Preparing Road For Widening Of Paving In Fall

Plymouth Thoroughfare To Be 40 Ft. Wide Way To The Cemetery

The underground work necessary before the widening of the pavement on the thoroughfare was started this week by city employees and CERA workers. The city obtained a CERA project through which a considerable amount of labor and material will be obtained.

The work necessary on Plymouth Road includes the construction of a sanitary sewer between Mill Street and Holbrook Avenue, also a storm sewer in this same block, together with the necessary lateral cross connections. There is approximately 350 feet of water main to be lowered on Plymouth Road and Holbrook Avenue. There will also be ten water service connections installed.

In addition to the above work, the city will build approximately 1100 feet of 24 inch concrete pipe which will be installed by the Wayne County Road Commission between Holbrook Avenue and the River Rouge. This sewer is a part of the future Holbrook Avenue district storm system. The city commission decided that this outlet sewer should be built at this time, and arrangements were made with the Wayne County Road Commission to lay the sewer to the city grade provided the city will furnish the pipe. If the work were not done at this time it would cost several thousand dollars extra to put this outlet sewer in, because the arrangements were made to go across private property over a considerable distance to the River Rouge. The County had already planned on installing a 12 inch Storm Sewer in this street; therefore, the arrangements were made so that the sewer would be laid by the County provided the City furnished the larger pipe. A considerable amount of material for forms and a large portion of the cement will be obtained through surplus CWA stock; therefore, the cost to the City will be kept down to the very minimum amount.

It was necessary to obtain a CERA project to cover this work because the city had made no appropriation to cover the cost in the current budget. It was not known at the time the budget was prepared just what work was being anticipated, therefore no appropriation was made.

Nearly Hundred At Lidke Re-union

The nineteenth annual reunion of the Lidke family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Lidke on Joy Road with 85 members present coming from Salem, Plymouth, Detroit, Ypsilanti, Birmingham and Superior township.

A picnic dinner was enjoyed at noon. Later in the afternoon a short business session and election of officers was held with Mrs. Carl Rengert being made president, Charles Rengert, vice president, Mrs. Will Rengert, secretary and treasurer, and chairman, Henry Rengert.

Next year the family will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rengert on Joy Road near Salem.

The secretary reported that during the year there had been two marriages: Helen Lidke and Walter Cline-Smith and Mildred Newton and Henry Rengert. One death, Mrs. E. Rengert, and one birth, Donald Bridges, were also reported.

The oldest person present was Carl Rengert, 84, from Salem, and the youngest Donald Bridges of Detroit.

The afternoon was enjoyed by the younger members playing baseball and games while the older ones spent the time in social conversation. Ice cream and cake, candy and cigars were served.

Of the nine brothers and sisters of the older generations, only Herman Lidke and family of Scottville, Michigan and Mrs. Augusta Richter, Ypsilanti, were not present.

Start Paving Of Wilcox Highway

Paving the Wilcox road from the end of Schoolcraft road to Mill street was started this week by the Wayne County Road Commission. This highway will be twenty feet wide and will form a connecting link from the northeast corner of the City to the Schoolcraft Road, which is an important highway leading into Detroit.

In the paving of this road it is necessary that the City rebuild about 650 feet of water main which serves the Ford Motor Company plant. Due to the fact that a five foot cut was necessary near Holbrook Avenue the water main was uncovered in the excavation work. A temporary main laid on top of the ground will be installed to serve the Ford Motor Company during the rebuilding of the existing main. It is planned at present to replace the existing 4 inch water main in Wilcox Road with a 6 inch main. The four inch pipe will be salvaged and used in connection with the work on the Plymouth Road.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wood and John, of Detroit, and Mrs. Harry Wiseman of this place are spending the week at Bible Grove, Illinois.

Feltons Back From Trip To The North

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Felton and family have returned from a brief stay at Hubbard lake where they went for over the Fourth. Mr. Felton who has just retired as president of the Rotary club, plans a bit more of time for himself than he enjoyed last year, when he gave all of his spare hours to Rotary affairs. While at the lake Mr. Felton enjoyed some fairly good fishing.

Perrinsville School Annual Reunion To Be Held Sunday

Sunday is going to be a great day for all of the old students of the Perrinsville school out near Nankin mills on the Warren avenue road, for it is the annual re-union for every one who ever attended the Perrinsville school and lived in that neighborhood.

The committee in charge has advised The Plymouth Mail that those coming should bring their own basket dinners and plan to spend the entire day in visiting with old friends and neighbors. The event will take place in the school yard.

"We are going to make it one of the best times we have ever had," said a member of the committee in charge of arrangements, "and we are especially anxious to have all of our old friends present."

Plan Happy Day For Boys, Girls

Next Thursday according to President Roy Crowe of the Northville Exchange club, the "sunshine special" of that organization will carry some six or seven hundred boys and girls from the Wayne County Training school to Edgewater park on Seven mile road where they will spend a happy day playing on the slides and enjoying all the "rides" that are to be found at that place.

Each year, according to Mr. Crowe, the Northville Exchange club, arranges for one day of delight for the boys and girls of the training school or the children who spend the summer at the William H. Maybury Sanatorium. Automobile transportation is provided by the club and arrangements are made for a day of gladness away from the regular routine that the children follow.

Band Concert On The North Side

Saturday night's band concert will take place on Liberty street just off Starkweather, according to an announcement made yesterday by Director Ivan C. Gray. The players will appear in their new uniforms.

Last Saturday night's concert given in Kellogg park delighted the many hundreds that heard it. The band showed that there has been consistent practice for some time.

Director Gray has prepared the following program for the concert to be played Saturday night on the north side:

"The Age of Progress," March. Goss.

"Gems of Stephen Foster," American Fantasia, Tobani.

"Lustspiel," Overture, Keler, Bela, Mile, Modiste, Waltzes, Herbert.

"Them Bases," March, Huff.

"Let Me Call You Sweetheart," Waltz, Popular.

"War Songs of The Boys in Blue," Medley Overture, Laurendeau.

"Santiago, Valse," Espagnole Corbin.

"El Captain," March, Sousa.

"Star Spangle Banner," Key.

Hot Weather Is Sweeping State

Plymouth, in keeping with the rest of the state, suffers in the heat of Wednesday afternoon and Thursday. There was little relief from early Thursday morning and so as the morning hours passed, the day got steadily warmer.

Except for the discomfort suffered by individuals, no damage was done by the heat in this locality. Farmers declared it good, growing weather however and welcomed it.

"Casey" Coming to Tell His Story

Casey Vander Jagt, and his party from Grand Rapids will visit Plymouth this week-end, holding an open air meeting in Kellogg Park on Saturday evening.

Mr. Vander Jagt, who is a converted drunkard and cab driver, will tell his life story. He has been in evangelistic work with his family sixteen years.

Mr. Vander Jagt is noted throughout the state for building large Gospel sign boards. He has used $20,000 for this purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. Vander Jagt have opened nine closed churches; also four missions. Mrs. Vander Jagt has been singing with her daughter for fourteen years over station WASH of Grand Rapids.

Hundreds crowded to hear Mr. Vander Jagt in a similar meeting here last year.

He and his party have been also invited to take charge of the services at the Calvary Baptist Church, 455 South Main street, this Sunday, July 14, at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. to which the public is invited.

Will Start Post Office Monday

Unless some unexpected delay takes place between now and Monday, excavation for the new Plymouth postoffice building will begin Monday morning. All of the preliminary details have been worked out and final approval given by the government for the project. Completion of the building is scheduled for about the first of the year.

Permits for the removal of dogs from the County may be obtained from the police department of the city of Plymouth. Forms for this purpose have been provided by the sheriff, and there is no expense attached to such permit.

Rotarians Will Lay Cornerstone

Members of the Plymouth Rotary club following their regular meeting at the Mayflower hotel this Friday, noon are going to take cognizance of the fact that the newest member of Plymouth Rotary, Russell Daane is erecting the first residence put up in Plymouth during the past three years.

