Will Direct Salvage Drive For Both City And Township

New Responsibilities Are Given Mrs. Russell Powell

Upon the shoulders of Mrs. Russell Powell has fallen the entire responsibility for the future success of salvage drives in both the city of Plymouth and Plymouth township.

Following the resignation of Mrs. Mildred Barnes, chairman of the Plymouth city salvage committee because of acceptance of a position in Detroit, Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple appointed Mrs. Powell to the vacancy. The Plymouth defense council at its meeting Monday afternoon unanimously confirmed the appointment.

It was the splendid cooperation and tireless work on the part of Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Barnes which resulted in the remarkably successful scrap drive Plymouth conducted early in October.

Not only has Mrs. Powell been active in the scrap iron drives, but she has assisted in other campaigns conducted by the city and township.

She has already begun to work out details for the next big scrap drive to be conducted in this locality some time during the winter.

But this is not the only additional honor and responsibility which has come to Mrs. Powell. She has just been awarded an Instructor's Certificate by the State Defense Council as an instructor of air raid wardens, fire watchers and messengers, having completed the intensive course recently given in Detroit. In the class that graduated with Mrs. Powell last Saturday were 12 other women from Detroit and this part of the state and 28 men.

Theatres Open New Year's Eve

To Close Only On Christmas Eve

Next Thursday evening, Christmas eve, for the first time in many years, there will be no motion pictures displayed at the Penn theatre or the Penniman-Allea theatres either in Plymouth or Northville.

Harry Lush, who operates the three theatres, has decided that his employees shall have the opportunity to enjoy Christmas eve in view of all the extra work they have had to do recently.

But on New Year's eve, Mr. Lush has booked some extra good pictures, and all of the theatres in both Plymouth and Northville will be open that evening as usual, instead of closed, as reported last week.

There are a lot of people this year who will find that their only entertainment on New Year's eve will be motion picture shows and it is for that reason Mr. Lush has decided to keep his theatres open every evening except Christmas eve. There will also be the usual matinees.

Venison Supper For Wild Lifers

Dinner to Take Place Monday Eve, Jan. 11

Monday evening, January 11, has been fixed by President Brick Champe and officers of the Western Wayne County Conservation club as the date for the annual venison supper of the organization.

It will take place in the Jewell and Blain hall, and according to Secretary Ernest Henry, the venison is going to be cooked to a "queen's taste."

An attendance of nearly 100 is expected, but those planning on attending must secure their tickets in advance. There will be prepared just the right amount of food for the number of ticket holders.

Tickets will be on sale within a few days. The announcement as to where tickets can be secured will appear in next week's issue of The Plymouth Mail.

Postoffice Open On Saturday

For the convenience of the public, Postmaster Harry Irwin has announced that he will keep the postoffice open Saturday until 6 o'clock. All stamp and mailing windows will be open so that people who have found it impossible to get to the office before Saturday afternoon, can do their late Christmas mailing at that time.

Early Copy! Please!

Because Christmas day falls on Friday, the usual time for The Plymouth Mail to reach its subscribers, and because of the desire to have The Mail reach its readers before Christmas day, The Mail will go to press next Tuesday afternoon.

This will necessitate very EARLY COPY. It will be greatly appreciated if you will send in your news, notices and advertising this week-end or as early as possible on Monday.

Thanks in advance for your cooperation.

To Double City's Next Quota in Fat Collection

Mrs. Walter Harms Works Out Plan To Aid Housewives

Seven hundred and thirty-five pounds of fat collected during November—that is the satisfactory record made by the Plymouth committee working day and night to collect materials for gun powder for Uncle Sam—gun powder and TNT, with which to blow Hitler and Hirohito to Hades.

But Mrs. Walter Harms, the energetic chairman of the explosive materials committee, believes that Plymouth can more than double the collection that was made for November.

She has set the December goal at 1500 pounds. For January that figure may be doubled.

Mrs. Harms is working out a plan whereby people who cannot bring to downtown markets the fats they are saving to help Plymouth boys win the war, can turn it over to members of the Girl Scouts. Beginning next month, it is hoped that Plymouth Girl Scouts will be able to make a house-to-house collection of fats. This will be done during the first four days of the last week in January, and in the same period of each month thereafter.

Begin now to save every ounce of fat that you possibly can—Uncle Sam needs it badly.

To Test New Air Raid Signals

City Manager Clarence Elliott today advised that there will be two tests made of Plymouth's completed air raid warning signals, one on Saturday afternoon, December 19 at 1 o'clock, and the other test on Saturday afternoon, December 26 at 1 o'clock.

The Plymouth fire alarm siren, a new whistle installed on the Pilgrim Products plant and the Detroit House of Correction siren will be blown simultaneously, states Manager Elliott.

He urges that people not confuse the alarms of these two days with fire alarms. The whistles will be blown for the purpose of finding out how widely the combined air alarm sirens can be heard.

Only 13 To Go To Camp Tuesday

Induction Total Enlistments Cut

Out of 80 men called by Selective Service Board No. 61 of this city, for induction into the army, only 14 will be sent to Fort Custer Tuesday.

The small number, one of which was an army recruit, was blamed on the large number of enlistments and to the reduction in the age of men accepted into the armed services.

Allen Fuller of Redford was the army enlistment. Others inducted were: Lawrence G. Jones, 873 Holbrook, Plymouth. Donald E. Blessing, 766 York, Plymouth. R. H. Ams, Plymouth. Claude L. Johnson, 18235 Brady, Detroit. Erni W. Seng, 11610 Deering, Plymouth. Isaac C. Davis, 364 Wing south, Northville. George E. Kohler, 130 Joy road, Plymouth. Gerald C. Wilson, Dearborn. James E. Bradbury, 9661 Newburg, Plymouth. Warren P. Melvin, 18875 Gaylord, Detroit. Milford E. Bennett, 352 Main, Plymouth. Jack R. Lee, 632 Harvey, Plymouth. Gerald L. Ziegler, Livonia township.

Christmas Business Breaks All Records in Plymouth

Merchants Report Greatest Volume Of Sales They Ever Experienced

Christmas business in Plymouth this year has been the largest in history.

While figures are not, and probably never will be available to show the actual size of the total business handled by Plymouth merchants, and the two banks, available sources report the volume of business greater than ever before.

Postmaster Harry Irwin reports the number of parcels handled by the Plymouth post-office is the largest in history.

A heavy staff of added clerks have been added to the post-office to handle the Christmas rush.

Further indication of the volume of postal business was reported by Mr. Irwin. He said that while there has been no noticeable increase in the volume of Christmas cards, the number of parcels has jumped tremendously.

Russell Daane, vice-president and cashier of the Plymouth United Savings bank, said the volume of checks handled by the bank is certainly the largest in recent years. This reflects greater sales on the part of the merchants.

The United bank is handling from 800 to 900 out-of-town checks each day, he said. This totals about $75,000 daily in money volume.

And the volume of business is acknowledged by the merchants themselves. John Blyton, of the Taylor and Blyton department store, said his firm has experienced the largest December volume of business in history, and that it is double, in dollar volume, the business of last December.

Blunk of the Blunk and Thatcher furniture store, said that his firm had been busier than ever before, but that because he did not have the merchandise to sell, the dollar volume might not be as great as in previous years.

"We have had no large equipment to sell," said Mr. Blunk. "We have had no refrigerators or stoves, or living room furniture or spring chairs to sell. If we had had the larger and heavier pieces of merchandise, our volume would have been triple that of last December."

Mr. Blyton in commenting on the Christmas rush, said that the increase in dollar volume of business also means almost double the volume of merchandise, for the price ceilings have held down the cost of items sold.

Christmas purchasing, Mr. Blyton said, has been about equally divided between the novelty (Continued on page 2)

Accepts Position In Detroit

Mrs. Mildred Barnes To Leave Daisy Co.

Mrs. Mildred Barnes for many years associated with the Daisy Manufacturing company, has resigned her position with that company and will Monday assume a position with the Jam Hand commercial motion picture organization of Detroit.

The resignation of Mrs. Barnes came somewhat as a surprise to her host of friends in Plymouth. It was because of the exceptional opportunities her new position offers that she decided to resign her long association with the Daisy company and accept the new position.

It is her intention to retain her residence in Plymouth with her mother, spending the week-ends in this city.

To Have Open House On Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

In celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wickmaier, among the best known of the older residents of the city, will Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 and 4:30 o'clock have open house to all of their old friends, neighbors and associates. They reside at 1472 West Ann Arbor Trail. There is not much question but what the open house hours will be busy ones for them, as this well known and prominent Plymouth couple has through the years possessed a host of friends. Their entire lives have been spent in and around Plymouth.

Some Stores to Remain Closed on Saturday, Day After Christmas

A number of Plymouth stores plan to keep closed Saturday, the day following Christmas and Saturday, the day following New Year's. Among the retail merchants and business concerns who have already announced that they will be closed on all four days are Taylor & Blyton, the Cassidy Dress Shop, Jewell Cleaners, Simon's department store, Herrick Jewelry store, the food departments of the Hotel Mayflower. Other stores desiring to close after both holidays may notify the Plymouth Mail and their names will be published next week.

Asks Women to Volunteer to Aid Fighting Boys

Salvage Committee Badly in Need Of Patriotic Workers

Wanted—VOLUNTEERS! No—the job you are wanted for, does not carry with it the honor of wearing a uniform, but it does possess the priceless opportunity of doing something which DIRECTLY helps every Plymouth fighting boy in the army or the navy.

There is an immediate need for women who will help to carry on the intensive salvage campaigns that have been and will be conducted in Plymouth.

Mrs. Russell Powell, the new Plymouth chairman, at the first meeting of the salvage committee Tuesday night, made the surprising discovery that the greatest need of the organization in Plymouth right now is the assistance of patriotic women who regard the country's welfare as more important than anything else.

Call Mrs. Powell at phone number 50 and tell her that you are ready and willing to do your share in one of the most important activities in connection with the war. The committee must be enlarged immediately as there is much to do.

She has fixed the next session of the committee for Monday evening, January 4 at the city hall. Call Mrs. Powell, tell her that you want to do your share and that you will help all you can. She is devoting her entire time to various war activities, so if when you first call the telephone does not answer, call again. She might be out delivering printed matter or collecting rags, old stockings or scrap iron.

Public Invited To Midnight Service

Methodists Plan Unusual Program

The annual Christmas eve midnight service will be held again this year at the First Methodist church Thursday, December 24. The service will open at 11:00 with the organ prelude by Mrs. M. J. O'Conner, organist and director of music. This will be followed by the processional hymn, The Chorus Choir is planning a fine program of carols and Christmas music.

