

County Relief Commission to Be Reorganized

New Groups Asked To Adopt Out-County Unit Plan

Following the decision of the State Emergency Relief commission to reorganize the various county commissions so that local officials will have a greater degree of participation, a plan was set up whereby two present members of each commission will have to be replaced after July 1. In Wayne county the two who will complete their service are Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple of Plymouth and Fred R. Johnson, director of the Children's Aid society.

The new plan provides that the chairman of the present commissions, James Fitzgerald in the case of Wayne county, will continue as members of the reorganized units, together with the chairmen of the boards of supervisors and third members named by the supervisors. George Engel, Detroit city councilman and chairman of the Wayne county board, has said he will accept a place, and the third member will be elected by the supervisors at a meeting June 22. Indications are that it may be John F. Balenger, who has resigned as Detroit welfare superintendent and county administrator, effective next month.

At a meeting of the present commission on June 10 it was moved by Mrs. Whipple, seconded and carried, that a recommendation be made to the incoming commission, based on the experiences of the Wayne county board in handling the problems of relief in Wayne county, that the plan presented by the committee headed by William Von Moll, supervisor from Monguagon township representing the wishes of the out-county area, be adopted immediately. The plan also was approved by Dr. William Haber, state relief administrator, Monday, June 15. Mr. Von Moll and Mrs. Whipple a member of his committee, went to Lansing that day to obtain Dr. Haber's approval.

This plan, which will be effective July 1 if approved by the new commission, provides that there be established under the direction of and responsible to the Wayne County Relief Commission, an administrative organization separate and distinct from the welfare administration of the city of Detroit, and that an administrator be appointed for taking care of relief work in the out-county cities and townships.

Plymouth People See Quintuplets

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blunk have recently returned from an extended vacation trip throughout the east. They toured the state of Maine and on the return home traveled north to Canada and drove over to Callander, Ontario, where they had the pleasure of seeing the Dionne quintuplets. They were most fortunate in being able to secure a good view of the youngsters as on the day of their visit, the little girls were out of doors playing on the lawn that has been specially provided for them. The travelers enjoyed excellent weather during their entire trip.

Three Are Arrested for Stealing Truck

Plymouth police Sunday picked up three Detroit youths who had stolen a panel truck in Hamtramck and driven out here. The arrest was made following receipt of a teletype message from the Hamtramck police department, and the boys were turned over to them as was the car, a panel delivery truck.

The boys arrested were Eugene Evenson, 18, 2009 West Warren avenue, Detroit; Fred Cullom, 21, 2536 Buchanan avenue, Detroit; and Roy Benoyt, 20, 6509 Gladys avenue, Detroit.

Small Number of Veterans Cashing Bonus Bonds Here

Only 34 of About 250 Men Certified on First Day

Thirty-four World War veterans certified their bonus bonds for payment at the Plymouth postoffice Tuesday, the first day the bonds were distributed, and a few were turned in on succeeding days, according to Postmaster Frank Learned. The office was open Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The 34 veterans turned in 355 bonds, each of a $50 value, making a total of $17,750. An average of 10 bonds was turned in by each man. Postmaster Learned estimates that about 250 veterans have received bonus payments through this office, averaging about 15 bonds, or $750 each.

This means that only about 15 percent of the veterans have cashed their bonds, and that while the average payment has been around $750, the amount cashed has been about $600 for each man. Those who have certified their bonds for cashing can expect their checks from the Detroit office within a week. Mr. Learned states.

Abraham Goldstein was the first Plymouth veteran to obtain his bonus. Mr. Goldstein says that the first of his bonus money will be used to buy a bicycle as a birthday present for his son.

City Commission Appoints Fisher To County Board

Resolution is Passed Approving New Relief Plan

At its meeting Monday evening the city commission appointed Henry J. Fisher to the Wayne county board of supervisors to replace Frank Learned, who resigned to become postmaster of Plymouth. Mr. Learned's resignation was accepted with regret.

Mr. Fisher, a farmer member of the city commission, resides at 464 South Main street.

The commission passed a resolution approving the plan of the out-county supervisors for reorganizing relief work in Wayne county. This plan divides welfare administration of Detroit and the remainder of the county into two administrative areas, each responsible to the county welfare commission. Under this arrangement the net cost of non-resident cases would be deducted from the state allocation and credited to the municipalities and townships whose residents the funds were allocated. This would mean that Plymouth would be reimbursed for the nine non-resident cases which it does not receive compensation for now, as at the present time this cost is offset by only one Plymouth resident being cared for in other parts of the county.

Many See Shrine Exhibition Drill

A large crowd of interested spectators viewed the exhibition drill put on by the Shrine temple, Main street between Penniman and Ann Arbor street, on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. Loy Sutherland states that following conferences with several parents it was decided to hold sessions each afternoon from 1 to 3:30 instead of in the morning as heretofore.

Two trained teachers have been engaged for the school. Miss Lydia Whipple of Chicago, and Elmer Bailey of Pontiac. In addition, Miss Florence Slader, a teacher in Starkweather school, and Rev. and Mrs. Sutherland will teach. Miss Stader will direct the activities of the beginners and primary departments, while Miss Whipple will give special attention to a music hour, which will include both worship and study of music appreciation.

Softball League Formed for Girls

Girls interested in softball met Monday to organize a Recreation Softball league. They elected three captains, Eileen Archer, Helen Burgett and Mary Kincaid.

First practice will be held next Monday on the Central school grounds at 6:30 o'clock. Any girl in the city who is interested in playing may report at this time. After this practice the captains will choose teams, placing every girl wishing to play on a team.

Team practice will be held the following Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the same place. The first league game will be played Monday evening, June 29, on the grounds at the same time. Subsequent games will be held Monday and Thursday evenings in this same time. Ten players are needed for each team, but a team may have as many as 15 members on the squad, with 10 playing at any one time.

