

HOME TALENT PLAY WILL BE STAGED HERE

American Legion Backs Show To Be Presented Sept. 27th and 28th

Under the auspices of the Plymouth American Legion, a home talent play sponsored by the Universal Producing company of Fairfield, Iowa, will be presented at the Plymouth high school auditorium next Wednesday and Thursday, September 27 and 28.

Miss Martha Haas, who is here directing the preparation for the production, states that a cast of 125 Plymouth people will take part in the production. Profits from the shows after the costs of production will go towards the obligations arising from the organization of a Junior American Legion baseball team here last summer. If there should be a large amount, then necessary to pay these debts, the money will go into the general fund of the Legion treasury, according to Lyle Alexander.

The play, entitled "Henry's Wedding" is a farce comedy and Lyle Alexander will be the star of the cast.

Mr. Alexander, as Uncle Henry Macey is an old bachelor of 55 years who has decided to get married. He chooses for his bride Semantha Greene. (Mrs. Ida Thomas) who has already been twice widowed. Jack Macey (Max Todd) Henry's nephew has been left an inheritance of $100,000 providing he is married by the time he is twenty-five. However, Uncle Henry is not married. The play opens on the eve of Jack's wedding to Mary (Virginia Giles) and everything is rosy until Uncle Henry comes home and announces his intended wedding to Semantha, which will be Jack out of his inheritance and make his marriage impossible. He owes money to his two friends, Ted (Steve Horvath) and Harris (Russell Wallace) who, in turn, also lose by Uncle Henry's wedding announcement. Complications begin when the three boys try first one scheme and then another to keep Uncle Henry from getting married.

In the end, however, it turns out not only to be a wedding, but a triple wedding, those taking the vows are Uncle Henry, Lyle Alexander and Semantha Greene. (Mrs. Ida Thomas); Jack Macey (Max Todd) and Mary (Virginia Giles); and Susan Christopher, the jilted love of Uncle Henry. (Mrs. Frank Ivy) and Lyle Brown, a silent admirer for years, who finally asserts himself. (Ed. Wiklie).

Nazarene Church is In A New Location

The Nazarene church has moved to its new location at 101 North Union street opposite the Daisy Manufacturing Co.

Members expect to see all of the old friends there, and shall be glad to welcome any new friends that may come in.

On Sunday morning, Sept. 24th, they expect to dedicate the new church home by holding their first Communion service. Everybody is welcome.

Report Shortage In Salem Township Funds of $3,344.26

Jos. L. Hooper, circuit court commissioner, filed his findings in the Burnham cases of Salem township yesterday in Ann Arbor revealing a shortage of $3,344.26 of township funds.

In the Glenn C. Burnham case, brought by the township to recover the missing funds, Commissioner Hooper found that $437.28 was due the township.

In the case against Mrs. Ruth Burnham, Commissioner Hooper found a shortage of $2,906.98 of township funds. The township is entitled to $239.76 Turner act money.

The case against the Burnhams, both former township treasurers of Salem township, was brought by the township officials last spring. Owing to the nature of the cases, Judge George W. Sampson referred them to the circuit court commissioner. Many days were necessary to acquire the testimony and several months were taken by Commissioner Hooper to study the testimony and arrive at conclusions.

The township is represented by Attorneys Carl H. Stubbins, Louis E. Burke and Jacob F. Fahrner. The Burnhams are represented by Attorney C. A. Reading.

The findings of the commissioner will be studied by Judge Sample and a judgment may be ordered. Objections to the commissioner's report may be filed by the defendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rambo are expecting to entertain Dr. and Mrs. Wilson Randolph and son, Jack, Mrs. Anabelle Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hagon of Detroit at a "steak" roast Sunday at their home on Ann Arbor road.

Shaw Family Now Located In Tulsa

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Shaw will be interested in knowing that they are now living in Tulsa, Oklahoma and that they are thoroughly enjoying the southwestern country. Mr. Shaw who became associated with the Dow Chemical company when he left here, is now in charge of the Dowell Incorporated office at Tulsa, which handles sales of the major oil companies in the mid-continent oil fields. His territory embraces the states of Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas. The company he is with is a branch of the Dow company.

Robert D. Shaw, Jr. has entered the Junior College department of Oklahoma Military Academy, enlisting in the cavalry corps. This school is located at Claremore and is one of the finest schools of the U. S. war department.

Tulsa is a very beautiful city, but Mr. Shaw writes old Plymouth friends that that part of the country has been experiencing some very hot weather.

GRAIN GROWERS MUST SIGN NOW

Monday Last Day To File Application Blanks To Reduce Crop

The deadline for signing all wheat application blanks has been set for Monday, Sept. 25 and all wheat contract contracts must be in Washington by December 1. This announcement has just been received by Ralph Carr, County Agricultural Agent.

A measure of the economic position of wheat is given to show the situation as it is and as it will be if the wheat allotment program is disregarded.

The low price of wheat paid to American wheat producers during recent years has been the result of continued production at high levels. The fact of diminishing foreign demand due to restrictions or elimination of former export market outlets. The excess production over domestic consumption either has piled up as a surplus or has been marketed at low prices. Recent advances in wheat prices, as a result of rapid deterioration of this year's crop, naturally are gratifying to those farmers who have wheat to sell. Wheat prices, however, must realize that the unfavorable weather conditions which have destroyed a portion of the 1933 crop cannot solve permanently the surplus problem of wheat. If price gains already registered are to be maintained or increased, producers must cooperate to prevent an accumulation of new stocks, which within a short period, might force prices down to the low levels of last year.

Total production of United States wheat has fluctuated according to the acreage left for harvest and the weather conditions affecting seeds and yields. Changes that have occurred in total acreage and reduction have not been in the nature of adjustments to changed wheat market conditions. Adjustments in certain sections have been offset by increased expansion and production in other sections. Total production has varied from 932,000,000 bushels in 1925 to 929,000,000 bushels in 1928. The supply and now consider the demand and its decline. With the changing conditions of the war and post-war era the use of wheat has changed. Consumption of wheat as human food has dropped in 1929, 5.92 per cent as compared to 4.08 bushels per capita in 1931. The increase in population has not been sufficient to much more than equalize this descent in per capita consumption. These American exports are probably relatively permanent.

The feeding of wheat to livestock has increased greatly since 1930 mainly because of low prices. In 1925-26, 28,000,000 bushels were fed as compared to 184,000,000 bushels in 1931-32. This outlet for large surpluses of wheat cannot be expected to continue unless accompanied by relatively low wheat prices.

Exports of United States wheat have declined drastically since 1927-28. Because of extended credit to foreign nations and a low level of high production in Europe in 1929-30, high exports of 1919-20 were possible. Now these loans have ceased and wheat production in Europe in that same period from 1919-20 increased, causing the drastic drop in American exports. Exports for 1932-33 will probably not exceed 40,000,000 bushels.

If left without concerted action to secure adjustments, the wheat farmers of the United States are confronted with the possibility of production continuing near the level of high production in Europe until they are insignificant, a mounting carry-over or surplus and ruinously low prices. Short United States crops, such as that of 1933, may temporarily check these tendencies, but with the return of more favorable conditions the disastrous process again continues. Orderly adjustment to these changed conditions is one of the chief purposes of the wheat production adjustment program.

