Honor Gold Star Mothers at Tea

Gold Star mothers and mothers of members of the Myron H. Beals post of the American Legion were honor guests at a tea given Tuesday afternoon from 2 until 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Emma L. Ryder on Plymouth road. The tea was given by the women's auxiliary of the post.

The program, in charge of Mrs. Gladys Ryder, president of the auxiliary, opened with a piano solo by Mrs. Bertha Brown, followed by history of the unit by Mrs. Mildred Eckles. Talks were given by Mrs. Norma Crawford, of Pontiac, district committeewoman, and Mrs. Downing, of Detroit.

Poppy Sale Here Is Big Success

Maintaining its record of the highest per capita contribution on "Poppy Day" in the state, Plymouth gave liberally to the veterans funds Saturday in buying poppies from the Ex-Service Men's club and the Myron H. Beals post of the American Legion.

Poppies sold by the former organization were obtained through the national Veterans of Foreign Wars organization, and the Legion poppies obtained from the veterans' hospitals, where they are made by disabled soldiers. Funds raised from the sale are used for patriotic work, and to aid needy and disabled veterans and families.

Missionaries To Give Talk Sunday

"African Charms" is the intriguing theme of the missionary adventures of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boyson, who recently returned from French Equatorial Africa. They will speak at 10 a. m. Sunday in Calvary Baptist church, 455 South Main street.

The Boysons have penetrated into wild cannibal territory in the course of their work. Rev. Richard Neale, pastor of Calvary church says of them, "Mr. and Mrs. Boyson thrilled our Young Peoples' Fellowship with the account of their mission travels. One can relive the story of Daniel in the lions den as he hears the gripping narrative of their deliverance time and again, as they forged through the tropical bush country preaching the good news of Christ. We have never heard missionary messages which stirred us more." The public is invited to this service especially.

Calvary's Young Peoples Fellowship is leading the evening service on Sunday at 7:30 in the absence of the pastor who will be guest preacher at the Hough avenue Baptist church of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gayde, daughter, Sarah, and the former's sister, Miss Amelia Gayde, arrived home Saturday from California, where they have visited relatives and friends for the past two months.

Wins School Honors

GWENDOLYN DUNLOP

Miss Gwendolyn Dunlop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dunlop, of 10007 Blackburn avenue, Rosedale Gardens, is one of the outstanding seniors to be graduated from Plymouth high school this June.

She is valedictorian of her class, having earned an all "A" rating of 97 per cent for her four years of high school work, and at the school honor banquet held Friday was given the citizenship award for all-around scholastic ability and participation in school affairs.

She was born November 9, 1918, in Detroit where she attended the Brady and Noble schools. When her parents moved to Rosedale Gardens she entered the school there where she finished the eighth grade. During her four years at Plymouth high she has been a member of the Girl Reserves, serving as president during her sophomore and senior years, and secretary when she was a junior. She plans to enter the University of Michigan where she will major in journalism.

Gifts Showered On Doris Shinn

Winner of the Metropolitan Spelling Bee and representative of the state in the national contest Tuesday, 11-year-old Doris Shinn brought attention and fame to Plymouth by her accomplishments, and in return was given many attractive and useful gifts.

In Washington this week she competed with 17 other boys and girls, only to go down finally on the word "detestant." However, the girl who won the bee was several years older than Doris and had failed in the contest twice before, so it is more than probable that the little Plymouth girl will succeed in her ambition to win national honors.

Merchants, townspeople and various organizations of the city joined in rewarding Doris for her achievement this year, in addition to a complete outfit of clothing for her Washington trip, and a permanent waves set, purchased by the Chamber of Commerce at cost from the merchants, she received several other gifts. Bunk Brothers department store gave her an overnight bag, the Community Drug store gave her a camera and Willoughby Brothers shoe store presented her with a pair of shoes. Then there was a dress which was the gift of Goldstein's department store, a pair of hose from the Cassidy dress shop and a hat from the Dickerson hat shop.

The Whipple hair shop presented Doris with a pair of shoes, her mother and her sister, and the Plymouth United Savings bank opened a savings account for her. The Rotary club gave her a bicycle for which Huston and Co. furnished the light and other equipment, and the Chamber of Commerce at cost from the merchants she received several other gifts. Bunk Brothers department store gave her an overnight bag, the Community Drug store gave her a camera and Willoughby Brothers shoe store presented her with a pair of shoes. Then there was a dress which was the gift of Goldstein's department store, a pair of hose from the Cassidy dress shop and a hat from the Dickerson hat shop.

The beautiful little wrist watch seemed to delight Doris more than its honors expected to come from the Draper jewelry store of Plymouth and was one of the latest in newer watch designs. Mr. Draper made a substantial reduction in its price to the Chamber of Commerce. Even Mr. Bradner of The Detroit News had to comment in one of his news broadcasts about the beautiful little watch given to Doris.

A complete Girl Scout uniform was the gift of the Calvary Baptist church, and the Girl Scouts themselves gave Doris a Scout ring and a two-year subscription to the American Girl. Money to be used for extra clothes for her Washington trip was contributed by the Plymouth Woman's club and the American Legion.

Kinsey Sets New Shot Put Record In State Finals

Plymouth Star Heaves Weight 50 Feet, 8 1/2 Inches

Paced by Jack Kinsey, who set a new state record in the shot put with his heave of 50 feet, 8 1/2 inches, Plymouth high track stars made a fine showing in the state meet held Saturday at Houseman field in Grand Rapids. Kinsey's mark was nearly two feet farther than the old record of 48 feet, 10 inches which has been standing since 1927.

Jack Williams came through in fine form to tie for first place in the pole vault, reaching 11 feet 8 1/2 inches, the highest he ever has attained, while Harold Wagenschutz took first in the broad jump with 21 feet, 7 1/2 inches. Plymouth collected a total of 17 1/2 points to take fifth place in the Class B competition.

Birmingham was first with 37 1/2 points; Niles came second with 28 1/2; Allegan third, 25; St. Joseph, fourth, 18; Fremont, sixth, 16 1/2; and East Lansing, seventh, 14. Monroe high school won the class A championship, PawPaw the Class C, and Onekama the class D. There were 921 high school athletes entered in the meet.

