

Local Editor Issues Statement Declaring He Is Not Candidate For Governor, But Hits Murphy

Plymouth Editor-Legislator Says Federal Government Has Been Unfair To State With Cash

(By E. R. EATON)

Because of the fact that so many requests have come to me during the past few months from all parts of Michigan to become a candidate for Governor, it is only proper that I make public my position pertaining to the forthcoming campaign. I realize that these requests are largely due to the fact that I have regarded it my public duty, as a member of the state legislature, to call to the attention of Michigan citizens the deplorable condition of state affairs and because I have suggested ways to restore at least a semblance of decent fair government.

Naturally, anyone would like to be governor of Michigan. But I am compelled to work long hours to keep my small business going and to make enough money to pay the wages of my employees and the ever increasing tax burden. Because of these facts I do not see how I can afford to give the time for such a campaign as one would be required to make. Even if one did win the nomination, it would be necessary to oppose a candidate who can dip his hands into the biggest campaign slush fund ever dumped into the state.

The way for its use is now being paved with smooth, soft-spoken words. A subtle pre-election campaign is being conducted to make the people believe we now have an "honest government".

While the Governor is telling the people of Michigan that it is the "welfare load" which has unbalanced the state budget, he knows that if there had been the slightest attention given to the appropriate (Continued on Page Two)

Free Text Books And Mill Increase In Assessments Will Be Sought In School Election On June 13

Extra Levy Will Go Into Building And Site Fund

School district electors will be asked to decide three questions at the June 13 election, the board of education announced Tuesday. The questions will concern proposals to supply free text books and to increase the tax assessment one mill for property and building purposes.

The board's resolution, on which the voters will pass, follows:

"1. Shall school district No. 1 of Plymouth and Northville townships, Wayne county, Michigan, supply, free of charge, text-books to its pupils in grades kindergarten to eight, inclusive?"

"2. Shall the tax limitation provided in Section 21, Article X of the Constitution be increased in school district No. 1 Frl., Plymouth and Northville townships, Wayne county, Michigan for a period of one (1) year, 1938, to one and six-tenths percent of the assessed valuation of all the property in the district?"

"3. Shall school district No. 1 Frl. of Plymouth and Northville townships, Wayne county, Michigan, assess, collect, and place in the building and site fund one mill on the taxable property in said district during the year 1938?"

Only qualified voters can indicate their opinion on the subjects. On proposals one and two, only parents of children who are between the ages of five and 19 years or owners of property assessed for school taxes can vote. Each class of voters must be over 21 years old. American citizens, residents of the school district and registered voters.

On proposal three, only taxpayers can vote.

The purpose of proposal two is to make sure that it would be possible to put proposal three in effect, it was explained. Last year one man's vote could have been assessed by the voters and still remain within the 15 mill limit set by the state constitution. The board hopes that the same condition will exist this year, but for fear that there may not be a whole mill available it was thought best to provide for the part of mill needed by putting proposal two in effect.

The polls will be open for the election from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m. and the annual school meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m.

Anyone wishing to file for the office of trustee for a three-year term must file a petition signed by 50 registered voters on or before 6:00 p. m. Saturday, May 28.

Notice of the meeting of the board of registration Saturday, June 4, is carried in this issue of The Mail. Those wishing to register before the deadline can do so at the superintendent's office or with Claude Buzzard, secretary of the board of education.

All those who have registered in the last eight years will not be required to register again.

Mayflower Opens Renovated Cafe

The Hotel Mayflower opened its renovated Cafe Mayflower this week on the main floor, corner of Main street and Ann Arbor street in the space formerly occupied by the grill.

The cafe, which will be open from 11:30 a. m. to 9:00 p. m., will serve full course dinners in addition to a la carte service. The room has been re-decorated, with walls of gray rising from maroon and black baseboards to a pale blue ceiling. The windows have been equipped with venetian blinds.

The grill has been moved to the room formerly known as the coffee room. This popular rendezvous for Plymouth residents and visitors will serve breakfast, luncheon and dinner with a full variety of sandwiches and beverages from 6:30 a. m. until midnight.

Clair Mahen, manager, also urged diners to take full advantage of the parking facilities across the street from the hotel in the Ann Arbor street parking lot.

Trotting Matinee On The Fourth

At a meeting of the Northville-Wayne county fair board Monday night, approval was given for a Fourth of July racing matinee at the fair grounds under the sponsorship of the trotting race committee. Details for the event will be worked out in the immediate future, states Secretary Dayton Bunn of the board.

The directors also considered the problem of providing additional space for exhibits and stock entries. So many inquiries have been received that the board feels some action is necessary to make provision for what promises to be the greatest number of exhibits the fair ever had.

New Eating Place To Open In Newburg

Friends of A. R. Kidston and Lloyd C. Larder will be interested in the announcement in this week's issue of The Plymouth Mail that Saturday they will open a new eating place in Newburg in the old school house to be known as The Green Shutters. They are going to specialize in hot chicken sandwiches, home baked goods, and would you believe it—good, old fashioned New England baked beans, baked in the ground, just as they do down East. Their many friends hope that they make a success of their venture.

Planning Commission Recommends Employment Of Consultant To Unify City's Program in favor of employing a consultant, it was explained, was that a zoning ordinance might be established which would stand up under litigation and thereby save the city considerable money in lawsuits which might result from an ordinance faulty from a legal standpoint.

The commission recommended that Third street be paved and that use of the street and size of the two island parking ways be changed.

It was suggested that the larger island be extended 12 feet toward Adams street and that the smaller island be made twice as large to permit more extensive parking facilities. This action would cause the boulevard traffic to be regulated to one-way flow.

One of the principal motives

The recommendations, which must be approved by the city commission for action, were:

1. It was urged that a city planner consultant be engaged in order that the whole city plan might be considered in its entirety, that plans might be made for parks and improvements and that work might proceed in an orderly fashion.

Dog License Fees Will Be Due In Month Of June

Number Of Animals Will Be Checked By Police In July

Chief of Police Vaughan Smith announced this week that fees for dog licenses would be accepted beginning June 1 and continuing throughout the month.

He warned that every dog in Plymouth must be licensed as a protective measure and that the police department would make a thorough check on the number of dogs and their owners in July. Licenses purchased during June cost one dollar; thereafter the fee is $1.50.

The licenses are good for one year. The police canvass in July will be made to determine if every dog is licensed. The department maintains a complete file on all dogs in the city. Pasture treatments for persons bitten by dogs infected with rabies now can be obtained without going out of Plymouth, Chief Smith said, by arrangements with local doctors. The serum is held by the police department.

