Eastern Star To Celebrate May 21

On Tuesday evening, May 21, Plymouth Chapter No. 115, O.E.S. will celebrate its forty-first anniversary at a 6:30 dinner.

The honored guests of the evening will be the Past Matrons and Past Patrons. This will be followed by a short entertainment including a history of Plymouth chapter, a recitation and a solo.

The initiatory work of the evening will be exemplified by Past Matrons and Past Patrons. There are two candidates to receive the degrees.

It is expected that Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Farmington, Northville and Entire Nons, South Lyons chapters will be represented on that evening.

The committees in charge are looking forward to a large attendance to both the dinner and evening ceremony.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Eastern Star members and their families.

More Children Bitten By Dogs

Reports are still coming to the city hall regarding children being bitten by dogs.

Anyone knowing of such dog biting cases should see that the dog is immediately tied up and watched for a period of at least ten days in order to determine whether or not the dog is infected with rabies.

The case of the mad dog recently discovered in Plymouth may result in additional cases being found, therefore it is necessary that close watch be maintained over all dogs and as soon as they show any signs of being ill they should be immediately taken care of.

Miss Laurabelle Wileiden has discontinued her school for the remainder of this semester on account of ill health.

Plymouth Wins Second Place In Twin Valley Athletic Contests

Harold Wagenschutz Wins Greatest Number Of Firsts

At the annual track meet of the Twin Valley Athletic Association held at Ferry Field in Ann Arbor last Saturday, Plymouth landed in second place. The meet took place under the auspices of the University of Michigan and all of the equipment for the various events was furnished by that school.

Not only did Plymouth win second place but Harold Wagenschutz, one of the Plymouth contestants, was by far the outstanding individual athlete in the contest.

He scored four firsts and set four new league records as follows: 120 yd. high hurdles, 16 sec. 200 yd. low hurdles, 24.1 sec. High jump, 5 ft. 10 in. Broad jump, 21 ft. 3 1/2 in.

The exhibition of athletic ability on the part of Wagenschutz placed Plymouth's team in its position to take second place in the meet.

Cline, D. second, low hurdles. Tied for second in high jump. Kinsey, J. second, shot put. Ash, J. third, 440 yd. dash.

Williams, J. Tied for third in pole vault. Elliott, E. fifth in mile run. Innis, R. tied for fifth in pole vault.

Following are the scores of the various schools entered: River Rouge, 58. Plymouth 37. Ecorse 33 1/2. Dearborn 31. Ypsilanti 15. Wayne 5 1/2.

This week the Plymouth track team is appearing at the Ypsilanti Normal track in the regional track meet of the Michigan high school athletic association.

Annual School Election To Be Held On June 10

Nominating Petitions To Be Filed Before May the 25th

The annual school election of the Plymouth district will be held on Monday, June 10.

Petitions for nomination for a member of the board of education must be filed with Claude H. Buzzard, secretary, on or before Saturday, May 25. The blanks for these petitions may be obtained at the office of the superintendent of schools or from the secretary of the board of education.

There is to be one member of the board of education elected this year to succeed Charles H. Rathburn, Jr. who is being urged to permit his name to be on the ballot again.

All who have not registered in Plymouth school district No. 1. Fractional will be required to register if they wish to vote. Registrations will be taken by Mr. Buzzard, secretary of the board, or at the superintendent's office at the high school, anytime during the school day up to and including Friday, May 31. Saturday, June 1, the board of registration will convene at the superintendent's office at the high school between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.

Further notice of registration and election will appear in The Plymouth Mail in the issues of May 24, 31 and June 7.

Berries Canned For Over Half A Century Used to Make Pies

Maybe the teachers of modern domestic science with all of the new fangled ideas and appliances know how to can fruit so that it will keep several years, but Mrs. H. D. Peters, a former well known resident of Plymouth road near Newburg now a resident of Ann Arbor, can can fruits and berries so that they will keep a half century and taste just as good when taken from the can as when first packed.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hake of Penniman avenue decided to spend the Sunday with Mrs. Hake's mother in Ann Arbor. They drove over to the home of Mrs. Peters early in the forenoon, arriving just about the time that Mrs. Peters was preparing for the dinner.

"I guess I will use some blackberries I've had canned before you were born," said Mrs. Peters to her daughter.

"You know I have kept a lot of my fruit for years. We moved it from Plymouth over here and it hasn't been used up very fast," she explained.

The blackberry pie with berries taken from a can that had been prepared something like 50 years ago was opened.

The pie was made—and never did a pie taste more delicious or could packed berries be more delightful than were the ones canned when Grover Cleveland first became president.

Now let some instructor of domestic science try and beat that record of a farmer's wife who knew and still knows how to prepare fruits and berries for future use!

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gittins of South Bend, Indiana, spent the week-end and Mother's Day with his mother, Mrs. George Gittins of Ann Arbor Trall West.

Business Booming At Ford Plant In Canada—Stockholders at Meeting

George Wilcox

William Conner, one of the original stockholders of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, and George Wilcox, Plymouth, attended the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company held a few days ago in Windsor.

Present were all the officers of the company, including Edsel Ford, chairman of the board of directors.

Mr. Conner states that the reports of the company indicate that its present business is the best in the history of the company.

"More cars have already been made this year than were produced in 1933. Production is steadily mounting and by the end of the year the company believes its business will be the greatest it has ever enjoyed. A completed car comes off the line under its own power every five minutes," stated Mr. Conner.

"I asked Edsel Ford about the plans for Northville. He told me that they were going to get busy and erect the new plant there as soon as possible. He said the company had to have additional valve production. He also stated that the present factory building was not going to be taken down, at least not for the present."

The new Northville plant will employ a thousand men when completed. It has already been staked out and plans are now being carefully checked it is stated.

Harry Robinson and other Plymouth members of the Northville-Wayne County Fair Association board of directors have been notified of a meeting that will take place this evening at the village hall in Northville to prepare for the fair to be held this year during August.

According to Secretary Floyd Northrop who was in Plymouth yesterday in connection with the meeting, the Association plans a considerable change in the program this year.

The Northville high school band, which has recently been considerably enlarged, has been given a contract for fair week and the race program, as fairly well under way.

Mr. Northrop states that there seems to be much more interest in the fair this year than for a number of years past and they hope to have a record attendance.

This is safety week in Plymouth and the accident Tuesday evening is the first one to take place in Plymouth in several months.

Homer Burton Killed

Fate seemed to decree that the one thing railroad linemen who are required to use speeders in their work live in fear of the automobile crossing—should be responsible for the sudden death Wednesday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock of Homer Burton, for years a well known resident of this city.

Mr. Burton was making his return trip to Plymouth from the Detroit yards on the speeder he used in his work. Always careful as he approached highway crossings, he had slowed down for the crossing at Inkster. One machine had gone over the crossing and he was proceeding slowly towards home when another car driven by George M. Bowen of Detroit, crashed into him and sent him hurtling from his speeder onto the paving. His skull was fractured and he died instantly. Apparently Mr. Burton thought the driver of the car that hit his speeder had seen him as he started across the highway.

Mr. Burton was 53 years of age and had lived in Plymouth many years. He had been employed by the Pere Marquette for nearly 20 years and was regarded as one of the company's most careful employees. The family home is at 264 North Harvey street. Mr. Burton was well known and highly respected in this city. Mrs. Burton and a daughter survives.

The body was brought to the Schrader Brothers Funeral Home, and later taken to his home from which place funeral services will be held Sunday, May 19th, 1935 at 2 p.m. in the parlors of the Plymouth Masonic Lodge, No. 47 F. & A. M. with the Shrine as escort.

Three Story Addition To Be Erected By The Daisy Mfg. Co. Immediately

Plymouth Turns Over $469 to Tots

Charles Bennett to Honor Those Who Made Highest Sales

Plymouth has turned over to the Michigan Society for Crippled Children the total sum of $469.45 as the result of the real campaign recently conducted in this community under the direction of Charles Bennett, general chairman of the crippled children's committee. The total figure exceeds the total raised by any other city of this size in Michigan and almost doubles the amount turned in by nearby competing communities.

Mr. Bennett has expressed his appreciation to all of the workers and he is planning to honor the twenty highest winners, ten men and ten women, as his personal guests at a meeting of the Rotary club possibly on June 7. The date will be definitely announced soon.

The ten highest individual sales records were made by Miss Mabel Spicer, Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. Maude Bennett, Mrs. John Bickenstaff, Mrs. L. P. Cookingham, Mrs. L. R. Crane, Mrs. W. J. Worth, Miss Sarah Gayde, Mrs. Hohesiel, Mrs. S. W. Spicer, Mrs. Ray Johns and Mrs. Sidney Strong of the ladies group. The following men who had the east side of the city were the ten high, Floyd Eckles, R. M. Daane, L. H. Felton, G. M. W. E. Lonsard, E. K. Eaton, Ralph Lorenz, Earl Mastick, C. H. Rauch, and Don Rydner.

The work involving the great expenditure during the month of April was a new coal storage shed being constructed by the Eckles Coal and Supply company. The fact that building permits are increasing is an encouraging sign and indicates that future months will bring forth additional new building and repair work on Plymouth homes.

Committee members in charge of the Flower Market held in Kellogg park last Saturday are highly elated over the success of the event. By far more people took part in the affair and patronized it than a year ago.

So gratifying was the outcome of the market that there is little question but what it will be made a permanent annual event, states Mrs. Cass Hough who was chairman of the committee in charge.

Members of the Kiwanis club are planning for one of the outstanding events of the year Monday night when their ladies will be present and the Wayne club members and their ladies will be guests. There has also been invited all of the former members of the club and their wives.

