PARKING.

While every effort was made last summer by the traffic club that functioned for a brief time to help solve the down-town parking problem, the city of Plymouth stands just where it did last summer, the summer before and the year before that in its automobile parking situation. The parking congestion is growing more critical each month. There is never a Saturday when sufficient parking space can be found on the downtown streets. Shoppers and visitors to the city will drive around various downtown blocks from two to half a dozen times trying to find a place in which to leave their car while in stores making purchases or attending a motion picture show. The old traffic club had a plan partly worked out for the use of the vacant space back of the stores on Main street and Penniman avenue, but this did not work out for some reason. The city owns an alley through this district and the people own the land through which the open Tonquish sewer flows. Cannot we do something to close over Tonquish creek, put a street from Harvey street along over the creek to Ann Arbor street, so that this big section can be made into a big parking space? Maybe some will think the plan is not a good one. Maybe it is not, but it is a suggestion and it would provide a place for some hundred or more cars to be parked. Then we might clean up Fralick avenue, which in the last two or three years has become one of the worst eye-sores in the city of Plymouth outside of the Tonquish creek district. If the city would widen out Fralick avenue to a 60 foot street or more, place a curb, gutter and sidewalk along each side of the street, that would add another block for automobile parking. This is a fast growing community and we must keep in step with our development. Let's get busy and solve this parking problem!

It begins to look as though Governor Murphy is going to have a pretty hard fight to put out the fires he started during the early days of the General Motors strike over at Flint. It is just the same as with any big conflagration, a little water in the beginning will easily extinguish a threatening blaze, but after the flames get going, frequently there is nothing left but the ruins. The Governor failed and he failed miserably at a time when he could have been of greatest service to ALL THE PEOPLE of Michigan, by NOT doing his sworn duty.

It is refreshing now and then as one reviews the political stage of the present day to pick out here and there good men who have offered themselves to public service. Michigan has reason to feel satisfied and pleased over the good work of Highway Commissioner Van Wagoner. He has been an efficient and hard-working public official. Down in the neighboring city of Detroit, there has been nominated for a place on the common pleas court bench another high type of citizen. This candidate is Hon. Joseph Murphy, Democratic floor leader of the state legislature. He is clean, progressive, alert and if he should win the election on April 5, he will make an outstanding record for himself and the city of Detroit. The same is true of Supt. Elliott of the state department of public instruction. He has proven to Michigan that he too, is entitled to a continuation in public service. He has placed a lot of common sense in the administration of his department and the voters of the state

Mother and Daughter Banquet Tuesday, May, 4

Committees Named By Senior Girl Reserves For Event

The Senior Girl Reserves have appointed committees to begin plans for the annual mother and daughter banquet, to be held on Tuesday, May 4. The ways and means committee will take charge of tickets and menu, led by Jean Dunham, Miss Wells, and Miss Fiegl. Table decorations and the program will be planned by the social and devotional committees under Dorothy Hearn, Marilyn Holton, Miss Tyler, and Miss Hearn. Entertainment is in charge of the program committee, headed by Patricia Cassidy and Miss Fiegl. Jeanette Schwartz and Miss Wells will lead the service committee in setting the tables. The music committee, led by Madelyn Weller and Miss Hearn, will plan songs. Irene Ciesielski and Miss Hearn, as heads of the publicity committee, are responsible for advertising the banquet. As yet the intermediate and junior clubs have not assigned girls to work on these committees.

Annual Banquet Of Business Men Is Largest

Three Members Of The Board Elected For Two More Years

Stewart Dodge, Glenn M. Jewell and Carl Shear were last Thursday evening re-elected directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce for another two year term at the annual meeting and banquet of the members held at the Mayflower hotel.

The hold-over members of the board are Chauncey M. Rauch, Carl Caplin, Harold M. Anderson and E. R. Eaton. It is expected that the directors will meet with in another week and elect the officers of the organization for the ensuing year, the terms of the president, vice president and treasurer expiring at the present time.

Secretary Leonard T. Murphy arranged for the annual banquet one of the best programs the organization ever had. The attendance was also one of the largest, there being nearly 100 business men of the community in attendance.

Rev. Frederick Cowan, prominent Ann Arbor minister and well known civic leader of that city and Ernest T. Conlin, of Grand Rapids, recently elected executive secretary of the Michigan Chamber of Commerce, were the two speakers.

There was plenty of humor and common sense in both addresses and both speakers declared that any community could not help but profit by the friendly cooperation of all the business men within the city.

Mr. Conlin, former city manager of Grand Rapids and during more recent years an official of the state sales tax division, warned against the increasing tax burden being shoved off on the business men of Michigan.

"There is but one way you can fight unjust taxation and that is by being constantly on the alert and having your organization keep you posted as to what is going on. Your legislative committees are filled with new tax bills and new plans for spending your money. Your chamber of commerce is the one agency you can use to protect yourself," he said.

Judges Backed By Attorneys

A "Pead and North Non-Partisan committee" has been organized by Detroit and Wayne county attorneys and by members of both major political parties. It will work for the re-election of Chief Justice Louis H. Pead and Justice Walter H. North to the State Supreme Court of Michigan in the election Monday, April 5. Justices Pead and North were re-nominated by the Republican state convention last month. The Non-Partisan committee will campaign in their behalf on their records in both the circuit courts and supreme court of the state.

Former Basketball Star Makes Recovery From Leg Amputation

The many friends of Mrs. Arthur Kreeger will be pleased to know that she has returned home from Sessions hospital in Northville where her left leg was removed just above the knee and that she is making an excellent recovery from the amputation. Mrs. Kreeger, who before her marriage was Miss Ione Packard, was one of the star basketball players in the Plymouth schools. It was a bruise she received on her leg during a game that finally necessitated its amputation.

Debaters Enter Quarter Finals

The undefeated Plymouth high school debaters chalked up another triumph Tuesday, March 16 by winning from Dundee in a contest at the latter school. The proposition debated was, "Resolved, that all electric utilities should be governmentally owned and operated", with Dundee upholding the affirmative and Plymouth opposing the proposed action. The entertaining school had a team of all girls, Beatrice Davenport, Janis Gregg, and Peggy Road, Jewel Starkweather, Edith Mettetal, and Tom Brock again were Plymouth's representatives. The affirmative attempted to prove that the existence of inherent evils in the private operation of electric power warrants a change to government monopoly. They further contended that this government ownership would bring many benefits.

The Plymouth negative successfully refuted both arguments. The judges were Professor Allen of the University of Michigan and Mr. Hill of Ypsilanti high school. The debate was supposed to be judged by three debate coaches but because of the absence of one judge the other two were the critic judges. Mr. Allen's vote counting twice. The decision was unanimous.

The Plymouth team now is one of eight schools left in the running for the championship of Michigan. The other participants in the quarter-finals are not known yet. If Flint Northern wins its debate, Plymouth will probably meet it in a quarter final contest. This is the second consecutive year the Rocks have been one of the last eight teams debating in the state.

Hillside To Open Soon

After several weeks of alterations and building new additions the Hillside Barbecue will be ready for its formal opening on Saturday, March 27, according to Jake Stremich, the proprietor. Elaborate plans were started some time ago to make the tavern one of the finest in this section of the country and nothing was spared in the remodeling that would make the place more comfortable for its patrons.