No Changes Made In Officials Of Business Group

Chamber of Commerce Adds To Membership Of Its Board

Present officers of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce were Wednesday noon re-elected to fill their respective positions for another year, the directors having refused to consider the request of the officers that others be named to carry on the work for the next twelve months.

Those re-elected for another year are: Elton R. Eaton, president; Glenn Jewell, vice president; Stewart Dodge, treasurer; Leonard Murphy, executive secretary.

At a meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce held last week Thursday evening, it was voted to increase the size of the board from five to seven.

The board as constituted for the ensuing year consists of Stewart Dodge, Carl Shear, Glenn Jewell, Chauncey Rauch, Harold Anderson, Carl Caplin, and E. R. Eaton. Mr. Rauch, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Caplin being the new members.

The report of Treasurer Dodge showed that the deficit of $300 the organization had at the beginning of last year has been entirely wiped out and that there is now several hundreds of dollars in the treasury and every bill paid. This includes a bill of extra expense incurred last winter in connection with the extension of the Christmas lighting decorations as well as the street decorations.

Speaking for the city of Plymouth, City Manager C. H. Elliott welcomed the delegates at the morning session, while in the afternoon the Senior Drama club of Plymouth high school presented a play under the direction of Miss Winifred Ford. There was also the exemplification of the different forms of temple work and instructions from the grand temple officers.

Among the special guests at the meeting were Grace Popp, of Jackson, grand chief; Irma Tefft, of Ypsilanti, grand mistress of records and correspondence; and Anna Lewis of Hillsdale, district deputy grand chief.

Plymouth Woman Is Champion Finder of Four-Leaf Clovers

Mrs. William Felt, of 632 Fair-ground avenue, claims a record which it is doubtful any one will contest. She is the champion four-leaf clover finder of Plymouth, and very probably a much larger area.

Recently Mrs. Felt picked 52 four-leaf and 12 five-leaf clovers in a spot something less than six inches square. Her grandson, Kenneth Felt, who is 12 years old, picked 74 in the same patch.

Funds Granted For Out-County Relief Program

Mrs. Whipple One Of Committee Sent to Lansing

An advance of $140,000 from next year's state relief appropriation was granted to cities, villages and townships in Wayne county outside Detroit by Frank D. Fitzgerald Tuesday on appeal from a special committee headed by Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple, Plymouth city commissioner and member of the Wayne county relief commission, and Supervisor William F. Von Moll, of Monguagu township.

The committee was composed of various local officials interested in obtaining aid comparable to the $1,000,000 advanced to Detroit several months ago in granting these funds. Gov. Fitzgerald reiterated his determination to do something about cutting from the relief rolls all those who refuse to work.

Mrs. Whipple stated that the relief commission plans to set up two separate organizations in Wayne county, one to handle Detroit welfare and the other welfare problems in the out-county. She gave five reasons for the present deficit in county relief funds: (1) Local units of government have been carrying the relief load and have run out of funds; (2) there has been delay in getting WPA projects underway, so that direct relief costs have increased; (3) the area contains an unusual number of transients because of Detroit; (4) withdrawal of federal aid caught many units short of funds; and (5) the duplication in relief administration.

It is estimated by Mrs. Whipple that by December 1 the deficit in the out-county relief funds will reach $660,000.

Among members of the delegation were City Manager Clarence H. Elliott, Supervisor W. A. Ely, of Northville township, Supervisor Jesse Ziegler, of Livonia township, and Supervisor Charles Truesdell, of Nankin township.

A meeting of the Wayne county relief commission was held Wednesday in Detroit, at which the state loan was accepted. According to the agreement drawn up by von Moll, Mrs. Whipple and the state budget director, the money will be paid back in four monthly installments, beginning in July from the sales tax money apportioned to the out-county.

The loan was placed in an entirely separate fund and a committee composed of von Moll and County Administrator John Grant, out-county director, as advisory members, was appointed to appportion it.

Mrs. Whipple explains that the money is to be used primarily for cleaning up back bills, especially those for fuel clothing and medical attention. This will mean a great deal to Plymouth fuel dealers who have quite a sum coming on welfare deliveries.

Arthur Genrich Dies Suddenly

Last rites for Arthur Herman Genrich, World war veteran, were held Tuesday afternoon from the residence in Newburg, with the Rev. Walter Nichol conducting the service.

Members of the Myron H. Beals post of the American Legion were in charge of the rites at the grave, assisted by a firing squad of regulars from Fort Wayne.

Mr. Genrich was born November 14, 1894, the son of August F. and Marie Genrich, in Detroit. On June 19, 1917, he married Miss Clara Gladding and in that same year joined the United States army, serving until his discharge January 30, 1919. After leaving the army he engaged in various activities. For three years he was a member of the Detroit city fire department, and for the last nine years was a coffee salesman, calling on families in this section of Wayne county.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Arthur Jr., and Alfred; his father, August F. Genrich, and two sisters, Mrs. Alma E. Zrelasko and Mrs. Adelaide A. Mielman. His mother died 10 months ago.

John Jordan was home from Muskegon to spend Wednesday with his family.

Bonus Bonds to Be Distributed By Post Office

Veterans To Receive Them Soon After June 15

Arrangements are being made locally and throughout the country for the payment to World War veterans of their bonus through adjusted service bonds to be sent out on June 15, according to word received here by Postmaster Frank Learned.

The bonds for this district will leave the Chicago postoffice as soon after 12 o'clock June 15 (the night of June 14) as is possible, and will be delivered within the next day or two.

Postoffice officials are asking the co-operation of all veterans in speeding up the distribution of the bonds, pointing out that the recipients will note the government regulations with regard to this distribution, the work will be greatly facilitated. The bonds will be sent out by registered mail and may be delivered by the carrier to the addressee only. In case the addressee is unknown to the carrier, he must be identified before his bonds will be turned over to him.