The meeting at the hotel will be brief, giving members time to go in a body over to the new residence under construction on Garfield street in the Hough sub-division.

The club officials will formally lay the cornerstone of the home and in it will be placed a club membership list as well as a copy of this issue of The Plymouth Mail.

The house, designed to be a modern home in every way, when completed, is going to be as attractive a residence as has been built in Plymouth, and members of the Rotary club are going to see to it that it gets the right kind of a start.

Kiwanians Hear Of Wayne County Road Finances

Members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club Tuesday evening heard Harry A. Starnes, in charge of bridge engineering associated with the Wayne county road commission, discuss the financial problems that this county faces in connection with its future road and bridge development.

The speaker, who was brought to Plymouth by George Burr of this city, who is also associated with the commission, was given a most cordial welcome by the club.

President Mastick had selected Mr. Burr as chairman of the evening's program.

The speaker, clearly pointed out the decline in finances that have been available in Wayne county for road purposes during the past few years, pointing out how much of the new legislation passed by the legislature in Lansing removed to a very great extent a considerable portion of funds that had in past years been available for road and bridge improvement as well as their maintenance.

There was a time when something like $11,000,000 was available each year for highway construction in Wayne county, he said, but now there is barely $2,000,000 available for construction purposes.

Notwithstanding this tremendous cut in our resources, we have been able to keep about 80 per cent of township roads which the commission has taken over. We now have under our jurisdiction for maintenance purposes over 1,200 miles of roads in Wayne county, 14 bridges and 58 grade separations. We also must maintain 15 comfort stations throughout the county," he said.

"It will thus be seen that the funds available for road purposes in Wayne county have been reduced through state legislation approximately $8,000,000 annually. Everyone is well aware of the fact that no federal funds have been available for highway and street purposes in Wayne county which in any way balance this reduction.

"The Federal funds available through PWA and WPA cannot be used for the purchase of land for metropolitan districts such as that of a major character involves such expenditure which must then be met by the State or the county sponsoring the job from its automobile tax revenues. Grade separations, for instance, if they be built with any reasonable consideration of future requirements, almost always entail the acquisition of some additional property and, if built in metropolitan districts such as that surrounding Detroit, will always entail damages to the abutting property.

"To exhaust the possibilities of this discussion would require several evenings, but I believe that enough has been said to convince you of the truth of the statements which I set out to prove, namely:

"That the funds available for highway purposes, including construction and maintenance of roads, bridges and grade separations, etc., from all sources, are considerably less than in 1929 and in 1930, and the portion of these funds which are available for construction purposes is probably not greater than one-third of what it was at that time.

"Basically, all highway improvements and maintenance are dependent for their financing on the State automobile weight and gasoline taxes. Federal funds do the contrary notwithstanding.

"I wish that I could take long

U. S. Geodetic Survey Marks Longitude, Latitude and Sea Level

Several inquiries have been made at the city hall relative to the purpose of the two stone monuments in Central Park opposite the high school building. The larger of the two monuments established by the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey and has been established in connection with the control points to be used in their survey. There will be three tablets placed on this monument which will tell the purpose of the monument and also give the exact geographical location on the earth's surface. The elevation above sea level will also be shown the bronze cap on the top of the monument and this elevation will be used in establishing grades in the city. Complete data concerning the monument will be on file in the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey Offices in Washington.

The smaller monument was built at the request of the city and is located exactly one hundred feet due north of the larger monument. There will be a bronze tablet placed in the cap of this monument and a point marked which will give the exact north and south directions taken from the larger monument. The reason for making this small monument exactly one hundred feet from the larger monument is that it will be possible to accurately check the surveyors' field tape with the aid of the monuments.

The officials in charge of the survey project designed these two monuments to correspond with the stone fences which are now located in the park.

State Takes Drastic Steps To End Epidemic Of Rabies

The Plymouth police department has been instructed by the state health department to shoot all dogs that are found running at large within the city. Under a state law where the dogs of a city have been placed under quarantine because of rabies, officers are not only empowered to kill all dogs running loose, but are required to do so. There is no responsibility to the officer for killing unfastened dogs.

The quarantine notice, which came from the state veterinarian and commissioner of agriculture reads:

"The fact has been established that dogs affected with an infectious and communicable disease known as 'rabies' have recently been at large in the City of Detroit and in Dearborn, Nankin, Plymouth and Romulus Townships in Wayne County, Michigan, and are known to have bitten persons and animals and may have come in contact with dogs as yet unknown.

Notice is hereby given that all dogs owned or kept in Wayne County shall be securely chained or otherwise properly confined to prevent the aforesaid dogs from biting any other animals or persons. No person owning a dog and or having the custody of any dog within the County shall move such dog from the premises where kept, or allow the same to run at large, except upon a written permit from the Sheriff of Wayne County, or his authorized representative. To secure such permit a fee shall be tagged for identification and the owner shall produce a certificate signed by a graduate licensed veterinarian showing that the dog has been properly vaccinated against rabies within six months prior to the issuance of the permit. Any quarantine does not contravene or revoke existing quarantines issued by local boards of health."

This quarantine is issued in pursuance with Michigan State Laws relating to the Bureau of Animal Industry, which provides a penalty for violation of a quarantine as follows:

"Said Commissioner shall have power to declare and enforce a quarantine on dogs in any district of this state in which there is an outbreak of rabies, or in other contagious or infectious disease among the livestock; and may order that all dogs in said district shall be securely chained or otherwise properly confined. Any dog found at large in contravention of terms of such a quarantine or order may be killed. It shall be the duty of sheriff of each County in the district affected by such quarantine to cause the same to be enforced, and other municipal police officers to see to it that such quarantine and orders are enforced. Any officer killing a dog pursuant to the provisions of this act shall not be subject to any liability therefor."

Another Section of the State Law provides a fine not less than ten dollars or more than $500.00 or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both, for violation of the law. This quarantine is effective in Wayne county until September 14th, 1935. The dog ordinance of the city of Plymouth requires dogs to be confined on the owners premises during July and August, but with this quarantine in effect it will not be possible for owners to allow their dogs to run at large until after the quarantine is lifted, and not before September 14th.

Rev. P. Ray Norton Given 3rd Year Assignment To This City

Plymouth Methodists and residents of the city generally were delighted this week when definite news came that Rev. P. Ray Norton had been assigned to the First Methodist church of Plymouth for another year.

This will be the third year for the well known Methodist leader and minister in Plymouth, where he has been exceptionally successful in his work.

Rev. Norton is out of the city for the present, but expects to be home within the near future and continue the excellent work that he has been doing.

Rev. William Richards who was at Northville for nine years, will retain his post at Belleville where he has been for the past three years.

Rev. F. A. Lendrum, formerly of Plymouth will remain at Farmington for another year. L. F. Merrell has been assigned to Whitmore Lake church. Rev. Leonard Eilers will be at Milford and Highland. Rev. D. E. Evans has been assigned for next year to Walled Lake church. H. J. Lord of Pontiac come to the Northville church to take the place of Rev. H. H. Malins who goes to Bethany church in Detroit.

Dogs Running At Large Ordered Killed by Police

Only 207 New Dog Licenses Issued

Up to and including July 8th the City of Plymouth had issued 207 dog licenses. It is estimated that there are approximately 150 unlicensed dogs yet in the city.

"We had hoped," stated the city manager, "that it would be unnecessary for the police department around to make a canvass of the unlicensed dogs, but the other 150 or 200 dog owners obtain their licenses by the middle of the month, the police department will make the annual check up. It seems that it should be unnecessary to go to this extra expense in seeing that all dogs are properly licensed. However, if the only alternative if additional licenses are not secured immediately."

In order that the police department may conduct this canvass it is necessary to have the officers work three or four hours each day over for which they will be paid on an hourly basis. A 50 cent penalty is now charged on all dog licenses, which penalty, to some extent, will aid the city in making the dog canvass.

