$2.00 Per Year in Advance

Employees of School District Get Pay Raise

Grant of Wage Increase Will Benefit Many

All employees of the Plymouth board of education have received a boost in wages equal to ten percent of their basic salary.

The wage boost was approved by a resolution of the board which met Monday night. It said:

"That all employees of the board of education, except the superintendent of schools, at his request, and the superintendent's secretary, who is just starting employment, are granted a ten percent increase over their basic salary, $1200, making an addition of $120 per full-time employe for the school year 1942-43. This is a cost of living addition and is separate and apart from the regularly scheduled salary."

Superintendent of schools, George Smith explained that the resolution provided for an increase based on the basic salary, because that is the only portion of a teacher's salary which is based on the cost of living.

Under the rules adopted by the board of education, a teacher with a bachelor of arts degree is employed at a salary computed on three principles: cost of living, length of tenure and extent of education.

Under this system, a teacher with an A.B. degree receives a basic salary of $1200 a year for cost of living, to which is added salary based on length of experience, and another addition based on whether he has a part of a master's degree, or the entire degree.

The increase in wages will mean an increase in the city school budget of about $10,000 a year. Mr. Smith said, but added that on the basis of a supreme court decision handed down January 5, the Plymouth school district will receive about $8,000 additional finances from the state under the state aid plan.

The increase means a boost of between three and nine percent in the checks of the teachers, with an average of about five percent, Mr. Smith said.

Also at the meeting last night, the board took steps to insure, insofar as possible, employment after the war of those employes who have enlisted or who have been called into active army service.

The resolution as adopted provided that "all persons entering military service from Plymouth public schools, either by enlistment or draft, will, upon their return from such service, be given first consideration by the board of education for re-employment in the position which they left or some other position in the school system, provided that upon their return they are physically and mentally competent to enter such employment."

More Rules and Regulations

Lumber Dealers Seek Interpretation

This is a world of interpretations of rulings.

Thus when a new ruling on repairs and construction in one's home comes along, it is news.

At least that is the opinion of Russel Roe of the Roe Lumber company.

Now interpretations are based on queries by the Mountains States Lumber Dealers association, at Denver, Colorado.

In effect, the interpretations declare that a property owner who spent $200 on repair or construction of his property in the year prior to September 7, 1942, may spend an additional $200 on repair or construction prior to Sept. 7, 1943.

In the case of a farmer, if he spent up to $1,000 on repair or construction prior to Sept. 7, 1942, he may spend up to $1,000 for the same purpose prior to Sept. 7, 1943.

Mayor to Address Members of D.A.R.

The annual birthday luncheon of the Sarah Ann chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, will be held in the Presbyterian church on Monday, January 18 at 12:30 o'clock. The speaker will be Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple, her subject, "Famous Women." The double quartette of the high school will furnish special music. Hostesses will be Mesdames Henry Baker, Earl Mastick and Allen Buckley of Northville.

Private Gerald Shelters who has been visiting in Plymouth, has returned to his army duties in Long Beach, California.

Directs Salvation Army Revival

What promises to be one of the most successful revivals ever conducted by the Plymouth Salvation Army is now under way in this city. According to Adjutant Helen Arnold, the meetings which began in the Army hall on Union street on Wednesday evening have attracted much attention and are largely attended.

ENVOY ERNEST HEWLETT.

Envoys Ernest Hewlett, widely known in Salvation Army circles as "Hallelujah" Hewlett, is a forceful and effective speaker. He is a former bricklayer and is associated with the Salvation Army at Windsor, Ontario.

The general public is invited.

But Little Farm Equipment To Be Available

Farmers Must Get Along With Such Tools as They Have

The Wayne County Agricultural Conservation association, which serves as the Wayne county rationing board for farm machinery has just issued a list of farm equipment available for rationing.

It may be stated that farm machinery is practically non-existent.

There are just 155 pieces of farm equipment in the quota allotted to all Wayne county. That would hardly serve a small segment of the farmers in the vicinity of Plymouth.

However, the conservation association has issued instructions to farmers that if they contemplate purchasing any farm equipment this spring, that they must register with the county rationing board. Requests may be made in person or by mail to the Wayne County Agricultural Conservation association, 3901 Newberry street, Wayne, Michigan.

