RALPH JOHNSON.

Ralph Johnson was state editor of The Detroit News for many years. For one to be in an editorial executive position on that great paper it is essential that he be a top-notch in his profession. Ralph Johnson was that.

The other day on the first page of that paper appeared an announcement of his death. He was sick but a few hours, too young to die, barely past middle age. He was one of the finest men that ever lived.

It was the writer of this editorial who gave him his first start in the newspaper business back in Kalamazoo when Ralph was but a mere lad. He had not finished his high school education when he was given a place on the staff of The Kalamazoo Gazette. It was his determination to get a job that opened the way for a successful career as a newspaper man. Necessity forced this ambitious youngster to step out on his own when other boys of his age were barely out of their knee pants.

Jobs hard to get today? Not half as hard as 35 years ago when Ralph Johnson was looking for a place to earn a weekly pay check. He had to work and he WANTED to work. It was his DESIRE to do something, to get a start, his persistent demand for a place on the Gazette staff, that opened the way for a career that has been outstanding. No cub reporter ever applied himself more diligently or more loyally than did Ralph Johnson. He didn't know there was such a thing as a clock in the building.

When he walked into The Gazette office he possessed no educational background, no training under instructors who knew anything of newspaper work, nothing, absolutely nothing except a youthful enthusiasm and an ambition that could not help but carry any person forward to success and an outstanding place in the newspaper world. He was always receptive to suggestions and ideas.

How could any "desk man" help but give such a youngster a bit more attention, a little more encouragement and a little more assistance than to other workers who didn't care so much as to how they got along?

He made good on The Gazette. He made good wherever he worked. The Detroit News, always looking for the square shooting, loyal type of newspaper men who play such an important part in making newspapers great and powerful, provided a place for Ralph Johnson on its editorial staff. During the years, he was advanced to the state editorship of The News and for nearly a decade he has given the hundreds of thousands of readers of that publication one of the best state news services Michigan ever had.

A tireless worker from boyhood, there is little question but what his zealous energy possibly hastened his early death.

He was a good newspaper man because he worked at it. He was an outstanding citizen. He was one of the best friends the writer ever had. His place in the world will never be filled because there can be no other Ralph Johnson.

QUACK! QUACK!! QUACK!!!

"Doctor" Murphy issued a statement to The Detroit News the other day in which he urged the charitable organizations of Michigan to buy milk for the needy children of Michigan. The "Doctor" is some four months late in his suggestion. The good citizens of Plymouth and western Wayne county last winter, held a Republican Lincoln day charity dinner at which they ate fried salt pork, boiled potatoes and similar good but low priced substantial food. The surplus money raised from the dinner was sufficient to buy enough milk to provide ALL of the school children of Plymouth with milk from February 9 until the end of the present school year in June. Might we suggest to "Doctor" Murphy that he try and induce his political cohorts to use the thousands and thousands of dollars they confiscated from minor public office holders at a boneless squab banquet last winter and use that money to buy milk for hungry children rather than use it to buy votes for "Doctor" Murphy's reelection this fall? The Republicans have already done it, why not you?

WORTH TRYING

Just a little flight of the imagination: We see governments taking the billions of dollars they planned to spend on armaments and buying instead ice-boxes, radios and house paint to distribute through the land. . . . We visualize a great spread of happiness along with the speed of comfort. We see men living a little better and enjoying life a little more.

But . . . who could convince a government that an ice-box is a safer investment than a machine gun?—Co-operative Builder, Superior, Wisconsin.

THINGS NOT TO SELL.

Browsing through a book shop where old books are sold, the writer came across one written by Bruce Barton back in 1917.

In one of the chapters Barton asks: "How much of yourself are you willing to sell for money?" He then goes on to outline the things he will not sell in the race for fame and success. "I will not sell my health. Not for all the money in the world will I die twenty years before my time, as Harriman did; nor spend my old age drinking hot water, like John D. Rockefeller.

"I will not sell my home. I will forget my business when I leave my office. My home will be a place of rest and high thinking and peace—not a mere annex to my factory or office, where the talk is of nothing but gains and losses.

"I will not sell my honor. I will not engage in any business, no matter what the profit, that does not contribute something to the happiness and progress of the world."

