

As Closing Days of Legislative Session Near, "Pressure" Groups go on Full 24-Hour Schedule

These are the days that count if they get theirs

(By ELTON R. EATON)
The Michigan state legislature is now entering into the closing weeks of the regular session. It is also the gala season for greedy, selfish, grasping interests and special pressure groups.

There is some merit to some of the legislation certain pressure groups advance and sponsor. But coupled with it nearly always is the concealed desire to benefit the pocketbooks of a special few at the expense of others.

Members of the legislature are bothered day and night by cliques of various kinds, wanting this, that and the other thing. Sometimes they (the pressure groups) talk about the "interests of the public." In fact, that nearly always is the excuse given for backing certain bills that some member of the legislature has been induced to present.

But when it is all over with, the poor devil who must pay the bills is the one who feels the pinch. Any additional cost of any kind made necessary by new legislation is always passed on to the poor who have nothing to do with its enactment. Sponsors of new legislative proposals always see to that.

How are "special pressure group" bills jammed through the legislature?
That's an easy question to answer.

The "plotting" takes place months and months before the legislature meets. In fact, it is started before members of the legislature are even nominated or elected.

These "special groups" watch the local newspapers like hawks. Most of them employ a legislative paper clipping service. If they do not maintain a service of this kind, they generally subscribe for the local papers.

What for?
To find out who the candidates are for the state legislature.

Always these groups maintain a highly "special" legislative agency, generally termed an "executive secretary" or some other sort of a misleading title.

The girls hired to read these newspapers discover that John Hirman Promiser, of Hickory Corners, has announced that he is going to be a candidate for the state legislature in the forthcoming primary.

Immediately John Hirman Promiser will get a letter from Lansing, Detroit or some other city in Michigan in which he is advised that the announcement of his candidacy for the state legislature has been read with interest.

"We are greatly interested in your campaign. We plan to have before the coming session of the state legislature a bill which will be of wonderful benefit to the voters of your district and the people of Michigan. We would like to know how you stand on it. If you can give us your support, we will be glad to see to it that all of our members in your district will vote for you," most of these letters read.

During the last primary campaign, the writer received twelve letters of this type from various pressure groups sponsoring, in nearly every case, a desirable self-interest. Of the twelve letters received there were possibly two or three that were relative to proposed measures worthy of real consideration.

If the candidate does not reply to the first letter, he generally receives another one in a few days, telling him that no reply has been received and "the voters of your district are anxious to know how you stand on these questions."

Ernestine Hartung Will Marry Today

The marriage of Ernestine Marie Hartung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Hartung, of this city, to Lester Reddeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reddeman of Ann Arbor, will take place this evening, May 5, at 6:30 o'clock in the ceremony to be performed in the parsonage of St. Paul's Lutheran church, in Ann Arbor, by the Rev. Brower.

The bride will wear a street length gown of rose lace over rose taffeta with blue accessories. Her corsage will be white roses. She will be attended by Phyllis Reddeman, sister of the bridegroom, who will wear a similar gown in blue with corsage of pink sweet peas. Edward Goltz, of Saline, will attend the bridegroom.

A reception will follow in the home of the bride on Maple avenue, Plymouth, with the immediate families present.

The young couple will take a brief wedding trip and will go to their new home on Canton Center road which is ready for occupancy. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Livonia Women to Sponsor Party

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Livonia Goodfellow club will hold a dance this Saturday evening at the American Legion hall in Newburg at 9:00 o'clock.

This active group of ladies held their first party several months ago and its success warranted another for the same charitable cause. All money that the group makes is contributed to the Goodfellow fund to provide a happy Christmas to all needy children in the township.

Those attending the party will enjoy both modern and old-time dancing from 9:00 o'clock until 1:00. Refreshments will be served during the party by the Ladies' Auxiliary. Mrs. LeBar is the chairman for the event and she is being assisted by Mrs. Charles Smith, the secretary of the organization.

DPW Urges New Refuse System

Residents who have rubbish and garbage collection service are being asked by the city to leave the receptacles at the side of, or in back of the house rather than on the front lawn.

Through a misunderstanding, some people have thought that the city preferred that baskets of junk and tubs of cans be left in front where they were easier for the D. P. W. to collect. This is not the case, however, because the men in the public works department are working for civic beauty when they pick up trash and clean up rubbish.

City workmen are quite willing and able to collect rubbish from the back of the house and they have already asked some of their customers not to put trash on the front lawn. To those people who have not been requested to do so, the city urges now, that beginning with Clean-Up Week, such things be left at the rear of the house. The aim of officials is to make the city more beautiful, and this will help to some extent.

Hundreds Meet for Paint Party

The third annual paint party held last Saturday night at the Plymouth Hardware attracted the largest crowds ever to attend one of the events. It was estimated that 900 people visited the store throughout the day and almost all of them were high in their praise for the re-decorated and re-modeled interior of the store, according to Proprietor William Rose.

Arthur E. Blunk

Former Mayor Leases New Service Station

A. E. Blunk to Operate Modern Place

Announcement has just been made that Former Mayor Arthur E. Blunk has just signed a lease for the new Standard Oil service station that is being erected at the corner of South Main street and Ann Arbor Trail directly across from the Mayflower hotel.

The opening date for the station has not been fixed, but it will probably be about the middle of the last of May.

Mr. Blunk has long been active in business and civic affairs in Plymouth and the announcement that he is to take over the operation of such an outstanding station as South Main street is not a surprise to his many friends.

He has been a member of the city commission for a number of years and has served the city as its mayor. He did not run for reelection this spring as it is his desire to give all of his time to the conduct of the modern gas station he has just leased.

Workmen will probably have the station ready for opening sometime during the present month.

Champe Wins Casting Contest

Seventy-five members of the Western Wayne County Wildlife association met Monday night and elected Harry Champe as a new member on the board of directors to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Jack Van Coevering.

After the business meeting, two short films were shown in the Crystal Room of the Hotel Mayflower. These pictures "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" and "Let's Go Fishing" and the equipment for showing them were secured from the Fisher Body Corporation by Harold Underwood. The Casting Contest trophies were awarded during the evening. Brick Champe won the gold cup for the best fly-casting and Hugh Horton won the bait-casting award. These cups are the permanent property of the winners; the circulating trophies are brown earthenware jugs with the name of the current holder painted on in white. Club members anticipate another such contest in the early part of June.

Chamber Elects New Directors

Members of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce met last Wednesday evening in the Mayflower hotel for their annual meeting and election of officers. Four new members were elected to the board of directors to fill vacancies caused by expiration of the terms of President S. T. Corbett, Vice President Glenn Jewell, Secretary Harold Finlan and Harold Anderson.

New members elected to the board were William Rose, Howard Stark, Harold Colman and Irving Blunk. Three of last year's officers, Sterling Eaton, Elmer Zuckerman and Frank Rambo, held over for a second year term.

Plymouth Students Win High Honors At The University

Awarded Honor Prizes for Scholarly Work

Miss Katherine Schultz, daughter of Assistant Postmistress Beatrice M. Schultz, is one of 800 University of Michigan students selected for distinguished scholarly work at the University. This public recognition of her excellent school work took place recently at the sixteenth annual University of Michigan Honors Convocation at Ann Arbor. The honors were won in debate.

During her high school days in Plymouth, Miss Schultz was a member of the high school debating team that contended in several state championship contests.

Another Plymouth student at the University, Harry Fisher, also received junior class honors in engineering. He is a graduate of the Plymouth high school and a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher of Plymouth road.

Success of these two Plymouth students, as well as others attending the University, reflects distinct credit upon the Plymouth schools, as it is the educational foundation work during high school days that counts so much at the University.

Kenneth Thumme Wins Normal Scholarship Honors

Kenneth Thumme, who is now a junior at Michigan State Normal college in Ypsilanti, was recently awarded a scholarship key by his fraternity, Sigma Mu Sigma. This key, given annually to the member with the highest average, was presented to Kenneth Thumme for his scholastic record of 2.25 for the year.

City Asks Help in Keeping Streets Clean

City Manager Clarence Elliott appealed to the residents of Plymouth to cooperate with the city in an effort to keep the city streets free from paper and other rubbish which makes the thoroughfares so unsightly. The city manager said that in conjunction with clean-up week local people could help not only this week but throughout the entire year if they would refrain from careless throwing of paper, sacks and handbills on city streets.

