

Annual Meeting of Plymouth Chamber of Commerce Mon. Eve. to Reveal Year of Beneficial Work in Behalf of City

Many Present At Housing Meeting Last Friday Eve

Details of How To Secure Money For Building Are Explained

The meeting held last Friday evening at the Mayflower to discuss the provisions of the Federal Housing Act was exceptionally well attended in view of the miserable weather conditions which prevailed. Both Miss Ethel Kelble and Mr. Louis Porter, field representatives of the F.H.A. who addressed the meeting commented favorably regarding the size and interest of the audience stating that they would not have been surprised if a mere handful had been present after driving to Plymouth in a cold pelting rain.

George A. Smith, chairman of the Plymouth F.H.A. committee presided. In opening the meeting he stressed the fact that the purpose of the local committee from the start had been one of service. He then introduced Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple, a member of the committee, who in turn, introduced Miss Kelble.

Miss Kelble briefly outlined the repair and modernization character loan features of the act, and the insured mortgage plan for new building and the refinancing of existing mortgages. In closing she made a strong appeal to the women of the community to interest themselves in the campaign.

New Members For Tribe Council

Both Ottawa Tribe and Minnehaha Council, of the Redmen, are at present making rapid strides in the increase of membership. The work has been taken in between forty and fifty members since the first of January this year and have set a goal of one hundred and fifty members by next January first. Other tribes and councils are making gains in membership throughout the state and it is believed that Michigan can again soon be represented at the Great Council of the United States.

D.A.R. Will Meet In Farmington

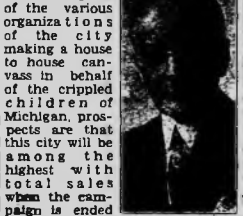

The Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution will meet April 22, in Farmington. Mrs. Fredrick Lendrum, as the hostess. Reports from the State Conference at Grand Rapids and the National Conference at Washington will be made. Mrs. Carl H. Bryan, Mrs. D. T. Randall and Mrs. F. A. Lendrum attended the State Conference and Mrs. James F. Busby of Northville attended the National Conference.

Paul Voorhies On Commission

Plymouth friends of Attorney Paul W. Voorhies, former resident of this city and recently attorney general of Michigan, will be interested in knowing that he has just been appointed a member of the Michigan public utilities commission by Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald. Because of the fact that his appointment will require almost the full time of Mr. Voorhies in Lansing, some of his Plymouth friends knowing of his large law practice in Detroit, were surprised that he would accept the appointment. However, the appointment is one of the most important that the governor has to make as the utilities commission has far more power over a greater property investment than any other branch of the state government. Because of his previous connection with the state government as attorney general, Mr. Voorhies is regarded as one of the best equipped men in the state for this place. The position pays $7,500 per year.

William Strong visited Mrs. Anna Gast and George Weed at Whitmore Lake Wednesday.

Crippled Tots To Get Real Aid Of Civic Group Increases

Members of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, the Woman's Club, The American Legion and numerous other organizations have been busy during the week in an effort to make the Plymouth sales a record one. Charles Bennett, chairman of the committee, prepared a map of each block in the city showing just how many houses there were in each one. These have been distributed among the various workers and the hope is that by Saturday night the work will have been completed.

No money raised goes for a better purpose than funds given for the treatment of crippled children. Just previous to the start of the campaign in Plymouth, Mr. Bennett and a number of others attended a meeting in Dearborn where they had the opportunity of seeing the marvelous results that are being accomplished in some cases through proper medical assistance. One of the visitors declared that if every one in Plymouth had had the opportunity of seeing this demonstration, there would not be the slightest question as to where Plymouth would land in the contest.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will gather on Wednesday, April 24, to do the spring cleaning in the block in the afternoon will be served at noon. All ladies are urged to be present.

Now that it is definitely known that the government plans to erect a new postoffice building in Plymouth this year, there is one important job for the city to do in connection with this project. We have heard much about contemplated "beautification" projects, improvements and suggestions as to what we should do. Here is something we CAN DO.

The government in buying a site for the postoffice took over a piece of land extending through the block from Penniman avenue to Fralick avenue.

Fralick avenue is the northern boundary of the new postoffice site. Directly across the street from the government property there has developed in the last year or so one of the worst "eye-sores" in the city of Michigan. The worst of it all is that it also adjoins the Presbyterian City park, which everyone hopes that the city will someday do something towards beautifying.

Not only should this one place be cleaned-up and cleaned-out, but the entire street should be beautified. If there is no other way for the street to be cleaned up, the city always has the right to condemn property for park purposes. There is NO EXCUSE for this condition to continue. Fralick avenue, lying as it does, can be and should be made into one of the most attractive thoroughfares of the city, especially in view of the work soon to be started by the government.

The clamor of commercialism may claim for Christmas the pre-eminent place among the great Christian festivals. Yet, since the time of the apostles, the Easter festival has ever held unquestioned and unparalleled importance among the true followers of Jesus the Christ. Not Easter as the symbolic dramatization of the re-awakening life of nature in the springtime, but Easter as the sacred memorial day of the Resurrection of Christ Jesus, the Son of God, from the tomb.

Interest In Work Of Civic Group Increases

Members of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce will meet Monday night at 7:30 in the offices of the organization in the Mayflower hotel building to hear the annual reports of Secretary Berg D. Moore and to transact such other business as will properly come before the meeting at that time.

Although the Chamber of Commerce has been forced during the past two or three years to continue operations upon a limited income, the annual report of the secretary will show that the fiscal year which has just come to a close has been a most active and beneficial one for Plymouth. The report will show that for several years the work of the chamber of commerce has been faced with a double handicap. The steadily descending economic spirit was constantly wiping out the effectiveness of projects accomplished, and made other contemplated projects impossible of attainment until the downward trend was reversed. This same period saw a corresponding decrease in revenue until it became difficult to operate on any basis.

"During the last fiscal year the trend has been gradually reversed. Itself until now there is a definitely better feeling among the large majority of our business men. Last year a brief canvass resulted in several new and reinstated memberships, as well as the retention of the pledges which made it possible to carry over the budget of 1932 and I am glad to report that very few failed to pay the full amount pledged. It would appear, therefore, that we have a larger and stronger membership to start with in raising this year's budget, and the brightest prospects since 1930 for increasing our revenue," the report continues.

"Before touching on the highlights of last year's activities, I wish to briefly mention my work in connection with the credit bureau and the department of (Continued on page eight)

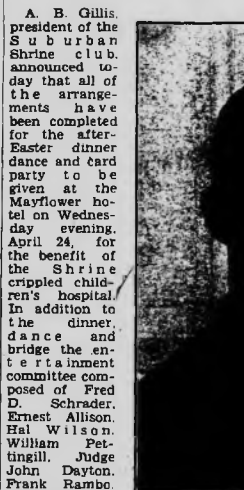

THE FIRST IMPORTANT CIVIC JOB

By REV. EDGAR W. HOENECKE
Pastor St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church

Easter - The Most Important Festival of the Christian Church

The proper, exultant sentiments and the deep, abiding significance of the Day are embodied alike in an Easter anthem of the thirteenth century.
Christ the Lord is risen again!
Christ has broken death's strong chain!
Hark! The angels shout for joy,
Singing evermore on High: Hallelujah!
He who gave for us His Life,
Who for us endured the strife,
Is our Paschal Lamb today!
We, too, sing for joy and say: Hallelujah!
He who bore all pain and loss
Comforted us upon the Cross,
Lives in glory now on high.
Pleads for us and hears our cry: Hallelujah!
Perhaps no other fact in the sacred record of the Gospel has been assailed more viciously and tenaciously than the fact of the resurrection. One faction claimed the death of the Savior to have been but a sham death, a clever act of auto-hypnotism; and thus the resurrection not actually a revivification, but the awakening out of an hypnotic trance.

Shrine Club Plans After-Easter Event At The Mayflower April 24th

A. B. Gillis

A. B. Gillis, president of the Shrine Club, announced today that all of the arrangements have been completed for the Easter dinner, dance and card party to be given at the Mayflower hotel on Wednesday evening, April 24, for the benefit of the Shrine crippled children's hospital. In addition to the dinner, dance and bridge the entertainment committee composed of Fred D. Schrader, Ernest Allison, Hal Wilson, William Pettigill, Judge John Dayton, Frank Rambo, all of Plymouth, and Harry Marburger and Raymond H. Oslinger of Northville as chairman has arranged for the appearance of Miss Kathleen Abar, pretty little Detroit dancer who helped make the popular Hollywood picture, "Kiddies on Parade," on the evening program.

