Voters Elect Brisbois, Stark to School Board

District Casts Largest Vote In Recent Years

Electors Vote For Lot Transfer And Board Salaries

Two new members, Dr. Harold J. Brisbois and Howard W. Stark, were elected to the board of education by the voters of Plymouth school district in Monday's election. The total number of votes cast was 234, the largest vote at a regular election in recent years and the highest since the special election on bus transportation in 1940 when a total of 247 votes were cast.

Dr. Brisbois received the highest vote with a total of 171; Stark was awarded 143 votes and George Burr, incumbent, received 127. The special proposal to transfer school and city-owned property to permit the widening of an alley at the rear of Adams street was given overwhelming approval with a vote of 191 in favor and 17 against.

At the annual meeting Monday evening, attended by about 30 members of the Plymouth school district, it was voted to pay salaries to each member of the school board. Each member is to receive $5 a meeting not to exceed 15 meetings a year. The secretary is to receive an additional $50 a year for his duties. In former years, none of the school board members have received compensation except the secretary.

During the past school year, the board held 11 regular meetings and one special meeting. The new trustees-elect of the board of education will file acceptances within 10 days following the election and the new board will convene for its first meeting on Wednesday evening, July 1.

"Minute Women" Organization To Be Permanent

Splendid Work In Bond Drive Results In Action

So remarkably successful and so efficiently handled was the work of the Plymouth "Minute Women" during the recent war bond pledge drive that it has been decided to keep this organization as a permanent one for any future similar work that may come to the Plymouth war bond committee.

Not only did these splendid workers cover the territory completely, but the detailed work necessary for each worker to perform in connection with every pledge signed, was perfect.

The permanent "Minute Women" committee of Plymouth is composed of the following members: General chairman, Mrs. Clara P. Todd; precinct division directors, Mrs. Helen Goodman, Evelyn Schrader, Mrs. C. H. Young and Mrs. Maud Bennett; official precinct division representatives, Mrs. Lawrence Lyons, Miss Pauline Peck, Mrs. Rolfe Smith, Mrs. Oral Rathburn, Mrs. M. G. O'Neil, Mrs. George Todd, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Garnet (Continued on page 2)

Bait Casting Contest June 17

To Use Wading Pool In Park

Final arrangements have been made for the annual bait casting contest of Plymouth bait casting members of the Western Wayne County Conservation club, according to Dr. Brick Champe, president of the organization.

The event will take place next Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in Plymouth-Riverside park, the wading pool having been selected as the place where the contest will take place. The park officials say that at that hour of the day there is generally no use of the pool by children and therefore they have consented to its use for a brief time by citizens who contribute materially through taxes to the upkeep of the park.

President Champe expects that there will be a large number of bait and fly casters who will desire to compete for prizes that are to be offered.

Play Program To Start Monday

Plan Recreation For School Children

The annual Plymouth summer recreation program, sponsored by the city and the board of education, will open Monday, June 15, at 1:30 o'clock at Central school playground. The directors of the program include Anthony S. Matulis, Marie Ann Miller, Asa Rowe and 20 senior girl leaders. It is expected that attendance this summer will set a new record in view of auto and tire conservation and possible gas rationing.

The program will start daily at 1:30 o'clock with a variety of activities, including handcraft, story telling, group singing, coloring and art work and games for small children such as shuffleboard, ping pong, tennis, croquet and horseshoes. The Stark-weather school will open Tuesday. (Continued on page 5)

JOIN THE ATTACK ON TOKYO, ... YOURSELF!

Every person in America may not fly over Tokyo, but every one's dollars can help produce the bombing planes that do!

You, you, you, can join the attacks on Tokyo by saving at least 10% of your pay in War Bonds—by joining your company's pay-roll savings plan today or going to your local bank or post office and buying War Savings Bonds—at least 10% of your pay—every pay day.

Remember you can start buying War Bonds by buying War Stamps for as little as 10c and that you get a $25 War Bond (maturity value) for only $18.75.

Mothers, fathers and relatives of men in the armed services and other residents are asked to volunteer their services to aid Mrs. Hough.

Board Appoints Ration Aides

Raymond Bachelder Given Federal Post

The local ration board No. 82-18 this week announced the appointment of an executive secretary and two clerical aides to assist in the ration administration. Members of the local ration board who serve without compensation are William Wood, chairman; Mrs. Otto Beyor, vice-chairman, and Eugene Orndorff, secretary.

Raymond Bachelder was appointed by the local board as executive secretary, a federal salaried position. Mr. Bachelder, sales representative for the mauloleum for the past 14 years, has been a resident of Plymouth since 1922. As a former Ford Motor company employee, he had charge of working out the $5 a day plan. He formerly operated an auto agency and real estate business in Plymouth. He is a member of Plymouth Rock Masonic lodge, Plymouth Kiwanis club, Moslem Temple of the Shrine and is treasurer of the First Presbyterian church. He served for 22 months overseas with the Canadian Army and in the YMCA service.

Miss Florence Tubergen, former secretary to Perry W. Richardson of the Federal Savings and Loan office in Plymouth, was appointed as clerk for the board. Miss Verne Rowley, who received a similar federal appointment several months ago, will continue as board clerk.

Plymouth War Bond Sale In May Way Over Quota Set By Uncle Sam

Plymouth, keeping step with the rest of the state of Michigan, went way over the top in bond and defense stamp purchases during the month of May, according to figures just released by the postoffice and the two local banks.

Local citizens purchased a total of $69,193.75 worth of bonds and stamps to help Michigan go to one of the top places in the nation during the May drive.

Of this total, $4,045.45 were in war stamps, which will shortly be converted into war bonds.

One of the amazing things about the situation in this city is the fact that month after month the average purchase of defense bonds runs much higher than in many other communities of similar size.

Then, too, Plymouth does not secure credit for all the bonds and stamps that are purchased in this city. There are large numbers of Plymouth residents who are participating in payroll deduction purchases in factories that are located outside of the city limits. With the exception of the Wall Wire Company, these credits go to Detroit.

It is a remarkably good showing, and one that Plymouth can well be proud to constantly contend for.

Every Employee Of New Factory Must Pledge To Buy War Bonds

When the new Piigim Products company plant goes into operation within the next few weeks, every employe on the payroll will have signed a pledge that he will give ten percent of his salary to the purchase of war defense bonds, stated R. N. Green, president and manager, yesterday, or he will not get a job.

"We are going to produce material for the government. In fact, for the duration of the war everything we produce will be for Uncle Sam. We are not, therefore, going to have any one on our payroll who is not willing to help the government carry on this war," stated Mr. Green.

