P. H. S. Graduate Making Good in Illinois Baseball

Clarence Levandowski of Newburg Stars in Game With Iowa Team

Clarence Levandowski, a 1934 graduate of Plymouth high school whose home is at Newburg, is going great guns in the three-I baseball league of Illinois. Indiana and Iowa. Levandowski plays with the Moline Plows, of Moline, Illinois.

In a recent game with the league leading Cedar Rapids Raiders, 16-4, in a game which Levandowski started getting five hits out of six trips to the plate.

Under a picture of Levandowski in the Moline Daily Dispatch of Saturday, July 29, it says that Cedar Rapids had to try six times before the Raiders could get Clarence Levandowski out. The Moline outfielder-seems sacker hit a homer, three doubles, and a single in six tries. His final effort was a whale of a wallop that Rightfielder Pike barely got in time to prevent another home run. Clarence batted in four runs and scored four times himself.

Levandowski, an outfielder, was covering second because the regular second baseman was out of the game with injuries.

In another story in the same issue of the paper, it says, "Louie Seguin, Moline's leading pitcher, chalked up another victory in stopping the Raiders on nine hits, but it really was Clarence Levandowski's night. The outfielder who is hitting in at second base, got five straight hits in six at-bats. He pounced out three doubles, a homer and two singles and crossed home plate four times.

"Levandowski came very close to having a perfect night for his sixth effort was a long hard smash to center field, which Willie Pike barely caught, preventing a possible second home run."

Barlow, Davis and Parmenter, Tennis Champs

Betty Barlow, Dumar Davis and Alfred Parmenter were winners of the Detroit News novice tennis tournament held the last few weeks in Plymouth.

Miss Barlow represents the Plymouth center in the women's division; Mr. Davis, the Plymouth center in the men's division; and Mr. Parmenter won the Riverside park bracket.

All three champions were to go to Waterworks park in Detroit to compete for the state novice championship but it so happened that all three of them were unable to make the trip and finished their matches.

They were presented with medals as winners of first prize and the runners-up. Dorothy Hansen, Ed Norman and J. D. McLean, received a book edited by Edisworth Vines, internationally known figure and an authority on tennis.

Traffic Laws Revised by Legislature

To Go Into Effect September for Entire State

A system of new traffic laws, revision of the old ones and the practical adoption of the provisions of the national code of traffic regulations was enacted at the last Michigan session of the legislature. The new laws go into effect September 29, declares Chief of Police Vaughan Smith.

There is now a Michigan code which will accomplish that which is immediately desired. Tourists from other states will not be troubled by having to learn unusual rules of the road or meanings of signs, signals, or markings. Nor need Michigan residents be confused by countless variations in traffic regulations encountered throughout the state. Neither will they be altogether at a loss when traveling in other states.

It can now be said that Michigan, the leader in the manufacture of automobiles, a leader in the construction, maintenance and beautification of its highways, and a resort state second to none, has a traffic code that gives it a well deserved place among the states which are most progressive with respect to traffic regulation and control.

There were numerous faults. These have been eliminated. The result is a system of traffic laws which are in essential conformance with the code advocated by the national conference on street and highway safety.

The definition as to "What is a street or highway," is broadened so as to include every way publicly maintained which is opened to the use of the public for travel. Thus, though a roadway may be owned by private persons, colleges or universities, if it is open to the public, the rules of the road will be enforceable upon it.

The section pertaining to persons under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs is given a broader effect. It is now a violation for one who is under such influence to be in actual physical control of a vehicle upon a highway, regardless of whether or not he is actually driving. In illustration: A driver is involved in an accident. He is under the influence of intoxicating liquor. When officers arrive, he is behind the wheel, but the motor is not running, and the gears are not meshed, and the brake is set. He is still in actual physical control of his vehicle, however, and may be arrested and prosecuted under this section. Officers will not charge him with merely being intoxicated upon a public highway as they have had to do in the past.

In addition, this section now makes it an offense to operate a motor vehicle while under the influence of any stupefying drug. It is now provided that magistrates shall in form persons charged with this violation that upon a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt upon a trial, drivers' licenses are automatically revoked.

The speed limit is raised to a prima facie (At first view). Prima facie evidence is evidence sufficient to prove a fact unless rebutted) lawful limit of 25 miles per hour in either business or residential districts. Authorities may establish reasonable speed limits for highways under their jurisdiction, regardless of whether they are in business or residential districts.

Speeds of passenger vehicles towing trailers or other vehicles is limited to 50 miles per hour. It was the consensus of the group which sponsored these changes that because of the higher speeds prevailing in Michigan, this rate would be more desirable than the 45 miles per hour which is recommended by the Enforcement Committee of the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators.

Right turns against a red traffic signal are prohibited. There has been much controversy concerning the desirability of this regulation. A right turn, after coming to a stop for a red signal, has been permitted in Michigan despite the recommendation of 15 years' standing by the national conference to prohibit such turns.

There are locations at which it may be desirable to permit right turns while through traffic is stopped. This may be permitted if auxiliary means are used to advise that such turns are permissible.

Also, pedestrians must observe light indications when crossing signalized intersections. Although they are not prohibited from crossing against the amber or red light, they must not interfere with the movements of motor vehicles lawfully approaching. To fail to observe this rule is a misdemeanor.

Motorists are required to come to a full stop before entering through highways. The uncertainty which grew out of a provision in the old law which required a stop if traffic was approaching, but permitted an entry at not to exceed 10 miles per hour if no traffic was coming, will exist no longer. A full stop must be made before entering any through highway, irrespective of approaching traffic. As aid to encourage the motorist to make his full stop before entering any through highway, the new law requires that stop signs be erected at every public approach to a through highway.

