Beginning at 8:00 o'clock on the evening of February 20, Bro. Edgar W. H. Byers, of Toronto, Canada, will conduct a series of revival services at the local Salvation Army hall, 281 Third Street.

Bro. Byers is a retired Salvation Army officer, having served 53 years of service in the Army, two as a soldier and 51 years as an officer. He began his army career in 1886, and has done army service, both in Canada and the United States from coast to coast.

His meetings will be very interesting and well worth attending. Since his retirement from the army he has also put in some years as a divisional commander and trained many men and women for army work.

Record Now Closely Crowding the 2,000 Mark

An all time new high in attendance has been reached at the Plymouth public school. There are now 1813 students enrolled in the various classes, topping last semester's record by 112 when the total registered as the first of the school year, in September, was 1701.

At the mid-year promotions, the high school was increased by 40 pupils who were graduated from grade 6-A at Central and Starkweather grade schools to the high school. A new group of kindergarten students started school for the first time and their number made up for those who were promoted, keeping grade school attendance about the same as it was.

Between September and the close of the first semester, 35 additional students were registered in the grade schools due to families moving to Plymouth and the surrounding area. Because of the student increase it was necessary for the board of education to increase the number of grade teachers. One additional teacher was hired for teaching in the high school also.

Bertha Anderson, a graduate of Northern State Teachers' college, located at Marquette, has been secured to teach in the Central grade school. She has had several years' teaching experience at the Painesdale and Sebastic schools.

The additional high school teacher is Louise E. Sweet, who is instructing courses in the new building. Miss Sweet has been granted her Master's degree from the University of Michigan.

By increasing the teaching force in the local schools, Superintendent G. A. Smith believes it will enable teachers with smaller groups to more effectively oversee their students' work and make for more individual instruction.

Enrollment at the high school stands at 996, showing an increase of 85 students over the first of the year. Central has 514, 21 over the original 490 and there are three more students enrolled at Starkweather grade school than was in September, with the total now at 301.

Superintendent Smith predicts that the enrollment will increase even more during the next week or so, as he believes because of sickness and other reasons, students did not register the first days of the new semester.

Unique Program at Meeting Today

The members of the Women's Club of Plymouth will meet today (Friday) at 2:15 o'clock at the Mayflower hotel.

Legion Holds Biggest Father-Son Banquet

Over 300 Attend Organization's Most Successful Affair

One of the most successful father and son banquets ever held in the Plymouth area was sponsored by Myron H. Beals Post No. 32, The American Legion, on Monday evening, February 12. The affair took place in the Legion hall on Newburg road, where 300 dads and lads of all ages gathered to partake of a turkey dinner prepared and served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Beals Post, and to listen to the addresses and entertainment of such distinguished personages as the Rev. Dr. Wayland Zwayer, pastor of East Jefferson Baptist church, of Detroit and president of the Baptist Home Mission society of America, Duncan Moore, well-known radio news commentator of station WJR Detroit, Henry Ford's Hill-Billy quartet, the Great Bates, magician extraordinary, and "Leo, the Lion," personal mascot of the Detroit Lion football team.

The invocation which preceded the dinner was given by Comrade Norman Bringard whose son, Donald Bringard, proposed the toast to the dads later in the evening. Greetings were extended to the company by William Kvefer, acting commander of Beals Post, Comrade Duncan Moore was then introduced, and henceforth acted as master of ceremonies.

Since the occasion happened to fall on Lincoln's birthday, and in the same month as that of George Washington, the addresses of the various speakers followed the Americanism theme, which was also carried out in the small American flags and silhouettes of the two most honored of our statesmen which formed the decorations on the dinner tables. Speaking along this line, Comrade Dr. Zwayer addressed the assembly in terms understandable and beneficial to children and adults alike. The toast to the lads was given by Past Commander Harold Owen.

Both children and adults were entranced with the miraculous achievements of the magician ("Bates is my name—the World's Best") and the antics of Leo, the Lion, caused much merriment among the youngsters. Ford's Hill-Billy quartet played and sang at frequent intervals throughout the evening, and the program was concluded with a general sing-song, led by D. Bevan, with Al Wecker at the piano.

Short Circuit Causes Fire at Gas Station

F. A. Vollbrecht Enlarges Plant

Announcement was made the latter part of last week in Wayne of the building of an addition on the plant of the Industrial Wire Cloth Products corporation of that city. The announcement was of much interest in Plymouth in view of the fact that Frederick A. Vollbrecht, owner of the company, is a Plymouthite and resides at 1299 West Ann Arbor Trail.

The new building will be 50 by 150 feet and one story high. It will join the present plant on the Brush street side. The company has been in operation in Wayne for the last 15 years and is one of that city's largest industrial organizations.

Overcrowding of the present factory and the desire for a more efficient layout were given by Mr. Vollbrecht as the major reasons for the building program. "Business has been good," he declared, "and we feel that expansion of our plant facilities will help us to take advantage of it."

Shriners to Dine Friday, March 1

The Suburban Shrine club, of Moslem Temple, will hold a spring dinner party at the Mayflower hotel, on Friday evening, March 1. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., followed by dancing, interspersed with entertainment in the form of a floor show. The music and entertainment is being provided by Noble Haze Bennett, club president, assisted by a committee of Past Presidents A. Blake Gillies, Fred D. Schrader, E. J. Allison, J. E. Measel and Nobles Raymond Bachelder, John Dayton and Charles Murphy. The accommodations are limited to 200 places, so that it is advisable to make reservations and obtain tickets well in advance. Tickets may be obtained and places reserved through the officers and committee, as well as at the Mayflower hotel, Plymouth, and Moslem Shrine office, Detroit.

This is an informal party (No hats wear your Fez), without monotonous speeches, but with good entertainment so that a pleasant evening is assured.

Mrs. William A. Otwell and Mrs. Jack Taylor are to attend a luncheon bridge, Monday, to be given by Mrs. J.G. Clemmons of Ann Arbor.

Rotarians to Fete Wives Tonight

Tonight (Friday) Plymouth Rotarians will entertain their wives at one of the three ladies' nights of the year. William Baker is chairman for the evening and announces that the program will feature high school groups who will provide the entertainment.

A double quartet, directed by Denis Hamill, will sing several numbers and a dramatics group which is under the direction of Winifred Ford, will present a play.

390 Attend Joint Banquet Tuesday

Three hundred and ninety fathers and sons attended the second annual father and son banquet sponsored jointly by Troop two of the Plymouth Boy Scouts and the Ex-Service Men's club held Tuesday evening in the Central high school auditorium. Every available place was filled and it is said that several were turned away who sought their tickets too late.

Charles J. Thumme, troop committee man and Plymouth police officer, was general chairman for the banquet which proved to be one of the best affairs of its kind ever staged in the city. A Blake Gillies, superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction, acted as toastmaster. He kept the program lively and told many humorous episodes in introducing speakers on the program.

In recognition of his outstanding service to the city of Plymouth and loyal support of the Boy Scout movement, Mr. Thumme was presented a plaque on behalf of the Boy Scouts of troop two and the Ex-Service Men's club by Scoutmaster Marvin Partridge. Mr. Gillies was presented with a similar award for being the "perfect toastmaster."

