

PARK PROJECT BEING PUSHED TO COMPLETION

Excellent Progress Being Made On Parkway Around City

Remarkable progress is being made these days on the Wayne parkway system that will in a few years turn western Wayne county into one of America's beauty spots.

During the past few days workmen have completed the stretch of paving from Phoenix lake to the Six mile road where there is being constructed a parkway underpass as well as a new bridge over the Rouge river. Abutments for the bridge are nearly finished and a fill on the east end of the bridge has already been started. Excavation for the connecting paving line between the bridge and under the Pere Marquette tracks to the end of the present Six mile road paving is also nearly finished.

Grading along the paving slab recently finished between Phoenix lake and the city limits of Plymouth near the Jewell Dry Cleaning establishment is progressing favorably and by the end of another week or two it is probable that this section of the parkway will be open to traffic.

When it is opened to the public, hundreds of people of Plymouth and vicinity will see for the first time one of the most beautiful valleys in this part of Michigan. Inaccessibility to this portion of the Rouge river valley has in the past prevented people from seeing it.

To the east of the city, similar excellent progress is being made. The parkway road has been completed from the Whitbeck road to the Newburg road, although this stretch of the highway has not yet been opened to traffic.

The stretch of paving leading from the Plymouth road over the Newburg road has been finished to within two hundred feet of the lake in the parkway system.

The dam is nearly finished, workmen at the present putting the finishing touches to the spillway. As soon as this is completed the bridge over the top of the dam will be finished. When this is completed, probably early next year because of the big fills that must be made on the north side of the dam as well as the south side, the paving along the Newburg road to the lowland lying along the Rouge west of Newburg will be a large attractive body of water, skirted on the north side by a paved thoroughfare.

Plymouth is in the very heart of the park project, one of the largest of its kind in the United States.

Wheat Meetings Are Called By Committee; Five Are to be Held

Meetings to explain the wheat allotment program have been called by the County Committee. F. W. Van Moll, chairman, for next week in five localities in Wayne County. Members of the committee and Ralph Carr, County Agricultural agent will be at all the meetings to discuss the Government program and to answer questions on how the plan is to operate. There is nothing compulsory about the plan but it is of interest to every wheat grower to know what are the opportunities for participation.

Schedule of Meetings: Remond—Grange Hall, Monday, August 28th. Maple Grove School—Telegraph and Van Horn roads, Tuesday, August 29. New Boston Community Hall, Wednesday, August 30. Canton Town Hall, Thursday, August 31. Belleville high school, Friday, September 1. All meetings at 8:00 p. m.

Police Warn Bicycle Riders To Use Lights

During recent weeks a very noticeable increase in the number of bicycle riders on the streets of Plymouth has been noted. Unless a bicycle is equipped with proper head and tail lights, it is contrary to law to operate such vehicle on public highways after dark. These lights should be of such character as to be visible for a distance of at least 300 feet.

The police department issues a warning against riding bicycles on the streets of Plymouth after dark and suggests that parents see that their children obey this warning, otherwise serious accidents may follow.

GOVERNOR STILL HAS TIME TO KEEP PLATFORM PLEDGE

Governor Comstock Has 18 Months Remaining In Which To Institute Promised Economy

Extravagance Did Not Begin With Governor Comstock, Neither Has It Ended With The New Administration, Says V. J. Brown In Final Article

By V. J. Brown
Probably there has never been a time in the history of this nation when the average individual citizen is more disturbed than at the present moment. Generally it is said we have entered upon a new era, but the average citizen is not getting out of business. There was revolution against bureaucracy. There was a tremendous wave against public expense. Today business has yielded itself almost entirely and without an apparent remembrance of government control. Never in the history of nations has public money been spent with so lavish a hand.

In this respect Michigan is marching along with the parade. A year ago from every political platform was heard the cry for governmental economy. There was ranting against inspectors, there was opposition to almost every form of governmental activity. There were promises of cutting the expense sheets of the state in the middle, there were protests against every form of taxation, and there were promises of reform.

