

Petition PSC For Bus Service To Willow Run

Stark-Hickey Seeks To Operate Bus Line From Pontiac to Ypsi

A petition has been filed with the Public Service Commission at Lansing by Stark-Hickey, Ford dealer of Detroit, applying for a franchise to operate a bus line between Pontiac and the Bomber plant at Willow Run which would serve defense workers in Farmington, Northville and Plymouth.

The filing of the petition asking a hearing with the PSC within the next two weeks was disclosed by City Manager C. H. Elliott of Plymouth at a conference with Stark Hickey Thursday morning at the city hall. The proposal offers a promise of solution to the acute transportation problem facing defense workers in the Plymouth area.

The company revealed that it has 300 motor bus chassis now ready for service as well as an ample stock of new bus tires. It is estimated that the proposed bus service would accommodate approximately 4,000 employees of the Willow Run plant in this area when the plant reaches its normal capacity.

The Stark-Hickey company, long associated as automobile agents for the Ford Motor company, plans to offer bus service between Plymouth and Willow Run for 45 cents round-trip and for 90 cents round-trip between Pontiac and Plymouth. If the petition is approved by the state, the automobile and tire situation present a serious transportation problem to workers in Plymouth and vicinity engaged in war production. Representatives of the Plymouth Coach company state they are unable to purchase new buses to offer service to the Willow Run plant.

The Greyhound motor bus company operates only two runs through Plymouth between Pontiac and Ann Arbor daily and not at hours convenient for factory workers.

The proposed plan will be presented to the Plymouth city commission at its next regular meeting with a request to send a resolution to the Public Service Commission. It is suggested that residents of Plymouth interested in improved bus transportation write letters to the Public Service Commission in support of the petition.

Charles Johnson In Australia

Plymouth Lad With American Army

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Johnson of Beck road have just received a cablegram from their son, Charles, telling of his safe arrival in Australia with a force of American troops.

Not only did he arrive safely on that far away continent, but upon his arrival there was awaiting him a mass of mail from home, including The Plymouth Mail.

From articles that have been printed in metropolitan newspapers from news correspondents who made the trip with the troops, the venture into that distant part of the world has been a most interesting one.

Defense savings bonds and stamps give all of us a way to take a direct part in building the defense of our country—an American way to find the billions needed for defense.

Diagnosis of Acute Appendicitis
Special care in interpreting the blood test used in diagnosis of acute appendicitis will be necessary in the case of men recently inducted into army service, Dr. Hugh McKenna of Chicago warns the younger medical officers of the army.

World war experience with appendicitis in military hospitals forms the basis of Dr. McKenna's note to appear in the forthcoming issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

The white blood cell count, frequently used in diagnosing acute appendicitis, is lower, Dr. McKenna points out, following the triple typhoid vaccination now used in the army.

"The blood picture sometimes puzzled medical officers in making a prompt diagnosis of acute appendicitis," Dr. McKenna says of World war days. "Any factor which may delay a decision in making a prompt diagnosis in acute appendicitis is hazardous and must be corrected in order that surgery may not be delayed."

Of Recent Origin
Glaciers in the Sierra Nevada mountains are very recent in origin, not relics of the Great Ice age as tourists are informed by guides. Both the glaciers and Owens lake are less than 4,000 years old, according to Dr. Francois Mathes of the United States Geological survey. And 4,000 years back is "only yesterday" in the geological time scale.

"From its salt content," Dr. Mathes says, "it is clear that Owens lake cannot possibly date back to the Great Ice age. The lake appears to be the same age as the small glaciers of the Sierra Nevada. It is probable that these glaciers made their last great advance as recently as 1850. If the glaciers were older than 4,000 years they would have deposited much more material. They cannot possibly date back over 10,000 years to the Ice age."

Overcrowded Ponds Stunt Fish
Overcrowded ponds, like overcrowded city districts, produce under-sized, stunted populations, Prof. H. S. Swingle and Dr. E. V. Smith, of the Alabama Agricultural Experiment station recently said: "Lack of carnivorous species that remove the surplus population, and heavy weed growth in the ponds, are important contributing factors to this ill state of affairs. As remedies they recommended clearing out the weeds, stockings with large-mouth bass, fertilizing the water to increase the food supply, and thinning out the crowded population by a heavier take of fish."