"It is essential that we win the war. If we don't we won't have anything to work for, that's why we are going to insist that every one who works for us, does his part to help lick the Nazis and the Japs," he said.

Mr. Green also announced the appointment of Patrick McGuire, of Massillon, Ohio, as assistant to the superintendent. Mr. McGuire is well known in the cold drawn steel industry. He will move his family to Plymouth in the near future.

Cooling System In New Penn Theatre Is Now In Operation

"As cool as a cucumber"—that's just what folks are saying these days when they attend a motion picture show at the new Penn theatre.

Harry Lush, owner of Plymouth's attractive new show house, Tuesday completed the installation of his new cooling system and when it was put into operation Wednesday, it worked perfectly.

The thermometers stood at just 72, although only two of the big cooling fans were in motion. The third fan was not in operation on Wednesday, but will be in a day or so.

Fortunately for the new Penn, the big well, drilled back of the theatre last year, produces all of the cold water needed. When it comes from the well, which is down nearly 200 feet, the water tests just 49 degrees. Mr. Lush is going to have no difficulty in keeping his patrons cool during this summer, which has started out to be a hot one.

Army Changes Dependency Rule

July Draft Quota Will Set Record

Army headquarters this week changed a dependency claim for deferment, providing that "dependency acquired after December 8, 1941, or acquired when draft selection was imminent, including pregnancy, birth or acquiring of children, will not be cause for classification in Class III-A." The new ruling was confirmed at a meeting of the local draft board Monday evening.

"An unborn child is a dependent, but pregnancy resulting from marriages after December 8, 1941, or for the primary purpose of providing a dependency deferment, shall not be considered to be cause for Class III-A classification," declares the Army bulletin. This change is premised on the imminence of a plan for allowance and allotment benefits for dependents of men in the armed forces, a proposal now under consideration in Congress.

Local draft board No. 61 for the Plymouth area received word this week that the quota of men to be inducted from this district in July will be the largest since the inception of selective service. A large group is expected to be inducted into service from this board on Monday and the names of inductees will be published next week. The July quota is expected to be more than twice as many as Monday's group.

U. of M. Clubs To Meet In Plymouth June 18

Plymouth's University of Michigan club will be host at a district meeting of representatives from 20 U. of M. clubs at the Plymouth Country club next Thursday, June 18. Delegates will register at the clubhouse at 11 o'clock after which there will be a luncheon and business meeting. The guests will participate in a golf tournament during the afternoon and a trophy will be awarded the winning club's team.

Members of the Plymouth golf team include Dr. B. E. Champe, Austin Whipple and James Lett. Dr. John Olsvater is chairman of the tournament. A new "Pat O'Dea" trophy will be awarded the winning club's team. C. H. Elliott and Mrs. Thomas Bateman are the local club delegates. President Elliott requests all members of the board of governors to be present at 11 o'clock to greet delegate guests from other clubs and assist in the registration.

The board of governors of the Plymouth U. of M. club will meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bateman Friday evening (tonight) at 8 o'clock to complete arrangements for next week's meeting.

Propose Changes To Building Code

City Commission Studies Amendment

Proposed amendments to the city building code were discussed at a special meeting of the city commission Tuesday evening. A committee, composed of Commissioner Carlton Lewis, Building Inspector S. H. Besse and City Manager C. L. Elliott, submitted recommendations for changes.

It is proposed to allow certain substitutes for non-combustible materials, which include new materials on the market since the building code was drafted in 1930. It is also suggested that the commission be given authority to waive certain rules when practical difficulties constitute a hardship to a builder or home-owner. The proposed change would also allow additions to frame buildings within the fire limits if the addition involves no increase in the lateral surface. The proposed amendments to the building code will be considered at the next regular meeting of the commission Monday evening.

New Tax Stamps Are Now On Sale

Tax Applies To All Motor Vehicles In Use

New stamps for the federal motor vehicle use tax are now on sale at the Plymouth postoffice. The $5 stamps will cover the tax for one year from July 1, 1942 to June 30, 1943. The tax is collectible on all motor vehicles including passenger cars, trucks and motorcycles in use. No motor vehicle may be driven after July 1 without a stamp displayed in a conspicuous place on the windshield.

Motorists are not required to present a title of ownership and will not be given a postcard to mail to the government as during the last sale in January when stamps were issued for a six-month period. Space is provided on the back of the red stamps for necessary identification including the make, model, engine number and license number of the auto. Each stamp bears a serial number. The mutilage is on the face of the stamp.

The postoffice sold 25 stamps during the first day of sale and it is expected more than 5,000 tax stamps will be sold to residents of the Plymouth area. The stamps may be purchased for $5 at the regular stamp window. The postoffice will open a special window if the demand warrants before the deadline on July 1.

Plymouth Pledges Exceed Quarter of A Million For Year

First Summer Band Concert To Be June 17

The first band concert of the summer season by members of the high school band organization will be presented next Wednesday evening in Kellogg park, under the direction of Clarence Luchtman. Plymouth has reason to be proud of its fine band which appears at many civic functions in smart-looking uniforms with attractive girl baton twirlers. In addition to the regular summer band concerts, it is planned to offer orchestra concerts this summer for the first time in Plymouth. Alumni and former musicians in the community are cordially invited by Mr. Luchtman to participate in the band organization.

Stores Pledge All-Out Drive For Bond Sales

Retailers To Erect Store Booths For Sale Of War Stamps

Plymouth retail merchants this week pledged 100 per cent cooperation for a drive among the stores for the sale of war bonds and savings stamps during the month of July. As a part of the nationwide tribute to America's war effort, the stores will suspend all sales of merchandise at noon on July 1 for 15 minutes and devote this brief period to the sale of stamps and bonds exclusively.

The July 1 sale of which John Blyton is local chairman, will launch a nationwide campaign of "Retailers for Victory." The chairman suggests that all stores erect booths where customers may purchase stamps and bonds regularly as they do their daily shopping.

"It is planned to have savings stamps available for sale in every store in Plymouth. The location of headquarters for bond sales will be announced as soon as a report is received from Oscar Webber of the J. L. Hudson store, state chairman of the campaign," declared Chairman Blyton.

Delegates Attend Church Meeting

Methodists To Hold Conference In Flint

Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Closson, Mrs. Austin Whipple and Fred Thomas will attend the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist church at the Court Street Methodist church in Flint next Wednesday, June 17 to 21.

Reverend Closson began his ministry as associate pastor of the Court Street church in Flint in 1925. Dr. W. E. Harrison, district superintendent of the Methodist conference, now becomes the new pastor of that church.

