Gavel Given to Commission to Honor Mimmack

Gift in Memory of First Mayor; City Buys New Car

A beautiful ebony gavel donated in memory of Robert O. Mimmack, first mayor of the city of Plymouth in 1932, was presented to the city commission Monday night by Frank Learned, city clerk.

The gavel, which will be used at all meetings of the city commission, is trimmed with a silver band and engraved inscription.

In accepting the gift for the city commission, City Manager C. H. Elliott paid tribute to the memory and conscientiousness of Mayor Mimmack.

The city commission also accepted a low bid from the Plymouth Motor Sales company for a new Ford Tudor for the Plymouth police department at its meeting Monday night.

Delbert Smith of the Detroit Street Railways appeared before the commission to speak on proposed amendment No. 3 on the November ballot, and the city commission passed a resolution going on record against proposal No. 3 because "it is an infringement on home rule."

Several requests to erect new buildings were granted by the commission, including a new C.F. Smith store on Penniman avenue at the rear of the Conner Hardware store, with the provision that a three-foot set-back line be observed; two new stores to be created by the Atlas Finance company east of the new A. & P. store on Ann Arbor Trail; and the remodeling of the Fred Schrader Funeral Home to provide a new display room.

Allan Tilston petitioned the city commission for a change of classification on property located at the southeast corner of the street from class A and B residential and local business areas to an industrial area. Mr. Tilston explained that a local contractor wished to purchase the property for the building of a supply garage to house trucks and contracting equipment. The city commission referred the matter to the planning commission, which will meet next Monday night.

A petition for a curb and gutter on Dewey street was approved, and the city manager recommended the erection of street lights at Junction and Irving and at Junction and Arthur streets. The question of a traffic light at the corner of Penniman and Harvey streets was tabled until further time in which to complete a study before making a recommendation.

A letter of appreciation was sent to the city commission by the Ex-Service Men's club for the planting and care of shrubs and flowers surrounding the Ex-Service Men's monument in Kellogg park in the last year.

Mr. Learned was chosen to make the presentation because of his long association working with Mr. Mimmack for 33 years on the Michigan State company, and also for four years on the city commission.

It was Mr. Mimmack who took the initiative in effecting the incorporation of Plymouth from the township.

Suffocation Is Cause of Death

Walter Skjelvick, a 49-year-old man, died here on Monday morning after being found suffocated in his home on Beck road near Ann Arbor road Sunday morning, October 21.

A neighbor and some workmen discovered him at 9:30 Sunday morning, suffocated from coal gas from a large coal heating stove. A physician declared that the man had been dead only 15 minutes when he was discovered and removed from the house.

A trial and the maker in the Fisher Body company in Detroit, Mr. Skjelvick came from Poland in 1917. Following an inquest at the Detroit morgue, the body was removed to the Schrader Funeral home where funeral services were held Thursday at 10 o'clock. Burial was made in Riverside cemetery.

Dykhouse Passes Doctorate Exams

C. J. DYKHOUSE

Claude Dykhouse, principal of Plymouth high school, received notice this week from the University of Michigan that he had passed his preliminary examinations for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. He will be awarded his doctorate upon completion of a thesis based on original research in the field of education.

The University committee on graduate study in education notified the principal that he had passed three-hour comprehensive examinations in educational psychology, history of education, and general administration including tests for reading knowledge of French and German.

The completion of this study represents 14 years' work for both the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees on Saturdays and during the summer months. There are very few high school principals in the state holding Doctorate degrees.

A graduate of the Grand Haven high school, Mr. Dykhouse received his B. S. degree at Michigan State college in 1926, and his M. A. degree at the University of Michigan in 1929. He has been principal of Plymouth high school for 11 years, before which he taught chemistry and physics for four years.

Rotary Welcomes New Members

Two new members were taken into the Plymouth Rotary club last week. They are Dr. "Ace" Williams, osteopath, and graduate of the Chicago College of Osteopathy, who came to Plymouth a little over a year ago from Vicksburg, Mississippi, and Dr. Fred Bentley, who purchased the practice of the late Dr. Paul Butz here this year. Dr. Bentley, a graduate of the School of Medicine of Wayne University who interned at the Harper hospital, Detroit, came here from Royal Oak.

Three school boys from the Plymouth high school who made a bicycle tour of the state last summer will plate their experiences at the Rotary club meeting Friday. The program is under the direction of the Boys' Work committee, of which Walter Harms is chairman.

Last week the Rotary members held a meeting at the activities of the Youth Service program from George M. Grant, member of the Rotary club of Windsor, who was brought here through the efforts of Ralph Smith, chairman of the program. The speaker gave the local club members many ideas for youth projects in this city.

P. T. A. Reports Ticket Sales

Ticket sales for the Milk Fund ball to be sponsored by the two local Parent-Teacher associations on Friday, November 8, were reported progressing satisfactorily this week with nearly half the quota sold. Six hundred tickets were distributed early this week and P. T. A. members and school teachers, and 250 tickets have been sold during the first week.

The ball will be held in the auditorium of the high school this year, and the P.T.A. hopes to raise enough funds to carry on its program of giving milk to needy and under-nourished children throughout the entire year. Last year's milk fund of nearly $200 is now completely depleted.

The decoration committee from the Starkweather school P.T.A. met at the home of Mrs. Jess Hines Wednesday afternoon.

Canteen boxes will be placed in local stores this week-end for contributions to the fund, and a special committee started making personal calls on the industrial plants and other organizations of the city Thursday.

Miss Amelia Jendrycka and Gerald Hagerstrom, of Detroit, were Sunday guests of the former's brother, Walter Jendrycka, Maple street.

Plans Set for Luncheon Meeting for Van Wagoner

Mayor Ruth Whipple to Introduce Guest of Honor Wednesday

The committee in charge of a luncheon to honor Murray D. Van Wagoner, Democratic candidate for governor, at the Mayflower hotel at 12:15 next Wednesday, October 30, was announced this week by Mrs. Russell Powell, chairman.

Members of the committee besides Mrs. Powell include Mrs. P. A. Lacy, Harry Robinson, Henry Hondorp, Harold Finlan, S. T. Corbett, Harry Irwin, Bert McKinney of Livonia township, and A. L. Sheppard of Northville.

Mayor Ruth Whipple will introduce the guest of honor who will arrive in Plymouth shortly after 12 o'clock and will remain here until 1:30. His visit to Plymouth will be made on the final swing of his campaign through the metropolitan section.

Tickets may be secured from any member of the committee, at the Mayflower hotel, and at both banks. Every citizen of Plymouth and vicinity is invited to attend the meeting to hear Mr. Van Wagoner discuss some of the state problems.

Supervisors Vote Increase in Sewage Rate

Increased Cost to Plymouth Is $16; Pass Road Budget

Three recommendations of importance to Plymouth were approved by the Wayne county board of supervisors this week.

The board Monday approved the recommendation of the sewage disposal committee to increase the sewage rate for the out-county system from $23 per million gallons to $43.25 per million gallons, or nearly twice the present rate. The city of Plymouth pays $26.07 per million gallons at present based on the amount of water used, provided that the users of water are connected to the sanitary sewers.

The primary reason offered for this increase in the sewage rate for the out-county area is that the amount set last year was on a trial basis and proved inadequate. That the rate for Detroit is $33 in contrast to the $43 rate for the out-county area is explained by the fact that Detroit operates one large centrally located disposal plant while there are four out-county plants.