Escapes Flood In Eastern State

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Brisbois are back in Plymouth from a vacation trip to the east that nearly ended in disaster in the floods that have been sweeping the state of New York. Awakened at 3 o'clock last Monday morning by the roar of rushing flood waters and the excitement of business men hurrying to their place to open stores so that goods could be removed to places of safety, they found their way out of Oneonta, New York, where they were stopping for the night, was being flooded as the result of the constant downpour of rains that that part of the country has been experiencing.

Fortunately where they were staying was above the flood line, but they had plenty of opportunity to see the damage that the flood was causing. It was necessary for them to detour for over 100 miles out of their way in order to get home. Bridges and roads were washed out nearly everywhere in eastern and central New York, stated Dr. Brisbois.

When caught in the New York flood, Dr. Brisbois and his family were on their way home from a brief vacation trip to Connecticut, being accompanied on the trip by their son and the mother of Mrs. Brisbois, Mrs. Christine Van Poppel, who is remaining in the east for the present.

Playgrounds Are Popular Places

During the first four days of the summer recreation program sponsored by the recreation committee, 900 children were present and took part in the playground activities.

This attendance was quite gratifying to those sponsoring the playground work, and the children found many activities to occupy their time. The play is supervised by Kenneth Matheson, athletic director of the high school, who has been engaged for the summer program.

The children found equipment of all kinds with which to amuse themselves, including balls of all descriptions, horse shoes, croquet mallets, tennis, and similar kinds of play equipment. After a day of activity on the playground, the children are permitted the use of the showers in the school building.

Organization of the baseball teams got under way in the middle of the week. The divisions consist of Junior and Intermediate divisions. These divisions will play a regular schedule throughout the summer and the champions will be proclaimed at the end of the season.

During the past week, tournaments in tennis and horseshoes for both children and adults have been started. Jackstones for girls and mumble-peg for boys are soon scheduled to start. Entries should be made for these contests with Mr. Matheson. All children desiring to take part in these tournaments should register immediately.

The program of events to be conducted during the coming week will be Checker Tournaments, Scooter Races, and a Pet and Hobby Show. The Pet and Hobby Show should be an important event, and will attract considerable attention both from the children and the grown-ups. This event will come toward the end of the season, but all children should get prepared, so that they may take part in the parade and display their pets and hobbies.

William Wood Opens New Office

William Wood during the present week, opened up a life insurance office in the insurance business and is thoroughly familiar with all of its details. His friends are glad to know that he has again established an office in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Huston attended the Patterson reunion at St. Johns last Sunday. On their return they spent Sunday night with friends in Lansing.

Tax Collection Jumps Ahead Of Past Few Years

Better Business Indicated By Increase In Tax Payments

The 1935 tax collections on July 8th were approximately one thousand dollars more in 1935 than for the same day in 1934. To date the city treasurer has collected $5339.00 against $4457.00 on the date last year.

Daily tax collection records are kept by the city treasurer, and are available for comparison with former years at all times. It has been estimated by the city commission that a greater percentage of the taxes were received in 1935 than was received in 1934. The 1934 collections exceeded those of 1933. Previous to 1933 the collections had gradually fallen off, from an average of 95 per cent to a low of 69 per cent. The tax collections started to fall in 1928 and continued downward until 1933.

If estimates of city officials are correct the 1935 tax collections will equal or exceed the amount collected in 1932, in which year 77 per cent were received. The city of Plymouth has followed a practice of operating within the income of the municipality; therefore, as tax delinquencies increased, the city's income decreased, and naturally the service rendered by the city decreased accordingly. One of the major curtailments of the last two years has been the item of laying the dust on unpaved streets. This year the expense expended between three and four thousand dollars in this work, anticipating that there would be a considerable improvement in tax payments this year.

From time to time the Plymouth Mail will carry articles concerning the status of the 1935 tax collections, so that the public will be informed on this item at all times. The penalty on the taxes due on the 15th of each month, therefore it is suggested that as many taxes as possible be paid before that date.

HE DID A GOOD JOB

The Plymouth Mail had occasion once or twice during the administration of Frank A. Picard, Michigan's first liquor commissioner, to commend him for the excellent way he handled a difficult problem. We saw no harm in expressing our views on the subject, even though Mr. Picard was of a different political party than the writer.

Now that we have lived under a Republican administration of the liquor business for some six or seven months, we have begun to realize how efficient and how fair Mr. Picard really was. The complete break-down of the Liquor administration under Judge McDonald has served to emphasize in a most emphatic way just how outstanding was the administration of his Democratic predecessor.

If the present state administration can offer Michigan nothing better than the McDonald brand of liquor control we earnestly and strongly recommend that the state put forth every effort to induce Mr. Picard, a Democrat, to take his old job back as quickly as possible. Of course we do not mean to say there are not men in the Republican party with sufficient ability to handle this job, but unfortunately one of them has not been selected.

CONGRATULATIONS, CUBA.

Newspaper reports during the past few days have carried accounts of the deportation from Cuba of a group of American radical writers who went down to the neighboring Republic with the declared intention of "exposing" alleged conditions in that country. We have not the slightest information as to what the conditions are that they intended to "expose" but doubtless it was or is something that concerns no one except Cuba. From all that can be learned the little country to the south is doing a pretty good job of cleaning up its affairs without the assistance of a lot of snooping outside radicals whose only object is in stirring up trouble.

Cuba did just the right thing in refusing to permit these people to land on its shores. It did right in sending them back to the place from whence they came.

If our own high officials in Washington would display similar common sense and send all the radicals in America out of America, we would be a thousand percent better off than we are. Cuba has provided the United States a good example and we should loose no time in adopting it, but apparently there isn't much hope of it as long as Madame Perkins is permitted to coddle communists and block every effort to rid this country of the scum that infests it. Again we congratulate Cuba officials upon the one and only satisfactory way to handle a difficult problem.

THE AGITATORS

There are many different kinds of agitators, business agitators, labor agitators and lastly political agitators. Sunday night some loud-mouthed congressman from up in the north-west broke loose on the radio and declared that this country was in a turmoil, that confusion reigned and we have no idea of where we are headed for.

Well it is just such talk as this that keeps the country in a turmoil. When a congressman speaks it is right and proper for him to point out and discuss some of our problems, but for him to declare that we are in a state of confusion and turmoil is all wrong. Of course the wind-bag politician likes to have people believe everything is wrong and that he is the one who can save the day—at so much per year.

If congress and the meddling politicians would keep their hands off business, if they would talk of the brighter side of the picture and not be constantly referring to the ills of the nation and world, we would be a thousand per cent better off. In fact we doubt if the country would have any problem at all right now if nine-tenths of the membership of congress could be muzzled.

GOOD FOR MR. TOY

Information came out of Lansing last week to the effect that it was Attorney General Harry S. Toy who had forced the resignation of Mike Nowack from his public "trust" job. This report does away entirely with early insinuation that the attorney general's office would white-wash the Nowack affair. Those who know Mr. Toy and his way of doing things knew there would be no white-wash of Nowack if Nowack was found to be unfit for the office to which he was selected. This is just what Mr. Toy found and as a result, Nowack has resigned his job. However in the brief time he has been dabbling in defaulted bond affairs he has profitted to the extent of some $63,000 or more, as we have seen no account of any action being taken which would eliminate Mr. Nowack from being the beneficiary of the amount, he voted to himself just before the default bond storm broke. But, who wouldn't "resign" for $63,000 in good money?

NATIONAL DANGER

Slow but sure, the American people are beginning to realize that the vast expenditures of the New Deal will some day have to be paid for by way of taxation. Gradually—and we hope honestly—public sentiment will pile up against many of President Roosevelt's "notable experiments" until the Chief Executive will be brought to earth and a more abundant common sense. The greatest danger of the Roosevelt experiment lies not alone in its financial phases, but rather in the danger of abolishing traditional American freedom. Our nation stands on the precarious edge of a change from majority rule to minority ruin.—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

THE USUAL GRATITUDE

The fellow who wouldn't think of asking a merchant to throw in a pair of socks when he buys a pair of shoes, has no compunction about asking the newspaper for a lot of free advertising. This same fellow when he has a little job of printing will run out of town with it.—George Neal in The Orion Review.

