

GARLETT PAYS FULL LOSS ON CHURCH FIRE

Settlement Check One Of Largest Ever Written Here

When Charles Garlett, well known Plymouth fire insurance writer a few days ago delivered to Father Frank C. Lefevre a check covering the full fire loss of the Catholic church in this city, he won the distinction of having paid out the largest amount ever remitted by one agent on a fire loss in Plymouth.

Unfortunately for Father Lefevre most of the money had to be paid out on debts that had been contracted in the construction of the church just a little over four years ago. He will have only an exceedingly small amount of the check left on which to begin the construction of his new church this spring.

However the prompt settlement of the fire loss will enable him to make his plans immediately. It is known that Father Lefevre has in mind possibly some alterations from the plans of the one that burned. He is determined that this community shall have an edifice that will be a credit to the city.

Officers who have investigated the fire have never been able to unearth its origin. Father Lefevre said that it was set, but no definite clew has ever been found. The officers believe that some day something will be revealed which will uncover the mystery as to the origin of the blaze.

FAIR ASSOCIATION IN ANNUAL MEETING

Nelson Schrader was Tuesday evening re-elected president of the Northville-Wayne County Fair Association at the annual meeting held in the Northville village hall.

Elmer Smith was elected as vice-president to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Thomas E. Murdock, who had served the Association in that capacity for over a dozen years.

Floyd Northrop who has conducted the details of the fair association most efficiently as its secretary was re-elected upon the nomination of Elmer Smith who declared that because of Mr. Northrop's excellent work he would like to see his re-election made unanimous. The recommendation of Mr. Smith was followed without a dissenting vote. Ernest Miller was re-named as treasurer. The association made a small amount on its 1932 fair.

William Forney was elected to succeed the late Mr. Boardman on the board of directors. The board consisted of the death of Charles A. Ponsford and H. H. Hamilton was elected for the one year term that was not served out by Mr. Murdock. Other directors re-elected are Floyd Northrop, H. R. Richardson, G. E. Richardson, T. G. Richardson, Charles Altman, Ed. Fuller, F. W. Lyke, E. L. Smith, and Russell Walker. Hold-over directors are Harry Robinson, H. B. Clark, N. C. Schrader, G. C. Benton, E. R. Eaton, M. H. Sloan, A. C. Balden, E. M. Starkweather, and A. E. Fuller.

The fair will be held this year from August 23-26. An effort will be made to make the event the best ever held by the association.

Pythian Sisters Install Officers

On Tuesday evening the Pythian Sisters held their annual installation of officers under the able direction of installing officer Mabel Hake. The officers for the ensuing year are:

Past Chief—Carrie Bingley.
M. E. C.—Edna Drews.
E. S.—Della Dunn.
E. J.—Irene Gitch.
Manager—Edna Utter.

M. of P.—Millie Jewell.
Protectress—Mabel Hake.
Guard—Inez Thomas.

MASONIC LODGE PLANS PARTIES

Members of the Masonic lodge have planned plenty of social activities for the next few weeks. This Friday evening there will be a dance at the first five hundred and bridge party of the present season. Then on the evening of February 2 there will be another dance and according to Judge Ford Brooks a St. Patrick's dance is another event in the offering. These are busy days for members of the lodge, their wives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Petcoff of Abington road, Detroit called on her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sherman.

Grange Members Hear An Interesting Program Telling of Early Plymouth History and Trails of the Pioneers

Plymouth residents who were fortunate enough to attend the New England dinner and meeting of the Plymouth Grange last Thursday evening had the pleasure of hearing much of the early historical facts of this community and vicinity. The first of those unsuspectedly interesting sessions that appeal to lovers of community history and development.

Briefly Mrs. Hugh H. Daly told of the trials and tribulations of the early settlers of this place and something of what the country was in the centuries gone by. Her talk follows:

"The first routes out of Detroit were the Indian trails in use long before the white men came to the vicinity. The trail by which the first settlers came to Plymouth could only by conjecture be called a road. It extended from Detroit to Ann Arbor, following the River Rouge to Plymouth. The teams used were oxen, as they were able to pick their living in the woods the greater part of the year.

"The first of them making a clearing was to erect a cabin of logs, usually having but one room which had two windows and but one door. For the first summer blankets were often the only coverings for these openings; later glass was procured for the windows and the door was of wooden hinges and a wooden latch as a fastening. Pull in the latch.

Officers who have investigated the fire have never been able to unearth its origin. Father Lefevre said that it was set, but no definite clew has ever been found. The officers believe that some day something will be revealed which will uncover the mystery as to the origin of the blaze.

BOOD OPENED TO LAND SWINDLES

Only Courts Can Stop Illegal Sale Of Land Titles This Year

LANSING, MICH.—Unless some action is taken to remedy the condition of the land titles in this city, the greatest land swindling scheme in its history. Property owners have been deprived of their day in court and the door has been left wide open for moneyed tax title grabbers to buy the title to your property and to take it as their own without opportunity on your part to save the home or farm you have labored for years to own.

There is one bright ray in this day of confusion brought about by the order of Auditor General John J. Stark. He has the public deprived of any knowledge that their property might be offered for sale this year because of unpaid taxes. That one hope lies in the belief that not a circuit judge in Michigan will sign an order for the sale of a tax property for the reason that the legislature has an order to clear up the mess the order has created. Property owners will be saved their homes for another year at least.

The auditor general's order is said by one Lansing senator to have been a grandstand play for publicity as the rest of the legislature has an order to clear up the mess the order has created. Property owners will be saved their homes for another year at least.

The order of the auditor general does just one thing say those in a position to know—it deprives a man of his property without due process of law. It is an old saying that every man has his day in court, either by personal service or service through public notice. Because of the thousands and thousands of these suits that the state is forced to start each year in delinquent tax title cases the state has had to economize in starting these tax title cases by public notice.

At the matter now stands a tax title buyer this year can take your home without due process of law unless prevented by court action.

While northern Michigan farmers are trying to figure out how they can sell grade No. 1 Michigan potatoes for 12 cents a bushel and provide for their families and pay taxes to an army of job seekers from every corner of Michigan and the rest of the state, the officials of the state capitol building in search of jobs with public pay checks attached to them have so bothered the new administration that nearly a month has elapsed since a bill having been enacted to relieve the state of Michigan's distressed. It is known Governor Catoch is anxious to get some sort of a legislative relief program started but his office and that of every other public official are crowded with job seekers, leaving barely the day for the day for the governor to give consideration to the problems he is confronted with. If these job seekers cannot

WATER LEVELS IN WELLS RAISE

City Chart Shows Rapidly Increasing Storage Under Ground

During the past two years a daily chart has been maintained which shows the elevation of the ground water at the Beck road pump-in station. This has been done in order to keep the water department informed as to the number of pumps to be operated and the condition of the water at the source of supply.

The very dry seasons of 1930 and 1931 lowered the water level to such an extent that it appeared necessary to install larger pumping units at a lower level to insure an adequate water supply. In 1931 a new pump was installed at a somewhat lower level than the one which had made possible additional capacity.

In studying the charts of the daily levels of water it is interesting to note that since September 1931, a gradual rise of the level was recorded. The measurements are taken from the floor in the collecting wellhouse and both static and pumping levels are recorded. The static level, or level of the water before the pumps begin to operate, was 5 foot 2 inches below the floor level on May 1, 1931. The low point was reached in September 1931 when the level dropped to 4 feet 3 inches below the floor level. This brought the water level approximately two inches below the outlet of one of the galleries supplying the collecting well. During the same period in the month of September the water level was lowered to as much as 11 feet 8 inches below the floor level during the times when the pumps were in operation. During this period it was necessary to add to the supply by pumping from another well into the large amount.

The rising season during 1931 and 1932 has caused the water levels to rise until at the present time the static level is approximately 3 feet below the floor level, or a rise in the last two years of 2 foot 2 inches. This is encouraging to the water department because of the fact that it appears that sufficient water is available at the present source to supply the demands and that lowering of the levels in 1931 was a temporary condition due only to the extremely dry season.

