GIVE THEM OUR HELP

How unfortunate it is that notwithstanding all that the national administration in Washington is doing to make things better that the real sufferers of the depression can never regain that which they lost through no fault of their own. We have reference to the hundreds and thousands of people past middle life, men and women who had worked long, weary years on the farm to accumulate enough so that their declining years would not be filled with sorrow and loss. They lost every penny to their name through no fault of their own. The pathetic, the tragic part of it all is that they will never again be able to accumulate a cent of reserve and it will be a pretty difficult matter for them to make a sufficient amount on which to live. The people of the younger generation, the more active citizens of every community, should begin to give some thought to this question, some consideration as to what they can do to help these elderly people solve the serious problems that confront them. The coming generation owes them this debt of gratitude for the opportunities they gave us.

THE OBITUARY OF A "CHISELER"

A number of years ago when the present publisher of The Plymouth Mail was in business in another community some one came through the office one of those experiences few business men relish. A customer walked in one day and stated that a certain Detroit printing company had offered to do his printing work at a lower price than had been charged in the home town plant.

"Of course if you can meet their prices, we prefer to let the business remain here," he said. The prices could not be met if the help was to be paid, if the insurance premiums were to be met and the power bill and others paid. So the customer was advised that he had better take his business down to the printing establishment in Detroit, as there was no possibility of meeting the cut-throat competition from Detroit and paying the bills.

The Plymouth Mail, as well as the plant owned at that time is equipped with labor saving machinery and automatic presses necessary in any printing plant that expects to meet present competitive conditions. The Detroit plant was no better equipped to do the work than was the home town plant. It was an utter impossibility for any printing concern to do the work at the prices quoted and pay production costs, plus a slight margin of profit.

But now comes the sequel of the story—some time ago a card came to the office of The Plymouth Mail from the American Type Foundry company of Detroit, stating that they had for sale the equipment of a printing establishment that had been unable to pay for its equipment and that had gone bankrupt. Believing that possibly there might be something in the plant usable in the shop of The Plymouth Mail, a visit was made to the bankrupt plant.

There in big letters on the door were painted prominently the name of the outfit that had "chiseled" on the prices of a little country printing shop. It is not charitable to say that a feeling of glee was experienced as the name was read, because it is not the right thing to exult over the downfall of another, but truthfully that is just the way the writer felt.

A GOOD FOR NOTHING CITIZEN

Now that we have legalized liquor stores where liquor can be purchased that should and probably will satisfy the most particular, the man or woman who patronizes the bootlegger who still defies the law, is nothing more than a good-for-nothing low down law breaker. He has no intention of doing good to any one by observing the liquor or any other kind of a law.

Rambling Around With Michigan Editors

FRAME THIS
 "The depression has brought about many things. One of them, to be regretted and remedied, is a seeming increasing lack of confidence and co-operation among the business men of the community. The stress of individual problems, the increased ruthlessness of competition, the continued stretching of nerves already taut, leads men to criticize when they themselves are as apt subjects of criticism as their neighbors."

AWAKEND TO TRUTH AT LAST
 An Ontario post of Canadian war veterans has just turned in a brief note that the victory did not mean anything and that the nations which presented them could have them back!

DAMON AND PYTHIAS
 Auditor General John K. Stack, stormy petrel of the official family at Lansing, poses (and frequently has been) a stickler for honest use of state funds. But even Mr. Stack has his weak moments—very weak, in fact.

SUCH A TROUGHT

A LAW UNTO HIMSELF
 If this state had Gov. Conkney and the great and only Attorney General O'Brien to run this state, they would not be bothered with any law of any nature whatever. O'Brien works on the supposition that any law should be abrogated if he or any high official in his party should happen to want something different and he felt himself superior to the mandates of any Michigan law. Now, the legislature does not approve of some of the Governor's appointments. Don't the citizens of the Government? Not in the least. He reads the law that any appointee shall function until his successor is appointed, and mind you, the great O'Brien concurs in this interpretation. Hence the Governor will not appoint successors and hence, too, his appointees go on the job, if not, at the office, then it's not.

