Bank Pay-Off In Northville Is Due To Big RFC Loan

Make Successful Same Plan As First National Bank Is Trying Here

Depositors In Northville To Receive Half Million— Milford Bank Expecting Receivership

Moratorium agreement signers of the old Lapham State Savings bank and the Northville State Savings bank have consolidated and known as the Depositors State bank of Northville, will be paid something like $500,000 as the result of the efforts of the officers of the bank to secure government aid for a pay-off of the old depositors.

The plan that has been carried through successfully by the Northville bank is practically the same plan that officers of the First National bank of Plymouth have been endeavoring to put to force here for the past two months. It is explained that the inability of the Plymouth banking officials to secure the approval signatures of about 13 percent of the old depositors held in abeyance the First National pay-off. It was stated Monday that a little more than 83 percent of the old depositors had signed the agreement.

The Northville Record carried the following account of what is going to be done by the bank in that town:

The Depositors State bank of Northville, through the aid of the federal government is going to distribute to former depositors of the Lapham and the Northville State Savings banks, the immense sum of $638,000.00.

After weeks of negotiations with the Reconstructors Finance Corporation, all preliminary steps have been taken that will make it possible to complete the full payment of the 60% moratorium. The advance is made possible by the forthcoming purchase by the RFC of $150,000 of preferred stock in the Depositors State Bank. This stock in addition to the cash on hand and the sums that are being received from the Home Owners Loan Corporation, will make a total that will be nearly two-thirds of a million dollars.

In agreeing to take over $150,000 of preferred stock in the local bank, the only condition was that another $20,000 of the preferred stock be subscribed locally. It is already assured that this amount will be taken by people in the community.

City Officials Back To Routine

Back in the re-modeled city hall after sojourning for over three months down on the north side of the city, city employees Monday morning were busy settling their new offices. While painters, cleaners and other workmen were busy trying to finish up much of the work that is yet to be done, city officials had no difficulty in carrying on the regular routine of city business.

The city commission held its first meeting in the newly arranged council chamber Monday night. The barn like appearance of this room has been changed into a beautiful hall.

Any one having any business with various city officials will find now on find all of the workers in their old location.

Name Dr. Cavell As President Of Board

Dr. E. B. Cavell, well known in Plymouth, was elected president of the Northville school board at its annual meeting last week. Dr. Cavell has been a member of the school board of that place for a great many years and this is not the first time he has been selected as its president. He served in that capacity a number of years ago. At the same election, Sherill Ambler was re-elected secretary and Fred W. Lyke was made treasurer.

The annual report of the Northville school district just published shows the district to be in the best financial condition it has been in many years. John Kalfresh, former prominent Detroit business man who has resided in Northville for many years, and who served as president of the board during the last year of his membership on the board, did not seek reelection to the board as he plans to be away a considerable portion of the time during the coming year.

Read Report Of First Auto Accident Here In The 25 Years Ago

Readers of The Plymouth Mail will find in the 25 years ago feature of this week's issue of the paper a partial account of the first automobile accident that ever happened in this city. While the report of the accident does not make mention of the fact that it was the first accident, there is no mention in any previous issue of The Plymouth Mail of an automobile accident in this community. Readers of the 25 year ago column have noted that there have been a few mentions made in the 25 year ago column and then in the past year or so of purchases of new automobiles by some of the older residents of the community, but this is the first report of an automobile accident in Plymouth. As the two injured "boys" are today well known residents of the city, the account of the first accident will be read with more than ordinary interest. Since the 25 year ago column was started in 1909, it has covered the past 25 years. It has proven one of the most interesting departments to our family of readers.

Head Badly Cut By Fall On Dam

Slipping while walking across the foot of Phoenix dam a few days ago, Henry Varner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Varner of 19428 Cansfield avenue, Redford, was so seriously injured that he had to be removed to Plymouth hospital for treatment. As he fell on the concrete overflow, a large gash was cut in the back of his head, several stitches being necessary to close the wound. He has been able to leave the hospital and return to his home in Redford.

Church Wedding For Miss Evelyn Ash And Southern Lefever

St. Paul's Lutheran church, Farmington and Five Mile Roads was the scene of the nuptials of Miss Evelyn Ash, daughter of Charles Ash, 110 East Main street, Plymouth, and Southern Lefever, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Lefever, of this city. The ceremony was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, July 14, in the presence of about three hundred and fifty relatives and friends before an altar banked with palms. The organists were Miss Lefever with baby breath and bachelor buttons. Lighted tapers and baskets of gladioli completed the decorations. Mendelssohn's Wedding March and the hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," were sung by the bride and groom.

The bride was most becomingly gowned in white satin with a long train and veil and carried an arm full of lilies. The wedding was attended by Miss Mildred Thelma Lefever, a sister of the groom, as maid of honor. Miss Lefever wore a yellow organdy with a matching corsage. The bridesmaids were Miss Luella Ash, who wore orchid organdy and Miss Hazel Lefever, who wore green organdy with matching hats and carried arm bouquets of tallisman roses, snapdragons and fern.

The groom chose Claude Gehring for his best man and the ushers were Kenneth Groth, Louis Sherman and Raymond Leifer. A reception was held at the bride's home on Castor avenue following the wedding with one hundred relatives and friends of the happy couple present.

Following a short wedding trip to Chicago and a Century of Progress, the young couple will make their home on Eastside Drive, Plymouth.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ash and family and Alfred Garchow of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Mangel and family of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peck and family of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Hazel LaFave of St. Petersburg, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. William Welter and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Houseman and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Lefever of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carter of Columbus, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Snyder of Worthington, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cummins of Grandview, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Beyers of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Martin McNutt of Five Lakes.

Mrs. Marie LaMarr Manecke and Eric Jacques, both of Detroit, were united in marriage on the evening of July 12th. The service was read by Rev. Cora Fennell at her home on the House of Correction farm. Miss Lucille LaMarr and Lewis Bohling were the attendants for their sister and brother-in-law. Mrs. Jacques is a daughter of Mrs. Otto Bohling of the North Territorial Road. The happy couple drove to Massachusetts where they are making their home at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Government Has Eleven Bids For Postoffice Site

Prices Greatly Reduced On Several Pieces Of Property Offered.

