Plymouth, Michigan, Friday, August 21, 1942

$1.50 Per Year in Advance

Fix Date For Schools To Open September 8

Pupils To Register At Noon Hour

Board Decides To Accept Students In Nearby Districts

Plymouth public schools open Tuesday, September 8, at 12:30 p.m. It is expected that alterations at the school will be completed, a limited amount of painting done, and everything in order ready to start.

The reason for having the pupils come at 12:30 instead of 8:30 will be that the forenoon will be used in getting the work organized (the teachers' meeting at the school at 8:30 a.m.) and rooms in readiness so that regular work can be started as soon as pupils arrive at 12:30.

This year, as in the past, the board of education has voted to endeavor to care for tuition students from the districts from which Plymouth has been receiving pupils in the past, setting the tuition to be paid by the district or individual pupils at $20.00 per year, in addition to the tuition received from the state.

In the grade schools it was voted to accept a very limited number for the coming year, which would include the grade school pupils from Coopers' Corners district, and approximately four additional, the tuition for the year being $55. The board of education also voted that beginning in the fall of 1943, the eastern boundary for the admission of tuition students would be fixed at Inkster road, and that no new pupils would be admitted from points east to Inkster road.

The question of whether boys and girls should attend high school this year is one for each and his parents to decide. So many opportunities of employment exist that there may be a tendency for some to question the advisability of high school attendance.

The fact remains however, that when the war is over, and things become normal, it will be those boys and girls who are preparing themselves in high school and other educational institutions that will be the last liable to be unemployed. If you believe this to be true, then there would be but one conclusion for the boys and girls of Plymouth, and that is to complete their high school education.

City Buys Polley Lot On Main St.

House May Soon Be Used For Offices

By the purchase of the Polley property, located directly north of the city hall on Main street, the city commission has added a 57-foot frontage to its property. The lot goes back a distance of 200 feet, the same depth of the present site of the city hall.

The purchase price was $9250, regarded as a reasonable one for that location.

It is the plan of the city for the present to rent the house on the property, but if the demand for office space continues at the present rate, it will be essential for the city to use the house as an overflow for office space. The city has found it necessary to provide housing facilities for the rationing board and its dozen employees and for other various governmental units. It is probable that within another six months the house will be utilized for office purposes.

Mary Jane Olsaver had the pleasure of entertaining Virginia Pierce of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, over the week-end.

School Days, Those Good Old School Days!

GEORGE A. SMITH
Plymouth's School Superintendent and the board of education have worked out all the plans for the opening of Plymouth's public schools—and it will not be many days before the school bells will be ringing.

Board Issues Extra Sugar

Rush For Fall Canning Allotments Starts

Local ration board No. 82-19 which serves the Plymouth and Livonia areas announces that extra sugar allotments for institutional and industrial users will be granted for the four months of July, August, September and October. Additional sugar quotas for the four-month period may be secured now upon application at the ration board office at the Plymouth city hall.

Those eligible include restaurants, hotels, bakeries, dairies, drug stores and other industrial users and institutions. The industrial user shall be eligible for an extra allotment of 10 per cent of its sugar base computed on the basis of last year's consumption. An institution shall be eligible for 25 per cent extra on the same basis.

The local ration board for this area reports that the rush for sugar certificates for fall canning started last week. Housewives may now apply for extra sugar allotments for the balance of the year's canning needs. The first half of canning allotments were issued in June. The board issues canning sugar on the basis of one pound of sugar for each four quarts.

Natural Gas Now In Use Here

Company Adjusts All Stoves In City

Would you believe it! Plymouth housewives are today burning gas that is being brought to this city from way down in Texas. Yes, some of it is mixed with Michigan natural gas, but most of it comes by pipe line from the Texas oil fields. It has been necessary for the Consumers Power company to adjust all of the gas stoves and the hot water heating tanks in the city, a special crew of men having been sent to Plymouth Wednesday to do the work.

Letter From Joe Merritt Received By His Parents

Written On February 20, Apparently From Bataan

Although reported by the war department as missing in action in the engagement fought by American troops on Bataan Peninsula with Jap troops late last winter, indirect information seeping through from various sources indicates that Joe Merritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Merritt, may still be alive and with American troops somewhere in the Pacific.

First indication of this fact came a few days ago when there was a change of address sent to his parents from the postmaster at San Francisco, giving another address other than the one that had taken his mail to the Philippines.

Then came a letter from Joe, which had been written on February 20, just a short time before it was announced that the Japs had won control of the last stronghold of the American troops in the Philippines.

The fact that the letter has been mailed from some source at a time when it was believed that the Japs had control of all shipping in and out of the Philippines would indicate that the letter had been mailed from some other place in the Pacific.

The original envelope had been removed and another one addressed to the Merritts at Plymouth, Massachusetts, the error probably being due to a mistake of the censors. From there it was sent to Plymouth, Pennsylvania; Plymouth, Indiana; and finally to Plymouth, Michigan, reaching here last week.

In his communication, Joe told his parents that his health was such that he dreamed every day of sitting in the breakfast nook eating tuna fish and cheese sandwiches of which he was exceedingly fond. He declared that "the good old food" back home was about all that the soldiers talked about.

"We are in a comparatively safe place so don't worry too much. I know we will come out victorious. We have just got to hope it is sooner rather than later. Tell all my relatives and friends 'hello' and say that I am fine and I hope they are in the best of health.

"Well, although I haven't said anything, I guess I will have to quit, as there is not much we can write about. But just remember I am well and happy as one can be under war circumstances. I pray though that it won't be long before I come running in to 8959 and find you all well and waiting for the big fellows we are going to have when I get home."

"There is one possible explanation of the belated receipt of the letter from Joe that was written on February 20.

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington published in some Michigan newspapers early this week stated that letters written before the fall of Bataan and recovered from the Pacific ocean after the ship bringing the letters to the United States was sunk, are now being delivered to the families of the soldiers. This news item was released by the war department, but no further explanation was made as to how the letters were recovered from the boat that had apparently been sunk by enemy action.

At the time Joe was reported missing in action by the war department it was generally assumed that he was among the many thousands of prisoners taken by the Japs.

Garden Club Plans Fall Show And Festival

The Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association is planning to sponsor a Victory Garden show 10 in the Hotel Mayflower, to be held in conjunction with the annual flower show. It will be a benefit for the Army and Navy relief fund. Consequently, a small fee will be charged.

All adults and children in and around Plymouth are urged to arrange a display of flowers, or produce either fresh or canned. Mrs. A. C. Dunn is general chairman and is being ably assisted by a committee consisting of Mesdames L. R. VonStein, M. A. Arnold, Floyd Burgett, James Gallimore, William Hartmann, Roy Lindsay, Clarence Moore, J. H. Todd, William Wernett, Winston Cooper, Robert Haskell, Ward Jones, Luther Peck, Carlton Lewis and John T. Neale. The committee on children's exhibits consists of Mrs. Horace Thatcher and Mrs. Henry Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Virgo and son, Richard, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Virgo, in Kalamazoo, Sunday. Richard went from there to St. Joseph, where he is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Burr, for the week.

Northville Fair Best In Years; It Closes Sunday Night At 12

"One of the best little fairs I ever attended," declared Fred D. Schrader, chairman of the Plymouth Day committee, the Northville-Wayne county fair after he had spent most of Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning looking over the exhibits.

Mr. Schrader, who is also one of the directors of the fair association, declared that the stock, poultry and other farm exhibits were among some of the best he had ever seen.

"It looks as though the association has really gone to town this year," he added.

What he said reflects the opinion of all others who have also visited the fair.

"It's a mighty fine exhibit," declared Harry Clark, another one of the directors who was in Plymouth yesterday.

Plymouth Day, as usual, turned out the biggest crowd of the week, unless there should be a record attendance Saturday or Sunday afternoons and nights.

The free attractions in front of the grandstand this year are the best the fair has had in many years. All in all it makes a mighty fine fair and Secretary William Forney and President Nelson Schrader of Northville have a right to be justly proud of the effort.

In order to enable workers in the various war industries around this part of Wayne county to attend, the fair does not close until Sunday night at 12 o'clock.

Lives Of Entire Family Snuffed Out When Speeding Auto Hits A Tree

War Plant Worker Fails To Make Turn When Driving Car 90 Miles an Hour

Because the pleadings of a wife that she be permitted to drive the car did not prevail, a father, a mother, a two-year-old girl and an unborn babe died as the result of a frightful automobile accident last Thursday afternoon in front of the Frank Matyscik residence on East Ann Arbor Trail.