Motor vehicles are required to park parallel to and within 12 inches of the right hand curb or side of the roadway. Local authorities may, upon streets under their exclusive jurisdiction, permit angle parking, provided appropriate signs give notice of the fact. Parking must be parallel upon state trunk line highways within cities and villages.

The new law requires that reports of traffic accidents shall be made forthwith rather than within 48 hours of the time of occurrence.

Pedestrian responsibility is, in measure, defined. Where sidewalks are provided, it is unlawful for pedestrians to walk upon the main traveled portion of the highway. Where sidewalks are not provided, the pedestrian must, when practicable, walk on the left side facing the traffic which passes nearest to him.

The brake law conforms with Uniform Act 5 of the national conference on street and highway safety. By this, it is modernized and is so expressed that it should be suitable for many years to come. Most important, perhaps, the amendment requires a braking efficiency which is appropriate under modern conditions. Vehicles having four-wheel brakes, or brakes upon all wheels, must now be capable of being stopped within 30 feet in road of 40 feet as was required under the old law.

Michigan requirements are now in compliance with the national standards in respect to vehicle lighting. No motor vehicle may display on the front any lamps which give other than white or an amber beam. There is an exception of this law in respect to police cars, ambulances and other emergency vehicles.

Kincades Return From Trip West

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kincade and daughter, Laura, of Plymouth and nephew, George Cort of Detroit, returned last Wednesday from a month's trip which took them through the western part of the United States.

The members of the party traveled through 16 states on their trip to Los Angeles where they visited relatives. After spending several hours with Norman Kincade of Fort Sheridan, Illinois, points of interest were the Bad Lands and Black Hills of South Dakota; Columbus, Montana; Yellowstone Park and Arroyo Grande, California.

On the return trip from Los Angeles, the Kincades and Mr. Cort visited Boulder Dam, the Painted Desert of Arizona and the Will Rogers Memorial at Claremore, Oklahoma. These three points of interest commanded the attention of each of the party. Proceeded all along the way by rain, cool weather was experienced over the territory which ordinarily would be hot and have to be traveled over at night.

Mr. Kincade said that the feature of the trip was the marvelous system of roads that have been built over these lands which are normally traveled by tourists only. In the entire trip, there were only six miles of detour.

This City to Send Big Crowd to Fair

Kathryn Marburger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Marburger, will show her consistent blue-ribbon winners, the chestnut mare Princess and the ever popular dapple-grey gelding, Silverhoard.

The Evelyn Ruth Grennan stables were closed this year following Miss Gwynn's marriage to Robert Haas of Detroit. The 1939 show will be the first in many a year in which there has been no representative of the Farm Crest stables. Carey Rogers, former manager of the Grennan stable, will exhibit George H. Gadhams' Chief Brandt in the open hunt events.

Fred Hoffman of the Park Stables will have entries in the event, as will horses from the Victor L. Slater stables in Plymouth.

Among the latest entries to be received by R. Edmund Dowling, secretary, is one from W. J. Thurston of Stratford, Ontario, who will show four bays and one bay mare from his stable. The team will include Emperor, the winner of the five-foot open jump event of the Detroit National Horse Show.

There will be fireworks each night to close the evening's program and in addition to all of them, the music is being swung away over $200 worth of attendance prizes. These prizes will be awarded every evening. The fair is on next week, and everybody is planning on a big time.

of wide variety, his greatest interest and energy has long been devoted to the design of land subdivisions for which his dual professional background has peculiarly fitted him. Here he combines the landscape architects interest in the development of the individual home and the preservation of natural beauty with the city planner's concern for a workable and orderly community. Here too is the opportunity to practice creatively the principles of design taught so tragically by the mistakes of older sections thoughtlessly developed.

His activities have brought him into contact with practically every phase of landscape architecture and city planning, and eastern Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana have felt the impress of his work in numberless estates, gardens, subdivisions, institution grounds, and thoroughfare, park, zoning and other civic projects.

Among his better known works are the grounds of the Sacred Heart Seminary, University of Detroit, Seminole Hills Subdivision at Pontiac, Campus of the Michigan State College at East Lansing, Indianwood Subdivision at Orion, Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, the original plan of the Lathrup Townsite, and the new Belleville District at South Bend, Indiana. In addition, he has been retained as City Plan Consultant by numerous municipalities, among them, Royal Oak Township, Pontiac, Saginaw, Oak Park and Ashland, Ohio, and is responsible for the zoning ordinances adopted by the last three places, and by Grosse Pointe Village, Grosse Pointe Park, and Grosse Pointe Farms.

The city planning commission has a few additional hearings scheduled and after these are held, it will begin work on the final draft of the proposed ordinance that Mr. Phillips has been assisting the commission in drafting.

New Law Helps Tax Collection

Sales tax collections on automobiles jumped 166 per cent in June, 1939, over the same month in 1938, Walter F. Reddy, managing director of the State Board of Tax Administration, announced today. Figures for May, this year, compared with May, last year, show an increase of 120 per cent.

The sales tax on automobiles for June, 1939, gave the state an income of $716,030.80. May sales brought in $680,807.07. The total for both months in 1938 was only $578,751.43, Reddy said. This year's figures do not include the taxes on accessories and other items sold by automobile dealers, an additional amount estimated from $80,000 to $100,000 a month.

"There are two reasons for this gratifying increase," Reddy said. "Automobile sales have picked up considerably this year, but augmenting this increase is the new state law passed during the last session of this legislature to plug loop-holes in the collection of sales tax on automobiles."

"Under the new provisions the dealer must pay the tax to the secretary of state's office before he can secure a transfer of title. This curtails the very small percentage of dealers who in the past were attempting to avoid payment of the sales tax. Because of the present arrangements the salesman cannot make satisfactory delivery of the car until the state has been paid its money."

"The new automobile sales tax law is probably the outstanding example of the present administration's program to increase the state revenue—not by adding taxes but by efficiently collecting those already existing."