A complete air conditioning unit has been installed for both summer and winter use and the addition of a $1,200 bar does much to add to the elaborate trimming used throughout the entire building. South American mahogany panels cover the walls and new tables and chairs set on an Italian linoleum floor. Bar stools are of chrome seated with a heavy padded leather.

The main dining room is light and airy and beautifully furnished and the windows are covered with venetian blinds. The barbecue now has a seating capacity of 100 people and there is a dance floor in the main dining room. There will be an orchestra playing every Friday and Saturday night.

According to the management elaborate plans are being made for the opening and good entertainment will be provided throughout the evening. A complete announcement will appear in the next issue of the Plymouth Mail.

Langfield Named As Ass'n Director

C. E. Langfield of Northville was highly honored last week when he was elected to a directorship of the Michigan Allied Dairy association at the annual meeting in Grand Rapids. The association also has in its membership all of Michigan's ice cream makers and in this field Mr. Langfield has done much pioneering in vanillas and flavors.

Mr. and Mrs. George Evans, Mr. and Mrs. George Gottschalk, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dethoff and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Reber enjoyed a potluck dinner and "500" at the home of the fc on West Ann Arbor trail, 5

Seniors Repeat Play Tonight

The seniors hope that a large crowd will attend tonight the last presentation of their class play, "Little Women". This appealing story is based upon Louisa Mae Alcott's famous book having been written into play form by Marian DeForest. Those who will appear in tonight's performance are Barbara Hubbell, Norma Jean Roe, Ellen Mulry, Weltha Selle, Jessica Goebel, Ireta McLeod, Mary Holdsworth, Hal Horton, George Kenyon, Marvin Wilson, and Henry Gordon. Tickets for the play, which begins at 8 o'clock, are priced at 20 cents and 25 cents.

Not Many Jobs In West, Pay Poor

Clifford Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith, has returned from a vacation trip to Arizona and California. He reached home Saturday, having good weather all the way except for a snowstorm encountered in Indiana.

"I did run into a sand storm out near Yuma, Arizona when returning from California. Sand got into all parts of the car and it whipped the windshield. But the rest of the trip was very pleasant. They were plowing out in Kansas, where spring weather prevailed. There was lots of traffic along the roads," he said.

"Wages were poor out in the West. About the highest any one gets is $1.25 per day. Meals cost just about as much as they do here and other things are higher. Even if one is willing to work for a dollar and a quarter a day, it is not easy to get jobs.

"It was about the same in California as in Arizona, although in California one couldn't get any work at all. We were in California at the time of the coldest weather that that state has had in years.

"I wouldn't care about living out there, but it's a nice country to see and visit on a vacation," said the young man in telling of his trip.

City Purchases A New Fire Truck

The city commission at a meeting held last Wednesday evening decided to buy a new GMC fire truck and place the pumper from the old truck on the new. The old pumper on the old truck is as good as a better pump than the one on the new fire truck. When the change is completed, which will probably be during the next three or four days, Plymouth will have two first class fire trucks.

W. C. T. U.

The March meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will occur next Thursday, at 2:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. I. N. Dickerson, 712 Fairground avenue. It is hoped there will be a good attendance.

From the Union Signal: "The Most Reverend Michael Kelly, archbishop of Sydney, Australia, has put a ban on intoxicating liquor at all charity entertainments and social functions coming under his jurisdiction. The ban is part of a pronouncement on 'abuses in social diversions' read at the quarterly conference of the clergy of the Catholic archdiocese of Sydney, held the last week of the year."

Melting Ice Formed The Great Lakes

The Great Lakes were created by the ice-sheet which came down over Michigan thousands of years ago, water from the melting ice filling their present basins. The basins of the Great Lakes were not gouged out of the earth by the ice, however, it is believed their formation started with prehistoric rivers.

Newspaper Influence Counts

H. T. Ewald, president of the Campbell-Ewald company, advertising agency, Detroit, who has long been a booster of community newspapers, expressed his opinion of newspapers as an advertising medium in a recent letter to R. H. Pritchard, past president of the National Editorial Association, as follows:

"I don't think it makes much difference, really, whether a paper is big or little, so long as it is a good newspaper... it is the influence the paper has among its readers that counts for most, after all."

From a statement like that from the head of a large advertising agency, publishers of weekly and small daily papers should learn that their job is to develop a newspaper of quality and prestige in its own field. They need never ape, fear, nor envy their large city competitors.

City Planning To Improve Main Street

Serious Paving Condition To Be Remedied In The Near Future

It will be good news to the residents of Plymouth to know that the city commission is taking steps to have the deplorable condition of the paving on Main street repaired during the coming spring and summer months.

City Manager Clarence Elliott stated yesterday that the city has already made requests for federal funds for the improvement and he is confident that the money will be forthcoming for repairs in the near future.

During the past two or three years the condition of the paving especially between Penniman and Fralick avenues has become so bad that loaded trucks frequently lose parts of their loads when they hit some of the bumps, especially in front of Marie's Grill.

The city official stated that it was also planned to take out at least a portion of the old street car track that has not been used for the past ten years. Among other improvements under consideration are curbing and gutters along Farmer and Fralick avenues.

New Mixer For The Bakery

Due to the great demand for Sanitary bakery bread and cakes, according to Frank Terry, a new Holbart mixing machine was installed in the latter part of last week. Mr. Terry stated that it is now possible to produce about five times as much bread in a day with the new machine.

The mixer is one of the most modern pieces of bakery equipment on the market today and assures the baker of getting a much better mix in the articles he uses it for. Mr. Terry stated that it would make cakes lighter and give the bread a much finer texture. Bread has been one of the biggest items with the bakery and they are now making 14 different kinds daily.

Starkweather P.T.A. Elects

Mrs. John Arigan was elected president of the Starkweather Parent Teachers association for the coming year at the meeting on Monday evening. Other officers elected are: Vice president, Mrs. Marcus Litsenberger; secretary, Miss Mary Lyon; treasurer, Mrs. Howard Hunt. J. M. Bennett, Wayne county forester and park superintendent gave a talk on "Parks and Roadside Development in this Vicinity", his pictures showing Wayne county parks as they are today. He also told of future plans for park development in this and adjoining counties.

Miss Dora Gallimore presented a group of fifth and sixth grade boys who sang two numbers and James Shettler entertained with several very clever tap dances.

Members of the Northside Civic association will hear a talk next Monday night by City Manager Clarence Elliott. All members of the group are urged to attend at the regular meeting place in Bever's hall. After the meeting a movie of "Good Life" will be shown. Plans are under way to have speakers and entertainments at all of the future meetings of the organization.

Doctor Robert Haskell, medical superintendent of the Wayne county training school will be the guest speaker at the Kiwanis club last Tuesday night. He told the members of the very fine work being done in the developing of minds of children who were mental defectives.

Did You Know That

Dress up your windows with Mobas Shades. New or repairs. Also Linoleum and Venetian Blind National Window Shade Company. Telephone 530 for Estimates.

The Safety Patrol at the Starkweather school was organized and equipped by the Automobile Club of Michigan. Members of the Automobile Club of Plymouth can well be proud of their membership in Michigan's largest civic organization. This patrol is only one of 2195 organized and equipped in 1936.