The victims were Harold V. Peterson, 27 years old, an employee of the Kelsey-Hayes factory on Plymouth road and driver of the car; his wife, Carlene, aged 25 and their two-year-old daughter, Vivian. The mother and father died instantly in the crash when the automobile struck two trees in front of the Matyscik home. The little girl, sitting between her parents in the Ford coupe, was so badly injured that she died an hour later in Eloise hospital where she was taken for medical treatment.

Mrs. Matyscik, a witness of the accident, stated that she heard the car coming from the west at high speed and as she turned to look at it, she saw the car swerving back and forth across the highway.

"Then it hit one of those light reflectors that had been put up sometime ago by the road commission. When it hit the iron rod, a tire blew out and the car crashed into a tree on our lawn. It broke some of the big branches off the tree, then swung into another big tree that is some two feet in diameter. The impact was so great that even this big tree swayed as though a storm was blowing," said Mrs. Matyscik.

"The engine flew out of the car and landed some 15 or 20 feet beyond the tree.

"I do not know what speed the car was going. It must have been 90 miles or more. I doubt if it could have been driven any faster than it was when I saw it coming around the curve.

"The bodies were wedged in the wreck so tightly that neighbors who came running to the place of the accident had the greatest of difficulty in getting them out.

"Peterson's wife had been at a picnic down in the Rouge park. After the picnic those whom she was with stopped at the Moonlight Inn to get her husband. They said Mrs. Peterson begged her husband to permit her to drive the car, but he insisted on driving.

"Why he came way down here I don't know. They lived on Ravine road, just off Joy and to get home he should have turned down the Newburg road. This is way beyond the place where they should have turned to go home," stated Mrs. Matyscik.

The bodies were first taken to the county morgue in Detroit and then brought to the Schrader funeral home in Plymouth. Another accident, due to high speed, some few weeks ago ended in the deaths of two young (Continued on page 8)

Jack Anderson Tells Of Boy's State

Members of the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday heard Jack Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson, tell in a most interesting way of his experiences at the Boy's State at East Lansing during the past month.

The young lad, with a number of other Plymouth boys, was sent to the Boy's State, where the youngsters set up their own state, county and city governments.

Jack was "city attorney" of Monroe. His discussion took up the entire time, the other boys who had been scheduled for the program, being unable to be present. Rotarians commended the young man for the splendid way he presented his report.

Big King Boilers Going To Find Their Way Into Bullets And Battleships

From 75 to 100 tons of scrap iron from the old King plant on Main street will soon be made into tanks, shells and battleships for Uncle Sam's fighting forces.

Kelsey-Hayes Wins Army and Navy Award; Out for New Record

Register Now For Primary—Last Day Is Sept. 5

City Manager Says You Can Register At Any Time Now

Well! Well!! Voters—if you are not registered for the forthcoming primary election, better get busy.

City Manager Clarence Elliott says that he will not be able to register you for the primary after Saturday, September 5.

So you had better go down to the city hall right now and see to it that your name is on the list so that you can help nominate your candidates for the Republican and Democratic tickets.

But it is not necessary for you to wait until September 5 to register. You can go down to the city hall at any time during the day before 5 o'clock in the afternoon and register if you desire to do so.

Manager Elliott says the voters will find at the desks waiting to put their names on the voting rolls some of the most accommodating clerks employed by any city in the country.

So if you have not yet registered go down to the city between now and September 5 and register.

Victory Notes

The Plymouth Defense council met Monday, August 17, at the city hall with 11 members present. The blackout of August 12 was discussed and recommendations for future blackouts.

According to a bulletin from the United States department of agriculture, domestically produced cheese will be featured as a Victory Food Special during the period from August 17 through August 29 in a nation-wide merchandising drive, designed to focus consumer attention on the abundant supplies currently available for home consumption.

The Plymouth women are urged to enroll now for the surgical bandage class which will be started about September 15. At least 62 registrations are needed to hold the class. Telephone your name to Mrs. Harold Brisbois, 487-J.

Mrs. Russell Powell, salvage aide, has completed the organization of air warden section 5, post 4, for salvage. Assisting her are the following: Emma Arrow-smith, Zaida Gotschalk, Lorena Hubbs, Mrs. McGorey, Lida Merriam, Margaret Ross, Edith Rowland, Sophie Sancer, Ida Schilling, Gladys Stacey, Zella Terry, Hazel Walker.

Registrations are badly needed for Canteen, First Aid and Home Nursing classes which will start in September when there are enough women registered. At present, there are six registered for first aid and there must be at least 32; there are four in canteen and there must be 60; there are 16 in home nursing and there must be 30. Register now with Mrs. Winston Cooper, Red Cross educational chairman.

Blood donors are still needed! Although registrations have climbed from 62 to 104, the quota has been doubled, and the date pushed ahead to October. If there is a cancellation by some other community and if Plymouth has 200 registrations ready, the Mobile Unit of the Red Cross may come in September, so we want to be ready. Every blood donor is needed desperately to meet the quota of this area. Register at the city hall, Beyer Pharmacy, the Red Cross room or with Mrs. H. R. Penhale, telephone 252-W, Red Cross blood donor chairman.

Save your old keys for the Junior Red Cross collection which will be started soon.

The Red Cross will welcome the offer of a large room, such as a recreation room, etc., to be used for a Home Nursing class, inasmuch as they are experiencing difficulty in locating a suitable room which might be used without charge. Call Mrs. Winston Cooper, 387-J.

Attention Motor Corps: It is urgent that you attend a meeting at the home of Mrs. Helen Burgett, motor corps chairman, 725 Mill street at 7:30 Monday evening, August 24. Mrs. Burgett wishes each individual holding a motor corps certificate to attend, and if possible, to bring with her, (Continued on page 8)

MURRAY D. VAN WAGONER

Michigan's Chief Executive was among a number of distinguished Army and Navy officials who came to Plymouth Monday afternoon to make unusual military award to employees and management of Kelsey-Hayes machine gun factory. Thousands of workers heard his talk.

Call 28 More To Medical Exam For Army Service

Thirteen Left Last Week—New Group To Leave Aug. 28

Nearly 100 citizens were on hand Thursday afternoon, August 13 to join in a demonstration bidding good-bye to the 13 men who left Plymouth for army service. A parade to the Pere Marquette station was led by the Northville high school band and baton twirlers. Cigarettes, candy and soft drinks purchased by the Plymouth USO committee were distributed to the boys by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Those who left for Fort Custer were Benjamin H. Starkey, Russell H. Everson, John E. Siebert, Harold E. Soper, Elmer W. Barlow, Byron C. Laskey and Charles S. Lawrence of Plymouth; David J. Catton and Edward F. Angove of Northville; Arthur L. Ash of Farmington; Harold R. Coon of Dearborn and Kenneth G. Cassie and Robert E. Pichler of Detroit. Laskey, appointed leader of the Plymouth group, served previously in the Army from May, 1919 to November, 1939.

Local draft board No. 61 in Plymouth sent another group to the Detroit induction station for physical examinations Friday, August 14 and will send another group to Detroit on August 27. Those to leave Plymouth on Friday, August 28 for Fort Custer are Douglas Sockow, James Barnes, John Johnson, Jr., John Chappell, Jr., Richard Lang, Earl McWehly, William Cole, Jack Stinson, Clifford Stierwalt, William Koch and William Henry, of Plymouth.

Fred Willman, John Angell, Wayne Keller and Dale Eason, of Northville; John Bayer, George McNealy, Lawrence Joly, Paul Herstrom, John Walts, William Losiewicz, Theodore Asch, James Cody of Detroit; Earl Kelm and Fred Johnston, of Farmington; Sidney Wipp, of Farmdale; and Casual Martin, of Ypsilanti.

The induction of August 14 follows: Russell A. Kirk and Truar G. Sinclair of Plymouth; Frederick A. Oldenburg, of Northville; Jacques G. Washburn and Harold L. Thomas, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thatcher, daughter, Shirley, Bill Swadling, Irene Powers, Mrs. Edward Files and daughter, Beverly, left Wednesday for the Files cabin on Saginaw Bay. Mr. Files and Mrs. A. J. Powers will join them on Friday for the week-end.

Early Closing Of Gas Stations Didn't Work Out, So They Are Open Again

It took just three days for the 8 o'clock closing of the gas stations in and around Plymouth to blow up with a bang. What started out to be a general effort on the part of the gas dealers to conserve on the use of gasoline and tires, proved to be a pretty good thing for some of the dealers who thought it wouldn't make any difference anyway, and they decided to remain open.

As long as two or three decided to remain open, all of the rest of the dealers came to the conclusion that if that was going to be the case, they had better stay open too, so Saturday night the lights on the stations that had been closed during the week at 8 o'clock blazed brightly until regular closing time at 10 o'clock.