Herewith are the types of farm equipment available in the county, together with the number of pieces of such equipment:

Sugar beet grain drills, one; manure spreader, three; two-horse mouldboard plow, one; tractor drawn mouldboard plow, 19; spike tooth harrow, four; spring tooth harrow, four; disc harrow, eight; two-horse walking cultivator, one; riding, horse-drawn cultivator, one; tractor-drawn cultivator, 22; wheel type tractors, 27; milking machines, 22; milk coolers, six; garden planters, three; garden tractors, one; fertilizer distributors, one; soil pulverizers and packers, one; rotary hoes, one; feed hammer mills, five; Burr type feed grinders, one; farm elevators, one; horse drawn mowers, three; tractor drawn mowers, nine; dump rakes, one; side delivery rakes, four; hay loaders, four; grain binders, one; combines (six feet or less), one; corn binders, one; horse or tractor drawn, one; corn pickers, one; ensilage cutters, one.

That's all there is. There is simply isn't any more. Farm implement makers are now making guns and munitions for war.

There are no farm wagons, or corn planters, of any type. There are no cultivators or lifters. There are no lime spreaders, nor is there a one-horse drawn mouldboard plow, and garden transplanters and broadcast seeders, just simply are not on the market. There is no equipment of any kind specifically designed for the cultivation of peas and beans.

The Conservation association points out that the deadline for the signing of registration blanks is February 1, 1943. After that date, the board will select the six most eligible applicants for a garden tractor, and a purchase certificate will be authorized.

The association anticipates that those farmers which have badly needed equipment will share it either on a rental or community basis with other farmers.

Grange Officers Are Installed

Officers of the Plymouth Grange were installed at the regular meeting of the organization held in the Grange hall last Thursday. Installation was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spicer. The Grange voted to hold a card party in the near future.

Must Use Old License Plates For Year 1943

Frank Rambo Says Tags Will Be Provided

After March 1, you will still have your same old license plate. It won't be necessary to memorize a new number as is the custom.

But that doesn't mean you don't have to pay the fee. Woe be unto you, if you don't go to the secretary of state's branch office and get your license just as if you got a whole new plate.

Actually, what you will get will be a metal tab, which is just the right size to fit over that little figure "42" on your present license plate.

If you buy a whole year tab, it will be green and white, just like the tabs issued for the last half of last year. If you buy a half year tab, it will be a yellow tab, with black numbers.

Complete instructions for the issuance of the license plates have been received by Frank Rambo, manager of the local branch office in the Mayflower hotel.

Metal tab coverings also will be issued for full and half year trailer licenses.

However, windshield stickers are to be issued for all commercial vehicles. Full year commercial stickers will be green with white numerals and the half year stickers will be white with green numerals.

Mr. Rambo said that he had not been informed when the initial supply of tabs and stickers would be received locally.

Wanted - Leader For Girl Scouts

Meeting Called For This (Friday) Eve

Is there a patriotic woman in Plymouth?

You are offended by that question?

Well, don't be. Rather, read on and determine for yourself whether or not the question is justified.

Here is the text of a letter sent this week to a number of Plymouth women by Olga Trucks, leader pro-tem of Girl Scout Troop No. 1:

"Miss Florence Otto, field advisor for Region VII, National Field Staff of the Girl Scouts will be here Friday, January 15, 1943 at 8:00 p.m. to talk to mothers and interested friends of the Girl Scouts of Plymouth. We should like to have you present."

"The Scout Troop of Plymouth is in danger of becoming inactive. We must have the backing of mothers and Scout friends and the community."

"The purpose of this meeting of Scouting and to organize a troop to acquaint you with the aims of the Scout committee."

"Will you come? Your attendance at this meeting will determine the ultimate success or failure of Girl Scouting in Plymouth."

"The meeting will be held Friday, January 15, 1943 at 8:00 p.m. in Room 13 at the high school."

Now, was the question justified?

Girl Scouts is a patriotic organization. Yet, here in Plymouth, where three or four Girl Scout troops used to flourish, there are no leaders for these girls. Further there are no troop committees, without which troops cannot operate.