REV. NORTON IS RETURNED FOR ANOTHER YEAR

Newburg Methodists Get A New Pastor — Lendrum To Farmington

Members of the First Methodist church of Plymouth are greatly pleased over the action of the annual conference of the M. E. church held during the past few days at Pleasant in returning to the church here for another year Rev. P. Ray Norton. Only one change was made in the Methodist churches in this locality, Rev. Pryor of the Newburg M. E. church having been transferred to the Whitfield M. E. church in Detroit. Rev. F. M. Townsend of Dexter comes to fill the Newburg pulpit.

Plymouth friends of Rev. Fred A. Lendrum, former pastor of the M. E. church here, who was transferred to Adrian two years ago, will be interested to know that he has been sent to the M. E. church at Farmington and will immediately assume his new duties in that nearby community. Rev. William Richards, formerly of Norville, is to be retained at Belleville for another year and Rev. Minor remains at the Northville church for another year.

The complete list of M. E. Assignments for the Ann Arbor conference follow:

District superintendent, J. A. Halmhuber, Adrian, F. W. Young; Ann Arbor, First, H. B. Fisher and Peter E. Stair; Ann Arbor, West Side, John H. Shilling; Belleville, Wm. Richards; Berkley, E. E. Johnson; Birmingham, J. D. Hopkins; Hillsfield, A. B. Edley; Canton, C. E. McKeely; Chelsea, Fred Matthews; Clayton, Robert McLean; Clinton, Rial Simons; Deerfield, E. A. Blake; Denton, W. F. Alshworth; Dexter, V. D. Longfellow; Elkhart, Gladstone Bell; Dundee, C. S. Raley; Farmington, F. A. Lendrum; Flat Rock, F. I. Walker; Franklin.

PLYMOUTH COUPLE ROBBED IN SOUTH

Meager information received by Chief of Police Vaughn Smith from Huntsville, Georgia, tells of the robbery of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loomis of this place who were being driven to Florida for the winter. The message also conveys information that the police at Atlanta, Georgia have in custody a man named Adams who was in possession of the grips and several thousands of dollars worth of postal savings orders taken from Loomis. Just the amount stolen is not known, but the second message stated that all of the postal savings orders had been recovered as well as the grips that were taken from the Plymouth couple. The robbery took place at Huntsville but details are lacking.

He Is 81 Years Old, But Not Too Old To Get Fishing License

As far as any one knows J. H. Walton, aged 81 years, who resides at 942 Rose street, Plymouth, is the oldest man in this locality to ever take out a fishing license. The other day he walked in to see Maxwell Moon and asked to have a fishing license granted to him. Mr. Moon took down the data required by the state, the age was stated and to his surprise it was 81 years. Mr. Walton has for years been an ardent follower of Isaac Walton, there is no question about that—but he does not claim kinship to the famous fishing authority.

"Queen Esther" Will Be Presented Here

G. L. Howes who has been busy during the past few months preparing for the presentation of the "Queen Esther," a dramatic opera in Northville, has during the past few days taken steps to present the same opera in Plymouth under the auspices of the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches. This old opera has for years been a most popular one and Mr. Howes, who is now living at the Mayflower hotel, has been presenting it over a long period of years. A good portion of the cast has already been selected. Dates for the presentation have not yet been fixed, he states.

Hospital Notes

Kathleen Christianer was dismissed to her home in Michigan City Wednesday.

Born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ballock of 6671 Majestic street, Detroit, an eight pound daughter.

Mrs. C. Hamilton of 311 Hamilton street underwent a major operation Tuesday. She is doing nicely.

Mrs. N. W. Pail and little daughter were dismissed to their home in Detroit, Friday.

Freedom of the Press Saves America From Dictatorship!

Dean Carl W. Ackerman, of the Columbia University school of journalism, states in his annual report just issued that it was indispensable to the public welfare that the news and editorial columns of the press be free to record and interpret or comment on the facts as well as to print what is inspired or requested by "earnest and devoted public officials."

The report was submitted to President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia.

"At no time in the history of the United States has the education of the public in national and international affairs been so essential as during the recent period of depression and the present cycle of reconstruction," he has acknowledged.

"As the press is the chief impartial and uncontrolled agency for the distribution of information its responsibilities are evident."

The public, said the dean, continued to buy and read newspapers during the depression "although deprived of many necessities."

"With the Roosevelt Administration in a position to control the radio; with an almost equal power over the motion pictures, and with public opinion stimulated to such a tense state that public meetings must of necessity reflect the spirit as well as the letter of inspired government propaganda, the only possibility of the United States escaping a dictatorship was inherent in the fight of the profession of journalism for public recognition of the freedom of the press."

"If the newspapers of the world were free to report and interpret affairs in their respective countries, there would be less cause for concern over recent developments in the United States. But the history of Russia and Italy and the recent course of affairs in Germany and Japan establish the fact that once the press is controlled, all institutions which function in the fields of liberty lose their rights and their heritage, and individual liberty of thought and action disappear entirely."

"Public education in national and international affairs cannot be advanced solely by securing or recognizing the freedom of the press. Editorial courage is needed. Knowledge and understanding must be included. Responsibility for the public effect of the printed word is imperative, but above all—courage."

RIVER ROUGE G.O.P. TO STAGE A NEW COURSE A RALLY SOON

Again the rampant River Rouge has been taken from another portion of its old bed and made to flow peacefully through a new channel—and so far there hasn't been a drop of water in the stream that can overnight become a raging torrent.

The county park commission sometime ago decided that the river should flow through a new channel at the point where the six mile road crosses the stream. Six parties in the summer when work on the new bridge was started, another bed for the river was planned.

Recently with the completion of the concrete work on the bridge, the present bed of the river was changed to a new one about two hundred feet east of where it had been placed by nature some centuries ago.

The change in the river sends it through a new channel for some distance. The work is completed at the new parkway crossing of the river and park road, this point will be one of the most beautiful along the whole park system. This is the third section of the river that has been changed into a "parkway" course. Remarkable progress is being made on the park project.

W.C.T.U. Will Meet Thursday Afternoon

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Thursday, Sept. 28 at 2:30 p. m. at the home of the President, Mrs. E. C. Vealey.

Now that the vacation is over, it is hoped that the members will participate in the work with renewed vigor. The President hopes to have a speaker for this occasion and also expects that Miss Ardath Baker will give some piano solos. Members are urged to be present.

From the Michigan Union of September:

"You can't repeal the effects of alcohol,"—Dr. James B. Doran.

"Moderate drinking causes moderate drunkenness,"—Dr. C. W. Sadler.

Lyman S. Judson Weds in Wisconsin

The following social item is taken from the society page of The Capital Times of Madison, Wisconsin, and will be of interest to readers of The Plymouth Mail:

Madison guests attending the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Edith MacKechnie and Lyman Spicer Judson which took place in Hillsboro Sunday afternoon at 5:30 were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rorchers, 2136 Keweenaw; Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Lawton, 1820 Summit ave.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Doerr, 133 La Crosse; Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith, Miss Julianna Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nelson, Shorewood Hills.