Lowest Is $7,950 And Highest $20,000—Many Combination Bids Made To Meet Requirements

Eleven bids for the proposed postoffice site in Plymouth were opened by Postmaster Bert Giles Monday morning in compliance with instructions from the postal department.

Prices on the property offered showed a surprising decline over the prices on many of the same parcels of land that were offered for a site a little over a year ago, although on one or two parcels offered there was no change in the price noted. Reductions varied from one or two thousand dollars to as high as $10,000 on some of the proposed sites.

Numerous combination bids were offered, adjoining property holders submitting joint bids on their property in order to be able to meet the government requirements as to frontage.

The John Patterson home and vacant site on Penningman avenue, consisting of a 113 foot frontage on Penningman avenue and a depth of 223 feet, with one lot extending way through the block to Gravel street, was offered for $10,000. This includes all the property from the west line of the brick store located on the east side of the Patterson property, to the west side of the driveway on the western line of the Patterson property.

The Floyd Hillman garage on the southeast corner of South Main street and Maple avenue was offered through Frank Rambo as agent for $9,000. This piece of property has a frontage on South Main street of 92 feet and a depth of 110 feet.

Charles Finlan and Carl Shear offered a site just south of the Ford garage on South Main street, with a 110 foot frontage and a depth of 160 feet for $13,750. This is a combination offer, consisting of two lots, one being known as the Czar Penny property.

Another combination offer was made by Frank Rambo as agent for Robert Jolliffe and Mrs. Wilkinson for a site on the Southwest corner of North Main street and Gravel street. This combination site offers 131 foot frontage along Main street and a depth of 181 feet. The price asked is $14,000. This property lies just north of the King plant on North Main street.

Paul Weidman submitted a bid for the vacant property he owns on West Ann Arbor street, just at the side of the Mayflower hotel. This entire site was offered for $7,950. This site has a frontage along Ann Arbor street of 80 feet and is ten rods deep.

Fletcher Campbell offered his property on West Ann Arbor street, which adjoins the site offered by Paul Weidman. This property has a frontage of 110 feet and a depth of 297 feet. His price is $9,000.

George Wilcox owner of the property at the Northwest corner of Penningman street and Gravel street, offered this site with a frontage of 85 feet on Penningman avenue and a frontage of 145 feet on Union street for $15,000.

Builders Going After HOLC Work In This Locality

Local Committee Meets With Government Official, Discuss Details

Seek To Have Supplies Bought Here And Work Given To Plymouth Carpenters - Laborers

In an effort to secure both employment for Plymouth carpenters, painters and laborers and the purchase of building materials in this community for work that is being done and will be contracted for in the future under the Home Owners Loan Corporation plan, a group of Plymouth business men went to Detroit a few days ago to consult with Frank G. Flemming, one of the government officials in charge of the HOLC repair contracts.

The interview which was arranged by Secretary Berg Moore of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, grew out of the unfounded general belief that sub-contractors around Detroit were being discriminated against. When this complaint came to the attention of Mr. Moore, he immediately decided to get the facts about it and make the necessary arrangements for the visit to the HOLC officials.

Those accompanying Mr. Moore were Ed. Wilson, painter and hardware dealer, Plymouth, and the Detroit firm of the Yorkes & Son Lumber Co., dealers of Northville, Charles Mather of the Plymouth Lumber & Coal company, Russell Rose of the Yorkes & Son Lumber company and E. R. Eaton of The Plymouth Mail.

It has been known for many weeks that numerous bids have been made by the government for home repair work in this locality, but none of the work has been let to Plymouth contractors and less than a hundred dollars worth of material has been bought in Plymouth. These facts coupled with the general rumor as to discrimination led to the Detroit conference.

One of the facts revealed an entirely different picture, but Mr. Flemming made it clear that his department was anxious and willing to have as much or all of the work done by local contractors and workers as possible, and that the government was just as willing to purchase its supplies in Plymouth if its requirements could be met.

From records he produced, it was apparent that local contractors had not supplied the government with such information as it desired. It was also revealed that a letter had been sent to Plymouth sometime ago asking for the names of local contractors and material dealers. The visitors to the Detroit office provided him with a list of all the builders in and around Plymouth who are active in the business as well as the names of concerns handling (Continued on page four)

Officials View Works Of Artist

Sedate city fathers—and should it be said—a city mother too—Monday evening adjusted their glasses, squinted and looked impressed at the art work for an inaugural course of events it has developed upon members of the city commission to decide what kind of a picture shall be painted on the wall at the back of the mayor's chair in the city commission room.

Fortunate indeed for Plymouth is the fact that there is living in the city at the present time one of the best sketch artists in the country, Edward McCandlish. Mr. McCandlish was for years associated with the Washington Post and the Detroit Free Press doing their art work for their magazine sections, but like hundreds of other artists and painters, they were among the first victims of the depression. Then it was that Mr. McCandlish moved from Detroit to Plymouth to ease a bit the burden due to the times.

For the past year he has been painting the walls of the city schools of Detroit for the CWA and his work has attracted city wide attention. Some of it is regarded as among the best mural work that has been done in Detroit, but even that big city is not able under the CWA to keep all the artists busy all the time.

Alvin Collins Aided In Rescue

Alvin Collins, well known young Plymouth man, it has just been revealed, played an important part in the rescue of three of the children who were near drowning when an over-loaded boat overturned near where the boat was overturned. He heard the cries of the drowning people and saw the struggles of the little children in the water.

Authorize Signs To Be Painted On Walks

Following formal approval by the city commission Monday night, big white chalk advertising signs were painted over the downtown section sidewalks early this week by sponsors of the musical show given this week in the Plymouth-Riverside park.

While chalk signs have frequently been painted on the walks advertising football games or other school activities, this is the first time that the city commission has formally given its consent to the idea.

The committee in charge of the work used material that can easily be washed off. The advertising was for the show sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. City officials hoped to be able to help make the event a success.

