary methods of preparation. As one dietitian says: "We are not cooking in fat, and, when we grill, we are sealing-in the flavor and health values of food." ELECTROCHEF's gentle, uniform heat assures the utmost tenderness in the ham, and the tomatoes and potatoes are evenly browned and cooked. This delicious meal is only one of many you can enjoy with the modern ELECTROCHEF electric range!

Don't Worry

Accidents will happen. And they will happen to you and your car too. If you're well covered by auto collision, property damage, public liability and theft, or fire insurance, however, rest assured that whatever damage your car sustains, from a bent fender to utter annihilation, you'll be wholly recompensed under the terms of your policy. Christian Science Churches
"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in 38 Christian Science Churches on Sunday, September 20.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up." (II Peter 3:10).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To all that is unlike unerring and eternal Mind, this Mind saith, 'Thou shalt surely die'; and elsewhere the Scripture says that dust returns to dust" (p. 277).

Methodist Notes
Thursday, October 1st, there will be an Open Board Meeting and District Rally of the Woman's Home Missionary Society at Ann Arbor M. E. Church, at ten o'clock. Booster Sunday-school class members please take notice: Pot-luck supper to be held tonight, Friday, at Riverside Park, at 6:30 sharp. Weather not favorable, meet at the church. Last meeting, Dr. and Mrs. Lendrum will be with us.

Catholic Notes
Sunday is Holy Communion Sunday for the children of the parish. Parents are urged to send their children to confession Saturday night.

On Thursday evening, September 10, Mrs. William Micol entertained about twenty-four guests at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Forest avenue, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Norma Brown of Belleville. The evening was very delightfully passed in playing luncheon. The guest of honor received many lovely gifts, which she will always prize. During the evening dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Speakeasy methods have gone in to force at the First State Bank in Fox River Grove, Ill., because of two hold-ups within a year. When anyone knocks at the bank door Richard Novak, the president, inspects them. No strangers are admitted, but if the person is known the bars are drawn long enough for him to enter.

CHAS. & ELMER

If you have ever paid for merchandise and learned later that somebody bought it for less, you understand the justice of the one-price policy.

A home that is your own is as good as a savings account. Plan to invest in one this year.

We know a man who has decided to sell his second car & pay off the mortgage on his first one.

Now is the time to mention the fact that Celotex saves coal. It's a real insulation and you can put it on yourself.

We mustn't forget, at this season of the year, to mention our cedar for lining closets. You'll find it here!

Have you noticed that men don't tip their hats to ladies anymore? Why is that?

Roll Roofing prices are very low. See us today for particulars. The Lee Foundry has already purchased thirty rolls.

Install storm doors and sash in your house this fall. It will pay you good dividends.

A Plymouth lady read the statement of the Plymouth U. S. Bank the other day. "Isn't that fine," she remarked, "both sides of their figures are exactly even."

Make that empty coal bin of yours pay you dividends. Get your coal in now and save the price of a couple of tons. Fill your bin now with Blue Grass coal. Guaranteed to make warm friends.

Money to Burn

By Peter B. Kyne

CHAPTER X Arrived at Doris's home, Elmer soberly announced his intention of departing for Pilarcitos next day, but promised to look in again on his way north and say good-by.

With the license of an old friend he sat down beside her, and tenderly inquired what the matter might be.

Many a man has been captured in this way, but nevertheless as secretly Elmer had three hundred miles of motoring before him that day, so he did not linger long over his leave-taking—just long enough to swear undying love and promise fervently to write the light of his life daily until they should meet again.

As a serious commentary on the unfaithfulness of man and the general inconsistency of the creature, it is worthy to remark that thirty miles up the road Elmer Clarke quivered, sighed dismally and murmured very distinctly: "Oh, Lord, what an ass I am! What a jam I'm in! What am I going to do?"

Elmer Clarke suffered every foot of the journey back to Pilarcitos. No man who reproached himself with having made a mistake, but he faced no unpleasant issue and there was no possible chance of avoiding it if he purposed living with himself the remainder of his life.

Elmer, she said suddenly, "you're unhappy. Am I the cause of your unhappiness?"

"I am not a mind reader, Elmer. That's why I ask questions. Now, you have decided on a new sweetheart, are you dissatisfied with your selection?"

"No-o!" He was ready to weep. "It lacerates me, Nellie, but I had to tell you. A fellow's got to come clean with a girl like you—no use to play a double game. I've made a mistake. Took you out tonight to tell you—thanks for helping me with the dirty job."

