

Supt. Smith Attends State Conference

School Officials Discuss Problems of School Finance

The annual St. Joseph county fair will take place last week at Centerville. The fact that the fair is one of the best small county fairs not only in Michigan...

So impressed did the settlers become at the regular thefts made of their horses, that they organized what was known as the St. Joseph County Horse Thief Association...

More settlers came into the territory and farmers became proud of the products of their fields. Some one suggested that it would be an interesting thing if a small number of some of the products of the farms and orchards was held...

One year shortly after the Civil War, the crops had been unusually good. Everybody had big potatoes, big corn and fine yields of grain.

A fair was organized. It was necessary that some suitable site be selected for the display of vegetables, fruits, grain and stock.

Years rolled along. In 1871 the Air Line railroad was built through Centerville by the Michigan Central. But the place remained more or less a strictly rural community.

It didn't take long for the committee and Mr. Cummings to reach an agreement for the transfer of the stock of the old Horse Thief association to the St. Joseph County Grange Fair association.

Townsend Club to Meet Monday The Townsend club will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Grange hall, Clarence Pankow, publicity director, says the night is welcome.

Registration Deadline Set for October 26 Those Not Registered for Primary Must File for Nov. 5 Election The city officers are open daily for registration for the November 5 general election for those who failed to register before the primary.

Superintendent George Smith was one of 280 who attended a conference of superintendents of schools in Michigan at Traverse City last week-end.

A committee of six superintendents, representing both small and large high schools, was appointed to formulate a compromise in the matter of distribution on state aid.

A bill for the retirement of non-teaching employees in the school systems, soon to be submitted to the state legislature, was presented to the conference by D. A. Van Buskirk, superintendent of Hastings schools.

Following an evening banquet, Friday, Dr. J. B. Edmondson discussed the position of American schools in the defense program, warning the superintendents to be especially careful in meeting the requests of different pressure groups who would make many demands on the public schools.

The convention closed with a luncheon meeting and talk by Owen W. Kaye Jr., a 22-year-old Michigan correspondent for the Lansing State Journal and the United Press, who spoke of "I Saw the Germans Come," the correspondent was in Paris before and during the German occupation of the city.

After an analysis of what has taken place in Europe up to the present time, the speaker expressed the opinion that the war will determine the question of "numbers vs. skill." He used as an illustration the large number of German planes operated by pilots of less than average ability against a smaller number of better equipped English planes in the hands of better trained fliers.

Librarians at State Meet

The annual meeting of the librarians in Michigan will be held at Grand Rapids this year October 16-19.

Friday's Rotary club program is in charge of the Community Service committee, headed by John MacLachlan, who announced that problems of community interest will be discussed.

Club President

Mrs. Frank Terry, president, announced the club's decision to meet on the second Tuesday of each month, for a dinner-meeting and program.

Petitions Ask for Bus Service to the Schools

Signed by Nearly All Residents Outside City Limits

Petitions signed by several hundreds of residents in the Plymouth school district outside the city limits asking the school board to inaugurate a school bus service will be presented to the school officials within the next day or so, say members of a committee who are circulating the petitions.

Backers of the move to have the school start a bus service say that it is too far for their children to walk from the Robinson subdivision, Park Gardens, Phoenix and Nash additions to the public schools. They believe that as long as such a large part of the school population is made up of residents of these localities that transportation should be provided.

Local Men Join New Regiment

Local men signed up with the newly organized 210th Coast Artillery anti-aircraft regiment during the last week include Elmer Stater, Irving Prough, Harold Hills, Clyde Lasslett, John Nelson, Alvin Maddox and Elmer Barlow Jr.

Arnold, George Chute, and Robert Joffe, high school and out of school students. The parties are to be held in the schools and the hall in the city, all in the evening except for the youngest group.

Log Cabin Will Serve "Mankind"

From one good use to another seems to be the story of the little log cabin used by the Eaton committee for lieutenant governor Jimmie C. Headwaters during the recent campaign.

Erected by Harry Lush and loaned to the committee for use during the three strenuous weeks previous to the campaign, the little cabin is being removed to the Six Mile road here, if it will serve as the "dog house" for both Plymouth and Northville.

No, it's not for dogs of the barking kind. It's just for those who get "Dach" around the house and find that they are in the "dog house" but with no "dog house" to go to.

City Makes Only One Garbage Collection After September 30

Starting Monday, September 30, the city will make only one garbage collection, changing over to its winter schedule, City Manager H. Elliott announced.

G. O. P. Women Plan Welcome for Wendell Willkie

Luncheon to Honor Mrs. Willkie and Mrs. Charles McNary

The Council of Wayne County Women's Republican club is working closely with the national and the Michigan federation, in arranging club group registrations for the mass meeting, Monday, September 30, when Wendell L. Willkie, will address a 20,000 audience at Olympia and Detroit, Detroit, says Mrs. James E. G. Smith, of Redford township, vice-president of the council.

Chief event in the convention program of the National Federation of Women's Republican clubs, being held in Detroit on September 30 and October 1, Mr. Willkie's address will climax his forty-six extensive speaking tour through the West.

"Our goal is to help women to be effective members of party organizations. This means correlation of the activities of our federation clubs with the regular party organizations so that every woman may work effectively in every precinct all over the country and help pile up a majority of Republican votes on election day." This was the comment of the youthful president of the national federation, Mrs. Joyce A. Neill, of Denver, in whose hands will be the direction of the convention meetings.

Reservations for council club groups are being made for one of the preliminary program events of particular interest, the luncheon, September 30, to be held in Masonic Temple, Detroit, honoring Mrs. Willkie and Mrs. Charles L. McNary, wife of the Republican vice-presidential candidate. The four Republican congresswomen, Mrs. Chester Bolton of Ohio; Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers, of Massachusetts; Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith, of Maine, and Miss Jessie Sumner, of Illinois, have been invited to address the luncheon guests.

Plymouth Colt Breaks Record

O. C. Matts, 794 York street, has a winner in "Lady Ivahlynn," three-year-old colt, who broke the three-year-old pacing record by winning three heats in the Michigan State Fair race on Saturday, the half-mile track at the St. Joseph County Grange Fair at Centerville Saturday, September 21.

Sired by Hedgewood McKay of the Starkweather Farming Corporation, Lady Ivahlynn was driven by George VanSickle of Northville in her twelfth start. The black colt has won four three-half races this season and has never been out of the money, placing among the first three in each of the four races throughout the state since she first started at African July 4.

Hotel Mayflower Conducts Daily "Quiz Program" as City Service

"Would you meet the last bus from Ann Arbor and tell my children to stay in the lobby until we can finish this rubber of bride?" This is just one of the unusual queries requested among the Hotel Mayflower's average of 50 to 75 information calls a day.