The Holy Communion will be administered just before midnight by the pastor and the service will close with the service of lights.

Candles will be distributed to the members of the congregation by the ushers. The minister will light his candle from an altar candle and the ushers will light their candles from the minister's candle. The ushers will then light the candle of the first worshipper in each pew, he, in turn, will light the candle of his neighbor and so on until all the candles in the pew are lighted.

During the singing of the Christmas Carol, "Silent Night, Holy Night," the congregation, choir and minister will hold the lighted candles aloft.

D. A. R. To Hear About "Christmas On a Tramp Freighter"

"Christmas on a Tramp Freighter" will be the subject of a talk to be given by Mrs. Wallace Osgood before members of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter Daughters of the American Revolution when they meet Monday afternoon, December 21 at the home of Mrs. Walter Nichol on Church street.

A potluck luncheon at 12:30 will precede the meeting when Mrs. Ralph Taylor and Mrs. David Mather will assist the hostesses.

Goodfellows Plan For Annual Newspaper Sale On Saturday

To See To It That Every Child Knows Real Meaning Of Merry Christmas

Final plans were made Wednesday for the annual Goodfellow sale of The Plymouth Mail on the streets of Plymouth Saturday.

Sale of the papers, by which it is expected to raise about $800, will begin with the annual parade from Liberty and Starkweather avenues, to the downtown section. The parade of old newsboys will be led by the Plymouth high school band, and the sale will begin as soon as papers are distributed in the downtown area.

Sale of the papers will continue until about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

James Gallimore, president of the old newsboys organization, presided at the meeting Wednesday evening at which time selling places were assigned to the members.

About 300 children are expected to benefit from the sale of the papers, according to Harold Stevens, secretary of the organization. He said there are about 100 cases in the Plymouth area which will require outside help in order to have a "Merry Christmas."

Robert Jolliffe, chairman of the basket committee which will have charge of the distribution of baskets and gifts estimated there are about three children in each home.

Baskets of groceries and clothing where they are needed will be provided by the Goodfellows, and adequate toys will be sent to the children from Santa's workshop.

Gallimore estimated between 50 and 60 old newsboys would participate in the sale of the papers. While the case load this year is smaller, due to the increased work available, the number of old newsboys selling also is smaller because many of those who ordinarily would participate are engaged in war work or are in the army.

School Concert Pleases Crowd

Many Hear The Excellent Program

For sheer good music, the annual Christmas music concert of the Plymouth high school seldom if ever has been exceeded. It was held Thursday evening, December 10 in the auditorium under the direction of C. A. Luchtman, director of music in the public schools.

Under the baton of Miss Doris Hamill, a string ensemble opened the evening's program. The ensemble, accompanied by Margaret Jean Nichol, included: Ruth Curtis, Evelyn Elliott, Ardis Curtis, Arthur Robinson, John Goettler, Gerald Allen, Marilyn Vanhoy, Fletcher Campbell, Marvin Mepians and Robert Bovee.

The ensemble's concert served as a prelude to the evening's program which was divided into three parts.

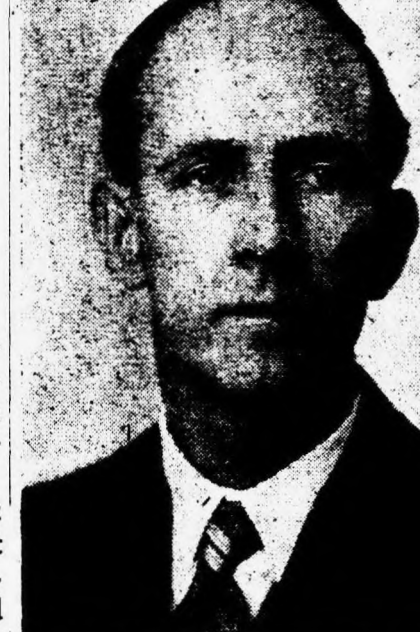

Part one, dominated by the high school band, opened the program with the National Anthem, and followed with Pan American, a march by R. L. King. Four trumpets, William Schoof, William Benner, William Schoof and Harry Krumm, played The Trumpeters and the band closed its portion of the program with "The Stars and Stripes Forever," by Sousa.

Miss Hamill, accompanied by Czarina Penney played three solos as the second part of the program.

William Brucker Decorates Tree

To William Brucker, who climbed the evergreen tree in Kellogg park to place the wires for the Christmas tree decoration goes the credit for the almost perfect arrangement of the lights. He spent several hours climbing about the snow-covered and slippery branches of the tree in order to have the lines of the lights as nearly perfect as possible.

Will Direct Newspaper Sale

JAMES J. S. GALLIMORE
He's president of the Plymouth Goodfellow Newsboy organization that plans to raise nearly a thousand dollars Saturday to take care of unfortunate children where Santa may forget to call this Christmas.

HARRY C. ROBINSON
He helped to organize the Goodfellows club of Plymouth and was its first president.

Curtail Lights On Christmas Trees in City

Not To Be Entirely Restricted, Says City Manager

Lighting of the municipal Christmas trees this year will be curtailed because of the war it was announced this week by City Manager Clarence Elliott.

But there will be municipal trees, and the annual display of the manger.

"There have been no rulings from the war authorities on the use of lights on Christmas trees," Mr. Elliott said, "but it seems only natural that we should conserve as much as possible."

"On the other hand, the spirit of Christmas cannot be denied to our youth, and for many years the municipal Christmas trees have been a part of the Christmas celebration in Plymouth."

Elliott said the trees would be lighted next Saturday for the first time, and would be lit every evening until the day after Christmas. The lights will be turned on, he said, between 6 and 10 o'clock every night during that time.

One tree and the manger will be located in Kellogg park and the other tree will be located in the vicinity of Liberty and Starkweather.

Changing Gifts Is Restricted

Plymouth Comes Under Regulations

In order to conserve gasoline, tires and manpower, government agencies have dealt a body blow to the good old custom of exchanging Christmas gifts, it was announced Thursday by Charles E. Boyd, secretary of the Detroit Retail Merchants Association which also applies to Plymouth.

Necessary returns can be made only within six days of purchase and actual Christmas gifts by January 4, Boyd said. The returns must be made in person if the item returned weighs five pounds or less or is less than 50 inches in length plus girth.

No merchandise will be accepted for return if purchased by special order or made to order, if altered for the purchaser or if it shows signs of wear or soil.

Boyd urged shoppers to buy more carefully in order to avoid the necessity for returns.

Donald Passage is Killed in Action

Plymouth's Priceless Contributions To Our America!

JOSEPH MERRITT
Missing in action on Bataan peninsula.
JACK GORDON
Missing in action on Bataan peninsula.
PETER GAYDE
Missing in action on Atlantic ocean.
DONALD PASSAGE
Killed in action on African front.

Another name has been added to Plymouth's honor roll of American patriots that will live through the years to come.

Donald Passage, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Glenmore C. Passage of 11667 Haggerty highway, was killed in action on Monday, November 8, the day after he became 24 years of age.

While the message from the war department did not advise where the young man met death in the services of his country, it is believed that it was in North Africa, as the date of his death was the date of the American invasion of that continent.

His death for his country brings Plymouth's sacrifice so far in this war up to the total of four lads, either missing or killed in action.

Don was inducted into service on July 30, 1941. While home on leave of absence the following month, he married Natalie Osseppoff of Dearborn on August 29 of that year. She is at present residing in Dearborn, where she is employed.

He was a graduate of the Plymouth high school and was especially popular among a large circle of young friends in the community.

The war department advised that further details would be sent to the family by letter.

To Dedicate Nursery Home

Greetings from Fred D. Schrader, of the Salvation Army advisory council will be read at the exercises.

Special music will be provided during the afternoon. Prayers will be offered by the Rev. Leonard Sanders of the First Methodist church and the Rev. Walter Nichol of the First Presbyterian church.

The nursery home will care for children for 12 hours daily for a fee of only $3 weekly, or for 50 cents a day if only one day's care is needed.

Name of Another Plymouth Lad On Honor Roll

Believed to Have Met Death on First Day of the African Invasion

Another name has been added to Plymouth's honor roll of American patriots that will live through the years to come.

Donald Passage, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Glenmore C. Passage of 11667 Haggerty highway, was killed in action on Monday, November 8, the day after he became 24 years of age.

The war department advised that further details would be sent to the family by letter.

Gas Stations Cut Service Hours

New Schedule Effective Sunday

Gasoline stations in Plymouth have curtailed their hours of operation.

Effective Sunday, December 20, the filling stations will operate from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on all week days, and will be closed on Sunday except from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Adoption of the hours was necessitated by the shortage of labor. The hours will be strictly enforced according to the Plymouth gasoline dealers in order to give adequate service to the motorists of the community.

Fix Dates For School Vacation

To Close Dec. 23 Until January 4

The Plymouth public schools will be dismissed for the Christmas holidays on Wednesday, December 23, and will be opened again on Monday, January 4, it was announced this week by Superintendent George Smith.

The annual Christmas program of the schools was given last week, at which the music departments, including the orchestra, band and glee clubs participated.

Judge Asks To Use Local Jail

A new ordinance has been proposed to the city commission which would give the city court an option in sentencing convicted offenders.

At one time, the court had the alternative of sentencing an offender to the county jail or flogging him, or both. This subsequently was changed giving the court the alternative of sentencing an offender either to the county jail or the House of Correction.

The new ordinance will also give the court the alternative of sentencing an offender to the city jail, with labor stipulated as part of the sentence.

The proposed ordinance if passed will revoke all previous ordinances with respect to jurisdiction of the court.

Invitations for the wedding of Miss Mary Marie Gotts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Gotts, of Waterford, and Howard R. Ebersole, son of Mrs. Gladys Ebersole, have been issued for Friday evening, December 21. The ceremony will take place in the Methodist church in Northville. Mr. Ebersole will graduate from the officer's training school at New Jersey on Saturday and will become a lieutenant.

Explains Use of Oil Coupons

Here Are Answers To Your Questions

All classes of fuel oil coupons are good for all classes of fuel oil, it was stated by William Wood, chairman of the Plymouth Rationing Board.

Mr. Wood issued his statement, which included answers to questions most frequently asked of the board, in an effort to curtail many of the telephone calls which are flooding his office and that of the rationing board.

While Class I fuel oil permits were issued for heating purposes, and Class III coupons were issued principally for hot water, cooking, farm uses and domestic purposes, either may be used for the other, Mr. Wood said.