"Please do not mention it, Elmer, dear. It's my fault entirely. Nobody knew better than I the risks I was taking—and I'm much too wise to think a mere man can be a partner. You were quite within your rights in following the dictates of your wandering fancy. I thought you might want to some time, so I decided to give you a free hand and let it happen now. I entertain no resentment, Elmer, and there isn't the slightest necessity for you and me. Escanting our lovely friendship. I am of the opinion that you do not know any more about women than a gopher does about astronomy and I am perfectly willing that you should have a wide experience before I take on the job of educating you. To date you're the finest man I have ever met and I'm not going to ruin my happiness by letting you escape. I'll get you yet, Elmer. Meanwhile, enjoy yourself."

so well that explanations aren't necessary. Cheer up, Elmer, and be happy. By the way, the town is up to its eyes in excitement over your threat to run for mayor. Did you mean it?"

"Greatest thing you know, Nellie." "Great news! Well, here we are at home. Good night, Elmer. God's in his heaven, and all's right with the world. She said Ordinarily I wouldn't have parted, whatever you do, Elmer, use your head and not your heart. Be sure you're right and go ahead."

"I want to kiss you," he confessed. "You are a philanthropist, aren't you? Well, what's a kiss more or less between friends—and ex-sweethearts? There!"

Also she was quick to note the restraint in Elmer's over-pleasant voice and chided him with it. She made him assure her that he loved her—and only her. Thus cornered, Elmer gave the assurance demanded—in writing. Later, upon request, he sent his photograph, on which appeared these words: "To Doris, from her devoted Elmer."

Then suddenly, like a swooping falcon, came a heart-breaking letter from dear Harvey and favored all of his little principal in an enterprise which had failed. The shock of this terrible loss had sickened him, and at the moment he was, according to no less than two doctors, developing an abscess in his right lung, due to the gassing he had received in France. Her own income, earned as a correspondent for the American Weekly was insufficient to support them even in the humble style to which they had been accustomed, and she faced the terrible necessity of seeing Harvey bundled off to a public hospital. If Elmer could send her a thousand dollars to time them over, or better.

"I smelled that touch coming, only I thought it would come from Harvey. Well, one thing is certain—they need that thousand dollars badly, or Doris could never have asked me for it."

Still wrapped in the fogs of misunderstanding and still in incomplete possession of his senses, Elmer sent her a check on the Pilarcitos Commercial Trust & Savings bank for the sum in question. Two days later the check was returned through a Los Angeles bank for payment.

Now, it so happened that Alice Goodfellow had had an attack of the megrims that day and in consequence Nellie Cathcart had to take over Miss Goodfellow's task of posting the customers' ledger. Naturally, as she sorted the checks at the close of the day's business preparatory to charging them up, she came across Elmer B. Clarke's check for the sum of one thousand dollars, in favor of Doris Gatewood, and bore, in addition, the endorsement of Harvey Gatewood and the Los Angeles bank.

"Fast work, Doris darling," Nellie murmured. From a stack of printed tags she selected one and checked off in red ink from a long list of standard excuses for failure to honor a check the excuse that she knew would start a riot between Elmer and the police without involving her, to wit: "Signature of indorser irregular." And that was absolutely true, since Nellie knew the names in both cases were fictitious. With a little smile of malice she inserted the rejected check in an envelope and shot it back to the Los Angeles bank.

"And now," she murmured to the adding machine, "we shall see that which we shall see. This new love of Elmer's will wire for an explanation and he will come over to the bank with blood in his forelovers eyes and demand an explanation of Anse Moody. Old Anse will call me in and scold me for being stupid and I'll have to hand Elmer jolt number one. After that the other olts will follow in rapid succession. Anse, poor Elmer!"

voice demanded of that astounded individual what the devil he meant by refusing payment on one of his checks.

"Don't know a thing about it, Elmer," old Anse protested humbly. Alice Goodfellow tends to all that, she was sick yesterday an' Nellie Cathcart posted up the customers' ledger. I reckon Nellie knows why she put it over to her care an' I'll ask her, boy."

"I know what I am about," he replied quietly. "May I suggest that before you send your own business and leave me the minding of my own? Those signatures were perfectly regular and you know it. I want you to wire that Los Angeles bank to send the check back to this bank for payment. Why, Nellie, you must be looney to do such a thing."