The bride, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. MacKechnie, was given in marriage by her father in a ceremony performed by the Rev. John Lambrecht in the garden of the MacKechnie home. The Rev. Frank J. Scribner, Janesville, assisted in the service.

Embroidered white (repe formal) and a gown with which she carried cream roses. She was attended by her sisters, Miss Margaret MacKechnie, a sophomore at the university, as maid of honor, and Miss Mary MacKechnie, junior at the university, as bridesmaid.

Rupert Cortright, Detroit, was best man of the wedding. He is of Hillsboro, an usher. A buffet supper was served to 60 guests at the bride's home.

Mr. Judson and his bride will be at home at 612 University ave. next year while the bride studies for her master's degree at the university.

Mr. Judson is a member of the University faculty and minister of education at the First Congregational church. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, and Mortar Board. During the past year she has been a member of the university Y. W. C. A., a member of Keystone council, Forensic board, Woman's Affairs and of the inter-collegiate debate squad. She is a member of University Players, Phi Beta Sigma, Epistol Sigma, and received sophomore honors. Her social sorority is Alpha Delta Pi.

Mr. Judson who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Doerr, Plymouth, Mich., received the degree of doctor of philosophy in June. He received the degree of B. A. at Albion college, and M. S. at the University of Michigan in 1929. He is a member of Sigma Chi.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. H. S. Doerr, Philip Doerr, Plymouth, Mich.; Rupert Cortright, Detroit; William Ott and Dorothy Baraboo; Mrs. Beach, Donald Beach, Wautoma; Miss Marita Radner, Edgerton; Miss Dorothy Edwards, Earl Edwards, Okoshk; the Rev. and Mrs. J. Scribner and family, Janesville.

COMPLIANCE BOARD FORMED HERE FOR NRA

Final Steps For Permanent Organization Have Been Taken

With the formal organization of the Plymouth NRA Compliance board, final steps have been taken in this city to conform to the organization set-up as required by the national government.

This board, states the federal act, must be truly representative of six different groups of the community. In compliance with this act, the following have been named:

Fred Millard, an employe of the Lee Foundry & Machine company, representing the employes of this vicinity.

Maxwell Moon, of the Corner Hardware store, representative of the retail trade employes of the city.

Class S. Hough, sales and advertising manager of the Daisy Manufacturing company, representative of the employers group.

Edward Gayde, of the Gayle Bros., representative of the retail trade.

Miss Alice Safford, representative of the consumers group.

John S. Dayton, an attorney who is a member of the State Bar Association.

This board as it is now organized is the representative in Plymouth of the National Recovery Administration and no other group in Plymouth or outside, will have anything to do with the NRA program from this point on.

It is with this board that all complaints must be filed in writing. The Chamber of Commerce and the Plymouth Compliance Board is under the immediate direction of General Hugh S. Johnson in Washington and its proceedings must be reported to his office in detail.

Appointed To Place By Reconstruction Finance Officials

Announcement has been made of the appointment of Frank Coward, cashier of the Plymouth United Savings bank, to the staff of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. He plans to assume his new duties October first. His resignation was presented to the board of directors of the Plymouth United Savings bank Tuesday evening.

Mr. Coward will be associated with the Detroit office of this important governmental department.

It was a little over a year ago when Mr. Coward resigned a position with one of the larger banks in Port Huron to come to Plymouth to accept a position with the big bank on the corner. He was selected to a post in the bank following the death of E. K. Bennett who had been cashier for more than a quarter of a century.

Previous to his association with the Port Huron bank he was connected with the state banking department for many years as an examiner. He was also connected with the Reconstruction Finance for some time during its early organization period.

Since the close of his school days Mr. Coward has been associated in the banking business, first at Bronson and later at Waukegan, where he was in charge of the bank at that place.

It is the intention of Mr. Coward to reside for the present in Plymouth.

Friends Mourn Death Of Mrs. John Furman

Mrs. Florence (nee Lee) Furman passed away Friday, September 15 at the Plymouth hospital after an illness of over three months.

The daughter of George and Catherine Lee, Mrs. Furman was born October 25, 1888, on the Lee farm, two miles west of Plymouth, where she lived with her parents until they moved to Plymouth.

She was a graduate of Plymouth high school and worked with the class of 1908, after which she attended Normal School at Ypsilanti, On February 24, 1918, she was united in marriage with John W. Furman, who survives her.

A member of the Order of Eastern Star for the past twenty-six years, she has filled nearly all the chairs. She was always ready and willing to aid her order in any way she could and equally as ready to aid a Sister in distress.

She was a member of a prominent pioneer family of Plymouth, her grandparents coming here in 1826 from New York state.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her husband, John and two brothers, George and Wirt Lee of Detroit.

Funeral services were held Sunday, September 17 from the Schaefer Bros. Funeral home and were conducted by the Order of Eastern Star, with Rev. Nichol officiating. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Chief Smith Asks For Information

Chief Vaughn Smith is making an effort to secure what information he can pertaining to the theft of a number of vacuum sweepers in this city recently. A rather unusual circumstance developed in connection with the thefts.

At the same time the vacuum cleaner thief was operating in Plymouth, the Hoover company had men at work in this locality. Naturally following the report of the thefts, housewives became suspicious of the cleaners who were one of the Hoover salesmen stated that it was possible that the fellow who has been stealing vacuum cleaners has made it a practice to follow them from a place to another and take advantage of the fact that legitimate vacuum cleaner workers are in the field. The vacuum cleaner companies are exceedingly anxious to have the thief captured as it greatly interferes with their work.

Chief Vaughn Smith has requested that owners of cleaners who lost them provide him with the numbers of the machine if they can do so as it will help in the recovery and possible capture of the men.

Elton C. Roe Weds Galt, Ontario, Girl

The marriage of Elton C. Roe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Roe, of this city and Miss Betty Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, of Galt, Ontario, was quietly solemnized in Detroit on Saturday, September 9.

The happy couple left immediately on a wedding trip through the east visiting Washington, D. C. street underwent a major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe are now at home to their friends at 15057 Forner Avenue, Detroit.

Plymouth friends extend hearty congratulations to them.

Schrader Sale To Run Only Short Time

People who desire to take advantage of the Schrader furniture sale should take advantage of it immediately as it is planned to bring it to an end within the next few days. There are a large number of bargains left. The auction takes place twice each day, every afternoon and evening. An effort is being made to dispose of all the goods in the store, nothing being held back from the sale. Some excellent buys are being made.

Mrs. W. R. Freyman has had a her gown for a few days at her home on Ann street, her niece, Mrs. Melvin Marshall of Grayling.

SCHOOLS OPEN; HIGH STANDARD IS MAINTAINED

Enrollment Remains As Year Ago—Keep All Departments

FRANK COWARD

Plymouth's public schools opened Monday, September 18, and the entire school program is moving on schedule just as Supt. George Smith had planned.

The attendance this year is approximately the same as last year, the first enrollment last year being 1346 and the first enrollment this year being 1348, eight less than were enrolled last year. The fact of the school opening two weeks later may or may not account for the slight variation.

All teachers hired for the opening of school are back doing work with the exception of Hawley Cobb who resigned to attend school at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts. The work in civics, taught by Mr. Cobb, was transferred to Mr. Latture who taught public speaking and English last year. Mr. Latture will continue with the debating team, and in the position for public speaking and English was hired Miss Irene Waldorf of Trenton, Michigan.