Now there is a possibility that some of the stations may stay open longer than the hours that have prevailed in the past. But maybe Uncle Sam will come along and tell the boys just what to do.

Third In State To Be Awarded High Honor

Governor Here For Brief Patriotic Talk To Thousands Of Workers

Unusual honors were conferred Monday afternoon by the United States Army and Navy upon the management and employees of the Plymouth plant of the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel company for the spectacular record that is being made at the plant in the production of machine guns.

With Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner and high Army and Navy officials present, several thousand employees applauding when there was raised the joint Army and Navy production flag that designates the Plymouth plant as outstanding because of its high production achievement.

It is the third joint award of the kind in Michigan by the nation's military forces, the presentation being made by Colonel A. B. Quinton Jr., chief of the Detroit Ordnance district, Second Lieut. Walter J. Zimmer of Detroit was master of ceremonies. Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple extended a welcome in behalf of Plymouth to the distinguished guests and George W. Kennedy, president of the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel company in a brief address accepted the award in the name of the company. Chester Mullins made the acceptance in behalf of the employees.

Honored guests who were present for the occasion were: For the Army: Colonel A. B. Quinton Jr., chief Detroit Ordnance district; Colonel A. R. Glancy, deputy chief of ordnance department, U.S.A.; Captain Peter J. Jensen, chief of the Small Arms branch, Detroit ordnance district; Captain Robert Patterson, Army inspector of ordnance at Kelsey-Hayes, Plymouth plant; Captain Robert Brown, representing the services of supply; Captain Thomas Sullivan, central procurement district, United States Army Air Corps; Lieut. John D. Scarborough, Lieut. H. J. Smith, Lieut. R. L. Atkin, Second Lieut. Major C. G. Gitten, Second Lieut. C. R. Matheny, Second Lieut. C. A. Parcels Jr., Second Lieut. Charles Mortensen and Second Lieut. Allen Sorenson.

For the Navy: Captain R. T. Brodhead, commanding officer of the Naval Reserve Armory; Lieut. Commander A. F. Duernberger, executive officer at Naval Armory branch, Detroit, in charge of U.S. Recruiting and Lieut. David Owen, Navy Public Relations office.

For the company: George W. Kennedy, president; Perry Williams, vice president; J. A. Sweeney, vice president; Lester R. Downe, treasurer; L. C. Brooks, secretary; Charles A. Dana, Clarence B. Hayes, Fred J. Kennedy and Edward J. Quinlan, directors.

For the Plymouth plant: J. C. Mahanna, manager; E. A. Bierwith, general superintendent; Harry Palmer, chief tool designer; J. W. Patterson, engineer; E. P. Wilson, assistant superintendent; G. S. McIntyre, process engineer; W. L. Troufetter, production manager; Russell Matt, chief inspector; Chester Mullins, Arthur Burch, Paul Geislar, Raymond Palmer, Clinton Schreiber, and Milton Wagner, for hourly employees.

Colonel Quinton Jr. made it clear that the battle of production had just begun. He urged the workers to put forth every effort to increase the production, for the various shifts to enter into competition with each other to see which shift could produce the biggest number of machine guns.

"Remember that maybe some of your sons, your brothers or your husbands are suffering and dying out there somewhere on the battle front. It is our responsibility and our duty to see that they are safe." (Continued on page 8)

Hundreds Unsuccessfully Seeking Home and Apartments Here

Wanted—To rent a house!
Wanted—To rent a furnished apartment!
Wanted—To rent an unfurnished apartment!
Wanted—Any old thing, just so it is a shelter!
Not once a day, but a dozen times, sometimes two or three dozen times a day, requests come to The Plymouth Mail from people seeking a place to live in or around Plymouth.

Never before has there ever been such a demand for homes or apartments as at the present time. Weary wives, harried husbands and elderly fathers and mothers come in search of some place in which to live.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Barbed wire used by Uncle Sam's fighting forces is vastly different from that used on American farms. Army and Marine barbed wire is much heavier and the bars, about three inches in length, are more vicious than ordinary barbed wire.

The Marine Corps pays fifty cents for each twelve yards, or 36 feet of this specially manufactured barbed wire. The Army and Marine Corps needs thousands upon thousands of feet for defensive warfare. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps will insure sufficient quantity for their needs. Invest at least ten percent of your wages in War Bonds every pay day.

Tall Tree The General Sherman tree, a sequoia in the Sequoia National park, is 272 feet high and some authorities set its age at 4,000 years. When the General Sherman was a sturdy young sapling, Babylon was a village of nomads; Greece and Rome were a thousand years away. It was 3,000 years old when Lief Ericsson first saw America. Countless fires have gnawed at the base of the General Sherman until only 40 per cent of the live wood is in contact with the ground. The tree is gradually healing the scars and it seems likely to live for another 1,000 years or so.—From the American Wildlife Institute.

That You Don't Need Just about two pounds of rubber goes into a gas mask or a roll of adhesive tape for the medical corps. Surely you can find two pounds around your house that you don't really need.

who used their stoves before the adjustments were made. Found that when the gas was lighted, it flared up as though an extra amount of gas had been turned on. Natural gas is much hotter than manufactured gas, and as a result not so much of it is required. Use of natural gas has been hurried by the company as a war measure, as its use will save large amounts of coal for manufacturing purposes. The new gas supply will also add to the heating requirements of numerous war industries in the Detroit area.

Does It to You? If you're statistics-minded, automobiles of the United States, normally would travel about 458 billion miles this year. That's enough miles for 4 1/2 million round trips between San Francisco and Tokyo or for 27 1/2 million round trips between New York and Bremen. And the tires and tubes which travel these 458 billion miles use enough rubber to equip more than 12,600 normal size battleships to make 600 trips. Which of course doesn't mean anything. Or does it to you?

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stillman of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Moe, over the week-end.

Mrs. B. C. Martin spent Tuesday with her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis of West Six Mile Road.

Mrs. Ella Steffe, Mrs. Vernon Naylor and daughter, Viola, spent Monday with the former's niece, Mrs. Blanche Martin of Harvey street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Widmayer, daughter, Ruth, and son, Clyde, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin.

Mrs. Marlin Simmons, Mrs. E. Simmons and Mrs. Arthur Booth of Dearborn Hills, were visitors Wednesday in the home of Mrs. William Greer.

Word has been received from Tacoma, Washington, of the engagement of Bettie Rader, of Boise, Idaho, and Emerson Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, of Forest avenue, Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Ash returned Friday evening from a trip through northern Michigan. They visited Mr. and Mrs. William Nergent at Houghton lake, Mrs. Norman Schoof at Bellaire and relatives of Mrs. Ash at Grayling.

Kathleen Bloxom celebrated her twelfth birthday, Wednesday afternoon, with a garden party when seven girl friends joined her in out-of-door games and refreshments. Those present were Barbara Weed, Luella Chappell, Patsy Packard, Sally Gustafson, Nancy Lou Proctor, Clara Simonetti and Barbara Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Corwin celebrated their thirty-third wedding anniversary on Friday, August 14. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aldrich and children; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Corwin and children and Melvin Corwin, all of Cherry Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ash of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cline who also celebrated their forty-first wedding anniversary on the same day.

The Misses Edna Steinway and Geraldine Carr of Chelsea, former Cleary college classmates of Mrs. Lawrence Ransom (Dorothy McCullough) entertained at a miscellaneous shower in her honor Saturday evening in Ypsilanti. The party was held in their college home on Ballard street with Miss Edna Hickman assisting. There were many young ladies present from Battle Creek, Saginaw, Chelsea and Plymouth. The honored guest was given many gifts by her friends.

You and I

By CHARLES S. KINNISON

WHO SHOULD BE THE BOSS?

I wonder who should be the boss,
The husband or his spouse?
Which one, I ask, should have the task
Of governing the house?
And now, I hear some man exclaim:
Why, that's as plain as day—
I'll answer that right off the bat—
"The MAN should have the say!"

And now, I hear the women cry:
"Tut, tut—you poor old dub.
Think what you wish,
You poor old fish—
But WE still swing the club!
And finally we'll tell you this:
(And please, sirs, don't you frown);
We do not care if you do wear
The pants. We'll wear the crown!"