Henry Hondorp, a member of the ways and means committee, and Mayor Ruth Whipple, who attended the meeting of the sewage disposal committee which made the recommendation, both concurred in the necessity for an increased rate. It was also pointed out by these two supervisors that the budget comes before the supervisors each year and is subject to future change. The addition of other out-county units will probably work to decrease the rate in the future.

At Tuesday's meeting of the board of supervisors the Wayne County Road commission budget was approved at $8,505,22.74 of which the estimated appropriation of funds to Plymouth from the gas and weight tax will be $800 for local expenditure in debt service, traffic lights, resurfacing, and paving.

A recommendation from the ways and means committee was approved by the board last Friday authorizing the auditors to confer with officials of the city of Detroit about making a joint city-county building out of the Barclay hotel which has been acquired by the city through de-indent taxes. The vote was 95 to 7 in favor of the investigation with Willard Ely of Northville, George Robinson, Mrs. Whipple, and Arno Thompson, four of the seven opposed.

Ex-Service Men Present Tableau

A tableau, "Lost We Forget," will be presented by the Ex-Service Men's club at its annual Armistice day banquet which will be held at the First Presbyterian church Monday evening, November 11.

The tableau will portray a soldier kneeling beside a grave and cross next to which a Red Cross nurse will stand.

George Gottschalk, general chairman, announces that Klein-schmidt's orchestra will furnish music during the dinner, and James Gallmore will show movies of local events taken throughout the year.

All veterans regardless of affiliation are invited to attend the banquet in commemoration of Armistice day.

Capacity Audiences Express Approval of Two Style Shows

Capacity audiences filled the high school auditorium Wednesday afternoon and evening for the style shows, sponsored by the home economics department of the school, and staged and directed by John Blyton of the Taylor and Blyton department store.

Hoods, pinafores, two-color combination yokes and waist girdles, and the ever-popular "separates" with velveteen and corduroy predominating were featured in the two-hour shows both afternoon and evening. More than 60 models appeared on the style runway.

Following an introduction by Miss Lesteen Sides, Miss Ruth Granger and her court carried out the opening theme of "Miss America." Miss Granger wore a loose-fitting white gown with draped sleeves banded in silver, and a silver crown.

The "Junior Clique" presented a number of Woolens for school wear, and the "Glamour Girls" furnished a surprise element which stole the show. Three little tots, Susan Goddard, B. Lyke, and Susan Wesley, previewed what the smart three-year-olds will wear to parties this winter.

A number of younger children were featured in the "Fun in the Snow" presentation modeling snow suits and coats and leggings. One teal blue suit was trimmed with red embroidery, and a hat which matched a green and brown suit was trimmed in beaver.

Reversible gabardine ski suits and pants were presented in the "snow Train Specials" setting and the girls wore fur-trimmed detachable hoods and angora mittens.

Miss Doris Cole, student at the high school, presented two tap dance specialties between presentations.

Several members of the Woman's club modeled styles for the "Youthful Matron." Mrs. Bentley wore a striking black and white combination with a black velvet beret, and another outstanding number was a black suit in silk bengaline trimmed with black velvet applique on the vestee.

The high school dramatics class under the direction of Miss Winnifred Ford presented a skit during the intermission, and the high school orchestra under the direction of Miss Doris Hamill furnished musical accompaniment throughout the show.

Former Resident in Auto Crash

Vernon Schmidt, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Schmidt, native Plymouth youth who attended the local schools through the eleventh grade, and then removed to Clarkston with his parents two years ago, was the victim of a serious automobile accident last Monday morning.

Schmidt was on his way to work in Pontiac where he had recently found employment with the Yellow Cab and Coach division of General Motors. His car collided with another driven by Henry Beutler of Pontiac.

Young Schmidt suffered severe scalp injuries and a compound fracture of the right leg. The extent of possible internal injuries have not been determined. He was taken to Pontiac General hospital. The young man's father is employed by the Plymouth Ford plant and drives from Clarkston daily.

No Witches to Stalk in Plymouth; Children to Attend Halloween Parties

Better watch out—or the goblins will get you!

Next Thursday, October 31 is Halloween, the eve of the big preceding Hallowmas or All Saints' Day, a festival which long antedates Christianity. The two chief characteristics of ancient Halloween are the lighting of bonfires and the belief that this is the one night in the year when ghosts and witches are most likely to wander abroad.

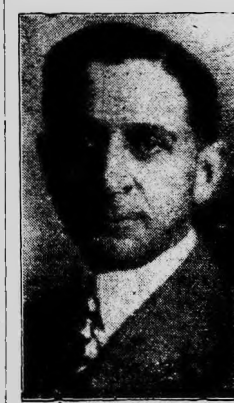

But Plymouth children need not be troubled by evil spirits. The Civic Committee has now a number of indoor parties all day and evening for Halloween fun.

The youngest children, of preschool age, kindergarten, and the first three grades will enjoy an afternoon of games, movies, and a "Mother Witch" skit at Central grade school from 4 to 6 o'clock Thursday. Two movies, "Merry Little Kittens," in technicolor, and "Pandora," will be shown for the youngest tots' party. C. J. Dykhouse, principal of the high school who is in charge of movie entertainment, announces.

In addition to such traditional Halloween games as "ducking for apples," children in the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades will be shown both of these movies and another, "Songs of the Range," at their party in the gymnasium of the First Methodist church from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Movies for the seventh and eighth graders who will meet at the high school from 7:00 to 9:30

Church News

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. G. H. Enns, Th.D., pastor. Tonight, Friday, the famous sound motion picture, "King of Kings," will be shown in the First Baptist church. By special arrangement we are making it possible for the children to see it earlier in the evening, at 5 p.m. Each child must bring a free will offering to cover the expenses. Then at 7:30 p.m. the showing will be primarily for adults. A free-will offering is expected from every one. Come in good time to secure your seat. The picture is highly praised by those who have seen it. It is shown now in churches only. Our regular Sunday services as usual. Morning worship at 10 a.m., the pastor speaking on Christ's parable of "The Two Kinds of Builders." Sunday school at 11:15 a.m., the men's study group discussing "Jainism." Another interesting program will be presented in the Sunday evening hour at 7 p.m. A special guest feature will be a vocal solo by Miss Ethel Killham. Everyone is welcome. Our theme is, "America's Best," the best theme for young and old. Wednesday prayer meeting at 7:30 p.m. A Word to the Wise. "Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye."

ST. PETER'S EV. LUTHERAN church. (Plymouth) Edgar Hoencke, pastor. Sunday services, 10:30 a.m.; Sunday school, 9:30 a.m.; children's confirmation classes, Wednesdays, 4:00, 5:00, Saturdays, 9:30, 11:00. Adult confirmation classes, Wednesdays, 7:30, 8:30. Choir rehearsals, Thursdays, 7:30, 8:30.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church. Walter Nichol, pastor. 10 a.m., Sunday school; 11 a.m., church worship; 6:30 p.m., young people. One of the courses taken by students at summer conference was on China, that land of so great interest today. Evelyn Stewart will bring to the young people Sunday evening a message concerning the Chinese and the Christian church in China. The meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. The School of Religion will meet at the Methodist church, Plymouth, Monday evening, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. All are welcome. A group of women from the Plymouth Presbyterian church will visit Dodge Community House, Detroit on Wednesday, October 30. The plan is to go to a church of one of the foreign groups where a luncheon will be served by the women of that church. Then the group will visit other churches of different foreign groups and end the tour with a visit to the Dodge Community House. Great care and effort has been taken to arrange this visit and tour. It will be a worthwhile experience. At a meeting of the session and board of trustees of the church the resignation of Miss Hanna Strasen as organist and choir director was accepted with very sincere regret. Miss Strasen has been the efficient and faithful director of the choir and in charge of the organ for several years. Her class of students has greatly increased this year and she finds it necessary to be relieved from the church work. The resignation will take effect next month.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist. Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimonial service, 8:00. "Probation after Death" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, October 27. The Golden Text (Galatians 6: 9) is: "Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." Among the Bible citations is this passage (1 Corinthians 15: 19-20): "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 45): "Jesus' deed was for the enlightenment of men and for the salvation of the whole world from sin, sickness, and death."

