City Offices Go Begging—Few Out For Commission

Only Two Petitions So Far In Circulation For Primary Election

February 1 Is Last Day— Prospective Candidates Mentioned Year Ago Give No Indication

With next week Friday, February 1, as the final day for filing petitions by candidates for the city commission and with three vacancies to fill as far as known there are but two petitions in circulation.

A petition has been taken out for John Henderson, one of the present commissioners who seeks re-election to the commission.

The terms of Commissioners George Robinson and Arthur Blunk also expire. Mayor Robinson left for Florida Wednesday and is expected to be gone until April.

A petition has been taken out for Ed Wilson, north side hardware dealer and it is understood that it has already been entirely signed up.

The two possible candidates mentioned a year ago have not signified their intention of what they will do this spring. Last spring there was talk of Edwin Schrader and Glenn Smith getting into the contest but they did not take out petitions at that time and so far they have given no indication of what they have in mind this year.

Mr. Schrader's term as president of the Kiwanis club has just expired and during his time as chief executive of the organization, Kiwanis made an exceptional record in providing a bit of happiness for the unfortunate children of the city. Not only was the club's Christmas party for these children its largest and most successful one, but he saw to it that every boy and girl had a chance to see a good show at the Penniman-Allen theatre.

Mr. Schrader was especially active in behalf of all club affairs which had to do with the happiness and aid to children.

At the time when Glenn Smith was mentioned a year ago he was taking an active interest in the county and state park development work about Plymouth. Some of his suggestions were carried out by the county park commission. He believed that considerable employment could be provided for Plymouth men in the county could be induced to do as much work in this locality as possible. In fact on numerous occasions he personally took up with the county officials the suggestions he had made for work projects about Plymouth.

Ed Wilson has been most active in north side affairs and is interested in local civic problems. As matters now stand and no petitions are not taken out for Commissioners Robinson and Blunk there are but two candidates in the field and there are three places on the commission to be filled.

It is possible that early in the week more activity will be shown than has been displayed up to the present time, but apparently there are not many that have a desire to seek a place on the commission. In the old days in Plymouth according to the records, the village election in the spring created more interest than did a national election.

As far as known there has been little or no public disapproval of the work of the old commission and the lack of interest in the forthcoming campaign is just one of the things that is in keeping with the times.

Attends Ceremonies Honoring Schoolmates

Father Frank A. Lefevre has been in Milwaukee this week where he attended ceremonies in which eleven of his old schoolmates were elevated to the high church rank of Monsignor. This place in the Catholic church organization is next to that of a bishop and when it falls to one who has served as a priest, it is a tribute of the church for commendable service. It is rather unusual that there should be so many among one's schoolmates given these high places at the same time.

Anniversary Of D.A.R. Celebrated

A delightful function marked the eighth anniversary of the local D.A.R. chapter, held in the auditorium of the St. John's church. It began with a reception at 12:30. Receiving with Mrs. Sidney Strong, Vice Regent were Mrs. George Schermerhorn, State Regent, Mrs. Reading, Mrs. Hessel, W. Tenhave of Royal Oak State Consulting Registrar, Mrs. Osmond D. Heavenrich of Detroit, State Recording Secretary, Mrs. Archie W. Myers, of Detroit, P. Ponchartrian's Regent, Mrs. Elton B. Flu of Royal Oak, Ezra Parker's Regent, Mrs. Ralph Wisner of Detroit, Louisa St. Clair's Regent, Mrs. R. C. Ford and Mrs. Fred Wilbur of Ypsilanti, Regent and Vice Regent of the Ypsilanti chapter, and Mrs. John Carey of Dearborn, Aquila Sturgis Regent.

Members of the local chapter were present from other cities were Mrs. Frederick Lendrum of Farmington, Mrs. D. Randall, Mrs. John Hubert and Mrs. Kisky of Detroit, and Mrs. Paul from Dayton, Ohio.

The luncheon followed. Grace was offered by Mrs. Donald P. Yerkes, the Chaplain, followed by the reading of the D.A.R. Garter accompanied by Miss Hannah Strasen sang two lovely songs. A delicious luncheon was served at tables made attractive with the national colors, carried out in runners and center pieces of flowers in scarlet and white.

Litened tapers in blue and white further enhanced the tables. An attractive corsage was presented to the State Regent, Mrs. Schermerhorn, who addressed the assembled guests after the luncheon. Very delightfully she illustrated her remarks with amusing stories, but she set forth also most earnestly the ideals on which our government is founded. "Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness" are still our most priceless possession, and there are millions of people who still regard them as such and none other than the members of the D.A.R. She quoted James Russell Lowell's reply to the question, "How long will our country live?" "So long as live the ideals of its founder." There are 57 chapters in Michigan, pledging allegiance to the flag and to the carrying out of these ideals.

Mrs. Carl Bryan the Chapter's Regent who is ill in her home at Northville was reported as slowly improving. Her requests signed by her and sent messages of greeting and regrets to her.

The Regents of the neighboring Chapters most graciously extended greetings and congratulations to the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter for Florida where the chapter program some time was spent in informal visiting.

The February meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Walter Nichol.

Ainger's Herd In High Average

The American Dairy Science Association recently recommended that the rules for Herd Testing be changed in order that a cow tester would be able to handle more cows in a day. The use of composite milk samples was advocated and the number of cows to be tested increased to thirty a day. These changes have been adopted by the Holstein-Friesian Association and it is expected that the present number of nearly 8000 cows in test will be greatly increased.

During the first 75 days of the annual production test being run on the herd of registered Holsteins owned by F. B. Ainger, Jr., Northville, the average yield of 1 lb. or fat per cow has been maintained. Three cows have topped the 100 lb. fat mark for the 75 days, top honors going to the cow named Bettie Pontiac. She has yielded a total of 1134 lbs. fat and 3448.5 lbs. milk. During the last month of the test Roode Roos Johanna led the herd with a yield of 76.3 lbs. fat and 189.9 lbs. milk. Two other cows in this group with a yield of 100 lb. fat mark during the month. Just recently seven cows in the herd completed lactation records in Class C. Roode Roos Bella is the high cow in this group with a record of 4308 lbs. fat and 10077 lbs. milk.

Mrs. Harry Miller of Williamstown has been the rates of her and refreshments were served at the end of the evening's entertainment.

Tuned in on the 74th Congress

Kiwanians Hear Mgr. Jack Adams

Plymouth Kiwanians were entertained Tuesday night by manager Jack Adams of the Red Wings of several of his players. The guest speaker confined his remarks to the game of Hockey and explained many of the little known rules to the club. He gave a vivid account of the workings of the Olympia and said that the ice equipment was so efficient in that building that a wrestling match could be held at night and in the morning hockey players could practice.

The club entertained members of the Plymouth high school football and basketball teams and their coaches and several local hockey fans who had been invited in for the occasion. After the meeting the Kiwanis Bowling alley was turned over to the guests for their use and many an interesting game was held during the evening.

Church Crowded At Celebration

Wednesday night saw the Methodist church dining room filled to capacity with happy and enthusiastic members and friends of the church to witness the ceremony of burning the bonds and notes that had represented the indebtedness of the church. Thirty-five thousand dollars in bonds and eight thousand four hundred dollars in notes were burned while the pastor sang the familiar and appropriate hymn of the church as they never sang before.

The evening began at seven o'clock with a potluck supper. This was followed by a song service led by the Pastor and prayer by Dr. J. A. Halmhuber of Detroit, District Superintendent of the Ann Arbor district. Mrs. J. Sessions sang a group of solos to the great delight of the people. Evered Jolliffe in a few well chosen words voiced the appreciation of the church at the refinancing of the church debt, so that by the generous co-operation of the Plymouth United Savings bank, together with the pledges of money made by the membership, and the assistance of the Methodist Board of Home Missions at Philadelphia, the debt has been reduced from nearly thirty thousand dollars to seven thousand. As a concrete expression of this appreciation he then presented the Pastor with a beautiful easy chair. I. N. Dickerson then presented the Pastor's wife with a generous purse of money.