As a result of the school and community reorganization of Mr. Cobb, because in his six years as instructor in civics and vocational counselor, he made many important contacts with student problems and helped many to do better work than they first were capable of doing without the solution of problems which were troubling them.

Miss Waldorf comes here after four years of teaching in the Ionia high school with the best of recommendations.

The one outside activity which is getting started with a lot of enthusiasm is football. More than fifty candidates are out practicing each night after school, and the prospects are that by October 4, when the first game is played with Dearborn, that the team will be able to give a good account for itself.

The work of selling second-hand books in the auditorium during the holidays, a part of school work, is naturally easier to the public this year through the splendid cooperation of the P.T.A. committee, Mrs. Charles Humphreys, president of the P.T.A., with the assistance of Mrs. Russell Roe and Mrs. William Strobel, was of great assistance in those having books to sell and those wishing to buy the same.

No departments were dropped from the courses in the schools this year, and health work will be continued as in the past. Miss Bonstedt, the school nurse, is making regular preliminary surveys, and the regular dental and health service will be available for the boys and girls.

The thing particularly noticeable in the opening of school this year was the apparent desire of the boys and girls to get back again. The increased vacation, to all appearances, seems to have been unappreciated to most of the boys and girls, and they are working hard to overcome any handicap which it has made.

George Palmer Has Sold Beer Garden

George Palmer has sold his beer garden at the corner of South Main and Golden road to Lloyd Vandenberg of Kenosha, Wisconsin. Mr. Vandenberg, who has been here conducting the Schrader furniture store, does not plan to remain here to operate the place, but he has already placed Ed. Rogers of Chicago in charge of the place.

GREASING THE SKIDS

Much political ado resulted a few days ago when former Governor Chase Osborn suggested that Senator Vandenberg step down and out of the picture and let Fred Green run for the United States senate. No one can quite figure out the reasoning of the former governor in this matter, especially in view of the fact that Senator Vandenberg has over a long period of years been one of Osborn's chief supporters. True, possibly that Fred Green has played a little closer to Osborn than has Senator Vandenberg, but what has Fred Green to offer for the senatorship that in any way compares to the record of Senator Vandenberg? Governor Osborn said his proposal was in the interest of harmony—that Vandenberg was a good senator and should be elected again in place of Senator Couzens after "vacationing" for a couple of years.

Only Chase Osborn could dream such an idea. And he must know that such a proposal only helps to grease the skids for the present efficient junior senator from this state.

It is interesting to note the editorial expressions of many of the newspapers about the state on the subject. George Averill in the Birmingham Eclectic takes a swing at poetry to give expression to his thoughts on the matter. Mr. Averill says:

CHASE OSBORN RANETH AGAIN
 Chase Osborn is a bully chap.
 He dwells on hilltops high
 Where views of life and all its strife
 Are hidden by the sky.
 He seeks to guide affairs of State;
 His wisdom, now and then,
 He spills upon the scattered winds
 With voice or by his pen.

This week he yells to Heaven's blue
 To win votes for Fred Green—
 Art Vandenberg he would efface
 From out the Senate's scene.
 It makes me laugh to reason why
 This bully chap should ask
 A new but not new term. Another suggestion,
 Like Green to fill the task.
 But let Chase rant—for while his voice
 Resounds o'er hill and glen—
 Republicans will make their choice
 Of able, proven men.

Like Arthur H. Vandenberg,
 Vernon J. Brown in the Ingham County News regards the suggestion as a dangerous one to possible Republican success in the next election. Mr. Brown declares:

"Senator James Couzens, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, Chase S. Osborn and Fred W. Green, former governors, seemingly are in disagreement over the position Senator Vandenberg now capably fills. Mr. Osborn insists that Senator Vandenberg should not run in 1934 but should yield to Mr. Green, the Ionia statesman who appointed the Grand Rapids publisher, Mr. Osborn makes the further suggestion that Senator Vandenberg should cool his heels for two years and then campaign for the toga now worn by Senator Couzens. Mr. Osborn states that Senator Couzens will be sworn in next term. Another suggestion, not made by Mr. Osborn, is that Senator Vandenberg run for governor.

Mr. Osborn, who says he is merely smoothing out republican difficulties, is using a peculiar method. He seems to be smoothing them with a sacrificial. Mr. Osborn has implied that Senator Vandenberg has not been duly appreciative of the fact that he was appointed by Mr. Green. The relationship between Mr. Green and his appointee became strained immediately following the appointment.

"Senator Couzens has nothing to say regarding Mr. Osborn's suggestions. Neither has Mr. Green although it is said that he would study the suggestion. Senator Vandenberg is not in agreement with Mr. Osborn. The senator is of the opinion that the state would be penalized if the suggestions of Mr. Osborn were adopted.

"It would be wise to stop pulling and hauling on the senatorial robes. They may not stand the strain of a long campaign. The republican nominee will have an arduous enough struggle to beat the democratic candidate without jousting with evasive republicans before the main battle opens."

C. E. Cooper of the Osceola County Herald who thought Fred Green was the second Lord sent to this land of hunger and overflowing granaries to lead the misled out of the wilderness of Michigan, is not so pepped up over Governor Osborn's idea. His avior for his shining Ionia idol has cooled a bit and it took nearly a column of editorial expression for him to give vent to his disgust at Governor Osborn's suggestion.

Mr. Cooper writes:

Former Gov. Chase S. Osborn has a peculiar idea of how the Republican party could be harmonized. He suggests, through the daily newspapers, that Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg should decline to be a candidate for reelection in the campaign next year and withdraw in favor of former Gov. Fred W. Green. Osborn claims Vandenberg is under some obligation to Green. According to Osborn's line of reasoning Vandenberg would then be in a favorable position to go out two years after and seek the toga now worn by Senator Couzens, whom Osborn says will not be a candidate to succeed himself. However, Osborn therein makes the first declaration of Couzens retiring to private life which we have as yet heard of.

"Vandenberg may be under some obligation to Green for having been appointed to the office of U. S. Senator to fill a vacancy. Yet it seems a stretch of the imagination to assume that Green was responsible for Vandenberg's election by the people about a year later, for a term of six years.

"We have always had a high respect for the judgment of Chase S. Osborn, yet such a fantastic idea as his senatorial suggestion would indicate that Osborn is losing his political diplomacy.

"Osborn points to the fact that the political feud between former Govs. Green and Groesbeck has ended. If Green buries the hatchet with Groesbeck in order to further his feud with Vandenberg, should that entitle Green to supplant Vandenberg in office, especially if the feud is a Green-incited one?"

"Vandenberg has made a remarkable record in the senate. Although he is considered a youth so far as senators go, yet his services have established him as a favorite among the voters of Michigan, and his ability causes him to be looked up to and respected among the members of the most important governing body of these United States.

Fred W. Green did as governor that would entitle him to think he should supplant such an outstanding public servant as Senator Vandenberg has been for half a dozen years.

"Seniority means so much in the matter of committee appointments in the senate that Vandenberg and Michigan would lose a great deal of prestige by vacating the office for two years and substituting a new man.