Answers to other questions propounded to the board included:

All heating coupons are issued for the year, beginning October 1 and ending September 30, 1943. The year has been divided into the five periods following:

- Period I—Oct. 1-Nov. 29.
- Period II—Nov. 30-Jan. 6.
- Period III—Jan. 7-Feb. 8.
- Period IV—Feb. 9-Mar. 17.
- Period V—Mar. 18-Sept. 30.

These periods overlap each other both ways, to the extent of two weeks' time.

On these heating coupon books, there are 50 definite value coupons on one end and from one to a hundred coupons on the other end which are of an indefinite value. These are worth ten gallons at this time, which is period one and two, but this is subject to change by the government.

Kerosene coupons, Class III, are issued for three months if the consumption for that period is 50 gallons or more. If a three months' supply is less than 50 gallons, the ration is issued for the year.

All coupons in this class are of a definite value, which value is stated on each coupon.

Ellis Restaurant Not to Open on Friday, Christmas Day

So that their employees may enjoy Christmas day at home, Mr. Ellis of the Ellis restaurant, has decided to close his popular eating place on that day. But the restaurant will be open on Wednesday, December 23, the day that it is usually closed during the week. The Ellis restaurant has become one of the busiest eating houses in Plymouth.

The strength of a man consists in finding out the way God is going, and going in that way too.—H. W. Beecher.

Christmas Business Breaks All Records

Items stocked especially for the Christmas trade, and the staple items sold the year round, indicating there has been no undulating spending occasioned by the increase in money available. But there is another side to the picture.

Much of the merchandise sold to Christmas buyers is not replaceable. Novelty items at the Taylor and Blyton store are practically wiped out now, with no hope of being replaced, and while there will be restock for the more practical items, much of this stock will be curtailed.

In the instance of furniture there will be even greater depletion of the stock and even greater curtailment of replacements. Only about eight percent of the normal pre-war stock of carpeting will be available. Only about 25 percent of the normal furniture supply will be available. Of course there will be no replacements of any merchandise containing steel, such as mattresses, springs, living room furniture and steel garden furniture.

Other stores in the city experienced similar selling sprees. Many shelves already are so depleted as to be bare.

And there is little hope that they will be restocked before the first of the year.

Aid for War Blind

Plans for rehabilitating soldiers who lose their sight in the war were outlined for the army, navy and marine corps at a dinner in San Francisco, sponsored by the American Foundation for War Blind. Discussing training for sightless soldiers are, left to right, Lieut. Col. C. C. Trocensegaard, Miss Mary Coward and Col. W. S. Wood.

600 Tons
An armored division may use up as much as 600 tons of ammunition in a single day of fighting—an amount which, loaded into freight cars, would require a train of 17 cars.

Soybean Cereal
Puffed soybeans, analogous to other "exploded" cereals, may become an acceptable breakfast food. An invention, patented recently, mainly is a method of removing the bitter bean flavor.

Rotproofing Sandbags
Tar oil emulsions have been found to be more suitable for rotproofing sandbags than tar oil alone. Combinations of the former with metallic soaps are particularly effective.

Christmas Cards Are Delayed

Hundreds Have No Street Address

If you do not get your Christmas card before Christmas, don't blame the postmaster or the mail man.

Just blame the Merry Wisher who addressed the card. Stacked in the Plymouth postoffice are hundreds and hundreds of Christmas cards that have no street number address on the envelopes.

New postal employees do not know where every one in Plymouth lives—and hundreds of strangers have come to the city to live in recent months.

Mail can be delivered to them only if there is a proper address. As a result vast amounts of mail will be held up until after the Christmas rush so that postal employees can take the time to hunt through directories and find where people live so they can deliver the improperly addressed cards.

Only 20 Miles Away
With the enemy only 20 miles away, Britain is producing mighty weapons of war for herself and her Allies. Her production of planes now equals Germany's. She is producing 40,000 big guns a year, with 25,000,000 rounds of ammunition; and millions of small arms, with 2,000,000,000 rounds of ammunition. Add to this: ships, locomotives, tanks and a thousand types of military supplies.

Ohio Stocks Ruffed Grouse

Ohio has completed stocking 429 ruffed grouse obtained from Alberta and Wisconsin, according to a recent announcement. They have been distributed on game management and demonstration areas in various parts of the state that have been closed to hunting for at least two breeding seasons. Each bird released has been banded and marked with a red, white or yellow feather in its tail to facilitate checking movement and survival.

Refinishing Gold Frames
To refinish a gold frame you should first sand with very fine paper and apply a high grade gold size. When the size has partially dried, but is still tacky, apply the best quality gold bronze by dusting. After allowing this to dry for several days, finish with a thin coat of pure, white shellac greatly reduced with denatured alcohol. This should keep the bronze from tarnishing for many years.

No More Luxuries
Everything in Britain is mobilized for the winning of the war. Two out of every three persons between the ages of 14 and 65 are working full-time in the armed forces, civilian defense or war industry. This is equivalent to a mobilization of 60,000,000 people in the U. S. A. The production of luxuries has ceased. Civilian necessities are severely curtailed.

To Fill Nail Holes
For filling exposed nail holes, many decorators use pure yellow beeswax or tinted non-shrinking crack fillers, rather than oil putty which is apt to leave oil rings unless a linseed oil stain is used. The filling of nail holes is usually done after the stain coat and before the finish coat.

Light Reflected in Water
Water reflects about one-third of the sunlight falling upon it, which is one of the reasons why bathers tan easily, according to the Better Vision institute. The white sand of beaches also reflects a considerable part of the sunlight. The land surface in the country reflects only about one-tenth of the sun's rays.

Substitutes
Substitute textiles—and substitutes for substitutes—for clothing and other purposes will be much in evidence for the duration. Some of the sources of synthetic fibers now being used in research laboratories include peanuts, corn, fish protein, yucca, the bark of redwood trees, and glass.

Rubber Goods Enemy
Heat is the No. 1 enemy of rubber goods. The higher the temperature, the more quickly rubber gets weak, cracks and becomes sticky. Cold does not harm rubber. Rubber's enemy No. 2 is light. Oils and greases are enemy No. 3.

Make Own Food
Green plants are the only living things that manufacture their own food from inert, inorganic matter. Without sunlight they would be unable to carry on their food conversion processes, points out the Better Vision institute.

Less than 20 Cents
In Hungary, a meat substitute concocted of 12 vegetables enables a dinner for four to be served at a cost of less than 20 cents, it is reported to the American Chemical society.

More Shipping Space
Clothing rationing is releasing 300,000 tons of shipping a year, and some 750,000 workers for transfer from clothing industries to service in the forces or war industry.

British Women
Five and one-half million women are already working in industry and the number is mounting rapidly. Millions more, mainly housewives, are working part time.

Raised to 51
In Britain today, every fit man between 18½ and 41 has already been drafted into the forces, unless irreplaceable in an essential job. The age limit has now been raised to 51.

Organized Native Force
After remaining in the Dominican Republic for eight years, during which time they organized a native military force, U. S. marines left on September 17, 1924.

Bed Sheets
Four single-bed size sheets use as much linen as goes into the wings, fuselage and ailerons of one type of training plane.

Rust Protection for Steel
Effective protection from rust on steelwork may be obtained by using one or two coats of red lead.

Parallel Parking On Penniman

But Only Along Park, Say Police

Chief of Police C. J. Thumme has called attention to new regulations regarding parking on the north side of Ann Arbor Trail between Penniman avenue and Main street.

The chief admits the situation is a bit confused. But he can't help it, and regulations are still regulations. It is now the rule, and street signs have been installed ordering parallel parking on Ann Arbor Trail between Penniman and Main. The trouble is that angle parking lines also are still in existence, and it is quite impossible to paint this time of year. The chief says no tickets will be given because of the angle parking—at least for the present, but he is urgently desirous that the public begin the parallel method of parking. The change was made in the interest of safety, he pointed out. He also pointed to the recommendation of the Detroit Auto club, which in a survey here, recommended that parallel parking be instituted on Penniman avenue. The recommendation is

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Holbrook and Hardinberg, Lynn B. Stout, pastor. Often, when parents are approached about sending their children to Bible school, or special children's meetings, they will reply: "I would rather wait until they are old enough to choose for themselves; I do not want to influence them in any way by sending them for religious training." We are always reminded by what Coleridge once said: "Why prejudice a garden in favor of flowers and fruit? Why not let the clouds choose for themselves between cockleburrs and strawberries?" Send your children to your neighborhood "Bible Club" and bring them to Sunday school. The Christmas party for the boys and girls of the Bible school will be this Saturday afternoon at the Grange hall from 2 to 5 p.m. The service on the Lord's day as follows: Morning worship, 10 a.m.; 1. Cor. Chapter 13. Bible school 11:30 a.m. The Christmas program will be given at the 7:30 hour. You are urged to attend. "Say a prayer for the boys over there."

Program to consist of recitations, music by the Junior choir and a play by the Fellowship group, "Christmas in a Cobbler's Shop." Monday, December 21, Unit No. 2 of the W.S.C.S. will meet with Mrs. Besse, 288 North Harvey, for the Christmas party. Thursday, December 24, Christmas mid-night service from 11 to 12:20. Program of carols, Christmas music, Holy Communion. The service will close with a service of lights. Plan to attend. December 25 is Rev. and Mrs. Sanders' twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. To celebrate this occasion there will be open house at the parsonage at 860 Church street, Sunday, December 27 from 3 o'clock to 10 o'clock. You are cordially invited. Gasoline Rationing! In these days of rubber conservation and gas rationing, a little gas will go a long way. It will take you all the way to church! And so the government states that gas used for the purpose of going to church is one of the most valid claims for its use. Freedom of worship is the essential right of Americans. And so every time you drive to church you can feel the thrill of being a free citizen in a free country which respects freedom of worship most of all.

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Forces?" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, December 20. The Golden Text (Acts 15:18) is: "Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Hebrews 11:3): "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 295): "God creates and governs the universe, including man. The universe is filled with spiritual ideas, which He evolves, and they are obedient to the Mind that makes them."