The YEARS between

Too soon they come, too soon are gone,
 The years that lie between!
 So swiftly twilight follows dawn
 That life's resplendent scene
 Is shadowed by approaching night:
 Youth finds short time for play,
 And few men win ambition's fight
 Before the close of day.

A babe for just a little while,
 Then childhood, too, is done;
 Oh, very soon is every mile
 Of life's brief journey run!
 The golden years that lie between
 The cradle and the cane—
 Their candid record must be seen
 To reckon loss or gain.

Lord, teach me how to utilize
 Each precious, fleeting year,
 Nor let me waste so rich a prize
 As youth's I have been given.
 Of memories when I am old
 If I have done my best,
 For evening shadows then will hold
 Contentment, peace and rest.

TAXES MULTIPLY LIKE RATS

Government spokesmen, admitting that the national debt will shortly reach the 35-billion-dollar point if the present rate of expenditure is continued, often attempt to laugh this off with the observation that a country as rich as ours can stand almost anything in the way of a debt burden. Also they say that we are not yet as deeply in debt as a great many European countries. Why should we be? Would that be any honor? Do we want our nation infested with taxes like a rotting ship is infested with rats?

At the present time, federal expenditures are outrunning federal receipts about two to one. In other words, if we spend $2,000,000,000, half of that is met through existing taxes. The other half must be added to the debt—where it inevitably creates permanent interest charges and new taxes.

The tax burden goes up automatically as public debts increase just as rats multiply and consume everything around them if they are not exterminated. It is an intolerable drain on individuals and industry. Money that would go for building factories—for home improvement and construction—for jobs and payrolls—for industrial expansion—for farms—for everything that we use for profit or pleasure is going to the tax collector. Our productive wealth is being sapped to a constantly increasing extent.

Debts make taxes—taxes make debts. They constitute a vicious circle, that threatens the very existence of our social and corporate structure. A tax-infested nation, like a rat-infested ship, is doomed unless fumigating measures are adopted.—Floyd McGriff in The Redford Record.

JUST ANOTHER WELFARE BLUNDER

Perhaps as atrocious a cruelty as a government ever worked upon helpless people was pictured in a recent edition of a leading Michigan newspaper. A woman, the wife of one of the Alaska immigrants, was at the well with a pail for household use. The implied question was "how can it be expected that these Alaska pioneers should be forced to extract water from a well? Why has not the beneficent bureaucracy which transported them to that far off land installed a central water system for these pioneers of 1935? Shades of pioneers of 1835. What would they think if they were here now? What if the Alaskans were forced to exchange their new shiny two-way pump for a bucket and yokes of their own make? There may have been mistakes made in arranging the trek of these people to a frigid area. There may have been errors in the arrangements. But the greatest mistake of all was in conception of the plan itself. The earlier the welfare agencies pull up the pump and re-transport the whole outfit back to the U.S.A. the better.—Vernon J. Brown in The Ingham County News.

Mrs. Charles Mather and daughter leave today for a visit with relatives at Leroy.

A seven pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lombard Wednesday.

B. S. Stanbury driving a new Flanders twelve automobile and Phil Dingledee a new E-M-F thirty.

Three cows belonging to Harry Shattuck, Will Pfeiffer and William Gayde died this week. Dr. Grainer says they did not die from hydrophobia.

Henry Fischer and family have a cottage at Island Lake this week. Also a Sunday school class of girls of the Baptist church are camping at Island lake with Mrs. Hanson as chaperone.

A four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller while playing in the front yard of their home last Monday fell and broke his right arm. Dr. Kimble was called and reduced the fracture.

While Charles Amrhein, living east of the village, was loading some hogs on a wagon Wednesday, one of the porkers became enraged and bit Mr. Amrhein on the leg, causing a wound nearly two inches deep. Dr. Campbell attended the injury.

Miss Sattie Spicer, daughter of H. A. Spicer, who was injured in an auto accident in Detroit June 30 is convalescing in fine shape at the home of her sister, Sattie can ride a broncho, anywhere, but the auto bucked too quick for her. She was in an automobile that was hit by another one at the corner of Greenwood and Alexandrine in Detroit. Miss Spicer shot over the hood and fell 20 feet away.

While Mr. and Mrs. Basil Stoneburner and their little child were driving down Main street last Friday evening their horse became frightened and started to run. Mr. Stoneburner kept control of him until he reached the new Y being constructed by the D.U.R. on Main street where a car was backing out. The horse ran onto the lawn of Dr. Patterson. As the wheels struck the curbing, they were smashed in and the family thrown out on the ground. Mrs. Stoneburner and the child who were injured were cared for by Dr. Patterson.

The Fourth of July was pleasantly observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Whitbeck, it being the occasion of the marriage of their daughter Flora to Charles H. Rathburn of Plymouth. At 6 o'clock promptly the nuptial knot was tied in the presence of near relatives and friends. Miss Lella Murray and Frank Whitbeck accompanied the bride and groom. After an elaborate luncheon the bride and groom left for a short trip. The fact that it was the 62nd anniversary of the bride's grandmother's wedding was a feature of interest. The young people are held in high esteem. Mrs. Rathburn having been a successful teacher in the Farmington schools for a number of years and the groom is an enterprising young business man of Plymouth.

Salem Farmers' Club Has Large Meeting

Salem Farmers' club held a very enjoyable meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Nelson, last week Tuesday night. The program was sponsored by the Salem 4-H club, assisted by the Waters orchestra of Leoni which proved one of the greater attractions of the occasion. A comedy, "Across the Fence," presented by 4-H club members received hearty applause from the audience. Taking part in it were: Deforest Thompson, Clara Henning, Margaret Ann Henning, David Herald, Willard Wilson and Robert Henning. The story centered around a "scrap" over a calf. One died, both farmers claimed the remaining one. Things didn't look so good for a while. Then the women solved the problem by suggesting that the calf be raffled off and the proceeds given to the home economics club.

Two songs were sung by the club, and each of the six clubs represented had an exhibit in the parade which was staged on the lawn of the Nelson home. There was a pet lamb all decorated for show, a calf and a variety of farm and garden produce. This feature was very interesting. Ice cream and cake were served for refreshment.

So that you may have a clear idea of the way this bank is being managed we present in the adjoining column the condensed figures from our current statement of condition as called for by the State Banking Department.

We spread before you this "open page" upon which you will find the true story of our deposits which you will note are only slightly lower than on March 4, 1935, the date of the last published statement and you will recall that since that date the entire moratorium fund was made available to depositors. The present value of the bonds held by the Bank exceeds the cost at which they are shown in the statement by approximately $12,000.00 showing a satisfactory appreciation.

May we ask you as our friends, and particularly our 1420 depositors to give this "open page" your study for a few moments? We are sure that you will agree with us that the facts presented merit your confidence and support for this Bank.

COOK THREE MEALS A DAY—

USE YOUR FAVORITE RECIPES—

★ Try an Electric Range in YOUR OWN KITCHEN

THE best way to find out about electric cooking is to put a range in your own kitchen . . . cook three meals a day on it . . . try all your favorite recipes . . . ask your family how the cooking tastes in comparison with what you did on your old stove . . . and then decide whether or not you like the range. THEN you can decide whether or not you want to keep it. Your family will probably decide for you!

To enable you to do this, we have arranged a Trial Plan. We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, so that you may give it a thorough trial. During this trial period you simply pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Send in your application for a trial range today!