A special meeting was held by the Girl Scouts of Troop Two, last Friday evening in honor of Mother's Day.

Several poems and songs were enjoyed during the evening. Later each Mother was presented with a sweet pea corsage from her daughter.

The girls of the troop wish to thank the Improved Order of Redmen and the Degree of Focahontas for their cooperation in making this party and the troop a success.

There are now twenty-two girls in the troop under the direction of their captain, Lucille Mathias. The troop has just received word from National headquarters that they have been accepted as a troop. Also their sponsors have been accepted.

All of the scouts will be ready for their investiture ceremony the last of May.

Plans Given Final Approval And Contracts Will Be Let Within Next Few Days Say Officials

Company Preparing For Better Business and More Convenience in Handling Production—Building Will Provide 11,000 Additional Feet of Space

In anticipation of improved business and to facilitate the handling of its products, The Daisy Manufacturing company has had plans prepared and let contracts within the next few days for a three story addition to its plant, according to an announcement made yesterday by Edward C. Hough of the company.

The building will provide 11,000 square feet of additional floor space and will be 46x80, adjoining the present plant on the south side along Union street.

Mr. Hough has just given his final approval of the plans which have been prepared by Smith, Hoshman and Grylls, one of Detroit's best known firm of architects and engineers. The designers of the new building have asked for bids and will award the contract and it is expected that construction will be started within the immediate future.

The building will be of brick and concrete construction with plenty of outside light for all three floors of the structure.

In addition to this new building, the company will put in a new heating plant in what is generally called the old lighting plant. This plant has in the past been used for storage purposes, but it is ideally suited for boiler installation.

To provide room for the new structure, a small building which has been used for steel storage will be wrecked at once.

The new building will be used chiefly for service purposes to present existing department. The first floor will be for storage of steel but will be so arranged that in case of future expansion, big presses can easily be installed when needed.

The second and third floors will service the assembly department and the box making department.

The structure which has been termed the new "service building" has been arranged so that in case business does continue to improve and the company should be able to get its share of new business, expansion of the production departments can be easily accomplished.

It is hoped to have the building completed late in the summer so that when fall business is on in full swing it will be ready for use.

Since The Daisy company has done any construction work. The last addition was erected in 1915. For over half a century The Daisy company makers of practically all the air rifles produced in the world and now one of the big toy producing plants of America, has been the chief industry of this community. Its success has been responsible largely for the development and growth of this remarkable little city.

When the depression started four years ago, the Daisy officials launched the biggest advertising campaign in the history of the company in order to get a sufficient amount of business to keep all the business they could. Not only did the company resort to extensive advertising, but every one of the various officials took their grips in hand and went out into the byways and highways after all the business they could get. While much of it was taken at cost, the result of it was that the entire plant has been kept in constant operation and all of the employees of the company have had steady work at times when other industrial plants have stood in idleness.

Plymouth has had less of a welfare problem than any city of its size in Michigan, and this has been partly due to the success of the Daisy officials in getting old business and creating new business.

"We feel too, that we can be of additional aid just at this time in the building program the government is so anxious to have started to lighten the country. While there is no immediate and pressing need for the new addition, we know that it will provide work in the building trades and of course we are hoping that as business does improve we will be ready to take care of the share of that we might be able to secure," stated Mr. Hough.

This announcement just made by The Daisy, coupled with the fact that the treasury department is expected to let the contract for a new post office building in Plymouth any day now, assures for this community a busy summer.

To Contest New Contempt Case

Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock Mrs. Caroline O. Dayton must appear in circuit court before Judge Allan Campbell in answer to a contempt of court charge that has been brought by a committee from the Suburban Bar association composed of Fred J. Cochrane of Northville, John H. Crandall of Plymouth and Russell D. Parr of Wayne.

The case is the outgrowth of charges made by these three attorneys that Mrs. Dayton, who has for years conducted a collection business, has practiced law in the municipal court of Plymouth in the pursuit of her work, although she is not legally entitled to practice the profession, having never been admitted to the bar in Michigan.

It is contended that she has started proceedings in court and has appeared in court representing the interests of litigants in court proceedings and the petition comes off the line under its own power every five minutes," stated Mr. Conner.

"I asked Edsel Ford about the plans for Northville. He told me that they were going to get busy and erect the new plant there as soon as possible. ## A PERSONALITY FOR EVERY TOWN

There is so much merit and so many worthy suggestions in a recent address delivered by Edward J. Mehren, president of the Portland Cement Association, before the Inland Daily Press Association convention in Chicago that The Plymouth Mail believes it worthy of reproduction in full. It is an excellent editorial and it can be read with profit by every one in Plymouth. It follows:

It may be admitted at the outset that the title of this address carries an implied challenge. No one is willing to admit that his town lacks personality, least of all the newspaper man. Yet, on analysis, I think we should agree. Every town has individuality, in that it differs from every other town, but only in some is that individuality so marked that it becomes a personality. Does not that bring us to common ground?

But why bother about a personality, of what value is it? There are, as I see it, both material and spiritual benefits. A personality helps attract and hold trade, local and tourist. From that trade comes community growth and vigor, and without these a community cannot maintain or raise its standards of living and each year become a better place in which to live.

In the development and strengthening of a town's personality there is no more potent factor than the newspaper. It will share in the general gain of the town.

Community personalities, of course, are as diverse as those of human beings. They may be historical, as those of Boston, St. Augustine, San Antonio. They may be scenic or geographical, as those of Denver, Seattle, San Francisco; or intellectual, as those of Cambridge, Ithaca, Berkeley.

Cincinnati's personality lies in good part in its music and art schools. St. Louis glories in its open-air opera.

The personalities of some towns revolve around a particular institution, public or private, commercial or non-commercial. The mention of Rochester, Minn., brings to mind the Mayo Clinic. Dayton suggests the National Cash Register Company; Schenectady, the General Electric; Battle Creek, the famous sanitarium and the Postum factory. In some places a relatively small institution, such as the Inns at Riverside, and at Santa Maria, Calif., gives color to the whole town.

Not a few derive their personalities from the character of their public improvements. Of these, the marvelous highway system of Detroit and its surrounding county of Wayne, the civic center developments at St. Louis and at San Francisco, the magnificent public buildings at Washington, the parks at Philadelphia, the lake-front improvement at Chicago, are notable examples.

It is obvious, of course, that great cities have composite personalities. New York, for example, means many things to many people—theatres, music, art, business, architecture, shopping.

The important point is that even small cities like St. Petersburg, Fla.; Lake Placid, N. Y.; Rochester, Minn.; Riverside, Calif., can and do have personalities.

Whence do they spring? At times from single individuals—the Mayo brothers at Rochester; Doctor Kellogg at Battle Creek; John H. Patterson at Dayton. The personalities of these towns are the lengthened shadows of great men.

Or they may spring from institutions that represent long cooperative effort, such as our universities; or from an aggregation of industries due to the advantages of location, raw materials supplies, cheap power, shipping facilities, etc.

It is patent, that every town cannot by mere wishing raise up a dynamic individual or endow itself with advantages in scenery, historical association, location, or in raw material, power supply, etc. Only a few can invite conspicuous cultural institutions, such as colleges and universities.

This would seem a discouraging outlook. But it is not. A few avenues, only, are closed. A thousand remain open. A potent avenue is through community effort. And this is as it should be, for unless a sought-for personality is truly the expression of community thought and community life, it is false and the effort will come to failure.

There are personalities a-plenty to show what can be done by community effort: Santa Fe is remembered for its Indian-Pueblo architecture; Santa Barbara, a glorious town, is the outstanding example of a city of homogeneous architecture; Riverside, Calif., will never be forgotten by those who enter it through its highway entrance from the west, even though they miss its great glory, the Mission Inn.

Lake Placid today would be unknown. Atlantic City just another seacoast village were it not for community enterprise.

What shall be the personality for our town? No one can answer that but the thinking men of the town itself. They must grasp the elements that can be built into distinguishing marks.

Can't we get a jumping off place for our thinking, by trying to visualize America's future? We are in the Machine or Power Age. It has immensely increased our leisure. It will increase it still more.

How help the citizen to absorb it? Let's think of three groups of occupations, physical, cultural, recreational.

Under physical, could come the development of one-acre home plots where the occupant could raise part of his sustenance. Could citizens through building and loan associations further such a movement?

Development of handicrafts offers an engaging cultural outlet. Many a city might well teach handicrafts to young and old, encourage them by competitions, and thereby develop in the community a new artistic sense, a source of gratification and joy, and a means of revenue. Community theaters, musical organizations also come in the group of cultural activities. Oberammergau is only a hamlet.

The provision of wholesome recreational facilities is particularly incumbent on communities, not only for children but for young men and women. Parks, playgrounds, forest preserves, tennis courts, outdoor bowling alleys, swimming pools, even amusement parks of the Coney Island type, when done as the Westchester (N.Y.) County Park Commission has done them, give opportunity for expression of personality. I can visualize recreational facilities so laid out and run that visitors will de-tour many miles to see and use them.

But note that if they are to have personality they must be laid out, directed, managed by intelligent men and women. A flat tire cannot give personality either to an automobile or to a community project. In every community now there are college men and women willing to work and think for the community. A little leadership will bring them out.

But, my friends, no matter what personality we select to develop, there is always one element that must accompany it—a good appearance. The finest community effort will fail to enthrall either inhabitant or visitor if the town be dowdy.