Ann Arbor Baseball Team Seeking Games

Is there any baseball team in Plymouth looking for a game? If so, here is a chance for a night or Sunday contest, the Blue Front Cigar team of Ann Arbor desires to meet some Plymouth team. Robert Abbott is manager of the Ann Arbor club and he can be reached at 2315 Brockman boulevard in Ann Arbor or phone 7318.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

When the American Expeditionary Force landed in Ireland recently newspapers reported the citizenry remarked at the similarity of the steel helmets worn by our boys with those worn by German troops. These steel hats are protection from shrapnel fragments and other light missiles. We need thousands of them for they are a regular issue to every American soldier.

A smart strap fastens under the chin and they are padded for comfort. One steel helmet costs $5 so every time you fill a $5 stamp book you are buying protection for an American soldier. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day. Help your country reach its War Bond goal.

Fire Loss

The National Board of Fire Underwriters says that the direct fire loss in the United States amounts to $500,000,000 annually and that over 10,000 deaths result yearly from fires.

'Smart Man's War'

Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the War Production board, calls this a "smart man's war." War workers get "smart" through training. The facilities of 2,400 vocational schools, 10,000 school shops and 200 technical colleges and universities are available to train you for a job on the assembly line. They have trained 3,750,000 war workers in the past two years.

Just His Sort

A Scot wishing to know his fate telegraphed a proposal of marriage to his girl. He spent the day awaiting the reply, which was "Yes." "If I were you I wouldn't marry a girl who kept me waiting all day," said a friend. "Na, na," retorted the Scot, "the lass who waits for the cheap night rates is the lass for me."—Stray Stories.

Make Tires Last

Almost 25 million of the 26 million passenger cars in the country are used for what is classified as "necessity driving." That means that they are used at some time or other for purposes connected with earning a living or some closely related economic pursuits. You can see, can't you, what would happen if these cars couldn't run because they had no tires? And you can see, too, can't you, why it's necessary to make your tires last just as long as possible?

Mileage Budget

Budgeting the mileage left in tires is an important part of the tire preservation program. One of the season's crop of debutantes, or a well-known society woman, could set an example to other women if she would take her car to a garage, have the tire mileage estimated, and figure out just how many miles per week she could drive up to 1946. What driving would she have to cut out to keep within her budget? How can she plan to save enough mileage for that trip she wants to take? In saving tire mileage, will she walk or use public transportation systems?

Local Churches

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—George W. Rothery, minister. Church at 10:00 a.m. Sunday school at 11:15. Evening services at 7:30. The pastor will preach at all services this Sunday.

CHURCH OF CHRIST—188 Liberty street. Eugene Hollaway, minister. Bible study, 10:15; communion services, 11:00; song services and preaching, 8 o'clock p.m. Everyone cordially invited to all services.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist. Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service 8:00.

The Golden Text (II Tim. 1:7) is: "God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Romans 11: 33-36): "O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God; how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again? For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 339): "The basis of all health, sinlessness, and immortality is the great fact that God is the only Mind; and this Mind must be not merely believed, but it must be understood."

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST church. Our Sabbath school services begin at 2:00 p.m. every Saturday afternoon. They are held in the Jewell-Blanch building on the Ann Arbor Trail with preaching service following at 3:15 p.m.

You are cordially invited to worship with us next Sunday, August 23, 10:00, church school in each church, 11:00. Union service of worship in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Sanders will preach. Subject: "Lost Radiance Found." Special music. Duet by Mrs. Martha Koldyke and Mrs. E. Lumle. Male quartette, Alfred Smith, Harold Joffe, Roy Clark and Austin Whipple. Mr. O'Conner, organist.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH.—Lynn B. Stout, pastor. We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts. 2. Pet. 1:19. There is one thing that is sure, and that is the "sure word of prophecy." Every prediction of man as to the future, is at its best only a guess, but God's predictions are "sure." To whom are you "taking heed"? The services at Calvary church for the coming Lord's day are: Preaching, 10 a.m.; Bible school, 11:30 a.m.; young people, 6:30 p.m.; preaching 7:30 p.m. Prayer and praise service every Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. You can't afford to miss prayer meeting. "The glory of tomorrow is rooted in the drudgery of today." Many want the glory without the burning, but crucifixion comes before coronation.

SALVATION ARMY. Captain. Helen Arnold; lieutenant, Marie House. Sunday services, Sunday school, 10 a.m. Holiness meeting at 11 a.m. Evening service at 7:30. There will be a special meeting this Sunday evening with LeRoy Gould of Pontiac in charge.

dust off these PESTS with your DOLLARS

It takes less sprayed from machine guns and bombers to exterminate these borers-from-within. Combatting international pests is not cheap—no war is. Your dollars are vitally needed to help Uncle Sam do a thorough job.

If American farmers buy their proportionate share of WAR BONDS, they alone can finance 30,000 fighter planes this year. Think what a crop-dusting job an air fleet like that could do!

Allis-Chalmers believes:
That WAR BONDS are today's best and safest farm investments.
That American farmers, by buying WAR BONDS every market day, can make total victory the climax to total war.
The quickest and surest way to achieve it is for farmers themselves to take the leadership. That is the aim of the "Win-the-War Bond Contest," sponsored by Allis-Chalmers in cooperation with the U. S. Treasury Department.

Send in your letter today—be the War Bond leader in your community!

ALLIS-CHALMERS

1st PRIZE $1000 WAR BOND

plus a tour for the winner and one other member of the family, all expenses paid. See the big Allis-Chalmers factory where weapons of victory are made. Visit Great Lakes Naval Training Station and, war conditions permitting, cruise as guest of honor aboard a U. S. Navy boat!

2nd PRIZE—$1000 War Bond

3rd PRIZE—$500 in War Stamps

122 other prizes from $400 to $10 in bonds and stamps.

HOW TO ENTER

Anyone living on or operating a farm is eligible except Allis-Chalmers employees and dealers and their families. List the serial no. of a War Bond registered in your name. Obtain entry blank from your Allis-Chalmers dealer. Contest closes Sept. 15. Submit entries to Allis-Chalmers, Dept. D, Milwaukee, Wis.

THE Charleston Group
by KINDEL

Selected by the Editors of HOUSE & GARDEN for their FEDERAL BEDROOM

YOUR love for fine furniture will find endless satisfaction in this charming new group of genuine Kindel reproductions. So typically American in its inspiration, the Charleston mahogany group expresses all that is best in craftsmanship. The design is unusually interesting. It has just enough ornamentation, without being "fussy." The finish is mellow, seemingly age-toned. The construction is what you would expect from America's premier craftsmen. In all, this Charleston group gives you everything you could wish for in fine furniture—superb beauty, enduring quality, exceptional value. Plan to see it today.

ESKRA-LA MOTHE

The wedding of Katherine Eskra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eskra, of Ann Arbor road, and Robert R. La Mothe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred La Mothe, of St. Albans, Vermont, took place at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, in St. Dominics church in Detroit. Father Rumaggi performing the ceremony. Baskets of gladioli and peonies decorated the altar of the church for the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin made with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The skirt was of net over satin and her fingertip veil was fastened to a Juliet cap trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried white gardenias.

Mrs. Mary Hartung, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor, wearing a floor length gown of Copenhagen blue taffeta made with close fitting bodice, short puffed sleeves and full skirt. Red rosebuds formed her bouquet.

Joseph Moody, of Detroit, was best man and Zigmund Moody seated the guests.

Mrs. Eskra was gowned in olive green crepe and wore a corsage of talisman roses.

A wedding breakfast and reception was held in the bride's home following the ceremony. Guests were present from Midland, Detroit, Buffalo, New York and Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. La Mothe spent their honeymoon in Port Austin. For traveling the bride chose a tan and brown suit with brown accessories. They will reside in Detroit.

BAKER-SHERWOOD

On Saturday, August 15, Nora Baker was united in marriage to Perry Clayton Sherwood, in the Methodist parsonage in Plymouth, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. T. Leonard Sanders.

They were attended by Margaret Everitt Ford and Chauncey Newbound, all of Milford.

The Rev. T. Leonard Sanders also united in marriage on Saturday, August 15, Laura Jenkins and Roy C. Wolfe, U.S. Coast Guard Fireman, both of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller of Detroit, attended them.

The members of the two wedding parties are former members of Rev. Sanders' church in Detroit.

ROE-KENYON

The marriage of Dorothy Marie Roe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Roe, and Corporal George N. Kenyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kenyon, took place at 4 o'clock, August 7, in the First Presbyterian church in Seattle, Washington, with the Rev. Hugh Armstrong, assisting pastor, presiding.

Miss Roe, given in marriage by her father, wore a beige wool dress with navy blue accessories and orchid corsage.

The young couple was attended by Mrs. Roe, the bride's mother, and Arthur Pisha, of Chicago.

