Vol. 54, No. 26

Plymouth, Michigan, Friday, March 6, 1942

$1.50 Per Year in Advance

Conservation Director Will Be Banquet Speaker Here April 1

More Shrapnel For Uncle Sam!

When William Gayde went down to the Plymouth office of the secretary of state to get his new license the other day, he took with him not only his own old license plates, but the plates that had been saved by the late Edward Gayde, his brother, since 1911. He had in the collection every plate issued from 1911 to 1936, the year of his brother's death. This collection of plates exceeded by two years in age those recently contributed by Robert Jolliffe. He recently donated to Uncle Sam's scrap iron needs his entire collection of plates since 1913. The weight was sufficient to make several shrapnel.

Carlton Lewis And B. E. Giles Win Primary

Only 231 Votes Cast In City's Lightest Primary Election

Carlton Lewis and Burton E. Giles were nominated as candidates for the short-term on the city commission, to be voted on the April 6 ballot, in the primary election Monday. A total of only 231 votes were cast in Monday's primary, the lightest vote on record in the city of Plymouth. Officials blamed lack of public interest in a single contest for the small primary vote.

Candidate Lewis received the largest number of votes, a total of 103. Mr. Giles was second with 77 votes and Richard Straub received a poll of 36 votes in his first bid for public office. Mr. Lewis is a local carter-contractor and general insurance agent and Mr. Giles is a real estate agent and former postmaster of the city and both of the candidates who won a place on the April ballot have lived in Plymouth for many years.

Voting according to precincts was as follows: Carlton Lewis, 18, precinct 1, 4, precinct 2, 27, precinct 3, and 54, precinct 4, for a total of 103; Burton Giles, 22, precinct 1, 19, in precinct 2, 23, in precinct 3 and 13 in precinct 4; Richard Straub, 5 in precinct 1, 5 in No. 2, 14 in No. 3 and 12 in No. 4. Precinct 4 cast the largest number of votes, a total of 30.

The last date for registration of voters for the April 6 general election is March 18 at the city hall. Voters will elect one candidate for short term on the city commission and two candidates for two-year terms.

Refugee to Speak Here on March 13

Mrs. Martynas Yeas, a refugee from the Baltic states and Germany, will be the guest speaker at a membership tea of the League of Women Voters in the Presbyterian church parlors next Friday afternoon, March 13, at 1:30 o'clock. The membership tea replaces the club's annual spring luncheon this year, due to the national emergency.

Other features of the afternoon program, of which Mrs. Thomas Bateman is general chairman, will include a talk by Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple on civilian defense problems, a question and answer period and a violin solo by Miss Doris Hamill. Miss Mabel Spicer is tea chairman for the afternoon.

Mrs. Yeas, who is now living in Ann Arbor, returned to the United States last May, after an absence of 25 years spent in South America. A daughter of Lithuanian parents exiled from Russia, she was born in Pennsylvania and was graduated from Pennsylvania State college, Adelphi college of Brooklyn and Cornell university, specializing in chemistry and English.

Her husband, who died in South America last year, after the family fled from Europe, was a distinguished statesman in Lithuania for years. He was minister of finance and communications in the early Lithuanian cabinets and an active Presbyterian churchman. After they were released from a German concentration camp, the Yeas family, including four children now studying in American universities, left Europe via Lisbon for South America.

P. J. Hoffmaster Coming To Conservation Club Meeting

Director P. J. Hoffmaster of Michigan's Conservation Department, will be the speaker at the annual meeting and banquet of the Western Wayne County Conservation club to be held at the Mayflower hotel on Wednesday evening, April 1.

The announcement made yesterday by Dr. B. Champe, chairman of the special committee having in charge details for the annual meeting, assures an attendance of one of the largest crowds that ever attended a meeting of this energetic conservation group.

This will be the first time that the able director of the department has ever attended a meeting of conservation enthusiasts in this part of Wayne county. He plans to come directly from Little Rock, Arkansas, where he will be in attendance at a national conservation meeting, to Plymouth.

His address will be the main feature of the program, the club having decided to give him all the time he desires to discuss conservation problems as related to war time requirements. Additional details of the banquet will be announced later.

Dr. Peck Appoints Medical Squads

Three Units to Serve In Air Raid Emergency

Medical squads have been organized for emergency medical service in civilian defense by Dr. Lutha Peck, chairman of the council's committee for medical service. These field units for emergency care of civilians in the city and township in the event of air raid attacks consist of three squads with a physician appointed to command each squad in assigned districts.

The following persons were appointed for squad one to report to the Plymouth high school in the event of a bombing incident to obtain complete first aid outfits: Dr. H. J. Brisbois and Dr. Walter Dumond in charge, and Mrs. Elia West, Mrs. George Strasen, Mrs. Edgar Doencke, Mrs. Harry Fountain, Frank C. Passage, Mrs. Stephen Horvath, Mary E. Huff, Mrs. Alfred Innis, Carrie J. Jewell, Mrs. Grayson Jones, Mrs. Hubert Luker, Miss Marian Taylor, Agnes R. West and Cordula Strasen.

Squad three will be headed by Dr. Frederick E. Bentley and Dr. John F. Kelly, with the following assisting nurses: Evelyn Minnock, Mrs. Charles Loomis, Joanne P. Sackett, Mrs. Howard Cadot, Mrs. Thomas Phillips, Della Procknow, Mrs. Forest Smith, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Earl Spaulding, Mrs. William J. Squires, Mrs. Herbert Swanson, Mrs. Gustaf Lundquist and Betty Uhls. The third squad is to report to the Starkweather school for emergency service and equipment. Complete first aid outfits will be available for emergency need at each station.

No Tires, Taxi Out of Business

Blame the war if you call for a taxi in Plymouth and can't get one. Unable to get tires for his taxi, George Rimer, who has conducted a thriving business in Plymouth during the past year or so, has been forced to go out of business.

Local Patrons Must Now Walk

"I can't even get retreats. I have had a couple of tires over at Ann Arbor for six weeks and they tell me that I may not be able to get them for two or three months. I just can't get tires and you can't run a taxi without them. So I have had to go out of business," Mr. Rimer told the Plymouth Mail yesterday.

While taxicabs have been given a preferential rating by the government for tires, they are not to be had. So Plymouth residents who have become accustomed to the good taxi service that has been given this community during the last couple of years by Mr. Rimer will have to use their own cars or the sidewalks.

Plymouth Boys in Hard-Hitting Marines

FINCH ROBERTS KEITH LAWSON

Recent photographs taken of Finch Roberts and Keith Lawson, two well known Plymouth boys who have joined up with the United States Marines, reveal them as members of a hard-hitting United States Marine unit located at a Pacific coast training camp. The above cuts were taken from a company group, showing a mighty fine lot of young Americans who have enlisted for the protection of our country.

Government Pegs House Rents In Plymouth

Rates of Last April Must Prevail In This City

House rents that prevailed in Plymouth last April 1 will be the rents that will prevail for the future, according to a ruling just made by Price Administrator Leon Henderson in Washington. The order issued Monday places Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties within the zone where rent prices of a year ago must prevail.

He has given owners who rent homes 60 days in which to re-adjust their rates so that prices of a year ago will prevail. If owners fail to comply with the order it makes possible the enforcement of federal regulations when the 60-day period is ended.

House rents in Plymouth have not been sky-rocketed as in some places. While there have been some advances in the past year, these have been small and in keeping with trends of the times say local real estate dealers. But whatever the rates are now, they must be returned to the rental rate charged a year ago, according to Price Administrator Henderson.

Plan School for Victory Gardens

First Meeting to Be Held March 10

A series of Victory Garden schools for all persons interested in home gardens is announced by Ellsworth Besemer, county agricultural agent. The garden school will consist of four meetings, the first of which will be a discussion of soils and fertilizers on March 10 from 1 to 3 o'clock at the Newburg school, corner of Newburg road and Ann Arbor road.

A similar school was started at the Cady school building, North Wayne and Cherry Hill roads, near Plymouth, Thursday night. The next meeting of this group will be March 30 at 7:30 o'clock. "These schools offer an excellent opportunity to elementary gardeners who wish to participate in the Victory Garden program," declares Mrs. Horace Thatcher, chairman of the Plymouth Garden club committee in charge of the local program. Instructions in how to plan home gardens will also be given at a meeting in the auditorium of radio station WWJ in Detroit Friday (today) from 10:30 o'clock through the afternoon.

The city of Plymouth is making available for Victory Garden plots 75 city-owned lots. These properties are located as follows: north of Junction between Lena and Arthur east of Adams between Farmer and Blitchy corner of Harvey and Farmer streets and Auburn north of Farmer street. Applications for the use of these lots for the cultivation of Victory Gardens should be made with City Manager C. H. Elliott at the city hall.

Prominent Writers Garden Club Guests

John and Frank Craighead, twin brothers, writers and photographers for the National Geographic magazine and now students at the University of Michigan, will be guests Monday noon of the Rosedale Gardens and Plymouth Garden clubs at a luncheon to be held in the Mayflower hotel. Their talk will be illustrated with colored pictures on the subject, "Life With an Indian Prince." Readers of the National Geographic magazine will recall one of their articles on a similar subject not so many weeks ago.

"Bert's Place" Is 100 Percent

Every Employee Is Defense Bond Owner

It is not one of the "big" business places of Plymouth—but it is one of the most patriotic business places in Plymouth—that "Bert's Place," just across the tracks on North Main street. "Bert's Place" has eleven employees—and it has just become known that every one of these eleven employees is a regular buyer of Defense bonds.