A trophy cup was presented to Scout Richard Strong who wrote the best essay, in the opinion of the judges, on the subject, "Abraham Lincoln." The essay contest was sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and presentation of the award was made by Mac Don-

Property to Be Cleared for Work; to Start at Once

Theatre Will Be of Most Modern Design and Contain 800 Seats

Within the next few days workmen will start work on the removal of the debris now situated on the Harry Lush property on Poplar avenue, which will be the site of a new theatre to be erected immediately.

Mr. Lush stated Wednesday that plans for the construction are practically completed and the building and the equipment in it will be the most modern available.

The front of the theatre will be a tan terra cotta, accentuated by flood lights on the tower and the marquee. The interior will be designed for comfort with two wide aisles dividing the rows of seats that will cover a distance of 95 feet from the front of the theatre to the back. The building will also house a modern store that will be 24 feet wide and 110 feet deep.

There will be 800 modern, comfortable seats, 20 inches wide, in the theatre and each seat will be 33 inches apart from back to back giving patrons ample room to pass in and out of the rows without interfering with others.

A complete cooling system will be installed in the building during its construction so that temperatures may be controlled throughout the year. This feature will be identical with those used in the larger Detroit theatres.

The picture projections and sound equipment will be the finest available states Mr. Lush, and no expense will be spared to make the theatre one of the finest in Michigan.

No name has been selected as yet for the theatre and the name "Kings" appearing in the drawing is placed there only to show where it will appear when selected.

Style Show Is Planned Here

Arrangements are now under way for the presentation of a style show by the Taylor and Blyton department store, according to John Blyton who returned last week-end from a buying trip in Chicago. March 6 has been selected for the date of the event and further details will be presented to Plymouthites next week.

The show will feature California sport garments with the newest styles of beach suits, slacks and club suits. Local models will be used exclusively for the show.

Construction is under way in the Taylor and Blyton store of a California sport goods department on the second floor where the new line will be a permanent part of the store's goods.

Decorations will also be featured in the preview and local ladies will be given an opportunity to view all of the better styles shown at the dressmaker which just closed in Chicago.

The program is open to the public and no admission fee will be charged. Plymouth Townsendites are invited to bring their own chairs to the program Monday in order to heat more about it.

Plymouth Police Launch Drive Against Vandals

Police Chief Makes Plea to Plymouth Residents

As a result of recent malicious destruction of public property, Chief Vaughan R. Smith said that the police department would no longer put up with "childish pranks." The signs were because several signs have been removed or even destroyed in the last few weeks. Saturday night a parking sign was stolen from the intersection of Ann Arbor Trail and Penniman avenue. Another was found to be broken beyond repair Monday morning.

"We are not just trying to be tough," Chief Smith said, "but something has to be done about the situation. It can't be left as it is. If it were, signs would have to be replaced or repaired every day."

"For each sign that is stolen, defaced or broken, taxpayers' money is involved in its replacement or repair," the police chief continued. "We feel it to be a needless waste."

It was reported from the city hall that anyone seen molesting the signs in any way, will be held for questioning. "Just because this parking sign question is foremost in our minds at the present, by no means are we overlooking other public property destruction that has been going on in the city," said Chief Smith. He cited several cases of damage to city property which included the defacement of walls and wasting of material in the public comfort station on Main street.

"We request every Plymouth resident to take an active interest in the apprehension of those persons who feel that they are in a position to spend taxpayers' money by destroying public property," the police chief declared. "You residents of Plymouth who take pride in the appearance of your city, should as a civic duty, do everything in your power to stop the lawless vandalism that is going on about you every day."

State Official Speaks Before J. C. C. Group

Says 1939 Gross Receipts Reach $3,000,000 Here

It was estimated by John Ketcham, of Hastings, agricultural counsel for the State Chain Store bureau, when he appeared before members of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night that Plymouth business realized a combined gross receipt of more than $2,812,000 for 1939. The speaker compiled his figure from the percentage of the state retail business done by this city in relation to the three percent state sales tax collection figure paid by business places of Plymouth that is on file for the year at Lansing.

From a report of census enumerators who have taken business trends at intervals since 1929, Mr. Ketcham was able to compile an accurate report of this city's business which he gave in his talk Monday.

"It is interesting to note," declared the speaker, "that Plymouth's business trend has followed the trend of other cities over the entire state since 1929. However, in most cases where there was an increase in other cities, Plymouth's increase was larger."

Mr. Ketcham said that in 1929, the city's retail business amounted to 0.0142 percent of all that done in the state of Michigan. There was a slight increase in 1933 when the percentage amounted to .00146, and in 1935 Plymouth did .00156 percent of all the retail business in the state. Mr. Ketcham based his 1939 percentage on an average taken from the last 10 years.

Included with his talk, the speaker had figures to show what percent of the total gross of business was represented by the various types of business carried on here.

"Of the over $2,000,000 worth of articles sold in the city last year," Mr. Ketcham said, "the automotive and gasoline industry accounted for 32.7 percent of the sales. Retail food selling came next with 28.5 percent of the gross. Two and five-tenths of the gross came from eating and drinking establishments and 7.6 percent was from general merchandising. Wearing apparel accounted for five percent of the gross receipts, 7.2 percent for lumber and hardware, 3.6 percent for the drug business and 12 percent was accounted for by all other means of revenue not listed here."

"Plymouth hit its high point in trade in 1929 when each of the 66 stores did an average gross business of $47,200. However, in 1933 it dropped to a low of $17,500 but the number of stores had increased to 79. In 1935 there were 78 stores doing business. Their gross receipts amounted to $27,600, while the average for each business in the state was found to be approximately $20,000."

"Plymouth is definitely an excellent city for business enterprise," Mr. Ketcham declared. "You men should be proud to live here and be a part of Plymouth's business. You and your businesses are proven to be successful from the figures I have just given you which represent the difference between success and failure of a city."

Mr. Ketcham commented upon the Junior Chamber of Commerce as a national organization and suggested possibilities for the future. He said it was an excellent thing for young men to "get their teeth into local activities and show what an organization of youth can do." The speaker was brought to Plymouth through the efforts of Robert Lidgard, manager of the local Kroger store.

Elliott Appointed to International Association Committee

City Manager C. H. Elliott received notice recently of his appointment by L. P. Cookingham, Saginaw city manager and president of the International City Managers' association, to the advisory committee on Public Reporting for the current year. Being one of the important association committees, it has to do with compiling municipal reports, reports to the press and radio, or any report of municipal affairs to residents.

Other members of the committee include City Managers Morton E. Downing, Bellows Falls, Vermont; C. B. Goodwin, San Jose, California; Alfred McDonald, Wichita, Kansas; James Marshall, Charlotte, North Carolina; J. A. Raffield, Sumpter, South Carolina; C. O. Sherrill, Cincinnati, Ohio; H. R. Smith, Amarillo, Texas; and James G. Wallace, Bangor, Maine.

Mr. Cookingham, national president of the association, is a former manager of the city of Plymouth.