"Buck Rogers" Is Going To Fly To Fame In Air Tour

Daisy Manufacturing Co. Has Plane In Annual State Air Tour

Famous Woman Flyer Signed To Pilot Ship Which Will Advertise Popular Product

When Michigan's Annual Air Tour starts July 22 from the new municipal airport at Lansing, circling the entire state of Michigan, with a westerly tip of the Upper Peninsula as one of the 40 places to be visited, the Daisy Manufacturing company is going to have a "Buck Rogers" plane in the tour and no less a famed aviator than Miss Alice Hirschman is going to fly it.

Every boy and girl in Michigan will know all about the popular "Buck Rogers" rocket pistol that has become one of the most popular sellers of the Daisy during recent months.

The Michigan air tour was started a number of years ago to test planes and to try the skill of pilots. The famous Eddie Stinson was the first winner of the first contest. These air tours provide the same purpose as the automobile cross country races that 15 or 20 years ago were so popular. The terrific punishment given the automobiles in these races has made the airplane one of the most remarkable developments it is so with the airplanes today.

But who ever dreamed that "Buck Rogers" and his altitude shooting would find a place in these famous air contests? It has come to pass, and when the "Buck Rogers" plane lands at each airport, there will be contented youngsters in altitude guesing.

Sometime during the stay in each airport of the state, Miss Hirschman will fly her "Buck" over the famous aerial races. Then she will release a large colored balloon and the boys and girls will be given an opportunity to estimate the height above the ground. The one who makes the nearest estimate will be presented with one of the famous "Buck Rogers" rocket pistols. But that is not all. Each Michigan airport of the fifty or more airplanes will stop, will be flooded with advertising material from the Daisy Manufacturing company, advertising all of its popular products.

Miss Hirschman has in recent years won several flight contests and not so long ago was a serious contender in one of the altitude climbs. She is regarded as one of the best women pilots in the country.

The Michigan air tour will start on July 22 and end on July 28. Entries this year are among the largest the tour has ever had.

LIBERTY OF PRESS MORE POWERFUL THAN ALL

"Give me but the liberty of the press and I will give to the minister a vernal house of peers. I will give him a corrupt and servile house of commons. I will give him the full swing of the patronage of office. I will give him the whole host of ministerial influence. I will give him all the power that place can confer upon him. To purchase up submission and overawe resistance; and yet, armed with the liberty of the press, I will go forth to meet him undismayed. I will attack the mighty fabric of that mightier engine. I will shake down from its height corruption and bury it beneath the ruins of the abuses it was meant to shelter."

UNDER THE OAKS

Two or three weeks ago the Republican party "celebrated" the anniversary of the birth of the Republican party under the oaks at Jackson. Those who have made some study of the intense public desire to do something for our great and troubled country back in 1854 know the high type of men who walked, rode horseback and travelled in other ways to reach that place, so that they might do something for their country that was at that time beset by serious difficulties.

There is one newspaper editor in Michigan who knows well the spirit of the men that had something to do with the formation of the Republican party. This editor was at Jackson during the re-creation of "celebration." What a sad commentary he points out, to think that in this day when our nation is again in difficulties, when it needs the intense, patriotic and loyal support of every man, no matter what his party beliefs might be, that a celebration of such a great event in American history as the birth of the Republican party, should be turned into a ballyhoo affair for a lot of self-seeking and self-starting candidates for revenue producing public jobs.

True, as this editor, the Hon. Vernon J. Brown of the Ingham County News, points out, most of the speakers and some of the visitors were Republicans who have the good of their country at heart, Republicans who have no axes to grind and no ulterior motives. But the vast majority of the crowd he says, was made up of "supporters" for this or that candidate or were themselves candidates for something or the other.

His editorial comment follows: "Last week at Jackson there gathered thousands of citizens from every part of Michigan to observe the 80th anniversary of the founding of the Republican party—a momentous occasion. Many distinguished citizens were present from other states to participate in the celebration. In other years republicans have gathered under the historic oaks of that city to do homage to those courageous men of 1854 who gathered at that central meeting place, there to pledge themselves to a new ideal in government. On previous anniversaries the party has been dominant. Last Saturday those who gathered were cheered with the cheers of a victorious opposition still ringing in their ears as a reminder of the stinging rebuke handed their leaders in 1932."

"In 1854 as the result of a general call there came an unexpected throng which soon exceeded the capacity of the largest hall in the city and so the stern men adjourned to meet under the oaks. In 1934 preparations had been made for three times as many as attended. In 1854 it was not easy to reach Jackson. Those who attended went on foot and by horse and oxen and a few by railroad. Accommodations were limited. Hardships were endured but men were serious about their politics in those days and the move to organize a new party held a strong appeal. The platform adopted became a notable document ranking alongside the great papers of the nation. Candidates were given little consideration. Principles counted, not offices."

"In 1934 it is easy to reach Jackson. Within an hour's drive by motor car over smooth highways there live a sufficient number of voters to have blocked every street in Jackson with traffic. Within a hundred miles of that city there live voters in number to have blackened every inch of space on the fair ground and yet not half the seats provided were occupied. "The men who founded the party in 1854 meant business. They had no personal interest in the election other than to insist that the principles in which they believed be carried out. Those principles were well defined. There was no doubt in the minds of any who read the platform there adopted as to the issues involved. No hardship was too great for them to overcome in reaching the place and declaring their convictions."

"The men and women who made up the crowds which were present last Friday and Saturday were different. Some of them were probably just as sincere as the men of 1854. Many were there, to be sure, who hold very definite convictions regarding fundamentals of government. Nevertheless, they could not long remain in hotel lobbies or at the speaking stands without concluding that most of those present had some personal interest other than the welfare of the state and nation. "Had all the candidates for state and county office and their respective boosters been removed from the gathering, those left to speak upon broad principles of government and party policy would indeed have been few. Job seekers nor job holders will never see the state from had government. Senator Vandenberg raised his voice in challenge to every member of the party to rally to the new cause of 1934. Perhaps those ringing words fell on more ears than one present might have believed. Modern devices which send such messages to unseen listeners made it possible. But even as he spoke, henchmen or self-seeking candidates annoyed listeners by passing out pamphlets containing flagrant symposiums of self praise. "A great Michigan error has incurred in recent months. "Are there still acorns underneath the Oaks at Jackson? Yes, they are there. But opportunists do not wait for acorns to grow. They prefer to strip the trees which others have planted."