Dave Nichol Reports First Air Raid Blackout

First Impressions in Berlin Indicate Slight Damage There

A report of David Nichol's first impressions and experience in a Berlin blackout and air-raid was received by his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Nichol, this week. The letter, written the day after his arrival there and sent by airmail, left Berlin October 4 and was received here Tuesday, October 22.

"I registered at the Hotel Bristol about sundown and soon with Wallie Deuel had my first experience with the blackout, and believe me, it is black," Nichol writes.

"You stumble along over curbs, into lamp posts, of an into other persons whom you hear but never see. So-called night life is at a minimum because everyone goes home early for fear of spending the night in a public shelter.

The Bristol is well-provided, and I was ready for my first air-raid. It came all right, but I slept right through it. It will give you some idea of how serious it was. There is almost no evidence of any damage to the city. The biggest hazard is the anti-aircraft splinters and you can find a minute and a half or two minutes after the guns fire before they will come down. Even these are so few that that have become souvenirs at a premium."

Nichol, who was sent to Berlin as correspondent for The Chicago Daily News, described travel as "extremely complicated these days."

"Our Clipper was delayed six days at Horta. As a result I lost my reservations on the line to Rome and would have been compelled to wait until October 8 to get away. And with the entire world in such an uneasy state, I decided the best plan was to come directly to Berlin, which I did, flying first to Madrid, staying there over night, and then coming on the next day in a huge Luftthansa plane through Barcelona, Marseilles, Lyons, and Stuttgart."

New Stamps on Sale Here Honor National Defense and Famous Inventors

Five new commemorative stamps went on sale last week at the Plymouth Post Office.

New one, two and three cent stamps have been issued commemorating the national defense program. The one cent stamp, showing the Statue of Liberty, is in the interest of industry and agriculture. The two cent stamp depicts an anti-aircraft gun which is written the words, "Army and Navy."

The three cent national defense stamp pictures a lighted torch aloft and dedicated to security, education, conservation, and health. These three stamps went on sale last Thursday.

Two more of the Famous American series in the inventor group were issued last Wednesday. One and two cent stamps in this series have already been released. A new three cent stamp honors Cyrus McCormick, inventor of the reaper, and a five cent stamp honors Elias Howe, who is credited with the invention of the sewing machine.

Kathryn Mandl Marries Detroit Man Saturday

Miss Kathryn Mandl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mandl, 1290 Junction avenue, became the bride of Pierre Mettetal of Detroit at a ceremony performed Saturday, October 19, at 11:45 o'clock in Our Lady of Good Counsel church by Father V. J. Renaud.

The bride chose a gown of white satin embellished with flowered figures, with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves tapered to the wrist, and a sweeping train for her wedding. Her finger tip veil was held by a wreath of orange blossoms.

Mrs. M. Mandl served as matron of honor, and the three bridesmaids were the Misses Catherine Kiel, Madeline Friehaus and Charlotte Goodmont. Barbara Mettetal, little niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl, and Lloyd Mettetal stood up with his brother as best man.

Ushers for the wedding were Matthew Mandl, Dr. William Bronson and Donald Bronson.

The bride's mother chose a dress of solid blue with gold lace and diamond accessories for her daughter's wedding.

A reception was held at 5 o'clock Saturday at Roth's Barn, Nine Mile road at Van Dyke. The couple will make their home in Detroit.

At a ceremony which took place at 7 o'clock Friday evening, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Beyer, their daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Mowbray, became the bride of Carl Hartwick, of Northville and Crossway, Arkansas.

The Rev. George Ehnis of Monticello officiated at the ceremony. An improvised altar decorated with white tapers, and vases of white dahlias and yellow chrysanthemums formed the background for the wedding party.

The bride wore a street length dress of solid blue with matching accessories and wore a spray corsage of gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Floyd Burgett, who wore a maroon velvet dress with black accessories and corsage of yellow roses, and Mary Lou Mowbray, daughter of the bride, who acted as ring bearer, wore duty rose taffeta with lacings of maroon velvet. She wore a dainty corsage of baby mums.

A reception followed in the home. The table was decorated with lighted white tapers in silver candleholders and a four-tiered wedding cake placed on a beautiful Madeira cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick left that evening on a three weeks' wedding trip to Nebraska, Colorado, Texas, New Mexico and Arkansas. They are now building a new house on Northville road, which they will occupy.

Mrs. Hartwick is a graduate of Plymouth high school and the Detroit Business Institute. Mr. Hartwick is a graduate of Greenway high school and attended Georgia Tech. They are both employed at the Wayne County Training school.

Previous to her marriage Mrs. Hartwick was the guest of honor at a surprise wedding shower, in her home on Liberty street, given by 20 co-workers from the training school, who presented her with a beautiful gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Average weights of raccoons being studied at Swan Creek wildlife experiment station are: "subadults," males, eight pounds, eight ounces; females, five pounds, five ounces; for adults, males, 11 pounds; females, 13 pounds, two ounces.

Any cause that cannot stand discussion is not worth preserving.

Bent on developing a new gamefish that will be prolific as pickerel and as much esteemed by anglers as the muskellunge, Dr. Samuel Edwa, university of Minnesota ichthyologist, is cross breeding the two species in his laboratory. First pickerel-muskellunge hybrids, while still less than a foot long, proved too rapacious for confinement in the laboratory and were transferred to a large pond. Whether the hybrids will be capable of reproducing themselves will not be learned for some time.

Kathryn Pennell Weds B. J. Hansen at Salem

On Saturday evening, October 19, at 8 o'clock, Miss Kathryn E. Pennell, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Pennell, became the bride of Bonnie John Hansen, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen of North Territorial road.

The marriage service was read in the Salem Federated church by the Rev. Cora M. Pennell, the bride's mother. Palms and ferns were massed in the recess back of the chancel rail, in front of which was a tall white wicker basket of large and small white chrysanthemums. The basket was flanked with large cathedral candles. Floral arrangements on either side of the altar consisted of pom pom chrysanthemums.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a classic gown of old ivory satin brocade and a veil of ivory net held by a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride carried a book bouquet of an orchid and sprays of bavardia and a New Testament bound in white and gold. Her only ornament was a gold chain and cross, an heirloom in the Hansen family having belonged to the bridegroom's paternal grandmother.

For the prelude Carl Haray, violinist of Northville, played "Sweet Mystery of Life." Miss Katherine Van Dyke of Grand Rapids sang "The Day of Golden Days" and "Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. Harmon Gale.

Miss Ruth L. Pennell, sister of the bride was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Frieda Katherine Hansen, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Mabel Ritchie. All three were dressed alike in floor length gowns of slipper satin in dusty rose shade, with shoulder length veils. They each carried a bouquet of roses tied with satin ribbon.