Home Furnishings Group Has Meeting

On Monday the 9th of January a very punctual group of women met at the home of Mrs. Leo C. Gagne, 1214 North Main street, for their first meeting of the Home Furnishings Club in 1933 at exactly 2 p. m. was well expended.

The leaders, Mrs. C. W. Ferguson and Mrs. Bruce Woodbury had evidently worked tirelessly in obtaining samples of drapery materials, upholstery fabrics and other colorful materials used in home furnishings and they very cleverly enlightened the club members on such points as the three qualities color possesses: hue, value and intensity. By means of a color wheel they clarified our ideas as to the harmonious color combinations and color schemes enlarging on three general classes of color schemes largely used in home furnishings, namely one hue harmonies, analogous harmonies and complementary harmonies.

Most of us, it is certain returned home with eyes more keen to detect flaws in our efforts at home furnishings and it is undoubtedly true that a color consciousness was either born or strengthened in the majority of women present at this very valuable lesson.

Candidates! Get Your Petitions in If You Want to Run

The last day for filing petitions for the offices of City Commissioners, Municipal Judge and constable is February 1st. Blank petitions may be obtained at the city clerk's office at any time during office hours between now and the final date for filing.

The final date has been set forward two weeks under the new charter because of the fact the elections are being held in conjunction with the state and county elections which occur at an earlier date than the village election provided for under the old village charter.

In case more than twice the number of petitions are filed for any office, a primary election will be necessary, otherwise the candidates filing petitions will be elected at the election to be held on April 3, 1933.

NEW OFFICERS FOR THE L. O. T. M.

High Officials Visit Plymouth to Conduct Program of Installation

The annual installation of officers of the Ladies of the Most Excellent Order of the L. O. T. M. was held in their hall January 23rd, was largely attended by members of the local lodge.

Assistant Supreme Commander, Dora E. Nicholson of Detroit, very efficiently filled the role as Supreme installing officer and the following ladies received their obligations and charges for the coming year: Commander, Dora Wood; Past Commander, Bessie Sallow; Lieutenant Commander, Alicia Estep; Treasurer, Jessie Terry; Mistress at Arms, Venita Aigue; Sergeant, Mary E. Gagne; Secretary, Edith Campbell; Chaplain, Edith Rowland; Deborah, Mable Dicks; Banner Bearers, Julia Thorne, Mary Sack and Emma Bolton; First Lady of the Guards, Maude Sallow; Second Lady of the Guards, Hilda Eckles; Pianist, Edith Honey; Lady of the Guards, Edna Emerson; Color Bearers, Mildred Feyer; Zilda Gordon, Edna Davis, Elizabeth Smith and Cora Sallow.

The officers-elect were escorted to their proper stations by Lady Clara Mummy acting as Supreme Marshal. The installation was presided over by the Supreme Chaplain and Sentinel and Mayme Soth as pianist for the service of installation.

As a token of appreciation for her help and guidance to our three young ladies, the Supreme Chaplain, the installation lady, Edith Honey in a few well chosen words in behalf of the live presented Lady Nicholson with a lovely gift which responded with a timely talk.

Following the adjournment of lodge the program continued with Lady Mings Hill as leader, assisted by ladies Dicks, Williams and Downing presented three young men, Bernard Curtis, Russell Eloff and Sydney Patton who played and sang several old and new songs and Mable Dicks gave a humorous reading all of which were thoroughly enjoyed.

And so with the old and new members as leaders we hope for a very successful and happy year for the Ladies of the Maceobes.

Dodge Dodges Dogs And Wrecks Truck

Three dogs that ran across the Golden road near the Canton Center intersection last Saturday afternoon caused an automobile accident that damaged a Dodge sedan and almost wrecked a truck besides injuring two people.

Mrs. Anna R. Sherwood who was driving east on U. S. 12 apparently in trying to keep from hitting the dogs applied the brakes of her car just as she was meeting another car on the road. In an effort not to hit either the dogs or the motorist she skidded onto the paving and crashed into a Ford truck belonging to William Whit that was parked just off the paving.

SMALL FORD TO SELL FOR $350?

Auto Show Rumor Says Mr. Ford Is Producing Low Priced Car

Plymouth residents who have this week visited the automobile show in Detroit have returned with rumors about the new Ford soon to appear on the market, and if these reports are true, the motoring public is in for a happy surprise.

One report has it that Mr. Ford has perfected a new Ford V-8 engine of smaller design than his present V-8 and plans to put it in a car that will sell around $350. His other V-8 will be about the same size engine as the present one but in a much larger car, the price being around the present range.

It is said that the little V-8 engine will develop exceptionally high speed but that it will be the lowest consumer of gas and oil of any engine of its class made.

There are some refinements in the larger V-8 engine that is going to come out soon, but just what they are is one knows.

Local Ford dealers in Plymouth profess to know nothing of just what is in store for the motoring public. One representative of the Plymouth Motor Sales company did say he understood that there was a possibility of something quite satisfying in view but no information of a definite nature could be secured here.

Automobile show visitors declared that the new Ford was freely discussed about the show and that it is going to be a happy surprise to the public when it is introduced in the near future.

GALIN ENLARGES HIS DOWNTOWN MARKET

Workmen have just completed numerous improvements on the Dave Galin downtown Purty market, enabling him to carry a much larger stock and give his customers better service.

Commenting on his improvements when asked about them Mr. Galin said: "It was about a year ago when I sold out my interests in the Purty market at Ann Arbor to Mr. Hartner. I invested the money from this sale in the purchase of new equipment and counters for a market in Ypsilanti.

"Since that time conditions have changed so much that if a merchant is to operate his business on a close margin of profits he has to be constantly in touch with his trade.

"I have decided to close up my Ypsilanti store and rather than sell the fixtures I had there, I have placed them in my Plymouth downtown store.

This act will enable me to give my entire time and attention to the people of Plymouth. The people of this city appreciate the service we have given them and we are going to continue to give Plymouth the best there is in meats at the lowest prices."

Herman Dworman Gives Contender to Throne a Trimming

Herman Dworman, who during his leisure hours juggles automobile tires and car lubricants down on Main street, invaded Detroit the other day and showed the natives down there that his skill as a handball player is just as great as ever.

The one-time world champion in singles is again the undisputed champion of Michigan, having made Detroit's contender to the throne look like a last summer's raspberry in the finals the other night.

With such dignitaries as Mayor Frank Murphy on the sidelines cheering for the over-thrown of Plymouth's popular tire man, Herman played circles around the aspiring Mr. Krave.

He returned home to Plymouth the day following his successful battle against the fallen young gentleman from Detroit, and enjoyed one of the most days of his life as his Plymouth super-service station has jammed with mouths.

Both the summer and winter taxes will be returned to the county treasurer on March 1st, after which date all payments will have to be made at that office in Detroit. The city charter requires that all penalties which may have accrued previous to the return date shall be added to the tax and returned to the county treasurer. In the case of the city tax the penalty at the present time is 4 per cent and a like penalty will be added to the winter tax on February 10th if a further extension is not granted by the commission. According to statute a collection fee of 1 per cent of the amount due is also added. Payments made at the city treasurer's office between now and March 1st will be at least 4% per cent less than those made after March 1st at the county treasurer's office.

Miss Velma Petz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Petz, well known Plymouth resident, who graduated from the Plymouth high school with the class of 1931, has just completed a three year course at the Farrand Training school of Harper hospital in nursing. Not only has she completed her course and will be awarded a diploma at the graduation commencement exercises for all the hospital training schools of Detroit at the Masonic temple in May, but credits of nearly a 100 average have been won by her as the result of the excellent work she has been doing.

Miss Petz was a member of a class of 27 that started the course three years ago. She is one of seven that has completed the work. After spending a few days at home with her parents, she plans to continue her course in public health work at the City College in Detroit.

