To Rigidity Enforce City's Speed Limit

It's 25 Miles Per Hour, And Not A Bit Faster

Police Chief Has Issued Warning To Auto Drivers

"The speed limit in Plymouth is 25 miles per hour. If anybody has any idea that from now on there is any reason to speed, they will have to tell the judge why. Uncle Sam wants the nation to reduce the speed of automobiles. We are going to cooperate in Plymouth one hundred percent," declared Chief of Police Charles Thumme yesterday.

Governor Van Wagoner, in compliance with an urgent request from Washington, has issued an emergency order fixing 35 miles an hour as the speed limit on country highways, effective October 1. The state police are going to rigidly enforce this emergency order.

Chief Charles Thumme says there will be no fooling in Plymouth. The ordinance long ago fixed the speed limit at 25 miles per hour, and while it has not been rigidly enforced in the past, it will be from this day on, there is not much question about that.

There will be no exceptions. Workers in munition plants will have to get up a bit earlier. People who drive back and forth to work in Detroit offices, will be required to add some 30 minutes to their driving time.

Everybody is going to slow down—or pay the penalty. And the smart alec kid who has been burning up tires about defense work, get his good and plenty if he does not slow down.

This is a time when public sentiment is one hundred percent against speeders. Slow down, or pay and pay plenty!

New Classes Help National Defense

High School Doing It's Part to Aid

The Plymouth high school is cooperating in the national emergency by introducing some new classes particularly adaptable to defense workers, air raid wardens, and those with similar occupations.

Trigonometry, a new course being taught by Mr. Blunk, is especially designed for defense workers who use intricate figures or for boys going into the service. Physical training is a conditioning program to improve the health of young people. This physical fitness campaign follows the method used by the University of Michigan.

The Spanish language taught by Mrs. Bixler is of interest to those who wish to further acquaint themselves with Latin-American neighbors and their customs in speaking. Badminton will call the attention of those who wish to recreation their systems.

The pre-flight course is not necessarily a course open to those who have aviation ambitions, but may be used by airplane mechanics, ground work, etc. This new course is certain to get a lot of encouragement by the number who participate in the enrollment.

Call Police if Truck Comes After Dark To Pick up Scrap On Street

Don't lynch them—but just grab them tightly and hold them down in the mud until the police arrives—if you see any one loading scrap on a truck after dark that you have collected for Plymouth's all-out scrap drive Saturday, October 10.

Over The Top!

A final check on the theatre drive during September for the sale of war bonds and stamps, conducted under the direction of Harry Lush, owner of the Penn and manager of the Pennman-Allen theatres, shows that a total of $19,325 was added to the Plymouth total by his efforts in this city.

That's a mighty fine showing. The total goes several thousand dollars higher than had been anticipated. Mr. Lush wishes to thank all who aided in making the drive a success, and especially the Minute Women of Plymouth who helped to create additional interest in the campaign.

55th Wedding Date Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Farrand Recall Early Days

Mr. and Mrs. William Farrand, 252 East Ann Arbor Trail, last Friday, September 25, celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary. Congratulations were offered by their hosts of friends, many of them friends and associates for more than 50 years.

Mr. Farrand has been a resident of Plymouth for more than 60 years. For many years he was a well known business man of the city, but for a number of years he has been inactive in business affairs. Mrs. Farrand came to Plymouth 69 years ago from Mt. Clemens.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrand have watched Plymouth grow from a small country village to an energetic city of some 6,000 population.

They will remember the fire which destroyed most of the stores back in the early nineties. They say that sparks flew as far as where the Sutherland greenhouses now stand.

When Mrs. Farrand was a pupil in the Plymouth high school, the entire staff of teachers in the school consisted of Mr. Frisbie, Mrs. Ella Chaffee (nee Smith), Miss Delia Enticant, Miss Anna Smith, Miss Cora Pelham and Miss Nettie Pelham. Mrs. Farrand says that the change and growth of the Plymouth schools is one of the most striking contrasts in the development of Plymouth and vicinity.

Conservation Club To Meet

Session to Be Held Monday Eve

Plans have been completed for the last meeting of the Western Wayne County Wild Life Association before the opening of the hunting season, the event taking place Monday evening, according to secretary Ernest Henry.

There will be a general discussion of some of the new problems growing out of restricted hunting trips due to traffic regulations and possibly a display of wild life pictures.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock and a good attendance is requested by President Brick Champe.

Mrs. C. G. Draper visited Mrs. H. C. Goyer, of Detroit, Tuesday, who is very ill in the Ford hospital. Mrs. Goyer was a former resident of Plymouth and her many friends will regret to learn of her illness.

The Plymouth Defense Council met Tuesday afternoon, September 29, with 13 members present. There were discussions and action relative to additional medical equipment, emergency E's, more arm-bands, and cots. A. R. West and Dr. E. Rice were added to the salvage committee membership.

The air warden class had its second meeting, Monday evening, September 28, at 7 o'clock in room 13 at the Central grade school with Mr. Bowdler, of Livonia, as instructor.

34 Plymouth Boys Leave For Army Service This Week

Citizens Bid God-Speed To Group as They Leave For Camp

Plymouth citizens turned out in goodly numbers Monday to bid God-speed to 34 lads from this city and vicinity who left for military training services in Uncle Sam's army.

Not only were there many present from Plymouth, but the splendid high school band from Northville came over to play in honor of the boys.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce, through the USO saw to it that every one of the lads who were inducted was presented with a package of acceptable gifts which they are permitted to take with them.

Following are the names of the young men who left this week for services in the armed forces of the country:

Victory Notes

Monday evening, October 5, the first class in home nursing will start at the high school with Mrs. Mary Strasen as instructor. This class is more than filled with 28 registrants, but another class will be given later if enough register to make it worthwhile.

Mrs. Mildred M. Barnes, chairman of the Plymouth salvage committee and Mrs. Russell Powell, vice-chairman, represented Plymouth last Saturday at the Wayne county salvage committee luncheon at the Hotel Statler. Mrs. Powell also represented the Plymouth salvage committee at the Wayne county meeting on Thursday, October 1.

October is clean-up month for Red Cross knitters, according to the chairman, Mrs. John Blickenstaff. All women who have had yarn for several months and who for any reason are unable to finish their knitting should turn the material in at the Red Cross work room (postoffice building) at once.

Red Cross sewers are needed immediately and badly! Only four women responded to the call for help in last week's Plymouth Mail. If you can and will please report at the Red Cross room from 1 until 4 all days except Saturday and Sunday or call Mrs. John McLaren, (telephone 235).

The Plymouth Defense Council met Tuesday afternoon, September 29, with 13 members present. There were discussions and action relative to additional medical equipment, emergency E's, more arm-bands, and cots. A. R. West and Dr. E. Rice were added to the salvage committee membership.

The air warden class had its second meeting, Monday evening, September 28, at 7 o'clock in room 13 at the Central grade school with Mr. Bowdler, of Livonia, as instructor.

Eight of the motor corps members under the direction of Mrs. Helen Burgett went to Detroit Thursday evening to be fingerprinted by the FBI.

Plymouth Prepares for All-Out Scrap Drive Saturday, October 10-School Children Help

Park Cannon To Go Into City's Scrap Collection

With the blessings of the members of the Ex-Service Men's club and the American Legion, the big field artillery gun that has occupied a corner in Kellogg park for nearly a quarter of a century, will next week Saturday be torn from its moorings and headed towards the blast furnaces where it will go into tanks, battleships and bullets for Plymouth boys fighting for the preservation of America!

Some six months ago it was suggested that the big gun be turned over to the WPA scrap drive. There was an immediate protest—doubtless due chiefly to public hostility to the WPA an dits army of politicians, and opposition to any plan which would in any way glorify Abner Learned's political payroll patriots.

But today it's a different story. Every member of the Legion, every Ex-Service man and every resident of Plymouth has expressed a willingness to help junk the old cannon so that it can be quickly converted into munitions for American fighting boys. The WPA will have nothing to do with it.

Lisle Alexander, department adjutant of the American Legion of Michigan in a letter to The Plymouth Mail, declares that some six months ago there was a bit of sentiment for old war relics, but that it now is the desire of the American Legion to see to it that every piece of old metal finds its way into munition blast furnaces.

Wake Up! PLYMOUTH

We have set our total scrap goal at 65 tons. The Plymouth Mail suggested that we double it, and make it 130 tons.

Our hustling little neighbor, Northville, conducted its scrap drive last week and rounded up more than 125 tons of old metal! That's going some!

The Plymouth Mail is now suggesting that we boost our total to 200 tons—let's make it 300 tons—maybe 500 tons! If Northville can do it, Plymouth can, too!

It can be done if every man, woman and child in and about Plymouth gets busy and helps to make our scrap collection drive next Saturday one of the biggest events in the history of this city. Get busy—and let's dig up enough scrap to build a half dozen tanks!

If you desire to deliver your scrap before the drive, just load it up and drive to the city hall and it will be unloaded in back of the building by city workers.

Following the Michigan-Michigan State football game, in Ann Arbor Saturday, Captain and Mrs. William A. Kirkpatrick will be hosts at dinner to Major and Mrs. R. A. Burns, Major and Mrs. Arthur Paenschmidt, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, of Lapeer. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will remain for the weekend.

Selective Service Board Asks For Data About Dependents

The attention of all selective service registrants is called to the fact that at the present time a new supplementary questionnaire known as "Registrant's Affidavit—Family Status and Dependents" is being mailed. The object of this new questionnaire is primarily a check-up on the family status of men who have been registered for sometime. It is of the utmost importance that these questionnaires be filled out fully and completely and as promptly as possible, and returned to the local board in Plymouth.