BOBS THE PREACHER
 The Durand Preacher who fell for a lot of con talk from a hard boiled baby over at Flint one night last week, even consenting to drive the fellow home, when he awoke, he found his pockets empty and his money, $12 and a $60 watch, and then made him disrobe so he couldn't chase him and create an alarm. The man undoubtedly learned a wholesome lesson, one that will last him the remainder of his life. Instead of driving the thug home he should have driven to the station and reported the matter to the police.

USE WELFARE LABOR TO SWAT MOSQUITOES
 Michigan citizens tired of being bait for mosquitoes should interest their communities in the possibility of destroying these pests and at the same time employing persons who are on welfare lists according to the entomology department at Michigan State College.

IT IS WHAT HE WISHES
 Editor Mike Nowack in The Michigan State Digest said last week that he knew former Governor Groesbeck would not be a candidate in 1934 for the governorship. Of course there is but one conclusion to draw. Editor Nowack is expressing the wish of his own heart and is not stating a known fact. The real truth of the situation is that so great is the demand for Governor Groesbeck to take Michigan out of the deplorable mess it is in, he will not be able to say no to the electorate of the state.

GOOD NEWS
 There is much coming out of Washington these days to cause a feeling of gladness in the hearts of the "little" business man. Probably no American group has suffered as much as the business group of little American cities and communities. Loyal to the purposes of the NRA and all that it stands for, they saw this apparently ideal effort dragging them a bit lower week by week in the commercial world. Apparently the great leaders in Washington have discovered this situation and intend to remedy it immediately. News dispatches say that President Roosevelt, General Johnson and two or three senate leaders a few days ago held a long conference in which this situation was discussed and that they plan to take immediate steps to remedy it. Again we are grateful to Washington officials for considering the problems of the class that needs assistance.

WHAT! WERE THEY DRUNK?
 The bill to permit cities to engage with the federal government in rebuilding slum districts is not so bad. The government takes a mortgage against the property as its security. If Washington is so anxious to spend its money that it is willing to take that chance, perhaps it may as well be spent in Michigan as elsewhere. If the governor could keep his own Wayne county delegation in the senate sober enough to attend sessions this bill would now be on his desk for signature.

WHY NOT?
 The Plymouth Mail would like to suggest to the Wayne county road commission and its officials, who are doing such a wonderful job in the development of a parkway system for Wayne county, that two or three spots of five or six acres each be turned into pinetums. While the present generation would probably not live long enough to enjoy a tramp through a woods where the ground is covered with pine needles, the next generation will enjoy such an experience if the trees are planted now. It would be an exceedingly easy thing for the park officials to set out during the next few months several hundred Jack pines, in one place and other varieties in various places along the parkway where the land is immediately suitable for other purposes. Once the places are off and let them grow. Some day the boys and girls of the present generation will add their bit of praise to those who are at present doing so much for the beautification of Wayne county, just as we are now lauding them for the outdoor recreational facilities being provided for the present. It is all just a thought, maybe not worth considering, but on the other hand it might be an idea that the park development officials like to have—and if so The Mail is pleased to have made a suggestion for the new park that is worthwhile.

PREDICTS NATIONAL LEADERSHIP FOR GROESBECK
 Alex J. Groesbeck has been making hay in Detroit. His services in straightening out the banking mess of Detroit which reached a climax when Governor Coakley declared a banking holiday last February, have brought the former governor to the very forefront throughout Michigan. Despite his former political enemies, Groesbeck today is rapidly eclipsing all other political heavies. Those who formerly cried "King Alex" now look upon him as the Moses to lead the taxpayers of Michigan out of the wilderness of debt. He is still in the lead which they have been wandering during the past several years.

BILLIONS FOR MILLIONS
 More than $15,000,000,000 just "to look after human beings"—and millions more needed! No wonder the lights burn in the bureau of the budget until after midnight every night—the NRA to the contrary notwithstanding.