"Yes, sir, we are one hundred percent," said Mr. Swadling the other day when asked as to the correctness of the report. "Every one of our employees is a defense bond and stamp holder. We're buying more, just as fast as we can get a few extra pennies. That's one way we can help Uncle Sam and our boys who have been called to the protection of our country."

High on the wall are painted the names of 28 Plymouth boys who were former patrons of Bert's popular little eating place who have now been called into military services of the nation.

Four New Houses In Construction

Building Activity Lags in February

Four of the month's seven building permits issued during February were for the construction of new houses in Plymouth, indicating that local contractors are meeting the demands for new housing in the city and its surrounding areas. While general building activity was slow during February with a total valuation of $19,700, the construction of new houses maintained pace with last year's monthly average, according to S. L. Besse, building inspector.

Contractor Daniel S. Mills is constructing three houses as a part of the "Support a Home" movement, sponsored by a committee of local citizens headed by Perry W. Richwine. A new house is being built at 956 Simpson avenue between Main and Harvey streets for Alfred Smith. The other two homes under construction by Contractor Mills are located on South Harvey street between Ross and Simpson avenues.

Fred A. Hubbard & Co. is constructing a new house on Pacific street between Williams and Blanche streets. The remaining building permits for the last month were issued for remodeling and alterations to provide additional living quarters in existing homes. No commercial building was started during February.

License Plate Sales Set Record

Saturday Highest Single Day of Business

The Plymouth auto license bureau sold 1,127 license plates last Saturday, deadline for 1941 plates, setting a record as the highest single day of sales in the history of the local office. Last year's sales on the final day of the rush totaled 742.

The secretary of state's branch office in Plymouth sold 9,215 plates during the past year from March 1, 1941 to March 1, 1942, a record for the bureau. Sales for the first two months of this year totaled 4,244 as compared with 3,956 for January and February last year.

Manager Frank Rambo states that more full-year passenger and fewer half-year passenger plates were sold this year than in former years. Full-year passenger plate sales totaled 3,590 from November 1, first day of the 1942 plate sale, to March 1, and half-year passenger plate sales totaled 1,474 from January 28 to March 1.

Extra help aided in the last minute rush for plates before the deadline Saturday night and applicants were lined up to the front door of the local bureau office and inside the lobby of the Hotel Mayflower on the final night. More than 60 telegrams were sent to Lansing for duplicate titles during the last days of the sale. Manager Rambo stated.

Library Resumes Story Hour Saturday, March 7

Story hour will be resumed for the spring season at the Plymouth branch library Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The library is open to all children from school age through the fifth grade of school. Mrs. Agnes Pauline, librarian, will relate three stories Saturday including "Fifi" by Bemelmans; "King, the Hermit and the Two Princes" from a collection retold by Dutton and "Buttons" by Robinson.

Urges Change in Wayne County Government

Many Hear William P. Lovett Discuss Problem

William P. Lovett, executive secretary of the Detroit Citizens League Tuesday night told members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club, city and school board officials and Rotarian guests of Kiwanis, that the time had arrived for citizens to take steps to eliminate as far as possible graft, inefficiency and waste of tax dollars in the conduct of the county's business.

The prominent Detroit lawyer found a most receptive group of listeners who agreed with him that the time is now ripe for some action of some kind which will terminate once and for all the domination of county affairs by a "political empire" that has been a major impediment in power of those who seek "easy emoluments" from public business.

"There is but one way the necessary change can be brought about, and that is by constitutional amendment," Lovett said. "There is at present a group of prominent Wayne county citizens working on a plan which it is hoped will accomplish the purpose we have in mind," said Mr. Lovett.

"We have arrived at no definite conclusion as to the form that the proposed amendment should take. We do know that something should be done and we are asking you to contribute any suggestions you may have which will in any way help in a solution of the tremendously important problem we have in Wayne county," he declared.

"There is no intent or desire upon the part of Detroit to monopolize in any way the control of the county government. In any change that should be made the cities and townships outside the city of Detroit should have due and proper representation. But there is not the slightest sense to a continuation of a county board of supervisors in Wayne county which has members that does the house of representatives and the state senate at Lansing, the legislature which runs the affairs of the entire state.

The supervisor system of county government came in with the ox-cart age. It was born in New England, and years and years ago the New England states discarded it. It is a system which has invited the mess we now have in the county building industry.

"It is time for us to accept the challenge here in Michigan if we ever hope to eliminate a system which permits the graft and waste that has been uncovered in the county building by the Ferguson grand jury."

"When we find one bunch guilty of wrong doing, we simply remove them and put in another political group that belongs to the same political system. I believe we should accept the challenge before us. Certainly something can be done to improve our county government, make it much more efficient and at the same time bring about honesty in the conduct of public business and eliminate graft to a very large extent."

Youth Injured In Train Crash

Ronald Tobey Hurt And Car Demolished

Ronald Tobey, 16 years old, suffered critical injuries when his car was struck and demolished by a Pere Marquette train at the railroad crossing near Lilley road and Ann Arbor Trail early last Saturday morning. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tobey of 630 South Harvey street, Plymouth.

According to police, the car was carried 70 feet down the tracks by the train which was backing at the crossing. There is no warning signal at that railroad crossing. The youth, who works at Ken and Ork's lunchroom, was taken to University hospital in Ann Arbor. He sustained a severe skull fracture, which necessitated an operation, two broken ribs, punctured lungs, a fractured leg and jaw in the accident. He has regained consciousness and his condition is reported satisfactory.

Theatre Posts Special Notice for Children

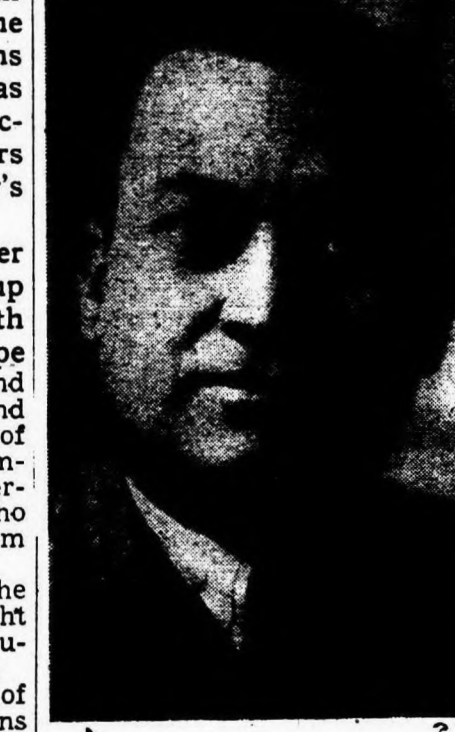

On instructions from the company which produced the movie, "Louisiana Purchase," it will be necessary for every child of 12 years or over to pay 20 cents, including tax, for the matinee Saturday, March 7, at the Penniman Allen theatre, according to the management.

Test Air Raid Alarm Saturday

Plymouth's air raid alarm will be tested at noon Saturday and a field corps of 12 auxiliary policemen from civilian defense volunteers will be assigned to posts throughout the city to report on reception of the siren alarm. An electric air raid alarm has been connected to the regular city fire siren. The alarm, controlled from the police station at the city hall, will be sounded by one sustained blast for two minutes' duration. At the same time, a whistle, operated by 90 pounds of compressed air, will be blown at the Wall Wire Products Company plant to carry the warning sound to all points of the city. Owing to technical difficulties, the first trial air raid alarm scheduled last Saturday was cancelled.

Assistant Warden

PAUL WIEDMAN

Floyd Eckles Appoints Air Raid Wardens

Assigns Warden Corps To Five City 'Sectors' And Names Assistants

Air raid wardens were appointed this week by Floyd Eckles, chief air raid warden, for the entire city and the immediate subdivisions outside the city limits. The group held its first organization meeting Wednesday night in preparation for training classes for all volunteer wardens.

Paul Wiedman was appointed assistant chief air warden and William Rose and Harold Anderson were designated as deputy air wardens. The two deputies have completed training courses in Detroit to assist in the direction of the local organization.

Plymouth has been subdivided into four "sectors" which correspond to the city voting precincts and a fifth sector includes the outlying subdivisions near Plymouth. Each post includes approximately 500 residents.

The first air warden training classes will start next Wednesday evening, March 11, at 7:30 o'clock at the city hall. The first five-week course will be for sector wardens and senior post wardens appointed by Chief Eckles. Instructors for the classes will be William Rose and Harold Anderson. As the first group completes its training, the official wardens will act as instructors for other volunteers in additional courses.

During the next week, air raid wardens in each sector of the city will distribute cards of air raid instructions for preparation of homes, procedure during air raids, methods of fighting bombs and procedure following air raids, should be posted in the kitchen or some conspicuous place of every home. The air raid wardens will also conduct a defense census with information blanks to be returned to civilian defense headquarters for reference. The cooperation of every citizen is urged when the air raid warden of your district calls at your home.

Chief Eckles' appointments include Sector One, Robert Todd, chairman; Harry Terry, John Selle and H. R. Penhale, senior post wardens; Sector Two, Carl Shear, chairman; Robert Lidgard, Rev. Edgar Hoencke and K. A. Olds, senior post wardens; Sector Three, Floyd Wilson, chairman; Lester DeWitt, B. E. Giles and Jack Taylor, Sector Four, Walter Harms, chairman; Rev. Walter Nichol, Horace Thatcher and Alvin Collins; Sector Five, Russell Roe, chairman; Glenn Jewell, George Tryon and Earl Mastick.