County Agent Warns About Grain Storage

(By E. L. Besemer)

Grain going into the granary should be checked frequently to determine whether or not it is heating. Grain that is harvested with a combine is likely to have more moisture than that harvested with the binder and shocked and then threshed.

The grain bins should be thoroughly cleaned and lined with paper before threshing so they can be easily covered and fumigated. Frequent losses from grain infesting pests and the requirements for federal loans where only clean grain is considered should make the lining of all bins a standard practice in Michigan.

Fumigation of grain in the bin can be done by using two pounds of propylene dichloride mixture to each 100 cubic foot of space under cover. Temperature of grain must be about 70 degrees Fahrenheit and fumigation continued for 48 hours.

Livonia Church Greatly Improved

During the past few weeks, the St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Farmington road, near Five Mile, at which the Rev. O. J. Peters of Wayne is pastor, was newly painted and decorated.

The outside has been painted by Ray Smith of Plymouth while the inside has been decorated by the G. H. Schanbacher Interior Decorating Company of Springfield, Illinois. The Schanbacher company specializes in Lutheran church decorating and because of the quality of their work they have been patronized by many other denominations.

The St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church of Livonia in particular has been decorated as follows: the window frames and the wainscoting throughout both the auditorium and sanctuary, and the arch dividing the two have been decorated with a marble effect. The walls and ceiling have been painted with a tan color, the former in a darker, and the latter in a lighter vein. There are three different borders: one just above the wainscoting and around the windows, another on the walls, just below the ceiling on the two sides of the auditorium, and the third running crosswise and lengthwise dividing the ceiling into four equal parts. On the rear wall a border has been placed above the doorway to make it more uniform in design with the two windows and to represent in some way the Holy Trinity.

On the front wall there are two emblems; to the right of the sanctuary there is the chalice used in holy communion—where Christ gives Christians both His body and blood to eat and drink in, with, and under bread and wine for the remission of sins. To the left of the sanctuary there is the cross and crown which represents the doctrine of salvation, pictured of course from the point of view that through faith in the cross of Christ we receive the crown of everlasting life.

Next Sunday, August 13, the newly painted and decorated church will be rededicated as a house of worship, rededicated to the glory of God and the salvation of our souls. There will be two English services, one at 10:45 a. m. and the other at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. H. C. Richter of Detroit will be the guest speaker in the afternoon. The ladies will serve dinner at noon to all worshippers present. Sunday school will be at 10:00 a. m.

A hearty welcome is extended to everyone. Come and enjoy the blessings of Christianity with us.

Mrs. Oscar Karrel, of New York City, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whipple at Mead's Hills for two weeks. She was accompanied by her sister, Elizabeth, who has been her guest.

No Polio. Cases Reported in City

Although Plymouth is still fortunate in not having a single case of poliomyelitis—infantile paralysis—Dr. Luther Peck, city health officer, requests that parents notify their family doctor at once if their child becomes restless and feverish as he may be incubating infantile paralysis.

The newly organized Michigan Polio commission met at the Michigan Union at Ann Arbor Tuesday night to work out details of a statewide consultation service headed by Dr. Edgar E. Martner of Detroit.

The function of the commission is to arrange for a complete consultation service to cover every county, to aid physicians in early diagnosis and to help provide proper care.

New Schedule Out for Rubbish Collection

Must Be Ready by Thursday Night

City Manager C. H. Elliott announced this week that a new rubbish collection schedule goes into effect today (Friday). "Rubbish should be out not later than Thursday of each week so that it will not be skipped. Once over a territory, the city will not allow collectors to return and pick up rubbish that wasn't out in time," Mr. Elliott said.

As the volume of rubbish has increased during the summer, it is necessary for the city to set aside two days for its collection. Formerly the rubbish was picked up Saturday but now Friday also will be set aside for its collection.

To the residents this necessitates the collection of rubbish not later than Thursday night so that it will not be skipped as collectors will not retrace their course to pick up that which was not out.

Northville Fair Going to Be Real Re-Union for Old Ball Players

The game of baseball on the opening day of the Northville Fair on next Wednesday between the Pontiac-Orkland County Old Timers and the Country Old Timers is going to adapt itself into a regular Baseball Veterans' reunion. Besides the players from Pontiac and Oakland county and the team of several veterans that Harry German has rounded up from Detroit and surrounding communities there will be many old time fans from a distance. They are making preparations not only to see the game but to renew acquaintances with players and fans they have not seen for several years. Nearly all of the players that will take part in the coming game are quite capable yet of doing a good brand of baseball as they have played several games this season and are in condition.

It will be a time when much reminiscing will take place among the group at this reunion and even the game of one-on-one, underhand pitching and "I used to catch 'em without a glove" will be discussed.

Centralites Win All-Star Tilt

Golf Tourney Narrows Down to Close Race

Charles Wolfe Wins First Prize Sunday

With only three points separating the first four places in the Plymouth Golf League, the next two weeks of play will be a close race in determining the winners.

Bell Telephone, by a margin of one point, is still in first place. The Barbers are in second place with 39 points and Jewell's Cleaners and Mac's Service are tied for third with 38 points. The Plymouth Mail foursome holds down fourth position with 37 points.

Any one of these teams has a good chance to win the tournament. Five and one-half points separate fourth place and eighth, and the other eight places are scattered between 13 and 29 1/2 points.

The standings are as follows: Bell Telephone, 40; Barbers, 39; Jewell's, 38; Mac's Service, 38; The Plymouth Mail, 37; Newburg Foods, 35 1/2; Wild and company, 33 1/2; Sanitary Bakery, 32; Metro-Tile, 30; Todd's Grocery, 29 1/2; Blank and Thatcher, 27 1/2; Maybury Bar, 27 1/2; Union Paper, 26 1/2; Bill's Market, 15; Ken and Ork, 13 1/2; and Cloverdale, 13.