President Roosevelt is conducting his budget making in preparation for the coming session of Congress on the theory, ably expressed by Mr. Harry Federal Relief administrator, that "the business of government is to look after human beings."

The Government has so far authorized loans of approximately $10,000,000,000, and outright expenditure of about $5,000,000,000. But where does the money come from, who gives or lends it, and who gets it?

Included in the first: Public Works Administration, $3,300,000,000, of which only about $500,000,000 is repayable. Federal Emergency Relief Administration $500,000,000 in direct relief grants to states. Agricultural Adjustment Administration, $100,000,000 from the Treasury, with processing taxes to bring in $1,000,000,000 in two years to pay farmers' benefits for crop reduction. Civilian Conservation Corps $250,000,000.

The outlook for future grants to these agencies is: Civil Works Administration, now operating on $400,000,000 from the Public Works Fund, will need $350,000,000 more to carry it until May 1. PWA—Recommendations for additional funds vary from $1,700,000,000 to $10,000,000,000. No decision will be made for some time. CCC Will ask for about $200,000,000 more if President decides in April to continue it for another six months. FERA—A minimum of $2,500,000,000 more will be asked for direct relief.

Most of the $10,000,000,000 it is lending out, the Federal Government eventually will be repaid by farmers, home owners, states, municipalities, banks and railroads. Advances and administrative expenses must be provided, however.

Largest of these relief liquidating agencies is the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Established by President Hoover, it has poured out a total of $3,500,000,000 into the credit channels of the country, of which about $450,000,000 has been in the Roosevelt Administration. Experts are now on estimates of $1,000,000,000 apiece. The RFC has given the President as its needs of the RFC the rest of this year and next.

Farm Credit Administration—Authorized to obtain $485,000,000 from the RFC and $2,000,000,000 by government-guaranteed bonds.

Home Owners Loan Corporation—Authorized to obtain $200,000,000 from RFC and $2,000,000,000 by bonds guaranteed as to interest.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation—An initial $450,000,000 fund to be raised by Jan. 1 to which Treasury subscribes $150,000,000. Final contingent liability up to $2,000,000,000.

Some of these expenditures are so interwoven that the budget bureau is having difficulty to get the accounts into shape so that it can make a final report of them. For instance, the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation, engaged in buying surplus food for the needy, gets its money from three sources—the FERA, AAA and CCC. Other agencies have equally intricate accounts.

Michigan citizens tired of being bait for mosquitoes should interest their communities in the possibility of destroying these pests and at the same time employing persons who are on welfare lists according to the entomology department at Michigan State College.

This type of work qualifies as one of the kind of employments for which federal funds can be obtained. Some eastern states have already employed people from their welfare lists on this kind of work.

Ninety per cent of the money spent goes for labor and most of the remainder is spent for supervisors recruited from the welfare lists. Funds owned by the county county for road work are suitable for the tasks done to rid towns of mosquitoes.

All mosquitoes must have water in which to raise their larvae to the adult stage. This water is usually pools or puddles which can be easily drained. Brushy places that provide lurking places for the adult mosquitoes are cleared. Home owners themselves can assist the campaign by eliminating breeding places in cisterns, bird baths, eye troughs and other similar water holding receptacles.

Assistance in planning the work will be given Michigan communities by the entomology department. City or county engineers can furnish the needed instructions for draining low places. The college does not recommend that insecticides be used in cities or resort districts.

Retailers Plan For Better Year

Prominent Leaders Credit The NRA With Gains Already Made

Evidence of steady recovery that promises to gain marked headway in 1934 and which is directly traceable to the NRA program was seen by leading merchants in a Nation-wide survey made by the National Retail Dry Goods Association. The association reported the symposium as the first in which a general expression of opinion on NRA had been given by individual merchants in all parts of the country.

