

WISELEY MADE COUNTY WHEAT BOARD MEMBER

Well Known Plymouth Farmer On Wheat Acreage Committee

W. F. Von Moll, Trenton; Ernest Fullford, Romulus; John Harlan, Farmington; Fred Vorce, Belleville; Wm. Bristol, Flat Rock; George Schaffer, Dearborn; L. A. Wisley, Plymouth; Peter Tenjes, Detroit; W. E. Gault, Belleville; and Ernest Gustafson, New Boston, are the men chosen in Wayne County as members of the organization committee to begin work of reducing the wheat acreage in this county as requested by Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture. This committee will be charged with explaining to Wayne farmers and business men how the plan will work and how the people of this county will benefit from its operation.

The purpose of the wheat production allotment plan is to insure the farmer a price for his wheat which is equal in purchasing power to that of the 1914 crop. This can be obtained only by reducing the production of wheat to a point that guarantees a sufficient supply for the needs of the people of the United States but that does not create an enormous oversupply to demoralize the domestic and the world wheat markets.

There is no danger of reducing the supply of wheat below the amount needed for food and all other purposes. The United States now has a carryover of old wheat of 360,000,000 bushels. This mountain of wheat has overhung prospective rises in the market and winceches from it have overwhelmed upward price movements.

An abnormally short crop in 1933, a knowledge that the federal government is pledged to assist wheat farmers, and public speculation in wheat futures caused the recent gain in grain prices. A drop of 30 cents a bushel in prices in two days from the high point is ample evidence of the panic that seizes speculators when they stop to think what will happen when the avalanche wheat starts pouring into the market.

The Wayne County committee believes that every wheat grower is entitled to a stabilized market for his product and that all business men in this section will benefit from the increased purchasing power that wheat prices will bring to our farm people.

The plan of the federal government to aid farmers does not jingle them out for undue benefits. Farmers have carried the burden of supplying the nation's food during a period when they saw their debts increasing with every year. A bountiful supply of every food stuff has moved into the nation's market through years when mortgage foreclosures were ever present threats. Meetings will be held in every township and community in this county and at these meetings members of the organization committee will explain what the government asks and how it promises to reward those who cooperate. Permanent local committees and county associations will be chosen to advise wheatgrowers to supervise the federal plan in Wayne County.

Other names will be added to this list as they are presented, but Giles, who is enthusiastically handling the details of the registration, announces that he believes there will be a hundred per cent roll before the present week is over.

Edward T. Greely of Ohio left $15 gold American dollars with the city of Plymouth for reckless driving of his automobile on the streets Tuesday evening. Officer Charles Thumme landed him just as he attempted to swing from Main street on Penniman avenue, after having speared down the street at a rate of nearly 50 miles per hour.

Thieves Found By Arrest Another Garage Burglar

Finger prints taken from the cash register at the Plymouth Mall and from broken glass found at the Wayne County Training school solved two breaking and entering charges for local and Detroit police last Friday.

Chief of Police Vaughn Smith finding two men he suspected locked in the Wayne County Jail for a Detroit breaking and entering charge, took them to the office of Robert Moore, head of the Detroit criminal classification bureau and there Mr. Moore determined that the two were the ones who had entered the Training School garage and the Mall office.

The men, Peter Tycyns and John Treat are held at the County Jail on three separate charges of entering. After being informed that their finger prints were identical with those already in record both confessed to the charges.

CITY OFFICIALS PLAN PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAM TO PROMOTE NEEDED RELIEF

BUDGET SAVINGS ARE LOST IN TANGLE OF OVERDRAFTS

NEW FUNCTIONS OF STATE GOVERNMENT CAUSE CONFUSING INCREASE IN TOTALS

Provisions of Administration Sales and Gross Income Taxes Are Considered Along With Deficits And Diversions Of Revenues

Now that the matter of "political payrolls" has again been disposed of, at least for the present, suppose the attention of the reader be turned for the moment to a consideration of the 1933-35 budget and the special appropriations as finally adopted by the legislature and approved by the governor. Considerable confusion appears to exist in the minds of the citizens of this state as to just what occurred to require more money to be raised by the state than year before.

For the purpose of this discussion let round numbers be employed for the sake of a better understanding. Also for the purpose of a better understanding let the items be divided into groups in order that appropriate and correct comparisons may be made. The reader is cautioned to remember that two new fields of state spending were created by the 1933 legislature, both of these functions having been heretofore entirely supported by local taxes and local property. These two new purposes demand the raising of $27,000,000 not heretofore included in state tax or other state revenues. They are: Emergency welfare aid, $12,000,000; state aid to local school districts, $15,000,000.

$27,000,000 Replacement

It should be borne in mind also that on the event to more money is expended on these purposes, than every penny provided by the state from the sales tax is a direct replacement of an equal amount which otherwise would have of necessity been provided by a tax upon property assessed and levied by local assessors and levied, contrary to the extent that the state spends more money in these respects than would have been spent if left in the hands of local authorities, just to that extent are the taxpayers of the state in general penalized.

The current purpose budget covering state departments, institutions, colleges and the university amounted to approximately $29,000,000 of this sum being provided by a state tax levied on the properties of the state. The 1933 legislature for these same purposes appropriated $19,000,000 and was forced to add to this sum to make up for deficiencies in the revenues of the period. The period which amounted to approximately $10,700,000. These deficiencies were the direct result of two causes, namely, failure to appropriate sufficient sums to meet actual demands and inability of the taxpayers to pay the taxes levied for state purposes. A slump in miscellaneous revenues also had its part in the creation of this deficit.

Therefore, without any new savings of any kind any possible savings made by the legislature written into the 1933-1935 budget were wiped out by reason of the deficits created during the previous two-year period. Had there been no new taxes created and had there been no reduction of funds back to the counties and municipalities and schools as contemplated under the welfare and school aid bills, the state tax for 1933 would of necessity have been just about as it stood in 1931 except that the legislature in making its appropriations for 1933 to 1935 made an honest effort to avoid a repetition of deficit-creating fiscal policy. In other words had the state continued to have operated on a property tax basis and had the tax levy for 1933 been in the same amount as in 1931 and if all had been collected, Michigan would just about have climbed out of the red ink mire in which she was wallowing during the past several months.

Property Tax Breakdown

However the property tax system had broken down. The people of the state were virtually upon a taxpayer's strike. They had adopted a constitutional amendment to the effect that not to exceed 16 mills of tax could be levied against the assessed value of any property. Something had to be done. Not only was it necessary to create new revenues for state purposes, it was also deemed necessary to provide state money to help our local units of government in the relief of the destitute unemployed. Many local school districts also found it impossible to operate their public schools within the 16 mill tax limitation, and state aid seemed unavoidable.