Last Sunday's Millionaire's day tournament at the Hilltop Country club was won by "Chuek" Wolfe who came in with $177,770 in his possession at 6:00 o'clock. "Bill" Ray was second with $128,400 and Joe Arthur collected $123,000 to win third place. Winners won golf balls for prizes.

Next Sunday, "Casey" Partridge, pro-manager of the golf course, plans the second medal tournament. As of two weeks ago, there will be a championship, first and second flights. Each flight winner will receive a trophy and second and third place winners will receive golf balls as prizes.

Chorus Trains for Song Fest

The chorus for the Community Sing is hard at work practicing its many numbers for this event which is to take place August 24. All are helping to make this sing a better than last year's Americana Community Sing.

The theme this year is "Everybody Sing" and shows how various races and peoples have contributed their songs to the American nation. The young singers will all be in costume; Irish, German, Russian or Italian, and many will be Negro.

The opening song will be "Sing, Ye Sinners" and will set the pace for the program. There will be solos by Keith Jolliffe, Betty and Lois Ridley, Grace Squires, Freeman Hoover, Frank Hadley and Denise Daust. Instrumental solos will be given by Merle Whitsall, Keith Sprout and Nancy Dunham. The German Band, which is composed of a group of eight young men, will play several selections and the entire chorus of one hundred young people will sing many of the songs.

The audience will join in and sing such old favorites as "O Sole Mio," "Ach du Lieber Augustin," "Dixie" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." The program will be printed in full in the next issue of The Mail.

Everyone loves to sing and the young people of Plymouth wish to extend to the community a hearty invitation to come and sing with them in Kellogg park at 8:00 o'clock, Thursday, August 24. Last year the song fest was considered quite a success and by popular request the Americana Community Sing is repeated this year with a new and different theme.

"You are all invited to come and sing with us," announces director Ruth Hadley.

Brother of Ben Stewart Appointed to High English Army Post

Ben D. Stewart of Plymouth has received a letter from his brother, Major W. Ninian Stewart in Edinburgh, Scotland, saying he has joined the army for four months under the British rearmament plan of the Chamberlain government. Major Stewart has been selected by the War Office, London, Officer Commanding supplies for the north and east of Scotland from Kinross to Berwick, with headquarters and staff in Edinburgh. He has been notified that his services may be extended to three years or longer.

For many years Major Stewart has been active as speaker for the conservative party and in diplomatic fields. He attended a World Conference for six weeks with the League of Nations at Geneva. During the World War he saw much service as a private soldier in the Gallipoli campaign and from there he was made Second Lieutenant to serve with General Allenby in Egypt and Palestine. His knowledge of military tactics and the Arabic language gained for him an appointment on the Intelligence staff. He relinquished his commission and was gazetted out of the service in 1923 with the rank of Major.

Thousands Flock to Park Sunday

Many thousands of people enjoyed the advantages of the Wayne county park system last Sunday. Thousands of picnickers, both family, shop and factory, were held at Riverside and Cass Benton parks which practically surround Plymouth.

The Rouge river which winds beneath spreading shade trees and connects a system of lakes afforded the picnickers a beautiful setting for their family get-togethers. Offering plenty of recreation space for the children, such as tennis, softball, shuffleboard, swings, teeter-totters, slides, etc., parents were able to enjoy a day of rest and visiting with relatives and friends.

Reservations were placed with caretakers for the following reunions and picnics Saturday at Riverside park: Salvation Army Grandale Corps with 200 in attendance; New Light Sunday school picnic attended by 125 persons; 308 men from the Kelvinator service department and their families; Grandale Co-ops with 45 present enjoyed the day at the park; and the Salem Federation of Women also had a picnic.

Sunday, August 6, reservations for space in Riverside park included mostly family reunions. The Neunfelt reunion had 50 from the family at their picnic; Hornets Athletic club from Detroit reserved space for 200 of its members and the Stratford club, an organization from Detroit, had 250 in attendance. One hundred members of the Burger family held a reunion at the park; The Federation of the Jewish Lithuanians of Detroit reserved tables and picnic grounds for 350 of their members. One hundred Talcotts had a reunion as did 40 from the Wolfe and Hennessey families. The Ladd and Penn reunion had 40 in attendance, 60 from the Murray family were at the park for the day and the Stevens family set places for 50 from their group.

These reservations accounted for only 1,000 of the many thousands at the park Saturday and Sunday. Every week-end the parks are jammed to capacity and during the week passers-by notice large numbers enjoying picnic suppers and resting in the cool, spacious grounds set aside by Wayne county for a system of parks.

Plymouth Swept by Wind and Rain; No Damage

Tornado in Other Parts of State

What seemed to Plymouth residents to be just another heavy rain storm Tuesday evening turned out to be one of Michigan's freak tornadoes in other parts of the state. Outstate the greatest damage from wind and rain was reported to be in Kalamazoo, Kent, Midland and LaPeere counties.

The center of the heavy down-pour of rain in the Plymouth and Detroit areas was Wyandotte and Trenton. Comstock, three miles south of Kalamazoo, bore the brunt of the tornado. At least 25 homes in South Comstock, nearly all the residential buildings, underwent damage ranging from torn roofs to total destruction.

In Plymouth, workmen on the Tonquish tile drain had dammed the creek so as to hold back the water to permit work to be done on the bed of the creek. The rain caused the water to rise and overflow the wall. The water halted operations for a few hours Wednesday morning, but soon by means of pumps, the water was removed from the creek bed and work is again progressing.

As far as can be learned, crops did not suffer heavily in the Plymouth area from the wind and rain. The greatest percent of wheat is in shock, some hay was on the ground, but was soon dried by the sun Wednesday. Oats, corn and other grains did not suffer greatly.