The air warden organization, when completed, will include three wardens under each of the senior post wardens mentioned above and three assistants under each of those wardens. This will afford sufficient wardens to work in three shifts for a 24-hour period in the event of emergency. Changes in personnel may be necessary because of the assignment of other duties for some civilian defense workers, Chief Eckles states.

Defense Bond Sales Take on New Life

February Total Over $67,000

Plymouth Out to Set New Record During Present Month

Burglars Rob Residence of Fred A. Ballen

Police Link Case to Robbery of Schrader Home Here Month Ago

Plymouth's second home robbery within a month occurred Monday evening when the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ballen on Burroughs street was broken into and robbed. Police believe there is a link between this week's case and the robbery of the Edwin Schrader residence a month ago. The burglars gained entrance to the Ballen home in the same manner and stole the same type of valuable goods.

An estimated $200 worth of property was stolen from the house, including five Oriental rugs, a hunting coat, a blanket and a complete set of Rogers silverware. The burglars, a heating contractor, had visited his wife who is ill in St. Joseph hospital at Ann Arbor early in the evening and returned to his home about 10 o'clock Monday evening.

The glass in a window at the side of the house had been smashed and it is believed the burglars entered through the window. Local police notified state police and all other neighboring police departments who are cooperating in the case.

Tire Thieves Hunted by Police

Take Two Tires From Ben Sprowl's Car

Prison terms of five years or more await the thieves who stole two tires from an automobile belonging to Ben Sprowl, well known Plymouth carpenter and builder.

Mr. Sprowl's car was stolen last Friday night from Penniman avenue. He had parked it near the Penn theatre. Sometime during the early part of the night, thieves stole the auto, drove it to a sideroad near Salem where two of the tires, the battery and some carpenter tools were taken from the car. State police located the stripped automobile late last Saturday.

Apparently the thieves, who have a long prison sentence awaiting them when caught, live in or about Plymouth. Officers have this idea because of the fact that the keys from Mr. Sprowl's car were stolen about a week previous while it was parked in the same place from which it was taken Friday night. The thieves apparently had spotted the car as one to be stolen at the opportune time. There was no insurance on the car.

Motion Pictures for Wild Life Meeting On Monday Evening

Monday night at 8 o'clock, members of the Conservation club are going to have the opportunity of seeing three outstanding films, all for the price of nothing, according to Jack Weed. The meeting will take place at 8 o'clock at the Mayflower hotel, and farmers are especially invited. The International Harvester company is sending out three up-to-the-minute films. One shows the U. S. Marines landing, an excellent war picture. Another picture is a farm comedy and another shows war production. Members are also urged to invite farm friends. Plans will also be discussed for the annual banquet on April 1.

Plymouth Out to Set New Record During Present Month

Public indignation over congressional action in voting pensions for congressmen, which temporarily chilled the Defense bond campaign throughout the country, had its effects in Plymouth, but not for long.

Tabulations of defense bond sales during February show that the slack during the early part of February when newspaper comment was at its height about the pension grab, was nearly overcome during the last week or ten days of February, and that our sales came within $4,000 as being as much as during January.

The total of bond and defense stamp sales in Plymouth during February was a trifle over $67,000.

This means that Uncle Sam can purchase almost 90 of the crack machine guns being produced at the Plymouth Kelsey-Hayes machine gun plant for Plymouth boys who are serving our nation overseas.

Ninety machine-guns! What ninety machine-guns can do to a mess of Japs is plenty!

The total February bond and stamp sales represents sales at both banks and the Plymouth postoffice. It does not include purchases that might have been made by local residents outside the city.

In comparison with published reports of some of the nearby communities, Plymouth is running way high in its defense bond purchases.

But "way high" isn't enough. Uncle Sam needs every dollar he can get—and to the average individual, dollars during the months and years to come are not going to amount to so very much. There isn't going to be much that one can do with them, not as yet.

But Uncle Sam can make mighty good use of every penny one can loan to him—and remember that the government pays almost three percent interest on defense bonds.

March has just started. Why not set a goal for $100,000 in Defense bond purchases for this city and vicinity between now and April 1?

What say you? While Detroit can "Keep 'Em Flying" and "Keep 'Em Rolling," we in Plymouth can keep the machine guns rattling—we CAN "KEEP 'EM RATTLING," providing you put your dollars into defense bonds.

Others inducted Tuesday include Russell J. Sears, Northville; Harry G. Robertson of Farmington, and Francis W. Hoop, Walton. C. Berrington and Eugene B. Mills of Detroit. Local board officials announce that the next draft call will be March 12 and the next pre-induction physical examinations will be given on March 14.

Before the young men left the Plymouth local board for Fort Custer Tuesday morning, a committee of the local Red Cross chapter served breakfast to the group at the draft headquarters. The hot-plate breakfast included scrambled eggs, orange juice, sweet rolls, doughnuts and coffee. Ladies who served from the local canteen committee included Mrs. M. A. Arnold, chairman, Mrs. John McLaren and Mrs. L. R. VonStein.

Board Inducts Four Local Men

Red Cross Unit Serves Breakfast to Group

Four Plymouth men were inducted among those inducted into the Army service by the local draft board Tuesday morning. They are David W. Hale, McClumpha road; Chase B. Willett, Holbrook street; Edward C. Ringel, South Mill street and Thomas Price Jr. of Ann Arbor road.

NOTICE CITY OF PLYMOUTH

Vacation of Alley

At the regular meeting of the City Commission held on February 2, 1942, the following resolution was offered by Commissioner Robinson and supported by Commissioner Jolliffe:

RESOLVED, that the City Commission does deem it advisable to vacate alley at the rear of lots 1 to 10 inclusive of the Kate E. Allen Subdivision, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Commission meet in the commission chamber in the City Hall in Plymouth on Monday, March 16, 1942 at 7:30 p.m. to hear objections thereto, and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City Clerk cause a copy of this resolution to be printed in The Plymouth Mail, a newspaper of general circulation in said City of Plymouth at least twenty (20) days prior to the date set for such hearing.

C. H. ELLIOTT, City Clerk

is the subject of discussion for the young people Sunday evening when they meet at 8:30 p.m. Margaret Jean Nichol is the leader of the meeting. Division 4 of the Auxiliary will meet in the parlors of the church Monday, March 9 at 7:30 p.m. This is a group of young women. They have a very cordial welcome for new members. If there are some who have not been attending or newcomers to the church a special invitation to attend is given. The Woman's Auxiliary will meet on Wednesday, March 11, but notice that this is no ordinary meeting. It is to be Husband's night and the meeting will take the form of a potluck dinner to be given in the dining room of the church at 6:30 p.m. sharp. Each woman is asked to bring rolls, a dish to pass and table service for her group. This should be a good meeting. The Woman's Chorus will sing and there will be a speaker representing the Detroit Community Fund. The church year ends March 31. Annual meeting of this church is Wednesday, April 1.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist. Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service 8:00.

"Man" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 8. The Golden Text (Malachi 2:10) is: "Have we not all one father?" "I believe in Man." This is sharp. Each woman is asked to bring rolls, a dish to pass and table service for her group. This should be a good meeting. The Woman's Chorus will sing and there will be a speaker representing the Detroit Community Fund. The church year ends March 31. Annual meeting of this church is Wednesday, April 1.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. Rev. G. M. Enss, Th.D., pastor. Sunday-morning worship at 10 a.m.; Sunday school at 11:15 a.m.

evening service at 7:00 p.m. The Palmer Bible class will have its regular meeting on Tuesday night, March 12, and the Ladies' Aid on Thursday night. The Aid will meet in the home of Mrs. Carl Ericsson, 1193 W. Maple street. The Red Cross workers meet every Thursday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. On Sunday morning the baptismal certificates will be distributed. We would like to have them all reach their destination, so please be present or ask some one to receive your certificate and bring it to you.

NEWBURG METHODIST church—Verle J. Carson, minister. 9614 Newburg road, Plymouth 860W4. Sunday morning worship at 10 a.m. "I Believe in Man." This is the second of a series of messages on the fundamentals of the Christian faith. Anthem by the choir. Sunday school at 11:00. Classes for everyone. William Loesch, Jr. is acting superintendent during the absence of Mr. McCullough. 7:00 p.m., Epworth League meets in the hall. Monday, 7:00 p.m., Boy Scout meeting in the hall. Tuesday, Red Cross sewing room in the hall open after 12:30 p.m. Red Cross Home Nursing course meets from 2 to 4 p.m. Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The second of our series of mid-week lenten services. Mr. Ralph Hileman, program secretary of the Detroit Y.M.C.A., will be the speaker.

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH. C. M. Pennell, minister. Sunday morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. Sermon theme: "Both Priest and Sacrifice." Bible school, 11:45 a.m. Curtis Hamilton, superintendent. Sunday evening hymn-sing, 7:30 o'clock. Our pastor will bring a short message on "The Wandering Jew." Get the habit of bringing your Bible.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL church—Corner Harvey and Maple streets. Third Sunday in Lent. Holy communion and sermon, 10:00 a.m. Church school at 11:15. Lenten services every Wednesday evening at 7:30. Children's lenten mission every Thursday at 4:00.

The "500" party, planned by the Ex-Service Men's club and auxiliary to be held March 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown has been postponed.