In very fact, many community personalities rest solely upon physical appearance. I have already cited the architecture of Santa Fe and Santa Barbara, the lakefront of Chicago, the civic center being developed at St. Louis. Let me suggest also the New England colonial villages and Williamsburg, Va.

Our towns must modernize, get in the tempo of today's handsome automobiles, become things of beauty in streets and squares, public and business buildings and in homes. We insist on this year's automobile, today's radio, sleek looking refrigerators, gas-stoves that disguise their utilitarian purpose, bathrooms that shame the old Romans, color in the kitchen. Yet we live and do public and private business in homes and buildings that were back numbers in 1900 and haven't had a trowel or hammer put to them since. They barely know the paint brush.

Community movements for modernization of homes, beautification of streets and home grounds, will work wonders if persisted in for years. Some have conducted such campaigns. Fine. They deserve public thanks.

Let me remark here, that as an element in creating a community personality, the elimination of slums and hovels is not so much an opportunity as a bounden community duty. A town without a slum or a hovel would be talked about.

But let's not stop at homes. Let's make our business districts attractive and beautiful. Nothing is more discouraging than the business sections of towns throughout this area. How drab they are! Two-story red-brick and metal fronts with the oldest possible type of store architecture. Sidewalks cracked and out of line. Pavements that have laid down from very weariness and become a menace to every rider's spinal column.

Can't we all conceive of a block in such a business center being modernized, the store fronts rebuilt, the red brick given an overcoat of stucco, the sidewalks relaid, the old pavement resurfaced with concrete. Why, the whole town would take on a new lease of life, trade would be attracted and that seedling block would give an impetus to the entire town.

It's truly astonishing what an appeal beauty has to even the coldest of us. It is a fundamental urge.

Proceeding further, every town needs a city plan. No town is too small, too young, to make a start. The fullness of development cannot be attained at once. It has taken a generation to accomplish the widening of the Strand in London. Over the years, however, any plan can be carried out without too great a burden. The plan must be that of the automobile age. It demands wide streets, adequate parking facilities.

In such a plan a community can find wide range for expression: in the grouping of public and institutional buildings around a square or park, in the use of a type of architecture either indigenous to the locality or particularly suited thereto, in street layout, in street planting, in small parks, or breathing spaces. Always, everywhere, there needs to be charm, distinctiveness.

Good transportation practice now demands that through traffic be by-passed around the town and not carried through it. Here is opportunity for the building of charming and striking entrances from the by-pass into the town itself. Their layout should be liberal. Extra right-of-way might well be bought and controlled by the community. The buildings thereon could be made to conform to definite, artistic style, and the entrances could be made recreational and amusement centers. Tourist camps of real character could be included in the layout.

Above all, in all this city planning and modernization, the best of engineering and architectural advice should be sought. We plan for the generations to come. Let's do well by them.

It is obvious that no matter what the type of personality is to be—whether intellectual, cultural, recreational, educational, or physical—leadership will be needed. Who will give it?

25 YEARS AGO

Charles Merritt has purchased the John VanInWagon farm south of town. ***

Mrs. J. B. Henderson and daughter Dorothy are visiting her sister in Cleveland this week.

Miss Eva Brunner returned to her home in Rutheven, Ontario, yesterday after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Patterson.

Miss Ethel Merryweather and Will McArthur of Detroit spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Torre.

Miss Anna Lake has resigned her position with the Stimpson Scale Manufacturing company of Northville.

D. D. Allen spent a few days visiting with relatives in Ovid last week. He says most of the farmers in that locality are driving into town with automobiles.

Edgar Wood of this village and Miss Cora Best of Harrow, Ontario were married in Detroit Tuesday. Miss Best was a Plymouth resident two years ago. Mr. Wood is a night yard master at the P. M. The couple have returned to Plymouth and will make this city their future home. They have the good wishes of many friends.

Street Commissioner Passage is doing some badly needed work on the streets of the village. They have needed attention for some time. Owing to the expense of paving Main street, other streets have been somewhat neglected for a year or two. The council should keep the commissioner busy all summer.

CHERRY HILL

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie of Redford were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilkie.

Miss Theresa Combelleck of Owosso spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dunstan.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lobbessall and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Gustin of Plymouth.

The Ladies Aid Society meets Thursday with Mrs. Wm. Hauk.

John West of Vassar is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bordin.

Several from here attended the A. C. Banquet at Ypsilanti Friday night.

Mrs. Henry Hauk attended the Sewing club at Mrs. Al Shultz last Wednesday afternoon.

Rambling Around With Michigan Editors

INDIVIDUALISM IN BUSINESS
 The status of the small, independent merchant in our present commercial structure is a subject which has received much attention of late from economists and students of business problems. The question whether he has a secure position in the development of business is being answered emphatically in the affirmative.
 The resourcefulness and freedom of action of the individual will always go far toward offsetting the advantage of large-scale operations of the more complicated organizations. The independent business man with reasonable capital willing to utilize new methods and take advantage of new conditions has a greater opportunity today than ever before. Of course in this era of changing business methods the merchant who refuses to consider the new order of things must give ground to his more efficient competitor.
 The independent merchant who functions intelligently as purchasing agent for his community has a distinct opportunity to render a real social service with profit to himself. The principal innovation introduced by the large corporation is the newer type of management and the recognized value of large-scale economics; but big business has no copyright on profitable methods and mere bulk is by no means necessarily synonymous with efficiency.—T. O. Huckle in The Cadillac Evening News.

 Everything about a hog is now used. The customer uses the squeal when told the price.—George Shaw in The Pigeon Progress.

NOW LET'S DO THIS WITH A BANG
 Last year the petunia was chosen as Holly's official flower, and plans are now perfected to make our little city a bower of beauty at petunia time. Every loyal Holly booster is to be in the game. Reserve a plot where the flowers can best display their gorgeous brilliance, and if you do not care to pick and start your own selection of varieties, The Holly Flower Lovers Garden Club will be glad to supply you with the plants. While it is yet a few weeks before time to set out the plants, it is none too early to be planning to do your share in this town-beautiful work.—Joe Haas in The Holly Herald.

PAYROLLS INCREASE
 Figures released by the auditor general showing an increase of 1356 in the number employed by the state during March of 1935 and costing the taxpayers $15,766 more than in a corresponding month of 1934 are disturbing to say the least. The fact that 51 of the increase is represented in added employees to the payrolls of the two houses of the state legislature is explained in part by the fact that in March of 1934 the legislature was in special session and that during special sessions the number of clerks and attendants is always limited. Nevertheless it is true that both senate and house have overloaded on clerks and janitors.
 The fact that the secretary of state in March of 1935 had 50 more employees than in 1934 and that the sales tax force has been expanded to make room for 135 new job holders at a total salary increase of $15,515 per month does not sound so good.

The state highway commissioner may be able to explain his 588 increase by pointing to the promised federal aided projects soon to begin. His explanations are being patiently awaited and will be received with some doubt.
 Perhaps the governor has been so busy with his economy program before the legislature that his patronage machinery may have stepped ahead of his reduction plans. The situation is not entirely out of hand as yet but it is evident that a strong hand is still required to keep state employment at a level where the taxpayer can meet the demands of the tax spenders.—Vernon J. Brown in The Ingham County News.

While this horse play goes on, Michigan is going in debt, and nothing is settled.—Paul McDonald in The Gaylord Herald-Times.

Tremendous Trifles

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

PIGS IS PIGS

"PIGS is pigs" and they're also trouble-makers. As witness:

In 1841, Monsieur De Saligny was French ambassador to the Republic of Texas. One day, a pig belonging to an Austin hotel keeper named Bullock strayed into St. De Saligny's garden. One of the ambassador's servants abused the pig, and Bullock whipped the servant.

De Saligny insulted Bullock and Bullock insulted De Saligny with the result that the ambassador demanded his passports and left the country. Diplomatic relations between France and Texas became strained and it required an apology from President Lamar of the Lone Star Republic to restore peace.

More serious was the pig incident that troubled the peace between England and the United States a few years later. On one of the tiny San Juan islands in Puget Sound lived an American and an Englishman. One day the Briton shot one of the American's pigs and a furious quarrel resulted. But they finally agreed to settle it in court.

But which court—British or American? Despite the treaty of 1846, boundary lines were none too clear, especially on this little island. So the dispute grew worse over the matter of jurisdiction (civil officers were drawn into it, then the military). Troops were mobilized and it looked like war.

Eventually it was settled by arbitration—with no less a person than the German emperor acting as arbitrator in a dispute that started over a pig!

The Story of the Bible Told in Pictures

Samson Slays a Thousand Men With the Jawbone of an Ass.—Samson's difficulties with the Philistines are recorded in Judges 14 and 15. The climax came when Samson burned the Philistines' corn. Three thousand of the men of Judah went to Samson, demanding why he had done as he had to the Philistines, who were rulers over them. They bound him and delivered him to the Philistines. "And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his hands loosed from off his hands. And he found upon a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith." Judges 15: 14-15. The illustration is from Merian's story of the Bible in pictures, engraved in 1625. In the foreground Samson is killing the Philistines, and in the right background he is shown burning the Philistines' corn.