As the storm swept east and north it lost its velocity. The weather bureau reported 8 of an inch of rainfall in downtown Detroit. In Grosse Pointe the rain was described as a gentle shower while it flooded streets in the vicinity of Kercheval and St. Clair; Mack and Lincoln; Emerson and Jefferson.

Electrical service was disrupted in hundreds of homes in Detroit for several hours, although power service remained unhampered in Plymouth.

Modernized turkeys built on the lines that would fit today's smaller families still are not commercially available, although government research men at Beltsville, Maryland, think they have an ultimate combination of the proper breeding. At Michigan State college the early attempts to produce smaller birds resulted in higher feed costs per pound. Federal research breeding involves mixing White Austrian turkeys for small size and whiteness of flesh. White Holland breeding for white flesh and native wild stock for small size and a meaty breast. The White Holland, Bronze and Black breeds also are being used in this mixing up of aristocrat turkey families as these three have a reputation for early maturity. A PERFECT TEAM Fairbanks Morse Stokers and our Kentucky or Pocahontas Stoker Coals W.C. ROBERTS-Coal Tel. 214 B. P. S. PARTS AND VARNISHES 639 S. Mill

Residents Attend Special Meeting of Planning Body

To Take People's Wishes Under Advisement

Residents of that area of Plymouth surrounding South Harvey street between Ann Arbor Trail and Penniman avenue were present at a special hearing of the planning commission at the city hall Tuesday evening.

The purpose of the hearing was to explain the essentials of zoning and clear up any questions that the residents present might ask.

Some time ago a petition was presented to the commission requesting that the area on West Ann Arbor trail between Main street and Harvey and north on Harvey to Penniman be designated as business zone on the map. This petition was signed by property owners from that district.

City Manager Clarence H. Elliott sent letters to residents of that district and the surrounding area requesting them to attend the special hearing Tuesday night.

Commission members answered questions of property owners who presented their requests personally. Five were represented by letter requesting that their property be included in the business zone. Fifteen others also wanted their property classed as business frontage.

As a result of the meeting, no action was taken concerning the map, but the planning commission will take under advisement the wishes of the people.

Residents on West Ann Arbor trail near Elizabeth were represented at the meeting. They desired a similar action on the map extend the commercial area to Elizabeth street.

Letters will be sent to property owners on South Main street between Wing and Ann Arbor road requesting them to be present at a special hearing of the planning commission, August 28.

Squirrel Hunting to Be Best

"Hunters in this part of Michigan are going to enjoy some of the best fox squirrel hunting they have had in years," declared Conservation Officer Fred Eckart Monday night when he was in Plymouth to attend the meeting of the Western Wayne County Conservation association.

"Closing the season for one year has brought about an exceptional increase in the number of squirrels all through this part of the state. All of our officers make similar reports," he said.

While there was some complaint last year because the squirrel hunting season was closed for that period, those who follow the steps of Michigan sportsmen pretty close, knew that something should be done to help improve the squirrel hunting.

Hunters two years ago reported that they could tramp the woods day after day and never see a squirrel, but that condition does not now prevail.

Officer Eckart declared that not only would squirrel hunting be better about this part of the state, but also in all parts of the lower section of Michigan.

Sign Up for Baseball Trip, Matulis Says

Make Reservations at High School for Tiger Game

"Children who are planning to attend the Tiger baseball game at Briggs stadium, Tuesday, August 22, are requested to sign up for the trip as soon as possible with recreation officials at the high school," Recreation Director Anthony S. Matulis announced early this week.

Walter O. Briggs, president of the Detroit Tigers baseball team has invited 150 Plymouth boys and girls to attend the game between Detroit and the Philadelphia Athletics.

Transportation to the stadium will be by automobile and children will be admitted to the game upon the personal identification by Mr. Matulis and his staff. As it is now planned, two leaders will be stationed at the gates to identify the children as they pass.

A series of ball games was played at the Wayne County Training school last week by the midjet teams. Participants enjoyed playing with an out-of-town team.

There will be a meeting of the managers whose teams will be in the play-offs Friday night after the softball game at Central field. Teams in the play-off are Super Shell and Schrader, and two out of the following three teams: Daisy Plymouth Hardware and Sutherland. The four teams to make the play-offs definitely will not be announced until after tonight's (Friday) game.

Last week in the Central league Sutherland swamped the Plymouth Mail, 11-1; Plymouth Hardware routed the Times, 13-6, and Daisy completed the week's one sided scoring by taking The Plymouth Mail, 11-4.

Central league play-offs start next week. Team standings to date are as follows:

	W	L	Pct.
Super Shell	10	2	.833
Schrader	9	3	.750
Plym. Hdwe.	8	5	.615
Daisy	8	5	.615
Sutherland	7	6	.538
Walk Over	5	8	.385
Times	4	9	.307
Plymouth Mail	0	13	.000

The Girls' league at Central played only one game last week in which Thelma's went on a scoring spree and walloped Barnes, 37-0.

This game left Thelma's at 1,000 percent and lowered the Barnes team to .286. Other teams are Bakesh at .400 and Carr holding down the cellar position with .200.

Next week Tuesday, Bakesh will meet Barnes; Wednesday, Barnes and Heintz will play; and on Thursday the play-offs will start.

Monday, July 31, Starkweather club beat the Studebaker team, 7-4; Stark edged out the Studebakers, Tuesday, 4-2; and on Wednesday, Newburg beat Williams Service, 10-7.

Starkweather team standings in the league are:

	W	L	Pct.
Newburg	7	4	.636
Williams Service	6	5	.556
Stark	6	5	.556
Studebaker	4	4	.500
Starkweather club	4	6	.400
Super Shell Farms	1	6	.143

Next week's schedule follows: Tuesday, August 15, Super Shell Farms vs. Newburg. Wednesday, August 16, Stark vs. Starkweather club. Thursday, August 17, Williams Service vs. Studebaker.