After months of discussion and debate and conflict of interest, the straight three per cent relief tax was decided upon. This tax was estimated to yield about $32,000,000 annually. When all the demands upon the state treasury had been computed and all revenues from sources other than the sales tax had been estimated, it was found that not sufficient money was in sight to wipe out all the state property tax as the governor hoped. Consequently $3,500,000 was levied for the partial support of the university and Michigan State college, eight-tenths of a mill having been reserved by the state for just this possible emergency. This left then $18,000,000 as the possible revenues to be depended upon from mill tax, corporation taxes, insurance and other taxes, beer revenue and the receipt of delinquent taxes levied for previous years, the latter being estimated at $2,000,000. The $18,000,000 deducted from the total budget which, including deficiencies amounted to $29,700,000, left $13,100,000 to come from the revenues to be derived from the retail sales tax.

MAYOR HOVER TO CALL MASS MEETING SOON

Program Would Provide Work For 75 Men For Over Year

The following projects constitute the proposed public works program as outlined to the committee last Friday night. Two of these projects, the municipal water softening plant and the Church street underpass at the high school were suggested by citizens in attendance at the meeting and were adopted as a part of the program.

Project No. 1—Closing Toniquish Creek from Harvey Street to 200 feet East of South Main Street. This project has been under discussion for the past several years and it is suggested because of the recent demand to have something done with this unsightly creek running through the business district. The estimated cost of the work is $26,000.00 and the Federal Grant would be $3,800.00. The project would provide the greatest amount of work per dollar expended of any of the projects included in the list.

Project No. 2—Assessed Water Mains. These water mains include new construction on several streets in the city where there are no water mains or inadequate mains at the present time. This work will have to be done within the very near future, especially on these streets now being supplied by temporary small water mains. The estimated cost of this work is $7,600.00. $2,280.00 of which would be a direct grant and the balance would be assessed against the property benefited.

Project No. 3—Improvements to Water System. This project includes increasing the size of water mains and looping in dead ends where necessary to improve the distribution of water in the general system, also enlarging of mains and hydrants in the downtown district to improve the fire protection facilities. In most cases the inability to have sufficient water for sprinkling or low pressure on the second floor of homes is due to the distribution system and not to the shortage of water. These improvements would eliminate most of this difficulty. The estimated cost is $30,000.00, $10,000.00 of which will be a direct grant from the Federal Government and the balance will be paid from the Water Fund.

Project No. 4—Municipal Water Softening Plant. This project was suggested by citizens in attendance at the meeting. It was felt that by softening the water that a considerable amount of money would be saved to the citizens in the use of soap, water softening materials, and in damage done to the plumbing systems. No great amount of study has been given to this project but it is roughly estimated to cost $40,000.00 of which would be a Federal Grant and the balance paid from the Water Fund.

Project No. 5—New Well in or near the City. In lieu of building a new and larger line for a distance of approximately five miles from the existing line to the City which will cost considerable in excess of $100,000.00, it is suggested that an effort be made to locate a well in or near the city with adequate capacity to supply the peak demands of the City. This project is estimated at $15,000.00, $4,500.00 of which would be a Federal Grant and the balance payable from the Water Fund.

Project No. 6—Cemetery Watering System. Because of the fact an adequate watering system is necessary at the cemetery in order that the grass and shrubs can be kept alive during the hot summer months, it is suggested that a system be installed at the cemetery. It is planned to have the system financed by the Water Department and the water sold to the cemetery at a rate which would amortize the debt incurred by the Water Department. The estimated cost of this project is $10,000.00, $3,000.00 of which would be a Federal Grant and the balance payable from the Water Department Fund.

CHAS. L. FINLAN HIT BY AUTO

Charles Finlan, well known Plymouth automobile insurance salesman, is in Plymouth hospital suffering from shock and a severe bruise and cut on the face as the result of being hit by an automobile while crossing Main street near the Plymouth hotel shortly before noon Wednesday.

The car was driven by County Auditor Ray Schneider who was accompanied by Jack Cowan and another county official. No responsibility was attached to the driver of the car in any way and Mr. Finlan is at a loss to explain just how the accident happened.

The left side of his face was struck by one of the protruding windshield ventilators of the rear windows as he walked directly to the side of the car. Dr. Harold Brishols, who attended Mr. Finlan, stated that the cheek bone is cracked slightly but that Mr. Finlan is suffering mostly from shock. His face was also cut by the glass as it was cracked by the impact.

The fact that Mr. Schneider was able to stop his car within a distance of four or five feet is evidence of the slow speed he was driving it. Mr. Finlan had started to cross the street and after waiting until a truck went by, he apparently started to complete his trip across the thoroughfare, when he walked directly into Mr. Schneider's car.

Local Rotary Club Classed as Among Best in Michigan

Members of the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday had the pleasure of hearing their district governor, Joseph Mills of Detroit, declare the City of Plymouth to be one of the excellent clubs of this district, "real Rotary club, functioning as a good Rotary club should."

Mr. Mills for years one of Detroit's most active Rotarians, had carefully checked the work of the local organization and spent most of the day in consultation with President Cass S. Hough.

Last Friday's meeting was one of the largest in many weeks, every Rotarian who was home, turning out to greet their highest district executive officer.

One of the most complete reports the club ever had was presented by President Hough and prepared to each member. Not only did it contain a detailed account of the activities of the club, but a list of the various activities was made a part of the report.

MISS MARIE JOHNSON HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Miss Marie Johnson is recovering from injuries received last Saturday morning when an automobile in which she was riding from Whitmore Lake to Plymouth crashed into the side of a milk truck. She was badly cut and bruised, numerous stitches being required to close a gash in one arm.

The car in which she was riding was being driven by Lyle Nowlan, an employe of the Wayne county road commission.

He had started to pass a milk truck when the driver of the truck without giving the slightest warning, is reported to have turned his car directly in front of the machine as it started to go by. Miss Johnson was brought to Plymouth where immediate medical attention was given her injuries.

HOVED MADE CHAIRMAN OF NRA COMMITTEE

Plymouth Takes Every Required Step To Make Plan Successful

The board of directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce in session Wednesday authorized Secretary Berg Moore to follow the recommendations of the National Recovery Administration to organize a Plymouth NRA committee under the general chairmanship of the mayor. Mayor Freeman H. Hover assured Mr. Moore later in the day that he would serve in that capacity. The C. of C. directors left the naming of the committee in the hands of Mayor Hover and Secretary Berg Moore.

According to instructions received at the chamber of commerce office from NRA leaders Hugh S. Johnson and Thomas S. Hammond, employers who are not as yet under codes approved by the President must obtain the Blue Eagle in one of three ways:

First: By 100 per cent compliance to the terms of the President's re-employment agreement.

Second: In cases where concerns belong to trade associations and where said associations have submitted applications in the process of submitting codes, the Certificate of Compliance may be signed with this endorsement: "To the extent of NRA consent as announced we have complied with the President's Agreement by conforming with the provisions of the Code submitted for the Trade or Industry."