The little dancer will repeat what is declared to be the most difficult dancing part ever put on the screen namely, "It's a Fast Tap Toe Dance on Stairs." She was recently asked by Paramount Pictures for a new screen test and is now in Hollywood but will be back at the home of her parents in Detroit in time for her appearance at the Shrine party at the Mayflower next Wednesday evening.

Dr. Patterson's orchestra will provide the dance music. There will be a door prize and plenty of favors. The Shrine club president and all of the committee members believe this will be one of the most delightful of all the parties that have been held by the Shrine club.

Clean-up Week To Start April 29th

Plymouth is going to have a clean-up week, the city having designated the week beginning Monday, April 29, and continuing until May 4 as the time for the general house cleaning that the city gets each year.

Three Are Hurt In Auto Crash

Crashing head-on into a car driven by Julius Foster of Pontiac who was accompanied by Mrs. Foster, Dr. LeVerne Rowald, of 1605 South Main Street, lies in a critical condition in the Warren Clinic hospital in Detroit. The head-on collision took place on Plymouth road late last Saturday afternoon as Dr. Rowald was coming to Plymouth from Detroit. The Fosters had been to Plymouth and were returning to their home in Pontiac. All three were first brought to the Plymouth hospital, but because of the seriousness of Dr. Rowald's injuries, he was removed to Detroit. One knee was frightfully cut and he suffered numerous cuts and bruises about his head. Both of the Fosters were also badly hurt. The machine was practically demolished after receiving emergency aid in the Plymouth hospital, the Fosters were taken to their home in Pontiac. Mr. and Mrs. Van Grimley and three children were guests Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Chas. Brink, at the Henry Sage home on Starkweather avenue.

Three Generations Of One Family Are Plymouth Graduates

A. B. Gillis

It is an extremely outstanding event for three generations of a family to graduate from the same high school. When Joan Cassidy, a well-known senior, graduates with the class of '35 this June, she will be the third generation of her family to be graduated from Plymouth high school. Joan's grandmother, Hattie Marshall-Baker, graduated from Plymouth high school fifty-three years ago with the class of 1882. There were twelve students in that class; Anna Widley-Burr and George Hunter are the only members of the class besides Mrs. Baker, who are still living in Plymouth. Joan's mother, Norma Baker-Cassidy, graduated twenty-five years ago with the class of 1910 which had sixteen members. Besides Mrs. Cassidy Vivian Dagget Wingard, Mary Schaufele Sackett, Lyla McKeever Wood, and Forrest Gorton are the only members of the class of 1910 who are still living in Plymouth. Joan will graduate with the class of 1935 which has eighty six members.

Second Annual Flower Market Saturday, May 11

Saturday, May 11 is the date which has been fixed for the second annual flower market in Kelllogg park in Plymouth, according to an announcement just made by Mrs. Cass Hough, chairman of the committee. Members of the committee acting with Mrs. Hough are Mrs. Ray Johns, Mrs. Robert Willoughby, Mrs. Berg Moore, Mrs. C. H. Bennett, Mrs. Sterling Eaton and Mrs. Mark Chaffee. In addition to the regular Flower Market will be conducted this year, Mrs. Felix Hoheisel is chairman of a committee that is working out details for a May Day parade. The Women's Club, which is sponsoring the event, expressed a very cordial invitation to all the flower lovers in and around Plymouth to participate in the flower market. Because of the success of the event last year, it has been decided to make it a regular yearly event.

This is not in any way a private or commercial enterprise, but is being held for all of Plymouth with the idea of fostering a love of gardens in the city, and also of arranging a place where the public can meet and exchange plants. Nearly every garden contains an abundance of some one flower or shrub, and so the Flower Market will give an opportunity for all of the citizens of Plymouth to introduce some new plants into their gardens, by simply thinning out their extra plants and taking them to the Market for trade.

New Girl Troop To Meet Tonight

Girl Scout Troop, Plymouth-2 is now being organized and will be sponsored by the local organization of Improved Order of Redmen and Degree of Pocahontas. Under the leadership of Mrs. Lucile Mathias, exceptional progress has been made in the preliminary steps necessary to the completion of the troop. The Redmen and Pocahontas members are acting in the capacity of associate workers in going with the girls on hikes and furnishing transportation when needed. The Redmen and Pocahontas feel honored in having been requested to sponsor such a worthy organization. Her charming leader for Wayne, Girls over 10 years of age are invited to be present if they would like to join this troop. Mr. and Mrs. Blake Fisher of Burroughs avenue were called to Saranac Monday by the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. James Lester.

Big Bank Enters Small Loan Field

According to an announcement made in the advertisement of The Plymouth United Savings Bank in this issue of The Mail, the bank in keeping with its always progressive policy, has entered the small personal loan field and will be able to take care of people who would like to secure small loans for needed purposes which will include financing of automobiles, etc. The bank is ready to make loans of this nature and no doubt many people in Plymouth and vicinity will welcome the entrance of the Plymouth United Savings Bank into this field of business.

Mrs. Reeves Will Talk at Banquet

(Pilgrim Prints Staff) The Girl Reserves of Plymouth high school have been very fortunate in securing Mrs. Albert Reeves of Ann Arbor as their speaker at the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet to be held May 17 in the high school auditorium. Mrs. Reeves was formerly Miss Grace Greenwood, Social Director of Martha Cook Dormitory at the University of Michigan. She married Dr. Reeves in England and lived for twelve years at Oxford University. Mrs. Reeves has traveled extensively throughout the world and has had many interesting experiences. She is president of the Ann Arbor "Vision of the American Association of University women. Mrs. Reeves has always been a friend and adviser of girls. Before her marriage she was familiarly called "C. G." by her hundreds of friends on the University campus. Her charming, friendly and her magnetic personality make Mrs. Reeves an extremely popular speaker. Her subject at the Mother and Daughter Banquet will be "Mother Hubbard" to conform with the Mother Goose terminology of the proceedings. Tickets for the banquet may be purchased from any Girl Reserve.

Cherry Hill Young People Will Present A Play Here Tuesday

The three act comedy "Here Comes Charley," which was given Tuesday evening, April 23rd at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. The play is given by the young people of Cherry Hill.

Blunk Bros. Add Warehouse Space

So rapidly is the business of the Blunk Bros. store expanding that it has been found necessary to secure additional warehouse space, a lease having been taken on the Tish property on Penniman avenue, formerly occupied by Harry Robinson. The windows will be used for display purposes, but the big store space will be utilized in carrying the vast amount of furniture, electrical appliances and other similar goods that there is not sufficient room for in the big store building on South Main street. In this way the store will be able to carry on hand a much larger stock than formerly. Probably few retail houses in Michigan have shown the remarkable growth that the Blunk Bros. store has during the past year. Several new clerks have been added to the force. Who best serves the devil doesn't believe in one.

New Plymouth Postoffice Structure Will Be One Of Most Modern Erected By Treasury Department In State

Arthur E. Blunk Is The New Mayor To Culminate In Success

MAYOR ARTHUR E. BLUNK

Arthur Blunk is the new mayor of Plymouth. He was elected to that place Monday night by three votes, Commissioners Whipple and Robinson voting with Mr. Blunk. While it had been expected that the commission would probably follow the precedent established when Plymouth was made a city and elect the candidate for the city commission with the highest vote in the election as mayor, this rule was not followed Monday night and as a result E. Wilson, prominent north side hardware dealer was not in the race. Because of the fact that Mr. Wilson was not nominated for Mayor, Commissioners Oliver Goldsmith and Wilson voted for the county board. He also appointed Mrs. Whipple and Mr. Goldsmith to the recreation committee. Harry Mumby was named as a member of the cemetery board and Nellie Casn and Mrs. Ruth Meyers were appointed as members of the board of registration.

Mayor Blunk was elected for his second term at the recent election. He has spent nearly all of his life in Plymouth and its vicinity. There will be seven steps in the front entrance. A fairly large platform also of granite is provided in front of the entrance. The ornamental lights will be of cast bronze with a semi-modernistic shower light at the top of each one. The public lobby is an exceptionally large one being 43 feet long and 12 feet wide. It will run across the entire front of the building, except for the space that has been reserved for the postmaster's office in the southwest corner. This office will be a little over 14 feet wide and nearly 20 feet deep. There will be a closet and cabinet space directly off the postmaster's office. The government is going to see to it that the public has plenty of space in front of the service windows. For lock-box purposes, a lobby alcove on the southeast corner of the building has been provided. One feature that the postoffice employees will appreciate will be the fine large work room that is provided in the new plans. There will be a crowded condition, unless of course Plymouth becomes a city of three or four times its present size. The structure will full basement under space in front of the building. Steam heat will be utilized. There will be considerable marble work about the building, especially in the public lobby. The bids are to be opened in Washington on May 2. It is the general practice of the government to require work to be started within thirty days after a bid is let.