Dr. J. A. Halmhuber made the address of the evening in which he recounted the change of plans made by the Pastor in the summer of 1933 in order to take up the work of debt refunding, and his perseverance during the year and a half necessary to complete the work. He congratulated the church and the people of Plymouth on their fine support of the Pastor in his work and proposed a new era of spiritual progress for the church in the immediate future. The Pastor explained some of the difficulties that so long delayed the work and complimented the Plymouth United Savings Bank for its splendid co-operation and generous treatment accorded the church in the settlement of its obligations.

Following this came the ceremony of the burning of the bonds. While the congregation sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," William Sutherland and Evered Jolliffe who had signed the bonds as officials of the church burned the first two. They were followed by those present who were members of the Board that incurred the debt, and then by members of the present Board each burned one bond. While this bond was being burned in memory of many who had helped with their money or sacrifice in other years. A touching incident occurred when members of the Women's Missionary Society each burned a bond in honor of Miss Anna Smith, whose memory is greatly beloved by the

Woman's Club Hears Travel Talk

The Travel Talk on Snapshots From Five Continents," given before the Women's Club of Plymouth by Hackley Butler of Ann Arbor last Friday afternoon was a most enjoyable and instructive occasion and received much favorable comment from the large number of club members and their guests who were present.

To those who are not privileged to travel as extensively as Mr. Butler has been able to do, seeing these foreign countries through his eyes is the next best thing, and after viewing upon the screen over one hundred splendidly depicted scenes, one could easily imagine they had visited the places themselves.

Many of the pictures were beautifully tinted in natural colors which added to their value and with a few exceptions the "snapshots" were Mr. Butler's own work.

The showing of these scenes upon the screen was accompanied by a most pleasing and informal description of his travels by the speaker and was interspersed with many clever and witty anecdotes.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. Butler was cordially invited by the chairman of the day Mrs. Lew Price, to again be the guest of the club in the near future.

The splendid screen used for the pictures was very kindly loaned by the Plymouth high school. A very fine musical program was another enjoyable feature of the afternoon and consisted of two lovely vocal solos by Mrs. J. T. Chapman, with Mrs. M. J. O'Connor as accompanist, and two well rendered waltz solos by Mrs. Van Meter of the high school with Norma Roe accompanying.

At the business meeting, following the program, Mrs. Paul Christanson and Mrs. John Root were received as new members of the club.

Mrs. Richard Allen will be chairman of the committee for the meeting on February 1, and Miss Melita Hutzel, Department of Health of Lansing, Michigan, will be guest speaker. Her subject will be "Trends in Social Hygiene."

Cold Wave Sends Mercury Down

Thermometer readings early Thursday morning showed the lowest point of the winter, the average being from three to six below zero. Wednesday proved to be one of the coldest days of the entire winter, although it was clear and the sun shone brightly most of the time.

Fortunately the cold wave was not accompanied by snow. Few ventured out on the highways, and as a result automobile traffic for the day was almost as low as was during the period when ice covered the highways.

The weather report indicates a rise in the temperature in the next day or so.

Every thing indicated that the affair will surpass any social function ever held in the city. Committee reports show a heavy demand for tickets and in two instances over a hundred tickets have been sold. One at the Detroit House of Commerce and the other the Dats Manufacturing Co. Over six hundred tickets have already been disposed of and the committee estimates that at least 1000 will be sold.

Members of the committee are anxious to emphasize the fact that the affair will not be merely a dance that many card tables will be set up in adjoining rooms for those who would like to pass a social evening playing cards or visiting and watching the party.

The Conduct of Public Business

"The people are willing and anxious to do their duty to the state and as a state. They wish and have a right to expect that the public business will be transacted honestly, efficiently and economically, bearing as much similarity to private methods as may be advantageous to the state."—Former Governor Chase S. A Good Appointment

Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald is to be congratulated upon the appointment of Frank F. Ford of Kalamazoo as a member of the state labor commission. In fact, of the numerous excellent appointments already made by the Governor, this is one of his outstanding. It is good for the administration and it is good for the people of Michigan. Mr. Ford has long been one of Kalamazoo's outstanding attorneys. A tireless worker, he has climbed slowly and steadily to the front ranks among Michigan's outstanding lawyers. As a public official in Kalamazoo county he displayed a fearlessness and a tenacity that had much to do with his exceptional success as prosecuting attorney of that important county. It is a foregone conclusion that he will conduct the affairs of the state labor commission's office as they should be. His administration will reflect credit not only upon his own office but that of Governor Fitzgerald as well. We are glad to see this appointment made because Governor Fitzgerald has placed in a prominent place in Michigan affairs an official who should and will from now on become an important figure in state politics.

Settled

The long drawn out dispute between the city of Plymouth and the township of Plymouth over the "division" of funds has been settled. It was a dispute that should never have originated in the first place and the fact that it has dragged along two years without settlement until now is to be regretted. Plymouth in the old days was just a part of the township as the township itself and its board was made up almost entirely of men that lived within the village limits. There is no question but what some of the funds raised for certain purposes in the township were diverted back into the village for village use, and we are glad to see that the city commission saw fit to split "fifty-fifty" with the township in bringing the matter to an end. The settlement was a compromise and brings to an immediate close an unfortunate situation that should have been headed off before it ever started. But that is a thing of the past and now that the township board and the city commission have worked out a satisfactory solution to the problem, let us firmly resolve never to let anything of a similar nature develop again. Both groups did what they thought was for the best interests of those they represented and we congratulate them in bringing about a settlement that all can approve.

An Easy Selection

It will not be many weeks before both the major parties of Michigan will be called upon to nominate for several important state offices a group of candidates. One of the positions to be filled for another term is that of superintendent of public instruction. The Republicans have one active but unacceptable candidate for the office. One outstanding possibility has been mentioned. The active Republican candidate is E. A. Gallup, whose chief accomplishment in life has been to hold on to a public job with a pay check attached to it.

A Responsibility THAT IS YOURS

"SHOULD I buy XYZ stock?" is a type of question frequently put to bankers by their patrons—one that thinking persons will agree is hardly fair to ask any banker.

If you should buy on his recommendation some stock, or make any other speculative investment, the market value on which later goes down, you are going to blame him. On

The other prospective candidate for the Republican nomination is M. W. Keyworth, superintendent of public instruction of Hamtramck's public schools. Mr. Keyworth is regarded as one of the leading educators of the country and if he could be induced to accept the Republican nomination and be elected to the office, he would bring credit and distinction to Michigan's educational circles. He has been honored by Michigan Rotarians and he stands in the front rank of civic leaders. Michigan Republicans are riding for another fall if they fill up their ticket this spring with the Gallup type of candidates.

Pettifogging Congressmen

Why it is that voters election after election will go to the polls and select for highly important offices candidates whose chief qualifications seem to be in the noise they can produce is beyond question. There was recently elected to congress from the Fourth congressional district one of these kind, to take the place of another of his kind. One happened to be a Democrat. His successor happens to be a Republican, but both congressional qualifications of about an even par.

News dispatches printed in some of the newspapers in western Michigan a few days ago told of the rantings of Congressman Hoffman of Allegan about the "deadly fear" the "wisdom" and "rumors" that have filled congressional hallings during recent days in connection with the proposed four billion dollar program suggested by President Roosevelt. Hoffman "fears" that some of this money might be used to the advantage of the party in power.

We wonder if the pettifogging Republican Congressman from the Fourth district would keep millions of men in idleness simply because the party in power might gain some little "advantage" in the use of this money? Would he see the wives and children of these men thrown from their homes, freezing and starving, because of a "fear" that there might be some political jobs come as the result of the appropriation of this money?

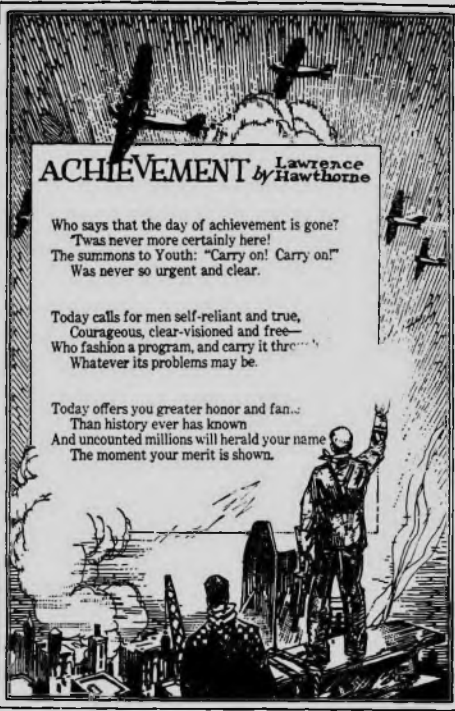

What a shame that the Republican party, supposedly the party of conservatism, the party of clear-thinking and patriotic leadership, should send to congress braying country lawyers, without a thought in their heads as to the new problems of the day or the tribulations of a great country.