During the time she was studying in Harper hospital, she was president of the Harper hospital unit of the Y. W. C. A. and has been most active in its work. Many Plymouth friends of Miss Petz are extending her congratulations on the splendid record she has made in her hospital school work.

EXTEND TIME FOR PAYMENT OF WINTER TAX

City Commission Comes To Rescue Of Property Owners Here

The city commission has extended the time for paying the 1932 winter taxes without penalty until February 1, 1933. Taxes paid on or before that date will be collected without penalty but will have the collection fee of 1 per cent added.

The city treasurer has also been authorized to collect the 1932 city taxes until March 1, 1933. This announcement should be of interest to many people who have not as yet paid their summer tax and who may now be in position to take care of it.

W. C. T. U. Leader Taken By Death

The Phoebe Patterson Union W. C. T. U. held its regular monthly meeting January 24th at the Louise Ward Hostess House on N. Main street.

This meeting was a very interesting one and the hands of the clock seemed to move too rapidly, there were so many interesting things to talk about. During this meeting the president, Mrs. Clara Todd was called on the long distance phone and given the message of the sudden death of Mrs. E. L. Caulkins of Ypsilanti. Mrs. Caulkins was a guest of the Plymouth Union W. C. T. U. at the time of their meeting. Mrs. Todd was very sad to hear of her sudden death. The W. C. T. U. has lost a valuable friend and co-worker.

L. T. L. CELEBRATES FIRST BIRTHDAY

Monday, January 23rd was the birthday of the first L. T. L. of the Phoebe Patterson Union W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Freyman and Miss Bertha Warner organized a group of boys and girls at the Presbyterian church in a Loyd Temperance Legion. The following boys and girls were enrolled, Bruce McAlister, George Chute, Steve Dohy, Louie Delo, Roger McClain, Bobby Bachelder, Brian Bridge, Harriet Penner, Marie Marep, Frances Marcup, Donna Steinmetz, Elburna Schrader.

This is going to be a lively L. T. L. and Mrs. Freyman and Miss Warner have many good times planned for these happy boys and girls.

NEWBURN GROUP TALKS OF COLORS

January 10, the Newburn Home Furnishing Group met at the Newburn school for a lesson in Color Harmony.

Each member brought mounted pictures showing well balanced room furnishings.

Mrs. Thomas will set in place of Mrs. Hallam as group leader with Mrs. Backwell in future meetings.

Next lesson will be given on Feb. 3 at Newburn school. Members are requested to bring material to begin their rugs. Visitors are invited to attend this group meeting.

Prosperity Must Start On The Farm

The quickest way to break the back of the depression is to restore the buying power of the farmer. If this one thing is done a cycle of improved business will result, reaching into all other fields of endeavor.

The reconstruction of our distress must start at the bottom, not at the top, if we are to overthrow our business lethargy within a reasonable time. Farming communities are without buying power, merchants stocks are low, trade is at a low ebb, credit is tight and naturally so because of low priced commodities. Communities, such as ours, will not regain their purchasing power until prices of farm products are boosted.

When the farmer cannot buy, the manufacturer does not operate, his employees do not work and so the cycle of unemployment and business listlessness goes on in metropolitan centers. When the farmer buys, the merchant moves his goods and restocks his shelves from the manufacturer. Then the wheels start to run.

No far we have witnessed a congress devoting its time to beer. And its time was wasted in this session—the business of putting the farmer back on his feet. The froth on beer discloses no prosperity.

But take hope. Just now there is indication that congress intends to take up farm relief. The Domestic Allotment plan is coming up for consideration. There are arguments in favor and against it but we have reached the point where it behooves us to try something new. If it fails we will be no worse off than we were; if it succeeds we are ahead.

The allotment plan looks to improving the price on several farm commodities. It could be put into operation within a short time and improve the farmer's purchasing power at once. That done the farmer would be a good spender. He needs things; we all need something or other. The manufacturer would soon feel the results of our needs when the farm buying power is restored.

It wouldn't take much to start the cycle of business and industry on the upgrade. If buying power were in the right place but until the wealth that comes out of the soil is recognized there will be no buying power and no prosperity. Better days will come to all when corn and hogs are put on a pinnacle of respect, not before.—Express, Red Oak, Iowa.

Think More Of "The Other Fellow"

The greatest problem of the present moment for each and every community to solve is that of helping the unemployed. The greatest problem of the winter months will be to keep the unemployed man and his family from suffering for the actual necessities of life.

Every family which has food and clothing and a warm home must "think of the other fellow" and share their blessings with him that he may not suffer. A little help from many families kept up week after week will meet the need. No man or woman should fail to do his or her part in helping others who are in need. As "many hands make light work" so many dimes and quarters make the dollars, and many small measures of food make the baskets full.

St. James is not behind other cities in planning to meet the need in this community. Organized effort is what counts best. The community relief committee with the help of the Red Cross, should be able to meet every demand, if loyally supported by generous and thoughtful citizens.

The greatest help is in making jobs for those out of employment. The predictions are that, in spite of all the relief measures started by the President and Congress, the 10,000,000 estimated unemployed now in the United States will increase in the next few months rather than decrease. This is one of the greatest problems President Roosevelt and his new Congress will have to face.—Palmdealer, St. James, Minn.

Rambling Around With Michigan Editors

LOSING $300,000 TO SAVE $206,000—

Metropolitan papers this past week have been making a hero out of John Stack, Jr., Auditor General, because of his act in cancelling the advertising of delinquent tax lands, which will be offered for sale this year. They point out that he is defying a jail sentence in violating the law in order to save $225,000 printing costs. Governor Comstock says he will pardon Stack when and if convicted of violation of the statute. The attorney general says Stack can get by with breaking the law and then admits he is personally liable to judgments.

Far be it from us to hinder any sane economy move, whether it happens to be on printing or other advertising which might touch our pocketbook. If the state can make a big saving in taxes by eliminating some useless functions, let that be done. We have several times mentioned some expensive, and to our mind useless, provision in regard to publicity. On the other hand we know of some politicians who like nothing better than secrecy. Some of our worst cases of local graft have been possible because of the lack of publicity.

Without going into the merits of the law, which has been on the statute books for some 40 years and was written as a protection against tax title sharks, we would like to show just what the situation is, as now faced by the state. The order designating the newspaper was filed as required last September

Self Service

Many good folk are lamenting the passing of the era when men and women consecrated their lives to unselfish service and prepared themselves to become ministers, missionaries, teachers or country doctors that they might administer to the spiritual, mental and physical need of humanity without thought of large worldly gain. They are not in error when they charge that modern men and women are choosing vocations today in which they can do the greatest service to themselves.

People of today are coming to the belief that the best way they can help others is to produce much that their profits shall be large and that they shall never become dependent upon society. The old idea of service was direct. The new service is indirect. Twenty years ago it was still thought that only ministers, doctors and teachers served humanity. Today every workman who carries his whole day's wage home is known to have earned that wage in service to society.

"Just A Library Book"

The book skidded heavily from the boy-bike rider's hand to the sidewalk. He grumbled at the passerby, "That's all right; it's just a library book." Where is your imagination, boy? Just a library book! New, it was marked carefully by the library lady, and listed on cards. A little boy, whose home has few books, was its first reader. Hungry for those things that book held within its covers, he turned its pages carefully, so not to break the back. He read it. He read some parts of it twice, and when the borrowing time was up, hugged it under his arm as he took it back where it was again put on its shelf.

He still remembers and is helped by words he read in it. Next a little girl had it. She was sick. The words in the book made her happy, even when she was so weak her mother had to read it to her.

And other boys, and other girls—so many of them—hungry for what is in that book; made happier, richer because of that book.

Boy, if I could be what I want when I leave this world, I think I would like to be "Just a library book," taking joy, and love, and helpful ideas to girls and boys who love to read—providing not too many of your kind got hold of me, boy, because even a book doesn't like to be dropped or thrown around, especially a library book which has so many other homes than just yours, where it still wants to visit and help folks.—Advertiser, East Aurora, N. Y.