"And the best of it is that Vandenberg does not intend to fall for the Osborn-Green-Groesbeck conceived suggestion.

"If the 'O. G.'s' (Osborn-Green-Groesbeck) desire harmony reinstated in the Republican ranks they are surely seeking a peculiar method to obtain their end. Why should not the 'O. G.'s' be loyal to their party to the extent of harmoniously keeping still instead of stirring up discord in the party and trouble for a senator who has attained popularity and recognition by his wisdom and efficiency? Such a course would tend to create harmony in the Republican party of Michigan, whereas Vandenberg's retirement would surely create a furor against those responsible for his retirement. The resignation would be further increased if Couzens should refuse to be a pawn in the 'O. G.'s' game and decline to withdraw in 1936.

"Furthermore, if such a political move could prove of advantage to the party, why should Mr. Osborn have negotiated the deal behind the scenes instead of using the club of publicity over the head of Senator Vandenberg?"

"The writer was a member of the advance guard in promoting the candidacy of Fred W. Green in his first campaign for governor, but we will not be proud of our part in that campaign should Mr. Green persist in being a party to such a deal as to unceremoniously dump Senator Vandenberg in the ash can just in order that he may obtain the office which he desires.

"If one carefully reflects and recalls the splendid record of Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, who is there who could and would say that former Gov. Fred W. Green would be of any more benefit to the people of Michigan or the United States as a senator than Vandenberg has been? At any rate this writer is not one who would be included in such a list.

"It has been a political understanding for many years that one senator should come from Wayne county and the other from out-state. Such an established custom would make it difficult to elect Vandenberg and Green and thereby totally ignore Wayne county. If it is such an easy matter why not let Green wait that extra two years and try it himself?"

"Senator Vandenberg is such a great favorite with the rank and file of the people that Osborn's idea may not go over so hot."

Frank Bryce of the Grand Lodge Independent could not resist putting a bit of poison on the arrow that he shot at the fool suggestion of the former governor who claims to be the descendant of some roving Michigan Injin. Maybe Mr. Bryce thinks that when you fight Injins you should use Injin implements of torture. Says Mr. Bryce:

"Irrational as usual—Chase Osborn who was known for his much speaking and his mighty irrational speaking during his incumbency as governor of Michigan, has piped up again out of turn. He suggests that Senator Vandenberg step down now in favor of Fred Green and then that Vandenberg run later against Couzens. Of all the most absurd propositions, this should draw the prize. In the first place, while it does not so appear on the surface, if one will dig under the covering, it will be found that Fred Green's so termed 'day light government,' his enormous pay extravagance, etc. did more to assassinate the republican party than anything which has taken place since his candidacy. He was a profligate spender and himself stated that he regarded his political job as one in the interests of his friends; now Osborn suggests Green for senator. He would supplant our most efficient representative at the top for the next meddle possible. If it is cheap stuff one wants, send Couzock, he'd be a good match for Green, and we all know how good Couzock is and would be! We'll have to forgive Osborn though, for he is quite a wonderful man in many ways, but we cannot see how it is possible for him to give out any such awful bunk even if he is old."

Dean Cox Tells How Farmers Can Use Land Not Planted to Wheat

Approved practices for handling acres withdrawn from wheat production under the adjustment contracts fit well in planned rotation, according to R. J. Baldwin, director of the wheat reduction plan in Michigan.

"Growers are permitted under the replacement regulations to plant their hay crops without interfering with their regular rotations," says J. E. Cox, chief of the replacement section of the U. S. Administration. "They can also plant to permanent pasture on the contracted acres. In the corn belt, the winter wheat region, and the northern and eastern states, wheat is grown in regular rotations in which these hay or pasture plantings fit well.

"The farmer, for instance, who grows wheat on a 30-acre field in his regular rotation would, in many cases, leave a strip not planted to the extent of his reduction or contracted acreage. If it is the practice to seed timothy, blue grass, red top or other grass in the fall, then the entire field, including both that part needed to wheat and the contracted acreage, can be planted to grass.

"A more widespread rotation practice is to seed clover, lespedeza, alfalfa, timothy and other grasses together in the spring, according to adaptation in the field, both wheat acreage and contracted acreage, can be under the terms of the contract be seeded to clover or grass at the same time, following the regular practice.

"During the first year, contracted acreage so seeded is given over to establishing the hay or pasture crop. The second year, this acreage can be used for hay or pasture without restriction, provided other acres are substituted as contracted acreage and handled in accordance with the terms of the wheat contract.

"In addition to planting to pasture and meadow crops, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has recommended approved practices the planting of soil-improvement crops, resting the land for a year, controlling weeds, planting forest trees, and summer fallowing. These are practical methods of using the contracted wheat acreages so as not to contribute to other surpluses and yet to make good use of retired land in accordance with local adaptation.

"Growers are paid a substantial benefit to reduce wheat acreage without creating damaging surpluses of other agricultural commodities."

Wayne Starts Work On New Bank Plan

Several of Wayne's business leaders meet Tuesday night to formulate further plans for the active canvassing of merchants and others in the village with regard to stock subscription for the proposed new Wayne State Bank.

Steady progress has been reported from week to week by the committee appointed to solicit subscriptions. Many already have responded to requests to purchase the stock, which is selling at a par value of $100. Others have voluntarily obligated themselves to purchase the stock.

Now that many men have returned from their vacations, the committee members feel the time is ripe for a concentrated campaign in order to get the stock subscribed rapidly and the bank opened at as early a date as possible. The Wayne State Bank will have a capital structure of $50,000, a surplus of $10,000 and $5,000 undivided profits.

Subscription blanks for the stock are in the hands of the committee on solicitation, which is composed of Alex E. Moore, manager of the Wayne Industrial Corporation, who is chairman; William Malholand, Harley E. Smith, Mantous Ubi, Mori Lents, George H. Gurbstadt, and William B. Detweiler.—Wayne Dispatch.

Wheat: U. S. Exports to Europe and Production in Europe

WHEN Europe produces more wheat for herself she buys less from the United States. That is the feature of the world wheat problem that this chart shows. For instance, in 1921, when many wheat ships were busy carrying the bread grain to Europe, that continent produced only 1,200,000,000 bushels. Since 1927 European countries have been producing more and more of their own wheat and the wheat traffic across the Atlantic has slowed up. In fact, efforts of European countries to supply their needs, and their buying wheat from other countries has just about cut off our wheat exports, as the lone boat for 1933 represented in the chart indicates. The United States doesn't want to withdraw from the export trade, but rather than have grain pile up in the United States or be sold at less than cost, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has begun a wheat plan which will reduce acreage in the United States and bring production down to the point where it can all be marketed at a profit to the farmer.

Retail Prices Will Be Checked Soon By the Government

Previous reports that government officials would check retail prices closely to find if undue prices are being charged for any commodities affected by the federal plans to increase farm incomes are confirmed by statements from Washington by Dr. Fred C. Howe, consumers' counsel, and by George N. Peek, administrator of the adjustment act.

Requests to the president of the American Bakers Association from Dr. Howe ask for an explanation for bread prices in seven cities where the charge for a pound loaf is out of line with prices in other cities. None of the cities are in Michigan.