Politics is alright in its place, but when it comes to mixing politics with human misery the limit has been reached and the sooner the Republican party, and the Democratic party too as for that matter, clean out the rattle that thinks in terms of political plunder and gain only, the better off will be a distressed nation.

While The Plymouth Mail has been more or less independent in politics, the editor has in the past been affiliated with the Republican party. But our political faith does not keep us from seeing and admitting the sincerity and honesty of the purposes of President Roosevelt. His every act, whether we agree with his methods or not, has been FOR the benefit of the masses of this country. He sees clearly the tremendous problems that are before us and again we say to these Republican congressmen that the people did not send them down to Washington to make fools of themselves, and spend their time jabbering like a lot of frightened wild monkeys.

The Republicans have a RIGHT TO EXPECT from them a sincere, patriotic and honest public service—and that kind of service includes a support to much that President Roosevelt is trying to do.

We cannot help but admire the attitude of both Senators Couzens and Vandenberg. They have differed with the Roosevelt administration, but they have NOT QUESTIONED the sincerity or honesty of purpose of it. If some of these congressional upstarts would keep their blabbering mouths closed and follow the leadership of the senators from Michigan, they would be doing their state and congressional districts a real service.

ACHIEVEMENT by Hawthorne

Who says that the day of achievement is gone?
 'Twas never more certainly here!
 The summons to Youth: "Carry on! Carry on!"
 Was never so urgent and clear.

Today calls for men self-reliant and true,
 Courageous, clear-visioned and free—
 Who fashion a program, and carry it through,
 Whatever its problems may be.

Today offers you greater honor and fame,
 Than history ever has known
 And uncounted millions will herald your name,
 The moment your merit is shown.

SUICIDE? NO

Fifteen-year-old Esther Troxel, who lived down near Fairview put a bullet through her heart the other day and died on the floor of the miserable house of which she had been keeper. An Oceoda county official came to Alpena to buy lumber with which to make a crude casket and this afternoon the mortal remains of the child were given to the earth.

A cock-eyed world did badly by Esther. What a story there was back of that moment in which her father heard the last sad wail of the little girl and rushed into the house to find her dying. It appears that her parents were living apart. The cause of the estrangement has not been revealed. Maybe Esther didn't know it herself, but she was bitterly aware of the unhappiness of the sun-dereed home. She went to school like other girls of her age, but one can imagine the drabness of her life by comparison with the happiness of the other youngsters of her age. Outside school hours, she shouldered responsibilities beyond her years, trying to make the semblance of a home for her father and three brothers.

Then the season of Christmas approached. There was high glee among other teen-age youngsters of the neighborhood as they planned for the festival. Maybe their accounts for the preparations their mothers were making for the great day bore in upon Esther with a special bitterness. Then there came the sudden hope that her mother might be prevailed upon to come up from Ohio to help make Christmas in their home; letters indicated that she would. But Christmas came and went without the return of the mother. Christmas was just another day in the Troxel house, probably even a little worse than the average day, because of the unattainable joys that she glimpsed about her, from the conversations of her companions, through the gaily lighted windows of the neighbors. Something in Esther snapped. Probably Esther didn't know about the breaking of human hearts, but that's what may have happened. Then they found her on the floor. Something actually had happened to her heart.

The coroner said something about suicide. He was wrong. Suicide means self-destruction. Esther did not destroy herself.—Emmett Richards in The Alpena News.

POLITICAL FLEAS

We heard a group of men talking in Lansing the other day. It doesn't make any difference whether they were Democrats or Republicans. We can say they are good citizens. We happen to know them well enough to know that they are primarily interested in GOOD GOVERNMENT. They wondered if it were possible to get the old party-dog cleaned up and groomed up so that he would have a chance in the coming political dog show. They wanted to de-flea him. They wanted to get him out of the back alleys and away from the carrion. They said if they couldn't enter a good, clean, intelligent, well-trained and loyal watchdog into the political dog show this fall—well, if they couldn't they were not going to take much interest in the affair. They admitted that possibly things had to get worse before they would get better. They said they would much rather be defeated supporting a good dog than they would to win supporting a well, a dog like our Goofy.—Schuyler L. Marshall in Clinton County Republican-News.

FARMERS PREFER FERTILIZER

The farmers would appreciate less attention from the brain trust.—O. S. Selby in The Springport Signal.

JUSTICE POTTER

Justice W. W. Potter of the Michigan Supreme Court will be up for re-election again this year. He has made an outstanding record in that office. About the highest compliment that can be paid to him is the fact that back here in Barry county, his home community where he has been known as a citizen and neighbor for years, people have had an ever-increasing amount of respect and admiration for him. This is a test which few persons can meet. Michigan is fortunate that a man of Justice Potter's type prefers to serve in public office rather than entering the more lucrative field of private practice.—Richard Cook in The Hastings Banner.

HE HAS RADIO JITTERS

And now Gov. Fitzgerald says he is going to use the radio as a part of his program. Evidently the Governor doesn't consider the people have already suffered to the breaking point under the present radio program.—Richard Cook in The Rochester Clarion.

LIFELONG SINCE 1932

Speaking of the antics of his own party leaders during recent months, a prominent Democrat of Michigan, one whose name would be instantly recognized in the state if mentioned, said a day or two ago: "The trouble with the Democratic party in Michigan is that it is dictated to by a lot of leaders who have been lifelong Democrats since November, 1932."

The Democrat of former days was highly respected. He prided himself on his party affiliations and rightfully so. He believed in the principles of his own party and unselfishly supported them. He prided himself that he voted in accordance with those principles and not to profit by fat political jobs. Today this self-same Democrat finds himself outside the councils of his party while greedy job-seekers run the show. The public still holds in high regard the sincere Democrat who held to principles. The same public is turning against the group who for selfish purposes would sacrifice the interests of the people and the good name of the party for monetary gain.—Verne Brown in the Ingham County News.

Home Furnishing Group Holds Meeting

The third regular meeting of the Plymouth Home furnishings group was held January 21 at the home of Mrs. C. W. Ferguson. During the short business meeting it was decided to ask each member to donate fifty cents. This money is to be given, earned, or obtained by hook or crook and is to be used to send the local leaders to East Lansing for Farm Women's Week next July. The subject of the discussion for the afternoon was Using Accessories as Decoration. The discussion was very ably given by Mrs. Jesse Tritten and Mrs. Herick the latter substituting for Mrs. W. A. MacLeod. A definition of accessory was given as "a decorative article to express personality, completeness, color, etc." Accessories are used to complete a room, to add color. They need not be new, old and often handmade articles make better accessories than many new ones. They should be genuine, not imitations, as candles which will burn not wooden ones, real flowers not paper, or they should be definitely not real, as glass flowers, which are appropriate in some formal or very large rooms. Color in accessories must be repeated somewhere else in the room, as in a rug, picture, or drapery, and all colors should be keyed. Accessories should be useful, either in a practical way as a clock, or in satisfying ones desire for beauty or completeness, as a picture or wall hanging.

Seven questions were given which sum up the whole subject:

1. Am I using too many accessories?
2. Are all my accessories beautiful in color?
3. Are all my accessories good in design?
4. Are most of my accessories useful?
5. Do I have some things in my house which I have not appreciated, and which might make good accessories?
6. Am I using any article of accessories which is imitation?
7. Are my accessories placed effectively so I may enjoy them most?

The leaders brought with them a most complete and varied assortment of accessory articles, with which they gave a very interesting demonstration of accessory grouping for every room in the house, as well as groupings of articles of different colors, textures, and weights.

The next meeting of the group will be held February 25, at the home of Mrs. Henry Hondorp, 1432 West Ann Arbor St. The subject will be Reseating chairs.

Speaking of competition between radio and the press, did you ever see your name in print in radio?