Last year there were several cases of rabies, he said, and on one occasion an infected dog bit seven persons who had to undergo the treatment for prevention. Chief Smith reminded dog owners that licenses had been issued for the last fiscal year for 109 vaccinated dogs and 217 dogs which were not vaccinated. The revenue, which amounted to about $375, was turned over to the city's general fund.

They wish to express their appreciation especially to all committee chairmen who were in charge of special booths, to Captain Thumme and the Boy Scouts, the high school for its splendid cooperation and the fine efforts of the band, to Strasen's orchestra, and to Miss Florence Stader for her entertaining scissor silhouettes.

The committees deeply appreciate the fine spirit of friendliness evidenced on every side, and feel sure that all those who worked for the success of the hobby show will be doubly repaid in the rewards of interest and in the inspiration created.

Miss Buzzard Wins Scholarship

Miss Doris Buzzard, Plymouth high school junior, who recently won honors for this city in state debating contests through her successes, has won a speech scholarship for the summer term at the University of Denver. She is one of 20 girls throughout the United States to be awarded this distinction.

She has the choice of specializing in either dramatic or debating phases of public speech and she has decided upon the first.

These awards are made only to high school junior students and to win one of the scholarships is an outstanding distinction. She plans to leave for Denver as soon as the school term in Plymouth ends, returning in the fall to complete her high school work.

Butter And Egg Man Goes In River

It wasn't just scrambled eggs, but foaming eggs that for a few minutes boiled Tuesday afternoon in the waters of the Rouge river just below the falls in the stream at Phoenix. A Detroit "butter and egg" man, hurrying to Detroit with a truck load of eggs, declares that the wheels of his truck locked and he went down the 20-foot embankment into the river just below the bridge. He was driving towards Plymouth. The truck landed in the middle of the stream. He swam to shore, receiving only minor injuries in the crash. The half submerged truck was, late in the afternoon, pulled from the water as several hundred watched.

Lumbering Days In Wayne County Are Not Yet Over

Wayne county's seven sawmills produce about 350,000 board feet of lumber per year, it is revealed in a survey of lower Michigan's timber industry recently completed by Prof. Willett F. Ramsdell, of the University of Michigan's School of Forestry and Conservation.

The mills of the county employed 15 men for a total of 382 man days for the year 1935, which was covered by the study, according to Professor Ramsdell. The production for that year, he found, was approximately 94 percent of the county's average for a recent five year period.

Red Oak led the list of species produced by Wayne county with a total of 124,000 board feet. It was followed by hard maple, with 42,000 board feet, and elm, with 39,000 board feet.

Hobby Show Is Big Success

The Plymouth Civic committee and the hobby show committee wishes to thank all those whose efforts made the hobby show such a wonderful success.

They wish to express their appreciation especially to all committee chairmen who were in charge of special booths, to Captain Thumme and the Boy Scouts, the high school for its splendid cooperation and the fine efforts of the band, to Strasen's orchestra, and to Miss Florence Stader for her entertaining scissor silhouettes.

Alumni Banquet Friday, June 24

Friday evening, June 24, has been fixed as the date for the annual Plymouth high school alumni association banquet, according to President Stephen Horvath, who spent the week-end at the home of his parents in this city. Mr. Horvath, who is employed in Detroit, states that the officials hope to make this year's event just the kind of a reunion that all of the former graduates will enjoy. The program has not yet been completed, he states, but it will be announced soon.

He is anxious to be advised as to any changes of addresses of high school graduates and requests former students to write at 2605 West Grand Boulevard, Detroit, if they know of any changes that have been made in the past year.

Will Discuss Traffic Problem

With the hopes of securing a consistent and fair enforcement of traffic regulations at all times, not spasmodic enforcements of the law, President Stanley Corbett of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce at the Monday noon luncheon appointed a committee to consult with proper city officials pertaining to the question.

The committee consists of Stewart Dodge as chairman, Fred D. Schrader and Harry Lush.

It is the desire of the organization, it was stated, to secure if possible an enforcement of the traffic laws that will not be objectionable to the public, but still will bring about a general observance of traffic regulations. It is the hope also to bring about some sort of a plan that will result in a general acceptance by the public of traffic laws without the inflictment of penalties for revenue only.

BOARD OF REVIEW

Plymouth Will Honor Its War Dead In Extensive Two-Day Program Of Memorial Day Services

Please Do Not Forget!

There have been several contributions received at The Mail office towards the purchase of building material so that kindly neighbors can help Harry Graham build a shelter for his four little step-children left motherless by the fire which destroyed their home recently. It will be recalled that the mother perished in the flames. But many more dollars are needed. What the father is doing is one of the finest things that any man ever did. Will you not please contribute something to help carry the entire burden? If you do not act in this way, and if he is not able to build a little new home in the place of the one that burned, the children will have to be placed in some public institution and YOU will have to bear their entire support. But why do that, when such a good step-father as Harry Graham is willing to carry the entire burden? If you will but just give him a little lift over the hill he is now climbing.

School Board Gets Option For Sale Of Leach Home

$12,000 Price Set For Proposed Site Of Addition

The Board of Education announced Tuesday that it had obtained an option on the former Leach place, now owned by Mrs. William Wood, which is adjacent to the Plymouth high school.

Should the board take up the option the price would be $12,000. The site, the board explained, would furnish ample room for expansion which is needed badly at the present time.

The board now has a request placed with the Federal Government for consideration of an additional two-acre site should be granted, a suitable site, such as the Leach place, would be required in order to have the addition constructed.

Under a WPA project, it was said, the present property could be made to supply six additional class rooms and more than double the capacity for girls' physical training facilities.

More Honors Come To Miss Schultz

Miss Katherine Schultz was initiated into Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary speech society, last Friday evening at a formal banquet at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor. She was one of seven students admitted to the Michigan chapter of the society and was eligible for membership because of her participation in inter-collegiate debates against the University of Indiana, the University of Illinois, and Purdue University. Delta Sigma Rho has chapters in 72 colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Before her graduation from Plymouth high school in 1935, Miss Schultz was active in debating and oratorical work under Mr. Latture and Miss Walldorf. At the University of Michigan she was the first freshman woman ever to be a member of the varsity debate team.

Construction On Tonquish Drain Will Start In 30 to 60 Days; Condemnation Suits Filed

Expect Early Action On Important $54,000 Project

Work will begin within 30 to 60 days on the long-delayed Tonquish Creek project. Herald Hamill, civil engineer, said Tuesday following filing in Probate Court, Detroit, of a petition for a friendly hearing on condemnation of two parcels of property through which the drain runs.