Kiwanians See Motion Pictures

Under the chairmanship of George Burr, Plymouth Kiwanians Tuesday night at their meeting at the Hotel Mayflower enjoyed a program featured by the showing of motion pictures taken about a month ago in the Wayne county park system near Plymouth.

The pictures emphasized the facilities for recreation provided for in the parks in addition to the showing of a number of beautiful snow scenes. Mr. Burr told Kiwanis members the importance the park system plays in taking automobiles off the mainly traveled thoroughfares in the summer. The thousands of motorists who flock to the cool, beautiful park would otherwise, in all probability, be traveling on the main roads, he said.

Following the meeting members of the board of directors met at the home of Carvel Bentley, Plymouth Kiwanis president, where two delegates and their alternates were chosen to represent the local club at a national convention at Minneapolis, Minnesota, June 16-20. Warren Worth, immediate past president, and Lyle Worden were chosen by the board. Their alternates, in case either or both the first choices find it impossible to attend the convention, are John Blyton and Earl Mastick.

Choose Bookkeeper for City Hall Position

Because of her general excellence on an examination for the position of bookkeeper in the city water department, Linnea Vickstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Vickstrom, of Ann Street, was named for the position last week. Miss Vickstrom passed the examination with the highest rating. Nineteen in all took the test, eight of which received a passing mark.

The test was compiled and checked by the personnel department of the Michigan Municipal League. It was the league department which recommended that Miss Vickstrom be employed.

Miss Vickstrom comes to the city hall position very well recommended, having graduated with the class of 1939 from Plymouth high school. Since her graduation she has been attending Cleary commercial college at Ypsilanti.

Report 25 Enrolled in Sales Class

New Night School Course Proves Popular With Many

According to a report made by Principal Claude J. Dykhouse, 25 are enrolled in the night school course in effective salesmanship which was secured by the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce and is under the auspices of the State Board of Vocational Education and the Plymouth board of education.

Last week Wednesday the class met for the first time with their instructor, Haldon Robinson of Detroit, who outlined a course of study for the group. Mr. Robinson is personnel director of the J. L. Hudson company, of Detroit, and is in charge of the first floor of the store. He also instructs similar classes at Wayne University and has had considerable experience in retail selling, teaching and in personnel management.

The course is open to anyone in the city interested in retail selling. It is being given for a nominal fee and will cover a period of eight weeks during which time students will be taught effective salesmanship. Principal Dykhouse said that he believes the course will benefit any young man or woman in town irrespective of what he is doing at the present time. Any person who takes it will derive a wealth of good from it, he declared.

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce committee which secured Mr. Robinson as instructor for the new course are Robert O. Wesley, president of the organization; John MacLachlan, Ernest Henry and Ralph G. Lorenz.

A recent government survey reveals that 3,000,000 of the country's 8,000,000 union members are employed in closed shops.

Meet to Consider Scavenger Land Sale

The board of education and city commission met Monday night to consider the possibility of bidding on property in the Scavenger land sale which will be held here during the first part of March. It was decided that the board and commission will cooperate on the land purchase, but each will bid separately on parcels for municipal purposes.

In a summary of tax delinquencies in the city of Plymouth prepared by officials at the city hall, it was learned that the assessed valuation of property in the city taken over by the state which is to be offered for sale is $74,760. Taxes on these properties are in arrears to the extent of $48,511.67.

Of the total assessed valuation of property in the city, $5,400,000, one and one-half percent represents the valuation of the property to be offered for sale at auction. In the city, 315 vacant and seven improved properties will be sold at the Scavenger sale. Delinquencies of state, county and township taxes on these properties amount to $5,554.82. City taxes on these properties are $33,299.89 and school taxes amount to $9,726.96.

Boxers Receive Golden Gloves Award

Plymouth boxers who entered the Golden Gloves tournament held at Ann Arbor recently, this week received their entry pins. On the pins, there was a pair of golden gloves with an inscription relative to the fact that the bearer had entered competition in the tournament.

In the elimination bouts held at the Ann Arbor Armory, January 29, Ed Maxie was knocked out after being in the ring with his opponent one minute and 55 seconds of the second round. Al Crain also kissed the canvas in the second round. G. Robinson was floored in the third.

R. Swegles won his fight by a decision as did Parmenter and Buttermore.

Parmenter, in the semi-finals held the next week, was the only Plymouth boy to win. R. Swegles lost by a technical knockout and Smith and Spitz lost by decision. In the finals held February 7, Parmenter lost by a technical knockout.

Medals were awarded to three Plymouth fighters. Parmenter was presented with a silver glove trophy and Swegles and Buttermore won bronze gloves.

The Republicans are promising work for everybody when they are returned to power. That's just what a lot of people are afraid of.

Howell, of Livonia, vice-president of the organization reports that the speaker of the evening will be Louis J. Colombo, Jr., a prominent Wayne county attorney, who will discuss vital issues relative to the rights and privileges due residents of this locality.

Aside from Mr. Colombo's appearance at the charity, arrangements have been made for a varied program which is certain to amuse and be enjoyable to all those who attend.

Complete Third Sewer Project

This week the third sewer construction was completed in a group of eight that were started in November under the direction of the city engineering department with labor supplied by WPA. Since November, sanitary sewers have been constructed on Junction avenue and Brush street. One on Herald street was recently completed and another on Sunset street will be started this week.

Two more sanitary sewers will be constructed for a distance on Plymouth road and on Main street. Storm sewers will be added to the Evergreen and Carol street systems.

When the project is completed, sometime within the next five months, 2850 lineal feet of six-inch sanitary sewer connection will have been used. There will be 5028 feet of eight-inch sewer mains, 606 feet of 12-inch storm sewers and 768 feet of 24-inch storm sewers. The project will provide for the construction of 26 manholes and 13 catch basins.

The city-wide sewer project was petitioned for by Plymouth residents who live on the streets that will be serviced by the new mains. The petitions were submitted to the city commission over a year ago and were taken into consideration. In March, 1939, the project was submitted to the federal government. Last summer it was approved by a government executive and was released October 24. The work started in November.

City Engineer S. L. Besse has had the cooperation of Jack Simpson, Plymouth supervisor of WPA in working out details of the sewer project.

Two WPA Projects Near Completion

Two projects at the Central school financed by WPA funds and the board of education are in the process of completion. One is the addition of a room enlarging the home economics department and the other is a 24-inch tile connecting the school sewer system with the Adams street storm sewer.

The new drainage tile will make possible adequate drainage at the school. Provision has been made for possible future buildings connected with it. In the home economics department, the sewing room has been doubled in size and as a result will provide for twice as many students. The room is completed except for trim and cabinet work.

For several years, it was reported by school officials, there has been insufficient space to teach sewing to the number of students who desired the course.

Commission Approves Assessor's Plat

City commissioners at their meeting last week Tuesday evening approved the assessor's plat number 19. The plat which has just been approved takes in that property bounded by Union street, Hamilton street, West Ann Arbor Trail and the Pere Marquette railroad.