Blunk Bros. Add Warehouse Space

Mr. and Mrs. William Gayde entertained at a family party Sunday, the occasion being her birthday. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Conley and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Middleton of Detroit.

Randall Winner Of Fellowship

John F. Randall, senior engineering student at Michigan State college, has been selected as one of six students chosen from 105 collegiate applicants as a recipient of the Tau Beta Pi engineering fellowship.

Randall, who is a graduate of the Plymouth high school, is a senior in the mechanical engineering division, and has maintained an excellent scholastic record during his four years at State. He is a member of the College R.O.T.C. unit, receiving the appointment of cadet colonel during the winter term, and was also general chairman of the 1935 engineers ball.

This honor, awarded yearly to a half dozen of the highest ranking engineers in America, will make the Michigan State candidate eligible for a master of science degree in the mechanical engineering school, at Yale university.

A cash payment of $650 is also given the candidate to help defray expenses during his two years period of study. Following is the letter received at President Shaw's office from A. D. Moore, director of the Fellowship, notifying Randall of his acceptance:

April 4, 1935. President R. S. Shaw, Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan. My dear Dr. Shaw:

On behalf of our Fellowship Board, I take great pleasure in announcing that one of our six Tau Beta Pi Fellowships for the coming year has gone to one of your Mechanical Engineering seniors, John F. Randall. Randall will become a candidate for the degree Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering, at Yale University.

Since these six men were selected with great care from among 105 applicants, Randall may well feel that his award is an outstanding event in his life. With the thought that you may wish to give his honor to him and to his school suitable notice, I am presenting these facts. Other pertinent data are available in the enclosed spare application blank. Very sincerely yours, A. D. MOORE.

Tau Beta Pi is an engineering honor society whose members are expected to advance their profession by being of service in the engineering field in research, practice, or in teaching.

Both graduate and undergraduate students receive consideration in the choosing of the fellowships, all applications passing through a Fellowship Board and a Director of Fellowships. One faculty man in the applicants division sends in a letter of recommendation accompanying each application. In applying for this honor the member can choose the college he wishes to attend. Scholarship, activities of the student, and graduate study he prefers to continue are issues considered in choosing the winners of these awards.

Lake Fishing To End As Trout Fishing Season Is Opened

All inland lakes of Michigan, except designated pike lakes—automatically close to general fishing Tuesday, April 30. They will remain closed until opening of the lake fishing season June 25.

Approximately 200 lakes, designated as pike lakes by the Director of Conservation, will remain open to general fishing without closed season—for the taking of certain species of fish specified by law.

Designated trout lakes, which have been closed to fishing since Labor day, will also be open to trout fishing May 1 when the trout fishing season again opens in Michigan.

Fish which may be taken legally in designated pike and trout lakes are as follows: Brook brown and rainbow trout, pike, perch or wall-eyed pike, great northern grass pike or pickerel, perch, rock, calico, and strawberry bass, crappies, muskellunge and all non-game species.

The open season for the taking of bluegills, sunfish, white and warmouth bass in all lakes of Michigan comes to a close Tuesday, April 30, and remains closed until June 25, opening of the black bass season, when all lakes are opened to fishing again under the law.

NEWBURG

There will be the regular morning church and Sunday school services next Sunday and in the evening at 7:30, the pastor, Rev. Davies will have charge of candle light service to which the community is invited.

The play, The Blue Ribbon Pie, put on by the Queen Esther girls last Thursday evening was quite a success, both in the acting and the attendance though the weather was very unfavorable. The girls wish to thank all those who in any way contributed to this success.

The ladies of the young married peoples class gave a party at Mrs. Klinton's last Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Jack Campbell as guest of honor.

Newburg community will be well represented at the 4-H achievement day when it is held at East Lansing in the near future. At the exhibit at Dearborn last Saturday, Jennie Bassett won first honors for the 4th year sewing having made a bed spread and draperies and decorated a chair for her room. Thelma Holmes was one of the girls chosen for judging. Jennie and Thelma are from the Newburg school.

From the Patchen school, Florence Melik was chosen as Senior 4-H health champion and Doris Tallman as junior champion.

Miss Madeline Melchoe of Bay City was the guest of Miss Alice Gilbert a few days this week.

We are sorry to report that Howard Hohmes is in the Ann Arbor hospital, having gone there Thursday for an operation. He is doing well and it is hoped he will soon be able to be about again.

Twenty-five callers from Detroit were at the George Richwine home Sunday afternoon eager to welcome the new baby, the little three weeks old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Richwine.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Truesdell last Wednesday, April 10, a little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Root visited last week their daughter and family Mrs. C. T. Aldrich in Clayton and also friends in Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spangler with their four children went to Sanford, Michigan Monday, called there by the death of their little granddaughter, Patricia Grandson. Some time ago the child, two years old, got a peanut in her throat in consequence of which she had pneumonia, and was taken to the hospital, but recovered and was brought home, apparently on the road to recovery, but the peanut was still in the bronchial tube, and the little one suddenly was choked to death by it.

Roosevelt's Huge Relief Fund

The Democratic Governor, Albert C. Ritchie, running for re-election can under a vague suspicion of not standing well with the Administration at Washington. The Republicans, taking advantage of this, let it be understood that if the Republican candidate for Governor were elected he would cooperate with the Administration at Washington and would thereby put himself and Maryland in the good graces of the Administration so that Maryland might expect generous treatment with respect to relief funds from Washington.

The process through which the Administration profits politically by relief funds does not lie primarily in the fact or expectation that the ultimate beneficiaries, the unemployed, will vote for the source of their aid or their work relief. What happens is that in the states and cities local organizations, such as chambers of commerce, see that nearly $5,000,000,000 is going to be spent. In a familiar spirit of local enterprise they "go after" some of the money. They decide to get some of it for a local project, a bridge, a dam, a road or what not. Their attitude is one which says in effect, "We don't approve these great appropriations, and we think the budget ought to be balanced, but since the money is there we want our share."

The avenue of approach is the Congressman. The chamber of commerce or other body brings pressure on the Representative or Senator who represents the district or state at Washington. The Congressman is made to feel that his standing with his local community is going to be measured by his success in getting a share of the five billion. He is expected to "bring home the bacon." He can only get it, as a rule, by appealing to the President or to some one of the appointees of the President who have charge of the fund.

Thus another political vice comes into existence. The Congressman feels that in order to get some of the money he must stand well with the Administration, and he acts on the principle of the adage which says "whose bread I eat, his song I sing." In this spirit the Congressman supports Administration measures which if left to his own conscience and judgment he would not.

This has happened in the past. It may happen again. Yet there are evidences to the contrary. The chambers of commerce and other local bodies which a year ago thought primarily in terms of getting money from Washington tend now to think in terms of paying the bill, in terms of the taxes which sooner or later must be paid to make up the money that is being spent. To a measurable degree the country, especially the type of citizen who belongs to the chamber of commerce and other civic bodies, has become "public debt conscious." It may be that they will go after their share of the money with their accustomed energy; but it may be that in the Presidential election next year they will vote on the side of economy.

A corresponding change has occurred within Congress. Every member knows that the moment Congress voted the five billions to the President it gave the President the familiar "power of the purse" over Congress and all the members of Congress. Nevertheless, there is now in Congress a conspicuous disposition to question the judgment of the Administration, to scrutinize the New Deal critically, and to inspect and amend the measures which the Administration has sent to Congress for enactment. The cynical and the realistic have been saying that the nearly five billions which the president now has at his disposal is a guarantee of the complete passage of his whole legislative program. It may work out that way. Yet the present mood of Congress is one which doubts whether the whole program should be considered, is opposed to some items of it, and will amend such measures as are taken up.

Even with the nearly five billions in the President's hands, it is most doubtful whether NRA or the social security measures, or the public utility measure will be enacted in the forms in which the President recommended them. The picture of the first year of the Roosevelt administration, when Congress accepted measures written by the young intellectuals in the Administration and enacted them without changing them, and even without fully understanding them—that picture does not exist today. It is a case in which the facts do not support the cynical assumption about the power of that five billions in the President's hands.