Manager William Hestor of the Plymouth office of the Western Union states that the company has laced its nationwide system of telegraph offices at the disposal of the President's Birthday Ball Committee for receiving 25c from each person who places his signature on a multiple-signature birthday greeting.

"Happy birthday, Mr. President. I am proud to know that the cost of sending this greeting will help in the great fight against infantile paralysis, to which you have given your leadership and loaned your birthday."

Signatures from every city, town and hamlet will be mailed to New York where they will be bound into what probably will be the greatest birthday greeting in history. One hundred per cent of the money will be turned over to the National Birthday Ball Committee, which will arrange for proper credit for each community.

All funds accepted at our offices shall be accounted for daily on form 168-C as "Roosevelt Fund." Final settlement will be made in one sum at New York.

L. I. Tefft is in Chicago this week on business.

On Tuesday evening a lovely dinner was given by Mrs. P. W. Carley at her home on North Harvey street honoring the birthday of her husband.

New Government Home Loan Plan To Benefit Farmers

"Our farmers and people living in the smallest communities will benefit as much as the city dweller from the Better Housing Program," was the comment today of George Smith, chairman of the local campaign committee, in stressing the wide scope of Title I of the National Housing Act.

"We have learned through the United States Department of Agriculture," he said, "that out of every 100 farmhouses, probably 50 are under the desired standard of livability; that 15 need new foundations; 15 to 20, new roofs; 10 to 15, new floors; 10, new walls; and a large number lack running water and bath facilities."

"This modernization program offers the farmer the same means of bringing his property up to modern standards—also of improving his barns and other buildings—as is given the city home owner."

"Under this plan, the money for such improvements is available through a local approved financial institution as a character loan, payable by farming-income seasons over a period of 3, and in certain cases 5 years. The borrower is fully protected from excessive financing charges."

"Here is a brief outline of the procedure: 1. A modernization loan is solely for the purpose of repairing, altering or improving the farm home, barn, silo, shop, store, or other building. Diversion of the money to any other purpose is prohibited."

"2. The loan cannot be for less than $100 or for more than $2,000. In addition, the borrower must have a regular source of income equal to at least five times the annual payments."

"3. The loans can be made for a term up to 3 years (5 years in special cases), but may be paid in full earlier than the maturity date if the borrower desires."

"4. Maximum charges, including interest and all fees, cannot exceed an amount equivalent to 5 percent per year per $100 original face amount of the note."

"5. The property owner files a property owner's credit statement with the bank showing his financial condition, sources and amount of income and other information necessary to determine his ability to repay the loan."

"If the bank considers the improvements advisable and the property owner able to meet the payments when due, it can advance the money on the personal note of the property owner. No endorses or cosigners are required, and no mortgage or collateral security is necessary, unless state laws or bank officials demand it."

Ignorance And Poverty Blamed

Just plain ordinary ignorance is one of two factors most often responsible for the many needless deaths from tuberculosis in Michigan, the Michigan Tuberculosis Association has declared in its publication "Health," released this week.

"Unintelligent handling of the disease problem by the sick person, by his family and by public officials, offers human sacrifice to the deadly parasites," an article in the magazine stated. "Personal poverty prepares them for the kill. Public poverty prevents them from reaching the medical havens where lives are saved from tuberculosis."

The great majority of the nearly 2,500 persons who die needlessly of tuberculosis in Michigan each year die not because they could not have been saved by medical science. They die because two factors, not medical, stand with death to destroy them. These two factors are poverty and lack of intelligence.

Facts to support these statements were derived in a study of 500 of the 1,031 deaths among Michigan young people under thirty, which occurred in 1933. Twenty-seven stories of the contributing factors to these deaths are included in the present issue of "Health."

As "Health" was being delivered to its readers this week, an investigator of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association was already busy continuing the death study, concentrating now, with the aid of cooperating agencies, on deaths which occurred in 1934. The investigation will be continued, said authorities, in a search for more facts to aid the fight against the disease.

The investigation is just part of the program of the Michigan Tu-

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 406): "We can, and ultimately shall, so rise as to avail ourselves in every direction of the supremacy of Truth over error. Life over death, and good over evil, and this growth will go on until we arrive at the fullness of God's idea, and no more fear that we shall be sick and die."

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH
Richard W. Neale, Pastor
The first two verses of the Bible in the Light of Modern Science," is Pastor Neale's sermon topic for this Sunday evening at 7:30. We have every reason to believe the Bible. Its first verse states that, "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." The text sets no time limits. Indeed, the Scriptures indicate a definite lapse of time between the original creation described in verse one and the new order spoken of in verse three. Verse two gives ample scope for all the geologic ages. True science cannot ever successfully discredit the Bible. God's Word has already discredited the guesses of pseudo-scientists.
Modern evolutionary teachings rapidly appear to be fables, not facts, when the Bible is clearly taught and rightly understood. See for yourself!
Our aim is to exalt the Christ of the Bible; and to prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that the Bible is God's Word. Hear this frank, fearless message, bristling with facts which will appeal to the open minded.
Written questions will be received gladly, and answered publicly.
We extend an open challenge to debate this question publicly with any qualified person in Plymouth.

DEPRESSION IN Nation Is Over
The depression is over as far as Santa Claus is concerned, according to reports of retailers throughout the country, of their credit sales and collections during the month of December. 24,104 retail stores in 76 cities—according to the announcement just received from the Research Division of the National Retail Credit Association by the Plymouth Merchants Credit Bureau, reported an average increase of 9.9 per cent in retail collections and an average increase of 18.0 per cent in credit sales for the month of December over December, 1933. This is the fourth consecutive month of steady increases in both classifications—a very encouraging sign that retail business is definitely on the upgrade.
The most encouraging feature in these reports is the reflected optimism of the buying public. People bought more freely this Christmas; they bought better merchandise and did less "bargain-shopping" and in spite of the heavy holiday buying they continued to pay up their old bills more quickly than they have been doing for the past few years. This is interpreted as proof that the public in general is in better condition financially than it was a year ago. This conclusion is borne out specifically by the enthusiasm in new models and the increased sales of automobiles at the auto shows throughout the country.

Old Redford Families Plan Cemetery Fence
Today, Friday, January 25, the Ladies Division of the Descendants of Redford Pioneers will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bench, Redford avenue, in Redford for an all day session with a co-operative dinner at 1 o'clock. A number of ladies from one of the Detroit D.A.R. chapters will assist with the afternoon program.
The descendants of the Redford pioneers are anxious to rebuild a part of the fence around the Redford cemetery and they already have a part of the money needed for this purpose. Their plan to finance the work is rather interesting. They hope to have each descendant of one of the pioneers buried there pay for at least one foot of the fence. Any of the residents of Plymouth who are descendants of the early settlers of Redford are invited to be present.
This is the first sermon of a series on "The First Page of the Bible in the Light of Modern Science."
Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the pastor will conclude the fifth chapter of Matthew with the subject, "Turning The Other Cheek."
If you're a stranger, or lonely and discouraged, come and fellowship with this friendly, Bible church. "You will feel our welcome."
Sunday School is at 11:15. Prayer and Praise Service, Wednesday, 7 p.m.
Young People's takes the form of a social this Friday evening. They will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mattinson at 317 E. Pearl St. at 7:30. You are always welcome.

Former Resident Marries At Cass City
A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Thoma of Cass City, when their daughter, Eleanor Ruth, was united in marriage to Ebon E. Cooke, also of Cass City. The Rev. Curtis of the First Baptist church of that city performed the ceremony, after which a dainty luncheon was served to friends and relatives at the bride's home.
The happy couple are stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Ebert on Liberty street and spending their honeymoon with Plymouth and Detroit friends.
Mrs. Cooke was a well known Plymouth girl and a graduate of Dearborn high school and is popular among her friends wherever she goes. Mr. Cooke is a well known and popular young man of Cass City and their many friends wish them a long, prosperous and happy wedded life.

OBITUARIES

CHARLES LIVRANCE
Charles Livrance was born in Germany on the 25th day of October of the year 1857. He was received into the Lutheran Church through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism and at the age of seven emigrated with his parents to this country.

On February 13th, 1888 he was united in wedlock with Ida Heide at St. Peter's Ev. Lutheran Church of Plymouth. This marriage was graciously blessed and protected for almost 47 years.

