

Presbyterians Dedicate New Church

Hundreds Present At Sunday Ceremonies

Members of the Presbyterian church met in an impressive service Sunday morning when their new house of worship was formally dedicated to the purposes of the church and God. A capacity crowd attended the service.

The Rev. Samuel H. Forrer of the Jefferson Avenue Presbyterian church in Detroit, delivered the dedicatory sermon, speaking on "The Church", in which he discussed the purpose of the church in the early days when charity, problems of state, and general welfare of the people were his chief concerns. He further explained how these no longer have an important place in the organization of the church, and questioned whether the clergy now has a definite place in this complex civilization. In answer to his provocation, Rev. Forrer showed that the church is still a necessary factor today because it is needed to teach faith and understanding of God, and to further form the foundation for a well-balanced moral, religious, and social life.

Previous to the sermon, the members and their minister, Rev. Walter Nichol, joined in words of dedication as they read responsively, "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings," and the choir gave a number of appropriate selections.

In the baptismal services, Alan James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Woodworth, was the first to receive baptism in the new church, while his sister, Maria Kay, was the last to receive that sacrament in the old building. Other children receiving baptism in this first service were Wallace Garnet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Rasm; James Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Smith; Richard Ragnar II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ragnar Blomberg; Judith Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Monteth; Bruce Duane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Campbell; William Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey G. Segnitz; Regina Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Polley; Donald Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Patterson; and Arthur Ramon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Segnitz.

Family Night was observed in the dining room of the church Monday evening, when all members of the congregation and their families met for a potluck dinner. C. H. Bennett presided during the program at which time greetings from neighboring congregations were received. A special feature of the service was a solo given by Marceline Kenyon, who sang in the church choir 70 years ago.

Following the program, an inspection of the new structure was made by the members. Of particular interest was the room designated as the ladies' parlor, which is set aside for meetings of a social character, and small gatherings for business purposes. Furnishings for this room were given as a gift from Chauncey H. Rauch, who gave them in memory of his wife. The room, facing the north, has windows on three sides, all of them being curtained with heavy drapes of brown and yellow. A thick neutral shaded carpet covers the floor and the remainder of the furnishings are upholstered in shades of burgundy, pea green and yellow. A large fireplace extends along one end of the room, with the hearth and mantle finished in a grey white brick effect. Two deeply upholstered armchairs in shades of burgundy are set near the fireplace, and a lamp and two walnut tables complete the interior.

At 11:00 o'clock next Sunday morning the windows of the church will be formally dedicated, and the Rev. Walter Nichol will deliver the sermon. At 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon a musical service in dedication of the organ will be observed.

Floyd Burgett To Run Station

Floyd Burgett has taken over the former Simmons and Atchinson service station next to the Chevrolet garage on Main street. Simmons and Atchinson are now located in their new station at the corner of Main and Stark-weather streets.

City Official Wins Advancement

MRS. NELLIE CASH

Mrs. Nellie Cash, who for a number of years served the city of Plymouth satisfactorily as its city treasurer and was recently appointed secretary to the city manager and deputy city clerk, has been given the new position permanently, according to City Manager Clarence Elliott.

City officials have expressed much satisfaction over the appointment, because of the fact that Mrs. Cash is well acquainted with city affairs and merited the advancement that has come to her. As city treasurer her work was exceptionally accurate. In addition to her carefulness in handling this detailed routine, she won a host of friends by her courteous treatment of everyone. Her advancement created a vacancy in the city treasurer's office which was recently filled by the appointment of Charles Garlett as city treasurer. This appointment has also met with general public approval.

Planning A Home? Fill Out Blank

Due to the wide spread demand for greater assistance to families desiring to build small homes, the government is investigating the possibility of increasing the percentage on loans which it is possible for approved housing agencies to make toward purchasing new homes.

It is believed by a number of housing agencies that Congress will enact legislation making it possible for families to construct new homes with only 10 percent of the purchase price in cash.

Plan New Year's Eve Party

Make your plans right now for New Year's eve! Maybe it seems a long way away, but the date will be here before you know it. There's going to be a big New Year's party at the Mayflower hotel, conducted for the first time by the directors of the hotel company.

Smallest Babe Grows Fast

Dr. Harold J. Brisbois isn't another Doctor DaPoe of quip-put fame, but it seems that he has given his doctor associates, nurses and the hospitals something to marvel over in the way he is helping a little two pound and 12-ounce baby grow into a strong, healthy young man.

State Treasurer Badly Messes Up The Truth

He May Be Good At Getting Jobs For Fry Family, But—

(By ELTON E. EATON) The writer has no desire or intent to enter into any controversy with State Treasurer Theodore I. Fry, who is chairman of the state board of auditors, over the proposed illegal use of state funds for the purchase of a mansion for the Governor of the state.

But a deliberate mis-statement of facts by Mr. Fry, coupled with an unwarranted attack upon the writer cannot be permitted to go unchallenged.

Lansing newspaper correspondents quote Mr. Fry as saying that "Eaton contends that in studying the problem of an executive residence we are acting in direct defiance of the legislature—a contention he knows to be untrue if he is as familiar with the legislative record as he pretends to be."

Both the House and Senate passed a concurrent resolution requesting and authorizing the State Board of Auditors to negotiate for an executive residence.

Let us see who is right. Try and find in the following resolution passed by the house and senate if you can, any authority given by the legislature to the state board of auditors to BUY or BUILD a mansion for the Governor:

"The Michigan legislature hereby requests and authorizes the board of state auditors to negotiate for AND RENT a suitable home . . . as a temporary residence for the Governor."

You will note that the resolution says nothing about BUYING or BUILDING. It only authorized the temporary rental of a home.

So it is quite apparent from the records that Mr. Fry in the gentleman who is dead wrong, and the writer is right.

I am further opposed to its construction at this time for other reasons. Newspapers have been full of charges that the state budget is way out of balance, that the legislature appropriated $18,000,000 more money than the state will receive from all sources. This budget director a few days ago called attention to the fact that

No Waiting To Make Deposits

In order to avoid inconvenience to the customer who must stand in line to make deposits at the bank, the Plymouth United Savings bank has inaugurated a new system which bank officials hope will eliminate the annoyance.

The system, which simply consists of filling out and dropping into a chute a "rush hour envelope" that is a combination of a deposit slip and acknowledgment is one of the first banks, and certainly the first of the smaller banks in this area to adopt such a plan.

The envelopes may be obtained at the lobby desk, and the included deposit slip may then be filled out at the customer's convenience, either at the bank, the home, or office. Endorsed checks and currency will be placed within the envelope, and sealed with the sender's name and address on the outside. The package may then be dropped in a deposit chute purposely provided for the plan. The deposit will be credited the same day it is made and an acknowledgment returned immediately to the sender.

Assistant Cashier Lisle Alexander urges all customers of the bank to try the new system so that bank officers may know whether or not the plan is a really practical one.

Maynard Larkins Has Florida Orchestra

An advertisement from a Sarasota, Florida, newspaper brings to Plymouth the interesting information that Maynard Larkins, former Plymouth high school student and graduate, is now conducting an orchestra in that city. The musical organization is referred to as "Maynard Larkins and His New 10-Piece Band." The organization played for a Thanksgiving party in Sarasota and its bookings for the winter seem numerous. He was in charge of the orchestra during the summer at the Topinabee hotel at Mullet lake, where his music won much praise.

To Honor Mrs. Lida Murphy

Mrs. Lida Murphy, newly elected department president of the American Legion Auxiliary of the state of Michigan will be honored at a testimonial dinner given by the Northville Auxiliary of the Lloyd H. Green Unit No. 147 Saturday evening at the Mayflower hotel in Plymouth. Over 100 guests from Northville and Plymouth are expected to attend.

Mrs. Murphy, a resident of Northville for many years, has been very active in Auxiliary circles throughout the community and state and is well known in Plymouth.

Schedule More Good Pictures

Two particularly outstanding pictures are scheduled to appear on the screen of the Penniman-Allyn theatre in the coming week "The Prisoner of Zenda" with Ronald Colman, Madeleine Carroll, and Mary Astor, and "Dead End" with Sylvia Sydney, Joel McCrea, and Humphrey Bogart.

"The Prisoner of Zenda," coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, December 5, 6, 7, concerns the story of a king who could command anything his heart desired, except the very thing he wanted most. The cast itself guarantees a good performance.

"Dead End," from the recent popular stage play, is a social drama scraped from the streets of a great city. The story, although not a pleasant one, is sure to impress you with its tragic humanity and its appeal for understanding of the conditions existing in the big cities. This picture will be shown Friday and Saturday, December 10 and 11.