A Dangerous Statement

Congressman-elect John Dingell of Detroit has made the statement that because of the limited spoils that go to a congressman, he is going to call upon industry to provide the jobs he has promised to his constituents. He declares business will be looking for favors in Washington and in return for the favors they should seek and be given jobs for their political supporters. Not only does he demand jobs for ward leechers but he declares that if industry does not give the jobs, then members of congress should retaliate. The statement smacks of an almost open bid for graft. We do not know whether the new congressman from the northwestern section of Detroit can be kept out of congress, but surely an effort should be made to keep him from being seated. He has demonstrated by his statements that he is unfit to hold any public position.

Grover Dillman

Announcement has been made that Grover C. Dillman will be a candidate for reelection and reelection as state highway commissioner. The man has served a number of years in this capacity and he has given to the state a service that has been invaluable. He has kept his department clean. No one has ever heard of any graft in the extensive building program of the department. The highways of Michigan are regarded as the best in the United States. We hope that Mr. Dillman will not only be re-nominated by his party but that he is over-enthusiastically re-elected. And we believe that he will be.

Rattling The Bones

Mr. Fry, the new state treasurer, has been busy during the past few days in digging back into the bond records of his office. We don't know as any good can come from this excavation into the records of the past, but rattling the bones of some of these ancient bond deals does provide some delight for the former city manager of Grand Rapids. Maybe he is in need of some sort of special amusement these days because he can no longer play in the front yard of the Republicans and the Democrats are off kicking because their new governor has been letting him play in their backyard.

recovered. The original owner becomes interested and finding the 1933 flow caused by the auditing general demands and gets his property back. What recourse has the purchaser? Will the state make good?—Phil T. Rich in The Midland Republican.

TAX STRIKE

Frank Sparks, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald, told the Michigan Press Association members last week that he will not be surprised if no taxes are collected in Michigan this year due to the confusion in appointing the tax allowable under the $15 amendment between the state, county, school, cities and townships. Mr. Sparks emphasized his opinion that no new taxes are needed; that the sales and other forms of taxation proposed must be enacted into statute, be absorbed by the business men, that what we need is spending less money and not new taxes. Mr. Sparks' remarks will carry the support of many who have given this tax matter considerable attention.—Thomas Conlin in The Crystal Falls Diamond Drill.

HOPE SENSE

Rev. Stanley Stone has one sane farmer in his Long Lake congregation, for he tells us the party drove to church last Sunday with a horse and buggy. That's one way to beat the license and gas taxes and others, will likely be soon following suit.—J. E. McMullen in The Linden Leader.

It is evident that some of the present state administration leaders take a "to hell with the law" attitude since they stepped into their high position, Attorney General O'Brien, having been asked to pass upon questions presented to him has very emphatically taken such an attitude, especially in his ruling that Mackinac county voters did have a right to use instruction ballots in the last election, as they did in some precincts after the election commissions ran out of legal ballots. Then along comes Auditor General Stack who takes a like position when he refuses to continue carrying out printing contracts, and sets himself as above laws and practices, older than he is. Such big handed treatment of our long established laws, such official disregard of laws will tend to break down the common herd's respect for law and order, and what can come out of such a spirit but wreck, ruin and riot.—Al Weber in The Cheboygan Observer.

NOT ALL DEAD

There is one thing the depression has done, the high pressure salesmen have disappeared for their schemes do not meet with ready sales, because of the lack of money.—D. W. Rutz in The Concord News.

According to information taken from the university records, 28 of these high priced savants never see the inside of a class room or are expected to teach a single class. Of those faculty folk 375 are down for less than 10 hours teaching a week. In fact, more than half of the 815 regular faculty professors do less than 10 hours of teaching in a week during a short college year. A few first and the rest set to work might be a good thing to try.—Robert Gifford in The Eaton Rapids Journal.

A Glee For Winter

Hence, rude Winter! crabbed old fellow, rime thyself, harmless fun, Never merry, never mellow! Well-a-day! In rain and snow What will keep one's heart aglow? Groups of kinsmen, old and young, Oldest they old friends among; Groups of friends, so old and true That they seem our kinsmen, too; These all merry all together, Charm away chill Winter weather.

What will kill this dull old fellow? Ale that's bright, and wine that's mellow! Dear old songs forever new; Shine true love, and laughter, too; Pleasant wit, and harmless fun, And a dance when day is done, Music, friends so true and tried, Whispered love by warm fireside, Mirth at all times all together, Make sweet May of Winter weather.

Dear old songs forever new; Shine true love, and laughter, too; Pleasant wit, and harmless fun, And a dance when day is done, Music, friends so true and tried, Whispered love by warm fireside, Mirth at all times all together, Make sweet May of Winter weather.

The Way Of All Flesh

A hypocrite is he Who periodically pays The devil his dues— And tips the minister With his change.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success

Criticism may be hurled at a success, its popularity may be derided, but when it goes on year after year as a success, when its popularity never seems to decline—in fact becomes greater as time goes on—then and then only can something be called a real success. It may be said that there can be a successful failure," but it is a mere play on words. Real success is attained only through being successful and in spite of discouragement, obstruction, criticism, misunderstanding or downright opposition and prejudice. Competition may come and go, imitators may come and go, but a real success goes on forever.

Truth In A Nutshell

Among other turnovers sorely needed is the one Pop used to make over his knee.

Snow

The snow comes down In a symphony of beauty. Its cool kiss stings my face As I walk slowly Along an avenue of white-draped trees. My head thrown back To catch the fullness Of the snow's knife-like thrusts. I see the moon Veiled by the snow-mist, Glowing strangely through the trees. I hurry on suddenly To the security of my hearth. When I shall be safe From too much beauty.

Changing Times

It used to be that "two can live as cheaply as one." Now two can starve as cheaply as one.

Interesting bits of news Taken from Plymouth Mail

The early morning car from Northville left the track Monday and ran into a telephone pole near the old Phoenix mill site. The car did not get down town until nearly 11 o'clock.

It will be news to most of the people of Wayne county to know that liquor money more than pays the running expenses of the county said Auditor Hawley Christian the other day. He said that if Wayne county were to go dry it would increase the tax over three times the amount now levied against real estate.

E. C. Hough goes to Mobile, Alabama in a few days for a couple of weeks stay. Upon his return his family will come with him. New telephones this week. Will Baxter and Fred Burch, both residences.

When Fred Whitmore who lives near the old Phoenix mill went to his barn the other morning, he found the stable door open and his horse gone. At first he thought the horse had gotten out but on closer examination he found his buggy gone to. He came to the village and notified Officer George Springer. They followed the tracks of the buggy to Delray where the fellow had been captured as the result of the police having been notified by Officer Springer.

Petitions are being circulated on which the subscribers pledge themselves to support candidates for the village council who will refuse to grant liquor licenses.

Thomas Homeaway is this week filling his ice house from the Saunders spring water pond. Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whipple moved into L. C. Hall's house on Dodge street this week.

The Plymouth market—wheat, 93 cts.; potatoes, 45 cts.; butter, 23 cts.; eggs, 23 cts.

Going to the World's Fair?

Many people of this section are going. You too can do so if you figure the costs now and save a little each week for this educational vacation.

The daily admission to the fair is 50c for adults, 25c for children. Rooms for two persons in excellent south shore hotels can be obtained at $5.00 a day. These prices plus meals and transportation will give you a figure of cost toward which to work.

The Fair starts June 1, 1933. Decide now when you wish to go and how long you can stay. Divide the cost by the number of weeks prior to that date and then set aside that amount each week in an account at this bank.

Coming Attractions At Penniman Allen
 "NO MAN OF HER OWN"
 Clark Gable, idol of America's feminine filmgoers, appears for the first time in a Paramount picture as the star of "No Man of Her Own," which appears at the Penniman Allen Theatre Sunday and Monday, January 29 and 30.

