

ZERO HOUR NEAR IN PRIMARY WAR

Candidates Must Have The Petitions Filed By Tuesday

The deadline is near for political candidates. If you want to run for office—and never in the history of Michigan has there been so full of candidates—you must file your petitions before 5 o'clock next Tuesday, July 26.

If you are seeking county office, the petition must be filed with the county clerk.

If you are running for congress or some state office, other than legislative offices within Wayne county, you must file your petitions with the secretary of state in Lansing.

The final line-up indicates not less than five contestants for the Republican nomination for governor.

There is Wilbur M. Brucker, the present governor, who is seeking re-nomination and election as a dry and upon the record he has made since election as governor.

Then comes George Welsh, former lieutenant governor, who as manager of the city of Grand Rapids has attracted nation wide attention because of the way he has handled the employment problem in that city since the depression started and who is openly in favor of a repeal of the 18th amendment.

Mr. Welsh served two terms as lieutenant governor and is not a stranger to state affairs.

Next comes the Hon. William McLaughlin, mayor of Flint, who has fought more and bloodier political battles than any other living politician, who faces recall elections and court charges, always to be cleared of any wrong doing or intent.

Then comes the hitch-hiker candidate, Orlin G. Givens of Shiawassee county, who states that he represents the dirt farmers and if elected will see to it that the farming interests of Michigan are properly protected.

The final and probably most spectacular entry is that of Edward A. Nowak, publisher of the Michigan State Digest in Lansing, who surprised the politicians by getting something like 25,000 signatures to his petitions within a week after they were sent out.

It was Editor Nowak who investigated the investigation into various leading company scandals in Michigan. He has been an exceedingly severe critic of the securities commission and is basing his candidacy upon a platform devoted to security and bonding reforms in the state.

The Democratic race has narrowed down to three entries, veteran William Comstock who because he has carried the banner through three hopeless campaigns, has been induced to take up the standard at a time when Democrats think they have a chance of electing a governor, is the outstanding candidate in this race.

Claude Carney of Kalamazoo whose chief claim to glory lies in the fact that he was once elected to a minor office in Kalamazoo county when the Democrats were themselves surprised on waking up one morning after election to find that a number of them had been elected to office. He has been a perennial candidate for something in that part of the state for a number of years and now hopes to induce his party to name him his nominee for governor. Like a lot of Republican candidates, his call to high office came from within his own bosom. A self-starting candidate, as some term him, Judge O'Brien of Detroit is another seeker for the Democratic post. He has some Detroit and Upper Peninsula support it is said.

Unfortunately Plymouth will not again have the opportunity to support Congressman Earl Michener of Adrian as this city has been taken out of the second congressional district and made a part of the newly organized 17th district. This district is comprised of all of Oakland county, Plymouth, Livonia, Northville and Redford townships of Wayne county and the 22nd ward of Detroit.

There are not less than eight candidates for the Republican nomination who expect to file before Tuesday and something like a half dozen Democratic candidates. Nearly every township, village and city of the new district has a candidate for either the Republican or Democratic nominations.

Sunday Matinees Off For The Present

Motion picture fans—here is news for you!

From now until further notice, there will be no more matinees on Sunday.

Manager Harry Lush has decided that the picture fans ought to have at least a brief vacation and so he has decided that Sunday afternoon will be a good time to let them go swimming or out to the parks for a while.

There will be shows at all other regular times, except Sunday matinees.

BANDITS ROB AUTO DRIVER

A R. Comerhurst driver for the Quality Lamp Wash Laundry of Detroit was held up and robbed of $50.00 on the Ann Arbor road last Saturday evening.

George Springer of Plymouth was called and an investigation showed that apparently two men in a Ford car had followed the truck to the Plymouth and Ann Arbor road junction.

At this point they passed his truck and drove ahead and abandoned their car.

He was hailed from the truck where the men entered his wagon and at the point of a gun forced him to hand over the money and keys to the truck. No clues have been found that would reveal the identity of the bandits.

Justice Is Demanded Of Bonus Army Says Returned Veteran

Delbert Cummings, Plymouth veteran who has been a member of the bonus army in Washington, returning home a few days ago to give the soldier's side of the story and to work in the interests of the veterans still remaining in Washington, has requested the Plymouth Mail to print the following article written by him:

"The soldier's side of the bonus there are always two sides to a story. It is just and right that each should be heard. The one side has been told by the newspapers of the money men of Wall Street. Almost all of the newspapers have been willing to print things about the bonus army to discourage the boys from going to Washington to claim what is honestly their bonus.

We have been called hoodlums, crazy, un-American and selfish by those that had at jobs during war times. These men were the ones sorry that the war came to an end too soon because they got $18 and $20 per day, wore silk shirts and had a good time, never thinking about saving some of those easy dollars.

"When the war ended a lot had been made rich, a lot of them squandered all they made. It came easy and it went easy.

"The boys in the trenches were getting $30 per month, paying almost all of it out for thrift stamps, liberty bonds and insurance, which cost altogether too much.

"But our good people had to go without sugar and live on substitutes to save for us, they were told. Afterwards it proved that the whole scheme was to make others rich.

"Dear folks, the soldiers suffered, both, just like some of you did who remained at home to help us. We had to take a discount on our thrift stamps and Liberty bonds, do without sugar that you thought we were getting. We have suffered since the war almost as much as did the boys in the trenches, making millions for Wall Street. We could not have steady work like a lot of you. Drawing two times on our bonus, paying interest at six and a half percent on our own money, no work—we are seeking relief or work.