Two Speakers For Rotary

Plymouth Rotarians last Friday noon had the pleasure of hearing two speakers, one an old friend and associate of many of the members, and the other being a high official of Rotary International. Claude Henderson, former Plymouth resident, now a practicing attorney in Mt. Vernon, Washington, who is visiting in Michigan for a brief time, spoke briefly to the club members. Phil Lovejoy, years ago active in Michigan Rotary affairs but now an official of the organization associated with the Chicago headquarters, who was also a Plymouth visitor, discussed briefly some of the good work among nations being carried on by the organization.

President John Blickenstaff has been fortunate in giving the club a number of excellent programs during recent weeks, all of them above par.

Jack Miller New Studebaker Dealer

Jack Miller, well known world war veteran and an active member of the Ex-Service Men's club, has just been appointed the Studebaker agent for Plymouth and vicinity. Mr. Miller, who operates two gas stations, one on Stark-weather and the other on South Main street, plans also to operate a used car lot. He has for years operated the Stark-weather gas station, just recently having acquired the one on South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Kendall and Fred Major, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brower, of Romulus, were dinner guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Orr Sanday.

Winter Program Of Recreation Is Started

Herald Hamill Asks Support Of Activities

Winter recreational activities, under the supervision of the Community Recreation league, were officially begun Monday evening when the first of a series of basketball games were played in the high school auditorium between Blunk's and Plymouth Platina, and Daisy and Perfection. The teams included in the league and their sponsors are listed as follows: Blunk's, sponsored by Blunk's department store; Plymouth Platina, by H. Hondorp; Chevrolet, by E. J. Allison; Schrader, by Bud Schrader; Wild's, by Wild's Clothing store; Wilkie, by R. Wilkie; Daisy, by Daisy Manufacturing company; Perfection, by Perfection Laundry company; and R. & W., by Ben Dinkgrave. Five girls teams have been organized as Blunk's; Daisy; Hi-Speed; Fueling; Coolman, by Harold Coolman, and R. & W., by Gayde Brothers.

Herald Hamill, general chairman of the Recreation commission, along with other members of the group, have made an appeal to Plymouth people interested in the games to purchase season tickets which may be secured from the office of The Plymouth Mail, Community Drug store, the Plymouth city hall, and the high school. In order to enlarge the activity field for the young people, Mr. Hamill stated, it would be necessary to draw more funds from which to draw upon.

To Present Play Saturday

The children's play, "Mister Toad", which is being brought here by the Woman's Club of Plymouth, will be presented in the high school auditorium Saturday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

Members of the club directly connected with the presentation are Mrs. Edward Ekerdt, dramatic committee chairman, Mrs. J. Merle Bennett, Mrs. John Blomson, and Mrs. Ray Gilder. Those in charge of the ticket sale are Mrs. Ray Johns, Mrs. Claude Dykhouse, Mrs. Harold Stevens, and Mrs. Sterling Eaton. Mrs. Donald Sutherland will have charge of the story telling, and ushering will be taken care of by the executive board of the club and the program chairman, Mrs. Robert Willoughby and Mrs. Cass Hough.

Market Offers Price Cut

The Purity Market on Penniman avenue, of which David Gallin is owner, announces in his advertisement this week a special 10 percent off sale on all items in the grocery department to become effective Friday and Saturday of this week.

This sale is made necessary because of the small amount of space for grocery stock, which was allotted when the new store was opened several months ago. Excess stock must be unloaded so that arrangements may be made to enlarge the present space.

The new foods department will be as complete as possible and many items will be added to the already spacious grocery. Mr. Gallin invites everyone to take advantage of the big savings during his house cleaning.

American Legion "Good Fellows" To Sell Newspaper Saturday, December 11

Commander Moyer Hopes For A Record Sale

Commander John L. Moyer and other officials of the American Legion have completed plans for their annual Good Fellows newspaper sale which will take place on Saturday, December 11.

Mr. Moyer states that he hopes to make the sale one of the biggest ever conducted in the city. "It just seems that our Christmas needs are going to be far greater than ever before from all that we can learn," says Mr. Moyer. "We are anxious to have a very successful sale as we are fearful that we will need more money than for some time past. The Legion likes to do a lot of good at Christmas time and we want to keep our worthy record up where it belongs. We are therefore asking the co-operation of everyone. When they see our sellers on the streets Saturday, December 11, we hope they will buy a newspaper and pay just as much as possible for it. Not only will the Legion appreciate it, but those who will benefit by it will too. Every cent will go towards making Christmas time in Plymouth a happy one for those in need," said Mr. Moyer. All Detroit daily publications will be handled.

Hope For Record In Sale Of Christmas Seals

Plymouth Workers Start Activities Next Week

The annual sale of the Christmas seals, the proceeds of which are for fighting the tuberculosis scourge, is being launched this coming week and those in charge of the campaign are hoping that every one in Plymouth and the surrounding districts will show a deeper interest than ever before in making the sale a success.

Buying Christmas seals is one way in which every man, woman, and child may help themselves as well as those unfortunate enough to be afflicted with this dread disease. For, in making it possible for those either already with tuberculosis or with a tendency to it, to have the proper treatment and care is safeguarding a spreading of the malady. The people of this vicinity are most fortunate in living where so much is being done to both cure and prevent tuberculosis and the untiring work of the men and women who are heading the fight to lessen the number of cases in our county should have the help and support of every citizen. Due to their efforts, the ratio of those suffering from tuberculosis has been reduced from one out of every 60 persons a few years ago to one out of every 200 at the present time. Fifty years ago tuberculosis was first in the death rate of the state; now it is seventh.

It would be interesting to review some of the activities of the Detroit Tuberculosis society and to know something of what is done with the money which one spends for Christmas seals. First is the early diagnosis campaign by which tuberculin tests and X-rays if indicated, are given to the eleventh and twelfth grades in Detroit and Wayne county.

Tuberculin tests detect the cases at the most dangerous age and the X-rays tell whether active or dormant, making detection and diagnosis possible before disease has become malignant and when cures are possible.

Second is the sanatorium and Leland farm where hospitalization and treatment are possible. Leland farm operates a dairy and poultry farm which supplies all eggs and dairy products used.

Expenses are $3 per day per patient, and is paid by the patient if he or his family is able; by the patient and the sale of seals; or by the sale of the seals alone. The average stay in the hospital is six months.

Third is the Christmas seal camp at North Lake. This is about five miles west of Portage lake near Dexter and was first opened this past summer. During the summer 162 under-nourished girls and 151 boys of the same type were each given four weeks of camp life under the happiest surroundings. Each of these children were susceptible to tuberculosis and here an ounce of prevention was more than equal to a pound of cure.

The facilities of this camp were equal to those of a first class private camp and the expenses of the camp were paid by Christmas seals while the salary of the camp director was paid by Detroit board of education.

Sunday services were conducted by the director and counselors and visitors were welcomed at all times. More efficient work could be done at the camp if more seal sale money is available this coming summer.

Over 7000 patients have received treatment at the Detroit Tuberculosis sanatorium since it was instituted.

The work at the sanatorium, Leland farm and Christmas seal camp is financed by sale of Christmas seals, gifts, and through memberships in the Detroit Tuberculosis society. No revenue whatever comes from the community fund.

The children of the city and district schools of Wayne county do a splendid work in the sale of these Christmas seals, so when a child asks you to buy seals respond by "buying 'til it hurts" and you may be sure that every penny so spent will be used for a most worthy cause and the health safety of you and your child will be increased.

Sixteen friends and old neighbors from Detroit came to Plymouth on the evening of November 23 to give Rev. S. E. Closson a surprise on his birthday. A luncheon, games and a general good time was enjoyed, the affair being one of those real surprises for the old.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Strait, of Detroit, were dinner guests, Sunday, of Mrs. Geneva Ball.

Boy Badly Bitten By Stray Dog

While the head of a stray mongrel dog is being examined at the University of Michigan hospital, Plymouth physicians are closely watching the condition of Robert Bartel, aged 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartel, Jr., of Plymouth road, who was badly bitten in the face Tuesday afternoon by the dog. The youngster was playing out beside the green-house when the dog suddenly ran from the highway, jumped at the boy and tore a big gash in his face as it nearly knocked the boy over. His screams attracted the attention of his father, who drove the dog off, then hurried back for his gun and killed the dog. Its head was immediately sent to Ann Arbor for examination.

Club To Visit Northville

All members of the Woman's Club of Plymouth are asked to meet in the Hotel Mayflower, this (Friday) afternoon, December 3, at 1:15 sharp for a short business meeting before leaving at 2:00 p.m. for Northville, where the club will be the guest of the Woman's Club of that city.

A talk on "The Land of Hindustan" will be given by an able speaker, Mrs. Melvin Gutherie, chairman and the following are her committee: Mrs. R. J. Lorenz, Mrs. Earl W. Wellman, Mrs. Joseph Witner, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. S. N. Thams and Mrs. J. M. Blossom.