Dave Nichol Sent To Washington

Given Temporary Assignment

Dave Nichol, son of Rev. and Mrs. Walter Nichol of this city, who is employed as a special war correspondent of The Chicago News, has just been assigned to the Washington staff of The News.

The Washington assignment is believed to be but a temporary one, but where he will be sent later, the youthful writer has not been advised. His nearly two years of experience in Germany has given him an excellent background for war work in any foreign field, and it is probable that within the next two or three months he will be assigned to some foreign post, but where, no one knows.

Mrs. Orson Polley spent the week-end in Flint visiting her sisters, Mrs. E. A. Jakway and Mrs. C. J. Eastman. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mary Gonyea, who remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. Luther Peck has spent the last ten days visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth M. Lloyd and family in Youngstown, Ohio, and her mother, Mrs. Brundedge in New York state.

ELECTRICITY is cheaper today!

The average price per kilowatt-hour paid by our residence customers for electricity today is 3.28 cents. Twenty years ago, the figure was 6.13 cents. Electricity is 46 per cent cheaper today.

Your electric service is so commonplace a thing—such an accepted part of our daily life—that most of us take it for granted. When you push a button on your wall to turn on your lights, when you flip a switch to operate your washer or iron or vacuum cleaner or any of the dozen-and-one other electric helpers in your home, you expect service instantly... and you get it. Yet few people think of what lies back of the switch to make this service possible—the far-flung organization, the tremendous investment in power plants and lines and substations, the thousands of employes whose combined endeavor is directed toward bringing you a service so dependable that you need never give it a thought. Here truly is the magic of electricity at your fingertips!

What makes electricity cheaper? Keeping everlastingly at it—thinking up new ways of doing things better and at lower cost—then passing the savings on to our customers. The thousands of improvements, big and little, which have been made year by year have permitted us to reduce our rates voluntarily... not once or twice but many times—whenever earnings justified it. That is the way of progress. The Detroit Edison Company.

Livonia Schools Plan Project

Offer Hot Lunches For School Children A plan is being proposed to service Livonia township children with a hot lunch program. The food is to be prepared in a central kitchen and transported to each school where it will be served. Stark school has been recommended as the central headquarters. Miss Dorothy M. Doebele, district supervisor of the school lunch project, is helping with this plan and is giving all her assistance in making it a success. The WPA will provide labor for the food preparation and, wherever possible, for the serving also. The surplus marketing administration will provide available surplus foods for the project. Cooperation is being received from the schools and school board officials. In selecting the different committees, one member from each locality has been named chairman. The chairmen of the various committees will select their assistants at the next meeting which will be open to the public. A special invitation is extended to members of the school boards, teachers, P. T. A. officers and parents having children participating in the hot lunch program. This meeting is to be held at the Livonia township hall, Five Mile and Farmington roads, on March 9 at 8:30 o'clock. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Lillian Bartz Weds Parnell E. Johnson

Lillian Grace Bartz was married to Parnell E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson of this city, at a ceremony in the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Bartz, on Mabon road Friday, February 28. The couple was attended by Miss Lila Bartz, sister of the bride, and Leonard Johnson, brother of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Mat Powell and daughter, Marie, moved Tuesday into their new home on North Territorial road.

Lieut. George Statezni is now stationed in Massachusetts and Mrs. Statezni left Saturday morning, to join him there.

Bowling League Standing

Table with columns: City League, W, L, Pct. Rows include Joy Bar, Newburg, Davis Clothes, etc.

Table with columns: Parkview Recreation League, W, L, Pct. Rows include Wild & Co., Goldstein's, Simpson's, etc.

Table with columns: Parkview House League, W, L, Pct. Rows include Plym. Lumber, Terry's Bakery, Jewell Cleaners, etc.

Parkview Ladies' League Purity Market and Hillside Barbecue are tied for first place by Purity breaking even with Thelma Beauty shop and Hillside taking three points from Michigan Bell Telephone company. M. Stremich was high with 534 total with 231 for high game. Goldstein's Dept. store lost four points to Fisher's Agency putting them in second place. By taking four points from Onid Beauty shop, Cavalcade Inn gained third place. They also took high single game away from Goldstein's by bowling 888 pins. Plymouth Mail lost three points to Wayne County Training school putting them in the fourth position. Orchid Beauty Shoppe, V. Heintz of Goldstein's was high for the evening with 550 total. 238 her high game which is also second high single game for the season.

Table with columns: W, L, Pct. Rows include Purity Market, Hillside Barbecue, Goldstein's Store, etc.

Parkview Classic League Very little change in the standings this week. J.C.C. No. 1 lost four again, this time to Wall Wire. Hudson Motors took four from Oldsmobile. Todd's took three from Plymouth Hardware. Refrigerated Lockers took three from Plymouth Country club. Mayflower Taps took four from Super Shell No. 2. Perfection took three from Hi-Speed. Wilson Plumbers took three from City of Plymouth and Walter Harms. Three from Maplelawn. "Doc" Lyke supplied all the excitement for the evening by rolling 290 in his first game. "Doc" opened with a spare in the first frame and then went on through with 11 strikes to post a 290. A very fine game and incidentally the highest ever rolled at Parkview Recreation. "Doc" was really calm all the way through, too, and that is something. He finished the three-game series with 649. Other high series included Roy Wheeler, 643; Ker Harrison, 620; Bill Lomas, 608; George Ball, 602; G. Robinson, 601; Doyle Rowland, 600; Harvey Shaw, 593; Knut Anderson, 593; Estel Rowland, 590; Tom Levy, 579; Burden, 573; Leo Bower, 574; Lon Brocklehurst, 573; Lon Lightfoot, 571; Jac Ross, 570; Clarence Levy, 568; Martin, 564; Bery Smith, 561 and Jack Neill, 555.

Table with columns: W, L, Pct. Rows include Hudson Motors, Refrigerated Lkrs, J.C.C. No. 1, etc.

If Your Plans Call for GAS... BECAUSE of the wartime emergency, the Federal Government has found it necessary to restrict civilian use of materials needed in production for war. These materials include aluminum, copper, zinc, iron, steel and other items necessary to GAS construction. These restrictions make it impossible for us to continue our past policy of extending our GAS service lines to new customers and enlarging our facilities to provide additional capacity for existing customers. While present regulations permit certain short extensions, we do not know when or to what extent further restrictions may of necessity be imposed. Extensions requiring substantial amounts of materials must be specifically approved by the Government before construction can begin, even if the required material is in stock. The procedure for presenting requests for priorities, and obtaining them on the material items which go into extensions requires considerable time. Therefore, if you are thinking of building, moving or installing equipment requiring an extension of our lines, or additional capacity, please consult us before concluding your plans. We will be glad to cooperate to the extent that restrictions permit. We wish that restrictions were not necessary but we appreciate that the needs of National Defense must come first. We therefore accept them willingly and are trying to conform with them both in spirit and to the letter so that VICTORY may come the sooner. ## Explains Way to Fight Fire Bombs

Chief Wagenschutz Outlines Procedure

Fire Chief Fred Wagenschutz outlined this week the latest methods of fighting fire bombs, approved by the U. S. Office of Civilian Defense. "Everyone must know what to do in case of an air attack," said the Chief. "not only so we can keep fire damage as low as possible, but also so we can all face such an emergency with calmness and self-confidence. Panic is the only thing of which to be afraid."

The two-pound magnesium bomb is the type military authorities expect will be used," the Chief continued, "and, depending upon conditions when you find a bomb, use either sand or water spray on it. Wait about a minute before attacking it, so as to be sure the violent sputtering is over. Then, if the bomb has not set fire to surrounding combustibles, it can be covered with sand, dumped into a metal pail and removed from the premises."

"But if the bomb has started a fire by the time its violent reaction is over, water spray must be used. Be careful never to let a solid stream strike the bomb," the Chief warned, "because that may cause an explosive reaction. The source of water may be a garden hose or any fire extinguisher containing water or a water solution. However, since water supplies may fail during a raid, it is unsafe to depend on garden hose. That is why fire extinguishers which are self-contained sources of water are recommended."

By "thumping" the stream at the nozzle opening, the chief explained, you can use the pump-tank, soda-acid, foam or loaded stream types of extinguishers for the necessary spray, when working on the bomb itself and their normal solid stream on fire started by the bomb. The purpose of the water spray is to make the bomb burn itself out as fast as possible. "Because a bomb may penetrate the roof of a house and come to rest on the attic floor, it is a good idea to remove combustibles, so as to limit the things that can catch fire," the Chief concludes in his suggestions to civilians.

Tough Luck for Private Ingalls

"Life" Picture Upsets Army Camp Routine

(Special Correspondence)

Fort Benning, Ga.—All because a soldier wanted a bottle of beer and a bag of peanuts... the newsmen in Plymouth sold out the February 16th issue of Life magazine in a few hours.

... young ladies from Texas, Virginia, Ohio, Colorado, Tennessee and Massachusetts write neat, little messages on pink stationery, "I am 5 feet, 2 inches, 117 pounds with the longest black hair you ever did see. I think you're so cute!"

... the men in his outfit greet him with, "Hi, Barrymore!" ... his officers smilingly inquire if his royal highness finds it convenient to report for duty, ... and his own girl... she doesn't write at all anymore. All this, because Private First Class David S. Ingalls of the 78th Field Artillery, Second Armored Division, wandered into the Post Exchange one unlucky day for some refreshment.