"Where we must have. We are not everywhere by the red tape. We have no work at home, no prospects of work, so why shouldn't we go to Washington. We went there hoping for relief or work, so we could be happy and feed ourselves like the rest of humanity.

"But we find not a cent for Americans that gave their all, the fighting line. But there seems to be relief for everything else.

BATHER DIES AT WATERFORD

Companions Are Arrested For Drunkenness By Officers

Walter Vizeski, 26 years old, was drowned last Saturday afternoon in the pond at Waterford when he tried to swim from the dam to a point some ten rods to the southeast of where he had been sitting on the concrete wall.

He was about half way across when other swimmers saw him start to sink under the water.

They immediately made an effort to rescue him and one swimmer whose name is unknown, did succeed in getting him part way to the top of the water when he lost his hold on him and Vizeski sank to the bottom.

Chief of Police Vaughn Smith of Northville was immediately called to investigate the drowning.

Two companions of Vizeski who were waiting on the bank for him, were arrested and taken to jail at Northville where they were charged with drunkenness. Because of their condition officers were unable to find out much about the drowned man, except that his home was in Waterford.

The officers called Fred Wagon-schutz, chief of the Plymouth fire department, who has a dragging outfit, to bring it to the lake and drag for the body. It was but a little while before the body was recovered. Efforts made to revive Vizeski failed.

After the body was recovered, the coroner was called. The barbare provision of the law compelling officers to permit the body to lie on the ground until the arrival of the coroner was complied with by the two police chiefs and the body partly covered with a piece of canvas laid in view of hundreds of other bathers for some two or three hours. When the coroner arrived, the body was removed to Detroit.

This is the second drowning that has taken place in the vicinity of Plymouth during the present summer. Last year up to this time there had been four drownings in the Phoenix lake and two in Waterford. So far no drownings have taken place at Phoenix, although thousands are using that as a bathing place.

It was estimated that over 3,000 people were in bathing in Phoenix from Sunday morning until evening.

The waters of Waterford pond claimed another victim Tuesday night when Fred Siebert, 19 year old Northville youth drowned while swimming with Henry Barnhart also of Northville.

The two youths were swimming in the presence of about 60 people when Siebert went under. It was about ten minutes after he disappeared that Barnhart rescued the body from the lake bottom.

The body was sent to the county morgue pending word from Siebert's family at Lincoln, Michigan.

We clip the following from the Michigan Union of July: "All my life I have lived in the presence of fine and beautiful men going to their death because of alcohol. I call it the greatest trap that life has set for the feet of genius, and I record my opinion that the Prohibition Amendment is the greatest step in progress taken by America since the freeing of the slaves."—Upton Sinclair.

INDIA FIGHTS THOUSANDS AT BLOODLESS WAR NEARBY PARKS

Rotary Speaker Tells Of Country's Efforts To Win Freedom

"We are fighting for the same independence you fought for but different than your fight of revolution, our fight is a bloodless one. We hope to gain our freedom in India without bloodshed." S. A. Rahman, a resident of India who is now a student at the University of Michigan, told members of the Plymouth Rotary club Friday.

The youthful speaker from the country of 350,000,000 struggling people, lauded the great Gandhi as one of the world's most fearless and inspiring leaders.

"But he does not believe in bloodshed. He hopes to win our freedom without the loss of a single life in conflict. He preaches constantly to us that our fight for freedom must be bloodless," said Mr. Rahman.

"Of course this idea of not taking lives is a part of the religion of the great Gandhi and our people. We do not believe in taking the life of anything unless we can do it without bloodshed. Therefore we cannot destroy life.

"Gandhi has taught his people not to be afraid of prison or death. He has inspired our people to love life and it is a noble thing to die for freedom.

"How are we going to win our fight? Gandhi says we can win it by boycotting everything that England sells. We are going to battle along that line until success has been won, no matter how long it takes to accomplish our purpose.

"You do not get the news here in the United States from India. England has set up a great news censorship so that America will know nothing of what is happening in India. As a result you know little of our struggle for freedom.

"Gandhi wants only good for our people. He wants education and he wants an independent government. He wants a decent living for our starving millions. Yes, we are starting in India, starving because we have been taxed to death.

"Our people do not want whiskey, but the English government forces us to buy it so it can be taxed.

"How different is our situation than yours. Here your government does not want the people to have it by boycotting it. Here your government forces us to buy it so it can be taxed.

"Some day we are going to enjoy our freedom and our people will be understood by the rest of the world.

President Charles Bennett announced that next Monday and Tuesday there will be a district conference of Rotary officials held in Dearborn. It is the plan of President Bennett, secretary Floyd Eckles and a number of committee chairmen to attend these sessions, which are devoted entirely to a study of Rotary affairs.

Edward C. Hough extended the welcome of the club to Frank Coward, a new member. Mr. Coward recently came to Plymouth from Port Huron to accept a place in the organization of the Plymouth United Savings bank. He expressed his intention to the club for honoring him with a membership within the organization.

RICHWINE IN CONGRESS RACE

Plymouth Has Entry For Nomination In 17th District

Plymouth now has an entry into the 17th congressional district primary contest. Perry W. Richwine, having decided to become a contestant for the Republican nomination. His petitions are being circulated and they will be filed before the present week is over. Tuesday is the final day for filing if one hopes to be a candidate in the forthcoming primary election.

Attorney Richwine's petitions are being freely signed in Plymouth and he is finding substantial support in his home town as well as in other parts of the district.

