New Resident Imports Nuts From Tennessee

Some of the first nuts of the season were brought to Plymouth by W. T. Grimus, 609 Karamada street, who moved here last week from western Tennessee.

Large river-bottom hickory nuts, they are of the hard head and big scaly variety. Grimus moved here to be with his two daughters and three sons who are employed in Plymouth.

Auxiliary Plans for Bazaar

"The word 'crisis' is over-worked today," said Mrs. Leslie Daniel in her book review before the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary Wednesday. "But it is a word one must use in discussing China today. Strangely enough, the Chinese word for crisis is made up of two characters which, when translated literally, mean 'dangerous opportunity.' It was the book 'Dangerous Opportunity' which Mrs. Daniel so capably reviewed. Written by Earl Ballou, who has been an American worker in China since 1916, it discusses the Chinese and their Japanese invaders. It is interesting to note that the Japanese refer to their invasion of China only as 'The Incident.'

Mrs. Cadot was chairman of the meeting, and Mrs. Russell Roe had charge of the devotions.

Auxiliary members are busy with plans for the annual bazaar, to be held Wednesday, November 27, in the basement of the church. Mrs. Vaughan Smith, head of the service committee, announced the names of those in charge of various phases of the event. A luncheon, to be served Wednesday, beginning at 11 a.m. and throughout the noon hour, will be in charge of Circle 3 ladies, headed by Mrs. Van Hale, Circle 1, led by Mrs. William Kaiser, and 2, led by Mrs. Henry Hondorp, will serve the dinner at night, serving at 5:30 until all are served. The luncheon, dinner, and booths are all open to the public. Booths will be open all afternoon and evening. Mrs. J. H. Gordon will have charge of the fancy work booth, Mrs. J. Wells of the baked goods, Mrs. Jack McAllister of the candy, and Mrs. Gus Gates of the vegetables. In addition there will be a miscellaneuous booth, selling household supplies.

City Manager Speaks Before Women Voters

Mrs. James E. Sessions Is Named Acting President of League

The League of Women Voters heard a discussion of the city manager type of government by C. H. Elliott, city manager of Plymouth, and also named Mrs. James E. Sessions acting president of the league at its meeting last Friday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Mills. Mrs. Sessions replaces Mrs. Bruce Woodbury who resigned her post last week.

Emphasizing the necessity for a sense of responsibility and constant planning and organization on the part of the city manager, Mr. Elliott listed future needs of the city of Plymouth as contained in the city's annual report this year.

The annual report was the basis for the entire program, "Know Your Town" of which Mrs. Walter Hammond was general chairman. Reports were given by Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple on a statistical analysis of the election in Plymouth and a detailed account of the work of the local police department; Mrs. Howard Stark on food stamps issued by the government to WPA workers; Mrs. Maurice Woodworth on government and foreign relations; Mrs. Ada Murray on the legal status of women of the league; and Mrs. S. S. Closson read a report prepared by Mrs. Sidney Strong on the need for new schools.

Mrs. J. M. Bloxson Gives Bean Dish Preparation For Two-Day Meals

Mrs. John M. Bloxson with her five-year-old twin sons, Tommy and Billy, her daughter, Kathleen, 10, and Pat, 3, who is very much a member of the Bloxson family.

A preparation which provides meals for two days is offered by Mrs. J. M. Bloxson this week. Very often on Friday afternoon of a busy week, Mrs. Bloxson cooks a large quantity of beans, using half for a bean soup recipe, and the remainder for baked beans for Saturday's lunch. Both recipes follow:

Bean Soup
2 lbs. Great Northern beans
1 lb. sweet pickled pork.
2 medium onions
1 cup diced celery
Seasoning to taste

"Dice half of the pork, and fry until brown and crisp with the onions. Cover the beans with cold water, add a teaspoon of soda, and bring to a boil. Drain, rinsing with hot water, and add to the crisp pork. Cover with water and add celery and seasoning. Simmer until the beans are soft. Remove half of the beans into a baking dish to bake for the next day. Mash the remaining beans for the soup, adding water if necessary. Blend one tablespoonful of flour with one tablespoonful of butter, and add to the beans to thicken slightly."

With the bean soup, Mrs. Bloxson serves toasted crackers and whole wheat bread, a salad of hearts of lettuce and sliced hard-boiled eggs with mayonnaise dressing.

"For the baked bean dish, cover the bottom of a casserole with a layer of beans, sprinkle with powdered mustard, additional salt if needed, and a pinch of brown sugar. Add a slice of pork on top of the layer, and add similar layers until the casserole is filled. Bake at 350 degrees for two hours."

"Serve the baked beans," says Mrs. Bloxson, "with crisp bacon slices and chili sauce. Carrot strips and celery curls and a simple fruit dessert complete the luncheon."

One of the Bloxson family's favorite dinner menus includes the following:

Dinner Menu
Ham Loaf
Au gratin potatoes
Buttered Green Beans or Broccoli
Tomato Aspic Salad
Corn Muffins
Orange Cream Cake
Orange Sherbet
Milk and Coffee

Ham Loaf
1 lb. uncooked smoked ham
1/2 lb. uncooked lean pork
1/2 cup bread or cracker crumbs
1/2 cup sweet milk
1 egg
2 tablespoonsful chopped onion
2 tablespoonsful green pepper
1 teaspoonful salt

"Mix all ingredients thoroughly and shape into a loaf. Top with a paste made with a few cracker crumbs and a little milk. Bake in a 375-degree oven about one and one-fourth hours," directs Mrs. Bloxson. This recipe serves six.