At the present time it costs the city $10.00 every Saturday morning to clean the streets in the downtown area and because of the amount of cartons, papers, etc. thrown on the streets it is planned to sweep them at least three times a week.

Residents are reminded by city officials that it will cost the taxpayers triple the necessary sum to clean the streets just because of the thoughtlessness of some people who indiscriminately throw paper and other debris without thinking.

Prof. Peet Speaks At Kiwanis Meet

The Kiwanis club of Ypsilanti joined the local club in its meeting on Tuesday night at the Hotel Mayflower. The visiting club produced the program for the evening and presented Prof. E. W. Peet who is the head of the chemistry department at Michigan State Normal college. Prof. Peet spoke on the Michigan Pure Food, Drug and Cosmetic Law which will go into effect in June.

Kiwanians were astounded to learn that the women of the United States spent $400,000,000 on cosmetics last year and that 76 various kinds of cosmetics were taken off the market because they contained poison which irritated the skin. Prof. Peet also spoke of the difficulty that housewives had in making sure that food was exactly what it was advertised to be and assured his listeners that this proposed bill will be guarantee to buyers of food, drugs and cosmetics of the purity of the product they buy.

DR. ROSS CHANGES HOURS IN PLYMOUTH OFFICES
Dr. John A. Ross announced this week that because of the large amount of work in his Detroit office he would be unable to be in his Plymouth offices before 3:00 on any week day. Beginning this week he will be available any time after 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon and during the evening and other hours by appointment only.

Members Hear Discussion of Park Project

At the annual meeting, Friday afternoon of the Woman's Club of Plymouth the following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Robert Willoughby; 1st vice president, Mrs. F. R. Merle Bennett, Mrs. Mark J. Chaffee and Mrs. Miller Ross. Miss Nettie Pelham and Mrs. Nettie Dibble were elected honorary members. Following the meeting Mrs. Astin Whipple introduced the speaker, Dr. Henry Curtis, of Ann Arbor, executive director of the Huron-Clinton Valley Parkway committee, which was organized in March 1937 for the purpose of creating 165 miles of parkway from Monroe on Lake Erie following the Huron and Clinton rivers, to Lake St. Clair. All forms of recreation are to be planned for this area which includes five counties, Wayne, Washtenaw, Livingston, Oakland and Macomb, whereas now golf and swimming are the only recreation and only four of the latter in that number of miles.

The parks will be modeled after the Edward N. Hines drive. At present time there is a bill in the State Legislature to create the Huron-Clinton Valley Parkway authority. That bill has passed the senate unanimously and is now in the Metropolitan Affairs committee of the House and is expected to be reported out this week. If that bill passes, in November 1940 these five counties will have a referendum vote on joining the Huron-Clinton Valley Parkway authority.

Harry B. Earhart, of Ann Arbor, chairman of the Huron-Clinton Valley Parkway committee, and Mrs. Whipple is a member.

Tea was served by Mrs. Harold C. Finlan and her committee with Mrs. R. H. Reck and Mrs. George Robinson pouring.

The table was centered with a beautiful vase of spring flowers, flanked by pink tapers.

Mrs. Charles Garlett is confined to her home with bronchitis.

There will be 100 boys throughout Detroit and surrounding territory, who will attend at that time, as guests of the Detroit Times, winning their trips, as Bill did.

Businessmen Organize a Jr. C. of C. Here

45 are Charter Members in New Organization

A Junior Chamber of Commerce was organized by a group of 31 young men of this city when they met at the Plymouth Country Club for dinner last Wednesday evening.

Bruce Palmer, of Ann Arbor, Michigan state president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Richard L. Simon, state secretary, were present at the meeting to discuss the aims and purposes of the state and national organization. (Following their brief speeches, J. After a thorough discussion, a few changes were made in the proposed constitution and it became effective immediately.)

BIRDHOUSE CONTEST PLANS WELL UNDER WAY

A great deal of interest is being shown in the big birdhouse contest of Taylor and Birchwood, although no entries have been received as yet. Inquiries have been made by many school boys and girls. The store is planning an exhibit of prizes to be shown in one of their windows the first of next week. The contest is not limited to boys; girls are urged to try out for the camera, binoculars, J. Rusing cutler telescopes which are just as dear to girls as to their brothers. PLYMOUTH EMPLOYEE DIES IN AUTO CRASH
Ray Squires, of South Lyon, was killed last Sunday night when his car overturned on Five Mile road near the Milford road. The accident occurred when his car left the road and the wheels hit a rut causing the car to turn over twice.

Mr. Squires was a widower and 50 years of age. He had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. George S. Paxton near South Lyon. He was well known in Plymouth having been employed here as a butcher for John C. Schaufele.

150 Bowlers Hear Plans To Erect Modern Bowling Alley In Plymouth This Summer

"Kentucky" Returns to Penniman-Allen

The Penniman-Allen theatre announces to its patrons that the picture "Kentucky" will be brought back to Plymouth by popular request, for one night only, Thursday, May 18.

The picture, which is in technical color, is a romance that lives in the heart of proud Kentucky. Breath-takingly beautiful Loretta Young and handsome Richard Greene portray the leading roles.

Many Plymouth residents were ill with the flu when the picture was shown here last winter and regretted missing it so it is being brought back for a one-night showing. Manager Harry Lush announced that another film "Just Around the Corner" featuring Shirley Temple will also be shown that evening.

Rotarians are Told of System of Capitalism

George A. Smith Discusses Form of Government

Superintendent G. A. Smith of the Plymouth public schools was the speaker at the meeting of the Rotary club last Friday. His subject, "American System of Capitalism" proved one of the most interesting ever presented to club members. The text of the subject in part follows:

"All production of goods and services is due to five factors," said Mr. Smith. "First, natural resources, or raw materials; second, labor or effort of man for producing goods or satisfying the wants of others directly; third, capital or produced goods used in further production; fourth, management of those who plan and take the risk in production; fifth, government which supplies weights and measures, currency, police protection, courts for enforcing contracts, etc. The return to these five factors are: (1) economic rent (2) wages, (3) interest, (4) profits or losses, (5) taxes.

"If there is a billion dollars represented in one to five, inclusive, there is and must be a billion dollars represented in economic rent, wages, interest, profits and taxes. There is and must be a balance between goods and services to be sold and buying power in individual hands or else goods and services cannot be sold and unemployment is the result. In order for capitalism to (Continued on Page 4)

Bus Company to Have Garage Here

Victor G. Rouse, president of the Dearborn Coach company, announced to members of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday night that his company had secured property in Plymouth and that they would open a permanent office in Plymouth immediately.

Mr. Rouse stated that the company felt they could better serve this area if their buses started from Plymouth in the morning and made their last trip back here at night. This type of service will give an earlier bus into Detroit and a later one back at night.

The Stringer Machine Products building on Amelia street is being remodeled into a garage for bus storage and local men will operate the line exclusively, stated Mr. Rouse. The coach company plans to start a new development in this section and complete announcement of the details will be made at a later date. Elsewhere in this issue of The Mail appears a schedule of the bus line which becomes effective Saturday, May 6.

Local Baseball Team Plays Dearborn Saturday

The Schrader-Haggerty baseball team will open its season on Sunday playing against Dearborn in a gala celebration in Riverside park. Preceding the afternoon's program will be a flag-raising service directed by local Boy Scouts at 2:30.

Bowlers Meet for Annual Banquet and Prize Awards

One hundred and fifty Plymouth bowlers gathered last Thursday night in the Mayflower hotel to celebrate the closing of one of the most successful bowling seasons ever known in this city.

Main surprise for those in attendance that night was the announcement by Robert Todd that he and Manna G. Blunk were starting construction immediately on a new bowling building for this city. Mr. Todd stated that they had purchased the former George Shafer property from William P. Wernett on Penniman avenue just across from the Jewell and Blaich building and that construction would begin immediately.

The new building will be 62 feet wide and 120 feet long, one story and will have eight bowling alleys. It will be of cinder block construction and will have a front of modern design. It is planned to have the building finished and the alleys open for play on the first of September of this year.