ST. PETER'S EV. LUTHERAN CHURCH
Regular services will be held May 19th at 10:30 a.m. The examination of the children's Confirmation Class will take place May 26th at 10:30 a.m. Ascension and Memorial Day service will be held May 30th at 10:00 a.m. As we gather to look up with faith and new confidence to our Lord Jesus Christ who ascended into Heaven and now sitteth at the right hand of God the Almighty, let us dedicate ourselves more fully to the task of bringing His peace into the hearts of men here upon earth, that one day they might ascend where He has led the way. And on this Memorial Day let us raise our hearts in confidence to Him, the Prince of Peace, and implore Him to hear our prayer once more, and that He would chase away the clouds of war that have arisen through the announcements of increased armaments in every land, that He would spare our boys, and that He would complete, and that He would complete, and that He would complete another horrible slaughter of innocent men. Come, join us. Confirmation of this Year's Class of Catechumens will take place in the service on June 2nd at 10:30 a.m. Communion will be celebrated on Whitsunday, June 9th.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 19. Among the Bible citations in this passage (Ps. 51: 10-12): "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not from me thy word of truth. Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 149): "Neither anatomy nor theology has ever described man as created by Spirit, as God's man. Anatomy and theology reject the divine Principle which produces harmonious man, and deal—the one wholly, the other primarily—with matter, calling that man which is not the counterpart, but the counterfeit, of God's man."

Chain Letters Pest of Carriers

Plymouth mail carriers are wishing that the man who started the chain letter craze was somewhere else than where he is—for their backs are about broken luging around surplus and useless mail these days.

Not hundreds, but thousands and thousands of letters are going through the Plymouth post-office say the carriers, and there can be but one explanation of it, and that is that they are all chain letters.

Everyone around town is getting them. Dr. Paul Butz declares that he is several dollars to the good. John Bickenstaff says it hasn't been a bad investment for him, but there are hundreds of others who have sent their dime and best wishes on that haven't reaped a penny of benefit so far.

Some have given up in despair and declare it all one big hoax. Most of the chain letters read something like this:

"Please make five copies of this letter, within three days, omitting the first name and adding your own name to the bottom of the list and give these copies to five others who may be interested in our work and keep the chain going."

"The five to whom you give your copies will omit the top name on their list and add their own name to the bottom of the list."

"In omitting the top name you will send this person one paper dollar ($1.00) as a free will offering."

"In time your name reaches the top of the list and you should receive 15,625 offerings, amounting to $15,625.00 if this chain is kept unbroken."

"This is an interesting game to see how far it goes. Be a sport and carry on."

Other letters have been circulated in the community calling for a remittance of 10 cents rather than a dollar. Other remittances may run as high as $5.00. The matter is now being investigated by the post office department to find out whether or not these

Globe Plant At Northville Sold

Announcement was made by President John Boyce of the Northville Depositors bank yesterday of the sale of the plant of the old Globe Furniture company of Northville to the Michigan Wood Products Manufacturing company of Detroit.

The company, manufacturers of kitchen dinettes and other furniture, which has been located on Freeland avenue in Detroit with offices at 2773 West Kirby street, has already placed men at work putting the factory in condition for operation.

It is expected that within another six weeks the 40 employees of the company will be at work in the Northville plant.

D. Frank Marchano, prominent and well known Detroit manufacturer, is president of the company. D. E. Merrifield of Detroit, who is also well known in that city, is vice president. Marchano is named in the incorporation papers as secretary-treasurer. The company is capitalized for $50,000.

While the neighboring community of Northville is elated over the sale of this plant, which for years was one of its stable industries up to the beginning of the depression, Plymouth residents believe that it will also be of benefit to this community as the prospects are that some of the workers will reside in this city.

The Globe company for years produced church furniture of the highest quality. Charles Dolph, former president of the Globe, is continuing in a small way the production of church furnishings. He has been using the Globe plant but will now seek a new location.

Angered at being locked out of his room, Frank Roman, of New York City, touched a match to the oil-soaked door of his landlady's apartment to gain an easy entrance. Lives of 40 other tenants were endangered in the ensuing blaze and the landlady, Mrs. Inez Paracheco, was seriously injured when she leaped from a second-floor window.

INTER-SCHOOL GOLF FOR GIRLS PROPOSED

The girls of the Plymouth high school are attempting an organization of a golf team under the supervision of Miss Kees.

This sport is for the interests of every girl and not altogether for inter-school competition. It will be worth while for the girls from this school to become acquainted with new girls.

Girls from the tenth to the twelfth grades will be eligible. There will be eliminations made later and the outstanding players will be chosen to compete with neighboring schools such as Wayne, Ypsilanti, Dearborn, and Northville.

However this is merely a proposed plan for the future Plymouth high school girls' golf team. F. Bridge.

CHILDREN ARE NOT PLAYING MARBLES!

The marble game is not what it should be according to other years. As a person walked around the school this spring he could not tell whether it was spring or not because not a child was playing marbles.

Is the future generation giving up the spring past time sport for children or are there other interests that the children have to take up their time? What has become of "playing for keeps," of the favorite alleys, of the bare worn places by sidewalks where small boys first learned the thrill of—shall we say—gambling? Irving Geer.

A LARGE CLASS OF NEW SENIORS

Do you know the number of students who will be seniors in September? When school starts again after summer vacation there will be one hundred and five students, now juniors, who will be the new seniors of Plymouth high school.

David Nairn.

CLUB SWINGERS ARE DEFEATED BY HOWELL

The Plymouth high school golf team was defeated Tuesday in a close match with Howell played at Chemung Hills. A difficult nine hole course. Both teams played under difficulty of wet grounds.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL NOTES

The Starkweather school together with the other schools had a very lovely exhibit of the work done during the past year. The exhibit was divided between the rooms and the auditorium.

The first thing that attracted everyone's attention in the first grade room were the yellow crepe paper curtains. This class had a number of wagons, sail boats, cars, and wheel barrows displayed on the work bench.

Among the many things displayed in the auditorium this class had several jars of fruits and vegetables which it had canned in the early part of the fall season.

One of the most out-standing things on display in the auditorium was the sandstone city. This was contributed by the second grade under the supervision of Miss Stader.

DEBATERS SURVEY NEW QUESTION

Beginning work on the approaching school debate tournament, participants in this contest are investigating the question to be discussed this season. The contest is to be held this spring, in order to provide more time for study previous to league debating in the fall.

The proposition for debate is similar to that adopted for Michigan interscholastic debating, and is stated, "Resolved: that the several nations of the world should make governmental monopolies of the manufacture and sale of the combat instruments of war." The profits for this subject is being gathered.

SENIORS HOLD SUCCESSFUL PARTY

The class of '35 held an unusually successful and well-attended farewell dance on Friday evening, May 10. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Cassidy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Van Amburg, and Mr. and Mrs. George Burr.

The music was furnished by the Melody Boys. The profits amounted to about twenty-six dollars.

TEAMS PREPARE FOR TOURNAMENT

Twelve debate teams of two members each, representing their respective classes, are preparing for the school debate tournament to be held from May 15 to May 22. The winning affirmative team will meet the victorious negative team in a debate to be held in assembly, and the victor will gain a wall plaque for their class.

The question to be debated this season is stated, "Resolved: that the nations of the world should make governmental monopolies of the manufacture and sale of the combat instruments of war." Six teams are affirmative and six negative.

Freshmen participating include Ed Cutler, Stanley Burton, Marilyn Houghton, Marian Lutermoser, Mary Katherine Moon, Betty Mastick, Paul Thams, Gerald Greer, James Taylor, and Howard Ebersole.

Every affirmative team will meet every negative team within a period of two weeks, the contest being judged by teachers. The team on each side receiving the highest number of victories will contest with the other victor for the school championship.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SCHOOL EXHIBIT

The annual school exhibit was held Thursday and Friday, May 9 and 10 in the Plymouth schools. That held in the high school was on Thursday evening.

The exhibit consists of everything that the boys and girls have made during the year. The boys in manual training made lamp standards, ornamental pieces, miniature boats, and the like for the outdoors and inside.

The girls made dresses, towels, undergarments, and useful to type the articles for mimeographing. Rex Swegles.

PLAN OF SELLING THE PLYTHEAN

About two hundred subscriptions have been received with one half paid down for this year's Plythean. The plan is that the students pay for half of the Plythean when they ordered it and the other half when they receive it in June. It is being sold for much less than the old type of Plythean.

This year's book will be similar to last year's except that it will have one more page of pictures, but will cost about the same as last year's. The total cost was $186 for everything, $118.40 of which was paid for printing and engraving and the rest for the materials.

The saving was made possible by the Plythean staff that consists of all the members of the senior class who are interested in arranging and writing of articles. These people meet with Miss Allen together with the juniors who are interested.

The Plymouth Mail is responsible for the pictures. Because of the low price secured by the Mail the staff is using zinc engraving in place of copper which has formerly been used.

The commercial teacher, Miss Graf, chose the most expert typists from the senior class to cut her engravings and to type the articles for mimeographing. Rex Swegles.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHS

REX ERWIN SWEGLES

Rex Erwin Swegles, born on the corner of Ford and Lilly roads, May 12, 1915, is the other member of the Swegles twins. After attending during his early years, the Hough and Bartlett schools, he entered PHS as a freshman. Rex is going to become a farmer after he has completed his college training at East Lansing. Rex has dark hair and blue eyes and says his hobbies are hunting, dancing, and Doris. He has been in football three years and has taken part in all interschool sports. He has been an active member of Commercial Club, Aggie Club, and Torch for which he was treasurer. Hi-Y, being president this semester, and Glee Club. His favorites are: color, brunettes, (can you imagine brunettes as being a fellow's favorite color? Food, cheese, and author, Mark Twain. He dislikes radishes, and he also tries to keep Doris away from home as long as possible.