Gustave Hansen was his brother's best man and the bride's brother, James Ray Pennell, and John Muir of Detroit were ushers.

Little Marlene Clement, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clement, made a charming flower girl in her long party frock of du-bonnee silk and Melvin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith of North Territorial road, was ring bearer, dignified in his long trowser suit. Both the small attendants carried colonial bouquets of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

The reception was held in the church dining room where the ladies of the church served about 300 guests. After November 1 the young couple will be at home to their friends at 1685 Oakman boulevard in Detroit.

Lives Longer Than Any Other Member of Pioneer Family

The descendant of a family who have all lived much longer than the Biblical allotment of three score and ten years, Carmen Root now possesses the distinction of having lived longer than any other member of the Root family.

His grandfather, Roswell Root, who migrated to this locality from Hartford, Connecticut in the spring of 1825 and settled on government land out west of the city on the Ann Arbor road where the family descendants continue to reside, lived to be more than 93 years of age. He was born on March 31, 1780. He died on October 23 in 1873, at the age of 93 years, six months, and 23 days.

When Wednesday, October 23, passed this week, Carmen Root, who is still living on the old homestead and is enjoying fairly good health, became older than was his pioneer grandfather at the time of his death. Hannah Marie Taft, daughter of Roswell Root, lived to become almost 93 years of age.

Of the 40 children and grandchildren of Roswell Root, who in the old days frequently gathered in the family home, only five of the grandchildren remain. Carmen, John, and Lewis, who live on the 400 acres taken up from the government under President John Quincy Adams, Donna Root Hugh who resides in Los Angeles, California, and Mrs. Ada Murray, of Spokane, Washington.

We'll Put Our Money on POWER!

There are two ways you can go about engineering an automobile. You can think it out—or tinker it out.

You can get right down to the tough job of building a better performance into the engine—or you can fuss around with things that seem to do the job. It is plain, of course, that the sole source of car performance is the power plant.

Now, sweating out more power from the same size engine and the same amount of fuel is a tough, down-to-earth, hard-work job.

But that's what Buick engineers have done.

Through FIREBALL design and Compound Carburetion they have provided greater and more flexible power in the engine itself—and what you get from that is this:

More power—eight, eighteen or twenty-four more horsepower than last year.

More mileage—the benefits of overdrive at all speeds, as much as 10% to 15% more miles from every gallon.

Easier car handling—less need for gear-changing from tremendous reserve power that takes the hills smoothly without dropping into lower gear.

And finally—you get a chassis that is simple and clean, uncluttered by added, intricate mechanisms that are hard to service.

In brief—you get greater basic capacity for performance—and that's worth asking your nearest Buick dealer about.

BUICK PRICES BEGIN AT $935

Woman's Club Holds Bridge Party Friday

Business Meeting to Precede Party at Masonic Temple

The Plymouth Woman's club dessert bridge party scheduled for next Friday, November 1, will be held at the Masonic temple starting at 1 o'clock.

This party has been planned as one of the regular meetings for the year and will be so each year hereafter. Mrs. Robert Willoughby, president, has called a business meeting for 12:30 at the temple preceding the party as there are several important matters to be brought before the club at that time.

Immediately following the business meeting the committee plans to serve dessert and will continue serving until 2 o'clock. Mrs. George M. Chute, Jr., bridge chairman, announced last Friday that both door and table gifts will be given.

As was stated in The Plymouth Mail last week, this is an open party and tickets may be secured from Mrs. Rolfe Smith, ticket chairman or any of the following committee members who are assisting Mrs. Chute with plans for this party: Mrs. F. R. Hoheisel, Mrs. William Morgan, Mrs. John Olsvater, Mrs. Horace Thatcher and Mrs. J. G. Weed and Honorary Member Mrs. Kate Allen.

Each member present when the Woman's club met last Friday to hear J. Merle Bennett speak on the "Huron-Clinton Parkway Project" came away with a clear understanding of the proposal and a realization of the need for additional park facilities for the people of the metropolitan area.

Mr. Bennett explained the points of the proposed plan and compared the recreational facilities of Wayne county with counties in several other states to show that the metropolitan area has about one-fifth sufficient park playground at the present time.

Following his talk, Mr. Bennett showed slides and motion pictures of some of the present Wayne county parks.

Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers

A joint supper meeting of the American Legion and the Auxiliary will be held at the Newburg hall Friday, November 15.

New officers of the American Legion Auxiliary were installed at the October meeting, with Mrs. Dorothy Pearl, department president, acting as installing officer.

The officers are as follows: Ethel Holton, president; Ruby nor Owen, second vice president; Terry, first vice president; Eli- Rebecca Erdelyi, secretary; Vera Guthrie, treasurer; Helen Edwards, chaplain; Gladys Ryder, historian, and Marie Ridley, sergeant-at-arms.

Following the installation, Mrs. Pearl presented the retiring officer, Mrs. Marie Anderson, with a past president's pin. Mrs. Holton presented Mrs. Anderson with a compact from the unit in appreciation of her work, and Mrs. Anderson in turn presented Mrs. Pearl with a lovely piece of pottery and Mrs. Holton with costume jewelry from the unit.

Movies were shown and Mrs. Charles Murphy of Northville, past president of the department, and Mrs. Carlson, district chaplain, also of Northville, spoke.

The members of the American Legion and their friends are to have a masquerade party this (Friday) evening in the hall at Newburg, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be cards, fortune telling, a quiz program and dancing, and prizes for the best costumes.

Spinach Is Favorite Noontime Lunch With The Daane Children

Mrs. Russell Daane serving luncheon to four-year-old Ellen Betsy at their home at 530 Garfield avenue.

Like "Pop-Eye the Sailor Man," Ellen Betsy and Dick, the two young children of the Russell Daanes, know that spinach makes them strong.

Mrs. Daane's suggestion for a noontime lunch, popular with her nine-year-old son and four-year-old girl, includes:

Luncheon
 Creamed Spinach on Rusks
 Sliced Hard-boiled Eggs
 Carrot and Celery Strips

Milk
 Stewed Apples
 Crisp Cookies
 The recipe for snow drops, Mrs. Daane's cookie specialty, which she offers as an economical dessert, follows:

Snow Drops
 3/4 cup shortening
 4 tablespoonsful powdered sugar
 2 cups flour
 1 cup nuts
 1 teaspoonful vanilla
 1 teaspoonful water
 Chill and form into date shapes.

Mrs. Daane suggests variety in the preparation of a Canadian bacon dinner, which is her family's favorite, by baking about a three-pound piece of the bacon in pineapple juice which lends flavor to the meat. A little dry mustard and brown sugar may also be added for flavoring to the sauce.

Dinner Menu
 Canadian Bacon baked in Pineapple Juice
 Broiled Pineapple Rings
 Mixed Green Salad of Spinach leaves, Lettuce, Tomato and Chives
 Buttered Peas
 Belgian Baked Potatoes
 Lady Fingers

Belgian baked potatoes, says Mrs. Daane, are sliced similar to French fried potatoes, topped with butter, and baked in the oven.

A simple but tasty dessert suggested by Mrs. Daane is apple dessert. The following recipe serves eight:

Apple Dessert
 Fill an unbuttered pan half full of sliced apples, put one-half cup of sugar over this, and then fill the pan with apples. Cover with a mixture of one cup of brown sugar, one-half cup of melted butter, and three-fourths cup of flour. Sprinkle the top with one-half cup of pecans, and bake for three-fourths of an hour.