D. A. R. Meeting Held in Wayne

On the lawn of the McMurtry home in Wayne, 30 members of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution assembled Monday noon for a co-operative luncheon at tables centered with flowers of red, white and blue. A social hour followed.

Mrs. Carl H. Bryan, regent, presided over the business meeting. The national and state flags were led by Mrs. Donald P. Yerkes. The corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. M. Chase, read two letters of interest, one in regard to the zoning ordinance proposed for Plymouth, and the state registrar's letter urging Michigan chapters to increased efforts to gain in membership. The Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter now numbers 51, the largest enrollment it has had, but it is felt there must be in this locality many more patriotic women who are eligible and who would be most cordially welcomed into membership.

The resignation of Mrs. Carl H. Bryan as regent was received and accepted with regrets. Mrs. Bryan has a full time position in the Northville library. She will be succeeded by Mrs. Sidney D. Stronz, the present vice-regent, was appointed to Mrs. Bryan's regency. A rising vote of appreciation of her fine and conscientious service was given Mrs. Bryan.

Mrs. Lois Hisey of Wayne read three delightful poems, Eddie Guests, "A Heap of Living," Riley's "Almost Beyond Endurance," and a dialect poem.

Mrs. Tracey McMurry told of her visit to the C. C. Camp, which took place on Monday evening of this week.

Graduation For 106 Seniors Held Here Last Night

Dr. W. P. Lemon Of Ann Arbor Gives Main Address

Diplomas were presented to 106 seniors of Plymouth high school at the commencement program held last night in the high school auditorium. Dr. W. P. Lemon, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Ann Arbor, delivered the principal address.

Following the processional, Rev. Ray Norton of the Methodist church offered the invocation and Jean Roediger gave the salutatory address. The mixed chorus sang "The Venetian Love Song," by Nevin, after which Gwendolyn Dunlop delivered the valedictory and Dr. Lemon gave his address. Principal Claude J. Dykhouse introduced the class of 1936 and Superintendent George A. Smith presented the diplomas. The class song, written by Audrey Moore, and recessional closed the exercises.

The class night program was held Tuesday evening with the traditional program type of entertainment. The class history was read by Roland Rhead and Jean Brocklehurst. Jack Sessions, Joe Merritt and Jack Selle gave the prophecy, and Harry Fischer, David Gates and Mildred Postiff read the class will. The class poem was read by Russell Kirk. Elizabeth Whipple and Jeanette Bauman were in charge of the guffatory, which was responded to by Superintendent Smith, and Jack Kinsey delivered the president's address. Music was furnished by the senior orchestra, with the class song closing the program.

Rev. Nichol Gives Baccalaureate For Seniors on Sunday

Opening commencement week, the baccalaureate service was held at 8 o'clock Sunday evening in the high school auditorium. Rev. Walter L. Nichol, of the Presbyterian church, delivered the sermon and the Presbyterian choir furnished the music. The invocation was given by the Rev. P. Ray Norton, of the Methodist church, and the benediction pronounced by the Rev. Loy Sutherland of the Baptist church.

Rev. Nichol's sermon was based upon words directed to Joshua when he was taking over the leadership of Israel after the death of Moses: "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth, but thou shalt meditate thereon day and night, that thou mayst observe to do all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous and then thou shalt have good success."

Clear and prolonged thinking is essential to true progress and proper adjustment in life, Rev. Nichol told the graduates, saying they should never permit themselves to assume that thinking is no longer necessary. He stated that they should examine carefully even those orders, systems and principles which society had long accepted, questioning Chief Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, who once said, "To have doubted one's own first principles is the mark of a civilized man."

The field for this enjoined meditation includes, among other things, the work to which the individual devotes himself, his relationships with his fellowmen and his faith in an attitude toward God, the speaker continued. The meditation ought to issue in definite, intelligent and sustained effort to make vision and practice correspond, he said, for here lies the secret of individual and national well-being and true success.

High School Boys Arrange Program For Rotary Club

Eight Who Attended Meetings Here Take Part

Eight Plymouth high school boys who have been guests of the Rotary club, each for one month, presented the program for the meeting Friday noon, at the Mayflower hotel.

Jack Sessions, who was elected president of the group, presided during the program. Roland Rhead was song leader and Harry Fischer acted as sergeant-at-arms. The boys gave a series of talks on the following subjects: "Youth and Government," "Rotary," "Boy and Girl Relations," "Jack Kinsey: Youth and Education," "David Gates: Youth, Rotary and Peace," "Tom Brock: Youth and Employment," "Harry Fischer: Russell Kirk, who was the guest of the club during May, was the last speaker, and gave a summary of what the other boys had said, as well as a word of appreciation to the Rotary club for making it possible for the boys to attend.

This plan of entertaining one high school boy at meetings each month has been a part of the boys' work undertaken by the local club this year to foster greater understanding between the young men of the city and the business and professional leaders. Rotarians feel that their work has been amply rewarded, as evidenced by the splendid program the boys put on last week. They will give a repeat performance for the Windsor, Ontario, club in the near future, and several other requests for them to appear have been received from neighboring clubs.

Closing this season's series of meetings for the summer months, a surprise program is being arranged for this noon that will combine fun with more serious phases of Rotary work.

Bartlett Speaks at Kiwanis Club

Kenneth Bartlett, professor of speech at Syracuse university, was the speaker at the Kiwanis club this week his topic being "Teaching the Queen's English."

The meeting was held Tuesday evening at the Mayflower hotel. Prof. Bartlett, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Bartlett, of this city, and a graduate of Plymouth high school, he later attended Albion college, receiving a degree there.

Earl Mastick, past president of the club, with Mrs. Mastick, Mrs. Wm. Davidson Harbaugh and Mrs. Anna Mimmack will leave Sunday morning for Washington where the men will attend the Kiwanis convention. Mr. Mastick will make his report to the club Tuesday evening, June 30.

