

Zoning Plan to be Revised by City Board

Extension of Business Area Suggested

Revision of the proposed city zoning ordinance was ordered this week after a final public hearing was held by the city commission and the planning commission.

Suggestions that the business zone be extended further south on Main street resulted in the decision to refer the entire ordinance to the planning commission again for further study on this point.

Interested taxpayers attending the hearing heard T. Glenn Phillips, city planning consultant, explain in detail how the proposed ordinance would operate. The zoning plan, when adopted, will establish districts and prescribe the type of structures that may be built in the particular area. Health regulations such as minimum standards for lighting and ventilation of the new buildings, will be provided also.

The planning commission expects to complete suggested revisions to the ordinance and map and give formal approval to the proposal on June 26. Then the ordinance will go to the city commission for passage in July.

Celebrate Their 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blunk celebrated their silver wedding anniversary, Saturday evening, with dinner for 85 relatives and friends. Long tables were set on the lawn, the main table being centered with a three-tiered cake topped with miniature bride and groom, flanked by tall lighted silver tapers. Low bowls of garden flowers decorated the other tables.

Mrs. Blunk wore a floor length gown of navy triple sheer with a corsage of pink rosebuds to greet her guests, and for the double ring wedding ceremony later, she donned a white hemstitched chiffon with veil of tulle, the wedding gown of her daughter, Mrs. Donald Potter, who was a bride a year ago. Rev. Edgar Henricks of the Lutheran church in Plymouth performed the ceremony in the presence of guests from Owosso, Detroit, Ann Arbor, Fenton, Tecumseh, Northville and Plymouth. The "bride" was attended by her daughter, Jean, who wore a peach silk marquisette and a corsage of blue iris and sweet peas. Irving Blunk acted as best man for his brother, as he did 25 years ago.

Joseph Ribar and Walter Patterson, of this city, played on the accordion and violin while the guests marched to their places at the dinner table, and later for the dancing and musical games.

Assisting Mrs. Potter in serving the dinner were Mary Gots, Betty Brown, Barbara Robertson, Lila Mumby, Ardith Rowland and Jean, Blunk.

Mr. and Mrs. Blunk were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

273 Students Tested for T. B.

Two hundred seventy-three high school students have recently been examined for tuberculosis by the Plymouth high school health service, working in conjunction with the Michigan Tuberculosis association.

This is the first time in several years that such a service has been given in Plymouth, being brought here on request of high school authorities. After the first test was given, the persons who tested positive were given an X-ray to determine more completely their condition. Seventy-one such cases were X-rayed, but there were no active cases of tuberculosis discovered.

The test was not compulsory and the students all took the examination of their own free will.

Permanent records of all persons examined are kept on file at the Herman Keifer hospital at Detroit and may be referred to in cases where it is necessary.

Money for this service comes from the annual sale of Christmas seals which are sent out over the holiday season and sold by school children.

Coin Vendors, Robbery Suspects From Flint

Two West Virginia men, William H. King and Berle Joy, were picked up by the Plymouth police department for attempting to sell old coins. On investigation, the department found that the coins may have been stolen from Flint, Michigan.

Both men were turned over to the Flint authorities who will further investigate the case.

Proclamation

To the Citizens of Plymouth, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in these days of world-wide turmoil, with subversive forces and influences striving to discredit and destroy the ideals and institutions symbolized by our country's flag, all loyal Americans should answer this challenge by displaying and paying tribute to that flag as the emblem of our rights and liberties; and,

WHEREAS, with this end in view, the period June 8 to 14 has been designated as Flag Week by the United States Flag Association, headed by the president of the United States as honorary president general, during which time patriotic exercises and other appropriate functions are to be held in towns and cities throughout the land,

NOW, THEREFORE, as mayor of Plymouth, I do proclaim June 8 to 14 as FLAG WEEK and direct that during this period the flag of the United States be displayed on all municipal buildings and vehicles. Furthermore, I do invite the people of Plymouth to display the Stars and Stripes at their homes, places of business and other suitable locations as well as on their cars, and to hold patriotic exercises and do other suitable things as a public expression of love to the country, and allegiance to its glorious banner and belief in the institutions of American democracy.

The period June 8-14 has been designated as Flag Week by the United States Flag Association and is headed by the president of the United States as honorary president general.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Plymouth to be affixed this 6th day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-nine.

Excellent Rating Result of Good School Work

Superintendent George Smith has just been notified that Plymouth high school again approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the period ending June 30, 1940.

This is the 24th year of continuous membership in the association for the school.

Before any school can be considered for approval by the North Central association, it must be on the highest list of schools approved by the association. The school authorities within the state. It must also meet the policies, regulations, and criteria which the association maintains. These include such matters as instruction and spirit, school plant, sanitation and janitorial service, instructional equipment, the school library and library service, school records, policies of the board of education and the administration of the school and its financial support, preparation of the instructional and supervisory staff, the teaching load, the pupil load and the educational program.

The North Central Association approves both secondary schools and institutions of higher learning in twenty states comprising a large part of north central and central United States reaching from Montana in the Northwest and Arizona and New Mexico in the Southwest to Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia in the East.

There are certain advantages that result from such an approval. In brief they are: (1) Graduates of any approved high school are privileged to enter institutions of higher learning within the north central states without entrance examinations, provided they have credits in the high school subjects required by the college or university to which admission is sought. (There are some institutions that do not accept a certificate of graduation from high schools in the ranking of the graduate is in the lower one-fourth of the graduating class.)

(2) The graduates of approved high schools have the assurance that their high school diplomas will be acceptable to state boards having to do with the granting of certificates for the various professions of medicine, dentistry, law, etc. in states requiring graduation from high schools as a prerequisite to the obtaining of a teaching certificate, the graduates of schools approved by the North Central association meet the requirements of such a law.

(3) A high school approved by the North Central association must maintain high standards and consequently the community is assured of a program of modern high school education.

(4) The visitation of the school at regular intervals by superintendents serves to stimulate progress and to prevent the development of questionable practices and tendencies.

(5) A high school approved by the North Central association enjoys a greater prestige in the surrounding community and therefore finds it easier to attract non-resident students.

(6) The patrons have more confidence in and are generally more willing to support an approved high school.

"In 1938, Plymouth high school was put on the permanent list as a result of a program of examining every year awarded membership in the association as long as the graduates continue to do well in colleges and universities," Superintendent George A. Smith says.

Junior Rotarians Conduct Meeting

Eight Junior Rotarians presented a program before the Rotary club last Friday evening. These boys have attended the club since September and have been able to see Rotary club in action and learn about the club so that when they become members, the club will continue to be in efficient hands.