The court will appoint three commissioners to view the property, which is vacant, and award damages if they deem such action necessary, Hamill said. The commissioners will report to the court probably within one to two months.

Walter Nichol To Be Speaker In Rites At Presbyterian Church

Plymouth will pay tribute to its war dead with extensive services over Memorial day weekend.

The program was completed this week with the announcement that the Rev. Walter Nichol, pastor of the Presbyterian church, would be the speaker at services to be held at the church at 11:00 a. m. Sunday.

The Ex-Service Men's club has announced that it will hold a special Memorial day commemoration meeting at Jewell and Bleich hall at 10:00 a. m. Sunday after which the veterans will march to the Presbyterian church for services.

The Memorial day program Monday will feature an address by City Attorney Arlo Emery, high ranking official of the United States reserve army.

The program will be held under the auspices of the Ex-Service Men's club and Beals post of the American Legion and will conclude at 1:00 a. m. Monday in Kellogg park.

Daughters of America are requested to meet at the high school at 9:30 Monday forenoon so they may join in the Memorial day parade.

Monday will feature the program will march to the park by way of Main street. William Renner will be the grand marshal. Sterling Eaton will serve as master of ceremonies.

The national anthem accompanied by the high school band. Mayor Hendorp will introduce the speaker of the day, Mr. Emery.

Following there will be a musical program by the high school octette and the band and a reading of the Gettysburg Address by Annabelle Brown.

The solemn echoes of taps and a benediction by Captain Alder will bring Plymouth's Memorial day services to a close as the veterans solemnly place wreaths in honor of Plymouth fighters who lost their lives in the service of their country.

Legion Meeting Big Success

Blue and white sicken banners of a score of American Legion posts in Oakland and Wayne counties were massed with the red, white, and blue "Old Glory" in Kellogg park last Sunday, making the 17th district American Legion convention, a colorful event.

Sunshine and warm weather favored the Legionnaires who had invited state officers from various cities in Michigan to appear on the program which followed memorial services and an exhibition drill by the Cook Nelson Drum and Bugle corps of Pontiac. Delegates came from Lapeer, Kalamazoo, Holland, Jackson, Detroit and numerous smaller cities and towns.

Fort Dearborn Post was represented by its drum and bugle corps whose maneuvers were a feature at the barbecue party held at the Guthrie farm on Newburg road in the afternoon.

All members of Plymouth's Myron Beals Post served on the committees which fed 800 people with remarkable efficiency. Members of the Women's Auxiliary greeted the guests and assisted with the entertainment. So many letters of appreciation have reached Melvin Guthrie, general chairman of the day, that 17th district officers plan to hold similar outings annually in May. The Legion members are most appreciative of all that was done to make the event so successful.

Club Doubles Membership

Floyd Swartz gave an inspiring address on "Economics and The Townsend Plan" before a large and enthusiastic audience Monday evening.

The local club has accomplished what it had pledged itself to do in 60 days. The next meeting will be Monday, May 30, 8:00 p. m. in the Grange hall. Clinton C. DeWitt will be the speaker and the public is cordially invited.

Local Editor Issues Statement

tion bills during the last regular session of the state legislature, state finances would not be in the mess they are now. Time and again, during the session, his administration was warned, not only by myself but by George Thompson, former budget director, that if the wild and careless appropriations for department job holders were not stopped, the state was headed directly for the financial chaos in which it now finds itself.

Due to his supine policy, the legislature that he controlled created a condition whereby political office holders get the tax dollars instead of those in need.

The state budget was out of balance before the welfare load went up. The Governor's own statements, made nearly a year ago when he said he was attempting to "balance" the budget, verifies this statement.

Michigan, by the end of Governor Murphy's first term, will be not $20,000,000, but nearly $30,000,000 in debt. That debt is more than it cost to run the entire state government a dozen years ago.

Already appropriations made for next year are being spent to keep the job holders going, while our aged people are being cut from their pensions or the sum paid to them is reduced to such a small amount that they receive is barely sufficient to keep body and soul together.

Why, in the name of decency, hasn't he demanded from the federal government, not $40,000,000, but $400,000,000 to help Michigan out of the plight he has brought upon us? The federal government, during the past three or four years, has reached into the pockets of Michigan taxpayers for something like $764,000,000. This money has been used by Washington politicians for political purposes in some 28 or 29 other states, which are nowhere near as serious a plight as Michigan. Some of these states that have been "sweetened" with tax dollars taken from Michigan have received from the federal treasury from two to nearly sixty times as many dollars as they have paid into the federal treasury. Michigan has received back the miserly ratio of about 50 cents on the dollar.

Still Governor Murphy runs around the state chattering over his "success" in getting aid from the federal government for Michigan to be spent, not for the good of all the people who need it, but as politicians shall deem best in order to get the votes.

The present state administration's promise to "liberalize" the payment of old age pensions has been "liberalized" only for the handful of the money appropriated for the old people. So desperate is the situation of some of our aged citizens that they are praying to God to end their wretched and hopeless plight. State aid to them is but a mockery. The present administration of the old age pension fund will forever remain as one of the blackest and cruelest chapters in Michigan history.

Like the Kick-a-poo Indian medicine man who traveled about the state years ago selling a quack medicine that he said would cure any ailment suffered by man, the Governor, possessed of the same kind of a voice as the white Kick-a-poo medicine man, is telling the people that his "reforms" have brought about "honest" government in his "build-up" for the fall election.

Does he call the Christmas eve raid on the liquor warehouse, when vast loads of state owned booze were peddled among high state officials to be used by them for Christmas "cheer", something that could happen under an "honest government"?

Does he call his action in demanding the removal of a group of college girls from a state owned rooming house at East Lansing, so that he can move his relatives into the place, good government?

Does he call the payment of double salaries from different state funds to his political henchmen anything but approval of "graft within the law"?

Does he call the padding of a purchase order for more than a whole train-load of booze, good government?

Does he call the stealing of mail that was believed to contain money, addressed to one of the state departments, for which no one has been punished, honest government?

Does he call the overloading of state payrolls by 2000 more people than are needed to do the work, honest government?

Does he call it good government to force the widowed motherhood of Michigan into pauperization before they can receive mothers' pensions so that fatherless boys and girls can be reared in decency and under the guidance of loving mothers?

But what does a Governor, who never paid a real tax of any kind in his life, care about these things? Nothing, just as long as he can go out, as did the Kick-a-poo Indian medicine man of former days, and with a "smooth" voice sell his quack nostrums to a people who believe that they are sick.