Discuss Plans For Committees

The executive committee of the city planning commission, headed by J. Merle Bennett, met Monday night in the city hall to formulate plans and procedures of various sub-committees.

These plans will be given to the heads of the sub-committees at the next regular meeting of the commission on December 27. It was decided that each chairman of such a committee would be instructed to keep in mind two objectives to be carried out through all activities of the group, the first being that the master plan, formulated by the executive committee, would extend over a period of 25 years; and the second, that the inauguration of the 10-year program would be correlated with the city budget and would incorporate things most necessary to the community within the next 10 years.

The master plan, which the head committee anticipates, is planned to cover an area of approximately three miles within the center of the city. The time for the completion of the development of this territory is set for 25 years hence.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVera Cole of Ypsilanti called on Mrs. Stedeker Sunday.

WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

There is a constantly growing feeling that United States Senator Arthur Vandenberg will be the Republican nominee for President two years hence. If that comes to pass, then Michigan Republicans and Independent voters will be called upon to nominate some one to fill the place made vacant by the advancement of Senator Vandenberg.

It is early, probably too early, to speculate as to the possibility of candidates for the nomination, but it should not be as this is one of the most important duties confronting the electors of Michigan.

Who shall be that candidate?

Have you ever given thought to the possibility and advisability of nominating an outstanding woman like the former Mrs. Frederick Alger, now the Mrs. Fred T. Murphy of Detroit? Honest, clear thinking, a worker in the workers' behalf, co-operative and possessed of outstanding ability, Michigan could rightly be proud to send a woman of her type to the United States senate, if the way should be opened for her nomination and election.

We have often wondered if the electors of this state and nation have given the women of the country their rightful places in elective offices. There is much to be said in their favor, and little against it. Most women are inherently honest and look with disdain upon some transgressions that some men accept as a matter of course. They are students and they possess to a very large degree a greater interest in humanitarian problems than do men.

Michigan, if the occasion arises, will not have to look far for a candidate for United States senate. Mrs. Murphy, a life-long worker in behalf of the state, would, if elected, bring credit and distinction to a great commonwealth.

Vacation

By James Lewis Hays

"I want a trip," said Mother,
"To the great wide out-of-doors.
I'm tired of cooking dinners,
I'm sick of sweeping floors."
"Let's go," said Dad, "I'm mighty tired
Of doing up the chores."

But out at Camp Nepenthe
They couldn't seem to rest
They fidgeted and tramped about
As if they were in quest
Of work. With not a thing to do
They really were distressed.

You should have seen them grinning
When their short rest was done;
You'd think the work had ended
And play had just begun.
It proves some people love to work
And "just have all the fun"!

A LETTER FROM A CONGRESSMAN.

The editor of The Plymouth Mail has received a letter from Congressman Clare E. Hoffman of the Fourth Congressional district of Michigan in which he takes exception to an editorial published in The Plymouth Mail on November 5, under the heading "Forgive Him For He Knows Not What He Says".

The editorial in question severely criticized Congressman Hoffman for having made an alleged remark that he was "praying for a depression to bring us back to our senses". The news dispatch in which Congressman Hoffman was quoted as making the statement upon which the editorial in question was based, appeared in The Detroit Times under a South Haven date line on October 30.

The editor of The Plymouth Mail knows something about the constant care and diligence exercised by great metropolitan papers like The Detroit Times to see to it that the news published is absolutely accurate.

However, in justice to Congressman Hoffman, The Plymouth Mail feels it is only fair to publish his communication in which he denies having made the statement, in full. It follows: "My dear Mr. Eaton:

"This morning my attention was called to an article in the Port Huron Tribune of November 19, purporting to be a reprint of an article you had in The Plymouth Mail.

"After giving your authority as a newspaper dispatch from South Haven, you quote me as saying that I was 'praying for a depression to bring us back to our senses'. That statement is wholly false.

"As you correctly state, I know, and every person with any sense knows, that a depression hits hardest at those who have the least. I also know, as you state, that only a fool would 'pray for a depression', and I can add that no one other than an utterly heartless person would wish for a depression or even a business 'recession', which seems to be the little child of a depression.

"What I have said on several occasions and what I now repeat is that, if we continue spending beyond our income, we are, as the President himself said, 'on the road to bankruptcy'.

"If bankruptcy is inevitable, if relief rolls are ever to mount, you and everyone else knows that the sooner we reach the end of that road, the better for all concerned and the quicker we can retrace our steps and build on a firm, sound foundation. If you have ever had an ulcerated tooth which had to come out, you know that the sooner it is out, the better.

"You have in your own area an illustration of what happens when unsound policies are followed.

"Homer Martin advocated the sit-down strike. He thought it was a fine thing when he was applying it against General Motors and Chrysler. But, when his own workers called one on him the other day and sat down in Pontiac factories, the injustice of that method was quickly apparent to Mr. Martin.

"Kindly make correction in your statement.

"Praying for a depression, which is abhorrent to all of us, is a far different thing than saying that, if the present course continues, it will bring about a depression—something which more and more people are coming to realize. It is somewhat similar to the statement of Leo Wolman of the National Labor Relations Board, who is reported to have said that the Administration's labor policy would tend to bring about permanent unemployment.

"Very truly yours,
"CLARE E. HOFFMAN."

LAMENTATIONS.

Postmaster General James A. Farley expressed regret in a radio address that the Republican opposition had collapsed, adding "a strong opposition minority is essential to good government." Don't worry Jim, they said the same thing about the Democratic party during the twenties, and look what happened. Undoubtedly, the members of the Republican party understand this patriotic attitude on your part, and surely appreciate that only the great love you had for your country would prompt you to so voice your sorrows.—George Neal in The Orion Review.

ASK PUBLIC ALMS BUT REFUSE TO WORK.

Detroit needs $1,800,000 for welfare and doesn't know where to get it. This welfare business is getting rancid. Out in the country the other day we visited a farm operated by two women and a lame man. Could they get the help they needed to make the farm produce? They could not! The able-bodied men of the neighborhood whom they would be glad to employ are on the welfare, and if these should accept a temporary job they couldn't get back on again, so they hang on like a pig to a sow's teat and loaf around the village saloon, while the farm is taxed to help maintain their support. And don't think the case isn't typical.—Emerson Glidart in The Utica Sentinel.

WE ARE ALL LABORERS.

There is something wrong in the application of the term "laborer". When we speak of the "laborer" why do we mean the man who earns his daily bread with a pick and shovel or before the open hearth of a steel mill?

What about the thousands of sales people in the stores of the land? What about the men behind the cages in the banks? What about the stenographers whose arms become weary pounding the keys of the typewriter? And what about even news writers who may not utilize much muscular energy but burn up a lot of nerve force in the course of a day?

All these people belong in the ranks of labor, and their welfare must be considered along with the welfare of those whom tradition terms "laborers." Our use of terms frequently seems to confuse our understanding.—George O. St. Charles in The Dearborn Independent.

Water Service For Cemetery

Arrangements for the installation of a water system in the Riverside cemetery have been completed by the city, and work on the project will be begun the middle of this month. The actual construction will be handled by the WPA.

This plan will make water available for drinking purposes.

watering of flowers, and lawns throughout the cemetery. The pumps which are now in use have been most inadequate since all water needed had to be pumped directly, and is unfit for drinking. It is expected that the system will be completed within four months.

Additions to the mausoleum, which were begun November 1, are rapidly being completed, and toilets are being installed in the basement of the building for visitors and property owners.

The COC boys have strung nearly 50,000 miles of telephone wires, cleared 50,000 miles of fire breaks, and constructed 75,000 miles of truck trails and minor roads.

Cigarette consumption set an all-time record in the United States in 1936. Consumption totaled 153,170,000,000, an increase of 14 percent above the 1935 figure of 134,809,000,000.

Church Wedding For Miss Vera Wilkie And Fred C. Heidt, Jr.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, November 20, when Miss Vera Wilkie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilkie, of Cherry Hill, became the bride of Fred C. Heidt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Heidt, of South Lyon.

The ceremony was read at 7:30 by the Rev. E. E. Rossow in the St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church in Northville, in the presence of 100 relatives and friends. The church was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March", played by Lewis Melser. Mrs. Lawrence LeFever sang "I Love You Truly".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in white lace over a satin gown with a train. She wore a fingertip veil with butterfly motifs, and carried a bouquet of white roses and baby breath.

Miss Phyllis Wilkie, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was gowned in rose satin with silver accessories. Her bouquet was of white mums.

Arnold Heidt, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Mrs. Wilkie, mother of the bride, was attired in green embroidered crepe, and the groom's mother wore wine crepe. Both wore shoulder corsages of roses.

Following the ceremony the guests drove to Cherry Hill church where a wedding dinner and reception were held. A large white wedding bell was suspended over the bridal table and a huge wedding cake centered the table.