Tomato Aspic Salad
1 package of strawberry gelatin
2 cupfuls of tomato juice
2 teaspoonful prepared horseradish
1 teaspoonful grated onion
1/2 teaspoonful salt

"Dissolve the gelatin in one cup of tomato juice, which has been heated to boiling. Add remaining cup of juice and other ingredients, cool, and turn into individual ring molds. When firm, unmold on lettuce, fill center with seasoned cottage cheese. Add mayonnaise if desired. Serves six."

Orange Sherbet
1 cup sugar
2 1/2 cups milk
2 eggs beaten separately
Juice of one orange and one lemon.

"Mix sugar and milk thoroughly, add egg yolks, and then juice. Place in refrigerator tray and freeze to mush. Then fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Return to tray and freeze. This sherbet, which serves six, improves with standing," says Mrs. Bloxson.

Orange Cream Cake
"Bake in two layers your favorite white butter, or sponge cake, and use the following filling and icing," directs Mrs. Bloxson.

2 tablespoonful cornstarch
2 tablespoonful flour
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup boiling water
1 tablespoonful butter
2 egg yolks beaten
Grated rind of one orange
3 tablespoonful orange juice
1 tablespoonful lemon juice
1 tablespoonful gelatin
1 cup whipping cream

"Sift cornstarch, flour, and sugar. Add to boiling water in double boiler, stirring constantly. Cook for 20 minutes, add butter, and beat the whole into the egg yolks. Cool and add the stiffly beaten cream, fruit juices and rind. Place in the refrigerator for one hour before spreading between cake layers. Ice over the top and sides with orange icing made with the following ingredients:

Grated rind of one orange
3 tablespoonful orange juice

Woman's Club Meets Friday

A book review, singers in costume, and an exhibit of various articles typical of the early 1900's will feature Friday's meeting of the Plymouth Woman's club.

This program is another of the group of meetings being presented by members of the organization. Mrs. Anthony Matulis will review "The Good Old Days" by Chon; Mrs. Maxwell Moon and Mrs. William S. Bake will sing songs of the period, and all club members are invited to take part in the exhibit by bringing any articles of this period they may have at home. Articles of clothing, books, music, and household items which would make an interesting display.

Mrs. C. J. Dykhouse, chairman of this meeting, is organizing the display and will be assisted by the committee for the day which includes Mrs. C. M. Bentley, Mrs. Russell Daane, Mrs. Gustav H. Enns, Miss Grace Henderson, Mrs. Lucella Partridge, Mrs. William T. Pettingill, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Robert Willoughby, and associate member, Mrs. Edson O. Huston.

The next meeting of the Woman's club chorus will be held Wednesday morning, November 27, at 9:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. C. Weed, 392 South Harvey street. Any club members wishing to join the chorus are urged to be present at this next meeting, as this will be the last opportunity for them to join the group this year.

"Dangerous Ideas" Armistice Subject

"Dangerous Ideas" was the subject of the Armistice day address by Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple at the banquet of the Ex-Service Men's club held at the Presbyterian church Monday night.

"Democracy is dead," "My vote doesn't count," "Europe is always fighting. This war is no different from the others," "We don't need to worry over this,"

These were some of the ideas labeled "dangerous" by the mayor in a speech before an audience of about 200 persons. Citing the forces of the vote in the recent election, Mrs. Whipple answered the charges that democracy is a failure, slow, and inefficient.

It may be slow, but it guarantees individual liberty, the Bill of Rights, right to hold private property, and guarantees justice more than any other system," said the speaker quoting W. K. Kellogg of The Detroit News.

Mrs. Whipple claimed that this war is singular in that thousands of civilians have been killed in a war which knows no distinctions. Disclaiming that we need have no fears over here, she cited reports of Nazi penetration in South America, Nazi control of bases near the Panama Canal, the net of Nazi agents throughout the world, and the effect of enforcing the Monroe Doctrine in event the Nazis capture Canada.

"Dr. Frank Bann, has said that this is a major device of undermining the confidence of the people in their government," she continued. "To say that all politicians are either crooks or morons." Claiming that dangerous ideas are taking root in conditions in the United States, the speaker deplored the arousing and formal organization of race prejudices.

Two flags and standards, one of the Stars and Stripes and the other the post colors, were presented as a gift from the ladies auxiliary to the Ex-Service Men's club by Mrs. Whipple.

Reviewing the organization's history, Mrs. Whipple recalled that the club was formed in 1924 on the green in front of the city hall. At that time there was no other organization of men who had been in uniform. The GAR had disbanded in Plymouth, giving their Eddy post flag and members to the Ex-Service men. Sidney Spring, then city manager, was cited as the originator of the idea to form the club. An organization for every man who ever wore this country's uniform, the Ex-Service Men's club is practiced on community service and active citizenship.

Charter members of the club are Harry Mumby, Harry Brown, Leo Sackett, Irving Blunk, Carl Blake and Howard Eckles.

Windstorm Damages
Roofs, Garages
An estimated $500 worth of damage was reported in Plymouth as a result of the most sweeping windstorm in recent years for the month of November last Monday night.