Plymouth Wins Three Places In Speech

Receiving first place in oratory and extemporaneous speaking, and third in declamation, Plymouth high school was awarded the handsome plaques given to the school of the Twin Valley Association with the highest standing in forensics. Plymouth representatives in the contest, held at four and eight o'clock, Thursday, April 11, were Katherine Schulz, Tom Brock and Jewel Starkweather.

Other schools participating included Lincoln Park, Dearborn, Ecorse, River Rouge, Wayne, and Ypsilanti. The judges were Mr. Paul, Mr. Reed, and Mr. Phillips of the University of Michigan. The chairman in the declamation contest was Mrs. Humphries, and the Rev. Walter Nichol chairman in the evening. Music was provided by the Girls Double Quartette and by the Windwood Quintette.

The declamation contest, held in the afternoon, had seven contestants. Evelyn Rose delivered Harding's "The Unknown Soldier," representing River Rouge. Jewel Starkweather of Plymouth gave Phillips' "Toussaint L'Ouverture." Doreen Arnett of Lincoln Park presented Patrick Henry's "Call to Arms." Leona Shoemaker gave Conwell's "Acres of Diamonds," for Wayne. Ernest Porter of Ecorse delivered Harding's "The Unknown Soldier." Harold Young of Dearborn presented Lane's "The American Pioneer," and the declamation given by Joyce Corbelle of Ypsilanti was Barton's "Unknown Soldier." First place was awarded to Ernest Porter, second to Joyce Corbelle, and third to Jewel Starkweather.

Edward Mitchell of Lincoln Park opened the evening contest in oratory with "Our Arch Enemy—Producers of War," attacking the munition makers. Lois Druckenbrod pleaded for "Peace." Bernard Carroll attacked warfare in "Youth Rejects War." David Hertzberg defended popular government with "Democracy on Trial." Dale Butler opposed child labor in the oration "The Perils of Our Youth." Robert Roberts discussed the crime problem in "You Can't Tame a Rat with a Club." Katherine Schulz delivered the final oration, "Merchants of Death," dealing with war and its victims. The speakers represented, respectively, Lincoln Park, Ypsilanti, Dearborn, River Rouge, Wayne, Ecorse, and Plymouth. Katherine Schulz was awarded first place, Bernard Carroll the second, and Lois Druckenbrod the third.

Extemporaneous speaking took place last on the program. Betty Arnet of Ypsilanti spoke on "Wilson and the League of Nations." John Pippenger of Lincoln Park discussed "Wilson in Politics." Russell Frank of Wayne presented "The Next World War." Edward Mitchell of Lincoln Park discussed "Some of the Important Causes of War." Tom Brock of Plymouth explained Hitler and World Peace, and Robert Rosa of River Rouge advocated "Disarmament and World Peace." The judges gave Tom Brock first place, Robert Rosa second, and Edward Mitchell third.

As a result of these three victories Plymouth received the highest average standing and was presented with the league trophy. The schools winning in each contest received blue and white pennants. Plymouth also won first place in the freshman declamation contest held at Ecorse a short time ago.

The district forensic contests will be held here in May, and the winners of this sub-district meet will contest for yet higher honors. Plymouth's standing is the best in several years.

GIRL SCOUTS HIKE TO TRAINING SCHOOL

The Girl Scouts hiked to the Training School Wednesday afternoon April 10, and practiced the scout pace on the way.

After their arrival, Mrs. Helen W. Trall instructed them in the study of trees. They learned to recognize trees by observing their winter buds and the bark. Each patrol built a different kind of fire, namely, wigwam, crisscross, and hunter's fires over which to roast steak. Then they visited the Boy Scout room, where they received their final certificates. Margaret Jean Nichol and Marie Durant are absent with measles and mumps, respectively.

The students of Mrs. Ulrich are making location maps of Asia, and have been decorating the windows of their rooms with Easter lilies. Virginia Dunham and Rosalind Postiff have received their penmanship finals. The class set a splendid record with their drills, for almost everyone placed either a progress pin or an improvement certificate, with the exception of the two finals.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Cavanaugh's first B class has been working on Easter decorations. The Brownie class has started its new readers. Danny Hines has finished a book rack. Miss Stukez's first grade children have been making rabbits and yellow chicks for the room decoration. Last week they planted flower seeds in pots so they will bloom in time for Mother's Day. They have been making circle designs on art paper.

The children in the second grade are making a sandstone city by carving. The children who received all A's were Dorothy Glass and William Bauman. Returns from forty-three papers were received from the Palmer company stating that these children will receive gold star buttons. Only one out of the forty-four papers was rejected.

The children in the third grade are studying furniture. They are furnishing card board boxes with wooden and paper furniture. They are also working at home on furniture made of orange boxes.

In the fourth grade three sets of Palmer method drills were accepted for the first award and approximately twenty pupils received Palmer Method Buttons. The fourth A class is getting ready to start on production parts on the United States. The fourth B class has completed its first lesson on map drawing.

The sixth B pupils are learning to make graphs. Doris Olson who has been ill for some time has returned to school. Miss Kees has been teaching the pupils handicraft. The class has been studying percentage. Lewis Robinson is the new class president. Andrew Aquino has been absent on account of illness.

CENTRAL GRADE SCHOOL NOTES

The kindergarteners have made some more pictures of rabbits and have dyed Easter eggs, which they will put in baskets, they have made and give to their parents. Betsy Ross has entered the morning class.

Mrs. Cassidy's pupils have been studying about the robin and Freeman Hoyer brought a robin's nest to school for the children to study. Harry Swahn read the story "A Home in a Tree" to the boys and girls. In number class the children were again to write numbers from one to twenty. They have made Easter decorations for their room. A model of a farm is displayed on their library table. The Robins dramatized the story "Alice and Her Mother" last week. Kenneth Truesdale was health inspector last week.

Thirteen of Miss DeWaele's pupils have received Palmer Method awards. The children are practicing the song "The Flowers Lullaby" for the operetta. The Tulips read the story "The Little Red Hen to Mr. Cassidy's pupils last Thursday. Letters spelling Easter have been mounted on gaily colored art paper.

All the children in Miss Frantz's room, except four, have received penmanship pins. Those four who didn't again, a Little League O'Leary had a birthday party at school Wednesday, April 10. The children are making bird booklets.

A perfect attendance record was obtained by Miss Weatherhead's pupils last Tuesday. George Webersheim brought some hepatitis to school on Wednesday. The students made a blackboard border of brownies standing in the rain.

Mrs. Laird visited Mrs. Bird's class last Friday. Harold Schulz's birthday was celebrated Wednesday, April 10, at which time Harold brought candy to school to treat his classmates. Twenty-four received Palmer Method pins.

NEW PLAYS IN DRAMA CLUB

There have been four new plays started in Drama Club; one of them have been given at the recent meeting of the club. The other three will be given May 11 for the public. Although the admission will be free, the tickets must be secured from members of the Drama Club. In these plays every member of the club has a part and in some cases more than one part. One of the plays is a scene from Uncle Tom's Cabin another is a farce, and the third is a tragedy.

Much is being done at the meetings, such as learning the correct places for a pause, words that should be accented, and the words that feeling should be placed on. In addition to this a silent drama was given in which four different scenes were included without a word of speech. One in a hat shop, another in a scene taking place in an elevator, taxi, and the other in a sport shop. Miss Ford has announced that a novelty play will be started soon.

CLASS NOTES

Mr. Bentley's 8A general science class is studying magnetism. This includes the different metals as conductors and nonconductors of electricity. The class has learned that the law of magnetism is very great and profitable to mankind.

The 8B general science class is now on the subject of matter and the elements and nonconductors of electricity. The class has learned that the law of magnetism is very great and profitable to mankind. The boys biology classes are preparing their equipment for hunting and gathering the different species of insects. After various kinds have been collected, these will be studied in the laboratory as to their physical habits and impulses. This work will be carried on soon as the weather will permit.

The students of ancient history have handed in bibliographies for their term papers.

EASTER CHICKLETS SCRATCH IN SCHOOL

With Easter in the air, the high school has had a most unusual display of holiday greetings. In Miss Waldorf's room five gaily colored baby chicks have been enjoying the admiration of throngs of teachers and students. Although there are many stories concerning the red, blue, and green coloring of the chickens, it is not true that colored chicks can be hatched from colored Easter eggs. When the chicks are five days old, they are colored with Easter egg dyes. If the proper procedure is carried out, they will take on brilliant colors which will last until the chicken's childhood feathers are shed.