That the Mayflower is one of Plymouth's most important institutions is revealed in the fact that $70,000 worth of meals were served there last year with an average guest check of 69 cents. Of this amount, $4,159.99 was spent with a local dairy, local farmers who have paid $639.99 for Plymouth for ice.

Rev. Hoenecke to Remain Here

A record attendance of 58 voting members of the congregation of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church turned out Wednesday night to give Rev. Edgar Hoenecke an overwhelming expression of confidence by unanimously asking him to remain here as church pastor.

St. Peter's church has grown considerably during the 11 years of the Rev. Hoenecke's service here, increasing from 140 to 315 communicants.

To Hear Willkie at Wyandotte

Many Plymouth residents are expected to go to Wyandotte Monday afternoon to hear Wendell L. Willkie, Republican candidate for president of the United States, open his Michigan campaign, Monday, from the Bishop Park grand stand in that city at which an audience of 50,000 is expected.

The Wyandotte address will be one of two scheduled in Michigan in which the nominee will leave his train to address the audience assembled. He will speak in Detroit Monday night at the national convention of Women's Republican clubs.

Officials of all cities in Wayne county, outside the city of Detroit, will serve on various committees selected to make the Wyandotte Willkie day program in the most momentous ever held in this section of the state and county. Extra police from all neighboring communities will join with Wyandotte and Michigan State Police in handling the anticipated mammoth crowd.

Marian Kleinschmidt Weds Charles Coyle

Marian Louise Kleinschmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kleinschmidt, became the bride of Charles H. Coyle, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coyle, of Detroit, at a ceremony performed by Rev. Edgar Hoenecke, at 6 o'clock, Saturday evening, in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church.

The bridal party stood before an altar banked with palms and baskets of white gladioli and delphinium.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of heavy white satin made with a fitted bodice, short puffed sleeves, sweetheart neckline and a full skirt with short train. Orange blossoms formed the halo and from it a fingertip length veil was draped. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and gypsophila. Her only adornment was a golden cross.

Neoma Snyder was maid of honor and wore a gown of taffeta shading from pale blue to royal. It was made with short puffed sleeves, and full skirt. Her head-dress was a band of blue flowers with veiling of blue attached.

The bridesmaids were Thelma Williams and Ida Wefsenmoe, who wore gowns alike of taffeta shading from pale pink to du-bonnet, which were made the same as that of the bride.

Kenneth Kleinschmidt, brother of the bride, attended the bridegroom as best man and the usher.

Mrs. Kleinschmidt wore a gown of solid blue crepe for her daughter's wedding with a matching hat and accessories in du-bonnet. Her corsage was rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Crystal room of the Hotel Mayflower for 65 relatives and friends. The table was centered with a wedding cake flanked by gladioli and lighted tapers.

Those from out of town who attended the wedding were, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kleinschmidt and two sons, Ed and Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kleinschmidt and daughter, Lettie, Fred Kleinschmidt, Mrs. Charles Toekstein, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coyle, Robert Coyle, Mrs. Minnie Nelson and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merithew and son, Mrs. Lydia Ebersole, of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Bloomer, of Flint.

The bride chose for traveling a solid blue velvet with black cherry accessories and fox fur jacket. They will reside on Farmer street in Plymouth and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Local Store Features New Aids for Baby's Health and Happiness

Your shopper found some interesting new features for the convenience and help in baby's feeding at the baby department of Taylor & Blyton's department store this week.

From the electric bottle warmer which come in attractive pastel china, baby's milk or bath-water may be tested by the new Quinometer, nursery thermometer, which the store features. These glass thermometers which indicate the correct temperatures for milk or food, bathwater, sleeping quarters, and bathroom fit into wooden cases which can be hung on the wall of baby's room, and the thermometer can also be detached for sterilizing in boiling water.

The thermometer was developed to insure accurate temperature of baby's feedings and thus eliminate one common cause of colic and indigestion.

Baby's Pal, a nursing bottle holder in rubber with mother-of-pearl snaps, is another important aid to mother and baby.

Perhaps the greatest time-saver is the Babykin thermos for night feeding. No longer need mother get up to heat the baby's milk at 2 a. m. for this thermos maintains the right temperature for 4-hour feeding. This scientific container, which holds an eight-ounce nursing bottle, may be put up at 10 p. m. for use four hours later.

Mrs. Irving Ray and Mrs. Bert Krumm attended the double-header between Chicago and Detroit at Briggs stadium, Wednesday.

The pleasant country home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Merritt on Lilley road was the scene of a happy occasion last Friday night, when they celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary. The party was planned by their two daughters, Mrs. Melvin Rayno of Wayne and Mrs. Willard Jackson, of Plymouth. Twenty guests were present who enjoyed the evening visiting and playing games and later a delicious supper. Mr. and Mrs. Merritt were the recipients of many appropriate gifts.

Here Are Recipes From Last Week's Menu You Requested

In response to many requests following the appearance of the first of a series of cooking interviews with Mrs. Loren J. Goodale, The Plymouth Mail this week presents the recipes which the "champion cook" uses for her favorite chicken dinner.

Chicken with Biscuits and Gravy

"Select a hen weighing between four and five pounds," says Mrs. Goodale. "After cleaning, cut into serving pieces. Bring to boil, then reduce heat, and cook about two to two and a half hours, or until tender. After the first hour add two teaspoonsful of salt and some white pepper. Remove chicken and put butter into frying pan and brown chicken a little before serving. "If too little broth, then add some water. But be sure that it has plenty of flavor. Bring broth to a boil and then take off the fire and stir in flour and water until almost thick enough and return to the fire for a few minutes. Have biscuits baking at the same time. Break into halves in the serving dish and pour over gravy and serve immediately," directs Mrs. Goodale.

Biscuits

2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoonful salt
4 teaspoonful baking powder
3 tablespoonsful shortening
3/4 cup sweet milk

Sift the dry ingredients, cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add milk all at once and stir just until dough follows fork around bowl. Mix slightly on floured board and pat out one-half inch thick and cut with cutter. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 to 12 minutes.

Angel Food Cake

1 cup sifted cake flour
1/2 cups sifted granulated sugar
14 cups egg whites
1/4 teaspoonful salt
1/4 teaspoonful cream tartar
1 teaspoonful vanilla
1/2 teaspoonful almond

Sift flour and add a half cup of sugar, and sift four times. Beat egg whites and salt with flat wire beater. When foamy, add cream tartar, and beat until stiff but not dry. Add rest of sugar two tablespoonsful at a time. Fold in flavoring. Then fold in flour slowly and carefully. Turn into ungreased angel food pan. Cut through batter to remove large air holes. Bake at 325 degrees for one hour or until done. Remove from oven and invert pan until cold.

"Be sure to never use a pan that has been greased at any time," warns Mrs. Goodale.