Mrs. James Dunn, Mrs. Orr Passage, Miss Vern Rowley, Mrs. Ivan Baldwin and Mrs. Frank Dunn were luncheon guests Friday of Mrs. Ralph Miller in Highland Park.

D. A. R. Women Hear Talk on Burton Library

Speaker Tells of Association With Sarah Ann Cochrane

Monday evening, Mrs. S. N. Thams entertained the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the D. A. R. After the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. J. Merle Bennett, regent, Mrs. Henry Baker introduced Miss Gracie Brainard Crum of the Burton Historical Library.

Miss Crum was associated with Miss Cochrane when she was a librarian in the Detroit system and was, therefore, able to tell many interesting bits concerning Miss Cochrane.

"The Burton Historical collection," Miss Crum said, "resulted from a hobby. Mr. Burton as a young law student was advised to have a hobby of some sort and so he chose to collect historical data relating to the growth and founding of Detroit and some of its pioneer families. As many of these families came from the East, the scope of the collection enlarged until today it is one of the well-known historical libraries of the country."

It includes a collection of old maps which are interesting and valuable, old manuscripts and many pamphlets. There are 80,000 books which are in some way connected with the development of this territory.

For a time Mr. Burton made it a point to buy a book a day and pamphlets by the hundreds. Out of this welter of material has come a library that is well worth a visit.

One interested in the genealogical records of one's family may receive definite help from the collection. After this very interesting talk, Mrs. Thams and her assistant hostesses, Mrs. Earl Mastick and Mrs. Sidney Strong, served coffee and little cakes.

Dress A Child For Christmas

"No child without a Christmas" is the motto of the Goodfellow Old Newsboys' organization each year, and the women of Plymouth can help make this a certainty this year by cooperating in a program to be conducted by this column of the Woman's page to furnish dresses to needy children.

Perhaps you can remember when to get a new dress was quite an occasion for there's nothing like a new dress to make a little girl happy. Or if you have been more fortunate and never had to wait for such, this will provide an opportunity for expressing your thankfulness. For Christmas is truly a season to find happiness through giving others happiness.

This column is seeking the help of the women readers of The Plymouth Mail, members of church groups and women's clubs, and all the women of Plymouth to contribute dresses which they may sew themselves or buy for the Goodfellow Christmas dress fund.

Dresses may be for any age from 3 to 10 years. Cotton percales for school wear or woolen dresses will be most acceptable.

So let's get busy this week and send a dress to The Plymouth Mail office to make some child happy!

Rocks Defeat Ypsi.

Ypsilanti Central high school holds the cellar position in the Twin Valley football league today in typical loneliness and without dispute following a 25-0 Plymouth triumph at Ypsilanti, Wednesday afternoon.

Ypsilanti which has not won a football game for two years and has not secured a touchdown this season, allowed Plymouth to write its first seasonal win in the scoreboard Wednesday. Plymouth had played Dearborn and Wayne previously and lost to each in Twin Valley Athletic association games.

Plymouth scored in the first, second, and third quarters, and kept the play except for a minor spurt in the last period, continually past the Ypsilanti 40-yard marker.

Jack Baker scored the winning touchdown in the first period and a clinching touchdown in the second to win in the scoring honors. The first touchdown was a direct march from the kick-off down the field which required the time it takes to make three first downs.

Later in the second quarter, Bob Norman caught one of Ray Kearney's passes and ran twenty yards for Plymouth's third score. The last seven points in the third quarter were added by Jack Gettleson after another long touchdown march following the kick-off.

Plymouth's offensive play blossomed out especially in two departments: the forward pass and the end run. The Rocks completed six out of nine attempted forward passes, and gained a good share of their total yardage of 280 yards through the air. Although Jack Baker occupied his customary position as official line-backer, four other Plymouth backs stood out Wednesday. John Sequin, Warren Hoffman, Jack Gettleson, and Bob Norman all were able to make long gains. Plymouth's blocking appeared the best this year, especially on kicks after touchdown.

Before a number of second string players were introduced in the second half, Plymouth made most of her yardage. Eight of the 12 Plymouth first downs were scored in the first two periods, and 190 of their 280-yard total came before the half.

Ypsilanti, on the other hand, waited until the half to start its aggressive playing. She scored all four first downs and 56 of the total 66 yards in this half.

In the fourth period, Ypsilanti slashed at once to the Plymouth 10 yard line, only to have a fumble on the first down. This was the only overtime into Plymouth territory. Joe Britton, quarterback, took care of the Ypsilanti passing and kicking and did most of the running.

The referees and umpire were Foy and Wilson, both of Michigan Normal. The starting lineup was as follows:

Look, what thy soul holds dear, imagine it to lie that way, thou go'st, not whence thou com'st.—Shakespeare.

Properly managed, a small woodlot, like a large commercial forest, can yield a constant crop of wood for fuel, posts, lumber, and wild game. According to the national resources planning board this wood will rarely find its way into the regular markets for timber, and while it will not affect lumber prices, it will increase farm income considerably.

Home Economics

Home Economics club meets every Friday noon and has one social meeting each month at some girl's home. The following are officers: President, Ruth Hoystradt; vice president, Ruth Granger; secretary, Ione Stuart; and treasurer, Helen Bennett.

The club has chosen Ione Stuart and Gladys Davison as delegates to State Home Economics club meeting at Detroit October 25-26. Ruth Hoystradt and Josephine are also attending this state convention.

Some Home Making III girls and Industrial Arts boys have re-finished our old dining room furniture. Bill Herter, Bill Donahue and Hoyt Hessler worked on this project.

Home Making girls who had fifth period vacant went down to the Mayflower hotel on Wednesday to hear a very worthwhile program on frozen foods, sponsored by Mr. Groin of Purity Market.

Our employment bureau set up by home making III is helping fill several jobs. We have a long list of girls who wish to take care of children in the evening. Tell us about the job: we have the girl.

Three adult home making classes are meeting regularly on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings.

Vacation Trip

After seeing the stone face (The Old Man of the Mountain) in Vermont, Miss Lovewell and Mrs. Nancy Holroyd saw many of nature's awe-inspiring features in Canada and Nova Scotia last summer.

Probably the greatest highlight of their trip was the "Believe it or not: Magnetic Hill" at Moncton, New Brunswick. By driving your car to the bottom of the hill, turning off the switch and putting the gears in neutral, the magnetic force hidden in the hill attracts the car which increases speed as it is drawn to the top. Engineers from all over the world have sought the reason for this force, yet were unsuccessful. Miss Lovewell said, "I didn't believe it until I tried it myself!"

Also at Moncton is another prodigy of nature—the Boar Tide which reverses itself and comes in from the opposite direction.
Halifax, Nova Scotia, one of the oldest cities in Canada, shows the latest influence of the Arcadians of Longfellow's evangelism. This is a park maintained by the Canadian Pacific. In it is an Arcadian church and a statue of Evangeline. A companion statue of Longfellow is to be erected soon. "This is one of the reasons I state studying poetry," said Miss Lovewell, "because one really can feel the beauty when he knows the poem and then sees the background."

At one of the small fish towns on the Gaspe peninsula the teachers saw all types of transportation from the dock cart to the airplane. At this town the machete is laid upon the shores to dry. An outstanding feature of these fish towns, which appear every two miles or so, was the beautiful churches which closely resembled cathedrals.

From there they went to Quebec, Montreal, and Ottawa, the three cities of Canada, and also to Cadillac to see the quintuplets.