7 p.m. Christmas party and children's program, December 28, Monday night at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Francis Tetu, vicar. CHURCH OF GOD. Rev. L. D. Wright, pastor. Many of us have never made God a real partner in our daily affairs and when we come to an obstacle in the pathway of Christian living, we ask the question, why does God seem so far away? The remedy for this is to fit ourselves into God's plan rather than to try to fit God into ours. Now as never before we need to help make this a Christian nation, and this can only be accomplished through the combined effort of all. The Church of God urges every one to go to church somewhere that they might worship God and fit themselves into God's great plan. In these times . . . YOU NEED EVERYTHING YOU'VE GOT

TODAY in our country's life and death struggle against foreign villainy—we here on the home front of war production need every facility we've got—to win! Our armed forces—your sons and ours—looking to us for munitions, cry out in MacArthur's words—"We win or die."

We here need everything that will produce—and our gas facilities are among those things in this field of service that are the life blood of energy to war production industries. We here, and that includes you, need all of this—need men of skill to carry on the job, in action, as they have been for years, and must go on being. Even then, they may not yet be enough!

Our Commander-in-Chief, President Roosevelt, has called us all to duty—you and us. Our every resource is enlisted in the cause. These are times when we must protect and build up, not tear down or weaken, those resources which will keep our community and nation strong!—united to win. You need everything you've got . . . and then some!

ISN'T HE WORTH IT?

THIS message is written to you mothers—from your government. It concerns the most precious thing in all the world to you—your child. It asks you to help protect that child—from fear, from starvation, from death—the fate that has befallen millions of children under the rule of Nazi and Jap tyrants. It asks you to urge your husband to join the Payroll Savings Plan—the easy way to buy War Bonds that will furnish the ships and guns and tanks and planes so desperately needed to guard you and yours from the horrors of defeat. Or, if your husband is already buying War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—it asks you to urge him to buy more, to increase his savings to at least ten per cent of his salary or wages. Remember. Millions of your brothers, husbands, sons, friends are risking everything. You are asked to risk nothing. War Bonds are the World's Safest Investment. As you buy them through the Payroll Savings Plan—today, you are doing your part to help protect your child today! And at the same time setting up a savings fund to help bring up, educate, and develop that child—tomorrow. Talk it over with your husband tonight. And resolve to put at least ten per cent—not 6%, or 7%, or 8%—into War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. Do it for that child of yours. Isn't he worth it? WHAT YOU SHOULD DO If you are . . . 1. Already setting aside 10% of your pay in War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—boost that 10% if you can. 2. Working in a plant where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet—sign up tomorrow. 3. Working in a plant where the Payroll Savings Plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman or plant manager—and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help. 4. Unable to get in on the Payroll Savings Plan for any reason, go to your local bank or wherever bonds are sold. They will be glad to help you start a Plan of your own.

Paintings By Local Resident Are Now On Display

There will be a display of oil paintings by Opal Taylor of Plymouth from today until December 25th, at the Blunk and Thatcher Furniture store.

These paintings consist of the Main street of Plymouth, the city of Detroit, a Northville scene, and other places of interest.

Mrs. Taylor has studied art in the Pictorial Art Studios in Chicago and the St. James Lee Academy of Fine Arts, in Memphis, Tennessee.

Some of her paintings were purchased by the Art Museum in Memphis, Tennessee, the Little Rock, Arkansas Museum and the St. Louis Art Museum some years ago.

These exhibits were taken and painted from minut sketches of streets, country landscapes, crowds, negroes picking cotton in Arkansas, and the Florida coast. Mrs. Taylor is the wife of William Taylor who is working at the Kelsey-Hayes plant.

Mrs. Taylor's next painting will go to the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The man who for party forsakes righteousness goes down, and the armed battalions of God march over him.—Wendell Phillips.

I know that the Lord is always on the side of the right, but it is my constant anxiety and prayer that I and this nation should be on the Lord's side.—Abraham Lincoln.

A new group of WAAC members have assembled at Florida's famed Daytona Beach to undergo their basic training course. In ideal surroundings the WAACs are taught a variety of jobs and occupations that will help them serve the nation at war. Shown at left, one WAAC helps another to adjust and check head harness of the gas mask upon completion of drill. Center: Third Officer Jessie Hogan, who has learned to operate many types of motor transport vehicles, is now competent to teach WAAC trainees to do likewise. Right: Housekeeping is second nature to the WAACs. Mopping up the kitchen floor is done after every meal.

War Cuts Deeply Into Yule Jewel Business

He 'Passed,' Got Zero

Out in the Pacific, where zero is a passing mark, Sgt. V. W. Zekas of Wilkesbarre, Pa., is all smiles. He passed into ranks of "Jap slappers," knocking down the first Jap Zero he ever saw. Jap attacked bomber on which Sgt. Vincent was a gunner. Zero for zero!

The first official record since 1880 of redhead ducks nesting in Michigan was obtained this year at Sebawaing bay marshes when a waterfowl investigator for the department of conservation observed two redhead broods. These ducks use the deeper-water marshes, nesting on old muskrat houses and heaps of reeds, and as long as there is no sudden rise of the lake level to destroy such nesting places, it is believed the redheads may become quite common among the ducks nesting at Sebawaing.

Pathologist L. N. Allison of the conservation department's institute for fisheries research is investigating the mystifying mortality of great numbers of smelt near St. Ignace, where sea gulls have left the familiar fishermen's docks to feed on the windrows of dead fish along north shore beaches.

Power is so characteristically calm, that calmness in itself has the aspect of power, and forbearance implies strength.

HOW TO stretch WAR OUTPUT WITH LIGHT!

No matter how good a workman he may be, a man can only work as fast and as accurately as he can SEE. If machines and assembly lines are hidden in shadow, or if the light is so poor as to make seeing difficult, production is bound to be slowed up.

It takes TIME to see... and when you improve lighting, you make it possible for a man to see faster. With BETTER LIGHT, and swifter, surer vision, he can turn out more work—with fewer mistakes—and with far fewer accidents. Good light actually ADDS MINUTES to each man-hour, increases war production without adding men or machines.

Here's another scientific fact equally important to war workers. It takes energy to see, and the poorer the light, the more energy is required to do the same amount of work. If a man can't see easily, he tires faster. And a tired worker can't continue to be a top-notch producer.

Let us show you how to use LIGHT FOR PRODUCTION most effectively in your plant. Detroit Edison Industrial Lighting Advisors are at your service, without charge.

Weddings

HEINTZ-DUGUID

The Presbyterian church, in Northville, was the scene, Saturday evening, of the wedding of Lillian Heintz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heintz, of this city, and William J. Duguid, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Duguid, of Northville. The ceremony was performed in candlelight at 8:00 o'clock by the Rev. O. Harold Fredsall in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The altar was decorated with palms, white chrysanthemums, white gladiolus and pink snapdragons.

Mrs. Roland Morris, sister of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. G. B. Harrison of Plymouth.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin made with sweetheart neckline of lace trimmed in seed pearls, long sleeves with points over the hands and flowing skirt. Her fingertip veil was caught to a coronet of satin. White rosebuds and gardenias centered with a purple orchid, formed her bouquet. Later the orchid was worn by the bride as a corsage.

Miss Virginia Heintz attended her sister as maid-of-honor, wearing a gown of pink satin and chiffon. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds tied with matching satin ribbon.

Benjamin Duguid, of Northville, attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Harold Ferguson, of Ypsilanti, and Laurie Farmer, of Northville. The bride's mother was gowned in wine crepe with a gardenia corsage and Mrs. Duguid, the bridegroom's mother, wore soldier blue crepe with a gardenia corsage.

Seventy-five guests were present at the reception and buffet supper afterward in the church house.

Mr. and Mrs. Duguid left that evening for a few days' stay in Chicago. For traveling the bride wore a brown tweed suit with brown accessories. The couple plans to live in Plymouth.

SCHLIEF-DUNN

Miss Frances V. Dunn, daughter of Mrs. Leona Dunn of Salem and William F. Schlief, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Schlief of Ypsilanti, were united in marriage in Salem Federated church Saturday afternoon, December 12 at 2:30. The service was read by Rev. C. M. Pennell, pastor, in the presence of about 50 guests.

The bride wore a street-length frock of winter white wool and her corsage was of gardenias. Her bridesmaid, Miss Eva Mushlock, of Ypsilanti was gowned in blue with corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mr. Schlief was attended by William A. Evans of Ypsilanti. The mothers of the young couple wore blue and their shoulder bouquets were Enchantress carnations. Palms, cathedral candelabra holding ivory tapers with tall vases of bronze and yellow mums made an attractive setting for the bridal party. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Schlief received the congratulations of their friends in the church parlor where a buffet table was in readiness for refreshments which were served by Miss Mushlock and Miss Helen June Bennett.

The Christmas party held Monday in the home of Mrs. Manley Smith by members of Chapter A. L. P. E. O. was greatly enjoyed. A program of interest to all had been planned by Mrs. Paul Christensen after which tea was served from a table attractively decorated in keeping with the holiday season. Mrs. Smith made Christmas trees for favors and a handsome gift of novelty jewelry was on each tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon A. Olds, son, Duane; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everett, son Mark; Mr. and Mrs. George Hesse and Velma; Jett visited Pvt. Kenyon G. Olds at Fort Custer, Sunday.

Speaker To Tell Of Passion Play at Woman's Club Meeting

The Oberammergau Passion Play is to be presented to members of the Plymouth Women's club and their guests today (Friday) at 2 o'clock at Central grade school gymnasium. The traditional play will be told by Mrs. Belle McColl who has not only witnessed the production twice during her travels in the Holy Land, but who also personally knows Anton Lang, one of the players. In fact, she was a guest in his home and has had the privilege of entertaining Mr. Lang with others of his cast, in her Detroit home.

To club women in this area the name Belle McColl is a familiar one. For three years she was editor of The Detroit Club Woman, the official publication of the Detroit Federation of Women's clubs. She is also a past president of the Detroit New Century club. Many members will recognize her as a writer for the press and will welcome the opportunity of meeting this charming and very capable woman.

The program chairman for the meeting is Mrs. Edward Dobbs. Those assisting on her committee are Mrs. Russell Roe, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. T. L. Sanders, Mrs. Blanche Daniels, Mrs. Ada Murray, Mrs. Frank Nair, Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mrs. Garnett Baker and the associate member for the day, Mrs. Michael O'Connor.

A farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Everett last Thursday evening by Division No. 150 of Kelsey-Hayes, honoring Alfred Hoffman, an employe, who left for the service last Saturday.

High School Students Can Help

There are many ways in which we students can further the war effort such as performing neighborhood services or doing housework. In doing this, it is understood that these jobs will not involve purchasing of tools or material needed for the war effort, that they will be of real worth, and that they will not be dangerous.