Complaints poured into insurance offices Tuesday and Wednesday of broken garage doors, windows, and roofing shingles.

The west side of the roof caving on Ernest Allison's Chevrolet Motor Sales building on South Main street was blown down, and the garage doors of the Arthur Blunk garage were damaged.

Several cars were reported swept off the highways and abandoned between here and Ann Arbor and Detroit. In the gale that reached a wind velocity of 30 miles an hour in some parts of the state.

Wins A Bet, He Gets Free Shave
Election bets.
There have been many prize bets made and paid around the country as the result of the recent election—but the best of them all was probably right here in Plymouth!

It was "paid in full" the other day when William Garrett, better known as "Bill The Barber," gave Harry Hunter a good, old fashioned shave, right under the traffic light at the corner of Main and Penniman.

Yes sir, it was necessary for the traffic cops to detour traffic around the big event witnessed by scores and scores of folks. Bill moved down a barber chair, he whet up his razor, and he carried down a big mug of lather.

And what a shave he gave Harry!

"Anyway the bet was worth it. The country would be better off if I had won" declared Bill as he picked up his crutches and hobbled back to his barber shop up over the Kaiser and Bartlett store.

When the man reads the funnies while the woman smokes a cigarette, they're married.

Strong Speaks on City Planning

Friday, November 8 was given over to the service program at the Plymouth Rotary club. The speaker was Sidney D. Strong, a member of the city planning commission and a Rotarian.

"City planning is a legal way of providing for and guiding the physical development of a city in a manner desired by its citizens," declared Mr. Strong.

"In this and in other phases of civic improvement, America has lagged behind Europe. Planning is old there, but, especially in ancient times, was on a different basis, with towns being planned and built by rulers for a special purpose, of a predetermined size, and mostly at one time. Rome and Athens were examples of this. In old New England, in colonial times, planning was confined to the common or village center, around which stood various public buildings. The city of Washington is the outstanding example of American planning for a purpose, in this case, to make that city outstanding as the capital of the country. Washington is still being developed along the original lines laid out in the time of our first president.

"Modern planning progress is a matter of 30 years' growth. Then, there were no zoning ordinances. Now there are more than a thousand zoned cities, several hundred comprehensive working city plans, nearly a hundred county plans, and even several states which are considering the matter in its state-wide aspects."

Mr. Strong explained that the Michigan enabling act of 1921 was the basis for the Plymouth planning ordinance of February, 1932. Nine members of the local planning commission have been working since then on the various phases of this program in our city, said the speaker.

"The zoning ordinance was passed in November, 1939, and an appeal board then was appointed to handle complaints against the working of the zoning plan. Besides the zoning ordinance, the planning commission has made recommendations concerning street widths, civic center, future parks, and school sites, which have been adopted by the city commission. In this work the consultant has been T. Glenn Phillips, who has had many years of experience in city planning. This has made it probable that Plymouth has escaped many of the legal pitfalls which have tripped up zoning laws in other places," Mr. Strong continued.

The speaker showed how the operation of the zoning restrictions actually works to stabilize the use and value of properties, by preventing the introduction of uses which would tend to tear down values built up through the years. He also pointed out that the zoning ordinance is, more than most municipal ordinances, a "people's ordinance," which it is possible to change on proper occasion.

Eleven Volunteers Enlist for Army

30, 1941, as established by the War Department is 77,223. The total credits for men already in the armed forces, exclusive of the Michigan National Guard were fixed at 22,286, and the credits for men now in the National Guard total 7,653. The remainder of men to be raised by June 30 of next year in the state is 57,282.

The governor also notified local board No. 61 that its gross quota will be 426 men, with a credit of 151 men now in army service, leaving a net quota of 275 men to be raised locally by June 30, 1941. The quotas for each local board have been tentatively established on the basis of the proportion that the number of total registrants in the board bears to the number of registrants in Michigan.

Following the first call for men which will be issued next Wednesday, November 20, there will be a small additional list called November 28 and 29. The second call starts December 3.

Air Raid Disturbs Dinner Hour

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Nichol have just received another letter from their son, David, who was recently sent to Berlin as correspondent of the Chicago Daily News. It required over a month for the letter to come to this country from Berlin. Its trip to the United States was via South America. The day before he sent the letter he apparently experienced one of the bombings being given Berlin by England as he related of his hurry in leaving the dinner table on the previous evening to get to a bomb shelter across the street from where he was having dinner. The letter bore the stamp of the German censor.

legislature when he sought the fourth term.

Senator James Couzens served 15 years, sought the third term and lost. His extra three years in the senate was due to the fact that he was appointed to fill out the unexpired term of Truman H. Newberry.

Julius C. Burrows of Kalamazoo served 18 years, but four years of this was due to appointment. He sought the third term and was defeated in Michigan's first primary election for the direct nomination of United States senators.

Michigan has had five senators who served two full terms, including William Alden Smith of Grand Rapids, who retired at the end of his twelfth year of service. The most of them served but one term of six years. Michigan voters, as demonstrated in elections of state officials as well as members of congress, are not enthusiastic about long tenure in office for public officials and the votes both President Roosevelt and Senator Vandenberg received in the recent election is outstanding in Michigan history.

Game Violators Pay Heavy Fines

Hunters, spaces behind spare tires and beneath car hoods, dinner buckets, bags of apples and hunters' pockets have disgorged illegal game during the closing days of the bird season as conservation officers established blockades on heavily-traveled highways in the southeastern section of the state.