Boys' State

Following a pot luck dinner at the American Legion Hall, Orlyn Lewis, Bob Daniel and Bob Bowden related their experiences at the Wolverine Boys' State this summer.

Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion, is held at East Lansing on the Michigan State College campus. Bob Bowden, who held the office of city cop, explained the daily program. Bob Daniel, state representative, told of the workings of the Boys' State paper, the Wolverine Whirligig. Orlyn Lewis, justice of the peace, concluded the reports by explaining the political workings of the State. The three representatives of the Legion were introduced by Harold Anderson. George A. Smith commented on Boys' State upon the conclusion of the meeting.

Jim Zuckerman and Jack Baker, who were sent by the Rotary club, have reported to their sponsor.

RESERVE SQUAD WINS
Slater and Donahue scored the two touchdowns for the local reserve team when it defeated Ypsilanti at Plymouth by the score of 13-6. The game was played in the rain Monday, October 14.

Doris Lee is unusually interested in Ypsilanti. It can't just be because we play them in football, can it?

We wonder why Milton Humphries came to the Junior dance late, and alone. It couldn't be because Sally didn't like the last dance they went to, could it? Oh, well, Milton, you know some girls don't like this cave man stuff.

We hear that a certain girl hides the Pilgrim Prints page. Now is that nice?

Football Movies

Pictures, sponsored by the Mercury-Ford dealers, were shown in the high school auditorium Monday, October 21.

Since the pictures were about football, Coach Anthony Matulis gave a preview of them in an attempt to clarify the game and to stress the importance of good blocking in any football game.

The film was about the training of the Detroit Lions professional football team at Cranbrook School, Birmingham, Michigan, and a review of last year's games which the Lions played.

Good blocking was evident throughout all the pictures, proving without a doubt that good blocking is very important.

Have you taken out good government insurance yet? If not, you had better register soon for it so that you can later enjoy its many benefits. Taking out good government insurance consists only of voting in all elections. The premiums on good government insurance are small compared to the many dividends that you will receive. Voting in all elections and showing respect for the laws of our country are the only premiums you have to pay while the dividends are too numerous to mention.

We, as high school students, cannot as yet vote in the national, state, or local elections, but we can learn how to cast our ballots intelligently by voting in the school elections and the coming mock presidential elections. Although our mock election will have no direct bearing on who our next president will be, it will give us practice in voting intelligently. Those who have not registered had better do so immediately, and those who have registered, don't forget to vote. For only by voting can our good government insurance pay us dividends.

Varsity Club

The Varsity club had its first initiation in the high school gym Monday, October 14. The boys were put through all necessary steps in joining club. A three-day probation period was highlighted with boys coming to school in overalls and all trimmings. The boys initiated included Jack Butz, Jim Zuckerman, Jack Bickley, Bob O'Connor, Philip Kisabeth, Bob Kirkpatrick, George Evans and Eugene Nichols. There were many surprised faces when the club pulled old tricks with new angles, such as the old cracker trick with real eggs, and Jim Zuckerman falling on his face off a board he thought was an inch above floor. Was George Evans surprised when he learned he had to clean the mess the club had left?

New Instrument

Yes, it's happened! The band boasts a glockenspiel (chimes or "glocks" to you) played by Allen Owens. It was bought, along with a new baritone, by the money from the band fund about two weeks after school started. Mr. Evans remarked that anybody who knows how to play a piano is able to play the "glocks."

"A glock" is found in two forms, arranged on a lyre like the one possessed by the band, and in a box like that of the orchestra, (sometimes called orchestra bells). It used to be bells arranged on an iron bar but has gradually been replaced by bars because of the tone qualities.

School Cafeteria

The school cafeteria came out even in its finances for the month of September, the first time this has been true of any first month's finances in the history of the cafeteria, reports Mrs. Partridge, its able manager. Usually there is so much material to buy in getting things under way, and most things are bought in rather large quantities, that the report for September shows a deficit which is made up for when the purchased material is sold. But through even more careful buying, this last month's report showed no listing in the red. When one considers the variety of foods sold and the generous helpings, this is a real achievement for a beginning month. Miss Lundin, head of the home economics department, believes the increased enrollment has added materially to sales of food, and has thus helped her department to make so good a showing.

Assembly

Having heard complaints from junior high students about the lack of assemblies, the assembly committee of the Student Council presented a program of songs, dramatic readings, and a play, last Thursday, October 17, in the high school gym.

Lois Ridley, high school sophomore, sang "In Between." Calvin Furlong then gave three interesting readings—two in Negro dialect, and one in Italian. The Senior Drama Club presented a comedy, "The Perfect Gentleman." The cast included Bruce McAllister, Phyllis Nichols, Pat Mason, Ruth Drews, and Charles Bowdler.

Inspirations

News item: "Early American Indians were Communists."
Yes, and so is the tribe down Cleveland way.

Also in the realm of sports is the question, whether Harmon will win the big ten championship, or not.

Having made a hasty poll after the President's conscription speech, we find the New Dealers will call it an "over the coffee chat" while the Republicans will refer to him as "The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table."

Well, well, so Michigan has switched to Wilkie. The odds are now 99 to 1 for Roosevelt instead of a 100 to 1.

What scientists can't do now that they've eliminated door-knobs from automobiles, we wonder if they won't eliminate that nut behind the wheel.

Trends in music: Forty years ago it was Tschaiakowsky and Beethoven; now it is Tschaiakowsky and Berlin.

They say Du Barry was a lady; perhaps someone will come to the same conclusion about Lepescu. Ironies of war: German and French manufacturers exchanged war supplies all during the battle of France: Britain attacks French Dakar while France bombs British Gibraltar; American war-mongers of last year are today's foremost patriots.

We have the Hatch Act to take the politics out of politics. How about an act to take the slaughter out of war.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Houseman and daughter, June, were Saturday night dinner guests of the Matt Waldeckers. For the week-end, they had their granddaughter, Virginia Waldecker and on Monday they spent the day at their son's, Mr. and Mrs. John Waldecker of South Lyon.

Thinclads Win

Plymouth won its second cross-country meet in a row when it defeated Ypsilanti, 39 to 20. Kirkpatrick, who was first, was clocked at 10:51, followed by Dusobor of Ypsilanti, O'Conner, Christensen, and Trick took the next three places, with Ellis taking sixth place. Robelli was placed seventh, followed by another Ypsi lad, Goss. Hessler and Butler of Plymouth were trailed by Schutte of Ypsilanti.

The reason for the faster time was that the Ypsilanti course is comprised of two race tracks, or about ten feet above the other on an embankment, on which the teams alternated. This is the first meet held away from home this year. It is interesting to note that Plymouth has taken first place in every meet held this year.

The Student Council is sponsoring a school movie to be presented as a paid assembly. Mr. Evans is chairman of the committee and Miss Fiegel and the camera club will assist him. They will take pictures of activities occurring in the high school and perhaps in the grade schools. The assembly will be a paid one to reimburse the Student Council for the cost of the film.

Townsend Bill to Get Hearing

The Plymouth Townsend club reports an announcement this week by Senator Sheridan Downey of California that the senate finance committee will hold a hearing on the new Townsend Plan bill under the auspices of a special sub-committee headed by Senator Walter F. George, Georgia Democrat when the Senate convenes for the regular session January 3, 1941.