Every care was taken to provide for the well being of these delicate Easter greetings. A large bottle of hot water provided warmth and scientific chicken food provided a well balanced diet.

Miss Waldorf took them to the kindergarten where the children viewed them after which she gave them to teachers and students.

LEADERS CLUB PLAYS OFF TIE

Teams nine and ten, captained by Anna Urban and Eileen Archer respectively, played the last three court basketball games to decide the winner Monday, April 8.

JUNIOR DEBATERS PREPARING FOR INTER SCHOLASTIC COMPETITION

The Debate Club under Miss Truller gave several notebooks on high school debating Monday. The members who are preparing themselves for senior debating, are doing very fine work.

Miss Detwiler's sixth grade A's made very good notebooks on Egypt with original covers. They also gave reports about that country. The pupils in history have started booklets on Lincoln.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

Alexandria Jean Konazski was born in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, on September 17, 1917 and although she has lived in Gypsum, Ohio and in Detroit as well as in Plymouth, she is one of the original members of the class of '35, having entered the kindergarten here. A commercial student of exceptional ability she will some day take dictation from some big business man. She likes history and ice cream sundaes (what a combination) but dislikes economics and macaroni and cheese (well well). She enjoys swimming, skating, dancing and all sports and has appeared in the musicale and stunt night and has been a member of the Travel Club.

FRESHMAN DANCE TO FOUR BARON'S MUSIC

The freshman class held its last dance of this year last Friday and made $28.53. The host and hostess for this occasion were James McClain and Helen Norgrove. The chairman of the committees were: publicity, Doris Schmidt; orchestra, Astril Hegge; tickets, Althea Shoemaker; refreshments, Jane Taylor; floor, Gordon Moe. A new plan was followed and people were put in charge of the dressing rooms. Earl Lyke and Alphonso Crain were in the boys room, and Marian Bulson and Margaret Heintz in the girls' room. The music was furnished by the Four Barons' orchestra.

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR MUSICALS

Under the direction of Miss Henry and Mr. Evans, the high school's various musical organizations are busy preparing for the eighth annual high school musicale to be held in the PHS auditorium Friday evening, May 3, at eight o'clock. Among those taking part will be the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs, the Junior Chorus, the Girls' Double Quartet, the band, orchestra, and several other smaller groups. This year the seventh grade music classes are taking part.

The shortest member and mascot of the senior class, Roy William McAllister, was born in Kalamazoo, Michigan, November 8, 1918. He lived in Kalamazoo his freshman year when he moved to Plymouth and joined the forces of the class of '35. In the four years he has been here he has belonged to the Junior Drama Club, Latin club, and H-Y. Roy can often be seen with that "shadow man," Lawrence Moe, who is one of the tallest members of the class. You know "the long and short of it." Roy's favorite color is green, and he prefers to be in a gold and red uniform. He is taking a college preparatory course and says his favorite subject is commercial geography. His hobby seems to be golf and you can often see him pecking out from under a tree on the nearby course. After graduation Roy says he is going to take a P.G. course in good old P.H.S. after that he has no plans.

Katherine Alice McKinney was born on April 10, 1917 in Detroit, Michigan. When she was a youngster she attended the Stark school in the country and entered the Plymouth high school in the ninth grade. While in high school she has been a member of the Girl Reserves and the Latin, Library, Glee, Drama and Travel Clubs. Her favorite authors are Grace Livingston Hill and Richmond; her favorite study is Latin, and her favorite color is blue. But there is one thing that she dislikes very much and that is chop suey. Katherine plans to go to college and take a course in library work. Her big ambition is to get a good job in a library.

Harriet Eudora Mattinson was born on November 4, 1917 in Nova Scotia, Canada. She attended a little country school for some time and then entered the Plymouth school in the third grade. She has been an active member of the Leaders' Club during her years here. She enjoys books written by Zane Grey and Alcott and her favorite colors are blue and green. What she dislikes most is history and lemon pie. When she was a very young girl she took a long trip to Canada. She is planning to attend the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago and her big ambition is to be a missionary.

Mrs. Otto Wagenschütz and daughter, Mrs. George Rutan of Howell, delightfully entertained a group of relatives and friends from Ann Arbor, Detroit, Howell, Farmington and Plymouth Saturday evening at the former's home on North Territorial Road in honor of Mrs. Milton Partridge showering her with many dainty gifts. Later in the evening delicious refreshments were served, completing a most enjoyable occasion for all present.

On Wednesday evening the Junay bridge club had its final meeting of the season when the low score members entertained the high at a delicious dinner at the Hillside Barbecue after which they all attended the Penniman-Alton theatre. The ladies entertained were Mrs. Ralph West, Mrs. Lisle Alexander, Mrs. Harvey Springer, Mrs. Charles Garlett, Mrs. Roy Streng, Miss Helen Wells, Mrs. John Meyers of Redford while the hostess included Mrs. Goodwin Crumbe, Mrs. Hildegard Champe, Mrs. Mildred Barnes, Mrs. Carl January, Mrs. John Blossom and Miss Regina Polley.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. Charles Horr entertained at luncheon Mrs. Harold Shaddick and Mrs. Gray Schluchter of Detroit. On Thursday Mrs. Edmund Blowers and daughters, Peggy

Ann and Mitzi, of Detroit were luncheon guests at the Horr home and on Friday Mrs. Thomas Skitch also of Detroit was a luncheon guest. Sunday evening supper guests were Mrs. Horr's mother and brother, Mrs. Belle Schaaaf, and Luther T. H. Schaaaf of Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blunk and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunk and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Blunk and son, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blunk, Miss Roberta Chappell, William Kirkpatrick of Plymouth, Mrs. Elhier and William Bolgos of Ann Arbor joined Mr. and Mrs. William Blunk on Williams street at dinner Sunday, helping him celebrate his birthday.

A group of relatives and friends from Odearborn, Romulus and Plymouth gave Frank Dunn a pleasant surprise Saturday evening at his home on North Territorial Road. Games were played for a time followed by light refreshments being served.

Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Johnson of Northville, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Polley and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jewett of Plymouth were dinner guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson at their home on Sunset avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Hough arrived home Friday from a few days visit in the east. While away they joined their daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Francis M. Archibald, in the celebration of their third wedding anniversary in their home in Elizabeth, New Jersey, and also attended the Toy Fair in New York City.

Mrs. G. A. Smith and sister, Miss Grace Stowe, were guests of Miss S. C. Bockmann Saturday at the Detroit Woman's Principal's club luncheon at Botsford Inn, Grand River avenue. An unusually fine illustrated travel talk in colors was given by Miss Amy Noble Maurer of Chicago. Her lecture was on "Colonial Homes and Gardens."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Streng, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burley, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Beals and Mr. and Mrs. William Downing have the honor of being first in Plymouth to organize a "pinocle" club. On Saturday evening they will have their third meeting with the Streng's at their home on Sunset avenue.

The Monday evening contract bridge club had a most pleasant evening with Mrs. Arthur Minthorne at her home on Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lorenz and sons, Robert and Douglas were supper guests Sunday evening of her sister, Mrs. Frances Halstead and family at Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Laible, Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. James Bentley enjoyed dinner at Frank-nuth Sunday and also visited Saginaw.

Kiwanis Club Sees Baseball Movies

April 16th, the official opening day for the 1935 baseball was duly recognized by the Plymouth Kiwanis club even though the Detroit Tigers did fall through on their promise to "play ball" on that date.

"Play Ball" is a motion picture depicting many of the fine points of baseball, and giving the average fan an insight on what really goes on out on the playing field. The picture was of more than ordinary interest because being an American League production, the parts were taken, and the plays demonstrated by the big stars of baseball whom we all know by name if not by sight. Our favorite Detroit Tigers were featured in some real and intricate baseball plays and in such a manner that Mr. Average Fan learned a great deal about the national pastime.

The Kiwanis Club had as their guests the base ball teams of Plymouth and Northville schools, and a number of local fans who were interested in knowing more about the game.

Plymouth Team Trophy Winner

Under the capable direction of Captain Joseph Schomberger of the bowling team of the Plymouth Catholic Men's club, the Plymouth team brought back from the Detroit tournament in which over 100 teams took part, the trophy they have been battling for. The cup now rests in the big display window of the Plymouth United Savings bank and engraved on its side is a list of the players who made its capture possible.