In the view of Samuel H. Halle, president of Halle Bros. Co. of Cleveland, "the public should retain an open-minded attitude on the NRA, as it will take time to appraise properly all its benefits. He added that "since the inception of the NRA there is a noticeable lightening of the burden of anxiety and despair so apparent among manufacturers and a far more cheerful attitude on the part of the public."

"Recovery will go forward at a steady pace," said Edward A. Filene, president of William Filene's Sons Co. of Boston. "The rising tide of NRA will have its receding waves just as the ocean's rising tide. But NRA is here to stay and is the basis of a reasonable certainty for continuance of better times. To me, the most promising indication of national recovery is the very greatly increased emphasis on the necessity of adequate buying power for the masses and the fact that this emphasis is coming more and more from producers and distributors."

Stating that "the trade picture in Chicago has brightened considerably in the last few weeks," D. F. Kelly, president of The Fair, saw reason "for genuine optimism now. There is probably a long road ahead, but if the people generally will support the president's program under NRA we have no doubt but that conditions will vastly improve."

"The latent buying power of America," emphasized G. Irving Latz, president of Wolf & Desauer of Fort Wayne, Ind., "is a resource which is too frequently overlooked, although it was not overlooked by President Roosevelt. It is now being felt and will be felt more and more as time goes on."

Reporting a sales trend in Miami far ahead of recent years, George F. Whitten, general manager of Burdine's in that city, said, "It is freely predicted we will probably enjoy our biggest season since the pre-depression years of 1925 and 1928."

The NRA program "has been of tremendous value to the country and has changed consumer psychology from pessimism to optimism," said F. J. Paxson, president of Davison-Paxson Co. of Atlanta, Ga. "I believe," he concluded, "that 1934 will be a year of definite and marked improvement."

Epitomizing expressions from many of the Nation's most prominent retailers, A. H. Burchfield, president of the Joseph Horne Co. of Pittsburgh, said: "It is my conviction that the NRA plan will achieve its goal."

ALWAYS THE SAME

"SHE'S the most marvelous person," some one said about one of my friends. "Always the same. No matter what the circumstances or whom she is talking to, you'll find her always her charming self."

Dondoro Tells Of Some Of Problems Before Congress

According to Congressman George A. Dondoro, 17th Michigan District, who is now in Washington for the regular session of the 73rd Congress, legislation on many important problems will come up for consideration.

1. Legislation made necessary by the repeal of the 18th amendment. 2. Revision of existing veterans legislation with a view to eliminating present objectionable features.

3. The Copeland or "Tugwell" food and drugs bill, which is already the center of acute controversy. 4. National defense legislation, including the building up of the Navy to treaty strength.

5. Control of speculation in stock and commodity exchanges and further consideration of the Securities Act passed in the special session. 6. Consideration of the St. Lawrence Waterway treaty and a development of its power possibilities.

7. Closing of legal loopholes in the present income tax law as developed by the Senate banking investigation. 8. Consideration of the monetary policy. Debate on this subject is bound to be enlightening.

9. Permanent banking legislation to replace or modify the Glass-Steagall Banking Act of the special session will also come up. Among the other problems scheduled for Congressional attention are those pertaining to the railroads trade agreements, Federal home and farm mortgage liberalization, municipal credit and public utilities.

This session, which opened Wednesday, January 3, is the first regular session under the so-called "Lame Duck" amendment to the constitution. Under this amendment Congress will convene in regular session once each year, in January.

Starkweather School Notes

The pupils in Miss Cavanaugh's room have made "Santa's Toy Shop" on one side of the room where they have all the toys and gifts they made for Christmas. They have learned the song "Santa Claus is Coming." The new chair and table are finished, so the children are now using their new set of dishes and are learning to set the table and how to behave at it. The Christmas tree was put up in the kindergarten room last Friday. The children helped decorate it. The first graders have made plant jars from clay. They are very attractive. Some of the children took part in the Christmas program Thursday.