Mrs. John Dalton Gives Recipes For Cookies, Cake, and Baked Fish

—Corey Photos

In her modern, all-electric kitchen, Mrs. John Dalton, 429 Blunk avenue, this week whipped up her favorite cookie recipe in the electric mixer, which is a chocolate chip cookie. Little bits of chopped chocolate are stirred into a white cookie batter to make these "chocolate chips." Other tasty tricks in the Dalton cookie jar are cream puffs and white sugar cookies filled with raisins.

Two of the popular main dishes for the Dalton family dinners are baked filets and Swiss steak with celery, carrots and tomato sauce. With either of these, Mrs. Dalton usually serves a bowl of vegetable salad consisting of lettuce, tomatoes, and cucumber.

Orange Gold Cake

2 cups pastry flour
3/2 teaspoonful baking powder
1/2 cup butter
1 cup sugar
4 egg yolks
2/3 cup milk
1 tablespoonful orange juice
1 teaspoonful orange rind

Sift the flour, baking powder, and salt together. Cream the butter very thoroughly and add the sugar gradually, creaming until well dissolved. Add the well-beaten egg yolks. Beat vigorously in the electric mixer, which is a chocolate chip cookie. Little bits of chopped chocolate are stirred into a white cookie batter to make these "chocolate chips." Other tasty tricks in the Dalton cookie jar are cream puffs and white sugar cookies filled with raisins.

Jacqueline, 12-year-old daughter of the Daltons, is especially fond of white cake with fluffy white icing, and Mr. Dalton's favorite dessert, says his wife, are apple and lemon meringue pie.

Mrs. Dalton passes on to women readers her choice cake recipe:

Dr. and Mrs. John C. McIntyre will entertain their bridge club Monday evening, in their home on North Main street. The guests will include Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Worden, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bachelder, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Joffe, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Joffe, and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Blair.

Mrs. John Dalton, Mrs. Howard Poppenger and Mrs. William A. Ottwell, members of the program committee for the Woman's club, are entertaining at a tea this (Friday) afternoon, for the executive board and the chairmen of the various committees, in the home of Mrs. Dalton on Blunk avenue. Green and white will be used in the table decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton attended the dancing party, Saturday evening, given by the Edson club at Birch Hill Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Springer were given most pleasant surprise, Sunday evening, when the following guests joined them to celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Drews, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph West, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Devery, Miss D. Peoples, Miss E. H. Myles and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harrison. Bridge was played and later a luncheon served. Mr. and Mrs. Springer were presented with a gift.

Garden flowers will decorate the home of Mr. John Dalton, McLaren, Saturday afternoon, when she and her sister, Eltie Kemmerling, of Monroe, entertain 20 sorority sisters at a lunch shower and dessert with Helen Von Eberstein of Royal Oak, as guest of honor. Miss Von Eberstein will become the bride of William Hynes, of Brighton, on October 5.

Miss R. Mulvena Shows Color Movies of Mexico

Color motion pictures taken during her recent trip through Mexico will be shown Monday night, September 30, by Miss Ruth Mulvena, auditorium teacher in McMichael school, Detroit, a lecturer much in demand in that city. Circle four of the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary is sponsoring the event, which will be held at 7:30 in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

Those who have heard Miss Mulvena's lecture on Alaska and who have seen how expert she is at color photography will welcome the opportunity to hear her again and see her new pictures. The Mexican pictures are a timely choice, because of the increased interest in Mexican travel since the European situation has made travel abroad difficult.

The Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church will meet Wednesday, October 2, in the home of Mrs. Phil Whitmire, 1472 Ann Arbor Trail. Meeting will begin at 2 o'clock. Mrs. William Blunk will be co-hostess.

Mrs. Charles Root Sr. entertained her reading club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. George H. Webb, enroute from California to her home in Providence, Rhode Island, spent the week-end with Mrs. Charles Root Sr. Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Root traveled abroad together several years ago.

This is part of your LIGHTING SERVICE

Would you like to have the lighting in your home measured? A room-by-room checkup with the Light Meter is available to Detroit Edison customers without charge. Phone your Detroit Edison office.

Belleville Businessmen Sponsor Civic Festival

The first annual Belleville Harvest Festival, sponsored by the Belleville business men's club, will include a two-day program with patriotic pageant, beauty contest, toy and pet parade, and farmers' fair October 4 and 5 to usher in the autumn season.

School Starts Music Classes

Plans are rapidly being formulated to increase the facilities for children desirous of instrumental musical instruction in the Plymouth schools. Group classes in band and orchestra instruments are to be organized. These classes will meet once a week during school time. Various instruments will be grouped together to facilitate instruction.

Last year a large group of children in the grade schools were given tonette lessons. This group is now ready to play musical instruments. In the junior high school, questionnaires were given to all students in grades 7, 8 and 9. Those showing an interest by their response to the questions are being given a musical examination to learn something of their musical talent. Only those successfully passing the test will be encouraged to continue on some musical instrument.

Instructions are given free of charge. The child will have to furnish the instrument, together with the instruction book, which will be indicated by the teacher when the classes meet. Those taking violin or any other string instrument will be under the direction of Miss Hamill, director of the high school orchestra. Miss Zimmer will have charge of the classes in the grade schools. Mr. Evans will do the instructing of the band classes.

Several parents have stated a desire to rent instruments. The usual plan is to select an instrument you wish, your child may try it for three months. During that time one can usually tell about the future success of the child with the instrument. At the end of the three months' period you may return the instrument without further obligation, or you may keep it, the rental applying on the purchase, and monthly payments being arranged if desired.

New Skest Field Open at Brae Burn Golf Club

The new skeet traps, installed by the Northville hardware, at the Brae Burn Golf club, were in operation Sunday until darkness called a halt. In the morning rounds, the Northville "Skeeters" scored as follows: Orson Atcheson, 23 hits out of 50; Neil Hannaford, 23; H. B. Hall, 30; Junior Hicks, 18 out of 25; Stanley Hicks, 16; Harry Seip 24 out of 50; and Ray Dawson, 26.

In the afternoon a crowd of Detroit gunners arrived. When the smoke lifted L. M. Mansfield, of Dearborn was resting in first place with 70 out of 75; Dr. Alexander, of Detroit also clicked with clock-like precision and recorded a 45 out of 50. Frank Henderson, a port side shooter from Detroit, scored 41 out of 50; Tom Richion, 37; Ross, of Plymouth, 38; Dr. Witte, of Detroit, 42; Earl Johnstone, of Detroit, 34; R. C. Marra, Detroit, 31; W. B. Doraman, Dearborn, 62 out of 75; and Tom Richmond, Detroit, 59 out of 75.