Today Michigan is whirling along in the same old maze of spending. Whatever has been saved by economies applied to the ordinary affairs of government is eaten up by new spendings of new commissions and new agencies. Before the summer is over there will be more inspectors on the road at state expense than there were in the middle, there were protests against every form of taxation, and there were promises of reform.

Today Michigan is whirling along in the same old maze of spending. Whatever has been saved by economies applied to the ordinary affairs of government is eaten up by new spendings of new commissions and new agencies. Before the summer is over there will be more inspectors on the road at state expense than there were in the middle, there were protests against every form of taxation, and there were promises of reform.

Michigan is ruled by an oligarchy of spenders who have their ears attuned and their eyes focused upon certain blocs and minorities who have learned to make themselves heard and seen. The taxpayer will never receive his deserved recognition until he roars makes his power a virtue, forceful portion of election issues. Public waste will never be swept aside by those who fatten at public feed troughs.

Killing Rats

Farmers frequently find it profitable to take a day off and kill the rats which infest his granaries. And by this is meant no insult to those who serve the state. The rat that infests the state is the politician who never receives his deserved recognition until he roars makes his power a virtue, forceful portion of election issues. Public waste will never be swept aside by those who fatten at public feed troughs.

These words are as true today as they were a year ago. Again we quote from the closing chapter of the 1932 series wherein was said: "No politician is afraid of the taxpayer vote. He gives no heed to demands for retrenchment. His sole interest lies in the creation of new jobs into which his benchmen are inducted and new commissions through which political debts may be paid."

False Prophets

False prophets once were stoned in the streets. Fortunately indeed that such a pastime has been abandoned. The prophet of 1932, however, is stated editorially, "The people of Michigan will select a governor this fall. They will select a man who has proved himself bigger than the cheap traffers; bigger than paid lobbyists; bigger than party office seekers; bigger than a cabinet of salaried appointees."

And so as we come to the closing chapter of the 1933 series we shall refrain from predictions of what will be done. Quite to the contrary we shall be content to review what has happened.

People Were Aroused

The people of Michigan were aroused last November. They went to the polls in the firm belief that at last their time had come to take vengeance against those who had brought their beloved state to the brink of collapse. They swept the boards clean. Some may have been carried away with enthusiasm for beer and wine. Some probably took the opportunity to express themselves on the eighteenth amendment. Returning from a vacation trip, Mrs. Robert Shaw who resides at 1008 South Main street found that the residence had been broken into and a number of articles stolen. The theft took place some two weeks ago. ## Fiido In Danger if He Hasn't License

The police department has completed the dog census and will immediately pick up all dogs found running at large in the city. The dog ordinance provides that no dog shall be permitted to run at large during the months of August and September unless it is provided with a good and sufficient muzzle, rendering it impossible for such dog to bite or snap.

Many complaints relative to the dog nuisance continue to be registered with the local police and every possible effort will be made to combat this nuisance to the best ability of the police department.

It must be remembered that the police officers cannot devote all of their time to the dog problem but as much as possible will be used in this work.

Owners whose dogs do not return home promptly should inquire at the City Hall to ascertain whether or not the dog has been impounded.

PLMOUTH SCHOOL YEAR TO START SEPT. 18 TO JUNE 8

The board of education, finding it necessary to curtail the school period for the year 1933-34 to nine months, decided it would be to the best interests of the boys and girls to begin school on September 18, thereby closing the nine-month period on June 8, 1934.

The school building is being thoroughly cleaned, furniture and rooms needing the same, being varnished and painted. Supplies are ordered, and everything will be in readiness when the doors swing open, September 18.

The board of education is planning on a large enrollment again this fall, even an increase over the enrollment of 1932-33.

Cobb Discusses Work at School

By Hawley C. Cobb

One of the biggest decisions a pupil has to make, or should make, is the choosing of a life work for which he should prepare. To make a choice that reflects sane thinking and to arrive at a rational conclusion is no easy task.

The training they should get in high school depends in part on the vocation that interests them most. When their decisions point toward the more exacting professions, the requirements must be met while in high school, to avoid delay in the continuing of the advance work. If not going to college, it still is just as essential for them to obtain the basic requirements.