The second graders have each made a gift for their mothers—beautiful picture frames. They have learned the song "Once in a Lonely Manger." Norma Jean Bauman and Geraldine Dahmer both gave recitations in the program Thursday. Miss Stader's room furnished a table, which had beautiful figures on it representing the "First Christmas" for the Christmas program.

The fourth graders are studying the plateau states. They certainly enjoyed James Arnan's talk on his travels through the Western states. The 4 B's have been reading Christmas stories in language class. Dorothy Marie Fisher told one in Miss Sparling's room, William Upton in the third grade room, and Caroline Kirk in the second grade room.

A spelling contest was held last week in Miss Farrand's room. About a dozen new books were brought up from the library for the pupils to read. Miss Farrand's room had one hundred per cent attendance for the past month. On the bulletin board are eleven historical pictures, and on the back blackboard is their teeth progress chart. The Thanksgiving booklets are all completed. They are very interesting and attractive.

The music department presented a very lovely Christmas program for general assembly Wednesday, December 30. The Junior Chorus stood in four rows across the stage—the piano at the right, with two large illuminated holly wreaths hanging behind them. The program was announced by Jack Sessions; the pianists were Junior Oakes and Delite Taylor. The Junior Chorus entertained their audience with "We Sail the Ocean Blue," "Barcarolle," "Contented John," and "When Icicles Hang by the Wall." The Junior Girls Sextette sang "Bring a Torch, Janette Isabella," "On that Most Blessed Night," and "Colyada." Mr. Evans will be glad to know that the bright (?) saying by Mathew McLellan in his sixth hour chemistry class about the "violence of an element" is classed with that other "crack" about "convex" being prisoners.

MIRIAM BROWN—As per last week's promise we have an article for you. She is Miriam Brown, Miriam (pronounced by many "My Run") moved to our fair city at the age of two after being born at an early age in Detroit. She is known in school for her abilities as a student, dress and athlete, and between times finds time for music and Girl Reserves. Miriam who is one of the tallest girls in her class, plans to become a teacher of foreign languages. She particularly likes orange cake and Joe Ribar but detests fish. If she had a million dollars she would travel and it's safe to bet she is accumulating get along very easily wherever she landed. She claims to be a twenty-eighth cousin of the Prince of Wales. My Run likes Latin and French and enjoys reading and athletics, and it's a safe bet she's partial toward trumpet players.

Remove the crust from a loaf of bread and slice lengthwise in three pieces. Place one slice on a platter and spread with mayonnaise dressing to moisten, then cover with chopped, raw cabbage mixed with chopped pimiento. Use a loaf of sandwich bread, one and one-half cups of chopped cabbage, one-half cup of chopped pimiento, one-half pound of cheese or three cream cheeses. After covering with the cabbage and pimiento for the first slice spread the second with mayonnaise and cover with cheese relish with cream to make of spreading consistency. Mash the cream cheese, add salt, paprika and pepper with cream to make thin enough for spreading. Spread this on the third slice and put them together, cover all over, like frosting a cake, with the cream cheese. Place in the ice chest to chill. Garnish with stuffed olives, radish roses and watercress. Serve in thick slices. A sliced tomato may be served with the sandwich if desired or thinly sliced tomato may be used in one of the layers as filling.

Spanish Beans. Soak one cupful of dried lima beans over night. In the morning cook until tender. Melt six table-spoonfuls of shortening in a frying pan, add four sliced onions and cook until a light brown. Add one can of tomatoes, three-fourths of a teaspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper and a teaspoonful of sugar. Cook slowly for an hour, then add the beans and serve very hot with green pepper rings.

Quick Hot Slaw. Add to chopped cabbage that has been cooked a very little water, butter, salt and a teaspoonful of sugar; serve with a very little vinegar, all piping hot.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Christ Jesus" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, December 31.

Among the Bible citations was the passage (Luke 2: 30-32): "For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people, a light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel."

Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 332): "The Christ is incorporeal, spiritual, yea, the divine image and likeness, dispelling the illusion of the material way, the Truth, and the Life, healing the sick and casting out evils, destroying sin, disease, and death."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Lova Sutherland, Pastor

Sunday, January 7th:
10:00 a. m. Morning worship. Our pastor hopes to be with us, 11:15 a. m. Bible school. The quarterly supplies are here. Mrs. Allenbaugh is anxious that the teachers secure their material now.

The Christmas season offered us several enjoyable gatherings. The missionary group with nearly two score women present played together before their evening's supper. The primary school children with nearly as many present had fun, too. Games and processions with hats at the close made happy hearts.

The choir girls had a little spread with all sorts of stunts to whet their appetites. And then, of the regular Christmas program, Sunday evening, Dec. 24th. The secretary of the Bible school said it was the best attended in several years. Certainly the children gave a good account of themselves.

Although many of our number have been sick we can all thank a merciful God for his goodness this past year. And we would sincerely wish to all A Very Happy New Year in Christ.

NEWBURGH AND PERRINSVILLE M. E. CHURCHES
Rev. F. Merle Townsend, pastor

Newburgh services: 10:30 a. m. public worship, 11:30 a. m. church school, 7:00 p. m. Epworth League.

Perrinsville services: 9:15 a. m. Public worship, 10:15 a. m. church school.

Sunday morning, January 7, Mr. Townsend will preach on the theme, "The Church Looks at Its Task." A unique feature of the service will be the use of "Problem Sheets," on which the members of the congregation will be asked to check those themes which they would like to hear discussed from the pulpit. On these sheets are listed 80 topics arranged under the general headings of "The Bible," "God," "Jesus Christ," "Questions of Belief," "The Church," "Personal Problems" and "Social Questions." Oftentimes a minister picks out his sermon topics and then hopes they will fit the needs of his people. This is an attempt to discover the felt needs of the congregation. It ought to meet with a hearty response. It is to be hoped that large congregations will be present to participate in this cooperative effort.

Remember that next Wednesday evening, Jan. 10, we start our Union Leadership Training School. The first session will be held at the Green City Presbyterian church, on Middle Belt Road just south of Ford road, and will begin at 7:45. Be there early.

1934 Chevrolet Now On Display

Ernest Allison Tells Of Many Improvements In New Car

Ernest Allison, Plymouth dealer for the Chevrolet announces that the new 1934 Chevrolet with "knee action" wheels, 80-horsepower "Blue Streak" engine, streamlined body and an imposing list of improvements and refinements is being displayed this week at the New York automobile show and at a series of 15 special factory showings in key cities throughout the United States.

In the design and development of the new model, it is said, particular attention has been given to driver and passenger comfort and every effort has been made to eliminate the unpleasant sensations of sound and feeling that prove so annoying to the motorist.

The new Chevrolet is longer—112 inches of wheelbase—somewhat more powerful, smoother and more quiet than its predecessor. The engine is placed several inches farther forward in the chassis and seating has been rearranged so as to provide more space for both front and rear seat passengers.

In appearance, the sleekness which has characterized Chevrolet cars in the past, is further accentuated by the actual length increase plus the treatment of the car design itself.

The increased power delivered by the new "Blue Streak" engine improves the flashing performance and the many engine refinements, combined with distinct chassis improvements insure extremely fast, safe, economical and quiet operation. The new Chevrolet has a top speed of 80 miles per hour and its improved acceleration is in evidence.

Both front and rear seat passengers are insulated from road shocks by the introduction of independent front wheel suspension—known as "knee action" wheels—combined with greatly improved rear spring suspension and a more balanced distribution of weight. The improved riding qualities are present at all speeds and under all road conditions, but the greatest improvement is noticeable at high speeds and on rough roads. Steering stability is, of course, greatly improved by the new system and wheel flange completely eliminated.

The 1934 line of passenger cars again features the Fisher No-Draft ventilation in all closed body types. The same smart beaver tail design and flowing stream lines which characterized the previous closed bodies, are continued in the 1934 line with modifications.