Arrangements have been made, according to County Agent E. I. Besemer, to have the orchardmen meet for a 6:30 p.m. dinner and round-table discussion of orchard problems at the Mayflower hotel, Plymouth on March 23.

Don Hootman, extension specialist in horticulture will bring out new developments in orcharding and will lead the discussion.

The meal will be served for a nominal price and all who are interested in orchard problems are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt of Sturgis, Michigan, announce the marriage of their daughter, Erma to Earl E. Woodliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Woodliff of Concord. The ceremony was quietly solemnized on March 12, by Dr. Schulls in the First Baptist church.

Howard Hunt was the groom's best man, and Kenneth Hunt acted as usher.

Mrs. Woodliff is a graduate of Western State Teachers college. She taught in Starkweather school here for a number of years before going to Baldwin, Long Island, where she taught until her marriage.

Mr. Woodliff is a research engineer, a graduate of Michigan State college. At one time he was with the State Highway department in Plymouth.

Outside of the immediate members of both families attending the wedding, there were a few other guests including Miss Elizabeth DeWaele of this city. The couple will make their home in Detroit.

West Banquet At Plymouth Hotel

The first purchasers of the dozen tractors sold from the new West implement store on South Main street across from the Ford garage, enjoyed greatly the dinner served them at the Plymouth hotel by Manager William Simpson at the time of the store opening. It was just the kind of a meal that men who work in the open all day thoroughly enjoy. Manager Simpson saw to it that there was plenty for all. Mr. West who has opened the big implement store for this locality, expressed for those present their appreciation to the management of the Plymouth hotel for the splendid meal that was served.

Mrs. L. Hughes Chapter Guest

When the members of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter met Monday afternoon in the pleasant home of Mrs. Brundt Warner, few of them expected to come away as conservation minded as they did. The members learned from Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, state chairman of conservation, who so ably presented the subject, many practical ways in which they might promote the cause. She urged her listeners to become acquainted with the nature of reproduction of our wild flowers. Knowing this, we would not so ruthlessly pick blossoms which should be left to scatter seeds. The lovely trillium springs from a bulb, which is destroyed if the bloom is picked below the double leaves.

She gave this list of the plants conservationists hope to have protected by law: Trailing Arbutus, Bitter Sweet, Blood Root, Cardinal Flower, Flowering Dog Wood, Fringed Gentian, Indian Pipes, Jack in the Pulpit, Lotus, Lupine, Mertensia, or Virginia Blue Bell, Trillium, and our native Orchids of which there are 32 types.

Mrs. Hughes assured her listeners that the state department of conservation was eager to assist in every way possible, the individual or the society, who is at all conservation minded.

She told of the nature sanctuary in Rouge park, consisting of 40 acres, set aside to the preservation of trees and wild flowers, for which school children are making interesting signs, signs unusual and interesting, calculated to inspire respect for nature's bounty.

Conservation considers not only our wild flowers, but all our national resources, oil, minerals, wild game, fish, and all else that God so lavishly bestowed on Michigan.

Mrs. Sidney D. Strong, the regent of Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Strong told of the death of Mrs. Basil Conolly, regent of Ft. Ponchartraine, with expressions of sympathy for the chapter and the family.

Members were reminded of the state conference which is to be held this year at Flint, March 31, and April 1, and 2. Mrs. Dwight T. Randall is in nomination for state registrar.

Mrs. Donald P. Yerkes presided over the devotionals preceding the business meeting, choosing "Faith" for her subject.

Plymouth Voters Will Pass Upon Three Important Charter Amendments At Election April 5th

One Pertains To Change Of Date For City Primary—Other Gives Officials Right To Sell Land—Another Provides Exchange

In addition to electing three members to the city commission and a municipal judge at the city election on April 5, Plymouth voters will also pass upon three proposed charter amendments.

The first proposal is a good one and will doubtless have the approval of the voters of the city. It will be recalled that the voters of Plymouth every spring are called upon to go to the polls one week for the state primary election and then the following week they have to have another primary election to nominate candidates for city offices.

Charter amendment ONE will enable the city commission to hold the city primary election on the same date as the state primary election, thereby doing away with one unnecessary election in the spring.

Charter amendment TWO pertains to the sale of land owned by the city that the city commission deems no longer any benefit to the city. Inquiry of city officials has revealed these facts as the cause for the submission of this proposed charter amendment: The Wayne county road commission desires to change the route of Haggerty highway along the east side of the city. The county desires to create a long curve so that the highway can pass to the west of the new Burroughs plant, thereby making it necessary for the new thoroughfare to pass over a portion of the vacant land owned by the city which was originally purchased for cemetery purposes. The relocation of Haggerty highway at this point will create a triangle piece of land directly opposite the Burroughs plant and west of the Fisher greenhouses along Plymouth road. The present members of the city commission say that this piece of land will not be needed for cemetery purposes and will be of no use to the city after the Haggerty highway is relocated. They therefore ask a right to sell it. They point out the fact that the city will have remaining a very large portion of the field for future cemetery expansion, even though this triangle section should be sold.

However this is a question for the voters to pass upon and while all of these facts are not set forth in the proposed amendment as it will appear on the ballot, this is a brief explanation of why the proposal is on the ballot.

Charter amendment number THREE is an excellent one and should have the one hundred percent vote of the entire community. It pertains to the exchange of land between the city and the Presbyterian church, in which the city is the beneficiary in every way.

While the amendment would indicate that the city is giving something in exchange for what it gets if the amendment carries, the facts are that the city is giving practically nothing and getting everything in return. The Presbyterian church is offering to give to the city its valuable manse site on Main street in exchange for a site right back of the new church in the "Public Park" for the pastor's residence that the church desires to move off Main street. In view of the fact that the city in the first place and as now asking for the return of a small portion of it for a site for the home of its minister, and also because the church is willing to give its present valuable property on Main street to the city in exchange for a site worth much less, the voters of the city would be showing a fine spirit by giving this their unanimous approval.

The new Presbyterian church, located as it is, will be one of the most attractive houses of worship in Michigan. The removal of the manse from Main street, the improvement of the site, which can be used under the agreement entered into by the city only for street and park purposes, is indeed a long step forward in the development of a beautiful civic center.

These three charter amendments in addition to the election of three new members to the city commission, a municipal judge and a constable, will probably bring out a larger vote than is usual at the spring election.

Keeps Watermelon In Perfect Condition All During Winter

A Plymouth grown watermelon, just as fresh as it was the day it was picked from the vines last fall, has been on display in the office of The Plymouth Mail during the present week. The melon was grown and picked by Joseph Merritt of 1610 Lilley road. He placed it in his basement with other vegetables taken from his place and the other day when it was brought to The Mail office, it was just as fresh and as hard as it was the day he placed it in the basement. The melon has attracted considerable attention.

RAMBLING with Editors AROUND of Michigan

MICHIGAN G. O. P. NEEDS CLEANSING.

We learn that Mel McPherson, of Kent County, where Grand Rapids builds furniture, is going to be a Republican candidate for Governor in 1938. Mr. McPherson is State Tax Commissioner; for years and years he has been a close political friend and supporter of Frank D. McKay—and McKay, you may recall from items in this newspaper from time to time, is our notion of one big reason why Republicanism in Michigan has lost the public support. Some months ago it appeared that McPherson and McKay had come to the parting of the political ways; but we do not take this very seriously. McKay is still a power. McPherson wants power, so the two may get together again—there's that danger.