A blockade of US-112 in Lenawee county netted six hen pheasants, three quail and six Hungarian partridge, and resulted in 11 arrests, the assessing of $305 in fines, $75 in costs and imposition of alternate jail sentences totaling 375 days. An estimated 1,200 hunters' cars and equipment were checked. A similar blockade in the Detroit area, during which 4,819 cars and 12,310 hunters were stopped, resulted in 11 arrests for possession of hen pheasants illegally shot and 25 arrests on miscellaneous game law violation charges.

Scout Officials Reorganize Group

Officers elected at the annual business meeting of the Plymouth district of the Detroit area council, Boy Scouts of America, include C.E. Elliott, chairman; R.J. MacLachlan of Plymouth, and Austin VanHove of Northville, vice-chairman. Members at large include Paul Cartier, Harold White, Robert Leary, Rev. Howard R. Chapman, and William H. Canfield from Northville; Irving Benson from Rosedale Gardens, and E. R. Eaton, C. G. Shear, George Burr, Charles Wolfe, J.C. Gill, and Frederick Vanlandingham of Plymouth.

These men will act with the troop members of the committee to head up Scout activities in this area. The troop representatives as given in the current troop charters are: City Manager C. H. Elliott, P-1; W. E. Vanderson, P-2; B. E. Champe, P-3; Dr. E. A. Rice, P-4; Charles A. Schulte, N-1; Dr. T. G. Hegge, N-2; C. E. Elliott, N-3; M. G. O'Neil, N-4; H. B. Smith, N-6; Robert Leary, N-7; H. Paul Harsha, RG-1; Bradford D. Gallup, Pm-1; Alan V. Strong, Stark; George A. Smith and R.H. Armstrong, schools.

The election represented a reorganization of the district committee which has not functioned for several years. Since last Spring C. E. Elliott of the Wayne County Training school has acted as district chairman, and has been working with G. E. Silver, field executive of Detroit, and with local Scouters to put this valuable Scouting committee back in working order.

After the election of officers and members at large, the committee heard reports from the field commissioner and field executive and laid some plans for future action. This district committee meets only four times a year, but its executive board, made up of officers and standing committee chairmen, will meet monthly.

Scout leaders hope that this reorganization will work for the better development of Scouting in the communities, encouraging boys in their program and making that program better known to the boys' elders.

Notice To Property Owners Revision Of Zoning Ordinance

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held at the City Hall on Monday evening, December 2, 1940, at 7:30 p. m. in the Commission Chamber.

The said hearing will be held to determine whether or not the N. W. 1/4 of Sec. 35 shall be changed from Class A and B Residence property and Local Business property to Industrial property. This property is also described as: Beginning at the intersection of Golden Road (US 12) and Mill Street (Lilley Road) thence northerly 1,320 feet; thence westerly 1,320 feet; thence southerly 1,320 feet; thence easterly 1,320 feet to the point of beginning.

Ample opportunity will be given for all to participate in such hearing and to criticize the plan. The immediate property owners are urged to be present. This hearing is ordered by the City Commission under the authority given to them under the Michigan Enabling Act.

Orville Bennett Weds Josephine Picking

Miss Josephine Picking, daughter of Mrs. Charles N. Wyman, of Meadow Brook Farm, Rochester, Michigan, and Orville A. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Bennett, of Newburg, spoke their marriage vows, Sunday at 1:00 p. m. at the Newburg Methodist church, the Rev. Robert M. Treony officiating.

The bride wore a dress of cocoa brown except dark brown jacket trimmed in fur, with dark brown accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds and white baby chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Lester J. Bassett was the bride's only attendant. She wore a gown of green wool, and her corsage was of red roses and white baby chrysanthemums.

Lester J. Bassett was best man. A reception followed at Adams Road, Rochester, with 42 guests from Detroit, Wayne, Plymouth, Newburg, Lake Orion, Pontiac, and Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will make their home in Newburg.

Auto Executive Believed Suicide

A man found dead in his car Monday afternoon in west of Sheldon road was identified as George M. Davis, business manager of the Chevrolet Motor company for the Detroit retail zone, who, it is believed, took his own life.

Davis' body was discovered at 2:45 o'clock slumped over the steering wheel of his car by Earl Marston, of 2100 Schoolcraft road, who was trapping in the woods. Marston told police he had first noticed the car there Sunday, thought the occupant had parked it to go hunting.

The bullet which entered the left side of Davis' head was fired from a .32 calibre automatic pistol. After finding the gun between the man's legs, Robert L. Willis, chief of detectives of the sheriff's office, declared that indications pointed to a suicide. Police found two billfolds containing $50 in bills and some change in the man's clothing. His watch, jewelry, brief case, and traveling bag were found untouched. The man was believed dead for at least two days. A Friday newspaper was found on the seat of the car.

Identification of the body was made by Perry A. Lacey, 1469 Sheridan avenue, Plymouth, Now district manager of the Detroit Chevrolet zone. Lacey had formerly had Davis' job before a recent promotion.

Last seen when checking out of a Battle Creek hotel early Friday. Davis lived at 13664 Wark avenue, Detroit, with his wife, Emma, and two sons, 13 and 15 years old. Davis came to Detroit six weeks ago from Chicago where he had been employed in a business department of the Chicago Herald-American.