Bob Brown acted as president and presided over the meeting very capably. "Swede" Olson as sergeant-at-arms extracted plenty of funds and helped the finances of the club; Ellis Brandt introduced the visiting members and guests; Keith Jolliffe led the singing and also sang a solo; Bob Lorenz told about the art department of the high school; Jack Ross, captain of the school football team told about the honors state banquet; Don Mielbeck and Paul Thams, the last two boys to attend the meetings for this year expressed themselves about Rotary and their privileges in being able to see Rotary in action.

These boys have learned the principles of Rotary early and it has a great effect on the young men who attend the meetings and to those whom the boys discuss the theory of Rotary.

Hold Annual Meeting in Boston

Christian Scientists Have Confab June 5

Thousands of Christian Scientists met in Boston, Massachusetts, June 5.

The occasion for the great influx of the followers of Mary Baker Eddy was the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, which was filled at an early hour Monday afternoon right up to the center balcony under the very dome of the great edifice.

Looking beneath the surface ripples of troubled international relationships apparent in the world today, The Christian Science Board of Directors saw the deep-running currents of spiritual progress "keeping alive the vital realization of spiritual truth which Christian Scientists must always nurture, whether their work be along the specific line of healing or in the important channels connected with home, business, church, and government."

Various reports heard during the afternoon cited specific instances of spiritual enlightenment actively at work among the nations today. One revealed that Europe, seething center of turbulent political upheavals, is also a fertile field for spiritual growth, indicated in the formation of 21 new branch church organizations abroad, 12 of them being in England.

Similar progress was reported in North America where 25 new branch organizations were launched. Africa and Australia, it was stated, have formed one new organization each, while 32 societies were found raising their status to that of churches during the last 12 months. In educational fields, nine new university organizations became recognized units of the Christian Science movement.

Summarizing these distinct evidences of a continued reaching out for Truth, the Directors stated: "We are in a position to know, and are glad to report, that at no time in the history of the Christian Science movement has the healing work been carried on with greater success or along broader lines than it is today."

Continuing, the Directors said: "Surely in this period of unsettled world conditions our prayers are most essential, and each one of us should ask himself if he is doing all that he can to meet the aggressive suggestions of error, which would try constantly to intrude, and if he is working to help spiritualize thought, thereby correcting the generally accepted material beliefs."

Announcement of new officers constituted the main business of the meeting. George Shaw Cook, C.S.B., of Brookline, Massachusetts was named president for the ensuing year to succeed Ralph H. Knapp of Needham, Edward L. Ripley of Brookline and Ezra W. Palmer of Mansfield were re-elected treasurer and clerk respectively. The president is elected by The Christian Science board of directors for a one-year term, his chief duty being to serve as presiding officer at the annual meeting.

Mr. Cook is a native of Iowa, moving to Chicago at an early age where he received his public school education. Entering the commercial world he became a partner in a firm dealing in investment securities. He became interested in Christian Science in 1895, was class taught by Edward A. Kimball, C.S.D., served as First Reader of Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, Chicago, and served successively thereafter as committee on publication for Illinois, member of the Board of Lectureship, First Reader of The Mother Church and Associate Editor of The Christian Science Journal, Sentinel, and Herald, which position he now holds.

Mr. Deutchle was given the penny in change the day he arrived in Boston as a German immigrant. It happened to be one of only three coins valuable because of a mistake in lettering. Conservationists Plan Contest

Featuring the current meeting of the Western Wayne County Conservation association were colored motion pictures taken by E. C. "Skipper" Schwimer, big game hunter and fisherman from Detroit. As the skipper was unable to be in Plymouth Monday evening, his son ably pinched-hit for him.

Dr. E. E. Champe, president of the association, called the meeting to order and asked for the minutes of the last meeting which were read by the secretary, Lisle Alexander.

The president explained the proceedings of the board which met recently. The board discussed the Williamson plan of hunting on posted land, but no solution was derived.

A bait and fly casting contest is to be sponsored by the association on Thursday, June 22, at 6:00 p.m., at Wilcox lake. It was moved and seconded that the July meeting be held out-of-doors. As the regular meeting day falls on July 3, it was decided that the meeting will be on July 10 at the home of Melvin Guthrie on Newburg road. The first set of pictures shown were taken on the high seas of the skipper catching big game fish. The second group were of animals and scenes taken in the Rocky mountains. Following were jungle beasts and snakes which included one of the few pictures ever taken of the deadly Bushmaster snake in color.

A humorous film was entitled, "Just Fishing." Such incidents as catching fish with a frying pan and the different ways of landing fish from a canoe brought rounds of laughter from the large number of men who attended the meeting.

These films are shown throughout the state for such organizations as they were shown before Monday night in order to raise money to send two groups of 50 orphans to Mr. Schwimer's cottage in the Canadian north woods each year. The skipper has also made it possible for shut-ins to view the films by means of a special prism which projects the pictures on the ceiling if the person is bedridden.

If you know of a permanent shut-in who would like to see these interesting moving pictures, write to E. C. Schwimer at 517 Shelby, Detroit, and he will send the films and an operator to the address you send him.

Seek Improved Fire Protection

One hundred eighteen registered voters, 85 of which are taxpayers, filed a signed petition to the city commission, Monday, requesting additional fire protection in the area which lies north and east of the Perc Marquette railroad.

City Manager C. H. Elliott was authorized to request the Michigan Inspection bureau to make recommendations for the improvement of fire fighting equipment.

The Michigan Inspection bureau is the organization that establishes the classification of cities for fire insurance rates.

If majority rule is to control all things—human and divine—the inalienable rights of man will pursue a course as precarious as the path of a leaf in a storm.

Last Youth Dance Friday, June 16

The last dance of the Youth Federation season will be held in the Masonic Temple, Friday, June 16. The hours will be from 8 to 10:30 and the admission charge will be the same as usual. The ladies of the Eastern Star are giving this dance for all the young people of Plymouth who are between the ages of 12 and 20 and they hope to see you all there. Music will be provided by not one, but two dance orchestras, Mike and His Rhythm Kings and Jack and His Melody Lads. Be sure and plan to attend this dance, for it will close the season with a bang.

Roller skating is still holding forth in the Methodist church each Tuesday night from 7 to 9:30. The charge is small, the skates are furnished, and the room is well ventilated, so why not try it?

The story hours are gaining in popularity as the children find out how much fun can be had there. They like the stories, games, and especially the singing games. Why not send the children each Saturday morning to the story hours in the City hall? The hours are from 9 to 10 o'clock for children from 8 to 10 years, and 10 to 11 o'clock for children from 5 to 7 years. Of course, if they wish, they may come at 9 o'clock and stay until 11; many do and there is always room for more.

Your plants have three crying needs, phosphorus, nitrogen and potassium, if your garden is like most gardens we know. There are concentrated plant foods you can buy now which will replenish the food elements your budding plants will need.

Udder troubles due to mastitis are arousing action in many of Michigan's 77 dairy herd improvement associations, reports E. C. Schridenloher, extension dairyman at Michigan State College. In a recent four months' period, 235 animals were removed from tested herds in the state because of udder trouble including mastitis, compared to 131 removed from tested herds because of sterility and 163 because of Bang's disease.