All of which suggests that if the new chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, James F. Thompson, wants to lead the elephant to better grazing, he'll have to steer clear of chaps like McKay and McPherson, in our opinion.

Michigan Republicanism needs a cleansing. If chairman Thompson wants proof of this let him contact the weekly and small daily publishers of Michigan. — George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

IS MICHIGAN GUILTY?

When the sit down strike was permitted to operate against the laws of our state, did we do something to the entire country? Michigan has had a large number of these strikes, but, of course, none of anything like the import of the big auto strike. The question has been put up to the Independent, did we permit something which will cause such strikes in other states and which will cost piles of money and a lot of grief? You answer it.—Frank Bryce in The Grand Ledge Independent.

ARE PEOPLE YOKELS?

An axiom in business is that if a salesman doesn't want to give you time to think a proposition over, he hasn't very much to sell. The same thing is true in government. Watch out when they begin to demand too much speed. If the price of speed is a sacrifice of our major alteration in the structure of our government—then perhaps it might be in order to suggest that the reforms, themselves, be modified.

During his recent talk, the president repeated his practice of appealing to hate and bitterness. Those who oppose change in the court are "economic royalists" attempting to conceal some dark, rank, sinister purpose from the people.

Doubtless many a small business man and farmer in Barry county will be somewhat stunned to find themselves classified as public enemies along with the grafting barons of Wall street.

It probably never occurs to a fellow busy at work on his back forty or attempting to keep up with the various sorts of taxes he is expected to pay that he is really not a peace loving, industrious citizen at all but merely an "economic Bourbon"—or at least he is if he believes with all sincerity that the Supreme Court should be kept forever free from direct political influence.

The president's speech probably did not change a single opinion. His appeal was to prejudice—not reason. He has, however, undoubtedly succeeded in consolidating the scattered opposition to his proposal into a solid, fighting unit.

It is the privilege of the president to fight; in admitting this, however, one must carefully distinguish between the terms "fight" and "threaten".

All of us admire and respect a fair, hard fighter. Not many of us are as yet, however, brow-beaten Europeans who can be cowed by threats.

The president is evidently in a fighting mood and he is going to meet an opposition of the same temper.—Dick Cook in The Hastings Banner.

"SIT-DOWNERS" TAKE NOTICE

The inevitable revolt of public opinion against the "sit-down" strike is beginning to manifest itself all over the country. The result, it is hoped will be to make this type of wholly unlawful, unjustifiable seizure of private property so unpopular that the sit-down strike will immediately act as a boomerang against that irresponsible element which employs it. Millions of fair minded citizens applauded Governor Cross of Connecticut when he told a group of labor delegates recently that the sit-down strike constituted a trespass on the property of others without restraint or eviction, seemed a "fantastic" idea to him. Bluntly serving notice that the law of his state would be upheld to the letter, Governor Cross told the delegates: "There will be no sit-down strikes in Connecticut while I am governor."—Charles Seed in The Rochester Clarion.

A Lesson in Leadership

by Lawrence Hawthorne

Let me direct the thoughts of men
And I care not who makes their laws
Let me control their hearts, and then
I shall succeed in any cause.
Give me the power of appeal
To sentiment, and men will see
The glory of a great ideal—
And they will gladly follow me.
Let me direct the thoughts of men
Along the paths of friendliness,
And let me guide their steps again
Where joy will cheer and beauty bless—
Let me bring music to their souls
And I can rule a continent!
No other force so well controls
The acts of men as sentiment.

Bill Would Aid The Librarians

The Michigan Library association has prepared a bill which is now before the legislature providing for state aid for libraries. It provides for an annual appropriation of 25 cents per capita to be used for the extension and improvement of public library service throughout the state. Libraries are part of the educational system, especially now with the emphasis that is placed on adult education, and they need state aid for proper development.

A survey of the state shows that 24 per cent of the population of Michigan is without library service; the unserved territory includes 1,140,000 rural people and 46,000 urban residents, the latter in cities of from 5,000 to 25,000 population. The fund provided for in this bill would be used to establish libraries in parts of the state needing them, and to build up existing libraries with the help of additional appropriations. The established and accepted minimum standard for efficient library service is $1.00 per capita. This bill is designed to supplement the present expenditures of local libraries and gradually bring up the amount spent to reach this standard.

The Michigan Library association is also sponsoring the state board for libraries, which provides for the creation of a board of five members to be appointed by the Governor, to hold office for five years.

Anyone interested in helping these measures to pass the legislature can help by bringing the matter to the attention of his senator and representative.

Salem Church Play A Success

The large attendance and success of the play "Where's Grandma", given for the benefit of the Federated church of Salem, can be credited and added to the already large score of successful plays directed and given by Mrs. Dan Shirliff, one of the teachers of Salem.

She was assisted by Katherine Pennell.

Cast of the play: The tragedy and significance of the play centered in the character of "Grandma", an old lady who had never seen her grandchildren and was determined to make them love her by making herself as young and flapperish as possible. Action, however, takes place when she finally decides to "be her age". She straightens out all of the family troubles and in the end endears herself in the hearts of all.

Mrs. Asa Whipple played the leading role of "Grandma".

The entire community takes this opportunity to join in thanking Mrs. Shirliff for her endless work in making the play a success.

Burn Fields Now If It Must Be Done

Landowners of Michigan who must burn their fields or marshes this spring may help save wildlife by doing it as early as weather conditions permit.

If the field or marsh is to be burned the best time to do it, as far as wildlife is concerned, is right after the snow leaves the ground. This will give the vegetation a chance to "come back" in time to furnish food and cover for birds and small mammals.

If landowners wait until nesting time to burn, authorities say, there is a likelihood that the nests of birds and animals will be destroyed and that some forms of wildlife will be burned.

Larro Holds Vitamin Test

"When it comes to vitamins in poultry feeds," says Dean Saxton, proprietor of Plymouth Feed store, "enough is as good as a bagful." Mr. Saxton backs up his statement with the results of an experiment recently completed at Larro Research Farm, North-western highway at 10 1/2 Mile road.

In this test, the effect of adding an extra supply of vitamin concentrates to Larro Chick Builder was studied. Nine pens, containing 50 chicks each, were used in the experiment. The birds in one pen were used as a control, and received a ration of straight Larro Chick Builder. In the other pens, the chicks received Larro Chick Builder plus an extra supply of various vitamin concentrates. In each case where supplementary vitamin concentrates were used, a sufficient quantity of concentrate was added to double the amount of that particular vitamin already present in Larro Chick Builder.

The results of the test showed that adding an extra supply of vitamins to Larro Chick Builder had no effect whatever on the growth and health of the chicks. At 12 weeks, when the experiment was completed, it was found that the birds had made practically equal weight gains in all pens. The variation between pens was so small as to be insignificant.

"The test is important to the poultryman," says Mr. Saxton, "because it proves that a complete, high quality chick mash, fed the way recommended by the manufacturer, contains a sufficient amount of each of the recognized vitamins to meet the requirements of the growing birds. No one vitamin can be given credit for the job of growing a husky, profitable pullet. It takes the proper combination of all the vitamins to give best results."