The new location will afford bowlers a better selection of alleys upon which to bowl. Mr. Blunk stated yesterday that all materials used in the building would be purchased in Plymouth and that the labor would be furnished exclusively from local contractors.

Teams that led their respective divisions were awarded trophies at the banquet and the Plymouth team was awarded the distinction of being the best in the league this year. Members of the Stro's team are G. Baker, M. Moles, M. Strasen, H. Johnson, G. Britcher and Harold Burley.

The Plymouth Mail bowlers led the red division to win the trophy for that group. Members of the Mail team are Robert Todd, R. Minchart, K. Jewell, E. Burden, S. Baker and W. Jankara.

Honors in the blue division were carried off by the P. Marquette team composed of T. Levandowski, C. Levandowski, H. Springer, E. Drews, R. Mettel and Harold Link.

The Cloverdale Farms Dairy took the honors in the white division and their team was composed of Herman Bakhaus, A. Sheane, C. Hartford, M. Shuster and C. Shuster.

Board of Review Meets Next Week

The board of review will meet on Thursday, May 11 and Friday, May 12 to discuss with taxpayers their assessments for 1939.

Arno Thompson was appointed to the board to join Charles Finlan and William Petz. They will meet in the commission chambers from 9:00 a. m. until 5:00 p. m. both days next week reviewing the assessment roll and they will be glad to hear any complaints. In fact, this is the only opportunity that the public will have to make objections to their tax. If residents appear before the board of review and are not satisfied with that decision, they may appeal to the city commission at the next regular meeting of that body.

City Assessor William Petz announced that no change will be made in the assessments on property since they were all equalized last time. The only difference will be in the new assessments on business places and homes which have been erected and the assessed valuation will be set on them for the first time in these new rolls.

Wolfs Rebuild Store Interior

So that the customers of their store might have a larger selection of produce items to select from, the Wolf Market on Penniman avenue this week moved and enlarged their produce department. The former rack that was in the center of the store has been taken out and a new and longer display rack has been placed on the west side of the store running up to the front window. The new arrangement allows the customer more room for shopping and displays the produce in such a way that it can be better seen.

Install New Automatic Still

Installation of a new Bowsver vacuum still was made at Jewell's Cleaners and Dyers early this week, according to Proprietor Glenn Jewell. The new still is just another advancement made at the plant to insure its customers of high quality cleaning.

The still has a capacity of 50 gallons per hour and is one of the first of these units to be installed in this area. Its main function is to distill all of the cleaning fluids used at the plant in the cleaning of clothing. Formerly the fluids were filtered, but the newer method of distilling gives much better results according to Mr. Jewell.

Alumni Records Will be Filed at High School

Committee Sets Banquet Date for June 23

Herald Hamill, president of the Plymouth High School Alumni Association, announced this week that letters have been sent to all graduates of the school inviting them to the organization's annual banquet on Friday, June 23.

A questionnaire is included in the 1500 letters so that in replying to the invitation, alumni can answer some inquiries about themselves. The questions were developed by a committee including Superintendent George Smith, Herald Hamill, president, Mrs. David Mather, vice president, and Helen Norgrove, secretary-treasurer of the organization. For the benefit of the association and the high school a file of all graduates, their present addresses and occupations is being contemplated. This information will be filed at the school and room will be provided on each card in order that future changes in position may be noted and that the file be kept up-to-date.

This questionnaire will also ask former students to give their opinion on the value of the training they received at Plymouth High School. If they took a commercial course, the school wants to know if they went into the business world; or, if they took a college preparatory course, how they succeeded in college. The school is very anxious to discover whether or not their training classes are adequate and what changes should be made in the schedule. This information will not be filed, it will merely be used to help the school in correcting its shortcomings.

The committee has not yet decided whether they will attempt a directory this year, but the information will be compiled so that whenever they should wish to make a book, it will be ready. The last directory, published about ten years ago, contained 900 names and was sold to 100 people. Since then the alumni rolls have almost doubled and it has become increasingly difficult to check.

As entertainment at the alumni banquet, a local Professor Quiz will conduct a period of questions and answers. His questions are to be supplied by alumni and it is hoped that many interesting ones will be submitted. Everyone is asked to answer their letters as soon as possible so that the committee may know how many to plan for, that the files may be completed soon and that entertainment material may be gathered for the banquet.

Softball Season Opens Tuesday

Managers of the city softball league met at the high school Tuesday evening to decide on rules, schedules and an opening date for softball games.

The opening game will be played on Tuesday, May 9, at 6:20 and games will continue throughout the summer at the same time every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening on the diamond at the rear of the high school. All rain-out games will be scheduled for the following Mondays. The managers decided that players must participate in at least seven games to be eligible for the play-off game at the end of the season. The four highest teams will contend for the championship and a knockout game will be held. The only new ground rule adopted by the managers on Tuesday was that "any batted ball that hits the backboards, wires, or posts in left field shall be declared a two-base hit."

The schedule for the week of May 9-12 follows:

Tuesday, May 9—Super Shell vs. Plymouth Hardware.
Wednesday, May 10—Sutherland vs. Schrader.
Thursday, May 11—Daisy vs. Peter's Shoes.
Friday, May 12—Plymouth Mail vs. Times.

A complete schedule for the first half of the series will appear in the Plymouth Mail next week.

Closing Days of Legislature

Hickory Corners, gets the nomination on one ticket and if William Blank Weaknees gets the nomination on the ticket of the other party, both of these candidates will, after the primary election, again receive letters asking as to how they will vote if they should be elected, providing they did not make a previous pledge in the primary election campaign.

Usually the greatest effort to secure a pledge is put forth in the primary election campaign. That's when it is easiest to tie up a candidate to some sort of a legislative pledge. Failing, however, to get the pledge in the primary, the effort is again renewed. If letters do not produce results, personal calls are sometimes resorted to by the "interested" parties, always BEFORE election.

As a result of this system when the legislature convenes, these pressure groups generally know just exactly how many votes they have in the legislature for the bills they are interested in.

Members of the legislature who have the courage to do as they should and refuse to promise this or that before they know what it is all about, are immediately subjected to pressure from the so-called "executive secretary."

The "executive secretary" is a polite title for most of these slick, smooth-working lobbyists who are out to get the thing for which they are paid, irrespective of what benefits might be gained for all the people of the state. In all justice, however, it should be said that there are some so-called lobbyists who provide valuable information to members of the legislature and who do not resort to questionable practices in having passed any bill they might be interested in.

Every opportunity is made to contact the members of the house and senate by these fellows.

But always the first thing they attempt to do is to see to it that the "right one" is appointed chairman of the committee to which will be referred the bill; they specially desire passed.

If not successful in having their selection made, then the "executive secretary" begins an immediate cultivation of the good will of the chairman who has been appointed. They know that the chairman of a committee has a whole lot to do with getting their pet bill under motion, as well as getting it passed through the legislature.

That's why the chairman of a committee, if he is willing to stultify himself, is wined and dined at the City club in Lansing, or in the best hotel dining rooms in the city at the expense of the legislative fixer. This way certain types of lobbyists "lovingly" swing an arm around the shoulders of a committee chairman and smugly whisper in his ear so those who happen to be near might not hear what is said.

There is a legislative rule that lobbyists cannot be on the floor of the house during a session. They are compelled to remain in the gallery or loaf in the cloak rooms during the sessions.

A while back there was a bill pending in the house of representatives. The chairman of the committee that had reported out the bill just previous to a discussion of the measure looked to the gallery to get the eye of his lobbyist-friend. For a minute he couldn't locate him. But it was only for a moment, as the "executive secretary" soon showed up, and following an exchange of smiles, the "chairman" did his stuff.

That's the way many new laws get on the statute books. That, too, is why there is so much complaint about legislatures and the laws they enact.

Please do not misunderstand—all laws are not created in that way and all laws sponsored by the pressure groups are not passed. But unfortunately a very large percent of them are—and that's why the poor overburdened farmer and working man complain so much about taxes and the cost of things they have to buy and the services they have to have.

Some day, SOME DAY—this unfair and questionable system will be ended. But until it is, the good people of Michigan and all other states will be victims of legislative pressure groups that are able to put "their stuff" over.