Some of the numerous jobs boys can do are canvassing the blocks where they live, offering to empty ashes once a week at a fixed monthly price, or going around the neighborhood turning off water connections where needed, putting away tools, washing windows, cleaning cellars, and so on. It might help to get the job if the boy explains that any money earned would be put into war stamps.

Another way to earn money and help the war effort would be to talk with the various store managers and offer to run errands or make deliveries. This would be helping in two ways: First, by conserving the rubber of delivery trucks and second, by buying more defense stamps with the money earned.

For girls, those old enough to take care of children might arrange to stay with the neighbor's children one or two nights a week, permitting the parents a free night.

Or, two or three girls can make War Stamp corsages. They are simple and cheap to make, the material for one hundred costing $2.75, not counting the war stamps which cost $90.00 or altogether $92.75. Usually a corsage consists of nine ten-cent stamps and sells for one dollar, making a profit of $7.25 on one hundred. If any girl cares to obtain more information about these corsages, she should write to Harry Perlman, chairman, war stamp corsage committee, war savings staff, U. S. Treasury department, 105 West Adams street, Chicago, Illinois.

These are just a few of the many ways in which high school students can help. Every student ought to try to perform some task to earn money for war savings stamps and if any of you have other ideas to earn money, the Pilgrim Prints staff would be glad to hear about it.

Keeping Up With Plymouth

Last week was Remember Pearl Harbor week. On Monday, December 7, most of the kids in school were on the ball buying stamps and bonds. Why not make the Japs remember next week by buying many more?

Golly, did you hear about Eddie K. offering competition to Sherlock Holmes? Yep, it seems Ed turned detective when some 14 traps of his were lost. He got them all back though. Nice work, fella.

It seems Mazie pulled a couple of good ones in government class 't'other day. You see Prof. Latture asked her what third degree murder was, she said "I don't know, what is it?"

Then he questioned, "What's a joint committee?"

"It's a committee that investigates beer gardens and other joints."

There are five senior girls who have gone around together all the time since around the eighth grade. Now four of them go with four Bobs. I guess Dot, Sally Jean, Jan and Stu are planning to outcast the fifth.

Speaking of Bobs, Sally's Bob left for the air corps last Thursday. Don't worry, honey, we'll all see him soon. Good luck, Bob.

If girls in slacks could see their backs They'd say nerfs.

And put on skirts.

There have been several such sayings going around. However, if your slacks fit, you have the writer's permission to wear them on these cold, windy days.

Here is an orchid that should be given to Bill Upton and his swell direction of Mike's band. The boys were really hot Friday night. No one has to worry any longer about Mike's band going to the dogs.

Senior Sketches

Art Robinson, who moved to Plymouth two years ago from Utica, is a good-natured fellow, having no pet peeve. He is a member of the Hi-Y, and plays in the orchestra. Art's hobby is music. In the good old days before gas rationing, Art motored along the East coast. He has also traveled in upper Michigan and has visited Toronto and Niagara Falls. Art's full name is Arthur Elden Robinson. His parents' names are Ruth and Wilfrid Robinson who live at 364 Adams.

Thomas Eldon Roberts, son of Mrs. Jessie Roberts of 26619 Farmington road, lives at 1316 Sheridane avenue. Tom has been an apprentice all through high school, working at a hardware store. His apprentice course will help prepare him for his aim in life, to be a traveling hardware salesman. Tom's pet peeve is girls who wear short skirts. He has traveled in northern Michigan. His hobbies are sports and music.

Virgie Shetterloe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shetterloe, 39564 Ford road, lives with her aunt and uncle at 673 South Main street. She has attended school in Miami, Florida and in Walled Lake where she was on J-Hop and Junior play committees. At Plymouth she was on the Senior Prom decorations committee. Virgie has traveled as far as Key West, through the eastern and New England states, through northern Michigan and Canada. Her hobbies are horseback riding, skating and bowling. Virgie's aim in life is to be a successful career girl. Her pet peeve is conceited boys.

Harold Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Reilly, 11435 General Drive, has as his hobby a collection of minerals that some of us may have seen exhibited in school and around town. He was chairman of the Prom orchestra committee; member of the band; leading character in the junior play; the latest drum major; member of Pilgrim Prints staff; in stunt night activities; Hi-Y; and a member of the track team. Harold's aim in life is to be a top dance band drummer. His pet peeve is blondes who aren't punctual, and he added that this was no reflection on Dot Blunk.

People who wear slacks or anklets with high heels are the pet peeves of Beverly Eschels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Eschels Sr., of 5435 Gotsfredson road. Her accomplishments in school are home economics one year, Girl Reserves four years, and Senior Prom and annual committees. Collecting pictures and perfume bottles are her hobbies and her aim in life is secretarial work.

Betty Nagel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Nagel, lives at 11657 Russell street, Robinson subdivision. She came to Plymouth high school in her junior year from Northville and since then has been on the J-Hop and Prom committees, and in the chorus. She has traveled in Ohio, in Indiana, in Canada, and extensively in Michigan. She keeps scrap books and projects she has made in school. Betty plans to be a housewife some day. Talking behind another's back is her pet peeve.

People without common sense is the pet peeve of Bill Donovan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Donovan of 962 Hartsough street. In school he was on the freshman basketball and baseball teams. He has traveled throughout Michigan. His hobby is swimming and his aim in life is to graduate from high school.

Milton Humphries and Bette Wagenschutz, Bill Slater, formerly of Plymouth, and Gerry Dahmer saw "Somewhere I'll Find You" at the Penn Sunday.

Art Robinson, Nancy Baker, Noel Hoover, Louise Powell, Bill Brose, and Dorothy Blunk went to the show Saturday and then to Art's house and "raided the ice box."

Nutrition For National Defense

This is the fourth of the articles written by Home Making III students on phases of nutrition.

"How to Pack a Healthful Lunch Box."
(By Jane Scott)

Early last spring, Ronald A. Malony, sales manager of the Gas Light company, started a new project for housewives and home economic leaders, on the problem of what goes into a good lunch box. Thousands of men and women are working in defense plants and need plenty of healthy food to give them energy to carry on as our fighting boys do who are eating food that has been planned and cooked with the most care. Not only are housewives and young girls interested in this project, but civic organizations and churches have volunteered their services.

A survey was organized to gather data on actually what went into the lunch boxes of war production soldiers. Some 75 volunteers from the country to help are the backbone of the noon meal. Most war workers preferred a vacuum bottle of coffee while others preferred milk or some substitute. Sandwiches should be made with enriched bread or include a muffin, fresh vegetable, and have each item wrapped carefully in wax paper to keep its freshness. In paper cups, salads and puddings can easily be carried with fitted lids. While packing this lunch box drop in a raw carrot, dried figs or raisins for a mid-afternoon snack.

Women have organized several classes in which they listen to lectures given by speakers on nutrition and are shown how to pack a tight but neat box. Cooking classes have been started in some parts of the country to help housewives and mothers learn quick substitutes to put in vacuum bottles such as creamy soups with pieces of frankfurter slices in it, also tasty eggnog, chocolate milk shakes. Another favorite among men are baked apples, crunchy salads that are made man-sized. Not only do war workers like a tasty and inviting lunch but boys and girls welcome good lunches.

$1950 Worth Stamps Sold

On Monday, December 7, Mr. Latture set a goal of $2,000 for defense stamps and bonds to be sold in school. The students did not come very far from this: $1,950 worth of bonds and stamps were sold. Since there are around 1150 pupils in school, each person bought on an average of $1.70.

Pern Dipboye and Margaret Jean Nichol have been taking orders for bonds and stamps since the beginning of school in Mr. Latture's room first hour every Tuesday. According to their figures, an average week amounts to around $1000. This means that each person buys around 85 cents worth each week.

Odds and Ends

When someone in high school makes a remark to another student, it isn't unusual to hear him say in return, "You aren't just grinding your bicuspids."

Now that the time has come for the younger set to have their snowball fights, it is asked that they do such things in ten acres behind the school, not in front.

William Sigman and Donald Palsom, both of the class of '42 and Harold Nipper recently have been enlisted in the Marines and are now at the recruit training depot in San Diego where they are undergoing basic training.

Upon the completion of this training they will be able to select the particular type of training they are interested in, and if the boys meet the requirements, they will be sent to one of the Marines' 60 vocational schools.

Rosedale Gardens School News

The kindergarten children are making Christmas things and are working on a Christmas secret. They are also learning Christmas songs. A Christmas party will be held before Christmas vacation starts. Nearly all children can print their names.

The third and fourth grade room is being decorated for the Christmas season with carol singers, which have been drawn and posted on the bulletin board with Christmas pictures and candle posters. The children are studying about the various kinds of evergreen trees which are decorated at Christmas time. Sixteen hundred seals have been sold by the pupils with James Lester selling the largest number.

The second grade has a new pupil named Marilyn Bobier. The class made Christmas cards for the Junior Red Cross. They have been making Christmas gifts.

The following films were enjoyed by the room: Pueblo Indians A.B.C., Pottery Making and Health films. They have been singing Christmas carols and have been reading Christmas stories. They sold $8.00 worth of Christmas seals and they purchased $8.35 worth of defense stamps this week.

The first graders were guests of the second grade to enjoy some of the movie films. The class has painted jars for Junior Red Cross service. They have also made pottery for their parents' gift. The rhythm band is playing "Jingle Bells." The board is decorated with a Santa Claus and cut-paper snow men. The class has sent into Red Cross house several stuffed stockings cats.

The fifth grade has been making Christmas wrapping paper. They are also making cartoon books for the Junior Red Cross.

Plans are being made in the sixth grade room for a Christmas party. A program in honor of Pearl Harbor was held December 7. The class brought in several model airplanes of the United States. They also brought in reports, essays and pictures from magazines.

The Camera Club of seventh grade room met Friday during the last study period and watched a demonstration given by the teacher on developing a personal Christmas card. The children's prize prints were also submitted to be judged for the semi-monthly enlargement, which is given for the best entry. The C.J.C. of the room has exchanged names for its Christmas party. The gift will not exceed 25 cents. Another feature at the party will be a deciduous tree decorated instead of an evergreen. The side having purchased the most defense stamps by this week will entertain the losing side at the Christmas party. The girls are ahead to date. It looks very much as though the boys will give the girls a party. The total amount that has been collected for four Wednesdays is $48.25. The class wrote letters to soldiers overseas, enclosed sticks of gum from their Junior Red Cross gum pool. The letters are on their way to Africa, Australia, Hawaii, Alaska and England.