Five Are Injured In Auto Crash

As the result of an automobile accident early Wednesday evening on Grand river near New Hudson, Fred Thompson, 21 years of age, 964 North Mill street, Plymouth, is suffering from severe head injuries and four Northville girls are confined to Sessions hospital in Northville and their homes from bruises and cuts received in the crash. One girl is in a critical condition and may die.

According to a report made to Oakland county officers Gordon Hartford, residing at 632 North Mill street, Plymouth, was driving a car east on Grand River. William Wolfe, another Plymouth lad, was with him. They passed the machine being driven by Thompson and occupied by Mrs. Raymond, aged 16, Betty Mellow, 15, Margaret Williams and Seralyn Preston, 16, all Northville girls.

Thompson in a statement to officers, said he ran off the side of the road for fear that the car being driven by Gordon might hit his machine. In going off the road he crashed into a tree and all five occupants of the machine were injured. The Raymond and Mellow girls were rushed to Sessions hospital in an unconscious condition and late reports Thursday were that the Raymond girl might recover, but her injuries were exceedingly critical. Young Hartford and Wolfe immediately stopped and did all they could to assist the injured young people.

INSULTING WAYNE COUNTY

"When they (meaning the Republicans of Wayne county) vote Republican there, they can expect something," stated Congressman Clare Hoffman at the Republican convention in Cleveland when discussing out-state opposition to the election of Mrs. Frederick Alger of Detroit as a member of the Republican national committee.

So the loud-mouthed congressman from Allegan would read out of the Republican party the 200,000 or 225,000 staunch voters in Wayne county, would he?

Does this non-thinking nincompoop from Allegan who is one of the jumping jacks of machine politics know that western Wayne county gave Governor Fitzgerald more votes and a higher ratio of votes over his Democratic opponent than he secured in his own home city of Grand Ledge? Does he know that the circuit judges of Wayne county who ran on the Republican ticket carried this part of Wayne county by a vote of almost seven to one over their Democratic opponents?

Apparently he is not able to comprehend the fact that there would be no Republican party in Michigan without these 200,000 loyal Republican Wayne voters and that there would not be a single Republican state office holder today if these 200,000 had not voted the Republican ticket. He is in blank ignorance of these facts or else he does not care to state the facts as they are.

It is just such prattle from political accidents such as in the Allegan congressman that has led the Republican party from one defeat to another. His wagging tongue, like the tail of Little Bo-Peep's sheep, is constantly in motion.

Wayne county Republicans have long been the butt of slurs of this kind from out-state stupid politicians and the time has about come for some sort of a reckoning.

Possibly Wayne county has at times gone Democratic simply because the decent respectable voters of the county that pays over one-half of Michigan's total tax burden, resent just such statements as voiced by the misfit congressman from Allegan county and refuse to support candidates of his caliber. Allegan county at its best can barely rally 8,000 Republican votes as compared to some 200,000 or more in Wayne county.

Think of the absurdity of such a statement coming from a politician of a county with such a small Republican vote!

"Sock Wayne" has for years seemingly been the cry of a fourflushing bunch of politicians who think it is popular to appeal to the supposedly prejudices against Wayne county because it has a big population and is a powerful industrial center. Mrs. Alger and her family have meant more to Michigan and Michigan Republicanism than all of the Hoffman brand of politicians that ever lived, but simply because she is from Wayne county and the committee is under the complete control of Wayne opponents. Mrs. Alger's candidacy was not even given decent consideration.

The time has come to clean out the Hoffmans, the Bruckers, the Lesias, the Brewers, and others of their kind if the Republican party wishes to be restored to its former clean and distinguished leadership in this commonwealth.

LANDON TO LEAD

Republicans in convention at Cleveland did well in selecting a clean, forceful and an energetic AMERICAN with American ideals as the head of their ticket. Governor Alfred Landon represents the typical, average citizen of America and if he should be elected he WILL be a good president. It is pleasing to note that he stands firmly against high taxes and more taxes, that he is against governmental interference with individual rights and liberties.

American people are sick and tired of the tax burden that has been forced upon them and if steps are not taken to reduce the cost of government and thereby lower taxes, you can rest assured that some day there will be a most emphatic over-throw of both the Democratic and Republican parties.

President Roosevelt has apparently not read the warning written across the skyline of the nation about taxation. High taxation forced upon America is the weakness of the present administration. If Governor Landon bases his campaign upon reduced governmental costs and reduced taxation, he will hit a popular cord—and if he should be elected he can become a great American idol by fulfilling his pledge to cut the tax burden of a greatly over-taxed nation.

KNOX FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Michigan has a right to feel that in the selection of Col. Frank A. Knox as the Republican candidate for vice president, it has been recognized for the first time in many years by one of the great parties. Col. Knox, outstanding because of his success as a northern Michigan newspaper publisher, has long been regarded as one of the great newspaper editors of the world. He is now the directing executive of a publication regarded as one of the most influential in existence. He has no "entangling alliances" and, like Landon, there is nothing in his entire career that can be subjected to political attack. Like Landon, he inherited no great wealth. He climbed from a minor newspaper job to the top by tireless effort and by a devotion to real service to humanity and his country. If by chance he should ever be president of these United States, the American people will have an executive worthy of the highest honors this country can bestow upon one of its citizens.

JUST BEGINNING

This week marks the beginning of a new period in the lives of some 100 or more young men and women of Plymouth. When they close their school books and leave the friendly doors of the only educational institution many of them will ever know, they will for the first time in their lives be faced with some of the problems that every adult has experienced. Fortunately they are better equipped educationally than many of their elders were when they reached the average age of high school graduates.