Restaurants Close One Day A Week

Adopt Plan Due To Labor Shortage

Four local restaurant managers announce a plan to close one day a week due to the serious labor shortage caused by the increased defense effort. Bert's Place and Ken & Ork's will both close on Sundays in cooperation with the plan. The Ellis restaurant will close each Wednesday and Reed's restaurant will be closed on Thursdays.

The management of the Hotel Mayflower announced the same policy recently and the hotel coffee shop is now closed every Saturday. The suspension of business one day a week will permit restaurants to continue their high standards of food quality and good service, and the cooperation of patrons will be appreciated.

Total Number War Bond Signers Is 1,642

Committee Members Thank Citizens For Cooperation

Tabulations completed and turned over to Frank Isbey, state chairman of the Michigan war bond campaign committee, show that the "Minute Women" of Plymouth who made the house to house drive in this city, secured the amazingly large total of 1643 pledges for regular buying of war bonds during the forthcoming year.

The total of pledges made, if carried out, will result in the purchase of much more than a quarter of a million dollars worth of war bonds and stamps by the people of this city during the next twelve months.

There are something like 1100 or 1200 houses in this city. The "Minute Women" were supposed to contact only people in their homes, not business places.

The total number of pledges gives some idea as to the increase in the number of apartment residential places in this city. The "minute women" found any number of residences that had, during recent months, been made into two-family apartments.

This fact accounts for the exceptionally large number of pledges in excess of the number of homes within the city.

The total purchases of bond pledges under the weekly plan exceeds $124,530 for the year. Under the semi-monthly and monthly plan it exceeds $135,142 a year and under "other plans" while difficult to compute the total number of pledges, it will go to nearly $15,000 a year.

Probably less than a dozen of absolute rejections were reported by the "Minute Women." In most of these cases illness in the family or lack of employment provided the reason for inability to sign pledges. There were but three or four absolute rejections.

Committee members in making their reports declared that the cordial reception given that by citizens of the committee made their work most pleasant. Nearly every person seemed anxious and willing to cooperate.

Through The Plymouth Mail Mrs. Clara Todd who acted as general chairman, has requested that the appreciation of the committee members be extended to the citizens of the community for their splendid cooperation.

Give Soldiers Sendoff Monday

Merchants And Clubs Plan Demonstration

A sendoff demonstration will be given for draft inductees leaving Plymouth for army camp Monday morning as a part of a community service program sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce with the aid of local merchants.

Citizens are urged to attend the sendoff at 7 o'clock Monday. The Plymouth Canteen corps of the Red Cross will serve coffee and cookies, donated by the Livonia Canteen corps. The JCC committee headquarters for the boys will be in the display room of Allison's Chevrolet Sales and service. It is planned to make a gift of a current magazine to each soldier, and citizens are asked to deliver their magazine donations to the Plymouth Mail office or the Fisher Shoe store Saturday. More than 50 magazines will be needed for Monday's group and every citizen is urged to contribute one for his share toward the sendoff demonstration.

The following local stores and clubs have donated articles to be given the inductees: Clover's Market, D & C, A & B, Cloyer's Dairy, Kroger's, Dodge Drug, Community Pharmacy, Beyer Pharmacy and the Rotary club. The gifts will include cigarettes, candy bars, coffee and cream.

The bus is scheduled to leave Plymouth promptly at 7:30 a.m. so all citizens are urged to turn out early Monday morning to lend their support to the demonstration.

Books Describe Life In Australia

Library Features Special Collection

The Plymouth library has an interesting collection of books on Australia and the war. With many Plymouth sons fighting in Australia today, these books afford an opportunity for persons to become acquainted with the history and environment of that continent.

The books include "I Find Australia," by Ernest Chapman, a rapid survey of the several states and a judgment of the successes, failing and potentialities of the country; "Cobbers," by Thomas Wood, in which an Englishman records his experiences and reactions to Australia; "Salute to Freedom," by Eric Lowe, a novel of the way of life of the country people of New South Wales; "Botany Bay," by C. B. Nordhoff, a thrilling tale of Australia in 1788; "Australia," a college textbook describing the physical and human aspects of that continent; "The Battlers," by Kylie Tennant, a realistic novel concerned with the migrant laborers who follow the fruit crops of Australia from place to place.

Seaweed Substances Are Used for Many Articles

Lying somewhere between starch and cellulose in complexity are the gelatinous materials of seaweed. These substances have been used for human food for thousands of years. Less needed for food now, they have found other uses, particularly as adhesives and sizing materials for paints, plasters, and textiles.

Probably the best known of these seaweed jellies is agar, which is made in Japan. The plant is boiled with water, and the resulting broth, after being strained from the solid residue, "jells" on cooling. The jelly is then frozen. The freezing disrupts the structure of the jelly, and after melting the agar is left as a spongy solid which dries to a horny solid.

Agar is highly important in bacteriological work because of its property of forming jellies that solidify at around body temperature but which then do not liquefy until heated to considerably higher temperatures. The dried material is also used in medicine as a laxative because of its ability to swell to a bulky jelly on contact with water.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burke and daughters, Barbara and Beverly, of Detroit, are to be dinner guests this (Friday) evening of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hees, on Arthur street.

Besides being a rich source of the necessary diet factors, meat possesses two factors necessary in planning the low-cost diet—palatability and satiety value. It "sticks to the ribs."

Money alone can't buy Victory. But it can buy the needed tanks and planes for our fighting men. Contribute at least 10 per cent of your household budget as your share for your county's War Bond quota.

Dr. Brady To Conduct Child Clinic Wednesday

'Don'ts' for Pups

Here are some important "don'ts" to remember in the care of puppies. Don't feed your puppy potatoes, lima beans, peas, pork, cake, cookies or candy. Don't just because your puppy is off his feed for a day or two, give him a dose of worming. Don't take your puppy visiting to other kennels—there always is the danger of distemper, puppies' most common enemy. Distemper is highly contagious and often is carried on your clothes, so exercise care when you make a personal call. Don't bathe your puppy until it is over six months old. Wipe him off, then use a coat, following the directions on the package or bottle.

Original Excuse

He was speeding because he was out of gas. "Just as I was coming to that bridge," he testified, "I saw that my gas gauge said 'empty.' So I gave the pedal one extra push, hoping to get over the bridge. I knew I could coast down to a filling station."

"That's right," agreed Policeman Frank Murray. "His tank was empty when we caught up with him. In fact, he had us push him to the filling station."

"Clear the aisle so that this gentleman may leave," called the court.