In this connection, Local Board No. 61-wishes to call attention to the fact that a large number of registrants have not returned to the board their occupational questionnaires. The importance of getting these occupational questionnaires back to the local board is emphasized. It is to the interest of each individual registrant that he get this

Baby Burned in Fall on Register; Bus Wrecks Car

Driver Is Arrested—It All Happened Sunday Forenoon

When a Great Lakes bus driver went to sleep at his wheel Sunday forenoon, his bus crashed into a parked automobile on South Main street, nearly ruined it, then careened across the curbing and landed across a sidewalk in front of the Czar Penny home.

The driver, Andrew Jackson Sckelley, who said he lived at the Oliver hotel in Detroit, escaped injury.

The badly damaged car that was parked in front of the office of Dr. Charles Westover on South Main street, was owned by Fred Rich of Ann Arbor.

In company with Mrs. Rich, he had just brought his 15-month-old daughter to Dr. Westover's office for emergency treatment for first and second degree burns she had received Sunday morning when she fell on an exceedingly hot register at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rich of Lapham Corners.

Dr. Westover had treated the child and had directed her parents to take the babe to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor for additional care. The parents were just ready to leave the doctor's office when they heard the crash and saw their automobile so badly damaged that it will require almost the price of a new car to repair it. One almost new tire was destroyed.

Chief of Police C. J. Thumme, after making a thorough investigation of the accident, recommended the issuance of a warrant charging the bus driver with reckless driving.

Numerous complaints have been made by residents during past weeks pertaining to the high speed that Bomber plant buses are driven through the city. The bus was not badly damaged in the accident.

City To Be Represented At Army-Navy Award

A group of 30 ladies from the Red Cross volunteers, of Plymouth, will attend a gathering at the Peace Tower on Belle Isle, Detroit, Sunday afternoon, when the Detroit chapter will receive one of the highest honors which the United States government can bestow, an Army-Navy "E" pennant. Specifically, the award is presented to the Red Cross Blood Procurement Service, for its achievement in exceeding, by many thousand pints, the quota assigned by the government to be procured by June 30. Of the eighteen procurement centers in this country, Detroit, with 63,000 donors since the center opened last November, stands second only to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meier and Miss Eda Speaker, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson and other Plymouth friends en route to her home in Huntington, Indiana, from Atlantic City, New Jersey, left Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Dean Johnson, who will visit in Huntington and South Bend.

Beet Grows in Shape of A Perfect "V" for Victory

Even the beets say "V" for victory! From out of the garden at the home of Mrs. Hattie Greenlee at 558 Karmada avenue, came a sugar beet this week, with a perfect "V" formation.

Youthful "Pat" Greenlee, thought people of Plymouth ought to see the V for victory beet, so he placed it in one of the display windows at The Plymouth Mail office.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. McLaren visited their daughter, Nancy, at Denison University, over the week-end and part of this week.

School Children To Aid in City's Mighty Scrap Drive

School children of Plymouth are going to do their part in Uncle Sam's effort to collect scrap so that Plymouth's fighting boys at the front can have all the tanks, guns, battleships and submarines they need to lick the Huns and the Japs.

Superintendent George A. Smith has advised that the principal of the high school, Claude Dykhouse, will be in direct charge of the school drive. He will be assisted by Mrs. Bell, principal of the Stark-weather grade school, and Mrs. Bell, principal of the Central grade school.

Children have been instructed to bring to school with them any metal they can find on next Friday, October 9. It will be piled high in the school yards, and removed on the following day by city trucks.

Starting Monday and continuing until Friday, the schools will also collect keys. There will be boxes in each school room for the collection of useless keys. These keys, too, will be turned over to Uncle Sam for the making of guns.

School officials have asked parents of pupils to cooperate in making this drive one of the most successful ever undertaken in Plymouth.

Plans Made For Hallowe'en Party For Children

Committee to Use Both Schools and Masonic Temple

The Civic committee met Monday evening at the city hall to discuss plans for the annual Hallowe'en parties for the school children. The committee is headed by John Jacobs, Miss Jean Peterson was named recording secretary.

The committee voted to follow last year's plans with one exception. Starkweather will hold its parties in its own building, instead of combining with Central.

Mrs. Nellie Bird was named chairman of the Central parties and Mrs. Jewell Bell chairman of Starkweather parties. To be assisted by members of the P.T.A. Henry Reeves is in charge of the seventh and eighth grade party. The high school group will be entertained at the Masonic Temple, as it was last year.

The chairman of the finance committee, Richard Straub, and his committee, will attempt to raise $200 by means of collection boxes placed in stores as well as by appeals to the business and professional men.

The committee makes an appeal to the townspeople to contribute as much as possible to this worthwhile project.

Garden Club Changes Meeting Place

The members of the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association are reminded that the October 12 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Todd on Main street instead of the place given in program book.

A roll call with club members, telling of "My Most Satisfactory Flower, and My Greatest Gardening Disappointment in 1942" will be made with Mrs. L. Von Stein acting as chairman.

New Rector Comes To St. John's Church on Oct. 1

Rev. Francis H. Tetu Of Indiana Accepts Plymouth Call

Rev. Francis Henry Tetu, well known Indiana Episcopal rector, has been assigned to St. John's Episcopal church of Plymouth and will assume his duties in this city on October 1. The new pastor and his family will reside at 475 Jener Place.

Since 1933, Rev. Tetu has served St. George's church in Indianapolis, Indiana, where he took a prominent part in church work in the city and in the Diocese of Indianapolis. The following quotation from an Indianapolis paper outlines his activities there:

"The Rev. Mr. Tetu established a community program with clubs, classes and educational features for all ages, at St. George's. He was instrumental in having the church completely renovated and

West Explains Junk Prices

Tells Why Some Get Better Price

A. R. West, who has been named chairman of the price committee of Plymouth's salvage committee, yesterday sought to classify some misunderstanding as to prices paid for junk.

"We have had some questions asked as to why some pay $7 a ton and others pay as high as $12 a ton. The answer is that question is not difficult," said Mr. West.

"For good, clean junk that is all sorted and which can go right to the blast furnaces, some junk dealers will pay as high as $10 or $12 a ton for it. The government will pay $7 a ton for junk that must be sorted and made ready for the blast furnaces. When this kind of junk is brought directly to the yard the government will pay $9 per ton. But the high price goes for good, clean junk, which can be used immediately. And of course that price is for the long run, too, which cuts down the price somewhat," explained Mr. West.

"But it isn't so much the price we are interested in. It's in getting the junk, and if we don't get it, nobody will get anything for it," stated Mr. West.

Seek to Organize Blue Star Mothers

The Blue Star Mothers of America was organized at Flint in March of this year and now 21 states have such an organization. Michigan alone having a membership of 17,000.

Any mother or foster mother of a son or daughter serving in World War II in the United States army, marine corps, coast guard, air corps, navy, reserves, army reserves, navy militia, marine reserves or home guards, is eligible for membership. Anyone interested in the Blue Star group may call or write to Mrs. Matilda Westphal, organizer of this section of Wayne county.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gayde entertained at a family dinner, Sunday, which celebrated four birthdays of members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Middleton, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. John Conley of Royal Oak, were present from out-of-town also Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Alexander, Mrs. Peter Gayde and children of this city.

Must Secure Permit From Now on to Purchase Rubber Boots or Shoes

Because of the rubber shortage, the government has been forced to crack down on the sale of men's rubber boots and mens' rubber work shoes.

Complete Plans For Plymouth's Great Scrap Drive, Oct. 10

All is in readiness for Plymouth's all-out scrap drive which will take place Saturday, October 10.

Not a single detail has been overlooked. And Plymouth is going to do the job in usual Plymouth fashion!

This city will not only top any place of its size in Michigan in the total number of tons of scrap collected next Saturday, but The Plymouth Mail predicts that it will double the total collection of any other city of 5,380 population in the United States.

That's a pretty big order. Plymouth has taken on—but it is up to every man, woman and child in this city to see to it that Plymouth's challenge to the remainder of the country is met in a big way.

Meeting with Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple at the city hall on Tuesday night, the special committees created for the scrap drive, worked out details for the all-out effort.

Mrs. Mildred Barnes accepted the chairman of the big scrap drive for the city of Plymouth, and Mrs. Russell Powell stated that she would take over the work in Plymouth township.

Vice chairman for the city of Plymouth will be John R. MacLachlan. Other members (Continued on Page 6)

Charles Dolph of Northville Dies

Prominent Resident Well Known Here

Plymouth residents learned this week of the death in Northville a few days ago of Charles A. Dolph, for more than half a century one of the outstanding citizens of the nearby community.

Mr. Dolph died after a long illness. During his active years he was a frequent visitor in Plymouth and was well known to many of the older residents of this city.

Always active in civic and community affairs, he had served in some official capacity in almost every organization in Northville. He was elected village president at various times, served on the school board, was a former president of the Northville Exchange Club, for years an officer of the Northville Masonic lodge for a long period. He was also recorder of the Commandery.

He was president and manager of the Globe Furniture company which manufactured church furniture. After the close of this business during the early years of the depression, Mr. Dolph retired from business. It was soon after his retirement that he became ill.

Besides Mrs. Dolph, a brother in California, and two sister, survive. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. William Richards, a retired Methodist minister, who had served as pastor of the Northville Methodist church for nearly ten years. No other pastor ever served the Northville church over such a long period. Rev. Richards and Mr. Dolph were not only closely associated in church work but were close personal friends.

The funeral service was held at the home of Mrs. Dolph, Sunday, October 5, at 11 o'clock. Burial was in the Northville cemetery.

Local Churches

AUTUMN

I love the Fall
The best of all—
When Summer seems to say:
"Though soon to go,
I still will show
A face that's bright and gay."