What can one expect from a Governor who, one day, advocated what he called the "perfect" labor bill, demanded that his subservient legislature pass it, and then, the next day, branded the measure as without merit by placing his own veto upon it? Is not such vacillating conduct as this indicative of a mind barely strong enough to even run a peanut stand?

He talks about the "central government" in his discussions of a "re-organized" state government. The "central government" is the government of the dictator where those who favor it live in luxury and do the ordering while the people do the goose-stepping. Do you want that in Michigan?

How can any high official talk about honest government, who participated in and will be a beneficiary of such a notorious hi-jacking scheme as was the banquet last winter when minor public officials were stuffed with "boneless squab" and then forced to pay $25 towards the forthcoming gigantic campaign slush fund to be used to keep the Governor in office?

He is now "pleading" with the supporters of civil service to come to the defense of the measure. If there is any "sabotaging" of the act, as he claims, it is all because no one trusts its administration in his hands. It was with his known connivance that his legislative state affairs committee drilled the rat-holes in the present act that permits political manipulation.

In the face of all these facts and in the face of all the many other miserable things that have happened in Michigan during the past one and one-half years, how can any man have the nerve to run around and talk about honest government?

There is no question but what the chief aim of the political job holders is to stagnate business just before elections, compel the unemployed people to seek jobs through welfare organizations and thereby control their votes. Let me tell these political tricksters one thing—the good people they have forced to take these WPA jobs are not going to be so easily fooled this year. Large numbers of them have told me personally what they are going to do when it comes to voting.

"Pump priming" is needed, but not just before election time. Decency and common sense should direct that it be spread out over a long period of time, with steady employment for all who are in need. Then, too, the expenditure of these funds should be under the direction of public officials who are not the Charlie McCarthys controlled by the honor graduate of Tammany Hall.

The writer fully realizes that the issues of this campaign are not political party issues. The issues are between a greedy horde of political job holders headed by the Governor, peddling out to the people of the state a lot of quack nostrums, on one side. On the other side are the honest workers, the farmers; the small business men, the middle classes, who believe in good government, but who have never deemed it essential to band themselves together to fight the rule of the politicians. That time has arrived. Any of the other candidates in the field is far more preferable than the present Governor.

RAMBLING with Editors AROUND of Michigan

WE GIVE UP

Again the writer of this column confesses to an utter and complete lack of understanding of the economies of this new day. Again the reader is reminded that the writer was reared on a farm where industry and thrift were practiced and where there was plenty to eat. The philosophy of scarcity had not yet been conceived, much less was it practiced. No matter what else the times offered, no matter how little the family purse contained in the way of cash, the mows were filled with hay; the cribs with good sound corn; the bins with wheat for bread, and with oats for the spring plowing; seed corn was selected and cured; the cellars were filled with potatoes and winter vegetables and apples; and mother saw to it that there were plenty of canned fruits, jams, jellies and preserves to break the monotony of the table. Hogs might be terribly cheap, but fresh pork and pancakes made a great meal.

Of course the groceries had to be purchased from the tash received from butter and eggs—very good housewife managed that part of the household affairs—and usually saved out enough now and then for a bit of calico or gingham. Some time we thought mother a little tight with her eggs and cream, but of course she knew best.

So as mentioned above, it seems just about impossible for one brought to maturity under those conditions and with that philosophy, to grasp the full meaning of all this modern thought—farm relief and the normal granary and welfare aid. The normal granary in the nineties contained every bushel the old farm would produce to be marketed in due time to meet the necessities of the family. But never did the good farmer of that day sell himself short of seed or bread or breeding stock.

Two Washington dispatches were given prominence in the daily press recently. Both were dated May 7. One told of how some Washington fellows had decided that Michigan has been growing too many potatoes when we know that at this very moment both Idaho and Maine potatoes dominate the market right here in Mason. Records made public by the United States department of agriculture show that an average acreage devoted to raising potatoes in the states for the years between 1928 and 1932 was 3,327,000 acres. Government bosses have decided this is too many potatoes so have ordered the crop cut to 3,100,000 acres. For some reason, Michigan is being cut from an acreage of 278,000 planted in 1937 to 150,000 this year, a much greater reduction than is imposed on the country at large. At a time when thousands of industrial workers are getting out of the cities into the country in an attempt to keep their families from going hungry, this restriction will result in extreme hardship.

But this is not all. The second Washington dispatch tells us that Mr. Hopkins, another Washington expert, sees unemployment at a new high peak next winter with upwards of twenty million persons on relief and with more than three million more on WPA.

Put these two situations together, you farmers, and see if they make sense. Twenty millions on the dole. Three millions on made work projects financed at public expense. Thousands wanting to go back to the farm to raise potatoes and corn, the only two quick crops which will produce food for Michigan families, and then being told they can raise neither without penalty.

Taxing farmers to support millions on welfare and not permitting them to raise crops to raise taxes. Taxing the few workers left on the job to feed those who have no work or will not work and then sending the price of foodstuffs to artificial levels so as to take more of his pay envelope to supply his own table and more for taxes to supply other tables.

We say again, and we confess, we cannot follow this new idea in crop control when one set of regimenters is working directly in opposition to others. — Vernon J. Brown in The Ingham County News.

WHAT THE ROOSEVELT DEPRESSION HAS DONE

The special Congressional unemployment and relief committee has made a report to the effect that more than 17,314,000 persons, or about fourteen percent of the entire population of the United States now receive relief in one form or another. According to the committee there are about 12,870,000 unemployed at the present time. The committee will continue to study the unemployment and relief situation and for the time being recommends against any changes in the relief policies.—Robert Gifford in The Eaton Rapids Journal.

Has Your Wife Ten Hats

Many women have from five to ten hats in their wardrobes, five or more pairs of shoes, several handbags and pairs of gloves. These are all necessary for proper ensembles. Yet that same wife will try to make a single pair of "glasses" do for all purposes! There is a style factor to be considered. Both men and women recognize a certain "fitness" in dress. Sport clothes have their place—more formal matters require other attire. How is it that a man or woman will place in a most prominent position, a pair of glasses that is practically disfiguring? How is it that a man will have 8 to 10 golf clubs in his bag, but will try to play golf with the same lens correction that he needs for close work at his desk? These economies would be funny if they were not so handicapping to the enjoyment of life. It is actually dangerous for many people to try to "get along" with their reading glasses. The correction that is proper for the close work of reading may be doing damage to the visual mechanism when looking at objects far away. In most cases there is no such thing as an "all purpose" lens. Appearance demands an end to the disfiguring "bicycle tire" frames, and seeing efficiency is badly hampered by trying to make one power of lenses suit all kinds of visual tasks. It is well to keep in mind that seeing is a kind of work—work for the nerves and for the brain. The more work you load on your visual system—the less profitable work your brain can do. The steam that is blowing the whistle can't run the train!