RAMBLING with Editors AROUND Michigan

Utica's city government was jolted out of its complacency Friday morning when the news went round that Clara's restaurant had been quietly hijacked of a slot-machine, revealing the supposedly obscure fact that these illegal "one-armed bandits" are being operated within the city.

Two men walked in and ordered breakfast. When they were about through, one of them arose, put his hand on the proprietor's shoulder, and ordered him to sit down and to make no move. The pair then coolly removed the machine and loaded it into a waiting car.

The white-faced proprietor went into McClellan's store with the word that he had been "held up". "Stub" grabbed his old 45 and started for the door. "They're gone!" said the proprietor. The car was seen fading away in the West Main street distance.

When Stub heard that it was a slot-machine that had been hijacked, he put his gun back and called himself names. It is said that there are other machines left in town, so maybe the visitors will return. Since no gun or violence was used, it would be hard to get the law on them even if they were caught.—Emerson Gudart in The Utica Sentinel.

THIS IS POWER

You are an American citizen. So long as the constitution of the United States prevails you may worship in any church you choose; you may go any place that you like; you may speak your mind upon any subject. Yours is your own life to live so long as you do not interfere with the rights of others.

But you cannot choose the factory in which you want to work, no matter if you can earn more wages there than elsewhere. No matter, even, if you have already worked there for 20 years before.

Who says so? Not the president of the United States. He has no such authority. Not the congress, nor the supreme court. But the committee for industrial organization—the C.I.O.—says so. Mass pickets are being thrown around the gates of factories in the automobile and other industries. When workers arrive they are not allowed to earn their daily bread unless they can show a paid union card. If they have chosen not to join the union, then the pickets do not permit them to go to work.

And so the unions are exercising a power over and beyond that of any elected official of the United States.—George O. St. Charles in the (Democratic) Dearborn Independent.

Overcoming "Forty Phobia"

No need to tell people over 40 how hard it is to get a job. The fear of unemployment because of so-called age knocks at the heart of every man and woman as they approach 40. It is grossly unjust and organized steps are being taken to overcome the senseless prejudice. Employers, all over the country, are receiving educational material to show them that in people over 40 they have assets that younger employees lack.

There is one feature, however, of the handicap of 40 for which the individual can only blame himself. From some notion of false pride, many put off wearing corrective lenses far longer than they should. The phenomenon known as presbyopia, which results in a lowering of the accommodative faculty of the eyes comes to 85% of humanity. Some begin to feel the condition at 40 and from then on up to 50 it is an increasing handicap. You can tell these uncorrected folk by watching them read—they hold the book or paper farther and farther away—"tromboning" it out at arm's length, trying to get a focus on the words. This is a give-away. It tells the shrewd employer that the applicant will be slow and prone to make mistakes at any close work and, as most profitable employment absolutely requires close work, the applicant is turned down to make way for a younger person. Why such false pride that prevents the wearing of needed lenses exists is hard to say. No shame attaches to a condition experienced by 85% of humanity. Bifocal lenses today are so skillfully designed as to be almost indistinguishable from single vision lenses.

The modern bifocal, accurately prescribed and properly adjusted before your eyes gives efficiency of seeing at both far and near points, but it takes skill, education and training to prescribe just the right power, the suitable type or style (for there are many of these today) and to adjust the lenses at the critical point before the eyes. Lacking these factors you will have trouble.

A BUDGET PLAN IS AVAILABLE TO SUIT THE NEEDS OF ALL.

June Brides Are Celebrated, But How About the Groom?

June is the month of brides, and June brides are famous the country over. But nobody ever thinks of the June groom, who stays dutifully in the background until he's called to the altar. What do our June grooms think about as the fatal hour approaches? Do they actually chew their fingernails and consider the advisability of running away? Most of them probably do. Jack Haley of the movies gives his opinion in the following pictures.

"Gosh, tomorrow I take the big step. Gee, everybody's been giving me advice. Can you imagine! Some guys have the nerve to tell me that putting this ring on Mabel's finger means putting a ring around my neck! You know, a ball and chain! They're jealous, that's all!"

"Sassy, maybe there's something to that! No more staying out all night... no more poker sessions with the gang... no more... no more... NO!"

"I CAN'T DO IT! I CAN'T DO IT! I TELL YOU! I'LL RUN AWAY TO CHINA OR SUM'FIN! WHERE'S THAT TIMEYABLE?"