The bonds will be in denominations of $50, with all odd additional amounts paid by check. These checks may be cashed at once, but the bonds must be certified at the postoffice or by any person designated for this work by the postmaster. Then they are to be sent by the postoffice to Detroit, from where a check for the full value is sent directly to the owner.

The bonds, bearing three per cent interest, are not transferable. They must be held by the owner or cashed by him through the postoffice, whichever he wishes to do.

Postmaster Learned states that the local office anticipates distributing bonds to about 300 veterans. Since the government wishes to get them out as quickly as possible, Mr. Learned said that the postoffice may remain open during the evening for the convenience of those who cannot get down during the day to certify their bonds for cashing.

A unique program is in process of completion, under the guidance of Alvina Strong Crumpton and the theme, Nichol, and full details will soon be announced. Ticket sales will be handled by Coraline Rathburn and Floyd Eckles.

The publicity committee, composed of Barbara Horton, Arnold Ash and Juanita Coe Sutherland, is arranging for posters to be displayed, giving additional information on the event.

The Masonic temple was decorated for the occasion in patriotic style by Harry Green, and the Ex-Service Men's club, its auxiliary, and Boy Scout Troop P-2, with 25 other boys, all older than himself, in the finals of the contest sponsored by the Michigan Golf association.

MEMORIAL DAY

Gather the garlands rare today,
Snow-white roses and roses red;
Gather the fairest flowers of May,
Heap them up on the graves of clay,
Gladden the graves of the noble dead.

Pile them high as the soldiers were
Piled on the field where they fought and fell;
They will rejoice in their new place there
Today, as they walk where the fragrant air
Is sweet with the scent of asphodel.

Many a time, I've heard it said,
They fell so thick where the battles were,
Their hot blood rippled, and, running red,
Ran out like a rill from the drifted dead
Staining the heath and the daisies there.

This day the friends of the soldiers keep,
And they will keep it through all the years,
To the silent city where soldiers sleep
Will come with flowers, to watch and weep
And water the garlands with their tears.

CHARACTER ASSASSINS

Some weeks before the investigation into the Townsend old age pension plan started, The Plymouth Mail stated that judging the personnel of the committee entirely by the one member selected from this state, the investigation would be biased, unfair and defamatory in nature. It was further stated that the committee would probably make no effort to find anything that might look like a solution of an important problem, but that its main object would be to smear with insinuations and insults those who earnestly believe that they have a possible solution of the problem of caring for aged people who are no longer able to provide their own living.

Our prediction as to the nature of the inquiry was based upon the fact that Congressman Clare Hoffman of the Fourth congressional district of Michigan was selected as a member of this committee. Mr. Hoffman is a Republican but the predominance in membership on the committee is of the Democratic party. He was named to the committee because of his known hostility to the Townsend movement—and might it also be said that he was probably selected because of his probable willingness to do the very things that the committee is guilty of—blackening the names of people who might happen to believe that there might be some good in the Townsend plan.

When Dr. Townsend bolted the character assassinating "inquiry" he did the right thing. Even people who are not in sympathy with the Townsend plan have declared that he did right in refusing to be further subjected to the insulting and insinuating questions being heaped upon him by those selected to crucify him and his supporters.

Congress instead of halting the Townsend movement, has by its efforts to ruin Dr. Townsend's reputation as well as those associated with him, added fuel to the fire.

Vast numbers of people believe that somewhere in the Townsend plan can be found a possible solution to the problem of caring for the aged. If these simple-minded congressmen had turned their inquiry into a real study of the question instead of spending thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money to ruin characters and insult law-abiding people, they would have been serving a worth-while purpose. If Dr. Townsend appears before America as a martyr to a cause, it is simply because congress has placed him in that light.

NOT AT ALL SURPRISING

To those intimately acquainted with the official career of Wilbur Brucker, the revelations made by Detroit newspapers a few days ago that the former governor who is now seeking the nomination as a candidate for United States senator had charged an estate a fee of $500 for "work" that didn't take two hours and only consisted of approving eleven small bills presented by doctors and an undertaker, is not at all surprising. It was a case of where Brucker saw a chance to get a big fee from an estate and he grabbed the money without the slightest hesitation. The state law provides a fee of $2 per day for routine services such as performed by Brucker. Our opposition to Brucker's nomination and election as senator from Michigan is based entirely upon his failure when entrusted with a high public duty, but these revelations as to his conduct as a practicing attorney add further reasons as to why he should not be elected to a public office of any kind. He did more to inject the putrid spoils system into Michigan public affairs than all the governors the state has had during its entire history. Not only did he utterly disregard efficiency of public employes and replaced many of them with incompetent and even crooked political supporters, but his entire administration was characterized by a vain-glory appeal for applause that one finds only in the circus ring.

LINCOLN

But most the inexhaustible deep heart
Of common man he looked into and read,
Saw all the guile, saw all its piteous pain;
And yet could keep the smile about his lips,
Love and forgive, see all and pardon all;
His only fault, the fault the wise of old
Laid even on God—that He was ever wont
To bend the law to let his mercy out.
—Edwin Markham

"ON TO RICHMOND!"

Early in June, 1861, the editorial column in the New York Tribune declared "THE NATION'S WAR CRY: Forward to Richmond! Forward to Richmond!"

Composed by Fitz-Henry Warren of the Tribune staff, it was run by order of Charles A. Dana, then managing editor. But every one believed that Horace Greeley had originated it.

Day after day it appeared. Soon the whole North had taken up the cry, "On to Richmond!" by July the government could disregard it no longer.

Gen. Irvin McDowell was ordered to advance with his raw, untrained troops. The result was the battle of Bull Run on July 21 when the Union forces were utterly routed with a loss of nearly 3,000 killed, wounded and missing.

The disaster was a terrible blow to the North. Greeley published a signed statement disclaiming responsibility for the defeat. But he was blamed for it, nevertheless. His bitter enemy, James Gordon Bennett of the Herald, said that the Tribune editor should be tried for murder because he had sent all those brave young boys to their death. Greeley was so overwhelmed by it all that he was prostrated for six weeks with an attack of brain fever. Later he rose to heights of editorial influence, perhaps never equaled by any other man. But by many Americans he is still remembered as the editor whose slogan precipitated a great disaster to our arms and to our pride.