ACCOMMODATING FIREMEN
RIVER ROUGE (MPA)—Local firemen don't mind putting out another city's fires, when they only have to go across the street to do it. When there was a roof fire at the C. E. Mat residence in Ecorse, someone went across the boundary line and pulled a River Rouge alarm box. Part of the street on which Mat lives is in Ecorse and part in River Rouge.

City Accepts Garbage Bid of Grendsen-Brown

Manager Clarence Elliott announced yesterday that the city would begin their summer collection of garbage on Monday, May 15. This will mean that the D. P. W. will collect garbage twice a week and will not have as much time for collecting rubbish. All residents who wish their rubbish carried away should remember to do it before the summer schedule goes into effect. On Monday evening, the commissioners accepted bids on the city garbage for the next fiscal year and the bid of Grendsen and Brown for $550 for the garbage from July 1, 1939 until June 30, 1940, was accepted.

Told of System of Capitalism

succeeded as it has in the industrial development of America, economic rent, wages, interest, profits and taxes must be used to buy goods and services or else be invested in buildings and machines for further production, or else the balance between goods and services and purchasing power become unequal with unemployment as the result.

"While America was young and there was desirable opportunity for investment of saving, large and small, in industry, our system, with rather large profits for successful industries has produced a standard of living for the rank and file which was a marvel to the rest of the world.

"The American system of banking pooled the unused resources (saving) of communities and made them available to industry, thus there were no cash surpluses because the bank gathered these surpluses and through loans made them into buying power. The banks, however, went further and created buying power through loans of credit, sometimes as high as eight to 10 times the amount of surpluses deposited. These loans aided materially in the development of American industry by supplying buying power for goods, but also placed themselves in danger whenever depositors lost faith and demanded the return of their deposits. Since the bank crash of 1933, banks have changed from their emphasis upon pooling unused resources for industry to pooling unused resources for safe keeping.

"About 1926, much of unused resources financed installment buying. Installment buying mortgages the income of the future in order to sell goods on the market at present. When future incomes have been completely mortgaged as was the case in 1929, the crash of that October comes and a depression follows.

"To understand our present economic dilemma, there are several things which must be kept in mind.

"The World War changed us from a debtor to a creditor nation. A creditor nation must expect to receive from other nations in goods and services in excess of what it exports, an amount equal to the interest and payments on loans from foreign countries and individuals in foreign countries.

"Being a debtor nation before the World War, we developed the idea that our success was due to exporting more than we imported and have insisted on trying to do so up to the present time even though we have had to loan foreign countries the credit with which to buy.

"In the four years, 1934 to 1937, Americans loaned to other countries (loans and investments in their industries) over five billion dollars. Our export of goods has exceeded our import of goods during the same period by more than one billion dollars.

"To offset this export balance, our tourists to Europe and other countries spent one and a third billions during the four years, and we imported over six billion dollars of silver and gold during the same period.

"This six billion dollars worth of gold did us no real good because we simply stored it in a vault in Kentucky for storage and hired men to guard the vault.

"The cause of our prolonged depression with its unemployment is directly due to billions of dollars leaving America for investment in foreign countries.

"Every dollar which, after being produced in America, goes (in a loan or investment) to a foreign country for production, leaves just as many workmen unemployed here, as are furnished employment through American investment elsewhere. It is silly to abuse these owners of wealth, seeking investment.

"If we want surplus wealth to be re-invested in additional and new industries, then we must protect these investments from big and powerful competition during their year of development and also assured that they will not be taxed out of existence.

"Capitalism is the only economic system under which cash surpluses are possible, and I believe it is just to say that those surpluses are only for the purchases of goods and services or investment back in industry for further production. To assume otherwise is to place us in our present dilemma and eventually destroy the economic system which has fostered our wonder-

HOSPITAL CARE IS THE BEST CARE (By O. F. BEYER, of Beyer Drugs) This is Hospital Week People who dread hospitalization have never experienced the feeling of security, of noiseless and expert attention, the smooth running efficiency that surrounds the patient in the hospital bed. A doctor's calm, professional attitude, a nurse's sympathetic skill, the comfort of carefully designed beds, immaculate linen, order, peace, all these are immeasurably soothing, comforting, healing. Hospitals are scientifically equipped not only for physical care, but for cheerful, friendly stimulation of the mind. If the doctor says hospitalization is necessary, accept his advice. In the end you will be glad of the experience because you will have broadened your outlook to understand one more phase of living. THROUGH THE WINDOW
St. Louis (MPA)—Mrs. Fred Schaffer was awakened by smoke one night, and found her home was on fire. Unable to make her way through the house because of the dense smoke, Mrs. Schaffer was forced to leave through the bedroom window and arouse neighbors and give the alarm. As all doors were locked on the inside, neighbors had to break another window to get in and extinguish the fire.

One futile occupation is trying to save money by auditing the checks at night clubs.

Young People Dance Tonight

There will be two dances this week at the city hall. Friday night Jack and His Melody Lads will play for the older group of dancers from 8:00 until 10:30 o'clock. Saturday night the dance will be for the younger group with Mike and his Rhythm Kings playing from 7:30 until 9:30.

Now that the weather has turned cool again it seems that roller skating at the Methodist church attracts more and more young people each week. Tuesday the younger crowd will skate from 3:30 until 5:30; and 7:00 until 9:30 for the older group.

The little folks, too, have their share in the Youth Federation activities, because each Saturday morning finds many of them in the city hall for the story hour. Children, eight to 10 years old come at 9:00 o'clock and children five to seven years old at 10:00 o'clock. All children are welcome and they enjoy the hour of stories and games.

The girls' clubs are planning a program to be given for their mothers on May 18 at 7:30 o'clock in the grade school auditorium. The Cardinal and Jay clubs are combining with the two Junior American Citizens' clubs to give their mothers an evening of song and entertainment. Although they are working very hard to make the program a success, they are also taking time out for baseball practice and the Jay club has formed two teams which play each other once or twice a week. The Cardinal club which is planning to form two or three teams from its members will start practice this week and the Junior American Citizens will also start baseball soon.

When the President presides at Cabinet meetings we wonder if he asks the secretary to present the "unfinished business"—or does he have a sense of humor in such matters.

Favorite in Kentucky Derby

El Chico, shown here with Nick Wall up, is a favorite in the sixty-fifth running of the Kentucky Derby on Saturday at Churchill Downs. A total of 115 entries were originally listed for the $50,000 added feature for three-year-olds promoted by Col. Matt J. Winn. Special stands were erected for this year's event.

Wild Life Nests Need Protection

Much of Michigan's reputation as good hunting grounds for next fall will be determined by weather and farm operations to wild life in the next few weeks, suggests R. G. Hill, specialist in game management at Michigan State College.

Late burning of dry grass and stubble fields, late plowing and uncontrolled cats and dogs will likely take a heavy toll of the spring hatching of pheasants, quail and partridge and affect the new crop of cottontail rabbits.

"Cats and dogs are valuable in any farming community," Hill admits, "but if they are not properly controlled, these animals can be classified among the worst menaces to wild life, especially during nesting and brooding seasons."

Part of the natural ingenuity of game birds in hiding their nesting places also adds to spring damage. The "Hunkie," or Hungarian partridge, Hill points out, not only is difficult to see on a nest, but during the nesting period when she goes out foraging, she covers the eggs with grass. This makes it almost impossible for sympathetic sportsmen to avoid the nests.

Burning in late spring along fence rows, roadsides and in stubble fields and edges of woodlots and swales can ruin nests and clutches of eggs or remove protection the birds require during nesting and brooding.

There can be some salvaging by interested farmers and sportsmen who find egg clutches disturbed and abandoned. Broody hens can be put to use by farmers, says Hill. Or the eggs, if not set immediately, should be kept in a cool place, well ventilated and the eggs turned at least once each day until they can be incubated.

PLYMOUTH REPRESENTED AT BRANCH MANAGER MEET

Managers of the branch offices of the secretary of state's office met on Friday evening in Detroit and Miss Mildred Stoddard represented the Plymouth office. The session was held at the Cass Avenue branch in Detroit and Lee Richardson, director of the motor vehicle division of the department of state was the evening speaker. The difficulties encountered in collecting sales tax on automobiles was the chief topic for conversation. This task is new for the branch offices and many problems have arisen. The next meeting of the group will be the last of May and Roy Annett, of Pontiac will be the host. It is expected that the secretary of state, Harry Kelly, will be present at one of the meetings.