Vines can be trained to shade or soften a wall and a trellis.

If you are particularly fond of them, they can be used on the chimney or to emphasize some detail of the house.

Men-O-Warsmen are still often referred to as tars.

The name Tar was derived from the old customs of fighting sailors applying tar to their clothing to make them waterproof and heavily tarring their pigtail which all men wore braided down the nape of their necks. This was to provide protection against decapitation from broadsword blows from behind.

Partial Eclipses of Sun and Moon in 1939
Astronomer Also Predicts Meteoric Showers.

EVANSTON, ILL.—Partial eclipses of the sun and moon and two particularly bright meteoric showers will be visible in the United States during the year 1939, according to Dr. Oliver Lee, head of the department of astronomy at Northwestern university.

"There will be two eclipses of the sun and two of the moon during the year," Doctor Lee said. "An annular eclipse of the sun on April 12, beginning around 8:30 in the morning, will be partial in the United States. An annular eclipse is one occurring while the moon is so far away from the earth that a rim of the sun is visible even at the moment of maximum eclipse."

About midnight between October 27 and 28 there will be a partial eclipse of the moon. Doctor Lee said, which will be visible throughout the Americas. A total eclipse of the moon on May 3 will be visible in the eastern hemisphere, and a total eclipse of the sun will occur on October 12, and will be seen as a partial eclipse from western Australia and the southern tip of South America.

"The principal meteoric showers," Doctor Lee said, "will be the Perseids on August 12, early in the morning in the northeastern sky, and the Leonids, which will be seen after midnight on November 14 in the eastern sky."

Meteoric showers, he explained, take their names from constellations in that part of the sky from which the showers seem to come. Other displays during the year will be the Lyrids, early in the evening in the northwest on April 20; the Orionids, late in the evening in the east on October 20, and the Andromids, high in the eastern sky all night on November 24.

"No bright comets are expected this next year," Doctor Lee said, "but there is always the chance that a big comet will stray. Some of them take thousands of years to make one trip around the sun, and many have not been recorded. The last bright comet visible from the earth passed in 1910."

Doctor Lee added that the rest of the winter will be a good time to watch for the Northern lights. These displays are connected with sun spots, which are reaching a maximum in their 11-year period just now.

BEFORE a duel with swords the gladiators of ancient Rome were accustomed to drink together. Wine was furnished by a relative or a friend of one of them and to show that there was no poison in the glass of his opponent, the challenger poured his wine into the other's glass and back again until the contents of both glasses were thoroughly mixed. That custom extended to social usage and finally as the days of poisoned wine became past history, it evolved merely to the clinking of glasses.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Collo Hamilton and daughters, Clarice, Mary Jane and Elaine, had the pleasure of entertaining for luncheon four young Chinese guests, Mae Ding, Lushia Chow, Yu-Chen Lin and Y. H. Lin, who are students at the Merrill-Palmer school in Detroit where Elaine has just completed a semester in child training. Elaine will graduate from the University of Michigan June 17 when she will receive her A.B. degree.

Plans are going forward for the dessert bridge to be held by the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association on June 26 in the home of Mrs. Clarence E. Elliott on the Five Mile road; also for the flower show to be held in the central school auditorium on September 8 and 9. Now is the time for planting for future exhibits.

On the afternoons of June 13, 14 and 15, Mrs. Wyman Bartlett, Mrs. Charles G. Draper and Mrs. Albert Stever will be hostesses at dessert bridge parties, with guests numbering 28 each day. The parties will be held in Mrs. Bartlett's home on Blunk avenue, which will have a profusion of garden flowers throughout the rooms with small vases of same on the luncheon tables.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, grandson, Russell Robinson, and her sister, Mrs. Perry Hix, returned home Saturday from their trip to Florida. They visited Key West while away; also friends in Tampa, Lake Worth, Miami, Fort Pierce and Melbourne, Florida. The weather was ideal and the flowers gorgeous is the report given by them.

Blunk, Mrs. Harry Mumby, Mrs. Emerson Woods, of Plymouth, and Mrs. Louis Fredericks of Farmington. Later they will be joined by their husbands and have dinner.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Margaret Buzzard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Buzzard, to Edmund P. Yerkes, son of Mrs. Clement C. Yerkes, of Northville, which will be an event of June 24. The ceremony will be performed in the Presbyterian church of Plymouth with reception following in the Mayflower hotel.

On Saturday evening the members of the Saturday dinner bridge club will have its final potluck dinner of the season with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garlett as hosts in their home on Church street. No Truck Parking on Penniman and Main

During the last week the police department has had signs prohibiting the parking of trucks installed on Penniman and Main streets. Inasmuch as complaints have been received, especially on Penniman, where many commercial vehicles of various types park each morning, Police Chief Vaughan Smith said that the department feels that most places of business have rear entrances, which can be used, and thereby limit the confusion on these streets.

It might be interesting to note that traffic ordinance section 49b reads: "No vehicle exceeding 17 feet in length may be parked at an angle on any street or on any street not limited to parking parallel to the curb."

Formulate Plans for Celebration at Northville

4th of July Big Day at Fairgrounds

Plans are rapidly going forward for a glorious Fourth of July celebration at Northville fairgrounds. The Lloyd Green Post of the American Legion is bending every effort to bring to Northville for that occasion attractions that will appeal to all.

Tim Doolittle, radio star, will have a real entertainment in the early evening, and will continue one of those real exciting "Wittbug" contests before the grand stand. A great display of fireworks has been purchased and will climax a great and glorious Fourth at the fairgrounds. Carnival features, rides, and concessions will contribute to a great day.

The Legion boys are sponsoring the celebration to raise money for the welfare and relief activities of the Northville post. The money raised will find its way into cub and Boy Scout work, the party for the poor children, veterans' relief and hospital aid, so reserve your date for the Fourth, a worthy cause and have a real Fourth.

Kiwanis Meets Tuesday at Hotel

Chauncey Rauch was in charge of the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday held in the Mayflower hotel. Three boys from Northville, Donald Armstrong, Jack McCrumb and Dick Ambler, who manufactured an automobile from three old cars, were present and related their experiences in motoring to the New York World's Fair.

An orchestra composed of six high school boys supplied the music for the evening.

Next Tuesday the meeting will be planned by Russell Roe and it is announced that the directors will meet after the program.

On Saturday, June 17, there will be a California-Nevada inter-district luncheon at Dearborn Inn at noon.

The spring canker worm is causing considerable damage to shade and fruit trees that have not received sprays of a stomach poison.

There is one annual generation and the winter is passed in the pupal stage. The adults appear as soon as the frost leaves the ground and the wingless females ascend the trees and deposit their eggs under bark flakes and in protected places. The eggs hatch just as the foliage appears. The young develop rapidly, reaching maturity early in June, when they enter the ground and change to pupae. At least nine months are passed in the pupal stage.