MARY LOUISE TALMADGE

Mary Louise Talmadge, a brown-haired, black-eyed girl of the senior class was born in Royal Oak, Michigan, January 16, 1917. She moved to Plymouth in time to join up with the class of '35 when they were green freshmen. Since entering Plymouth high school she has been very active in class activities and has been a member of the Travel Club and Glee Club. She is taking a commercial course and likes it very much. Her favorite subject is typing; favorite colors, yellow and red; favorite pastime, playing piano; and favorite food, pumpkin pie. She has no special boy friend, but likes them all. Her best girl friend, so she tells me, is her mother. Her hobbies are collecting antiques, swimming, and dish up homemade cream.

ANN URBAN

Ann Urban was born in Washington, Pennsylvania, January 23, 1917. While in Pennsylvania she attended the Clark school, and later went to the Hammond school in Detroit. She has lived in Plymouth for the last seven years. Her hobbies are dancing and all sorts of sports; her favorite being basketball. She also collects colorful magazines pictures which appeal to her. She likes to read the poems of James Whitcomb.

THELMA M. TEGGE

Thelma Marguerite Tegge was born August 21, 1916 in Detroit, Michigan. She moved to Plymouth high school in the summer time. She is taking a commercial course and likes that type of work very much. In case some of you do not know Thelma, she is 5 ft. 3 in. tall and has brown eyes and light brown hair. She can often be seen sitting in front of the Tegge hair shop on Penniman avenue in a twenty-seven model Chevrolet or riding down Main street in a V-8 belonging to a certain Glenn Smith. Now do you know who she is? Her favorite color is blue; favorite subject, food; favorite pastime, shows; and favorite food, ice cream. This last liking is the main reason she works in the lunch room during noon hour, so we have heard. Her hobby is embroidery. In her four years of high school she has belonged to the Commercial, Drama and Glee clubs. Thelma has taken trips to both New York and Canada. After graduation she says she intends to go to work but from another source we learn that these are not really her intentions because a certain dark-haired lad may change them completely.

VIVIAN TOWLE

Vivian Towle, that tall, slender, athletic PHS senior with the Titian hair, was born in Dryden, Michigan on August 24, 1917. She is almost an original member of the class of '35 as she has received all of her education except the first grade here in the Plymouth schools. Her hobbies are reading, sewing, binding books, swimming, and all types of athletics. Spanish rice is her favorite food and Vivian also mentioned her pet recipe for spinach until tender, then put it in a bag and throw it out the window. Vivian has spent several summers in the northern Michigan and has traveled in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Mississippi. During her high school career she has been a member of Glee Club, Girl Reserves, Library Club, and the Ypsilanti Ypsilanti Staff. French and Latin are her favorite subjects. She likes school but isn't sure whether she will attend college. If she does Michigan State is her preference. She expects to become a librarian. When asked what her greatest

RAY R. TRIMBLE

Ray R. Trimble was born up in Mulliken, Michigan, June 30, 1916. After he graduates he is going to go to Ypsilanti and take up physical education. Ray has always attended Plymouth schools, and although he has traveled in parts of Indiana and Chicago he still likes PHS the best. Ray's hobbies are dancing and sports of all kinds. Probably as most of you know, Ray's favorite is football; he was fullback during his freshman and sophomore years, though he was injured in his second year of competition and was unable to play. In his junior year he went out for center and when he became a senior last year he was elected captain, and worked so faithfully that he received All State honorable mention. Ray has also played baseball and basketball and has been in Varsity club and Hi-Y. This fellow has gray eyes and brown hair and is one of those who is "off the women for life," but Ann thinks he'll get over it. His favorite author is Jack London and he dislikes physics and geometry.

MARGARET TUCK

Margaret Elizabeth Tuck (Peggy to you) made her first appearance in Detroit, Michigan on March 16, 1918. This small red-haired, attractive girl has a very nice disposition and is liked by a great number of students. She attended the Fisher school through the eighth grade, and then entered the Plymouth school in the ninth. She has been an active member of the class and she holds the office of class secretary. She has participated in various clubs such as Glee Club, Girl Reserves, and Drama Club; she also had a leading part in the Junior play. She had to spend quite a time in figuring out the she disliked and then she came to the conclusion that there wasn't anything she disliked. She has no favorite friend, she likes everyone the same but we think she likes Dorold a little better than the rest. She loves chocolate ice cream, and her favorite color is blue which she wears very well. Her favorite study is English; her favorite author is Edgewood Allen; and her favorite book is "Little Women." She enjoyed a trip to Lake Michigan several years ago. Her many hobbies include collecting stones, old money, and stamps. She is planning to enter college in the fall and to specialize in home economics. Her greatest ambition is to be a county worker, similar to a 4-H worker.

ANN URBAN

Ann Urban was born in Washington, Pennsylvania, January 23, 1917. While in Pennsylvania she attended the Clark school, and later went to the Hammond school in Detroit. She has lived in Plymouth for the last seven years. Her hobbies are dancing and all sorts of sports; her favorite being basketball. She also collects colorful magazines pictures which appeal to her. She likes to read the poems of James Whitcomb.

THELMA M. TEGGE

Thelma Marguerite Tegge was born August 21, 1916 in Detroit, Michigan. She moved to Plymouth high school in the summer time. She is taking a commercial course and likes that type of work very much. In case some of you do not know Thelma, she is 5 ft. 3 in. tall and has brown eyes and light brown hair. She can often be seen sitting in front of the Tegge hair shop on Penniman avenue in a twenty-seven model Chevrolet or riding down Main street in a V-8 belonging to a certain Glenn Smith. Now do you know who she is? Her favorite color is blue; favorite subject, food; favorite pastime, shows; and favorite food, ice cream. This last liking is the main reason she works in the lunch room during noon hour, so we have heard. Her hobby is embroidery. In her four years of high school she has belonged to the Commercial, Drama and Glee clubs. Thelma has taken trips to both New York and Canada. After graduation she says she intends to go to work but from another source we learn that these are not really her intentions because a certain dark-haired lad may change them completely.

VIVIAN TOWLE

Vivian Towle, that tall, slender, athletic PHS senior with the Titian hair, was born in Dryden, Michigan on August 24, 1917. She is almost an original member of the class of '35 as she has received all of her education except the first grade here in the Plymouth schools. Her hobbies are reading, sewing, binding books, swimming, and all types of athletics. Spanish rice is her favorite food and Vivian also mentioned her pet recipe for spinach until tender, then put it in a bag and throw it out the window. Vivian has spent several summers in the northern Michigan and has traveled in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and Mississippi. During her high school career she has been a member of Glee Club, Girl Reserves, Library Club, and the Ypsilanti Ypsilanti Staff. French and Latin are her favorite subjects. She likes school but isn't sure whether she will attend college. If she does Michigan State is her preference. She expects to become a librarian. When asked what her greatest

MARIAN VAN AMBURG

Marian Ruth VanAmburg, local artist, was born in Harbor Springs, Michigan on November 28, 1917. After living in Boyne City for a while she moved to Plymouth where she entered the fifth grade. Marian has certainly done things here, appearing in the musicale four times and in stunt night twice. She is a member of the Leaders and Glee clubs. Those pictures you saw of the prom and hop were partly designed by her. With her ability, some of you may see day wear a VanAmburg designed dress. She enjoys riding, swimming and drawing. Her favorite dish is shrimp salad (we wonder why). Her ambition (get this) is to have a studio penthouse apartment in New York City.

GIRL SCOUTS PASS OUTDOOR TESTS

The scouts, with the exception of Phyllis Barrows, hiked to Hough's Woods last Thursday after school and cooked their supper. At the same time they were given tests in fire building and cooking which all the girls passed.

Urged To Oppose Wagner Measure

So serious would be the effects upon industry if the so-called Wagner bill now pending in the senate is passed, that everyone not only in Plymouth and surrounding country are being urged to write their representatives in congress, but the plea has been extended to local residents to write their friends and acquaintances everywhere urging them to send letters opposing the measure.

Of especial interest to the localities in which automobiles or automobile parts are made is the measure.

Business has been better around Detroit than in any other part of the country because of the fact that there has been no chance for professional disturbers to stir up difficulties. Those who know about the provisions of the bill declare that its enactment would not only wreck the auto industry, but practically every other business.

The bill is meeting stiff opposition in Congress from all sections of the country and it is believed that the efforts of the lobbyists can be defeated if congressional members are given the backing of the voters back home—and for that reason a plea has gone forth for letters to be sent to members of congress plainly setting forth your ideas on the subject.

Local Golfers Win First Match

Playing in a driving rain which lasted during the entire 18 holes of play, the Plymouth Country Club golf team defeated West Shores at Grosse Isle, 7 1/2 to 4 1/2, in their first MGA match of the season.

No individual scores were recorded as the rain soaked through score cards like blotting paper. All the players were dripping wet when they finished. The only thing that made good golf possible was the kindness of the West Shore club in sending out large Turkish towels at intervals during the match.

Dick Gray of Plymouth, playing his first match for the Plymouth team played the finest golf of the day, taking 3 points from his opponent. Norm Wagner also accounted for 3 points. Wagner had a nip and tuck battle with his opponents and a thrilling finish on the final holes enabled him to make a clean sweep of his match. Norm Copeland was six down to his opponent after six holes of play but managed to turn the tables on the last nine and gain a tie at 1 1/2 points each. The veteran, Les Ash, lost his first match in 2 years, dropping all 3 points to his opponent.

As Plymouth is in the White division of the MGA this year, along with such teams as Hawthorne Valley, Redford, etc., many close and hard fought battles are anticipated. Plymouth's next match will be played at Plymouth Country club Sunday, May 26th.