"The quality, service and economy of the De Luxe Ford V-8 are without parallel in any car on the market in the low-price field today."

JOHN W. JACKSON

"This is the sixth V-8 that I have purchased. I buy one each year and want to congratulate you on the fact that each one has been an improvement."

MEL J. FEYS

"For the past ten years I have been driving more expensive cars. I did not know how I would like a lower priced car, but am very pleased at my decision. There is, in my opinion, no car on the market that equals the 1938 De Luxe Ford V-8, either in beauty or comfort, and every one knows of its power."

FRANK CALDER

The De Luxe Ford V-8 is a big, stylish and roomy car—with a large, convenient luggage compartment. Its economy is in keeping with the Ford tradition. In short, everything about this car is as luxurious as its famous V-type 8-cylinder engine. That's why the De Luxe Ford V-8 sets an entirely new standard of quality in the low-price field. One brief spell at the wheel will show you what "V-8 quality" means!

Garden City Loses 10 Inning Fight

Garden City lost a close decision to the Northville Merchants in a 10-inning battle by the score of 3-2. Dinty Moore pitched the entire game for Northville and limited the locals to seven scattered hits. With good support Moore would have finished the game without being scored upon. Leo Fowler hurled for Garden City and allowed but five hits but got into trouble because of wildness in the second inning when a walk and a hit batsman set the stage for a Northville rally. A double and single followed to give Northville the advantage.

Garden City scored a run in the seventh inning when Roy Wolfram was safe on Deal's error. Hill struck out, but Scott, batting for Smith, hit to the box but Wolfram beat the throw to second when a mix-up occurred as from Moore. Bud Johnson walked and Fowler popped. At this point Roy Wolfram stole home to give Garden City its first tally of the game.

Garden City tied the score in the ninth when Ace Hill led off with a double. Scott grounded out, but Bud Johnson lined a single to right field to tie the score.

Garden City's hopes were short lived when Northville scored a run when Fowler hit Moore with a pitched ball, when two were out. Moore stole second and scored on Deal's single to right field.

Johnny O'Brien, Garden City's ace short stop and leading hitter, who has been out with an injured leg, will be back at his position when Garden City journeys to Hamburg to play them in the third game of the season. On Monday, Decoration day, Garden City will play Belleville at Garden City. Both games will start at 3:00 o'clock.

Perfection Taken For A "Ride"

The first place River Rouge team defeated Perfection Laundry 6 to 3 in last Sunday's game.

James Bixter pitched eight-hit ball and struck out 10 but still the laundry team went down.

Towshack led the local boys by collecting three out of four while R. Urbansk and Trinka got two out of four.

Barnes robbed River Rouge of a couple of hits by his good fielding.

Next Sunday and Monday the local Perfection Laundry team will play host to the league leaders, Cass Benton, while on Monday Hamburg will be the local attraction. For the late summer-ers the Perfection Laundry team is managed by Peter Tonkovich and Ray Levandowski.

Russ Egloff Hurls No-Hit Game

On Thursday, May 19, the Plymouth Mail team played a shut out game with the Fleetwing team. Both teams seemed to be at their best, the Fleetwing team allowing only five hits and two runs. Kenneth Fisher, Fleetwing pitcher, allowed no bases on balls and struck out only one man, but he had good support from the entire team.

Russ Egloff, Plymouth Mail pitcher, allowed four bases on balls, but was able to strike out 11 men in the six innings that he pitched and Elliott, who pitched the first inning, struck out one and allowed one man a base on balls. He also allowed the only hit that Fleetwing was able to get. The final score was 2-0.

The entire week has been a week of exciting games. The game that was scheduled to play Friday, May 20, was played Monday, May 16 between Peters' Shoes and Schrader. Results: Schrader, 8 runs, 14 hits; Peters' Shoes, 2 runs, 4 hits.

Schrader Defeats Wyandotte Team

The Schrader-Haggerty baseball team of Plymouth defeated the St. Stanislaus team of Wyandotte, Sunday afternoon, at Plymouth Riverside park by the score of 6-4.

George Molnar's pitching was highly responsible for the victory, allowing eight hits and striking out 11 of the opposing batters, in going the full nine innings.

Art Superko, former University of Michigan baseball team captain and later playing with the Toledo Mud Hens, kept the large crowd that gathered to watch the game, in laughter and a continuous uproar with his clever clowning baseball antics. Manager Schomberger announced that he has signed Superko to a contract for the season and that he will act in the role of coach and utility infielder as well.

Next Sunday afternoon the team will travel to River Rouge where they will encounter the fast Kales and Whitehead team of that city. This will be the third game of the league schedule. To date, the team has a .500 team standing, losing to Trenton in the opening game and defeating Wyandotte last Sunday. Manager Schomberger wishes

Thousands Watch Gliders In Action

Several thousand persons, many of them from Detroit, gathered at the Triangle airport over last week-end to watch five gliders in operation. Chief of Police Vaughan Smith said Mr. Smith has leased the airport to the Detroit Gliders' Council.

The gliders are pulled by automobiles until they reach a height of about 700 feet, he said, when they are released. They remain in the air about 15 to 40 minutes and reach an altitude in that time of several thousand feet.

The gliders will be in operation largely during the week-ends throughout the summer.

SOME THINGS MAY BE STOPPED— BUT NOT WINDSTORMS!

They sweep down from the sky with no warning, wrecking buildings, killing livestock and smashing farm tools. There's no stopping a windstorm!

The only protection from damage a property owner has is to carry adequate windstorm insurance. This old mutual company has paid millions of dollars to its policyholders whose property has been destroyed by windstorms.

Over a half-century of prompt, efficient service. Losses paid every year since 1892—45 years—saving many a property owner from near financial ruin.

Plymouth Wins Outstanding Recognition in Air Mail Week Observance

PONY EXPRESS IN 1938

—On Flying Hoofs—

THE PONY EXPRESS ON A MODERN HIGHWAY

The pony express ariding—with many an old-timer waiting in Plymouth to cheer lustily when Elmer E. Perrin dashed up with his sack of mail from Northville. Even the pony realized the importance he had in portraying the fine traditions of the United States mail and pranced.