- ### Enjoy These Advantages of Electric Cooking!
- CLEAN. Electric heat is as clean as sunlight. There is no smoke or soot to soil kitchen walls and curtains. Cooking utensils remain bright and shiny after long use.
 - HEALTHFUL. Electric cooking seals in nourishing juices and natural elements in meats and vegetables. Important food values are retained.
 - WATERLESS COOKING. With your electric range you use no water for roasts and only half-a-cup for vegetables.
 - MODERN. In attractive and striking designs, these electric ranges do much to brighten and add a feeling of newness to your entire kitchen.
 - FULL FLAVORED. Electric cooking has a deliciously different flavor—a natural flavor in foods. Meats and vegetables cook to melting tenderness in their own juices.
 - INEXPENSIVE. Electric cooking costs less than a cent a meal per person.
 - SAFE. An electric range supplies only pure heat from a glowing wire—there is no flame, no matches, no fumes.

Half Year Auto Permits End Soon

On or before Wednesday night, July 31, nearly 16000 people who bought automobile stickers from the Plymouth branch office of the secretary of state will be required to get full year licenses, states Secretary Berg Moore.

A check of his figures shows that exceedingly few of the 16000 sticker buyers have bought full yearly licenses. Of course some of this number is represented by people who bought stickers for their old cars and turned them in for new ones, getting the new license for their new car, but who ever has the old car with the sticker will be required under law to get a full time license before August 1st.

On Thursday, July 25, automobile license plates for 1935 will go on sale at half price. Orville E. Atwood, Secretary of State, has announced. The plates will be available from that date on, at the Department of State, and all branch offices throughout Michigan.

Cars that have been on the highways without 1935 plates have been equipped with 1935 half-year permits or "stickers." Cars placed in operation on the highways prior to July 25 must be equipped either with half-year permits or with 1935 plates purchased at full price, it is pointed out.

Owners of cars which have been equipped with half-price "stickers" have at all times had available the privilege of purchasing 1935 plates upon payment of the balance of the 1935 license plate tax. But in any event, "stickers" must be replaced with 1935 plates by mid-night, July 31, Atwood warns. No extension of time can be granted without express authorization of the legislature. Motorists are asked to bring their "sticker" registration certificates with them when they apply for their 1935 license plates.

Mr. Schrader has been a member of the state examining board over a long period of years.

Big Barn Burns Over On The Base Line Road

Fire destroyed two barns and contents on the Allen Wilkinson farm on Base Line road last week Monday morning. Mr. Wilkinson had gone to one of the barns about 7:30. He turned on the electric lights and as he did so there was a strange crackling sound. Looking up at the ceiling he discovered it to be afire. He looked into the mow, up above, and found that it was all ablaze.

The flames consumed the building rapidly and spread to an adjacent barn which likewise burned to the ground. One barn contained about ten tons of straw, the other barn contained hay and there was quite a quantity of tools. Scarcely anything was salvaged from the burning structures. South Lyon's fire department responded promptly but was unable to do more than save three smaller buildings. A wind favored the house by blowing sparks the opposite direction. The fire is believed to have originated from a defect in the wiring. Loss is estimated at $3,000 with 50 per cent insurance coverage.

THIS WEEK'S BEST FISHING STORY

Eugene Ornsdorff is probably as good an engineer as ever pushed a throttle on one of the Pere Marquette big moguls—but causing the steam to hiss and blow is nothing as compared to the hissing and blowing that his fishing story of the week caused among the Plymouth nimrods that heard it.

Mr. Ornsdorff has one hobby outside of politics, and that's fishing. His friends say that both politics and fishing is mostly all talk so it is just natural that one interested in politics should also be interested in fishing. At any rate four or five times of the year the well known north-side Pere Marquette engineer goes up among the tall pines after the big ones. He has never been known to fish for anything that tips the scales under a dozen pounds, so as a matter of fact he is Plymouth's only "deep-sea" fisherman. Having a lot of deep-sea fishing is done in northern lakes.

Now to his fishing story. "Last summer a gentleman from Illinois came up here and we went north on a little fishing trip. Of course it was to one of my favorite lakes over in Canada. "Well the day had been a pretty good one. We had caught some pike weighing anywhere from ten to fifteen pounds and after enjoying the sport of landing them, turned them back into the lake. Not a minute later we really big enough to keep. I finally hooked one that weighed eighteen pounds. To most of you fellows an eighteen pound fish is a pretty good fish, but we boys who go after fish just count it a fair one. It was getting rather late in the day and we hadn't saved any of the twelve pounders we had caught so we thought we had better save this one for supper. We pulled him in the boat and that night there was 12 of us that had all the fish we wanted to eat from that one fish," said Eugene.

"But now to the true fishing story. As I have been saying, we do not keep any of the little ten or twelve pounders. Fish of that size are for the beginners—but not for real fishermen. "After having caught our supper we started out to catch a really big one. We didn't intend to keep it if we caught it, as we fish just for the sake of fishing. It wasn't long before I hooked one. I knew the minute he took my bait that he weighed exactly 29 pounds and that it was a musky. That's the kind I like to catch, 29 pound muskies. "Of course I was using a nine pound test line and I didn't dare press him too hard as I wanted to get him up near the boat so I could see him. We worked carefully for a long time—I guess about two hours. We'd pull him up then we'd let him go. He'd run a few circles, go down to the bottom, then out on top for air. You have to know just how and what to do when you hook one of those boys—and I knew just how to get him up to the boat without breaking my light line.

"To make a long story short, we tired the old fellow all out and then brought him along side our boat to get a good look at him. I reached down and patted his head for a minute and my partner looked over his big teeth. He said they must have been over an inch long. We held him along side for a few minutes admiring his beauty and then I reached over and took the hook out of his mouth.

"The musky slowly swam away from the boat along on top of the water. I thought possibly he'd hurt him, but suddenly he discovered that he wasn't fastened to any line. He gave one big leap in the air and away he shot, like the Sportman when its running a few minutes late. That's the kind of fishing we do. We catch 'em to look and let 'em go—and nothing under a dozen pounds has ever splattered up the bottom of our boat. That's that."

Just then the safety valve of his engine let go. No one has been able to determine whether the engine made more noise than did those that heard his story.

Understanding World Affairs

Mr. Roosevelt's Most Dangerous Enemy

By Walter Lippmann

Recent events have made it plain that there is one man who can defeat the President. His name is not Herbert Hoover. His name is not Huey Long. His name is Franklin D. Roosevelt. The issue on which he may be beaten has also become clear. He may be defeated if he convinces the people that he is too restless to permit them to resume an ordinary existence.

Mr. Roosevelt has reached a point not unlike that which Woodrow Wilson reached in the winter of 1919 when he failed to recognize that the longing for adventure and the appetite for public excitement had given way to a craving for peace and a return to normalcy. President Wilson fell from the heights of popularity because the American people were afraid that he meant to keep them distracted and embroiled. A similar fate may easily be in store for President Roosevelt unless he is wise enough to recognize that the mood of 1933 is exhausted. He will be dangerously misled if he attributes to the people at large his own persistent interest in continuous public activity.

But for this one factor Mr. Roosevelt's position is a very strong one. A substantial business recovery, brought on in part by ordinary requirements and in part by the stimulus of certain of his measures, is under way and should, by all known signs, develop momentum in the course of the next year. Along with it he has put upon the statute books a series of reforms which only the people were allowed leisure to appreciate them, would be spectacularly impressive. Moreover, these reforms will not be seriously challenged in principle by the Republican opposition unless there is an explosive reaction against a venture that seems to have no end. With the NRA out of the way, no important Republican leader is on record as favoring the total repeal and complete abolition of any of the other major reforms. Mr. Roosevelt, therefore, in the enviable position where he might go to the people in 1936 with the claim that he had brought about recovery and had achieved reform.

But it would not be difficult for him to destroy his own position. All he has to do in order to destroy his own position is to make the people feel that he does not know how to stop because he has an incurable itch to keep moving. If that belief takes hold in the public mind, the people will not thank him for the recovery they enjoy; they will blame him for withholding the additional recovery they might enjoy. Moreover, the reforms themselves will be jeopardized. For if the time is not taken to consolidate them—to revise them where they are legally vulnerable, to interpret and administer them successfully, half the people will be angered by their detailed defects and the other half disillusioned because their promises are unrealized.