"Heck! Am I a man or a mouse! I'll show 'em who wears the pants in this family... boy oh boy... I'll write my own set of rules. No. 1. Who's the head of this family? Answer: Me!... No. 2. And who pays the bills? Answer: Me!... and so far into the night."

PLYMOUTH WINS DISPUTED 7-0 DECISION FROM ECORSE AS GAME ENDS IN RIOT

A slight case of poor sportsmanship mixed with an overdose of unrestrained and untimely temper sadly marred the outlook of an otherwise nip and tuck baseball contest as Plymouth was awarded a hotly contested 7-0 decision against Ecorse last Tuesday.

The first five innings proceeded ordinarily with Plymouth leading 1-0. This run was slipped on the plate as a result of a walk in the second inning by Wes. Hoffman and a sharp single down the third base line by Bud Krumm who was out attempting to stretch the hit.

Bob Hitt, Plymouth pitcher, struck out six Ecorse batters, and then made a headlong dash for third and smashed Willie in his mid-section temporarily relieving Willie of the job of breathing.

The Ecorse bench became angered at a called strike by the umpire, and arose a mass behind the backstop shouting bad things in the general direction of the umpire, who becoming incensed at this wholly uncalled for display, called every ball Hitt pitched a strike until the rabble desisted from their persecution of the English language.

First man up in the Ecorse half of the sixth was Burns, first baseman, who poked a line drive to Wes. Hoffman. Hoffman dropped the ball, but snatched it up and threw wild to first as Krumm reached for the ball, his knee unavoidably came in contact with the runner's mid-section. After several hot words, Burns swung mightily at Krumm's chin, as if by a pre-arranged signal, small fire immediately started all over the ball field and soon grew into a general melee. This unorthodox procedure so incensed the groundkeeper, he, upon conferring with the umpire, called the game, a forfeit to Plymouth, proving that poor sportsmanship never wins.

Women comprise nearly 50 per cent of the total college enrollments.

QUEER DOIN'S

"The dear old seniors—how we're gonna miss em," remarked a junior the other day—Yes, yes, 'tis true, 'tis true—we are leaving our beloved Alma mater—dear teachers and students—don't grieve for us too much—but seriously—we HAVE had a lot of fun writing this column this year, and we hope you all enjoyed it as we wished you to. If we have hurt anyone's feelings we apologize deeply—it was all in good fun, and we're sure you took it that way. Well, here goes for something about some members of the senior class to remember them by. It is only fitting that we take the president and vice-president first—the outstanding thing about Dick Gilles is his weakness for Doris Schmidt—and Doris' outstanding characteristic is her weakness for Dick Gilles—now that's settled, let's take Helen the treasurer—by her own admission she is not "pre-shrunk"—she went out in the rain and one leg shrunk shorter than the other. Margaret Bentley, secretary, her quiet, likeable ways charm many of the boys—and now for the rest of the board—the three council members of much merit in the library first hour—Gerald Bordine, who has a mania for bright colors—Jennie Schwartz, her ability to get into trouble and cause trouble. Now that we have finished the board some other outstanding seniors are Bob Beyer, who will ever be remembered for his beautiful (?) voice—Dick Innis and his theories in physics—Catherine Kaletsky and Lawrence Smith's undying romance—Mrs. Larson Lutermoser's own statement that she hates boys, but they don't hate her—Jacques DeLaurier and Jane Taylor, who will long be remembered for gittatory on Class Night—Milton Heike, who has that devastating white hair—Mary Sackett for his football excellence. Doug Miller for his unique color combinations—Lois Schaufele and her "sparkling smile"—Marion Shoebridge who likes to fish—Johnny Cripe, who has a weakness for blonde freshman girls—Lois Rowe and her really clever poetry—and Ralph Fischer, who ALWAYS gets his work in on time—have we given you enough to remember us by? If not, there will probably be several of us there for a few years to come. They tell of a senior who couldn't pass his senior exams and stayed in school for so long that they made him janitor—there certainly ought to be some janitors around here in the years to come. We hope that someone will inherit our genius (?) and really write a good column next year and keep up the good work.—We hereby bequeath all of the gossip and bright sayings of old P.H.S. to next year's column. It is a nice to have known you all—cheerio, au revoir, so long, and goodbye. Dead and Deader.