One reads and hears much about the difficult problems confronting high school graduates of today. Many are heard to say that never before have young people faced a world with so little opportunity and with chances of employment so scarce as now.

To those who finished their school days, twenty-five, thirty and forty years ago, such statements look most absurd. Jobs at 50 cents a day at manual labor were then at a premium. Good strong boys, who did the work of able bodied men were paid half the prevailing wage simply because they were under 21 years of age and still called "boys."

Boys who wanted to enter "careers" had to work in the wheat fields during summer and cut cord wood in the winter. Even this kind of employment provided but a few weeks of work throughout the year. The lad who got a job clerking in a store had a prize position.

Jobs in a factory were almost an unheard of thing for the high school graduate. Those places were filled with men who had worked in them for years and who prized their positions as a possession worth while indeed.

Many who went through the mill, from the high school graduation platform then out into the world in search of a job in the years ago have not much sympathy with today's cry that there are no opportunities for the high school graduate of today.

Never before has there been so many REAL OPPORTUNITIES for the young man who is WILLING to work, WILLING to learn, WILLING to put his shoulder to the wheel and cooperate for better things than today.

There is today just as there was in the years ago those who want everything and are willing to do nothing to earn the things that they want. As long as the world endures the drones will be with us.

But the fact that some 106 boys and girls have been willing to work sufficiently enough to win a high school diploma is proof of the fact that the high school graduates of Plymouth are workers, DOERS.

If they keep on working, if they will hold the right attitude towards their fellowmen and society, and above all, be loyal to those providing employment and opportunity, the future has much in store for them. It offers success, happiness and more good things in life than the preceding generation ever dreamed was in the reach of mankind. To every graduate, to every boy and girl, we wish the attainment of their worthy ambition.

The next spring he went to Marshall where he lived with a brother until fall. Deciding to find a new place to locate, he went to Clinton county, at that time one big township. He had been in the county but a few months before elected county clerk. In 1840 he was elected register of deeds, in 1846 state senator and in 1848 he was appointed prosecuting attorney. In 1851 he was elected lieutenant governor, and became governor when Governor McClelland was appointed to President Pierce's cabinet.

Ill health forced him to retire after acting as governor a short time and he went to his farm near Corunna where he died soon after.

RAMBLING with Editors AROUND of Michigan

TERRORISM AND SECRECY BAD MEDICINE

Likely a large percentage of the people who become members of terrorist societies go into the thing more or less innocently. By one pretext or another they are induced to join. Once in they dare not do what they would like. They are afraid to get out and afraid to stay in.

The disclosures regarding the Black Legion in Detroit in recent weeks disclose certain facts that seem to be present in all such organizations. At the head is generally someone with a flare for organization and a disposition to exploit the gullible and the superstitious. The meetings, the mysticism are all rather pitiful, yet potent accessories.

Invariably the motives claimed have a false premise of patriotism. Generally some religious and racial prejudices are injected. If all members had a true balance of common sense no harm might result; but again if the members had this balance they would not join. In the ranks are sure to be some impulsive and temperamental individuals who know only one way out of their resentment—and that is violence.

So far as we can see, there is but one way to meet such a challenge in America. That is to ferret out the leaders and give them a dose of their own medicine. That done, subject the general public and the balance of the members to reason. We venture to guess that 95 per cent of the people who get drawn into such an organization wish they were out the minute they join. They haven't the courage to do what they should do—to some responsible authority and tell their plight and ask for protection.

All of which makes us wonder if in this country there is any good reason for any secret society. Of what good is the secrecy if the motives of the organization are worthy? We recognize that there are worthy secret societies, but we do not believe that the secrecy adds one bit to the worthwhileness. — Schuyler Marshall in The Clinton County Republican-News.

GOVERNMENT BY MINORITIES

Propaganda pours from Washington upon the death of the Guffey Act regulating the coal industry at the hands of the Supreme Court. From many sources comes the implication that the outlawing of this act means chaos in the industry, that enforced unionism is essential to the industry, and that Federal laws are necessary to protect the miners.

But in this connection three facts must be borne in mind. First, this same chaos was forecast when the NRA and the AAA were kicked out by the Supreme Court, but instead business improved and re-employment increased.

Secondly, industries such as the automobile and steel groups in which workers meet with their employers under democratic company organizations are prosperous, while the heavily burdened industries where labor organizers sit enthroned are on their backs. These include this same coal industry, the railroads and the building industry.

Third, the head of the mine workers' union boasted last year that he had more than $2,000,000 to use for political purposes without any check-rein, and he offered to give $500,000 to another union to place its strangle-hold upon the steel companies.

It is not hard to imagine the ranting of these same union spokesmen if the steel industry announced it had collected $500,000 to protect its loyal workers from flying squadrons, brickbats, and threats to their families which almost invariably accompany the efforts of the minority unions to collect dues from the great majority of American workers who have steadily turned their backs on unions largely because of such tactics.—Adrian Van Koeveering in The Zealand Record.

POLITICAL GODS CHANGE

According to Walter Lippman, the real political issue of the near future is going to be the sort of liberal individualism represented by Mr. Borah and the kind of government regulated monopoly in which Mr. Roosevelt seems to believe. In other words it is the old clash between Jefferson and Hamilton brought into the limelight once again. Strange as it may seem, however, we find Franklin D. Roosevelt who has written a very studious treatise on the political philosophy of Jefferson and reasons for its acceptance by the people of the United States actually carrying the ideas of Hamilton to extremes probably never thought possible by the great Colonial patriot. The Republicans, on the contrary, while boasting of Hamilton as one of their immortals are actually carrying on a fight to defend the principles of Jefferson. This hybrid state of political affairs indicates what meaningless things party labels have become. Can it be that this loss of identity by the two major parties signifies a re-grouping along lines based on significant differences in government philosophy? That is at least a hope, although possibly a very optimistic one.—Will Cook in the Hastings Banner.