When my life, too,
Is nearly through,
As I approach my night—
May my last days
Still seem to blaze
With something fair and bright!

are called to the Lord's Table Sunday at 11 a.m. This is known as World Wide Communion because by common consent Christians in many lands will join in this celebration on the first Sunday of October. Some of our members are in the army and navy. Some must work. Others are prevented from coming by sickness. But all who can possibly be present should be in church Sunday morning. The young people will meet at 6:30 p.m. Esther Mettetal is to lead the group in a study of the subject "We Are Builders." All high school and out of school groups are invited. The board of trustees will meet Wednesday, October 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the church parlors. "World Communion" is the subject of the sermon for Sunday next. Have we a fellowship with Christians in all lands? If so where does it consist?

Dow Swope, they enjoyed luncheon and a style show at the Book-Cadillac.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ebert entertained Mr. and Mrs. Claude Burrows at dinner Monday evening in celebration of their own twenty-second wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Blunk, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Luchtmann, and Mr. and Mrs. Carvel Bentley were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans for supper last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wefsenmoe of Hamill avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida, to Private Paul Toth who is stationed at San Diego, California with the U. S. Marines.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burke and daughters, Barbara and Beverly of Detroit are to be dinner guests this Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hees on Arthur street.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Thornton and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stevens, of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Lincoln Lantz, of this city, were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bloomfield.

Mrs. A. R. Hartung and daughter, Mrs. Russell Cook, were in Adrian Wednesday to visit their son and brother, Richard Hartung in the Bixby hospital, where he is critically ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Terry, Union street, are entertaining at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Holton, Rosedale Gardens, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Merriman, all members of their club.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hitt, Ernest Hitt and Lenore Hitt of Bryan, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Jayson Day and son Jarryn, of East Detroit and Vern Hitt and family of Plymouth were entertained at dinner Sunday in the home of the former's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Hitt on Sheridan ave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederick Shear announce the arrival of a son, David Frederick, at St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor Saturday evening, September 26. Mrs. Shear was formerly Katherine Bernadine Palmer of Ann Arbor. Mr. Shear, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Shear of this city, is the assistant purchasing agent at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Nelson Bakewell entertained the following guests at a family dinner on Thursday evening, September 24, honoring her brother, Howard Anderson who left for Camp Custer Monday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Howard Kenneth, Vivien and Neva Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. James Deeg, Leona and Joy of Detroit and Mrs. Alma Smith of Northville.

Mrs. Carl Adler of Ball street entertained twelve ladies at a desert bridge in her home Thursday afternoon, the honor guest being Mrs. J. M. Robison of Penniman Avenue. The Place cards contained the names of Mrs. Shuker of Detroit, mother of the guest of honor; her sister, Miss Derry Shuker; her mother-in-law, Mrs. F. Robison; Mrs. Sam Dibble; Mrs. W. W. Hammond; Mrs. J. R. Witwer; Mrs. Peter Ralph Miller; Mrs. H. Hopkins of Detroit; Mrs. Orsen Atchison of Northville and Mrs. Lewis Evans.

Mrs. Thomas Armstrong was given a very pleasant surprise, Thursday evening of last week, when the following friends met with her for the evening in her home on Penniman avenue: Betty Knowles; Mrs. Roy McAllister; Mrs. George Kenyon; Mrs. Robert Gots; Mrs. Howard Holmes. During the evening announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Knowles to Corporal Robert Lorenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz, who is stationed at Camp Roberts in California. Miss Knowles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knowles. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Sorn Sorenson, mother of Mrs. Armstrong.

Misses Genevieve and Ruth Spaulding entertained several friends at their home on Holbrook avenue Saturday evening in honor of their brother, Earl, who entered the Coast Guard service at Port Huron on Monday. Those present were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spaulding, Charles and Vivian Spaulding, Merwin, Emmett, and Robert Moyer, Reverend and Mrs. L. D. Wright, Ina Jean Gorton, Frank and Ruthie Ockert, Mrs. M. Ockert, Wanda Harder, Yvonne Sawyer, Jack Phillips of Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moyer of Northville. On Sunday evening the young people from the Church of God entertained for him with a birthday lunch at Reed's restaurant.

Mrs. Eugene Gorton, formerly Evelyn Fry, was the guest of honor Tuesday evening at a party given in the home of Mrs. C. H. Elliott, Ann street, when Miss Irene Walldorf and Mrs. Maurine Woodworth were the hostesses. Red roses and coxcomb formed an attractive center piece for the dining table which was arranged for the following guests: Misses Hazel Rathburn, Edna Allen, Ursula Cary, Gertrude Fiegel, Sarah Lickley, Ingeborg Lundin, Aleta Hearn, Doris Hamill, Mesdames George Strasen, Inez Soule, Joseph Rowland, G. A. Smith, C. J. Dykhouse, A. Ray Gilder, Austin Whipple, Harold Stevens and Wyman Bartlett. Mrs. Anna Elliott who celebrated her 75th birthday on the same day was also a guest. Mrs. Gorton received a very nice silver gift from the ladies.

SAFETY RULES FOR WARTIME DRIVING

- KEEP YOUR CAR in tip-top mechanical shape... well lubricated; carburetor and timer carefully adjusted, wheels aligned.
- DRIVE YOUR CAR as slowly as possible; take it easy on getaways, don't race engine or leave it idling. By driving 40, you get 25% more mileage than by driving 60.
- DON'T USE YOUR CAR if you can help it: double up with neighbors whenever possible; walk, cycle, or use bus, trolley, train services.

We don't ration our service but give you the best possible work at economical prices. You'll be driving longer with a top-performing car if you drive in for frequent check-ups.

CASH AND CARRY

10% OF INCOME IS OUR QUOTA IN WAR BONDS

AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT GET LATEST LINE EXTENSION INFORMATION Today!

★ Federal regulations now in effect, and subject to change, place severe restrictions on the extension and enlargement of our lines. Line extensions require materials that are badly needed for war... and war needs must come first.

To avoid possible disappointment and inconvenience, check with our office at once as to how these restrictions will affect you if you are planning—

- To move into premises which do not have adequate gas service available, or
- To occupy newly constructed premises, or
- To request additional service at your present location (for a range, water heater, etc.)

Under these regulations we are permitted to do very little (in many cases, nothing) toward extending or enlarging our lines or service. Service cannot be extended to any building unless it was ready to receive service before July 1, 1942, or in the case of new construction, unless the main foundation was completed prior to July 1, 1942. Even though the building can qualify under these War Production Board rulings, it must be within 250 feet of an existing line, for an extension may not go beyond that limit.

We will exert every effort to serve you so long as it can be done within the wartime restrictions. However, the most we are able to do under present conditions may not be enough to meet your needs. So check with us immediately if you are planning to take any of the three steps listed above. It may save you a lot of time and trouble.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear father, John H. Mott, who passed away two years ago, October 3. Like the petals of a rose, That drop off and pass away, So will our dear father's life, Just fade away by day. And when at last his end came, While we stood in fear, To think of all the loneliness Through all the coming years, But one day we hope to meet him. When our day is over, In the beautiful Isle of Some-where, When sorrows we know no more, Sadly missed by his children.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank everyone who so kindly remembered me with cards and flowers while at the hospital.

Complete Plans For Plymouth's Great Scrap Drive, Oct. 10

of the committee are Mrs. Frank Terry, William C. Hartmann, A. R. West, James C. Hauk, George A. Smith and Dr. Rice representing the Boy Scouts. The above members were appointed at the direction of the Defense Council. Also meeting with the scrap committee was William Rose, Commander of the American Legion; Mrs. Harty Terry, president of the Legion Auxiliary, and Lee Sackett, commander of the Ex-Service Men's club.

Defense council representatives at the meeting were the Mayor and Mrs. Beatrice Stultz, newly appointed coordinator for the Citizens' Service Corps.

While the committee set 65 tons of scrap as the allotment for Plymouth, many citizens have declared that they are going to have something to say about it, and that the total will be just double that amount.

Here's a chance for everybody

BOY, IS THE BOSS PLEASED!

"He says calves sure do grow fast on Larro Calf Builder. And it's so economical—easy to use—and dependable." Larro Calf Builder can save you 500 quarts of milk on every calf if you're now using the whole milk method. Raise your calves the proved Larro way. Order a supply of Larro Calf Builder now!

to help Plymouth make good its boast!

The Scrap committee authorized the creation of another committee composed of A. R. West as chairman, Warren Lombard and Clarence Elliott as a group authorized to sell the scrap.

Another committee composed of John Jacobs and Arno Thompson was appointed to plan for a rally and scrap parade on Saturday evening, October 10. There will be more details about this plan available in next week's issue of The Mail.

Mrs. Barnes, who will direct the scrap drive, has appointed a salvage aide in each block in the city, and this aide is directly responsible for the supervision of the collection of scrap and the establishment of one central place for the piling of the scrap in each block to facilitate the collection by trucks.

Each block chairman will be aided by school children and Boy Scouts.

The 26 district salvage chairmen named by Mrs. Barnes are: Mrs. William Choffin, 700 Pacific avenue; Mrs. Vaughan Smith, 265 Irving; Mrs. Milton Laible, 425 North Harvey; Mrs. Karl Starkweather, 711 Starkweather; Mrs. Richard Cutler, 148 Spring street; Mrs. John Bloxson, 328 Adams; Mrs. Harold Jolliffe, 315 Holbrook avenue; Mrs. Jess Hines, 1051 North Mill; Mrs. Emerson Woods, 1011 Penniman avenue; Mrs. Seth Virgo, 343 South Harvey; Mrs. Gustaf Lundquist, 348 Auburn avenue; Mrs. H. L. Hudson, 183 North Main; Mrs. Harry Brown, 686 Maple avenue; Mrs. Carlton Lewis, 838 Hartwood avenue.