THE DIFFERENCE

In the sketch of the career of E. J. Pennington that appeared in a recent issue of The Plymouth Mail, mention was made of the fact that when a lad in his teens he was "apprenticed" out to a print shop in New Hampshire. His term of apprenticeship was to run for seven years, the time that was required in those days as sufficient in which to learn the printing trade. Instead of being paid for the time he spent in learning his trade, he had to pay for learning the printing business. After some five years he decided that he wanted to engage in another line of business, so it was necessary for him to "buy off" his apprenticeship. In those days it was the common practice for a young man to pay for being taught a trade.

son in his codes fixed a wage even for the first year in many trades where a beginner is valueless to the industry. The printing business is one thing it takes long and slow years to master—and after it is mastered these days the returns are far from in keeping with what is required in time or investment. Maybe out of the new order of things it will be different—but indications are that this as well as many other industries has many more lean years ahead. Truly conditions have changed.

JOHN HAGGERTY

One of the duties of the voters of Wayne county this fall will be to elect one member of the Wayne county road commission. The term of John S. Haggerty, veteran member of that board, has expired. It is good news to know that Mr. Haggerty has made it his business to be willing to continue his services on that board if the voters of Wayne county approve of his candidacy. There should be no question about that. Mr. Haggerty and Ed. Hines are the two men who have given to Wayne county the best county road system in America. They have never played politics with their jobs and they have seen to it that what they did was for the benefit of the many. Mr. Haggerty is a neighbor of Plymouth and he is in Canton township and he takes a mighty keen interest in all that pertains to this part of Wayne county. The Plymouth Mail has a suggestion to make—here is a case where we can all go to the polls on election day and give our vote for the man of politics. Let's give to John S. Haggerty this fall every vote in this locality. He is entitled to it. On the other hand we owe it to him. It would be an excellent way to show to him and the entire road commission as for that matter, our appreciation of all that is being done in this part of Wayne county.

THE RIGHT KIND

Announcement has been made by Donald Vander Wert of Fremont that he intends to seek nomination and election to the state senate. Mr. Vander Wert served one term in the house of representatives. In that one term he demonstrated that he is of the right kind of material for public service. Because of the fact that a member of the legislature is a servant of all of the people of the state and not just the district from which he comes, we in this part of Michigan have a perfect right to be interested in the advancement that Mr. Vander Wert seeks. The voters of his district will be doing the state of Michigan a great service if they nominate and elect Mr. Vander Wert to the senate. He serves no clique or faction and he has only the welfare of the sadly depressed people of a great state at heart. Not only do we hope to see Mr. Vander Wert go to the senate, but we hope to see a greater place for him higher in state circles in the years to come.

WHY A COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER?

Contest Sponsored by Adrian Van Koevoering Of Zeeland, Michigan

By NETTIE S. FERRELL, Berrien Springs, Mich. Favorable Mention

One of the greatest forces in our national life is the newspaper—the channel for communication, for dissemination of thought, for propaganda of all kinds, the means for education of public opinion, of crystallization of ideas, and formation of national policies.

All these needs are well served by the great dailies of the great cities. Into every country community every village, every town and city of the nation go these carriers of news, of records of progress, of broad information on any topic and of any nature whatsoever. Why, then, the community newspaper? Why the small daily or weekly publication, which must necessarily be less in space and circulation? We need not search long to find the answer. It is because such a paper performs a function which the big dailies cannot even remotely exercise. Little intimate affairs touching the lives and interests of neighbors and friends who place have they in the papers of the larger centers?

Which paper chronicles the entrance into and the return from college of our young people, or the triumphs of our school boys and girls of any age? Which paper writes the account of the bridge club and its winners, the doings of the Ladies Aid and the missionary society? Which paper chronicles the visits of ourselves and our friends, the cases of illness and recovery from illness? Which paper publishes the full and pathetic account of the death and obsequies of a loved member of the family?

It is the community newspaper which does all this, and it is the editor of this same paper who inquires into the thoughtful and genuine interest into all our own little personal affairs which might form an item for the paper; it is this same editor, by the way, who greets with an impartial smile the paid-up subscriber and the one who is many months in arrears.

Is there a matter of general welfare which should be brought to the attention of the public? The community newspaper cheerfully gives its exponents space in its columns. Should public sentiment in the town be molded or crystallized along certain lines? Again the community newspaper becomes the organ of expression and leads the movement to the desired goal.

Any doubter as to the value to any community of a local newspaper will do well to check up on the kind of news and articles contained in any recent issue of his own town paper, and then compare it with the big daily laid on his doorstep by the distributor. The small newspaper will not suffer by the comparison, if variety and scope are to be considered in the decision. And the community paper has the added advantage of being of real interest to the reader from the society column to the world news in review.

The average reader of the big daily scans the pages hurriedly seeking to make himself well informed by a glance at the headlines, or at his favorite column. The community newspaper is read from beginning to end, advertisements want ads, news, and all. These pages may seem trivial to the casual observer, but they are not. They are the chronicles of community life, and are therefore of vast interest to the true community member who cares for his neighbors' interests as well as for his own. The big dailies are the chronicles and molders of national progress and thought, but it is the community newspaper that gets close to the human heart, and that binds communities together into one big sympathetic brotherhood. "All hail to the community newspaper! Long may it live and prosper!"

The creation of new desires which make for a higher standard of living has been due largely to the power of advertising.

The youth who thinks education means that he will not have to work for a living is all wrong. The more highly educated a person becomes the more necessary it is to work hard for the things more than ever how much there is to be accomplished. Education does not mean a soft snap for anyone.

Mother and Her Clubs

My mother's at the club today! I don't know jus' which one! But, anyhow, she's gone away To have a lot o' fun! She's got a dozen clubs, I guess, An' every day or so She's lookin' up some new address Where she's supposed t' go!

When she's at home, she's busy, too— She's always at the 'phone Advisin' someone what t' do; An' when she's left alone She's writin' her accounts; Or checkin' 'er accounts; T' find out why they're "in the red In such absurd amounts."

Las' year my mother said that she Was through for good an' all— She simply wasn't goin' t' be In any clubs that Fall! But when she told 'em she was done, An' all her friends got sore, She kept her place in every one! An' joined a couple more!