As "Habe" Stewart, big-stake gambler with cards and women, Gable adds to his laurels with a fiery characterization which ranks with the best roles he has done. He is given unusually competent support by Carole Lombard and Dorothy Mackall, as the conflicting feminine forces in his life and the picture screen. Yet another like Grant Mitchell, George Barbee and J. Farrell MacDonald. Wesley Ruggles directed from an original screen play by Edmund Goulding and Benjamin Glazer.

"HE LEARNED ABOUT WOMEN"
 "He Learned About Women," a new comedy featuring Stuart Erwin, Alison Skipworth, Susan Fleming and Grant Mitchell, will be featured at the Penniman Allen theatre Wednesday and Thursday, February 1 and 2.

It tells the story of young George Kendall, III, who up to the time he inherits the Kendall fortune of fifty million dollars, has kept his nose buried in a book, and has been as innocent as they come about the facts of life. But when George starts out to learn, he finds excellent teachers in Madame Victoria Poldor, ex-actress; Joan Allen, a pretty stenographer; Appleby, ex-actor and ex-husband of Yvonne; and Eddie Clifford, a crooked theatrical manager.

"MADAME BUTTERFLY"
 "Madame Butterfly," one of the most treasured romances of all time, now done into a motion picture, comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Friday and Saturday, February 3 and 4.

Basketball League Standings
 Merchants and Highway had a royal battle and close game all the way. When flesh meets flesh seemed to be the object as they came together on several occasions. Highway held the advantage at the close with the score 13 to 10.

Methodist Church was unable to penetrate Plymouth Mall's defense to any advantage and were held to a low score. Mall's team outplayed and held the Church team to a defensive game. The game ended in favor of the Plymouth Mall 20 to 11.

Ball Studio due to lack of men present had to play most of the first half using only four men. By nice passing they managed to keep along with Cities Service and for the first quarter led in scoring by quite a margin. The fifth man entered the game near the end of the first half. Final score ended 37 to 15 in the favor of Ball Studio.

Walk-Over had a close contest in the fore part of the game with Schrader's but never lost control of the lead. They got under way and popped them from all angles making the final count 26 to 8.

The standing now has 6 teams tied for 3rd, 4th, and 5th places. Only four games remain in the league.

Willoughby Has Annual Red Arrow Sale
 Willoughby Bros. Walk-Over Boot Shop announce their annual Red Arrow shoe sale at their Plymouth store this week. "Every shoe in our store, in fact every piece of merchandise we have is offered for sale during this event at the lowest prices we have ever been able to put them on the market before," stated Mr. Willoughby Wednesday.

"This is the one sale that we look forward to each year and it is the one sale that the buying public knows that what ever they need in our line they can buy it on this occasion at extremely low prices. We have given this sale every consideration and believe that the values we are offering are greater than any we have previously had," said Mr. Willoughby.

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH
 Worship service is held at 10:30 and 7:30 on Sunday, January 29 and 30. For Satan Or For Christ. The pastor plans to show from the scriptures the reality of Satan and his power, and his way of working. In this age when so many cults based on false optimism are denying the existence of a personal devil, it is of the utmost importance that our boys and girls and young men and young women—as well as we ourselves, should know the tactics of our greatest enemy.

This is not a popular subject, but it is a timely one, and you are urged to be faithful in bringing your family and others to this service.

Bible school commences at 11:45. Children arriving early are invited to come in quietly and sit in the church parlor until the close of the worship service.

Wood's Studio

Makes Women Lose Fat
 Miss Ren M. Haines of Dayton, Ohio writes: "I weighed 180 so started to take Kruschen. I never was so surprised as when I weighed myself the first week—I lost 7 pounds. I just bought my third box and am down to 147—am still taking them and never felt better in my life" (June 17, 1932).

To take off fat take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—opp bottle that last 4 weeks, cost but a few cents—get it at any drug-store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the SAFE and harmless way to lose fat—your money gladly returned.

Don't accept anything but Kruschen because you must reduce safely.

WHY GET UP NIGHTS
 Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUCKETS, the bladder physic, also containing fuchsia leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Sold by Beyer Pharmacy, Plymouth, Mich., and C. R. Horton, Drugist, Northville, Mich. say BUCKETS is a best seller.

SOCIETY AFFAIRS

A jolly group of young ladies and young matrons of Plymouth were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coda Savery at Salem with Miss Norma Savery and Miss Marion Dreyer of Detroit as hostesses. Various games and delightful refreshments had been planned for the pleasure of the guests and everyone had a most happy time. Those present were Miss Viola Luttermoer, Miss Arbutus Williams, Miss Doris Williams, Miss Camilla Ashton, Mrs. Winfield Raugh, Mrs. Jason Day and Mrs. Ronald Lyke.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blichy entertained a party of relatives and friends at supper Wednesday evening at their home on Penniman avenue in honor of their daughter, Esther's birthday anniversary. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Claus Merz and daughter, Olive, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blake and daughter, Lillian, the Misses Anna and Julia Blichy, William Blichy, Anna Speltz, Miss Delight Berg and Miss Marlow Perkins.

A most pleasant surprise was given A. B. Schroder last Wednesday evening when a number of relatives and friends gathered at his home on the Six Mile road in honor of his birthday anniversary. Cards were the entertainment of the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atchinson winning first honors and Mr. and Mrs. John Melow the consolation after which a delicious lunch was served. The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Schroder many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. William Felt most delightfully entertained her "500" club Saturday evening at her home on Fairground avenue. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cook, Mrs. Reka Haring, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wolgast, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hartung, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Vee, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Jewell and Mr. and Mrs. William Gates.

Miss Martha Thiery and Miss Jennie Chambers of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Rohde on Sheridan avenue over the week-end. On Sunday the Rohdes also entertained at dinner several friends from Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Merle Bennett were hosts Saturday evening at a dinner-bridge at their home on Sheridan avenue. Edna Houghton, Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Yeager of Port Huron, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Briggs of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Strong of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Morrow will entertain two tables of Company last Saturday at their home on Starbuckweather avenue, commencing Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierce of Detroit, who will be their guests over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Partridge of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marsh of Ann Arbor were dinner guests Sunday of their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagon, at Coventry Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. James Honey of Adams street will have as their guests Sunday for dinner Mr. and Mrs. Guy Honey and family of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerst entertained a few guests at a six o'clock dinner Friday evening at their home on Mill road. On Saturday evening they again were hosts at a small dinner party.

Mr. and Mrs. James Honey entertained at dinner Sunday at their home on Adams street Claude Verkerk and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Cash in honor of Mr. Verkerk's birthday.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Houchins were hosts to the Independent card club at their home on Canton Center Road. The evening was happily passed playing "500" and delicious refreshments were served. The guests left at an "early" hour for their homes.

Put Your Hens in Laying Trim with Dr. Hess Poultry Pan-a-min

What would more eggs per bird mean to you? Just that 3% of Pan-a-min in their rations means about 11% more eggs. Whether you are feeding your flock only home grown grain or carefully balanced rations, Pan-a-min will help them and boost their production. Pan-a-min will give your pullets and hens better appetites—will give your feed better mineral balance—will put your flock in "laying trim." Through better digestion they convert more feed into eggs. Also Dr. Hess vermiflor keeps your flock free from worms and to eliminate lice use Dr. Hess Louse Powder.

Episcopal Church Members to Celebrate 100th Anniversary

Many members of the Plymouth Saint John's Episcopal church are planning to go to Detroit church part in the Michigan Episcopal Diocese celebration of its one hundredth birthday during the week beginning Saturday, January 28. Beginning on Saturday with the meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society in St. John's Church, Detroit, the celebration will continue on Sunday with special anniversary services in practically all churches in the Diocese, at which the clergy have been requested to preach on the History of the Diocese.