When he crossed the familiar doorway that never-to-be-forgotten day, Private Ingalls knew immediately that things weren't as they should be. There were no soldiers huddled over their tables sipping their beers and cokes. No uniforms grouped around the juke box. Instead a nervous little man, holding a camera, and a beautiful girl sat anxiously awaiting the arrival of someone... anyone. He was the one.

"Say, you, you're just the one we've been waiting for. Sit down here with Miss Lloyd and sip these cups of coffee."

Private Ingalls was too startled by the little man's direction to do much objecting. Flashlights were bursting in his face, and that nervous little man with the camera was screaming at him to smile at the beautiful Miss Shirley Lloyd. He did.

Six weeks later, Private Ingalls, his smile, the beautiful Miss Lloyd, U.S.O. entertainer, and the cups of coffee graced the cover of the February 16th issue of Life magazine.

And today, no word yet from the girl back home in Plymouth.

Former Plymouth School Head Dies

Funeral Services at Athens Last Saturday

Funeral services were held at Athens, Michigan, last Saturday for Professor Charles F. Reebbs of the college of education at the Bowling Green Ohio State Teachers' university. Professor Reebbs, who was 62 years of age, died suddenly of heart disease last week Wednesday night.

An authority on educational tests and measurements, he was superintendent of schools in Athens, Colon and Plymouth, Michigan, before he joined the faculty in Ohio in 1918. He was superintendent of Plymouth public schools from 1915 to 1918 and the immediate predecessor of Superintendent George A. Smith. He was educated at Western State Teachers' college in Kalamazoo and the University of Michigan.

Professor Reebbs, who is survived by his wife, had served as president of the Bowling Green Chamber of Commerce and as worthy patron of the Eastern Star. He also had been active in the Masonic lodge and Boy Scout movement in that city.

Don Herrick Becomes New Mail Clerk

Don Herrick, former Plymouth mail carrier, who has been assisting in the clerical work of the Plymouth postoffice, has just been appointed full time clerk by Acting Postmaster Harry Irwin.

So rapidly has the business of the Plymouth postoffice increased that Postmaster Irwin has found it necessary to constantly keep increasing the number of employees. Two years ago while there were only three rural routes out of this city, there are now five.

The Burroughs Adding machine plant, and the new Kelsey-Hayes machine gun plant are becoming close rivals of the Daisy Manufacturing company in the amount of local postoffice business.

Traffic Tickets, Accidents Mount

Court Imposes $169 Fines for Violations

Traffic violation tickets issued by the Plymouth police department and traffic accidents in Plymouth during the month of February increased over the previous month, according to the monthly police report submitted to the city commission Tuesday. Police issued 42 traffic tickets, compared with 25 last month, and reported 13 traffic accidents, compared with 11 in January.

A total of $169 in fines was imposed by the municipal court for the following violations: Speeding, 10; reckless driving, 8; stop street, 7; improper parking, 6; red light, 3; fire hydrant parking, 2; overtime parking, 1; driving against traffic, 2; improper parking, 1 and no signal, 2.

H. V. Kaltenborn on Town Hall March 11

H. V. Kaltenborn, CBS news-analyst, heard every Sunday at 3:15 p.m. over WWJ, will be the Town Hall speaker Wednesday morning, March 11 at 11 o'clock in the Fisher theatre. William Shirer has cancelled on account of war commitments.

Wanderlust has sent Mr. Kaltenborn all over the world. Resourcefulness and courage have given him many scoops, both as newspaperman and radio reporter.

He has interviewed Mussolini and Hitler, and was often in Soviet Russia, where he broadcast many times over Moscow's powerful station, Mahatma Gandhi personally told him about conditions in India. Kaltenborn was one of the few Americans able to get into General Chiang Kai-shek's headquarters for an interview.

The Columbia news-analyst's wanderings started when he was only 19. He ran off and secretly enlisted to serve in the Spanish-American War.

Unlike most other commentators, Kaltenborn never reads from a script. He speaks "ad lib" from scribbled notes. This habit stood him in good stead during the Czech crisis. He would go on the air to translate a speech by Hitler as it came across the ocean from Berlin and shortly afterward return to the microphone to analyze what had been said. In addition to German, Kaltenborn speaks French and Spanish fluently.

McLaren were dinner guests, Sunday, of Mrs. J. L. Kemmerling, in Monroe. Mrs. J. D. McLaren, who has been visiting her mother for a few days, returned home that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Polley were dinner bridge hosts, Thursday evening of last week, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Moon, Dr. and Mrs. Carl January, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jewell, of this city, and Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Johnson, of Northville.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gayde, Miss Clara Wolf, Mrs. O. F. Bever, Miss Amelia Gayde, Sarah Gayde, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick and daughter, Mary Lou, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burgett were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Conley in Royal Oak.

Members of Chapter A.I. P.E.O. Sisterhood entertained Mrs. R. A. Plumb, state president, and Mrs. Gale H. Fisher, state organizer, at a luncheon and business meeting, Friday, in the home of Mrs. Paul Christenson with Mrs. M. R. Smith assisting. Mrs. E. Beridge was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Harry Terry invited the following guests for dinner, Sunday as a surprise for Mr. Terry, honoring his birthday anniversary: Mr. and Mrs. Willard Holton, of Rosedale Gardens, Mr. and Mrs. James Howard, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Merriam and Mr. and Mrs. James Sexton.

A silver tea will be given by Mrs. Robert Willoughby from 3 to 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, March 11, in her home on Ball street, for all members of the Plymouth Woman's club. The proceeds will be used in sending a girl to Girl's State at Jordan hall in Ann Arbor for a week. Several other similar affairs are being planned by various members of the club.

THERE'S A K IN VICTORY!

This war is being fought with resources as well as with men. Every pound of vital materials that can be conserved for weapons and munitions is another step on the road to Victory.

About the time the war began in Europe, Bell System engineers were starting to use the "K" carrier system—a new telephone development which now is saving large quantities of copper for use in implements of war.

In operation, the "K" carrier system enables two pairs of wires in parallel cables to carry as many as twelve separate conversations at the same time!

"K" carrier is helping Michigan Bell handle more Long Distance calls with fewer wires—making an important saving in copper.

Even with the help of research and invention, increasing shortages of materials make it difficult to satisfy service demands as promptly as in the past. But we are confidently determined that every war need will be met.

Northville Wins Over Rocks

Plymouth was defeated by her old rival 18-22. Up to the last minute it was either team's game. Plymouth leading at the half 13-12. It was only after a rough hard fought game that Northville gained the greater score. Ellis made the first goal and parity shot; he was high-point man on the Plymouth team. E. Solo and Gorton followed with four points, and Kearney, two. Sheppard completed the Rocks' line-up. Schools with nine points to his credit was high scorer for Northville.

The younger Rocks' attempts to win were also in vain. Northville's second team bagged the higher score 20 to 24. Five new players appeared in the local line-up: Phillips, Gdaniec, Bauman, Shults, and Hall Johnson. Hoffman, Curmi, Sasal, Newton and Mason completed the line-up.

The local cheer leaders were there to lead the wild Plymouth fans in yells. Many stayed to enjoy the dance after the game.

This contest wound up Plymouth's extremely bad season with 10 victories and 13 consecutive defeats.

Sixteen Girls Go to Playday

Sixteen girls from Leaders' Club enjoyed playday Monday night at the Ypsilanti high school. Four girls from each class were selected. The freshmen were Rosemary Herter, Lois Mills, Margaret Stitt, and Shirley Hitt; sophomores, Lois Vetal, Norma Robinson, Annabel Heller and Irene Nidospal; juniors, Margaret Martin, Janice Downing, Ed. Hudson, and Rosemary Ray; seniors, Hazel Pankow, Phyllis Nichols, Leona Nidospal and Garmel Stitt.

After playing basketball, the girls had a splash, then refreshments were served.

To give more girls a chance to participate in the playdays, more of these will be held later.

"Those Before"

John Moore, who was graduated in 1937, has been stationed in Antonio, Texas, with his engineer squadron. When heard of last, he said he expected to move some place else for further training. John was a member of the Pilgrim Prints when he was in high school. His family resides on Northville road.

Another high school student who went in for airplane mechanics is Howard Olsen. Howard is now studying at a school for mechanics in Chicago and is living at the Y.M.C.A. in that city. Howard is one of many who have enlisted for training by the Navy.

Miss Lovewell recently received a very interesting letter from Robert Marshall, also a former Plymouth student. Bob is now in the navy and, according to the letter, he likes the navy very much. Bob wrote from Greenland and told many interesting things about it.

William Widmaier visited school this last week. Bill was a student at Plymouth high school until he decided to join the navy. He has duty on a light cruiser in the Atlantic.

Junior Class Mourns Death of Classmate

The junior class is saddened to learn of the death of one of its classmates, Allan Simpson, the first death which has occurred in that class since it has begun high school. Allan was away from school for three and a half months with a heart ailment. He was fond of baseball, had a keen sense of humor and was very active in our school art department, having made various posters and other items to publicize school events.

What's Buzzing?

What a difference—in Detroit schools. It is said you could hear a pin drop during the air raid alarm, while here it's likely a bomb wouldn't have been heard if it had dropped on the school. Won't it be surprising if some one doesn't get his eyes put out with all the knitting needles around. If you are in a hurry, though, it's amazing how quickly everyone moves if you hold your knitting needles in front of you.

Class News

Mr. Balden's 8A science classes are now studying electricity and magnetism, while his 8B science groups are engrossed in studying the atmosphere.