Mrs. Thatcher Pushes Victory Garden Campaign

Plymouth Urged To Do Its Part in Growing Foods

One hundred thousand Victory Gardens is the goal for Michigan this year. You, too, can raise a Victory garden by turning that waste patch of land at the back of your lot into a thriving garden. You can do much to ease the nation's toil by so doing. Not only will it open up greater food supplies for army use by lessening consumer needs, but it will act as a diverting factor from the cares of war.

Mrs. Horace Thatcher, local Victory Garden leader, states that there are many requests for plots in every part of the city. If you have vacant space that could be used for a garden, contact the local chairman. All preparations will be properly cared for during the garden season and left in good condition in the fall. Arrangements for plowing and preparation of the ground should be made at once, the committee chairman advises.

E. I. Besemer, county agricultural agent, will be at the city hall Monday, April 6 from one to four o'clock in the afternoon to analyze samples of soil for gardeners who have made a selection of their lot for a Victory Garden. Anyone is invited to bring a small portion of soil and Mr. Besemer will tell what will grow best in it or whether it is too acid or sandy. Booklets have also been placed in the local library containing many helpful instructions and suggestions for beginning gardeners.

MARY FAIRMAN B. ROOT

Mary Fairman Bradner, widow of the late Casman Ward Root, was born April 10, 1854 in Livonia township, the daughter of Nathan Bradner and Elvira Fairman Bradner. She began her teaching career when only 16, teaching successfully in the Kingston school where most of her pupils were relatives, an acid test. She was graduated from the Ypsilanti Normal school in 1874. After teaching in Plymouth and other cities in Michigan, she, with her brother, also a graduate of Ypsilanti, went to California where she and he taught for several years. Mrs. Root had made 16 trips to the coast and back. Feeling a great urge to take up medicine she came East to attend a medical school in Cincinnati from which she was graduated in 1885. For the next 15 years she practiced successfully in Denver, Colorado, where she shared offices with her brother, Will, a dentist, and later, about 1898, she established an office here in Plymouth. She was a charter member of the Woman's club and the D.A.R. Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter. Her keen mind was ever alert to furnish assistance and direction to many worthy projects in both organizations where her suggestions were held in the highest esteem. Her tender understanding heart, her sympathy for any one in distress, her charities and her sheer friendliness endeared her to all. Any life who touched hers was made the richer. Her keen sense of humor and the real sense of humor of stories to fit every occasion will also be long remembered. Mrs. Root frequently used her pen to express approval or disapproval of the acts of her congressman both state and national, maintaining an active and keenly intelligent interest in world affairs next to the last. She was united in marriage to Casman Ward Root, December 25, 1899. Mr. Root was 93 when he died and had been a helpless invalid for many months. Her devoted care of him won the praise and admiration of her friends. She is survived by three nieces, Mrs. C. L. Knight, of Sacramento, California; Miss Nati Blanchard of Pomona, California; Mrs. Earl Morton and two children of Berkeley, California; and two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Clara Bradner of Sacramento and Mrs. Mate Riggs of Denver, Colorado, besides the step-daughter, Mrs. Ray Holcomb and two children of Ypsilanti.

Success in life depends upon persistent effort, upon the improvement of moments more than upon any other one thing.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Atoms and Health

All men are made of atoms. However, since more than atoms are needed to make a man, we do not entrust the entire care of our health to physicists. The atoms in our bodies are arranged in cells, so we need biologists. And the cells are grouped together into tissues and organs, so we need physicians. It is, nevertheless, no mere accident that the word "physicist" and "physician" differ in only two letters out of nine. The modern physician is well armed with mental tools by the psychologist, with liquid tools by the chemist, and with solid tools by the physicist, writes George R. Harrison in Technology Review. Mental and liquid tools serve primarily for cure. For diagnosis the physician has always relied heavily on the physicist's devices. Who makes more temperature measurements in the course of a day, or more determinations of hydrostatic (or is it haemostatic) pressure, than does the family doctor?