In many parishes and missions, children's services taking the form of parents or pantomimes have been planned for Sunday afternoon, and in the cities outside of Detroit, a number of Episcopal churches will hold community services to which the other denominational groups will be invited. In St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit, on Sunday night, January 29, a corporate service will be held to which all Episcopal congregations in metropolitan Detroit have been invited, and at which the preacher will be the Rt. Rev. Warren John Robinson, D. D., Bishop of Ohio and former Dean of St. Paul's Cathedral. The Cathedral, the Mother Parish of the Northwestern Territory, was organized in 1824 and was for twenty years the only Episcopal church in the city of Detroit.

On Tuesday, January 31, the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held in St. Paul's Cathedral, where, in 1880, was organized the first branch of the Auxiliary in the Diocese. Preceding the business meeting there will be a service of Holy Communion at 9:30, at which the celebrant will be the Rt. Rev. Herman Page, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese.

On Wednesday, February 1, the Opening Service of Diocesan Convention will be held in the Cathedral at 10:00. The service is for the clergy delegates to the Diocesan Convention, delegates to the Thirtieth Annual Convention of the House of Churchwomen and delegates to the Woman's Auxiliary. Bishop Page will celebrate the Holy Communion and deliver his Centennial Anniversary Sermon.

Following the Opening Service, the Diocesan Convention will convene in the Cathedral Convention Hall, and the Convention of the House of churchwomen will proceed to business sessions in the Central Y. W. C. A. Building.

On Wednesday evening there will be held the Centenary Celebration dinner at the Masonic Temple. The principal speaker will be the Rt. Rev. James DeWolf Perry, D. D., Presiding Bishop and chief officer of the Episcopal Church in the United States.

The Convention sessions of both the Diocesan Convention and the House of Churchwomen will continue on Thursday morning.

The commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary is in reality two-fold, inasmuch as the Primary Convention of the Diocese was held in September, 1832, and at that Convention delegates were elected who presented a petition to General Convention in October of the same year, for admission as a Diocese. The petition was granted and the second important event in the history of the Diocese was its admission as a Diocese by that General Convention.

On September 8, 1832, in response to an invitation extended by the laymen of St. Paul's Church, the four clergy then resident in the Northwest Territory, the Rev. Messrs. Richard Calle of Green Bay, Wisconsin, Richard Bury, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Silas

C. Freeman of Ypsilanti and John O'Brien of Monroe, with about a dozen laymen representing the parishes in Detroit, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Monroe, and Tecumseh, met in St. Paul's Church for the Primary Convention of the Episcopal Church in this state. The President of that Convention was the Rev. Silas C. Freeman. The Convention elected a Standing Committee and a General Convention of the Church which was to meet in October in Philadelphia. These deputies were instructed to present a petition asking for admission as the Diocese of Michigan. That petition was granted and the newly consecrated Bishop of Ohio, the Rt. Rev. Charles P. McVaine, placed in charge of the Diocese. Inasmuch as no Convention was held in 1833, the First Annual Convention of the Diocese of Michigan was held on May 3, 1834, in Trinity Church, Monroe. Bishop McVaine, who made his one visitation to the Diocese at that time, presided at the Convention and consecrated the new Trinity Church, Monroe, in which the Convention was held.

There is but one clergyman canonically resident in the Diocese at the present time who has served under all five of Michigan's Bishops.—the Rev. Charles A. Cary, now retired and living in Highland Park, Michigan. Mr. Cary was ordained to the Diaconate by Bishop McCorsy, first Bishop of Michigan, in 1874, and then to the Priesthood in the following year by the same Bishop. Serving for a year in Christ Church, Detroit, as the assistant to the Rev. Dr. John Wesley Brown, he was transferred to the Diocese of Mississippi, where he served until 1884, when he returned to the Diocese of Michigan as Rector of Christ Church, Crosswell and the Church of the Good Shepherd, Lexington. Bishop Harris, the second Bishop of Michigan, transferred Mr. Cary to the Diocese of Florida in 1885, but he returned again to the Diocese in 1889 to serve under Bishop Davies, the third Bishop. At the time of his retirement in 1901, he was Rector of Calvary Church, Saginaw. From 1901 until 1917, Mr. Cary served faithfully both Bishop Davies and the fourth Bishop, Charles D. Willams, fourth Bishop of Michigan, as temporary supply in vacant parishes in the Diocese. Since that time he has been unable to take active part in the services of the Church.

UPSET FOR THE EUCHRE CLUB

Here is what happened in last week's session of the Euchre club. Korte and Shotka snapped out of their losing streak with a bang and gave Al Waldecker and C. Finnegan a good trimming, 10 games to 4. Purdy and Ed Theisen defeated Everett and Mulvey very easily, 10 games to 4. Ed Theisen subbed for Graham J. Waldecker and Wm. Theisen took a stronger hold in first place by defeating Blackmore and Gotts, 10 games to 4. Courtade and Wagenschultz continued their winning streak by conquering R. Waldecker and Walt Theisen, 9 games to 5. This victory put the winners in the first division. The standing:

build a "meeting-house," and Iron Bronson was appointed to have charge of the materials and construction. All material was brought from Detroit with teams of oxen, and the clearing was so filled with stumps of trees that it was difficult to drive the teams near the location to midday the lumber. The church was erected on the site of the present Presbyterian church, and when it was completed Mr. Bronson presented a bill for $386.62 with an extra charge of $4.75 for drafting of plans and the drawing of a bond.

The members came into the church in the autumn of 1845, and this house served the congregation until 1849. A brick church, now the auditorium of the present building was started in 1847 with J. Shearer and H. Frailek in charge, and the first service in the new church was held in November 1849. Henry B. Holcomb purchased the frame building for one hundred dollars and a short time later sold it to the Baptist congregation for one hundred and ten dollars. It was moved by teams of oxen to the Baptist property. Later it was sold to the Lutheran organization, and after they built a new church the little old frame building was converted into a wagon shop and for many years stood on the corner of Spring and Starkweather avenues.

Space permits the copying of only a few of the interesting and amusing highlights found in the records. The first members were appointed in 1843, and this honor was conferred upon Perry Stevens and Joseph Clayton. The first mention of a woman appointed on a committee was in the records of 1849 when Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Fairman and Mrs. Davis were chosen as a committee to attend to the cleaning of the house of worship. The duties of the janitor were to build the fires, clean the oil lamps and open the doors at service time. For his labors he received one dollar per month. Evening meetings were called at early candle-lighting.

The first donation party mentioned in the records was one in 1864 given for Reverend B. F. Marden which netted one hundred dollars in value. In 1877 it was decided to remodel the church.

Arthur D. Stevens and his wife have the honor of dating their membership back to this first period. He joined the church in 1858, and his wife, Agnes Sawyer, was affiliated in 1869. In January 1879 Mr. Stevens was elected an elder for a term of three years and has served in that capacity ever since that time. He has the distinction of being a life member of the church.

The pastors of the church for the first fifty years were A. McManikin, Wm. Snyder, E. Bouton, J. Clayton, E. Shepard, Wm. Kniffin, J. Clayton, S. Cochran, J. McGregor, B. Murden, J. McLaren, M. Gelston, J. Gelston, J. Baldwin, R. Wilkinson, J. Baldwin, E. Bryant, P. Thyboldt, N. Gelston, W. Wetmore.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH Corner of Mill and Spring Streets Friday, January 27th, 1933 The First Baptist Church is having a real friendly "Home Coming" Friday evening, January 27th.

We would be very pleased to have all the members and friends of the church present, the real "old-timer" as well as the newest of those who have followed with us. Please come yourself and extend this invitation to others of your immediate family or friends who have the welfare of our local church at heart.

The ladies have prepared for an excellent supper at 6:30 p. m. and would gladly have a place set for you. Music and other entertainment will be furnished. Notification in advance of your Intention to be present will great Church Clerk.

10:30 a. m. Rev. George Wald of Marshall, Recording Secretary for the Michigan Baptist Convention, will preach, God willing. He is an excellent speaker as was Rev. Sturtevant last Sunday morning. 11:15 a. m. Bible school. There is a wonderful opportunity to study God's Word. Nearly a hundred were there last Sunday. Were you there? Plans are already being considered for children's exercises at Easter time. A bigger and better Sunday school is our aim. 6:30 p. m. Our young people's work is getting under way. Come and assist us. Bring your friend along.