Mrs. C. C. Wiltse, 986 Roosevelt street; Mrs. Paul Wiedman, 346 Blank avenue; Mrs. James Sessions, 462 North Harvey; Mrs. Harold Anderson, 365 Joy street; Mrs. A. Ray Bolder, 1415 Sheridan avenue; Mrs. Loren Goodale, 196 Hamilton; Mrs. A. K. Brocklehurst, 657 Wing street; Mrs. Lee Sackett, 813 Forest avenue; Mrs. Frank Pierce, 14286 Northville road; Mrs. Earl Mastick, 94-58 Bull; Mrs. Russell Powell, 45-505 North Territorial road; Mrs. Charles Rathburn, 11370 Haggerty highway.

Mrs. Barnes wishes it made clear that people in each block can start their scrap piles just as soon as they desire, providing it is where it can be protected at night time.

The block scrap piles will be collected by city trucks on Saturday, October 10, during DAY-LIGHT hours. If any truck comes after sundown, make up your mind that it is some one who is there to steal the scrap and call the police at once.

American Legion and Ex-Service men, as well as Boy Scouts will help in the collection. The county road commission will also help in the collection.

Commander William Rose of the Legion and Commander Lee Sackett of the Ex-Service Men's club have united their efforts with the onerous push to be made under the direction of the regularly constituted salvage committee and hope to make the Plymouth scrap drive the most outstanding in Michigan!

in securing a pipe organ.

In addition to his pastorate, he holds the office of executive secretary of Christian social relations for the diocese and is a member of the synod department of Christian social relations.

"He is a member of the Council of social agencies and serves on the comity and social service committees of the church federation."

A native of Massachusetts, Rev. Tetu holds a B.A. degree from Carson-Newman college and a bachelor of theology degree from the Philadelphia Divinity school. He has taken graduate work at Indiana University, Pennsylvania University and Butler University, and is also a graduate of the School of Applied Religion of the Diocese of Southern Ohio at Cincinnati.

Mr. Tetu's record shows him to be an all-around splendid clergyman with special talents along the line of social service. He is the author of a book on this subject which has had a very favorable reception. Because of this bend towards social service, the pastoral side of a minister's work especially appeals to him and he expects to spend a considerable portion of his time calling on his parishioners and building up the strength of the church in this way—a service St. John's has necessarily missed during the past years.

Mr. Tetu and the members of St. John's look forward to a period of renewed and increased activity and life for their church.

Mr. Tetu's first service will be at 10:00 Sunday, October 4. On October 8, Thursday, the Bishop's committee will hold an open house at the church from 8 until 10 in the evening, at which time St. John's members and their friends in Plymouth are invited to meet Rev. Tetu. This open house will also honor Reverend R. M. Blackford of Detroit, Matthew B. Whittlesey and Edwin Lord, lay-readers and Miss Grace Dennis, social worker, who have faithfully served St. John's for several years and to whose work Rev. Tetu now falls heir.

On Sunday, October 25, at the morning prayer service, Archdeacon Leonard P. Hagger, in charge of missions in the Diocese of Michigan, will be present to give Mr. Tetu an official welcome to Michigan.

Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Yost were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pietrzak of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tegge and son Douglas spent Friday with Mrs. Norman Siehert at St. Clair Shores.

Alexander Back From Convention Brings Greetings From P. Cookingham

Lisle Alexander, high official of the American Legion in Michigan, just back from the national convention of the Legion held in Kansas City, brought greetings to Plymouth residents from City Manager Perry Cookingham of Kansas City.

Mr. Cookingham, whose career as city manager really had its start in Plymouth, was advised that Mr. Alexander and a number from about Plymouth, would be delegates to the national convention.

Soon after the arrival in Kansas City, Mr. Alexander and his Michigan companions, were the guests of Cookingham in a trip about Kansas City and at a luncheon.

Mr. Cookingham requested his Plymouth guest to give his regards to all of his old Plymouth friends.

Duck Hunters Restricted

Hunting Along Great Lakes Regulated

Michigan duck hunters hunting along Great Lakes shores, where the flights are heaviest, are very much aware there is a war on when they have complied with Coast Guard regulations on licensing and operation of boats and identification of boat operators.

Newest of the Coast Guard regulations relayed to duck hunters and fishermen by the state conservation department's law enforcement division extend the license and numbering requirement to boats of less than 16 feet in length "if they are designed for the use of detachable motors as the ordinary means of propulsion." This change greatly extends application of the act to hunters and fishermen's craft.

All ship channels connecting Lake Huron and Lake Erie, including St. Clair river, Lake St. Clair and the Detroit river have been designated a restricted area in which no fishing boat may go without a special permit from the Coast Guard Captain of the Port. And no boat under 100 feet in length used for recreational purposes is permitted to operate there during the hours between sunset and sunrise unless a special permit is obtained from the Captain of the Port. Any boat carrying duck hunters may not approach within 300 feet of any waterfront facility or cargo carrying vessel. This distance is believed a safe range from shotguns, the only firearm permitted in the hunting of waterfowl.

On the west side of the state, along the Lake Michigan shores, Coast Guard officials are permitting the movement of boats during the hour before sunrise and in the hour after sunset, as well as in the daylight hours, to enable hunters to proceed to and from hunting areas. Hunters there are ordered to stay out of gunshot range of such waterfront facilities or areas as navy yards, shipbuilding yards, power plants, oil terminals or tank farms, marine terminals, munitions plants, military or navy arsenals, warehouse or freight piers, waterway dams and locks, or other restricted areas defined by military authority. Photographing of any of these facilities also is prohibited.

No hunter on Lake Michigan waters may have in his possession any dangerous weapon, explosives or other firearms than arms specifically authorized by federal and state game laws—and in the case of migratory waterfowl hunting, shotguns alone are permissible.

The Coast Guard holds that operators of boat liveries and duck blinds assume responsibility for the integrity and compliance with the regulations by passengers and guests, and possess identification cards themselves.

The Spartansburg (Ind.) Cemetery Association recently scrapped an old brass-jacketed cannon, originally acquired to decorate a soldiers and sailors monument. It weighed 995 pounds.

The Nazis have also some fifty divisions strategically located in Western Europe where they can be flexibly manipulated against the expected Second Front. These divisions include some of Hitler's picked troops; they explain why the Second Front has not been opened already. Such a Nazi army probably totals close to one million men.

Roosevelt and Churchill are only using rudimentary commonsense in making sure they can do the job before they move onto the Continent. Stalin understands this now, following his conference with Churchill. You can discount stories of any serious disaffection between him and his Anglo-American leadership. Let us, therefore, forget war gossip, quit listening to radio commentators, and save instead of waste.

The Russians are fighting their own war. Stalin has played his cards close to his chest from the beginning. His concern is solely for Russia and for Communism, but he knows it is a fight to the death between him and Hitler. Hence, Washington does not now look for any separate peace between the Nazis and the Russians, even though this possibility has had some plausible grounds.

Readers write me asking if our army, navy, and air forces are in safe hands. I am convinced that the management of the war is being capably handled. Blunders are being made as they are always made in every war, since our leaders are only human. I came away from Washington, however, imbued with a fresh sense of confidence.

Naturally, no authoritative Washington official told me when, or where the Second Front would be established. At the same time, I can assure readers that it will be set up and in full operation at the earliest possible moment. It probably will not be at one place, but launched in several major areas at once. When it comes, we shall have unquestioned air superiority. I also look for a steady step-up in the bombing of German industrial and communication centers by United States Flying Fortresses.

The British were even more culpable at Singapore than were we at Pearl Harbor. Complacent leadership and years of stupid colonial policy left England without native support in the Far East when her crisis came. Hence, we entered our Pacific warfare under a great handicap. However, we have already recovered from those first Japanese victories. Our Navy, our Marines, and our Army detachments have done a splendid job. Today, Japan no longer has control of the sea, thanks to Midway. Japan's air

Roger Babson Says . . .

Business As Usual Is Over For Duration

Washington, D. C., October 2. After an impartial survey of the war situation, I am convinced that "business-as-usual" is over for the duration. Whether we are businessmen, or farmers, or wage workers, or investors, the sooner we quit thinking about ourselves and our wages or profits the shorter will be the war and the better off we all will be in the end.

Those in "non-essential" businesses should immediately figure out way to get along with much fewer employees. All who owe money should make every effort to get out of debt. War II is ten times more difficult than World War I. To win it, I am told that all of us must change our personal habits, reduce our household expenditures, give up travel by train and automobile, and really act as if we were a part of the army.

This does not mean that the war is going badly. In fact, as the world breathlessly watches the epic drama of Stalingrad, it is apparent that Hitler's star is setting. He has failed to gain his all-important objective,—the destruction of the Soviet armies before the winter of 1942. Even if he should reach the Baku oil fields, he cannot make use of them this year or next year. The Russians would destroy the drillings, and it would take Hitler months to get them back into operation. Also, remember that this oil would need be carried 1500 miles on a rickety single-track railway.

The real danger to the United Nations is not that Hitler will get out but that Russia will lose it. Furthermore, there will be a vast amount of starvation and suffering throughout Russia this winter. If Hitler is able to anchor his southern lines to Stalingrad, he should be in a position to withstand Russian counterattacks during the winter. He has the bulk of his manpower in this area which he will be obliged to keep there all winter.

power has also been crippled during these recent months.

Nothing that now happens in the Pacific is comparable in importance to the European battlefronts. We must conquer Hitler's armies if we are to win this war. Everything else is collateral to that essential fact. Japan has not jumped on Siberia for one very good reason. She is waiting until Hitler has reduced the striking power of the Russian armies. Until that has been accomplished, Washington does not believe Japan will take on any more headaches in the shape of new enemies or terrain.

To sum up weighted Washington opinion on war strategy: The main drive is Europe, not Asia; it is against Hitler, not Hirohito. Russia will hold and the Second Front is coming. United Nations air supremacy is now at hand in every theatre of the global war. In the Near East, Allied air control should prove the deciding factor in stopping Rommel's further advance against the Suez canal.