Rambling Around With Michigan Editors

"I WISH I WAS IN DIXIE"

Yes, suh, we yearn for Dixie; back to the little old shack; down south with mammy (and pappy, too); we long to be on that "choo-choo" leaving for Alabama down by the Mississippi and all that sort of thing. Not alone for sentimental reasons do we long to be below the Mason-Dixie Line. We want to be down there where the AAA is passing out those checks and away from here where the processing taxes are paid. We want to be in on the pay-off will be doing the state of Michigan a great service if they nominate and elect Mr. Vander Wert to the senate. He serves no clique or faction and he has only the welfare of the sadly depressed people of a great state at heart. Not only do we hope to see Mr. Vander Wert go to the senate, but we hope to see a greater place for him higher in state circles in the years to come.

NRA AT YOUR DOOR

If you happen to be laboring under the delusion that NRA applies only to big cities and highly populated centers, listen to this: Recently the St. Johns board of education advertised for bids on some 500 tons of coal to be used during the 1934-35 school year. Came the day for the opening of the bids and it was found that all five St. Johns dealers had submitted a price, and it was the same identical price from all five. In former years the bids had varied considerably, possibly to the extent of 75 cents of a dollar per ton. But this years every dealer wanted the same amount for his product. It is interesting to note that the bid price this year is exactly $2 per ton higher than the price paid last year. One-half of this increase is represented in the actual rise in price of the coal at the mine; the other dollar represents a higher margin of profit for the dealer and the trucker who unloads and delivers the coal. As a matter of fact the board of education has been buying its coal heretofore at just about cost. The unsuccessful bidders assert that this is so and the dealer who furnished the coal practically admits it. Under NRA no dealer can furnish coal at cost without violating the fair practice section of the coal code. Any who drew up this code? None other than the coal operators, not the local dealers—although they are bound by it—but the "big fellows." Under this code the school district will pay more but the local dealers will receive a profit. Under the old system it was nobody's business but his own if a man wanted to sell his product at cost. Now it is the business of all his competitors. That's a right-about face from what General Johnson says was rapidly becoming "ragged individualism." Schuyler Marshall in the Clinton County Republican-News.

Take a look at the next table. Here are four states receiving $71,761,121 in benefit payments while they pay but $16,699,027 in processing taxes.

Texas, $8,176,941.67 processing tax paid; Rental and crop benefits received, $47,044,240.10. Mississippi, $686,950.99, processing tax paid; Rental and crop benefits received, $10,098,853.02. Alabama, $6,561,392.33 processing tax paid; Rental and crop benefits received, $9,612,245.97; Louisiana, $1,272,742.95 processing tax paid; Rental and crop benefits received, $5,005,782.42. Processing tax paid total $16,699,027.94. Rental and crop benefits received total $71,761,121.51.

The northern states are paying $12 for every dollar they receive in AAA benefits. The south is receiving $4.00 for every dollar paid.

I wish I was in Dixie with the Dixie Buccaneers. Ask your congressman to sign the entire song. He knows the words. He helped write them down—Vernon J. Brown in The Ingham County News.

A light wagon standing at the curb in front of Mrs. Polley's residence adjoining the village hall, was run into from the rear by an automobile last Friday evening. In the wagon were the two little sons of Henry Sage, age 11 and 9 years. Harold and Carl. The crash resulting and the violence with which the wagon was forced upon the horse, frightened him so that he ran away, the animal kicking all the way up the street towards the railroad tracks. Little Carl was thrown out upon the pavement in front of the residence of Mrs. L. C. Hough where he was picked up somewhat bruised and stunned but otherwise uninjured. Harold was found a few minutes later among the building blocks being used for Jolliffe's new store. His leg was broken and he was otherwise injured. He had been kicked by the horse and afterwards thrown from the rig. Both boys were taken to their home and Dr. Patterson called. The rig belonged to Carl Heide, an uncle of the boys, and they had frequently driven it about town, the animal not being afraid of anything.

Crop Report of State Pictures A Brighter Outlook - Rains Help

No famine is in sight in Michigan figures of crop prospects for 1934 released by Verne H. Church, State agricultural statistician. The most important crop shortages for this state are in feed crops for livestock, hay and fodder crops being much below normal. The only chance to remedy this shortage now is to plant rye for pasture, as suggested by Michigan State College farm crops department.

Michigan potatoes are expected to produce more bushels than in 1933 if weather conditions from now until harvest are about normal. A crop of 22,950,000 bushels is indicated by present conditions. Last year's crop was 20,670,000. Bean conditions are considerably worse than last year as a crop of only 3,055,000 bushels is in sight and the production in 1933 was 3,519,000 bushels. This decrease in probable production has occurred in spite of a planting 5 per cent greater than last season. Corn is expected to yield 40-268,000 bushels in Michigan as compared with last year's yield of 42,315,000 bushels. This crop has withstood the drought well and grows rapidly in the unusually hot weather prevailing. Increased planting of fodder corn have been made to replace hay shortages. Another optimistic angle of the crop report is the probability of a better harvest of peaches, pears, and plums than last year. The peach crop however, is still much below the average production for the state. The apple crop will be 3,500,000 bushels less than last year's production of 8,651,000. Grapes and cherries are not as good as last year.

Approximately three years is required to build a capital ship of the Navy. One year is necessary to prepare the plans and assemble material preparatory to the laying of the keel; another year elapses between the laying of the keel and the launching of the vessel; the third year is necessary to complete the ship before she is placed in commission.

A major sea battle between the English and German fleets during the World War was prevented by a storm at sea.

SPEND AN ECONOMICAL VACATION IN MICHIGAN

There is no disposition in Michigan to "soak the tourist". Here you will find vacation costs moderate and accommodations to fit every pocketbook. Inexpensive tourist homes... moderately priced hotels... free camps... many points of historic interest and a variety of sports that cost but little to enjoy... all contribute to the pleasure and economy of a vacation in Michigan.

Michigan's tourist and resort business brings large sums of money to the state each year. It provides employment for thousands, and greater prosperity for all of us. We can increase that business further by telling out-of-state friends about Michigan's vacation advantages and by spending our own vacations here.