The Congressional committee's "duel" with Dr. F. E. Townsend and his old age pension leaders is assuming all the dignity of a three-ring circus as irrelevant charges and counter-charges are aired in the public press. Dr. Townsend objects to the alleged "inquisition" tactics of the inquiry and house leaders seek to cite Townsend and his pension planners for contempt because they "took a walk" and refused to testify at the hearings. Regardless of what you may think of the Townsend old age pension idea, and personally I do not believe the plan is practical, Dr. Townsend is entitled to the respect due any American citizen appearing before a congressional committee. There is little doubt but what certain "cliques" in congress may have welcomed the publicity possibilities of the inquiry to weaken the political pressure threatened by the Townsend organization, but personal "smearing" will only serve to martyrize both the plan and the man. The best way for Townsend opponents to head off the progress of the plan is to replace the present old-age pension laws with legislation assuring a reasonable degree of old-age security.—J. John Pope in The Grandville Star.

The Holly Board of Commerce now has the largest paid-up membership in its history. More than 100 have paid their dues for the year, and we are wondering if any other Michigan town of Holly's size can show as good a record. — Joe Haas in The Holly Herald.

Schraders Take Second Place in Baseball League

Local Team Defeats Highland Park 6 to 1

Schrader-Haggerty baseball team pulled up into a tie for third place by beating Highland Park, Michigan Inter-County League leaders, 6 to 1, last Sunday at Plymouth-Riverside park. Harry German, Jr., who conquered the league leaders, allowed only three hits, two singles and one double.

Schraders made 10 hits, one of which was a home run by Gerald Simmons in the first inning with one on Carson, Highland Park's star hurler, pitched good ball in spots, but had three bad innings.

Eddie Drinkert did the receiving for Plymouth and turned in some fine work. Leonard "Seed" Millross, starting his first game for Schraders, executed a number of perfect fielding plays, also collecting two hits for himself.

Due to the ideal weather conditions there was approximately 5,000 on hand to witness the game.

On Sunday afternoon, June 21, Schrader-Haggerty will move over to Garden City, Ford and Middlebelt roads, where they are to meet the Garden City club. Graphic Outlines of History

By Schrader Bros.

"Pikes Peak or Bust"

In 1789 our Western boundary was the Mississippi, and at that time there seemed no prospect of extending it—but with the acquisition of the Louisiana territory in 1803, and the Mexican territory in 1845, the movement westward to Oregon and Colorado was begun. "Pikes Peak or Bust" was a popular slogan.

Our service is one of quiet dignity, of respectful observance, of careful attention to detail.

At the annual picnic for the grade schools held Wednesday at Riverside park, the Starkweather "Grecks" defeated the Central "Detroiters" 13-12 to take the grade school baseball championship.

Starkweather took the lead when White hits a home run with Geams on base. Central came back and tied the score at two-all, but Starkweather again went ahead, 4 to 2. Nipper's single, B. Jarsky's single and E. Nippen's home run, with the bases loaded.

Going into the last inning with the score 13 to 8 against them, Central put on a desperate rally that was only one run short of a tie.

Discussion of the proposed extension of Detroit telephone service to Rosedale Gardens was taken up, as was the traffic situation. It was reported that following a request from a committee of the association, the cross streets in the subdivision were graveled by the county road commission.

A business meeting of the men's club was called Monday evening by the president, Alec Blacklock.

"AUTOMATIC"

But not as automatic as electric hot water!

Set the automatic timer clock on your electric range, and it will turn the oven on and off automatically, cooking your dinner while you are out for the afternoon. But as time-saving as this convenience is, it is not as automatic as a new electric service for the home: ELECTRIC HOT WATER. Here is the last word in hot water convenience, and it is completely automatic—it requires no attention whatever. Summer and winter, day and night, year in and year out, you need only turn a faucet... and there is your hot water on tap.

This carefree service frees you forever from such bothersome details as running up and down stairs to light a manually operated heater, the annoyance of waiting for water to get hot, the inconvenience and delay caused by having only lukewarm water in the pipes. You will find an unlimited supply of hot water a great comfort in your home... for bath and shower, for shaving and washing, for cooking, cleaning, laundering, dishwashing and countless other daily tasks. Stop in at any Detroit Edison office and let us give you complete information—without obligation—on electric water heating.

High School Graduated Three in Fourth Commencement, June, 1884

Undergraduates and Undergraduates Aided With Program

[By Pilgrim Prints Staff] Now that the 1936 commencement is over, it is interesting to compare this year's class of 107 students, the largest to be graduated from Plymouth schools, to one of the smallest classes ever to complete courses in Plymouth. Interesting facts concerning this class have been brought to light by a recently discovered program of the commencement activities. It indicates that 52 years ago, June 20, 1884, William Lauffer, Augusta Andrews, and Minnie E. McGran comprised the graduating class of Plymouth Union high school. The class was so small that it was necessary to have individuals outside of the class and even out of school to provide the entertainment.

The careers of two of the members of this class turned out disastrously. Minnie McGran, the youngest student ever to graduate from Plymouth, 14 years of age, in a moment of despondency committed suicide. Augusta Andrews, an attractive, small, red-haired girl, mysteriously disappeared never to be heard of again after several years of directing dramatics in various schools. William Lauffer is now living in Sparta, Michigan, where he is a successful banker and farmer.

Among other names appearing on the program are Fred C. Wetmore and William Westmore, sons of the local Presbyterian minister at that time and graduates the following year. Fred, for many years, has been a banker in Jonesville, and William moved to Cadillac where for some time he has been in the legal profession and now is a circuit judge in that county. Charles Bennett, one of the boys who stayed at McGran's home, is now president of the Daisy Air Rifle company. The others, excluding Ellen Packard and Fred Bennett, later graduates, were not attending school at that time but were prominent members of music groups.