The bride couple will be at home on Eleven Mile road, near South Lyon, where the groom is employed by a nursery.

The bride is a graduate of the Ypsilanti high school and Cleary college. For the past year she has been employed as a stenographer at the Timkin-Detroit Axle company.

Miss Ruth Root Weds J. H. Hargrave

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Root, of West Ann Arbor road, announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to J. Harold Hargrave, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hargrave, of Wayne.

The ceremony was performed on Friday, November 26, in the parsonage of the Methodist church in Angola, Indiana, by the Rev. N. E. Smith.

On Saturday evening a reception was held for the young couple at the home of the bride's parents with 30 guests, including members of the immediate families, attending.

Mrs. Hargrave is well known here, having graduated from the Plymouth high school in 1929, and from Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti in 1933. She is at present an instructor in the English department in the Wayne high school. Mr. Hargrave is employed at Greenfield Village. They are at home in the Truesdell apartments at 35447 Park Avenue, Wayne.

Wayne County PTA Meets Dec. 14

The regular meeting of the Wayne County Council of Parents and Teachers will be held at Flat Rock school on Tuesday, December 14. Business meeting at 5:30 o'clock. Dinner at 6:30; and program at 7:45.

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, superintendent of public instruction, will speak on "Horace Mann". Since this is the centennial of the founding of the first public school by Horace Mann in 1787, this is a very fitting subject.

Mrs. Ruby Price And Melvin Craig Wed

Mrs. Ruby Price, of St. Louis, Missouri, and Melvin Craig, of Newburg, were married Saturday, November 20, by the Rev. Reed at the Baptist parsonage in Wayne.

The bride, who was attended by Mrs. Ronald Joyce, sister of the groom, was attired in royal blue crepe and carried pink baby mums, and her attendant wore green crepe and carried yellow baby mums. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Mr. Joyce.

The couple left for St. Louis, where they spent several days, returning to their home on Cherry Hill road, Newburg, last week.

Albert Miller Weds Hopolulu Girl

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Miller, of 254 Irving street, announce the marriage of their son, Albert R. Miller, to Miss Irene Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Perry, of Honolulu, which took place in San Diego, California, November 21.

The event was performed on board U.S.S. Melville with a regular military ceremony, the chaplain of the fleet reading the service.

Mr. Miller is serving on the U.S.S. Holland, a submarine, as first class Diesel engine fireman. He received his appointment following an examination in which 78 applicants participated. He made a rating of second place, two other men only having passed the test.

He was graduated from the Plymouth high school and was employed by The Plymouth Mall before going into naval service four years ago.

Miss Gladys Yakes Weds Melvin Stacey

Gladys M. Yakes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Yakes of Roberts street, Ann Arbor, became the bride of Melvin Stacey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Stacey of Powell road, in a ceremony on Wednesday evening.

The service was read by the Reverend Dwight H. Ramsdell, a neighbor and friend of the family at the home of the bride's parents before the immediate family and Mrs. Ramsdell. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Kennedy of Flint.

Mrs. Stacey is a graduate of the Michigan State Normal college, and has been a teacher for several years in the schools of Washtenaw county.

After December 1, Mr. and Mrs. Stacey will live in their newly built home, 5000 Powell road.

Mussolini is five feet, six inches tall.

TWO NEW FORD V-8 CARS FOR 1938

THE DE LUXE
85 HORSEPOWER

THE STANDARD
60 OR 85 HORSEPOWER

DE LUXE FORD V-8 . . . 112" wheelbase; 85-horsepower engine; Improved Easy-Action Safety Brakes; Center-Poise Ride; All-steel body; Mohair or Broadcloth upholstery; Walnut-finished trim; Twin horns, tail lights, sun visors; Clock; 6.00" black tires, white side-walls are extra; 8 body types; 6 colors.

STANDARD FORD V-8 . . . 112" wheelbase; 85 or 60 horsepower engine; Improved Easy-Action Safety Brakes; Center-Poise Ride; All-steel body; Broadcloth or Mohair upholstery; Mohair extra in "60"; Mahogany-finished trim; One tail light, sun visor; Twin horns; 3 body types; 3 colors.

FORD offers two new cars for 1938—the Standard Ford V-8 and the De Luxe Ford V-8. They are different in appearance—but built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence—on the same chassis.

Because people liked our 1937 car so well, they bought more than of any other make. They liked its looks, its smooth performance, and the way it handled. We have improved on that car in the newly styled Standard Ford V-8.

But some folks wanted still more size and style, with the same Ford advantages. For them, we designed a new De Luxe line.

The De Luxe Ford V-8 Sedans are longer with more room, larger luggage space, and finer appointments all around.

De Luxe cars are equipped with the 85-horsepower engine only.

The Standard is even lower priced than the De Luxe. It has graceful new lines and well-tailored interiors—with a choice of engine sizes—85 or 60 horsepower.

Before Ford made V-type 8-cylinder engines available to every one, they were used only in expensive cars. Since then, four million Ford owners have learned the genuine enjoyment of driving an eight-cylinder car with all-around economy.

The thrifty "60" engine, especially, makes possible in Standard models a very low first cost and equally low operating cost.

With two distinct designs, two engine sizes and two price ranges, you'll find a 1938 Ford car to fit your needs exactly.

PRICES FOR CARS DELIVERED IN DETROIT—TAXES EXTRA

Standard Ford V-8 (60 hp.)—Coupe, $599; Tudor, $644; Fordor, $689. Standard Ford V-8 (85 hp.)—Coupe, $629; Tudor, $669; Fordor, $714. De Luxe Ford V-8 (85 hp. only)—Coupe, $689; Tudor, $729; Fordor, $774; Convertible Coupe, $774; Club Coupe, $749; Convertible Club Coupe, $804; Phaeton, $824; Convertible Sedan, $904.

Standard and De Luxe cars equipped with bumpers, bumper guards, spare wheel, tire, tube, tire lock and band, cigar lighter, twin horns, and headlight beam indicator on instrument panel, at no extra charge.

In addition, De Luxe cars are equipped with extra tail light, windshield wiper, sun visor; also de luxe steering wheel, glove compartment lock, clock, and chrome wheel hubs, at no extra charge.

Old Directory Reveals Past

Ezra Ratnour Has Rare Book

One hundred years ago, Plymouth was already important enough to serve as a regular stop for stage coaches, traveling between Detroit and Chicago, according to a city directory of Detroit, printed in 1837, which names Plymouth in its coach schedules.

Concerning the stage travel, the schedule reads as follows: "Three daily lines of stages leave the office of the Western Stage company (corner of Jefferson avenue)—one via Plymouth, Ann Arbor, Jacksonburg, and Marshall to Kalamazoo, through in two days and a half—one via Ypsilanti, Tecumseh, Jonesville, White Pigeon, Niles, Michigan City, to Chicago, through in four days and a half;—one via Monroe, Toledo, Perrysburgh to Lower Sandusky, through in two days. Extras will be furnished on all of the above roads at the shortest notice."

The 100-year-old volume is in the possession of Ezra Ratnour, given to him by a Detroit friend. It measures approximately four inches by eight inches, with a thickness of one-half inch. All citizens, a total of 9,763 persons, living in Detroit in 1837 are listed together with their addresses and profession. This section includes approximately 20 small pages which is a decided contrast to the huge volume of over 1000 pages now published by the city. Among the occupations listed are: Carpenter and Joiner; gentlemen; watch maker; grocer, druggist, painter, and oil merchant; boot and shoe maker; teacher of a female academy; cartier; fashionable hair cutter; tavern keeper; master mariner; and sausage maker. An epitomized history of the city is included in the book and tells of the roads constructed by the "general government" which meet in the center of the town. One is the Chicago, which leads to Illinois; one the Saginaw, that leads to the head of Saginaw Bay; another is the Fort Gratiot, to the foot of the Lake Huron; and the Grand River, to Lake Michigan.

Twenty years previous, the account says, there "was but one wharf in front of Detroit. The rest of the water front was nearly in a state of nature." Seven churches are listed, including two catholic, one Episcopalian, one Presbyterian, one Methodist, one Baptist, and one German Lutheran. Five public buildings of which the writer was particularly boastful were the State House, the City Hall, the theatre (having a capacity of 400), the museum, and the Michigan Gardens, which were planted purposely as a "retreat from the summer bustle and cares of business." They covered an area of about four acres at the entrance of Randolph street.