Late in the matinee, when the shadows commenced to creep over the field, several of the golfers tried a few shots. Most of them garnered a flock of zeros and salted the landscape with lead specimens. The doleful call of "lost" will be heard again at the Brae Burn skeet field Sunday, September 29, starting at 9:30 a.m. This field is open to the public with free professional instructions in shooting to beginners.

Mrs. W. S. Jackson, who has been seriously ill the past three weeks, is recovering nicely at her home on Sheridan avenue.

John Wagar's New Shoe Repair Store Opens

The formal opening of John Wagar's new shoe repair store located in the new Smith building at the corner of Starkweather and Spring streets will be held this week-end with the announcement of a complete line of new shoes for men and boys. Well known to Burroughs workers, Wagar has served schools and hospitals with shoe repair in Highland Park for the last ten years.

quired a deposit by the sponsor of $63—to provide insurance to take care of the child should the sponsor fail, and landing fees—together with the guarantee of expenses, not to exceed $75 additional, of the child from the time of landing until it reached its sponsored home. To some sponsors these payments seemed rather large, but if the home was desirable this sum was furnished by other sources or from those who could bear the expense although unable to furnish the home.

Under the procedure of the Boston representative of the United States committee, the child and sponsor meet before placement and the child is shown its prospective home. After this meeting either the sponsor or the child, if it is of age to make a decision, is at liberty to decide whether or not the arrangements seem suitable.

The committee of Christian Scientists has learned that it is not wise to place children, except under unusual circumstances, far from the port of landing unless the demand for homes is greater than at present.

Often the committee of Christian Scientists and the United States committee have little knowledge concerning these children other than their names, ages and the occupations of the parents. However, a representative of the United States committee sees and talks with the children after they land and thus aids in determining the type of home they should have.

Newburg School News
On Monday evening our Citizens' Junior club officers and their parents attended the fifteenth annual inauguration at the Plymouth high school. All of us except two of the officers from Mrs. Schofield's room attended and received badges. We liked the program.
Mrs. Watson's room went to Greenfield Village last Friday. Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Clement, Mrs. Hobbins, Mrs. Watson, and Mr. Pace took us. A very enjoyable day was spent there and the children saw many interesting things which you will hear more about next week.

4-H Clubs Aid Agriculture

With 4-H clubs making their most outstanding showings of their history in exhibits at agricultural fairs this year, Agricultural Commissioner Elmer A. Beamer, on returning from the Michigan State fair at Detroit, stated that the 4-H club movement is the most stimulating force behind agriculture today and that these clubs will be the greatest factor in the improvement of agricultural conditions in the future.

"There are now 62,000 boy and girl 4-H club members in Michigan," Beamer said. "This great organization has come from a mere handful of first received state and federal recognition in 1914. These boys and girls, through much study and practical work and expert instruction from the 4,500 voluntary club leaders in Michigan, will be much better farmers than their fathers and mothers. This, however, is not the parents' fault. The youngsters now have unlimited opportunities for education where their fathers and mothers had none."

CAR HITS TRAIN

A car driven by Joe Canup, 23, of 6847 Hix road, struck the side of a standing train at the Starkweather crossing early Sunday morning at 1:35. A passenger, Miss Florence Perkins, was slightly injured.

Parents would be shocked if they knew how much their children know at the age of five.

Newburg Church Youth Council Presents Movie

Sunday night, September 29, at 8:00 o'clock the motion picture, "Gateway to Life," will be presented by the Youth Council of the Newburg Methodist church. This is the story of two college students, a boy and a girl, who enter university life at the same time and of their experiences as they go on through school. The scenes were shot in the Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois and on the beautiful campus of that school. A free-will offering will be taken to cover the cost of the entertainment.

Members of the Youth Council are William Loesch and Mildred Gilbert from the Young People's Fellowship and Doris Snyder and Shirley Bassett from the Epworth League. This council will sponsor a special service for the entire church and its friends on the last Sunday in each month. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services. Be sure to watch the columns of The Plymouth Mail for further announcements of future programs.

New Law Not to Affect Wild Waterfowl Hunting on Sunday in St. Clair

Closing of St. Clair county to hunting on Sunday will not prevent the Sunday hunting of wild waterfowl on the St. Clair river and Lake St. Clair in the season beginning October 1, as these areas are specifically exempted in the act.

The St. Clair county primary election vote of 6,889 to 5,342 raised to eight the number of southeastern Michigan counties now prohibiting Sunday hunting entirely. Branch, Hillsdale, Huron, Lenawee, Livingston, Monroe, Sanilac and St. Clair. Four counties, Lapeer, Shiawassee, Tuscola and Washtenaw, prohibit Sunday hunting "on the lands or premises of another." In Oakland and Macomb counties and parts of Wayne, Sunday hunting is prohibited "on the lands or premises of another without consent of owner or lessee."

1941 Ford Deluxe coupe. Like the rest of the Ford line for 1941, it is longer, wider, easier riding, with added beauty of line and finish.

1941 Ford and Mercury Models Ready for Public Inspection

Spring Suspension Gives Smoother Riding Mercury

A longer, bigger, easier-riding, faster-acting Mercury with new sweeping speed lines, rolls into public view today. Paul Weidman, manager of the Plymouth Ford Sales company, announces.

The car which made tenth place in its first year and strengthened it last year, looks as though it should go even further in 1941.

The smart new exteriors with their bright metal fender speed-lines, new chrome radiator grilles, doors that practically enclose the running boards, hidden gasoline filler cap, new chrome fender-top parking lights, and heavier bumpers, with center mounted front license plate are a few of the exterior points which will be immediately observed as new on the 1941 Mercury-8.

The Mercury now has a two-inch longer wheelbase with spring base increased in proportion to 129 inches. The sedan body is roomier than ever before, the front seat measuring 57 and a half inches in width from door to door and the rear 51 inches. The easier riding of these bodies is not all due to the increased roominess, but is enhanced by the new full luxury type individual cushion springs used. Over these is a heavy pad of foam rubber which contributes to the unusual softness found in the cushions this year.

The most interesting mechanical change this year is that of the spring suspension, which continues the use of the well known transverse springs but with changes that give the Mercury one of the smoothest boulevard rides found in any car.

To accomplish this several things have been done. The frame is of new construction with a welded center section, which makes it more than twice as rigid as before. The springs have been lengthened in the rear, and have a greater effective length both front and rear. As a result they are softer and slower in action. The lever-type hydraulic shock absorbers have been improved in sensitivity to match the new springs. Metal spring covers are found on all models and the springs are internally lubricated through grooved spring leaves. At the front of the frame an improved stabilizer or "levelizer" is used.

There are numerous other improvements in the power plant and chassis. The clutch pedal operation is made easy by the use of a balancing spring. The semi-centrifugal clutch has been increased in size this year to give longer service and softer action. The transmission has been improved by providing lower gear ratios in low and second speed to assure still quicker "get-away."