Hobbies Shown Again Tonight

Tonight is the last night of the Hobby Show. From 7:30 until 10 this evening the exhibits will be on display for the second big night. Last evening the enthusiastic sightseers marveled at the Gun Club's display of antique firearms, the darkroom of the geologists, the magnificent collection of dolls from all over the world, the Boy Scouts display of handicraft, the expensive and rare glass exhibits, and many others.

The Civic committee urges all residents to come to the show which is being held at the high school gymnasium and which is free and open to the public. There is still time this afternoon to enter collections in the show, if they are brought to the school-house before 7:30.

Unlike last year when the displays were easily confused, strips of colored crepe paper separate the various collections this time and glass is used to cover the more fragile displays. Music is being provided again this evening by high school students, Ten Boy Scouts of P-2 and ten local Girl Scouts are assisting members of the committee in seeing that last year's record of neither breakage nor loss is kept again this year.

Spring Luncheon Well Attended

Over 250 tickets were sold by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church for the spring luncheon last Thursday. Anne Campbell, the guest of honor, spoke after the luncheon on "Everyday Poetry" and read many of her own selections.

Her poem "Our Ladies Aid" was the highlight of the day, because it seemed to fit the afternoon spirit of the group. Miss Campbell told how she happened to get started on a career while she was the mother of three small children and how she had kept at it daily through the years.

Most of her verses are drawn from her daily experiences with her home, children and household tasks. She does not deny that much of her poetry is sentimental but says that a woman's world is her home and family and that there is no reason for not being sentimental about it.

Flat bowls of lavender snapdragons, sweet peas and daisies centered the tables and these were flanked by pastel candles on the speaker's table. Delightful nut-cakes decorated with daisies and crocus added colorful touches to the luncheon table.

The luncheon Mrs. Maxine Johnson and Mrs. W. S. McAllister sang several songs with Miss Campbell as the accompanist. The duets were both compositions of Ethelbert Nevin, "O, That We Two Were Maying" and "My Rosary."

Trout Appetites Yield Bait Hints

Nearly 1,400 trout stomachs examined by an insect authority at Michigan State College has led to a generalized diagnosis of trout appetites. Brooks and browns, fishermen, are particular about their feed, if a sportsman seeks to match his bait with a successful catch, while a rainbow trout's appetite is unpredictable.

W. F. Morofsky, entomology department staff member at the college, has tramped many miles of Michigan's trout streams and "skinned" sufficiently a large number of fish to obtain unusual knowledge. Fishermen have donated trout stomachs by the hundreds. The Fisheries Institute at Ann Arbor donated nearly 800 trout stomachs to the research.

Here are some of the results: Brook trout eat caddis fly larvae if they can, but second choice is a May fly nymph. The larvae is a wormlike creature, while the nymph resembles the adult except in size.

Brown trout pick the same insects for feeding, but stomach counts indicate their preference is a reverse of the brook trout.

Rainbow trout apparently are individualists, says Morofsky. One rainbow might pick what the brown and the brook trout would relish. The next rainbow, with the proof in his stomach, has gorged on a mouse, fish hooks, a bunch of shells or even a full feeding of aquatic plants. But nothing definite that a fisherman could name as a preferred rainbow food, and thus one that would be best for bait this spring.

Studies in northern as well as in southern streams have shown little difference in insect prevalence in the streams or in preferences by the fish. Morofsky's insect surveys primarily are directed toward making stream improvement and fish propagation effective, in cooperation with the state department of conservation and other agencies.

Ypsilanti Track Men Gain Plymouth Victory By 10 Points

Although the Plymouth track team checked in six first places out of a possible 12, the Ypsilanti high school track men upset them by a narrow margin in a dual meet held on the Plymouth cinder ring last Monday, May 1.

The Ypsi speedsters only equaled the six first places that Plymouth brought home, but their consistent placing of men in the second and third slots and occasional slams of the entire event proved once more the old axiom "It's the second and third places that win track meets." The final score was Plymouth 47, Ypsi 57.

Fifteen of the Plymouth points—or three first places—were accounted for by that hurdler who is invincible occasionally, Joe Scarpulla. He clicked in the high hurdles, heaved the shot a good 35 feet, and then raced back to dish up a third first on the low hurdles. Not content with providing digit arithmetic for finger counters, he also ran a leg of the 800-yard relay but failed to get any further mention when the Ypsi baton carriers sizzled around the track a mile too fast for Plymouth comfort.

Bob Marshall, who has come up rapidly in the prior meets in the half mile, came into his own Monday and broke the string 25 feet ahead of the nearest aspiring Ypsi contender, to take a coveted first. Champion of Plymouth placed third in this event.

Doug Prough was little pushed when he won the pole vault and Bob Marshall gained three more points when he tied for second and third.

Putting enough "umph" in his last jump to win by four inches, Keith Joffile again took the spotlight in the running broad jump. Besides winning the relay, Ypsi "slammed" Plymouth in the 100-yard dash and the 440. In every event but the half-mile and high jump she won a third place—which accounts for those ten points that spelled Plymouth's defeat.

PLYMOUTH DROPS FIRST TRACK MEET TO ECORSE

The long expected and long postponed opening track meet of the current season was held with Plymouth entertaining Ecorse last Tuesday, April 25.

Inclement weather had previously forced the postponement of meets with Ypsilanti and Warren.

Winning firsts in the 100, 440, 880-yard dash, low hurdles, high jump and shot put and placing in every event, Ecorse collected 69 2/3 points to walk away with top honors. Plymouth gained

Joe Scarpulla romped the high hurdles in 18.2 second to place first in the opening event. Kenny McMullen accomplished the expected in winning the mile. Doug Prough heaved himself nine feet in the air to take the pole vault and Keith Joffile ran the 220 in 25.4 to set down Plymouth's four first places.

Todd of Ecorse, a small and muscular negro, jumped 20 feet, four and one half inches to capture first place in the broad jump. Four inches behind him was Joffile of Plymouth, who took second. Leo Schmitz, who although a senior, is out for the first time this season, left all his competitors in the dust for three quarters of the quarter-mile, but on the final sprint he couldn't maintain the terrific pace he had set and finished fourth.

Joe Scarpulla placed first in the high hurdles, second in the low hurdles and third in the shot put, to do his quota for Plymouth.

Bob Marshall followed the field a trifle too long in the half-mile and the blazing sprint he applied at the finish brought him only a second place.

The 100-yard dash ended with three Plymouth men placing in fourth, fifth and sixth places. This race, the 440 and the 880 relay were the only events in which Plymouth failed to place. Plymouth's average may not appear excellent, but an opening track meet is an opening track meet and in the races in which Plymouth placed, the runners looked good.

CLASS VALEDICTORIAN TO MOVE TO SWITZERLAND

Veronica Marti, valedictorian of the class of '39, will sail for Europe with her mother soon after she graduates, to make her home in Bern, Switzerland. In the fall she expects to attend Bern University and take a course in languages. This university is intimately connected with her family, for her grandfather was dean of the university, and at the present her aunt, a Doctor of Philosophy, is a professor of Latin and Greek there. The Martis hope to sail the last of July from New York harbor on the Champain. They will dock at Havre, France, spend a few days in Paris, and then go on to Switzerland.

While in high school Veronica has been a member of the girls' double quartet and a Girl Reserve. In her senior year she won the greatest honor of all, that of valedictorian of her class. Born in Rosedale Gardens. She has attended Plymouth high school for four years. Up until this time Veronica has never done any exciting traveling, her trips being confined to a visit to Chicago at the time of the last world's fair and another trip to see the world renowned Niagara Falls.

Veronica's many high school friends wish her well, and the best of luck and regret that she will not be among them when class reunions roll around in the years to come.

THE ROCKS SUBDUED NORTHVILLE 8-5

Plymouth slaughtered its perennial rival Northville, at Riverdale park last Friday, April 23. Kelley pitching for Plymouth, held the rival team hitless up through the third inning when he was replaced by Westfall.