Standings and results of White division matches:

	W	L	Pts
Plymouth C. C.	1	0	3
Hawthorne Valley	1	0	2
Redford	1	0	2
Bob-o-Link	1	0	2
Warren Valley	0	1	0
West Shores	0	1	0
South Golf Club	0	1	0

New Kind of Gas Now On Market

A new product, known as "Solvenized" Hi-Speed Gas, is now being introduced at 1500 Hi-Speed Gas Stations throughout Michigan and Ohio, says Earl Fluelling, local distributor. This new "Solvenized" Hi-Speed Gas is being offered to the motoring public under an exclusive franchise whereby Hi-Speed Gas Stations will have the sole distribution of "Solvenized" gasoline throughout the territory where the Hi-Speed organization operates.

Dr. Carl F. Prutten, Associate Professor of Chemistry at the Case School of Applied Science has discovered this new solvent after more than six years of extensive research. This new scientific solvent, which is now blended with Super-Powered Hi-Speed Gas has been granted U. S. Patents 1,986,651-45. Dr. Prutten has been conducting experiments on carbon binder solvents so as to remove hard carbon and other deposits from the combustion chamber, valves, pistons and rings, as well as spark plugs, so as to make motors continue to give new-car performance. Dr. Prutten's discovery is a proven product, and in tests made in prominent laboratories by foremost engineers in the United States, it has given such amazing results that it has startled the auto world.

On Wednesday afternoon of this week forty-seven ladies attended the Mission Circle of the Lutheran church which was held at the Wayne County Training school. The ladies met in the recreation room of the school and were given a talk by Mrs. Mildred Ainsworth, of the Social service division after which they made a tour of the different cottages. Late in the afternoon a dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wm. Blunk, Mrs. Fred Schmidt, Mrs. Carl Schmidt and Mrs. Edith Blake.

A Gasoline that DESTROYS CARBON

HI-SPEED STATIONS ANNOUNCE ... STARTLING DISCOVERY ...

What It Is...

NEW "SOLVENIZED" HI-SPEED GAS contains Scientific Fluid developed by exhaustive Laboratory Research to destroy destructive carbon... a proven product fully covered by Lubri-Zol Corp. U. S. Patents 1,986,651-45. The NEW "SOLVENIZED" HI-SPEED GAS will safely and surely soften, dissolve and remove the carbon binder so that hard carbon will disappear. Your motor will then give new-car power, speed and performance.

What It Does...

"SOLVENIZED" HI-SPEED Gas rids the combustion chamber, pistons, valves, spark plugs and rings from hard carbon and other deposits which destroy efficiency. It dissolves gummy substances increases compression by curing sticky valves and frozen rings... increases mileage and top speed... cuts repair bills by its torrid heat-resisting top cylinder lubrication.

What It Costs...

With all its premium qualities and superior performance, the NEW "SOLVENIZED" HI-SPEED still sells at the same price as "regular" gas. Solvenized HI-SPEED has the highest anti-knock quality at "regular" gas price because it leads in Octane Rating!

League Elects Mrs. P. W. Carley

On Monday, May 13th, the Plymouth district of the Wayne County League of Women Voters held their annual meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Ruth Huston-Whipple followed by a tea honoring the new members.

Mrs. Sam Spicer and Mrs. Paul Wiedman gave a very interesting report on the annual meeting of the Wayne County League held Wednesday, May 8th at Devon Gables, Bloomfield Hills. They reported a program of Social Security which "may be perfected within the next 50 years" was considered and William J. Norton, vice chairman of the Children's Fund of Michigan speaking at the luncheon assembly expressed the hope that the league would back social security legislation "with all its strength and power."

Following this report the election of officers for the coming year was held and the following were elected:

President, Mrs. P. W. Carley; 1st vice president, Mrs. Sam Spicer; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Seth Virgo; recording secretary, Mrs. Clara Patterson Todd; treasurer, Mrs. Bruce Woodbury; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Paul Wiedman.

Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple the retiring president expressed her appreciation and thanks to her officers and committee chairman for the faithful cooperation they had given her in the past two years and expressed several suggestions for next year.

This group has much to thank Mrs. Whipple for. She has given unusual leadership and untiring efforts and the League has derived a vast amount of benefit from her keen interest and ability.

After the meeting the ladies retired to the dining room where tea was served. Yellow spring flowers and tapers decorated the long table and Mrs. Warren Worth and Mrs. W. R. Freyman dined.

The last meeting will be a picnic, June 10th, with Mrs. Seth Virgo, Mrs. George Cramer, and Mrs. W. R. Freyman as the committee in charge.

Ask Suggestions Of Business Men

With a considerable increase in the membership over last year as the result of the drive recently made for new members the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has started on its fiscal year under more favorable circumstances than for sometime past. Secretary Berg Moore at the annual meeting of the directors held Monday night reported that there had not been the loss of a single member during the past year and that the recent campaign had resulted in nearly a dozen new members, with others expressing intentions of joining soon.

Herbert Swanson who has served most efficiently as president during the past year, has been succeeded by Eilon R. Eaton. Glenn Jewell is the new vice president and Stewart Dodge was elected treasurer.

Secretary Moore has been directed by the new board to contact every business institution in the city, both retail and manufacturing, for the purpose of securing suggestions as to what additional work the Chamber of Commerce can carry on for the good of Plymouth during the next year. This information will be later assembled and formulated into the general program that is soon to be outlined. The organization is requesting every member to not only make suggestions, but to take an active and personal interest in its affairs.

The Patman Bonus Bill

By Walter Lippmann

The passage of the Patman Bonus Bill in both houses of Congress makes it the disagreeable but inescapable duty of the President and of the legislative minority to prevent it from becoming law. The task is disagreeable because a very large body of veterans, many of them in great need, sincerely believe that the bill pays a just and contracted debt. If it did that and only that, there would be no ground whatever for a veto.

In fact, the bill is a bonus on top of a bonus. For the just debt contracted in 1925, calls for the payment to each veteran of $1 a day for domestic service, $1.25 for foreign service, plus 25 per cent of that total plus 4 per cent interest compounded annually from 1925 to 1945. The Patman Bill would pay in 1935 not only what is due in 1935—a thing to which no one could object—but, in addition, ten years of compound interest at 4 per cent.

Moreover, the Patman Bill proposes to make the payment by the issue of fiat money that is to say, with money which is not covered by taxes or by borrowing. Thus it is an outright gift to a special group based on no recognized right or need, and it is financed by money created irresponsibly and arbitrarily. A president, mindful of his obligations not only to this generation but to future generations, could not fail to take the position that the government shall not make gifts to special groups and that it shall not print the money with which to pay for the gifts.

It is a simple moral issue, clear cut and inescapable. It is a question of right and wrong of whether it is right for a democracy to vote gifts under political pressure and of whether it is right to pay for political gifts by printing money. On that ground the question has to be fought out.

stituted new debts for old. The so-called pump-printing deficit inflationary, provided production continues to increase, as it has increased since 1933, faster than the deficit. If the new demand for goods due to government spending is not greater than the additional goods produced, there can be no inflationary rise of prices. If production is curtailed under AAA the drought and NRA and government spending increases there will be an inflationary rise of prices. But it will not be substantial unless there is created a real shortage of goods relative to the demand. The deficit would become dangerous if recovery stopped. For that would mean that production was not advancing, while expenditures were increasing. This would eventually produce inflation.

A Doctor's Order and N. R. A.

By Mark Sullivan

No, this is not translated from the Russian. Nor is it taken from any of the comic operas of Gilbert and Sullivan—though I suspect some future American comic opera may make use of it. It all happened in the United States. It is all on record in plain English—or at least legal and bureaucratic English—at NRA headquarters in Washington.

At New Ulm, Minn., Miss Ada Erler works for the Bee Hive, a retail store operated by J. A. Achs & Son. She has worked there some twenty years. Last fall, feeling indisposed, she consulted a physician who diagnosed her trouble and, at her request, wrote a letter to her employer. This letter, after describing Miss Erler's illness as "gastric and intestinal disturbances," went on to say: "Special attention to meals is required, and it is desirable that some additional rest time be given. It is, therefore, advised if at all possible, that she be granted an additional period of a midday so that she may have the time required to give attention to these special details of diet and rest."

At the Bee Hive the regular time allowed for lunch was one hour. Miss Erler felt that with an extra thirty minutes she would be able to attend adequately to the details of diet and rest which Dr. Hammermeister had prescribed. Accordingly, she showed her employer the doctor's letter and asked to be allowed to extend her lunch period to ninety minutes.

The problem presented by Miss Erler's case was one which at any time in America's history, up to October 21, 1933, could have been settled in half a minute. But now Mr. Ochs was obliged to remember there is an NRA, and a code for the retail trade. The code consists of seventeen closely printed pages, plus nine separate pamphlets of amendments. There is one section which seems to apply and which justly put him on guard. It reads:

"The hours worked by any employee during each day shall be consecutive provided that an interval not longer than one hour may be allowed for each regular meal period and such interval not counted as part of the employee's working time. Any rest period which may be given employees shall not be deducted from such employee's working time."

Mr. Ochs, reading this provision and uneasily aware of the penalties carried by NRA—A fine of $500 a day for some offenses

To Observe Good Will Day Sunday

The sixth annual Good Will Day program, with United States Senator James P. Pope, from Idaho, delivering the main address, will be held at the Belle Isle Shell, Sunday, May 19, 6:00 p.m.

The program, which includes a colorful pageant by representatives of 58 nationalities of the Women's Cosmopolitan Club of Detroit, is sponsored by the Women's International Education Council of Detroit. Miss Stella Sufinsky, of the Detroit Board of Education staff, president of the Council, will introduce Judge Homer S. Ferguson of the Wayne County Circuit Court, as chairman of the program.