Mrs. Kenyon will remain in Seattle until the latter part of September when she will return for her senior year at Michigan State college. Mr. Kenyon has been stationed in Seattle the last ten months in the Ballon Barrage division of the coast artillery.

MASON-THAMS

The wedding ceremony uniting Shirley Helen Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Warren Mason, of Roseale Gardens, and Paul Fredrik Thams, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. N. Thams, of this city, was read at one o'clock, Saturday afternoon, in Martha-Mary chapel in Greenfield Village by the Rev. John B. Forsyth, pastor of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church. Before the ceremony, W. F. Koch, of Dearborn, sang "O Promise Me."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white taffeta and marquisette with close fitting bodice, shirred sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. Tilt full skirt was made of alternating rows of taffeta and marquisette and ended in a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a shirred halo edged with tiny flowers made of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, and stephanotis centered with a corsage of lavender orchids.

For something old she wore an antique necklace belonging to her maternal grandmother and for something new she carried a lace handkerchief belonging to the bridegroom's mother.

The maid-of-honor, Gladys Duncan, of Grosse Pointe, college roommate of the bride, wore a figured pink satin gown made with a tight fitting bodice and very full skirt fashioned over a crinoline petticoat. Her shoulder length veil of pink tulle was held in place by a band of pink flowers and leaves. She carried Johanna Hill roses.

Dorothy Waters, of the Gardens, and Patricia Mason, sister of the bride, were gowned in ice blue satin made the same as that of the maid-of-honor and carried talisman roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Robert Brown, as best man. Robert Thams, brother of the bridegroom, and Warren Mason, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

Mrs. Mason chose an afternoon dress of powder blue sheer with wine accessories and wore a corsage of rubrum lilies. Mrs. Thams wore an afternoon dress of reseda green crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the Rosedale Community club house. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Thams left on a two weeks' honeymoon, the bride wearing an aqua blue linen dress with luggage tan and white accessories.

The bride is a senior at Michigan State Normal college and a member of Delta Sigma Epsilon sorority.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Thomas L. Hunter, of Piqua, Ohio, great aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Harley Drake, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Tallman, of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Peterson, Norman Jr. and Janet, of Detroit; Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Servery, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Vaughan and James, of Flint; also other guests from Detroit, Cleveland, Port Huron, Bay City, Ottawa and Windsor, Canada.

MAN AND HIS MATE

Our wives believe that we're all right,
Despite what others think—
And by our side they'll stand and fight
To life's eternal brink!
And though they jibe us 'round the house,
For messin' up the place,
As our beloved, loyal spouse
They'd fight to save our face!

They don't sit down and whine and cry
If we've a humble task—
If they believe we really try,
That's all of us they ask.
Though married life is marred with strife,
Sometimes, throughout its span,
I still will say a loyal wife
Is God's best gift to man!

BOWSER-LOESCH

Of interest to many readers of The Plymouth Mail is the marriage of Carolyn Bowser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Bowser, and William Arthur Loesch Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Loesch, of Newburg.

The service was read at 7:30 o'clock, Friday evening, in the Martha-Mary chapel at Greenfield Village, by the Rev. Verle Carson of the Newburg Methodist church, in the presence of a large assembly of guests. Baskets of pink and white gladioli and delphinium decorated the altar for the wedding ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an embroidered organza dress with full skirt and long train. The bodice had a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves with puffs at the shoulder. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to a cap of orange blossoms. White roses and stephanotis formed her bouquet.

Doris Barnes, of Milan, maid-of-honor, wore blue marquisette with inserted bands of lace over taffeta. It was made with a square neckline and her shoulder length veil of blue tulle was held in place with flowers which matched her colonial bouquet of pink snapdragons, blue delphinium and pink rosebuds.

Marjorie Petersen of Grass Lake and Alethea Johnson, of Northville, were the bridesmaids, wearing dresses alike of ice blue satin and carrying bouquets of the same flowers as that of the maid-of-honor, with blue predominating. They also wore shoulder length veils of blue.

Mrs. Bowser chose rose chiffon and lace for her daughter's wedding and a corsage of cream tea roses. Mrs. Loesch wore an aqua moire taffeta with corsage of yellow tea roses.

Bruce Richards, of Plymouth, acted as best man and the ushers were John Ray Bowser, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Sterling, of Dearborn.

A reception was held at Dearborn Inn for the young couple with 150 guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Loesch left that evening by boat on a trip to Niagara Falls.

For traveling Mrs. Loesch wore a sage green suit of light wool with saddle brown and white accessories. They will be at home after September 15 at 9865 Laurel road, Plymouth.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. William Casle, William Matthews and son, William of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Braun, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilton and son, Wayne, of Jackson; Mrs. Fred Petersen and daughter, Robert, of Grass Lake.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

It's not a pleasant picture to contemplate, but War calls for "blood and sweat and tears." And the Army Medical Corps, with its efficient nurses and its volunteer Red Cross "Angels of Mercy," needs thousands of surgical beds for field and base hospitals on every front.

These beds cost approximately $22 each. They are the latest thing in modern hospital beds, with elevating springs. In some instances surgical cuts are used in temporary field hospitals and there is a folding bed which may be used in ambulances. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps can buy many of these beds for the Army. You'll sleep better if you know our boys have every hospital comfort. Buy War Bonds every pay day. It was upon the following points that the Army and Navy decided to make this high award to the Kelsey-Hayes company, said Col. Quinlan: "Quantity and quality excellent. "Rejections nil. "Performance of products satisfactory. "Costs lowered by methods developed by the company and workmen. "Work stoppages avoided. "High labor standards maintained. "Accident, health, sanitation, plant protection excellent. "But the Army and Navy expect even greater production, even though what you have already done merits this special reward. We must have more of the guns that put the fangs in the Airacobra, teeth in the Flying Tigers and firepower in the combat vehicles." Thomas L. Thomas, a famed New York singer, sang two patriotic numbers and a Detroit band played a brief concert before the beginning of the ceremonies which were broadcast over WXYZ.

It is not often, stated Mr. Schrader that an entire family is buried at one time. In fact, this is the first time it ever took place in Plymouth. The funeral services over the three bodies were conducted by Rev. Forsyth of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church. Burial took place in Riverside cemetery. The parents of the husband came from North Dakota to attend the services. The parents of the young wife reside in the state of Washington and were unable to be present at the services. Two brothers of the dead man, who are employed at the Bomber plant, reside in this vicinity. The young couple came to Plymouth a little over a year ago when he secured work in the Kelsey-Hayes plant.

New Equipment For Hotel Coffee Shop

So rapid has been the increase in the patronage of the coffee shop of the Mayflower hotel that it has been necessary to increase the seating space in the room. Manager Ralph Lorenz Monday crowded more tables and chairs into the big room that, at meal times, is now filled to capacity. New chairs have been secured that will provide for the seating of some 20 or 25 more customers. About a hundred can now be served at a time. So crowded was the hotel on Sunday that patrons had to be turned away.

Related to Milkweed That guayule rubber you've been hearing about... do you know what it is? It's nothing new, even though you've only read about it recently. The guayule shrub, which grows in Mexico and our southwestern desert country, is related to milkweed, has been producing rubber since before Cortez came to the Americas. The plant is macerated and the rubber extracted. Right now there's not enough guayule seed in the world to make any substantial difference in the rubber crop. But the seed is being grown and by 1933 or 1947 there may be a sizable guayule rubber crop.

Merchants Win Sunday's Game

Last Sunday at Cass Bentson park the Plymouth Merchants baseball team beat the Young Electric team of Dearborn, by a score of 5-2.

Most of the credit goes to the pitcher and catcher. The pitcher is Ken DeBozy and the catcher is his 17-year-old son, Tom. Ken only gave up nine hits and they were so scattered that they did no harm. He struck out nine men and only walked one. Tom DeBozy drove in the first two runs of the game, besides playing errorless behind the plate.

Plymouth made three double plays in the game, one by Clarence Levandowski, unassisted.

The four leading sluggers for the Plymouth team are Warren Bassett (manager), 428; Clarence Levandowski, 391; Kenneth DeBozy, 304, and James Williams, 313.

The game next Sunday is the last regular game of the season. This game promises to be a good one. It is between Goddard's Bar and the Plymouth Merchants. Goddard's Bar needs this game to get in the play-off games. The game is to be played at the Riverside park and starts at 3:00 p.m.

Cattle On Feed Show Decided Decrease

The number of cattle on feed for market in the Corn Belt States on August 1 this year was sharply lower than the record number on feed a year earlier, reported today. The decrease for this area was estimated at 19 percent. Compared with August 1, 1940, however, numbers on feed this year were little changed and they were larger than August numbers in any other year since 1933.