And, no matter which part of Michigan you visit this summer, banish worry by telephoning home and office frequently. Call ahead for reservations, or to tell friends you are coming. Long Distance calls will add but little to the cost and much to the enjoyment of your vacation.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"God" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 15.

Among the Bible citations was this passage (John 7:16-17): "Jesus answered them and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself."

Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 192): "In Science, you can have no power opposed to God, and the physical senses must give up their false testimony. Your influence for good depends upon the weight you throw into the right scale. The good you do and embody gives you the only power obtainable. Evil is not power."

Sermon subject, Peter's Love and Work. "Lowest thou Me?" This was the searching question asked by our Lord. One would have expected Him to have asked, Dost thou believe Me? Will thou obey Me? Are you prepared to carry out My plan? But lo, the Risen Lord seems not so concerned about these—He only asks for love, and that from the rugged, manly, head-strong, Peter. Christ here struck right at His method of dealing with men. If only He can get their love, it is easy to get their practice of faith and obedience. "Thou knowest that I love Thee. Feed My Lambs."

The Junior choir returned from their camping trip on Monday afternoon—and did they have a good time? Well just ask the girls. Lots of eats, lots of fun, plenty of swimming, bringing the coveted tan, and we believe every girl knows God the better for their stay at the lake. The choir with the pastor take this occasion to thank the many who made possible this week of pleasure and profit for these seventeen girls. Great credit is due also to those who assisted in caring for the girls at the camp. The vote was unanimous that they go again next year.
Next week's announcements will bring in detail the wonderful day we are to have on Sunday the 29th.

And these signs shall follow them that believe. In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. Builders Going After HOLC Work In This Locality ing building and hardware materials.

Mr. Flemming instructed the delegation of the necessary steps to take to get this business in Plymouth.

As a result of the information he gave the visitors, Mr. Moore called a meeting of all local building contractors and supply men Monday evening in the Chamber of Commerce. The meeting had a twofold purpose, first to go over the information obtained from Mr. Flemming, and second, to discuss in a preliminary way available information pertaining to the Federal Housing Program. In going over H. O. L. C. insurance and bonding requirements, Mr. Moore was asked to obtain more detailed information regarding bonds required of contractors. It was the consensus of opinion of those present that if early laxness in getting lined up for H. O. L. C. repair contracts could be cited as one reason for not securing a larger share of this business that lack of aggressiveness would not prevent active and successful participation in the Federal home modernization and repair program.

Interesting figures from a partially completed government survey were introduced to bring out the scope of the work. The survey and modernization field in case the Federal Housing Administration is successful in arousing widespread public interest in this program. This survey conducted in 50 typical cities scattered from coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf show that 62 per cent of the residential structures inspected need repairs. Vacancies amount to 7 per cent, but this percentage is offset by a larger percentage where cases of doubling up were found, 11.5 per cent of the dwellings do not have electric or gas plumbing, 21 per cent have no modern sanitary facilities, 32 per cent are not equipped with gas or electricity for cooking, 27.5 per cent have neither bathtub nor shower, 55 per cent do not have central heating, 84 per cent have no mechanical refrigeration, and more than 10 per cent do not have running water.

During the meeting at which Russell Roe presided during the informal discussion, he mentioned the fact that he had been asked by the code authority for the building supply industry to act as the chairman of the Plymouth federal housing committee.
He stated that he had decided to accept this responsibility. Mr. Roe further stated that he would take immediate steps to line up the personnel of this Plymouth committee in order to be ready to go ahead when the completed government set-up was announced.

It was evident from the meeting that a determined effort is going to be made to get as much of this work and business for Plymouth as possible, instead of letting it go to Detroit supply men and workers.

J. Milton Hover Has Filed Petitions For Congressional Race

J. Milton Hover, member of the staff of the Michigan State Normal school at Ypsilanti and a brother of former Mayor Freeman B. Hover of Plymouth, has just filed his nominating petitions for congress in that district. He is seeking the Republican nomination in the Second district of which Plymouth was at one time a part. The congressional boundary was changed by the state legislature some three years ago so that the northern boundary of the old Second district now runs along the south line of Plymouth township. There are several other contestants for this nomination but Mr. Hover has been putting up a strong campaign and is said to have a considerable following. Congressman Leahy of Monroe was elected the Democratic ticket in the last election from the same district.

Music Director On Long Voyage

Miss Nellie Beatrice Huger, formerly of Plymouth and in recent years, the Minister of Music of Hartland Area, sailed Thursday, July 12, on the steamer Austsvan, from Tampa, Florida for an extended cruise to South America and the West Indies.

Since the days of the Spanish galleons, this part of the world has been thought to be full of adventure and unequalled beauty. Today, instead of pirate boats commanded by such daring characters as Henry Morgan, Bluebeard, and Captain Kidd, vessels of pleasure and commerce sail peacefully in the pirate trails.
Miss Huger will visit first, Kingston, Jamaica. This was once known as the city of pirates. It is now famous for its tropical beauty. She will then go to the French island of Gaudeloupe at Pointe a Pitie. Here may be seen blue wrapped mummies with clay pipes, coal black soldiers in red pants, and smartly uniformed French officers.
On July 25th the Fort de France on the island of Martinique will be visited. Here in 1902 a volcano, Mont Pelie, destroyed all but one of the 4500 inhabitants.

At Barbados will be seen one of the finest bathing beaches in the world. This is next to the most densely populated spots in all the world.

Trinidad, the most southerly of the West Indies, will be visited on July 27 and August. Bazaars of East Indian merchants, turbaned flute players, and coolie women give this island an atmosphere of India.

There will be a cruise of 70 miles up the Demerara River, through dense jungle country.

Miss Huger has been at Indian Rocks, near Clearwater, Florida, for several months. She has been ill for the past year with nerve fatigue and her doctors in Florida have advised this six weeks of ocean trip for the rest and relaxation. It is hoped that her health will be greatly improved.

Miss Huger will return to her home in Hartland to resume work there the first of September.