The eighth grade room shows the spirit of Christmas with poinsettias, candles and friezes made in art class. Some members of the class have been decorating the windows with Christmas cheer. The class has been wrestling for the past two weeks with the conjugation of verbs in English class.

The penny milk sale at the school has been a great success. Over 200 children pay for it. The school has sold over 1000 Christmas seals.

The P.T.A. has rented several movie films to be shown the children in their classes throughout the year. Several films were shown throughout the building last week.

Mrs. Cunningham, the Junior Red Cross advisor met with the teachers Friday during the noon period to decide on school time being used for Junior Red Cross projects. Each room is to spend at least one-half hour throughout the week on the work. Junior Red Cross emblems are available for 25 cents each. They are to be sewed on a sweater or coat sleeve to show the child's membership and service he is rendering.

Senator Nowak Jailed By FBI

Canton Voters Had "His Number"

It appears that the Democratic voters of Canton township had Senator Stanley Nowak's "number" before the FBI uncovered it.

Nowak, alias Nowakowski, alias Nowaski or what have you, has been jailed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation upon charges of falsifying about his naturalization papers. He is now out on bail and declares that he is being "persecuted" by the department of justice because of his politics.

But apparently the Democrats of Canton township, which is a part of the sensational district that has elected him to the state legislature, haven't had a very high regard for his partyism.

In the last election he had but 23 votes in the township. Democrats cutting him to vote for an unknown Republican candidate.

Recently Nowak, who came to this country from interior Europe and has been associated with radical elements in Chicago and Detroit, has been instigating labor troubles in this part of Wayne county. He is a union organizer, but as far as anyone knows, has never worked in his life.

THE HOME FRONT IN MICHIGAN *

Estimates of Uncle Sam's production of combat armament in 1942 assure Mr. and Mrs. Michigan that any trouble and inconvenience caused by cutting of civilian goods and services will be rewarded. By the end of 1943 the United States, alone, will produce almost as great a volume of fighting weapons as all the rest of the world combined. The United Nations already are producing twice as much as the Axis.

A greater war effort will mean less food and consumer items in coming months—but those items that are available will be distributed as evenly and fairly as possible. After the first of the year the new "point" system of rationing will start for rationing certain commodities not yet announced. The system will not replace straight coupon rationing of sugar, gasoline and coffee. It will be used only for groups of related or similar commodities.

Santa Claus—and all the kids in Michigan—got a break the other day when three governmental agencies ruled that no restrictions will be imposed this year upon the production, distribution and sale of Christmas trees. But the kids, and their mothers and fathers, will have to do without chocolate Santa Clauses, St. Valentine's hearts, Easter bunnies and eggs and other chocolate novelties. The War Production Board is prohibiting their manufacture after December 15 because of the shortage of imported cocoa beans from which chocolate is made.

By the way, if you can't always buy your favorite candy bar, it's because soldiers need candy when they go to war. The soldiers' "extreme emergency" food package, Ration D, for example, contains hard chocolate and sugar—lots of body fuel, little bulk.

Everybody soon will have to stretch their chewing gum a little farther. Chewing gum chewers must cut down about 130 sticks per year because the boys in serried when in civilian life and the sugar shortage has prevented an increase in output. However, the available supply is almost what it was in 1941—an all-time record year for gum chewers.

The Michigan fishing industry must exert every effort to increase current and future production in spite of all dislocations caused by the war, according to Harold L. Ickes, Secretary of the Interior and Coordinator of Fisheries. He explains there is now a vital need for every possible pound of fresh, frozen, canned and otherwise preserved fishery product.

Farmers and other Michigan commercial motor vehicle operators whose Office of Defense Transportation certificates of war necessity do not provide enough gasoline for essential operations will be given sufficient gasoline to meet their needs through January 31, pending the issuance of corrected certificates.

Winter Arrives Ahead of Time

Jumps The Gun By Nearly 30 Days

It looks—and feels—very much as though winter had arrived way ahead of time.

The schedule for its appearance is next Tuesday, December 22 at 12 bells.

But it has been here for nearly four weeks—with all of the ice, snow and blizzard weather that generally does not come until the last of December or first of January.

Last week-end found the city streets and country highways as slippery as they have been in any previous winter, except possibly after some exceptionally severe sleet storm.

While few accidents were reported, some cars were damaged when drivers did not use proper precautions in taking icy turns. The slower speeds and reduced traffic, say officers, had much to do with the reduction in the number of accidents.

Twice last week the mercury dropped within nine above zero and remained below freezing most of the time for several days.

War workers are advised to make Christmas day a holiday, if possible, because there have been no other full holidays in war production since the fight for freedom began. However, the WPB has announced that war factories would be expected to observe normal working schedules on New Year's Day.

DOTS AND DASHES: Men in the U. S. armed forces abroad can now send gifts or souvenirs to the value of $50 back home duty free . . . only about half of the excess tires motorists are turning in are usable or can be made serviceable by repairs and recappings . . . 3,500,000 volunteers are now doing Red Cross work . . . heavy cream has been made available for persons on special diets and for hospitals . . . our boys in Africa have the help of tens of thousands of among the most feared and effective soldiers of modern warfare—the dreaded Senegalese who come from the land of battling Siki in French West Africa . . . wartime burdens on transportation and on the postal service make it more necessary than ever that you do your Christmas mailing early . . . more coal and wood-burning stoves are being made available for those who want to change over from fuel oil heating equipment.

Fall Terms of Night School Is Ended

Following the close of a highly successful fall term of the night school, held at the high school building, Principal Claude J. Dykhouse has announced preliminary plans for a second term to open January 4.

Mr. Dykhouse said he had not completed the curriculum, but that they would be similar to that of the first term.

In the fall night school, classes were taught in clothing and tailoring, shorthand and typing, and machine shop work including blueprint reading.

Draws Close Their Popular Roadside Stand

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Drews who have conducted a roadside stand on Plymouth road for many years, have recently closed it and moved to a farm near Sidney in Montcalm county.

Mrs. Drews, who was in Plymouth last week closing up several business matters, stated that they regretted greatly to leave their many friends in this locality. They expressed their appreciation for all of the numerous courtesies that had been extended them during the 15 years they have operated their roadside stand, which has been one of the popular places of its kind around here.

Victory Notes

The Red Cross room will be closed for sewing and knitting from Friday, December 18, until Monday, January 4, according to the Red Cross chairman, Mrs. John Blickenstaff. Mrs. Blickenstaff represented Plymouth at a Wayne County Red Cross meeting in Detroit Monday afternoon.

A new class in First Aid started Wednesday evening, December 16, at 7 o'clock at the City Hall with Mr. Wallace W. Laury as the instructor. The class is open to both men and women and is an opportunity for air wardens, auxiliary police and auxiliary firemen to qualify for their certificate. This is the sixth class that Mr. Laury has taught for Plymouth.

The siren will give the air raid warning signal (a higher, much more sustained sound than the fire signal) Saturday noon, December 19, and Saturday noon, December 26. Coordinator Clarence Elliott hopes to test our siren simultaneously with two other whistles.

Wanted, 50 more fire watchers to complete our organization. Both men and women are eligible for this work and a short course will be given for them in January with Mrs. Russel Powell as the instructor.

Wanted, 30 more auxiliary firemen, according to fire chief Fred Wagenschutz. Police chief Charles Thumme states that he has his full quota of 80 auxiliary policemen but we need fire watchers and auxiliary fire men badly.

The newly organized Plymouth Consumers' Council was called to its first meeting Monday afternoon, December 14, at the City Hall. The speakers were Samuel Jacobs of the regional OPA office in Detroit. The purpose of the council is three-fold: to collect information on consumers problems, to distribute that information to the people of the city and township and to receive consumers complaints.

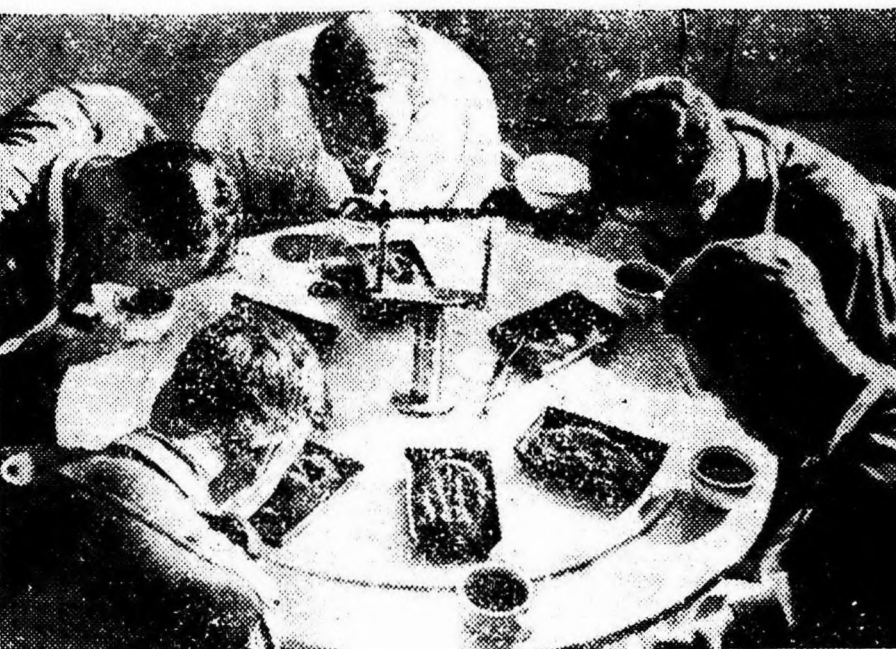

The Plymouth Defense Council held its regular meeting Monday afternoon, December 14, at the City Hall with chairman Ruth Whipple, secretary Arno Thompson, Mary Strassen, Veda Blickenstaff, Beatrice Schultz, Clarence Elliott, Charles Thumme, Dr. Luther Peck, and Fred Wagenschutz present. There were reports on the day care of children, coveralls for the nurses of the medical unit, and on the air warden training course given at the O.C.D. district office last week.

Mayor Ruth Whipple represented Plymouth at a meeting of the Wayne County Defense Council in Detroit Tuesday, December 15.

The next Plymouth Defense Council meeting will be Tuesday, January 5 at 4:30 at the City Hall.

Although only four percent of Eastern householders with fuel oil furnaces have switched to coal, about 2,850,000 barrels of light fuel oil will be saved. Conversion by 50 percent of fuel users would save 36 million barrels.