Eleven Senses

We have 11 senses. The notion that we had only the senses of sight, smell, hearing, taste and touch dates back to the time of the ancient Greeks. The other six senses are:

- 1-The muscular sense—the amount of resistance you encounter in moving or lifting a heavy object.
- 2-The temperature sense—which tells you the difference between hot and cold.
- 3-The pain sense.
- 4-The articulation sense—or the consciousness you get of moving the joints in your body.
- 5-The distance sense—especially among the blind who have an uncanny feeling for distance, like stepping over a curb.
- 6-The static sense—or balance and equilibrium which makes people walk straight instead of falling over or weaving to and fro.

Americans can become acclimated to the climate of the South pole. Dr. Ernest E. Lockhart, medical scientist, recently stated. He was a member of the Antarctic expedition of 1939-1940. Having studied the effect of sudden changes in temperature, blood pressure, rate of heart action and of breathing, Dr. Lockhart reached the conclusion that the body does become acclimated when subjected to the conditions prevalent in the Antarctic. Under the climatic conditions of the South pole, he said, the body undergoes chemical changes which enable Americans to endure the South Pole climate.

Police Arrest Car Strippers

Two Juveniles Landed in Jail

Alertness on the part of Everett Crowl, 1076 Ross street, saved an automobile belonging to Kenneth Ballard, 425 Ridge road, from being stripped late Tuesday evening.

Not only did his suspicion that parts from the car were being stolen prove correct, but his timely action resulted in the arrest of two Plymouth juveniles, who for the first time had been caught in a criminal act.

The Ballard car was parked on Union street near Dodge. When Crowl left a house where he had been attending a meeting, he saw a young fellow apparently attempting to remove parts from the car.

He immediately called Mr. Ballard and as the two approached the Ballard car, the thief ran to a machine parked nearby and made a temporary get-away, the car being driven by an accomplice who was apparently in waiting.

The chase continued down through the Main street, the city parking lot and finally by dashing through a red light, the young fellows eluded their pursuers.

The case was immediately reported to Officer Loren Johnson, who took up the hunt and within a few minutes, he had picked up the two suspects.

Taken to the police station, they readily admitted their guilt. Because both juveniles, Chief Thumme, Wednesday, took them before the probate court in Detroit, where they will probably be placed on probation.

Their age is the only thing which saved them from a severe prison sentence.

Newly Weaned Kitten Needs Five Meals Daily
The newly weaned kitten needs five meals a day, two of meat and three of warm milk. This either should be fresh milk with a little lime water or some evaporated milk and water, equal parts. Milk substitutes, such as infant foods, may be used by preparing them just as for infants. Or well-boiled wheat cereals and oatmeal may be given. Crumbled toast in milk or a well-beaten egg in milk makes a nice change. The kitten should be given strained tomato juice once a day, starting a teaspoon at a time, increasing to a tablespoon at the end of the third month.

By the end of the third month the kitten should have strained vegetables such as cooked spinach, string beans, carrots or any other nonstarchy vegetable with its meat at dinner. Two of the milk meals may be eliminated now. Raw beef may be varied by lean, cooked mutton, lamb, chicken, codfish or rabbit. The bones all should be removed from the meat, for they splinter in the throat or stomach and cause trouble. A teaspoon of cod-liver oil daily makes a good tonic and a quarter of a teaspoon of calcium lactate daily helps build strong teeth. Kittens should be started on the raw beef at five weeks while they are still nursing. A very minute amount should be given at first, scraping the meat from a good round steak. Increasing amounts should be given until, at eight or nine weeks, when the kitten is weaned, they are getting a good rounded teaspoon twice a day. By the time the kitten is this age, the meat may be cut very fine and, as its baby teeth develop, it can be given a thin strip of beef to gnaw.

Explanation Given for Having Second Sight
One often hears of persons who have acquired "second sight" in old age. Like most other elderly people, they had been obliged to wear glasses for reading, but when they reached the age of 70 or 80, they discovered that they could read as well — or better — without their glasses.