From the Michigan Union: A secretary of Keeley Institute says "The problem of the 'lady drunkard' is rapidly becoming as serious as that of the male inebriate." The secretary finds an increase of 14 per cent in the last 10 months. Of these 90 per cent of feminine patients seeking cure are married; 77 per cent are housewives. Poor homes! Poor children!

The drink cure institute adds, "A tragic fact about woman's increasing indulgence is the fact that they are far less able than men to withstand the rigors of hard and constant application of the bottle."

Another New York paper, commenting on this new phenomenon "the lady drunkard" says in the old days at their worst you never had to fight your way through school girls to get to the bar.

County Relief

Thus there would be two separate administrations, one for Detroit and another for the remainder of the county, both directly responsible to the county commission, and each with its own administrator.

The headquarters for the proposed out-county unit would be located at the county office of the county commission, because that is the only out-county office fully equipped to handle the administration of the work. The organization, administrative procedure and policies of the Wayne commission would continue as heretofore, except that they would be carried out through two units instead of one. CCC, PWA and wage work activities, together with the statistical department, should be maintained within each district office, and the county commission would be asked to allot bookkeeping and other office equipment to the out-county office, inasmuch as this equipment was purchased from welfare relief funds.

It is proposed that the direct administrative cost of the Wayne relief commission itself be deducted from the state allocation to the county before any allocations are made to local units, and that the net cost of non-resident cases be deducted from the state allocation and credited to the proper municipalities before the state funds are allotted, except those cases which are supported by county tax funds.

The suggestion has been made by Mr. Von Moll's committee that the present clothing bureau be discontinued and that the out-county unit be given its proportionate share of the surplus state WPA and Red Cross donations, with additional needs for clothing provided for by cash allowances to be included in the amount of welfare checks.

The proposal calls for a continuation of the present plan for medical and dental services with the Wayne County Medical society, the necessary overhead to be prorated to each municipality on a case cost basis.

It is believed that under this procedure the administrative costs for handling welfare for the out-county cities and townships can be reduced approximately $10,000 per month. The out-county units have requested that in the event the county commission establishes a separate out-county office, Stuart W. Grant be appointed as out-county administrator.

In a letter to Mrs. Whipple, who has been an active advocate of this out-county plan, Dr. Haber thanks her for her work as a member of the Wayne commission. "The State Commission specifically directed me to express its appreciation for your membership and work on the County Commission," he writes, "and to indicate to you that the State Commission is grateful, and knows that the citizens in your community are grateful, for the fine work which you have done. May I add my personal appreciation. It has been a genuine pleasure to work with you. You have made a distinct contribution to the administration of a very difficult, complicated problem, and towards the development of a better public welfare administration for Michigan."

Noel Hover Wins The "Ink" Bicycle

When Noel Hover, son of Mrs. Marjorie Hover, steps out to do something, the youngster really means it and as a result last Saturday he was presented with that beautiful bicycle offered by Stewart Dodge of the Dodge drug store to the boy or girl selling the greatest amount of ink during a given period.

Some 50 or 60 boys and girls entered the contest when it first started. All of them did well for a while but just a few remained until the finish. When the final check-up was made, Noel had sold more ink than any other two competitors in the contest. The young man even went into the mail order business in order to swell his total count.

At any rate the ink selling contest provided some extra work for a lot of boys and girls and almost provided a flood of writing fluid in Plymouth.

Northville News

Sixty seniors were graduated from Northville high school in exercises held last night in the Penniman-Allen theater, at which Prof. John L. Brumm, head of the department of journalism of the University of Michigan, delivered the principal address. The valedictory was given by Rita Heatley and the salutatory by Juanita Elkington. Rev. Kendall S. North pronounced the invocation, while Rev. Harry J. Lord closed the exercises with the benediction. Principal Paul B. Thompson presented the graduates, who were given their diplomas by Superintendent R. H. Bergerman.

Baccalaureate was held Sunday at the Presbyterian church. Rev. H. G. Whitfield delivering the address. Assisting pastors included Rev. K. S. North, Rev. H. W. Lord and Fr. Joseph G. Schuller. Class day exercises were held Tuesday evening with a program entitled "The Music Shop." Robert Angove was master of ceremonies; Rowland Morris, drum major; Frances Alexander, historian; Irene Modos, prophet; Kathleen Rinck, Feux d'Artifice; Debussy, Paul Beard, supervisor; Evelyn Zambler, Indian Song Call, by Primi, Frances McLoughlin and Jack Stubenvoll, Horn of Capri; and Ida Altman, will.

Northville high school baseball nine won championship honors in the Suburban League circuit this year by defeating Redford Union 6 to 2 in the final game of the season. This is the first time since Northville has been a member of the league that the school has taken top position.

Representatives of the Wayne county road commission last week submitted proposals for relieving the congested condition of the Northville business section which, it is believed, will be approved by the village commission. The plans call for cutting back the sidewalks on both sides of Main street to a width of eight feet, marking off two seven-foot parking lanes on each side, leaving four driving lanes of nine feet each. The pavement will be raised to eliminate the steps at the curb and Center street will be raised in proportion.

Ex-patients day was observed at Eastlawn sanatorium Sunday, June 7, when a large group of former patients gathered for an all-day program. The afternoon session was held on the sanatorium grounds and the evening meeting at the Baptist church. Special features included a talk by Dr. A. B. Wickham, superintendent; music by the Northville high school band, directed by Leslie G. Lee; a comedy, written by A. L. Anderson, of Detroit, a former patient; piano number by Miss Margaret Berniel, 14-year-old pianist; and a sermon by Rev. Roy Miller, of the West Point Park Presbyterian church.