Nine years ago he retired and came to live with his wife in the beautiful home among the pines out on Bradner Road in Phoenix Subdivision. Since then they have been members of the local Lutheran church.

He was known to neighbors and his many friends as a man of an unusually unassuming and benign nature, but also of a sterling integrity of character; his word was his bond. It is almost difficult to state that his departure leaves a vacancy among us, hard to fill.

He was called home at six o'clock Friday evening January 18th, having attained the grand old age of 77 years, 2 months and 23 days. Despite the affliction we are confident that his last thoughts were thoughts of great peace; for practically to the very end he responded to those sacred things which he had learned as a child and cherished faithfully during an industrious and useful life.

He leaves to mourn him his devoted wife, Ida, four children, Henry Walter, Herbert and Mrs. John B. Meyer, seven grandchildren, one brother, William, one sister, Mrs. William Brassow and many near and dear friends. The burial took place Monday afternoon from St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Pastor Edgar Hoencke officiating. Interment was made at Riverside Mausoleum.

MRS. MILDRED BERGERT
Mrs. Mildred Bergert, wife of Henry Bergert of Salem township passed away at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, Wednesday evening, January 23. The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, Plymouth. At the time of going to press the funeral arrangements had not been made.

INFANT DAUGHTER
Infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Scott, who resided at 39124 Ford Road in Canton township, passed away Thursday morning, January 24. The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, Plymouth. At the time of going to press the funeral arrangements had not been made.

BURT H. HEWER
Burt H. Hewer who resided in Livonia township, Michigan passed away at the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, on Sunday morning, January 20th, at the age of 15 years. He was the son of the late Richard and Ann Hewer, brother of George, Stuart, Wilbur and Esie, all of Canada; Norman, Frank and Charles of Plymouth; Mrs. John Storie of Detroit, Mrs. Albert Gerhart of Los Angeles, California and Alex Hewer of Vancouver, B. C. The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, Plymouth, from which place funeral services were held Wednesday, January 23rd, at 2 p.m. Interment in Livonia cemetery. Rev. Robert Davies of Newburg officiating.

FRED BURCH
Fred Burch, for many years one of Plymouth's best known residents, died at St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor, January 19 after a long illness. Mr. Burch was taken ill about two years ago and since that time his condition has gradually grown worse, in spite of constant medical treatment and hospital aid.

He was born in Plymouth February 27, 1870 and made his home in this place for a great many years. It was in 1900 when he went to Northville and entered into the hotel business with W. A. Ely. Some six years later he returned to Plymouth and remained in business here until 1914 when he went to Detroit where he entered the employ of Ford Motor company. A few years ago he retired, going to Cooley lake in Oakland county where he resided until his illness. At that time he returned to Northville where he has resided during the past two years.

He has always been an active sportsman and owned a hunting lodge in the north where in company with Mrs. Burch he spent most of the summers and early fall hunting and fishing. It was his special delight to have his friends spend a few days with him during the summer in the north enjoying with him his outdoor life.

Mrs. Burch, a brother Charles of Ellettsville, and sister, Mrs. Frank Durr, of this place, survive. A host of friends also mourn his passing.

JOHN W. PROCTOR
John W. Proctor, second son of George and Sarah Proctor was born in Canton township, April 3, 1892, and passed away at Deaconess Hospital, January 17, 1935.

At the age of 21 he was united in marriage to Mary Martin of Nankin and to this union two children were born who died in infancy.

He was a resident of Nankin township nearly all his life where he was engaged in the lumber and threshing business with his father.

In 1920 he moved to Plymouth and took up carpenter work in which business he was actively engaged when he was stricken with his last illness. He was the husband of Mary Proctor, and brother of Mrs. Edith Kahrl of this city. Mrs. Ethel Sayre of Detroit and Orlo Proctor of Wayne, these relatives besides six nieces and nephews and a host of friends survive. The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, from which place funeral services were held Sunday, January 20th, 1935 at 3 p.m. Interment in Riverside Cemetery. Rev. E. King of Detroit officiating.

FRANK MOORE
Frank Moore, aged 63 years, who was born in Plymouth but who has resided in Redford for the past 35 years, died at his home in that place on January 19th, and was buried last week Thursday. He will be well remembered by older residents of Plymouth. His father conducted a store here for many years. His wife and son survive, also one sister, Marion Heslip, and a brother, Keith Moore.

GEORGE A. GITTINS
George A. Gittins who resided at 1107 W. Ann Arbor street, passed away Saturday afternoon, January 19th, at the age of 54 years. He was the husband of Edna Gittins and father of Douglas of South Bend, Indiana, and brother of Dr. Perry Gittins, Clarence and Cass Gittins, all of Detroit; Mrs. Stanley Baker of Los Angeles, California and Mrs. A. C. MacDonald of Lake Bluff, Ill. The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, and later taken to his home, from which place funeral services were held Tuesday, January 22, at 2 p.m. Interment in Riverside Cemetery. PETER FINDS DOTTY THE TREE SPARROW

HAVING been reminded of Dotty the Tree Sparrow, Peter Rabbit was eager to find him and learn how he had fared through the winter. He was at a loss just where to look for Dotty until he remembered a certain weedy field, along one edge of which the bushes had been left growing.

So Peter hurried over to the weedy field and there, sure enough, he found Dotty and a lot of his friends. They were very busy getting their breakfast. Some were clinging to the weed stalks picking the seeds out of the tops, while others were picking up seeds from the ground. It was cold; Rough Brother North Wind was doing his best to blow up a snow storm. It wasn't at all the kind of a day when anybody would expect to find anyone in high spirits, but Dotty was. He was even singing as Peter came up, and all about Dotty's friends and relatives were twittering as merrily as if it were the beginning of spring instead of winter.

Dotty was very nearly the size of Little Friend the Song Sparrow, and looked somewhat like him save that his breast was clear ashy-gray, all but a little dark spot in the middle, the little dot from which he has been named. He wore a chestnut cap, almost exactly like that of Chippy the Chipping Sparrow. It reminded Peter that Dotty is often called the Winter Chippy.

"Welcome back," cried Peter. "It does my heart good to see you!" "Thank you, Peter," twittered Dotty happily. "In a way, it is good to know an old friend is glad to see me." "Well, it is good," declared Peter very emphatically. "At least there are few enough folks about in winter, and I don't know of anyone I enjoy having for a neighbor more than I do you."

"Speaking of Nests, Do You Build in a Tree?" Inquired Peter.

replied Dotty. "Really I am a ground bird, although I am called a tree sparrow. Most of us sparrows spend our time on or near the ground."

"I know," replied Peter. "I'm very fond of the Sparrow family. I just love your cousin, Chippy. I wish he would stay all winter."

Dotty laughed a tinkling little laugh, good to hear. "Cousin Chippy would starve to death," she declared. "He eats worms and bugs and has to go where he can get them. I eat seeds and can get plenty here, so I stay."

Government To Start Big Park West Of The City

7,700 Acres In Northern Washtenaw County To Be Taken Over

Because of the fact that it is located a short driving distance west from Plymouth, local residents will be greatly interested in the approval just given by the federal government of the establishment of a project for the reclamation of sub-marginal lands surrounding the village of Waterloo in northwestern Washtenaw and northeastern Jackson counties.

The Waterloo Project involves approximately 7,700 acres of sub-marginal lands and represents an investment of between $150,000 and $200,000 on the part of the Federal Government. It was announced.

Under direction of DeForest Platt, project investigator, options have been taken in the area since last summer. It is understood that the Federal Government is beginning actual purchases.

The Waterloo project includes property in Grass Lake, Washtenaw and Leoni townships in Jackson county and Lyndon and Sylvan townships in Washtenaw county. A large portion of the area is in poor or deserted farms. Nine lakes are included as well as a considerable marsh. About 135 persons are now residing on the property.

The Waterloo project represents the first evidence in Michigan of the federal program for the reclamation of sub-marginal lands from agriculture and the establishment of an area for the practice of practical land utilization. It is a part of the program under which the Federal Government is looking toward the shrinking of out of competitive production of some 50,000,000 acres of sub-marginal farm lands, as a permanent remedy for over-production of farm crops. Under this program those first affected are farmers on lands too poor or so poorly located as to permit decent living conditions and where farms were obviously failing and becoming economic or social liabilities.