Third: In cases where the provisions of the agreement are mostly impossible, a petition may be prepared to the NRA asking for a stay or postponement of those provisions which would constitute an "unavoidable hardship." This petition should be submitted to your trade association, or if none, to your local chamber of commerce. If officially accepted by one of the above methods, the Certificate of Compliance should be added to the face of your Certificate of Compliance. "Except for those interim provisions regarding wages and hours which have been approved by the Trade Association of Chamber of Commerce."

One function of the committee being organized under the leadership of Mayor Hover will be to act as a board of arbitration to study petitions which may be submitted.

NORTHVILLE FAIR TO HOLD BIG PARADE

The Wednesday night opening of the four day Northville Wayne County fair, August 23 to 26 inclusive, will overshadow any previous fair open ever staged here before.

Without waiting for any preliminary features, entertainment will begin Wednesday evening with a giant parade in which every farmer with a rig, every horseman with a mount will participate. Prizes are to be awarded for the best horse, the most ornate, most rattle and shine rig and for the best costumed rider.

There will be every type of old fashioned horse drawn rig present that can be gathered. Covered wagons, stage coaches, buckboard wagons, top buggies, double surreys, all drawn by mules, jennies, ponies, and some of the most famous sway-backed horses in the country. All drivers may use whatever their individuality dictates for costumes. One of the most complete reports the club ever had was presented by President Hough and prepared to each member. Not only did it contain a detailed account of the activities of the club, but a list of the various activities was made a part of the report.

Running the full gamut from the most highly polished hacks and rubber tired roadsters to the dustiest, most tireless and dingiest outfit, all will be welcome to participate.

Fair officials predict a "Century of Progress" parade demonstrating the earliest and the latest models of equestrian transportation which will range from Indiana riders on ponies, pony express riders, right up to today. There is no need of going to Chicago to see a world exhibit of horse activity, they say. The needs of all horsemen and those interested in horses will be met at the Northville Wayne County fair at Northville Wednesday evening. This huge spectacle which has never before been attempted there on such a large scale.

Representative features of the fair will be a group of genuine Russian Cosacks with a dazzling display of European horsemanship; a team of mounted policemen from Detroit the same squadron that "tote" the show at the Michigan State fair last year, and several other specialty acts.

MAKE THE PLAN A SUCCESS!

Plymouth business men in a mass meeting Friday night decided without a single objecting vote to get back of the government's plan to restore business by adopting shorter working hours and higher pay to their employees. True, that many business men present don't know how they are going to get the extra money to pay higher wages for shorter hours, but showing the same patriotic spirit that prevailed here in war time, they declared they would get it somehow and that they would cooperate to the limit with the government in doing what they can to start the nation back on the road to recovery.

It means no profits for anyone for the next five or six months. To some business men it means weeks and weeks of actual losses in business. But representatives of the government have declared that temporary losses are sure to be followed by improved business conditions and better living standards for all.

At any rate the plan is worth trying. For three years the business of the world has gone down and down to a point where hundreds of thousands have been forced to their own dislike to accept aid from the public. This is the thing that the government intends to end. It is the thing that President Roosevelt has declared can continue no longer.

It is the thing that we ourselves can help remedy by doing all of the things that the government requests.

The N.R.A. plan is the first constructive nationwide thing that has been done by the government to improve business. Everything else tried has failed. We have nothing else to turn to, so why not get back of the N. R. A. plan one hundred per cent and see if it will not prove a success?

We can all rest assured that there is going to be no profit in business for a time—but why shouldn't we be satisfied to just do enough business to "get by" on until the plan is made workable and thereby successful?

Again may we congratulate the business leaders of the city for fine public spirit shown at the meeting Friday night. In united action, there is bound to be some sort of success.

JOHN K. STACK AND HIS EX-CONVICT FRIEND

Auditor General John K. Stack is being found out in his true light by Lansing newspaper correspondents. The writers whose duty it is to provide the state with accurate information as to what goes on in Lansing for a few months thought Stack was a little better than the average bunch of Lansing office holders that had been swept into office by the political upset last fall. In some way they got the impression that he really was there to serve the job as he thought best. Others who knew the inside of the deal he "pulled" last winter in violating contracts pertaining to delinquent tax land sales in order to save to the Stack Lumber company thousands and thousands of acres of timber land on which taxes are delinquent and how he tried to put it over in the name of "economy," knew Stack in his true light. So when by chance Lansing newspaper men learned that Stack had hired an ex-convict to check the honesty of state employees and their expense accounts, they had much to say about Mr. Stack. So quietly did Stack try to put over on the public his ex-convict friend, that the fellow had been working in the auditor general's office for weeks before newspaper correspondents discovered he was on the state payroll. Right in this connection isn't it entirely proper to ask if there is any connection between the hiring of this ex-convict by Mr. Stack and the fact that Mr. Stack recently moved his family into the palatial home owned by the convicted perjurer's family? No, of course not! Now comes forth Mr. Stack with the declaration that in spite of the public protest, he is going to keep his ex-convict friend on the public payroll because the fellow has a friend in the whole world and he knows as a result he will be honest and will see to it that everybody connected with the state government files an honest expense account. Maybe Mr. Stack is right. Maybe out of the five million ones of other people living in Michigan there isn't an honest man to be found outside his ex-convict friend.

Rambling Around With Michigan Editors

LEGALIZED ROBBERY
 The legislature spent a great deal of its time chewing the rag about legalizing racing in Michigan. It's a misnomer to say the discussion was about "racing" or even "betting on races." What was in the back of the heads of the authors of the bill was legalized robbery of unsuspecting people through bookmaking and other forms of gambling on professional horse racing and professional dog racing by professional gamblers and professional crooks. No one with a grain of sense objects to betting on horse races at county fairs or even on racing circuits. What is objected to is robbing people through skin games set up by professional gamblers and professional crooks. It was "professionals" that backed the racing bills. As a bait there was hung before the eyes of the people a possible income of $800,000 from licenses. The people back of the race bill are the same people that are back of liquor and slot machine rackets and bawdy houses. That's the class of people that Michigan is to get its income from if Governor Comstock signs the racing bill and racing is countenanced as its

NO PENSION FOR HIM

An exchange points out that 3500 new lawyers are turned out every year to add to an already overcrowded profession. It inquires what becomes of them. The welfare lists of a number of our larger cities contain the names of a substantial number while in many of the smaller cities and towns of the state there are no lawyers, another case of being educated away from the practical purpose of making an honest effort toward being self supporting. A veteran of the Civil War just died in Oklahoma at the age of 110. One of the strongest newspapers printed in the south devoted its leading editorial to him because he never drew a pension. The old man had explained his refusal to apply for a pension on the proposed separation of security banking from commercial banking should improve both. Controlled by new regulations, the former should rise to greater dignity and respect, taking pride in the soundness of the securities it offers. Commercial banks themselves, set loose from their security affiliates, and having no further interest in promoting the sale of any securities, should gain in prestige. And commercial banks in general should regain considerable business that has been drifting away from them.