Richmond P. Benton, Los Angeles, California, formerly of Northville, has given a new ranch bell, beautifully toned, to the play, Ramona, which is presented in Ramona Bowl, a natural amphitheater near Hemet and San Jacinto. Benton presented the bell in memory of his friend, Garnet Holme, author of the play. The friendship between the two men began years ago when Holme used to come to Benton's office to work. The name "Garnet Holme" was always kept on the door. Benton himself is particularly happy because the pageant officials, given a free choice, chose from the bell collection of Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes, the "bell lady," the very bell he would have selected himself.

A fire early Monday morning that might have started from the furnace practically ruined the home of Mrs. Mary Smith on 1408 Northville road. The blaze started in the basement and burned through to the roof, completely demolishing the center of the house, and flames, smoke and water ruined the furniture. The property was covered by insurance.

THE FHA PLAN OF HOME OWNERSHIP

"The family of moderate income—the average American family—can afford to own an attractive, modern home by financing it on the FHA Plan.

"In February, 1938, passage of new amendments to the National Housing Act liberalized the terms under which the Federal Housing Administration can insure mortgage loans made by approved financial institutions.

"This FHA Insurance protection enables banks, building and loan associations, and other lending institutions to offer long-term mortgage loans at low rates and on liberal terms.

"FHA-Insured Mortgage Loans are repaid conveniently, by the month, out of income. The loan does not come due in a lump sum that is difficult or impossible to meet. Instead, an FHA-Insured Mortgage is repaid in monthly installments about equal to rent—figured to come within the borrower's means.

"These monthly payments reduce the principal of the loan and also include a portion of the interest, taxes, mortgage and hazard insurance and other fixed charges. They lead to secure, debt-free home ownership."

(The above is an excerpt from THE FHA PLAN OF HOME OWNERSHIP, a manual.)

We make FHA-Insured loans up to 90% on a 25-year basis

"Then I said to the Sales Manager, 'You're Nuts!'"

He wanted me to march up to every customer and make a spiel like this:

"Mrs. Klunk, what you need is Golden Shell Oil. This is a special oil for stop-and-go driving. It flows instantly to every moving part, even on cold starts. It is tough for fast, hard driving. It prevents wear. My company spent empty millions developing it. And yet it is only 25¢ a quart."

And by that time, where's Mrs. Klunk? Across the street, probably. Or fainted.

Heck, you can't talk to customers the way that guy says. You got to humor 'em. They got a right to pay 30¢ or 35¢ a quart, if they want, for their own pet oil.

Know what I tell Mrs. Klunk? I say: "Mrs. Klunk, listen, this Golden Shell Oil is what I use in my own car. And my car has to both run for less and last longer than your car does." It works, too. Kind of flatters her, I guess.

Sincerely,

JAMES AUSTIN OIL CO.

ALEXANDER B. McCULLOUGH
Alexander B. McCullough was born in Ontario, Canada, March 15, 1844. While still a young man, he came to Adrian, Michigan and worked there and in Utica and Grand Rapids and Lyons, Ohio as a carriage builder for several years. On January 16, 1868, he was united in marriage to Jennie E. McCullough. To this union two sons were born, Celon A. McCullough and William D. McCullough. After a residence of nine years in Caro, Michigan, he resided for a short time in Cass City after which he came to Northville, where he has resided for the past 50 years and passed away from his home at 151 East Cady street, Thursday night, May 26, 1938 at the age of 94 years, two months and 10 days. Funeral services were held Sunday, at 2:30, at the Casterline funeral home, Rev. William Richards of Belleville, officiating. Interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery. It was of interest to Rev. Plymouth Racquetees Win Class B Regionals

The Plymouth high school tennis team continued their winning stride Tuesday by taking the Class B regional tennis tournament held at Riverside park. There were three other schools entered in this tournament, namely: Birmingham, Rochester, Ypsi Central. Plymouth scored a total of 13 points—five and one-half points in the singles, seven and one-half in the doubles. Birmingham placed second with a score of six points. Ypsi and Rochester each scored a point and one-half.

Gordon Moe defeated his teammate Lawrence Smith (2-6) (3-3) (6-4) to win the singles championship of the tournament. In the doubles Howard Anderson and Bill Norman won the championship by defeating Hammes and Stute of Birmingham (6-3) (6-3). These boys received medals emblematic of regional champions. A trophy emblematic of the championship was presented to the Plymouth team at the end of the tournament. This is the second trophy the team has won this year, having won the T. V. A. A. championship a short time ago.