Production on the new Chevrolet is being increased each day. Chevrolet officials state that within a few weeks there should be a complete line of cars in every dealer's showroom and available to the buying public. An unprecedented number of retail orders are reported on hand by the 3,500 larger Chevrolet dealers who visited the central office and the General Motors Proving Ground within the past two weeks to see and drive the new models.

Claim School Board Member "Peeked" They Want Him To Resign

A school scandal that has been smoldering for several weeks broke into flame Wednesday night when the Fordson Board of Education in executive session heard charges made against Wm. A. Betzing, recently elected trustee, to the effect that he was seen peeping through a hole in the window at the women night school students while taking a bath in the high school showers, according to a report in The Dearborn Independent.

Trustee Beard threw the bombshell into the meeting and demanded that the board make an investigation of the affair. Trustee Beadle introduced a resolution authorizing the investigation and the board members voted against the resolution when Judge Lela Neunfelt attorney for Betzing argued that the board had no legal authority to order an investigation or ask for his resignation.

Trustee Beard said "This is not a legal question but a moral one. If the board will not take action I will give the story to the newspapers." The executive session was adjourned and the board members were rushed by representatives of the press who surmised a story was about to break.

Trustee Beard living up to his threat told the reporters what he had called to the attention of the board. He said, "I heard these rumors at a corner drug store and decided to investigate. I felt that I had a moral obligation to the students and the public. Another person and myself stood in the high school building on the night of December 7th and watched the spot where the offense was reported to have occurred. Trustee Betzing drove into the drive 14 times and stopped three times and peeped in at the hole in the window at the women's shower room. A week later we arranged for a camera to be present to take a picture of Trustee Betzing in the act in the hopes that if we showed him a picture he would quietly resign and end the situation. Someone is reported to have tipped him off of our plans, however, and he instead of making his usual card brought detectives to the school and saw the camera. I asked him to resign and keep the scandal quiet but he refused and now the fact that since the board has made no effort to bring the matter to a head it is up to the people to know the facts."

Judge Neunfelt was telephoned for a statement after the meeting. She said "We deny all accusations."

Trustee Ferris the only board member who remained after the meeting said, "I voted as I did because I feel the man should be given a chance to prove his case before a competent court of jurisdiction."

Ford Production Is Being Increased To Meet Public Demand

Production of Ford cars and trucks scheduled for January will be the largest for January since 1930 and will exceed the totals in every month this year, with the exceptions of June, July and August, peak production months in 1933. It was announced at the office of the Ford Motor Company in Dearborn.

In an effort to enable dealers to make prompt deliveries of the new Ford V-8 cars, the production schedule has been stepped up repeatedly since the new cars were first presented to the public December 9, it was said.

Increases in the December schedule were necessitated by additional orders for the new cars from the various Ford branches. It was said at the Ford offices that these emergency orders had been received from all sections of the country. Included was a noticeable growth in truck orders which was attributed to the recent reduction in truck prices.

In order to fill these orders, production was maintained at 2,000 units daily each day during the present week. The production total on December 21 reached 2,032 the largest daily total since September 25.

The highway from Ft. Kent, Me. to Key West Fla. U. S. 1 is paved over its entire length, a distance of 2,330 miles.

These cooperative loans are secured by warehouse receipts or shipping documents covering products owned or processed by such cooperatives.

In addition to these loans the Intermediate Credit Bank has assumed a new function with the organization of "Production Credit Associations," that of discounting the notes and mortgages of these new associations given for short time production loans which are to be passed on to the individual farmer members of such associations. Such associations are now being organized by the Production Credit Corporation of St. Paul in the states of this district.

Making Mutual Out Of Peoria Life Says Report To Agents

The hundreds of policy holders in and around Plymouth will be interested in knowing that plans for mutualizing the Peoria Life Insurance Co. now in receivership, have been approved by the Circuit Court of the State of Illinois, according to agents for the company in Michigan.