BANK REFORMS

During the recent boom, it became too easy for corporations to raise funds by floating bond issues. They often borrowed in this way, from the investing public, more money than they needed, and used it to over-extend their plants and equipment. When hard times came, they found themselves burdened with heavy fixed charges. They were encouraged by the extravagance of investment bankers who profited by selling their bonds.

Hereafter they may return for many of their loans to the banks. And the commercial banks, having no such incentive to lure them into unwise debt, may do both borrowers and themselves a service by moderate loans and credit to the corporation's capital structure.—Madison Press, London, Ohio.

YESTERDAY IS DEAD!

You young fellows out of school and a job. You have had a tough time the last two years. You were anxious to get to work. Nothing opened up. You felt you were burying your heads against a stone wall. The Star passes on to you a phrase it saw the other day—to you and to the others who will join your ranks this spring.

That phrase is, Yesterday is dead!

The country has been bogged down before. It is going to begin to pull out shortly, just as it always has pulled out. But mark this. Business is not coming back just as it was before. It never does, after going through the wringer.

A lot of the old leaders and old methods have passed out. A new bunch of aggressive and resourceful young fellows will come stomping up to grasp new opportunities.

But yesterday is dead!

New opportunities, and you. Not the opportunities of the past decade. Those are gone. If experience is a guide, recovery will not come in orderly fashion, along the old lines. Keen men will see business chances here and there even while things are at a low level. Chances that grow out of the depression with its changed demands.

Perhaps these will lie in new products of science, in inexpensive novelties, in house cooling, in cheap farm lands. Men who live in the past will overlook these opportunities. They will be thinking of things as they were in 1929. So they will fail to see the new conditions and take advantage of them.

But the alert young crowd will jump at the new chances, develop them, build them up with them as business builds up.

Yesterday is dead!

Have you heard of the flu-fu bird that flies back-wards? It wants to see where it is going. It can't give a darn where it is going. Don't be a flu-fu bird. You youngsters, seize any decent job that offers. But keep your eyes open. Be ready for new conditions, new ideas. Your humble job may have possibilities that the old order did not reveal.

Remember, Yesterday is dead.—Kansas City Star.

NERVOUS NELLIE

"Only 10 per cent of Michigan's public schools will be able to remain open the full school term next year and 25 per cent can not operate for more than a few weeks," Dr. Paul F. Voelker, superintendent of public instruction, claimed in an address before the Ann Arbor Rotary club last week.

The learned doctor is living up to his title of Nervous Nellie. He is hollering before he has it. It is probable that there will be some schools not able to operate as heretofore. In others the swimming pools may have to be closed and tap dancing lessons discontinued. But in the majority of cases, the schools will be open just about as usual.

IS ANYTHING REALLY YOURS?

Attempts by the United States government to compel gold hoarders to give up their yellow metal possessions is promised in the case of the 22 Detroit citizens who are said to have $797,685 in hiding. The outcome of this suit will be of universal interest. It will decide whether you must give it up for a species of currency that is not even an acknowledged receipt for the gold they take from you. If the U. S. is successful, further evidence will be thus furnished that "all is not gold that glitters."—George Averill in The Birmingham Eclectic.

AS USUAL

Superintendent of Public Instruction Paul Voelker was going to save the state a lot of money as soon as he got on the job. One of his first official utterances was to ask for an appropriation of fifteen million dollars! As one commentator so aptly stated, "What Michigan needed was a business man, economist, and executive capable of using a firm hand to run the school business. It seems to have gotten another education and schoolist."—Dick Cook in The Hastings Banner.

25 YEARS AGO

Interesting bits of news taken from Plymouth Mail

It is stated on good authority that the Acme White Lead Works of Detroit has taken $30,000 out of Plymouth in subscriptions to stock in this company. It is none of our personal concern how and where the people of the village invest their surplus cash, but what a great thing it would be if the money holders would invest their money in something here that would help the town. (Editor's note: This is a paragraph from the editorial column of the Mail 25 years ago. It would be interesting to know how much, if anything the original investors in this company ever received in return on their stock.)

A number of young girl friends of Alva Burnett gave her a birthday party last Wednesday.

Tom Hemenway of the Commercial hotel left Saturday for a couple of week's fishing trip up on Hudson bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Streng, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerst, and Mr. and Mrs. William Sutherland took a trip to Port Huron on the Tashmo Saturday.

The week has been productive of much hot weather, the mercury registering 98 in the shade some of the time, a record not equalled for many years.

An alarm of fire was given Monday, sparks from a passing engine setting fire to the oat field back of George Van Vleet's barn. Section men put the fire out.

C. Dickinson has purchased the milk route of Bert Shuart.

Robert and Eved Jolliffe spent Sunday in Cleveland, making the round trip on the boat.

H. C. Robinson conducted an auction of horses in Cleveland Wednesday. He sold 89 horses.

The William Brothers tomato factory is now complete and will begin operations as soon as tomatoes start to come in. They have a very large building and expect to take in many thousand bushels.

The Methodist church has been closed over a month while repair work has been going on. Among the improvements is a new roof.

Mrs. L. C. Hough stepped out on the back porch to look at the fire north of the village Tuesday evening. As she did so she caught her heel in the porch and fell, breaking her left arm.

The oldest inhabitant does not remember such a severe and prolonged electrical storm as prevailed here Tuesday night. The storm was accompanied by wind but little rain. Many householders were frightened by the electrical display and arose from bed and dressed themselves. Several barns in the vicinity were struck and burned. The Carmen Root barn burned to the ground. Barns on the Burrell farm near Denton and Cal Wheeler place were hit. The cupola on the George Van Vleet barn was torn off.

NO TAX CUT

The people of Michigan did not vote for the transfer of the tax burden to other shoulders; they voted for lower taxes.—Thomas Conlin in The Crystal Falls Diamond Drill.

How did the dollar get the slang name of "buck"? In the old frontier days, the Indians sold skins of buck deer to the settlers for a dollar (Spanish) and thus standardizing the buckskin as that price. From this is the transition of "buck" meaning dollar, was easy.

BUDGET SAVINGS ARE LOST IN OVERDRAFTS

Cost of administration of the sales tax must be calculated and possible leakages in collection estimated, this bringing the probable revenues from the bill as drawn and then intended to be administered down to around $28,000,000 for the first year, possibly less. Adding the $13,100,000 to the $12,000,000 demanded for welfare and insisted upon by the federal authorities before a cent of federal aid would be promised, made a total of more than $25,000,000 to come from the sales tax revenues before anything could be made available for public school aid. The sales tax must yield more than $40,000,000 in order to assure the schools their full share of state aid as provided in the Sias-Tashur act.