Miss Saffell's world history class is making maps of Napoleon's Empire.

Today all senior announcements must be ordered. They are nine cents apiece.

Miss Fiegel's American history classes are holding a current events contest each week, with the girls against the boys. Last week's results were: Second hour, 11-19 in favor of boys, third hour, 10-10; fourth hour, 11-15 with the boys coming out ahead; sixth hour, 11-15 in favor of the girls; seventh hour 12-12 with the boys ahead.

Pupils of Mr. Evans' chemistry class are selecting topics of interest to make reports on. These will pertain to chemical by-products such as dyes, paints, drugs, medicine and hard water softeners.

The seventh and eighth grade shop students of Mr. Lamiman have been making crystal sets. They have been quite successful. One of the students, Charles Strachen, can get three stations with his set.

Mrs. Soule's 8A Home Economics girls are working on salads for luncheons this week, while her seventh grade girls are working on breakfast. Her high school girls have finished their "Personal grooming" course and have started patterns.

Miss Lundin reports that 98 per cent of her home economics girls are knitting, and are almost ready to start sewing their first garments.

Mrs. Hecox's ninth grade food class has finished the study of care and arranging the kitchen, and is beginning the study of breakfast. This week it is studying fruits.

Mr. Reeves' 9A geography classes are now listing the outstanding products of the various states of our country and are comparing them as to rank by means of a chart. His 9A world geography groups are studying how the "ground sea," or the land beneath the water of our seas and oceans, serves mankind in its various ways.

Found: One Room

This may seem a bit out of the ordinary—writing about a room in a class room. But room 20A is an unusual room. Maybe it had to be discovered. There are several versions of this story. One is that it was found by a certain senior when she parked all of her 34 1/2 pounds against the hall wall (poet?) in the vicinity of Miss Fry's room. To her amazement that portion of the wall ceased to exist. When the dust had cleared there it was a lot of broken plaster with four walls, a ceiling, a floor, and an uncomfortable radiator.

Another "authentic" version states that several summers ago the janitors were cleaning the walls when they uncovered an imbedded door knob. After further scrubbing a door attached to this knob was revealed. Attached to this door were three characters punctuated by a hyphen: "20-A."

This school board's step-child has had a myriad of uses: Art storeroom, office of the mayor and the senior annual editor, h-hom of the radio class (this amazing revelation has exploded the rumor that the equipment being used by a homesick enemy spy), the court chamber, and the local hang-out of Mr. Klebsattel, the music instructor from Ann Arbor. However, as this item is not intended to be taken seriously, the real origin will have to be revealed. Along about 1923, a well known entomologist claims, a crew of carpenter ants held a convention in that corner of the building. Well, you know how conventions are...

Snoop and Spy

Dorothy Blunk and Hal Young enjoyed the show at Dearborn last Friday night. After the show they went to Conley's Grill in Dearborn.

Sheik Erdelyi, Elaine De-Planche, Du Rua De Planche, Elden Martin, Johnny Repper and Betty Holman attended the last Ford Sunday Evening Hour at Detroit.

Fern Dipboye went to the Columbia Opera group production of "The Barber of Seville" at the Wilson theatre last Wednesday night.

Malcolm MacGregor enjoyed dinner at Louise Powell's last Sunday.

Louise Powell spent the week-end with Barbara Butt and Barbara enjoyed the following week-end with Louise.

Janet Crandell, Bob Bovee, Mariceta Martin, and Art Robinson attended the Shrine Circus in Detroit Monday evening. Afterwards they enjoyed a snack at Sanders.

Among those who went ice skating at Newburg last Wednesday were Ruth Drews, Gordon Ross, Marie Ann Miller and Joe Measel.

Gordon Ross attended the Redford Northwestern basketball game with some of his old cronies last Friday.

Gennie Daily of Mackenzie high school went to the Northville-Plymouth basketball game at Northville last Friday, afterwards spending the night at Wilma Lounsbury's.

Teachers Take Refresher Course

Three hundred teachers attended the first week's meeting of the "Refresher Course," held at Wayne University on Saturday, February 21. The course, which is sponsored by the Home Economics club of Wayne University, shows the teachers the new trends in nutrition.

Mrs. Soule and Miss Lundin represent Plymouth at the course, which is to be held for three more weeks. Vitamins and minerals were the subjects of the first week's meeting.

Freshman Game Canceled

The P.H.S. freshman basketball team was scheduled to play with Dearborn last Friday, but this was canceled because six of the Plymouth players dressed for the second team game. They were Schultz, Phillips, Gdaniec, Micol, Hall and Bauman.

Leaders' club is starting a Red Cross Drive, for coat hangers, tinfoil, old tooth paste and shaving tubes, and other things needed. Bring these to Miss Olmstead's room, room 15. They would also like all the old wool cloth that you have. This will be used to make lap robes used in the hospitals. Dark colors are preferred but they will take some light colors. The tinfoil should be made into balls. Be sure that it is on tight. To make this ball, pound it with a hammer each time after you put on a piece.

Help National Defense by remembering to bring these articles to school. America needs everyone's help.

Senior Sketches

Robert Sessions was born in Northville, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Session. He now lives at 462 North Harvey street, Plymouth. He has made trips through Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, and also last summer he went to Birmingham, Alabama, to visit Bob Marshall. His hobbies are photography and making model airplanes. Robert is very athletic; he has had four years of football, three years of track, one year of basketball, and the Varsity club two years. His pet peeve is people who get mad easily.

To become a surgical nurse is the aim of Hazel Norine Pankow, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Pankow of 35601 Six Mile road, Hazel, who has traveled in Canada, was born in Northville township. Her chief hobby is flowers, especially those in rock gardens, while her pet peeve is high school girls and boys who smoke. Her accomplishments include four years a member of the Girl Reserves, vice president of Home Ec. club for one year, drum major one year, secretary-treasurer of high school bowling league, earned 1000 points for junior letter and 400 points for senior letter, participating in all sports.

Girls and women who smoke are the pet peeve of Robert Widmaier, 45560 West Ann Arbor Trail, Robert, who is the son of Grace and Richard Widmaier, was born in Detroit, and formerly lived in Disco, Michigan.

His chief hobby is roller skating. He has made five trips to Florida. He has not yet decided his aim in life.

My! but there is a lot of girls in the senior class who wish to become nurses! Dorothy Ritchie, daughter of William and Pearl Ritchie, of 9291 North Territorial road, is one of these. Born in Detroit, Dorothy has been in Girl Reserves, on the Junior play committee, and Senior Annual committee. Her hobby is collecting miniature dolls while her pet peeve is women that keep their hats on in movies.

Doris Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder, of 33076 Ann Arbor Trail, was born in Nankin Mills, Michigan. She has made trips through Georgia, Florida, and Alabama, and has traveled across the states several times. Her aim is to be a Red Cross nurse, and her accomplishments in high school are sports. Collecting signs is her chief hobby.

Who's Who In P. H. S.

This week: Queen of the Ivories. Ruth Drews is the lass upon whom the royal title has been bestowed, and she well deserves it. Ruth began her piano lessons when she was five years old and continued them for eight years. She took from Hanna Strasen, a local instructor.

In this school she plays or has played for the girls' double quartet, the royal mixed chorus, senior Girl Reserves' assemblies (group singing), for the past two years in graduation exercises, last year orchestra, for the past two school musicals, all style shows, and also she has gone with local soloists and accompanied them. On February 21, the solo contest in Birmingham she accompanied most of the pupils who entered the contest from our school, among them Bill Wooster, who took first division.

These are only a few of the reasons why Ruth deserves the P.H.S. salute of the week around 21. She also plays for several functions outside of school, but politely she has declined to state them saying "What I do outside of school may not interest anyone else."

Next week: Baton twirling a la deluxe.

Bill Wooster Gets First Division

A first division in the Southern Michigan Solo Ensemble contest, the best conceivable performance for the event. This honor was bestowed on Bill Wooster Saturday, February 21, at Birmingham by Mr. Revelli, University of Michigan band director. Mr. Revelli said among other things that Bill was excellent in tone, style, good musicianship, and talent. Ruth Drews, who accompanied Bill, received an A rating.

Louise Carter received a second division rating in the contest while Dorothy Woodbury got a third division. The results on the solos of Harry Wooster and Art Robinson have not as yet been received.

Rosedale Gardens News

At the annual spring luncheon of the Rosedale Gardens and Plymouth branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association, to be held in the Hotel Mayflower in Plymouth, at 12:30 o'clock, Monday, March 9, the members and their guests will have the privilege of listening to a talk by John and Frank Clayhead, twins, who are completing their Ph.D. degrees at the University of Michigan. Their subject will be "Life with an Indian Prince." They will show many beautiful colored slides which will include a native Indian wedding, which they attended when they were in the English government. The English government were not invited. Outstanding among the wedding events was a parade of 80 elephants. The common interest between this Indian prince and the Craighead twins is falconry and it was through an article on falconry that they became acquainted.

The prince visited the young men in Washington, D.C. and invited them to visit him, which they did last year when on a round the world tour. Mrs. Kenneth Gibson, program chairman of the Rosedale group, will introduce the speakers and Mrs. Lester Bookout will entertain with piano selections.

Carolyn Castle Petschulat, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Petschulat, left Saturday with Mrs. Ted Rheiner, of Plymouth, on a month's vacation with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weir in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The first of a series of parties was given Monday in the home of Mrs. Stanley James when she and Mrs. William King entertained 12 guests at a luncheon bridge.