Formerly the property in the plat was described in metes and bounds. It is reported that the new system has its advantages both for the city assessor, William B. Petz and City Treasurer Charles Garlett because it is less difficult to describe the property. For the same reason, it is an advantage for the property owner also.

It was reported by a city official that probably two more assessor's plats will be approved before May 1. At that time there will be a very small part of Plymouth left in metes and bounds description.

"Soul" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, February 18, 1940. The Golden Text (Leviticus 26: 11, 12) is: "I will set my tabernacle among you, and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be my people." Among the Bible citations in this passage (Psalm 62: 5, 6): "My soul wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him. He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be moved." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 247): "Life is the law of Soul, even the law of the spirit of Truth, and Soul is never without its representative."

Tax Roll to Be Revised This Year

Commission Instructs City Assessor to Allow for Depreciation

At a meeting of the city commission recently the city assessor, William B. Peltz, was instructed to allow building depreciation in making out the city tax roll for this year.

In 1937 the city inaugurated a scientific assessing system whereby land and buildings were assessed separately. According to the system, building depreciation is taken up to a maximum amount of 53 percent of the total assessed valuation.

A frame building is depreciated 53 percent at the end of 25 years. Since the plan was started in Plymouth the city assessor has not revised his tax roll to provide for the building depreciation. At the time of its inauguration, it was instructed that depreciation be allowed every three to four years.

It is estimated that as a result of the building depreciation allowance the city tax roll will be from $25,000 to $30,000 less this year.

MacLachlan Reports 1533 'Phones in City

In accordance with the general business trend in Plymouth during 1939, John MacLachlan, manager of the Plymouth branch office of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, declared this week that there was a 10 percent increase in the number of telephones in the city for the year. New phones numbered 150, boosting the total up to 1533.

The Livonia exchange, also managed by Mr. MacLachlan, had a 45 percent gain for the year. On January 1, 1940, there were 312 telephones on the exchange. During the year 97 additional telephones were installed in that district.

Now operating 124,118 telephones, the Michigan Bell Telephone company had a total increase of 7.4 percent over the previous record of 690,764, in May, 1930. The 1939 gain of 61,604 telephones was second to the record increase of 64,545 in 1937.

Hunting Crows in Winter Time

Crow hunting in mid winter, borrowing an idea developed successfully by Finnish troops, can allay the itch of inactivity of Michigan hunters.

"White overalls worn over hunting clothes—that's the ticket," says H.D. Ruhl, chief of the conservation department's game division.

There is real sport in crow shooting," he adds. "Crows are smart. Hunters can sharpen their wits and their shooting in going after them. Locate their flyways, patrol country roads from about 4 p. m. until dark and spot their roosting places.

"Crows make good decoys—a stuffed owl on a pole, a live owl held by a leash. Crow calls may help, if the hunter is proficient."

And hunters who hanker for the taste of game will find crows are good eating, if properly prepared. Ruhl suggests:

Those who hunt crows in off seasons need gun permits.

Ohio has quit importing western rabbits for restocking purposes.

Announce Terms of 'Scavenger Sale'

State-owned land which was taken over in November because of non-payment of delinquent taxes, was in many parts of Michigan offered for sale at public auction starting Tuesday.

Clarence W. Look, executive secretary of the State Land Office board declared that former owners will be given every possible opportunity to regain possession of their properties through the liberal terms being extended by the board.

City Treasurer C. H. Garlett said that the scavenger tax sale will not start in and around Plymouth for approximately another month as the auction is being held in other parts of the state at the present time.

Mr. Garlett said that according to reports received from state and county sources these properties, which reverted to the state because of tax-delinquencies will be offered for sale to the highest bidder, with the provision that no bid less than 25 per cent of the 1939 assessed valuation will be accepted. Purchasers who had no previous interest in the property must pay cash for the full amount of their bid within 24 hours, whereas former owners repurchase on a time payment contract.

The terms of the contract will require a down payment of 10 per cent of the amount of the bid, but in no case less than $25. The balance of the contract may be paid in monthly installments of not less than $5 per month.

All contracts are to be paid in full in a period not exceeding 10 years.

The unpaid balance of the principal will draw six per cent interest, and the amount of the interest will be included with the installments to be paid. In Mr. Look's opinion, this liberal arrangement should enable practical every owner to repurchase his property.

Lists of descriptions of properties to be offered for sale are now available at the offices of the county treasurers. Detailed information regarding the procedure to be followed in bidding at the auction sale is likewise available at these offices, and also at the office of the city treasurer at the city hall. It is suggested that all those who are interested in the sale secure this information promptly.

All sales will open in the office of the county treasurer, and if such office is not suitable to hold the sale, it will then adjourn to such other location as may be selected.

In counties where the sale may continue over a period of time, a calendar showing the descriptions to be offered each day will be prepared and posted at the place of sale. This will make it possible for those interested in bidding on a certain parcel to know what day it will be offered.

Amendments to Electrical Ordinance Pass First Two Readings

The first and second readings of a proposed amendment to the electrical ordinance, number 98, were approved by the city commission when it met Tuesday evening, February 6. Originally the ordinance was adopted in April, 1936.

Because the ordinance was patterned after a state act, which was declared unconstitutional last November, it became necessary for the city to amend certain parts of the local ordinance to conform with state law.

As the ordinance now reads, license fees, required of all electrical contractors, are to be paid to the city instead of the state. Another revision of the ordinance is that the fee which was formerly $25 each year for a license, is now $15.

Another change has to do with fixation of fees. Formerly the amount was declared by the State Administrative Electrical board. At the present time, they are adopted by resolution of the city commission.

MICHIGAN, MY MICHIGAN

term "mountains" is located in Ontonagon county, and these the Porcupine mountains, contain the highest point in the entire state of Michigan—2,023 feet above the sea level or 1,420 feet above the level of Lake Superior, in the southeast corner of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 26, township 51 north, range 43 west—near the Ontonagon-Cochebec county border and Lake Superior. Both the Porcupine and Huron mountains when viewed from a distance are as impressive as many of the eastern mountains.

A third highland area in the northern peninsula is in the famous copper range in Houghton and Keweenaw counties. This range is formed by a huge fault which raised a great wall of rock almost vertically in some places above a level plain below. Highest points of this range are Mount Houghton, 1,511 feet, and Mt. Horace Greeley, 1,532 feet.

Highest city in the northern peninsula is Wakefield, in Gogebic county, lying at an elevation of 1,551 feet, or 208 feet higher than Gaylord in lower Michigan. Highest village in the upper peninsula is Beacon, in Marquette county, at 1,718 feet above sea level, or 347 feet higher than Boon in the lower peninsula.

Michigan's high lakes naturally are to be looked for in the upland tracts. Highest lakes in the northern peninsula apparently are in Baraga county.

Little Summit Lake, about ten miles southeast of L'Anse, and highest of these, is appropriately named. For its elevation is more than 1,700 feet above sea level, or 1,100 feet above Lake Superior, ten miles distant. Korito Lake, near Little Summit, is another similarly high lake, and there are a number of other lakes on this highland which lie above 1,600 feet.