The Northville Exchange club last week entertained members of the board of the Northville Wayne County Fair association. President D. A. Brief of the club introduced Elmer L. Smith of the fair board who in turn presented various directors speaking on their work in connection with the fair. Secretary Floyd Northrup reported a splendid outlook for this year's fair, and paid tribute to the men and women who have made the event possible since the fair association was first organized.

The Women's Union of the Presbyterian church entertained the women of the Plymouth church Wednesday last week at an afternoon tea. Rev. Victor Longfield of the Dexter Methodist church, spoke on his work as a missionary in the Belgian Congo of Africa. Mrs. Walter Nichol of Plymouth, opened the meeting with a devotional service. A social hour followed the program, with Mrs. Charles Dubaur and Mrs. Scott A. Lovewell presiding at the tea table.

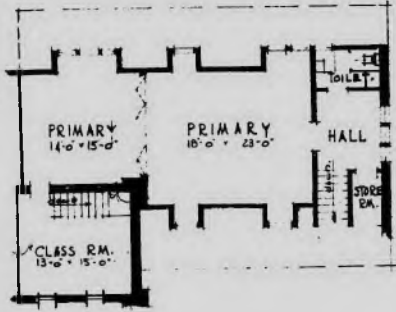

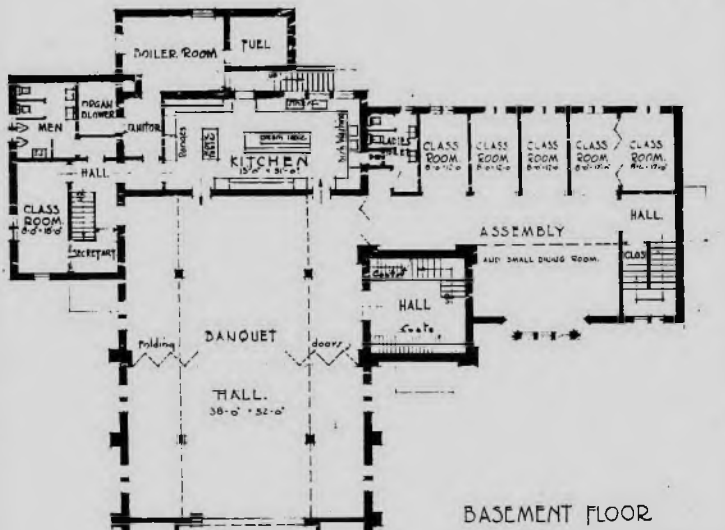

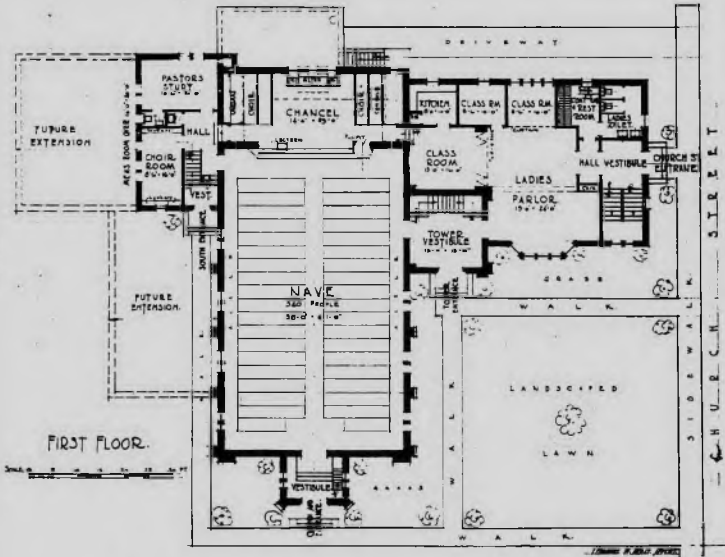

Nearly 60 Rotarians and their wives attended the annual picnic held Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Clark on Base Line road. Assisting Mrs. Clark were Mrs. E. H. Lapham, Mrs. Charles Schoultz and Mrs. Floyd A. Northrup.

The annual banquet for members of the high school alumni organization will be held at 6:30 p.m. this evening in the high school auditorium. A speaker will be obtained from Detroit, and other entertainment is planned by the committee. Arrangements are in charge of Robert Litsenberger, Mrs. Hugh Babbitt and Mrs. Willard Ely.

Members of the senior class leave tomorrow for their Washington trip. Their tour will include such famous places as Harper's Ferry, Ft. Meyer, Arlington cemetery, the Lincoln Memorial, Congressional library, Old National museum, Washington monument, the Capitol, Annapolis, Alexandria, Mrs. Vernon and the New National Museum. They will return to Northville Thursday morning.

The Escorial royal palace of the ex-king of Spain, in Madrid, is the largest palace in Europe. It is so large it requires four days to go through it.

Drawings Show Floor Plans of New Presbyterian Church

Details of the floor plan for the new Presbyterian church are shown above in the drawings by Thomas W. Moss, architect. The exterior of the building will be of seventeenth century Gothic architecture, the main auditorium being 40 by 80 feet.

The main floor, according to the plans, will include the church auditorium, ladies' parlor, several Sunday school classrooms, choir room and the pastor's study. The main entrance to the church proper adjoins Park drive, and the center aisle of the nave is parallel to Church street.

The auditorium will seat approximately 340 people and has provision for expansion to seat 75 more. One center and two end aisles lead to the chancel which will contain the choir, organ console, altar, pulpit and lectern. Tracery windows on the sides and ends of the nave, wood roof trusses exposed and resting on masonry walls and the chancel arch, create a spirit of reverence. As one looks down the nave to the chancel, the effect of three narrow but tall windows at the rear is expected to give ecclesiastical dignity and depth to the auditorium.

The first floor of the Church street wing will contain a ladies' parlor accommodating 80 people. It will be suitable for both large and small gatherings. Adjoining the parlor there are coat and rest rooms, and a small kitchen with dumb waiter service to the main kitchen in the basement.