Mrs. Fred Winkler returned Sunday from a week's vacation in Chicago, where she visited her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Von Noelle.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holcomb plan to attend their "500" club meeting, Saturday evening, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Goudy in Detroit.

Mrs. Blanche Hoffer and Mrs. J. Mulliken, of Detroit, were dinner guests, Sunday, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Fisher.

Mrs. Stanley James was given a surprise Saturday evening at her summer home at White Lake. About 30 friends from Detroit and Rosedale Gardens spent the evening with her in honor of her birthday.

Salem News

About 20 friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Gale gave them a happy surprise last Saturday evening at their home on Five Mile road. The event honored the couple's thirty-sixth wedding anniversary. The bride's daughter, Miss Marion Gale, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Russell Gale, had made all arrangements. Delicious refreshments were served. The main feature was a beautiful three-tier cake which was cut by the bride for her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wheeler of Ypsilanti were week-end guests at the A. C. Wheeler home. Mr. and Mrs. William Martin of South Lyon were Salem callers Sunday afternoon.

Funeral services for Lester Kehrl who died at his home last week Wednesday, were held at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon. Rev. Luc M. Stroh officiated. Burial took place at Thayer cemetery.

Miss Ethel Littell of Detroit spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Myra Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Herrick are the parents of a daughter born last week Wednesday at Mt. Carmel hospital in Detroit.

Mrs. C. O. Hammond and Mrs. Ronald Lyke were in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Lester Bookout, chairman, Mrs. Harry Bock and Mrs. V. H. Petschulat.

Mrs. H. H. Holcomb attended a luncheon bridge, Monday in the home of Mrs. Ray Covell in Plymouth.

Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. William King, Mrs. C. H. Groth and Mrs. Stanley James, members of the Tuesday evening bridge club, attended the Wednesday matinee at the Cass theatre seeing Helen Hayes in "Candle in the Wind."

FULL STEAM AHEAD, AMERICA!

It is to be presumed that nearly every American citizen heard the plea of Donald Nelson Monday night for an all-out effort on the part of EVERY American to bring this country to a position where it can successfully combat the assaults being made by Japan and Germany upon our armed forces. It is going to take all of our might, all of our time and all of our resources, stated Mr. Nelson. O.K., Mr. Nelson, we are with you to a man! And how could any true American have heard your plea without having decided to take his coat off and go the limit to help out in the emergency facing our country?

TIME TO GET SERIOUS

Spring is not far away when long distance flying becomes much easier than it is at present. With the coming of spring, comes an increase of the danger confronting America, Detroit and PLYMOUTH! Yes, the danger is exceedingly grave. There is a danger of bombing in this locality, an immediate danger. Every army and navy officer, every person who has followed the trend of the war, knows full well that southeastern Michigan will be the center of attack by our enemies sooner or later. The time is now here to get serious about our dangers—and to prepare! Take seriously every word of advice and warning that comes from our local defense council, and let every person do his part in defending our people and our homes.

WHAT ROT!

From out of Washington in nearly every mail there comes a flood of propaganda against "high taxes." Some down in the nation's capital seem to think that that is the only subject of importance.

But here is the funny thing about it—the folks back home don't seem to care a rap about how high their taxes are or will be in the future. They are perfectly willing to pay, and seem glad to do so.

There is only one comment—"we hope they don't squander it. We want our boys at the front to get the benefit of every penny we pay in taxes. We'll pay and pay gladly just so long as they get something done with our tax dollars."

One Plymouth citizen while having his income tax made out, was advised that he had failed to make a deduction that he had a right to make.

"What the h—! I don't want it made. I want to pay, so Uncle Sam can have all the money he needs. If there is anything else in that thing I can pay more taxes on, I want to do it," he declared to the auditor making out his income tax report.

That's the way citizens of Plymouth feel about it. Not a single taxpayer here is kicking about taxes. But they want results. They don't want their tax dollars wasted—and they want the rest of the nation to get down to business and go to work in one mighty effort to help WIN THIS WAR.

Taxes? You bet we'll pay them, and pay them gladly, just as long as Uncle Sam uses our tax dollars for war instead of moon-dogging.

NAUSEATING IN THE EXTREME

A few days ago Congressman Albert Engel sent to the writer a copy of the testimony taken during the alleged inquiry into the reported attempted "shake-down" of the Brunswick-Balke-Collender company of Muskegon upon the part of Michigan's lieutenant governor and some political pal he had picked up while attending the last presidential inauguration in Washington.

Officials of the company testified that Mr. Murphy HAD approached them about getting war contracts for the company and that he HAD asked for a salary of "$2,000 to $3,000 per month" as his part of the proposed shake-down in getting the company some war business.

Murphy testified that he HAD approached these officials and that he HAD asked for a salary of about "$1,000 per month as salary and expenses" for a man named Clapp—that the salary was for Clapp and not for himself.

Officials testified, however, that they were under the impression, from their interview with both Murphy and Clapp, that Murphy wanted the $24,000 or $36,000 per year salary paid to him.

Murphy, while admitting that he had discussed a salary for Clapp in connection with getting war business, denied that he had sought any part of it, but he thought Clapp ought to have $12,000 per year salary and expenses.

The house of representatives sub-committee reported that it had found Mr. Murphy guilty of no sin or other wrongdoing in attempting to get some friend a shake-down wrong in connection with war business for the Muskegon company.

The report is not surprising, in view of statements made on the floor of the house by Representative Faddis, who was chairman of the sub-committee that made the so-called inquiry.

Congressman Faddis, during a house discussion of this problem, said that there is a place in Washington for "brokers." That is what Lieutenant Governor Murphy wanted to be or have his political friend to be—a broker. A broker is a fellow who gets a slice of our tax dollars for helping to get some fellow a contract to make guns, munitions and provide our soldiers with clothing, food, medical supplies, etc.

Permit one to ask, what can the American people expect if a member of congress occupies an outstanding position, is in favor of "broker" shake-downs on government business?

And is it any wonder in view of such an attitude that Congressman Engel's effort to clean this type of racketeering out of government war business is meeting with so little success?

There is no evidence to show that Michigan's lieutenant governor, who won his election because of his name, did commit any legal offense. But nevertheless he DID attempt to get a shake-down job for a political pal, which he admitted in his testimony before the house committee. That in itself is enough to impeach the honest intent of any high public official.

Unfortunately the sub-committee chairman sought to crucify patriotic Congressman Engel, who did his public duty, and at the same time he gave Lieutenant Governor Murphy and his pal a clean bill of health. Such is the political condition under which we are attempting to conduct a successful world war.

TIN CANS, TOO?

We have an old, leaky, battered aluminum kettle in our office, doing duty as a container for pigs of lino-type metal. It missed the nation-wide collection, and has now assumed the appearance of advanced decrepitude. We have been minded to join the "Bundles for Congress" movement, and mail it to Senator Prentiss M. Brown, who, contrary to Senator Vandenburg, voted for the congressional pension grab, with a tax on it advising that maybe he can sell it to Uncle Sam. However, we forbear, at least, for the present, noting that Congress has been razzed to a point where it is about ready to repeal the sinister law—Emerson's Gildart in The Utica Sentinel.

A NEW WAY

A new wrinkle in communist party membership cards has been disclosed by the Dies committee. An ordinary dollar bill now serves as the party card. The bill's serial number, it is reported, is registered with party headquarters and accredited to the person carrying it. Thus if a party member is arrested, injured or falls sick no incriminating party card is found on him. Only the dollar bill. If the bill gets spent by mistake, lost, taken by the police or in any other way misplaced, the member can promptly advise party headquarters, send in the serial number of another bill and he is in good standing again. The plan also saves the Communist party a sizeable printing bill for party membership cards. They let Uncle Sam foot the bill.—Milton Carmichael in The Wayne County Courier.

THE FIRST LADY

It isn't easy or pleasant to speak critically of the war activities of the wife of the President of the United States. In fact, she is really disqualifed by her position as the President's wife from holding office under her husband, because her word necessarily carries an authority beyond that of an ordinary citizen in her position.

Doubtless Mrs. Roosevelt herself is surprised by the storm that has been aroused in Washington by the character of her personal appointments to some of the better salaried positions. She undoubtedly believes her selections are of the highest class. The wide-spread reaction against them should convince her that by temperament she is not qualified to make objective appointments and that she could better serve the cause she has at heart in her private capacity of first lady rather than in public office. Her activities in her present position, no matter how well intended, are not conducive to maintaining public morale or cementing national unity.—George Neal in The Orion Review.

WHAT IS BACK OF IT?

What is the secret thing back of an apparent understanding that will give a former supposed loyal supporter of the Republican party, and one who has had party honors bestowed upon him, one of the "juiciest plums" at the disposal of a Democratic governor? Just what caused Democratic Governor Van Wagener to first give Ex-Senator Flynn a position a few months ago that is said to have been worth $5,000 annually to Flynn, and Friday named him on the State Liquor Control Commission, a berth that will pay Flynn $7,500 annually. Incidentally it might be stated that we were ridiculed by Republican party leaders when we indicated in these columns almost a year ago that Flynn was to get this rich plum. They pretended that they could not conceive that Flynn as a supposed staunch Republican could receive two such lucrative appointments within a single year at the hands of a Democratic governor.