On the domestic front, our war production is moving steadily ahead. Our shipbuilding program is now beginning to overtake submarine losses. Our Flying Fortress are reaching England in highly encouraging numbers. We are even getting supplies into China by air in increasing volume. Our industrialists are doing a splendid job and can do even a better one if they are not hamstrung by Washington red tape and petty officials.

Whether this is Hitler's last winter of war depends on events now in the making. It equally depends upon the determination and sacrifice which all of us show in the immediate months ahead. Most Washington officials think the war will last from three to five years more, even though they feel that Hitler has shot his bolt. I make no forecast at this time. Speculating on the length of the war is not hastening final victory.

No More Single Phone Lines

May Compile Use Of Party Lines

A new order of the War Production board provides that, in areas where telephone facilities are congested, individual-line users may be required to change to party-lines so service can be supplied to persons essential to the direct war effort or to the "public health, welfare or security."

Receipt of the order was announced today by J. R. MacLachlan, manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone company. The order does not apply to present business telephone service, he said.

The order also provides that extension telephones cannot be installed in residences, even for persons essential to the war effort, excepting on a temporary basis in the case of critical illness.

The telephone manager pointed out that the new WPB order, like preceding orders, arises from war-time conditions. In normal times, he pointed out, the company would build additional facilities to meet increasing service demand. Now, however, that cannot be done because the required materials are more urgently needed for war weapons.

Because of congested facilities, new telephone service installations are restricted in more than 20 Michigan exchanges, including large sections of Detroit, with the likelihood that they will have to be extended as conditions become more critical. In some exchanges new service can be installed on a temporary basis, applicants agreeing to its removal on a 48-hour notice if it is required for war or other essential use.

Virginia Grimm, a bride-elect of October, was honored at two parties last week the first being given in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm Sr., on Thursday evening, when Vivian Wise was hostess and on Saturday evening when Mrs. William Anderson, of Wayne, a classmate at Plymouth high school, entertained 12 guests in her home. Both occasions were very delightful and lovely gifts were presented to the bride-to-be. Miss Grimm will become the bride of Howard Gerst of Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday, October 10.

Bird Season To Open October 15

The 20-day Michigan upland game bird shooting season opened in the upper peninsula Thursday with the partridge supply plentiful but with foliage so heavy and undergrowth so thick as to make hunting real he-man work in many areas.

While conservation officers found plenty of ruffed grouse throughout the peninsula—though in some districts still in heavy cover because of the wet weather—they report only a fair supply of sharp-tailed grouse in the extreme western end of the peninsula, a normal number north of Escanaba, good shooting prospects near Republic, Gwinn, Gibbs City, Crystal Falls, Sargol and Ralph, while in the eastern end of the peninsula the sharp-tailed range has been noticeably extended. Scattered flocks of prairie chickens are reported near Chassell and the supply of these birds is rated normal northwest of Escanaba.

Rabbits also are said to be plentiful, but they are likely to get little attention until the bird season wanes. Heavy rains have left many secondary and woods roads in poor condition.

Upland game bird shooting in lower Michigan does not begin until October 15.

Weddings

CUTLER-HAMILTON

The Martha-Mary chapel at Greenfield Village was the scene Saturday evening, September 26 at 7 o'clock of one of the loveliest weddings of the season when Miss Winifred Cutler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cutler of Plymouth and William James Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hamilton of Dearborn pledged their troth in a double ring ceremony. The Rev. Walter Nichol of the Presbyterian church at Plymouth officiated. The chapel, where the young couple had attended morning services during their school days, was softly aglow with the light of myriad tapers whose beams were caught up by the prisms of the magnificent central crystal chandelier and reflected like sparkling jewels. Upon the altar and organ were exquisitely designed bouquets of white chrysanthemums ranging from tiny pom-poms to giant snowballs.

As the 150 guests including Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, awaited the entrance of the bridal party, Seaman John Weeks softly played a musical medley appropriate to such an occasion. Mrs. Malcolm Cutler, sister-in-law of the bride, sang "Because" and "Beloved, It Is Morn."

The artistic talent with which the bride's father had designed Martha-Mary Chapel was again given expression in the appointments of his daughter's wedding. The bride's gown had been chosen with an eye for quaint simplicity. It was fashioned of brocade satin with tiny puffed sleeves, a tightly fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt. Delicate lace gloves, a short veil crowned with a tiara of double white Delphinium and a spray bouquet of gardenias completed this picture of a demure bride.

The bridesmaid, Miss Marilyn Owens, wore an exquisite gown of light blue crepe with an overskirt of tulle. Upon her head was a tiny Juliet cap of net and seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses and blue Delphinium.

Donald Kidger of Dearborn attended the bridegroom as best man and the brothers of the bridegroom, Alfred W. Cutler and Jack Hamilton acted as ushers.

Mrs. E. J. Cutler was gown'd in light blue crepe and wore a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Hamilton wore a grey blue crepe with a similar corsage. Mrs. Sally Cutler Moore, a bride of a year, wore her wedding gown and an orchid shoulder corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception for 100 guests was held at the bride's home on Ridge road, Plymouth. When the newlyweds left for a short honeymoon, the bride wore a navy blue ensemble which was livened by a red dress and an orchid. The young couple will reside in Dearborn.

The bride, a graduate of Edison Institute high school and the bridegroom, a graduate of Edison Institute of Technology, met in Grandfield Village.

HAMILTON-PENNELL
Ruth Leslie Pennell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pennell, of Salem, and Edwin M. Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hamilton of Worden, were united in marriage at 3 o'clock on Saturday, September 26. The service was read in the Federated church in Salem by the pastor, Rev. Cora M. Pennell, the bride's mother, who is a Friend's minister. The chancel arch was banked with palms and other exotic plants making a background for tall vases and baskets of Picardy Gladioli, Jane Cowl and amethyst colored dahlias. The deep autumn colors were further accentuated by groups of coral begonias and dark crotons. The bride wore a long trained gown of white faille trimmed with fine pleating of the material. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a small tiara of seed pearls. White rosebuds, bebe mums and bouvardia formed her bouquet. For her bridesmaid the bride chose her sister, Mrs. Bennie J. Hansen of Dearborn, who wore a floor length frock of rose fuchsia and carried talisman roses tied with two-toned satin ribbon in talisman shades. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Curtis Hamilton. His cousin, Lavern Gale, of Ypsilanti, seated the guests who were greeted at the door by Curtis Hamilton, James R. Pennell and Bennie J. Hansen. For her son's wedding Mrs. Irving Hamilton wore a cadet blue crepe frock. Her corsage was blush pink rosebuds. Mrs. Pennell chose a dress-suit in luggage tan with brown accessories. Her blouse was in turquoise blue and her corsage was of talisman buds tied with matching ribbon.

Before the ceremony Carl Haray, violinist, of Northville, played "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. Harmon Gale. Mrs. Cloyd Hardesty sang "O Perfect Love" and "Sweet Mystery of Life." Mr. Haray and Mrs. Gale played the wedding march and recessional.

The reception was held in the church dining room which was beautifully decorated in rich autumn shades of brown and yellow. About 200 guests were served. After a short wedding trip to Williamsburg, Kentucky, where they will be the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas C. Copland, missionaries in the hills near Williamsburg, they will also go to the great Smoky Mountains. On their return they will be at the Hamilton homestead on Five Mile road.

Mr. Hamilton is a graduate of Ann Arbor high school and his bride is a graduate of Plymouth high school and a graduate nurse of St. Joseph hospital, Ann Arbor.

Plymouth Honey Bees Accused Of Hoarding - This Year's Supply Short

Hoarding! That's what the honey bees have been doing, there isn't much question about that, it estimates of the Michigan Cooperative Crop Reporting services are correct. The reports say there is a big shortage of honey this year.

If that's right, then no one knows anything about how much honey has been hoarded away somewhere by the busy bees that operate out of the backyards belonging to Harry Newell, Warren Perkins and Felix Freydl, which adjoin the backyard of The Plymouth Mail plant.

Never have bees been so busy as have the bees that have lived off the flowers and grapes that have flourished in The Mail's backyard, during the past six months.

They (the bees) start early in the morning and they haven't observed union hours or any other kind of hours since the day that snow melted off the ground and early flowers began to bloom.

But notwithstanding all of this buzzing about, The Michigan crop reporting service declares that the bees have fallen down on the job.

Says the report in part: The preliminary estimate of Michigan's honey crop for 1942 is 7,040,000 pounds or 28 percent less than the 9,792,000 pounds produced in 1941. The smaller production was due to a reduced yield per colony, averaging 40 pounds this year against 64 pounds in 1941, the reduction more than offsetting an increase of 15 percent in the number of colonies this year. The reduced yield of honey per colony this year was due to cool, wet weather during June and early July, which hampered bee flights and reduced flow of nectar. Many Michigan bee-keepers reported that this year's yield per colony was the lowest that they ever had.

Average prices reported by producers were as follows: Extracted honey, 12.2 cents per pound wholesale and 17.5 per pound retail in small containers, compared with 6.8 cents and 9.6 cents in 1941; comb honey, 17.0 cents per section wholesale and 21.1 cents retail, compared with 13.6 cents and 16.5 cents a year ago. Beeswax prices averaged 41.9 per pound compared with 37.36 cents in 1941 and 24.0 cents in 1940.

When Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ayers left their beautiful "Hope" fruit farm on East Ann Arbor Trail early Wednesday morning for their winter stay on the Pacific coast, they started on their twentieth annual trip across the continent.

"We will take a little longer this time than usual to get to our destination because of the 35-mile speed limit, but we will have more time to gaze over the plains and at some of the mountains we will have looked at for the fortieth time when our trip is completed," stated Mr. Ayers yesterday before they left Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ayers have a beautiful winter home at 426 Palisades avenue, in Santa Monica, where they have spent the last 19 winters.