Pretty Wedding Held In Church

The wedding of Sally Grace Womack, of Detroit, and Robert W. Brennan, of Rochester, son of Mrs. Harry Irwin, of Plymouth, took place at 4 o'clock Sunday, in the Methodist Episcopal church of this city, with the Rev. P. Ray Norton performing the double ring ceremony. Little Arthur Bartel, of Plymouth, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bridal party stood before an embankment of palms, baskets of white snapdragons and lilies of the valley.

The bride wore a blue wool ensemble, with accessories of blue, and corsage of white roses. The matron-of-honor, Mrs. John Anderson, cousin of the bride, wore an ensemble of brown with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Harry E. Brock, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Thomas Brock, also a brother, and Jack Delore, of Plymouth, were ushers. Jerry Cummins, of Rochester, sang two solos, "Because", and "Until", accompanied by Mrs. M. J. O'Connor.

A reception and dinner, with guests numbering 23, were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Irwin, on Canton Center road, following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Brennan left on a brief wedding trip to Louisville and Somerset, Kentucky, where they were the guests of relatives.

About 75 relatives and friends from Detroit, Rochester, Louisville, Kentucky, and Plymouth, were present.

severe. He was attended at his bedside by his dear wife, his pastor, Mrs. Stroh and his brother, Ray, when the Lord so sweetly and peacefully took him home. Ivan Russell Speers was born May 26, 1898 in New Lowell, Ontario. In the year 1924, he came to the United States and settled in Salem, Michigan. June 9, 1927, he was united in marriage to Miss Velma Kahler. A very beautiful ceremony was solemnized in the Congregational church. The Speers then settled in Salem and lived there for five years. They also lived two years in Detroit and the last three years in Ypsilanti. Mr. Speers leaves to mourn his loss, his widow, three sons, Maurice, six years, Deryl, three years, and Robert, nine months old; two brothers, Dalton Speers of New Lowell, Ontario; Ray Speers of Salem; three sisters, Mrs. Charles Armstrong of Wausega Beach, Ontario; Miss Mima Speers of Toronto, Canada, besides many nephews and nieces and other relatives and a host of friends. Mr. Speers was a member of the Congregational church of Salem and for many years served in the capacity of deacon most faithfully. He was beloved and respected by all and shall be greatly missed in the church and in the community. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Congregational church of Salem. The pastor, Rev. Lucia M. Stroh officiated. Rev. C. W. Lewis offered a prayer. The entire choir sang the two beautiful hymns, "Some Day We'll Understand", and "It Is Well With My Soul". Interment was in the Salem Walker cemetery.

Rocks Win Regionals

Ten years ago Plymouth won its first district championship. This year the team has gone one better, winning the district championship and also the regional championship, but they are not out of it yet, and they are still going strong. One more elimination and they are in the state eliminations. Who can tell? They may win the state championship. They have what it takes and the chance is there. After the game a large and handsome gold statuette was presented to the team and is now in the display window by Mr. Smith's office. Also each member of the team received a gold medal. Plymouth had a much larger turn-out than usual and the crowd yelled themselves hoarse. Although Plymouth didn't bring a regular cheer leader, Northville helped out by leading in a few yells and, after Robert Egge was put out on fouls, he led a yell. The leading wasn't graceful but he got a louder response than any other.

The game wasn't as exciting as the previous one, for during the latter part of the contest Plymouth won many points ahead. In the first quarter Plymouth took the lead when Egge received a pass from Moe and sunk it. Then things began to look bad for Plymouth when Redford made three baskets in a row and the score was 6-2 in Redford's favor. But Plymouth called time out and Egloff made two baskets and Egge took the ball off Redford's basket, dribbled down the whole length of the huge gymnasium, and sunk it. After Redford called time out they came back with one more basket to tie it up at the end of the quarter 8-8.

In the second quarter Plymouth's man to man defense held Redford to no points while Plymouth took the same amount as they did in the first quarter, doubling Redford's score. In the third quarter Plymouth began missing passes and fumbling the ball and Redford drew close. When this quarter ended Redford was within three points of Plymouth, and Egge, who had been out-jumping Redford's center, was taken out with four fouls.

The last quarter was not much different from the others but Plymouth lengthened its lead and won the game 22-23. Although the Plymouth crowd was larger than the one at the Adrian game it was not as large as it should have been. But it was a very loud and spirited crowd and gave the team all the support it could, but at the next game we hope more will show their loyalty and school spirit by attending.

CLASS NOTES

The seventh grade girls are learning how to use a sewing machine and keep it in good working condition. The eighth grade food classes are learning to prepare meat substitutes and salads suitable for the Lenten season.

English 12, all seniors, took the current events test sent out by Time magazine, and decided that they knew little about the newspapers. Out of 105 questions, Tom Brock made the highest score, 86. Last year the highest was 84. These scores are incidentally high college averages. But alas, most of the scores fell in the 30 to 50 class, about a third of the test. Next week we hope to have those for the whole senior group.

All freshmen will be invited to enter a contest which is called interpretive reading this year. It requires mainly an ability to see and pick out the finer points in a poem.

Each entrant will be required to select a poem of not more than 30 lines. This poem must be a lyric, without any characters in it. The contestant is required to give the interpretation which he or she has prepared. This must be done without any acting or dramatization of any kind.

TRACK PRACTICE BEGINS WITH GOOD PROSPECTS

Although the track team this year is not as strong in a few events as it was last year, it is much better proportioned. The track team can always use new material and a prospect always is a welcome possibility. The team is a good one and Mr. Ingram, the coach, expects a prosperous year for Plymouth.

The team this year is minus some of their best men. Wagenschutz in the high and broad jumps and in the high and low hurdles, Kinsey for the shot put, and Williams in the pole vault are the most outstanding losses from last year's team.

On March 26, Mr. Ingram will hold a class track meet at 3:45 back of the school and on May 2, Plymouth will hold their first league track meet with River Rouge.

STARKWEATHER NOTES

Miss Farrand's geography class is studying about the city of Cadillac, Michigan. Dorothy Fisher is back in school after a week's absence. The sixth grade has memorized the poem, "Paul Revere".

Miss Parmelee's 2A and 3B students are making a collection of stamps and stamped envelopes in connection with their Community Helpers' project.

Miss Stader's pupils cut out and colored bluebirds to use as wall decorations. They have studied the habits of the bluebird and redheaded woodpecker and have written a story about each. In connection with their farm project, the young pupils are studying the construction of farm buildings and comparing them with city buildings. Last Friday each child pretended that he was some animal. A group went to the other rooms and entertained other pupils; they told the contributions of each animal and the sound it made.

The boys of Miss Sparling's room elected new service squad leaders: Claire McGarry is the captain and Luther Jordan is the lieutenant.

The kindergarteners are enjoying stories from "Told Under a Blue Umbrella". They painted some interesting designs and made colorful paper chains with which to decorate the room. They learned Easter songs. The A kindergarten band is learning to play the "March of the Cookie Soldiers".

Miss Rathburn's pupils are studying the development of modern transportation. They drew pictures to illustrate scenes from the story "Rumpelstiltskin". They decorated their room for Easter.

Miss Maunula's room has a new pupil—Viola Jean Gould of Salem. Shirley Schockow's spelling team is ahead.

Miss Bock's pupils are cutting letters for health posters. William Bauman's and Rosemary Herter's spelling teams are ahead.