DOWN OFF THE PEDESTAL

State Treasurer Theodore Fry stepped down off the high pedestal of public estimation in which he has been held since assuming office the other day to join with the ordinary cheap political punks of the state and country. Rumor says he fired two very competent and old time employes of the state treasurer's office so he could say that his office was now 100 percent Democratic. Mr. Fry had won a lot of independent support because of the fact that he held out longer than did any one else against the clamour of party "workers" for the institution of a 100 percent spoils system in his office. No longer has he the slightest right to ask for the votes of Independent or non-partisan voters. He has cast his lot with the spoilsmen of his own party. Now let the boys who are in politics for what their party and themselves can get out of the public coffers try and make the people believe that the state treasurer is any different than any other ordinary political hanger-on. He has chosen to step downward rather than upward and his independent admirers regret the decision he has made. We are sorry he did not follow the example of the president in these matters.

CONGRESS IN CONTEMPT, NOT DR. TOWNSEND

The speaker of the House of Representatives in Washington states that the action of Dr. Townsend in bolting the "investigation" into his old age relief plan was "plain contempt" of congress. If the speaker only knew how general was the feeling of public contempt over what congress has been doing, he might find it necessary to summon some 125,000,000 of people before the house bar of justice instead of just Dr. Townsend. How much better the Townsend problem could have been handled by just a little diplomacy and common sense.

ONE MINUTE BIOGRAPHIES OF MICHIGAN GOVERNORS and their ACCOMPLISHMENTS

By Elton R. Eaton
WILLIAM L. GREENEY
Adrian furnished Michigan one of its early governors, William L. Greeney, being a resident of that place when the resignation of Governor Felch made the lieutenant governor the chief executive of the state.
Governor Greeney was born in Madison county, New York, in 1813, and after graduating from Union College at Schenectady, he studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1834. In 1836 he removed to Michigan and settled in Adrian.
The year following his arrival in that city he was elected state senator and served in that capacity until 1839.
In 1845 he was elected lieutenant governor and shortly after he became governor through the resignation of Governor Felch, who had been elected to the United States senate.
It was during Governor Greeney's administration that the war with Mexico ended. In May 1846, Governor Greeney was notified by the war department to enroll a regiment of volunteers to be held in readiness for service. At his summons, 13 companies at once reported ready for service. Detroit furnished four companies, Monroe two, Lenawee county three, St. Clair, Berrien and Hillsdale one and Wayne county outside of the city of Detroit furnished one.
Because of the interest in the Mexican war, little was accomplished during Greeney's administration and he retired to his home after serving part of one term.

RAMBLING with Editors AROUND of Michigan

INDEPENDENT VOTERS ARE LOOKING FOR A PROGRAM
In three or four weeks the big guns of the coming presidential campaign will start booming. It is a natural and proper thing for a minority party to criticize. That is needed as it always has been. It will, however, take something more than carping criticism to attract the ever increasing number of independent voters in this country.
It seems to us that it is not necessary to spend much time talking about the new and unusual, if not illegal, experiments which have been resorted to in the last three years. The Supreme Court again this week found another New Deal measure illegal—contrary to law. It is becoming a matter of passing interest to have Congress ignore the constitution it is sworn to uphold.
The G. O. P., if it is to get serious consideration from the independent vote—the same vote which gave it such a licking in 1932—must present a constructive program. Not only can it point with scorn to what has been done, it must clearly outline in simple language, minus subterfuge or evasion, what it intends to do. The big issue, the REAL issue, today as in 1932, is unemployment. The country needs more jobs. Those jobs must come from private business and industry. Jobs cannot continue to be provided by mortgaging future generations and by piling up debt.
More jobs will be the result of more business. More business will result when people at home have confidence enough to spend and when we regain our foreign markets. Secretary of State Cordell Hull has been quietly making gains in establishing trade agreements with other countries. It will be up to the G. O. P. to point a way to re-establish greater business opportunity if they hope to lure away from the New Deal that independent vote which will turn the tide of this election and we predict, all other elections in the future.
We believe that the number of die-hard partisans in this country are becoming increasingly scarce. Further, we hope that political beliefs will soon be subdivided into parties which will accurately express the convictions of voters. That is not the case in the present set-up of the two major parties—Schuyler Marshall in The Clinton County Republican-News.

UNIVERSITY "KICKS"
Michigan taxpayers, aided by outside payments for tuition, will spend over eight millions of dollars the next year for running the University of Michigan. That's a lot of money. It is to be hoped that not all of the money will go to pay what a number of college men have been heard to say: "All I learned was to smoke and drink highballs." There ought to be more of a "kick" to higher education than that.—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

WHAT WOULD YOU EXPECT?
A few weeks ago Congressman Clare Hoffman, 4th district, came to Michigan as the spearhead of the congressional committee investigating the Townsend plan (at least he was the Michigan member of the committee) and Hoffman spent several days in this state interviewing folks, etc. He went back to Washington and voted for the Frazier-Lemke bill.—Senator Chester Howell in The Chesaning Argus.

THE MERIT SYSTEM IS NEEDED
If Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald can bring about the merit system in state government and wipe out to a large degree the old spoils methods he will have done Michigan a great service. Those in public office have complained for years that they were handicapped by the political spoils system as applied to state jobs. No sooner are they elected than they are besieged by job-seekers who "fought for the party."

It is quite natural for anyone in public office to want those in key positions to be in sympathy with his aims and ideals. One could hardly expect an official to appoint people with opposite views to his own and expect to get anything done. But the system has been carried to the extreme and results in every job holder thinking he must play politics all the time.
The time has come when a merit system can do away with the incompetents and those who got their jobs with the state on the sole ground that they had "influenced" with the party in power. Careers in public service can and should be encouraged if we are ever to have efficiency. To make the system work, regardless of party, will be the big job once a plan is adopted.—Phil Rich in The Midland Republican.

RIGHT!
A merchant who lacks the nerve to kick out a business-killing sinner deserves to fail.—Joe Haas in The Holly Herald.