KNEE-ACTION

tops a 22-year record of engineering progress that makes Chevrolet the best riding car in the low-price field

Year after year, it's been the same story: Chevrolet FIRST with the NEWEST and BEST! Chevrolet leading—others following. Chevrolet out in front with the latest proved advancements. Self-starter! Sliding gear transmission! Streamlined design! It was Chevrolet aggressiveness and progressiveness that forced all low-priced cars eventually to adopt these and other major improvements. And now, this year, comes the climax of Chevrolet's engineering leadership: the Knee-Action ride! This newest of motoring sensations is a marvel of smooth, easy, gentle motion. No other ride in the world can even compare with it. It makes Chevrolet far and away the best riding car in the low-price field.

Have you noticed how America has taken to the Knee-Action ride? In the first 6 months, demand for Chevrolet cars sent production to the highest total attained by any automobile during 1934.

some time on the plan to release the balance of the 60 per cent Moratorium fund. With all details with the RFC completed, the board of directors met Tuesday, July 3, and by unanimous action approved of the plan to release the 638 thousands of dollars.

The final step in the working out of the plan for the distribution of the big sum came Tuesday, July 10, when stockholders of the bank, with only one dissenting vote formally ratified the proposal of the RFC. Meeting in the bank in the afternoon, a large group of stockholders listened in person to Mr. Boyce as he told in detail of the plan and presented the various resolutions and papers that had been drawn up by the federal officials. The vote in favor of the acceptance of the RFC plan represented 3,735.5 shares while only 127 shares represented the one dissenting vote.

This action is made available in the very near future. $638,000.00 will be a marvelous help to the entire Northville community. It means that the entire sum in the 60 per cent Moratorium fund will soon be available, instead of three and a half years from now, as contemplated by the provisions of the organization of the Depositors State Bank. It will be remembered that with the opening of the bank January 28, 1933, that the Moratorium plan called for distribution of 10 per cent of the 60 per cent Moratorium fund (in addition to all deposits of ten dollars or less) by January 1, 1934; the giving of 15 per cent by January 1, 1935; 25 per cent by January 1, 1936; 25 per cent by January 1, 1937; and of the final 30 per cent of the fund by January 1, 1938.

Officials of the bank did not wait until January 1, 1934 for the first payment of 10 per cent. Instead, in April and September, the full 10 per cent and sums of ten dollars and under were paid, a total of $105,000. The next payment of 15 percent would not be due until the coming January.

The distribution of the full 60 per cent within the next few weeks will complete the full payment nearly three and a half years before the last payment was due. Hence, it can be seen that a vast amount of good will be done by the distribution of the nearly two-thirds of a million dollars at this time.

Four per cent interest will be paid to the holders of the preferred stock. The RFC stock will be liquidated as fast as possible from the earnings and the sale of assets. Letters are being sent to the local stockholders advising them of their right to secure their proportionate share of either class A or B. After ten days the books will be closed. The next liquidations are that not only will the necessary $20,000 be subscribed but that it may be oversubscribed.

Making available of the 638 thousand will be one of the biggest boosts that Northville has had in years. It will relieve many of heavy financial worries, will stimulate business in every way, loosen credit and put new hope into the hearts of all.

The federal insurance law that now protects all depositors up to the sum of five thousand dollars, will mean that large sums will be deposited in the local bank. Two per cent interest is now being paid and with the insurance feature, there is every inducement for the depositors to return their money to the bank.

The following is from the Milford Times about the banking situation in that place:

It is no secret that, under the present set-up and the rulings of the banking commission, the First State Bank cannot qualify for government deposit insurance and without that it is impossible to function as a regular bank. When the bank was reorganized under the 60-40 plan two years ago, the plan was widely regarded as the best then evolved in the state. Subsequent bank legislation, however, has worked to the disadvantage of this bank as reorganized through no fault of the bank's management.

A group of men, representative of the business interests of the village met at the bank Tuesday evening and offered good will and support to any plan or movement that will improve the status of the bank, or to any plan for reorganization that will assure the community a bank in all that the term implies.

Attorney P. S. Weadock, Albert W. Johnson and Vincent E. Boyle visited the banking commission at Lansing Wednesday carrying from the local group the same spirit of good will to the present bank and willingness to cooperate in any plan best for the community and all concerned.

The three held a conference with the commission and were assured that every help possible would be given by the commission in the local situation.

The Milford men were advised by the commission that the fifteen percent pay-off will be authorized within a very few days, but in order to do this the conservator will have to be replaced by a receiver. They were also advised that further reorganization of the old bank is impossible and that the only answer to the bank situation in Milford is a new bank. Plans along this line are already being considered and Times readers will be kept informed as to developments.

It appears that, under recent regulation, a receivership need not be so expensive as in the old days and that the bank's attorney will receive pay only for services rendered.

The conservator states that the money for the pay-off has been collected, is available and ready at any time and that the bank's attorney will be made when permission comes from the state banking department. The bank directors at a meeting Wednesday night gave their official approval to the pay-off.

Another question frequently heard is in regard to "new money" deposited since the bank was reorganized two years ago. It was understood at the time of reorganization that all money deposited after that time should be kept in a trust account and be available at all times for withdrawal. This has been done and funds in this category are ready for withdrawal at any time.

Williams, owners of two pieces of property on South Main street, lying south of the state highway department offices, with a combined street frontage of 86 feet and a depth of 240 feet, submitted a bid of $20,000, the highest of all bids submitted. Each property was entered at $10,000. It was necessary to submit the joint bid to come near the government requirement for street frontage.

While this is the fourth time that the government has advertised for bids for a postoffice site in Plymouth, some believe that because of the big price reductions made on some of the sites offered that they might be given consideration at this time. The government does not accept always the lowest bid offered. In accepting a bid frequently there are other determining factors, the accessibility of one property to the business center of the city having much to do with it, as well as other general surroundings. Bids in the past have been rejected here because government agents regarded them as too high, but those who have followed the efforts of the government to secure a postoffice site believe that because some of the bids offered this time are much lower on offer, the same pieces as property as offered previously and because some of these sites have been rejected, there is a possibility of one of the bids being accepted.

Postmaster Giles has turned the bids over to the agents of the treasury department who will make a check of them in the near future. If some of the reductions are found to be within what the postal department considers reasonable, there is a possibility of one of the bids being accepted.

The total appropriation for a postoffice site and building in Plymouth has been cut from $90,000 to $70,000. Acceptance of any of the bids would leave between $50,000 and $60,000 for a building.