HUNDREDS AT FAIR ON PLYMOUTH DAY

Hundreds from Plymouth went to Northville Thursday afternoon to see the annual fair of the Northville-Wayne County Fair Association. It was "Plymouth Day" and Plymouth turned out in great numbers to see the fair. However all the stalls had not closed as has been done during the past fourteen years. While it had been decided to close the stores, the refusal of a Detroit owner to permit his Plymouth store to close, resulted in most of the stores staying open.

Lawrence Johnson Moves to Mt. Pleasant

The many friends of Lawrence Johnson will regret to learn that he has moved his drug store from Plymouth to Mt. Pleasant. He leaves Plymouth business circles after spending nearly twenty years in this city. During this time he won for himself a wide circle of friends who lament his decision to locate elsewhere. They wish for him in his new location the best of good fortune.

Mr. Pleasant is one of the few cities in Michigan that is just now showing any business gain. This is due entirely to the development of what promises to be one of the richest oil fields in the country. During the past two years there has been many large wells brought in around Mt. Pleasant and the result has been that this mid-state city has experienced a business gain while other communities in Michigan have stood still or gone backward.

Mr. Johnson has an excellent location on the main business corner of the city. He does not go to Mt. Pleasant an entire stranger to that city because during the years he has lived in this district in the Michigan state legislature as its representative he had occasion to form many friendships with people from that part of the state.

Mr. Johnson has already gone to Mt. Pleasant but his family will remain here for the present, moving to that place later in the fall. The entire stock of goods of the Mayflower hotel drug store have been shipped to Mt. Pleasant. These supplies will be added to a large shipment of new goods that Mr. Johnson has purchased for his new Mt. Pleasant store.

The city of Plymouth has not defaulted on any of its obligations, either as to interest or principal, therefore the credit of the city is given a high rating. The fact that the sinking fund bonds were purchased at a discount of sixteen points is no indication that the credit of the city in any way has been changed.

SINKING FUND BONDS BOUGHT TO SAVE MONEY

The city of Plymouth recently completed the negotiations for the purchase of an issue of $15,000.00 in waterworks improvement bonds sold by the village of Plymouth in 1904. These bonds were sold for the purpose of making improvements and additions to the water system in that year.

A short time ago the owner of these bonds made inquiry as to whether or not the city would be interested in the purchase of the bonds before maturity. This particular block of bonds happens to be the only bond owned by the City of Plymouth of the Sinking Fund type that is, annual interest payments are made direct to the owner of the bonds and a contribution is made each year to a savings account so that sufficient funds will be available on the maturity date to pay the principal amount.

NRA ADVICE

Newspaper dispatches from Washington a few days ago told of a hearing that was held before NRA officials pertaining to the code that will govern the manufacturing of automobiles. Present at the hearing were representatives of the manufacturers and representatives who stated they were there in behalf of the men and women employed in the automobile industry.

As we read the report it was with the greatest surprise when we came to the names of Peter and Sarah Fagan of Lansing, Michigan, there speaking in behalf of labor employed in the automobile industry.

It is needless to impress upon the readers of The Plymouth Mail the importance of the subject under consideration. The lives and the future of hundreds of thousands of men and women employed in the making of automobiles are at stake as the result of the new experiment to be tried by industrial America.

We hope most sincerely that officials of the NRA are not accepting advice and basing its conclusions upon the suggestions of a group of people representative of Peter and Sarah Fagan.

There is nothing personally wrong with these two individuals who have skyrocketed almost overnight to positions where they can go to Washington and give the government advice about some great industry. Peter Fagan has never worked in an automobile factory, neither has Sarah Fagan. They haven't the slightest first hand information about the business that they assume to advise the government about. The only possible knowledge that Peter Fagan could have about an automobile would be the broken-down machine that he left all winter in the circle lock of the Michigan capitol where it blocked traffic for officialdom.

Except for a few brief years spent on a minor state job, Peter Fagan has been a Lansing newspaper reporter. Sarah Fagan is his wife and she too has been a writer for certain papers. Their claim to a position in the world of such importance that they can assume to advise the government what to do, comes through the one possible reason that they have been known for years as "agitators." They are not socialists because both of them have stated that they usually vote the tickets of the majority parties. They are just political "disturbers." There is and can be no other classification for them.