The Waterloo area was selected because of the low agricultural productivity of its soils, according to Director P. J. Hoffmaster of the Department of Conservation. "While there are several million acres of such lands in southern Michigan, the Waterloo section was picked for the reason that it is surrounded by one of our best farming districts and is close to the metropolitan area of the state which require the recreational facilities the project will offer in the future."

Much of the preliminary work which resulted in Washington acceptance of the project was done through a committee appointed by the State Planning Commission and headed by Dean E. L. Anthony of the Department of Agriculture, Michigan State College. The committee membership represents several interested agencies.

With the government now actually making purchases in the area persons living on the property will probably be given the alternatives of selling for cash and moving from the project; of using rehabilitation machinery to relocate elsewhere; or to obtain leases of home-sites to stay on and work neighboring lands.

It is expected that through the practice of a sound land utilization program in the area, the project will eventually become self-supporting. It is probable that

CCC camps will be assigned to Waterloo to carry on development work. Small isolated plots of good land will remain in production as subsistence farms for project workers. Land best adapted for forestry will be reforested. Erosion will be controlled. However, use of the project for recreational purposes will be dominant in considering development. Hoffmaster said. All standard "park" facilities will be included. Bathing beaches and picnic grounds will be built. Camp facilities for boys and girls will be constructed. Lakes and streams will be improved to increase the fish population. One tract of marsh will be reflooded to maintain a capacity population of ducks.

While definite information has not been received as to the actual mechanism for future administration, it was probable that development will be under the direction of the U. S. Parks Service with the tract to be turned over later to the State Department of Conservation for administration.

Approval of the Waterloo Project came as the result of recommendations made by Paul V. Brown of the District office of the United States Parks Service, Indianapolis; and R. I. Nowell, regional director of the Federal Land Program, Madison, Wis.

It is expected that actual development work will begin April when the District office of CCC camps will be established near Waterloo with the beginning of the fourth enrollment period.

Question Box By ED WYNN The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn: A young man invited me to the Metropolitan opera house where they were singing the opera "Aida." I went with him, but the minute we got in the theater he started talking to me and never stopped the entire evening. I couldn't tell you what the opera was about, as he talked so much I only heard him. He has invited me again to go next week to the opera "Il Trovatore." Shall I accept?

Sincerely,
I. LOVEJOY.

Answer: By all means accept and go with him, especially if you have never heard HIM in "Il Trovatore."

Dear Mr. Wynn: I have 17 children and I am the father of these 17 children and I want to take my 17 children to the circus to look at the animals, but I cannot afford to buy 17 tickets for my 17 children to look at the animals. What shall I do?

Yours truly,
I. M. SIMPLE.

Answer: Take your 17 children to the circus and ask for the manager. When he finds out that the 17 children are your children and that you are the father of the 17 children you won't have to buy tickets to go in and take a look at the animals. He'll bring the animals out to take a look at you.

Dear Mr. Wynn: While on my vacation, at the seashore, I saw something shaking and about a mile out in the ocean. As I did not have my binoculars I could not make out exactly what it was that was shaking so in the water. My curiosity is aroused. Can you tell me what it was that kept shaking and shaking, all the time, in the ocean? I beg to remain,
Sincerely,
ALMA MOTHER.

Answer: From your description, of the way the thing you saw shaking so much and the fact that it was in the ocean, it must have been a Nervous Wreck.

Old Turk Ahead Of Time, Sets On Eggs

Emory S. Ford of Nine Mile road, owns a turkey that is overly ambitious. The summer season is far too short for that bird. Over four weeks ago—about the time of our heaviest snow—the family missed said turkey from their flock, and there were various imaginings as to the manner of its disappearance. But a few days later a hole was discovered in the side of a hay stack and closer observation disclosed the lost turkey "mothering" a setting of eggs. The eggs, thirteen in number, took up so much space that the fowl was hardly able to cover them with its wings.

Time required to hatch turkey eggs is four weeks, and this bird had more than completed the time required, before it evidently became discouraged and left the nest, eggs and all. Had the weather been warmer she probably would have strutted proudly among her kind with a dandy brood of young turkeys.

Seldom does a fowl of any kind choose to set during the winter months, so the above incident is considered quite extraordinary.—South Lyon Herald.

Revival of Railroad Purchases is Necessary to National Recovery

The railroads are not only sellers of transportation; they are billion-dollar buyers of equipment and supplies. In 1929, their purchases meant jobs for 2,000,000 workers.

Today the railroads are not buying. Their revenues have been so curtailed by unfair, unregulated competition that their buying power is sharply restricted.

The railroads want to buy. They will buy when and if their purchasing power is restored.

To increase railway purchases railway earnings must be increased.

Legislative fair play for the railways will mean railway recovery.

Railway recovery will mean increased railway buying and jobs, again, for millions.

Our State Legislature and National Congress, now convened, should eliminate the unfairness in the competition between the railways and other agencies of transportation.

Rocks Lose To Ecorse 31-27

Playing in what was considered the fastest game of the past two years, Plymouth Rocks were defeated last Friday by a score of 31-27. Although Plymouth made a greater number of baskets they missed opportunities to make all their free shots count.

Lofty "Big John" Backlar proved to be the biggest scoring threat of Ecorse with a total of eight points to be tied with Vollmar for high point honors. Trondle's speed and quick thinking also added six points to the total.

However, Plymouth captain H. Williams took away all honors by making the most points of any player with nine points. A scoring with a half minute left by Plymouth ended the game with excitement running high.

Backlar opened the game sinking the first of his two foul shots. Horvath also took a free shot and then sunk a field goal. David Gates quickly followed with two baskets to tie the score. Vollmar ended the quarter with a basket.

Vollmar made a foul shot and Schifle taking a good pass from H. Williams made a basket. Gordon for J. Williams. Backlar easily slipped the ball through the basket for another field goal. Plymouth then took time out. Shoemaker for H. Williams. Forney for Rhea. Jack Gordon then tried some long shots and with a perfect aim sunk two of them to put Plymouth in the lead until Backlar again made a basket.

The half clearly showed the teams to be about evenly matched with Ecorse leading eleven to ten. Rhea replaced Forney. Vollmar and Gordon each made baskets. Horvath and Vollmar each made field goals, after which Shoemaker replaced Williams. Backlar sunk one of two free shots and Cline was substituted for Gates and J. Williams for Schifle. A riflelike shot from the right corner of the floor by Harold Williams increased the Plymouth score two points. Backlar again sunk a goal shot. Trondle and Vollmar made baskets. Schifle for Gordon to start the last quarter and Gates for Cline.

Harold Williams then sunk the only free shot of the game for Plymouth. Trondle and Horvath each made baskets as did J. Williams and H. Williams. Kinsey for J. Williams took a pass from Schifle under the basket. Kinsey put one through for two points. Ecorse took time out. Backlar sunk another free shot. Schifle made a basket after which Gates was taken from the game because of four fouls. J. Williams taking his place. Rhea made two free shots and was replaced by Craig. Forney for Horvath. Reddick for Backlar and Kennedy for Vollmar. With less than one minute to play the Rocks started some of the fastest basketball of the year but J. Williams and H. Williams each made but one basket and did not overcome the four point Ecorse lead.

At the beginning of the second quarter Rogers fouled Rogers who made the free shot. Eckles again fouled Eckles who again succeeded in the free throw. Gilles fouled Horvath who made one free throw. Robinson was substituted for Gilles. Tabula made a field goal. Eckles fouled Zielasko who made the free throw. Zielasko was substituted for Eckles. Zielasko fouled Tabula who made two free throws.

Blessing fouled Joblonsky who failed to make the free throw. Simo fouled Rogers who made the free throw. Moe ended the third quarter by making a field goal. Competition Column

Junius heard Miss Gertrude Stein a while ago and he got to wondering what she might think of Plymouth high school. Consequently this column will largely be an imaginary record of what she might think of us. Miss Stein on the high school cat:

"If a kitten in the class Can not alas, Alas, a kitten In the class Cannot alas." Miss Stein on the basket ball team:

"A battle ship sailor Can't be a marine, But the worst of the games Have yet to be seen." Miss Stein on the J-Hop artists:

"If pesky portrait painters Push pieces of preponderous paper Past public passageways, Picture the painted portrait picture Of President Washington."