Such stories tend to give the impression that the sight may—and often does—improve in old age. What really happens is that the lens of the eye gets harder with age, and along with the hardening, its index of refractions so increases that it becomes a stronger magnifying lens and thus is able to replace—either partially or wholly—the spectacle lens used for reading. The vision becomes better for near objects but less distinct for distant ones; the person actually becomes nearsighted.

The reason glasses have to be worn for reading by persons with normal distance vision, after they pass the age of 45 or so, is that this same hardening process of the lens makes it increasingly difficult for it to focus on near objects, such as fine print.

Designate May 1 Child Health Day

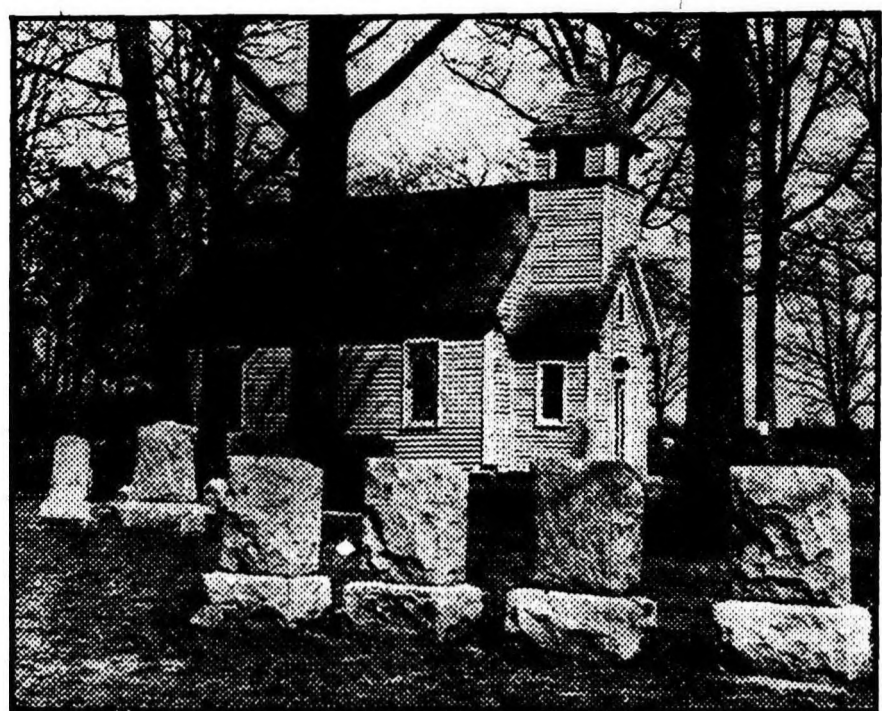

Immunize Against Diphtheria, Smallpox

May 1 has been designated as Child Health Day according to a proclamation by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in recognition of the vital importance of the health of children to the strength of the nation.

People in each of the nation's communities are called upon to contribute to the conservation of child health and the reduction of illness among children by exerting every effort to the end that before May Day, Child Health day, children over nine months of age be immunized against diphtheria and smallpox, the two diseases for which medical science has the surest means of prevention.

The child welfare committee of the State Medical society in cooperation with the Michigan department of health has approved a plan for state-wide immunizations. On the recommendation of Lt. Col. Harold A. Furlong, director of the Michigan Council of Defense, immunizations were to be promoted in defense areas. According to the plan, one month is set aside for immunizations in the offices of local physicians in each com-

He will report to a CPS camp in Indiana, Friday, March 27.

Start Construction of New U. of M. Public Health School

Excavation has begun for the new $571,000 building of the School of Public Health at the University of Michigan. The 3-story brick building, which will be completed early in 1943, will be located near the University Hospital.

A $1,000,000 grant by the W. K. Kellogg Foundation and the Rockefeller Foundation will cover the cost of the building, new equipment, and part of the operating costs for the first ten years.

The U-shaped structure will house laboratories and administrative offices, in addition to classrooms. An auditorium, offices, classrooms, virus disease and industrial hygiene laboratories will complete the ground floor. The second floor will be devoted to one of the country's few museums of public health, offices of the public health nursing division, seminar rooms, and non-virus disease and sanitary engineering laboratories. A library, lounge, dining room, kitchen, seminar rooms and classrooms will be located on the third floor, which will extend only across the front of the building.