While his formal platform has not been drafted in complete form, Mr. Richwine states that he favors the re-submission of the prohibition question, that he is unalterably opposed to the government in any kind of business, that the bonus should be paid as soon as it can be without distributing the credit of the government and that he favors national bank branch banking within specified areas such as communities in the metropolitan district of Detroit and other large cities. He does not favor national bank charters such as have been inaugurated by the Guardian group of Detroit. He states he believes that the government should start work as soon as possible on the St. Lawrence waterways system. These are a few of the outstanding views he holds on some of the important issues before congress.

Mr. Richwine was born in Plymouth and has lived here his entire life. He is a graduate of the Plymouth high school, being president of the class he graduated with.

Disatisfied with a high school education he went to Detroit and worked his way through the Business Institute. After starting Business Institute he became a local agent in the Detroit office of the law and was successful in graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

During the years 1924, 1925 and 1926 he was employed in tax work for the Union Title and Guaranty Company of Detroit.

He served two years as a member of the board of directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and during 1929 and 1930 was president of this organization.

He was elected president of the Kiwanis club this year but resigned last week because he believed that his duties and his political activities should be kept separate.

For the past two years he has been the president and counsel and on the board of directors of the Red Indian Oil company of Detroit. He is also secretary and attorney for the Plymouth Savings and Loan Association as well as being a member of the board of directors of this organization. He is also one of the directors of the Plymouth Community Hotel company as well as counsel of the company.

Mr. Richwine states that he proposes to put up an active and energetic campaign and he will soon organize his committees, with exceedingly strong backing in the community where he has spent his entire life.

TUESDAY WAS HOTTEST DAY

Mercury Started Soaring Early In Morning—Never Quoted.

All past summer heat records for July to date, were shattered Tuesday when the mercury hit a high of 97 degrees. Some thermometers showed one or two degrees under that, others ran a little higher, but the average was 97, and that was plenty warm.

Plymouth residents went to White Lake, the parks and other places in an effort to find a cooler spot than provided by the shade trees and front porches.

Last week Tuesday was reported by the weather department as the hottest July 22 on record, but Tuesday, July 19 was considerably hotter than the Tuesday of a week ago.

A dozen additional deaths from heat and drownings were reported from various places Tuesday.

Warmer weather for most of the area east of the Rockies was forecast although some relief was in store for sections of the south and northwest.

Two heat deaths and a drowning at Alva, Okla., were the south-west's victims in a heat which reached a maximum of 110 degrees at Phoenix, Ariz., and touched 108 at Alton, Okla. Numerous communities in this region sizzled under temperatures of 100 degrees or more. In Indianapolis, Ind., and Texas, somewhat. Federal authorities said generous rain-fall was needed in Kansas within the next week if the corn crop was to escape damage.

Towa, Wisconsin, South Dakota, and Nebraska likewise sweltered with the mercury around the 100 mark and reported five deaths. North Platte and Valentine in Nebraska had 100-degree heat.

Indiana and Kentucky also reported fatalities, those in the Blue Grass state where the weather was comparatively mild being by drowning.

DEATH CLAIMS JOHN QUARTEL

Long Time Township Officer Dies At Home On Sunday Morning

John Quartel, aged 43 years, well known resident of Plymouth who had served many years as township treasurer, died Sunday morning at his home, 263 Adams street, after a long illness. It was some weeks ago when his condition took a turn for the worse and in spite of the best medical skill, he gradually failed until his death.

He was born in Canton township and after he left the farm he came to Plymouth where he started work in the Schrader Bros. furniture store. He remained here until his health forced him to give up his duties. When he had somewhat recovered he became a candidate for township treasurer and served in this capacity alternately with Mrs. Quartel until this spring. It was eleven years ago when he was elected with illness and since that time he had never been able to walk. He won the admiration of every one by his patience and kindly spirit notwithstanding his affliction.

Long an active member of Plymouth Rock Masonic lodge, his funeral services will be held from the Masonic temple with Masonic services both at the temple and at the grave. The funeral was largely attended. Burial took place in Riverside cemetery. Mrs. Quartel survives.

Local Firemen Will Stage Water Battle

Members of the Plymouth Fire department will stage a water battle on Ann Arbor street between the Hotel Mayflower and Harvey street, Saturday night at 8 o'clock p. m. The department will have two four men teams and all contestants promise the spectators much excitement.

The object of this event is to create interest in the firemen's field day that will be staged on the Northville Fair grounds Friday July 29th. Plymouth, Northville, Wayne and Farmington will compete.

There is absolutely no charge for the battle. Old timers of Plymouth recall the earlier days of the village when water battles filled the streets of the town with interested spectators and many of them are looking forward to the renewal of this pastime with much enthusiasm.

Mrs. Caroline O. Dayton and daughter, Ruth, returned last Friday from a pleasant motor trip through Illinois and Wisconsin. While in Milwaukee, Miss Ida Winkler of the "Cubby apartments" entertained at a luncheon in their honor and they were also lunch guests of Mrs. Louis Heim and Mrs. Frank Gouett. ## A PUBLIC CALAMITY

The general public which had anticipated a favorable decision from Alex J. Groesbeck relative to his possible candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor, was keenly disappointed a day or so ago when he announced that he would not file the petitions that had been presented to him by supporters throughout the state. They were disappointed because they had hoped he would in these times of distress again seek the office he had conducted so efficiently during more prosperous days in Michigan. They had hoped that the former governor who thoroughly appreciated the seriousness of the situation confronting the taxpayer and the unemployed worker would be willing to give some of his time and ability to the critical problems confronting both the state and nation.

At a time when Michigan was enjoying its greatest prosperity, Governor Groesbeck was building more miles of hard surfaced roads, erecting more structures at state hospitals, schools and other institutions than had been put up in over half a century—doing it all and paying for it on a state tax that was ten millions of dollars less per year than the taxpayers are now being called upon to pay.