It is not news when guests absent-mindedly take home nearly full packages of their host's cigarettes, but it's news when any guest absent-mindedly leaves a half-empty package behind him.

1,455 Children Attend Parties

A Halloween without any property damage or injured children was credited to the Civic commission of Plymouth this year. Reporting on the series of individual parties sponsored for different age groups, the committee announced that 1455 children attended the celebration.

Children in the lower grades enjoyed several short movies, and the high school groups spent the evening dancing at the Masonic temple and Jewell and Bligh hall. Everyone had cider, doughnuts, hot dogs, candy, pop-cicles, Dixie cups, or milk, all of which go to make a festive Halloween. One of the features of the high school party was the fortune-telling of Madam La-Zonga, Mrs. Seth Virgo, and Prince AllahBanda, who was Captain Charles Thumme.

Harry Mumby, chairman, C. J. Dykhous, Ken Groth, James H. Sexton, Charles Thumme, and John Jacobs were members of the steering committee, who with numerous other assistants, planned and staged the parties.

Mayor Whipple Gives Radio Address on "Citizenship and Public Morals"

"The question of citizenship and public morals is an important part of our national strength," said Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple in a radio address for Armistice day over CKLW, Monday afternoon.

"Roger Babson, the famous economist, pointed out in an article in a November periodical, how the fall of France came through the weakening of its moral fibre by corruption and indulgence. His conclusion that the decay of citizenship and public morals had an enormous bearing on the fall of the country which was our ally on the first Armistice Day 22 years ago has been repeated by dozens of able journalists and students of world affairs since last June.

"We in the United States are consuming 1,939,869,030 gallons of all kinds of alcoholic beverages a year," continued Mrs. Whipple. "According to Media Records, Inc., an impartial analysis shows our national average to be 5.8 gallons per capita per year, and a per capita cost of $29.35 per year. That is the national average. We in the Middle West are even worse. The average for the midwestern states is 19 and a half gallons per capita at a per capita cost of $33.21. When we subtract the children and the total abstainers, it means that the drinkers of the midwestern states are consuming more than 40 gallons per capita per year.

"Michigan is seven per cent above the national average in its per capita consumption of liquor, according to M. H. DeFoe, dry member of the Michigan Liquor commission, in a statement issued last June.

"Moreover, our national and state consumption of liquor is increasing instead of decreasing. According to the last annual report of W. S. Alexander, federal alcohol administrator in January, 1940, the inventories of whiskey in bond reached the all-time high of 478,000,000 gallons, or almost twice as much as they were in 1914 which carried the highest pre-prohibition inventory. Again, according to Mr. DeFoe, since 1935 when repeal was well established in Michigan, sales of beer in Michigan have increased five per cent and sales of hard liquor have increased 75 per cent.

"This increase in the consumption of liquor plays an important part in the increase that we are facing in other social problems. Repeatedly drinking is given by judges as one of the five major causes for divorce. Drinking is a major cause of juvenile delinquency, directly through the beer gardens and indirectly through broken homes.

"Another influence on public morals is the movies. Angelo Patri, the famous child psychologist, pointed out in a recent article that there are certain movies, particularly those which over-emphasize sex and crime, that children should not see. Judge D. J. Healy of Wayne county probate court has stated that only a minority of the movies are sex and crime idolizing, but that even that minority contributes to juvenile delinquency.

"A third influence on public morals is the sale of salacious literature. Agan Judge Healy has spoken of the importance of this cause of juvenile delinquency. He points out that while some types of juvenile crime have decreased, those involving sex are increasing. One reason for this, he claims, is the ever-increasing torrent of salacious literature on our news-stands, in drug stores, and in libraries, particularly in rental libraries of the lower type.

"A fourth influence on public morals is gambling. The state law of Michigan is so clearly against every form of gambling, except horse racing, that any community may be free of all games of chance if and when its citizens have enough sense to demand local law enforcement.

"The fifth influence on public morals is graft and corruption among public officials. Michigan was shocked in August, 1939, when charges of graft and corruption were made against certain police officials in Detroit.

Then in August, 1940, 156 Detroiters including 27 police officers were indicted in the gambling conspiracy. A month later the papers announced that the Ferguson grand jury was holding 137 defendants for trial in the handbook graft conspiracy. All of this is a disgrace to government and a condition which causes people to lose faith in all public officials, but the encouraging factor is that public morality is high enough to insist that such conditions be corrected. So long as the vast majority of our citizens want public officials to be honest and want government to be free from corruption, we need not worry.

"Again in this respect we may take a leaf from the note-book of the great European nations that have fallen since the last Armistice Day because of corruption and bribes on the part of public officials. We do need to concern ourselves with the effect of widespread corruption on our national morale.

"As Channing Pollock, lecturer and playwright, warned us when he spoke in Detroit last month, 'Few democracies have survived more than 200 years. Nations die of softening of the spine.' That is a challenge to our citizenship and to the maintenance of our public morals."

Erika Mann on Town Hall Series

ERIKA MANN

Erika Mann, author of the widely read indictment of Nazi education, "School for Barbarians," and co-author with her brother Klaus of "Escape to Life," will be the Detroit Town Hall speaker in the Fisher theatre Wednesday, November 20, at 11 a.m. She has just arrived by clipper from London where she went this fall to study the political situation at first hand. A brilliant speaker, she brings the inside story in her talk, "Searchlight Through the Blackout."