Flower Show Dates Are Fixed

Residents of Plymouth and surrounding territory are invited by the members of the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association to plan on exhibiting at their Flower Show which will be held on Friday and Saturday, September 8-9 from 1:30 to 10 p. m., in the Central school auditorium.

Mrs. John Dalton, who is chairman of the show, announces that the following table settings will be judged; flowers in vases in pairs, mixed perennials, miniature vases (not over 5 inches in height), large and small bowls, low and high vases, metal containers, colonial bouquets and containers and flowers in the same color. Owners of bird houses are also asked to exhibit. There will be no admission charge.

On Monday, August 14, at 2 p. m., the members of the local group and their guests are to attend a garden tea at the home of Mrs. Arthur White on Canon Center road. This evening the group is invited to attend the flower show to be held by the Rosedale Gardens group and the Men's Civic association in the Community House in Rosedale.

Miss Helen Farthing and Stanley Olsson Wed August 5th

On Saturday afternoon, August 5, at 2:30 in the afternoon was the occasion of a beautiful garden wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hessler on North Territorial road when Miss Helen Farthing, sister of Mrs. Hessler, became the bride of Stanley Olsson of Detroit. The Rev. E. E. Fitch, pastor of Missionary Alliance church, Detroit, officiated.

Under an archway covered with lilies and a background of green foliage and gladioli, the bridal couple spoke their vows in the presence of 75 guests from Detroit, Flint and Royal Oak.

The bride was very attractive in a gown of white chiffon with shirred bodice. She wore a finger tip veil of net and carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. Florence Olsson, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. Her gown was of delphinium blue georgette and she carried pink roses. Albin Olsson, brother of the bridegroom, assisted as best man. Patricia Hessler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hessler, was the flower girl and her brother, Keith, was ring bearer.

The young couple will spend their honeymoon at Pine Lake, near Pontiac, after which they will be at home to their many friends in their new house now under construction on Bridle Path road off Schoolcraft road.

The Misses Delia Hinsdale, Mable Sloan and Maude Wheeler of the Francis Willard home, Detroit, where Mrs. Olsson resided before her marriage, were among the guests present. Miss Hinsdale is assistant matron of the home. The young couple was the recipient of many nice gifts of silver, glassware and linen from their host of friends.

Where pennies must be counted it is wise to make purchases that will mean less expense to take care of them. Plain bedding such as spreads, pillowcases, etc., is the only sensible buy, as the frilled and fancy bed linens cost nearly double to have laundered than the plain ones and mean quite an item to the household expenses.

NOTICE to Property Owners Curb and Gutter

Notice is hereby given that public hearing will be held in the Commission Chamber at the City Hall, Monday evening, August 21, 1939 at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of determining whether or not to construct curb and gutter on Evergreen Avenue from Farmer Street to Junction Avenue.

Mary Mettetal And John Ladd To Wed Saturday Morning

In the People's church in East Lansing, at 9 o'clock, Saturday morning, Mary Isabel Mettetal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Mettetal, of Plymouth, will become the bride of John Maxwell Ladd, son of Mrs. Blanche Ladd and the late Dr. Lewis Ladd, of Martin. Rev. R. G. Gaige, assistant pastor, will perform the ceremony in the presence of 30 relatives and friends, among them being several college friends from Michigan State.

Carol Campbell, of this city, will play Lohengren's and Mendelssohn's Wedding Marches and Edith Mettetal, sister of the bride, will sing "At Dawning," by Cadman, and "O Perfect Love" by Gurney.

The bride will wear a dusty royal blue chiffon redingote over a blue print dress having three-quarter length sleeves trimmed with tiny buttons. She will wear a blue silk turban with finger-tip veil and blue accessories. Her corsage will be white delphinium and roses.

Edith Mettetal, who will be the bridesmaid, will wear a fall dress of silk crepe in grape shade. It will have a shirred flare skirt with bustle effect. A matching hat with veil and ostrich plume trim, in a lighter color, will complete her costume. She will have a corsage of gladioli and scabiosa.

The bridegroom will be attended by James Foreman, of Chicago, a college friend of both bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Mettetal will wear a gown of lavender silk crepe made with three-quarter length sleeves with tiny button trim and belt buckle of pearls. She will wear a turban with veil tied in back and accessories in matching blue and corsage in peach color. Mrs. Ladd will be gowned in raspberry silk crepe with matching accessories. Her corsage will be rose gladioli and blue delphinium.

A reception and breakfast will follow the ceremony in the Green Room of the Hunt Food Shop in Lansing when the wedding guests will be seated at a table decorated with vases of gladioli and larkspur in pink and white. The bride's table will be centered with a four-tiered wedding cake flanked by baskets of flowers in the same colors. Gladioli and delphinium will be used in the decorating of the church.

Following a brief wedding trip to Ludington the young couple will reside at 625 Lake avenue, Grand Haven.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Michigan State College and members of Phi Kappa Phi. Mr. Ladd is also a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and in the past year has completed his Master's Degree at the University of Syracuse in Syracuse, New York. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

A pair of sparrow hawks will eat or destroy one small insect-eating bird a day.

Ten years ago Michigan had but one-third the acreage of mint that was being grown in Indiana. Now Michigan has about twice as much as it had then and Indiana is second with a little more than half as much as is grown now in Michigan. More than a million dollars is the present average return to farmers in this state, crop reports indicate. Wild and flea beetles are the worst problems associated with mint production.