Local Townsendsites and friends will meet at Kellogg park Sunday, October 27, at 1:30 o'clock for a trip to the Pontiac Methodist Episcopal church for a mass meeting commemorating the founding of the first Townsend club on that date in 1934. The Rev. and Mrs. George E. Gullen of Detroit and the Rev. Otto P. Schleicher of Pontiac will speak at the meeting.

Next Monday at 7:30 p.m. the local club will hold another of its social evenings with refreshments at the Grange hall. The public is welcome to attend.

Observe National Girl Scout Week

Exhibits, banquets and parties will be held throughout the country October 27 to November 1 when National Girl Scout week will be observed by 617,000 members. Girl Scouts are pictured above demonstrating some of the activities which make the organization so popular. Good citizenship is exemplified by the service members are always willing to give to their home, community and country. Four other girls are busy at their work-table, learning to fashion objects of beauty. Scouting is always associated with outdoor life, and one girl is shown calling to her friends to "come out and enjoy the view." October 31 is the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting in the United States.

OLD BILL says "Here's what I think—"

"I have been watching, closely, the affairs of our state for twenty years. Yes, in all that time there has never been a governor so determined to do the right thing for the people as Luren D. Dickinson. He has been as firm as a rock. His forthrightness has been amazing. In making decisions Governor Dickinson seriously and earnestly considers every side of every problem with a single thought—'What is best for the people?' Having made up his mind he drives a straight, clean furrow to his goal. No politician, no influence, can shunt him off the course.

"Without fanfare or hullabaloo Governor Dickinson has put every state department to work. He has ordered expenditures cut, and they are being cut. He is boring steadily into the towering deficit left by the previous New Deal administration.

"A governor, to deserve the office, must appreciate that 'all' the people are a part of Michigan. Some of the governors of the past seemed to think that certain groups were the whole state. Governor Dickinson has the fine faculty of recognizing his responsibility to every man, woman and child.

"No man ever had greater sympathy for labor. He wants workmen and women to have jobs, at good pay and with decent hours. He wants them to have good homes, and good living. He has worked hard to keep men employed, and to smooth out disputes. Honest labor will get fat pay envelopes as long as Governor Dickinson has anything to say about it.

"In Governor Dickinson's administration there has been none of the fantastic experiments which discouraged business and industry and decreased employment. He wants labor to work, and prosper.

"The incumbent governor is a farmer, and he knows the problems of the farmer. He is the kind of a farmer who gets in the fields and works, and who earns a living from the land.

"He is a taxpayer, and he wants taxes reduced wherever possible. We don't have to worry about taxes being increased under Governor Dickinson. His philosophy of government is to eliminate extravagances so we may have ample funds to care for the needy and the aged, and still give those who must pay the bill a chance to keep their heads above water.

"The biggest items in Governor Dickinson's program for the conduct of state government are honesty and uprightness. They cover a lot of ground. They just about sum up everything that is necessary to good government. As I see it, we can feel very safe with the steady hand of a man like that at the helm.

"Let's finish the job on Nov. 5!"

High School Boys Modernize Old Trick of Floating Names in Bottle

If you see an armada of balloons flying over Plymouth next week, don't be alarmed, for it won't be an invasion by the Men of Mars or even Jean Picard on a test flight into the stratosphere.

Two high school boys, Jack Kenyon and Edward Strong, have taken up a hobby of sending up gas-filled toy balloons which promises to become a popular sport at the high school.

Young Kenyon, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Kenyon, 2036 West Ann Arbor Trail, who is credited with starting the idea here, received word that a balloon he released September has been found in a corn field near London, Ontario, about 200 miles from its starting point. A slip of paper with Jack's name and return address attached to the balloon brought a reply from Maurice Newren, a French Canadian, of South Woodlee, Maidstone township, Ontario. The letter was written in poor English with a few words spelled in the French style such as "lettre" and "adresse."

The young experimenter who is greatly interested in chemistry obtained the formula for hydrogen from his brother, Bob, who is studying at the Edison Institute of Technology. He chips zinc up into small pieces which he puts in the penny toy balloon. He then puts some muriatic acid in a bottle over which he places the neck of the balloon. Tying the balloon tightly around the bottle he mixes the zinc and the acid together, the two in contact forming hydrogen. He then attaches a typewritten slip with his name and address to the string around the balloon and sends it up. In the last six weeks since his first successful try, he has sent up 30 balloons.

Ed Strong, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Strong, 251 Auburn avenue, says he got his idea from Jack but used the formula for hydrogen which he learned in science class at high school. On October 1 at a meeting of the Science club he sent his first balloon up, and he has received two answers from the ten balloons sent up since the first of the month. One was from W. H. Welch in Inkster who found the balloon on Middle Bell road between Cherry Hill and Michigan avenue. His reply indicated that the balloon had been trailing through a bush. Another was reported found on a farm near Bascom, Ohio, a distance of about 110 miles from here.

Now the boys along with many new followers will vie for long distance records for their balloon flights.

MAKE HIM PAY AND PAY.

Every edition of every daily newspaper carries dispatches from Europe which tell of the destruction by German planes of homes, buildings, churches, hospitals and factories. Hundreds of people, chiefly women and children, who are taking no part in the war have been killed. They have been forced to suffer more than have the victims of any previous war ever fought in the history of the world.

But one person is responsible for all of this despair—and that person is Hitler. A picture magazine recently showed him dancing in glee as he was told of "victories" in the air. Only a madman can laugh at the suffering and despair of humanity, and Hitler must surely be a crazed dictator. His own people do not dare rise up against him because they know to oppose his will means death on the beheading machine—but some day this thing is going to end, and if right makes might, Hitler MUST lose.

Then civilization should see to it that Hitler is compelled to restore just as far as possible all the damage that he has caused. There is no way to compensate for the suffering and horror that has accompanied his war of hate, but there is a way to make him restore at least some of the damage that he has done. Unfortunately the present generation will not live long enough to see complete compensation for the terrible things that have been done.

"LEADER OR MASTER"

There appeared in the last issue of the Farm Journal and Farmer's Wife magazine an editorial that has to do with the major issue of the present national campaign. It is entitled "Leader or Master" and so clearly defines the problem confronting the voters of America that it is published in full, as follows:

"Your vote this coming election day will be the most important you have ever deposited in a ballot box.

"With you, and with your fellow voters in country and city, will rest a multitude of grave decisions fateful for America. You will have just one chance to express your preference. That will be when you mark your ballot.

"Whatever choice the majority makes will be the law of the land. All of us must and will abide by it.

"We hope every citizen will vote. We hope every vote will be cast with a full understanding of the question to be determined on that Tuesday.

"The ballots of American citizens, free and equal at the polls for a century and a half, will decide November 5 whether the American way of life shall be continued, or changed.

"With all the ups and downs we have shared in this nation, we think the American way is a good way, the best way. It has produced for the average American family three times as much of goods and welfare as the dictator states have produced.

"This is no ordinary political fight between parties for the right to manage public affairs. It is a struggle between representative government as we have long known it in America, and the discredited totalitarian ways of Europe.

"That is not too blunt. On one side are all the little dictators now functioning here. They are lined up together—Hague of New Jersey, Kelly of Chicago, Pendergast of Kansas City, Guffey of Pennsylvania. Side by side with them are the cunning Corcorans and Cohens and their kind who behind the scenes have maneuvered for seven and a half years under cover to enlarge executive power. At the head, after riding roughshod over the Chicago convention to perpetuate his power, stands their master.

"Do Americans want a master? Is that your choice?"