Army Coffee Rationing Helps Civilians

More than a year ago the army quartermaster corps took steps to ration coffee. As the table top rotates, the army officers sniff and taste each sample of coffee, at the quartermaster depot, in Chicago, where 48,000 pounds of coffee is roasted daily.

This Is Now Land Of $20 Bills

No One Has "Small" Money — All Big Bills

"This certainly has become the land of $20 bills," declared a Plymouth merchant yesterday as he hunted about his cash till to find change for a customer who had made a five-cent purchase.

"Have been in business for more than 30 years, and in all of those years, I have never seen so many $20 bills as have floated over my counter in recent weeks.

"Both men and women come in here, and no matter how little or how big their purchases might be, they generally hand you a $20 bill to pay for what they have bought. It was just a few months ago when these same people came in and generally handed you a quarter or half dollar for the five- or ten-cent purchase they had made, but now it is nothing less than a $20 bill.

"I guess there is no question but what this part of the world has become the land of $20 bills."

Power without justice is soon questioned. Justice and power must therefore be brought together, so that whatever is just may be powerful, and whatever is powerful may be just.—Pascal.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME this Christmas Day!

Home is a long way from our men fighting in the jungles of Guadalcanal and the sands of Tunisia—yet not too far for thoughts and hopes to travel on Christmas Day. But millions of other young men in uniform are closer to the ones they love and the places they want to be—near enough for fleeting visits home before they are called to far battlefields. Men on leave deserve first call on transportation—and get it. But because gasoline rationing for private motor cars has added so greatly to the civilian need for Greyhound service, the cooperation of every traveler is more important now than ever before. You will find it more comfortable to take your trip before the heaviest Holiday rush—and to return after it's over. Voluntarily saving a bus seat for a soldier or sailor the week before Christmas—that's the American way. At the same time, you'll be aiding the buses to carry as many as possible of those who have reason to travel—both military and civilian. To help our boys get home, many of us can easily stay home during the Christmas rush season!

A few suggestions for wartime travel: go on mid-week days whenever possible—avoid holidays and rush periods—take less baggage than usual—get tickets and information in advance.

Boys Leave For Camp in Whirl Of Flying Snow

Youngsters seem anxious to be on the way to aid Uncle Sam. It was not one of those cheery days when the last group of Plymouth soldier boys left a few days ago for Fort Custer to begin their training for army life. A heavy, wet snow was falling. Clouds were low—and the afternoon was dark.

The rattle of machine guns being tested out at the Kelsey-Hayes machine gun factory could be heard plainly when the band was not playing as the boys marched from the induction center to the Pere Marquette depot. The cold air somewhat chilled the excellent playing of the Plymouth high school band as it paraded down the street ahead of the

Old Friends Do Not Forget

Harry C. Robinson Has Proof of it

Harry C. Robinson is sure now that old friends do not forget. The other day while he was getting ready to go down to Detroit to sell newspapers with the old newsboys of that city, he opened his mail to find a letter from Edward F. Bush of Detroit.

It contained a substantial check for a newspaper. "I'm not in the best of health and I will not be able to get down town to buy a paper from you as I have for so many years, so I am mailing my check to you," wrote Mr. Bush to the well known Plymouth auctioneer.

Some 50 years or more ago Mr. Bush was a traveling salesman. While covering this territory, he always hired a livery rig from Mr. Robinson—and from those days to this, the two have always been close friends. Mr. Bush has been one of the substantial business leaders of Detroit for more than a quarter of a century.

Haircuts, Permanents And Tobacco Costs Farmers $42 Per Year

Michigan's unmatched variety in agricultural production matches the variety of ways in which typical farm families spend and budget the cash necessary to operate households.

Proof of that has been found in a survey conducted by Julia Pond, specialist in home management at Michigan State college. Expenses total 69 per cent for the "big four" farm family accounts. Food averages 25 per cent, the car 16 per cent, household operation 15 per cent and family clothing 13 per cent. That leaves 31 per cent for education and recreation, personal, medical, gifts and contributions and furnishings and equipment.

Typical of the variation is found in electric bills which range from $10.50 to $102.93 depending on the amount of equipment. Twenty-four of 25 families surveyed had high line service.

The least spent for food was $70 and the most was $606. Lowest and highest in household operation ran from $27 to $264. Clothing averaged $109 from the lowest of $30 to the highest of $340. Haircuts, permanent waves, tobacco and other personal allowances ranged from one family spending $1.50 in a year to another that had a total of $334. The average was $42.

One family spent $1.15 for soap and made the rest. The average family's soap bill was $8 for a year.

Farm contributions to family living averaged $562 in food, housing and fuel. Total cash living expenses were $866, which made the year's annual farm family living average $1423 when farm food, fuel and housing was included.

"One farm family cannot spend on another farm family's pattern," concludes Miss Pond, "because the purpose in studying farm home accounts is to help each family get what the family wants from its money."

Thieves Break Into Down-Town Gas Station Friday Night

The Standard Oil filling station at Main street and the Ann Arbor Trail was entered by would-be thieves December 11, but they failed to get any money, even after breaking into the automatic cigarette machine.

Police Chief Charles Thumme, who obtained a complete set of fingerprints from the cigarette machine, said he was convinced boys had done the breaking.

Public Speaking Big War Factor

James Latture Talks to Rotarians

James E. Latture, instructor of speech in the Plymouth high school told the Rotary club at its meeting Friday, December 11 that speaking is one of the most important factors in the war effort.

He explained that the world is now witnessing the greatest oratorical contest in history with the three greatest public speakers of the day—Roosevelt, Churchill and Hitler—the contestants. The object, he said, is to see which speaker can move his people to the greatest degree.

Mr. Latture continued: "Hitler's basic speech psychology consists of two main principles. First he makes his audiences mob minded. He is a master at following age old tricks to get crowds packed into small places, singing together, reciting together.

Chief Thumme Fumes At Mothers

Warns Parents Who Leave Babies in Cars

While you couldn't exactly report that Police Chief Charles J. Thumme was fuming mad, he was—well, let us say paternally irked.

Perhaps he was even perturbed. But he was irked and perturbed in a friendly sort of way. But his righteous indignation was not exactly hidden beneath his urbane smile.

Cause of Police Chief Thumme's trouble were parents. Not all parents, mind you, but the parents of those children who have been found wandering from the spot where the parents left them.

Without mentioning names, Police Chief Thumme discussed some of the incidents.

There was the case of a five-year-old boy, who was brought into the police station a couple of weeks ago. No one claimed him, and the police station, no matter how refined, is hardly the place for a five-year-old to while away his leisure hours.

So Mrs. Thumme became fairly God-mother to the lad and kept him most of the afternoon until the parents showed up to claim him.

Then late one afternoon, a frantic mother appeared at police headquarters hunting a missing three-year-old daughter. The girl had been left in the family automobile while the mother went shopping. When the mother returned the child was gone. The infant had been wandering about the city for an hour, Thumme said before she was picked up and returned to her parents.

And then last Saturday night, passersby and the police were attracted to a locked automobile, in the rear seat of which a baby was crying.

The police quickly learned the identity of the parents, but for sometime couldn't find them. Like the mother of the little girl, they were shopping. But the baby was hardly old enough to know that—even if she did know it—that making a fuss wouldn't help.

The point Police Chief Thumme was attempting to make was that the police are friendly.

"We are the best friends the people have," Thumme said, "but people ought to know better than to leave their children—even to go shopping.

"There are several reasons why. First, there is the matter of kidnapping. We never know when one of the children will be taken. It has been only a short time since a childless woman in Wisconsin took a baby she found on the street, and her only interest was in having a child. She certainly was not a criminal.

"On cold nights such as these, babies, especially infants, are apt to be frozen to death, or to wiggle about in their covers to such an extent that they will smother."

"And it is unkind on the part of the parents to leave their children like that. They should be arrested and charged with child neglect.

"We, of course, want to help all we can, but we can't do it all. We are friendly, but the children must be taken care of."

The chief said about one such case a week comes to the attention of the police. While most such cases are the result of children being left in the automobiles while other members of the family shop, some children have been left in cars while the parents patronized beer gardens.

Traffic Light To Be Installed Soon At Mill and Plymouth

City Manager Clarence Elliott announced Monday that a new traffic light will be installed by the county highway commission at Mill and Plymouth roads. The city will pay half of the cost of operation.

The fact that the corner is busy from the Kelsey-Hayes traffic, and is an important school crossing prompted the highway department to install the light.

English Flyers Visit Plymouth

Young Men on Way Home to Join R.A.F.

Proudly displaying golden wing badges presented to them by the government of the United States for their efficiency and accomplishments while taking courses in military flying in this country, James Waugh of Darlington, county of Durham, England, and Charles Wykes, of London, youthful relative of the Charles Robinsons, 810 Forest avenue, Plymouth, have been spending a few days in this city before returning to their native land.

The young men were sent to America about a year ago to secure advanced instruction in army flying. They have been stationed at various fields throughout the East and South and upon the completion of their exceptional work at Pensacola, Florida, the government made its highly prized presentation to the young men.

They are anxious to get back to England and get into real service with the Royal Air Force, of which they will become immediate members.

Their reasons are good ones, too, because the home of one of the boys in London was destroyed by German bombers and they have lost many relatives in air raids.

They like America very much and the way they have been treated by Americans, they declared just before they left.

"But we've got a job to do back home," the youngsters declared almost in unison.

Mr. Robinson took the boys down to one of the bowling alleys one evening where they saw their first bowling games. Charles Wykes, in playing his first game, struck, something that a lot of beginners, do not often do.

Wives, Sweethearts Of Soldiers, Sailors Form New Club

There's another new club in Plymouth. It's the W.A.I.T. club, organized among the sweethearts and wives of young men who have gone to the army and navy. The organizers of the club are Miss Margaret Allen and Miss Rosemary Lueke.

The object of the new club, which will meet every Thursday night, is to write a group letter to the husband or sweetheart of each member in the service, to send gifts and packages and to enter into general war activities at home which will help the young men in uniform.

Any young woman who has a husband or sweetheart in service can join by calling either Miss Allen at phone 151-W or Miss Lueke at phone 452.

Restriction of the production of safety razors, razor blades and straight razors will save upwards of 800 tons of high grade steel.

World Publicity For WCT School

Dr. Robert Haskell Praised For Work

In every country in the world where Rotary clubs exist—and the number exceeds a half hundred—hundreds of thousands of Rotarians now know about Dr. Robert Haskell's accomplishments in the education of mentally deficient children, and the Wayne County Training school.