MAGIC ... old and new

Pulling a rabbit out of a hat is no more remarkable than pulling a complete meal out of a semi-sealed oven—especially when the meal has practically cooked itself, without attention. Yet this is only one of the tricks being done every day by clever housewives in modern electric kitchens. Today's electric ranges make possible a mealtime magic that would have amazed our grandmothers who were obliged to cook meals on the arduous stoves of 50 years ago. Today one merely snaps a switch and goes out for the afternoon while dinner cooks itself. Today's electric ranges are cool, clean, convenient . . . and electric cooking sets a new high in delicious flavor and healthfulness. CALVARY BAPTIST church. Holbrook and Hardenberg, Lynn B. Stout, pastor. "For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth," says 2 Cor. 13: 8. St. John 17: 17. The Lord here wills to us as his saved and regenerated people (not for the unbeliever and sinner) a new and better experience than the first great miracle of the new birth. It is a state of being holy and fully consecrated to the work of the Lord and having a new nature entirely. This is accomplished ONLY through the cleansing power of God's word, even His truth. We cannot have this blessing until we put Him supreme in our heart. Had Moses chosen to hold the scepter of Egypt he would never have held the rod of God. All are welcome to worship at the church you are never asked to join. Come and learn about the Master with us. Co-pastors, Arno Thompson and Clifford Funk.

SIDE-STEPPING

There is considerable being written and said about the issues for the state campaign in 1940. Some political writers have injected the welfare problem to the forefront. Others have hammered long and hard on the civil service problem. Others have discussed state finances. In fact most every issue has been discussed, except the one big Michigan issue—and that question is whether Michigan will continue to permit the development of a boss system of politics within the state.

While New York, Missouri and Louisiana, where political machines and boss politicians have flourished like rag weeds, are today finding it necessary to send political manipulators to penitentiaries, we in Michigan have taken no steps to prevent the development of these obnoxious political machines that have but one purpose—political control for personal gain. Crookedness in public affairs always goes hand in hand with strong political machine control. No matter how "honest" may be the intentions of the bosses, the creatures of machine politics are invariably the plunderers of the system.

That is and will be the issue in Michigan. We might as well face the facts and fight it out now, before the disgrace and stigma that have come to other machine controlled states, befalls Michigan. Mind you, the issue does not confine itself to any one political party. It has its tentacles into both major political organizations.

OUR BEST WISHES

Next Wednesday will open the 23rd annual Northville-Country fair, with every indication pointing to a far greater exhibition than the association has ever before arranged. Numerous changes have been made in the program of daily events, one being the substitution of running races for trotting races. This change is simply an experiment that the association plans to try out this year and if it proves popular with the fair crowds, then it will be continued in future years.

Exhibition space has been entirely taken for several weeks. The fair officials are enthusiastic over the outlook for an outstanding success this year.

All of Plymouth wishes for its progressive and friendly neighbor to the north, not only the success that the association officials hope for, but a success even greater than that anticipated. Northville is entitled to credit and praise for its ability to successfully conduct such a big undertaking year after year.

One of the pleasing things about it all is the fact that nearly every one in Plymouth is a booster for the Northville fair. Possibly that is because every time Plymouth stages anything of an outstanding nature, Northville residents are quick to take part in it and help make the venture a success. That's one of the reasons why Plymouth is always glad of an opportunity to do its part in boosting the Northville fair. That's why Plymouth day is always such an outstanding event. Let's make it a bigger and better day this year than ever before. One of the finest things in the world is the friendly, even though competitive spirit, that exists between Northville and Plymouth. Of course the football teams and our baseball teams of the two communities fight like Trojans to "beat Northville" or "beat Plymouth." That's the right kind of a spirit—but the minute the contests are over, there is a friendliness even among the youngsters that is an outstanding credit to both Northville and Plymouth.

Plymouth day at the Northville-Wayne county fair is next week Thursday. Let's make it the biggest and best day we've ever had! It does much to keep alive that friendly, cooperative spirit that exists between the two communities—and which proves so beneficial to both Northville and Plymouth.

COURTESY

(From The Rotarian)

Think about politeness in terms of sentiment if you want to, but cold facts show that courtesy pays well in terms of hard cash. This is the verdict of Charles B. Hathaway, writing in the current Rotarian Magazine. He cites examples of substantial fortunes resulting directly from thoughtfulness and good manners.

Clement George McCullagh, now one of the dominant figures in Canada, impressed fabulously rich Bill Wright by his courtesy when trying to sell him some securities. Other salesmen had shown little respect for his privacy and feelings, so attracted by a single courteous act, eventually the two formed a history-making partnership, combining McCullagh's ability and Wright's money.

Or consider the girl working in the safety-deposit department of a Detroit bank. A certain elderly gentleman came to the vault only three times a year to be served by the girl, yet when he died he left her $5,000 in recognition of her "unfailing courtesy."

Mr. Hathaway points to the examples of John Wanamaker and Marshall Field, the great merchants. It was the former who insisted that "the customer is always right," and in applying the principle to his stores made himself wealthy. Mr. Field, at the height of his success, would take time to tour his store, wait on customers, and hear their complaints. He profited greatly by applying courtesy to merchandising.

While commercialized manners are desirable, it is even more heartening to meet a person who is mannerly, not because he anticipates a profit from his acts, but just because he is mannerly. Outstanding in this way is the great Paderewski. As one of the world's greatest musicians, he could indulge in any rudeness and have it charged off to temperament. "But," the author points out, "his simple kindness—manners, I call it—made him a national idol.

One corporation has a person who first interviews applicants for positions and reports on manners only. If one fails to pass the courtesy test, no amount of ability will earn him a place with the firm.

"I believe we have established the point," Mr. Hathaway concludes, "we need not be sanctimonious when we talk about manners, or approach the subject as a semireligious, nonprofit proposition; we can admit that it is a good thing because it has cash value."

A DEMOCRATIC VIEWPOINT

Yes, we know that some WPA employes prefer the public work jobs to what they style the uncertainty of factory employment. This is a problem that cannot be solved, however, by sitting on the fence and finding fault. It is one of the bad features of the seasonal unemployment problem. Then of course there are some goofys who are perfectly content to work on the WPA. They have always been employed at common labor and a WPA job looks good to them. After all, the problem of unemployment is to continue regardless of business conditions. For years before 1929 welfare bodies were every now and then confronted with a load of responsibility caused by a cessation of factory employment. This matter of striking a balance is a big and mystifying problem. It cannot be settled in part even by growling at the President and finding fault with his well meant efforts.—James Smith in The Muskegon Observer.