Thomas F. Rogers, of Flint, Michigan, who has been associated with the old organization for seventeen years, as local and state manager, and T. H. Aagaard, house manager of the Battle Creek, Mich., have been appointed directors of the New Mutual Life Insurance Company, successor to the Peoria Life Insurance Company now in receivership. The board of directors, of which Mr. Rogers and Mr. Aagaard are members, were appointed by Judge John M. Neunhauser, Peoria, Illinois, when plans for mutualizing the insurance company were approved in circuit court. The board will function until the policy-holders select a new directorate or confirm the temporary board at the annual meeting to be held in March.

Five plans for reorganization of the company, forced into receivership November 15 by the Illinois State Insurance Inspector, were presented to Judge Neunhauser. He ruled that mutualization on a non-assessable old line legal reserve basis was the best submitted. The charter for the organization together with a list of 21 directors was then drawn up and forwarded to the director of insurance late last week.

The mutualization plan was prepared by John E. Higdon dean of western actuaries, who until Nov. 1, was chief examiner for the state of Missouri. Among other things, the plan provides for the payment of all matured obligations, such as death claims, disability claims, annuities, funds left in trust and matured endowments—in full and without any lien upon them.

It is probable, however, that a temporary lien against cash and loan values will be authorized by the court. Consequently, while policy-holders will be protected as to death or disability claims as in the past, it is probable that there will be a discount upon cash or surrender values of policies. The new organization which became effective Dec. 14, has been ordered to pay claims within the usual 90 days.

In the past, the company's profits were divided between

Farmer's Week At The State College To Be Held Jan 29 to Feb. 2

There may be some new scenery for this year's Farmer's Week, Jan. 29 to Feb. 2, there will be some new faces on the stage, but the play will be about the same as has delighted thousands of Michigan farmers every year for nearly two decades.

State associations concerned with farm business or farm life will hold annual meetings throughout the week. Thirty of these groups combine business with pleasure and can transact the necessary work for their groups and be on the ground to enjoy entertainment and educational features.

Most of the groups have meetings during the mornings at which their particular phase of farm life is discussed. These meetings are open to anyone but primarily to those engaged in that particular line of work.

General programs at which speakers of special interest appear are held in the afternoon. Only one speaker and some musical selections complete the day's general program.

Livestock and crops shows are always popular and attract crowds. Entertainment features will be provided on two nights during the week.

The inner man will be well cared for by banquets and luncheons scheduled by the various groups. Speaking programs are given at some of these meetings.

Homemakers have a special program which is arranged to permit women to enjoy all general meetings and also the entertainment features.

Stockholders and policy holders. The latter, moreover, will not be assessable for the amounts invested in the company.

Michigan was given two of the three out-of-state directors on the new board of the company. Thomas E. Rogers, of Flint, state supervisor of the company, represents the agency force. Mr. Aagaard is the policy-holders' representative. Geo. A. Shurtliff and Charles V. O'Hern, Peoria lawyers are co-receivers for the company.

The state of Michigan is second only to Illinois in volume of Peoria Life Insurance in force.

Couples must pull together or will pull apart.

IT WAS very early in the morning. It was so early in the morning that some folks would hardly have known it was morning. But it was Jerry Muskrat, sitting on the Big Rock in the Smiling Pool, knew that it was. He knew that over behind the Purple Hills somewhere jolly, round, red Mr. Sun was kicking off his bed clothes and making ready to show his big red face above the edge of the Great World as he began his daily climb up in the blue, blue sky, which didn't seem blue now because of the darkness.

A silver line started out from one bank and made straight toward the Big Rock Jerry Muskrat saw it. Also he saw a small brown head at one end of that silver line.

"Hello, Billy Mink. How's the fishing?" squeaked Jerry.

Billy stopped swimming and floated while he talked. "Hello, Jerry," he replied. "I thought I'd find you here. It wouldn't seem like the Big Rock not to find you sitting on it at this hour. Fishing is good, thank you. That reminds me that Reddy Fox happened along yesterday and seemed to be talking great interest in you."