Visitors to Michigan need not fear wartime conditions will deprive them of an anticipated trip across the international border. Canadian officials point out no passports or visas are necessary, and while there are no restrictions, United States currency is now worth ten per cent more.

Announcing the big NEW FORD 1941 FORD

In some years, some cars take a big jump ahead. The Ford does that for 1941.

It has jumped ahead in size. It's the biggest Ford we've ever built, inside and out. It's wider. It has a longer wheelbase. Its seating room is wider by as much as 7 inches. It has new wide doors and semi-concealed running boards.

You'll notice also a new beauty, achieved by a skillful blending of mass with longer flowing lines. Larger windshield and windows give better vision all around.

One of its biggest advantages is the new soft ride.

New, slower-action springs give a slow, gentle, gliding movement. A newly designed stabilizer helps absorb road shocks, and maintains balance on sharp curves and in cross winds.

More rapid acceleration to match its familiar speed and power makes this new Ford an even livelier car to drive.

These are only a few of this year's outstanding features. It represents all the rich experience gained in building more than 28 million motor cars.

Any Ford dealer can give you many good reasons for making this your 1941 car.

Heavy Rains Damage Crops

Changes in the Michigan crop situation during August were mainly due to the heavy amount of rainfall which exceeded, at various points in the state, that of any other August as far back as weather records are available. Heavy rains occurred on several dates and showers were of almost daily occurrence during the last half of the month. Many fields were flooded and crops damaged. A considerable amount of grain, mostly oats and barley, was still in the fields and much of it sprouted in the shock. While damage to the grain was extensive, the abundance of moisture was favorable for the growth of pastures and late-maturing crops. The corn crop made considerable improvement during August. The heavy rains provided an ample supply of moisture without causing any extensive damage. Dry weather in the extreme southern counties caused some firing and reduced prospective yields, and the corn borer is prevalent in a number of counties. Some late-planted fields will have difficulty in reaching maturity before the probable event of killing frosts.

Oats and barley yielded a heavy volume of both straw and grain, and grain yields proved to be considerably better than growers expected prior to threshing.

Sugar beets in some fields have been injured by flooding, but on the other hand, much of the acreage was benefited by the wet and cool weather. The condition of beans on the first of this month as reported by growers was slightly lower than reported a month earlier. Recent rains are expected to materially increase the size and tonnage of late potatoes, but considerable late blight is reported from central and northern counties which may cause considerable reduction in yields if the weather continues favorable for further development of the disease. Late-planted fields are still green and must face the possibility of stoppage of growth before reaching maturity if severe frosts should occur.

Beamer Sounds Advertising Need

Speaking at the annual Poultryman's banquet at Michigan State college on Michigan's program for advertising poultry products, Agricultural Commissioner Elmer A. Beamer said that too many people assume that poultry products are so well known that they need no advertising.

He urged poultrymen to take advantage of Michigan's advertising appropriation to encourage greater consumption through intelligent advertising.

"In times past," Beamer said, "about all dealers buying and selling eggs had different standards which usually changed from season to season, but through the efforts of the members of your poultry industry, the 1939 legislature enacted the Egg Law to correct this condition."

"To further assist in developing the egg and poultry production on a more profitable basis through the production of fine quality eggs, and to eliminate the sources of loss between the producer and the consumer, and to build and maintain consumer confidence in this important food product, the Department of Agriculture has greatly expanded the activity of the Federal-State egg grading service.

"I think the enactment of the egg law and the expansion of the egg grading service has been a real boon to the poultry industry," he continued. "Another law passed by the 1939 legislature that should be equally helpful to this industry, if we can cooperate in taking advantage of its provisions is the advertising act that contributes some financial aid in advertising Michigan's agricultural products. I believe that the poultry industry would benefit materially in supporting such an advertising program."

"Encourage greater consumption," he concluded. "This can be accomplished by intelligent advertising. Consumer advertising and consumer education seem to go hand in hand. They appear to be the two weakest spots in this important billion-dollar industry. The production of many other farm commodities of far less dollar volume, and far less health value have been made highly profitable by an advertising program."

Plymouth Loses Season Opener in Night Game

Large Crowd Sees Melvindale Win, 19-6

Plymouth's football team entered the season on Friday night and received a 19-6 trouncing at the hands of Melvindale hosts.

Competing for the first time at night under a battery of spotlights in a game that attracted several thousand spectators, Plymouth allowed Melvindale to hurt its backfield chargers past its goal line once in each of the first three quarters, reserving the last to make its only touchdown.

This single Plymouth score was a stab over the center of the line back fullback Jack Baker with about three minutes yet to be played in the last period. Consecutive runs by Norman, Dunham and Herter moved the ball to scoring position on the Melvindale 10-yard line from the Plymouth quarter backfield, setting an attack which didn't function up to par.

For the first three periods Melvindale fed their ace fullback, Bob Meridith through the holes which their line cleared and the results were not bad. It was Meridith's long run and his line plunge that established the first six Melvindale points. And it was a series of straight line smashes by Meridith that accounted for the second six points in the second quarter.

Wilton, big Melvindale quarterback fought the hardest battle he scored Melvindale's last points. With the ball on the Plymouth five-yard line, he spun around left end to be tackled over the line by Gettleston. The point after touchdown on this score was the only one which Melvindale converted.

The statistics of the game will prove what the score does not—that the teams were matched more evenly than would be thought. The total yardage of each team was within 13 yards of the other, Melvindale getting 218 and Plymouth 205.

Plymouth had as many chances to score as did Melvindale but hobbled all but the last one when its passing attack didn't work when the Melvindale line held firm.

The Rocks failed to convert a break in the first two minutes of the game when Baker's punt was recovered on the 10-yard line. A penalty for offenses and a tightening of the opposing line rendered all four downs unproductive.

Again in the second period Plymouth recovered its own punt only to lose the ball on downs on the Melvindale 20. Plymouth tried four passes in succession on this occasion almost clicking on the last one. Baker to Darnell, pass in the end zone which was just out of Darnell's reach.

Both teams made use of their reserve strength, each using 20 men in their endeavors. Bob Sessions and Bob Norman were the Plymouth regulars to play the entire game.

Both sides had good blocking although on offense, the Melvindale team was able to open a better hole. The pass offensive of both teams was negligible each completing only one forward.

The lineup—1. e. Sessions; 1. e. Hunter; 1 t. Swagles; 1 t. Stout; 1 g. Klor; 1 g. Virgo; c. Dunham; c. Folsom; r. g. Petrazewsky; r. g. Bridges; r. t. Erdelyi; r. t. Nielson; r. e. Darnell; o. h. Herter; o. b. Wellman; r. h. Gettleston; r. h. Hoffman; 1 h. Scogin; 1 h. Norman; 1 h. Baker.