A combined social and business meeting is planned at Miss Doris Williams' home, corner of Elizabeth and Lee streets, this coming Tuesday evening, January 31st. Bring a basket lunch with you. 7:30 p. m. Rev. George Wald will also preach at the evening service. We had a good song before the preaching last Sunday. Come and enjoy fellowship with us.

Wednesday, February 1st 3:45 p. m. We had a good time last Wednesday afternoon. Didn't we CHILDREN? Well, there is going to be more and more of it as the weeks go by. Bring that school-mate of yours along next time and help to "win them, one by one."

7:30 p. m. Prayer-meeting is the inner life of the church where we fellowship as it were around the family table and partake of the spiritual blessings. Our covenant meeting last Wednesday evening gave evidence of that blessed "tie that binds our hearts in Christian love." Come and see.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Truth was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 22. Among the Bible citations was this passage (111 John 1:4): "I do not give joy than to hear that my children walk in truth." Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 484): "It is Christian Science to do right, and nothing short of right-doing has any claim to the name. To talk the right and live the wrong is foolish deceit, doing one's self the most harm."

PERRINSVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bock of Milan took dinner Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klatt. Beginning Sunday, church services will be held at 10 o'clock in the evening. Rev. Thomas Pryor preaching, Sunday school at 3:30 in the afternoon with Mrs. John Beyer as superintendent. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30. Everyone invited and urged to attend any and all of these services.

Miss Margaret Kubie and Henry Sell were dinner guests of the latter's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Humpert in Detroit, Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Klatt spent Friday afternoon with her granddaughter, Mrs. Edith Reber of Plymouth. Callers at the Kubie home were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mecklenberg of Wayne road, Mr. and Mrs. John Kubie and Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Avery and family of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Napier and Ralph Napier of Novi.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnett, of White Lake spent Friday afternoon with her nephew, Homer Mathis and family, of Ann Arbor Trail. Mrs. Peter Kubie and Margaret spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Charles Drees of Hawthorne Valley.

Sent to federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., by mistake, Charles Morse has been released on an order from Judge George Melbourn, of Topeka. Authorities gave him an overcoat, a suit of clothes, and $20 in addition to a railroad ticket to Kempton, Ill.

Predicts Greatest Home Building Era In Next Five Years

The next five years will witness the greatest period of home building this nation has ever seen, thinks Bror G. Dahlberg, president of the Celotex Company. His forecast is based on three factors—a large potential shortage of dwellings, the advent of air conditioning and other improvements that will make millions of homes obsolete, and the movement of population away from congested metropolitan areas.

"We all know that residence construction has been steadily declining for some years past," he points out. "How much it has declined may be judged by the fact that in the year 1925 alone more homes were built than in 1929, 1930 and 1931 combined. Yet these bad years had their full quotas of new families, and the usual million marriages a year. Based on past averages, there should have been three million new homes, while the actual new family units built equalled only one-sixth of that number."

"These facts admit of only one conclusion, that despite the seeming contradiction of thousands of empty homes, empty apartments and a stagnant real estate market there exists in the United States today a tremendous potential shortage of dwellings. Another twelve million families will convert this shortage from the potential to the actual and make new home construction inevitable."

"Air conditioning will add impetus to the movement. It will completely revolutionize our standards of home comfort and will stimulate home building and modernizing to a degree never before contemplated. With these new standards of comfort, how many of the twenty million homes in our country will be able to pass the test? Dwellings perfectly satisfactory to the occupants today will be completely out of date five years from now. This means that such dwellings must be replaced or extensively modernized to bring them up to the new standard."

"These air conditioning houses will also be noiseless. Just as modern offices are being treated today for sound proofing, so will the modern dwelling of 1938 be treated. It will be built to exclude street noises from without and to reduce domestic noises within. The multi-family dwelling without soundproof walls and floors will be as unpopular as it will be without running water and electric lights."

"Another factor that will increase home building activity is the growing tendency to spread out population from big centers, due to the rapid advance in transportation facilities. This movement is pulling families away from densely populated, overcrowded areas, so much so that the insurance it is altogether possible that new transportation may actually spread

Gas Pump Sets Fire To Windmill

An enclosed windmill derrick on the Sidney South farm near South Lyon burned to the ground Monday morning. It was ablaze when discovered, Mr. Smith, his hired men and neighbors put up a hard fight to save the residence and other nearby buildings. The derrick was erected about forty-five years ago. Mr. Smith says he believes origin of the blaze was due to lack of fire of an engine used to operate the pump. Gasoline kept in a five-gallon can near the pump did not explode although the can was scathed by the flames.

"Better transportation will also play a part in the development of the greatest resort building activity ever seen. Escape from cities will be made so easy and inexpensive that greater number of city dwellers will travel to the country for week-ends and vacations. "The home building industry will receive another big boost from the reduction of cost for which everyone is striving. The cost-reduction idea is not exclusive with the people who advocate quantity produced and factory fabricated dwellings. There are numerous cases where clever builders and architects have made seemingly startling cost reductions by simple variations from the old models and methods. The importance of this cost reduction idea can be judged by the estimate recently announced after investigation, that a good house to sell for $4,800 would add sixty per cent to sales in the market for small single family units."

Cherry Hill

(Omitted from last week) The Cherry Hill Ladies Aid Society entertained the Parish Aid Society, Thursday. A beautiful dinner, was served after which a program consisting of community singing, a group of songs, by Miss Clara Hutchins, a talk by Mrs. Ruth Whipple of Plymouth, on Michigan Taxation, was enjoyed by everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. William Honk entertained for dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Jennie Hank, Jane and Gladys Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. Knudt Jorgensen and family. The occasion being the birthday of Mr. Jorgensen, and the second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Honk. Mrs. John Gustin called on Mrs. William Honk Tuesday afternoon.

CUT INSURANCE ON INSTITUTIONS

Savings of $17,500 in cancellation of insurance on Eloise Hospital and Wayne County Training School at Northville, have been announced by Ray D. Schneider, new member of the Wayne County Board of Auditors.

The auditors cancelled $2,000,000 insurance on the buildings at Eloise for a saving of $10,000 in three years, and enough on the training school to save $7,500 in the same period of time. Schneider said the cancellation results from depreciation on the buildings which makes it no longer necessary for the county to carry a heavy coverage. The insurance it is altogether possible that new transportation may actually spread get to the governor in his office, they catch him in the corridors of the capitol or while he is on the way to his hotel room. Even his hotel has become the nucleus for both men and women seeking a place on the state payroll. But the governor is not the only one bothered by these job seekers. Newly elected members of the legislature, if they happen to be Democrats, are besieged with requests to arrange interviews for job seekers with the officials who have power to give jobs. So insistent is the demand for jobs and so much time is taken up by job seekers that the governor nor the state legislature have had much time to give thought to anything else. These are the days that Republican members of the legislature are elated to think they have no spoils to give and no jobs to recommend. They are free to give their entire thought and time to the important and pressing demands of the state.

Home rule for school districts is going to be the demand of Senator Francis Culp of Battle Creek in legislation that he has in mind. Senator Culp declares that the financial difficulties of the school districts of Michigan have been brought about entirely by demands made by state officials and higher institutions of learning. He says the time has come for the return of the control of the schools to the districts that support them. If this is done many of the mills that some poor country districts are now forced to carry and that are too great a burden for the taxpayers will be done away with and district as well as larger schools put on a self-supporting basis.

As days and weeks of the legislative session pass on it is becoming more apparent each day that the recommendations of Representative Gus Hartman and Representative Vernon Brown, members of the state commission on inquiry, for certain economies in state affairs, will be a major part, or at least a good part, of the economy program that Governor Comstock will soon submit to the legislature. It has been generally supposed that the governor had something entirely different in mind than what the commission recommended, but as time goes on, information seems out that some of the bills the commission has already introduced will become a part of the Democratic economy program.