Rocks Beat Trenton: 18-0

The Plymouth High school football squad won its second game of the season by swamping Trenton 18-0 at Riverside Park last Friday. The only time Trenton came within our twenty yard line was in the first quarter when they gained thirty yards only to lose the ball on downs.

Plymouth's touchdowns came in the first, second and fourth periods. The Rocks failed to convert for the extra point all three times.

When the ball popped out of a Trenton man's hands when being galloped behind three blockers tackled, Ebersole caught it and along the western sidelines to score for the Rock's first touchdown.

After Wellman had returned a Trenton punt to their forty-five yard tripe, Riblett sprinted down the eastern sidelines after going off his right end to make the score 12-0 in the second period. After Sheppard, Kearney, and Ebersole had passed and run the pigskin from our forty to their one-yard line, the horn blew ending the third period. When play resumed, Sheppard smashed through center bringing the score to 18-0.

Plymouth lost a scoring chance in the third period by losing the ball on downs after going up to Trenton's twenty-two yard line.

This was Plymouth's second non-league game of the season. Wellman, qb; Kearney, fb; Thoms, g; Nagelle, Campbell, t; Lodge, c; Donahue, r; Gnanick, g; Schepple, Sheppard, lb; Ebersole, rb; Subs: Rutenbar, Behler, Gillis, Riblett, Sasal, Hirschbire, Bennett, Todd, Williams, Stuart, Wiltse, Wilson, Jewell.

When Old Glory Passes By

There appears to be a certain few people in school and town who do not know how to conduct themselves in the presence of the United States flag or during the playing of the national anthem. Since it is necessary to teach this minority, they had better learn now before they are seriously embarrassed.

No matter where you are when the United States flag appears, you are to stand at attention until it has passed. When the "Star Spangled Banner" is being played, sing—sing out loud and while you are singing think what it would have been like to be with our boys on Bataan and Corregidor. What would they be thinking about when the national anthem is being played? Would they be laughing and talking?

Cheerleaders! Stand at attention with the crowd. Don't run around worrying about signs announcing the rest of the games. The spectators are supposed to follow you, the leaders. The next time any of the cheerleaders are seen running around during the playing of our national anthem, there will be even more criticism.

Remember when Old Glory is in front of you, stand at attention. Make it a big well-mannered crowd, and so quiet you can almost hear the grass grow. There is a war going on and there is talk that boys may be sent off our own gridiron to fight with our men at the front.

Central P.T.A. Selects "Room Mother" For Each School Room

With the hopes of playing a more important part than ever in promoting the welfare of our children under war-time conditions, the year's program of the Central Grade Parent Teacher association was mapped out last Friday night. An executive meeting of the new officers and chairmen met with its president, Mrs. William Arscott.

Each schoolroom has a "Room Mother" who is the connecting link between the association and the schoolroom. Tuesday afternoon, the following mothers were selected for the new school year: Miss Adams' room—Mrs. H. Stratton; Miss Teague—Mrs. Leo Crane and Mrs. William Morgan; Miss Campbell's—Mrs. C. Bush; Miss Lucas—Mrs. John Montieth; Miss Anderson—Mrs. R. Ingram; Miss Shields—Mrs. H. S. Wood; Miss Jewell and Mrs. Bird—Mrs. F. Reddeman; Miss Gale—Mrs. Ed Klinske; Miss Robinson—Mrs. E. Benson; Mrs. Holliday—Mrs. Henry Agosta; Miss Erickson—Mrs. J. Keyes; Miss Crawford—Mrs. Charles Stoneburner; Miss Peterson—Mrs. F. Rollins; Miss Weatherhead—Mrs. Henry Hees; Miss Sly—Mrs. Miller Ross.

Ninety two per cent of Michigan's farm bean production in 1941 was white pea beans; three and four-tenths per cent red kidney; four per cent cranberry and seven-tenths of one per cent other varieties.

School's War Effort Praised

Mrs. Henry Baker, sponsor of the Junior Red Cross received the following from Mrs. Marzoff, director of the Wayne county and Detroit Junior Red Cross:

"We particularly appreciate the large amount of well-made layette material because it helped to fill urgent orders. The hot water bottle covers and ditty bags were very neatly made and we were delighted with the 10 afghans and two defense robes. The scrap books were very nice and we are sure that the services men will enjoy them immensely."

The school is planning a larger part in the war effort this year; the Girl Reserves are devoting much of their program to it.

Class Officers

The president of the tenth grade is Clarence Hoffman, who was president of his freshman class and in Rose-dale was vice-president in the eighth grade. He has also belonged to the 4-H club.

Other officers in the sophomore class are Arnold Phillips, vice-president; Jack Labby, secretary; Ralph Bachelder, treasurer; Kay Fisher and Hugh Harsha, student council.

In the ninth grade Ruth Campbell is president. She also has been in orchestra and Junior chorus.

The remaining officers of the freshman class are Jack Olsvater, vice-president; Pauline Wiedman, secretary; Marjorie Elliott, treasurer; Marilyn Vershure and Barbara Shoemaker, student council.

Terry Hitt was elected president of the eighth grade. He was on the student council last year and belongs to the Boys' Club. Also, he has gone to this school all of his life.

The president of the seventh grade is Barbara Weed who has been in this school since her second grade. She belongs to the Girl Scouts and plays the drums.

The other officers in the seventh grade are Patsy Packard, vice-president; Bill Vincent, secretary; Jay Daggert, treasurer; Elton McAllister, student council.

Mayor Calls First Council Meeting

When the rest of the school swings into action it is just about time for the newly appointed student council members to limber up their minds and concentrate on a few of the problems ahead of them, which is just what they did when Mayor Gordon Votal called a meeting Tuesday, September 22.

The first thing they tackled was the election of officers who include Lincoln Hale, vice-president; Annabel Heller, secretary; and Hugh Harsha, treasurer. They gave their stamp of approval to the appointees of the Mayor who were the seven judges, the chief of police and lieutenants.

Mr. Dykhouse pointed out that we must get into the scrap by having a more extensive physical program and more defense stamp sales. If you have any plausible ideas as to what should be done, give them to your Student Council members.

Tie Defers Choice Of Cheerleaders

Marleeta was chosen for one of the vacancies on the cheerleader's squad Tuesday September 22. There were two places open and the other resulted in a tie between Sally Austin and Gloria Eckles. The winner will be decided at the next practice. The Yell-queens left from last year are Sally Jean Haas, Chuck Flaherty, Wilma Lounsbury, and Josephine Armbruster.

Student Officers Sworn in Sept. 24

At a student assembly Thursday, September 24 the student officers were sworn in by Mr. Dykhouse. Because all the pupils can not get into the auditorium, the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades went in for the first half hour and the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth for the last half hour. The officers were sworn twice for the benefit of each assembly.

Lincoln Hale, master of ceremonies, introduced the mayor, Gordon Votal who gave a short speech. Gordon then named his appointees of whom Jack Kenyon was chief of police. Jack gave a talk on the new rules and how they would be enforced. The lieutenants under him are Ray Kearney, third floor; Junior Russell, second floor; Melvin Hunt, first floor.

Gordon then introduced the judicial court. The judges are Pat Hudson, Nancy Baker, Elaine De Planche, Donna Day, Dorrit Strause, Joe Brisbois, Bob Bovee, of whom Pat Hudson is the Chief Justice. She is serving her second year in this office.

Judicial Dep't. Gets Under Way

The Judicial Department of Plymouth high school began Tuesday in room C-1. There will be one judge in Commercial room C-1 during first and fifth hours for a period of four weeks. The judges Mayor Votal appointed are Joe Brisbois, Nancy Baker, Elaine De Planche, Donna Day, Dorrit Strause, Joe Brisbois, Bob Bovee, of whom Pat Hudson is the Chief Justice. She is serving her second year in this office.

Each bail lieutenant was given sheets on which he shall record every day the people getting tickets. In this way there will be a perfect check on whether or not students come into court. The pupil will go to court with the officer that gave the ticket when the next hour court is in session. The punishment for persons not reporting at court will be double. Any student that would have received a hearing of all seven judges with chief presiding. This decision, however, will be final.

Sailor Dan Dougan Visits School Matrons

Plymouth high school welcomed, last week, Dan Dougan who is a member of Uncle Sam's valiant fighting forces. Dan is stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training base near Chicago. When he returns to his base, he plans to enter the Medical Corps and thereby further his education. He has been training in marching, swimming, boxing and many other active sports.

Summer Projects In 140 Homes

During the past summer Miss Ingeborg Lundin, assisted by Mrs. Chrystina Soule, home economics teachers for Plymouth high school, conducted "Home Summer Projects" for members of the Home Economics class who were interested. Last year's group contained representatives from 140 homes.

The teachers visited the girls in their homes. Some of the courses offered were in meal planning, canning, child's care, clothes construction, and home repair.

Cafeteria Serves 300 Daily

Approximately 300 people are served daily in the cafeteria under the management of Miss Lundin, the home economics advisor. The menu consists of soup, a hot main dish of meat or a reasonable substitute, potatoes, a cooked vegetable, a salad, sandwiches, dessert, ice cream, and milk. The food is prepared by Mrs. Partidge and Mrs. Kronkite. The student help consists of 11 girls who work one period each, but more help is needed.

Concerned with many different subjects, the three home economics classes began their semester work. Canning and preparing a breakfast are being studied by the Home Economics I classes. Home Economics II is concerned with child study. They gave a party for the kindergarten last Wednesday. The home economics III is studying nutrition in terms of a daily menu.

Newburg School News

The Newburg school fair will be continued this year. We asked three persons to serve as judges. They were Rev. Verle Carson, Mrs. Jesse Thomas and Mrs. Harold Mackinder.

For prizes we had red, white and blue ribbons and gold ribbons for the best booths.

This year we had music just like a real fair. Mr. Miller and Jack contributed their public speaking system.