Three college seminaries were in existence at that time, the most interesting of which is a description of the Detroit Female Seminary that was founded in 1824 with "the earnest desire to promote the great cause of female education in the city and the territory of Michigan." The aim of the institution was particularly to teach the young women to be entertaining and to speak with correct pronunciation. A taste for English literature was to be carefully cultivated. Furthermore, "The Bible is read daily with explanatory observations, appeals to it, to conscience, and a sense of duty are the means chiefly relied on for moral improvement. Controversial topics on religion, politics, and morals are strictly excluded." The first newspaper printed in the city, according to the history, was published by James M. Miller

STRANGE SUPERSTITIONS

In 1809 and titled "Michigan Essay or Impartial Observer." There were, however, four newspapers issued 100 years ago, the oldest of them being the Daily Advertiser which was a white publication. Next in importance is named The Daily Free Press, democratic in policy, and the remaining two were The Michigan State Register and The Detroit Evening Spectator and Literary Gazette. The latter was issued twice a week and sold for four dollars a year.

No railroads then connected Detroit with other parts of the country, but two were being chartered at that time to terminate in the city—the Detroit and St. Joseph and the Pontiac and Detroit railroads. Three banks and three markets completed the business directory.

In an advertisement of ladies' finery, the proprietor suggests false hair ringlets, everlasting curls (probably a forerunner of the modern wave), "French down sleeve stiffeners, elegant silk, plaits, and stitched mohair nets." A lively barn owner "begs to inform the citizens of Detroit and the public generally that he continues to keep two-horse barriages, gigs, phaetons, barouches, omnibuses, buggies, double and single sleighs for hire. Still another advertiser says "particular attention paid at all times to the most approved styles of goods in their line—all of which will be sold low for cash—and no growling." And lastly, a dentist offers to insert "incorruptible teeth on fancy or gold mountings."

Society News

In honor of the birthday of Mrs. Fred Schrader, her daughter, Evelyn and Mrs. Bud Prescott, who is visiting her parents, perpetrated a real surprise on her Tuesday evening by inviting in a few guests. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Henderson, Mr. Vernon, Washington, Mrs. Gladys Patterson, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zuckerman, Mr. and Mrs. Williams Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Eaton. The Schrader home was most attractive with its lovely bouquets of chrysanthemums. Bridge was played during the evening, with Mrs. Henderson as winner of the high score.

Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter, D. A. R., will hold its annual Christmas party on Monday evening, December 6, at 8:00 o'clock, at Greenmead, home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwin A. Hill, Northville. The speaker will be Philip Adler of the Detroit News, his subject, "Present Day Conditions in Europe." Dora Gallimore and a group of girls from the Plymouth high school will furnish the music. This is guest night. Members are asked to remember jam, jellies, magazines, etc., for the CCC camp.

There were 39 present at the Gates Thanksgiving dinner, held in the Grange hall. The table was decorated with a large bowl of chrysanthemums and a delicious dinner was served. In the evening they went to the home of Mrs. Louis Schaal where they played keno, each one present receiving a gift. Guests were from Detroit, Flint, South Lyon and Plymouth.

Mrs. John McIntyre entertained several ladies Tuesday at a delightful dessert-bridge complimenting Mrs. Ward Jones, a newcomer to this city, and her mother, Mrs. Frank P. Brown of Boston, Massachusetts. The other guests were Mrs. George Haas, Mrs. Robert Jolliffe, Mrs. Robert Mimmack, Mrs. B. R. Gilbert and Mrs. Austin Whipple.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Hohensehl entertained at a dinner-bridge, Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Truesdell, Mr. and Mrs. Carvel Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, of Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simms, of Ypsilanti.

Dr. and Mrs. S. N. Thams entertained Mr. and Mrs. Deyo Tallman, of Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Reck, at dinner, Wednesday, as a farewell to the Tallmans before leaving for Florida where they will spend the winter.

The members of the Stitch and Chatter and their husbands enjoyed a co-operative dinner, Wednesday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. John Hubert in their new home in Birmingham.

Mrs. E. A. Kimmell spent the Thanksgiving holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Polk in Birmingham. Miss Florence Littler spent the same time with her mother, Mrs. F. E. Littler, in Jackson.

The Dinner bridge club enjoyed dinner at the Farm Cupboard on Monday evening of last week with cards afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jewell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Webb, of Pontiac, were dinner guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Draper and attended the dedicatory services in the Presbyterian church.

Bob Chute, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Chute, celebrated his ninth birthday anniversary, Monday, by entertaining several of his classmates at games and dinner.

Mrs. A. Ray Gilder will attend the alumni luncheon to be given by her sorority, Theta Lambda Sigma, in the McKenny hall in Ypsilanti, Saturday.

Christmas Sing For Community

Plans for a Christmas community sing and an evening of caroling are rapidly being completed by the committee in charge, consisting of James Gallimore, chairman; Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Carvel Bentley, John Blyton, and Glenn Jewell.

The date of the sing is set for Thursday evening, preceding Christmas, December 23, when members of the church choir and the high school glee club will meet at 8:00 o'clock at the hospital to sing to the sick. After that the group will proceed to the Kellogg park where they will lead the community in singing Christmas carols. The committee plans to project the words of the songs on a screen in the street. Attempts are being made to secure the services of the band for this concert.

Young Couple Married At Rosedale

The marriage of Emily Petoskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Petoskey, of Grandale, to Reuben Swanson of Detroit, was quietly solemnized, Wednesday morning, by Father Conway, in the parish of the St. Michael church in Rosedale Gardens.

The bride was becomingly attired in a black velvet dress, street length, and wore a corsage of gardenias. Her sister, Florence Petoskey, was her only attendant.

Only the immediate families, Mrs. Carl Stringer, of Rosedale, and Flossie Rowland, of this city, were present at the ceremony and the wedding dinner which immediately followed at the home of the bride's parents.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Swanson will reside on Daiby road, Grandale.

The many friends of the happy couple, in and around Plymouth, extend congratulations.

New Salvation Army Head Here

Capt. Carl Lindstrom of the Salvation Army corps left Plymouth last week to receive an appointment at Ypsilanti, having spent the past four months here in the interests of the Army.

Capt. Lindstrom's office as leader of the Corps has been filled by Lieut. Elwin Alder who comes here from Royal Oak, and expects to begin immediately upon plans for Christmas. Lieut. Alder explained that a procedure similar to previous years would be followed in which a party for needy children would be given in the Army building, and distribution of 25 baskets of food to poor families will be planned. The young people are already practicing for a Christmas play which will be presented a week before the holiday. He also announced that the Christmas number of "The War Cry" well-known Salvation Army magazine, is now on sale, and urges that interested persons avail themselves of a copy as soon as possible.

The local corps includes 35 soldiers and approximately 10 recruits.

Capt. Lindstrom and Lieut. Alder attended school together at the Salvation Army college in Chicago in 1936 and 1937, the latter being president of the '37 class. Lieut. Alder further mentioned his interest in aviation and says he holds a private pilot's license. He comes originally from Adrian, where he was connected with the city and county engineering departments. His parents, both of whom have been Army officers, are retired and are spending the winter in Florida.

Precision Products Reopened Monday

With the settlement of the auto strike in Pontiac, the Precision Products company resumed operations Monday morning, after a week's shut-down. President William A. Maher stated yesterday that production was only being resumed on a restricted basis and that no great amount of releases were yet coming through.

He further mentioned that output would probably not exceed 30 or 40 percent of capacity during the month of December, and that, although new schedules would be coming in with the beginning of the year, it will be difficult to anticipate in what amounts they would be received.

Miss Sorensen And Casler Stevens Wed

A quiet wedding ceremony uniting Benah Sorensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Soren J. Sorensen, of Plymouth, and Casler P. Stevens, of Plymouth, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stevens of Valparaiso, Indiana, was performed Thursday in late afternoon, in the parental home by the Rev. Albert Dave, of Clare. Only the immediate families were present.

The bride wore a street length afternoon dress of Wallis blue velvet and a corsage of gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Norman Peru, of Wayne. Harold G. Stevens, of Detroit, attended his brother.

Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will be at home to their many friends at 229 North Harvey street, Plymouth.

Honey was used as food since psychiatric times.

Badly Messes Up The Truth

(Continued From Page One) rapidly declining state revenues due to the new depression the country has been spent into, will place the budget more out of balance than it is at the present time. Why add a hundred thousand dollars or more to the unbalanced budget Governor Murphy professes to be so anxious to balance? I strenuously opposed these top-sided appropriations at the time they were being made, but state "officialdom" demanded that they be made and of course they were.

For some reason unknown, Mr. Fry has made the assertion that a "few hundred dollars had been wasted" because I introduced into the legislature a resolution asking for an investigation of the slot machine and gambling racket in Michigan. There was no politics about that resolution and it would have served a good purpose if its revelations had not been hidden behind closed doors.

I introduced into the legislature a resolution asking for this gambling inquiry because of the fact that up to that time, not one step had been taken by proper state officials to end the business in Michigan, although there had been all kinds of talk by Governor Murphy about state wide gambling and what was going to be done about it. It was always "going to be done" however.