Drip Coffee

Use one heaping tablespoonful of coffee for each three-fourths measuring cup of water. Seal the pot with boiling water. Measure coffee into coffee compartment. Pour fresh, briskly boiling water slowly into water container. Cover and place over low simmer flame to keep coffee hot but not boil. When dripping is completed, remove upper compartment containing grounds. Cover and serve.

More Disillusionment

Corn bread—now surely corn pone is typically American. Wrong again! You will meet "polenta" on the tables of Italy in every home. Although the name is different, your American palate will recognize it at once as your "national dish."

Sulphur in Gasoline

Excessive sulphur in gasoline, especially in cold weather, is likely to form sulphurous and sulphuric acids, which are corrosive and may attack the metal in the fuel and induction systems or corrode the cylinder bearings.

Cardinal Responsible

Cardinal Richelieu is responsible for carving knives having sharp points and table knives having round edges. He ordered his table knives rounded so guests couldn't use them as toothpicks.

Sheep Boost Numbers

On the farm of Capt. D. Dillon, Roto-o-Rangi, New Zealand, 210 ewes have given birth to 432 lambs. Two hundred ewes bore twins, nine others triplets and one quintuplet.

Painted Pots Detrimental

Painted pots have a slightly detrimental effect on plants. Unpainted pots are porous and permit evaporation and a transfer of water where, as painted pots prevent this.

Thunderstorm Clouds

What goes on in thunderstorm clouds needs to be studied, says a meteorologist, suggesting a motion-picture camera studies as a way of getting facts.

Birth Statistics

According to statistics, of every 2,000 children born in the United States 940 are girls, 700 of these live to marriage age and 600 bear children.

Saving Beans From Beetle

Beans can be saved from destruction by the Mexican bean beetle. Spraying or dusting the plants with a quick-acting insecticide is necessary.

Coal Thrown Away

Exactly 150 years ago the first anthracite coal was discovered in Pennsylvania and thrown away, condemned as "impossible to burn."

Woman Dreaming

Delayed Light

There is a delayed light switch which enables the operator to reach the bed after turning it off—before the light is gone.

Look Them in the Eye

Eaton Reveals

ocrat for the United States senate. It is not news to me that Mr. Averill took this step.

"He advised me sometime ago that he was in consultation with Senator Brown and that he had made several trips during the winter to see him. He also said that Senator Brown had come to Birmingham on the afternoon following the Jackson day banquet in Detroit to discuss with him the senatorial campaign and the organization of a group of Michigan editors to support the Democratic senator. This interview, Mr. Averill states, took place at the Westwood Inn.

"Mr. Averill advised me that Senator Brown had provided him with the names of a few Michigan editors who were favorable to his re-election and that these names could be used as a nucleus for an organization of editors for the campaign.

"Among the names provided him, Mr. Averill said, were those of Frank B. Case, editor of The Waterliet Record and a brother of the late Leon Case, Democratic secretary of state at one time; Senator Chester M. Howell of the Chesaning Argus, Frank Moses, Democratic editor of the Marshall Chronicle; E. J. Chatter, editor of the newspaper published in Senator Brown's home town of St. Ignace, and Frank Januszewski, Democratic editor of The Polish Daily News of Detroit.

"The list made public by Mr. Averill did not contain the names of Mr. Case or Senator Howell, who were reported as being for the Democratic senator.

"The names of Roger M. Andrews, a Frank Murphy Democrat kicked off the Mackinac Island State Park Commission by Governor Van Wagoner, George Osborne of Sault Ste. Marie, Emmett Richard of Alpena and E. J. Erwin, prominent Democratic leader of the Thumb district, were apparently added to the list after the discussion Mr. Averill states he had with me.

"It is easy to understand the position of Republican Senator Howell. He advised me some months ago that his son had been appointed to West Point by Senator Brown through a request made to the Senator by Governor Van Wagoner. The appointment was made without even the formality of an entrance examination, stated Senator Howell. The rest of the list of supporting editors is made up chiefly of Democrats.

"As to Mr. Averill's position I am at a loss to know the motive. One does not ordinarily change from an enthusiastic supporter of a person to an opponent without a reason more important than that of not knowing definitely if one was going to be a candidate, as he explained to me.

"In his new role as spokesman for the Democratic party's effort to re-elect a senator from Michigan so the Democratic party can make this a permanent one-party government similar to those in Germany, Italy and Japan, Editor Averill made reference to a discussion he had with me pertaining to the senatorship.

"It is true that I did attempt to discourage Mr. Averill from entering into this political scheme. I challenged his claim pertaining to Senator Brown's so-called strong position in the senate, because of his 'seniority' and influence, as Mr. Averill explained. I pointed out to him the fact that Michigan had been cheated out of a rightful increased membership in the congress because of the senate's failure to recognize Michigan's rights, due to increased population. Florida was given a new member because of increased population, and Arkansas was permitted by the senate to keep its present membership, even though not entitled to it because of decreased population. Both Florida and Arkansas are Democratic states. The Democratic senate, however, did deprive Michigan of its rights because of a fear that Michigan might elect a Republican congressman.

"I asked Editor Averill how it was possible for such a thing to happen if Senator Brown had the influence in the senate he claims to possess. I also asked Mr. Averill how he personally could be consistent in his support of Senator Brown, who gave only lip service to reapportionment, when, he, Mr. Averill, is advocating reapportionment of the Michigan legislature.

"Mr. Averill in his public statement, says that he asks the re-election of the Democratic senator because he is 'thoroughly behind the war effort.' "Where would this country have been if it had followed Senator Brown's 'war effort'?" He voted against repeal of the arms embargo. He voted against the draft act. He voted against giving the Axis ships to Britain. He voted to disband the newly formed United States army and send the soldiers home just two or three months before the Japs blew up Pearl Harbor.

"The Democrats want Republicans defeated because some of them had voted as did Senator Brown on these measures. Maybe Democratic Spokesman Averill can explain this Democratic logic?"

"It is clear to me now that the Democrats are fearful of my nomination and have started this uncalculated attack exceedingly early in an effort to defeat me."

"I fully realize my handicaps in this campaign, because it is necessary for me to conduct a poor man's fight. I do not have access to a big slush fund shaken down from political job holders to carry on the contest for me.

"I do possess a typewriter, a will to work and the same hopes and desires of a public disgusted with the type of politics that has kept the nation in a political turmoil during our entire war emergency. I possess, also, a determination to win this fight no matter how great are the handicaps and powerful the politicians who are opposed to me."

Hough, Plymouth chairman, in the fund drive. The speed and efficiency with which the citizens of Plymouth and vicinity raise the USO goal of $1500 will be an indication of the determination with which the people of America support the war for victory. It is important not only to show our fighting men that a united nation and a united community backs them up but it is important also to our own morale. Contact your local chairman today and volunteer your services in this campaign.