Taxpayers have believed that an executive of the ability of Alex Groesbeck could take over the management of state affairs at the present time and operate the state at one-half the expense that the taxpayers are now required to provide for its maintenance. Not only would he slash the cost of government but he would see to it that out of the tax money collected, work would be provided for many of the thousands that need it so badly.

But there is little use of discussing his decision. Many who thought they could read his mind came to the conclusion months ago that he could not be induced to again seek the governorship. His decision to Michigan is a public calamity. He knows what to do in an emergency and he knows how to do it. When the welfare of hundreds of thousands are at stake, when home owners and farmers are facing the loss of their property through confiscatory taxes, the state has permitted one of the greatest executives of the present generation to devote his time and ability to other matters and seems willing to let glibbed-tongued, playing, penny-ante politicians run the affairs of the nation and state.

Just as sure as the sun rises and sets, there will be a day of reckoning—and that day is not far off—when the people of Michigan as well as the entire country will pay and pay dearly for the kind of leadership and representation they have inflicted upon themselves.

NEED FOR OPTIMISM

"Ours is the rare privilege of helping to sound in the business world of today a note for optimism and idealism, of faith, of mutual helpfulness, of courage—a note that may be heard outside our crafts, even beyond our communities." This is the keynote of the message of Clinton P. Anderson, newly elected President of Rotary International.

Mr. Anderson's message points out the need today for such organization as Rotary, Chambers of Commerce, and other civic organizations. "The world today needs every mobilizing influence it can claim," he says. "We may not be able to prevent international discord, yet we can stretch friendly hands across borders in an appeal for understanding and tolerance."

To the man whose business may not be paying dividends, he points out, whose investments may be melting away, whose stock of courage may be running low, such an organization as Rotary makes its greatest contribution.

"It warns him that he must not lose interest in those children of human relationships which are born of men working together. It tells him that he must count as an asset the man whose hand he has shaken, as well as the man to whom he has sold goods."

"For a few years we rode the crests. We measured our customers by what they did for us—not by what we did for them. We looked at our neighboring countries in much the same way."

"That was yesterday, and this is today. We will work gradually out of the depression as firms here and there find new formulae to induce the return of profitable trading. . . . New firms, new managements are destined to come. Our opportunity is not so much to correct the old as to direct the new."

Mr. Anderson is a former South Dakota newspaperman who now operates a large casualty insurance business in Albuquerque, New Mexico. His age is 30, and he is the youngest Rotarian to be elected to the presidency of Rotary International.

CHANGING CHINA

China is a land of walls—walls within walls. The Great Wall was supposed to shut out the Tartars on the north and China proper in on the south. Cities are walled in everywhere, and within walled cities are walled-in compounds, and within the compounds are homes with walls around them. The Chinese imprison themselves and give the bandits their liberty.

But China is changing!

Dr. Jesse Lee Corley, recently returned from a year's stay in China, shows two pictures taken from the same spot by his camera—one of a group of old women hobbling along on bound feet, and another of a dozen crows of a university running a 220-yard dash.

Over the age-old routes of travel, airplanes now whir between Shanghai and Hongkong, Canton, Peiping, Mukden and even Berlin.

New broad streets for automobiles are being thrust through old cities. Shacks are no impediment; neither are costs. Property owners pay for the razing of their own homes and paving of the frontage.

While every community has its own dialect, even when within a few miles of others; yet a written language with our English alphabet has been developed and interpreters often use English to interpret different communities to each other.

A grotesque use of English often occurs in overenthusiasm to use the language. A sign over a bakery in one city reads: "Biggest Loaf Here." Another over a gymnasium entrance runs: "Dumbbells Executed Here."

FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Hon. Charles A. Sink of Ann Arbor has announced himself as a candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor. If Michigan Republicans have come to the conclusion that there is a change needed in this place, no better man in all the state could be found for the post than Mr. Sink of Ann Arbor. He will serve in that capacity if nominated and elected, with honor and distinction to both himself and the state of Michigan.

Gone—But Not Unforgotten

RACIAL SUPERIORITY NOTIONS BAD SCIENCE

The popular pastime of praising the superiority of our own race or civilization would be less common if we knew that many of our pet notions have been proved by science to be in fact boomerangs that can return and puncture our supposed superiority. Dr. Carl E. Guthe, director of the University of Michigan museum of anthropology, told the University Public Health Symposium here.

"Because we labor under the illusion that ours is the highest civilization that ever existed, and that our race is the highest achievement of evolution, we are guilty of saying and doing many silly and absurd things in order to prove to ourselves that we are all we think," said Dr. Guthe.

Science, delving in the history of man from ape-man to the present has found no absolute scale of values for declaring any race or civilization superior in the light of all facts, but has rather acquired a healthy respect for the achievements of all peoples ancient and modern, declared Dr. Guthe. We boast of a superior industrial progress and confuse it with real culture, which is quite another thing, he said.

Evolution does not show the white race superior, or at the peak of man's development, despite popular ideas to that effect. In fact if the factor of heredity, which is the least variable relationship between man and the apes is considered, the white races stand nearest the apes, with the mongoloid and negro peoples further away in order named, said Dr. Guthe. The negro's lips are also commonly thought to be most primitive, but in fact here the mongoloids come closest to the apes in shape, the whites next and negroes last.

When we think of modern jazz music, we congratulate ourselves on being able to combine three rhythms, declared the anthropologist, but the natives of the South Sea Islands have been using a music of six rhythms, which we are not yet able even to understand. The more man learns of his own history, the more he will respect the victories over nature which his remote ancestors made, and the customs of his present day brothers of supposedly inferior abilities and rank, because in the coming centuries they may be "superiors," declared Dr. Guthe.