Trees receiving an arsenical spray early in the season do not suffer from the attacks of spring cankerworms. Spray with plenty of pressure for results. Use two pounds calcium arsenate or four pounds of arsenate of lead, with skim milk in each 100 gallons of spray.

Spray or dust for: Cabbage worms and aphids: Use Dorris or Pyrethrum sprays or dusts.

Flea Beetles: Weekly applications or one of two ounces calcium arsenate to three gallons water or dust with one pound calcium arsenate to 19 pounds of gypsum or lime.

Cucumber beetles: Use one pound calcium arsenate and 19 pounds gypsum (fine grade agricultural).

Aphids on roses, nasturtiums and other flowers: One teaspoon nicotine sulphate, one quart hot soapy water.

This is a contact spray and the insect must be hit for the spray to be effective.

The Children's Day program will be given Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the church.

Dry Pastures Bring Warning

Indications point to a shortage of pasture in many sections of Michigan this summer. Weather conditions in April and May were unfavorable for pasture growth and many legumes such as sweet clover and alfalfa were seriously injured by heavy frosts.

Livestock farmers in Wayne county should make a careful inventory now of the amount and condition of pasture available for the next three months, suggests G. A. Brown, head of the animal husbandry department at Michigan State college. This should be followed by plans and preparation for additional pasture if it will be needed.

"For sheep and hog pasture," says Professor Brown, "perhaps the best crop to be sown in June is Dwarf Essex rape. On the heavier soils this is usually broadcast at the rate of six to seven pounds per acre. On lighter soils the seed frequently is drilled in rows 28 inches apart and cultivated.

"For cattle pasture the most satisfactory crop for June growth is Sudan grass broadcast at the rate of 25 pounds an acre. "Beef cattle especially will do well upon mature grass pasture if there is abundance of it. Sheep and swine differ and require fresh, succulent green feed throughout the season if satisfactory gains are to be made."

Where permanent grass pastures are depended upon to carry the flock, it is considered advisable to provide some rape pasture on which lambs can be weaned in July or early August. This is especially good practice if second crop alfalfa or clover is not available right after weaning.

Livestock which marks time or loses weight and condition in July and August can prove a serious loss to the owner, yet Professor Brown's suggestions offer means of avoiding this loss by anticipating pasture needs for these months.

Busiest Man?

Drop down by the school some morning around 8 o'clock and you will see the busiest man in Plymouth. That man is "Charlie" Thumme, police captain.

Charlie tells the cars when to go and when not to.

"The children won't be able to get to school on time if somebody doesn't hold up the traffic so they can cross the streets," Thumme said.

About 8 o'clock every school morning Charlie rolls the stop-and-go sign into the middle of the street on the corner of Main and Church. From then until 8:30 traffic is held up intermittently until all the kids get to school.

Charlie's early morning workout is one of the reasons there are so few people injured or killed while crossing the streets. The captain says that this bit of contact with the public, early in the morning, puts him in a good frame of mind.

"Everyone," he remarked, "says 'hello' or 'good morning, Charlie,' and I return the greeting." And who doesn't know Charlie, and like him?

TOOK THEIR MEDICINE

Allegan (MPA) — Thieves who recently rummaged Miss Betty Johnson's car took their medicine literally, and as a result, officers were looking for someone becoming suddenly healthy. Miss Johnson is a family health counselor, and among other things taken from her was a goodly supply of cod liver oil. Later visiting another car, the thieves left some of Miss Johnson's things—but they kept the cod liver oil.

Chats with the Master Gardener

Caring for Trees and Shrubs
Trees and shrubs are a much-neglected subject. To most people, raising flowers is by far the most exciting part of gardening. And so they concentrate on flowers, forgetting that grass and trees and shrubs are the framework, the really basic part of the garden.

It's remarkable what trees and shrubbery can do for a place if they're well chosen and set out properly. I could show you a fine example in the home of a friend of mine. He bought a rather unattractive old house some years ago. But he planted a couple of good-sized trees beside it, massed some shrubs around it, and got some vines climbing over the harsh lines of the cornice. It's an altogether different place now, and mighty nice looking. This friend of mine didn't spend much money, either.

Folks often write me, asking how to prune their trees. Now there are only a few circumstances under which I think cutting off branches is justifiable. One is when they hang so low they're in the way. Another is when a branch hides a lovely view. A third is when a branch is dead or split so that a wind might blow it down and hurt somebody. And one more occasion when it might be justified is when crotches form so close to the ground that the strain of the two trunks may split the base of the tree.

When one of these circumstances arises, remember the following points. Always cut the branch off flush with the trunk or next larger branch, because if you leave a stub it makes a likely place for decay and disease to enter. Cut with a saw, never an axe. Begin by making a small cut at the bottom, so that the bark won't strip off when the branch goes down. A big branch should be supported by a rope to prevent splitting before you're through. And when you've finished, coat the wound with paint or creosote.

Pruning shrubs is a bit different, because shrubs send up a new growth from the ground instead of out from the trunk. The new canes that shoot up should be given room to grow, so from time to time you should cut out some of the older wood. Flowering shrubs should be pruned right after they've blossomed, and other varieties when they're dormant—after they've shed their leaves and before they bud again.

Shrubs vary greatly in different parts of the country. One generalization I can make, though—evergreen shrubs ordinarily do better in a somewhat sandy soil, and the others should have a loamy soil. But when it comes to choosing varieties for your own place, you'd best get the advice of a good, reliable nurseryman in your own community. Let him look over your garden, tell him how much you can spend, and he'll do his best for you.

One thing about trees and shrubs that might few people seem to realize—they must be fed! Year after year they draw eleven different food elements from the soil, and eventually these elements become exhausted. Then your bushes and trees begin to lose their vitality; branches die, foliage become yellowed and scanty, leaves drop too soon. You can easily prevent these symptoms by feeding a square meal—a plant food that supplies all eleven of the needed food elements in scientifically balanced proportions. I'd certainly recommend that you do it this year. Your trees and shrubs take a long time to grow, and when you've got them they're an asset well worth protecting.

The skunk is easily tamed and makes a friendly and affectionate pet... unless frightened.

Detroit Sets New Glider Mark

Soars Over Mile High at Triangle Port

Thousands of people in and around Plymouth and Riverside park, Sunday, saw the yellow and blue glider piloted by Lyle Maxey, Lawrence Institute of Technology student; but little did they realize that this flight was making Michigan gliding history. Maxey took off at 3:32 Sunday afternoon from the Triangle Glider port, which is at Plymouth and Ann Arbor roads, and stayed aloft for two hours and 23 minutes. He soared to a height of 5,700 feet, John Nowak, manager of Triangle field, announced, setting a new Michigan record. The American mark is 6,800 feet. Shaking with cold when he came down, the Lawrence student had gone aloft without dressing for, or expecting to reach the cold levels. At the peak of his climb the temperature is estimated to be as low as 35 degrees. The barograph on which the mark was recorded, will be submitted to the National Aeronautics association.