The number on feed August 1 this year was smaller in all states with decreases ranging from 30 percent in Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin to 10 percent in Missouri. For the five Eastern Corn Belt states as a whole numbers were down 20 percent and for the six Western Corn Belt states they were down 18 percent.

The largest decrease from last year was in long fed cattle—cattle that had been on feed since January 1. Reports from cattle feeders as to the length of time that cattle on feed August 1 this year had been on feed show that 34 percent had been on feed seven months or more compared with 40 percent reported in August last year. Cattle on feed from four to seven months were 37 percent this year as against 34 last, and cattle on feed less than four months were 29 percent as against 25.

Find Out by Weight
What makes what? The best way to find out is by weight. If a pair of rubber gloves and a rubber bathing suit and a couple of sink stoppers should total up to 1 1/4 pounds (and we don't know whether they do or not!), then they also add up to one gas mask. Some women might like to know just what their scrap is worth in terms of war material. For instance: If her scrap totals 1 1/2 pounds, she's collected half of one of the pneumatic rafts carried by planes. A whole raft needs 29 pounds.

This week the Plymouth plant of the Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Company, received the Army-Navy Award for high achievement in the production of war equipment.

This is indeed a signal honor and distinction we deeply appreciate. At the same time, we know too, that what we have thus far accomplished, is but the beginning of the tremendous job that lies ahead of us, to gain the final victory for America.

This is assuredly a war of production and America has ferreted out and taught the entire world the elementary lessons in mass production. But no nation has mastered the actual technique on the assembly lines as has our country.

And that was simply because no other people on earth had the mass purchasing power of Americans.

Perhaps the word "Democracy" is a little difficult to understand and fully define. But translated into our daily living—it simply means the vast difference in the American standard of living and that of any other spot on this round earth.

It is to protect this way of life—our right to which has been challenged by the Axis—that America is in this war.

And every ship—every tank—every machine gun—every piece of war material coming off the production lines of America, is our answer to that challenge—is a defender of our Democracy—of our way of life.

At Kelsey-Hayes, we will take this "Well Done" by our Army and Navy as a further incentive to give of our best.

We intend to deserve this fine recognition every hour of every day in the year. And we're out too, to get those service stars on our flag, awarded each six months for keeping production at a continuously high level of efficiency.

Fire Protection To Be Discussed

City And Township To Go Over Details

Members of the city commission Monday night ordered City Manager Clarence Elliott to consult with officials of Plymouth township for the purpose of working out plans for fire protection of the township.

Manager Elliott states that the meeting has not yet been arranged, but doubtless during the next week or so, the conference will be held, as it is highly important for the protection of property within the township that the matter not be delayed.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

When the Marines get their service pack, there is included therein a bright shiny new shovel cased in a muslin carrier. The shovel costs 68 cents and the carrier 39 cents, or $1.07 for the ensemble.

These trenching shovels are used by the Marines around camp, digging trenches, setting up barbed wire entanglements and in many other ways. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps every pay day can readily equip our forces with these necessary implements for warfare. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day. Buy War Bonds and Stamps from your bank, your postoffice and at retail stores.

"Smitty" Goes Back Into Woods

He Declares Sugar Business "Has Got Him"

"Let's see—I think we'll find that in form 10431 or maybe it's in form 11700001. Now we'll see what that says," said one of the accommodating clerks down at the rationing board the other day when Glen Smith of Smitty's place went down to see about getting a few more ounces of sugar for his hungry boarders. Maybe he didn't say just that or this, but anyway it was something like that, or this.

"Well, it looks as though form 11700001 says we should look at form 2395 something else to see what we should do," said the clerk, or in words similar to those words.

"Here is it. Well, that's been changed. It says see form 11000007 or something else.

"Right here it is. Now we'll figure it out. Yes, sir—that says you can have seven ounces and nine grams more for another month, providing you don't use any of it for any other purpose than that for which you are getting it—and that is to feed the hungry," continued the courteous young gentleman.

"Now see here," said Smitty. "I came down here this morning before breakfast so I could get this sugar business straightened up and it's ten minutes to dinner time right now. How much longer is it going to take us to go through these forms and things in order to get my sugar for those fellows who have to take what I give 'em over my lunch counter in order to keep body and soul together?"

"Not very long. Just be patient and we'll have you all fixed up very nicely, very soon," continued the smiling and accommodating young gentleman.

Maybe it took most of the forenoon or part of the forenoon or just a little while—Smitty doesn't remember, he's been in such a whirl over it all. In fact, this whole business has him in such a whirl that bright and early Monday morning he packed up some old duds, crashed the cash till, drove over to his home, had Mrs. Smith get in their car, and away he speeded back to the north woods.

"I don't know what I ever came home for. I'm going back up among the tall whispering pines, the bluejays and the wildcats to stay until things settle down. Maybe it will be September first, maybe it will be after the war. I don't know. Maybe I'll find a Jap or two up there to lick for causing all this trouble—and if I do, what a beating I'll give 'em," declared Smitty as he started out to burn a little bit more rubber off his tires.

SYMBOLS

Upon the couch, there sets a doll;
A ball and bat are in the hall,
And roller-skates are also there.
Our carpets show the marks of wear,
And sometimes show a track of mud—
And now and then I hear a thud
Of someone jumping up and down,
(At which I sometimes wear a frown.)

A table-cloth of snowy white
At morn, will spotted be at night.
And every night, I hear it said,
"Aw, I don't wanta go to bed!"
And when I growl at bills, I hear—
"And they'll get bigger every year."
And from these simple lines you'll see
That we have CHILDREN—yes, sir-ee!

How to "PREPARE" Tin Cans for War Duty

Clean can well and soak off label

Cut off both ends and flatten

Tuck cut-off ends in can

Save in separate containers and give to an authorized collector

UNCLE SAM NEEDS YOUR TIN!

Follow these Official Instructions by the War Production Board!

Nearly ninety percent of America's tin formerly came from Malaya. And tin is vital to the war effort—for airplane parts, machine gun mounts, gas masks, countless other military uses! That's why Uncle Sam needs your old tin cans. Read the simple instructions below and cooperate with your Salvage Committee, Defense Council, and Municipal Authorities to help make the salvage of tin cans a big success in your community.

Important Facts to Help You.

All paint, oil, varnish, floor polish, or cone-shaped cans are not wanted for salvage. Evaporated or condensed-milk cans are not worth saving. Put these with your trash.

Coffee cans and others with painted-on-can labels are wanted. It is not necessary to wash off the small amount of glue which holds labels.

Be Patriotic.—Keep this leaflet in your kitchen for handy reference.

Why "Prepared Cans" Are Needed

1. Washing prevents deterioration of tin coating—assures sanitary condition—and prevents contamination of detinning fluid.
2. Removing top and bottom permits the free flow of detinning fluid over all surfaces of the can.
3. Flattened cans occupy less space in collection, shipment, and detinning operations—thereby decreasing handling costs and increasing plant capacity for detinning.

Start Saving Cans Now.—Properly "prepared cans" are clean and fit solidly into a basket or other container.

Collection Day.—The designated collection day for your neighborhood will be announced and publicized intensively through your local salvage committee. Watch for newspaper and radio announcements.

Due to Present Limited Detinning Capacity, Tin Can Collections Are Restricted to Selected Districts by the W. P. B. These Instructions Apply Only to—

Can Tomatoes Advice To Women

Right Now Is Good Time To Start

Sugar for canning is rationed and salt isn't, and one of the most adaptable of all foods available to Plymouth housewives right now can easily be processed for winter use with salt. That product is tomatoes, a vital war food and one regarded by the Federal government as an essential in the diet of armed forces to the extent that it requested commercial canners to increase their 1942 pack of canned tomatoes by 25 percent.

Tomatoes are one of the easiest of all things for the home canner to put up in her own kitchen. Local tomatoes are available in Plymouth at the present time, and at market prices probably result in a savings in the grocery dollar.

Besides local tomato shipments are being received in Plymouth by truck from such points as the municipal market at Benton Harbor where as many as 850,000 tomato packages have been sold in a single year to haulers from a score of states.

Tomato varieties that lend themselves well to home canners are the Pritchard, the Marglobe, the John Baer, the Baltimore, the Stone, the Rutgers and the Stokesdale. These varieties are grown in the region near Benton Harbor, and are also produced in other points in Michigan.

Probably no vegetable lends itself to as many uses as the tomato. In either the fresh state or canned, the tomato is the basis for many delicious dishes that the busy Plymouth homemaker can prepare with a minimum of effort.