The six national agencies which are members of the USO are the Young Men's Christian Associations, the National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, the Young Women's Christian Associations, the Jewish Welfare Board and the National Travelers' Aid Association, representing the three principal religious faiths of this nation.

The USO has already set up 23 trans-oceanic clubhouses in Hawaii, Alaska, Canal Zone, Trinidad, Bermuda and other outposts of America's defenders. Some of the USO staff are temporarily missing in the Philippines and elsewhere. USO is designed to serve the men of our armed forces wherever and whenever the Army and the Navy give the order. Your dollars for the USO will aid Plymouth soldiers and sailors who seek some friendly place to go; who like congenial company and social entertainment and who want to associate with civilian families in town through the help of the USO.

11 as Plymouth's representative at the Michigan War Transportation Conservation Training school which was conducted under the sponsorship of the Michigan State Safety commission.

The written report presented to the Plymouth Defense council by Chief Air Raid Warden Floyd Eckles indicated that the chief complaints were about failure to hear the siren, about flashlights used in homes showing on the street, and about the confusion resulting from the police car covering too large an area. A new siren is to be tried out at the Pilgrim Products plant soon, the four township post wardens, Russell Powell, Donald Bovee, Earl Mastick and Glenn Jewell are to devise their own means of notification so the Plymouth police car will not need to go outside the city, and all people are urged to stop using flashlights in their homes during a blackout, unless they have blackout curtains.

Fire Chief Fred Wagenschutz is making a third appeal for auxiliary firemen in the township, especially in Robinson subdivision and Phoenix in each of which place he needs six auxiliary firemen.

Seven Plymouth people spent Tuesday in Dearborn learning about the new rationing rules. The volunteer workers were Mrs. Jesse Hines, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Ada Watson, Mrs. Charles C. Minehart and William Wood.

Rolf Smith, Plymouth manager of the Consumers Power company, presented the following statement from his company in collaboration with the State Defense Council:

"The American Gas association recommends that you make no attempt to shut off the main gas valve. Simply turn off the stove burners that are lit, but not the pilot light. If the house is badly damaged the main gas valve should be shut off. Once the main valve is turned off, for any reason do not turn it on again yourself. Call for a trained man. Your local gas company is working out further detailed directions with your local defense council. Watch for these instructions, then follow them."

The gas company will gladly furnish instructions for this training to the local Air Raid Wardens.

The Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church contributed this week, 18 quilted lap robes and seven girls' skirts.

Members of the Thursday luncheon club enjoyed a picnic party in Riverside park, on Thursday, with Mrs. Harry Mumby and Mrs. Arthur Blunk acting as hostesses.

Using Marrow Cavity for Rapid Blood Transfusion

About five years ago, Dr. Tocantins, experimenting on transplanting marrow between animals, observed when two needles were inserted into the marrow cavity of the thigh of a rabbit at either side of the bone, and five cubic centimeters of salt solution injected through the needle at one side only two cubic centimeters of solution came up through the other.

This meant that some fluid was evidently being absorbed into the general circulation system as fast as injected. The doctor recalled, when mercury was injected into the marrow cavity of the breastbone or the leg bone or arm bone of infants, the metal could be seen by X-ray escaping rapidly through the veins into the general circulation. And when certain organisms were injected into the bone marrow of guinea pigs, they speedily reached various organs.

This pointed toward the use of the marrow cavity for the rapid introduction of blood in transfusions as well as other fluids needed by the patient. With adults, the technique differs from that used with infants. Breastbone is used with grownups, while for infants the inner of the two bones below the knee, and the bone in the upper arm, are preferred.

Meat increases the energy value of the diet.

'Negative' Children Are Coaxed Before Eating

"Negative" children are the kind who daily at meals, and won't eat without coaxing, or without threats, or punishment. They are the kind who burst into tears unexpectedly, or run off and cry, and who run to teacher and tattle.

Negativism is normal about the time a child first realizes that he is a person in his own right, and that he has the power to do what he alone wants to do.

The child, therefore, becomes a sort of rugged individualist. He finds that an easy way to assert this new-found self is to resist the demands of his parents.

If they tell him to go, he comes, or stands still. If they tell him to sit, he stands, and so on and on. A battle between the parents and the child thus develops which can turn into a permanent pattern of conflict in many cases.

The end result, say scientists, is that the child gets attention he could obtain in no other way, and makes himself the center of the family scene.

The cure, they explain, is to give the child the attention he requires but not in the way he has been trying to get it. Their advice is to praise the child for all the good things he does, ignore and withhold all attention from the bad things he does.

First Church Of Christ, Scientist, Holds Annual Meeting In Boston

The great task now confronting a liberated America, which more than three quarters of a century ago fought a four-years' war to free the slaves, is to aid in working out the freedom of the whole world from slavery, the Christian Science board of directors told several thousand Christian Scientists gathered at the annual meeting in Boston, Massachusetts, Monday. "Persecution is the weakness of tyrants engendered by their fear and love will cast it out," wrote Mary Baker Eddy in her work, "Miscellany."

The directors' statement was the highlight of the annual meeting of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The directors emphasized the worldwide emergency as presaging a more universal turning to spiritual enlightening as the pathway to future world peace. The visitors were reminded that the union of Britain and America was foreseen 44 years ago by Mary Baker Eddy, discoverer and founder of Christian Science. The welding together of the two great democracies, under the impact of an international crisis, is the consummation of the fond hopes of all Christian Scientists.

The directors also announced the election of Mrs. Elisabeth F. Norwood of Brookline, Massachusetts, as president of The Mother Church for the ensuing year. The new president is the daughter of Isaac Paul Gragg who served meritoriously throughout the Civil War. Her mother, Mrs. Eldora O. Gragg was one of twelve students of Mrs. Eddy's chosen by her to form The Mother Church. She was also the first woman Reader in the Church.

Mrs. Norwood was born in Roxbury, Massachusetts, and received her early education in the Girls' Latin school of Boston and in private schools. She was a member of the Normal Class of the board of education of the Massachusetts Metaphysical college in 1922, thus becoming a teacher of Christian Science. She also served as Second Reader in The Mother Church from 1929 to 1932.

From the pages of the Scriptures and from the Christian Science textbook, John Randall Dunn, retiring president, cited many passages promising the victory of right over evil. Today the Board finds that the establishment of Christian Science in some countries was being limited by the dictators, that some churches and institutions were being closed and confiscated. "But wherever multitudes of plain people in ordinary, everyday living cherish and practice the truths of their religion its resurrection is assured," said the Board.