Highest lake of the Porcupine mountains is Little Carp Lake, 1,560 feet above sea level. Lake Michigamme, also at about the 1,560-foot elevation, and with an area of 4,200 acres, is the highest large body of water in the entire state.

In the southern peninsula the highest lakes are near Cadillac and Gaylord. Woodward Lake near Boon, with an approximate elevation of 1,350 feet, is the highest below the straits. Pleasant Lake, in the same area, is at about 1,320 feet.

Otsego Lake, near Gaylord, and Lakes Mitchell and Cadillac, near the city of Cadillac, are the highest large lakes in the southern peninsula. They are from 1,280 to 1,285 feet above sea level. Houghton Lake, the largest of Michigan's inland lakes, lies at an elevation of 1,140 feet.

HE'S A RESCUER AT 80

CASSOPOLIS—C. E. Williams, now 80 years old, who learned to swim in Little Fish lake near here, recently saved a young lad from drowning in a Minnesota lake. The boy fell through the ice when he ran to catch a ball. The ice also broke under Williams when he attempted rescue, but he stayed afloat and brought the youngster to shore.

A. & P. Observes Founder's Week

The founder of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, George Huntington Hartford, who created the modern retailing method of direct buying and straight-line, mass distribution, will be honored by all A. & P. stores during Founder's Week, February 12 to 19, the company announced here today.

Retailing principles established by Mr. Hartford when he opened the first red-fronted A. & P. store in 1859, company officials pointed out, are used today by countless chain and independent merchants as the means of providing greater savings to consumers.

A young man from Maine, Mr. Hartford entered the retailing field in New York City, where he was impressed by the prevailing high price of tea. A. & P. executives said. He believed that by purchasing tea direct, eliminating the many handling charges and middlemen's profits and retailing through his own store, he could materially reduce the price from the prevailing scale of a dollar and more per pound.

Mr. Hartford's first store, located on Vesey street in lower New York, offered its customers striking savings on their tea purchases, the company officials said. Applying the same principles of direct buying and quick turn-over of large volume at small profit, he opened additional units and added other groceries to his stock.

During Founder's Week, all A. & P. stores will lay special emphasis on tea, as their original stock in trade, and coffee, another early item of which the company is now the world's largest retailer, executives of the food chain declared. Purpose of the merchandising program, they concluded, is to demonstrate how foods and beverages that were once luxuries have been made inexpensive items it every day diet, through modern, efficient methods of food distribution.

Plymouth Charter to Be Reviewed

Mayor L. E. Wilson was instructed by the city commission at their recent meeting to appoint two commissioners to work with the city manager as a committee of three to review the Plymouth charter. The committee will look for possible changes that should be made to bring the charter up to date.

If the committee suggests that certain parts should be revised, the proposed changes will be brought before the commission for a vote at their meeting, April 11, 1940, to determine whether or not the changes will be placed before Plymouth residents at the spring election.

Boy Scout Movement Thirty Years Old in United States

The Boy Scouts of America celebrated their thirtieth birthday last week. With millions of good turns already accomplished and billions to go, Scouts all over the United States paused, figuratively, for a brief look at a birthday cake topped with 30 glowing tapers.

Boys of Scouting took keen delight in this sight, for within the gleam of the candles they visioned countless hours of real pleasure—fun-packed camping days, the call of the outdoors and the zest of living a healthy, vigorous life according to the Scout oath and laws.

Leaders of Scouting saw all of this, and more. Many could recall the year when Boy Scouts of America sprang from an idea in the minds of several visionary men. That was in 1910. They have seen some of the tireless work that was needed to spread Scouting to nearly every nation of the world, resulting in a membership in this country alone of over eight million youths, whose influence has been felt in every city and village throughout the United States.

To celebrate this growth of 30 years, this past week, February 8 to 14, was declared Boy Scout Anniversary Week, and members of every troop in the country took part in appropriate activities.

The president of the United States spoke over three national radio networks last Thursday night as part of a commemorative program inaugurating Boy Scout week. Scouts gave emphasis to their twelfth Scout Law on Sunday when troops as units attended special church services in 48 states. Wearing of the official uniform by boys during the anniversary week aided the organization's publicity.

Plymouth troops participated actively in many ways. A special showing of films depicting life at Camp Brady, one of the Detroit council camps, entertained students of Scout age at a special school assembly one day last week. All week the four Plymouth troops had a display of Scout handicraft, hobbies and equipment in a show window donated by Taylor and Blyton.

Along with brother Scouts throughout the country, Plymouth troops Sunday attended church services to which they were especially invited. Tuesday, February 13, Troop 2 sponsored, in conjunction with the Ex-Service Men's club, their annual Father and Son banquet, and all of the local troops joined with units from other parts of the Plymouth district on Thursday, February 15, to stage one of the regularly scheduled Courts of Honor, officially terminating activities of Boy Scout week.

J. C. C. Hears Hastings Speaker

On the tenth anniversary of the day he delivered the main address of a program put on by the District of Columbia Historical society commemorating the birth of Abraham Lincoln, John Ketcham, of Hastings, was a guest of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night, February 12. Ten years ago he addressed many thousands of people from the plaza of the Lincoln memorial at Washington, D. C. Monday night his talk concerned an imaginary trip through the memorial.

Mr. Ketcham told some interesting sidelights about the building, its position and the manner in which it is constructed. "The Lincoln memorial is composed of material from just about every state in the United States of America," he explained. The variety of material source indicates the uniting of the 48 states to form a whole, he implied.

The speaker said that there are three separate divisions of the memorial—the main room, and two smaller ones on either side. "The larger room contains a 19-foot figure of Lincoln sitting in a chair. The statue is so large if it were in a standing position it would reach a height of 28 feet.

"If one looks closely at Lincoln's eyes as they are carved in the marble, he will notice that the sculpturer has done a wonderful piece of work in making them so life-like. They seem to stare directly at the nation's capital building.

"One of the smaller rooms contains the second inaugural address of Lincoln, and the other has his Gettysburg Address carved on a marble slab.

Distribute Boxes to Receive Donations for Finnish Relief

Jack Dalton, chairman of the drive for funds that is being carried on in Plymouth for Finnish relief, reports that 30 coin boxes have been distributed throughout Plymouth. Boxes have been placed in public buildings such as the city hall, library and public schools. They were also placed at Plymouth industrial plants and many of the business places.

Letters have been sent to members of the clergy enlisting their aid in asking for contributions. The fund drive will be continued here for another week. Mr. Dalton said that the backbone of the success of this drive is to secure numerous individual donations making a large total without any one person contributing an amount that might burden him.

Mr. Dalton expects that many of Plymouth's industrial plants will contribute to the fund here.

AUTOMOBILE engineers talk a lot about car weight — and with good reason.

They know that riding qualities begin with enough road weight to hold you steady on your course—they know that weight is often another measure of size—above all, they know that weight means substance, strength, durability.

So it's interesting to note that this trim Buick SPECIAL gives you more weight per dollar than almost any other car you can buy.

With all its husky straight-eight power—power that's like velvet because engines are balanced after assembly—with all its room, and style, and comfort—this Buick still has one of the lowest costs-per-pound of any car on the market.