THE CONFEDERATES BEAT US
When the American constitution was written it endeavored to protect the common people against the inroads of over ardent politicians, dictators, kings and all those who would through political means and others, become monarchs. It is in that sense, a wonderful document, and while some of the great monarchies of the world have stated that it would never endure, it has done remarkably for 250 years. Now, we find the constitution lame in one particular which heretofore has not been a hazard and which up to the present has been given no thought or protective legislation.
When the Confederates thought they were going to secede from the United States they drafted a constitution, and in that constitution had one very important plank or paragraph which should have been incorporated in our federal constitution. This constitutional provision reads as follows:
"The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imports and excises, for revenue only; to pay debts, provide for the common defense, and carry on the government of the confederate states; but no bounties shall be granted from the treasury."
Had the above provision been included in our federal constitution there would be no attempt by any party to buy itself back into power by the use of federal funds. Let's have it put in.—Frank Bryce in The Grand Ledge Independent.

The last word in convenience . . .

AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC HOT WATER!

Electricity has provided so many comforts and conveniences for the home that it is not surprising to discover one more, the newest contribution to better living—automatic ELECTRIC hot water. Here is one of the finest services that electricity can bring to your household . . . and it is the last word in hot water convenience.

This new service is completely automatic: It requires no attention whatever. Whenever you need hot water, simply turn the faucet—and there is your hot water on tap. This carefree service frees you forever from such bothersome details as running up and down stairs to light a manually operated heater, the annoyance of "tank patting" and waiting for water to get hot, the inconvenience and delay caused by having only lukewarm water in the pipes.

You will find a plentiful supply of hot water a great comfort in your home . . . for bath and shower, for shaving and washing, for cooking, cleaning, laundering, dishwashing and countless other daily tasks. You can make housework easier and pleasanter with the liberal use of hot water. Once you have enjoyed the convenience of this automatic hot water service, you will wonder how you ever did without it. Increases Coach Water Storage

Dewey Smith, maker of that ideal automobile trailer home that has made such a hit with vacationists, has just added another popular feature that is bound to add to the public favor of his coach, the improvement being a considerably increased water storage tank that is carried low over the axle of the trailer. The new sized tank holds 50 gallons of water, more than that of any other trailer made. To those who have closely followed the development of the automobile trailer the small amount of water one could carry in the past has been one of the minor objections, but Mr. Smith has overcome this problem by installing a big tank with a water faucet pump that works to perfection. He has just sold another one of his trailers to a Pontiac resident.

Youth be enlisted against alcoholism? Leader, Evelyn Bower. At seven-thirty the pastor continues with a second address on the liquor situation, this time giving special emphasis to "Youth and Drinking." Of hundreds of beer-taverns that have been investigated, few were found without young people in them. The liquor business must have boys if they are to carry on business. The brothels must have girls if they are to continue. You better ask about the address last Sunday evening—probably no plainer message will ever have been given than will be given on this subject. If you are not concerned about our boys and girls with reference to the saloon, well, you better come and get awake!
Next week our mid-week service will take the form of a family potluck supper at Riverside park; you are invited to join us—come and eat and play and pray. We will gather as near to 6:30 as possible. Stairways are often a hazard in the home, they say, and painting the bottom step white makes it easier to see.

Joan Bennett Film To Be Followed by Spy Story

As a beautiful but not so dumb maniacist, Joan Bennett engineers the capture of a gang of jewel thieves and gangsters in "Big Brown Eyes," which opens a three-day run Sunday at the Penniman-Allen theater.

Supporting Miss Bennett is Cary Grant, as her detective-sweetheart. In the story Joan, as the little maniacist, has a scrap with Grant and walks out on her job to become assistant to a news-paper columnist, just after a mysterious shooting in the park. In which a baby is accidentally killed Joan, playing her hunches and using her head, succeeds in tying up the baby-killers with a gang of jewel thieves, who maneuver the killers into a place where Grant can round them up, and, of course, the lovers' quarrel is patched up in the final fade-out.

On Wednesday and Thursday the picture will be "Till We Meet Again," with Herbert Marshall, Gertrude Michael and Lionel Atwill. Again the dangerous and courageous lives of German and Allied spies during the World War form the theme of a fast-moving and exciting screen drama.

Marshall as the matinee idol of the London stage, and Miss Michael as a great Austrian actress, fall in love in London during the summer of 1914. Then comes the war and they are separated. Each goes into intelligence work, Marshall for the British government and the lovely Miss Michael for Germany. As the story unfolds Marshall discovers by the woman he loves, who attempts to aid him in getting away. After several narrow escapes they finally make their way to Holland and freedom.

Kidnapings and murders make an exciting film out of "Muss Em Up" in which Preston Foster plays the part of Tip O'Neil, a private detective. It is a complicated story of a rich banker threatened by the killing of his dog, the abduction of his ward, and the killing of both his chauffeur and the boy's old father. Supporting Foster are Margaret Callahan, Alan Mowbray, Ralph Morgan, "Big Boy" Williams, Molly Lamont, John Carroll and Florine McKinney. The show is scheduled for Friday and Saturday evening.

Fish Bite Best When Weather Is?

When the weather isn't "right" there's just no use going fishing, many old-timers declare. It's a tradition of the angling sport and seems to be borne out to a certain extent by the data obtained from 3,594 fishermen on Fife lake in Grand Traverse county during the season of 1935.

The Institute for Fisheries Research which compiled the reports, believes a correlation between the fish caught and weather conditions is indicated, and declares that fish, in general, were best caught on this lake when the weather was mild, when there was a light wind and when the sky was clear. These three factors seemed to predominate in the reports.

Weather conditions under which each species seemed to bite best were:

Large-mouthed bass—mild, light wind, rain.

Small-mouthed bass—Cold, little preference with respect to wind and cloudiness.

Rock bass—Mild, calm, clear. Bit very poorly in cold weather.

Bluegill—Mild, windy, clear. Bit least in rainy weather.

Sunfish—Warm, light wind, clear. Bit least in cold weather.

Perch—Mild, light wind, rain. Poorest when cold and when calm.

Wall-eyes—Mild or warm, calm, clear.