THE OLD STAGE COACH and team Mr. Henry Ford sent over from Dearborn to Plymouth to take part in the anniversary observance of the inauguration of air mail service. Harry Robinson is the driver of the team and Elmer Perrin, Northville mail carrier, is the rider on the horse. The picture was taken in front of the postoffice.

LOADING THE MODERN PLANE TO CARRY AIR MAIL

Loading the plane with the sacks of mail brought by pony express and stage coach from Plymouth and Northville. The history of the mail was portrayed in the three phases as an emphasis of the National Air Mail Week.

Postmaster

a town of comparative size to Plymouth in the nation.

While there has been much commendation of Postmaster Frank Learned and his assistant, Ernest Henry, of the postal staff, who was delegated the responsibility of working out the details, by citizens of the community because of the success of the event, they, too, are most appreciative of the active cooperation that they received. Both have requested The Mail to express their appreciation to every one who had anything to do with making the event such an outstanding one.

Plymouth won, nation-wide recognition for the manner in which it celebrated Air Mail Week, and pictures of the event were distributed widely. Plymouth dramatized the occasion with a pageant of progress in mail collection and distribution.

Air mail from Northville was brought to Plymouth by pony express. It was loaded aboard an old stage coach lent to Harry Robinson, especially for the occasion, by Henry Ford from his Greenfield Village collection.

A spirited span of horses drew the coach to Triangle airport where Cass S. Hough took the mail in his own plane to Detroit City airport.

He became the first pilot to fly air mail direct from Plymouth. Cheering crowds at both the postoffice and the flying field met the arrival of the mail.

Township Fire Calls To Be Continued

City Commissioner Ruth E. Whipple said Tuesday that the action of the city commission last week in refusing to guarantee fire protection to property adjacent to the city limits was not to be misconstrued to the effect that the fire department would not answer calls out of the city limits.

The department will answer all calls in the township, Mrs. Whipple said, as has been the custom, but first consideration will be given to protection of property within the city limits.

Plymouth Vicinity

The last day of school in the Geer district was set aside for social activities. In the afternoon, the teacher, Mrs. Melvin Stacy, and the pupils repaired to the park where a happy afternoon was spent. In the evening, Mrs. Stacy and the pupils welcomed the parents and interested friends to see a very splendid exhibit of their year's work—an exhibit, of which both teacher and pupils may well be proud. Many patrons went away saying they never had seen an exhibit to equal it. A pleasant social time was followed with the serving of ice cream and cake.

Mrs. H. C. Root and her son, Claude, went as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stacy, Thursday evening, to Ann Arbor to attend the rural music festival of Washtenaw county, held in the Hill auditorium.

Miss Mary Power of Detroit was a recent Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root, and called on the other Root cousins. Miss Power has just returned from visiting relatives in California and Colorado.

Beverly Ross is recovering nicely from an attack of both whooping cough and measles. The quarantine will be removed at the week-end, and Betsey, her sister, allowed to return home.

The figure was the largest for any town of the size of Plymouth in the entire state and amounted to five times the bulk of air mail distributed from Ann Arbor, postoffice officials said.

It was recommended that Centennial park across from Starkweather school should no longer be used as a playground and that the playground equipment should be moved away.
The purpose, advocates said, was to a beauty park for more general use than a playground. However, it was pointed out that mothers still might bring their children to play in the park but that it would be discontinued as a playground, if the plan was adopted.

It was further suggested in this connection that Holbrook street be opened to traffic as there would be no need to keep it closed for a beauty park although it was necessary to close it off as a safety measure as long as the park was a playground.
The recommendations made by the planning commission require approval of the city commission before they can go into effect. The planning commission is composed of J. M. Bennett, Maud Bennett, Elton R. Eaton, Lisle Alexander, F. R. Hoehsel, George Burr, J. W. Bickenstaff, Mrs. Mark Chaffee and Sidney D. Strong.

The county drain commissioner will ask for private bids on the construction on the covered part of the creek after the court concludes condemnation procedure, Hamill said. The rest of the work will be done under WPA supervision.
About $9,000 will be spent to employ WPA laborers alone and Hamill estimates that 1,500 man days will be required to complete the WPA section of the project. The contract project will be largely machine work.
Hamill said that work would be started as soon as possible after the legal procedure clears the way for condemnation of the land and awarding of the covered-section contract.

Training School Has "Model Home"

A new model home has just been completed at the Wayne County Training school. It is to be used in the domestic science training of the girl inmates. Equipped with the most modern devices for lightening the housewife's tasks, it will play a big part in the rehabilitation of the minds of the girl inmates. An interesting note is that all the equipment, such as washing machines, ironers, vacuum cleaners, etc., are all Detroit made implements.
James Ritchie, assistant purchasing agent, for Wayne county, waxed eloquent when telling of the good work accomplished at the training school in the rehabilitation of its inmates and their restoration to society as useful citizens. Jimmie's work includes the selection and purchase of everything used at the training school.

Yes Sir, There's An Alligator Living In Newburg Lake

Howard Stark, manager of the A & P store, might drink a bottle of ginger ale or pop now and then, but nothing else. So when he saw an alligator out in Newburg lake the other day when he was trying out a new casting reel, one just has to believe what he says.
"Why, it was not less than three feet long. It swam up to the shore near where I was and started to crawl out on the bank, but when I gave a war whoop it slowly crawled back in the lake and swam away under the water," declared Mr. Stark.
This is not the first time an alligator has been reported to be living in Newburg lake. Last year a Detroit fisherman reported seeing an alligator up near the boathouse.

Head G-Man Commends Chief Smith For Opinion On Modern Police Work

America's head G-Man, J. Edgar Hoover, has written a letter to Chief of Police Vaughan Smith commending him on his expressions of the belief that brains are needed for modern police work and that the "dumb cop is outmoded," as quoted in a Detroit newspaper article and re-published throughout the country.

The letter, dated from the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Washington, said:

"Dear Chief—My attention has been called to a newspaper article wherein you were quoted as having indicated that police work should be raised to a professional standard, that brains are needed to do this work and that the 'dumb cop is outmoded.'"

"This quotation appeared as an International News Service dispatch in the Washington Times for April 21, 1938, and I felt that you would be interested in learning of the recognition which was being given to your comments.

"With assurances of my best wishes and highest regards, I am sincerely yours, (Signed) J. Edgar Hoover."

Chief Smith was one of the first municipal officers in the country to enroll at the Federal training school for police officers at Washington which was conducted by the Bureau of Investigation, under direction of Mr. Hoover.

To Help Farmers Market Crops

Growers of Wayne county were interested in appointment of John C. Ketcham of Hastings, former master of the Michigan Grange and former Michigan member of Congress, as special agricultural counsel to obtain national distribution of Michigan-grown food products through chain stores.