It will not do to stop proposing new major reforms. It will be necessary to say clearly and convincingly at the end of this session that the complete reform program is on the statute books and that the next business is to revise, strengthen and make real these legislative blue prints. There is plenty to do if the Administration is sincerely interested in realizing these reforms. They have merely been enacted. To administer the work relief, to set up the vast and intricate social insurance scheme, to make the new financial and banking laws operate well, to translate the agricultural program from an emergency basis to a permanent one for farmer co-operation with government assistance, to regulate the utilities, to make some sort of sense out of the Wagner Labor bill—these are tasks of extraordinary difficulty and of immense scope.

They really require the undivided attention of the President, his Cabinet and the Congress, and if instead of giving them undivided attention, Washington is distracted by important new legislative proposals, the sincerity of the whole reform program will be open to question. It will look as if reforms were put forward not for what they achieve but for what they promise and that new reforms are meant to divert attention from the practical difficulties of old reforms.

At the end of this session the President ought to review what he has accomplished since March, 1933, and he ought to declare that as regards permanent structural reforms, the books are to be closed, not forever, but for a period long enough to realize what has been promised and to take a good long look at it. With this assurance, and with the knowledge that the refractory policy will be continued under firm control, there ought to be more business recovery and very considerable employment. The President could then say that, having given these assurances, if business men do what they now say can do if they are allowed to proceed, he will bring to the next Congress a budget definitely and distinctly constructed on the principle that it is to be balanced by a decrease in the cost of relief and an increase not of tax rates but of the revenues from returning prosperity.

None of this will be possible if he decides that he prefers continual excitement to a period of consolidated achievement. He will have thrown away carelessly an opportunity to advance his own fortunes and to serve the country. He will face defeat and the discrediting of his ideals and the disruption of his party for no better reason than that at the critical turning point in his career he could not or would not realize that a people must have rest after prolonged excitement.

Utility Vote Held Sign New Deal Is Distrusted

By Mark Sullivan

What will follow the rebuke of the Democratic House to President Roosevelt will depend on many conditions. One of them will be the degree of public support the country gives to those who refused to obey the President's demand. Unless the country and the several congressional districts support the independent Congressmen, things will go badly with them, especially with the Democratic ones. The Administration has enormous power to make it difficult for a Democratic Congressman to be renominated and re-elected and this Administration uses its power with much ruthlessness.

It is safe to say there is literally no exception to the judgment that President Roosevelt made a mistake in his insistence that the House enact the public utility holding bill in precisely the form he demanded.

Between what the House wanted to do and what the President insisted on, the difference is not very material. It was the difference between death and, on the other hand, power of life and death—between a present sentence of death to holding companies, which the President demanded, and on the other hand, giving to the Securities and Exchange Commission the power of ex-cising any holding company it sees fit to kill. It is to be remembered that the SEC is one of the new bodies set up under the present Administration. Every member of it was appointed by Mr. Roosevelt and therefore reflects Mr. Roosevelt's views. It would seem to go without saying that the securities commission will exterminate any holding company that Mr. Roosevelt wishes exterminated.

The bill as enacted by the House is extremely drastic. It goes farther on regulating public utility holding companies than any other measure ever went in regulating any kind of business. It is utterly inconceivable that any evil associated with holding companies will not be remedied by the bill as passed by the House. If attempt is made to say that those who voted against the President's wishes were moved by undue leniency toward holding companies, such an assertion is unjust and fantastic.

So far as there was anything fantastic in the whole performance, it was the President's attitude. He seemed as if he were moved by two parallel emotions, neither very worthy, one to grind his heel on the holding companies, the other to show his power. The former motive is a characteristic quality of the New Dealers. Long ago, Mr. Walter Lippmann, sympathetic to the New Deal, advised "abandonment of merely punitive and terroristic attacks on private business."

The President would hardly have permitted himself to indulge in his recent attempt to exercise his power if he had not been in the sort of mood that old-fashioned New Englanders call "in a state." He had been disturbed by the decisions of the Supreme Court. He was further disturbed when his criticism of the court and the Constitution was not well received by the country. He was disturbed again by the public reaction to what Arthur Krock, of "The New York Times," called the "brutal opportunism" and the other aspects of his bringing forward his measure for the "distribution of wealth." It was soon after that that the President, at a recent press conference, announced with much feeling his desire that the House should pass the utility holding company bill in the drastic form he preferred. Again and again in the past, when he was in a calmer mood, he had stated to press conferences that he would never discuss measures when they were actually pending before Congress

Penniman Road Dust Fills Air

Residents of Penniman avenue road west of where the present black top surface has been completed, quite agree with the statement coming from the University of Michigan that more than one inch of gravel blows off the top of a highway in the form of dust during one summer season. Because of the fact that this highway is being given a hard surface treatment way to the Washtenaw county line, there has been no dust layer put on it this year and as a result when there is heavy traffic, a great cloud of dust lies over the countryside.

How rapidly gravel roads dry up and blow away, a serious but little understood highway maintenance problem, is to be surveyed in a three-year program begun this summer by the University of Michigan Department of Engineering Research.

Some housewives living along a gravel street or road have told the engineers that much of the road, after a windy day, has come into the house and settled on the furniture. This is doubtless an extreme view, according to Professor R. S. Swinton, in charge of the study, but he points out that some previous surveys have indicated a yearly loss ranging from one-half to one inch, or 230 cubic yards of gravel on a mile of 18 foot roadway traversed by 800 vehicles daily.

The survey began this summer in Washtenaw, Wayne, Genesee, and Huron counties, will exceed in scope any heretofore attempted. During the next three years the wind dispersal of plain gravel, calcium chloride surface-treated gravel and clay-bound gravel containing calcium chloride, will be carefully estimated. Adjacent stretches of the three types in the same road will be constructed and observed.

The rate of gravel loss will be determined by setting up permanent bench marks at sections where the roads will be examined six times a year. These readings will be checked with frequent

New Dealers play tricks in the bills which the intellectuals write and which Mr. Roosevelt sends to Congress to enact. There is a suspicion that some around the President have a conscious intention, or unconscious tendency, to make the present American system of society unworkable.

When he departs, one in the Senate and one by the House, from the wishes of the Administration are important. But it will be prudent to wait and see what the course of the Administration will be under this new condition.

tests of the surface density, or "road crust," and traffic volume. Metal plates have also been embedded in the roads from which readings will be made to determine whether spring frosts heavy raise or lower the highway. When completed the survey will give valuable data on highway maintenance costs.

Looking at all the food on the table, one would think that a full-sized range had been used to cook it. A 15 1/2-pound turkey, an equally large whole ham, potatoes, vegetables, layer cake, pie... this is an imposing spread to have been prepared by such a compact electric appliance as Dutch Oven Susan. For Dutch Oven Susan takes up so little space that it can be turked away in a corner almost anywhere. Yet it will perform every cooking operation possible on a small stove. And it uses only about as much electricity per hour as an electric toaster.

Dutch Oven Susan will cook a complete meal for a family of six—two vegetables, a roast, potatoes and gravy—while you are out for the afternoon. When you come home your meal is waiting, perfectly cooked—piping hot and ready for the table. Dutch Oven Susan is easy to use. You simply plug it into any convenience outlet. It will roast a cuts of meat to perfection; it will fry

Michigan Pays Biggest Share

Fourteen per cent of the "nuisance taxes" recently re-enacted by the U. S. House of Representatives will be paid by Michigan industries and nearly forty per cent by the state's manufacturers and consumers together, according to an analysis by Congressman George A. Dondero, 17th Michigan district.

Taxes on automobile and truck manufacturers, automobile accessories and mechanical refrigerators, centering in the Detroit area, will total $53,162,000 for the fiscal year in the calculations of the Ways and Means Committee of the House.

Four more industries in which large units are located in the state—gasoline, radios, tires and tubes, and lubricating oils—will pay a total of $218,631,000.