A retail price one cent above the average for other cities led to the request. Retail prices for bread increased 1.2 cents per pound loaf from February 15 to August 15. The cost of the flour to make a loaf of bread was 1.11 cents in February and was 2.17 cents in August, so the average increased price of a pound loaf is not excessive. Labor costs and other expenses of baking have also increased.

Prices in 51 key cities are checked to determine who is benefitting from higher prices for farm products. Undue pyramiding of increased costs of raw material will not be permitted.

Charges for ordinary cotton goods and articles manufactured from cotton are being investigated by Mr. Peek. The tax on cotton adds only 4.2 cents per pound to its cost. Manufacturers or retailers who use the tax as an excuse for adding more than this amount to the price of cloth are not complying with the government's policy of increasing farm prices without adding unduly to the costs of living for workers.

For the week of August 30, the average retail price of sheets was $1.16 and the amount of the price which could be legitimately charged to tax was 8 cents. A work shirt contained cotton that had paid a tax of about 3 1/2 cents, overalls selling for $1.41 contained cotton on which the tax was 8 1/4 cents, and only 1 cent of the price of unbleached muslin per yard could be charged to tax.

Increased prices running as high as 40 per cent on men's shirts, 27 per cent on union suits, and 84 per cent on cotton mattresses are unduly high and can not be charged to any activities of the government.

Redford Store Is Robbed by Thugs

Sam Pikin, proprietor of the malt and hop store at 21635 Fenkell avenue near Redford was held up Saturday night by two young men who were very sorry to disturb him, but who felt they ought to have the contents of his cash register.

They were armed and after surprising Pikin with the nickel plated gun, they removed his tie and bound his wrists together.

"Sorry to have to do this," he said, "but the depression really has got us down."

They were standing behind the cash register removing its contents and Mr. Pikin was concealed in the shadow when the maid who works for Mrs. Pikin entered the store.

"Where's Mr. Pikin?" she asked in surprise. "Young lady," said the courteous bandits, "if you know what's good for you, you'll just march into that back room and say nothing."

The young lady marched and said nothing, the bandits took $150 from the cash register, and escaped also by the rear, and on foot. It is believed that a car was waiting for them on the side street.

Pikin says the two were young men, nice looking and very pleasant.

Bandits Fail In An Attempt to Rob Inn At Dearborn Monday

Bandit operations in this part of Wayne county continue. Four armed men with a sawed-off shotgun and pistols, held up Henry Ford's exclusive Dearborn Inn at 5:40 a. m. Monday and slugged Frank Shaw, assistant night manager, with the butt of a pistol.

The bandits escaped empty handed as Shaw, defying guns, ran out in the lobby. They missed $3,000 in the safe and $30 in the till, according to Shaw.

J. L. Mooney, night manager, and Shaw were behind the desk when three bandits entered. A fourth robber waited at the wheel of an automobile.

Shaw was slugged over the right eye when he told the bandits he did not know the combination of the safe. The blow broke his glasses and he fell to the floor. One of the bandits stood over him with a gun as the other two tried to force Mooney to open the safe.

While they argued, Peter Scymanski, a bell boy, entered the lobby from an elevator. The bandit guarding Shaw lifted his gun and pointed it at the bell boy. Shaw jumped to his feet and dashed up a staircase. His escape frightened the bandits, who fled in their automobile. John L. Packard, manager of the hotel, said none of the inn's 100 guests was disturbed.

Dearborn Inn, Oakwood boulevard and Belham drive, faces Ford Airport. It was opened in July, 1931. Ford owns it and an eastern hotel company manages it.

Wayne Baptists To Conduct A Revival

Revival meetings will be conducted in the Wayne Baptist Church beginning Sunday, Sept. 24th and continuing through Sunday Oct. 5th. Evangelist O. W. Stucky of Detroit will be the speaker and will be assisted by Mrs. Stucky and their daughter.

Churches which have engaged the evangelistic trio testify to the very wholesome and helpful influence which they have contributed to their congregations. This is attested by the fact that many of the engagements of the "Stuckys" are return engagements to the churches where they have held meetings.

"Back to the Bible Revival" is a slogan which the speaker uses in all of his campaigns. Special emphasis is placed upon Bible study and the results have been an increased and deepened interest in the Word of God. A special invitation is extended to Plymouth residents to attend.

NOTICE CAR OWNERS and DRIVERS

Michigan's new Motor Vehicle Responsibility Act goes into effect on October 17, 1933. It is designed to prevent the recurrence of accidents and serious violations of the motor vehicle laws. It works adversely toward individuals who once prove their inability to pay for the personal injuries or property damage which they may cause.

JUDGMENT MUST BE MET

After the effective date of the law, the owner or operator of a motor vehicle in Michigan who causes any personal injury or damage to property in the amount of $300.00 or more must, if he wishes to continue to drive, do the following:

- (a) Pay within 30 days any final judgment up to the amount of $5,000.00 for injury or death of one person.
(b) Pay within 30 days any final judgment up to $10,000.00 for the injury or death of two or more persons.
(c) Pay within 30 days any final judgment up to $1,000.00 for damage to the property of others.

(d) In addition, for a period of three (3) years, give proof of his ability to respond in damages to the extent outlined above. In the discretion of the court, the judgment debtor may arrange to pay any judgments as above in installments.

The Financial Responsibility Law also requires that car owners or operators must give proof of financial responsibility for a period of three years if they are to continue the operation of motor vehicles in case of conviction for violation of any of the following sections of the Michigan Motor Vehicle Laws:

- (a) Manslaughter with a motor vehicle.
(b) Driving under the influence of drugs or liquor.
(c) Perjury or false affidavit under the laws for registration and regulation of motor vehicles.
(d) Any crime punishable as a felony under the Motor Vehicle Laws or other felony in which a motor vehicle is used.
(e) Conviction of, or forfeiture of bail upon, three charges of reckless driving in twelve months.
(f) Failure to stop and render assistance, etc., after an accident in which someone has been injured.

LAW DEFINES "PROOF OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY"

Whenever the "proof of financial responsibility" shall be required, either as a result of accident or after conviction for violation of the Michigan Motor Vehicle laws, such proof may consist of one of the following:

- (a) A policy of insurance for claims arising out of any one accident in amounts of:
1. $5,000.00 for one person injured or killed.
2. $10,000.00 for two or more persons injured (with limit of $5,000.00 for any one person).
3. $1,000.00 for property damage.
(b) The bond of a surety company in the amount of $11,000.00.
(c) The bond of an individual surety owning real estate in Michigan in the same amount.
(d) A deposit of cash or securities with the State treasurer in the same amount.

Each person required to give proof of financial responsibility must give such proof in the specified amounts for each vehicle owned or registered by such person. If the operator of a motor vehicle was at the time of the offense which gave rise to the conviction in the employ of the owner, or a member of his immediate family or household, with no motor vehicle registered in his own name, and the owner gives proof of financial responsibility, such operator may be relieved of the necessity of giving proof in his own behalf.

PENALTIES UNDER THE FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY LAW

After an accident involving injury or damage to property as specified by the Law, the failure to pay or satisfy final judgment or judgments will result in the revocation of the privilege of operating a motor vehicle upon the highways of this state by the judgment debtor. Under the Act, an offender must thereupon surrender his operator's license, chauffeur's license and all registration certificates and license plates on all cars owned by him. It is to be noted that this provision does not take effect until a judgment has become final, either after affirmation on appeal, or if no appeal has been taken, after the time prescribed for appeal has expired.