Maxey, 20-year-old Detroit boy, who lives at 16532 Kentucky avenue, made his flight in preparation for the National Gliding contests to be held at Elmira, New York, June 24 to July 9.

Minor Accident on Main Street

A car driven by Rev. Clifton Hoffman of Newburg ran into the rear of a C. A. Sauer Lumber truck as it stopped north of the traffic signal on Main street at Penniman avenue last Friday afternoon.

Both cars were in the line of traffic approaching the light. The signal changed and the truck pulled to a stop. Rev. Hoffman, not noticing the change of signal until it was too late, was unable to prevent his car from colliding with the Sauer truck driven by J. Ray Smith of Plymouth.

No damage was done to the truck, but the front of Rev. Hoffman's car was smashed. There were no injuries and the damage was covered by insurance.

In an effort to appear casual, some people unintentionally put a terrible strain on their host by refusing to reveal the purpose of their visit until the last second of the meeting.

Where Do Flags Come From? Uncle Sam Stitches His Own

THE stars and stripes that fly from Army outposts and buildings everywhere on Flag Day, June 14, are all manufactured by the United States Army Quartermaster Corps in Philadelphia, Pa. All bunting, regimental colors and standards are manufactured there. Eight: Two seamstresses cut out the stars for official bunting flags to be sent to Army posts.

Next step in the manufacturing is the joining together of the stripes. After the 13 stripes have been gathered, it is sent to a second department, where the stars are sewed on. This completes the manufacturing process. Finished flags are then sent to be inspected and packed.

Each flag undergoes rigid examination by an experienced inspector. Some of the colors are valued up to $500, and should there be any fault the flag is returned to the sewing room. Inspection passed, it is sent to its final destination, the United States Army.

Weekly Newspapers Top All in Public Influence, Survey Shows

Members of Congress Look to Local Publications for True Index of Public Thought

Nearly 200 congressmen and senators, interviewed in a survey completed last week in Washington by Woodyard Associates, expressed the opinion that the home newspapers lead all other media by a great margin in influence on the voters of the various congressional districts and states.

Taking a poll at random of about 40 per cent of each house it was found that more than 60 per cent of the congressmen and nearly 90 per cent of the senators interviewed declared that other media, such as radio and national magazines hardly rated secondarily consideration as moulders of public sentiment.

Another question in the survey revealed that the average senator subscribed to 6.71 daily newspapers and 30.5 weeklies from his home state while the average congressman received 3.6 dailies and 17.8 weeklies in his office. The weeklies were either read personally or clipped regularly by 85 per cent of the senators and 93 per cent of the congressmen.

Not a single congressman interviewed admitted that he was elected over the opposition of the weeklies in his territory and only 2 per cent of the senators said that the majority of country papers opposed them in vain. Ten per cent of the congressmen and five per cent of the senators, on the other hand, overcame the opposition of a majority of the daily press.

It is interesting to note that both senators and congressmen

The muskellunge is called by more than 50 names and there are at least 40 legitimate spellings of the word.

did not depend entirely on the daily newspapers in their territories to get a cross-section of the editorial opinion "back home." The number of weeklies each took and read showed that they considered the country press at least equal in importance as opinion formers and guide posts to home sentiment.—Ex.

War Veterans in Parade

(Omitted from last issue)

As the war veterans proudly marched to the band music Decoration day, doubtless there was a host of unseen men marching beside their former buddies: the Plymouth war dead and those who have "gone west" since their war days.

Some of these men were represented by their wives, faithful to the end; some by their mothers, the women who will never forget. Each year the list of G. A. R. widows, World War widows, Indian, Spanish-American and World War veterans grows smaller. Some day they all will be gone, and we will have only the memory of the days when they were here.

Beside the American Legion, World War veterans, Plymouth boasts four veterans of the Spanish-American war; John Straub, Arthur Herbert, James Smith, and DeWitt Ellsworth. Frank Durham is the only Indian War veteran.

There are three Gold Star Mothers, women who lost their sons in the last great war. They are Mrs. Mary Brown, Mrs. B. Robinson and Mrs. Ewald. Mrs. Hattie Baker and Mrs. Louise Tucker are G. A. R. widows.

The World War widows are Mrs. Helen Edwards, Mrs. Gertrich, Mrs. Blanche Collins, Mrs. Gladys Lee, Mrs. Marjorie Hoyer, and Mrs. Frances Adcock.

Congratulations to these men and women who are "carrying the torch." They are not "breaking faith with those who die."

If there are men or women whose names should appear and are omitted, please communicate with the secretary of the American Legion or the Ex-Service Men's club.

SUMMER'S COMING! Warm sun — deep shade — buzzing bees — long, lazy days inviting you to take it easy!

Gonna fall for that? Well, maybe — if that car in your driveway is just a run-of-mine job. But suppose it's a Buick — then what?

Then, good sir, you're in for an active summer. A summer of going places, seeing sights — and having some honest-to-goodness fun!

You'll boss around a brilliant Dynafash straight-eight engine as thrilling to handle as a flyrod.

You'll go exploring over the little-traveled back trails — and soft springs of coiled steel will cradle every jolt and jar. You'll look out to the far horizons through windows wider, and bigger — there's as much as 412 square inches more space to make your outlook easier.

Yes, you'll pilot a carriage that's staunch and snug and firm beneath you — yet every nudge of your headle foot gives instant-quick action that'll bring a grin of deep delight.

This far-ranging beauty is not only the car of the year for performance, but the value of the year. It's priced lower than a year ago — lower than you'd think to see it — lower even than some sixes!

And when you check all of the standard items that you're asked extra for elsewhere, you find that Buick costs less in the end even than some cars with lower advertised prices!

Miss Annie Larsen, sister of our Lawrence Larsen, on Westmore, is directing activities in the Bible school, being held for two weeks in Livonia Union church. She is being assisted by Miss Ruby Osterlund. Miss Larsen is an excellent leader, making work, play and Bible study interesting to the children. By a unanimous vote a motto had been selected, "Thy word have I hid in my heart." Psalms 119: 11. As a part of their morning ritual they have a salute to the American flag, one the Christian flag, and one to the Bible, thus stirring both a patriotic and spiritual pride. Tuesday the classes were cut short and a parade staged, winding through the streets of our almost village, and the preparations for this were very entirely made by the children. There were 31 present the first day, and the rolls expected to swell as time goes on. The handicraft work included correlates and is suggestive of the lessons learned. At the close of the school there will be a demonstration, on a Friday evening, so that the parents and friends may see what progress their children have made. Miss Larsen spoke, also, at the Missionary meeting on Tuesday.

