To the citizens of Plymouth:
Whereas, for several years it has been customary for Plymouth to have an annual picnic day which is officially designated as such;
Whereas, the Plymouth Civic committee has chosen August 14 at this year's date;
Whereas, the annual picnic has become an important part of our community life from a social, recreational, and civic point of view:
Now, therefore, as Mayor of Plymouth, I do proclaim Wednesday, August 14, from 1:30 o'clock on, as Community Picnic Day.

"A TRIBUTE TO BRAD"

C. C. Bradner has passed on. Here was a man whose personal attributes won to him the admiration and friendship of untold thousands. A voice that informed and commanded an army of listeners to whom his news broadcasts were a household habit

His was a kindly disposition with an understanding of human nature that endeared him to his fellowmen. "Brad" had the unusual gift of attracting and making staunch friends through his colorful personality. A true humanitarian, he was never too busy to lend a helping hand to the other fellow.

A trigger-like humor of whimsical quality lent a touch of human interest that characterized his news broadcasts and lighted his personal conversation. This ability to provoke good fellowship made him a popular after-dinner speaker.

Meticulous in his devotion to the highest principles of journalism, "Brad" won, through his great pride in his work, nationwide recognition. The Detroit News and Station WWJ merit commendation for appreciating his ability and giving C. C. Bradner the opportunity to rise to the top in his profession.

"Brad" was loved and his memory is revered by the thous-ands who knew him personally, by those who read his articles in the newspapers, by those who heard his voice in radio broad-

Many thanks to all of you who extended us the courtesy of inspecting our newly completed refrigerated locker plant and a continuous invitation to the many who have not yet had the opportunity to visit us and see for themselves this fast growing community service that is helping to further improve the American standard of living.

Here are a few reasons why you should rent a food locker:

Five dozen ears of corn put in your locker NOW will cost you no more than ONE dozen ears a month from now.

Veal is at its prime now and reasonable in cost. Why not buy a side of veal or dress your own calf and put it in your locker and enjoy it for months to come?

Now is the time to buy fryers cheap; bring them in alive or dressed and in a couple of days they are in your locker, ready to take home now or for Christmas.

Home grown peaches are beginning to come in and with a food locker at your disposal you can begin to prepare to put away a supply that will last you throughout the winter months.

THIRD TERM. A REAL ISSUE NOW

The third-term issue—before the convention, shrugged off as only an unimportant factor—has focused itself in no mean light in its bearing on the approaching campaign.

Democratic party leaders are worried, no end, about these recent defections in the New Deal line up—Hanes, Douglas, Peek and Senators Burke of Nebraska and Reed of Missouri.

These gentlemen, of course, have other objections to FDR as a candidate to succeed himself, reasons reaching much farther behind the political picture of today than the mere third-term ambition alone.

But the fact becomes increasingly apparent that the third term is not an inactive political liability. It is most definitely a live and active issue in the minds of the many middle-of-theroad electors. This independent vote has gone for Roosevelt in previous years and was expected to follow him this campaign in upsetting what is perhaps the nation's best known and most often-quoted tradition.

road electors. This independent volume is a previous years and was expected to follow him this campaign in upsetting what is perhaps the nation's best known and most often-quoted tradition.

The third-term issue can't be shrugged off now and—fundamental or otherwise—it is bound to play an important part in the consideration given by a very fair proportion of the voters—Webb McCall in The Isabella County (Mt. Pleasant) Times-News.

SOME TRUTH TO THIS.

SOME TRUTH TO THIS.

They say the candidates for office usually promise too much. But when it comes to promising how about the promises of the average voter who shakes hands with the candidate a day or two before the election?—R. W. Caverly in The Livingston County Press.

Press.

NOT CONVINCING—

Carl J. Hambro, president of the Norwegian parliament for 15 years, brings a cheerful word to this country on the subject of fifth columns and their members.

Mr. Hambro saw the fifth column in action in Norway and knows whereof he speaks. He says that there was little or no treachery on the part of Norwegian citizens. Hitler worked mainly through his own nationals in Norway, German tourists, former German refugees to Norway after the first World War, were the basis of the fifth column.

It is natural that the Germans should exaggerate and play up the idea that the citizens of other nations are faithless to their governments and ready to aid the German cause. There is, as Mr. Hambro points out, nothing so demoralizing as fear that one's next door neighbor may be a traitor in disguise. Tall talk of treachery among politicians and army men in Norway and in France should be taken with a grain of salt. Hitler prefers to deal with his own.

These are comforting thoughts—perhaps too comforting—for Americans who have been frightened into seeing fifth columnists everywhere in the United States. There is need for vigilance, of course, but the average American citizen is still loyal to his country and to democracy. If fife makes mistakes, they will be the mistakes of ignorance, notlintention. These, too, should be guarded adagainst, but they hardly fall in the class of fifth column activities.

Norwegians, Belgians, Frenchmen may have been the unwitting tools of German agents. But Americans, with their eves

Norwegians, Belgians, Frenchmen may have been the unwitting tools of German agents. But Americans, with their eyes open to the danger, should not be guilty of the same mistakes. The trouble is that in this melting pot it is difficult sometimes to tell the difference between a loyal naturalized citizen and a potential agent of Hitler or Mussolini.—Phil Rich in The Midland Republican.