To Sum Up

To sum up, the 1933 state budget for actual current necessities amounts to $19,000,000 annually. Deficits which must be covered within the next year amount to $10,000,000, a total of $29,000,000 if the state was operated as under the old regime and no money was provided for diversion to local municipal units for school and welfare aid. With these two new demands included, the budget immediately jumps to $50,000,000 to which must also be added to get the grand total a sum no one as yet dares to estimate which will be required to administer the beer act, the sales tax act and other new tax measures.

It is no wonder there is confusion of mind in respect to the budget and new taxes and deficits and new spending. "It's as clear as mud," one member was heard to remark to the director of the budget after a lengthy discussion and an attempted explanation.

The Administration Messure

The original administration bill providing for a gross sales and gross income tax was intended to yield from $45,000,000 to $60,000,000. The sum of $31,000,000 was expected from a three per cent sales tax upon the purchase of necessities by the public; $7,500,000 from a three per cent tax on personal services of doctors, lawyers, dentists, repairmen, plumbers, blacksmiths, cobblers, carpenters, painters, and every other individual in the state who holds himself out for service other than one who draws a salary; $5,500,000 from a three per cent tax on the sale of manufactured products.

Imagine the great corporate industrial interests of the state having their local state tax wiped out and their local taxes cut in half and more by the 15-cent limitation and then being taxed to the tune of only $5,500,000 under the proposed 3-10 of one per cent tax while the individual who bends over his bench to resole worn shoes, the motor mechanic who repairs automobiles, the smearer and greaser and their co-laborers in other fields dig into their meager earnings for $7,500,000. The legislature rejected the manufacturer's tax, not in response to the lobby as charged, but because the members could not see the equity of such a tax and so agreed to leave them out along with the garage mechanic and the watch repair man until a better plan can be worked out.

Facts Sought

Right now facts are being gathered from every industrial center to determine just how much the industries of Michigan have been benefited from the elimination of the state property tax and from a compulsory reduction in local taxation under the 15-mill limit. From early returns from this survey, it is already apparent that no three-tenths of one per cent is going to balance this saving.

Another fact which bothered those who sought to produce an adequate and equitable taxation measure is the mandate of the state constitution which leaves out of the picture entirely the salaried person and also the restrictions which prohibit the legislature from levying a collectable tax against intangibles such as stocks, bonds and mortgages as well as against tangible personal properties and similar evidences of wealth now entirely off the tax rolls. Still another forbidden field for tax revision is the income tax. An attempt to submit the revision of the constitution in this respect passed the house early in the session. It languished in the hands of a senate committee until too late for submission at the 1933 April election and then was dragged out and agitated in the session. It languished in the hands of a senate committee until too late for submission at the 1933 April election and then was dragged out and agitated in the session. It languished in the hands of a senate committee until too late for submission at the 1933 April election and then was dragged out and agitated in the session.

Limitations Must Yield

Under existing constitutional limitations the legislature is stopped from touching the salaried person. A person may be engaged in business for himself, say he is operating a service station and garage. Suppose he employs five helpers. Under the Southworth bill he would have been taxed on his gross receipts of say $10,000 for the year. His neighbor working for a corporation on a salary of $10,000 would have paid nothing except a three per cent tax on his purchases which would apply also to the garage owner.

A $10,000 professor would pay nothing but the dentist who graduated under him and practiced his profession would pay on his gross receipts even though the rent and supplies would have taken most of his income.

People Demand Service

Another point which should be remembered in connection with state expense and state taxes, whether property or sales or any other form of tax is the fact that while the demand for retrenchment of the taxing power continues, there is no cessation in the demand for new and added ways of spending. In this the people themselves take the lead. There was not a single effort to halt the mad race of spending last winter which did not meet opposition. There was not a single effort made to cut a payroll, reduce the number of employees, or tone down a state service which did not meet violent opposition. And in addition to these there came the demand for state aid for schools in sums as high as $50,000,000 as urged by some, and the demand for state support of the unemployed which many would have dared to twice the $12,000,000 finally made available.

Indeed the people have not yet learned that whatever government provides, the people must in turn provide the government. Government is an everlasting puppet. It has nothing and can have nothing except it takes it away from the avails of private endeavor, in the form of taxes or licenses or privileges or some other form of tribute.

Relief Yet Unknown

Such is the situation regarding the regular budget and the new functions taken over to be supported by the state and which heretofore have been supported locally and structures of the former back home. Until the property owner has his 1933 tax bill he will not know to what extent he has been relieved. In many counties and in many townships and school districts his relief will be substantial. In other localities where local public officials have ignored their responsibilities to the taxpayer, he will find himself burdened almost to the point he labored under before he was forced to pay a tax on all his purchases.

The reader is cautioned again to consider the fact the current expense for running the state government was reduced by approximately one-third but the balancing of the budget came too late for the taxpayer to receive immediate and equal relief. There is a big hole called the general fund deficit which must be filled from current revenues and that puts the demands upon general fund revenues back to 1931 figures. In making comparisons with former totals for state purposes, the comparison should stop right at this point. The remaining $27,000,000 is a direct replacement of the local property tax from funds raised by the state and paid out for municipal units.

Celebrate Their 72nd Anniversary of Wedding Aug. 15

Twenty-two years married—by and in good health—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Stevens, 240 Harvey street, will next Tuesday, August 15, quietly observe the occasion at their home, 240 Harvey street. This year there will be just a bit of diversion from the way they have in past years celebrated.

One of the Detroit stations will be on Tuesday morning during the program express a word of congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, bringing into their lives such of the new world in which they have been permitted to live. He was one of unknowns during the time of their early marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens are as far known the oldest couple in the month and the longest married couple in all Michigan. Both are in their ninety-two years of age and are still enjoying reasonably good health. Mr. Stevens is one of two remaining Civil war veterans in Plymouth, the other being Stewart Mrs. Stevens was the daughter and vivacious Agnes Saw. Stevens, not desiring to take leave on leaving his Agnes with a home-fire boys, married her before he enlisted, and put her his father's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens were married August 15, 1861. Mrs. Stevens was mustered in the Fifth Michigan Volunteer Infantry on August 28, 1861. For two years during the war Mr. Stevens was detached from his regiment and placed on duty in the Provost Guard. He came back into the ranks, however, in time to participate in some of the bloodiest events in the whole war, or the Battle of the Wilderness. During the battle he suffered a slight shrapnel wound caused by a flying bullet.

Mr. Stevens was mustered out December 11, 1864, but did not reach the home of his wife and rents until about three months later. Since that time they have never been separated. Except for the period of the war, Mr. Stevens has regularly attended services of the same Presbyterian church for thirty-four years. He was a trustee of the church before the war, and has been an elder for fifty years.