On the team with Captain Schomberger were Raymond Levandowski, Thomas Levandowski, Edward Klinski and William Lorenz.

Their total score was 27600, far above that of any other team in the contest. Needless to say that the players are delighted over their victory.

And it is further Ordered, That a copy of this order be published three successive weeks previous to said time of hearing, in the Plymouth Mail a newspaper printed and circulating in said County of Wayne.

In the Line of Duty

ON A December evening, in a telephone exchange in Northern Michigan, an operator sat at the switchboard. Calls were few. It was the low ebb of the day's work. There was nothing to suggest that soon this quiet office was to be the scene of danger—and resolute devotion to duty.

It began with that dread forerunner of disaster—the smell of smoke. Then, from an adjoining building, came the crackling of flames. Personal safety now obviously lay in abandoning the switchboard. And under the circumstances no one could be justly censured for putting self-preservation first.

The operator stuck to her post. And the alarm, spreading rapidly through the town, reached three other operators who were off duty at the time. Immediately—volunteers in the face of danger—they hurried to the exchange.

While engines clanged, while firemen fought flames close by, while an adjacent wall collapsed in the heat of the town's most costly and disastrous fire in ten years, these four operators remained steadfastly at the switchboard to handle all the great rush of calls that must attend and combat any public emergency.

This example of calm courage, taken from recent records, does not stand alone. Again and again, in crises large and small, Michigan Bell Telephone employees have proved their high sense of loyalty to public service. Courteous and efficient in the routine work which day by day maintains the high standards of telephone service, they have repeatedly faced emergencies with genuine courage and an unselfish devotion to duty.

It is because of this spirit of service, no less than because of great engineering achievements, that Michigan today enjoys a telephone service unsurpassed in any quarter of the globe.

The Business and Professional Women's benefit bridge Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Rose Hawthorne on the Bradner Road was an enjoyable occasion for the thirty guests present. The prizes were awarded in a novel way. Each guest choosing an actor's name, and the one drawn received the prize. Another prize was won by the best drawing of chickens, etc. Following bridge light refreshments were served at tables with attractive appointment.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the week was that given by Mrs. James Bendish on Thursday evening last week honoring the eighty-first birthday of her mother, Mrs. Mary Smith, at their home on Mill street. A delightful luncheon, with table decorations in pink and green, started the big occasion for which covers were laid for the honored guest and Mrs. John Goodman, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. James Sessions, Mrs. Robert Gardner, Mrs. Milton Laible, Mrs. Harry Laible, Mrs. Norman Potter, Mrs. George Hillmer, Mrs. Roland Allenbaugh, Mrs. Fred Pinow, Mrs. S. Marcou, Mrs. Eugene Orndorf and the hostess. The afternoon was most happily spent in games and reminiscing. Mrs. Smith received flowers and other lovely gifts in remembrance of the day.

On Tuesday, April 23, the Detroit Federation of Women's clubs and the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority of Detroit are planning a day of unusual entertainment for a large number of guests. A style show will be put on by the J. L. Hudson company and the Annis Fur company of Detroit which will be broadcast over the radio station WJBK which is located in the Empire building, Washington boulevard at Clifford after which a luncheon will be served and cards played. A group of Plymouth ladies invited by Mrs. F. R. Hoheisel, who plan to attend this affair are Mrs. J. P. Morrow, Mrs. Robert Willoughby, Mrs. Roy Johns, Mrs. George M. Chute, Mrs. Charles G. Draper, Mrs. Robert H. Reck, Mrs. Wymen Bartlett, Mrs. Myron W. Hughes, Mrs. Ray Hills, Mrs. Paul Nutting, Mrs. Perry Richwine, Mrs. Roy R. Parrott, Mrs. Norman Petersen and Mrs. George H. Wilcox.

Packard Opens Up This Section

Plymouth Packard boosters will be interested in knowing that there has been a Packard agency opened in this territory at 110 West Main street, Northville, by Ray Richardson. This is the first time that the Packard company has ever had an agency in this part of Wayne county, although the company has always had many buyers of their high type cars. The Packard entered the medium lower priced field this spring for the first time and a number of the new models are now on display in the sales room at Northville. The Packard has an exceptional number of interesting new features to offer the public this year.

SOFT BALL PLAYERS TO MEET ON MONDAY EVE

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Florence Stader, one of the teachers in the Plymouth public schools who wrote the semi-religious musical drama, "The Kingdom Come," has been invited to present it at Caro on the evening of April 26. Little Dorothy Carley, Roy Wheeler, Frank Hamill, Mrs. Sutherland and Beverly Hauk who have taken important parts in the drama in the past, will go from here to join with the Caro singers who take part in the affair.

Dr. and Mrs. Haven Doane and family of Pleasant Ridge and Mrs. Frederic Dodshon of Detroit will be dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. E. A. Kimmell and Miss Florence Littler.

Mrs. Ruth Ann Dowd of Charlevoix will be the guest of Mrs. J. P. Morrow over Easter at her home on Starkweather avenue.

Little Nancy Morrow celebrated her third birthday Saturday having four little friends, Margaret Jean Willoughby, Edson Whipple, Roderick Cassidy and Jackie Renwick, for lunch. The guests enjoyed games and story tellings.

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

$34,000,000 AN ACRE

ONE of the familiar legends of American history is that the Dutch bought the whole island of Manhattan from the Indians for $24 worth of rum, beads and other trade goods. Remembering that, consider this item of real estate values:

A few years ago one of the Mrs Vanderbilts wanted to buy a plot of ground in East Fifty-Seventh street between First avenue and the river. On it stood one of the five brownstone mansions, built in the '70s by Harvey Dennis, a leading realtor of his day. An examination of the abstracts revealed a flaw in the title to a narrow strip of land which ran straight through the middle of the site of the house.

So experts in a title guarantee and trust company were set to work. It was necessary to hunt up the six Dennis heirs and get them to sign a quitclaim deed.

The search for the heirs was a long one. After writing more than 800 letters, they were finally located. They agreed to sign the quitclaim deed for $200 apiece—$1,200 in all. That wasn't much, of course. But neither was the land to which they were surrendering title. It was exactly 18 feet long and one-inch wide—a little over one and one-half square feet. But it cost Mrs. Vanderbilt $5.50 a square inch.

If you could get the same price for your farm it would be worth $34,498,520 an acre!

Special Good Friday Devotional Service

The Calvary Baptist church, 455 South Main street, announces a special Good Friday devotional service from two till three o'clock this Friday afternoon. The public is cordially invited to attend. Those who cannot stay for the entire service are welcomed to come when they can, and go when they must.

Mrs. N. Neale will provide the music; telling the story of the Cross in the form of sacred songs. The pastor's devotional meditation is on "Two Views of Calvary, Which Is Yours?"

Calvary Church meets in the Tonquish Temple building right in the downtown area. If you live or work nearby it will be especially convenient to attend. The doors will be open early. The service will commence and close promptly. Mr. Neale, the pastor, states, "Our one aim at all times is to be a friendly, Bible church where Christ is preached. You will feel our welcome."

WINS SECOND PRIZE

Alfred Morton has just been advised that he stands second high in the state in the contest among representatives of the Automobile Club of Michigan for the month of March. One more membership in the club would have tied him for first place. This is the second time within the present year that he has come within striking distance of first place.

THEY STUDIED SCHOOL CHILDREN...

In Tuscumbia, Alabama, they wanted to find out whether lighting makes any difference in a child's grades. They chose two identical rooms in a school. One room had average lighting. The other had very good lighting, with a switch to turn the lights on and off automatically. The test covered a period of three years. Classes and teachers were interchanged scientifically between the two rooms, to eliminate any possible differences in individual ability. At the end of the test, it was found that there were 3 times as many failures in the poorly lighted class room as in the well-lighted room!

Home lighting is equally important if your child is to do his best work. Here are 5 simple rules for good lighting to follow in your home:

- (1) Use correct size lamp bulbs—"WATTS." In table and floor lamps with three sockets, use 40 watts in each socket; with two sockets, 60 watts; with one socket, 100 watts.
- (2) Have at least one-tenth as much light in the rest of the room as you have on your book, newspaper, sewing, etc.
- (3) Use SHADES on all lamp bulbs to prevent GLARE.
- (4) Use shades with light-colored linings to get the most light.
- (5) Have enough lighting fixtures or portable lamps to insure the proper intensity of light throughout the room.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Annual Meeting Monday Evening

state. At the beginning of the year, I recommended that the collection department of the credit bureau be turned over to the Detroit bureau in order to save money, and to obtain the benefit of their large organization and specialized experience. I helped to arrange two group luncheons in their Detroit offices which were attended by Plymouth and Northville business and professional men, and helped to line up our local physicians and dentists on a uniform credit and collection policy. This hookup with the Detroit bureau and mutually bettering conditions has resulted in a substantial increase in collections.