A half-hour musical prelude, beginning at 5:30 p.m., will be given by the Cass Technical high school band under the direction of Selwyn C. Alvey. Other musical numbers of the program will be rendered by the Verse Choir of Sherrard Intermediate high school, directed by Marion Miller; the Harp Ensemble and the Vocal chorus of Cass Technical high school, directed by Clarence J. Byrne.

The candle-lighting ceremony, a part of the pageant, will be under the direction of Mrs. Frank L. Cottle and Mrs. Wayne Jordan.

Winners of prize letters on "Good Will Day," written by children of Detroit schools, will be given suitable awards.

Through the courtesy of the Department of Parks and Boulevards, under the direction of Commissioner Henry W. Busch, an amplifier system will be installed and seating for not less than 2,000 provided, thus making it possible to admit the public without charge or special invitation.

The Council is composed of delegates from 15 women's organizations in the Detroit area. Throughout the year, the Council holds monthly meetings for the study of international problems, the year's program terminating in Good Will Day.

The Good Will Day Committee is composed of the following: Mrs. Arthur Maxon Smith, chairman; Mrs. Floyd G. Hitchcock; Mrs. George T. Hendrie; Miss Theo McDonald; Mrs. Wm. E. Alvey; Mrs. S. Putnam Smith; Miss Sufinsky; Mrs. Ralph H. Pino and Miss Jeanette Secker. Senator Pope will arrive in Detroit Sunday morning and will be the guest of honor at a subscription luncheon at the Women's City Club at 1:00 p.m.

half until such time as the physical difficulties complained of have been alleviated." Order 60-318 bears date of January 4, 1935. Mr. Ochs's letter to NRA had been written November 16, 1934. Thus NRA consumed forty-nine days in considering and deciding whether Miss Ada Erler could have an extra half hour for lunch without subjecting her employer to risk of criminal penalties.

NRA headquarters at Washington explains that the NRA rule quoted above was adopted by retail dealers to prevent any of them from "laying off" employees for an inordinate time between rush hours. The fact remains that existence of the rule made it necessary for Mr. Ochs to ask NRA for an exemption.

It is conceivable that business can carry on under conditions in which matters like this from every town and village in the country are funneled into Washington for bureaucratic decision?

May Meeting of The W. C. T. U. on May 23

Plymouth Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its May meeting on the afternoon of Thursday the 23rd at the home of Mrs. Kehrl, 451 Starkweather avenue.

Members are urged to be present though it is housecleaning time and everyone is busy. Just to get away from home for a little time is often helpful.

From the Michigan Union of May: "Long Beach, California has 800 booze joints and only 50 churches, one liquor store for every 200 people and one church for every 2840 people. Parents are warned of the dangers to their young daughters and a recent inspection revealed shocking conditions."

"Massachusetts Society for prevention of Cruelty to Children reports a terrible increase in the number of cases of neglect and cruelty reported. The same society reporting from Philadelphia reports many baby cars with babies left for hours in front of liquor stores, while mothers spend their hours in drinking. Perhaps they believed in moderation once."

Ingham County Clubs Hear Dr. Grace Line

Dr. Grace Song Line of Howell spoke before the Federated Women's Club of Ingham County last week at Leslie. Some 250 women from the numerous women's clubs of the county were present to hear Mrs. Line in a part humorous, part serious discussion of the duties of the woman of today. Mr. Line is the owner of Line's big department store in Plymouth.

ELECTRIC COOKING for yourself

on the "TRIAL PLAN"

YOU have heard your friends who cook with an electric range say: (1) Electric cooking is COOL—it does not heat up the kitchen. (2) Electric cooking is CLEAN—with only pure heat from a glowing wire. (3) Electric cooking SEALS-IN natural flavors in foods—meats and vegetables cook to melting tenderness in their own juices. (4) Electric cooking is HEALTHFUL—precious minerals and important food values are retained, instead of being lost in steam or poured down the sink with excess water. We want you to discover these facts for yourself. We want you to prove for yourself that you can enjoy these advantages of electric cooking at a cost well within your household budget. This is our trial offer:

We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, and let you use it for six months, removing it without charge if you do not like it. During this trial period, you pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Since this trial plan was begun a short time ago, over 4000 of our customers have taken advantage of the offer. Send in your application for a trial range today!

Little Known Facts About Banking

Depositors Who Take Banking Service "For Granted"

For so many years during "easy times" banks furnished checking account service without cost to depositors, that even today few depositors realize there is any cost to the bank, either.

Jones maintains a balance of $200 in his account—the income from the use of which to the bank during any one month, actually pays for about 60 cents worth of banking service. But, if the service the bank renders Jones costs more than 60 cents, who should reimburse the bank for the difference?

Bank depositors in the United States enjoy more and better banking privileges, at little or no expense, than in any country of the world.

Talking to 22,000 Kroger Employees

MR. ALBERT H. MORRILL

By a unique hook-up of long distance telephone lines, that enveloped 92,000 square miles of territory in the Central West, Mr. Albert H. Morrill, president of the Kroger Grocery and Baking Company, recently addressed 22,000 employees who had gathered in 22 cities. Huge amplifiers were used.

The message to the Kroger army was delivered at the start of the company's 53rd Birthday Party, which is being celebrated in the 4,350 Kroger stores located in 17 states.

I'd like to write of humble things—
The common joys and cares of every day.
I'd like to tell a tale that brings
A brighter smile, or drives a tear away.
I'd like to paint a little scene
Of good old-fashioned comradeship and fun,
Where life is wholesome and serene,
And restful sleep is found when day is done.

I'd like to sing the simple songs,
That children might forsake their play to hear.
I'd like to talk to weary throngs
And have them heartened by my words of cheer.
I'd like to voice the happiness
That only humble folks can truly know;
And search for language to express
The beauty of contentment's kindly glow.

I'd like to chant love's tender lays,
And laud the charm of Nature everywhere.
I'd like to sing of childhood days,
Of home, and of a mother's faithful care.
I'd like to touch the wistful chords
Of memory, and somehow play again
That gentle music which affords
Unending pleasure to the hearts of men.

Asks Separation At P.M. & Farmer

City Commissioner Oliver Goldsmith has written to the Wayne county road commission asking that when they consider the grade separation program for Wayne county that will be conducted under the new employment program of President Roosevelt that both Farmer street and East Ann Arbor be placed on the proposed works schedule.

Mr. Goldsmith states that the matter was before the city commission recently but at that time it was voted to ask for only a grade separation on East Ann Arbor Trail. Both Commissioners Goldsmith and Ed. Wilson favored Farmer street as well, but the vote of the commission resulted in a three to two vote for the one grade separation on East Ann Arbor.

"I do not know as we will get it but there is no damage done in asking for it and the north side is certainly entitled to some consideration when it comes to this question. I believe that if we go at it right we can get both crossings. Commissioner Wilson has the same idea. We see no reason why we should not ask for Farmer street as well as the other one," stated Mr. Goldsmith yesterday.

It has been stated that members of the Wayne county road commission do not favor a separation on North Main street because of the heavy expense involved. Some of the members of the city commission are fearful that if more than one grade crossing should be requested, that the city will not get any, but increased traffic both to the north and east, say those who have observed the condition, should require grade separations for both Farmer street and East Ann Arbor Trail.

There's a vast difference between relief and cure.

A & P Clerks Out To Make Record

There is no place in Plymouth quite so much like a bee-hive this week as the A & P store where the clerks are staging a real contest as to which one can make the greatest individual sales.

The A & P recognizing the importance of the many clerks in their stores and knowing that the success of the business depends upon them, the company has arranged the big sale that is going on this week in their honor, states Manager Howard Stark.

For this week the clerks picked out the various articles to be put on special sale at the lowest possible price, and on all the increased business they get the hustling store salesmen will receive in addition to their regular salary an extra commission, besides a chance to win one of the big prizes the company has offered.

The clerks competing in the sale which does not end until the store closes Saturday night are Foster Kisabeth, Arthur McGorray, Calvin Stevens, George Straub, Norman Mack, Sterling Rowbacher, Norvall Bovey, Robert Herbert, Tuelian Kingsley, "Bud," Bakewell, Burdette Kisabeth and Jack Norris.

Manager Stark urges the readers of The Plymouth Mail to check over the list in this week's ad of the articles needed, then make the purchases from your favorite A & P clerk, as it will give him a big boost in what he is trying to win.

For three nights there appeared to Mike Finnigan, of Sylva, Miss., in his dreams visions of a pot of Spanish doubloons hidden in an Indian cave on his farm, he informed his friends. He investigated and didn't find any doubloons, but he did discover some odd-looking rocks. He sent the rocks to an expert, who said they were gold ore which would yield about an ounce of gold to the ton.

Law Makers Soon To Return Home

By FRANK D. BROWN, Special Correspondent

To adjourn or not to adjourn—this is the question of the moment confronting the legislature and the governor, causing the latter no little concern. Democrats and anti's are pressing their demands for a recess until August or September, purely a political maneuver although ostensibly for the purpose of considering legislation necessary to carrying out the PWA program of the federal government once congress has indicated just what will be required of the several states. Governor Fitzgerald, on the other hand, has signified his intention of calling a special session in event the present session adjourns without satisfactorily disposing of the tax relief question. The probability of such a thing is rather remote as matters now stand. However, shuddering at the newspaper reports of a planned campaign to remove Murray D. VanWagoner, state highway commissioner, from office, the democrats are showing a determination to block an attempt of this kind by the recess route rather than the adjournment course.