The basement floor contains the Sunday school assembly room which may also be used for large social functions of the church; a stage with dressing rooms at one end will provide for all entertainments and dramatics. Folding doors divide this room so that only a part may be used at one time.

The other end opens into a modern kitchen, with all modern equipment, including a steam table, to cook for 300 persons.

To the right, in the Church street wing, are class rooms and a smaller assembly room to be used for religious education. There are also rest rooms and coat rooms, as well as a secretary's office and boiler rooms in the basement.

Over the Church street wing there is one large room which may be divided to make two rooms when desired, to be used for the primary department of the Sunday school. The walls will have blackboards and poster boards, suitably decorated for children.

The whole structure has been planned with a minimum of space devoted to hallways and corridors. For maximum accommodations it will be necessary to use some of the rooms, such as the choir room, dressing rooms and ladies' parlor as class rooms, but future expansions are planned as the need arises. The building will be practically fire-proof.

SIXTH INNING RALLY DEFEATS NORTHVILLE

The Orange and Black from Northville fell at the hands of the Rocks for the second time when the Rocks nosed out the visitors 5-3. This game ended the baseball season for the Rocks. They consider the season very much a success, having tied for first place in the T.V.A.A. and defeating Northville twice.

Since Plymouth has tied for first place with Rouge and Dearborn it was thought that play-off would determine the league champions, but it was stated this week by the league's president that each team, Plymouth, Rouge and Dearborn, would be given a first place cup.

"Bones" Trombley working like a charm on the mound, limited the strong Northville team to three hits. Hochkins, pitching for Northville had the Rocks considerably baffled until the sixth inning, when the latter worked Schifle collected two hits out of three trips to the plate for the Rocks, while Bishop did the same for Northville.

Neither team was able to do much hitting during the first five innings of play. It was a pitcher's duel during this time, with both Trombley and Hochkins striking out five men. Then in the sixth inning the Rocks broke the ice and collected five runs. To start it Blessing drew a base on balls and then stole second. Blackmore, who hadn't been able to hit the ball thus far, came through with a double, scoring Blessing with the first Rock's run. Gates batted for Urban and was given a free pass to first base. Gordon collected his first hit of the game, a hard single off the glove of Way, scoring Blackmore and advancing Gates to third. Schifle singled scoring Gates, but was later forced at second by Martin's easy grounder. Trinka's long triple scored Gordon and Martin and ended the Rocks' spree.

It looked as if Trombley had a shut-out to his credit, but Northville came to bat in their half of the last inning to score three runs. After the first man up grounded out, Giles was safe on Martin's error. Totter struck out, to make it two out. Bishop walked and Himes singled scoring Giles with Northville's first run. Bishop and Himes scored after Westphall smashed a double to right field, to end the Northville rally.

The batteries for the game were as follows: for Plymouth, Trombley and Blessing; for Northville, Hochkins and Westphall.

Incidentally the largest crowd to witness a Rocks' ball game this season witnessed the 5-3 victory over Northville Tuesday.

Mel Michaels, Lionel Coffin and Dick Miller were the other Plymouth players who made the trip.

JUNIORS BID FAREWELL TO SENIORS AT ANNUAL PARTY

The last activity of the Girls Reserves was the Senior Farewell party, to which mothers were invited, held June 19 in Whipple's garden. The girls marched in two lines, one composed of juniors and the other of seniors, singing the "Loyalty Song." After forming a double semi-circle the scripture, "The Challenge of Christ" was read, followed by a song by the girls' outer. Mrs. Arscott, a charter member of the Plymouth Girl Reserves, presided and presented membership ribbons to the seniors. Gwendolyn Dunlop, retiring president, and Ieta McLeod, new president, gave short talks. The seniors then presented their lanterns to the juniors so that they might continue to carry on successfully the work of the Girl Reserves. The beauty of the surrounding gardens did much to make the effectiveness of the ceremony unusual. Ice cream and wafers were served following the ceremony.

The Girl Reserves wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whipple for their generous sharing.

Mrs. Sarah Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Miller Ross drove to Akron and Cleveland visiting green houses enroute. At Barberton, former home of the "Diamond Match King" they visited green houses that once belonged to his estate. They cover seven and a half acres and three and a half acres respectively. Tomatoes, cucumbers and chrysanthemums are grown in the larger one. What were once the magnificent stables of Barber estate are now the home of mushrooms, grown in the dark, the attendants wearing said miner's caps. They also visited Young's orchid green house, and Mrs. Sarah Ross called upon her brother Paul Flood in Cleveland. They saw also the Goodyear Hangers in Akron.

Grace Moore to Appear Here in Latest Picture

"The King Steps Out" Will Open Here On Sunday

Gorgeous Grace Moore, radio, motion picture and opera favorite, comes to the screen again in "The King Steps Out," a musical comedy in the Viennese manner with music by the famous Fritz Kreisler, which will show at the Pennington-Allen Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. She will be supported by Franchot Tone and a cast including Walter Connolly, Victor Jory, Elizabeth Risdon, Evelyn Bryant and Frieda Inescourt.

The story is the romance of the young emperor, played by Franchot Tone, and Cissy (Grace Moore), daughter of a duke and princess of the realm whom he believes to be a commoner. Gay carnisal and court scenes form a colorful background for this glamorous tale of the old Europe. On Wednesday and Thursday the local theater will present Bette Davis, the accomplished young actress who won the official award of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for the best screen performance of 1935. Miss Davis appears this time in Michael Arlen's play, "The Golden Arrow," with the dashing George Brent as her leading man.

Isabel Jewell appears as Brooklyn, a hardboiled girl of the Shanghai night clubs, who falls in love with Ayres, but gives him up because she realizes he will be happier with his pals. Others in the cast are Jimmy Ellison, James Burke and J. Carroll Nash.