Health education at the University of Michigan began in 1889, when the first hygienic laboratory in the world was established on the campus. In the 25 years since 1919, when the University granted its first two degrees in public health, the number of degrees granted has increased to 77 in the class of 1941.

Plan Series of Garden Meetings

County Agent Will Give Instructions

After the Victory garden has been planned and planted the gardener must not think his work is over and all he has to do is sit back and watch the vegetables grow says County Agent E. I. Besemer. There are many days of hard work ahead before they are ready for the table.

The first pest to make an appearance in the garden will be the weeds. However, frequent and shallow cultivation will keep them down. Probably the first of the insect tribe to give trouble is the cut worm, but he can be controlled by applying poison bran bait, scattered thinly over the garden, on a warm evening before any plants are set out.

To make the poison bran bait use:

- 5 pounds bran
 - 3 oz. white arsenic or Paris Green.
 - 3 qts. water
 - 1/2 pt. cheap molasses
 - 1 orange ground fine.
- More water may be needed but use only enough to moisten and leave the mixture crumbly.
- The third lesson in the Victory Garden series will be a discussion of ways to control insects, diseases and weeds.
- The following have been scheduled:
- March 30—Second lesson—Garden Plans at Cagv school.
 - March 31—Commercial Gardeners, 1:30 p.m., Romulus town hall; 8:00 p.m., Plymouth high school.
 - April 1—Soil Testing, 9:30-12:00—Heier Bros., Flat Rock; 1:30-4:30, Hugo Unger, Romulus.
 - April 2—Kenyon P.T.A., Victory Gardens, E. I. Besemer.
 - April 6—Elm P.T.A., Victory Gardens, E. I. Besemer.
 - April 7—Newburg school, 3rd lesson, "Control Insects and Diseases."
 - April 8—Dairy meeting, Bartlett School; 4-H Dairy Club and adult dairymen; J. G. Hays, dairy specialist.

Communications

Editor, Plymouth Mail:
 I second Mr. Ludwig's proposal in his communication to The Plymouth Mail and I would include the postoffice as well. I wanted a money order not so long ago on a Saturday, the only day I had. I couldn't get in a bank nor the postoffice. We are all doing just what we don't like altogether, and it does seem to me these two branches of public service could be inconvenienced somewhat.

Respectfully,
 HARRY J. GREEN.

Neutron Bullets

Neutron bullets hurled at deep seated cancer of skin and bone, mouth and throat, are apparently far more effective than X-rays or radium rays. At the National Cancer Institute, of the United States Public Health Service in Washington, D. C., Dr. William A. Cooper revealed that new methods of diagnosis promise a new hope for cases of stomach cancer. Not only X-rays and the gastroscope, a lighted tube which directly reveals the interior of the stomach, but also a new "acid test," are employed to diagnose stomach cancer as early as possible.

We Deliver

The Cloverdale Farms Dairy

spared no expense to bring you the finest DAIRY PRODUCTS money can buy.

Now more than ever before the American public needs full strength and perfect health. . . Milk is the greatest body builder known to science today. . . are you getting your share?

It has been "all out" at the Cloverdale Dairy for the last two years. . . All out for our customers and for the people that use our milk and Dairy Products. . . No expense has been considered too great when something could be obtained that would better our products or our service. Our entire energy has gone into the production of higher standards in the products which we sell.

Recently we brought you the new "Handi-quart" bottle . . . first because it is more sanitary . . . secondly because it is easier to handle and thirdly because it can be stored more conveniently in your refrigerators.

At considerable expense we enlarged and replaced our pasteurization equipment with the most modern on the market. Absolute purity is insured with the machinery that now does this important job for us and for you.

Your demands for our milk outgrew our bottle filling machines so it was necessary for us to buy new equipment for this important procedure too. This new improvement enables us to produce faster for you and again eliminates any possibility of contamination reaching the milk.

To further protect our patrons we now furnish all of our premium milks with new sanitary cover caps which only a few years ago were beyond the range of any regular use by the dairy.

These are but a few of the ways we have made it our business during the last few months to better our milk and to better our service to you.