And nowhere else will you find valve-in-head power, all-coil springing, torque-tube steadiness and Buick's passage in accessories at the figures that apply to the SPECIAL.

So if a little extra money is keeping you out of a Buick, take another look at those dollars.

They buy more car to begin with. More size and more substance.

They buy some six dozen new 1940 features, including many an "extra."

And you'll get most of them back in longer life and higher trade-in value—not to mention your fun and solid satisfaction!

Not a six but an EIGHT for $895 and up delivered at Flint, Mich.*

*Transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

ACCURACY

There are several factors of vital importance in maintaining the high quality of Michigan's telephone service. One is the experienced skill of the Western Electric Company, manufacturing department of the Bell System. Another is the constant research of the Bell Telephone Laboratories. Of even greater importance is the highly trained group of Michigan men and women who assume a personal responsibility in seeing that your telephone message goes... swiftly and dependably... straight to the mark.

322 Attend the Annual J-Hop

Disproving the saying that no money could be made on any J-Hop, this year's juniors, although not making an astounding profit, at least pulled out of the hole with some profit.

Over 300 people danced to the music of Tommy Marvin and his orchestra at the annual J-Hop held in the high school auditorium, Friday, February 9. They paid in almost $10,000 over the cost of the J-Hop.

Mary Jan Olsaver was the general chairman for the Hop, with Jack G. Atleson her assistant chairman, Orlyn Lewis, Bob Daniel, Gloriette Galloway, Bill McAninch, Betty Brown, Betty Wiske, Paul Harsha, Virginia Rock, Evelyn Bohl, Harold Fisher, Gerard Blanton, and Ruth Wellman were the chairmen of the various committees for the Hop.

Palms, ferns and artificial grass were loaned by Bartel's and Schradel's. Funeral home, and were used to decorate the reception room.

Kenneth Brown and Ardith Rowland were the host and hostess for the occasion.

The Grand March was led by James Zuckerman and Geraldine Flynn, followed by Bob Daniel and Marion Goodman, Bill McAninch and Dorothy Ebersol, Jack Galloway and Gloriette Galloway, and Bob Norman and Mary Jane Olsaver.

Punch was served during intermission and the Pen-Mar Cafe and the Hillside served the hungry crowd following the Hop.

Elect Packard as First Mayor

Ivan Packard, former president of the Hi-Y and president of the Student Council for two years, was chosen mayor of the school over Ruth Ash, also a well-known senior, in the school-wide election held last Thursday, February 8.

The Council representatives were also elected for each grade. The representative chosen for the seventh grade is Richard Erdelyi, defeating Donald Rock. The eighth grade representative is Wendell Johnson, chosen over Harold Schultz, Virginia Moss and Margaret Jean Nichol. The ninth grade, the losing candidates being Beth Ann Heiseil and Richard Behler. The tenth grade representatives, elected over Marion Goodman and Marie Ann Miller are Nancy McLaren and Russell Ash. Successful candidates for the eleventh grade Council representatives are Virginia Rock, Paul Harsha, and Phyllis Hawkins. The defeated nominees were Ardith Rowland, Gloriette Galloway and Ruth Parmalee.

Twelfth grade representatives are William Aluia, Thomas Mitchell, and Vera Ess, winning over Patricia Arnold.

These new student officials were installed into office at an inaugural assembly held this week. The oath was administered by William Aluia and Ivan Packard. They will hold office for the remainder of the semester.

Although there are always defeated candidates at any election, this race was, on the whole, a good one: the winners not far ahead of the losers.

Mayor Packard will make all appointments of the police department officials, and honor court members. He will also be presiding officer of the Council.

All candidates for the offices were chosen by petition or caucuses held two weeks ago.

The seventh grade was forced to elect a new president since its former one, Harold Schultz, became an eighth grader when the new semester began. The two candidates were William Bauman and Franklin Maxey, Maxey the winner.

LIBRARY OBTAINS NEW BOOKS

This is another group of new books that are now in the library: "Trap Lines North," by Mead; published by Dodd, Mead and Company. This is a well-illustrated biography of the Canadian woods. The main character, Jim, tramps one line camp to the next with his sled dogs and encounters much adventure.

"Paint, Powder and Makeup," by Ivard Steuss; published by Dornas and Noble. Various types of makeup are discussed and illustrated. They are arranged alphabetically to make them easy to find.

"Audubon," by Constance Bourke; published by Harcourt, Brace and Company. A well-illustrated biography of J. J. Audubon, woodsman, naturalist and artist.

"Bob, Son of Battle," by Alfred Ollivant; published by the Sun Dial Press. A story of a sheep dog, Bob, and his many adventures.

"Call of the Wild," by Jack London; published by Grosset and Dunlap. The story of a dog that was born in California and goes to the extreme north with his master. The book tells of their hardships and struggles.

"The Circular Staircase," by Mary Roberts Rinehart; published by Grosset and Dunlap. The summer guests of a boarding house find themselves involved in a mystery when a body is discovered. Much excitement follows in the attempt to find the murderer.

Initials, undoubtedly, have a way of giving themselves away. For example, Where was M.J.O. on the night of January 17, 1940, between the hours of 10 and 11? You get what I mean nevertheless. Your author doesn't think many people know of this. (How about it, "Red"?)

L. C. spends quite a lot of time in front of the domicile of R. P. Can this be serious? Remember this, "L"—most people don't like to be called "flathead" in a lady's presence, and they might do something about it.

R. S. and H. J. S. walk home together quite frequently since H. J. S. altered her residence. We don't imagine this could be serious.

When Miss Allen finished classifying this paper will probably end up in the waste paper basket, but the author's conscience will rest better, anyhow.

By way of alphabetical placement: A. B. and E. Z. certainly have extended telefunken (telephone) conversations. By any chance is this getting serious?

Darwin's Other Theory

—Editorial

Charles Darwin, in his autobiography, says, "If I had to live my life again, I would have made a rule to read some poetry or listen to some music at least once every week; for perhaps the parts of my brain now atrophied would thus have been kept alive through use."

In this statement, Darwin has explained the tendency for modern youth to break away from the classics of music, religion and literature and to take up with the parts of my brain now atrophied would thus have been kept alive through use.

The brains of the present generation are not atrophied; they are but little used. If a study of music were to be incorporated in the present school course and the subject of literature given as much time as other studies, it seems logical that the apathy of youth toward them would be dispelled.

Because they are born with little emphasis on the artistic senses, this generation has accepted swing as it has rejected the classics. It has seemed natural to them to frown upon "time-wasting" symphonies.

Darwin goes on to say that "The loss of these tastes may possibly be injurious to the intellect by enfeebling the emotional part of our nature."

Youth is naturally cautious about accepting a subject about which it knows little. If educators could follow this minor theory of Darwin's and include a study of the "arts" in the regular course of study, atrophied appreciation could be revived.

INFORMATION ABOUT CLASSES

This is Miss Hamill's first year as music teacher at Plymouth high school, but she has installed a system of work in her classes whereby her students are becoming interested in the personal lives of famous composers. This week the girls' vice club is studying the life of Tschaiakowsky to commemorate the centenary of his birth. The class will listen to his records and sing his songs.