The above is in free verse and is very onomatopoeitic. Yours truly, Junius II.

Debaters Entertained By River Rouge

Several members of the Plymouth High debate squad attended a party given last Wednesday evening by River Rouge and Dearborn for debate teams of the following towns: Monroe, Wyandotte, Trenton, Ecorse, and Plymouth.

The entertainment for the evening consisted of a mock debate in which four members of the Dearborn team participated. The topic for debate was: Resolved that the girls should sit in the back of the room when men teachers preside. The second feature was a mechanical man impersonated by a student of River Rouge and operated by David Hertzberg. Following this, Robert Ross of River Rouge explained the National Forensic League. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing after which light refreshments were served.

Nowadays

The passage of an old age pension act and unemployment insurance act is expected in Congress within a short time. The President has given his personal endorsement to these measures. The old age pension proposed would give thirty dollars a month to each person over sixty who was not earning enough to live in common health and decency. In time it is hoped to raise the pension to one hundred dollars a month. Although this pension plan is considered to be a compromise with the Townsend Plan, advocates of the Townsend plan show general disapproval of the new proposal. Townsend would give $200 a month to every one over sixty regardless of their financial status. Even though several million persons have petitioned Congress for adoption of this plan, general opinion is that it would be impractical if not unwelcome.

The unemployment insurance bill would provide pay for sixteen weeks to every person unemployed. While such a plan would provide great relief it would do nothing to eliminate the cause of unemployment, and since it is effective for only sixteen weeks, it would not even affect lasting relief in period of longer unemployment such as the past five years.

Girl Scouts Sponsored By Rotary

The Girl Scouts have been working very hard the past six weeks studying all tenderfoot requirements. Every girl has passed the tests and is now ready to be invested as a tenderfoot scout.

The meetings have been irregular because of the fact that several of the girls are registered in another class that meets the same hour the regular meeting is held. Scout meetings have been held after school and sometimes after supper. During the second semester all meetings will be held during school hours.

The Plymouth troop is very fortunate in having the Rotary Club to sponsor their organization. The success of any troop depends not only upon the girls but also upon the sponsoring organization and the troop committee; the troop committee has not yet been decided.

The girls will be registered with Detroit Girl Scouts, a league, which makes them eligible to go to Camp Inisfree this summer.

Drama Club Starts New Play

The Drama Club has started a new play entitled "His First Dress Suit." This play is to be given for the Women's Club in the near future. The play is a one-act comedy about a young fellow who is going to a wedding, but he has lost his dress suit. Finally the wedding is called off because he cannot find a suit. The young brother is played by Jean Brecklehurst. The boy who was to be married is taken by Jack Selle. Elizabeth Whipple plays the part of the girl who was to be married. Eva Scarpulla plays the part of the mother of the bride.

Last Monday evening two plays were given at Newburg for the P.T.A. by the Drama Club. This Friday evening two plays will be given for the Rotary Club at the Hotel Mayflower by the Senior Drama Club.

Starkweather Notes

The second grade has been studying the care of the teeth. As a summary of the work they made a tooth booklet showing the cross section of a bad and of a healthy one. In their art class they have studied "Don Carlos on Horse Back." Last week the children made attractive book marks in different colors.

The pupils in the fourth grade have spent most of their time on review. They have painted attractive furniture in bright colors. The spelling honors for this month went to Dorothy Marie Fisher, Raymond Svycara, and Evelyn Phillips.

Torch Members Hold Home Meeting

About sixteen members of the Torch Club were entertained by vice president Lloyd Trinka in an evening of fun at his home on Schoecraft Road. The boys met at various places and came together at Lloyd's about 7:30 o'clock. The evening was spent in playing games such as ping-pong in which Irvin Prough successfully defended his club championship. Light refreshments were served.

Torch Club Elects New Officers

The officers for the second semester in Torch Club were chosen by ballot in a meeting held Friday, Jan. 18. The new president is Tom Brock, a sophomore, who held that office during the second semester last year and who was secretary this last term. The presidency went to Jack Birchall, who is also a sophomore, and also sophomore class treasurer. The new officers are: re-elected Dick Gillis treasurer, and Edward Bassett, secretary.

Retiring president Don Blessing introduced each of the new officers and asked them to say a few words. This was the last regular meeting to be attended by some of the 10A members including president Blessing who goes into the H-Y Club by passing into Grade 11.

Ad. Lib.

You'd think these Seniors would get some sense. What with graduation only a semester off they brightest boys in PHS should catch on to such bewhiskered old gags such as that left handed monkey wrench Butch Burley spent a Saturday afternoon looking for it recently.

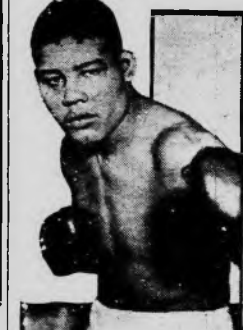

Howe, the blue ribbon champion of them all concerns our old friend Norvall (Slush) Bovee. It is well known that Slush (Bovee) spends most of his time behind the counters of the local A & P store. He did not say that he works. The Ad Lib is truthful! He was explaining how quickly he had "caught on" to the grocery business the first day and of course every one was very much impressed. He did not mention, however, this little incident.

The characters are "Slush" Bovee, Mrs. X and the manager. Slush: Good morning, Mrs. X. Mrs. X: I want a bar of soap and have any cackel berries this time of the year? Slush: What? berries? Mrs. X: Cackel berries, C-A-C-K, etc. Bovee: I er I'll ask Mr. Stark. (To manager) (Yells). Do we have any cackel berries? Mr. Stark: Sure. Bovee: Where? Mr. Stark: Down at the end of the counter. Bovee: (Looks) I don't see any. Say how much are they? Mr. Stark: Thirty five cents a dozen? Bovee: You sell them by the dozen? Mr. Stark: Sure. Bovee: I can't find them—we must be out. Mrs. X: Cackel berries are better known as EGGS! And that should illustrate that even Seniors may be as dumb as they look. Tsk, Tsk, Bovee, even Trimbler knows that one.

Here is a living room that apparently has everything such a room should have. It is attractive, comfortable, inviting, . . . and the parents of these children probably think they have overlooked nothing in providing pleasant, congenial surroundings. But they have forgotten one important thing.

THESE CHILDREN WILL BE NEAR-SIGHTED if they continue to strain their eyes in the poor light on the living room floor. (Figures show that twenty out of every hundred children of school age have defective vision.) This lovely room does not guard against eyestrain because it does not provide light for all occasions. Unknowingly, the parents are slowly DAMAGING THEIR CHILDREN'S VISION because the light in the room is simply decorative and not bright enough for comfortable, easy seeing.

It will pay you to check the lighting in every room of your home, and make sure that it is adequate for comfortable, easy seeing. The Lighting Recipe Chart shown here simplifies the problem.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

The Week at Lansing

(By FRANK D. BROWN)
Special Correspondent

The third week of the legislative session, like the two preceding ones, has contributed little or nothing toward the speedy adjournment asked for by the chief executive, albeit the past several days have produced some mighty startling disclosures that were climaxed late last Thursday afternoon by the first arrest growing out of the Detroit recount controversy.

Although some committee work is being done in both houses, actual legislation is at a complete stand still and will be until the nine-man senate committee has completed its investigation of the frauds and irregularities alleged to have occurred in the recount of Wayne county ballots cast last November for secretary of state. Senator Andrew L. Moore, of Pontiac, chairman of the senate group has announced that the inquiry will be brought to a close Monday and a report of the findings submitted at once to the entire senate. With the investigation disposed of it is expected the coming week will see the legislative machine gradually gain momentum with some tangible results accomplished before many more days have elapsed.

Hearings before the committee, which is composed of six republicans and three democrats, began Wednesday morning. Created for the purpose of investigating the alleged fraudulent acts of one of its own members, Senator Anthony J. Wilkowski, the committee has been clothed with absolute authority to subpoena witnesses and impound such evidence as poll books, tally sheets, ballot boxes and mailots to assist in sifting a multitude of charges and writing at the true facts of what really happened on the fourth floor of the Barium Tower in Detroit the last four days of December.