The Baltimore Manual Training school was established in 1884 and was the first such school to be financed entirely by public taxes.

PLYMOUTH "S" WIN FIRST ELIMINATION WITH ADRIAN

The Plymouth team took a step higher in the fight for basketball supremacy as they whipped the Adrian quintet at Ypsilanti Friday, March 12 in a fast moving game that was noted for the good defense work involved and for the closeness of the contest.

Robert Egge, tall center for Plymouth, led his teammates in scoring with a total of 18 points; Henry, forward on the Adrian quintet, ranked next with a total of twelve. Both teams scored 11 field goals, the Plymouth team winning by the ability to sink gift tosses.

The Adrian five got the jump on the Blue and White by quickly sinking three points but the Rocks retaliated and soon caught their rivals. The play was nip and tuck all the rest of the quarter, neither team surging out in front because of the very good guarding. The Plymouth five drew ahead of Adrian in the second

GAB ABOUT GARB

Well, the J-Hop has come and gone. But the memory of it will linger long. Maybe I ought to start writing poems, it really seems to be the fashion.

Anyway the formals were very, very nice, especially those worn by the Junior girls. Everyone agreed that Jeanette Schwartz made a charming hostess in her light green taffeta trimmed with darker green velvet. The dress that Marilyn Holton led the grand march in made her look especially nice. Doris Schmidt's blue chiffon made her look prettier than usual, if you think that's possible. Helen Norgrove's aqua formal was very smart looking, to mention only those of the class officers. In fact, everyone looked her best and had a good time in spite of the absence of the basketball team. Speaking of basketball reminds me, it was rather too bad that a member of the team had to act as cheer leader the night Plymouth won the regional championship.

Spring is here, and here are some hints I found on spring clothes. The main idea is to be gay. Stripes, plaids, checks and dots are everywhere. There are pockets at every turn, and buttons have mad, new ideas. Necklines are low, and often square sometimes flaunting schoolgirl collars. Skirts are full and flared following the peasant dirndl. This is a season to be pretty in. There are many fine points in the new spring clothes, and in these lies 1937 chic.

Mrs. Henry Ray visited Miss Sily's room last week.

Miss Benz and Mrs. Bird's pupils are writing stories about the Eskimos. They have learned the poem, "March Wind, Why Are You Blowing So?"

Five members of Miss Carr's room will be on the Central school spelling team. They are Thelma Steven, Dorothy Carley, Joe Brisbois, LaVerne Ellsworth, and John McClain. Thelma was the runner-up in the fifth grade championship.

Miss Hornbeck's pupils have written letters to Gloris Eckles who is ill with scarlet fever. Harold Schultz of the 5B class room won the fifth grade dictionary. Others in his room that will participate in the future spelling bee will be Norma Robinson, Elinor Shoemaker, Geneva Kisabeth, and Annabelle Heller. The spelling-down to determine the fifth grade champion lasted all last Friday morning.

Mrs. Holliday's pupils captured sixth grade honors in the spelling contest for that grade. Jean Crandell won the dictionary and Iris Dene Hitt was runner-up. These two girls and Margaret Jean Nichol, Jimmy McAllister, Marleeta Martin, Dolores Wilson, and Signi Hegge will represent their room in the Central school contest to determine which pupil will represent the school in the district meet.

YUGOSLAVIAN TROUP PERFORMS IN ASSEMBLY

"A Night in Yugoslavia" presented something different in assemblies last Monday third hour. The members of the troupe, calling themselves the Elias Tamburitza Serenaders, Elias being the name of the members, were very adept with their stringed instruments called tamburitzas, which are a product of their native country. The shepherds of Yugoslavia were the first ones to construct this instrument, using the only two strings with the same tune. Later on two more strings of the same tune were added, and at the present day the tamburitza has six strings, all with the same tune. The instruments are shaped somewhat like the ukelele and guitar, varying in sizes from a small one to the largest, about the size of a base viol.

The native costumes of Yugoslavia that the troupe wore were quite colorful, consisting of full white skirts, bright colored velvet vests and scarfs, and seemed to be in tune with the lively Croatian songs that they sang. Their native dance was not unlike their costumes and songs, for it was quite peppy, and the main step is similar to the jig of our country.

These accomplished musicians played several American songs on their tamburitzas, among them "Oh, Susana", "In the Gloaming", and the late popular piece, "Pennies from Heaven". Altogether this was one of the most interesting and colorful and educational assemblies the school has had.

Sunday: Preaching service, 10 A.M. and 7:30 p.m.; Bible school at 11:30. Classes for all ages. Wednesday: Prayer and praise worship, 7:30 p.m.; Friday: Young Peoples Fellowship, 7:30 p.m. The Bible, God's Word, deals very plainly with sin and the sinner. What is sin? The Apostle Paul (1 Corinthians 15: 3) says, "Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures". What is this thing that God had to send His only begotten Son to die on a cross of shame? God tells us that sin is a disease. Because the first man, Adam disobeyed God's first command, sin came into the world. The whole world is fallen into this dreadful net. Men, women and children, regardless of age, race or station in life, are dying daily from some one of the many diseases caused by sin. Where is the remedy? The Lord Jesus tells us, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1: 9). He is the great physician. He is the same Jesus who went over all Gallilee curing all manner of sickness and raising the dead. Does He not tell us to believe and we shall be saved? Christ is coming again to judge the living and the dead. Surely this day is not far off. This world cannot hold up much longer for the burden of sin is about to dash it to pieces. God's message is: "Believe in me that thou may be saved". This is our only way of escaping that eternal fire which is prepared for the Devil and his demons. God's promise is sure. This is Christ's word to you, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls." (Matthew 11: 28, 29). (D. E. B.)

A CHALLENGE TO THE Michigan Medical Society

Charging that the sole purpose of the Basic Science Bill now in the House of Representatives at Lansing is to drive the druggless practitioner out of the state, create a monopoly for the medical doctor and deprive citizens of the right to select their own form of healing, the Michigan Chiropractic Association today challenged the Michigan Medical Society to debate the issue in public with the members of the Health Committees of the House and Senate as guests of honor.

The Basic Science measure is now in the hands of the Health Committee of the Lower House. Speaker George Schroder says he is being bombarded with inquiries from the medical doctors as to the status of the bill. The challenge of the chiropractors is the answer to Speaker Schroder's desire for action.

The suggestion for the debate was made by Dr. W. F. Parsons, a chiropractor, 1250 Michigan Theatre Building, and 11040 Melrose Ave., Rosedale Gardens; and gained quick response from Dr. F. O. Logic, President of the Chiropractors' Michigan Association, Dr. M. W. Hildebrand, Vice President, Dr. Clark Rudesill, Treasurer and Dr. C. D. Densmore, Secretary, heartily concurred in the debate challenge. Dr. Parsons was authorized to issue the following statement:

This unfair, unjust and inhuman Basic Science Bill is the most cowardly blow ever aimed at the sick and suffering of any civilized community. It is born of greed—an insatiable desire to profit from the biblical command, "Heal the Sick." It is designed not only to drive the chiropractors out of Michigan, but also other druggless healing practitioners. It is a sacrilege.