With her famous father, Thomas Mann, and other intellectuals who rebelled against Hitler's suppression of cultural freedom, she left Germany voluntarily seven years ago. Since then she has traveled extensively in Europe and America. She was in Loyalist Spain in 1938, in Czechoslovakia when Hitler marched in. During the summer and early fall of 1939, she revisited England, France and Switzerland, and was in Europe when England and France declared war on Germany. The United States is now her chosen land and she has already acquired her first citizenship papers.

A talented actress, Miss Mann was in the starring role in "The Merry Widow" in Berlin, Munich and Hamburg. Her own satirical revue, "Peppermill," in which she was author, director and actress, was performed more than a thousand times in six countries.

Deer Season Opens in State

Deer hunters preparing for the opening today (Friday), of Michigan's 15-day gun season can expect as good an access as they enjoyed in 1939, when they secured 45,148 bucks.

Cheering assurance to this effect is contained in reports of conservation officers stationed in both Michigan peninsulas. Deer, except in scattered localities, are said to be in excellent condition. Some officers report seeing more bucks. Bear are more numerous.

Upper Peninsula officers cite a comparatively open winter, good yarding conditions and absence of predators as factors which have contributed to an apparent increase in the deer herds. Below the straits, as in Presque Isle, Montmorency and Alpena counties, starvation occurred last winter, but officers report that "any part of these three counties will furnish good deer hunting." Deer are reported plentiful in Oscoda, Alcona, Ogemaw and Isosco counties, but the condition of the herds in northeast Oscoda and northwest Alcona counties is said to be under par.

"Deer are evidently more plentiful (in the Grand Traverse region) than in other years," according to a district officer who adds that more buck deer have been seen than was the case last year, "even in areas not noted as good."

Greater percentage of bucks and increased numbers of deer are reported in counties north and northeast of Muskegon and an "ample supply" of bucks is the estimate of officers in Clare, Isabella, Gladwin, Midland, Arenac and Bay counties.

Southern peninsula officers also cite comparatively mild weather conditions of a year ago as responsible for the apparent increase.

No conservation officers, however, claim that deer are as plentiful as they were a few seasons ago. Exhaustion of browse in many swamps is operating to reduce the size of herds.

More than 170,000 hunters were in Michigan deer country last season.

Couple Celebrate Golden Anniversary Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz, Sr. of 8663 Lilley road, Plymouth, are celebrating their fifth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, November 19. Mr. Schwartz is 72 years old and his wife is 74 years old.

Married in Detroit on November 19, 1890, the couple has spent the last 20 years on a small farm outside of Plymouth.

They have one son and a daughter-in-law, and three grandchildren all of Plymouth.

Scout Leaders Attend School

Scout leaders of the Plymouth district are attending their fifth sessions of the course in "Elements of Scout Leadership" at the Training school gymnasium last week-end. This is one of more than a dozen similar courses being conducted in the Detroit area council.

The speakers who led discussions were Amos Shields, Scout executive of the council, who spoke on "Bringing in the New Boy," Paul Harsha of Rosedale Gardens, "The Troop Committee," and Richard Loomis of Northville, "Health and Safety."

Field Commissioner Sidney D. Strong with his Scout son, Edward, demonstrated ways of teaching the compass and mapping elements. A. S. M. William Kirkpatrick and Troop P-1 put on an investiture service, swearing three candidates in as Scouts, and Scoutmaster Mathias of Troop P-3 with a group of his boys demonstrated first aid.

The work of this school is mostly done by groups or patrols, the members being organized as a troop. Harold Parmenter of Northville and Herbert MacGregor of Rosedale Gardens are the two patrol leaders. Their groups call themselves the "Ahmecks and the Spitfires. With all the fun and games, the men are gaining much valuable information to help them in the work of leading boys.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Engberg, of Flint, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vickstrom.

Newburg Youth Develops Hobby of Model Plane Building Into Life Work

"I build them all winter and crack them up all summer," Jack Green, 19 years old, of 36600 Ann Arbor Trail, Newburg, was speaking of his model airplane building which has been his chief interest since he was 10 years old. Interested in planes as long as he can remember, he built his first models before he took his first airplane ride as a boy.

Beginning with small rubber-powered models, he continued developing his designing and building to make gasoline power models. He has completed eight of these gasoline powered planes, the best of which, completed four months ago, has an eight-foot wing span, is equipped with a one-quarter horsepower engine, and has an average flight time of 30 minutes. Working in his spare time, young Green says that it requires about six months to build one of the gasoline models. The motors for these models weigh about 16 ounces. His longest flight time was 48 minutes recorded in 1939.

What has been his hobby for years is now becoming his profession, for Green is a student of aeronautical engineering at the University of Detroit. He was graduated from U. of D. high school last June, and is now in his first year of a five-year course. "I hope to build them and fly them," says Green. He is now learning how to design and build planes, and plans to take a Civil Aeronautics authority course in flying offered especially to college students next summer.