Revocation of operator's license and registration of those convicted of Motor Vehicle Law violations is also mandatory unless proof of financial responsibility is given.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

When accidents occur outside the state or offenses are committed outside the state which, if committed in Michigan, would require revocation of operator's license and registration, the provisions of the Financial Responsibility Law apply. Non-residents also come under the provisions of the Law. Revocation of registration for all vehicles owned by an individual who fails to comply with the Law is mandatory upon the Secretary of State.

A BURNING MATCH WON'T SELL Your Merchandise!

A BURNING MATCH in a dark store will give a certain amount of light . . . but no modern merchant would think of trying to show merchandise to a customer by means of lighted matches. Yet many merchants do not realize the power of better lighting in show windows and show cases in increasing sales. Here are two interesting tests that show results:

(1) A display of dry goods in the show window of a retail store was lighted to an intensity of 15. Only 11 per cent of the people, on the street paused to look at the window. The lighting was raised to an intensity of 100, and 21 per cent of the people stopped to look at the same display. BETTER LIGHTING PRACTICALLY DOUBLED THE DRAWING POWER OF THE SHOW WINDOW!

(2) In the interior of a store with a general illumination intensity of about 3, a show case was dark. Only 14 per cent of the passersby stopped to look at the display. When an illumination intensity of 35 was supplied within the show case, 30 per cent of the people stopped to look. GOOD LIGHTING MORE THAN DOUBLED THE ATTRACTION VALUE OF THE SHOW CASES!

Detroit Edison engineers will measure your store lighting without charge, and tell you definitely how it compares with standard present-day lighting. It will pay you to KNOW whether your illumination is of the desired quality. This is part of your service and there is no obligation. Call Randolph 2100 and ask for the Lighting Division.

Elgin Stock Car Race Won By Ford Eights

Paul Wiseman of the Plymouth Motor Sales has during the past few days received details of the stock car race at Elgin, Illinois, recently in which a regular Ford V-8 was the easy victor in the contest. The Ford eight driven by Fred Frame, Los Angeles, made the championship average 80.22 miles per hour over the 203 miles course that the race was run on. Over 35,000 people witnessed the event. Frame set a new record for the course in his Ford V-8, beating the mark made by Ralph DePalma who drove a high powered racing car when he made the record of 79.5 miles per hour over the same course. The second place in the race was also won by a Ford V-8, this car also setting a faster mark for the course than the one made by DePalma.

Only Legion Men Got Jobs Says Campbell

Fletcher Campbell, well known Plymouth resident, is one of the many thousands of men who stood in line at the temporary headquarters of the American Legion employment office in Detroit early this week seeking one of the positions to be opened to veterans of the world war by Mr. Ford. He also is one of the veterans who charges that only members of the American Legion were given positions. "Legion officials said that any World War veteran would be given an opportunity, but that is not so. I was one of the first ones in line. I waited all night and soon after the office opened we discovered another string of veterans who had letters from commanders of American Legion being admitted through another door. If they were members of the American Legion they even got jobs. If we were not members even though our war record was good, we didn't get any consideration," said Mr. Campbell.

He declared that the published denial of the charges of favoritism by Legion officials were not borne out by the facts. Hundreds of other veterans in Detroit made similar charges to the one Mr. Campbell voiced.

Clothing Clinic To Be Held Here Soon

The "Clothing Clinics" seem to have found a real place in the Home Demonstration program of Wayne County and they will be repeated again this fall. Women who attend these meetings bring clothing left over from last winter's wardrobe to get new ideas in making their garments up to the last minute styles. Fashion Books and many patterns of dresses, coats and undergarments will be on hand for the use of the women who attend the clinic. There will also be means of cutting paper patterns to take home for future use. Miss Emma DuBord, County Home Demonstration Agent will be in charge of the Clothing Clinics and will give a special demonstration each day at 3:00 o'clock on some phase of Home Sewing. The meetings will begin at 10:00 in the morning and close at 4:00 in the afternoon. The Public is invited to attend at any hour during the day. Following is the schedule of

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, September 17.

Among the Bible citations was this passage (Gal. 3:1): "Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage."

Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 263): "The fading forms of matter, the mortal body and material earth, are the fleeting concepts of the human mind. They have their day before the permanent facts and their perfection in Spirit appear. The crude creations of mortal thought must finally give place to the glorious forms which we sometime behold in the camera of divine Mind, when the mental picture is spiritual and eternal."

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Sundays—Mass at 8:00 and 10:00. Confessions Saturday nights at 7:30, and before each mass. Week-days—Mass at 7:30. This hour makes it convenient for the children to attend on their way to school. All should begin the day with God.

On Sunday evening we expect to speak on the subject, "The Cost of Not Being a Christian." If you are concerned about the salvation of the lost come and bring your bible.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

10:00 a. m. Morning Worship. Sermon Subject, "Opening the Windows."

11:15 Bible School. "As I compare with young men on university campuses, I am convinced that there never has been a time when the influence of the church school was more noticeable than it is today. No longer is the 'Sunday School Boy' regarded as an effeminate. He is an average fellow mingling with the fellows on even terms. He unconsciously wields an influence over his fellows without realizing it. I am glad to see the fine attitude toward the Sunday schools, and hope that it continues to grow."

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Morning prayer and service, 10:30 a. m. Church school, 11:15 a. m. Choir practice, September 23, 7:00 sharp.

The Ladies Guild will hold their regular meeting at the church house on Tuesday, Sept. 26 at two o'clock. Wednesday, Sept. 27, the birthday party for the month of September will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Statacz, 1428 Sheridan at 2:30. Bunco and 500 will be played.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

10:00 a. m. Worship. 11:30 a. m. Sunday school. Rally Day will be observed in the Sunday school on October 1st. Officers and teachers are anticipating a good program and a fine rally.

CHURCH OF THE OPEN DOOR

Our services are now being held in the building on N. Main St. You are invited to attend any or all of our meetings. See complete list below.

Mr. Neale will speak at both services Sunday. In the morning his theme will be, "The Destiny and Work of the Church."

Bible School convenes immediately following the morning worship. At the evening service, our pastor will speak his subject being: "Our Mighty Savior." Last Monday evening a fine group of young people gathered for the purpose of organizing a service in which one who desired might have an opportunity to take part. This meeting will be held on Monday evening. Speakers and subjects were chosen for the next two weeks. Plans were also made for a socialable time in the near future. You will hear more about this at a later date. All young people are invited whether they are members of this church or not.

Just previous to the tent meetings, our pastor took a series of studies in the Book of Daniel covering the first six chapters. Mr. Neale is preparing to go on in this wonderful Book. Last Wednesday at our prayer and praise service the first three chapters were reviewed. Next Wednesday, chapters four through six will be discussed.

THE ROSEDALE GARDENS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Some people have quit the church feeling they cannot pay. They honor it, want it to grow and prosper, and will return to it when their incomes are restored. What strange logic! Forced to stop payments, they withdraw the patronage they are NOT forced to stop.