Senator Leon Case, publisher of the Waterfret Record and chairman of the Michigan Press Association committee on public affairs, has been elected chairman of the senate steering committee. This action places all legislation in direct control of Senator Case and his committee. The post is by far the most important legislative place in the senate, except that occupied by the lieutenant governor.

As part of the economy program under consideration, but on which no definite action has been taken, the Western State Normal school at Kalamazoo and the Central State Teachers' College at Michigan may be closed at the beginning of the fall term of school. With less than 33 per cent of the graduates of last year securing positions and hundreds of teachers out of employment, some of the newly elected Democratic representatives feel that though these two schools could be closed for the present.

Governor Comstock's declaration that he has in mind a reduction of something like $12,000,000 in state expenses would put state expenditures back where they were seven or eight years ago. In 1925, the state operated on a state tax of $16,500,000. The cut that Gov. Comstock proposes will place the state tax for the next fiscal year somewhere around that amount.

Now Democratic members of the house from Detroit and Flint are having difficulty in making ends meet on the $3,000 per day salary they get from the state. During the past few days an effort has been made to create a pool so that these representatives may borrow from the city of Flint on the welfare of that place before being elected to the house of representatives. It is understood some sort of a plan is being worked out to assist needy representatives.

Governor Comstock's declaration that he will not file an election expense has resulted in the county clerk of Washtenaw county where the Governor resides, in declaring that he will force the governor to comply with the election law. A few days ago an Ingham county farm boy was sent to 60 days in the county jail for trapping law. One state representative has asked which of the two law violations is the most serious.

Grange Members Hear Interesting Program was the only market and was not considered good, we are told.

"The pioneers had very little money and not much use for what they had. The soil produced food in abundance and the clothing was mostly homespun. The shoemaker came once a year and lived with the family while he made boots and shoes for all.

"The first white child born in the present limits of Plymouth was George A. Starkweather, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Starkweather, born February 20, 1826.

"At the first township meeting a tax of $154.40 was levied about half of which was upon land owned by non-residents.

"There were but few Indians in the neighborhood at that time and they were the thieving vagabond variety; great beggars, but never injuring the settlers. The most they cared for was enough to get to get drunk. By far the most dangerous foes were the bears and wolves which were abundant.

"A saw and grist mill was built soon after the settlement was made and helped to supply the needs of the community. The first post office was located for residents at Plymouth Corners. The first Postmaster was Gideon Deaton who for a time carried the mail in his hat or tied up in a handkerchief.

"Such were some of the experiences of the pioneers of Plymouth.

An article that was prepared by K. H. Starkweather and printed in the Plymouth Mail some time ago telling of Plymouth in 1836 was read at the meeting. It follows:

"A traveler passing westward in the wilderness of Michigan Territory in 1836 reached here just at dusk after a hard day's journey over what he declared was 'the worst road that mortal ever traveled over.' He thus describes the Plymouth of that day:

"The last parting rays of the sun were touching the tree tops as we came in sight of Plymouth. We do not know why, but we imagined, as we caught the first view of this picturesque little village, that we had seen it before. Could it have been that some slip of a village from the east had strayed away from home—gone gliding—and wandering off in the wild woods, had settled here? There was a beautiful green lawn in its center. The 'decent church' stood on its western border, a tavern on the eastern side. We heard the ring of the blacksmith's anvil, and in the distance the 'clack' of the mill. The little quiet hamlet had such a rustic woodland air, and withal looked so pretty, that we were decidedly pleased with it. The more so because it was our Mecca of rest at the close of a weary, toilsome day over bad roads.

"At the Franklin tavern we met many emigrants, and after supper our party had the pleasure of relating our trials and experiences, and talking about our plans and prospects for the future, and listening to others. Acquaintance-making among the emigrants was rapid. Settling here in Michigan was the subject, and with one touch of its potent influence, it made us all akin."

Lloyd Fillmore read an article at the meeting on the way Plymouth secured its name. He said:

Bowling

buyers are hoping it up over Redford way. Rosedale Gardens is there "on the alley" when it comes to bowling, making up for lost time when they pough on up the balls to defeat the Wilson boys two out of three. The Wilson boys are supposed to be the "big" nonie-nomie and a hot-sha-cha of the Redford League, but to Rosedale Gardens they were just a bunch of sour apples and a couple of nonie-nomie's without the hot-sha, eh what say?

And notwithstanding, we have been wondering who was going to pay for the bowling bowlers shirts. It was rumored, well it was just rumored, but so far they did not.

of unusual violent violence blew and blue and blue all last Wednesday and Thursday, including day and night.

For a time it looked as if all R. new trees would drag, anchorage and lay down to die, as wind on the roots is sure death, as a tree after recent operations like they laid in the ground with the Gustler and Bill Smith got out some new life lines and worked hard for hours at anchors when the lull finally set in and gave us another fine day on Friday. (fish and material dinner days.) However, the big sign in the old Wilson pasture just east of the ditch was blown to pieces, several old trees and a telephone pole or two on U. S. 12 snapped off, or nearly so. A dizzy Ford driver snacked a Chevy in the stern shoots a wallon that neither Ford or Chevy will ever forget, but all in all no one was hurt, praise be.

Fog

thicker than coffee cream obscured everything from supper time Saturday till time for Church on Sunday. Then after Church more wind from the weather and a cloud burst of short duration, with the fahrenheit thermometer at 60° made the buds on the pine trees break out and the rose sprouts sprout.

Roller Skates

are in demand, in fact one Boy Scout reports he was offered two (2) pair ice skates for one (1) pair roller skates. Owing to the weather sed B. S. did not choose to trade.

The Twin Shingles

r to be no more, Cousin Barbour having entirely completed in a pumpkin yellow the no. 11037 and is working on no. 11033 Blackbur in an artistic shade of brick. So now each will be no more than another brick house.

Bandit!

is what some boys from Kough and Ready were called by the State Police last Wednesday, but they caught the real ones afterward.

It was this way—viz: Bert McKinney organized a rabbit hunting party and the S. P.'s a bandit hunting party. Owing to the weather a bank robbery party over Toledo, (Mich.) way via Radio and Bert got caught before he caught the rabbits and the excitement caused both bandits and rabbits to run around wild for a time, but in the end the bandits landed in jail, the rabbits in the pot and Bert and CIA landed home safe by the Shuyler radio, whilst all listened to the Police's wonderful way of blocking all roads and finally getting their men. Thus the S. P. always get the bandits and B. McK. always gets the game, large or small, hair or feathers.

NEWBURG

Commencing next Sunday, preaching service will commence at 10, with Sunday school at 11 a. m. Epworth League 7:30. An airplane contest will start in the Sunday school next Sunday, lasting until Easter.

Sunday evening the Epworth League held a debate on the question, "Children Should Not Consult Their Parents on Everything They Do." Those taking part were Alice Bakewell, Lydia Joy and Viola Luttmoser on the affirmative, while Oscar Luttmoser, Harold Stevens and Vans Pederson had the negative. By general applause of the audience the negative side won.

Leigh Ryder and Henry and Raymond Graham spent two days last week fishing on Saginaw Bay with a catch of 27 perch.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatten and daughter, Edith of Detroit were callers on Mrs. L. Wilson Sunday afternoon.

Ruth Schmidt is gradually recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt and family returned from St. Petersburg, Fla. a week ago Saturday. They report a delightful time.

The many friends of Mrs. James Joy of New Hudson are indeed sorry to learn of her having to undergo several months in an Oakland county hospital. She would be glad to receive cards and letters from friends.

Glad to note that Thomas Wilson is recovering from an operation for hernia performed last Tuesday at the P. of M. hospital, Ann Arbor.

A number of the school children are convalescing from chicken pox.

A surprise party was given Dwight Paddock last week Wednesday evening. About 30 were present to help Dwight celebrate his 17th birthday. Refreshments were served. All report a jolly time.