In the seventh grade music classes, the orchestra has been the topic of study. They are at present studying stringed instruments. These students are also having music memory contests in which those with perfect papers will receive prizes.

The boys' glee club sang and the orchestra played at the father and son banquet which was held Tuesday evening at the Mayflower hotel.

The boys in the shop classes have been working industriously during the first weeks of the second semester. Bill Widmaier has just finished his inlaid checker board. The rest of the boys are using their time making their entries for the Detroit News bird house contest and notebooks of their class work.

MUD'S AFLYIN'

Pardon me a moment! There, that feels better. Your most humble author was right in the midst of cleansing the mud from his organs of vision. Methinks this mud-slinging has gone far enough. The Southern Gals and Connecticut Yankees are getting downright ornery. Pardon mah sodern accence. Your composer doesn't think for a split-second B.D. and P.H. (and I don't mean Paul Harsha) would commit to become scandal hounds and newsmongers. Just because P. H. becomes rosy in the countenance is no reason for certain individuals to jump to conclusions. This "Us" and "We" stuff looks phony, if you get what I mean. Or maybe I'm wrong. Could be.

We sir, to begin this mire-flinging we will set a scene. Miss Allen's room... first hour... your writer has a perfect view (looking through the key-hole): he can see all; he can hear all and will he spread all. Bob Dan'll keeps glancing toward the back row. Question: Just what does he observe so interesting? Careful, Bob, don't get E. H.

School Notes

Three Girls Take Apprentice Course

This is the first year girls have been in the apprentice course in Plymouth high school. There are three so enrolled at present. One of them is learning the sale of dry goods and merchandising. Another is an assistant to a dentist.

This course is open to any girl 16 years of age or older who has a good idea of the type of work she wants to take up. She must also be sure she is not going to college. The girls come to school in the forenoon and work in the afternoon. The work experience is counted as a school subject. Each apprenticeship contains four thousand hours. Of these, approximately nine hundred hours are of related instruction and thirty one hundred hours are of work. The employer grades them, and they receive a mark from the course. In addition to the practical experience, and the credit, the girls are paid at least 20 cents an hour. They obtain a raise every six months if both school work and practical work are satisfactory.

BUS RATES

Because of the large amount of controversy concerning the school buses, the rates of the Dearborn Coach company buses on the Plymouth road and Five Mile routes are published here:

Plymouth Road
Seven cents—Plymouth to Meridian road.
Nine cents—Morrison to Inkster road.
Two seven-cent tickets—From Inkster road to Telegraph.
On Five Mile Road
Five cents—from Plymouth to Haggerty highway.
Ten cents—Haggerty highway to Middle Belt.

SCOUT WEEK AT PLYMOUTH

In honor of Boy Scout Week an assembly was called for the Junior high school, February 8. The program was conducted by Richard Strong of the Plymouth Boy Scouts.

The flags were carried to the front of the gym. Richard Strong called for the Boy Scouts of Plymouth to rise and give the Scout pledge and then the oath of allegiance to the flag. A movie on the World's Fair in California was shown.

Mr. Dukhouse gave some announcements. "I have been thinking it over," he said, "and I believe the senior high are getting just a little better of the deal." He went on to say that the Junior high school would have a dance coming soon.

"Life at Camp Brady," a Scout movie, closed the program.

ROCKS REBUFFED BY YPSI 22-16

In a tight, exciting game the Ypsilanti Braves defeated the Plymouth Rocks on the Ypsilanti court, Thursday, February 8. Although the Rocks led through the third quarter, the Ypsi team picked up the necessary points to defeat them 22-16 in the final quarter. The Rocks are still in second place in the Twin Valley league.

The first quarter was rather slow, neither team gaining a definite edge, though the Rocks scored five points to Ypsi's four. In an uneventful second quarter the Plymouth five picked up three points and Ypsilanti two, making the score 8-6 for the Rocks. At the half, both teams had played good ball, although the defensive was better than the offensive game.

In the third quarter the scoring was a little more free on both sides, though still not high. Plymouth doubled its score, now having 16 points, and Ypsi did the same, making their total 12.

The final quarter found the Rocks in trouble. At the crucial moment, the large floor proved too much for a team trained on a much smaller one. The Plymouth five was unable to get going in the final quarter and scored no points. Ypsilanti, however, was still going strong on its floor and hooped baskets for 10 points and the game.

Despite the fact that Ypsilanti had a good team, the Rocks' play had improved much since the Wayne game. They still miss Bob Hitt, but in a short time they should be up to their previous high form.

Britton of Ypsilanti, was high-point man, scoring three field goals and one free throw for seven points. Plymouth's high scorers were Norman—6, Prough—4, and Scarpulla—4.

Owen Gorton, a newcomer on the first squad, made his first appearance during the last quarter. Summary:

YPSI RESERVES WIN IN STRONG FINALE

Picking up the necessary points in the last few minutes of the final quarter, the Ypsilanti Reserves defeated the Plymouth second squad, 18-17, Thursday at Ypsilanti. Although they did not play their best, the Plymouth five stayed in the lead up to the final minutes of the game.

During the first half the Plymouth team built up a fair lead and generally outplayed the Ypsi team.

In the second half, however, the Ypsi five steadily gained on the Plymouth Reserves until a lucky basket sunk by an Ypsi player put them in the lead.

The Rocks could have beat Ypsilanti on foul shots if they had made all they were given. Out of 14 tries, only three were made. Ypsi made 10 out of 16 shots.

In the final quarter the efforts of Hoffman and Hunter were duly appreciated. Both, however, left the game on personal fouls. Ypsi's Harner was high scorer with seven points. Hoffman, of Plymouth was second with six. Summary:

Approve Plans for City Bicycle Club

To Be Organized First of March by Police Department

Final approval was given by the city commission for the organization of a bicycle club to be under the supervision of the Plymouth police department. It was announced this week. The club will be called the Plymouth Bicycle club and will be open to any Plymouth boy or girl who owns a bicycle. There are no age limitations for membership in the new club nor will there be any fees connected with it. As it is now planned, the club will be organized about the first of March.

The purpose of such a club is to promote safety among cyclists, the lack of which in the past has been a traffic hazard for motorists. All members will receive instruction in traffic rules and regulations as a result of the safety training they will receive. It is thought the organization of bicyclists in Plymouth will reduce automobile accidents caused by carelessness on the part of the bicyclist.

Chief Smith said that each member of the club will receive free of charge a license plate patterned after regulation automobile licenses, for his bicycle. The attachment of a license will designate members of the club and at the same time be an aid in the recovery of stolen or missing bicycles.

Another aspect of the club is the publication of the "Safety Leader," a news sheet compiled and printed solely by the boys and girls in the club. All advertisements and news items that go into this paper will be edited and approved by the police department.

It is reported that the executive branch of the club will consist of a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, a six-man jury, including a foreman to care for infractions of the rules, and one city police officer.

The club will have a definite set-up of traffic rules which when violated will be handled similar to that procedure used in the case of motor vehicles. Traffic tickets will be issued and law-breakers will appear before a jury made up of club members and the police officer.