For Mr. Fry's benefit as well as others, it might be noted that even though the resolution has not produced publicly the facts I hoped it would, it has served partly the purpose for which it was intended. Two days after it was passed by the house, slot machines disappeared as by magic in most parts of the state. The few hundred dollars spent by this committee apparently accomplished a clean-up quicker and more complete than all of the state law enforcing agencies under the Governor combined.

As I wrote to Mr. Fry in the first place, there is a right time to do everything, but certainly funds appropriated for "emergency" purposes should not be used for capital improvements.

Might it be suggested that Mr. Fry forget about this subject and again devote his time and talents to finding more state jobs for members of the Fry family. He has done pretty well so far. He has taken brother Ed away from the village of Fremont where he was a first class paper hanger and made him the state's racing commissioner at a salary of $3,000 a year. Brother Fred has a good job with the state's fire marshal. Then wasn't Ed's son-in-law, Sam McVey, given a state job with the superintendent of the state capital as two of his titles back and isn't Doris Fry a niece of Phil, as the treasurer is known, a clerk for the state board of auditors? It also seems there was another piece over in the sales tax division until she was married a while back. There might be more Frys and Frys-in-law somewhere, but not having a copy of the Fry family tree, the writer unfortunately doesn't know just how many more there might be on state jobs. But it looks as though there are about all of them there right now.

When the state's budget is balanced, when people of Michigan do not feel the payment of taxes so keenly as they do now, when business is better and when the state government has accomplished something worthwhile for the better housing and schooling of hundreds of thousands of its residents, then Michigan should give consideration to the building of a mansion for its governor, and not before.

It is gratifying to the writer to note that following our protest to the proposed scheme of state officials to dip their hands into a state emergency fund and buy a house for the Governor, that Governor Murphy now sees the "light", and has issued a statement to newspapers that his views are now the same as the writer's have been from the beginning.

The TONQUISH CREEK BREEZE

Published at Tonquish Creek, Michigan. The People's Watch Dog. Vol. 1 No. 13

It just seems that it is impossible to keep the affairs of the Creek going along without a lot of disputin' all the time. Now comes Harry Lee and declares that there isn't any Q in Tonquish. Who ever heard of a Tonquish without a Q? The BREEZE editor says his father's grand-father's father who knew old Chief Tonquish after he had gotten the old to scalp anybody always spelled his name with a Q in it. "The Inlins never used a Q in their spelling, I happen to know just as much about it as the Inlins did themselves," says Mr. Lee who lives out on the bend on the old Inlin trail that leads into the slippy elm swamp out near Schrader's buffalo ranch.

ing to be some fireworks in the Creek before the spring election takes place. "I'm going to blow the bottom out of the old tub and we are going to know what's what now that I'm going to be constable," says Matt. "My platform is—law is law". Hank Hawkland from over west of the Schrader buffalo ranch says if bucaloes keep on spread'n' out his way, he's going to organize a buffalo hunt and let Doc Champe to do the shootin'. It seems that Doc Champe is the only Creeker who can get results when it comes to using shootin' irons.

The Creek's crackbang-up pettifogger hired by The BREEZE to fit the fight of the just against all the lawing lawyers who have been engaged by Squire Mabon to "get" The BREEZE has "em all huddled up. There was a lot of talking and a lot of humbin' through law books last week, but no one has heard a peep out of any of 'em since The BREEZE'S own counsel-at-law has been

Varsity Team Chosen Game Tonight - Howell

(By Douglas J. Miller)

Tonight the Plymouth high school varsity basketball team swings into action, and its first opponent is the ill-fated Howell team. Last year Howell was defeated by 14 points, and this year the score should be higher. Monday, Plymouth will meet Redford Union at Redford. This game will probably be no contest at all unless Redford has a much better team than it had last year. Then comes the big game! River Rouge! Last year each team won one game and ran neck and neck only to have Plymouth defeated by Dearborn to lose the championship. This game has been set ahead from Friday to Wednesday because of the Junior play. It will be at home and should draw one of the largest crowds of the year.

This far in the season the coach is highly satisfied with the development of the team. A scrimmage with the champs of the Plymouth town league showed that the boys were in very good shape.

The passing and shooting are the main factors that the boys have and this is what they need.

This is the point that Coach Jacob emphasizes in his attack. The boys chosen for the first varsity team are the following: O. Egloff, G. Moe, William McAllister, R. Hitt, forwards; M. Sackett, William Norman, centers; G. Krumm, J. Ross, R. Giles, G. Houghton, D. Prough, guards.

The starting line-ups for the game have not been decided upon, but the coach plans to get all the boys in the games that he possibly can providing they have the ability.

JUNIOR CLASS RINGS ARRIVE

The members of the Junior class were surprised Monday morning when their rings arrived, for these were not expected until next week. This year the Juniors decided to change the design. In place of the customary rock setting a plain "P" and the words "High School", beneath have been substituted. About 80 students ordered rings and pins. Over $500 was taken in which shows a considerable gain from depression times.

ART CLASS MAKES CHRISTMAS GIFTS

The Junior High Industrial Art class under the direction of Mr. Ingram has begun work on several Christmas gift projects. The boys' favorites are a wastebasket of plywood, a redwood sewing cabinet, and a modernistic magazine rack of both plywood and redwood.

A flea can jump about 12 inches on a level surface.

HOW TO ACT IN THE SCHOOL CAFETERIA

We have been noticing school cafeteria manners of late, and we have taken it upon ourselves to inform you just exactly how to dine there with proper etiquette!

First there is the matter of getting waited upon. In order to get served quickly you should crowd into the line and make your order heard above all the rest. If the waitress ignores you, complain loudly about the service. This is almost certain to get you action of one sort or another, probably another. Next you must get to your seat. You will surely have a wide choice, and this will give you a chance to call all your friends to your side. If you are a practical joker you can let one of your neighbors balance a plate of food on his head while you pull out a chair. We advise the use of a friend who can take a joke for this one, however. Now we come to the best and most joyous part—eating the meal.

The milk bottle cap is useful in that it can be salled at whom-ever you don't like, after, of course, you have licked it off. If you are on the basketball team you will be forgiven for wadding up your napkin and shooting a basket in a nearby glass of water. When your friend's attention is centered on that blond across the way, a generous sprinkling of pepper will bring him back to your attention—or take him away in search of water. When using the catsup, do not shake it too hard, or you may add another to the collection of blotches on your tie. There is a very delightful trick going the rounds. It consists of tossing articles of food—anything from soup to nuts—high into the air and catching them with your mouth. This is especially impressive if you are with a girl friend. We warn you, however, that you should practice beforehand. When you have finished you can demand a refund for anything you have not eaten, but do not argue if you do not get it. Instead, comment on the poor quality of the food. About this time you should leave as gracefully as possible. What you don't know won't hurt you, and it is decidedly comforting that you don't know what the rest think of you.

A SENIOR ROOM VICTORIOUS IN SALE

In the recent magazine subscription selling contest conducted between the homerooms, the winner was Miss Allen's room led by Catherine Kaletsky, the room secretary. It turned in $30.50—approximately one-fifth of the grand total of $212.25 turned in by all the 23 rooms together.

The room in second place is Miss Lovewell's group with a total of $24.75; their secretary is Lilly Wikstrom. The person who obtained the most subscriptions is William Wernet from Miss Lovewell's room with 12 subscriptions. Each person who sold over two magazines had an opportunity to receive an individual prize other than that given the winning home-room.

Bananas grow upward on the stem; exactly opposite the position in which grocers hang them.

It is an expensive business to trace a family tree. It costs as much as $150 to go back 200 years on one line only.

Many storms listed as tornadoes which, as defined by the meteorologist, are small vortices in the atmosphere, occurring generally in the southeastern part of a cyclonic area.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

Herbert Campbell. Birth: He was born in Cadillac, Michigan, May 6, 1917. Description: Herb is 5 feet 10 inches in height and is unusually thin for his height. GOINGS ON AROUND P.H.S.

Lola Burich of Bay City spent Thursday with Shirley Mason. Isabelle Nairn, Virginia Stringer, Thelma Michaels, and Rita Archer met at Marjorie Knowles Friday night. They played cards and light refreshments were served. The purpose of the meeting was to form a club, but so far no name has been chosen. Margaret Erdelyi visited relatives in Lincoln Park Sunday. Ruth Kirkpatrick spent Sunday in Detroit visiting relatives. Ruth Roediger spent last weekend in Rosedale Park visiting her cousin. Lois Schaufele, Jacquelyn Schoof, Barbara Olsaver and Eye

Moon attended the Senior Prom at Northville Wednesday night. Annabelle and Betty Brown spent Friday night in Saline.

Carol Campbell, Evelyn Bower, Ingrid Ericson, and Ernestine Robinson attended the Young Peoples' convention at Lansing during Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Allen entertained Miss Gladys Nelson, a teacher in the Chicago schools, over the holidays. Miss Nelson has just returned from nearly a year in the Far East, and although she says her sympathies are with the Chinese, the Japanese have made their country much the pleasanter for tourists, by their unfeeling courtesy and their cleanliness.