GETTING RICH FAST

When the Detroit Free Press uncovered the fact a few days ago that county auditors who profess to be so watchful of public funds, had themselves grabbed off big blocks of county drainage bonds at less than half price, then induced the county board of supervisors to pay off the bonds at full price, the Free Press simply revealed to the public one of the many ways some folks get rich quick. This great wealth that will soon pour into the laps of the county auditors, comes direct from the pockets of the taxpayers of the county. There was nothing crooked about the whole affair—perfectly legitimate in every way—but why shouldn't the bonds have been bought in behalf of the taxpayers of the county and taxpayers making the hundreds of thousands of dollars of profit that will now go to two individuals without possibly the investment of a cent of real money? Why? It's simple. Public business isn't handled by public officials that way. That's why.

FEATURELAND

Heart of Oak
 Lean close and set thine ear against the bark:
 Then tell what faint, murmurous sounds are heard:
 Hath not the oak stored up the song of bird,
 Whisper of wind and rain-tisp?
 Ay, and bark!
 The shadowy elves that fret the summer dark,
 With clash of horny winglets wifely whirred,
 Hear'st thou not them, with myriad noises blurred,
 Yet well defined if one but shrewdly mark?
 And thou—when thy Familiar setteth ear
 Unto thy bosom, doth he note the same
 Sweet concord of harmonious sounds within?
 Or he all hushed in hollow silence drear?
 Ah! be, pray Heaven to save thee from thy shame
 Ere thy whole soul be slain by cankerous sin.

A Prayer
 Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who dost bind us to life by sweet and holy ties, twining the tendrils of our hearts around loved ones and friends: make us so to love the blessed things Thou dost impart by voices and by silences, in moments of illumination and in hours of obscurity, through pleasure and through pain, in the labor to which we are compelled and in the sickness that interrupts our labor, in the experience that brings strength and in the temptation that lays bare our weakness, that being taught of Thee from day to day we may be found faithful in every relationship of life.
 Speak peace to the hearts of all who are afflicted or distressed in our beloved Southland, and do Thou comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their suffer-

Rambling Around with Michigan Editors

THE HOME TOWN

Again we have heard a visitor say: "I have not heard a sob story or a kick about hard times or poor business in any of my business contacts in your city." That fellow was talking to your editor and he was talking about Cheboygan business people he met. What a splendid viewpoint that man has gained about our community and how hard it would be to change it now once made. There are business-men in our city, though that flud time to sob a story of poor business and how hard the times are to their customers. Those same men were blaring their heads off when their children were working down at Flint and Detroit and Pontiac for five to ten dollars a day and would borrow money of dad to get back home on when they came up for a visit. Nothing so nothing in the world, harms a community, drives away business, discourages our visitors, discourages and makes bleak and cheerless the lives of our own people like sobbing, pessimism, squawking and hammer-swinging. If you don't like the home town get out, or go out in the woodshed and toy with the old shut gun.—Al Weber in The Cheboygan Observer.

KEEPING 'EM STRAIGHT

The function of a newspaper is not only to accurately record all of the news that is fit to print, but also to act as a check on government and the unwise exercise of its control by officials and others who would spend too freely of the taxpayers' money. Nothing proves more effective in making the unscrupulous politician and office-holder behave than fear of the printed word.

Newspapers play an important part in checking and keeping down crime. What his friends and neighbors might say when the paper "came out" has kept many a man from going bad.—R. L. Corless in Farmar News.

BLAME THE SLACKERS, NOT THE WORKERS

The difficulty with most organizations is that the burden of their support and maintenance is thrown upon a few. Let a man indicate a willingness to work and he is immediately loaded down with jobs and duties and made a victim of his willingness, while the rest of the membership stand around idle. The reason the lodges and the churches are no better than they are, is that too many of the members are too lazy and too selfish and too indifferent. The more they let someone else carry on the work and pay the bills until they become weary of unappreciated effort and an unfair share of the burdens. The failure of any organization is not the fault of the workers, but is always the fault of the slackers.—Harry Meyers in The Lapeer County Press.

PRAISE FOR SENATORS

Let it be recorded, and praised accordingly, that both Senators Conzans and Vandenberg voted against Speaker Garner's unemployment relief bill. This is the measure that President Hoover had not insisted on that part that provides for loans by the government to those applying who can give adequate security. In other words, to make a pawn shop of our nation. Never in all history has such a preposterous or absurd measure been advocated. All authorities, irrespective of political affiliations, brand it as nothing but a political trick. Blame will be placed on President Hoover for vetoing the unemployment relief measure. The effect on sane-minded people, though will be contrary to the belief of those who are playing politics in these days of dire distress.—Harry Izor in The Durand Express.

BACK AND FORTH

From one extreme to another with scarcely any attainment of a secure and economical middle ground, society swings its social, political, and business activities. In prosperous times the cry is "Spend! Spend! by spending you get more to spend!" In panic or depression times the alarm sounds "Save! Save! by saving you bring back prosperity!" And then there follows the hybrid yodel "Save some and spend some, by savingly spending you bring back good times!" Feast and famine, heat and cold, light and dark, trust and fear—too much of life is a contrast because GREED & SELFISHNESS, Inc., operate human affairs.—Geo. Atwill in The Birmingham Eclectic.

POLITICAL BAIT

Don't grab political bait until you have examined it very carefully, see if there is any string attached to it and if it carries a barbed hook; look at it from all sides; smell of it; do anything with it but swallow it, and before you do the swallowing act go away to some quiet place and think it over. We need some good straight thinking right now more than we need anything else. Noley promises won't save our country or solve a single problem.—W. H. Berkey in Cassopolis Vigilant.