Hitt leading off for Plymouth singled, Hoffman walked, and Folsom also singled. With the bases loaded G. Krumm tied to second; but second baseman Bongiovanni fumbled, putting G. Krumm on first and bringing in Hitt for the first run of the game. M. Krumm singled but was forced out at home on Porteous' double. Porteous, Robinson and Hitt were the only ones to score after this, making the score at the end of the first inning 8-0. In the first of the second inning no scores were made by Northville and for Plymouth G. Krumm scored adding a point to Plymouth's score. Newman was then out at first, M. Krumm and Kelley struck out.

In the third and fourth no runs were scored. In the fifth Olson took Newman's place catching. For Northville, Bongiovanni struck out. Holcomb getting to third and La Rue and Kinamel fanned out. For Plymouth Kaiser walked being the only one to get on but was out for stealing. In the sixth inning luck seemed to appear over the horizon for Northville. Orr came in on Hartner's single scoring the first run for Northville but Hartner was caught on second for stealing giving them three outs. In the last inning Northville seemed to pull out of the mud but so little it didn't do much good. Bongiovanni and Houghton added two runs to the score. Orr pounded a hit to left field and Franke walked leading the bases. Franke was forced out at second by Hartner's single thus ending the game with a final score 9-5. The line-up is as follows:

JUNIOR'S JOTTINGS

Harold Davis was one day last week a very perturbed man. He was placidly bent over a book in the corner when a librarian (yes, that blond one with the poetic ambitions) came along with that funny little can to water the flowers. Being of a mischievous nature, she dribbled a little water on the broad neck of Mr. Davis. He roused, he felt. He snorted. He saw the librarian tending her plants with almost, but not quite, latent mirth. "Shelp me, if you do that again, I'll murder you," he growled. The attacking female grinned saucily. "Bet it's the first time in three years water's touched your neck," she said, and retreated. Mr. Davis was absolutely floored. He sputtered. He snarled. He threatened. He wiped off his neck and returned half-heartedly to his books, to study no more that day.

Mrs. Miller, girls' gym instructor, wonders why the girls invariably doll up on Thursday mornings second, third, and noon hours. The priming, it seems, is not due especially to the fact that dancing classes convene at those times, but that a terribly handsome (oh, much more handsome than Power) youth accompanies the instructors and dances along, too (oh, much more divinely than Astaire).

We hereby nominate Larry Newman, catcher on the local nine, as P. H. S. Quimaster. At every game, home or abroad, Larry is the center of attention, and generally he has a whole gallery to himself. It's a valuable asset, too. Larry can egg a batter on to swinging when he doesn't want to, and taunt the opposition until it sees red and makes mistakes, and endears (?) himself to any audience. By the way, did you know that he wraps a chunk of raw beefsteak around his hand before putting it into the mitt to deaden the shock of the ball? No, he doesn't eat it afterwards!

COOLEY TAKES OPENER AS HITT FANS TWENE

Plymouth opened its baseball season at Cooley last Wednesday, April 26, and bowed 5-4 after nine innings of play. From their showing, the Rocks appear to be headed for a successful season. It took four Cooley pitchers to best Bob Hitt, who was in his usual form, striking out twelve. Besides, his mates made four errors behind him, letting in two runs.

Five entirely new faces made their appearance in the line-up, all in the outfield. These were M. Krumm, Blackford, Bickley, Lee, and Kaiser. Jack Hovey, a pitcher last year, also played in the outfield; Bob Folsom converted from a center-field to third-baseman, played a good game, though he did not get any tough chances.

Cooley took an early lead when a freak single, a walk and a passed ball put a runner on third. Hitt trapped him off base, but he scored when Folsom hit him in the head with the ball. Two singles gave Cooley another tally in the third, but Plymouth tied it up in the fourth. Folsom walked, "Butch" Krumm was hit by a pitched ball, and Lee forced Folsom at third. Newman scored Krumm with a sharp single to right and Lee went to third, from whence he tallied when the right fielder, in returning the ball, threw it through the second baseman's legs. It was Cooley's only error. The opposition went two up again in the sixth, when three Plymouth errors, and one Cooley bingle kicked in a brace of runs. The two coaches agreed to play nine innings in order to try out their material, and Cooley immediately threw in a completely new team. The Rocks took advantage of this by tying the score in the eighth, Hitt and G. Krumm singled and Folsom walked. Larry Newman then walloped another timely hit, driving across two and achieving runs-batted-in honors for the day.

Cooley came up in the last half of the ninth with the score tied at four apiece. So the lead-off man singled, was sacrificed to second, and came home on another hit—and "Dear Old Cooley" had won. Hitt was tired, not being used to the nine-inning routine.

Wes Hoffman was batting ace for the game with a solid single and a slashing double. He was left stranded both times. Larry Newman had a pair of one-baggers, and Hitt, Folsom, Hovey and G. Krumm each had one. Cooley's seven blows were well divided among the approximate two dozen men who represented her, only getting more than a single base. This was Kach, the catcher, who slammed one against the left field fence for a double. The two teams were very evenly matched, and Plymouth should administer a good whipping when the schools meet again.

MOVIES SHOWN TO SENIOR HIGH IN DRIVE TO DISCOVER PREVALENCE OF TB

In an effort to encourage students to have skin tests taken for tuberculosis, the State Department of Health presented two movies last Wednesday, April 26 to the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades. These movies explained the various methods of contact of the tubercle bacillus, and the method of discovery and cure of the disease. This inaugurated a drive in Plymouth high school to have all students between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five take the skin test. The test involves no cost to the student, but he must have the consent of his parents. It is hoped that every student will take advantage of this opportunity.

PANTHERS RUN RAMPANT IN PLYMOUTH TRACK MEET

River Rouge's track team ran circles around Plymouth last Thursday, April 26, in a dual meet held on the River Rouge track. Against the superior competition Plymouth was able only to gain 11 points against Rouge's 93.

In whitewashing Plymouth, the Panthers took every first place and on four occasions scored grand slams in the event with their speedy sprints.

Otis Wade, dusky high jumper for Rouge, draped his lean body over the bar at 6 feet, 2 1/2 inches to break the River Rouge record. He easily nosed out all other competition to win his specialty.

Winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes, the broad jump and running on the winning relay team, Lowell Healy collected a total of 16 2/3 points to take highest individual scoring honors.

Besides winning the 880 relay, the Panthers placed first, second and third in the broad jump, shot put, 100 and 440.

Although he made only four points, Jimmy Butler was still Plymouth's high point man. He accomplished this feat by placing third in the high hurdles and second in the low.

The only two second places that Plymouth gained were in the pole vault and the low hurdles. Jimmy Butler's splitting the hurdles a few steps before a Panther entry and Doug Prough's clearing the bar at ten feet; six inches behind a ten feet; nine inches Rouge jump were Plymouth's highest scores.

Other events in which Plymouth placed (third) were the high hurdles, 220, 880, mile and the high jump.

Plymouth was ostensibly handicapped by the absence of Joffile—captain, sprinter and broad jumper.

LOST: MY CAT

(By Pansy)
Have you seen my pussy?
He's been gone for nigh a week.
He's big and gray and friendly
And down his back there runs a streak.

He's the nicest kitty ever
And he's nice to cuddle too,
And ever since he's gone
I've been feeling awful blue.

My pussy's name is Zipper.
His whiskers are shiny black;
So if you see my pussy
You be sure to send him back.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

ADDISON (MPA) — LeRoy Perkins, while playing basketball here, lost a finger in an accident that was both freakish and painful. When he leaped for the ball near a basket, a ring he was wearing caught on a hook supporting a mat. He was suspended for a second, but his weight pulled off the first joint of his finger. It was later amputated below the second joint.

The Gay Nineties dancing party, Saturday evening, proved to be the success that the committee had hoped for. There were 100 guests in attendance, many of them in old fashioned attire. Most of the ladies were gowned in beautiful styles of many years ago, and the men came in dress suits of long ago and other interesting costumes. Those present enjoyed it to the utmost.