Northern pike—Cold. Number taken were too few to show other preferences.

Bullhead—No apparent preferences. Number too few to permit other preferences.

About half of the United States total export business in the last year was concentrated in four countries—the United Kingdom, Canada, Japan and France.

New Books Listed At Library Here

Several outstanding new books have been received by the Plymouth branch of the Wayne county library. These books are listed here, together with comments by reviewers of well known publications:

"Black Tents of Arabia," by Carl E. Raswan. "A narrative of adventures and incidents, interspersed with glowing descriptions of the desert and its high-spirited inhabitants. A man of feeling, the author writes well and thoughtfully, and he has been fortunate in finding an able translator, for the book was first published in Germany. The Bedouins, as he portrays them, are very much alive. The reader is made to sense the exultation of the raid or the finding of the oasis, as well as something of the pathos of desert life, when famine threatens or a brave man is shot down from ambush. The photographs are exceptionally fine."—Geographic Review.

"Impassioned Pygmies," by John H. Winter. "The story of a colony of sophisticated moderns living on an island in the Mediterranean. It is a fair guess that D. H. Lawrence sat for the portrait of the genius and that his wife has served as a model for the friendly understanding of women who sometimes seems to be the only sane person in the Mediterranean household where they all live and squabble together."—Saturday Review of Literature.

"Uncommon People," by Helen R. H. "What Miss Bull has done is to penetrate beneath the surface of commonplace lives to discover the drama which is often hidden there. Nevertheless one cannot but feel at times that the talent of the writer is cramped by the requirements of the magazine story. Her ability to enter into a point of view and an experience not her own appears to admirable advantage in Waiting and in Mainstay, but in neither of the stories is the ending quite convincing."—Nation.

"Green Lion," by Francis Hackett—"It is the first of three novels, and is leisurely, and voluminous, even, at times, argumentative. It states emphatically the point of view of his characters, and it is a panorama of modern Ireland frankly seen through the sharp lens of Francis Hackett's sharp eyes."—Chicago Daily Tribune.

"Sparkenbroke," by Charles Morgan—"Mr. Charles Morgan is avowedly a philosophical novelist in the sense that he is not content, as a creator, with dramatic or lyrical expression, but is compelled to present his narrative as an illustration of philosophical ideas. In the present novel this power and these qualities are again brilliantly exhibited, and sustain the very spacious, even leisurely, form in which the author has unfolded this story of a poet's unsatisfied passion and a rare woman's dual existence in an enchanted world of passionate dream—surrender and an orderly world of domestic affection and duties."—London Times.

"In the Second Year," by Storm Jameson. "England a few years hence, an England under Fascist rule, is the scene of this novel."

Crown Point, New York

Crown Point, New York, was an important trading post between the Indians and English until 1731 when the French took it over and held it until 1759. At that time, the English built a fortress there which was never entirely finished, but whose picturesque ruins, after a century, attest its original strength.

ADVISERS' BIOGRAPHIES

(Note: Last week concluded the series of brief biographies of this year's seniors. This year the seniors of the staff are trying a new experiment in senior biographies. Biographies are here presented by the three teachers who have served faithfully as class advisers for the past year.)

Miss Sarah C. Lickly, one of the senior advisers, is unquestionably the best traveled teacher in the high school. She was born in Silver Creek, a small town in Wisconsin. From there she moved to Lickly's Corners, a little community named after her family. She went to high school in Hudson, Michigan and college in Hillsdale. She played on the college basketball team and later went to Europe for her first teaching job. She coached girls' basketball in addition to teaching mathematics. At Plymouth, Miss Lickly first taught literature and arithmetic, but at the present she is connected only with the mathematics department.

Before she came to Plymouth, Miss Lickly made an extensive tour of Europe. She visited England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Italy, Germany, and several other continental nations. As to his eligibility in the field of matrimony or macro-matrimony as the children call it, there is no barrier. Or in other words he is free, white, 21 and ready to plunge. He is still happily however and is undecided on his next move. But if one is to judge from the sayings of the bright students the she is not far away from those bells will be ringing.

This could not come to a fitting conclusion without a note of appreciation to Mr. Bentley from the senior class for the fine leadership they have received at the hands of the board, of which he is a member. The success of the class is truly a reflection on the fine leadership.

She is one of the most energetic of all advisers. Until recently, she could be seen in the halls at all times collecting class dues. The reason that she is no longer seen collecting class dues is that there are no dues left to pursue; she collected them all! She thinks that the senior class is the best class that she ever advised.

Miss Gertrude K. Fiegel, teacher of history and adviser to the senior class of Plymouth high school, was born in Ann Arbor, which is still her home town. She gained her education entirely in the school system of that city, attending grade school, high school, and the University of Michigan. At the latter institution she has been awarded the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts.

In the latter part of 1929 Miss Fiegel came to Plymouth to teach for the past six years has crammed ancient and American history into the minds of local students. Last year the library was placed in her charge as well, and she states that she sometimes contemplates completing the unfinished mural in that treasure-house of knowledge.

Her hobbies are numerous. She collects pictures, enjoys gardening, is forming a scrapbook of quotations, and delights in traveling. She is greatly interested in lectures, she often takes trips to Ann Arbor and elsewhere to hear noted speakers. As to her travels, she has journeyed through the eastern region of the United States, from Washington, D. C. to New England, and motored through Canada via Quebec.

Uncertain as to her highest ambition, Miss Fiegel believes that at present it is to do well in her already doing. She aspires to extend her travels by taking a trip to Europe and even around the world.

Perennially an adviser of the succeeding senior classes, she is most active in school affairs. Rapidly and bustling in a manner, she is confronted this season with the task of pushing 106 seniors through commencement events.

Carvel Bentley, a member of the senior advisory board, was born in Ypsilanti in 1907 and attended Ypsilanti schools during his early years in the educational struggle. In the Ypsilanti Central high, from which he was graduated in 1925, was a member of the track team one year, and basketball three years. Immediately following this he enrolled in the Michigan State Normal College in Ypsilanti. He was made a member of the college tennis team and played for three years. He was president of his class which was graduated in 1928. He received his bachelor's degree in science. Upon the successful completion of this, he was given a contract at Plymouth in the fall of the same year and has remained here since.