The estimated annual revenue from industries particularly affecting Michigan follows:

Trucks, $6,191,000; Automobiles, $34,305,000; Accessories, $6,128,000; Refrigerators $6,538,000; Gasoline $62,059,000; Radios and phonographs, $3,583,000; Tires and tubes $26,141,000; Lubricating oils, $26,848,000.

Mrs. Rotz Writes Again of Alaska

Declares Outlook Dismal And Houses Not Yet Started

Mrs. Fred Rotz, former Plymouth resident who with her husband and two children, went to Alaska with the welfare "colonists" has written another letter to newspapers back in Michigan in which she pictures the future in Alaska as looking "dismal" and the hardships great.

Houses that they were told would be ready for them upon their arrival considerably over a month ago, have not yet been started, she states in her letter, which follows:

Now it is the Juneau, Alaska, government which is causing us trouble and delay in our project. This Juneau, Alaska, government is fighting against every inch trying to get our hands off our beloved leader, Mr. Irving.

Mr. Bliss, employed by Juneau, has done everything to hinder the work here.

He even has gone so far as to broadcast from Anchorage that beautiful little boy, McCormick, is supposed to be built.

Colonists are getting together and fighting for their homes. But our men can not get work.

Why? Because Bliss is bringing in workers from Juneau, paying $1.25 to $1.35 per hour to men supposed to be experienced carpenters and builders.

But they are no more fitted for the work than an infant is for running a factory. I took five days for three carpenters operated by them to clear 500 square feet of ground.

One of our men could have done the job in a half day at most. We have a fine, experienced carpenter driver, Mr. McCormick of East Tawas, Mich., and others who do more work in one day than these supposedly experienced men in two weeks.

Still no pay, but our men are fighting for an eighth. We are anxious as settlers to be given a chance to work and earn the money which is being taken out of the valley by these others.

There's one bit of good news. We get all we want to eat. We are not starving. We get the best canned products and have a fine butcher, who seems more capable in handling meat.

All this is a blessing because of the many ill, who would die without proper nourishment.

Of course, however, this food is charged at a price that is quite exorbitant, but three ships have lost supplies coming in so it makes it more difficult for us.

Our hardships do not compare with those endured by our pioneering forefathers, but it is still difficult for us.

Give our men a chance to work for pay, which we believe and know they'll get, and it will be a city of contented hearts.

Our assembly meeting was held yesterday. Mr. Rodde resigned as chairman because he was too busy to carry on. Mr. Seibert was elected to succeed him.

At the meeting the very sad news was announced that Mr. and Mrs. Conroy of Wisconsin lost their son, Donald, of measles and double pneumonia.

We were told Sunday is the day for drawing of live stock. Here again there is a shortage.

There are 152 cows and 200 families. Those persons who draw blanks will receive no meat at present. Also there are 60 applications for pigs and only half that number of swine. The same method of drawing will be used for their distribution.

It was voted to have a community church. Catholics will hold services there in the early morning and the other groups later. The corporation furnishes the grounds and the Presbyterians build the church.

The Rev. Bingle and his wife are here. He served seven years at Cordova, Alaska, and is supported by the Presbyterian Center in New York. He conducts the non-denominational services.

Also a fine Lutheran minister has been sent here and two Catholic priests.

They seem to co-operate with a fine Christian spirit. The colonists had the choice of having the services in their own churches, but as they would have to furnish the ground and finance the building it was unanimously voted to share the church.

The question of getting good medical attention also was settled. The colonists agreed to pay on a yearly fee basis. They hope to arrange for competent care immediately.

We have great hopes of getting aid as a result of the telegrams sent to President Roosevelt and our senators. Mr. Irving said some one is opposing us and fighting the efforts of our President to help us, but we believe Mr. Roosevelt will heed our appeal.

He knows of our suffering and will help. We are confident of that. But at times we are still very discouraged.

As far as the climate goes, it is still hard on us because we are not accustomed to it, but the Alaskans are hale and hearty, with a healthy twinkle in their eyes.

We were allowed to buy household furnishings up to 2,000 pounds. Some of us even brought pets. I brought my bird and others brought cats and dogs, but the trip was hard on them.

Yet this expense is worth while. Sometimes though, the outlook is dismal and our hardships seem great.

JUST A DOG

How truly Senator West, of Missouri, in his appeal to a jury, said in part:

"Gentlemen of the jury a man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow, and snow drives fiercely, if only he can be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert, he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces, he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens. If fortune drives his master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies. And when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace, and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even unto death."

Highly Prizes Large Indian Hammer Found Down In The Ozarks

James E. Graven, who resides at 1238 Junction avenue and is employed at the Wayne County Training school, has in his possession a prize Indian hammer that was found many years ago by his father along the Gastande river in the Ozark mountains of Missouri.

The hammer, one of exceptionally large size, has been on display in the office of The Plymouth Mail during the past few days and has attracted more than ordinary attention.

Mr. Graven highly prides the old Indian relic not so much because of the fact that it is of unusual size, but because it is reminiscent of his boyhood days down in the Ozarks.

A sewing circle in good working order generally brings in some deserved indictments.

We might stop the cats from killing birds if we can't stop the out-of-season hunters.

How Soft Ball Teams Now Stand

Plymouth soft ball fans were delighted this week when 200 bleacher seats were obtained from the county airport and erected at the school grounds.

Frigidaire outfit Wilson 10 to 6, but Daly's wildness cost the ice box boys their game. R. Bingley was the leading hitter getting 3 out 4.

Winkler pitching for Hi-Speed had two bad innings in which the K. of P. boys scored 8 runs. Bingley pitching 6-hit ball coasted through for a shut out.

In a game marred by many errors R. & W. found Egloff for 17 hits and 17 runs to win with ease. Rattenbury issued 5 passes and allowed 7 hits.

Some robust hitting on the part of the Daisy sluggers gave them an easy win over a makeshift Mail team. H. Stevens, H. Williams and K. Gates did a lot of damage with their bats. Stevens getting 2 home runs, Williams 2 triples and Gates getting 4 out of 6.

Plymouth Team Leading League

Thursday, July 4th, the strong Plymouth Park nine won their sixth straight victory by defeating the Detroit Maroons by the score of 16 to 1.

Gates and J. Schomberger started at bat for the local nine when Gates got three out of four and Schomberger two out of two.

This was Sinta's fifth pitching victory against one defeat for the Plymouth Park team.

Sunday, July 7th, Pizarek led the strong East Detroit Nomads down with three hits as Plymouth Park pounded out a nine to one victory, thus running their winning streak to seven. Pizarek pitched so fine that the Detroit Club didn't get the ball out of the infield until the seventh inning. He retired the first seven batters to face him before a hit was made.

Tonkovich was the leading hitter in this game when he got three out of five, while Zielsko started in the infield.

Plymouth Park ran their winning streak to eight straight when Ed Sinta pitched two hit ball to take the second game of the double header by the score of 2 to 1.

Plymouth Park scored one run in the first inning after two were out, when L. Bassett singled to left and took second as the left fielder Myers erred and scored on J. Schomberger's single. The Park nine scored their second run in the second inning when with one out Urbanak walked and went to second when the short stop fumbled P. Schomberger's grounder and scored all the way from second on Sinta's fielder's choice.

The sixth inning was the Nomads big inning when Randall led off by drawing a base on balls and went to second as Checkley went to first on Gates' error. Then Sinta picked off Randall for the first out. Checkley moved up to second as Gates threw out Amtsuebuecher and scored the first run of the game for the Nomads as Lackey singled to center. Then Schmidt walked pitched Lackey on second. But Sinta stopped the rally by throwing out Myers on a weak tap to the box.

J. Schomberger lead the local boys at the plate in this game when he got two of the five hits.

Last Sunday George Webber joined the local Plymouth Park nine for the big six foot pitcher who has pitched for the past three years with Notre Dame University. With many double headers coming up the local nine are very fortunate to have this pitcher.

Next Sunday at three-thirty the fast going Gray A. C. from Highland Park who are in fourth place will be the local attraction at Plymouth Riverside Park. Jerome the Gray A. C. pitcher recently pitched twenty-five innings giving up but three runs and he has a season record of six victories against one defeat.