Sunday, November 24 at 7 p.m., "The Life of Christ," a motion picture, will be presented. A free will offering will be taken.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. G. H. Enss, Th.D., pastor. "The Bible, Your Friend," is the theme of the pastor's message for Sunday morning. Morning worship at 10 a.m.; Sunday school, 11:15 a.m.; evening service, 7 p.m. Our new program in the children's department of the Sunday school started off with a fine enthusiasm and an increased attendance. Mrs. Allenbaugh is now directing the activities of the department and the children are looking forward to a joyful holiday season. Bring your children to our Sunday school and let them share this happiness. We have a special treat for this Sunday night at 7 p.m. when Professor Perkins of Wayne University will appear on our "America's Best" program. We have also the promise of some young guest musicians for that occasion. Do not miss this. Please take notice of the Thanksgiving service to be held in the Presbyterian church this year. All churches are urged to co-operate. The Ladies' Daughters will meet next Tuesday night. Wednesday prayer meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Golden Wedding Is Celebrated

On Wednesday evening, October 30 under a beautiful setting of an arch made from golden streamers with autumn leaves and white and yellow chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. William Shipley, Six Mile road, re-lived many happy memories when they renewed their marriage vows of 50 years ago. Five children were born to this union, all of whom are living. They are Howard Shipley and Mrs. Lula Kincaid, of Plymouth; Mrs. Pearl Green and Glen Shipley, of Northville; and Mrs. Rachael Bennett, of Salem. The children and grandchildren were present to help celebrate the happy occasion. After a social hour a three-course luncheon was served. Table appointments were white and gold with a bride's cake for the centerpiece. Many lovely gifts were received by the happy couple and after a late hour and wishing the esteemed couple many happy years to come the guests departed.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist Church morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils read and sing the 1st of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service, 8:00. "Mortals and Immortals" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, November 17. The golden text (John 12:25) is "He that loves his life shall lose it, and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Romans 8:16, 17): "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 339): "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is co-existent and coeternal with that Mind."

Mrs. Emma Ryder visited Mrs. Irene Thurman at her home in Plymouth Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Norris and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swartz in Detroit Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dubs and family of Detroit were Friday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kidston. The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church held a wonderful meeting, Wednesday of last week, in the home of Mrs. Wanda Lamb on the Ford road. Following the delicious dinner, Mrs. Melvin Guthrie, president, called the meeting to order, using the ritual of the new society. Mrs. McNabb was program chairman. A paper was read by Mrs. Eva Smith on "War Is the Last Thing the Japanese Want With the United States." Mrs. Harry Gilbert gave a review of the book, "The Rains Came," by Louis Bromfield. The December meeting will be on the eleventh with Mrs. Jack McCullough. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner in Redford. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb visited her sister, Mrs. Sam Joyce, in Stratford, Ontario, over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and family spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Nieman on the Plymouth Road. Members of the American Legion and auxiliary attended the services of the Newburg Methodist church Sunday morning. Rev. Robert Trenery gave a splendid sermon on Armistice Day. During Sunday school Robert McIntyre rendered a beautiful solo, "God Bless Our Native Land." There were 156 present. Mrs. E. B. Larder, mother of Mrs. Roy Kidston, who has been so ill in the Wayne General hospital, is rapidly improving.

Every month we get a safety poster from the Automobile Club of Michigan. Each poster teaches us a lesson on safety. We made books to put our festival songs in. Our last song is "Children of Kildare." We are also working on the "Blue Danube." It is in two parts. A dinner, in honor of Grace Nyeste, was given Thursday evening at the home of Virginia Waldecker. Grace is moving out of our district. We are all sorry to have her go.

At P.T.A. last Thursday evening, our room won the prize book ends for having the most parents from our room this month at the meeting. We will keep them during November. To celebrate book week the sixth, seventh and eighth graders are drawing pictures to illustrate books they have read and enjoyed. Last week Tuesday, Mrs. Watson brought some more books from the Plymouth library for us to read in our leisure time. In music we are learning "The Spacious Firmament" by Franz Joseph Hayden. We are also learning about the life of Mozart. We are learning the "Russian Troika" and the "Virginia Reel" for dancing. —Alan Kidston, news editor.

Rosedale Gardens

The Parent-Teachers' meeting, Wednesday evening of last week, was most interesting. Dr. L. M. Hotchkiss, health officer of Livonia township, was present and gave a talk on "Your Child's Health" and another talk was given by District Superintendent Cramer on "New Developments in Our Schools." It was voted at this time to assist the Wayne County Council of P. T. A. in its county fair to be held on November 30 in the Fletcher school just off Goddard road. The Rosedale school ladies are working on donations for the fair and the Stark and Newburg ladies on the fancy work booth. At the December meeting on the fourth of the month, Dr. Jordan of the University of Michigan will be present and it is hoped that all who possibly can will be present from the district to greet him. The mothers of the fourth and fifth grade children served the refreshments, with Mrs. Hamilton as chairman, and assisted by Mrs. Hodson and Mrs. Mason. Mrs. Wilson Cross of Plainfield, New Jersey, was the guest of Mrs. George E. Fisher from Wednesday until Saturday of last week. This (Friday) evening, in the St. Michael hall, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will give a play and amateur show, with Mrs. Harold C. Walborn, Mrs. R. G. Cooper and Mrs. Paul Harsha in charge. The play, "Turkey Red" will be enacted by Mrs. Stafford Francis, Mrs. Harold Page, Mrs. Martin Laitur, Mrs. E. O. Whittington, and Mrs. Arthur Shoemaker, an old fashioned skit will be given by Mrs. Fred C. Weiner, Mrs. John C. Calhoun, and Mrs. Edward L. Ham; a humorous skit by Mrs. Dan Olsen and a few others, and a piano duet by Mrs. Calhoun and Mrs. Lester Book-out. Music will be furnished by the Wooster orchestra, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wooster and their two sons, Harry and Bill. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Overman have invited a large group of friends to their home on Berkwick avenue for a housewarming on Saturday evening, when games and dancing will be the entertainment for the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Steele entertained at a family dinner, Sunday, honoring the birthdays of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Overman of Flint. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Henrion entertained at dinner, Wednesday of last week, in celebration of their son Lynn's third birthday. Their guests were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson, and the latter's sister, Mrs. Anna Cole. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey, Mrs. Mary Groh, of Detroit, and Vernon Groh of Lansing were dinner guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. William King. Armistice Meeting