FAITH

Life as we know it today has been made possible by banks. The convenient form of payment which the bank check provides has made the exchange of commodities nationwide, introducing into our lives the many luxuries and conveniences with which we are all familiar.

Bank credit has aided the manufacturer in the fabrication of his product, has assisted the merchant in turning his merchandise and has helped the farmer to carry on until his crops or stock were ready for market.

Faith in each other and faith in our institutions brought the standard of living in the United States to the highest point ever enjoyed by any nation in the world's history.

Faith will restore a normal exchange of merchandise and services. Let's have faith.

Proceeds from sale of tickets will go to help the Veterans' relief work, and to help pay Board of Commerce expenses in connection with Gala Day.—South Lyon Herald.

Honor Roll Place Won By Local Girl

Excellent grades gave Miss Catherine Nichol, Main St., Plymouth, a place on the Honor Roll at Wooster College for the second semester of the school year just closed. Miss Nichol will be a junior at Wooster this fall.

The Honor Roll at Wooster College is composed of those students who get no grade less than "B." For this past semester 18 students got all "A" grades while 123 additional students got no grade less than "B."

The all "A" list included six seniors, four juniors, four sophomores and four freshmen. The group with no grade less than "B," and these students had many "A" grades, included one graduate student, 43 seniors, 20 juniors, 29 sophomores, and 30 freshmen.

This Honor Roll is compiled at the end of each semester at Wooster College under the direction of Prof. Arthur F. Southwick, college registrar.

What North Dakota's New Capitol Will Look Like

HERE is the architect's drawing of the new state capitol of North Dakota that is to be erected in Bismarck. It will cost less than $2,000,000 and will be the third state capitol building to be domed. The others are in Nebraska and Louisiana. North Dakota's fine structure was designed by Holabird and Root of Chicago associated with Joseph Bell De Remer and W. F. Burke, architects of that state. The lofty tower will be visible at a great distance from Bismarck.

LEG NEARLY CUT OFF IN MOWER

A serious accident occurred at Camp Obiyesa last Saturday when Jack McQuinn, 12-year-old Detroit boy, had his leg almost severed by a mowing machine.

The youth was rushed from the camp, which is maintained by the Detroit Y. M. C. A. to the McGarry clinic where his leg was dressed. It was found that both bones in the right leg were broken and the tendons and several large blood vessels in the leg severed just above the ankle. The boy had been playing in the grass where men were at work mowing hay. He became frightened by the horses and in trying to get away stumbled and fell.

Several hours later the parents of the boy arrived asking where the camp is located. In the meantime the youth had been taken to the Highland Park hospital.—Fenton Courier.

FIRST VICTORY OF THE SEASON

Andy Gale let down the Colonial Malt of Detroit with two hits and Nethem scored their first victory of the season by the shut-out score of nine to nothing.

Andy Gale tried to equal Earl Whitehill's one-hit performance of a couple of weeks ago. They got their first hit in the fifth inning and their last one in the eighth, both being two-base hits. Gale struck out nine, and gave one base on balls, besides getting two hits and scoring two runs himself.

Hanan and Joe Schomberger led both teams in hitting, when they got three out of four. The fans were given a couple of thrills when the new hitting first baseman Hanan knocked out a triple and double besides getting a single.

Tonkovich's throw from the outfield to Joe Schomberger cut off a run at the plate, which ended the only scoring chance of the Detroit team.

Lutz's error in the ninth inning with two out was the only one made by Nethem, which gave Gale perfect support.

It required one and one-half hours to play this fast game.

Investing Safely

Twelve million savers in the United States, one in every ten, have their savings in Building and Loan. Not one of them has lost a penny and all have received 5% or more in dividends.

The twelve million savers have nine billion dollars invested in the safest plan that has been devised to invest money. No other investment plan has stood the test like Building and Loan. The secret is HOMES.

The old-fashioned security that has come through all depressions in the last 100 years, and come out with colors flying—Homes not Apartment Houses or sky-scrapers but modest American homes with a small loan paid back a little each month, and each month more valuable to both the home owner, and the landlord.

PLUNGER THE FISHHAWK CATCHES A PRIZE

BILLY MINK and Little Joe Otter do most of their fishing in the Laughing Brook or the Smiling Pool and are content with rather small fish, so long as there are plenty of them. Buster Bear is another fisherman who does all his fishing in the Laughing Brook. This is because Buster does not want to leave the Green Forest. His cousin, Bobby Coon, is also quite content with what he can catch in the Laughing Brook. Longlegs the Heron often fishes along the edge of the Big River, but he, too, is content with minnows and pollywogs.

Big Double Circus Has Vast Program

The colossus of all amusements, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus is definitely scheduled to exhibit in Detroit, July 24-25-26.

The No. 1 advertising car, the first of three in advance of The Greatest Show on Earth, is now in this vicinity. Billposters, banners, lithographs, radio men and press agents are heralding the great event, and soon everyone will be planning for a gala visit to the world's largest "big top."

Traveling on four trains of double-length steel railroad cars, the giant of super-circuses will bring 1000 people, 1000 menagerie animals, 50 elephants, 700 horses and a herd of the largest and tallest giraffes.

Presumably features are many. A tribe of monster-mouthed Bangi Savages from the jungles of equatorial Africa are presented this season by popular demand.