Melvindale—1 e. Wade; 1 t. McKittrick; 1 g. Gigan; c. Magel; r. g. Raup; r. t. Doughy; r. e. Koric; c. b. Wilton; r. h. De Luca; 1 h. Blandi; 1 b. Meridith.

The starting Plymouth lineup-up for the game's first boy named for the position.

Social Register

The two social events concerning school last week were the Senior-Fresh reception and the night football game at Melvindale. Most of the freshmen and senior girls were present at the reception. All seemed to enjoy themselves immensely.

After the game, Bob Norman and Warren Hoffman, two tops of the team, visited Mary Jane Olson and Betty Brown who was an over-night guest of Mary Jane. Marian Parsons, Orlyn Lewis, Gloriette Galloway, and Jack Gettleston had a spaghetti dinner at the Pom-Mar cafe after seeing the game at Melvindale.

Going way up to Hastings, Michigan last week-end was Mary Gots who visited relatives there.

Last Sunday Jack Gettleston, Sam Virgo, and Doug Lorenz went to the Annex theatre in Detroit.

So excited that they went up in the air about it were Warren Hoffman and Charles McKinney of Rosedale who went to the Wayne County Airport for a plane ride.

Gloriette Galloway was a Sunday guest of Cherry Lee Konersman of Birmingham.

New Furnace

A new heating furnace has been purchased by the school board for the machine shop. It is used for the tempering, hardening and carburizing of tool steels. The chief use for this new furnace will be the making of tools. Previous to this, all the tools used by the students were made outside of school.

Soccer Tourney

As the first sport on this year's program, a soccer tournament will be held. Practice games were to be played this week in preparation. Each grade—ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth—will have at least one team depending on the number of girls who sign up. The tournament will start in a week. Much progress is made in the practice games.

Night Football

Playing under lights, last Friday night, September 20, at Melvindale proved to be a real treat for the football team as well as for the spectators.

The field at Melvindale was illuminated by flood lights. There were five groups of lights on each side of the field while each group contained five, 100 watt bulbs making a total of 50 100-watt bulbs.

Speaking from the point of view of the players the ball was as easy to see as it is playing under the sun.

The only trouble the spectators had in seeing was on the kick-off or punts when the ball was in the air directly in line with the lights. The lights seemed to produce a glare making it impossible to see the ball.

A public address system was used to give a play by play description of the game.

Over 2000 people paid an admission of 35 cents to watch the night game. Night games seem to draw a much larger crowd than afternoon games do.

The expense of lighting the field is $1200 a night.

Side-Glances

My dear Correspondents: I've just taken time off to look around me and I've made a marvelous discovery. The school is actually filled with hundreds of girls and I believe I can put them into four classifications. I think I know why boys like some girls better than others!

The four types are: athletic; beauty; debutante; and money. First let me tell you about the athletic type of a girl. She's classed as cosmopolitan—that is, she mixes with everyone. She is friendly and isn't the stay-behind type but always suggests things and really gets out and does them.

If you look around Plymouth hall you will see her as the girl in sport clothes, especially blouses, sweaters, and skirts. Confidentially, she's the best liked by boys. Maybe it's because she can talk football language.

The next type hasn't many girl friends, but quite a few boy friends, the reason being that she acts very independent, one thing that boys really like. She isn't very studious. You'll see her dressed in frilly apparel with an overdose make-up and lots of perfume. This type forms a very low minority of girls (thank goodness).

The third classification is the "debutante" girl. This "dandy" boy is most interested here. It gives him an air of sophistication to be seen with her. She may or may not be a good student, although social events are more in her line. She wears tailored but decorative clothes. Her pose is predominant; in other words, she will-power to act bossy with anything. We do have a few.

Aside from the athletic type, the mousetype forms a majority. She is very studious. Her shyness and blush are always there. She is the ONLY one out of four classes who does not flirt. When boys take her out, they are the type who like to expound radical ideas (since she is one of a few who will listen) or who are very talkative. Also shy boys like her because she is easy to get along with.

Sincerely,
Clarebelle

Government

Mayor Virginia Rock's appointments to the school police force and honor court were unanimously approved at the initial meeting of the recently elected council. Paul Harsha, runner-up in the mayoralty election, was chief of police. Police Chief Harsha following his own appointment, in turn chose three lieutenants, Gerard Blanton, Bob Fisher and Larry Arnold.

Appointments to the Honor Court include Phyllis Hawkins, Orlyn Lewis, Joanne Steinburt, Cecelia Hubert, Lois Hoffman, Bob Todd, and Franklin Garrison. The chief justice of the honor court will be elected at its first meeting by the justices.

At the same council meeting at which the mayor's appointments were approved, the council elected its other officers which are required by the school constitution. Bill Wernett, councilman from the twelfth grade, was elected vice president of the council. (Under the constitution the mayor is the president of the council.) Nancy McLaren, a Junior, was elected secretary. Elected treasurer was Ruth Parmelee. Other members of the council are Bill McAninch, Marie Ann Miller, George Chute, Carolyn Furlong, Signe Hegge, Elizabeth Furlong, Annabelle Furlong, Richard Erdelyi, and Bob Chute.

Diver to Speak

Plymouth high school's next assembly will go nautical, Captain Frank Crilley, U.S. Navy, will be the guest of the school on Friday, September 27. Crilley is a well-known deep-sea diver and is the holder of a number of diving records and many decorations, among them the Congressional Medal of Honor. Known as a daring diver, Captain Crilley has often risked his life to save the lives of other divers and to salvage their property. Although he is no longer a youth, Captain Crilley is still engaged in active service to his country and he is a very entertaining speaker.

Only senior high school students will have the opportunity to see Captain Crilley's equipment and to hear him recount a few of his undersea experiences. Admission is to be five cents.

Marine Corps

"What is Marine Corps life like?" A lot of people are asking themselves that question with the draft coming soon. Leo Schmidt, a member of the class of 1939, answers this question in the following letter in which he describes the life of a Marine Corps recruit. At present Private Schmidt is in training at the Naval Ammunition Depot at the Oahu Base near Honolulu, Hawaii.

"Well, in short it is luxury sports, swimming, big cow chairs, free shows every night (good ones), rifle shooting, and the choice of 150 different subjects to study. If you joined the Marines you would travel. So far I have been through several states and in California I was in San Diego, San Pedro, Los Angeles, and Hollywood. I was on the ocean for 18 days; at Lahiana Roads for five days. I am here for probably 30 months unless some more men are wanted in China or the Philippines.