Don't forget at 3:30 p.m. the Plymouth Park team will be out there to give you a good game.

A buffet-supper added greatly to the delight of the guests. The serving table presided over by Mrs. James Stevens and Miss Marjorie Pollock of Detroit, was beautiful with its lovely bowls of yellow cornucopia and dark blue bachelor buttons with lighted ivory tapers between. Each guest was presented with a nostalgic concealing a slip of paper with the date of Miss Fulton's coming marriage to Alger Smith of Wayne which will be on July 26. The guests were Miss Fulton, her mother, Mrs. Rose Fulton, her sister, Miss Rose Fulton, Mrs. James Stevens, Mrs. Robert Pollock, Miss Marjorie Pollock, Miss Marjorie Butler of Detroit, Mrs. Harry McCumpha of Tribes Hill, New York, Mrs. Willard Geer, Mrs. Charles Draper, Mrs. Walter Nichol, Mrs. Perry Campbell, Mrs. Van Hale, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. Clyde Fisher, Mrs. Fred Rhead, Mrs. Cady Hix, Mrs. Russell Regis, Mrs. Mildred Barnes and Miss Regina Pollock. Defeat Comes Through Errors

Four unearned runs gained through seven Plymouth errors helped the Tivoli Brewing Company, leaders of Class A of the Detroit Baseball Federation, to take a 6-0 decision over the Plymouth Schradler-Haggerty at Plymouth Riverside park on the 4th of July.

Harold Pankow, Plymouth southpaw, pitched effective ball giving up eleven scattered hits, but lost because his mates were unable to field the ball.

Ford Moore, star of the Detroit sandlots, started on the mound for Tivoli, and left the box at the end of the fourth inning after allowing four hits. Byer took over the mound duty for Tivoli starting the fifth, and pitched good ball.

The longest hit of the day was a triple contributed by Ray Westphall in the sixth inning.

Four outstanding fielding plays were made. The first came in the fourth inning as Schneider made a leaping one handed catch of Westphall's liner over second base.

Number two came in the sixth inning when Beryl Smith made a beautiful catch of Schneider's long fly. The other two were running one handed catches by Norman Atchinson and Leroy Simmons in the eighth. The catching of Eddie Drinkert for Plymouth was another outstanding feature.

The two teams will meet again in the near future.

Shoving across two runs in the fifth inning, Detroit Grand Trunk last Sunday defeated the Plymouth Schradler-Haggerty at Cass Benton Park, 4 to 2.

Anthony Kreeger, Plymouth pitcher, was wild and gave up two bases on balls, two hit batsmen and two errors.

George Bowers was sent in to relieve Kreeger and held the visitors scoreless. Also allowing only three scattered hits in the four innings he worked.

Plymouth scored their only runs in the sixth inning, after filling the bases on two singles and a walk. Gerald Simmons drove out a hard double to left field.

William Scott, former major league pitcher, held the Plymouth hitters to five hits. Scott also collected three of the Detroit hits, two singles and a double in five trips to the plate.

The Detroit Hawks will oppose Plymouth in a game Saturday afternoon July 13th at Plymouth Riverside Park.

On Sunday, July 14th, Plymouth will play Fowlerville at Fowlerville in the second of the three game series.

Cavell, Ambler Are Re-elected

Dr. E. B. Cavell who has served as president of the Northville school board for the past two years, was re-elected a member of the board at the annual school meeting Monday night. Half-year congregational meeting Wednesday, July 17th, at 8 p.m. Henry Yatzek and August Geurich will be received into the congregation at this meeting. Your congregation is determined to keep order and discipline—will you, please, co-operate?
The services during this summer are being attended exceptionally well. Congregations of 200 were recorded for the past two Sundays. Still, we missed you, who were absent, either by choice or force of circumstances. Your place, as you well know, is in your church, every Sunday morning. The services are conducted on the summer schedule—40 to 45 minutes. "Let us not be weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not!"
Holy Communion, July 28th. Please announce with pastor!
Harvest Festival September 15. Do not forget to save your fairest first-fruits of grain, fruit and other products of the field for this occasion—to render thanks to God from whom all blessings flow! The first-fruits will be displayed in the church on this day. Particulars will follow in later issues of The Mail. Watch for them!

The Story of the Bible Told in Pictures

Solomon's Judgment Between the Two Mothers.—In I Kings 1 are recorded the incidents surrounding the death of David, who promised Bath-sheba that his son by her, Solomon, should have the throne. After charging Solomon in regard to his duties, David died. At Gibeon the Lord appeared in a dream to Solomon, asking what he wished as a gift. Solomon chose wisdom, and in I Kings 3 is recorded the first instance of the judgment for which he became so famous. Two women came before him, claiming the same child, each declaring that the other's child had died during the night and the surviving child was her own. Solomon asked for a sword and ordered the living child divided into two parts, one part to be given to each woman. At this command the real mother offered to relinquish her claim if the child's life were spared, but the false mother expressed herself as willing to take half the living child. So Solomon ordered the child given to the first mother, declaring that the child, whose welfare was her first thought, was hers. This illustration by Merian was engraved in 1625.

Japanese Lily Is Over Six Feet High
Growing over six feet tall and adorned with eight beautiful blossoms, there is a Japanese lily in the gardens of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Patterson that because of its immense size is a rarity. Japanese lilies generally grow about three feet high. Now and then in a well kept garden they sometimes reach the height of four feet or a little better, but no one around here has ever seen one that was anywhere near six feet high until Dr. Patterson produced one of such exceptional size. Dr. Patterson's flower garden this year is one of the beauty spots of Plymouth.

Cabbage Brings But Small Price

Never have better cabbage been produced than in this locality this summer, but Plymouth growers are getting as low as 30 cents a bushel for them on the Detroit market. Some growers have been able to get 35 cents and some as high as fifty cents a white bush, but the price has been right down to bed rock during the past few days.

base than those we have taken to the market this year. The heads are full and they are hard. It would seem as though when the product is of such excellent quality that we should be able to get a better price than we are," stated one grower the other day. The cabbage crop in and around Plymouth is the largest in years, in spite of the fact that the acreage was considerably reduced because of the losses suffered a year ago.
However many mistakes she may make, nature manages to keep the works going.

Four Bitten By Dearborn Dogs

Four persons are undergoing the Pasteur treatment and some 50 chickens are dead today, due to the frenzied attacks of two rabid dogs. Also, somewhere in West Dearborn Township, some family is harboring a pet which is almost certain to go mad within a few weeks at the most.

After several weeks had elapsed during which no rabid animals had been discovered in Dearborn, a bull terrier owned by the Van Ashe family at 3526 Willow street went berserk on June 23rd and wrought havoc in a flock of chickens owned by neighbor Thirty-nine were killed outright and approximately 20 have died since that time.

On the same date Howard and Gelin Musell, aged 16 and 18, respectively, of R.E.D. No. 2, Farmington were bitten by 2 collie dogs owned by James Birchett, of 3744 Ziegler street. The following day the collie nipped Arthur LaForge, 14 of 3814 Ziegler, and on the 26th inflicted a severe wound in the arm of his 9-year-old sister, Eugenia.

On the 25th the collie attacked and severely injured a white Spitz dog which chanced to pass the Birchett home, and is also believed to have fought with a skunk which owned by the same Birchett. These animals, if still living are practically certain to develop the disease shortly, unless the owners of the Spitz, take him to a veterinary at once, for treatment.

The Van Ashe and Birchett dogs were taken to the city dog pound for observation and both died within a few days. The heads were sent to the Pasteur ward of the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, for analysis, and both were found to have died of rabies.

According to Patrolman Fred Herman, who is in charge of the pound and dog wagon while Poundmaster Bruce Dean is on furlough, some 30 dogs have been destroyed at the pound during the past week. Several others running wild in and near the woods of West Dearborn, have been shot.—Dearborn Independent.