PLYMOUTH BUICK TEAM TO MEET GARDEN CITY, JULY 22

Last Sunday the Show Boat Club of Detroit failed to show up and the local Plymouth Buick base ball team was without a game.

Next Sunday the strong Garden City team will be at Riverside Park. The Garden City boys have a very good record for the season having won seven and lost three while the local team has won eight and lost three. This should be a very good game and a large crowd is expected. Last year Garden City was one of three teams to defeat the local boys.

Sunday, July 29, will be a red letter day in Plymouth for the local baseball fans, when the Plymouth Haggerty team will meet the Buick team in a double header.

This is to be a five game series the winner of three to be champion of Plymouth for the current season. The game on Sunday is scheduled for the first Sunday in September.

Charles O. Ball Helps On Audit

Charles O. Ball, formerly of Plymouth who was appointed to a position in the attorney general's department at Lansing a little over a year ago, has just been delegated by Attorney General O'Brien to make an audit of the state liquor commission's books.

Associated with Mr. Ball in this work will be R. H. Hawkins, another auditor of the department. The audit grows out of the grand jury proceedings that are now being conducted into state affairs in Ingham county. The officers have been looking into affairs of the liquor commission for sometime and the audit that the attorney general is making is the result of a request for detailed information about the way the commission has conducted its business. The work will require a considerable time.

COOL TO PUT A • ELECTRIC RANGE

IN YOUR KITCHEN on Trial* - - -

PROVE FOR YOURSELF THAT ELECTRIC COOKING IS COMFORTABLE COOKING

You have probably heard a great deal about the advantages of an electric range—the feature of COOLNESS, among others. Here is your chance to see for yourself how surprisingly comfortable your kitchen is—even in the warmest weather—when you do your cooking electrically. You can use the electric oven for baking or roasting and it will not noticeably raise the temperature of the room. This is because the oven is well-insulated and semi-sealed. There is no stovepipe to carry the hot air from your oven through the kitchen, heating up the atmosphere, as in a fuel-burning stove. And on the surface units, the heat goes directly from the electric element to the cooking utensil. All of the heat is used for cooking. Little can escape into the room, and there is no hot flame to heat the surrounding air and make the kitchen uncomfortable.

A study of one thousand families using an electric range showed a cooking cost of 1¢

How Michigan Farmers Used Borrowed Funds

More than $2,528,000 that Michigan farmers received through the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul went to pay for improvements, equipment, new buildings, for land and for general agricultural uses, according to an analysis of the loans made in this state in the 12 months ending with June 1. This includes both the regular Land Bank loans and Commissioner's loans. The farmers used $902,000 approximately for repurchase of farms, for stock in their local associations and for fees.

All the rest of the $1,730,300 that they received in that time went to pay off other creditors in other words for refinancing. Farmers' creditors in this state received $14,599,662, divided as follows:

Debts to banks, $6,723,824; Debts to Insurance Companies, 264,487; Taxes, $1,062,285; Debts to merchants, $1,118,784; Debts to others, $6,430,287. Total $14,599,662.

June loans in Michigan were 2,639 for a total amount of $4,613,900, and loans for the entire district in June totaled 11,980, for an aggregate of $30,000,000.

Ford Sales Lead In Wayne County Over All Other Car Makes

Ford also maintained a substantial lead in truck sales, the figures showed.

The official figures showed 4,184 Ford V-8 registrations, of which 3,853 were passenger cars, during the past month, or more than two and a half times as many as the next closest make, and more than four and one-half times as many as the third make.

Truck registrations for the county showed Ford to have a total of 331 units, or approximately three and one-half times as many as the next closest make.

At the Dearborn Branch of the Ford Motor company it was stated that the demand for Ford V-8 passenger cars and trucks is continuing at a steady pace during the early days of July.

Wheat Runs Nine Bushels To Acre

Faced for several years with low prices for their crops, farmers in this vicinity who have just begun to thrash their wheat are getting only eight, nine and ten bushels per acre. Few fields have averaged higher than ten bushels. So light is the wheat yield in this vicinity that some farmers are cutting it with a mowing machine and feeding it to poultry and their stock. Most yields so far reported average about nine bushels to the acre.

On top of the smallest yield of wheat ever experienced in this vicinity, cinch bugs have made their appearance in some localities near here and are destroying whole fields of oats. The Plymouth Mail some three or four weeks ago published a warning issued by the extension department of the Michigan State College of the danger of the cinch bug pest. At that time it was confined chiefly to Monroe county. Now it has spread as far north as Plymouth.

This is one of the worst pests that farmers have to deal with. Its invasion of this part of the state is the first time it has been known to exist here. It is one of the most difficult farm pests there is to get rid of, state college authorities.

Wheat yields of 30, 35 and once in a while almost forty bushels to the acre have been known in this locality in some past years.

Tells Folks He Had Taken Dose Of Poison

When Joseph Paquette, who gave his address as 310 North Porter street, Saginaw, staggered about Liberty street late last Saturday afternoon, he called to people passing that he had taken poison. A hurry-up call was made to the police department and the fellow was rushed to the police station where Dr. Patterson was called to attend him.

"Maybe he has taken soda water or a bottle of spoiled Pluto water, but he hasn't taken poison," said the doctor after he had made an examination of the fellow.

Paquette was released Sunday morning and Chief Vaughn Smith declared as he left the city lock-up that he appeared to be in perfect physical condition.

"Maybe it was the heat or something like that," explained the chief.

Divide Your Dollar WITH YOUR NEIGHBORS!

EVERYBODY has a certain amount of civic pride—that sort of pride which helps make a village a town, and a town a metropolitan city.

The growth of any community is dependent upon the support given its citizens. If you fail in your co-operation your town either stands still or goes back.

If you uphold your town by sustaining it wholeheartedly you help yourself and the community. The theme of this advertisement is: "Help Plymouth; buy at home!" Be neighborly with your dollar.

Divide your dollars among your merchants and others who have the interests of Plymouth at heart. Help them and they will help you to greater values—for increased volume means decreased costs.

Plymouth needs your support and you need the support of the town. Let's get together and share our dollars for a mutual prosperity.