Navy Mother's To Organize Club

Mrs. Chester Keller Has Two-Star Flag

There are two blue stars on the service flag in the front window of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Keller's home on Five Mile road near Plymouth. The stars represent the Kellers' two sons in the service. Paul, 22, enlisted in the Coast Guard service a year ago and is now a cook on a coast guard cutter in the Gulf of Mexico, and Edward, 20, enlisted in the U. S. Navy two years ago, and is now doing engineering work at Pearl Harbor.

were all members of the Detroit chapter of the Navy Mothers' club, a nation-wide organization. Mrs. Keller wishes to help organize a local Navy Mothers' club for those in Plymouth and vicinity who have sons in the Navy, Marines or Coast Guard services. It is believed that there are more than 20 mothers in this vicinity who have sons in these three services.

The Navy Mothers' club aids in blood donor programs, sewing and knitting clothing for navy men, provides lunches for recruits and extends aid to the wives and families of men in the navy, marines or coast guard. The group also sponsors orphan boys who are in service, remembering them with greetings on their birthdays and holidays in an effort to make their lives more pleasant and enjoyable. The Detroit club furnishes sandwiches, coffee, cookies and candy to the boys at the recruiting headquarters while they await induction and transportation.

Mothers with sons in the navy, marines or coast guard services, who are interested in organizing a local Navy Mothers' club, are asked to call Mrs. Keller, at 889W1. An organizer from Detroit will visit a meeting of the mothers to explain further the purposes of the clubs.

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, June 14. The Golden Text (Psalms 89: 18) is: "The Lord is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Deuteronomy 6: 4-5): "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord; And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 261): "Good demands of man every hour, in which to work out the problem of being. Consecration to good does not lessen man's dependence on God, but heightens it. Neither does consecration diminish man's obligations to God, but shows the paramount necessity of meeting them."

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Holbrook and Hardinberg. Lynn B. Stout, pastor. D.V.B.S.—Daily Vacation Bible School—begins next Monday, June 15 and concludes Friday, June 26, under the able leadership of Rev. Richard "Dick" Neale. To you parents—if the distance is too far for your children to walk and you will be unable to bring them, phone 630-XW and a car will be sent for them. Let us make this year the best ever. The first line of defense for American youth is spiritual, and when that crumbles the second and third line—moral, physical and social—will be soon or later. Boys and girls come to Bible school. Parents, bring them to church next Sunday.

Phone Company To Try And Meet Resort Summer Service

While the Michigan Bell Telephone company expects to be able to meet most requests for service at its summer resort exchanges this year, many persons still will be unable to get service because of war restrictions, officials of the company stated today.
Company officials also pointed out that new residential extension telephones will not be available at any point except when essential to the "public health, welfare, and security." Telephone installations may be curtailed, officials said, if they involve considerable line construction. Only party-line service can be provided in some localities. Service also will be difficult to obtain if traffic over telephone lines at an exchange already is approaching switchboard capacity. That will mean that at some points at least, some summer homes that have had service in past years may be unable to get it this year.
Every application for service, the company said, will be decided on its individual merits and the available facilities, including lines and central office apparatus and capacity. In some cases, field investigation will be required to determine whether service can be made available.
Restrictions to date affect mostly those exchanges where service demands are greatly increased as a result of military or industrial activities arising from the war effort. Officials said the situation may become more severe should the War Production Board find it necessary to expand its restrictions in order to save even more materials than under present restrictions for the war effort.

Haphazard spending on food and clothing is an insult to the men in khaki and blue. Your dollars, invested in War Bonds, will move tanks and float ships.
Your home is a "front line" on the war front and the production front. Every dollar you save on your household budget, invested in War Bonds, is a Victory dollar added to your county's quota.

• This is a war of resources. And the housewife who saves tin and paper, uses up leftovers and remodels old clothes is helping make America's resources go as far as possible. So is her husband when he gets extra shaves out of a razor blade, saves old nails and hardware, and walks to work.
Like other folks, Michigan Bell employees are pulling together to win the war. By getting along with what they have they are helping conserve vital war materials. The girls in our offices keep extra vigilant watch over all supplies and equipment, to make them last.
Telephone men are finding new ways to keep old equipment in service. They take extra care of the tools with which they work. They are careful with cars and tires. And they even pick up small scraps of wire after a job is finished — not because it's economical in money, but because the material itself is the thing that's important now.

Citizens Attend Patriotic Revue

Pageant Emphasizes Civilian Morale
More than 100 Plymouth citizens, representing the various branches of civilian defense services, attended a patriotic pageant, "You Can Defend America," at the Masonic Temple in Detroit last Thursday evening.

Two buses of the Plymouth Coach company transported most of the group while others drove in private automobiles.
The revue, sponsored by the Wayne county and Detroit Defense Councils, featured a morale-building program in chorus and dramatic selections. "We're the Arm Behind the Army" was the theme of one of the choral selections.
"Being an American means pulling your own weight all the time," declared one of the speakers. The program was an effective preparation for moral rearmament on the home front to insure victory on the battlefield. Musical selections were played by the Michigan Symphony orchestra of the Works Projects administration under the direction of Walter Poole.

A Communication

To the Editor:
The magic in the words "Home-Rule" is attracting many names to the so-called "Home-Rule" Amendment petitions now being circulated throughout the state.

The joker in the amendment is that too many details are being written into the state law. Nobody has the wisdom now to foresee what the county government should be made of 10 or 25 years from now. This proposed amendment contains 630 words and thus freezes into state law many things that should be left to local control or "Home-Rule." To change them later requires state-wide action at a cost of about $100,000.

Recently the Reader's Digest ran a success story on how the state of Virginia does it. The enabling act of that state contains 59 words and NO details. That was passed in 1928 and time has proved it successful.

In this war-torn day we are all too busy to give this problem the attention it deserves. It can wait. In the meantime, let us remember that the FORM of government doesn't make men honest.

Traffic Ticket Decrease In May

Safety Effort Will Aid Conservation

An effort on the part of motorists to conserve on use and needless damage to automobiles during the war emergency is reflected in the monthly police report which reveals a decrease in the number of traffic violations during May. Local police issued a total of 32 traffic tickets for the month.

Violations for which tickets were issued include one reckless driving, five illegal parking, 17 speeding, three stop street offenses, one failure to signal, one improper plates, and three drivers with no operator's license.

Philippine Knives on Display at Mail Office Create Interest

"Some knives" has been the exclamation of nearly every person who has seen the display in the big window of the office of The Plymouth Mail.

They certainly are correct in their views. These knives were brought from the Philippine Islands by Chief of Police Charles Thumme, when he returned from military services in the islands after the Spanish-American war.