Deer Hunters Must Report

Deer hunters who have not yet reported on their luck—good or bad—during the season just closed are reminded that they are required to do so under an act of the last state legislature. Those who killed bucks may not need much urging to put the fact on record, but the reports of those who came back from the northern deer areas empty-handed are equally important. Every hunter is required to fill out the report card which was attached to his license and mail it to the department of conservation before February 15. Hunters who fail to do so are committing a misdemeanor.

The act applies not alone to deer hunters, but to all hunters of big and small game, birds and fur-bearing animals, and also to trappers. The report cards attached to small game licenses inquire into the number and kind of animals and birds taken. Those on the deer and bear licenses provided for a report on both the 1936 and 1937 seasons.

Data accumulated in the reports will assist state game specialists in research work and will contribute importantly to the gaining of a more complete picture of hunting and trapping conditions throughout the state.

Production Credit Assn. To Meet

Plans for an open stockholders' meeting of the Ann Arbor Production Credit association before there is danger of snow blocking the roads were announced this week by D. J. Krelby, secretary-treasurer. The meeting will be held at Ann Arbor, Saturday, December 4.

This date has been chosen rather than the customary winter date, because it is believed there will be a larger attendance of members from distant points and also of non-member farmers and farmers' wives. There will be a special effort to have a large attendance of women and so much interest has been displayed by farmers who do not belong, the association wanted to hold its session at a time when it would be most convenient for them to attend.

In addition to a good entertainment program and short talks by local farmers, several charts will be shown indicating the growth and progress of the association from January 1 to September 30, and a special opportunity will be given for questions and discussion from the floor.

A total of 5,035,000 motor vehicles of various descriptions are used on the farms of the United States.

Plymouth Vicinity

Mrs. Robert Douglas is gaining rapidly from the appendix operation she underwent last week in Harper hospital.

Iah and Iva Spangler, whose parents have moved to a farm near the Gunther Gardens on the Ann Arbor Saline road visited their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Lower Friday.

H. C. Root was confined to his home four days last week by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Leemon and family spent Sunday with the former's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Garlock in Lansing.

Mrs. Richard Neale, at the request of the Christian Business Men's association, sang in the Howard Street City Mission Monday evening in Detroit. Mrs. Ernest Burden and Miss Alice Postiff also visited the mission.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Aldrich of Clayton, with their children were guests in the parental home on Ridge road Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root with Claude were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Putman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Neale leave again tomorrow, December 4, for Buffalo, New York, where they will do evangelistic work in the Fellowship Baptist church.

C. T. Aldrich of Clayton attended the Tuesday quarterly meeting of the District Postmasters in Detroit. Mrs. Aldrich and Mrs. J. F. Root accompanied him.

Grow Gladiolus In Your Garden

(By O. P. STANCER)
(Installation No. 3)

The selection of the proper varieties as far as various colors are concerned depends somewhat on the type of planting desired.

The modern Gladiolus is in reality a wonderful flower. Its range of color is almost unbelievable and exceeds in variety of delicate tints and shades any other popular flower. Variations in shape and form of flowers as well as habit of growth is as remarkable as the wide range of color. One is able to obtain varieties from the dwarf growing to those with spikes five and six feet tall. The diameter of the individual forets may be had from one inch in diameter to eight inches in diameter. The form of the individual foret may be of the wide open type, with recurved petals, ruffled or plain, frilled or lacinated, hooded, or with blooms resembling a beautiful butterfly floating in the breeze.

With all of this in mind you will realize the possibilities of obtaining varieties which will conform to practically any garden condition of arrangement.

It has been the custom of most gardeners as well as amateurs to plant gladiolus in long rows or in beds by themselves. Of course this makes their cultivation much easier and is an ideal arrangement where they are grown for cut flowers only.

The Gladiolus because of its versatility lends itself to combinations with other annuals or perennials. Many beautiful effects may be accomplished by such combinations. They may be used with other flowers as border plants, providing the dwarf varieties are planted. They may be grouped in such a manner as to lighten up so-called dark corners with evergreens or shrubbery as a background. Just imagine how well they would look planted against some sheltering wall.

Apparently it has taken the hunting attorneys and dentists of Plymouth to bring back the big bucks from the north woods this deer hunting season. First came Dr. Brick Champagne with a 200-pound buck he brought down while hunting up near Lake Superior. The next day after he returned from the upper peninsula, Attorney John L. Crandell, who also hunted in the upper peninsula at the Stellwagon camp near Grand Marais, came home with a big six-pointer. Those who saw it declared it was one of the largest six-pointers they had ever seen. Unfortunately, most Plymouth hunters came back with "almost got one" stories.

The superstition about ill fortune following anybody who walked under a ladder arose from the fact that when a ladder leans against a wall, it forms a triangle, symbolical of the Trinity. A laymen would feel himself debarrd from walking through so sacred an arch.

Gladiolus may be grown and good results obtained on practically any soil. They seem to show a little preference for the lighter soils, although good results have been obtained with plantings on heavy clay loam. Some growers say they will do the best on soil which will grow good potatoes or sweet corn. Heavy soil which will stay continually wet is not satisfactory for Gladiolus. They like to grow where they have thorough drainage, even though to produce exhibition blooms they may require an abundance of water while they are developing their flower spikes.

Naturally heavy soil will be much improved for Gladiolus culture by the addition of sand and very light sandy soil is much improved by the addition of loam or humus.

Best results will be obtained with Gladiolus when planted where they will receive full sun all during the day, however, they will do quite well in partial shade or in other words where they receive light shade part of the day.

They require an abundance of plant food and moisture, and naturally will not do as well when planted close to trees or hedges unless extra feedings of fertilizers and plenty of water is given them to make up for that which would be taken away from them by the trees.

The bulbs may be planted as early in the spring as the soil is fit to work. Moderate frosts after the shoots have broken the ground will do no great injury. Extremely early plantings will have the only advantage of giving you earlier blooms for cutting. Much depends on how early a Spring we have, but as a rule plantings may be started as early as the early part of April in this latitude and continued through to the first of July and still produce satisfactory blooms. Of course it is advisable to get as long a season of growth as possible on account of the production of new bulbs and bulb-lets for use the following year.

Some prefer to plant all at one time, and depend on various sizes of bulbs to give the rotation of blooms. The large bulbs will bloom first and the smaller bulbs will come into bloom later. Then too, the blooming time of the different varieties varies from sixty-five days from planting to say one hundred and ten or twenty days.

The next installment will touch on fertilizers to be used before or at the time of planting, as well as the actual preparation of the soil to receive the bulbs, and if space permits the planting of the bulbs themselves.

ST. PAUL'S EV. LUTHERAN church, Livonia Center, O. J. Peters, pastor. Services in English in this church on Sunday, December 5 at 2:30 p.m. Rehearsals for Christmas program every Saturday at 1:30 p.m. until Christmas. All children are kindly requested to be present.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Loyla Sutherland, pastor. The call next Sunday is to our communion service. The pastor's message will be on the subject, "Our Daily Bread in the Light of Heaven." Text: "Give us this day our daily bread Bible school at 11:15. Our evening service will be a combined meeting of the B.Y. P.U. and the regular church service. Our young people are sponsoring a special feature service each month and this Sunday evening, Captain Charles Thumme of the local police department will speak on the subject, "Why Young People Go Wrong and What's the Matter With Pa and Ma." We believe that every parent should hear this timely message from one who knows thoroughly that of which he will speak. Is all the blame to be laid at the door of young people in the matter of going wrong? How much of this responsibility is theirs and how much belongs to the parents? On Wednesday evening of next week, December 8 will be our next church Family Night with pot-luck supper and the quarterly business meeting of the congregation.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL church, Harvey and Maple streets. Advent Sunday. Morning prayer and sermon, 10:00 a.m. Church school, 11:15 a.m. Regular meeting of the Ladies Guild will be held at the home of Mrs. A. T. Armstrong, 525 Blunk avenue on Thursday, December 2, at 2:00 o'clock. All members please take notice that there will be no more meetings in November on account of Thanksgiving.