—June Hobbins, Fair Mgr.

When the right booths were chosen I wrote them down and chose the best colors I could think of for the booths. Then when the decorating of the booths began I helped in the arranging of the different colors.

The side show was a great success. We charged one cent admission. We collected $2.80.

The main features were an "Obelta" man and woman, also many other things: spiders of all different kinds and a hen that laid marble eggs. We also had a monster. On the committee were: Roswell Fulton, Gordon Osmun, Glenn Pace and Robert MacIntyre.

—Robert MacIntyre

The children who had hobbies brought them and exhibited them in our booth. There were airplanes, statues, stamp books, twin dress outfits and many other things. Our booth was trimmed in yellow and blue.

—Jack Miller, chairman

The antique booth had many things in it. Mrs. Stannitz won first and second prize. She received first prize on her Jewel case and second prize on her fruit set. Roger Kidston won third prize on his sword made from a sword fish and Mrs. Stannitz won grand prize on a scarf.

We were glad the parents contributed too.

—Donald Hunt, chairman

We sold milk, cider and doughnuts Friday evening at our fair. Edmund Roginski was chairman of the refreshments with Lorraine Merriman and Robert Wood, assistants.

We sold six gallons of cider, forty-five bottle of milk and ten dozen doughnuts.

We made $5.00 to give towards the relief funds.

The booth was decorated with peach and brown crepe paper.

—Edmund Roginski, chairman

The Livonia scrap drive which was started for the purpose of gathering enough scrap to buy a tank is a great success as far as the Newburg contributions are concerned. And although a large truck load was taken from the pile Saturday it looks as large as ever. Our sign—"Get in the Scrap—Help buy a tank" attracted many contributors.

—John Myers, Chairman of school scrap pile.

The 4-H booth had 17 exhibits and 11 exhibitors. The articles which were exhibited were a bread board, a bird house, a tool chest, a letter holder, wild flowers, a bench hook, broom holder, a basket of vegetables, a match box, a book rack, three dresses, two towels and two slips. Our booth won a gold ribbon prize. Our colors were green and white.

—Bruce Kidston, chairman.

In the vegetable booth of the Newburg school fair one thing we had was kale plant. We had some jars of canned food there and several fruit and vegetable exhibits. —James Ayers, chairman.

The baked goods booth was decorated in red, white and blue. There were 12 exhibits and 11 exhibitors. There were many nice

Elm School News

The large scrap pile near the Wayne county truck sheds on Grantland street is the result of efforts of members of the seventh and eighth grade class of Elm school. The boys who worked hard in collecting that pile were Billy Morgan, Ralph Kelley, Gerald Parrish, Ralph Holmes, Ernest Liddle.

All rooms helped in collecting the pile under the big tree at Elm school. To Larry Hockstad should go the credit for a very large single contribution.

Honorable mention for essays on the scrap metal drive: Grade seven, Irene Vincent, Marjorie Ann Birdsal and George Guest.

Fifth and Sixth Grades.

During the first week of school the following people were elected for officers of our room: President, Eugene DeWulf; vice president, Eugene Martin; secretary, Gilbert Wasaloski; Girls' Health officer, Lorraine Vincent; Boys' Health officer, Bob Norman; flag captain, Richard Snowdin; librarian, Barbara Ann Wilson. We elected Malinda Eads, sixth grade and Richard Snowdin, fifth grade, as representatives for the scrap drive. We went on a roller skating party Thursday afternoon with the seventh and eighth grades and enjoyed it very much. We wish to express our appreciation and thank very much Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. McBride for providing transportation for most of the girls and boys.

First Grade

There are 31 enrolled in the first grade. The class is interested in clay modeling of airplanes and painting on the easel.

The class is saving its dimes and quarters to buy defense stamps.

The children are learning to make letters from cubes.

Second Grade

The second grade has quite a natural science collection consisting of cocoons, carrot caterpillar, milkweed caterpillar and a woolly bear.

Donna Whittington brought a salamander to school, and the class wrote a story about the animal.

The art class is working on cut paper fruit designs.

The following citizenship officers have been elected: President, Koran Benson; vice-president, Jane Cook; secretary, and treasurer, Lorraine Traganier; Boys' health officer, Larry Merriam; Girls' Health officer, Shirley Coon.

Fifth Grade

The class is studying the bird migration and collecting pictures of them to mount.

Sixth Grade

The room has a letter box in which suggestions are dropped stating what would like to be carried out in the different classes.

The room has a book case containing 30 books on fiction, non-fiction, history and science.

The children has displayed an exhibit of their hobbies, among which are small bars of soap by June Schwartz, rare stones by Carl VanCoevering, state maps by Bob VanDevender, Indian curios and relics by Bernice Lou Bonts, dolls by Beverly Baisley, and playing cards by June Schwartz.

Seventh Grade

The room invested $2.25 in defense stamps this week.

The following officers were elected and installed in C.J.C.: Don Williams, president; vice-president, Owen Hedden; Mary Rolen, secretary and treasurer; Eric Mason, Boys' Health officer; and Victoria Petschulat, Girls' Health officer. The president appointed a cabinet every two weeks to perform necessary room duties. The teacher installed the officers with the Holy Bible and National Flag present. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shierk of Chicago visited her mother, Mrs. William Moore, in Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Shierk and friends in the Gardens over the week-end and until Thursday, when they left for Grand Rapids to visit Mrs. Shierk's sister and family.

Dr. Hazel Bachellor of Benton Harbor, president of the Republican Women's club of Michigan, who came to attend the GOP convention last week, is this week the guest of her friend, Mrs. Emory Shierk and Mr. Shierk.

Mrs. C. L. Bowdler and Mrs. Seltzer were co-hostesses Tuesday of last week, at a Cessert and picnic of their auxiliary group in the former's home.

The Arts and Letters Book club will be the guest of Mrs. C. L. Bowdler Tuesday evening, October 6, with Mrs. E. O. Whittington reviewing the book, "The Days of Old."

"Book Night" of the Woman's club was celebrated September 24 with a fine attendance and a splendid program. Mrs. R. D. Crane, hostess of the visit to Colorado during the past summer said Mrs. J. A. VanCoevering gave a very good account of Michigan with other ladies. The hostesses were Mrs. S. Randall, Mrs. Louis Stebbins, Mrs. Hoyle and Mrs. F. M. Wagon. Important business was taken up at the October 1 meeting and on October 8 Mrs. Marvin Terry, of Plymouth, will be the guest speaker. She will talk on "Her Life in the Mountains of Kentucky." The meetings begin at 8:00 o'clock.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Emory Shierk entertained at luncheon honoring Mrs. George Dunn of Dearborn, the occasion being in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Other guests were Mrs. D. Coburn, Mrs. E. C. Grushow and Mrs. Otto Olsen, also of Dearborn.

Mrs. George E. Fisher and Mrs. Lino Canale spent a few days last week with Mrs. George May and other friends in London, Ontario.

Mrs. Charles L. Cook was the guest of Mrs. E. C. Grushow, in Dearborn, from Friday until Sunday, with the men with Basil Quick, of Detroit, and William Henry, of Dearborn, enjoyed duck hunting near Tawas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Chance, of Windsor, Ontario, were entertained at dinner Sunday, in the home of Mrs. and Mrs. George E. Fisher, on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George V. Miller, of the Gardens, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher.

Dr. and Mrs. Leigh Fowler, of Farming, New York, formerly of the Gardens, have been guests of friends here this week while Dr. Leigh is taking examinations in Ann Arbor.

With Plymouth Boys

In The Armed Services of Our Country - Fighting for The Preservation of Our America!

"WE GOT OUR SHARE OF THE SLANT EYES."

In a letter from Keith Lawson to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lawson of Union street, it became known that the young man took part in the engagements that resulted in America's capture of the Solomon Islands way down in the southern Pacific ocean. The letter written August 12, indicates that the youthful Plymouth Marine has been plenty of real service during the summer.

"We've had naval, marine and airplane battles, with submarines included. This battle took place at the Solomon Islands," he writes. "The Japs say they sunk 22 or 28 ships. That's all wrong. The Marines captured the islands 24 hours after they landed. The ships were attacked by two-engine bombers.

"We got our share of the little slant-eyed boys. But you have got to watch them though, they are kind of tricky.

"From here we go to — where I think we might stay a few weeks. Now I have been in pretty good health and am getting along well.

"Some day I hope and pray I will see you all again, but at times I give up. Cheer up! Keep hoping and say hello to my friends and be sure and write to Finch Roberts."

JOHN MOORE NOW FLYING INSTRUCTOR

Lieutenant John E. Moore, son of Mrs. Anna Moore of 15185 Northville road, Plymouth, who recently was graduated from an advanced flight training school at Mission, Texas, has reported to Perrin Field, Texas, for assignment as an instructor in basic flying. Lieutenant Moore, who formerly attended Michigan State and Wayne University, received his aviation training at the Cimmarron Air college and Randolph and Moore fields in Texas.

Mrs. Robert Kisabeth, 1027 Starkweather avenue, has just received a cablegram from her husband, who is now with the United States army in Ireland, in which he advises that he has been promoted to a sergeant within his company. He has been in the army for eleven months and left for Ireland last April.

GETTING SOME REAL TRAINING.

Great Lakes, Illinois.

Dear Editor: Just a few lines to let you know where I am and what I am up to.

For the past month I have been going to school here at Great Lakes. Right now we are going to night school. School starts at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon and we are through at 12 o'clock midnight. We get to sleep until 7:00 in the morning.

Our day begins with us hitting the deck at 8:00 in the morning. Chow at 8:30 o'clock, we come back and clean the barracks from top to bottom. Friday is our field day and then we go through it until it shines like a new penny. Saturday is personal and bag inspection by the Ensign in charge of our barracks block.