We assure you that when finer equipment is on the market so that we may do a better job for you we will have it in our plant.

Your modern refrigerator keeps foods and leftovers safe. Now you can take another big step toward winning this war by helping to decrease the number of accidents that occur in the American home each year!

Would you believe that the deaths caused by accidents in the home last year were nearly equal to the number of deaths due to motor vehicle accidents? Think of it, nearly 32,000 deaths last year, but still more surprising is the fact that home accidents cause four times more disabling injuries than did auto accidents.

Let's put an end to all this grief and expense by guarding against many of these unnecessary accidents, by practicing greater safety in the home this year. There are a great many "Dos and Don'ts" for "Home Safety."

County Health Guild Meets Apr. 2

Medical Speaker To Discuss "Cancer"

The Wayne County Health Guild will hold its regular meeting Thursday, April 2 at 1:30 o'clock in the Wayne library. All members are urged to attend as the business meeting is important.

The speaker for the afternoon will be a representative from the Wayne County Medical society and the topic for discussion will be "Cancer." Members are asked to bring contributions to the loan closet to this meeting. Miss Georgina Reid hopes to have four loan closets completed shortly in the southern, western, central and northern parts of the county. These closets will be located in places where they are accessible at all times for those needing sick-room supplies. Miss Reid reports that some material is already out on loan.

Tricky Bookmark

A dentist who found it impossible to keep the right place in his appointment book recently displayed his patented invention, a tricky bookmark that automatically keeps the place as each page is turned. It consists of a small metal clamp to which is attached a two-inch long, fine wire spring from the end of which a straight two-inch length of the same wire protrudes at right angles to the spring. The marker is clamped on the edge of the book's back cover. As each page is turned the little spring gives slightly and then snaps back so that the straight wire always marks the place, lying on top of the right-hand page. Any way, it seems to work.