The decorations were in keeping with the Gay Nineties, with red and white checkered lamp shades and table cloths; bottles and jugs were used on the mantel, containing soft drinks; old-time posters were on the walls and the buffet luncheon consisted of kidney bean salad, cold meats, pickles, different kinds of bread, loaf cake and coffee. For the next best essay, the writer will receive $5.00 in cash.

ED SULLIVAN, well known Detroit Free Press columnist, has given me special permission to reprint his column appearing in the Free Press on April 16th . . . It may give you some valuable hints in helping to write that essay . . . They must be finished by May 15th . . . Hurry . . .

HOLLYWOOD, April 16—There arrived in the morning mail from Prof. E. D. Snow, of Port Chester High School, a clipping from the Port Chester Daily Item . . . He had penciled an arrow pointing to the "Twenty Years Ago Today" feature, and the item said: "Twenty years ago today, the senior class at high school held the annual elections. Most popular boy, Laurence Cornwall; most popular girl, Mildred Gregg; most athletic boy, Edward Sullivan, et cetera . . . For some reason or other, as you kids will learn as you grow older, you feel always that it was just a few years ago that you were in high school . . . Then you see yourself listed in a twenty-years-ago-today item, and you get hep to the fact that you're getting along in years.

All over the country there are tens of thousands of youngsters who will sit down after school this week or next and vote in the annual class elections . . . Perhaps to those of you who are voting, a graduate of the Class of '15-19 can tell you some of the things that will happen in the course of 20 years.

Along the route, some old buzzards will sell you a bill of goods on a war, and when the bands start playing, it's going to be tough for you to stay out of it . . . Now these old buzzards sold some friends of mine a bill of goods back in 1918 and the bands played and the flags waved . . . The only ones who weren't fooled by the noise and hurrahs were the mothers, because they could shut their ears to the bands and hear their sons groaning as bayonets were plunged into their stomachs . . . The old buzzards who promoted the war are still living, most of them, and they'll be living after the next war, because for some reason they never expose their own stomachs to bayonets.

So when the old buzzards start getting you all hepped up about war, remember that war is dirty business and bloody business . . . It never has solved anything because a bayonet and a hand grenade are cruel and stupid things, and can solve nothing. . . Remember that there is no war to end wars . . . One war only is the corner stone for another . . . Death is preferable to dishonor, but be sure that the issue is honor.

In 20 years since we sat in Miss Jenne's English class and marked our class-election ballots, I've learned a lot of things . . . The most important thing I've learned is that this is a short span we live, and at its best difficult . . . So the best way to live is to help other wayfarers . . . be nice to people, be helpful, be considerate . . . consider each person you meet a human being as you are a human being . . . Life is much too short for hatreds and bigotries.

In 20 years you find these things to be true: That religion is good for you . . . That there are more decent people in the world than stinkers, and that you'll get more help than hindrance . . . That it's stupid to be dishonest, stupid to be a criminal, stupid to be a liar . . . that a crook who steals a dollar could, with less effort, make two honest dollars . . . That personal honor and reputation are your greatest assets and the law of average operates in favor of decent people . . . That success is the most overrated on all mirages, that self-made men would be less boring if they genuflected to Lady Luck, and that all tombstones read alike.

A NORTHERN MICHIGAN VIEWPOINT

These are hectic days in political affairs in Michigan. Within both the major parties a terrific battle against domination by various factions is being waged. The contest within the Republican party is of more than ordinary importance because of the fact that it has once again assumed control of the state government and will without much question win in the fight next year—providing!

Right now the "underdog" element, those who believe in really doing something for the greatest number and who detest the political spoilsman and the methods they use, are trying to purge the Republican party of the elements that have caused it so much trouble and have used it for the purpose of personal gain.

This new element is going to win eventually, there is no question about that.

The viewpoint of a northern Michigan editor, Harry Trezise of The Wakefield News, on this contest, is of especial interest. Mr. Trezise has for years been one of the outstanding editors of the Upper Peninsula. He stands high in the ranks of the Republican party in that part of the state, therefore, what he says on this matter is of more than ordinary interest. It follows:

"In spite of the Republican victories at the polls last November and April and its complete control of the state legislature, the prestige of the Republican party in Michigan is at low ebb.

"The death of Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald on March 16 laid bare the paucity of its leadership in Michigan. In the late governor the Republicans had a rallying point—a reason for a measure of harmony and unanimity of action. Without him the Republicans are as scattered as sheep in a storm.

"At the moment Frank D. McKay, Grand Rapids financier, and Edward Barnard, Detroit attorney, are the outstanding party leaders. Their power has been demonstrated at the fall and spring convention of the party in the recent efforts of the legislature and by some of the official acts of the elective state officers.

"There is a desperate attempt being made to throw off this influence. In the legislature, Elton R. Eaton, outspoken and militant representative from the Wayne county area, has led the fight to curb the powers of Barnard in the county conventions; he has been among the legislators to demand a thorough investigation of McKayism and its influence upon state affairs. He and a few other Republicans foresee in the failure to cleanse their party of these influences a return of the Democratic party to power in state affairs.

"The great mass of independent voters in the state which supported the Republican ticket last fall on its platform of economy, civil service and intelligent administration of relief and labor problems have thus far been sorely disappointed. Payrolls in almost every department of the state government have soared to new heights since January 1. The only substantial decrease has been in the administration of the state highway department, and this agency is under the only Democratic administrative official. The picture of politicians maneuvering to get the control of relief administration to better control local patronage—one of the greatest and most effective criticisms of the Democratic relief program—has not been beneficial to the party.

"The labor vote, much of which deflected to the Republican party last fall, due to the intelligent promises on labor and pledge to enact a fair labor law, appear to be doomed to disappointment. No labor law will be enacted at this session, which will have any of the "teeth" or the pledges fulfilled as made in the pre-election campaign by the Republican party.

"The ousting of the public utilities commission by substituting a new name and returning old faces has been an absurdity as well as needless drain upon the taxpayers. The reorganization of the state tax commission with the same personnel as a few years ago is equally as farcical. The action of the state conservation commission through advice of the state legal department in failing to settle the problem of riparian rights along public fishing streams is a compromise with the power interests which sportsmen and tourist associations will not forget and can do no good to the Republican party.

"The hunger for jobs and the disappointment in failing to receive them has dampened the enthusiasm of the workers who have had to sit by and watch politicians who for years have lived on the public payrolls return to the most lucrative positions in the state government. Politicians and officials, who for the most part, have long outlived their influence as assets to the party.

"The need for a leader is paramount with the task of awakening the Republican party to its pledges to the voters of the state. The first four months of its return to power is a story of broken faith and shattered promises. The Democrats look on with increasing satisfaction. A do-nothing legislature, factional jealousy and strife within the party is making political fodder for the next campaign.

"The rank and file of the party can be of little service in the present dilemma. Criticism may help to arouse leaders to their responsibilities. The party's record to date is nothing of which to be proud. We can hope and trust that leadership will emerge from the chaos; confidence and good-will will replace distrust and jealousy and a record of accomplishment in state affairs will give the party good and sufficient reason to seek further favors at the hands of the electorate."

SOCIAL SECURITY WHY AND HOW.

Senator Robert Taft of Ohio in a recent speech raised the question, "What Is Social Security?" and then proceeded to explain the act in the following enlightening way which is easy to understand.

"The present Social Security Act has been tremendously burdensome upon industry. Even now the 2 percent payroll tax is raising approximately $600,000,000 a year from the people of the United States, while paying out only about $12,000,000 in pensions. The unemployment insurance tax of 3 percent on payrolls, all paid by the employer, raises about $900,000,000 a year. Ultimately this tax will all be passed on to the consumer, or passed back to the workman, increasing the price of every product that the average workman buys. But in the meantime it puts a heavy premium on cutting down labor, and there is a constant incentive to employers to cut down the number of workmen through the increase of machinery or otherwise. The payroll tax tends to increase unemployment just at a time when unemployment is the most serious menace in the entire country.

"The so-called reserve plan in the Social Security Act contemplates the building up of a huge reserve, amounting to $50,000,000,000 by 1980. In the coming fiscal year the government will take away from the people in payroll taxes $1,600,000,000. About three-fifths of the unemployment insurance money will be paid out; the rest used to increase the unemployment insurance reserve. More than half the old age tax will be used to increase the reserve, even if the grants to states for pensions are deducted, so that unless some change is made, the government will take in over $700,000,000 more than it pays but, including railroad payroll taxes, depriving the people of just that much purchasing power at a time when it is vitally needed.