Monday and Wednesday we go to the swimming pool and learn the fundamentals of life saving and we also learn how to deal with the different man eaters who sink through the ocean looking for helpless prey. The two most common are the Tiger shark and the barracuda.

Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays we have one hour of hardening exercises. What I mean, they are exercises! They'll either kill you or make a man out of you just like the men that were manning the battle wagons in the Coral Sea battle, Midway and all the other big naval battles.

Saturdays we have examinations over all the material we cover in school during the previous week.

Sundays we attend church and then we are free all the rest of the day until bed check which is at 9:30 o'clock.

Our officers never refer to us as fellows in service school as sailors. We are known as "Man-O-War-Men." Later when we reach sea we are known as Jack or Tars.

I will be graduating from school December 13 and if Lady Luck is with me, I may come out of school with a rating.

We were just given the order to fall out so I had better hang up. Will you please put my address in the paper so maybe some of my friends can drop me a line now and then if they know my address. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

H. R. Smith, A.S., U.S.N.

Group 1, Section F9-2 Barracks 508, Service School, U.S.N.T.S., Great Lakes, Illinois.

MEETS "BUD" ARCHER WAY OUT WEST.

Dear Editor: I want to thank you very much for sending me The Plymouth Mail. I really enjoy reading it every week. I want to give you my change of address as I have been moved from Tennessee to Fort Lewis, Washington. It is a nice camp here. I didn't think that there was anybody else here from Plymouth but last night at the USO dance I happened to run across Bud Archer and he told me about some other fellows from Plymouth and Northville. I haven't met them yet but we are all going to get together this week and talk over old times. Sure was good to see somebody from the old home town again. I want to thank you again for sending me The Mail. And I will be looking forward to receiving it up here. Bob Hope is doing his radio show Tuesday, September 22 here. It is right across the street from where I live. I will close now and here is hoping to hear from you by The Plymouth Mail.

Corporal LeRoy Crisp.

LIKES LIFE IN UNCLE SAM'S ARMY.

Corporal Gordon Hartford and Mrs. Hartford who have been visiting in Plymouth for the past fifteen days, have returned to the air base at Portland, Oregon, where Corporal Hartford is stationed. They spent part of their time in Belleville, with Corporal Hartford's mother and remained in Plymouth with Mrs. Hartford's mother, Mrs. Hilda Walker of Palmer avenue, during the remainder of their visit. Corporal Hartford has been assigned to a bomb squadron and at present is in the flight operations' office. There is a number of other Plymouth boys located at this base, among them being Bob Barley, Robert Herter, Henry Cummins, Lawrence Drake and several others. Gordon is a Plymouth high school graduate and after finishing school, he was employed at the Daisy Manufacturing plant before entering the army.

SUB SINKS HIS SHIP, HOME ON FURLOUGH.

Wilber H. Fowler, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fowler, Plymouth road, is home on a brief furlough following the sinking of the ship on which he had been assigned to duty. A German sub got his boat somewhere down near Cuba. After floating about for nearly a day and night on the life raft the young man was rescued and brought to New York. Upon his return to duty, he will be re-assigned to some other boat.

"ARMY LIFE A VACATION" SAYS DOUGLAS ECKLES.

Dear Editor: I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for The Mail. Each week I look forward to reading about my friends who are now being scattered all over the world. I think you have a very good column about the boys in service. Everyone enjoys reading it.

I am going to sort of outline my experience as an army man. I enlisted in the Signal Corps in July. After a few days at Fort Custer I was sent to the Signal Corps Replacement Training Center at Camp Crowder, Missouri. I had four weeks of basic training there and then was sent here to Omaha for my technical training. We have a 13-weeks' course here for radio operators and mechanics. Being an operator my classes are code, radio theory, lab experiments and typing. It's really a tough course and when we finish we sure know something about being a radio operator.

Have been here five weeks now. We live in a hotel in downtown Omaha and have six blocks to walk to school. School is eight hours a day, five days a week.

It's almost like a vacation instead of army life. I am really enjoying it here and like army life very much.

Thanking you again, I remain,

Yours truly,
Private Douglas Eckles.

"America's Secret Weapon Is A Free Press" Says Governor

"America's 'secret weapon' in its all-out fight against dictatorship is its free press," declares Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner in a proclamation, issued Wednesday, Sept. 23, asking Michigan to observe "National Newspaper Week", Oct. 1 to 8.

"Without freedom of the press, institutions of democracy would perish. Thomas Jefferson said, 'Our liberty depends upon the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost.' Such is the guardianship of the newspapers of the United States.

"Newspapers of Michigan constitute a vigilant army on our wartime front. In bringing to the people the facts of the war and its many current problems, they are contributing to an enlightened and determined public opinion.

"In recognition of the freedom of the press and the service of the newspapers of Michigan in helping to win the war, I, Murray D. Van Wagoner, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim the period of Oct. 1 to 8 as 'National Newspaper Week' in this State."

By Stuart Cloete

Why should anyone buy War Bonds? There is no compulsion to buy them. There is no winter relief... no SS man standing outside the door saying, "Buy, or else." Nothing is at stake but the future of the country... perhaps of the World.

What then is a stamp or bond but a vote of confidence in ourselves? In our capacity to drive on, to break all opposition and then to reconstruct upon a new and better design, a world that will be different. A world of surplus instead of one of scarcity. But a bond is more than this. It is an investment. It is something of a miracle that freedom can be bought and that in addition it should pay a dividend of almost 3 percent. And this is not all, bonds stand between us and the spiral inflation which could engulf us more easily than any enemy outside our gates. For the first time in many years, demand backed by money stimulates it by advertising and credit purchasing plans. Are we to save money against the time when we may need it, or bid for the few consumer goods that are left against ourselves?

There is one more reason for buying bonds. The President, who is also the commander in chief, has asked us to do so.

Meanwhile... while we hesitate... while we complain of nominal hardship... men die... not only fighting men, but women and small children also. They die for a good cause. A good reason... for freedom. But we who are not dying must pay in time and money, or we shall find ourselves dishonored. The time is short. It passes... and having passed, is forever lost.

Men in France, in Poland, in Norway... men all over Europe are regretting this... are saying: "If only we had known."

But we do know. The writing is on the wall. Corregidor, Pearl Harbor, Singapore, Dunkirk, are not dreams. They are evil things that have happened, and now this evil approaches us. It lies in wait off our coasts.

Time is money... but money cannot buy time, nor bring dead men to life, nor purchase freedom once it is lost.

That is why we must buy bonds now... today, and tomorrow, and the day after. Buy bonds until this thing is destroyed utterly... because time is not subject to manipulation... because the past is dead and the future mortgaged... because the world cannot live half free and half slave. Nor we, the free, allow the mortgage upon our freedom to be foreclosed. Failing now, we fail forever. Never before could so much be bought for so little. Never so much lost for lack of that little.

Famed Gypsy Dancer To Open Detroit Town Hall Series

Carmen Amaya, exciting Flamenco dancer and her troupe of gypsy dancers and musicians will open the Detroit Town Hall series at the Fisher theatre, Wednesday morning, October 14.

This petite 20-year-old dancer who electrified Broadway with the most sensational flamenco stepping in many a year, made her concert debut recently at Carnegie hall, packing the theatre and turning 2,000 away.

Brought to this country from South America, Amaya was enthusiastically received by Arturo Toscanini who said: "Never in my life have I seen such fire and rhythm." Maestro Leopold Stokowski asked the dancer to give a special performance for him and his All-American Youth Orchestra.

Fresh from her triumph at Carnegie hall and Ed Wynn's Broadway hit, "Laugh, Town Laugh," the fiery gypsy is making her first major tour of the United States. Accompanying Amaya will be her sisters, Antonia and Leonora; papa Jose and brother Paco; cousin Sabicas, celebrated solo guitarist; dancer Lola Montez; pianist Raymond Saches; and the famous Flamenco star, Antonio Triano.

That gooey grease that plugs your sink Will sink a submarine. Send this Battle Ore right off to war.

It's Nitro-glycerin. A little piece of rubber's worth It's weight in T.N.T. Save more and more, this Battle Ore

To hasten victory. Help blast a ship, crack up a plane And sink a submarine. Your Battle Ore will win the war On the Axis vent your spleen.

RULES

to help keep your electric appliances in

tip-top shape

FOR THE DURATION!

YOUR REFRIGERATOR. Defrost regularly—but don't chip off the frost with a knife or sharp tool! Whenever you defrost, clean out the inside of the refrigerator with lukewarm soapy water. Avoid over-crowding: Never store foods that do not require refrigeration. Locate your refrigerator away from heat sources. Do not put hot foods in refrigerator to cool. Unless your refrigerator has a "sealed-in-oil" motor, have it oiled and inspected regularly.

YOUR ELECTRIC RANGE. Keep the porcelain exterior clean. Do not use a stiff brush or sharp instrument to remove spilled food from heating elements. (Food should be burned off.) Do not let spilled food dry or harden on the range. Ventilate oven after each baking or roasting operation — leave door open. When cool, wipe inside of oven with a damp cloth.

YOUR ELECTRIC WASHER. Wringer rolls are rubber—and precious. When through using wringer, release pressure on rolls so that they can stretch and breathe. Don't try to force belt buckles, metal buttons, etc., through rolls. When finished washing, drain and rinse the tub, and wipe dry with soft cloth. Drain the hose. Rinse and dry agitator or suction cups. Do not overload washer — this puts strain on motor.

YOUR VACUUM CLEANER. Before cleaning rugs, pick up such metallic things as hairpins, tacks, nails, etc., by hand. These can cause bag punctures, belt-cuts, or even get tangled up in the fan. Be sure nozzle and brush are adjusted properly. (Improper adjustment may break rubber belt.) Empty dust bag frequently. Once a month, turn it inside out and brush thoroughly. Never wash bag. Keep brushes free from hair and threads.