The Flying Circosians, featuring Alfredo, the world's only triple act, will entertain with a hand-to-hand catch; the Conellos and Harolds, sensational aerialists; Miss Tamara, Europe's greatest circus star; Lucia Lees, supreme aerial gymnast; The Walldens, defying death in astounding feats, on a steel wire in the peak of the big top; Al Powell, flying aerial acrobat; The Rubin Sisters, Yacops, Danvills and Hugony Sisters, amazing acrobats; The Hoffenbach Troupe, heading the new five-continent congress of human beings; Maximo and his troupe of the black wire—these are but a few of the stellar attractions.

There are 800 performers and 100 internationally celebrated and beloved clowns. The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus has become a feature amazing in its appeal throughout the North American continent.

These hot sultry days of July surely test our faithfulness in attendance at the house of God although our congregations have found the auditorium very comfortable at all Sunday services. Due to the large shade trees surrounding the church and also the large fly-tight screens that the trustees have had fitted to the windows and doors.

A week ago Sunday Mr. Main from Pontiac visited our church and Sunday school and gave a short talk before the sermon on the ministry of tract distribution. This young man was saved by reading a tract handed to him on the street several years ago, and is now interested in this kind of work. He has supplied our church with a fine tract rack and several thousand tracts for distribution.

All of our Sunday school members are looking forward to the picnic which will be held Thursday, July 28th at Riverside park. Games, contests, refreshments and a good time is promised to all that come. You are cordially invited to attend all of our services next Sunday.

Salem Politicians Go To High Court In Political Fight

Salem township continues in the line-light with its political warfare, says the Washtenaw County Tribune.
 Harry E. Atchinson, Irving Johnson, John K. Rich and Nelson Bender, former members of the board of election commissioners of Salem township, who were compelled by Judge George W. Sample in mandamus proceedings to have ballots printed for the April election after they had refused to do so on the grounds that the Republican candidates had not been certified have made application to the Supreme court of Michigan for leave to appeal. The mandamus action was instituted in March by Albert Rider, now supervisor of Salem township, who defeated Harry Atchinson, former supervisor, in the caucus of the Republican party.

Another battle under way in Salem township at the present time is in regard to the failure of the former township treasurer, Mrs. Glenn Burnham, to turn the cancelled checks over to the present treasurer, Mrs. Myrtle Savary. Assistant Attorney-General Emory Boyles has ruled that Mrs. Burnham must turn the checks over to her successor or to the presenting attorney of the county or be liable to presentation under the criminal code.

Wayne Banks Given Clean Bill-Hope To Re-Open Them Soon

While the 85 per cent of the deposits, necessary to be obtained to reopen the Wayne Savings bank, have not yet been secured by members of the committee working on the depositors agreement plan, sentiment is voiced that the goal will ultimately be reached. Additional signatures are being obtained from depositors each day. It was reported, a large number of the depositors signing them the latter part of last week, following an investigation of the bank's affairs by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney O'Hara of Detroit.

The investigation of the bank, which was requested by a group of depositors about two months ago, disclosed that no irregularities were evidenced in the conduct of the bank's operation. Mr. O'Hara indicated that the condition of the bank is practically the same as that of other banks that have been closed, the main difficulty being the shrinking of assets and the withdrawal of deposits which forced the bank to close.

This presentation of the affairs of the bank by Mr. O'Hara has been responsible for clearing up any misunderstanding that some of the depositors have had. It was said, and the signing of agreements by such depositors immediately after Mr. O'Hara's statements is an indication that the remainder of the necessary deposits will be obtained soon.

Depositors who have not as yet had the agreement explained to them by some member of the committee are asked to go to the board of commerce office or to the place of business of any committee member in order that the plan may be explained. This cooperation will be of great help, it was said. Wayne Dispatch.

Coming Attractions At Penniman Allen

"LETTY LYNTON"
Modern society. The younger generation and a terrific harvest from past indiscretions figure in a kaleidoscopic romance in "Letty Lynton," in which Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery will be seen at the Penniman Allen Theatre Sunday and Monday, July 24 and 25.

The story is a dramatization of the Marie Belloc Lowndes novel, based on the problems faced by an heiress who played with men's lives until she found herself in a trap of her own making. Miss Crawford plays the dramatic heroine amid tropical South American resorts, the whirl of New York life and aboard a great liner in mid-ocean. Montgomery is the "right man" who comes along just in time to save her from her own folly. A notable supporting cast includes Nils Asther, the noted Swedish player, Lewis Stone, May Robson, Louise Closser Hile, Emma Dunn, Walter Walker and William Pawley.

"BIT THE FLESH IS WEAR"
British races, a London playhouse, and the gathering places of the high society in the British capital are woven into hilarious romance and comedy intertwined with a delightful love story in "Bit the Flesh is Wear," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new Robert Montgomery starring picture coming to the Penniman Allen Theatre Wednesday, July 27.

The picture, based on Ivor Novello's famous London and New York stage success, "The Truth Game," shows Montgomery as a debonair and aristocratic London fortune hunter who tries to marry for money until another girl comes along with whom he falls in love. Nils Asther, Nora Greyer, Heath or Thatcher, Edward Everett Horton, C. Aubrey Smith, Frederick Kerr and others of note are among the supporting players.

"MAKE ME A STAR"
Sympathetic comedy will have a fifth day in "Make Me a Star" which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre Saturday, July 30. For not only is the story built up on the kind of laughs that have heart-pieces tucked under them, but two of the four leading comedians in the cast, Stuart Erwin and Zasu Pitts, are famous as exponents of the art of Paillard-like smugness of audiences.