"The fact that similar measures have become law in nine other states emphasizes the crisis we are facing. In all of these states the examination requirements have been of such a nature that chiropractors could not meet the test. We are longing for an opportunity to tear the mask of hypocrisy off the medical doctors who are backing this bill and we believe the best way to accomplish this is a public debate to be held anywhere and at any time. Clarence Darrow, eminent barrister, once a member of a state legislature, said:

"I know when lawyers want a bill they make it so it will help themselves. When the bankers want a bill they fix it for the bankers. When the doctors want a bill, they turn it over to the doctors, and they fix it up for the doctors."

"IF THE BURGLARS WANTED A BILL THEY OUGHT TO TURN IT OVER TO THE BURGLARS."

"The medical doctors assert that Chiropractors are not qualified to practice healing because they do not spend enough hours at study. We maintain that the acquiring of useless knowledge is a confession of ignorance. Here are some interesting facts:

"About 648 hours of Anatomy studied by medical doctors includes anatomy of the lower animals. A Chiropractor spends all his class hours on anatomy of the human body.

"A Chiropractor spends 52 hours less on Physiology and Chemistry, but the medical doctor's physiology includes that of lower animals. The medical doctor's chemistry relates to over 27,000 drugs and chemicals we do not use in our profession.

"Chiropractors study 132 hours less of pathology and bacteriology because they do not apply these subjects in practice.

"Chiropractors have no use for 216 hours of Pharmacology and Therapeutics because they do not apply drug therapy.

"Chiropractors study 247 hours or 27 per cent more of the science of chiropractic than the medical doctors study of the practice of medicine.

"It thus becomes apparent that a state of examination prepared by the medical doctors would be unfair to the chiropractors who do not acquire what they believe to be a mass of useless information in preparation for their work. It also explains why chiropractors have been driven out of the nine states where basic science legislation exists.

"We have volumes of other statistics bearing on the issue which we will be happy to present in a public debate. We will leave the decision not only to those in good health but also to those who are honestly seeking to heal."

Southern Flood Victim Writes To Thank Plymouth For Its Aid

Card Enclosed In Package-By Mrs. Julia Jarskey Brings Reply

When Mrs. Julia Jarskey, 1008 Holbrook avenue, was packing some clothing to be sent by the Plymouth Red Cross to southern flood sufferers some weeks ago, she enclosed a card upon which was written her address.

A few days ago, from down in the valley of the Mississippi in the southernmost end of Missouri, came a most interesting letter to Mrs. Jarskey from one of the flood sufferers who had received some of the clothing that was sent from Plymouth.

It came from Mrs. Olar Lyle, who lives near Risco, Missouri, and it is filled with such an interesting amount of material that Mrs. Jarskey believes everyone in Plymouth who donated to the flood sufferers will be glad to know the contents of the communication. It follows in full:

"Risco, Missouri,
"G. D. March 1, 1937

"My dear Mrs. Julia Jarskey:
"I feel that I am writing to an unknown friend. My husband and I were issued some clothing by the Red Cross and a note dropped from them with your name on it.

"I guess you will not be interested in all this jam I'm about to tell you.

"We are a young married couple of about three years, with a boy 14 months old.

"My husband was an engineer on a steamboat when we were married. As he had to be away from home all the time we began to plan for some other kind of work; and that was farming. So we began to plan and save every penny possible, and last November we decided we had enough money to begin our new line of business. We bought new stuff, all that was necessary for farming, and rented a farm 12 miles from town and three miles from a highway. After we had bought our stock, chickens, ducks, cows, corn, hay, furniture, and clothing to do us until we sold our crop we were going to grow, we had $125.00 left. So we decided to just buy our groceries for the year and after we did that we had $15.00 left. Part of that we spent for Christmas and had $4.50 left.

"Right after Christmas it began to rain, and just kept on raining; and as you would probably guess we live in a country that is almost level, we have a 18 inch drop to every 10 miles, and is extremely low. A couple of weeks of this and the ground was almost completely covered. We would have moved then but we came from the mountains and we were away from newspaper routes so we did not know any better. We thought it did that way every year in this place.

"When the water began to get under the house we began to get afraid. We never saw anyone, we were two miles from the nearest neighbor. The water was eight inches beneath the floor so my husband began to make a boat out of boards. He finished it that day about dark and we were going out to high ground. But the next day it was sleeting and freezing so much that you could not run a boat and too thin to walk on. The water lacked about four inches of being in the floor. The next morning the water was in the floor, about one-half of an inch. We were afraid, real badly. The ice was hardly thick enough to walk on so we put plank on our feet so the ice would not break through. The north wind was blowing strong. You might imagine the walk we took of six miles with boards on our feet, on thin ice, with a baby in our arms. I'll never forget that.

"That evening we were on dry ground with our clothing we had on, and less than $5.00; but we were glad. We stayed away from home 17 days, then went back to our home. The water had drowned everything but our two ducks. It took the varnish off our new furniture and it came apart. Our clothing had been soaked in the muddy water. Our groceries had been ruined. Our paper was dingy and torn. A coat of old slick mud was over everything. "Maybe you can imagine why we appreciated the things so much, for as Shakespeare said, 'The value of things is the scarcity of it'."

"I don't know what we will do now; anything we can, I guess. But anyway, I want to thank you for the things.

"Very truly yours,
"Olar Lyle".

A vision of the 1939 Golden Gate International exposition, now rising from the waters of San Francisco bay. This is Architectural Artist Chesley Bonestell's conception of that section of the 430-acre exposition which faces Yerba Buena island and the Bay bridge, and is at right angles to the main gateway. Peeping over the buildings to the right of the 350-foot central tower are the giant pillars which guard the entrance-way.

Wants Lake Made Out Of Creek

There just doesn't seem to be any unity of spirit among the followers of old Chief Tonquish as to what should be done about the creek named in his honor. That was evident at the second meeting of patriotic citizens held around the Mayflower family table the other day when the future of the creek was again discussed.

This time it was Dr. Paul Butz who threw the monkey wrench into the well organized wheels of the society. Dr. Butz not only wants the creek left alone in its present fragrant state, but he would create an artificial lake between Harvey and Main streets in back of the ice plant.

"I'd have the lake planted to suckets, shiners, and red horse. Then I'd have Matt Powell haul some sand down there and creek a bathing beach. We could fish and swim in the lake at the same time," declared Dr. Butz.

Abe Goldstein said he would stock a line of cretione bathing suits if the lake was created for the convenience of local bathers.

Stewart Dodge declared that it would be well to have the bathing suits in blue and white—in keeping with the blue wash water that flows through the creek and the milky water that finds its way into the creek now and then.

Charles Finlan, fresh home from a trip down along the blue Atlantic ocean in Florida, thinks the city should give more regard to the historic past of the creek. "I believe we should have a permanent organization known as the 'Ancient Order of Tonquish Creekers' to perpetuate the beauties of the creek," said Mr. Finlan.

"What about perpetuating the smell?" asked Stanley Corbett, another prominent citizen, intensely interested in the beauties and aroma of the babbling Tonquish.

That ended the weekly session of Tonquish creek settlers who will soon hold another meeting to discuss its development.

Mild Weather Bad On Wheat

With the most critical part of winter weather yet to come, the weeks of winter already presented Michigan have been unusual enough to be exceedingly tough on wheat and rye prospects from all seedings.