A SUFFICIENT REASON.

When we recall that it was Secretary Wallace who said early in his administration that the time may come when it would be required of every American farmer that he post a license in each field showing what he could, under government regulation, plant in that field, we do not wonder that his name was "booed" at the Chicago convention. But they had to take him just the same,—William Berkey in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

William Berkey in The Cassopolis Vigilant,

A BIT OF BUNK.

For pure and unadulterated bunk the following paragraph from an address by State Highway Commissioner VanWagoner, "takes the cake."

The American people have watched stalwart leadership in meeting the world crisis of the past months and endorse his now proven foresight of the past several years in urging more adequate national defense for our country.

Mr. VanWagoner must know, as the whole country now knows, that the President's foresight consisted in spending between six and seven billion dollars in the last seven years for national defense without providing any worthwhile equipment, and when Mr. VanWagoner attempts to extol the President's foresight to make the president's foresight to is merely passing out bunk. Mr. VanWagoner is to be the Democratic nominee for Governor, and it is well to remember this bit of insincerity.—William Berkey in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

THE COST OF TOTAL WAR

In Britain, the income tax rate again is raised. exemptions are lowered, taxes on beer, wine, tobacco and "entertainment" are raised. "Luxuries." including cosmetics, considered a necessity by American womanhood, will pay 24 per cent of their retail price. The island kingdom battling for its life once more takes it on the chin. The budget calls for government spending of about 60 per cent of the national income.

A married man with two children and an income of $1.600 will pay $80.35, and the rate jumps to $4.952 on an income of $12.000, rising to 90 per cent on top incomes. And the receivers of large incomes are expected also to invest heavily in government bonds!

How is this possible, we may well ask, knowing that any such rate of taxation would deaden our enterprise, dry up the springs of earning power and do the government no real good.

The explanation is part fiscal and part social. John Maynard Keynes, the noted economist, has set forth that two things are desirable. One is revenue to prosecute the war, the other a curb on the production of non-essentials. British workers, he says, are having their incomes increased by more employment and higher wages. But it is not desirable that this higher purchasing power should result in a higher standard of living.

In other words, 'tightening the belt' is no empty phrase in Britain at war. If more is earned, more is to be taken in taxation. Excess profits are already taxed 100 per cent. Now extra earned income is to be taken. For the nation is buying for war. Any non-essentials it produces are needed to send to other countries in exchange for munitions. No one must live any better; it is even desirable that no one live as well.

Money will circulate faster. As fast as the government takes purchasing power. The British have a long experience of buying

A nation in wartime, in a war to the death to escape death!

Everything that anyone has is subject to the demand of his government. That is the standard for totalitarian governments even in time of peace. It speedily becomes the standard for any government in modern days of "total war."—Milwaukee Journal.

THE MEANEST MAN!

THE MEANEST MAN!

They sure harbor a mean cuss over at Mancelona. A man passing the Methodist church in that village late at night discovered fire in the church and rushing in put out the fire which had been around two large pictures on the wall, one a painting of Christ, the other a map. The wall board around the pictures was badly charred and the fire snipped just in the nick of time. The man had gained entrance in the church by breaking a glass on the basement door and he evidently cut his hand on that as there was blood on the door. It will be good if they disclose his identity through those cuts.—Al Weber in The Cheboygan Observer.

The village council had a busy session last Monday evening. Much business of importance was transacted. Among the important things done was the proposed construction of a sewer or drain on Harvey and Adams streets to the plant of the Plymouth and Northville Gas company. The purchase of a lot of Shafer Brothers on Ann Arbor street for the purpose of extending Elizabeth street, at a cost of $450 was ordered. The street commissioner was ordered to conlinue the work of opening Forest street. A petition asking for a walk from Harvey street to the Alter Motor Car company's plant was rejected. The matter of building an addition to the electric light plant to make room for the new engine, was referred to the electric light committee with power to act. COOL YOUR HOUSE this easy and inexpensive way!

When you leave your car standing in the broiling sun all day with the windows tightly shut, it DOES get hot inside ... a regular "hake-oven" temperature. But you can always cool it quickly by opening the windows and driving your car down the street.

In just the same way, the attic of your house stores up heat on hot days, the temperature often reaching 150 degrees or more. But you can't very well "drive your house down the street" to cool it ... However you CAN do what really amounts to this. You can install an attic fan and BLOW AWAY the heat in the attic at a cost as low as 550 and up (installation extra). Of course, an attic fan does more than just cool the attic. After sundown, when you open all your windows, it pulls in a flood of cool night air from out-of-doors, and circulates it through the house, making all rooms refreshingly comfortable. Depending on the outdoor temperature, you can often cool your house? to 14 degrees by this method. The large, powerful blades of the fan produce a complete change of air every one or two minutes, and the cost of operation is only about 12c an hour.

Department stores, electrical dealers, and fan dealers will gladly give you full information about this low-cost method of house cooling. Stop in or telephone today. The Detroit Lidson Company. (We do not sell or install this equipment.)