Suppose a son loses both money and job, stopping monthly checks to Mother. Shall he inform her now can neither see her nor write her? Penniless, must he suspend all filial interest and affection until he is prosperous again? Idiotic logic, you think? Well, the church needs more than your money. It needs your active interest and moral support; your attendance and your good word. You can be lavish with these Sunday!

HOME TALENT PLAY TO BE STAGED HERE

The automobile is still primarily a luxury in New York City. The decline in the number of cars from 1931 was a trifle over two per cent. Passenger cars went down by about 1 per cent, trucks by 6 per cent, buses by 16 per cent. When it comes to going down hill, business apparently comes before pleasure in the metropolis.

WOOD & GARLETT AGENCY, INC. Are You Prepared?

The new Automobile Financial Responsibility Law becomes effective October 16, 1933. DOES YOUR PRESENT AUTOMOBILE POLICY COMPLY WITH THE LAW? Our policies have all the requirements in all States and offer Nation wide protection. We will be glad to answer any questions concerning this new law.

NEWBURG DAIRY HAS NO TROUBLE IN GIVING GARDEN CITY THE GATE

Newburg Dairy gained its 15th victory in their last sixteen games played last Sunday at Rousseau's Park by defeating Garden City ten to three before the largest crowd of the season.

Clyde Ferguson was in form and he held the Garden City team to seven hits and got ten strike out victims in the eight innings that he pitched. Ferguson also got two hits out of four attempts, one of the hits being a triple.

Warren Basset who played second base because of the illness of Thomas Livanowski was the leading hitter of the game getting two out of three.

The Dairy team went into the fifth inning trailing by the score of three to one, then put on one of their famous hitting rallies to score five runs and four more in the eighth inning for a total of ten.

Next Sunday at Newburg the hard hitting Dairy team will furnish the opposition for the local lads.

State To Require Automobile Owners To Have Protection
Plymouth automobile owners who have never given much thought to the insurance requirements of their cars will be interested in knowing that among the hundreds of other laws passed by the last session of the Michigan state legislature there is one which places financial responsibility for accidents squarely upon the owner of the car and if he is unable to pay or has no money, he is to be out of luck as far as driving in Michigan is concerned, if he has an accident.

The purpose of the law, which becomes effective October 17 is to eliminate from the highway all reckless drivers, and to protect the public from loss and expense caused by those who are not financially responsible or able to take care of damages and personal injury caused by their recklessness.

Under this Law, the secretary of state will require evidence of financial responsibility of any person whose operator's license has been suspended or revoked for violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws. The law demands further that if judgment for any amount is rendered against a person for injury or death (or in excess of $500.00 for property damage) arising from an automobile accident, and is not paid within thirty days, such person shall send his driver's license, his license plates and all registration certificates to the secretary of state. These licenses and certificates cannot be redeemed nor can the person operate any car nor permit any of his vehicles to be operated until the judgment is satisfied. After the judgment is paid the secretary of state will require such person to furnish evidence of financial responsibility.

If any person, while his operator's license has been suspended, operates a motor vehicle in the state, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1000, or 90 days in jail, or both. If any person shall forge any evidence of financial security, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1000, or 30 days in jail or both.

Evidence of financial responsibility may be shown in three ways: Deposit $11,000.00 with the state treasurer. Furnish a bond or surety for $11,000.00. Carry an automobile insurance policy covering $5,000.00 for injuries or death to one person, $10,000.00 for more than one and $1,000.00 for damage to property.

Reincorporation as a city has also been under consideration in Wayne. It is planned to circulate new petitions here at an early date requesting that the proposal be placed on the ballot.

Garden City Would Become a Real City If Voters Say O. K.

Residents of the village of Garden City are to vote October 28 on the proposal to reincorporate the community as a city of the fifth class. Date for the election was set at a commission meeting last Monday night. Petitions asking that the question be placed on the ballot have been on file for several months.

The proposal, if adopted, will affect not only Garden City, but also other portions of Nankin township, for in the event Garden City is reincorporated as a city, it will be entirely divorced from the township. In fact, it is this consideration which has motivated those sponsoring the reincorporation proposal.

As a city, Garden City would no longer pay township taxes, cast ballots at township elections, nor any other participate in township affairs. The welfare situation in Garden City would also become an entirely local affair.

At the special election on October 28 the voters will also select nine charter commissioners whose duties it will be provided the reincorporation proposal is adopted, to draw a city charter for the municipality. This charter, in turn, will be submitted for the approval or rejection of the voters. When voting on the new charter the elections will also select the new city officials.

The type of city government to be set up has not been definitely determined. The city charter, it is said, will be drafted under the supervision and in accordance with the plan submitted by the Michigan Municipal League.

In Garden City many residents predict that the reincorporation proposal will be approved by an ample majority.

"TARZAN THE FEARLESS"
"Tarzan, that most glamorous of all fantastic fictional characters, has at last come to the screen in the form best adapted to reveal the amazing adventures of this famous jungle creature created by Edgar Rice Burroughs. "Tarzan the Fearless" is the title of this epochal serial, produced by Sol Lesser, which is in twelve thrilling chapters, the first of which will be shown at the Penniman Allen Theatre Friday and Saturday, September 22 and 23.

Buster Crabbe, world-champion swimmer, who is accounted the most perfect specimen of young manhood yet to appear on the screen, plays the title role of the lad who was reared in the jungle and lived like the apes. Playing prominent roles are Jacqueline Wells, Edward Woods, Matthew Holtz, Philo McCullough, E. Allyn Warren and Frank Lockton. The serial was directed by Bob Hill and supervised by William Lord Wright from a story by Basil Dickey and George Plympton based on the original of Edgar Rice Burroughs.

"CAPTURED"

The heroes of the prison camps during the world war—the men whose daring and courage has gone, for the most part, unhonored and unrecognized—their spectacular achievements of their comrades still in the trenches have been chronicled—these "forgotten men" of the international conflict come into their own in the Warner Bros. production, "Captured," which will be shown at the Penniman Allen Theatre Sunday and Monday, September 24 and 25. Leslie Howard, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Paul Lukas share the leading honors in the story.

the first two as two British army officers who have not seen each other since the days of their university friendship until they meet, as prisoners of war, in the bleak German prison camp behind the Hindenburg Line.

The love of these two men, comrades in both war and peace, for the same English girl, who is the wife of one though she is in love with the other, precipitates a crisis in the lives and fortunes of the hundreds of prisoners herded into the camp. This love triangle results in the most amazing yet thoroughly credible series of events ever shown on the screen.

"TODAY WE LIVE"

The combined appearance of Joan Crawford and Gary Cooper in a story written by the brilliant American writer, William Faulkner, are the factors which give "Today We Live," appearing at the Penniman Allen Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, September 27 and 28, the reputation of being the most anticipated motion picture of the current cinema season.

Miss Crawford, who won superlatives from critics and public alike for her outstanding work in "Grand Hotel" and "Letty Lynton," is cast as a member of a British ambulance unit in the present picture which is described as the experience of a woman and three men during the World War. Cooper, in the principal male lead as an American aviator, follows up his effective performance in "A Farewell to Arms," and the other members of the male triangle are played by Robert Young and Franchot Tone.