"While in training we were supplied to be toughened up so we could withstand anything. We went to bed at ten and got up at four. At five we ate breakfast; before that though, we had to dress, sweep and mop up the barracks, and make our bunks. At 7 we drilled with rifles. We had to be able to do the Manual of Arms—the precise movement of the rifle from one position to another. From 10 to 11 we cleaned our rifles. At 11 we ate chow (all meals are chow). From 1 to 5 we fussed around. In case of war we would probably have a few field activities. At 5 we ate again, and afterwards we cleaned our clothes. Then we had school again until 9. From then until 10 we had more free time.

"On Sunday we go to Chapel in the morning, and to the show in the afternoon. We have to write one letter a week. We could not read books, magazines, have candy. (This was during preliminary training). For two weeks we went to the rifle range where we fired the .45 automatic pistol, the 30 caliber rifle, and the Browning automatic rifle. With the rifle and pistol we had to shoot for qualification. We also had to run the bayonet course for qualification. Many thought that month hard. Some even deserted—one in particular was caught an hour after deserting. He is in the brig and pistol we had to shoot for qualification. We also had to run the bayonet course for qualification. Many thought that month hard. Some even deserted—one in particular was caught an hour after deserting. He is in the brig and pistol we had to shoot for qualification.

"To us a bed is a bunk"; the floor is a "deck"; the wall, a "bulk-head"; the dining hall, a "mess hall"; the kitchen, a "galley"; a mop, a "swab"; and sail-clothes "gobs." We have heard that 10,000 gobs laid down their swabs and tried to lick one sick Marine. The 10,000 got up and said it was the dardest fight they had ever seen. On land the Marines are known as Leather-necks; on the sea they are called "sea going bell hoes."

"After leaving Boot Camp, we are transferred. We had to work our way to Honolulu, painting the deck, the bulkheads, and the ship's side. In fact, we worked harder than in Boot Camp.

"Here at the ammunition dump we have guard duty every other day. When on duty, we work four hours, have eight hours off; four hours work and have the next eight off plus the whole next day. Some have mounted posts (on horses), some on bicycles, the rest on foot. When not on guard we have practically nothing else to do, but that we have two consecutive days a week off."

—Leo Schmidt, '39

We need only obey. There is guidance for each of us, and by loving listening we shall hear the right word.—Emerson.

Woman Mayor

Strange, indeed, was the phenomenon which on Tuesday last made the city of Plymouth the possessor of two women mayors. Virginia Rock being elected mayor or of the student governmental system at the local high school. It was very close, Paul Harsha, her opponent, losing by only 30 votes. Virginia proved the special favorite among the junior high school members, but was the losing candidate in her own senior class.

Election of officers other than the day's events. Class officials and student council members were also voted upon. Particularly important are the members of the executive board of the current senior class, which will include: Robert Danie as president, Lillian Fisher as vice president, Ardith Rowland as secretary, Russell Downing, treasurer. The student council members are Ruth Parmelee, Bill Wernett, and Bill McAninch.

Officers of the tenth grade include: James McAllister, president; Marion Goodman, vice president; Jean Randall, secretary; Ruth Granger, treasurer; Calvin Furlong and Signe Hegge, student council representatives.

The eleventh grade officials are: President, Russell Ash; vice president, Robert Brown; secretary, Jane Lehman; treasurer, Ruth Drews; student council members, Nancy McLaren, Marie Ann Miller, and George Chute.

Ninth grade officers are: president, Marie Bakewell; vice president, Robert Thams; secretary, Irene Engelson; treasurer, Geraldine Dahmer; council members, Annabelle Heller and Dorothy Rowland.

Officials of the eighth grade are as follows: Donald Rock, president; George Newton, vice president; Rosamund Busby, secretary; Russell Downing, treasurer; student council member, Richard Erdelyi.

Seventh grade officers are: President, Jacquelyn Dalton; vice president, Pauline Wiedman; secretary, Ruth Campbell; treasurer, Beth Laughlin; council representatives, Robert Chute.

Particularly notable was the marked increase in the number of students interested enough in student government to register. The rise in percentage over last year was remarkable, as is shown by the following figures:

Fifty-five per cent of the seventh grade; 81 per cent of the eighth grade; 57 per cent of the ninth grade; 54 per cent of the tenth grade; 16 per cent of the eleventh grade; 84 per cent of the twelfth grade.

School Emblems

A school emblem consisting of a white football with blue lettering fashioned to bolt on a car near the license plate can be purchased from any Student Council member for 25 cents. This is a good chance for the students to help the Student Council raise money.

Mr. Wallace's students are learning their grasses in a unique way. This spring the Ferry-Morse company sent Mr. Wallace 12 varieties of lawn grass seed which 12 volunteers grew during the summer in greenhouse boxes on flats. So far, six have been returned.

Because of the large number of students trying out for both junior and senior drama club, two teachers, Miss Bryce and Miss Ford, will supervise these groups. Forty-eight boys and girls were listed to try out for junior drama last Monday. Those who were successful will constitute this group and begin the fundamentals of play-acting.

Twenty-four veterans and novices form the senior dramatics class. After learning the rules necessary to become an actor, the new students watched the old ones perform a play, Tryouts were held yesterday (Thursday).

Those successful will take part in plays, while veteran students act as directors.

Norman Pearsall did the work during a recent week-end, which is a very short period for this type of thing. He has studied under the supervision of Miss Fry for four years.

USE SOME SENSE.

The state highway department has announced that a survey is being made between the Lower Tahquamenon Falls and the upper falls for a scenic highway through the wooded lands along the river.

The Plymouth Mail has frequently commented about the natural beauty of this part of the state. In fact, few parts of the country have anything that can rival it.

Recently a highway was built from Whitefish Bay westerly to the lower falls, a distance of some 10 or 12 miles. The road is a wide, gravel thoroughfare, as straight as a string most of the way. No attempt of any kind was made to tie the thoroughfare in with the natural beauty of the country.

Traveling over it one would think that the thoroughfare had been built for a speedway of heavy trucks, rather than a trail highway, through the scenic lands of the north country. The state highway department should not be blamed for what has been done on the stretch of roadway already built, as it had nothing to do with it. But the highway department can see to it that the new three-mile stretch of roadway will be a winding thoroughfare, with no unnecessary removal of beautiful pines and no useless wide shoulders. Instead of building a highway for speed, there should be built at this place a thoroughfare that will require leisurely travel so that even the driver of the car will be required to slow down and enjoy the sights of one of America's beautiful wonderlands.

LOOTING THE POOR WORKMAN.

There is a tremendous amount of construction work going on over at Camp Custer, and it takes a large amount of common labor. All of this work is in connection with our national defense program—but before a poor common laborer can take a job to help build up Camp Custer into a training camp, he must get money from some source to pay some labor organizer $28 in cold cash. If he can't borrow all the money from some friend, providing he does not have $28, he can divvy up $7.50 for the first installment and then the balance of it is taken out of his paychecks. That's the new deal "Americanism," which, if not checked, is leading directly to the sort of dictatorship that has ended all individual liberties on the European continent. Honest organizations that seek to help the unfortunate do not levy back-breaking financial tributes upon hard-working laborers.