Attorney General Harry S. Toy is personally directing the presentation of evidence before the committee. An amazing story of outright fraud and criminal manipulation has been unfolded as each additional witness has related his version of the recount and what took place behind the scenes during those four days.

Witnesses, who were employed as recount workers, have related that they were instructed to give the "long count" to a certain candidate because "1400 is depended upon it." A story has been told by these workers of how in their presence ballots were re-marked to give Gen. Guy M. Wilson votes for secretary of state that he did not receive. In other instances where it was impossible to so alter ballots as to favor Wilson, the witnesses have testified that the supervisors of the recount resorted to mutilation to prevent the ballot from being counted for anyone.

The charges contained in Attorney General Toy's message to the senate prior to the appointment of the investigating committee, have been substantiated almost to the letter by testimony that has been read into the record. Toy's allegations, in part, read as follows:

"My investigation further discloses that blue pencils were handed to a large number of workers to be used to mark ballots. These pencils were about an inch to an inch and a half long and could be concealed by the hand of the person using same.

"Some of the workers were given instructions as to the method of marking ballots for particular candidates. They were instructed to throw out ballots having distinguishing marks on behalf of particular candidates and to count the ballots having similar marks on behalf of the opposing candidates for the same office.

"Some of the workers were also instructed by those in charge to give the 'long count' to a particular candidate and were told that it was necessary to pick up at least five thousand (5,000) votes for him before Monday morning.

"I have evidence in my possession that these blue pencils were used by various workers and that the vote for a certain candidate was very materially increased as a result of the use of such blue pencils. These pencils were used in different cases to obtain the same result. In certain instances they were used by marking crosses before the names of certain candidates by changing straight ballots to split ballots for certain candidates. In other instances, they were used for the purpose of defacing or putting distinguishing marks on ballots and thereby decreasing the number of votes for the opposing candidates for these offices. In many instances where a cross had been placed at the head of one party column another cross would be placed at the head of the opposite party column and the cross at the head of the former column penciled over and such ballots were counted for the opposing party.

In other instances lines drawn across certain ballots for the purpose of spoiling such ballots and thereby decrease the number of votes.

There is also evidence of the fact that in certain instances there was no actual count of the ballots nor any attempt to compare the actual count with the tally sheet which had been prepared by the election board but new tally sheets were drawn merely from figures obtained from the election board's tally sheet and new totals were inserted without any actual count of the ballots, which totals increased the lead of the said candidates and decreased the number of actual votes cast for the opposing candidates for these offices.

Further tally sheets which had been prepared by the workers, after an actual count of the ballots, were tampered with by some of those in charge by erasing the figures placed on such tally sheets by the workers and substituting other figures in their stead, thereby altering the true count upon such tally sheet.

Further, in some instances after ballot boxes had been counted at the tables and tally sheets prepared the same box was given to another table where the ballots were tampered with and additional tally sheets were prepared, showing a different total than had been arrived at by the previous counters and, therefore, the tally sheet which had been prepared by the first table was destroyed.

The evidence before me indicates definitely that all the going acts were participated in and committed with the knowledge and consent of a member of your honorable body.

I am convinced from my investigation that a gigantic fraud has been perpetrated on the voters of Michigan, not by the election boards but by some of the recount officials, supervisors, clerks and workers engaged therein; that, because of their action the sacredness of the ballot has been outraged in the jurisdiction where this so-called recount was had.

The climax of the week's activities came Thursday afternoon when the arrest of R. Craig of Detroit on a charge of perjury as he left the witness chair. Action against Craig was after he had denied previous testimony that he had used a blue pencil during the recount. Arraigned Friday afternoon in Municipal court at Lansing, Craig waived examination and was bound over to circuit court for trial. The amount of his bonds, placed at $10,000, is seen as an indication of the seriousness with which the charges against him are held by the authorities.

The investigation and its possible results find a conflict of opinion among the various legislative leaders and capitol observers. The democrats claim that the whole thing is a farce. They often refer to it as the "glorification of the new attorney general." Republicans however, taking the opposite viewpoint, claim that the proceedings have been conducted fairly and are necessary to prevent a recurrence of wholesale vote stealing in this state. This latter group is pretty much agreed in the belief that indictments will follow and that someone is liable to go to prison for what has transpired.

It is understood that the committee will not recommend any indictments but merely submit a report of its findings and await further action of the attorney general's department in the way of pressing specific charges.

The house has been marking time while attention has been centered on the developments in the upper chamber. Many bills have been introduced, including all the old favorites proposing a state income tax, amendments to the general tax laws, motor vehicle laws, etc., but no bill to date has been reported out of committee. Bills embodying the changes recommended by Gov. Fitzgerald in his first message to the legislature have been intro-

A note of sadness and sorrow was sounded through the capitol corridors Friday morning with word of the passing of Auditor General John K. Stack. Mr. Stack during his two-year residence in Lansing had made many friends among both parties and by virtue of his militant stand in behalf of governmental economy had become a strong figure in administration affairs. Out of respect for the departed official, all state business was suspended Friday afternoon and the capitol flag lowered at half mast.

The vacancy caused by his untimely death will be filled by executive appointment which practically assures the return of the auditor general's department to republican control.

THROUGH a WOMAN'S EYES By JEAN NEWTON

THE PRETTIEST GIRL IN THE WORLD

FROM the Balkans comes news of a peasant girl who hanged herself because she was not the prettiest girl in the world.

Her name was Angeljia Nukitch, and she lived near the village of Itanik, Croatia. She was regarded as the most beautiful girl in her district, and some one told her she was the prettiest girl in the world.

It seems then that a neighbor returned from a journey and told Angeljia that in so nearby a place as Zagreb, the capital of Croatia, there were prettier girls than she. So Angeljia went to the harn and hanged herself, writing in a note that she did not want to live in a world that contained prettier girls.

Incredibly, did you say, tint any one should be unwilling to live just because she could not be the prettiest girl in the world?

Not at all. People are always wanting to die for some reason that seems perfectly absurd to the rest of us. After all, death might be considered preferable to living in misery. And don't the majority of us live in misery—or its equivalent in perhaps milder terms—because of something we want with an intensity that would seem to most people, if they knew it, absolutely incomprehensible?

It's that wanting so hard that is the trouble. It is like living your life attached to an opera glass—seeing only one thing, many times ungladified, to the exclusion of everything else. It distorts values and throws everything out of balance. A thing that need really have no important bearing on our leading useful, happy lives becomes like a malignant growth on the healthy tissue of life—whether it is something you are sure is important or just some silly thing that some one else wants like being the prettiest girl in the world.

COLORFUL DISHES

THIS is the time of the year when entertaining is done for the young folks, when colorful and interesting dishes are more appreciated.

Chrysanthemum Salad.
Take bright thin-sliced oranges, wash, cut the skins from the blossom end to the stem end, but not quite through, leaving a small portion to hold the petals in shape. Cut into points to resemble a flower. Carefully remove the pulp, not to break the flower. Cut the pulp into small pieces, draining off the juices to add to the dressing. To eight oranges take one apple finely diced, two tablespoonsful of lemon juice poured over it to keep it from discoloring, add two tablespoonsful of sugar, one-half cupful of diced celery and one-half cupful of broken nutmeats. Arrange the cups on lettuce, fill with the salad mixture, adding mayonnaise and seasoning to taste, using the orange juice instead of cream to add to the mayonnaise.

Cranberry Orange Salad.
Prepare molds of cranberry sauce. Arrange in the center a nest of lettuce and place thin slices of orange around the mold. Top the cranberry with a rose of mayonnaise and place a candied cranberry on each slice of orange.

Roast Turkey.
Cut strips of fat salt pork and cover the breast of a firm plump turkey or other fowl. After stuffing place in a roaster and brown. During the baking baste every fifteen minutes with orange juice and lemon juice. Add two teaspoonfuls of lemon juice to a cupful of orange juice while basting. Use the liquid in the pan also for basting. The fruit juice enhances the flavor, making it more tender.

Prepare and bake a plain sponge cake in a square tin. When cool cut into rounds with a cookie cutter and cover with any creamy frosting. Roll in toasted coconut. Decorate with halves of nuts, sliced dates arranged in designs or with bits of maraschino cherries or candied fruit.