Stark Recreation News

The summer recreation program started Monday with about 35 children in attendance. We are hopeful of having an even bigger group as the season progresses. There are facilities for horseshoe, volley ball, table tennis, jackstones, box hockey, checkers and soft ball games as well as group games for the smaller children.

The grown-ups are invited to participate in the activities on Tuesday and Friday evenings when the recreation time is extended to 9:00 o'clock. The men of the community have already organized a soft ball team and have played two games in the new Plymouth league at Starkweather, losing one and winning one.

Miss Blake, county supervisor, called at the Stark playground Tuesday and was very much pleased to note the splendid turnout. She wishes to extend her appreciation to the school board for its cooperation in providing the new playground equipment.

Work is a tonic, whereas inactivity and worry sign many death warrants.

It's difficult to visualize except with arithmetic, but it takes 522,720 plants to cover an acre if the plants are set three inches apart in one direction and four inches apart in another, while if the plants are 12 feet apart in each direction, it only requires 302 for an acre. To obtain an accurate planting estimate, multiply the distance in feet between the rows by the distance between the plants are apart in the rows and the product will be the number of square feet for each plant or hill. Divided by the number of square feet in an acre, 43,560, one knows the number of plants to the acre.

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Isaiah 41:10): "Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee, yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 393): "Rise in the strength of the Spirit to resist all that is unlike good. Refreshing in their brilliancy—there's deep violet with white eyes, or flaming pink shading to coral, or an exquisite white—you'll like them in your flower beds.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH.—Holbrook and Harding. Lynn B. Stout, pastor. Evangelistic passion and missionary zeal is the only thermometer to take the spiritual temperature of any church or denomination. Sunday services: "The local church" will be the topic at 10:00 a.m. Bible school, 11:15; B.Y.P.U., 6:30 p.m.; Evangelistic service at 7:30 p.m., led by the young people's chorus choir. If you have missed hearing this group of young people on Sunday night—well, you just missed something. A baptismal service will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Wixom Baptist church, Bullseye No. 34. It is a sad condition when the church has exchanged her stock in trade: the "bread of life" from heaven, for "biscuits and liver" from the basement.

Hi-Speed Awards Are Made Here

Four awards were made in Plymouth last week by the Hi-Speed gasoline dealers of this area to drivers who had been checked on the road and had observed all of the rules of safety necessary to win the same.

Hi-Speed gasoline stations make similar awards to drivers throughout Wayne county and have men on the road who follow motorists for a number of miles to ascertain the care they use in obeying all of the rules of safety.

The awards are made as part of a program of safety education sponsored by the company in an effort to help cut traffic accidents on Michigan highways. Local awards last week went to Wilbur Coffman, Charles Nevins, Sterling Eaton and Isaac Innis.

Nine Outhits River Rouge But Gets Fewer Runs

The men who represent Plymouth on the baseball diamond lost a well-ballyhooed game to the River Rouge Panthers last Thursday, June 1, even though they garnered four hits to the opposition's one. The score was 2-1. According to the Rouge scorebook the statistics were: Plymouth, one run, four hits and one error; and Rouge, two runs, two hits and one error. Those are the totals all three Detroit papers gave; but the Rock tally sheet gave Plymouth one run, three hits, two errors; and Rouge two runs, one hit and two errors. The Plymouth reader is expected, of course, to pick the latter.

Each of the three runs scored during the course of the tilt came as the result of a walk. Butch Krumm got a pass in the second and scored when Ruzanski made a glaring muf of Emmy Robinson's single to right. The foe tied it up in the fourth, Manitz walking. Short followed suit to put him on second, and a pair of grounders sent him home. The up-river lads shoved across the winning counter in the fifth when Zimmerman walked, took third on Robinson's muf of Uram's grounder, and scored on another infield out. Thus all three runs were unearned. The hit which marred Hitt's no-hitter was a single by Short, Rouge hurling ace, in the sixth.

Besides Robinson's bingle, Butch Krumm pounded out a double and Hitt singled to round out the meager home-town attack, but neither of these resulted in a score. Hitt fanned five, but his efforts were eclipsed by Short, who fanned eight.

Coach Jacobi juggled the lineup once more, with better than mediocre results. Wes Hoffman switched to third, Robinson to short, and Hovey played second. Another innovation was Swede Olson, who roamed right field.

It was a much better-than-average pitchers' duel, with Bobby Hitt having the upper hand for allowing the least hits. But there was just the simple fact that the Rocks lacked scoring punch which separated them from victory.

The U. S. S. Michigan was the first iron ship to be built for the U. S. navy.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT HELD JUNE 1

About 100 interested parents and friends of high school students visited the exhibit Thursday evening, June 1 from 7:00 to 9:00 o'clock. The classes exhibiting projects were general shop classes, art classes, and the home economics groups.

The shop exhibit in the auditorium drew many interested visitors. Among the most unusual and fine pieces of wood work was a table lamp of polished black walnut made by Ellwood Russell. A new idea for construction of a power saw at home was introduced by Thomas Mitchell who made one of two discarded cream separators and some maple flooring, a motor and saw blade.

In the high school library has been erected a mural designed by Robert Lorenz and executed by Phyllis Murphy, Carol Campbell, Belva Barnes, Patricia Kinahan, Marjorie and Bettie Knowles and Rosemary Lueke—all of the art classes.

In the art room were exhibited wall paper designs, lettering work, copper work, masks, life sketch notebooks, linoleum and wood cuts, and landscaped yards.

The home economics classes had many examples of their fine work on display in the form of dresses and other garments. They also displayed proper color combinations.

Mr. Campbell's advanced machine shop class demonstrated the machines during the evening.

YPSI NINE SETS BACK PLYMOUTH 4-2

The Plymouth baseball team bowled to Ypsilanti 4-2 at the Ypsi diamond last Monday, May 28.

Jack Hovey went the route for Plymouth and allowed eight hits. Allward, Ypsi pitcher, kept the batters guessing all afternoon with his deceptive curve. No Plymouth piler was able to shove him for more than one hit and these he kept scattered as to make a Plymouth rally of microbe-like proportions. Hitt, Hoffman, Folsom, Krumm and Kaiser each contributed a bingle to the Plymouth cause but each chose a different inning to demonstrate his batworthiness.

Plymouth started off in the right way by getting a first inning run. After Hoffman had singled, he worked his way around the bases on an error and sacrifice. Bud Krumm connected on one in the fourth inning, a long fly that the center fielder missed, and sizzled all the way around the diamond to score Plymouth's only run. Ypsilanti picked up a run in the second on Jimmy Wilson's double and a combination of sacrifices and put the game on ice in the next frame in scoring a brace of men. Berklich gained a life on Robinson's error and Kuster, the next batter, reached first on a fielder's choice. Walton, Ypsi center fielder, contributed a timely double scoring both runners. Three Ypsilanti hits, grouped in the sixth inning, account for the last run.