Apple Tree Monument

A monument to an apple tree is to be erected at Eastwood, Australia, to commemorate the discovery of Australia's finest dessert apple, the Granny Smith. Seventy-five years ago a widow, Granny Smith, had a small apple orchard and there, from some discarded seed, grew the first Granny Smith apple tree.

Will Keep It Rolling

The emblem on this Kroger truck door means that Paul Roll, veteran truck driver for the Kroger Grocery and Baking Co. in Cincinnati, O., has signed a pledge "To Keep 'Em Rolling Longer." Drivers and warehouse employees of the grocery firm throughout its twenty-five branches are being enrolled in this program to avoid accidental damage, excessive tire wear and gasoline waste, and by careful checking and repairing, to make their trucks last for the duration if possible. The Kroger company maintains a fleet of more than 1,300 pieces of equipment including trucks, trailers, and the tractors which are used to haul trailers. The corps is being sponsored by the Office of Defense Transportation which states that "every extra mile each truck can be made to serve in safety is a direct help to the war effort."

Stay on It
If you have a war job, stay on it until and unless the United States Employment service says you can be more valuable elsewhere. If you are working in a civilian industry which can be converted, stay put until a war job is made for you. If you are in a non-essential civilian industry start looking for a war job through the United States Employment service. If you are taking technical work in high school or college finish your course—you'll be more valuable in the end.

Affect Tire Life

Almost everyone has some bad driving habits and many of these definitely affect the life of tires; such as rushing up to a traffic light and slamming on the brakes. Men say women have more of these than men have. Have they? The head of some driving school or tire repair shop or large garage could answer that and describe just what he has found to be the feminine driving habits which lessen the life of tires.

1787 Coins

Fugio coins, known also as Franklin and sundial cents, were the earliest copper coins struck off by order of the United States government from the dies of Abel Buel in 1787.

Labor Pirates

Don't be a "labor pirate." Employers who lure workers away from their war jobs on the promise of higher pay are laggards in the struggle against Hitler. They slow down production and delay the day of victory. If you need men don't raid your competitor's labor force.

Drive Slower in Summer

In the good old summer time, drive less and drive slower! Tires wear five times as fast in temperatures of 100 degrees as at 40 degrees; twice as fast at 80 degrees as at 60 degrees. And there won't be any more tires when those are gone... not for a long time at any rate.

With Plymouth Boys Defending The Flag

Apprentice Seaman Henry R. Smith, the son of Mrs. Helen Smith of 325 Roe street, was a visitor at The Plymouth Mail office Monday. He left Plymouth Tuesday for Chicago where he will embark for a five-months' training course at a Navy training school, his apprentice course being completed at Great Lakes Training school.

John Kalmbach, Plymouth, was graduated this week from Officer Candidate school here and commissioned a second lieutenant in the Field Artillery. Lieutenant Kalmbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kalmbach, reported to Fort Sill from Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri and will now be stationed at Fort Custer, Michigan. Before starting active duty he was a machinist.

Staff Sergeant John Birchall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Birchall of Blank avenue and Plymouth's first draft recruit from local board No. 61, writes that he is now stationed on a well-known Pacific island base, the identity of which is a "military secret," but the byword of which is "Aloha."

"The place we are at now is about the most beautiful and interesting that I have ever been in with all kinds of strange people. I can't tell the difference between the three races which are intermingled and inhabit the island. This little island is surely a beautiful spot—wonderful beaches for swimming and a pounding surf against the rocky coast line. About the only industry on the island is sugar cane ranching and manufacturing. Of course, they have fruit ranches which grow pineapple, Mangoes, papaya, bananas, and many other tropical fruits. There are all kinds of birds—mocking birds, cardinals and pheasants. It hardly seems possible that anyone is at war when I look around at the beautiful palisades rising up behind our camp. Goodbye and God bless you all," writes young Sergeant Birchall.

Colors for Surgeons

Realizing the cheering psychological effect upon their patients, hospitals have within recent years been painting the walls of sick rooms in more joyous tints rather than the customary cold white. Now many surgeons are adopting soft-toned uniforms. White walls, white gowns and white covers all produce a glare which is further increased by the modern lighting necessary in the operating room. This glare, in turn, has produced much injurious eye strain. To remedy this situation doctors are turning to more soothing colors.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The 50-caliber Browning machine gun is one of the most efficient short range weapons used by U. S. Fighting forces. It is effective at ranges up to 2,000 yards and fires about 600 forty-five caliber bullets per minute.

One of these guns costs about $1,500, while a thirty-caliber machine gun costs approximately $600. Our fighting forces need thousands of these rapid-fire guns. Even a small town or community can buy many of them by uniting in the purchase of War Bonds. At least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day will do the trick.

Rotarians To Hear Interesting Speaker

"There are a lot of fellows in the Rotary club who do not know how to keep fit for the war, so we've got a speaker coming out to tell them how to do it," stated William Wood, secretary of the organization yesterday.
"I've already taken my lessons, because as you know that rationing board thing just drives one to a point where he's got to be fit to fight at any minute—and I am now," ready for whatever comes up," stated Mr. Wood when he was making his announcement of this week Friday's meeting.

Dr. C. C. Birketo, X-ray specialist of Herman Keifer hospital in Detroit and regarded as one of the outstanding health authorities of the country, will discuss the subject "Keeping Fit During The War Period."

Give war calls the green light!

The weight of war on the telephone lines grows heavier day by day. We can't build enough new lines to carry the added load because materials are even more urgently needed for planes, tanks and ships.

So it's up to all of us to help clear the voice highways for vital military and war production calls.
Before you make any Long Distance call, stop and ask yourself:
1. Is it necessary?
2. Will it interfere with war calls?
And please keep all your calls — local or Long Distance — as brief as you can. Remember — WAR CALLS MUST GO THROUGH!

City Expects To Increase Water Supply

"When I get good and tired of frying hamburgers, hot dogs and eggs up and over, I just take my little old cane fishing pole and run over to Walled Lake. Then I get in a boat and I go right out in the middle of the lake and put a big fat angleworm on my hook and let the rest of the world go by," declared Bert Swadling of "Bert's Famous Place" the other day when he displayed at The Plymouth Mail office as nice a catch of blue gills as one ever saw.

"Yes, sir, you know the boys want things so fast these days that I can't hardly keep up with them. First one comes in and has to have his fried egg sandwich faster than the hen can lay the egg. Then some one else comes in and complains because the coffee is too hot to drink down in one gulp. I'm telling you the old world has to slow down or we are going to crack up. I'm going to keep from it by going fishing when I can't take it any more. When I get out in the middle of the lake the boys can't yell to me to hurry things up. I can't hear them out there—and the fishes don't yell."

City Expects To Increase Water Supply

Notice has been received by City Manager Clarence Elliott of the granting by government authorities of an A-1 rating to the city for the driving of a new well and the construction of a well house.

City officials have long regarded it as necessary to increase the water supply of the city and now that the government has approved of use of the materials it is probable that steps will be taken immediately to drive a new well.

It is believed that a supply anywhere from 300 to 700 gallons per minute can be secured, and it is stated that provision for this amount will be a contract requirement.

NOTICE of Special Township Meeting and Election

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Township Board of the Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, held on the 12th day of August, 1942, a franchise ordinance was adopted, entitled as follows:

AN ORDINANCE, granting to CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY, its successors and assigns, the right and authority to lay, maintain and operate gas mains, pipes and services on, along, across and under the public highways, streets, alleys, bridges and other public places, and to do a local gas business in the TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN, for a period of thirty years; and repealing the resolution adopted by the Township Board of said Township, February 26, 1941, whereby a franchise was granted to John H. Fildew and Clarence A. Fox, their successors and assigns.

WHEREAS, said Consumers Power Company has heretofore filed its written acceptance of said franchise, and has requested that the question of confirming the grant thereof be submitted to the qualified electors of the Township, at a special election to be held for that purpose, and has also paid to the Township Board the estimated expense of holding such special election; and

WHEREAS, there has been heretofore filed with said Board, a petition signed by at least twelve electors, requesting that a special township meeting and election be called for such purpose;

NOW, THEREFORE, in pursuance of such resolution, notice is hereby given that a special meeting and election will be held in said Township at Grange Hall, on Union Street, in the City of Plymouth in said Township on Monday, the 14th day of September, 1942, for the purpose of voting on the confirmation of the action of said Township Board in granting such franchise.

The polls of said election will be opened at 7 o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as may be, and will be held open until 6 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time. The Township Clerk will be in his office on the 25th day of August, 1942 said date being the twentieth day preceding the date of said election, for the purpose of reviewing the registration, and registering such of the qualified electors of the Township as shall appear and apply therefor, which registration may be made on said date, between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. and 8 o'clock P.M.