It is a most preposterous thing to think that the government is accepting advice about codes from people who know absolutely nothing about the subjects under consideration. We hope for the good of labor and its future that the codes for various lines of industry are not being based upon suggestions from Fagans of America. God help us if it is!

THE POWER TO DESTROY

There was a time when it could truly be said that a profit was not without honor in this glorious country of ours. But that day seems to be past, at least for the small business man. And if our legislative bodies, state and national, continue to devise new and heavier forms of taxation the day will soon be here when big business, public utilities, large corporations will be in the same boat. When taxation reaches the confiscation point there is no money for either jobs or dividends and profits. When you put the privately-owned firms out of business with taxation, which the tax-exempt government-owned enterprise now escapes, who will furnish the revenues for government?—Herman Roe in the Northfield (Minn.) News.

CONVERTED

Fred Kelster former publisher of the Tonla News, has at last been converted to the idea that an efficient public official should not be kicked out of office because some aspiring politician wants the job. It will be recalled that it was Editor Kelster who yowled longest and loudest against Governor Alex Groesbeck because he sought another term as governor after having served three terms. Now comes this well known Tonla editor and states that the fashioned way—that of keeping the worthy in positions of stewardship—is by far the best. We wonder if there are any more left out in the back rows who have not yet come forward?

GOVERNOR STILL HAS TIME TO KEEP PLEDGE

A new force in Michigan political affairs was recruited and along with that some restrictions having to do with property tax limitations and the right to vote for the spending of public monies and the creation of public debt were written into the constitution.

There is no mistaking their intentions. The will of the people and their temper was never more clearly written in the returns of an election than was written into those of the fall election of 1932 in the state of Michigan.

May Still Redeem Pledge
 Governor William A. Comstock still has ample opportunity to redeem his pledges to the people of Michigan. He has lost some time but he still has nearly a year and a half to correct some of the illa he promised to cure and some of the evils his own party has heaped upon a long suffering state.

Let this admonition be not misunderstood. Extravagant spending did not begin with the new deal of 1933. Its history reaches back far beyond even the political life of the present governor. It did not begin with Comstock. Neither has it ended with Comstock. It still persists with new life and new vigor.

The present governor lent his aid to a reduction of the operating budget of the state. In all sincerity he labored with the committees who wrote the operating budgets of the various institutions, departments and boards. He now finds his work and that of others who aided him, set aside and held for naught by a list of appointees and associates who flout the demands of the people and snap their fingers at budget makers. An attorney general who himself was one of the first to increase the expense of his department, has ruled that even the legislature has no right to reduce the salary of an appointee during the term for which he is appointed.

Reductions Fought
 The attorney general is supposed to know the law and it is not the province of a newspaper editor to argue that point. But a former governor saw to it that every appointee submitted to a reduction even in the middle of a budget biennium and after their appropriations had been made. This governor promised even greater reductions and the people accepted his promise. They are asking now what he proposes to do about it.

Wheat Allotment To Wayne County Is Big Aid to Farmers

The domestic allotment plan for bringing the price of wheat grown by Wayne County farmers to a point where 10 bushels of wheat will buy as many goods as 10 bushels did in 1914 was selected from among all the ideas advocated to help wheat growers and this plan is endorsed by all leading agricultural organizations.

The plan obtained its name from the fact that adjustment payments are made only on that portion of a farmer's crop which is used for human food in this country. Portions of the crop used for feed, livestock, feed, or for export receive no adjustment payments.

The farmer who participates in the government's plan to raise wheat prices really grows wheat for two different markets. He gets the world wheat price plus 30 cents per bushel for 54 per cent of his crop and the world price only for 46 per cent of the crop.

Selling wheat on two different markets does not mean any added trouble to the grower, however, because the producer turns the whole crop over to the elevator, feeds it, or exchanges part of it for his own flour. He is not limited in any way in the disposal of the crop. He takes his price in the open market and also receives a check from the United States for nearly 30 cents a bushel on 54 bushels out of every 100.