Prior to the outbreak of the war Mr. Stevens had been in attendance at the Michigan State Normal School, and following its closure for seven years in district schools about the Plymouth area. He of them was the Shutt's Corner district school, about three miles west of Plymouth, and it was this same school, during a session of the then popular Saturday evening schools, where, years previous-

Lightning Kills Fish in Hatchery

Those who hide their heads beneath the bed pillows during an electric storm and envy the calm security of the fish swimming far beneath the water's surface are being disillusioned by Phil G. Zalsman, superintendent of the Grayling State Fish Hatchery.

Zalsman has reported to the Conservation Department that a bolt of lightning struck a brook trout in one of his hatchery ponds. It is the first authentic report ever received by the Department of death of fish from that source.

A bolt of lightning struck a hatchery pond early in the morning, Zalsman reported. By noon he had picked up 25 trout that had been stricken. Only three survived the shock. The skin of one of the trout was entirely stripped off by the bolt. Others were burned from head to tail.

There is no reason to suppose that fish are not frequently killed by lightning, the Fish Division said, but it is difficult to prove the real cause of death in such instances. The fact that hundreds of other fish in the same pond were not injured would indicate that ordinarily the fish mortality rate from lightning is not high.

By Mr. Stevens first met his wife. For many years Mr. Stevens pursued the life of a successful farmer, and was a leader in the local Grange. All during this time Mrs. Stevens remained the ever ready comforter, helpmate and guide.

Ex-Servicemen Will Hold Picnic Monday In The Plymouth Pk.

The next meeting of the Ex-Servicemen's club will be held in Riverside Park on Monday, August 14th.

Picnic supper will be served at 6:30 followed by a business meeting of the club and auxiliary. Supper will be under the direction of and served by a committee headed by Comrade Abe Goldstein. In addition to the regular business routine of the club, the new plan of contemplated public works in Plymouth made possible by the National Recovery Administration, (N.R.A.) to the maximum amount of $165,000.00 will be explained and the plan of the Plymouth City Commission may be aided in their decision in the matter.

Schrader-Haggerty Team Wins Another Victory

The Plymouth Schrader-Haggerty baseball team gained another victory, by defeating the Grandale Merchants last Sunday, 6 to 5, at Plymouth-Riverside Park.

Harold Pankow and John Lowry opened one another on the mound, with Orson Atchinson receiving for Plymouth and Henry Dale for the Merchants. Plymouth collected nine hits off Lowry, while Grandale was held to six scattered safeties.

In the third inning, Orson Atchinson struck out the home run with Beryl Smith and Walter Krueger scoring ahead of him.

In the Twilight contest last Thursday night, West Point Park won a 7 to 3 victory over Plymouth. The locals held the visitors without scoring until the sixth when the Polinters put across one tally. Plymouth had scored two in the third and one in the fourth. In the seventh, West Point drove in six runs, Plymouth failing to score in their half.

Kreger and Rowland were opposing pitchers. Rowland allowed five hits, and Kreger seven.

Fromm's Hardware, of Detroit, will meet Plymouth at Plymouth-Riverside Park, Sunday August 13th at 3 p. m.

Plymouth will clash with Ypsilanti in a twilight game Thursday August 17th at Plymouth-Riverside park. Game at 6 o'clock.

Crickets, grasshoppers and locusts are fine for surface baits, especially for evening fishing and should be mounted on special hooks which are made for their use.

Experts have reached a fairly unanimous agreement that the five and one-half foot rod is best all around for bait casting. However, a six and one-half footer is not bad for lighter lures.

THE CLEANEST COOKING METHOD ever devised!
AN ELECTRIC range is the cleanest cooking method yet devised. The reason is obvious. A glowing wire furnishes all the heat—pure heat—without smoke or soot or fumes. There is no burning of fuel to leave a black deposit on pots and pans, or to darken kitchen walls and curtains. Electric heat is actually as clean as sunlight. Here is a stove that you can really keep clean. Your electric range will continue to look new, day after day.
Many thousand electric range owners in Detroit and vicinity will tell you how clean electric cooking is. And once YOU have enjoyed the deliciousness and healthfulness of electric cooking, you will never again go back to any other kind.
Even the cheaper cuts of meats cook to melting tenderness, and there is little shrinkage of weight. This adds to economy and preserves the precious natural minerals of foods instead of losing them in steam. Vegetables cook in their own juices. And best of all you can cook your dinner while you're out for the afternoon!

UNTIL WE LEARNED BETTER

Until we learned better, we used to mix wood and steel in our car bodies and wheels.

It was the best way to make bodies—then. But the state of the art has advanced. Of course, it is more expensive to make an all-steel body than to make a wooden frame and nail steel panels on to it. The better way involves an initial expenditure of several millions of dollars for new dies, which renders a change very costly. Cars, especially large expensive cars which are produced in small volume, cannot afford this, because the dies cost as much for one car as for a million. That alone explains why all-steel bodies are not used in all cars.

But our basic policy from the beginning is to make a good car better, regardless of cost.

For example, when we discarded wood-steel body construction, it was not because we lacked wood. We still have some thousands of acres of the best hard wood in America. Economy would urge us to use up the wood first, and then adopt the better all-steel body. But we decided that quality was more important than expense.

We weighed the reasons, for and against, before we made the change. We could see only one reason for retaining a mixed wood-and-steel body—nailing the metal on, instead of welding an all-steel body into a strong one-piece whole. That reason was, it would be cheaper—for us.

Our reasons for adopting an all-steel body were these: A wood-steel body is not much stronger structurally than its wooden frame. In all American climates, wood construction weakens with age. Every used car lot gives evidence of this. Rain seeps in between joints and the wood decays. A car may have a metal surface, and yet not be of steel construction. Under extreme shock or stress the steel body remains intact—dented perhaps, but not crushed.

Steel does not need wood for strength or protection. Wood is fine for furniture, but not for the high speed vehicles of 1933.

In the Ford body there are no joints to squeak, no seams to crack or leak.

The all-steel body is more expensive—to us, but not to you. By all odds, then, steel bodies seem preferable.

Wheels also have become all-steel. No one argues that an electrically welded one-piece steel wheel, such as the Ford wheel, needs to be "strengthened" by adding wood to it.

The one-piece all-steel body is the strongest, safest, quietest, most durable body made. That is our only reason for making them.

Plymouth Farmer Made Secretary of Farm Organization

A new farm organization to be known as the Michigan Farmers League was organized Saturday, August 5th at a meeting of 250 delegates from widely scattered communities in the Lithuanian hall at 1057 Hamilton avenue, Grand Rapids. It will be affiliated with the National Farmers committee for action, a militant farm group with branches in 26 states. Temporary officers presiding at the organization meeting were: chairman, Clyde Smith of Beulah; vice chairmen, Stanley Hanatyk of Romeo and John Rose of Newaygo; secretary, Otto Wittrick of Plymouth.