ROCKS WIN FROM HOWELL FOR 2nd TIME

The Rocks chalked up their third win of the week when they turned back Howell in their second encounter of the season 8-4, Thursday, May 21, at Riverside park. Schifle had been recovering from a sore arm the entire route. Although he allowed ten hits he was able to keep them well scattered. Fohey of Howell and Gates of Plymouth each collected three hits out of four trips to the plate.

The Rocks scored in every inning except the sixth. In the first they were able to get a man across the plate to take an early lead. After Zelasko had drawn a pass, he stole second and scored on Gates' single. In the next inning they were able to get another run off the offerings of Horton. Schifle walked, stole second, and scored when Trinka smashed a single between second and first base.

In their half of the third, Howell knotted the score at two runs. Horton led off by tripling to left field. On Trinka's error, Horton scored, and after Mutter and Fohey had singled, Niles, who reached first on Trinka's error, scored Howell's second run. Plymouth took the lead again in their half of the third when they scored three runs. Zelasko walked for his second time and then stole second. Gates doubled and Gordon singled, Zelasko scoring. On Schifle's single along the first baseline, Gates and Gordon scored.

In the fourth Howell got two more runs and Plymouth one. The Rocks got two more in the fifth to end their scoring and the game ended Plymouth 8, Howell 4.

Mr. Bentley has several hobbies which can be classified under the general head of nature study, an interest in the promotion of the hobby of collecting tropical fish, and is mildly interested in athletics. During his seven years here he has added a new interest to the list, that of vocational guidance and has been made director of the vocational department of the Plymouth schools.

As you and I have our pet dislikes or 'peeves,' so too does Mr. Bentley. To him the type who should be definitely exterminated work toward the degree of the good earth is that person who has a peculiar aptitude for finding fault. He sometimes terms them sob-sisters for the want of a better term which still could be published without censorship.

Now a man of practical experience he places the attainment of the much coveted degree of doctor of philosophy as his only prominent ambition. While he has not as yet begun the actual work toward the degree, it is almost decided that he will begin in the very near future.

Being a regular man-about-town he is a member of the Kiwanis club of Plymouth and adds as a special remark that his dues are paid up-to-date. (We won't say if that is a crack at the seniors who are in default on their class dues.)

As to his eligibility in the field of matrimony or macro-matrimony as the children call it, there is no barrier. Or in other words he is free, white, 21 and ready to plunge. He is still happily however and is undecided on his next move. But if one is to judge from the sayings of the bright students the she is not far away from those bells will be ringing.

This could not come to a fitting conclusion without a note of appreciation to Mr. Bentley from the senior class for the fine leadership they have received at the hands of the board, of which he is a member. The success of the class is truly a reflection on the fine leadership.

She is one of the most energetic of all advisers. Until recently, she could be seen in the halls at all times collecting class dues. The reason that she is no longer seen collecting class dues is that there are no dues left to pursue; she collected them all! She thinks that the senior class is the best class that she ever advised.

Miss Gertrude K. Fiegel, teacher of history and adviser to the senior class of Plymouth high school, was born in Ann Arbor, which is still her home town. She gained her education entirely in the school system of that city, attending grade school, high school, and the University of Michigan. At the latter institution she has been awarded the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts.

In the latter part of 1929 Miss Fiegel came to Plymouth to teach for the past six years has crammed ancient and American history into the minds of local students. Last year the library was placed in her charge as well, and she states that she sometimes contemplates completing the unfinished mural in that treasure-house of knowledge.

Her hobbies are numerous. She collects pictures, enjoys gardening, is forming a scrapbook of quotations, and delights in traveling. She is greatly interested in lectures, she often takes trips to Ann Arbor and elsewhere to hear noted speakers. As to her travels, she has journeyed through the eastern region of the United States, from Washington, D. C. to New England, and motored through Canada via Quebec.

Uncertain as to her highest ambition, Miss Fiegel believes that at present it is to do well in her already doing. She aspires to extend her travels by taking a trip to Europe and even around the world.

GOLF CHAMPIONS HAVE OFF NIGHT

The Twin Valley Activities Association golf champions had a bad night in the regional golf tournament Saturday, May 23, played at Huron Hills Country Club in Ypsilanti, and finished fourth. The Plymouth total was 381. When compared with the mark of 331 made in league play, the Rocks very obviously had a night to forget.

Ypsilanti Central playing on its home course, won first place in the regionals. Howell and Mt. Clemens finished two-three respectively. Howell's ace golfer, Fred Winkler, won the medal with a 79 and Stadtmiller of Ypsilanti scored far back with 88. One stroke back of the leaders were two Plymouth players, Lionel Coffin and Melvin Michaels each had 89 to be in their third position. Dick Miller and Dick Miller gained two of the other two members of the ill-fated championship team.

CHAMPION GOLFERS WIN FROM FARMINGTON

The Twin Valley Activities Association golf champions won a match from Farmington at Glenoaks Country Club Monday, May 18. The score was 8-4. Coffin, the champion golfer of all time in A. member school, was conquered in match play by Farmington number one, Carl Smith in an upset victory. This netted three points for the Rocks. Mel Michaels and Rockwell Smith each took three points for Plymouth and Dick Miller gained two. This brought the score to Plymouth 8, Farmington 4.

A bulletin that will be of interest to landscape gardeners and to students of Michigan nature has been published by the extension division of Michigan State College, East Lansing. Entitled "Ornamental Trees," it contains descriptions and illustrations of trees which thrive in Michigan and are admirable for ornamental purposes. It can be obtained by writing the Bulletin office for extension bulletin No. 160.

Last chance of the year to prevent increased damage in 1936 from the corn borer is found in the warning that all corn refuse must be plowed under or burned up within the next ten days to prevent moths hatching. This is the advice of C. B. Dibble, extension worker in insect control at Michigan State College, East Lansing. Corn borer moths have already hatched at the college laboratory and will soon hatch outdoors. After the moths have emerged from the cocoons, nothing can be done to prevent damage, Mr. Dibble declares.