The Wayne County wheat allotment control board believes that this extra money will aid materially in settling the farmers' tax bills this fall. This is one instance where the farmer has a chance to pass his taxes along to some one else. The adjustment payments are made possible by a tax paid by wheat processors on all wheat going through the mills.

Coming Attractions At Penniman Allen

"RUSTY RIDES ALONE"

A Western Machiavelli whose greed for a range "empire" inaugurates open warfare over the possession of property known as "The Basin," provides the exciting motive that keeps the Columbia outdoor drama, "Rusty Rides Alone," due at the Penniman Allen Theatre Saturday, August 26, moving at a fast pace.

Opposed to this tyrant is a lone ranger, as played by the popular Tim McCoy, and it is this man who succeeds in defeating the plans of the man who would drive all the other homesteaders from their lands.

"THE SECRET OF THE BLUE ROOM"

The most mysterious murder mystery of the year will be baffling the people as it baffled the police in "The Secret of the Blue Room," when this Universal mystery production opens at the Penniman Allen Theatre Saturday, August 26.

Who killed Frank Faber? Where did Thomas Brandt disappear to? No trace, no clue—nothing—completely vanished out of a room which had not been opened for twenty years—the haunted Blue Room of the Castle Van Hellsdorf. And upon this mysterious disappearance there follows swiftly an inexplicable murder. The presence of a mysterious stranger hovering around the castle, further complicates the solution of the mystery.

"MOONLIGHT AND PRETZELS"

Carl Laemmle presents the screen's smash musical hit, "Moonlight and Pretzels," to appear at the Penniman Allen Theatre Sunday and Monday, August 27 and 28. The songs hit and 50 of New York's most beautiful show girls.

"GAMBLING SHIP"

Cary Grant, Benita Hume, Jack LaRue, Glenda Farrell and Roscoe Karns play the leading roles in "Gambling Ship," a thrill-packed melodrama of life aboard a floating gambling palace, which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre Wednesday, August 30.

All the excitement, the hazard, and the suspense that rule events on board the nautical casinos, which float just beyond the reach of the law at the three mile limit, are packed into the picture. It deals with a big-shot eastern gambling ship operator when he goes to the West Coast for a vacation.

How Novice Tennis Tournament Ended

As a part of the Novice tennis tournament a group of Plymouth young people organized a center here. Sixteen girls and thirty-five men competed. The arrangements for the women's tournament were conducted by a committee composed of Helen Frances Gilbert, chairman, Ruth Adiska, and Jane Giles. The women competing were: Ruth E. Huston-Whipple, Ruth McConnell, Anna Urban, Betty Housley, Vauu Campbell, Ina Esch, Helen Frances Gilbert, Ruth Adiska, Virginia Woodworth, Joan Cassidy, Inez Curtis, Helen Ribar, Imo Campbell, Betty Snell, Jane Giles.

The seeded players in the order of their seeding were Jane Giles, Helen Ribar, Ruth Adiska, Virginia Woodworth, Betty Housley, and Inez Curtis. The girls were played off according to the draw conducted by the committee. In the first bracket Jane Giles defeated Ruth McConnell 6-1, 6-2. Betty Housley won from Anna Urban by default. Then Miss Giles defeated Miss Housley 6-1, 6-1 to reach the semi-finals.

In the second bracket Vauu Campbell defeated Ina Esch 6-1, 6-4. Ruth Adiska, seeded No. 3 defeated Helen Gilbert 6-3, 6-2. Then Miss Adiska defeated Miss Campbell in a hard fought duel winning out at 6-3, 6-4. Miss Giles and Miss Adiska fought it out in the semi-finals. Miss Giles won the first set at 6-1, but Miss Adiska came back with a different game in the second set. For a while the issue looked doubtful, but Miss Giles pulled through with splendid tennis to win at 6-4.