What has caused such flaunting of public trust in the face of the electorate of Michigan? What is the mysterious thing back of this? What has Flynn done, possibly under cover, for a Democratic governor to bestow such favors on a Republican? Was it not Flynn that went over the state bearing Hon. H. Earl McNitt, then a representative in the state legislature, condemning McNitt because he would not go along with a Republican state highway department because he thought certain requests were un-American? Was it not Flynn who tried to "dethrone" Murray D. Van Wagener when he was first elected state highway commissioner by having the office vacated with thought of a commission running state highway matters? Was it not Flynn who did all he could a few years ago to block M-115, one of the pet projects of Van Wagener, almost as soon as he became state highway commissioner?

In passing it might also be asked: Why after Flynn had been turned down twice within a few weeks by the electorate of the great state of Michigan in two financial favors bestowed upon him, will he be recalled that he was defeated for the nomination of lieutenant governor and then lost out when he ran for state treasurer.

Why then the present apparent most friendly relations between two persons who in the past have been known as bitter political enemies? Why within less than a year has Flynn been given a reported $5,000 a year berth, followed by one giving him the magnificent sum of $7,500 and a Cadillac?—Huckle in The Cadillac Evening News.

25 YEARS AGO . . .

And 50 years ago news of the pulling of the village from the Plymouth Mail

The Plymouth fire department is desirous of installing the Gamewell fire alarm system. The system as proposed will cost the village something over $2,000. Twelve fire alarm boxes are to be distributed at various points in the village. Automatically with the pulling of the box, the fire whistle rings from a telephone company has agreed to blow the fire whistle and give the ward number in case an alarm is sent in by telephone. The system was explained to the people assembled at the village hall last Sunday afternoon by Fred Reiman, a member of the fire department. President Robinson at that time also advanced another proposition to equip a Ford automobile with the chemical tank the village now owns and hire a man to drive it.

The old livery barn on Penniman avenue, now owned by Harry C. Robinson, that has stood on its present site as "long as the oldest inhabitant can remember" is about to lose its prestige as a "landmark" and succumb to the advance of Plymouth progress. Mr. Robinson has sold the land upon which it stands to Mrs. Kate E. Allen and will move the rear of the barn to some vacant land owned by him across the alley. The front part will be torn down and Mrs. Allen will start at once to build a two-story brick block on the site. The building will be divided into three rooms and the upper floors will be used as an amusement hall and office rooms. The cost of the new building will be $27,000 and Contractor J. H. Patterson will do the work.

With the coming of new industries to Plymouth, there also comes a demand for more houses for renting purposes. It is almost impossible to get a house to rent in Plymouth. Of course this speaks well for the village in one way, but we are to have more new industries, it is imperative that we have houses in which the employes can live. It is really a serious question and unless there are more houses built for renting purposes, it may prove a serious drawback to the industrial progress of the village.

Bert Crumie is driving a fine new six-cylinder, seven-passenger Jeffrey car.

A pretty little dancing party was given in Penniman hall last Friday evening when the members of the Young Ladies' Dancing club entertained the children. About 60 boys and girls were in attendance. At nine o'clock the guests formed for the grand march with Miss Dorothy Dodsley of Detroit and Bennett Wilcox of this place as leaders. Each guest was presented with a favor appropriate to the 22nd of February.

About 95 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Magraw gave them a pleasant surprise at their farm house on Thursday evening, February 22. Will Harmon gave a number of selections on the violin. Cards and dancing were features of the evening. Jerry Gordon carried away the first prize; Miss Ruby Webster and Oren Westfall won second prizes and Mrs. A. B. Hersh and Glenn Penney, third prizes. Clifford McLumpha, in behalf of their friends, presented Mr. and Mrs. Magraw with an electric flat iron. Mrs. Myrtle Murray and Mrs. Lulu Lyke entertained the "Larkin Bee" club at the home of the former on Tuesday of last week.

The Minehart young people very pleasantly entertained their friends last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James McNabb and daughter, Joy, and Mrs. Vina Joy of Detroit spent Sunday at Mark Joy's.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hillman have moved into their new home on Caster avenue.

Don't miss seeing "The Old Peabody Evening" by home talent Friday, March 16.

W. S. Thomas and family of Detroit are moving into their home on Main street, recently purchased of Mrs. L. C. Hough.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murray have moved from New Hudson, and are living with the latter's mother, Mrs. C. F. Smith, on Mill street.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gayde entertained several relatives at a six o'clock dinner at their home on Silverwater avenue last Sunday evening.

C. A. Fox has purchased the frame house owned by E. K. Bennett on the east side of Main street. Mr. Fox will move the house off the lot and build a fine new house on the site.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Felt entertained the following relatives at dinner last Sunday in honor of the latter's birthday: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Isaminger, William Felt and wife, John Felt and Earl Sockow.

Miss Verne Rowley, who has been ill since the first of the week, was taken Wednesday to Harper hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis at one o'clock that afternoon.

A whirlwind campaign beginning today and ending Sunday, March 18, operating on lines similar to the Y.M.C.A. building campaigns in the large cities, is the plan by which it is hoped to complete the building fund for the new Methodist Episcopal church.

On February 23, school boys heard a talk by Mr. Sylvester of Detroit, who delivered a strong plea for the organization of a club to fight the tobacco habit among boys. At the close of his talk, a number of the boys joined the club. The Clean Life club is growing and spreading over the United States. Yet Plymouth fellows have a good reason to be proud of a branch here.

Thinking is the hardest kind of work—which is probably the reason so few engage in it.

ROGER BABSON SAYS . . .

2x4 Job Holders Hurting War Efforts

Richmond, Va., March 6—Every business man knows the thousands of rules and regulations which are being enacted at Washington. Donald Nelson is begging manufacturers to produce more; but they have to spend so much time warming their pants in Washington offices in order to see some 2x4 official that they have not the time needed to run their plants. Even when home they are forced to spend half their day talking with lawyers or reading new S. restrictions received in the morning's mail.

Perhaps all these orders are needed. It may be necessary to crush Nazi Nazism in order to produce more; but they have to spend so much time warming their pants in Washington offices in order to see some 2x4 official that they have not the time needed to run their plants. Even when home they are forced to spend half their day talking with lawyers or reading new S. restrictions received in the morning's mail.

One thing is certain. These rules and regulations cannot continually be increased and multiplied. Some time there will be a breaking point. A dam cannot hold back a river indefinitely. Finally, either the water overflows or else the dam breaks. Some day there will be an awful reaction to this bureaucracy. Either the Democratic party will be thrown out bodily or else . . . It seems to many that the New Dealers are at last busy digging their own graves.

I am not a naval or army man; but after talking with them I always feel very blue. Why? Because they urge "deceiving and misleading," insisting that success in war depends the casting aside of all moral principles. They substitute not only brutality but also blasphemy, deceit, intrigue, abuse, dope and fraud of all kinds. It may be true that all is fair in war and love; but victories and marriages won by this slogan surely lead to trouble in the end.

The above is not complaint or criticism of our brave men. We all owe everything to them. But what will such a training of the youths of all nations finally do to the world? We know that the great need is for integrity, self-control, and those other qualities which make for real manhood. Certainly, if our enemies cannot be trusted we should be able to trust our own people and not treat them as brainless and soulless robots.

Military men try to cheer me up by saying that after the war this procedure will be stopped and we can again live as human beings; but can we? I recently attended a conference on providing employment after the war. We were told (1) that 25,000,000 will be engaged in war work when the war ends; (2) that the war will end very suddenly without anyone thinking an end is in sight; (3) that 20,000,000 of these people will immediately be thrown out of work.

Thereupon we were told of various plans for new rules and regulations for all employes and workers as to just what we must do, how much we must spend, where we shall work or sell after the war. Apparently there will be more instead of less regulating when peace comes. The present plan is to add to the restrictions in order "to fight the peace" as one of the Washington "high-ups" expressed it.

Many of the government restrictions seem crazy to statisticians. We know that when you begin to "regulate" nature you are putting your head into a hornet's nest. The war today is largely due to tariffs, bonuses, and other forms of national greed that have upset natural trade and industry. Some day we must "go through the corn sheller" and pay for our mistakes. Our difficulties will be solved only as we return to letting nature work out these problems through natural rewards and punishments, not through artificial commissions and bureaus.

If artificial rationing, priorities, price fixing, censorship, wage and hour regulations, and the thousand other experiments are necessary, well and good. Let us be honest with people, however, and acknowledge that they will not succeed in the end. They are a form of dope or anesthetic which will work for a short time only. Washington economists are today doing what doctors did in George Washington's day. History says those doctors bled our first President when he really needed a blood infusion. The parents of our boys need a government that they feel is friendly to them.

My real appeal is that we all (and this includes Washington) start immediately to get people back to the fundamentals of life. We should tell people that jim-crank restrictions and regulations cannot long work. Last week I urged that we the people elect the President. Now I beg the President to trust the people. If our people can be trusted to do right we will win the war; but if they cannot be trusted we will surely lose the peace. Greed must be crushed; but this can come about only through a spiritual awakening starting in Washington. Every broadcast for the sale of Victory Bonds should include an appeal for integrity and selflessness. Only "righteousness exalteth a nation" today as it did over 2500 years ago. (Proverbs 14: 34).

There are no short cuts to victory. Otherwise Hitler would have already won. Laws can be discovered; but they cannot be manufactured. World War II came upon us because we thought more of ourselves and forgat God. We will avoid more troubles, after it is over, only as we think less of our ourselves and remember God.