"I wanted some souvenirs so I bought three or four of the knives that the natives made by hand over there," stated Chief Thumme.

"The other day when cleaning out the attic, I came across these old knives and I thought folks would be interested in seeing just what they looked like," said the Chief.

He is correct—folks are interested in seeing the ugly looking knives brought back from the Philippines a number of years ago.

Township Board Studies Draft Of Building Code

T. Glenn Phillips Submits Proposed Livonia Ordinance

A draft of a proposed building code ordinance for Livonia was submitted to the township board by T. Glenn Phillips, planning consultant, at its meeting last Monday evening. The proposal will probably be given its first reading at the next regular board meeting June 15. The building code is a corollary but entirely independent of the zoning ordinance recently adopted by the township.

The building code is a proposed ordinance to regulate all matters pertaining to the construction, alteration and maintenance of all buildings and structures, including signs, fences, walls, dikes, tents, towers, tanks, bins and similar objects, defining the duties of the Department of Buildings and providing penalty for violations.

The ordinance will be enforced by a Department of Buildings, established under the authority of the township board, consisting of a building inspector and assistants, according to the preliminary draft. The building inspector shall be appointed by the township board, and employees of the department may be appointed by the inspector with the consent of the board. All compensations shall be determined by the board.

The ordinance proposes that it shall be the duty of the department to inspect, and when necessary to condemn all dangerous structures, to inspect all buildings during the course of construction, alteration, repair or removal, to inspect all places of public assembly at least once a year and make other inspections necessary for public safety, to receive and examine all plans, specifications and applications for building permits, to issue permits, collect fees payable to the township treasurer and to keep records of building activity.

According to this proposal, prospective builders must file plans and specifications with the department of buildings and pay for inspection before construction before actual building may be started.

It is also proposed that there shall be a board of appeals consisting of five members to be appointed by the township board. In case of dissatisfaction with any decision of the building inspector, an appeal may be made to the board of appeals.

The ordinance draft defines various types and classes of buildings to conform with the provisions of the new zoning ordinance, establishes certain building requirements and rules concerning lot lines and location of buildings. Minimum sizes and heights of rooms in dwellings and provisions for lighting, ventilation and sanitary facilities shall conform to the requirements of the state housing law, according to the proposed draft now under consideration.

It is pointed out that the building code proposal will offer protection of property values for existing and future taxpayers, aid in the purposes of the zoning ordinance, and provide permanent records of building activity in Livonia township, where new building has been thriving during recent years.

Rosedale School Awards Diplomas

Supt. George A. Smith Delivers Address

"Looking Ahead" was the subject of the commencement address by George A. Smith, superintendent of Plymouth public schools, at the Rosedale Gardens graduation exercises Friday evening. The speaker discussed the "changed but improved economic system at the close of the war" and charged the graduates to prepare to fit the niche they are intended to fill and not sell out their health or ability for things that are temporary. He emphasized the importance of achievement rather than seeking the "spotlight."

Diplomas were presented to 28 graduates by William Trepagnier, president of the board of education. Following the procession by Miss Elizabeth Ulp, the location was delivered by the Rev. John B. Forsyth. James Baker gave the valedictory and Marion Louise Price presented the salutatory.

Members of the Rosedale school band presented several musical selections. Jack Kinner sang "Hymn of the U.S. Marines"; Gerald Harder played a trumpet solo, "Sweet Mystery of Life"; Harvey Kelly played "Anchors Aweigh" on the clarinet; Nadine Smale gave a saxophone solo, "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise"; and Harry Curtner played "Missouri Waltz" on the alto sax. Following Superintendent Smith's address and the presentation of diplomas, Garrit Kramer, superintendent of the Rosedale school, gave the farewell message.

Mail "Follows The Fleet"

Uncle Sam Sees To It Boys Get Papers

Proof that The Plymouth Mail is right now "following the fleet" to all parts of the world came this week when Erland "Sonny" T. Bridge Jr., arrived home in Plymouth for a brief visit with his parents on Hartsough avenue, and friends in the city.

The youthful Plymouth lad is a member of the crew of a battleship of the Atlantic fleet. He is one of the several hundreds of Plymouth boys in both army and navy service who are receiving The Mail every week.

Does he receive it — even though he is way out on the ocean most of the time? Well, there is one thing that Uncle Sam is doing, he is seeing to it that the boys get their hometown newspapers.

Proof that "Sonny" is receiving The Mail is found in the fact that when he stepped off the battleship at some undesignated eastern port, recently to come home, his clothes were neatly bundled within a Plymouth Mail that he had received somewhere at sea.

"Boy, we just couldn't get along without it. It seems that everybody in the crew wants to read it, even though some of them don't know where Plymouth is located," he declared.

Robert Martin Is Now In India

Letter Describes "Strange" Country

Private Robert G. Martin of the Army Air Corps, bombardier group, is now stationed in India and is believed to be in the most-distant section of the war theatre of all Plymouth's fighting sons. Private Martin entered the service a year ago and was first stationed at Boise, Idaho, on November 29, he sailed from San Francisco to Hawaii and later reported from Australia, arriving there in advance of the MacArthur forces. He has been in India since early in April.

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin P. Martin of Ann street, Private Martin wrote, "I'm getting some pictures developed so will try and send some to you shortly. India is sure a strange country, cows roaming the streets, horse and buggies for transportation, a few cars, too, and the camels are a common sight."

"Last night I went to a movie with George (a fellow from Chicago), too, whose home is in Chicago; of course, the pictures here are old. We saw "The Underpup" with Gloria Jean but it was good anyway. I got a promotion recently. I'll write again soon; keep well," wrote Private Martin from an outpost in India.

From there he expects to leave shortly for some place unknown to his organization. Sergeant Smith states that he is thoroughly enjoying army life.

We have 16 bales and some broken bales of Swedish Lawn and Garden PEAT MOSS to sell at $3.50 per bale with adjustments on the broken bales. Remember last fall when there was so much Fowl Pox around. This is just a reminder that from 6 to 14 weeks is a good time to vaccinate for life immunity. We'll show you how to do it if you don't know how. It's not a bad idea to watch for those worms this time of year in both young and old hens. And don't forget . . . this is the best time to get after those bugs . . . use spray or dust. We have full line that will do the business.

GOOD WORK

A final check of the work of a group of some 50 Plymouth "minute women" who gave their time to the recent canvass of the city of Plymouth to secure pledges for the purchase of war bonds and stamps, shows that exactly 1640 pledges were secured in this city. That total represents practically every home in Plymouth. It makes this city as near a 100 percent "pledger" as there is in the country. The total amount of pledges for the next year is close to a quarter of a million dollars. From reports made by leaders of the "minute women" there were less than a dozen rejections, and most of these cases were people who were, because of illness or unemployment, unable to sign a pledge. Plymouth is truly one of America's most patriotic cities.