"Four years ago Mr. Roosevelt said that certain groups had in his first term met their match and in his second would meet their master. By 'certain groups' he meant every one. 'Steadily new powers have been built up in the executive hands. Not one of these has been returned at any time to Congress or to the people. Freedom of action has been limited by taxation, by regulation, by restriction. Behind the White House doors are more clubs of power that have not been used—powers over industry and thus over labor, both of which are linked with agriculture.

"Now the National Guard is called to federal service. The last line of defense for state rights is gone. A conscript army is about to be called.

"The people's decision will be final. If they want a master, Franklin D. Roosevelt is their man. He would probably be as kind and benevolent a master as any.

"But once the people decide to have a master, there is no way of turning back nor fighting back. Except by revolution—difficult when facing bombers and tanks—they can not hope to retrieve their powers and their liberties.

"If we want to follow the ways of Europe, and live under some form of totalitarianism, we have that choice.

"We can have the totalitarian way under Mr. Roosevelt.

"Under Mr. Willkie we can regain representative government, the kind under which the nation has flourished. With it we can have the freedoms and liberties which are the essence of America.

Those who believe in the principles of either the Democratic or the Republican parties will alike cast their votes for Mr. Willkie.

"Anxious and willing for the mandate to be master is Mr. Roosevelt.

"Prepared to be a leader and public servant is Wendell Willkie.

The decision is yours to make on November 5.

NOT THE AMERICAN WAY.

Senator Hiram Johnson of California who supported President Roosevelt when he first ran for the presidency and again when he sought the second term, declares that Roosevelt's ambition to continue as President constitutes the greatest danger this country ever faced. In a recent radio address he appealed to American citizens to reject the third term and save America for Americans, free of political dictatorship.

He said that the third term "presents in greater degree than a flaming war, with its cruel destruction of peaceful nations, a crisis purely American."

"This is the greater crisis, and perhaps is more far reaching than any other, for it may mean the preservation of the last fortress of democracy on this earth," asserted the veteran California Progressive, who supported Mr. Roosevelt in 1932 because of his progressive views but who broke with him on the Supreme Court expansion plan and his foreign policy.

In denouncing the President's third term candidacy and assailing him for "arrogating" powers to himself, Johnson praised the fight being made by Wendell Willkie and Senator Charles L. McNary and declared that they "are eternally right upon the great issue" of the third term.

Johnson charged the President's followers with whipping up "a war scare and a war hysteria" to bring about his third term nomination at the Democratic convention. They whispered about changing horses in the middle of the stream "and then the indispensable man was born," he said, adding:

"I may add, parenthetically, that Americans have very little use for the indispensable man, and when it was found how little use he was to those who created him, he gradually retired from the picture and the crisis."

Saying he had reached his allotted span of life, Johnson added, that he spoke neither as a Democrat, nor Republican nor Progressive, but as an American, who wants to "preserve that which has been most dear to me in life—my independence and my country's weal."

Johnson cited the two term precedents from the time of George Washington down to President Roosevelt and said "all the forebodings of Washington, Jefferson and Jackson are fulfilled and justified.

"No longer need we consider what may happen—what is certain to happen is obvious if a President sees fit to destroy this great tradition and custom," he asserted. "If he sees fit to increase his term four years, he can increase it eight, or 16, and finally, as Jefferson once remarked, the whole presidential office becomes but an inheritance."

Calling on his listeners to consider the power President Roosevelt now has, Johnson said "he has arrogated to himself the right to the purse of the nation" and added that through his boards and commissions the President "deals with nearly all the problems of life, and enforces his will alone concerning them."

He accused the President of "love of place and prominence, of adulation and power" and that his "friends and sycophants" constantly assure their chief "that the public good demands that he should not desert the ship."

History, he said, was full of such instances, and he added:

"It is this sort of sweet music that is the curse of kings." The senator quoted Raymond Moley, former New Dealer, in saying that the Roosevelt administration was highlighted by the words, "must," "pack," "purge" and "perpetuate."

He said in the "fog of hysteria" it had been difficult to think soberly or well, adding that during the New Deal the American way had been forgotten for "a promised security, unearned and easy."

"May I say—that is not the American way," he said. "Our country was not founded upon those ideas, but by striving and toiling and saving and building—a unity among men with a definite goal—America."

IF HITLER WINS
A trade arrangement has been proposed that would hold for the Western Hemisphere the trade of the Western Hemisphere in the event Hitler defeats England. It won't work. Nothing the United States can do will hold the trade of South America if Hitler is allowed to win the war. He will set up a barter system by which he will trade German manufactured products for South American food stuffs. He will have the advantage of the United States because South America exports food stuffs the same as the United States and will welcome an opportunity to buy her industrial needs with her surplus food products. When the question is one of standing by the Western Hemisphere or a more advantageous trade, the odds are definitely on the side of the best trade.—George O. St. Charles in The Dearborn Independent.

THE MISTAKES OF HOOVER
An inspired piece from one of the New Deal propagandists says that "Hoover was a complete failure." So he was. He failed in a lot of things. He failed to draw out his salary of $75,000 a year while he was the president, turning it all back into the Treasury. He failed to have his sons organize insurance companies to write insurance on government enterprises. He built a Rapidan resort for fishing and recreation at his own expense, and gave it to the government. None of his sons went racing through the divorce courts, to the disillusionment of the public. He never bundled up a lot of government documents to sell as a book to the faithful, at a huge profit to himself, and he never sold himself into political slavery to a labor organization for a half million dollar campaign fund. He gathered a marvelous collection of war stuff and built a museum for it and failed to ask Congress to pay the bill. He paid it himself. He did not preach and promote class hatred, and he did not try to pack the Supreme Court. He did not plow up every third row of cotton, and he did not promise the American people one thing while at the very same moment doing everything to accomplish the directly opposite result.

He did not ask Congress to assess the tax payers billions of dollars every time some one shot off a firecracker in Europe, and he did not go on fishing trips on government warships, accompanied by a fleet of destroyers.

Neither did he kill off all the farmers' little pigs, nor encourage the importation of Argentine beef.

In fact, there were a lot of foolish things that Mr. Hoover did not do that some other people have done. There are a lot of constructive things that he could have done if he had not had the opposition of a Democratic Congress. But, anyway, he did not leave the American people forty-five billion dollars in debt.

Mrs. Hoover never made speeches, or raced hither and yon on unimportant matters. She never wrote silly drivel on her everyday life and sold it to the newspapers, and she never sold soap over the radio. Her only appearance in public was as the honorary member of the Girl Scouts of America. She never invited Communist youth to the White House as her guests.—Wallace (Idaho) Weekly Miner.

HOW TRUE!

Life is just one tank full of gasoline after another.—L. J. Jefferies in The Lowell Ledger.

NEEDS ATTENTION

That the voters of Michigan are wedded to the primary system is evident to everyone who is at all familiar with public opinion. Preliminary conventions, with delegates honestly selected, people who are really representative of the best in their party might be utilized to bring forth good results both in reducing the list of candidates to the really worth while aspirants and in reducing the primary ballot. Suppose, for instance, for each county office each party placed on the ballot the names of the three persons receiving the largest number of convention votes. Wouldn't this be helpful? We think that it would.

At any rate, our citizens as well as our legislators, should give serious attention to the problem of separation of national and state politics and local politics, which in a broad sense have little to do with real political issues, and the possibility of securing the boon of a shorter ballot in both primary and regular elections.—James Smith in The Muskegon Observer.