The high school tennis team entered state finals at Ann Arbor.

FARMINGTON ERRORS GIVE NINE VICTORY

Four unearned runs gave Plymouth a one-run edge over the three-hit pitching of M. McKeely, Farmington High ace, as Coach Jacobi gave two rookies a workout there last Wednesday, May 25. The results gave three hits, four runs, and five errors to Plymouth, and eight hits, three runs, and five errors to Farmington. The beaten foes just couldn't bring home the counters. They had at least one man on third in every frame, but eight of these either died there or were thrown out at the plate.

Plymouth took a two-run lead on no hits in the first inning, and was never headed from then on. Hoffman reached first on Shortstop Hunt's baffle, and went to third as Hitt took second when Collins, Farmington third-bagger, threw the apple past first base. Wes was safe at home on a passed ball, and a second later Hitt scored as another pitch went through Farmington's catcher. Ham Newman got Plymouth's first hit in the third, when he singled to center. The ball went through Dwyer's legs, however, and Ham sprinted to third. He registered after Hoffman's fly to center. In the fourth Krumm reached the initial bag on Hunt's second error and went to third on Collins' second error, while Folsom arrived at first. Krumm scored following Larry Newman's fly to right, but Folsom was nipped when Werschon, Farmington catcher, rifled the ball to second.

Ernie Engleson made his first start of the season for Plymouth. He was wild but lasted three and two thirds innings. Farmington tallied in the first on singles by Hunt, Dwyer, and Werschon. Ernie was in trouble in the second when a walk and two errors put three men on base, but with good support he came through unscathed. Dwyer overslid third on his triple in the third and Darnell tagged him out on Ham Newman's relay. When the bases were loaded with two out on a single, error and pass and Engleson walked a run in, he was yanked. Bob Hitt went to the mound and retired the side with one pitch as the batter grounded back to him. Jack Hovey finished the mound duties. He allowed one run in the sixth after two were down, on a pass, a two-base error when Larry Newman threw wild to Krumm, and a single.

Ham Newman and Folsom were the only Rocks to solve McKeely's hurling. Ham got two bingles in four trips to the plate, while Bob Folsom's last-inning hit in three times at bat was wasted.

Dwyer led the foes with a single, double, and triple in four tries, while T. McKeely helped his brother on the mound with two safeties.

Seven players are now batting over .300, with Harold Leach still leading the pack. The averages follow:

Leach	.377
Hoffman	.349
Hitt	.333
Elouhton	.333
Waterman	.333
H. Newman	.307
Krumm	.293
Hovey	.250
Darnell	.204
Folsom	.200
Martin	.185
Robinson	.182
Bassett	.000
L. Newman	.176

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial day. Fun? I'll say! A parade, Indians, flags, and gaily dressed people. That's as far as it goes. All we go for is to say, "I went to the parade". And during the singing of the national anthem you stood with your hands at your sides. The real reason we are supposed to go is to honor men who died for our country, but how many go for this reason? Not very many, we are sorry to say. Reverence is shown for the national anthem at hockey games, but in Plymouth on Memorial day we don't even show respect to our flag. Where is our patriotism? At home? Wrapped up? Get it out and show it! Citizens of Plymouth, show your citizenship!

What has become of the patriotism that should be in Plymouth? Is it right that good American citizens have not the discretion to realize that the flag of the United States of America should be saluted when the "Star Spangled Banner" is being sung? And, added to that, half the people in our city do not know even the first verse of the national anthem! Is it not also the custom for a reputable American man to remove his hat when he sings the "Star Spangled Banner"? We noticed only one, an elderly gentleman, who paid this tribute of respect for our country. The people in Plymouth are not entirely ignorant of what they should do because they did stand while they sang the national anthem. Is it just a streak of laziness, or is it a case of waiting for some one else to take the lead? At any rate, something should, and must be done to uphold the patriotism in Plymouth. Citizens, it is your duty, your privilege, to set forth for the younger generation a code of patriotism which will kindle the spark of loyalty lying dormant in their hearts. We look to you for a model from which we can build a ship of state to breast the sea of disaster. In the future let's show our patriotism, and loyalty to our flag and the country it represents.

—Five Girl Scouts, Troop 2.