EXPENSIVE HABITS

It is a strangely significant fact that harmful habits are always expensive. For example Iowa has passed a two cent cigarette tax plus enforcement regulations that suggest the old "life for a pint" dry era. New York city "soffin nail" customers now pay nine cents in taxes before taking a single puff. The Iowa regulations permit every smoker to possess two unstamped packages of cigarettes. That's where leniency ceases, however. For every additional unstamped pack, a $50 fine is provided, or $500 for a carton, $25,000 for a case. Revenue agents, sniffing out contraband cigarettes, may enter any home or business place without a warrant. They may stop any car or truck, also without a warrant.—Muri H. DeFoe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

STEPPING PLACES

Michigan folks and out-state folks in Michigan are going places. More gasoline tax money was collected in the first six months of 1933 than in any other like period in the history of the state. Motorists paid $13,928,037 in Michigan gasoline taxes from January 1 to June 30, 1933. The previous high six-month period was the first part of 1937 when $13,736,999 was collected in gasoline taxes. Yes, the figure is right, almost $14,000,000 in six months.—Nelson Brown in The Ingham County News.

THE HIGH COMMISSIONER

The Spanish American war was fought in 1898 and before peace was declared the high officials of the United States Government, including Admiral Dewey, promised early independence to the Philippines. President McKinley made the same promise. We do not recall just how many times Presidents and Congresses have renewed the pledge but we do know that the defaults just about match European war debt dodges. Paul W. McNutt began to tell the world, before he left Manila, that it would be a crime to give the Philippines their full independence, and he is now in the United States repeating just doctrine. Whether his advocacy of holding the Philippines has anything to do with the boom for Mr. McNutt as a Democratic Presidential candidate is a different matter. The Filipinos have time and again expressed themselves emphatically in their desires for full independence at the earliest possible date. They have been asking for it for 40 years.

Always some political question is raised to defeat the Filipinos, and those patient wards of the United States always "fall" for the propaganda, and agree to "wait a little longer."

It's time to turn the Philippines loose. The Filipinos will take care of themselves, and we think without any trouble because "contrary to the interested politicians and business interests, there is no sound reason to believe that Japan or any other powerful nation has any desire to gobble them up.—George O. St. Charles in The Dearborn Independent.

MICHIGAN SHOULD TAKE TIP

The O'Mahoney amendment to the 1940 postoffice appropriation bill prohibits federal agencies from sending through the mail free of postage any "report, periodical, bulletin, pamphlet, list or other article or document" unless the service has been requested.

Every newspaper gets bales of propaganda from the federal and state governments. Tons of it go through the mails every week and only a little of it is ever used or is ever worth using. The state of Michigan should take the tip from the federal government and enact a similar measure. Thousands of dollars are sent in press agency, mimeographing, mailing and postage by the state every year. This could be saved and the public would be just as well served.—Nelson Brown in The Ingham County News.

EDITOR SAYS SOMETHING

A man working away in a smelly laboratory doesn't become known to the people of his own state and may even be unknown to people living within his own community, yet he may be doing a work of estimable value to humanity. Such a man is Dr. I. F. Huddleson of Michigan State College, whose development of brucellin for a reaction test and for treatment of undulant fever has made him known internationally to medical men. In Mexico a new institution has been named for him, and yet we doubt if one person in ten in his home state would have been able to associate Dr. Huddleson's name with his work. And Joe Louis and Tony Galento win fame and fortune in much less time and with strikingly less mental development, and without doing anything helpful to humanity. Are we giving our rewards to the wrong people—or aren't we? A man laboring to benefit humanity through scientific research cannot hope to earn in a lifetime as much as Joe Louis received for one fight lasting ten to fifteen minutes, and neither will he receive one per cent of the popular acclaim; all of which looks a bit foolish to us; how does it look to you?—William Berkey in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

Some fine improvements are being made and have been in Riverside cemetery this summer which are greatly appreciated by lot owners and those who are interested in the betterment and beautifying of the city of the dead. The eastern part of the cemetery has been re-surveyed and this section now contains several hundred fine lots. The new way of laying out lots without an alley between each lot has been observed and is a great improvement over the old way, and presents a more pleasing effect. New pipe lines have been put in and practically every lot is now supplied by water. Driveways have been rebuilt and greatly improved by being oiled. A beautiful floral design with the word "Riverside" in flowers, near the receiving vault is greatly admired by all who have seen it. This artistic piece of work was done by Plymouth's up-to-date florist, Carl Heide, and he deserves much credit for his work. For several years back many improvements have been made at Riverside cemetery and the board of trustees and the employees at the cemetery are to be commended for their good work. It is to be hoped that the work will continue until Riverside cemetery is one of the finest in the state.

SPECIAL EYE CLINIC for SCHOOL CHILDREN

The success of the child in school vitally depends on the condition of his eyes. Yet, there are many school children in Plymouth and vicinity who apparently see well, yet have hidden eye defects.

Recognizing this danger, I have talked over this vital problem with citizens of the community. They agree that an Eye Clinic, before school opens, is the only safe solution.

Every parent is urged to bring in children of school age to this Clinic, which will be held in my office each day. The above card can be detached to remind you of this important duty to children's eyes. Remember—this is for every child of school age, whose eyes may be found defective only through an examination.

This Clinic will be conducted personally—and I have set aside afternoon hours from 3:30 till 6 o'clock for this purpose. In no cases will glasses be advised unless absolutely necessary.

Your cooperation with this special Eye Clinic is earnestly solicited.