"Sorry I missed that one," Nellie replied complacently, "but what me line out the next ball that passes over the plate. Run along now. I assure you I have no desire to laugh in your face—you big boob!"

The first thing Nellie Cathcart saw, as the curtain went up before her window at ten o'clock the next morning, was Elmer Butterworth Clarke. He said very distinctly: "Stop payment on that Gatewood check, please."

"I knew it," Elmer soliloquized. "I smelled that touch coming, only I thought it would come from Harvey. Well, one thing is certain—they need that thousand dollars badly, or Doris could never have asked me for it."

"Five minutes from now, I'm motoring to San Francisco and will take the Overland Limited from there."

"Not afraid of you, Nellie—just a little ashamed to face you, that's all. I'm going away to—well, I think I ought to go away for a while, for the good of my soul."

"Are you sorry now that you stopped payment on that check?" "That's right," he agreed lifelessly.

"I thought you might be. One cannot trust one's fiancée so casually and hope to escape unscathed, Elmer. I'd feel badly at such treatment myself."

"But you told me she was. You jilted me for her. Surely you must have been quite certain of your ground before you disclosed your altered feelings toward me."

"Well, she's no fiancée of mine," he protested doggedly. "Then, pray, what is she? A friend?"

"No, my dear, I'm not a coward," he replied coldly. "I have a distinguished Service cross to prove that."

"You did," he said huskily. "I'm gully on all three counts. I'm terribly sorry Ordinarily I wouldn't have parted, whatever you do, Elmer, use your head and not your heart. Be sure you're right and go ahead."

MOTHER SEES NAME

Following the preliminary entertainment, C. Donald Ryder, the retiring Commander of the Beals Post, introduced George A. Smith as toastmaster for the evening. That the audience appreciated Mr. Smith's witty comments was evidenced by the laughter which greeted his numerous sallies. Mr. Smith then introduced Father Patrick Dunningan of Flint, as the guest speaker. Father Dunningan takes rank with the most respected and beloved Chaplains who saw service with the American Expeditionary Forces. He was chaplain of the 32nd Division.

Father Dunningan's opening remark brought good natured laughter from everyone. He said that not so many years ago a scene such as we have before us this evening could hardly have been possible, a priest addressing an audience in a Presbyterian church, and when he chose to be serious, his remarks were closely followed. Both he and Mr. Smith emphasized the hope that the press would not play up comparatively minor incidents in connection with the American Legion Convention, but would stress the really big vital issues which will receive attention from the delegates there for a serious purpose.

The solemn, moving part of the program was reached when C. H. Bennett, as president of the Daisy Manufacturing Company, arose to present the new colors which were brought to the speakers' table by two Boy Scouts as the audience respectfully saluted the flag. Mr. Bennett's remarks follow:

"Members of Myron H. Beals Post No. 32, of the American Legion; both personally and in behalf of the officers and directors of the Daisy Manufacturing Company, whom, as president, I have the pleasure of representing here this evening, I wish to extend to your organization our sincere thanks for making it possible for us to be present with you upon this memorable occasion and in partaking with you of this delicious repast. Perhaps it is because of the fact that I am always hungry, but it does seem to me you have the right idea and that we would get better acquainted and know one another much better and much sooner if we would meet together and eat more often.

"I would have you know that I appreciate the signal honor the officers of your Post have conferred upon me in inviting me to make the formal presentation of the flags that are here unfurled tonight for the first time in public. Most gladly do I comply with your wishes and it gives me more pleasure than you realize, in behalf of the Daisy Company, to present to your Post these two silk banners—the one, the colors and insignia of the largest and most patriotic body of young men in all the world today, The American Legion, an organization of which I am proud to state you.

PEACH DESSERTS

PEACHES served "au naturel" and cut up peaches with powdered sugar and cream are delicious for dessert but best they wear out their welcome before the peach season is half over try some of these peach desserts for dinner now and then.

Peach Snow.
For peach snow, heat a cupful of cream until it is stiff and add half a cupful of sugar and two egg whites, beaten stiff. Cut up a quart of peaches in a glass dish and pour the cream mixture over them. The peaches and the cream should both be chilled through before mixing. Serve them as soon as they are mixed.