Berklich was the only Ypsi batter to hit safely more than once. He singled in the third and sixth innings.

Ypsilanti started the game weakly, hitting to the third baseman, pitcher and catcher for their three weak outs, but their superior pitching and base running gave them the edge in seven innings.

BROTHER RATS' IDENTITY DISCLOSED

Now it can be told—at last the fearsome news is out, no longer need one shake continually in his boots for fear of finding some choice bit of personal scandal staring him in the face from the page of Plymouth high school's weekly news bulletin, the Pilgrim Prints.

Those gay and fearless scandal scavengers, those connoisseurs of unpleasant news—the Brother Rats can no longer hide behind their very appropriate names—for at the close of the school year the staff wishing to dispose of all unpleasant matters publishes with a sigh of relief the names of these two tale-bearing columnists. The Brother Rats are no less (nor no more) than those two illustrious senior boys Donald Mielbeck and Jack Ross.

There my friends are the two responsible for all your woes. If you have any names to serve there are the culprits and of course if the two certain senior boys should show up the last few days of school in smoked glasses the Pilgrim Print staff would be the first to agree that "Yes, the sun is getting bright these days isn't it?"

HOME ECONOMICS CLASSES PRESENT ANNUAL STYLE SHOW

The high school home economics classes presented their annual style show on Wednesday, June 7, at four o'clock in the high school auditorium. Arlene Soth opened the program as mistress of ceremonies. The first feature was a food fiesta presented by home economics I food classes. Home economics I, II and III clothing classes concluded the style show with "A Senior Farewell" as the theme. The announcers for this were Mary Lewis Wright, Sheila Daous, Virginia Behler and Betty Higginbotham. The committees were: refreshments—Lona Belle Rohde, Ardith Rowland, Lessie Jean Ebert, Shirley Waack; stage—Marjorie Knowles, Ardith Williams, Nancy Dunham, Hazel Pankov; music—Jo Ann Steinhurst, Dorothy McCullough, Jean Engelson, Sybil Basset. Home economics III served a tea after the show to the girls and their mothers, who were invited. The girls who helped Mrs. Landin in planning the style show were Gladys Hammond, Jennie Basset, Norma Coffin and Virginia Grimm.

Niles, the "Four Flags City," ruled successively by France, England, Spain and the United States, is the second oldest city in Michigan.

The Declaration of Independence refers to Michigan in the clause accusing the English king of "endeavoring to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages." This reference meant the Indians sent from Detroit by Hamilton, "the hair-buyer."

LAST MOVIE ASSEMBLY OF YEAR HELD

The last nickel moving picture assembly of the year was held Thursday, June 1 second hour for senior high school students and third hour for junior high school. The nickels paid for this assembly will complete the payments on the machine and similar movies will be presented next year free of charge to the students. The movie was composed of reels on the following subjects: "Seal Hunting," "The Symphony Orchestra," "Choosing Your Vocation," and a historical picture based on the life and environment of George Washington at Mount Vernon. The junior high school students saw "Safety in Bicycle Riding" instead of the historical picture of Mount Vernon.

The projector has proven a valuable asset to many of the classes such as history and science classes and it has been used many times in its first year of existence at Plymouth high school.

TEACHERS' PICNIC HELD AT RIVERSIDE PARK

Approximately 70 teachers with their husbands and wives attended the annual teachers' picnic, held June 5 at Riverside park. The recreation committee, composed of Irene Waldorf, chairman, Ethel Kilham, and Paul Weatherhead, had reserved shuffleboard courts, tennis courts, and soft ball diamonds for the evening's entertainment. Christina Gray, chairman of the foods committee, provided a meal of hamburger, cole slaw, potato salad, apple pie and ice cream.

HIGH SCHOOL "HAM" QUALIFIES FOR WORLD-WIDE SHORT WAVE CLUB

Edgar Nash, eleventh grader in Plymouth high school and an ardent radio enthusiast, through his association with "hams" in South America has qualified for the exclusive Rueda del oeste club, a world-wide organization.

The club was formed with the intent of promoting short wave radio receiving and sending throughout the world. In order to become a member a "ham," or short wave radio enthusiast, must be a licensed amateur or a short wave listener.

Edgar was given a chance to enter the club through the work of a South American radio correspondent. He has exchanged verification cards or cards to determine the distance which a distant sender has been received to all parts of the world as well as South America.

Five hundred pounds of dynamite exploded recently on the campus of Michigan State college. But it was all under control. George Amundson, agricultural engineering extension specialist, was instructing juniors and seniors in agriculture, forestry and engineering in proper use of the explosive. What's more, the charges of dynamite were directed usefully at stumps, stones and ditches.

SOME DAY.

Some day, maybe this year, maybe next, but some day the real reason for the efforts being made to sabotage the administration of Murl H. DeFoe of the state liquor commission will become fully known to the public. Might it be said today that when newspaper readers are fully advised of all the intrigue and all the viciousness and all the deception and all the faking that has been going on about Mr. DeFoe since his appointment as a member of the liquor commission, they will be dumbfounded by the revelations.

Is it not a strange thing that the one person on the commission that the public has the utmost faith in, and one known throughout his lifetime for square and honest dealing, should be the object of so much public blackjacking as Commissioner DeFoe?

What is the reason for it? Some day the public will know—and the answer to that question will doubtless provide the state with some interesting reading.

THANKS FOR THE KIND WORDS.

William Cansfield made the following comment in the last issue of The Northville Record:

"In a campaign of vilification the Michigan Digest included our friend and neighbor Elton Eaton of The Plymouth Mail. Nor is our good neighbor editor and legislator alone in the campaign, for Murl DeFoe of Charlotte, and Verr Brown of Mason, and others have suffered the same ungentlemanly and unwarranted attacks. We believe that such mud-slinging, political tactics can only tend to increase our respect and admiration of three slandered men and their ability to take it."

TRAGIC IN THE EXTREME.

Press reports advise that there are several thousands of Jewish people forced from their native homes in Europe arriving each day in Central America and are being refused a right to land on American soil. Nations in the New World declare that there is not room for them here. So they are again turned to the open sea—to drift, God only knows where.

We are supposed to be living in an enlightened age. Civilization is reputed to be at the highest point since the dawn of time. Still offenseless men, women and children are refused a haven!

What is the world coming to—and what is the nature of the calamity we are headed for? Surely, somewhere in this world there must be a place for a people who have committed no offense against society—a people who have just as much a right to home, peace and happiness as any of us.

REQUIRES PERMIT TO SOLICIT ADS.