Said franchise as granted by said Board, is on file with the undersigned Township Clerk for the purpose of inspection by the qualified electors.

BY ORDER OF THE TOWNSHIP BOARD.
 Dated: August 12, 1942.
NORMAN C. MILLER,
 Township Clerk.

NOTICE of Registration City of Plymouth, Michigan

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Registration for the City of Plymouth will be in session at the office of the City Clerk from 8:00 o'clock a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on Wednesday, August 26, 1942 for the purpose of receiving the registrations of qualified electors. Registrations will also be taken at the office of the City Clerk on each week day between the hours of 8:00 o'clock a.m. and 5:00 o'clock p.m. up to and including Saturday, September 5, 1942.

No registration for the Primary Election to be held on September 15, 1942, will be received after Saturday September 5, 1942.

Qualified electors who are now properly registered with the City Clerk will NOT have to re-register. If you have changed your address since last voting come to the City Clerk's office where a transfer can be made.

STICK TO IT.

We are glad to see where Auditor General Vern Brown had the good sense and gumption to hold up a pay check that had been ordered for some professor for making a "study" of the state welfare department. The "professor" is on the state payroll at the present time and Mr. Brown says he is not entitled to any additional compensation for making some phony study of the welfare department.

We agree with Mr. Brown. If any "study" of the welfare department is needed, it should be made by some one who knows something about the problem. The "professor" who was hired to do this job is about the last one we would pick to make a "study" of anything.

He is not entitled to $2500 of the state's money. In fact, the "study" he is supposed to make for the state will probably be worth about two bits when it is all finished—and that might be a high price for it, in our estimation.

PREPARE NOW.

Some little idea of the tremendous increases that are to take place in the next income tax payments to be made can be gleaned from the following information that has been released by Congressman Dondero:

The tax of a single person earning $800 a year will be increased from $3.00 to $52.20.

The tax of a single person earning $1,200 a year will be increased from $40.20 to $125.80.

The tax of a single person earning $1,800 a year will be increased from $97.80 to $236.20.

The tax of a married man with no dependents earning $1,800 a year will be increased from $22.80 to $103.20; the tax of such a person earning $2,400 a year will be increased from $80.40 to $213.60.

A married man, without dependents, who earns $5,000 a year will find his income tax bill increased from $375 to $746; if he earns $10,000 a year, his increase will be from $1,305 to $2,152.

It will be noted that the rate of increase is highest in the lower income brackets and decreases as the yearly income increases. For instance, the married man with no dependents earning $1,800 must pay nearly five times as much in 1943 as he did in 1942, while the married man with no dependents earning $5,000 will pay but twice as much in 1943 as in 1942.

The price of earning comes high—so you had better begin to prepare right now to pay—and pay—and pay.

HOAX PICTURES.

It is to be hoped that the United States Army will make public the results of its current investigation and fix responsibility for the release of the article and pictures that described and portrayed what purported to be ingenious ground markers pointing to "vital military objectives." Newspapers published them earlier this week because they came from official Army channels at Mitchell Field. We believed readers would want to be alert to this type of enemy activities with its plain intimation of bombings.

But now there are reports, which the Army indicates are accurate, that the arrow on the field was simply a curiously interesting example of legitimate contour plowing, that fertilizer bags on the farmyard had formed a pattern similar to a figure 9 only because they were thrown off a wagon that made a turn that way. The arrow cut through trees and brush, it seems, was really an innocent bird-feeding station, and not as the caption alleged, a pointer to a "large air base."

Responsible newspapers, naturally, will deeply regret having been made the victim of a hoax. The seriousness of disturbing the public's confidence in its channels of information is not to be exaggerated. The armed services must be above resorting to press agency even when getting less than their quota of attention.

If the present episode and investigation help to establish public-relations work of the services on a higher plane, a good end will have been served.—Exchange.

Substitutes Will Prove Satisfactory To America

Washington, D.C., August 21—Most readers know that the steering wheels of automobiles are no longer made of wood, aluminum or steel but from a form of plastic derived from soy beans. Along with certain trimmings on automobiles it was the forerunner of hundreds of substitutes with which the American people are going to become more and more familiar. As rubber, metals and other critical materials become scarce, substitutes will offer new opportunities for merchants, workers and investors.

Substitutes are mostly derived from common materials which we have in great abundance. These include wood, coal, sulphur, clay, milk, vegetables and oils. From these basic materials can be developed all kinds of plastics and "ersatz" items. Most of them have been known in chemical and other research laboratories for some years. They have been produced and tested in small quantities. Men's hats are already being made from milk as are also blankets and bathrobes. Casein is also being used in the manufacture of paint, thus releasing vital chemicals necessary to the manufacture of gunpowder. Fibreboard is replacing iron and steel.

Paper containers are being used for milk and other liquids. Glass is replacing aluminum and even fabrics. Wood pulp may be used for solid industrial truck tires; while bearings are currently made of powdered iron instead of brass and babbitt metals. Many other illustrations could be given such as using apple juice for burns, restoring blood volume and keeping tobacco moist, using paper reinforced by chemicals as a substitute for metals in making containers, flashlights, etc.; developing a non-spoilable butter for shipping; and using sorghum for making tapioca. The developments in new metals and what can be done with oil and gas are almost miraculous.

Housewives and home owners will hardly miss their old gadgets and appliances. Instead of having to shove around a heavy steel refrigerator they will have a light weight plastic box showing probably but little outward change in appearance. When it comes to re-decorating a room our wives will have a variety of new and colorful materials to choose from. These will be better looking than the old materials and will be designed with efficient living in mind. Remember that always out of the chaos of war or depressions, born of necessity, come new articles of utilitarian use.

As merchants find their present stocks of goods running out, substitutes will refill their shelves. People are going to spend their money for something besides War Stamps and Bonds. That is why I have not worried over the outlook for retail trade. Hence, a proportion of our manufacturing capacity, not using critical war materials, will be permitted to make these new products. These substitutes will render a real service through releasing more important materials necessary on the battle fronts. Mercantile buyers should lose no time in investigating these new products and co-operate with manufacturers in advertising campaigns to educate the public to buy them.

Already we hear a lot of talk as to what is to occupy our service men after the war is over. If the war ends suddenly in an armed truce much of our manufacture of armaments will go on. If the war continues over a long period of years to a final "clean up" of the Axis Powers, labor will be needed in the rebuilding of Europe. In either event substitute products developed during the war period will hold over and may enter upon a period of growth comparable to the automobile or radio industry.

Ultimately, of course, we will run into a severe depression but for the immediate years after an armistice or a peace is declared the great new plastic and wood industry will occupy our thoughts and hands. Manufacturers, jobbers, workers, engineers, chemists, retailers and designers may all find new outlets for their time and energy in the development, manufacture and sale of these new products. These are bound to play an important part in our industrial and commercial life in the near future. After the war, next to righteousness they may be our saving grace.

Each generation usually enjoys some profitable investment opportunities. We had the age of shipbuilding in which great profits were made through foreign commerce. We have seen the development of our great transportation systems embracing railroads, street cars, motor cars, trucks and aeronautical systems.

Light, heat and power plants, as well as means of communication embracing the telegraph, telephone, wireless and even television, have all come in my lifetime. Out of these inventions and developments fortunes have been made and livelihoods for millions of people the world over have been provided.

Many of the old line blue chip investments may go out of fashion. It may be smart to seek out "special situations" in which to place investment funds. It may be that the development of substitutes will uncover many such situations. They surely embrace the entire chemical industry. The plywood business may be one of them. Entirely new businesses on a small scale will spring up but remember also that some of our great industrial corporations are already investigating the possibilities of substitutes. In fact, it is largely to them that we owe the development to date.

One of your handiest hot-weather cooking aids

... take good care of it and MAKE IT LAST!

ELECTRIC COOKERS are no longer being made. They won't be manufactured again until after the war. So it's only a wise precaution to take extra good care of the one you have. Here are a few simple rules to prolong its life and insure satisfactory operation:

- (1) Never dip the outer shell of the roaster in water when cleaning.
- (2) When cleaning the broiler unit, be sure to remove the heating element first. Never dip the element in water. Do not jab the element with a knife, fork, or sharp pointed tool. The fragile wire is easily bent or broken.
- (3) See that the removable cooking well is in place for all cooking. Place smaller utensils inside the cooking well (not in the bottom of the cooker itself).
- (4) Always disconnect the cooker before cleaning. Utensils and removable cooking well should be washed with warm soapy water, rest of cooker wiped with a damp cloth. The Detroit Edison Company.