"As far as the department of state is concerned, the office is an asset to the community and the revenue from its operation is a part of our annual budget. The management of the Plymouth Branch involves a lot of detail work, and during rush periods requires the major part of my time.

"The first part of the year there was considerable industrial activity, and at the present time there is not a vacant industrial plant in Plymouth. The Plymouth Felt Products, Inc. is employing 900 men, their highest number to date. The New Process Rubber Company is still in an experimental state, but prospects are considered favorable to get into production in the near future. The Plymouth Concrete Company is still an unknown factor.

"Activities of particular interest to our retailers included a large mid-summer clearance sale, the annual Christmas Treasure Hunt, a trophy awarded by my board of directors for the best decorated store front during the Christmas season (won by Wild & Co.) and our best effort to date to get our business sections decorated in the holiday spirit. Happened by limited time and funds, a start was made, and made, and it should be possible this year to successfully rival any city of comparable size anywhere.

"With interest in the pennant race at fever heat, we were able through the efforts of C. H. Bennett to obtain a large block of tickets for the first game of the last Yankee-Tiger series of the year. Nearly 500 local fans made it Plymouth Day at Navin Field.

"Stirred up by an unprecedented number of requests for advertising and promotional schemes, a large number of our business men held a meeting in January, and entered into an agreement to protect themselves and each other by referring all such requests to a committee for consideration. Signs were made up and distributed, and communications were sent to all civic and church organizations asking for their cooperation.

"Ballots were distributed among our members in February asking them to express their preference as to which projects should receive first consideration in the list of projects then being studied by city officials for approval of the state planning commission. Closing Tonquish Creek headed the list.

"By far the greatest amount of time and effort expended on any objective was the steady hammering away at the better housing program started last fall, and continued up to and including the present time. Several meetings were held last fall, but when it became apparent that loans in any volume were not available locally then, and with winter coming on, it was decided to postpone any major campaign until spring. In the intervening months however, a local FHA committee was organized under the chairmanship of George A. Smith, and scarcely an issue of the Plymouth Mail came out without some reference to the federal housing program.

"In recent weeks those identified with the building industry have become active, our banks qualified under both sections of the FHA, Plymouth and our rural routes were covered with FHA literature through the cooperation of our postoffice officials, a house to house canvass was started which unearthed a substantial number of prospects for painting and repairs, a public meeting was held, and prospects are encouraging for some building activity during the balance of the year.

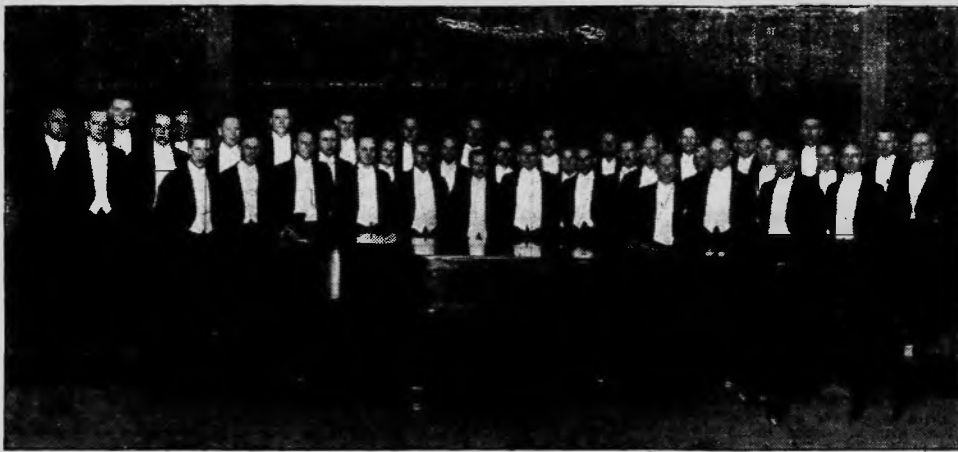

"From every angle, ranging from the most practical to the most idealistic, I do not see how I could have worked on any program containing more merit. Faced with an acute housing shortage, objectives sought were increased employment in the long dormant building trades, which will mean improved business for everyone, a restoration of private credit and initiative, a stabilization and improvement of property values, a rekindling of the desire for home ownership all of which will tone up the physical appearance of our community.

"And the most important objective of all, in my opinion, is the bright promise of substantial residential development in Plymouth and vicinity. It is a challenge demanding our best thought and cooperative effort."

Mrs. Ralph Looney, Mrs. M. G. Blunk, Mrs. Orson Polley, Mr. Thomas Moss, Mrs. Floyd Eckles, Mrs. Harold Link, Mrs. Jenn Pelton and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, members of the Octette bridge club, were guests of Mrs. Paul Rutz Wednesday afternoon, at a dessert-bridge at her home on Ann Arbor Trail.

Don't put things off, put them over.

Orpheus Club Will Appear Here in Concert on Saturday, April 27th

Thrift Gardens Will Be Started

The first motion made by the newly elected city commissioner, E. L. Wilson following his induction into office Monday night, paves the way for numerous thrift gardens for a number of Plymouth residents who have asked for an opportunity to grow some of the supplies they will need during the coming summer and fall.

City Manager Cookingham stated that he had received several requests of this nature. It developed that the city has a considerable portion of ground of fairly good soil lying just east of the cemetery on Plymouth road.

As the result of the action recommended by Commissioner Wilson, a 20 acre portion of the ground will be plowed under and prepared for planting. The county commission will provide the seed for the planting.

While some other communities in this part of the state have been providing thrift gardens

On Saturday evening, April 27, in the high school auditorium, the famed Orpheus club composed of some of Detroit's best singers, will come to Plymouth for another concert. Because of the popularity of the club and its fame as a musical organization, it is anticipated that there will be another sell-out and those planning upon attending should not delay in securing their tickets.

Abram Ray Taylor writing in The American Organist of New York city, made the following comment about the Orpheus club:

"To find a body of business and professional men who sing for the love of singing a class of music that is not merely amusing and entertaining, but a serious selection of the best of the Male Chorus literature, with a perception of its most hidden message, is a joy for several years past, this will be Plymouth's first venture into the plan. A similar proposal three years ago died in its inception and never got to the attention of the proper officials.

Mr. Wilson believes that if the gardens can be properly cared for, much can be produced. There was no objection to the plan.

and a most encouraging experience. Such is the contribution to the art life of Detroit, now famous for its Organs and Organists and for the most satisfying of Symphony Orchestras, by the Orpheus Club of Detroit. This is the result of painstaking study on the part of Charles Frederic Morse, a conductor by the grace of God and his careful steady training over a long period of years. To watch him without baton, but with only graceful arms and hands and a sensitive body, conduct the Club through a program including such antipodes of musical matter as a hummed transcription (by the Conductor) of a Beethoven Piano Sonata movement, to a Borodin Folk Song transcription, through the "Rolling Down to Rio" and the "Dudley Buck 'On the Sea,'" is a delight. The Club is well balanced and does "eight part work"—solo and accompaniment—and thrilling unison work with equal ease and enjoyment.

"Well selected programs done can amuse result in inspiration to all, conductor, choir, audience and even tired critics."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiseman entertained the following relatives in honor of the latter's birthday which occurred last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Orley Wood and friends of Detroit.

OBITUARIES

JAMES WILSEY

James Wilsey, formerly of Plymouth, passed away at the home of his son, George Wilsey at Cleveland, Ohio, on Tuesday, April 16, at the age of 83 years. He was the husband of the late Eliza Wilsey, and father of George Wilsey of Cleveland, Ohio, Ezra Wilsey of Adrian, Michigan and Mrs. William I. Ward of Detroit. Michigan. The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, from which place funeral services were held Thursday, April 18th, 1935 at 2:30 p.m. Two beautiful songs were rendered by Mrs. J. T. Chapman and accompanied by Mrs. M. J. O'Connor. Interment in Newburg cemetery. Rev. Walter Nichol officiating.