The laudatory article, which appeared in the September issue of the Rotary magazine, published in English, was reprinted in Spanish in the November issue of Revista Rotaria, the edition of the Rotary magazine which goes to all parts of the world where the English language is not spoken.

Probably no other American institution has ever received such world-wide publicity as has been given the Wayne County Training school and Dr. Haskell by this publication.

Two prominent foreign visitors were also recent visitors at the school.

Dr. Chuh Sung of the National Medical college of Chungking, China, who spent last year at Harvard and is at the University of Michigan this year, was a recent visitor at the Training school. Upon his return home he is to head up the Chinese National government bureau on material health and child welfare.

The other visitor was Dr. Oscar Correa of the National hospital at Santiago, Chile, who was a member of the party of prominent officials of that country, touring America.

Both of these visitors spent the greater part of the day they visited the Training school in a most careful study of the institution and its work.

Farm and Garden Club Hold Christmas Tea

About 25 members of the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association met Monday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. George M. Chute for its Christmas meeting and tea.

Following the business meeting presided over by the vice-president, Mrs. R. R. Lindsay, the ladies were invited by Mrs. J. Merle Bennett, program chairman, to the dining room where a lovely arrangement of fruits, greens and ornamental Christmas trees had been placed on the buffet and to the recreation room where table settings were arranged in keeping with the holiday season. The tea table was lovely with its holiday appointments having a centerpiece of greens, silver sticks and red carnations in a low crystal bowl. Silver dogs lying in a bed of pine completed the arrangement. Mrs. Paul Wiedman, organizer of the group, presided at the tea table.

The January meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. O. F. Beyer. This will be the annual meeting with election of officers. The nominating committee is composed of Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. Frank Dunn and Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

Asks Farmers To Share Their Meat

State College Tells What To Do

Even a farmer with fat stock and equipment and knowledge for home butchering should remember to share American meat supplies with the Army, Navy and our less fortunate Allies.

That is the answer to puzzled Michigan farmers who are appealing to George A. Brown, head of the animal husbandry department at Michigan State college.

"A farmer who has produced his own meat in the past and understands its curing and preservation should go ahead as usual this year. This home process saves transportation of live animals and a return trip with the meat and reduces a farmer's food costs. Even this farmer should confine his consumption to the amount allowed the rest of the consuming public," suggests Professor Brown.

Other farmers wonder if they are permitted to dress out meat animals for sale to the public. Consumers are seeking out such extra sources of meat.

"It is not advisable for the farmer who did not market his animals in this way last year to start doing it this year," the college authority comments. "Such action would defeat the purpose of the restrictions and regulations which have been placed upon packers."

"The farmer who did sell his animals after butchering last year should keep within the spirit of the regulations and not sell more than 70 per cent as much dressed out beef as he did last year, and not more than 75 per cent as many dressed hogs. In this way the average American can share the meat supplies and yet permit shipping an adequate supply to our armed forces and to our Allies."

Amaze Crowd at Riverside Rink

More than 200 roller skating enthusiasts applauded the exhibition skating at the Riverside roller rink Wednesday night, when Walter Brickmeyer and Jane White, both national champions, made a surprise appearance. Mr. Brickmeyer is national novice men's figure champion and Miss White is national senior ladies' figure champion. Both are from Mineola, Long Island, New York.

L. E. and C. H. LaMay, operators of the rink, said they expected to continue operation for the duration despite the rationing of gasoline.

They pointed out that many Plymouth youngsters already have made names for themselves as the result of their efforts at the Riverside rink, and they said the nearness of the rink to Plymouth makes it an ideal recreation center.

"Drinking of any type of liquor is not permitted at the rink, and anyone who has been drinking is not permitted on the floor."

"If we can stay here for the duration," said Messrs. LaMay, "we intend the construction of one of the finest roller rinks in the world."

Included on the calendar of events at the rink during the winter is at least one revue, they said. The date of the revue has not been set.

THE TOYS OF YESTERDAY

It's hard to throw their toys away,
 Despite the fact they're broken.
 They take me back to Yesterday—
 Each one a battered token
 Of childhood fun upon the floor,
 With Little Sis and Brother—
 When he was nine, and she was four—
 Glad days for me and Mother!

The dolls, the trains—with which they played—
 The little chair and table,
 Long in the attic dust have laid—
 Still prized by me and Mabel.
 We ought to throw the stuff aside—
 Instead of holding to it,
 And I to do that thing have tried,
 But somehow, I can't do it!

MORE ADVANCEMENT FOR MARVIN J. CRIGER
 On a card to The Plymouth Mail, Marvin J. Criger, well-known Plymouth lad who joined up with the flying forces of the army sometime ago, advises that he has been transferred from the Pacific coast to Uncle Sam's Advanced Navigation school at Hondo, Texas. "I know you are all busy, so are we. It's mighty generous of you to be sending The Mail to the boys in service, but I want you to know that we certainly appreciate it," he writes.

OCEAN SO ROUGH, BOYS ATE THANKSGIVING DINNER STANDING UP
 George Ostrowski, former employe of the Mayflower hotel and now a cook on a U.S. Coast Guard boat patrolling the Atlantic and Gulf coast lines, in a letter to The Plymouth Mail, declares that the boys on the boat to which he was assigned, enjoyed "hastily made sandwiches" for their Thanksgiving dinner, and ate them while they stood up, so rough was the ocean that day.

"We couldn't even boil a pot of coffee," he writes.

"I suppose my friends in Plymouth will want to know something about what I am doing. Well, I will tell you as far as I am permitted. You know I joined the Coast Guard. It is the oldest branch of military service we have. It was organized in 1790. Its duties in peace time consists mostly in rescue work along the coasts as well as running down bootleggers. But rescue work has been the chief feature of their work in past years. They control all ports and tend the buoys that are set to protect shipping.

"Now that we are at war, the duties of the Coast Guard have increased a great deal and we work under orders of the Navy in protecting the shore lines of our country.

"One nice thing about it, everybody who joins the coast guard has a chance to specialize in some sort of a job. Mine happens to be that of the ship's cook. A cook on ship is a pretty important person in this man's navy, especially when the boys are hungry—and they are hungry most of the time. But what cats we get!

"I'm on a 40-foot boat that was formerly a pleasure yacht. The Coast Guard has taken over many of these boats that belonged to people living along the oceans and Great Lakes.

"We go out on patrol for three days at a stretch. Sometimes it's really hell out there in those big waves in the small boats—and our headache is old Mother Nature. She sure can kick up that water. But it's amazing the punishment these little boats can take.

"We had a very rough Thanksgiving this year. We were out at sea that day and ran into a 40-mile an hour gale, that did everything except sink us. Hastily made sandwiches made up our Thanksgiving dinner. It was certainly miserable weather that day, nevertheless we are thankful that we came out of it without any injuries, other than some bruises received when we skidded about on the rolling boat. No matter how bad things are, they can always be worse—and there's a great deal of consolation in that thought.

"Give my regards to The Plymouth Mail force, my old friends down at the hotel and around town."

FOUR MORE PLYMOUTH BOYS AT GREAT LAKES
 Four more Plymouth boys have entered the U. S. Naval Training station at Great Lakes and are now preparing to become Blue-jackets for Uncle Sam. They are: Gerald Louis Shoemaker, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shoemaker, 1225 Sheridan avenue; Emmett Raymond Kearney, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kearney, 150 Mill street; Gerald Orle Defoe, 21, son of Mrs. Margaret Defoe, 12204 Beech road; Marvin Walter Kleinschmidt, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Kleinschmidt, 14680 Starkweather road.

Corporal John Mauk Jr., of Camp Forrest, Tennessee, who has been home on a furlough, has returned to Tennessee. While here he spent a busy time visiting with relatives and friends, who regretted that he could not remain longer with them.

Roger Babson Says . . .

There Is Still Opportunity To Make Money In Stocks

Wilmington, Delaware, December 18—In the year that has passed since Pearl Harbor we have seen the lowest volume of stock market trading since 1914. It amounted to only 108,863,000 shares. This is 22 percent under the corresponding period of a year ago. During the past year rail averages went up about 0.32 while industrials were down approximately 7.39. And this during a period when London, Berlin and Amsterdam markets moved consistently upward under a heavy volume of buying.

It, therefore, may not be possible to obtain many good stocks during the coming twelve months at prices which have prevailed during the past twelve months. A preponderance of bad news, Government financing, tax uncertainties, the normal shocks and mental stagnation of war have all had their effects on the stock market. Even though the belief has been current, that in view of inflation, equities are better to hold than cash, there has been but little buying for hedging.

Lack of ready cash by well-to-do investors has also helped to slow down market activity. Except in a real stock market boom, such as in 1928 and 1929, the public has never participated much in the purchase of listed securities. Usually this group get in during the last few months of a sustained rise. They contribute little except "small change" to rising volume and prices.

Wealthy individuals, estates, insurance companies and institutions—formerly heavy buyers of securities—are now obliged to use their available funds for income taxes and the purchase of government bonds. Hence, these groups are no longer an important factor in the stock market.

For nearly all types of businesses represented by New York Stock Exchange issues, volume has been at record heights. Amusement, copper, steel, utility, rubber, airplane, and mail order companies have all enjoyed an extremely heavy gross business. Furthermore, in spite of allowances for high excess corporation taxes, dividends have been generous with many companies declaring year-end extras. However, aggregate dividends for 1942 will not be as large as they were in 1941. Unlike the case in recent past years, a fair share of regular dividends and most of the extra dividends will not go back into the market for the purchase of additional shares.

In all probability many companies have passed, or are passing, their peak volume of business for the war period. Necessary capacities for war production are nearly, if not entirely, reached. If and when some critical materials are released or higher priorities are available to certain concerns, as in the case of rail equip-

FROM SNOW BANKS TO BLOOMING FLOWERS

Private John Nelson who for years and years has been one of the "standbys" in the mechanical department of The Plymouth Mail, inducted back into service two weeks ago after once having been discharged from the army is now down at Camp Wolters, Texas—and how he is enjoying the flowers and warm weather of that interesting state!

In his first letter to The Plymouth Mail after leaving Fort Custer just after Michigan's first real snow storm of the winter, Private John says they landed at Camp Wolters early one morning to find, much to their surprise, that flowers were in bloom, the grass nice and green and the weather warm.

"It was raining when we arrived, but it soon cleared up and we certainly do enjoy the sunshine. This is sure a big camp and covers a lot of ground. There were about 300 men who came down here from Michigan and we were all glad to find the weather so nice. The fellows in charge of this camp are sure swell and they treat us mighty fine," writes John.