Seventy-five per cent of all wheat imported into England comes from its possessions.

Economist To Be Kiwanis Speaker

A. Lawren-Brown, author-lecturer and educational director of Investors Syndicate, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club Tuesday evening at the Mayflower hotel. Mr. Brown will discuss "The Science of Money Management."
In his talk, the speaker will show how science can be applied to money, illustrating his points with stereopticon slides, graphs, stories and anecdotes. It is his thesis that there should be more training in the proper handling of money.
Mr. Brown has two university degrees and has had 30 years experience as teacher and lecturer. He is the author of "From Swamp to Metropolis in One Hundred Years," and collaborated in writing "Crime for Profit." He is a member of the speakers bureau of the American Association for Economic Education. Another Addition

Another addition has been started by Kenneth Corey of the Plymouth Perfection Laundry to his fast growing plant and by the end of another month he will have nearly 500 feet of additional floor space. He has just completed the construction of a new brick smoke stack for his plant that will add considerably to the efficiency of his heating plant.

Monday morning when the twelve young ladies who are employed in his plant take up their duties for the week, they will all appear in bright, attractive new uniforms that the Perfection will provide for each worker. Not only will the girls have new uniforms, but Perfection drivers will also have new uniforms to conform with those that are to be worn in the laundry.

Broken Cable Halts Drilling of Oil Well

Drilling operations on the farm of Samuel Spicer, north of Cherry Hill, have been temporarily halted because the cable broke and the end of it, with the drill, sank to the bottom of the well, a depth of 4,000 feet.
Because the casing of the well is crammed with cable, the work of retrieving the sunken apparatus is necessarily slow. It is understood that the well is a test for the vicinity, and that $25,000 has been spent on it so far. The Trenton rock has been penetrated to a depth of 500 feet, according to reports.

Mrs. John Gustin, of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Freedle, of Detroit, spent Friday night and Saturday with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Freedle.

Mrs. Walter Wilkie attended a luncheon at Dearborn Inn Wednesday.

STEPPING ON THE STARTER puts over 100 metal parts inside your motor into immediate action. This means serious wear—unless your oil flows instantly!

3 Miles a Minute can cause Less wear than starting your engine just once!

Here's a new fast-flowing oil that reduces engine repair bills up to 50%...
TERRIFIC motor heat at 180 miles an hour... is hard enough on an engine!
But starting your engine just once can be a lot more damaging.
When you step on your starter, over 100 moving parts are rubbing together.
That calls for plenty of oil on every part. If it isn't fast-flowing, some parts are unoiled for a few moments. No wonder 3/4ths of engine wear is caused by starting!
To cut this excessive wear, Shell, at a cost of $3,000,000, has perfected a new type of oil.
Golden Shell is FAST-FLOWING and yet TOUGH. Engineers and oil technicians call the process behind it the biggest advance in oil refining in the last 25 years.

Northville News

Memorial day services in Northville will be held tomorrow morning at the Penman-Allyn theater, with Harry F. Kelley, World War veteran and director of the liquor control commission for Wayne and surrounding counties, as the speaker. Union church services were held Monday evening at Our Lady of Victory church. The Rev. William P. Schulte, past national chaplain of the American Legion, delivered the address, which was heard by members of the D.A.R., Woman's Relief corps, Spanish War veterans, the Legion and its auxiliary. Graves were decorated in ceremonies held at 6:30 o'clock last evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hazen, oldest resident of Northville, died Monday morning, May 18, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles T. Thornton, on Nine Mile road. She was 92 years old on May 3, and had been in failing health for some time.

Funeral services were held the following Wednesday from the Schrader Brothers Funeral home with the Rev. H. J. Lord officiating, and burial was in the family lot at Novi. Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Thornton; one grandson, Charles H. Thornton, and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Hazen was born Elizabeth Young, daughter of Christopher and Mary Young, on May 3, 1844 in Ohio, and came to Michigan with her parents as a child. In 1865 she married Edward Hazen and the young couple made their home in Farmington, later moving to Novi. Two daughters were born to this union, Florence (Mrs. Thornton) and Mae. Mr. Hazen died in 1884.

Upon the recommendation of Dr. H. H. Burkart, village president, the council voted last week to abolish the old system of book-keeping now used by the village and establish a new one. Dr. Burkart stated that he believed one reason the refunding of bonds had been held up was the obsolete method used in keeping the books. Following some discussion, the council also approved the payment of $765 to H. B. Culbertson, contractor for the new reservoir, although no PWA money has as yet been received from Washington.

Members of the Lloyd H. Green post of the American Legion and its auxiliary held their annual poppy sale Saturday. Funds raised in this manner are used to aid disabled and needy veterans and their families.

In services held May 15 the Rev. K. S. North was regularly ordained as minister of the Baptist church before the Baptist Ministerial board of the Wayne county association and 150 delegates from this district. Dr. Howard Chapman, of Ann Arbor, served as moderator and the Rev. W. R. Shaw, of Ypsilanti, delivered the ordination sermon. The Rev. Loya Sutherland, of Plymouth, welcomed Mr. North into the Wayne association.

Members of the Plymouth high school debating squad which won its way to the state finals this year, gave an exhibition debate last week before the Northville Exchange club. J. Edgar Hoover Has Large Club Made At House of Correction

A. B. Gillies, deputy superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction, has received a letter from J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Department of Investigation of the United States department of justice, acknowledging receipt of a policeman's club sent from the House of Correction.

The letter reads in part: "I have received the large wooden policeman's club, which is understood was made by the inmates of your institution. I want you to know that I am sincerely appreciative of your kindness. I feel that I now have the father to the miniature clubs issued at the Plymouth Rotary club meeting, one of which you so graciously sent to me." The letter is signed "J. Edgar Hoover."

The miniature clubs to which the FBI chief refers were presented at a recent meeting of the Rotary club at which H. H. Reinecke, special agent in charge of the Detroit office of the FBI was the speaker. These also were made at the House of Correction, and Mr. Hoover at that time sent Mr. Gillies a letter of acknowledgement of his souvenir.