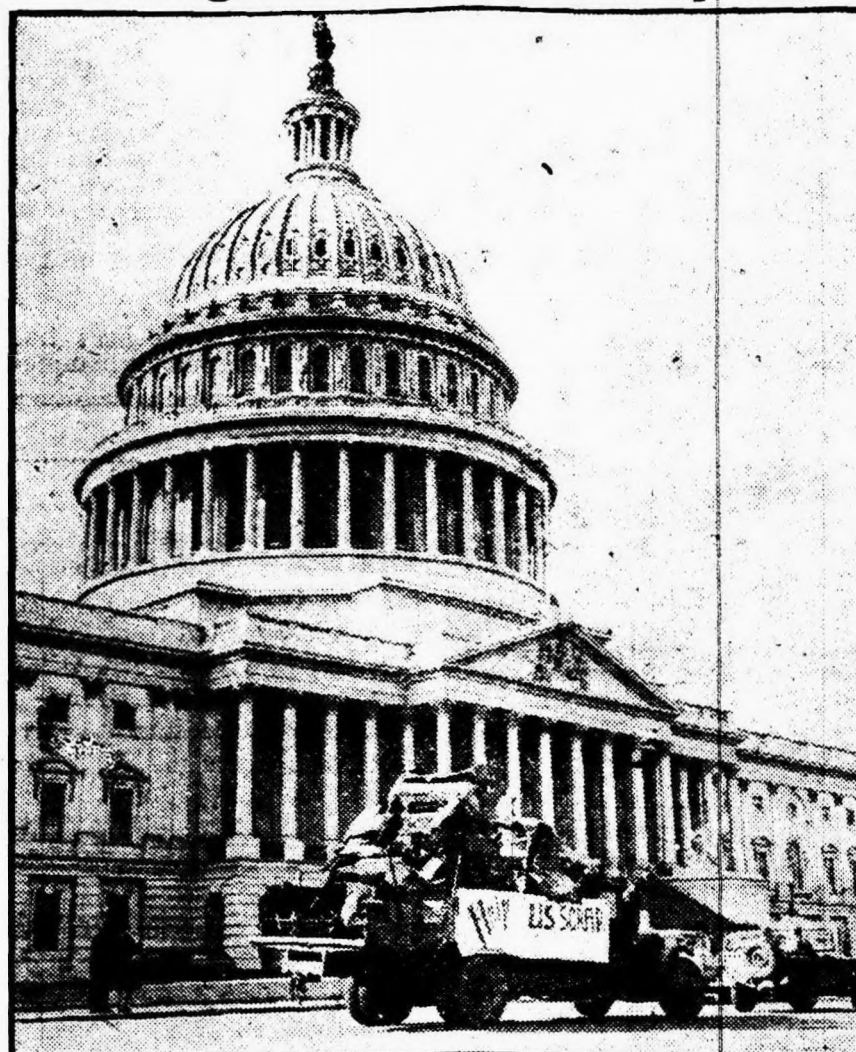

Refrigerator

After defrosting your automatic refrigerator, wash out the freezing chamber with cool water containing soda and dry it with a clean cloth. Wash the shelves and all the interior of the refrigerator in the same manner. Wash and dry the trays as you do your best china. Rubber ice trays may be washed with soap and water and rinsed carefully, or they may be covered with water containing a little baking soda and water brought to the boiling point.

Whistling Buoy

The whistle, fitted in the buoy, is sounded by the motion of a central tube immersed in the water. This tube is fitted with air at atmospheric pressure and so long as the buoy is motionless the air remains at this pressure and the whistle is silent. But with motion of the buoy caused by waves, water comes up into the central tube, compressing the air and sounding the whistle.

Fire Auxiliary Completes Course

Each Sector to Have Mobile Equipment

Auxiliary firemen's training classes will conclude after two more meetings and the last first aid class for the volunteer fire fighters will be offered next Monday night. Another training course will start soon and all who are interested in becoming auxiliary firemen are urged to register for the new class at the city hall.

Auxiliary fire fighting equipment is to be provided in each fire ward sector of the city and township according to Chief Fred Wagonski. The mobile units will consist of hose, axes, extinguishers and other light equipment to be stored at each sector post. Auxiliary firemen will have equipment readily available in their sectors in that way and also the possibility of loss from air raid attack will be lessened by scattering equipment.

Charles Beller, Harold Secord, George Bowers, Daniel Mills, Lloyd Fillmore, Robert Willoughby, Harold Anderson and Earl Gray.

Mrs. Mary Hillmer's Kin Appear in Music Festival

The Misses Barbara and Lois Gretchen Hubbard, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hubbard, of Wayne, Michigan, and granddaughters of Mrs. Mary K. Hillmer of Starkweather avenue, were among the many music students who participated in the Spring Festival held at Cooley high school in Detroit, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week. There were 45 high schools in the Detroit metropolitan area that took part in the annual instrumental clinic.

The festival was sponsored by the Wayne University and the Detroit public schools. Gardner Shuler, director of music in Hamtramck schools and guest conductor, Percy Grainger, directed the 125-piece band.

Miss Barbara Hubbard, a senior in the village of Wayne high school, played the clarinet, first chair in the band, and Lois Gretchen, a sophomore at Wayne University, played the fourth French horn, first chair.

The young ladies' mother was the former Miss Gertrude Hillmer, well known by many Plymouth residents.

Rosedale Plans Victory Gardens

Residents to Apply For Lots By April 8

The Victory Garden program under the direction of the Rosedale Gardens branch of the National Farm and Garden association, is under way. Mrs. F. W. Johnston is general chairman. Property at the rear of the Rosedale Gardens community clubhouse has been donated for garden plots through the courtesy of the Sheldon Land company.

Rosedale Gardens residents are urged to cultivate Victory gardens to help in the war effort. It is important that everyone use available garden property this year to raise vegetables and small fruits for their own use to avoid a possible food shortage later.

Anyone interested in obtaining permission to use part of this property for garden plots is asked to call any of the following Garden club committee members before Wednesday, April 8, deadline for filing applications: Mrs. Charles D. Piper, Livonia 5121; Mrs. Johnston, Livonia 3468, or Mrs. Lyman Hedden, Livonia 2271.

'War Deaths'
Although the U. S. was not at war "operations of war" are listed as the cause of four deaths in the census returns covering 1939. Three of these were deaths from injuries during the first World war and one was the death of an American citizen from injuries received in the Spanish Revolution.