The city of Austin, Texas, at request of merchants and civic organizations, has passed an ordinance requiring a permit for soliciting any kind of advertising, selling subscriptions to magazines or newspapers, or to solicit contributions or gifts or promote any public affair. The city legal department has requested a ruling of Texas Attorney-General Gerald C. Mann whether the ordinance can adversely affect newspapers or legitimate business organizations or activities, or be used adversely by any political group or city administrator. Charles E. Green, executive editor of the American-Statesman said the city council has given assurances that if any such adverse effects are noted under the ordinance that the measure will be so revised as to eliminate it, and that on this policy the ordinance is regarded as satisfactory by the papers there.

HOW BUSINESS CAN HELP.

"Is it possible for the leaders of business to do anything themselves to prevent or mitigate trade depression?" asks Sir Arthur Salter, distinguished British economist, writing in the current Rotarian Magazine.

He proceeds to answer his question with an emphatic "Yes," after pointing out that even more distress may lie ahead unless positive, forward-looking action is taken by those industrial leaders who individually exert great power over business trends.

"A relatively restricted number of leaders," he says, "have the power either to impede or to assist the adjustments that all forms of economic change are constantly requiring." In view of this, what is needed, he asserts, is closer coordination between business leaders and government, especially in the field of broad planning.

Governments have great responsibilities during times of economic stress, but, he points out, "while there are some things which they can usefully do, there are others which offer, or seem to offer, some relief for the moment, but which will involve immensely serious consequences later. One thing is certain. If the leaders of business make no contribution themselves, and if they are not cooperating with the Government and are suspicious of and hostile to what it is doing, no governmental measures can substantially relieve the situation."

Business should take a long time view, he states, and deliberately plan for the inevitable depressions during times of prosperity. "Public utilities and railways, for example, could to a considerable extent," he believes, "restrict capital expenditure during booms and expand it during depressions."

Modification of the installment buying system might also be made as business volume changes, he continues. "Would it not be possible, for certain classes of important industrialists—for example, the manufacturers of motorcars—to agree at a time of boom expansion to suspend the facilities of installment purchase, or to make the conditions more onerous, and equally to relax the conditions when depression comes?"

Some such coordinated action is needed, Sir Arthur believes, if the present economic system is to function smoothly.

JOB HUNTERS

The metropolitan dailies and many of the other newspapers about the state would make it appear that now the civil service fiasco has blown up there will be nine or ten thousand jobs opened for deserving (?) republicans. Lansing is besieged by job hunters and hunters for job hunters. Wish that condition prevailed in our city and in our community. There are jobs but no job hunters.—Al Weber in The Cheboygan Observer.

ART TREASURES IN WAR TIMES

What happens to the art treasures of European countries when they are engaged in war? Answer: They are moved to various sections of a country where damage is least expected. France, for instance, during the World War moved most of her treasures to the neighborhood of Marseilles, on the Mediterranean Sea. During its civil war, Spain moved a great deal of its art treasure to the League of Nations buildings, in Geneva, Switzerland. In a weekly news service that comes to The Eccentric from the League, we learned last week that practically all of Spain's treasures placed in the custody of the League are in excellent state of preservation; these include sculpture, paintings, jewelry. European nations have developed a very efficient method of moving art treasures in time of war—like the United States burying its huge gold reserves in old Kentucky, at Fort Knox.—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

CAREFUL BUYING

There are things every family would like to have but which, upon due consideration, they conclude not to buy because they feel they cannot afford it. But these same families, many of them, are easily persuaded to become parts of pressure groups to ask the State to spend money for things which the State cannot afford. There are limits to what a State can afford just as there are limits to what you can afford.—William Berkey in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

STATE SONGS

The Missouri legislature a few days ago had some discussion about the choice of a state song. It is a fine thing when a beautiful song is written as expressive of the life of a state, and when it is officially accepted as its voice. The states all seem to have their emblematic flowers and birds, and they may well have state songs to pay tribute to the good old home commonwealth which they love and which loves them.

The imagination of verse and the wings of song help us to feel what those states mean to us, that they are not so many square miles of soil, but that they consist of land and homes sacred to our hearts, and never to be forgotten, wherever we may roam.

No wonder the heart of every Michigander thrills when he sings "Michigan, My Michigan."—R. J. Jefferies in The Lowell Ledger.

NOT SURPRISING

The repeal of civil service has left the department heads in Lansing more bewildered than the legislature.—Murl H. DeFoe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

DANGEROUS HOURS

Traffic accidents which happen after midnight are more apt to be fatal than those of daylight and the early evening hours. People who drive at night are quite apt to drive almost as fast as they do in daylight, forgetting that night vision is only a fraction as keen as day vision. Many people who are in need of sleep, others who have tarried too long in the beer parlor or cocktail bar, drive as fast as though their reactions were normal. Driving after midnight is dangerous. A glance at casualty lists in central Michigan proves it.

A safe driving rule is to drive not over 30 miles an hour in daylight and then stay between 30 and 40 after dark. At those speeds accidents are nowhere near as likely to be fatal.

Many drivers who have had the habit of driving 60 miles an hour now drive 50. They have discovered that on trips of 150 or 200 miles that the elapsed time is lengthened only 15 or 20 minutes when the driving speed is reduced to 50.

Hundreds of Ingham county people have been maimed and scores have been killed this past year. Speed and lack of vision was a major factor in nearly all of the crashes. We can help reduce the traffic toll by driving at a reasonable speed in daylight and at cautious speeds after dark.—Nelson Brown in The Ingham County News.

FLYNN PLAYS BALL

It appears that the grip of the two bosses who have reduced Republicans conventions to a condition of puppetry also is making itself felt in the state senate.

It would be difficult to explain the amazing action taken against the Eaton bill, designed to end one-man rule of the Wayne delegation, in any other manner. This bill passed the house by a vote of 30 to 0.

In the senate it was referred to the elections committee, of which Felix H. Flynn of Cadillac is chairman. On one pretext or another it was kept buried until after the recent election. Eventually, however, there came a time when action had to be taken.

So, it was killed on motion of Senator Felix Flynn, (Rep.) He was supported by Harold M. Saur, (Rep.) of Kent City and Leo J. Wilkowski, (Dem.) of Detroit. Senators Jerris T. Logie of Bay City and George P. McCallum of Ann Arbor, both Republicans, opposed the motion.

The combined excuses of those who voted to kill the bill would make a lame duck seem more active by comparison than a frisky pup playing with an old shoe. For their own good, they might better have said nothing.

There have been persistent rumors afloat for some time that Felix Flynn, who is also president of the senate, is rather inclined to "play ball" with the bosses. His part in killing the Eaton bill elevates this rumor to the status of a probability. This action of the elections committee was so raw, if not completely putrid, that the senate broke an all-time precedent, ignored the committee action and had a new bill introduced which covers exactly the same ground as the Eaton bill.

The senate is to be commended for its independence, for its ability to rise above boss domination when its committee system so obviously fails. Only by such independent action can the real capital of Michigan be returned to Lansing from Miami.—Dick Cook in The Hastings Banner.