YES, SIR, PUT 'EM IN JAIL

There are 568 village ordinances in the "1930 Compiled Ordinances" of the village of Rochester, of which the latter two figures might as well be dropped, so far as enforcement of same is concerned. Why not either remove them from the record or see that they are enforced?—Charles Seed in The Rochester Clarion.

AN IMPROVEMENT

Have you noticed the lack of shady movies dealing with too much sex and suggestion? There was enough movement against these types of films that evidently the producers were convinced that John R. Public wants his entertainment clean and unquestionable. Wholesome enough for his children, at least! We can congratulate ourselves in having entertaining movies and educational ones that are fit for the entire family. It doesn't mean that all movies are of this sort or that each picture in its entirety is devoid of suggestive scenes or speeches, but as a whole we are treated to better pictures. Our young folks can better be trusted to the hands of the film producers, and we are mighty glad of it.—William Irving in The Sandusky Republican-Tribune.

BILLBOARD NOMINEES

What is said here should not be understood as in the slightest degree reflecting upon the ability, good intentions, or fitness of any candidate for public office. What is being discussed are the possibilities and not the actual results of billboard advertising in primary campaigns.

For many years Michigan had a law which restricted primary election candidates of all parties to use of certain methods of promoting their political fortunes. For instance, a candidate under the old law was restricted both as to size of type and size of picture. No advertising could be posted, and campaign cards were restricted both as to size of the card and the size of the candidate's portrait. That law was repealed and a new, corrupt practice law substituted which restricts only the amount of money to be spent. This law is so easily evaded as to be of no use whatsoever.

Up and down the highways and byways of Michigan there now hang the advertising banners, placards and posters of myriads of local and state candidates, the vast majority of whom were rejected by the voters in the election of last week. But the electors cannot so easily dispose of the tattered and torn advertising hanging to trees, poles, and barns. These samples of the printer's art will continue to hang there indefinitely. Indeed, there are to be found, still remaining, political advertising posted back in the 1938 campaign.

Offensive as this may be to the esthetic senses, there is still a more important side to the question.

Either Michigan must adopt the run-off primary method of selecting party candidates or some control over advertising must be insisted upon.—Nelson Brown in The Ingham County News.

THE MOOD OF AMERICA

What a strange mood we exhibit in America today! We want safety and security, the blessings of peace, prosperity, reasonable profits, high wages, and the luxuries of a high standard of living—all this and Heaven, too!

Though we live in a world in which the gold dollar has been discarded and the work dollar has been substituted, America has not yet discovered the real equivalent of time and money. Germany, Russia, Japan, and Britain know it. We are still dreaming selfishly of 1929, third terms, and the Florida coast.

Britain is in the throes of a battle for survival as an empire. Her brave men are fighting to defend England from a ferocious land, sea, and air attack, and if Britain falls, America's whole life is transformed overnight.

Yet we are reluctant to take the necessary steps to keep the war from touching our shores. We quarrel and quibble, we orate and we declaim, we allow selfish political ambitions and the bitterness of party combat to govern our emotions. We exercise neither statesmanship nor leadership. We have surrendered to the most deadly of all fifth columnists—Indulgence.—Adrian Van Koeveering in The Zeeland Record.

TRANSIENT CAMP CLOSES

The closing of the Hagerman lake transient camp and similar shelters in the state poses the question of what will become of the inmates, all men beyond 50 years, unattached from families, and for the most part unemployable. When discharged, they become a dependent as direct relief clients of the county from whence they came, and the counties are hard pressed as it is for meeting state relief requirements.

The illegal aspects of maintaining the shelters as defined by the attorney general can be regarded as a contributing factor to the closing of the camps, but not a conclusive one. The ruling was first given the state board of social welfare months ago, and the board members have gone along in spite of it. Some plan was at foot for allocating the money direct to Iron county's relief commission and making it the supervising and sponsoring organization without local cost, obviously devised to circumvent illegality of the shelters, but this plan fell by the wayside, and the camp is definitely to go.

The transient camp has served a useful purpose since its creation early in the depression years. Men of the upper peninsula, mostly aged lumber jacks, found a comfortable haven where the food was wholesome, the lodging clean, and living conditions pleasant in exchange for a modest amount of work in keeping the camp fueled, clean, and maintained. They were taken off the streets, out of emergency lodging quarters provided in municipal jails, and away from house to house solicitation for food, and given the security of an institutional home at low per capita cost. The arrangement was an example of intelligent care for men without hope of gaining private employment in days of severe employment competition.

All the problems incident to retaining the camp must be well known to the state board members, who likewise must be fully cognizant of the camp's value by virtue of their personal inspection. At Hagerman lake, at least, the state has invested money in implementing the camp's physical equipment and bringing it to full development for adequate housing and sanitation. The camp was the recipient of federal surplus foods and other government subsidy. The per capita cost must have been low but even this cost, it appears, is beyond what the welfare members believe they can spare.

The financial exigency which forces its closing is unfortunate because there is no other means by which it can be maintained. Iron county, like other upper peninsula counties, cannot spare funds for meeting the cost without grants from the state, else there might be some activity in fostering such a movement. There is seemingly no alternative but to discharge the inmates and make them as homeless as they were before.

Men of Iron county who saw at first hand the competent administration of its affairs and the comforts it brought other homeless men regret deeply that it must go, not because the camp brought small business increment to the community, but because it served a useful place in our modern concept of old age security.—George T. Breen in The Iron River Reporter.

She is capable and her record is more than enviable

Plymouth can well be proud of its mayor, Ruth E. Huston-Whipple. Her unselfish devotion to problems concerning the city and its residents have made a name for her that is outstanding among the women of Michigan.

Seldom is it possible to find a woman who so freely devotes her valuable time to the community in which she lives. Born in Plymouth, and raised in Plymouth, educated in Plymouth schools, a graduate of the University of Michigan, an outstanding public speaking teacher, and later a debate coach in the Detroit school system, she has a footing in this community that makes her more than able to fill the position which she now so ably administers.

She, too, may be proud. As the only woman mayor in this great state, she holds a position that is unique. The confidence that her townspeople place in her by elevating her to the city commission is certainly evidence of their recognition of her character and ability.

We believe that wherever possible, recognition should be given to man and woman alike if they are rendering a service that is unusual and demands that they make personal sacrifice to perform their duty well. In the case of Ruth Whipple, mayor of Plymouth, we feel that this has been more than true. We salute her for her efforts, and we congratulate the people of Plymouth for their unselfish judgement that made her Michigan's only woman mayor.