The need of a state organization of dirt farmers was emphasized in inspirational talks by Lem Harris of Washington, secretary of the farmers committee for action; Mrs. Ella Reeves Bloor of Sioux City, Iowa, secretary of the United Farmers League of America; and Clyde Smith of Beulah. "Militant" farm organizer, says Mr. Wittrick, Harris described how politicians and "big interests" were alleged to be invoking the syndicalism law and calling out the militia in vain attempts to prevent farmers from organizing and protecting their property rights. He advocated abolition of the constabulary in the interests of economy and suggested the money used to maintain the state police might better be diverted to educational purposes. The new organization represents approximately 15,000 Michigan farmers, states Mr. Wittrick.

The state office will be set up at Lansing. The program of the Michigan Farmers League will be reported by delegates from Wayne, Macomb and Hillsdale counties at a mass meeting near Belleville Thursday, August 17th at 8 p. m.

Coming Attractions At Penniman Allen

"TREASON"
Buck Jones plays the role of a courageous and resourceful army scout back in Kansas during its pioneer days right after the close of the Civil War, in his latest Columbia film, "Treason," at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Saturday, August 12.

This marks a departure from the cowboy characterizations Jones usually appears in, but his work in "Treason" gives him the same unbounded opportunity to reveal his great horsemanship, his fighting prowess and his mastery of men as the more conventional Western. The story deals with Jones' assignment as a stalwart Scout to go out and capture a young woman warrior who is still fighting the Federal government with a large band of followers and has set up the Republic of South Kansas. She is accused of murder, robbery and arson and there is a $10,000 price on her head. Jones is sent to capture her, dead or alive. How he gets into her camp, fights and outwits her followers, and brings back his fair quarry, only to fall desperately in love with her, and eventually visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spangler, Friday.

Mrs. Chloe Root spent the week end with her nephew, Henry Root, and at J. F. Root's.

Mr. Moyer of Detroit has purchased six acres of land of Lewis Root on the southwest corner of Bridge road and T. S. 12. Wednesday he moved a house he had purchased in Detroit onto his property.

Miss Gladys Yakes of Ann Arbor was a week-end guest of Mrs. Oral Stacy.

Samuel Richwine of Detroit visited his brother George Richwine Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Carnis and daughter Jean of Detroit visited at Norman Miller's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Asman of Ann Arbor celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary August first. Their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Ross and little Betty were with them on the festal day.

save her from death by the noose, makes one of the greatest dramatic stories any he-man star of the screen ever has had.

Shirley Grey, a beautiful blonde actress, who is a product of the New York stage, is Jones' leading woman.

Such prominent character actors as Robert Ellis, Frank Lacten, Ivar McFadden, Charles Mills, Mattie, Edwin Stanley, Ed Le Saint and Nick Cogley have other important roles.

"Treason" was directed by George B. Seltz, veteran director, who produced that memorable Indian epic, "The Vanishing American," several years ago. Other noted films made by him in recent years were "The Blood Ship," for Columbia and "Wild Horse Mesa." He wrote and directed Pearl White in "The Perils of Pauline," one of the greatest serial pictures ever made.

"THE LIFE OF JIMMY DOLAN"
After a period of two years, during which their respective screen careers have sky-rocketed, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Loretta Young once more play opposite each other in the Warner Bros. picture, "The Life of Jimmy Dolan," which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre Saturday, August 12.

The only other picture in which they appeared together was "I Like Your Nerve," made two years ago. From then until their appearance in "The Life of Jimmy Dolan," they have gone their separate ways, each building up in both ability and popularity.

Their appearance together at that time was hailed as one of the ideal love teams of the screen, and casting them together now came as the result of requests from fans all over the country.

The story is that of a left-handed prizefighter who is favored to keep out of the ring to avoid detection through his peculiar stance when he became a fugitive from justice as the result of a crime he committed when drunk.

The exceptional supporting cast contains Alvin MacMahon, Lyle Talbot, Harold Huber, Fifi Dorsay, Guy Kibbee, Farina, Dawn O'Day, David Durand, Shirley Grey, Mickey Rooney, Arthur Hohl, Arthur DeKuh, and George Meeker. It was directed by Archie Mayo.

The story, adapted to the screen by David Boehm and Erwin Gelsley, is based on the play by Bertram

Milhauser and Beulah M. Dix.

"COLLEGE HUMOR"

The season's outstanding movie musical—a melodic, uproarious, comedy of college life as the old co-eds remember it, featuring a brilliant all-star cast—this is "College Humor," latest hit from the Paramount studios, which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre Sunday and Monday, August 13 and 14.

King Crosby, Richard Arlen, Mary Carlisle, Jack Oakie, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Coach Howard Jones of the University of Southern California, Lona Andre and Mary Koruman have the featured roles in the film. The Ox-Road Co-Eds, a group of chorines who make the late Florenz Ziegfeld's famous ensembles look paltry, prance in and out of the action.

Its plot has to do with the adventures of Crosby, a young instructor; of Arlen, a football star who's not at all sure he's willing to die for good old Whozis; of Oakie, a big fraternity man who modestly admits he's a fine athlete and an equally fine student; and of the Misses Carlisle, Andre and Koruman, sorority girls who learn in college principally that the woman pays and pays and pays.

Players of unusual prominence and many of them, will be seen in the Universal screen drama, "Don't Bet on Love," exciting story of the race tracks, starring Lew Ayres, looked at the Penniman Allen Theatre Wednesday, August 16.

In the picture, which gives Ayres one of the greatest opportunities to display his acting ability since his memorable performance in "All Quiet on the Western Front," there are 14 roles of importance, outside of the starring part, and each one is played by an actor of great popularity on the screen.

Ginger Rogers, sparkling red headed actress who has recently gained unusual recognition by her work in "42nd Street," "Gold Diggers of 1933," and "The Purty Girl," appears opposite Ayres as his sweetheart who tries to win him away from a gambling career.

Murray Roth directed the film from his own story.

CHURCH OF THE OPEN DOOR
(Independent Baptist)
164 N. Main St.
Richard Neale, Pastor

Meetings in the Gospel Tent erected at the corner of Ann Arbor St. and Elizabeth St. are going right on each night, starting at 7:30. Evangelist "Bob" Ingersoll, who was saved in Mol Trotter's Mission in Grand Rapids, is preaching each night. Mr. Ingersoll also preaches to the crowds in Cadillac Square, Detroit, each week day noon hour. Each week night, except Saturday, he has been invited to speak over radio station WJFK, Detroit, at 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Ingersoll, better known to many as Brother "Bob," preaches with an D. L. Moody style to the right from the Bible and "straight from the shoulder." In speaking on the ninth verse of the tenth chapter of John, last Monday night, he said, "This statement of the Lord Jesus Christ is exclusive. The verse says, giving the words of Jesus, 'I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.' When Jesus said 'I am the door,' he meant that he was the only door to Heaven. He also said, 'No man cometh unto the Father but by me.' That excludes every humanly devised scheme of salvation."