"The possibilities of actually doing something else constructive for Michigan producers in this new field struck me as so well worth while that I have decided to devote my time and study of Michigan products to see how they can fit into national markets on a broader scale than they are doing today," Mr. Ketcham said in a dispatch.

"Michigan has wonderful possibilities. Our farm production is high. We need some little straightening up in our regulations of production, but primarily we need markets for our goods. I see in chain store national distribution an opportunity for Michigan farmers such as has been experienced by citrus growers of the West, catfish men and raisin and other commodities. With the co-operation of Michigan farmers I see no reason why we cannot make definite strides forward."

Mr. Ketcham will serve as special counsel for the Michigan chain stores bureau at Lansing, of which former Senator W. F. Doyle is manager.

Before and during his 12 years service representing the people of the fifth Michigan district in Washington, Mr. Ketcham has been active in agricultural work. From 1912 to 1920 he served as master of the Michigan Grange. From 1916 to 1930 he was lecturer of the National Grange. It was during that period that he formulated several progressive plans that later were enacted into federal law on behalf of farming interests.

In 1918 he was instrumental with other agricultural friends in bringing into existence what is still known as the fifty-fifty sugar beet contract whereby an amicable profit sharing plan was arrived at between Michigan sugar beet growers and producers. The contract is still effective.

Later as a member of Congress, he collaborated with Senator Capper of Kansas in the Capper-Ketcham bill which required that all foreign alfalfa and clover seed shipped into the country be stained so as to distinguish it from domestic seed. This bill has been credited by many Michigan growers with raising the standard of Michigan clover and alfalfa and bringing this state well to the top in the production of these crops.

The Gooding-Ketcham bill also enacted under his co-sponsorship made federal funds available for conducting work in the 4-H clubs as well as making direct appropriation for home economics work that is now so widely practiced in farming regions. Several other agricultural moves of state and national importance are to the credit of the former Hastings congressman and state officer. Mr. Ketcham served as state insurance commissioner in 1935 and 1936, retiring when the present administration assumed office.

"The willingness of John Ketcham to make this study for us and for the farmers of Michigan is a tribute to him, a valuable asset to Michigan farm producers and an adjunct to chain store distribution that will have far reaching results and lasting effect," Mr. Doyle said when he announced the appointment.

Newman Brothers Beat Northville

The Rocks won an easy victory over the Northville aggregation here last Wednesday, May 18, under the leadership of Hamilton Newman on the pitching mound and his brother, Larry, behind the plate. It was Ham's first start since the first game of the season, when he was blasted from the hill in the third inning. He allowed only six hits and struck out nine. Northville also featured a brother act, with M. Wolf catching and Kenneth Wolf playing second base.

Each side got one run in the first. That of Northville was the gift of Bud Krumm, who dropped a good peg to first. The runner advanced on a wild pitch and catcher's choice, and scored on a late throw to the plate. Plymouth's run was caused by Ham Newman took two bases when Balko, Northville third-sacker threw away his grounder, but was strapped and run down between second and third when Hoffman failed to sacrifice. Wes walked and talked on successive singles by Leach and Darnell. The Rocks took the lead in the second, and kept it the rest of the way. Folsom walked and was forced by Larry Newman, who took second when Kenneth Wolf threw wildly to first. George Houghton crashed a double down the left field foul-line, scoring Larry, and took third on Ham Newman's single. Garchow loaded the bases by passing Hoffman and walked a run in by walking Hitt. Darnell cleared the bases with a hefty two-bagger to left and Plymouth though she loaded the bases with none out in the fifth on Larry Newman's single, a pass, and an error, had finished her scoring. Northville finished its scoring in the third, when singles by Gotro, Ken Wolf, and Holcomb, a pass and an error scored Northville's last runs. The score remained at 6-4 the remainder of the contest.

Notable in fielding efforts were Houghton's running catch of Garchow's fly and Krumm's spearing of wild throws to first. Outstanding at bat were Leach, with three singles in four attempts, and Houghton, who took two doubles in three tries. Kenneth and Peter Northville with two singles in three trips to the plate.

Harold Leach is leading the Rocks in hitting with a batting average of .419, while Wes Hoffman is just behind him with a .417 percentage. The others following in this order: Houghton, .400; Hitt, .381; Hovey and Waterman, .333; Krumm, .314; Ham Newman, .310; Folsom, .211; Darnell, .210; Martin, .184; Robinson, .182; Larry Newman, .167; and Bassett, .000. Ned May, who was badly injured in the first week of the season, had a perfect average.

NINE LOSES TIGHT GAME TO ROUGE

In a hard-fought contest at River Rouge last Thursday, May 19, Plymouth lost an early lead through costly errors and got the wrong end of a 4-2 score to split the season's games with Rouge. Bob Hitt, who allowed only one hit in beating Rouge two weeks ago, held the victors' to six hits but his mates let him down by garnering only four hits and two runs off Settles, Rouge ace.

Plymouth took the lead in the second on a single by Leach and a triple by Darnell, one of the longest hits of the game. Bill scored as Krumm grounded out. Larry Newman singled after Folsom flied to center, but the hit was wasted. Moreover, this finished Plymouth's scoring. Ham Newman led off with a single in the third, but was nipped there by Settles. This was Plymouth's final offensive effort, the Rouge star holding them hitless the rest of the way.

Rouge tallied once in the second due to a two-base error by Ham Newman. Settles was the receiver of this gift, and he showed his gratitude by stealing third. He scored after Manley flied to Folsom. The Rocks guarded their meager lead carefully until the fourth frame, wherein two hits and three errors accounted for a pair of runs. With two out, Bonack's triple and error on Hitt's error, Butch Krumm made the second error and George Houghton the third, putting that pestiferous Mr. Settles on third base so that he could score on a single by Manley. This gave Rouge a one-run lead, which she strengthened in the fifth, when two singles and an error registered a run. The error was the Rock's fifth and final miscue.

No one on either side made more than one hit. Hitt had excellent control, striking out four and walking none. Settles struck out eight. He was wild in the last inning, walking Darnell and Krumm. An error by Manley loaded the bases with none out, but Mr. Settles bore down and held Plymouth scoreless with the aid of a brilliant catch of Larry Newman's line-drive by Loughridge. Rouge secured base runs in Plymouth's fourth loss in 14 games.

Every baseball club in the American Association showed a profit for the 1937 season.

HITT YES! BACK YPSI NINE

Plymouth's illustrious baseball team routed the Ypsi nine, 9-2 in a game played at Ypsi Tuesday, May 17. To date Plymouth has nine out of a possible 12 games chalked up in the win column.