Undoubtedly there is plenty of fire from whence comes all the smoke, nevertheless, the governor's office explicitly denies that any thought has been given to the possibility of placing VanWagoner on the shelf. Spokesmen of Gov. Fitzgerald have expressed sheer surprise at such reports and are now wondering how a rumor of that kind could ever have been started.

Comment on the Governor's radio address of a week ago continues. As time passes, it becomes more and more certain that the rank and file of citizens are supporting him. In the several legislative districts that the respondent has changed to visit during the past week there appears a very definite opinion against those solons who have found it expedient to align themselves with the opponents of the administration. The trend, if it may be permitted to judge it, is decidedly in favor of the governor and what he is endeavoring to do in the way of reorganizing the state government and placing it on a sound basis.

The governor's proposal to reorganize the state welfare structure—a highly controversial subject with the democrats of the legislature and until this week thought to be a dead issue—now shows indications of being revived. Despite protests from Washington, the lawmakers still may follow the "front office" recommendations and pass the measure which will consolidate all welfare activities under one departmental head and thereby effect a healthy saving to the taxpayers of the state.

There is one threat, however. That is, that the federal authori-

Streets Lined With Junipers

Nelson Schrader of Northville, a Plymouth visitor yesterday told of the work that has just been completed in that city by the village government and the business men under the direction of the Exchange club in beautifying the business streets of that city.

Sometime ago Mr. Schrader was made chairman of a committee appointed to give consideration to the beautification of the downtown streets. A well known Michigan landscape artist was brought to the village, states Mr. Schrader who outlined some of the things that could be done.

"We decided that there was one thing that we could do, and that is to place along the buildings on each side of the streets a series of juniper trees set in boxes. The school's manual training department made the boxes and we bought the trees. They have been set in the boxes in such a way that it is believed they will live not only throughout the season, but the fall and winter as well," stated Mr. Schrader.

"The suggestion as it has been carried out is far better than we thought it would be. The trees have been set along the buildings on both sides of the downtown business streets and they really do look fine. We are going to try and work them into the general holiday decorations next winter. Nurserymen tell us that the trees will survive and do well. We are going to put forth an extra effort to see that they do live and grow," he added.

Employees at Eloise Get The Poorest Pay

There is a greater need for adjustment of salaries among employees and improvement of living quarters at Eloise Hospital than in any other county institution, the committee on classification of positions and standardization of salaries of the ways and means committee of the Board of Supervisors is agreed.

The committee's report, it was announced, will not show a saving at Eloise, but probably will boost the budget one-third above present maintenance cost. Committee members said the employees quarters are "deplorable," "unsanitary," "a firetrap" and "unfit for human habitation." Hundreds of the employees are housed in barracks that were condemned ten years ago as unfit to house tubercular patients, Benjamin B. Felham, County Accountant, a member of the committee said.

Crop Conditions In State Are Best

Crop conditions on May 1 were decidedly better than on the same date last year according to the Federal State crop report released today by James F. Thomson, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Verne H. Church, U. S. Agricultural Statistician for Michigan.

April was colder and considerably drier than usual which slowed up the growth of meadows, pastures, and fall-sown grains, but good rains since May 1 have provided ample surface moisture and all vegetation is now making rapid advancement. Grain and hay stocks are low, and livestock has been turned onto pastures earlier than usual. Oats and barley seeding was practically completed during April in the southern and central portions of the State. Considerable ground was prepared for other spring crops during the month. Sub-soil moisture has been greatly depleted in recent years which will seriously affect crops in the latter half of the season unless rains are ample and frequent throughout the summer.

The condition of winter wheat on May 1 was reported at 84 per cent of normal, or 2.4 points above the average for this date. The forecast a production of 16,318,000 bushels for the State as compared with 10,976,000 bushels in 1934 and 13,332,000 bushels in 1933. It is estimated that the acreage for harvest will be 796,000 acres which allows for an abandonment of 12,000 acres from the 808,000 acres planted last fall. Much of the wheat is in excellent condition, but some fields and local areas have rather thin stands which may make some improvement if weather conditions are favorable.

While the acreage of winter wheat for harvest in the United States is about 2,500,000 acres less than in 1934, the crop of 431,637,000 bushels in prospect is over 26,000,000 bushels greater than that of last year.

A much larger acreage than usual was sown to rye in Michigan last fall, much of which will be

Easily Defeats Hickory Hills

In a practice match, prior to the opening of the regular MGA schedule, the Plymouth Country Club golf team easily defeated Hickory Hills 9 to 3.

Members of the Plymouth team furnished most of the low scores. Louis Campbell and Norm Copeland both shooting 74's. Herb Burley of Plymouth displayed a fine brand of golf, shooting a 79. Jean Jarvis was low for Hickory Hills with an 85.

The schedule for the coming season will be drawn up soon by the Michigan Golf Association and it is expected that Plymouth will start its schedule on May 12.

runways that are found under matted grass at the edge of the garden. Small containers can also be used to provide mice with bait and prevent birds and pets from obtaining it.

Farmers' Bulletin 1397 entitled "Mouse Control in The Field and Orchard" gives directions for preparing a poisoned bait and illustrates the use of bait stations. The bulletin is available at any county agricultural agent's office.

Miles Of Trees Set on Arbor Day

Edward N. Hines, county road commissioner stated today that the Wayne County Road Commission observed Arbor Day by planting a mile of trees in each of the seventeen townships of Wayne county. This brings the total mileage of trees planted up to 419, which represents approximately 1/3 of the total mileage of roads in Wayne county.

American Elms and Maples predominate in the species of trees planted, due to the fact that they are indigenous in this locality and are free from insect pests then other species.

Wayne county, as in other and elated subjects, is a leader in this type of activity.

The first mile of trees were planted under the auspices of the Garden club on the Seven Mile Road, this highway being under the jurisdiction of the County Road Commission. This was the initial movement of roadside development and the roadside planting of trees has been carried on by the Wayne County Road Commission continuously since that time.

The Garden Club donated the trees for this first mile of planting and it might be interesting to mention the names of the members of this club: Miss Jessie Hendrie was the President, and the members were Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren, Mrs. Russell A. Alger, Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren, Jr., Mrs. John S. Newberry, Mrs. W. Howie Muir, Mrs. John V. Bedford, Dr. Edwin S. Sherrill, Mr. Benjamin S. Warren and Mr. Houghton.

The members of the Wayne County Road Commission at that time were Mr. Edward N. Hines, chairman, Mr. John S. Hagerly, and Mr. William F. Butler.

The planting of this first mile of trees took place May 24, 1917.

NEWBURG

The church was nicely decorated Sunday, Mother's Day, with plants and baskets of flowers and a splendid program was given. Besides the fine sermon by the pastor, there were special songs numbers by the ladies choir, the girl's choir and Mr. MacIntyre. The scoutmaster of a scout troop, who were camping over on the Ford road, brought the troop to the service and contributed to the program by singing "The Holy Child."

The Mother and Daughter banquet at the Legion hall, Wednesday, May 8, was well attended and all enjoyed the dinner, also the splendid program that followed.

We are glad to have Mrs. Emma Ryder, who spent the winter in Florida, home with us again. The men of the community are making some much needed repairs at the Ladies' Aid hall. Let the good work continue.

Remember the "Womanless Double Wedding" to be given by the YMP class at the LAS hall, Friday, May 24th at 8 o'clock.

Girls Turn Cookie Salesman To Earn Cash For Summer Vacation

The Rockettes of Plymouth high school Girl Scout troop, No. 1, are sponsoring a cookie sale which is to be held Saturday, May 18. Cookies will be delivered during the morning by the scouts.

Orders have been taken by the girls during the past two weeks. The patrol that sells the most will be awarded a prize by Miss Neva Lovewell. A thermometer poster has been placed on the bulletin board in front of each day reports are turned in by patrol leaders, and the mercury rises. Posters have been made by the scouts and placed in stores about town.

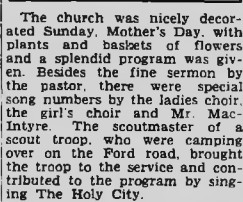

The proceeds of this sale are to be used to send the girls to camp at the lake the week-end of June 7 and purchase equipment for the troop.

If you have not been asked to order cookies and would care to help the scouts please call the Kaiser and Barber's grocery, giving your name and address, or call Betty Mastick, Lois Schaufel, Belva Barnes or Marion Kleinschmidt.

FROM any telephone of this company you can talk not only to localities throughout Michigan, but also to distant cities, ships at sea, many foreign lands—to thirty million telephones distributed all over the world. You can do this because the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is a component part of the Bell System.

In addition to wider service, that relationship enables us to give you better service; for it places at our disposal thousands of valuable patents and the most efficient methods of operation; it secures for us the benefits of constant research by hundreds of scientists in the famous Bell Laboratories, specialists whose only mission year in and year out is to develop means of improving the service—to find "a better thing or a better way." It assures us assistance in financing; it provides us with the world's finest telephone equipment, produced by the Western Electric Company, manufacturing division of the Bell System. It permits us, in short, to share in every progressive step in the evolution of the telephone.

And it enables us to render cheaper service; for all these assets—the fruits of a long-sustained policy of good management—come to us under our contract with American Telephone and Telegraph Company at a cost much lower than would be possible without our association in the Bell System.

America today holds undisputed world supremacy in telephonic communication. That leadership grew out of the facilities and the forward-looking policies of the Bell System. And it is because the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is a part of that system that we are now supplying the people of this State with a service never surpassed in quality, and reaching to most civilized areas of the globe.