Peach Custard.
Cover the bottom of a baking dish with peeled, split, and sweetened peaches, hollow-side up. Heat a quart of milk and thicken it with two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch rubbed smooth with a little cold milk. Flavor to taste, add four tablespoonfuls of sugar, a pinch of salt, two eggs well beaten, and a teaspoonful of butter. Cook until smooth and thick, stirring constantly, then pour over the peaches, cover with meringue and bake until puffed and brown. Serve either hot or cold.

Peach Foam.
Press three or four ripe peaches through a colander, making one cupful pulp and juice together. Stir one envelope gelatin with one-half cupful of sugar and dissolve in one cupful of boiling water. Add peach pulp juice flavored with one tablespoonful lemon juice or almond extract and pinch of salt. Set in cool place, and when beginning to jelly, add the well-beaten whites of two eggs, and beat all together until very thick so it will not separate. Pour into molds and set in cool place until firm. Serve with custard sauce.

NETHEM WINS FROM CREAMERY IN FAST CONTEST

Nethem defeated Jersey Creamery from Detroit, at Roussau Park last Sunday, to the tune of 6 to 4. Gale pitched great ball in the pinches, to gain another victory for the year. Gale and Schultz were the hitting stars of the game, each getting three out of four trips to the plate.

Next Sunday the strong Liberty A. C. club of Detroit, will be the local attraction. To date each team has one victory to its credit. Don't forget the time of the game will be 2:30 p. m.

HEALTH RULES TO BE STUDIED

Twelve groups of Wayne County women enrolled in the home economics extension groups under Michigan State College, will this year study "Prevention and Correction of Diet" according to Miss Emma Dufford, County Home Demonstration Agent. The first meeting of project leaders will be held in Wayne Library from 10 A. M. to 3:30 P. M. on Thursday, October 1, 1931. Miss Mabel Dundas, nutrition specialist from the Michigan State College, will discuss the question of weight. Why are you the size you are? Do your habits effect your weight, shape and growth? Too many people get over and underweight as indications of ill health. As long as they are able to be up and move around, they think they are well. The control of weight so that it hovers about the average is a simple enough thing to do if there are no physical handicaps. How to reduce and maintain health and how to gain in weight and build health will be studied in detail, and meals with their calorie evaluation will be planned for the "overs and unders."

Dance at Grange Hall, Saturday night at 8:30 P. M.

Firemen Will Play

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to witness this battle.

In a loosely played game, Plymouth lost to the City of Hamtramck club, 8 to 1, at Burroughs Park last Sunday. John Zdrovski pitched the locals seven scattered hits, while Estel Rowland yielded six to the visitors. It was the poor fielding on the part of the locals that decided the contest in favor of Hamtramck.

PRESENTATION OF THE COLORS

Dedicated to the Myron H. Beals Post of the American Legion and to all those who went into a strange land to fight a foreign foe.

Amidst the speeches sad and gay To honor those who went one day To fight a nation's cause— The speaker rose and raised his hand. Then, asking everyone to stand, Brought forth our country's flag, A splendid flag whose brilliant hue Of snowy white, and red and blue Received a hearty cheer. Its glowing stripes and field of stars Were unquarried by rents or scars Of warfare grim and dread. Throughout the clapping and the praise, Our soldiers lived again the days Spent on the fields of France. And saw the flag they loved so well Once blacked by smoke and pierced by shell.

Now waving bright and new, All bowed their heads in silent prayer Before the colors floating there In memory of France.

—Madelon Shingleton.

THIS WOMAN LOST 64 POUNDS OF FAT

Mrs. H. Price of Woodside, L. I., writes: "A year ago I weighed 190 lbs. I started to take Kruschen and now I weigh 126 and never felt better in my life and what's more, I look more like 20 yrs. old than the mother of 2 children, one 19 and the other 18. Every one of my friends say it's marvelous the way I reduced."

To lose fat with speed take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—don't miss a morning—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—get it at Community Pharmacy or any drug store in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

Old Gardener Says:

IN MANY parts of the country the torch lily or red-hot poker, catalogued both as Tritoma and Kniphofia, can be wintered in the open ground with a light protection in the way of leaves or pine boughs. In New England and other northern states, however, it is very often killed, for which reason it is better to take up the plants when cold weather comes, storing them in boxes of dry sand or coal ashes in the cellar, or with a slight covering in a cold-frame or a pit. If this were generally adopted, these brilliant flowers would be seen much more often in northern gardens. They are to be prized for their habit of blooming in the autumn, although some of the newer kinds will flower almost continuously from midsummer.