PROVED BY TIME

It seems as though it was Voltaire who declared: "May God defend me from my friends. I can defend myself from my enemies." As one ambles down the highway of this earthly existence and gains experience through the years, he comes to believe more firmly with each passing year that when the old boy said that, he really said something.

TOO OPTIMISTIC

A public official of the present Democratic administration called at the office of The Plymouth Mail the other day to "discuss the war." He was optimistic as to our naval successes in the Pacific and he pointed to the plan of congress to build more ships for the navy than the country had ever dreamed it might possess. He predicted victory by fall.

"Therein we disagreed. The writer does not care to take a "gloomy Gus" attitude, but this war is not going to end this year, and maybe not next year.

Because of our unpreparedness, because of our indiscriminate selling of war materials to Japan through the years and because of the powerful war machine we permitted the Dictators of Europe to build, with which to fight us, we will, indeed, be fortunate if we win this war in even next year.

We are alone responsible for our inability to smash through to an early victory—responsible because a false leadership told us we were in no danger, told us that Germany "wouldn't dare declare war on the United States" because of our great might.

Blame no one else except those that preached that doctrine when you read the casualty lists as they appear each day in the newspapers. But irrespective of the miserable leadership and the false doctrines preached to the voters so that job holders might keep their jobs, we have a war to win. It is up to every person to buckle into the job that lies ahead of us and work to win this war, if we have any desire to continue as a nation of free citizens.

RAYMOND CLAPPER SAYETH SOMETHING

"There is no excuse for (gas) rationing in the Middle-west and it should not be accepted," said Senator Prentiss M. Brown the other day after Governor Van Wagoner had protested against rationing for this part of the country.

Raymond Clapper, writing in The Detroit Free Press, said senators and congressmen believe it is popular with their constituents to scream against gas rationing. "None of us like rationing," wrote Clapper, "and we all want to drive our cars."

But "driving must be curtailed on the basis of the present rubber outlook. Therefore, national rubber rationing on a sensible basis must be given serious consideration," reported a senate committee recently after it had investigated the rubber shortage.

Again wrote Raymond Clapper: "When I said the other day that what you hear in Congress is 90 percent tripe; ignorance and demagoguery, possibly I was unfair. * * * Senators and congressmen who know they are in bad with the public, are now taking the cheap way to curry favor. * * * Maybe I was wrong. Maybe what you hear in congress isn't 90 percent tripe, ignorance and demagoguery. Maybe it is 95 percent."

RAMBLING AROUND

With Prominent Michigan Editors
Their Views About Public Problems and Issues

BOOST FOR DIGMAN.

When the name of fearless New York Prosecutor Tom Dewey is mentioned Michigan men in both parties naturally think of his boyhood chum, State Senator Herman Dignan, also of Owosso whose political star is sharply in the ascendancy in his native state. For this reason a brief sketch of Dignan would seem to be privileged even in these early days of his campaign as a republican candidate for secretary of state. He is the small town man at home on Dewey's Fifth avenue or on any Main street in the land. He has been a successful Owosso hardware dealer for 25 years, was placed at the head of his trade association in the state in 1928, serving six years on the board prior to his elevation, a probationary technique used by commercial groups to test the men they select for leadership. All this forecasts a home town activity which includes the presidency of the Chamber of Commerce and scores of other essential and vital community errands. He was a member of the Michigan Athletic Board from 1930 to 1932 which fact suggests his major hobby, a starting judge of harness racing which has taken him to practically all the top tracks between Alpena and Detroit, including several engagements at the widely known Ionia Free Fair. He has been a Mason for 30 years, a three-decade member and supporter of the Congregational church, a quality man for quality work by a brace of D's with the same start on the same street and going in the same direction—toward the capitol of their sov-erain states.—Murl H. DeFoe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

MORE POLITICS.

Numerous official releases given in Washington and elsewhere makes it very clear that no one knows what is going to happen in regard to gasoline rationing. Only on one point do the Nuclears agree, namely that the whole subject is full of political dynamite and the fuse must not be touched off until after the election next November. But there must be steps taken to reduce the consumption of gasoline and this will be within a few weeks. While all of the spokesmen for the government have been explaining that the idea behind the plan is to conserve rubber, it is beginning to leak out that it would be safe insurance to pile up a gas surplus just in case something happens to the Russian supply. No order has been issued with regard to immediate or early gas rationing in Michigan or any of the middle states. Reports to this effect have been unofficial. Now new plans are being considered, like gasless Sundays.—Milton Carmichael in The Wayne County Courier.

NOT ALL AGREED.

We believe no county, no matter how many people it has and no matter how much it pays in taxes, should have over 25 percent of the representation in the legislature under any circumstances, in order to forestall any monopoly in state government at the expense of the remainder of the state. We believe it is high time that large rural organizations get busy to sponsor an opposing constitutional amendment limiting any county to 25 percent of the state's representation, and to inform the people of the state why such an amendment is proposed. There is a large number of other state organizations whose best in-

Plan To Help Farmers Secure Workers

In order to assist the farmer as much as possible in the planting, care and harvesting of his crops, the United States Employment Service, in cooperation with the state board of education, has registered a great number of youth between the ages of 14 and 18, who will be available and are willing to do this type of work during their school vacation.

Carvel Bentley of the Plymouth high school, phone 62, has a list of the available boys and a telephone call to him at any time during the summer, will undoubtedly be of great value to the farmer in locating help.

...how Detroit Edison customers are aiding the War Effort

A short time ago, we asked your patience in the matter of Detroit Edison delivery and service calls, explaining that it might take a little longer for an Edison serviceman to arrive, and that deliveries might not be quite so prompt. We did this in an effort to save cars, tires, man-hours, gasoline... yet still provide reasonably good service for our customers.

You have cooperated generously in this program, and thanks to your patience, we can report worthwhile results. By ROUTING customer calls—that is, by grouping all the calls in a certain area so that a man can handle more in a single trip—we are saving 1,000 miles of driving per day. Our customers have not been inconvenienced too greatly: The latest figures show that 84 PER CENT of all customer calls are answered within an hour.

Meanwhile, material shortages grow more critical. We are making further studies on how to achieve even greater savings in rubber, gasoline, and man-hours, and still maintain good service. We know that if we are obliged to adopt a new plan along this line, you will cooperate with us as wholeheartedly as you have done in the past. Patience can be patriotic, too.