CATHOLIC CHURCH—Rev. F.C. Lefevre. Sundays—Mass at 8:00 and 10:00. Confessions Saturday nights at 7:30, and before each mass. Societies—The Holy Name Society for all men and young men. Communion the second Sunday of the month. The Ladies' Altar society receives Holy Communion the third Sunday of each month. All the ladies of the parish are to belong to this society. Children of Mary—Every child of the parish must belong and must go to communion every fourth Sunday of the month. Instructions in religion conducted each Saturday morning at 9:30 by the Dominican Sisters. All children that have not completed their 8th grade, are obliged to attend these religious instructions.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL—Stanford S. Closson, minister. 10:00 a.m., Family Hour — Senior church, Junior church and nursery. This arrangement provides for the whole family on Sunday morning. The object-lesson for the children will be "A Dollar Bill and a Penny—A Study in Comparative Values". The regular sermon will be upon the subject, "Single-Trackness". Music by the chorus choir. 11:30—Sunday school. Classes for all ages. 6:30, Epworth League. Special ceremony for reception of members. All young people invited. No evening service this week. Monday, 7:30, official board meets at the church. Wednesday, 12:30 luncheon meeting of the Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. I. N. Dickerson, 712 Fairground. Devotions by Mrs. Quackenbush. NEWBURG M. E. CHURCH—Clifton G. Hoffman, pastor. 10:00 a.m., morning worship; sermon topic: "The High Points of Life". 11:00, Sunday school. J. M. McCullough, superintendent. 6:00 p.m., Bible study, J. M. McCullough, leader. 7:00, Epworth League.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church. Walter Nichol, pastor. 10:00 a.m., Sunday school. 11:00 a.m., worship; 6:30 p.m., young people. Next Sunday there will be two very special services. At 11:00 a.m. the worship service will put emphasis on the messages which the windows of the church are intended to convey. The subject of the pastor's discourse is "Windows". The choir is prepared to render music fitting and inspiring. A dedication service will be held and the significance of the window designs studied. A vesper service at 4:30 p.m. will be held. At this service, which is largely musical, the organ is to be set apart for sacred uses. Miss Hanna Strasen will preside and the choir will sing. Miss Doris Hamill will play a violin solo. The donor of the organ is expected to be present. On Tuesday evening at 8:00 p.m. an organ recital will be given on the new Wicks organ by Eric Frank, organist of Highland Park Baptist church. All of these services are open to everyone who cares to attend. After the vesper service Sunday afternoon the young people will meet. Refreshments will be served and the regular Sunday evening meeting will follow. The Busy Women's class will meet at the manse Tuesday at noon. This is the annual Christmas meeting and there will be the usual interchange of small gifts. Wednesday, December 8 is to be a great day for the women of the church. At 1:45 p.m. the Woman's Auxiliary will hold a short business meeting. This will be followed at 2:30 by the presentation of a Christmas party entitled, "The Birth of a Kingdom". A group of young women will present this play on the stage in the assembly hall. Then at 3:30 p.m. the women will repair to the parlors, which have been so beautifully furnished by C. H. Rauch. There a brief service of dedication will be held to be followed by a period of social visiting and the serving of refreshments. On Sunday morning, December 12, a communion service will be held. At this time the entire membership of the church will re-dedicate themselves to God. Members will be received into the church both by letter from other churches and on confession of faith. A number will present themselves for baptism and all will partake together of the communion of the broken body and shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. All who wish to unite with this church should confer with the pastor without delay. The session is planning a visitation of the parish next week. A committee of men and women will call on all members of the church.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist—Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of twenty years. Wednesday evening testimony service. 8:00.

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, December 5.

The Golden Text, from Psalm 18: 1, 2, is: "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. There is no speech nor language; where their voice is not heard." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Psalm 148: 5, 6): "Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God: Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 264): "When we realize that Life is Spirit, never in nor of matter, this understanding will expand into self-completeness, finding all in God, good, and needing no other consciousness."

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. L. B. Stout, pastor. Sunday services: Preaching, 10:00 a.m.; Bible school, 11:15 a.m. B.Y.P.U., 6:30 p.m.; Evangelistic message, 7:30. Prayer and praise service every Wednesday night, at 7:30. Come once and you will come again.

NAZARENE CHURCH. — Robert A. North, pastor. Services: Sunday school, 10:00 o'clock; morning worship, 11:15 o'clock; N. Y. P. S., 6:30 o'clock; evening worship, 7:30 o'clock; Wednesday prayer service, 7:30 o'clock. Have you noticed a new and very fine looking structure on Pearl street? If you do not know, it is the new Nazarene church which we hope will soon be ready for the dedication service. Come and see, go and acclaim. Ecclesiastes 3: "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: . . . and a time to build up."

Start Sewer Work On Kellogg Street

Work began Monday on a sanitary sewer on Kellogg street, which is planned to extend from Wing street southerly to Tonquish Creek. Construction is being supervised by the city.

This sewer will replace the private drainage systems which have been in use by the private homes in this area and will mean a decided improvement in sanitation as well as an added convenience.

ELECTRICAL GIFTS ARE USEFUL AS WELL AS ORNAMENTAL

Gay wrappings and tinsel help to decorate a package . . . but your gift be remembered when springs rolls 'round? It will—if it's electrical! For usefulness, few things can match the ELECTRICAL Christmas gift. Day after day, year after year, it is a constant reminder of the thoughtfulness of the giver. Let the suggestions below be your shopping guide.

Floor Lamps $7.95 UP

Table Models $4.95 UP

ELECTRIC CLOCKS Silent, dependable, never requiring winding, an electric clock keeps time as accurately as a fine watch—and costs about 3 cents a month to operate! The new designs include living-room, library, bedroom and kitchen clocks, in many styles and models.

REFLECTOR LAMPS These reflector lamps are approved by the Better Vision Institute. A translucent bowl under the shade prevents glare from the bulb and diffuses the light. The Pin-It-Up lamp (upper left) is put up with an ordinary push-pin in the wall.

ELECTRIC TOASTERS The electric toaster has been an indispensable part of breakfast-getting for years. But there are probably several persons on your Christmas list who need a new one! This year's latest improvements make toasting easier and quicker.

AUTOMATIC IRONS The new electric irons have many desirable features, among them exact heat control for every type of fabric. The iron doesn't overheat or cool off.

ELECTRIC WATER HEATER Give yourself and your family the convenience and pleasure of hot water all the time. An electric water heater is completely automatic—it requires no attention whatever. It ends the annoyance of waiting for water to heat. Sixty gallons of steaming hot water cost 10c a day.

GLASS COFFEE MAKERS Drip coffee made in glass is acknowledged to have the best flavor. It is simple to prepare, without fuss or guesswork, right at the table. The glass coffee maker in an eight-cup size assures enough coffee for everybody.

DUTCH OVEN SUSAN A complete meal for six people—cooked while you are out for the afternoon—with all the recognized goodness of electric cooking, costs only 2½¢ for electricity! Dutch Oven Susan operates from an ordinary convenience outlet. It's ideal for the small apartment, summer cottage, or for preparing big dinners at home.

ELECTRIC MIXERS The electric mixer means better cooking results and takes all of the drudgery out of mixing and beating. The attachments make possible slicing and shredding, sharpening, polishing, meat grinding, etc.

TOASTER TRAY SETS The de luxe gift, that makes hospitality a pleasure and entertaining a delight! Includes automatic toaster, appetizer dishes, and richly grained tray in walnut or mahogany.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATORS An electric refrigerator today just about pays for itself in savings! It provides an endless variety of delicious frozen desserts . . . tempting sherbets, mousses, ice cream, etc., and furnishes an abundant supply of sparkling ice cubes.

Pin-It-Up Lamps $2.50 UP

Electric Clocks $2.95 UP

Electric Toasters $2.95 UP

Automatic Irons $5.95 UP

Glass Coffee Makers $4.95 UP

Electric Mixers $13.95 UP

Toaster Tray Sets $10.95 UP

Electric Water Heaters $82.50 UP

50,000 OF YOUR NEIGHBORS

YOU are shopping for a new kitchen stove and you look at two stoves, both the same price. One is an ordinary stove and one is an electric range. Which should you buy?

Outwardly, there is little difference in appearance. Both stoves are attractive, both have enamel finish, both are about the same size. Apparently, there is little to choose between them. YET THERE IS A BIG DIFFERENCE!

Electric cooking is the latest and most modern method of cooking. That is why it appeals to most of the 10,000 families in and around Detroit who have switched to electric cooking during the past year.

And today you can purchase an electric range for just about the same price you pay for an ordinary stove!

But in addition, an electric range gives you advantages you obtain in no other stove. It brings you CLEANLINESS, with pure heat from a glowing wire—heat as clean as sunlight. It brings you BETTER FLAVOR—the delicious natural flavor of meats and vegetables cooked in their own juices. It brings you healthful WATERLESS COOKING, with precious minerals and important food values sealed-in, without requiring special waterless utensils. It brings you more LEISURE—extra hours of freedom away from the kitchen. And it brings you a bright, sparkling kitchen, with less frequent need for re-decorating, and practically no scouring of cooking utensils. It is a big time-saver—of your time!

Remember these ADDED FEATURES when you go shopping for a new stove. Remember that stoves may look alike, but you pay no more for a stove with these advantages of the electric range than you do for one without them. Buy wisely . . . choose an ELECTRIC range for your kitchen!