Over Thousand See Donkey Game

(By Pilgrim Prints Staff)

The Donkey basketball game held in the high school auditorium Monday evening drew a record crowd of over 1,000 people. This was one event from which people were turned away, the doors had to be locked shortly after eight o'clock as there was no more room available. Many people could not believe that they were going to see real live donkeys playing basketball and when the players came onto the floor dressed in their foolish garbs, they were certain that they were being fooled. After a short explanation of the rules by Pat McAllister, owner of the donkeys and originator of this type of game, the animals were driven onto the court amid yells and applause. Soon after the game was started, Mr. Evans, who had the fastest owner of the donkeys, made a basket. Latture got the ball, but his steed seemed tired and Jim had to get off and push, losing the ball.

Bentley made two baskets and was trying for another when he was knocked off his donkey. "Beef" Matheson, who might better have carried his donkey made a basket. Whoops! there goes Pukhwoke underneath his donkey. Willoughby's animal is acting up a little; it made up its mind to move a bit. Dr. Hoover plunged through with his football uniform and rode his gallant steed under the basket. After falling off twice and missing the back of the donkey, he made a basket, but it wasn't his fault, because Latture, who was guarding him, could not make his donkey move. The game went on amid yells, falls, bumps and kicks, and finally the faculty came out ahead. The final score being 16 to 10 with an even number of kicks on both teams.

LeRoy Naylor, just back from St. Petersburg, Florida, where he spent the winter, says that that progressive city of the south-lands enjoyed its greatest winter crowd of tourists this year. Mr. Naylor has been a Florida visitor for many years. Like other Plymouth residents who spent the winter in the south, he states that the weather has been ideal, except that it was a little cold late in December. Considerable damage was done to some of the fruit orchards by the frost at that time.

Come to Church Easter

OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL CHURCH
Rev. F. C. Lefevre
Easter Services

Easter, better known to the Christian world as the feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord from the dead, is a day celebrated with joy. Six weeks have been spent in making preparation for this day. A time of thoughtful consideration upon man's destiny. The church has given special attention to her faithful during the season of Lent, so as they may be found an acceptable people in the sight of God on this Easter Sunday morning. The people of Plymouth are to be commended upon the manifestation of their Christian spirit during Lent. Each service conducted during the past six weeks were well attended and surely the God of Love will shower upon all His blessings. Easter is again a red letter day for the parish; because some twenty-five children will make their First Holy Communion together with five adult converts. These services will be conducted at 8 o'clock Easter Sunday morning with special music, services, sermon, and Mass. If you have never attended a catholic Easter service, a cordial invitation is hereby extended to you. The catholic services while being ritualistic, carry with them an impression never to be forgotten.

The Rev. C. E. Steves a member of the parish for the past five years will be ordained to the priesthood Easter Sunday morning at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Grand Rapids. This young priest will sing his First Solemn High Mass Sunday, April 28 at 10 o'clock in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. It is expected that many notable clergymen, and Nuns will be here for the occasion. Elaborate preparations are being made so as to make this day a gala day for the parish and parishioners. As this is the first young man of the parish to become a priest, we feel honored for this blessing and trust that the Rev. C. Steves may spend many fruitful years in the services of God, Country and Humanity.

METHODIST NOTES

6:15 a.m. Easter Sunrise service. 10:00 a.m. Morning worship. 11:30 a.m. Sunday school. 6:30 p.m. Epworth League. 7:30 p.m. Easter Sunday school exercises. The service of baptism and reception of members will be held at the ten o'clock service for all who desire it. The Sunday school program which has usually been given at the morning hour, will this year be given at the hour of evening worship. At the evening service April 28 the A. Cappis and the Spring Arbor Seminary and Junior College, located at Spring Arbor, Michigan, will be with us to give a sacred concert. Each year this chorus makes a tour of Michigan towns and cities. This year the chorus expects to make its closing appearance for the year in Detroit Sunday morning, April 28. However it has been arranged for them to stop at Plymouth on their way home and give us the same concert they are giving in Detroit.

BEREA CHAPEL

Sunday school, 10:00 a.m. Evening service, 7:45 p.m. Wednesday evening, 7:45 p.m. Prayer meeting Friday evening at Chapel, 281 Union St., 7:45 p.m. Please remember to send a card to Rev. James Davis, 259 E. Ann Arbor, Plymouth, Mich. If you are a shut-in and would like a worker from the Chapel to call on you and read the Bible which is the inspired Word of God where we always find a word of comfort and cheer when discouraged and weary. Special revival meetings beginning Sunday May 5th, and continuing every evening except Saturday at 7:45 p.m. Mrs. L. Sanderwood of Flint, Michigan, evangelist. Come and hear this speaker who is truly concerned for the word of the Lord, who gives forth the old fashioned Gospel in the old fashioned way, without fear or favor, as God's message to the world. Everyone cordially invited to attend any of all these services. "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." Isa. 1-18.

The Story of the Bible Told in Pictures

The Vision of Jacob's Ladder.—"And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba and went toward Heran. And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night. And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven; and behold the angels of God ascending and descending on it. And behold, the Lord stood above it, and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth; and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south; and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee. And Jacob awakened out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place; and I knew it not."—Gen. 28: 10-16. One of a series of Bible Pictures made by Merian in 1625.

"Doctrine of Atonement" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, April 21. Among the Bible citations is this passage (Ezek. 18:27): "Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: "Wisdom and Love may require many sacrifices of self to save us from sin. One sacrifice, however great, is insufficient to pay the debt of sin. The atonement requires constant self-improvement on the sinner's part."

The friends and disciples of Christ ever proceeded from the certainty of His resurrection in their proclamation of the Gospel. And this they did out of the firm assurance of their faith, willing, yea even proud to be privileged to seal their testimony with their very lives in the Roman arenas.

The early apostles were confirmed in their faith in the resurrection in an unusually striking manner: The women who hastened to the tomb before sunrise were greeted by the angel with the joyous proclamation: "Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen, as He said." Simon Peter and John also heard the angel's word, but perceiving further, overwhelming confirmation of the joyful proclamation: they entered the tomb, and there found the linen cloths in which Jesus had been swathed, still rolled from head to foot, as though containing the body of the Lord, but collapsed and empty.

As in the morning, through the sealed walls of the grave, the risen Christ had issued from the tomb, so He entered the house, where the disciples were gathered behind locked doors, and conversed with them. He ate before them, doubting Thomas is convinced, when the Lord permits him to place his fingers upon the imprint of the wounds in His hands and His feet and His side. For forty days He appears again and again among His assembled disciples, and finally gathers them together on a hill in Galilee, where in flesh and blood, before their very eyes, He gloriously ascends to the right hand of God the Father.

The enmity of the unbelievers against a Savior whom they declare to be dead and not risen, the unabated fury of Satan in the infidel world of the present day to uproot faith particularly in this sublime fact of the resurrection; and over against this fury and persecution His continued preservation of the Church and the Gospel of Christ to the present day: the mighty powers which still accompany the Word concerning the death and the resurrection of the Christ for the Salvation of sinners; and the inspiring growth and progress of the faith in the world of today by the Church which He founded on the fact of His resurrection. For further evidence, not alone of the greatness but also of the significance of this victory: "The Lord is risen indeed!" The finest hymn of praise ever penned concerning the resurrection is that of the word of God in First Corinthians, Chapter 15: "If Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. If in this life only, we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. For since by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at His coming. But some man will say: How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die; and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain: it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain; but God giveth it a body as it hath pleased Him, and to every seed his own body. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption; it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of Death is sin, and the strength of sin is the Law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Former Mayor Is Back From South

As brown as a Blackfoot Indian, former Mayor George Robinson and his family returned a few days ago from a three-month stay in Florida. Not so long ago the mayor reached Plymouth than he found plenty to do and for a few days was busy pouring oil on some ruffled political waters.

Mr. Robinson states that they enjoyed a most wonderful stay in Florida. The weather was ideal and he certainly looks as though the winter had been a most pleasant one for him. In going to Florida they encountered some icy highways and on the return they drove for two days through a heavy downpour of rain.

"I've come back feeling fine. We have never enjoyed a vacation more thoroughly than we have this one. There were more people in Florida this winter than for many years past, residents of that state told us. But everyone seemed to be happy and trying to forget any troubles that they might have."

left behind," said the retiring mayor. He declared that the newest thing in Florida seemed to be a trend towards the near-nude; and that young and old apparently enjoyed getting just as much sunshine as possible. But the biggest surprise of all about the former mayor's trip is the fact that he didn't do any fishing at all while down south. He declares that he had plenty of invitations to go out and try his luck for tarpons and sail fish but that he never once was tempted to dangle the rod and line.