Blackened and withered tops are evidence of the winter. Lack of cover of the usual cushion of snow has dried out the small wheat and rye plants which leads G. M. Grantham of Michigan State college to point out that farmers in Wayne county may be able to get back $3.00 for every dollar they spend in applying a top dressing of fertilizer this spring to stimulate such fields.

For some unknown reason, heavy soils do not pay the returns for this top dressing that are found in top dressing light soils, says Grantham. In tests it has been found that from six to seven bushels of grain can be obtained by spring fertilizer application, or a return of three to four times the cost of the material.

It is not considered advisable to use the fertilizer if seedlings of legumes are to be made in the wheat or rye. If a farmer does intend to make an application of fertilizer, the proper time is just at the start of green growth in the spring after frost has left the ground. A grain drill applies the fertilizer easiest, but it has to be set to spread lightly, using but 100 pounds of nitrate of soda to the acre, or only 75 pounds of sulphate of ammonia to the acre. The ground should be dry to prevent burning of the small plants, but it is not necessary to let the points of the drill touch the ground.

Savant Discovers New Comet

Dr. Fred L. Whipple, of the Harvard observatory, who announced recently the discovery of a new small comet in the constellation Canes Venatici (the hunting dogs), is shown in his office at Harvard university, checking over negatives made at night of the stars. The comet, which has a tail about "one degree long" and is of the twelfth magnitude, was discovered by the astronomer when he examined a photographic plate he had taken.

Fisher Insurance Agency To Feature Different Advertising

Roy A. Fisher of the Fisher Insurance Agency, announced this morning that the company will shortly begin a novel series of advertising features in this paper under the heading "News Flashes".

Each advertisement will contain an unusual and oftentimes humorous news commentary, along with a brief explanation of the advantages of the various forms of insurance protection offered by the Fisher agency.

"Few people realize," Mr. Fisher said, when interviewed, "the valuable service the insurance counsellor offers to a community. Our new advertising feature is intended to convey to the people of Plymouth the many benefits to be derived by consulting with us frequently."

The Fisher agency also deals in all forms of real estate, including rentals, business property and homes, mortgages, lots and farms. The advertising appears in The Mail.

Removing an Unneeded Restraint

Congress is debating the Pettengill bill which, in substance, would permit the railroads to compete with intercoastal steamships.

The clause of the Interstate Commerce law which the bill would repeal was perhaps once beneficial, but has become restrictive.

No like prohibition governs the railroads' land, air and water competitors, and none is contemplated for them. It applies to the rails alone, with the original need for it non-existent—imposing a handicap on them while it confers advantages on their competitors.

Repeal of this clause will hurt no one; will make lower rail rates eventually not improbable; will create an additional 100,000 railroad jobs.

Nor will it reduce the ICC's powers; or enable the rails to charge rates that are unreasonable or unduly low so as to eliminate competition, or to raise rates if competition did disappear.

The bill is favored by great bodies of shippers, by trade organizations, by the railroads and railroad labor. It is opposed by steamship interests and coastal industries who would retain unfair advantages over inland competitors.

America's railroads face the most unprecedented competition in their history. Unneeded restraints, like this obsolete clause, should be removed that the lines may better be able reasonably, and legally, to compete.

Michigan, and its railroads, will benefit from the repeal. Support for the Pettengill bill should be asked of the State's delegation in Congress.

AND WHEREAS, In the pursuit of these obligations the American Legion is a civilian organization; membership therein does not affect nor increase liability for military or police service; and is absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles;

AND WHEREAS, In the fulfillment of these obligations the American Legion has repeatedly by action of successive national and department conventions bound itself to principles of non-intervention and strict neutrality in all controversial matters affecting the ordinary relationship between employer and employee;

AND WHEREAS, the present industrial disputes in the State of Michigan are no exception to the fundamental principles of our organization and we expressly refrain from taking sides in the matter; but we feel that the right and security of the general public is of paramount concern over and above all other interests;

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the executive committee of the American Legion, department of Michigan, in regular session in the city of Detroit this 14th day of March, 1937 do

RESOLVE, That the lives, liberties, rights and properties of a free people are placed in jeopardy by methods now being used in the present industrial unrest; that the ends sought should be attained in the way and manner of our forefathers through lawfully constituted courts and tribunals, whose mandates and orders should be executed by law enforcement officers, obeyed by all with peace and decorum or appealed from in the manner provided by law; we condemn any disregard of human and property rights; the exercise of which spells contempt for law and order; we condemn any action which is subversive to our hard won freedom, and destructive of our cherished institutions; we condemn license and uphold liberty; we condemn might as against right and we call upon all law abiding citizens of our sovereign state to stand firm with us for law and order and in all measures for the perpetuation of the republic.

The program for the Scouting demonstration on April 7 at the Plymouth high school is going to be a surprise. Some of the troops have volunteered stunts which they will prepare for the occasion. The others will be ready soon. But the boys of one troop are not going to advertise their parts in the evening's work. Please Scout mothers and fathers, save this date.

The Cubs are making great preparations for their first Pack gathering and exhibit for the latter part of this month. The handicraft part of the show will be very interesting.

All of us are glad to know that our Court of Honor chairman, George A. Smith, is improving. We hope it will be only a short time until he can resume his regular work.

Mr. Smith's illness has postponed the issuance of the new advancement procedure material. It is nearly ready. The advancement work of the boys is not made harder, but only more uniform, and the names of the merit badge counsellors will be available to all. The counsellors themselves will better understand what is expected of them.

It was with a great deal of regret that we received the news that Dick Loomis is leaving the Training school and will no longer be in charge of the Scout swimming team. He has served us well in this work and greatly aided many Scouts in their efforts to learn to swim.

The Cubs have now named their Dens and selected Den chiefs as follows:
 Spike Horn—Chief Erdelyi
 Wildwood—Chief LaBelle
 Wild Cat—Chief Londres

have plenty of reason to continue him in his present capacity for another term.

The city commission is to be commended for placing in service another fire truck that has long been badly needed. While it is true that the community has claimed two fire trucks, one of them might just as well have been out of service as it generally failed to operate at times of its greatest need. Now with two first class fire trucks, the fire department can be expected to continue its good work in a much more efficient way than it has been possible to do in the past.

Just a line about the recent city primary election—and it is a line of commendation to the voters of the community. They have placed before the electors of Plymouth a group of candidates the city can be satisfied with. The election of any three out of the entire number will give the city no cause for alarm, as all are good citizens who have only the best interests of Plymouth at heart. The voters are fortunate in having such an excellent group of candidates to make their selection from.

A Communication

To the Editor:
 I believe that this spring election is more than ordinarily important, that is because this election will decide what is going to happen to the highways of the state during the next four years. There isn't anything that the state does that everybody makes so much of—as they do of the highways.

I am writing this letter because I am interested in seeing Murray D. Van Wagoner re-elected as state highway commissioner. It appears to me that he has done an uncommonly good job during his first term and I am old-fashioned enough to think, regardless of political affiliations, that one good term deserves another.

I don't take long trips around the state, but I do use the roads pretty regularly in my own vicinity. However, I do see enough of the way Van Wagoner's men go about their work of building and taking care of the highways around here, to know that there must be a good man running the department. A good many of my neighbors and friends feel the same way, and in our opinion, Murray D. Van Wagoner has done his work well.

Fred D. Schrader.