Before an applicant may become eligible for membership, he is required to have his application signed by a parent or guardian. Printed on the application blank will be a list of possible infractions of the rules of the club and also an inspection chart covering the check-up that each bicycle must have before its owner is allowed membership in the club.

Chief Smith said that final plans for the club's organization will be made within the next two weeks, so that an organization meeting may be called the first part of March.

WHY NOT?

The other day Judge Homer Ferguson became incensed at some legal tactics being employed by certain questionable interests to smear and block the grand jury investigation into graft and corruption in Wayne county. When some lawyer named Philip J. Neudeck presented a petition to free one of Sheriff Wilcox's henchmen from his jail cell, Judge Ferguson declared:

"It is our duty to solve a problem, and we are being hindered on every side. We are going ahead notwithstanding the many obstacles put before us. You can not stop us with slanderous statements. You are deliberately trying to blackmail the court, but you can't get away with it."

When a lawyer is granted the right to practice in the courts of this state under the statutes of Michigan he becomes an officer of that court. It is his duty, just as much as it is the duty of the judge, the court officer and every one else associated with that court, to uphold the laws of this state.

Under the law it is the further duty of the bar association to see to it that any attorney practicing in our court, maintains the decorum of this high PUBLIC responsibility.

In view of Judge Ferguson's statement, the public would like to know what the Wayne County Bar association is doing to know what the Neudeck affair? If an attorney is trying to "blackmail" a court of justice, he should be disbarred, and no time should be lost in doing so.

Maybe it is time for some officers and lawyers and others in Wayne county to wake up to the fact that the vast majority of the people are VERY MUCH in favor of Judge Ferguson going the limit in cleaning up the rotten mess that has disgraced this county for years. Here is a chance for the Bar Association to do its part.

THE MOTHER OF GEORGE WASHINGTON

Plymouth recently paid tribute to one of the country's greatest presidents, Abraham Lincoln. Not only did the citizens of this city participate in events commemorating his memory, but Americans all over these United States took part in the observance.

On February 22 there will be another anniversary of a very great American—The Father of Our Country—George Washington.

What about the mother of George Washington? We read much about him, but not much about the woman who reared to manhood one who will live through all the ages.

The girl who was to become the mother of George Washington was something of a belle in her native colony, Virginia. Mary Ball, descended from a good English family, was called "the rose of Epping Forest" in her girlhood, Epping Forest being the name of the Ball homestead. Orphaned early, she had as her guardian, George Eskridge, a wealthy Virginia planter.

At twenty-two, Mary Ball married (on March 6, 1730) Augustine Washington, then a widower with two little boys. Her first child she named George after her old family friend. Five other children were born of this marriage, four of whom survived. When Augustine Washington died, she was left with a brood of youngsters to care for. George was then only eleven. Fortunately, however, states a writer in the Indianapolis News, the husband had provided for them amply.

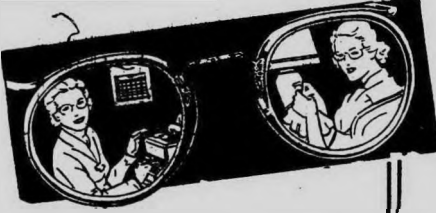

George Washington was still a young boy when he became possessed of a great desire to be a midshipman. His mother had been half-hearted about this plan at all times, but finally when his sea-chest was being carried down to the wharf by a porter, she refused to let him go. He accepted her decision with good grace, and devoted himself to surveying instead. His activities in the next years often took him far away from her and gradually prepared him for the great role he was to play in American history.

Mary Ball Washington was sixty-eight when the Revolution began. Since communication was then so primitive, she often did not know for months at a time whether her son was alive or dead. Yet she maintained outward calm and courage. One of her sayings was, "The mothers and wives of brave men must be brave women." The members of her household knew, though, that every day she went off by herself with her Bible to a quiet spot called Meditation Rock.

At last Cornwallis surrendered in 1781 and the Revolution was won. Ever mindful of his mother's anxiety for him, Washington sent off a courier at once to bear her the news.

Mary Ball Washington lived to be over eighty, mentally keen and unfailingly cheerful. She died in 1789, the year her son was elected first President of the United States.

The "Jolly Farmers' Pastime" club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hake Wednesday evening. The members of the club and guests numbered 50. Progressive pedro was the evening's diversion and Miss Cora Hobins won the first ladies' prize while Miss Lois Lutz was given the consolation. Al White was the winner of the gentleman's prize. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Childon and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lee were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bentley at Livonia Center, Friday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blickenstaff, a daughter, Wednesday, February 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Amel Rocker and two sons of East Plymouth visited friends at Plymouth, Sunday.

George Griffin, who recently sold his farm on the Plymouth road, has purchased the residence of Adrian Anderson on Main street. Mrs. E. L. Riggs negotiated the sale.

Ira Wilson, agent for the Reo automobiles, has a large ad in this issue, which sets forth the many good qualities of the Reo.

The icy condition of the first cross roads east of Livonia Center makes it unsafe for a team to pass over. Two teams with bob-sleighs and drivers slipped from the track and down the embankment one day last week, a trip no one is anxious to take on such short notice. The attention of the highway commissioner should be called to the fact that the road approaching the bridge from the north is too narrow to be safe at its best. It has been named by one of our humorous neighbors, "The bridge of sighs."

Mrs. George Chilson of Newburg, who has been ill for the past ten days, is better at this writing.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolff was the scene of an elaborate wedding, last Saturday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Gusta, was united in marriage to Mr. Herman Esch. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Peters of Wayne, in the presence of 150 guests. The bridal party was led into the parlor by the flower girls, little Clara Pankow and Lucille Esch, who carried carnations. The bride and groom were attended by William Wolff and Ernest Gilner and Bertha Wolff and Emma Gow. The bride was attired in a gown of white satin with embroidered net and crystal trimmings and the bridesmaids wore pink silk with net and crystal trimmings. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at 6 o'clock. The guests were seated at three large tables—each table being graced with a huge wedding cake. Each room was tastefully decorated with white and green and white wedding bells predominated. Zisler's orchestra of Detroit furnished the music for the evening's entertainment and the guests indulged in dancing until a late hour. The young couple will be at home on the A. M. Eckles farm after April 1. They have a host of friends whose good wishes follow them to their new home.

Your co-operation is most gratifying . . .

Our program of furnishing glasses to people who are unable to purchase them depended upon your response to our call for old frames. Since the announcement of our plan we are pleased to state that many cases have been referred to us and the people who came to our offices were fitted with glasses without cost. The work is carried on under the direction of Plymouth's charitable organizations, the Churches, the school nurse and the Salvation Army . . . Any needy person sent to us by any of these organizations receives an eye examination and a pair of glasses, if needed, without charge. It is absolutely necessary you have a letter from one of these groups to receive this service.

We want to thank you for helping us make this work possible and urge you to forward any old frames you may have to our office or place them in the hands of some charitable organization so that they, too, may be used in this work.

The need for these glasses is so great that we urge only those who are without funds to apply for this charitable service.