The game being under T.V.A. jurisdiction, Bob Hitt pitched for the Rocks and set Ypsil back with four hits well sprinkled with 13 strike-outs.

Heading the Plymouth 10-hit slug-fest are Leach, Hoffman, and Folsom with two hits apiece. One of Leach's hits was a mighty triple with the bases loaded.

The Rocks continue to conquer each strong team as Wayne, River Rouge, and Ypsi they certainly hold an excellent chance to capture the league title.

GIRLS PARTICIPATE IN VARIOUS ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

Although the girls do not participate in inter-scholastic sports or varsity activities, they have made their mark in the field of athletic events.

The Leaders' club, an organization of girls, has done much to further the athletic aspect of the school activities. The club is sponsored by Mrs. K. Miller, physical training instructor, and meets on Tuesdays from 12:00 until 12:20 o'clock. The members are taught the rules of various sports such as soccer, basketball, and tennis, and are given tests concerning the rules before they are eligible to officiate at games. Credit toward school letters is given for officiating and the test grade determines whether the girl may act as referee, umpire, score keeper, or time keeper. Results of the good sportsmanship endorsed by this club are much in evidence at the games.

An all-year-round intramural program is planned and tournaments are held according to the season.

Last fall the season opened with a soccer ball tournament, played during noon hour in which 74 girls placed on five teams took part. When the results were tabulated it was found that the freshmen were in first place, the juniors, second, the sophomores and seniors tied for third, and a second sophomore team, fourth.

In early winter a basketball tournament in which any could play who was interested was launched. Two hundred and twenty signed up and the 13 teams were first divided into two leagues—the American and National, in the former, Dorothy Roe's junior team won first place with another junior team captained by Elaine Eiffert, second, and Astrid Hegge's senior team, third; in the latter, Rose Niedospal's won first place, Ellen Nystrom's senior team, second, and Dorothy Ebersole's freshman team, third. In the play-off in the two leagues Rose Niedospal's team won the championship. Next four final teams—one from each grade—of ten players each were chosen by the sports managers and team captains. In the final tournament Jennie Bassett's junior team was first, Helen Norgrove's senior team, second, Dorothy Barnes' sophomore, third, and Mary Ellen Dahmer's freshman team, fourth. The season was wound up with a play day with Wayne as the guests. The Plymouth and Wayne girls played together and the teams were distinguished by colors. The Plymouth Leaders' club planned the event and served the food.

A basketball free-throw contest was held which Ariene Soth won with Rose Niedospal as runner-up.

In mid-winter an elimination tournament in volleyball ball was sponsored with 130 girls taking part. In the last round, Joyce Shoemaker's junior team took first place, with Ellen Nystrom's team taking second.

Now that spring is here a baseball tournament is under way with 110 girls taking part. To date, Mary Jane Olsaver's team is ahead of the other eight.

A tennis tournament, with 53 girls taking part is being played. Last year two sisters, Dorothy and Betty Barnes, took the high honors and everyone is wondering how this year's contest will end.

MEMORIAL DAY ELMS—EDITORIAL

It is sometimes said that we do not notice the majority of things around us; in every day life there are many details we do not notice or take an active interest in. For instance, not more than one or two of us are aware as we walk under the cool elms in front of the school that they are dedicated to five men who gave their lives for this nation in the World War.

If one takes time to notice, he will see their names inscribed on the Plymouth rock in Central park. The names of those heroes to whom we owe a great debt of gratitude are: Myron Beals, Vernon Henderson, Scott Courtrite, Edward Tighe, and Walter Gordon.

When Memorial day comes around each year, we hail it gladly for the reason that it means picnics, parades, and other gala celebrations. But do any of us stop to think of the men, and women too, who have sacrificed their lives gladly in order that our nation might become what it is today.

Memorial day is Monday, May 30. Before that time let us make an effort to look at the Plymouth rock and study the names of these great men, for they really are great men; few of us realize the wonderful gift we have today in that we are peacefully going to school and carrying on our lives in peace when there are many other nations at each other's throats in bloody warfare. This Memorial day, let us stop—if only for a few minutes—and think over the sacrifices that have been made in order that we may live in peace and security.

After all, one day is a short enough time in which to pay homage to our war heroes and heroines, and each one of us can certainly spare a few minutes of that day to thank God that there were once such men who were willing to give their all to their country.

NEARLY TWO HUNDRED ATTEND HONOR BANQUET

Over 175 students, teachers, and parents attended the tenth annual Honor Banquet sponsored by the Student Council and held in the auditorium of Plymouth high school at 6:30, Friday, May 20.

James McClain was an entertaining toastmaster; he introduced Miss Winifred Ford who gave a toast to the honored guests. Miss Ford did this in an original way, having written a short verse about each group of honored students. The response was given by Margaret Bentley, who was honored for citizenship.

The address of the evening was given by Owen J. Cleary, dean of Cleary college, Ypsilanti. In his speech, he stressed the importance of the high school students of today learning the essentials of leadership—honesty and self-reliance—in order that they may in the future help to preserve ideals of true democracy in the United States.

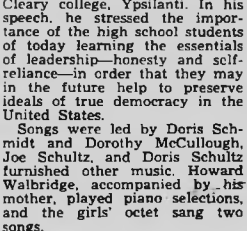

Songs were led by Doris Schmidt and Dorothy McCullough, Joe Schultz, and Doris Schultz furnished other music. Howard Walbridge, accompanied by his mother, played piano selections, and the girls' octet sang two songs.

CLASS BONERS

Friday Mr. Weatherhead gave a test to his commercial geography class and some of the answers surprised him.

One of the questions was: Our salmon fisheries of our Pacific coast have been a source of trouble between ourselves and Japan. Students told him that our cod fisheries were a source of trouble with Canada, and that our salmon fisheries were a source of trouble between ourselves and England, Canada, and Norway.

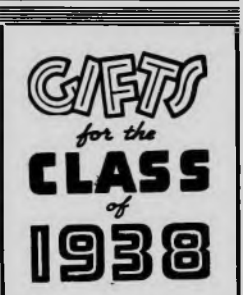

Another question was that of Japan and Norway; it may be stated that the land repels and the sea attracts. And such answers! The heat repels and the cold attracts; fish repel and oils attract; the earth repels and the moon attracts; the earth repels and the sun attracts; lakes repel and fish attract; and farming repels and fishing attracts.

This statement was also made: "The decline of our whole industry is due to the discovery of bigger and better boats."