The assembly on Monday, November 11, was a picture form of the American Dream which idealizes freedom of speech, press, religion, and the right of every man to do as much good as is capable of doing. This movie was very appropriate for Armistice Day. It was introduced by Virginia Rock, the school mayor.

Election Polls

It seems that Dr. Gallup has a number of competitors for polling honors here in Plymouth high school. Many of you will probably recall being accosted in your classroom or in the halls by many young ladies who asked you how you were going to vote in the mock election. Ardith Rowland gave the exact percentage of votes that would be cast for each presidential candidate, while members of other classes guessed within one or two per cent.

Teachers' Party

Take-offs on everything from Gallup polls to teachers, a turkey dinner with all the fixings, and clever stunts presented by Plymouth school faculty featured the annual teachers' party held for all the teachers and their wives and husbands, school members, and employes at the high school gymnasium and cafeteria last Thursday, November 7.

Band Program

The band, drum majorettes, and girl cheer leaders will all add to the color and festivity of the last Plymouth football game of the season to be played at Northville.

Intelligence Tests

In order to determine students' mental ability and brightness, Plymouth high school, under the management of Mr. Carvel Bentz, vocational director, has been giving "Intelligence Tests" to approximately 400 students during the past week. It is to be emphasized that this method is just one way of hundreds used to determine a student's mental ability, and should not be considered infallible. It is quite possible that this type of test may not measure a student's ability accurately.

Sophomore Dance

Jim McAllister, the president of sophomore class, has chosen the committees for the sophomore dance to be held in the high school gym November 15. The committees are as follows: Reception, Virginia Moss, chairman; Bill Slater; floor and clean-up, Clare Ebersole, chairman; Jim McAllister, Charles Minthorn, Bill Upton, Ted Ellsworth; chaperon, Lois Hoffman, chairman; Jim McAllister, Pat Hudson; publicity, Ione Stuart, chairman; Peggy Millard and Mae Lang.

Seek Seventh Win

Trying for their third victory of the season, and their seventh straight victory over Northville, the Plymouth high school eleven will play the Northville team on Northville's home grounds, Friday, November 15, officially ending the Rocks' 1940 football season.

Inspirations

Beyond the reach of argumentative friends and neighbors, a record number of Americans Tuesday took a minute or two to put their views, which were accepted as important as those of the President of the United States, on paper. They elected Franklin D. Roosevelt to a third term in one of the heaviest votes in the history of a presidential race.

Personalities

Monday, November 4—Election day in Plymouth high school by declaration of Mayor Virginia Rock. Not only did ballots continue all day long but heated arguments as well. It was interesting to note that while most classes went Republican, the freshman, the great majority of whom are rural students, voted nearly two to one for Roosevelt.

Prom

Orlyn Lewis, chairman of the orchestra committee for the senior prom to be held December 6, announced the orchestra. Tommy Marvin, who played for the J-Hop, will play for the patriotic prom.

Girl Reserves

Miss Mary Elizabeth Cobb, Girl Reserve secretary from the Highland Park branch was the guest of the Senior Girl Reserves, at the Thursday, November 7 meeting. Miss Cobb is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and has been affiliated with the Girl Reserve groups in that state before coming to Detroit two months ago.

Promote Reserves

The Plymouth reserve football schedule has been completed with one game won and four lost. However, since six of the boys have shown sufficient promise to be graduates to the first team, Wednesday, November 6, an indoor weight roast was followed by a formal, then an informal initiation. The evening was ended by holding a "white elephant" grab bag. Each girl had brought an article useless to her, wrapped in newspaper and tied with string. Such articles as half a curling iron, a noisemaker, and a paper-backed novel, "The Murder of the Honest Broker" were among the offerings.

Band Program

The band, drum majorettes, and girl cheer leaders will all add to the color and festivity of the last Plymouth football game of the season to be played at Northville.

Grade Doings

Boot and Buskin practiced the pantomime "Going to the Fair" under the critical leadership of Miss Bryce. There were pantomimes of people who were hot and tired, and of others who were interested and enthusiastic. Afterwards Miss Bryce treated the members to chocolate popcicles.

Editorial

National Education week, a week for revealing the habits of U.S. schools, was commemorated from November 11 to 16 by programs and posters all over the country.

Social Register

Evelyn Stewart spent the week-end in Ypsilanti visiting her sister Phyllis who is a junior at the Normal. Evelyn attended a pep meeting and theatre rush on Friday and the annual homecoming activities Saturday morning. After seeing the football game, she heard the monthly concert.