This picture is based upon the famous Harry Leon Wilson novel about the young man from the country who wants to become a movie cowboy hero, goes to Hollywood, stumbles into a studio and blunders to fame. Erwin plays the part of this serio-comic hero-warrior who makes good because he knows nothing of acting and Miss Pitts plays the part of a small-town gossip neighbor, Helen Jerome Eddy is the girl friend who prays Erwin on to the attainment of his ambition because she loves him and has a blind faith in his abilities.

Win Double Header
With Northville Independents did R Ball Club last Sunday post meridian, after 1:00 the scores were: Runs 7, Hits 9, Errors 0. Second game Runs 17, Hits 15, Errors 3; Runs 16, Hits 13, Errors 3.

Features of the games were some good pitching streaks by R Harry and their squibs, when situations were precarious, when a hit or walk meant a run or two and unexpected catches of foul or the drives and long flies, any play would have reflected credit, and would have pleased even Mrs. Ty Tyson's boy in announcing the play for a Tiger vs. Athletic game (or something). (One can get more "kick" out of watching R boys, even when dismal failures are featured) in their pristine achievements of the past seasons games on a diamond made with their own hands, than in all of Navin Field's perfect (?) brand of professional ball.

Even the young lady-sex of Garden City find their highest pleasure in the balance of joy or sorrow that comes the making of good or bad plays and the local surprises decisions.

Which all is good, clean, healthy, sport, playing or watching and looking and cheering as the necessary may or may not warrant.

Alterations
and additions to the Wood home are completed, with the Desmond place as well as Vanderveer under way with vestibules, porches, garages and fencing all make pleasing additions to improve the general appearance of things.

Plenic
at St. Michael's Church folks, last Sunday, down on Joy Road, everyone had a joyful time.

A real old fashioned picnic in an old fashioned way brought out older and younger folks from older to this younger community.

Garden Flowers
of St. Michael's Church folks are now decorating the church altars. Mrs. Eggleston and Mrs. Burgher have the care of the St. Michael's Church Altars this month, and appreciate the gifts in past and will for again for next and succeeding days, so if you care to help in this manner, by those two ladies look about it.

The lighter and brighter shades are to be preferred at this time.

Michigan Pig Crop Biggest In Years
While the 1932 spring pig crop in the United States was seven per cent smaller than in 1931, Michigan hog raisers greet summer to the general good of the industry and increased their production thirteen per cent. Reports from 3,300 hog raisers in this State, which were collected on June 1 by the Rural Mail Carriers of the Post Office Department in cooperation with the Department of Agriculture, showed that the 1932 spring pig crop amounted to 617,000 head, whereas last spring the number was 547,000 head and two years ago 488,000.

In commenting upon this report, Verna H. Church, U. S. Agricultural Statistician, pointed out that hog numbers in Michigan had declined from more than a million head at the close of the War to only half that number two years ago. The present upward trend started last spring and a further increase is expected in the Michigan pig crop for this fall unless hog price conditions and crop supplies should suffer adverse changes in the meantime. The number of sows for fall farrowing is estimated at 67,000 or ten per cent more than last fall.

The decrease in number of pigs saved this past spring was even greater in the Corn Belt States than for the entire country, the reduction amounting to ten per cent. The number of sows farrowed was six per cent less, and the average number of pigs saved per litter was four per cent smaller as the result of losses caused by severe weather in March. On the other hand, the number of hogs over six months of age on June 1 was about five per cent larger than a year ago for the United States. The number of sows to farrow next fall is estimated at 1.2 per cent more than in the corresponding period last year.

Feed supply conditions on July 1 were generally favorable. The nation's corn acreage is the second largest on record, while the barley acreage of the country is about twenty-two per cent larger than last year. Reports from European countries also indicate reductions in hog numbers this spring. Under normal conditions, from twelve to eighteen per cent of our pork production is exported, principally to Europe.

That summer comfort cooling is a profitable investment is proven by sales figures of many companies. One restaurant owner reported a 45% increase in business after installing comfort cooling.

THIS BRIDGE

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

THIS bridge is much too much for me.
 Just ask my wife, and she'll agree. I bid too little when I'm strong. Or when I'm weak I bid too strong. I am a conservationist.
 Concerning trumps, though wives insist
 The thing to do is lead them out. I say "insist," I should say "shout."
 We along a day or two
 As well as married people do,
 And then some bridge-hounds happen in.
 And that's the way that wars begin,
 About so long as they fuss and fidge,
 Then say, "What say a little bridge?"
 What say? I wouldn't dare to say
 The things I think of right away.
 I'm not an intellectual.
 I can't learn bridge, I never shall.
 All I can talk about is books,
 The market, and low business looks,
 And world events, and news of friends
 And what the government intends,
 Inconsequential such as those.
 Oh, well, I'm homeless, I suppose.

Pretty Dinner Frock

Simple yet a gown that any girl would be glad to have is this afternoon or informal dinner frock worn by Constance Bennett, RKD Pathe star. It is of white crepe robe and the abbreviated sleeves are sable trimmed. A narrow belt of self material outlines the fitted waistline. It will be noted that the blouse is less molded to the figure than in the dresses of the previous season.

Something Did Happen

And it met with the approval of so many Plymouth men that we are continuing this seasonable offer one more week.

Many of our choice suits still remain and we must have every inch of space available for fall merchandise.

That our unusual attraction, expensive suits priced at $16.75, was a good one, is shown in the fact that many of them were sold the minute we opened our doors last Saturday.

Our other special attraction still remains, but you must visit our store to reveal its identity.

So, if you want one of our suits the kind that we have sold regularly to a certain doctor, a well known dentist, prominent lawyer and many of the members of our luncheon clubs you are able to take advantage of our offer which we are extending one more week.