In the third bracket, Virginia Woodworth, seeded No. 4 played Frances Bridge. The latter a beginner put up a plucky fight which made it an interesting match. Miss Woodworth won at 6-2, 6-3. Also in this bracket were Joan Cassidy and Inez Curtis. It took three sets to decide their match. It was a close fight all the way. Miss Cassidy won at 6-4, 5-7, 6-3. Virginia Woodworth reached the semi-finals by putting out the winner of the Cassidy-Curtis match by the score of 6-4, 6-1.

In the fourth bracket Ruth E. Huston-Whipple lost to Helen Ribar a seeded player and last year's school champion. It was a very close match and at no time was the final outcome certain. The score was 6-4, 7-5. Betty Snell defeated Imo Campbell at 6-4, 6-4. Then came one of the biggest upsets of the tournament. Betty Snell, who although a very steady capable player was not seeded, defeated Helen Ribar, seeded No. 2. Miss Snell got off to a flying start by taking the first set at 6-4. The champion retaliated by taking the second set at 2-6. Miss Snell's steadiness and clever placements won the last set for her at 7-5. In the semi-final Miss Woodworth defeated Miss Snell 6-3, 8-6. Miss Giles and Miss Woodworth played for the title. Miss Woodworth won by the score of 6-1, 6-4. Both girls were awarded prizes and both girls played in the tournament at Water Works Park Sunday.

The committee reported ten other candidates after the deadline for all applications had closed. Next year Plymouth hopes to have a bigger field.

Richard Neale, Pastor

"I have set before thee an open door." Revelation 3:8.

Tonight at 7:30 the Rev. Ralph Stoll of Sandusky, Ohio, will complete his series of Bible studies in the Gospel text at the corner of Ann Arbor and Elizabeth street. You are invited. Why not visit us.

Mr. Stoll has been a blessing to many during his brief stay here. He is a very powerful preacher and Bible teacher; a man who is being greatly used of God.

Archibald Thomson and daughter, Margaret, the famous Scotch Gospel singers and radio broadcasters, are here giving their beautiful testimonies in song. Mr. Stoll says, "No finer Christian musicians could be obtained to teach the Word of God in music and song."

Last Sunday night Evangelist "Bob" Ingersoll, once a railroad conductor, now a well known preacher of the Gospel, closed his campaign at the Gospel tent. John Hopkins, pastor at Wayne, will preach next week, D.V.

Mr. Ingersoll's final message was taken from Luke 9:23 where the Lord Jesus spoke of true discipleship: "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me."

"The cross spoken of here," remarked Mr. Ingersoll, "does not mean trials and troubles that may come your way. The cross means on less than the crucifixion of self. Christ allowed Himself to be crucified placing His will in the hand of the Father. Therefore, if one wishes to follow the Savior he must take up his cross daily—be must crucify self and be Christ centered; not self centered." Only the Holy Spirit of God can give a man victory over self and sin.

This coming Sunday Mr. Neale will preach, assisted by the ministry of the Scotch Singers. Have you heard them?

Some time ago a Cleveland doctor, the son of a minister, boasted his emancipation from things religious and said: "I have nothing to do with religion else to do will go to church." It is all too true that this doctor spoke the mind of multitudes. Is there anything vital after all that warrants our going if we have anything else to do? You will get help from this timely message on what is real in the church?

11:15 Bible school. Rollan Altonbaugh, Supr.

7:30. The pastor will be assisted in this service by workers from the Highland Park Baptist church in Detroit. A few weeks ago a group of workers were with us from this church and brought us great blessing. This will be another evening of splendid music, both vocal and instrumental and a fine Gospel message.

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH

Perhaps the most outstanding of all the teachings of Jesus is that of the doctrine of the second place, which he taught both by precept and by performance. In the morning service at 10:30 o'clock on August 27, our pastor's subject will be "Taking Second Place."

The biography to be studied in Bible school at 11:45 is that of Saul. The lesson text is 1 Samuel 15:13-26, but you will find it interesting to read the entire book of First Samuel. Memory verse: "Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice." 1 Samuel 15:22.

"I will meet you at the hymning Sunday evening" at 7:30 o'clock. Come prepared to tell which is your favorite Bible character and why.

And evil can only seem to be real by giving reality to the unreal.'"