"When Jesus said, 'By me if any man enter in'—he made an inclusive statement. Anyone who wants to be saved may come. When Christ said, 'If any man enter in, he shall be saved,' that is conclusive. It is a settled fact, guaranteed by his death and resurrection for us on Calvary's Cross." These four services will be continued, God willing, while the summer season lasts. All are being cordially invited to visit as often as possible. This is your invitation; why not come tonight?

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Spirit" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, August 6. Among the Bible citations was this passage (1 Cor. 2:12): "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are fully given to us of God."

Correlative passages read from the "Christian Science" textbook, "Science and Health with key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 263): "Morals must gratify Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual—they must near the broader interpretations of being; and raise some proper sense of the authority under that sin and mortality may be put off."

CITY OFFICIALS PLAN WORK FOR RELIEF

Project No. 7.—Library. The City Hall for "Library Quarters." This project has been considered by the City Commission as a means of providing space for the library in order to eliminate the payment of rent. The addition is necessary because of lack of space on the first floor of the City Hall and it is advisable to have the library located on the ground floor. The estimated cost of this work is $4,000.00 with a Federal Grant of $1,200.00 and the balance payable from the general fund.
Project No. 8.—Paving of Church street from Harvey street to Main street. This project is suggested because of the necessity for a pavement in this location due to the extra heavy traffic on Church street. It appears that the Federal Grant for this project would materially assist in financing this work which adjoins to such a large extent City and School-owned property. The estimated cost is $10,000.00, $3,000.00 of which would be Federal Grant and the balance assessed against private property and the City at large.
Project No. 9.—Church street Under-Pass at high school. This project was also suggested by members in attendance at the meeting. It was felt that Church street were paved that some provisions should be made to protect the children from traffic in front of the high school. This work would provide a passage-way for children leaving the school and would terminate somewhere near the center of the park in front of the high school. The estimated cost of the work is $5,000.00, $1,500.00 of which would be a Federal Grant and the balance assessed against abutting property and the City at large.
Project No. 10.—Surface Treating of Ten Miles of Gravel streets. This work would include the application of a semi-permanent type of surface on the gravel streets, which would eliminate the dust conditions in the spring and fall and would also eliminate the dust nuisance during the summer. A considerable saving in the cost of laying dust and maintaining the streets would be effected by applying this surface treatment. The type of surface would have to be determined but would probably be an asphaltic concrete mixture from two to three inches thick which would be spread on the street surface. The estimated cost of this work is $50,000.00, $15,000.00 of which would be in a Federal Grant and the balance assessed against abutting property and the City at large.
The estimated cost of the entire program as approved at the meeting is $135,000.00.
Such suspension by a police officer shall be reported at once to the City Manager.
Section 18. The suspension of any license by an officer of the City shall be reported by the City Manager to the Commission at its next regular or special meeting. The report shall set forth in detail the reasons for the suspension and if desired by the City Manager, a request for the revocation thereof, together with a statement of the reasons therefor. The Commission shall fix a time and place of hearing on any such request and upon reasonable notice thereof to licensee and after affording him an opportunity to be heard in his own behalf, the Commission may continue any such suspension for such period of time as it may determine or in its discretion revoke such license upon finding that licensee has violated any of the conditions or provisions under which such license was issued.
Section 19. In case the license is revoked for violation of the express conditions and regulations under which it was granted, the full amount of the fee paid therefor shall be forfeited to the City and no licensee shall have a right to a refund of any part of said fee.
Section 20. This ordinance shall not apply to any retail business within the City of Plymouth existing at the time of the adoption hereof, nor to any farmer selling agricultural products raised or produced by him personally, nor to sales by societies acting for charitable, religious or public purposes.
Section 21. Penalties. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten ($10.00) Dollars, nor more than One Hundred ($100.00), and the costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the City Jail, County Jail or the Detroit House of Correction for a period not exceeding ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court. Each day or part of a day that a person, firm or corporation shall engage in business as a transient merchant without valid license shall be considered a separate violation of this ordinance.
Section 22. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining sections, sentences, clauses and phrases of this ordinance or the ordinance as an entirety.
Section 23. This ordinance is ordered to take effect the 21st day of August, A. D. 1933.

ing it $197,000.00. The Federal Grant would amount to $58,250.00, $6,300.00 of the amount would be paid from the General Bond Fund, $68,500.00 from the Water Fund, and the balance from the General or Special Assessment Fund.
Thinking their wholehearted support into the government's industrial recovery program, city officials of Plymouth have worked out the details of numerous local projects that, if adopted, will provide work for 75 to 100 men for over a year. Not only will the projects provide employment for a large number of workmen of the community, but under the program devised by the government to aid municipalities where much unemployment exists, Federal funds will provide a good portion of the costs of these improvements.
Some of the projects, requiring bond issues to pay in part for the work, will have to be submitted to a vote of the people. Several of them can be done by order of the commission only.
In order to get the general idea of the public, Mayor Freeman Hoyer and members of the city commission called an informal meeting last Friday evening at the City Hall. There were representatives present from different organizations of the city.
After Mayor Hoyer had pointed out the fact that Plymouth's welfare resources had been used up in caring for its idle last winter, he briefly told of the government plan to assist in financing public works during the next year or so so as to provide not only employment but support for men out of work and their families.
Among the projects considered and recommended was the covering of the Tonquish creek open sewer from Harvey street to Main street, the laying of additional water mains, increasing the water supply of the city, the building of an addition to the city hall which temporarily can be used for library purposes, the paving of Church street and the surfacing of the unpaved streets of the city.
Two other suggestions made at the meeting that were included in the program was the construction of a subway under Church street for the use of school children and the building of a water softening plant.
City Manager Perry Cookingham explained each project in detail and following a general discussion a vote of all those present showed but one objection to the covering of the Tonquish sewer and one or two opposing votes to some of the other proposals.
Mayor Hoyer stated that it was the purpose of the city officials to call a general mass meeting for the consideration of these questions, and he hopes to have this meeting in the immediate future so that work can be started on many of these projects this fall when the need of the employment will be the greatest.
No that readers of The Plymouth Mail may know exactly the details of each project, how much they will cost and how much the government is expected to aid in paying for them the following data is published:
It is said that 13 quarts of eggs were once removed from a single female paddle-fish or "spoon-bill cat" in the Mississippi River. The largest spoon-bill ever recorded was taken on Lake Manana, Indiana—a female weighing 168 pounds.