"The law provides that this reserve must be invested in government bonds. This means that when the money comes into the reserve fund, it is paid over into the treasury, and the treasury prints and puts into the reserve fund the same amount of government bonds. In other words, the government invests its money in its own I. O. U.'s. After the money gets into the general treasury, it is used to pay the current deficits of the New Deal Administration. The reserve is supposed to provide pensions in the future, but what happens in 1980, when the government wants to get money with which to pay the pensions? There is no cash in the reserve fund, so it has to go out and tax the people a second time to pay the interest on the bonds so that there may be money in the fund to pay the pensions. People have to pay taxes a second time because the first payment of taxes has been used for the payment of deficits.

"Of course the truth is the whole reserve plan is unsound. It is sound enough for a private insurance company, dealing with a limited number of policy-holders, but an entire people can't have a reserve. The people cannot live on machinery or buildings or property. They are interested in food and clothing, and no nation ever has had a reserve of more than a year's supply of food and clothing. In substance, the only way we can feed and clothe the people who are not working is to tax the people who are working at or about the same time, or are receiving a return on past savings at or about the same time, a sufficient part of their earnings to take care of those who are not working. Under a nation-wide old age pension system, we might as well recognize that these pensions must be paid substantially out of current taxes. The whole plan should be on a pay-as-you-go basis. If we do that, we can reduce the payroll tax for the present; because 1 per cent instead of 2 per cent will take care of all the money now paid out by the federal government to assist in the payment of pensions.

"After protesting for years that the New Deal social security plan was the last word in perfection, Secretary Morgenthau last month suddenly admitted that it was fundamentally wrong, and that the reserve should be cut down to a much smaller sum, sufficient only to take care of minor variations in probable tax receipts. The Secretary and the President both seem to have finally come around to Senator Vandenberg's proposal that the payroll tax increase, which was supposed to go into effect the first of January, 1940, should be deferred, but no action has yet been proposed by the Democratic leaders in Congress. Even if this preliminary step is taken, however, the federal government is still going to tax the people during the next fiscal year $1,600,000,000, and turn back, in the form of unemployment insurance benefits, aid to states for pensions, and expenses of operation, only about $860,000,000, so that more than $700,000,000 will go into reserves at a time when we need all the purchasing power possible in the United States. With Secretary Morgenthau's change of front, the whole future of old age pensions is in complete confusion, and a new start must be made.

"If a man wishes a home to live in in his old age, he must save the money to own that home. If he wishes an income to enable him to live comfortably, with an occasional winter trip to Florida, he had better save enough money in the bank or building and loan association to provide his own pension. We owe to every man a reasonable allowance to protect him and his family against the inequalities of our economic system. But the scope of any plan to accomplish this purpose is so tremendous, its cost is so great, that we may destroy the whole basis of the very economic system to which we are looking to provide social security itself. No one should have any pride of opinion in his particular pet theories, and certainly I have none in mine, but I am convinced that the system must be more simple, more efficient and more co-ordinated than the welter of confusion which we see in this country today."

LIQUOR ADVERTISING

Petitions are being circulated to have the legislature enact a law to bar liquor advertising in Michigan. We do not oppose the enactment of such a law, neither do we believe such a law necessary. The people have it in their own hands to stop liquor advertising within 30 days. There is no law compelling people to subscribe to newspapers and magazines which carry liquor advertising. If 200 people in every town in Michigan took it upon themselves to notify publishers of newspapers that readers are offended by liquor advertising there would be no advertising evil for a law to correct. If 50 subscribers of magazines in every town in the United States wrote to the publishers that the subscriptions would not be renewed unless liquor advertising was dropped, and those subscribers actually carried out their threats, there would be very little advertising carried after a six-month period.

People are too tolerant. They dislike to take direct action. They want to have the legislature act for them. It seems so easy. Publishers accept liquor advertising because their readers have not told them that it is resented. And if the readers have said they resent liquor advertising they have not acted to stop their subscriptions.

A newspaper or magazine does not have to accept liquor advertising. For ourselves we refuse to be a party in any attempt to fasten the tobacco and liquor habits upon new victims. It is too great a danger for the few pennies of advertising revenue involved.

No law is needed to stop liquor advertising. The people have the remedy in their own hands.—Nelson Brown in The Ingham County News.

SHE WRITES THE ITEMS

Many lovely things are being said and written about Mrs. Luren D. Dickinson, Michigan's new first lady. All of them are true and deserved to be told for the satisfaction of the citizens—and particularly the women—of our state. One thing, however, has not been properly emphasized. For many years, before the writer can remember, Mrs. Dickinson was the "Center Eaton" correspondent of the old Charlotte Tribune, and for a dozen years now the Republic Tribune. In this work she was punctually itself and down through the years has faithfully "covered" her neighborhood for the home town paper. Try, if you can, to appreciate what an important service the weekly news of this neighborhood has meant in thousands of homes up and down the land. Mrs. Dickinson is a grand first lady and all such, but we stand in respectful and reverential salute to the steady, quiet, homey and thoughtful farm woman who always, it seems, wrote the news from Center Eaton. She is the Mrs. Dickinson we know and it is our prayer that she may be spared for many years to enjoy the honor and glory which she richly deserves to share with her distinguished husband—the governor of Michigan.—Muri H. De Foe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

WHY NOT A GRAND JURY?

Why was it necessary to pay Frank McKay, Grand Rapids political boss, more than a hundred thousand dollars in connection with the Blue Water Bridge deal?
What did McKay do to earn that money?
That's what the public wants to know and is entitled to know.
Did it buy political influence?
If it did, then there is "something rotten in Denmark."

The twentieth anniversary of the order of the Eastern Star in this place, and installation of officers was held at Masonic hall last Tuesday evening. A banquet was served at six-thirty to about one hundred members. At 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order by George Richwine, retiring Patron. Twelve charter members were present, who were invited to the East and given Chautauqua salute, after which the officers elect were installed by Maude Pettigill, retiring Worthy Matron, assisted by Edna Richwine as Marshall and Alida Ford as Chaplain. After the installation of officers, two beautiful solos were rendered by Calvin Whipple; a brief but interesting story of the order was read, a short history of Plymouth Chapter was given, and a paper on the objects and teachings of the order was given by Ada Murray. The following officers were installed for the ensuing year: Sarah Cook, Worthy Matron; Chauncey Rausby, Worthy Patron; Anna Mimmack, Associate Matron; Mary Brown, secretary; Clara Taylor, treasurer; Almeda Travis, conductress; Edna Richwine, Chaplain; Flora Rattenbury, Marshal; Florence Caster, Organist; Ada Murray, Adah;

Harris & Co. in connection with the purchase and sale of the Blue Water Bridge bonds.

They certainly were entitled to preference over any other concern. They did a good job and are deserving of commendation.

It is doubtful if any other concern would have considered buying the bonds at that time at the price paid for them.

But why did they pay Frank McKay more than a hundred thousand dollars?

We repeat, that's what the public wants to know and is entitled to know.

There's a way to find out, too.

That way, in our opinion, is by a grand jury investigation.

We have for a long time been hearing stories about the political power exercised by certain individuals in this state.

This is a good time to clarify the atmosphere and no innocent party should object to such a procedure.

Governor Dickinson should do as did Governor Lehman of New York—select an investigator of the type of Thomas E. Dewey, and let him go to it.

If there is any "racket" being operated in this state by any set of politicians, let's find it out now.

If there isn't, it is just as important to find that out.

There is a lot being written about the Blue Water Bridge deal which is just pure rot.

The bridge itself is a fine structure. It was financed and built in a business-like way, with the best engineering talent in the United States. It is a credit to the bridge commission and the state highway department.

There is no need to make apologies on that score.

The bridge is a profitable enterprise, also, and it will eventually be a free bridge; which is something worth while, and which we all want.

But why was it necessary to pay Frank McKay $100,000 to "revive" the project?

The Governor of Michigan shouldn't delay action much longer in connection with this matter.—Port Huron Times-Herald.