The girls who are members of the Girl Scout organization are the women who will be the mothers of the post war world. Without adequate training today, what will the world be tomorrow?

Further than that, if properly trained the Girl Scouts today can be of immeasurable service to the community in war time. But it requires leadership. And there are no current leaders.

So, are there any patriotic women in Plymouth?

Rathburn Found Not Guilty

Freed of Murder Charge in Pontiac

As was expected by his friends in Plymouth, Clarence Rathburn, 47 years old of Plymouth, was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter at his trial in the Oakland Circuit Court at Pontiac.

The charge grew out of the fatal shooting of Elwood Gates, Nov. 1, at the home of Earl Price, 31, Rathburn's son-in-law. The home is located in Avon township of Oakland county.

Gates, former husband of Mrs. Price, was killed in a fight between Gates and Price in which Rathburn intervened.

Albert Rohde President of Lutheran Church

Annual Meeting Shows Organization Is Flourishing

The congregation of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church at its annual meeting Tuesday night elected officers for the ensuing year and adopted a budget of $7,734 for the year's work.

Officers elected were: Albert Rohde, president; Edward Hoshbach, vice president; Walter Schultz, secretary; William Bartel, Jr., treasurer; Members of the board of trustees are: Mr. Bartel, chairman, and Paul Groth and Jacob Brinks. Mr. Groth also is financial secretary.

Members of the Board of Deacons are Carl Rohde, chairman; Roy Fisher and Harold Stevens. Stevens is the only new member among the officers.

In his report to the congregation, the Rev. Edgar Hoenecke pointed out that the past year has been one of radical change for the congregation, and that "as a part of the American nation we would be thankful indeed were we unwilling to sacrifice all that we possess materially to secure and perpetuate our beloved institutions of freedom and constitutional government."

Rev. Hoenecke also pointed out that "this is the time to prepare for a building program when the war is over."

With this in mind, the goal of the church is to use this year of rich personal returns to increase the building fund, so that after the war is over the church will be in a position to construct a new church, parsonage and parochial school on its property at the corner of Garfield and Penniman avenues.

Rev. Hoenecke said there are now 600 on the church rolls.

The boys in service committee reported that there are 14 members of the congregation in the armed services, three of them overseas. Seventy three boxes of cigarettes, candy and cookies have been sent to the service men. The boxes are mailed each month. The same committee reported that 15 testaments had been given to non-members of the congregation leaving for the service.

Hunting Down Old Jalopies!

Wrecks Going to be Made Into Bullets

Have you seen the old "Jalopies" anywhere?

Yes? No?

Well, if you see one, get the license number and phone that license number to Mrs. Russell Powell, general chairman of the salvage committee.

If that old Jalopy doesn't look out and if it can't provide proof of the fact that its days of usefulness aren't over, it's going to go direct to the scrap heap and then into bullets.

Would you believe it?

Mrs. Powell and her committee have already rounded up more than half a dozen old jalopies that will soon be on their way into bullets and guns.

Bieszy Bros. on Plymouth road, have aided greatly in the jalopy drive. They have donated three old wrecks to the cause.

Outside of the tin drive Saturday, this is jalopy month—and as usual, Plymouth and vicinity are out to make a record.

Remember—if you see an old jalopy somewhere, phone Mrs. Powell and tell her where.

Don Horton to Head Committee

Will Direct Future Scrap Metal Drives

Don Horton, well known implement dealer, has been appointed chairman of the scrap metal committee for Plymouth city and township, filling the place made vacant by the recent resignation of Mildred Barnes, who had served in the dual capacity of both salvage and metal scrap chairman.

The selection made by general chairman, Mrs. Russell Powell, of the city and township salvage committee, assures this locality of an energetic worker. Although Mr. Horton has held no official position in connection with recent scrap drives, he has been most active in various scrap campaigns conducted in this locality.

Plans will soon be made for an early spring heavy scrap metal drive.

Honored Because of Tireless Efforts In The Sale of War Bonds and Stamps

Mrs. Bert Swadling
Plymouth, Michigan
IS APPOINTED TO SERVE AS A MINUTE MAN IN BEHALF OF THE DEFENSE SAVINGS PROGRAM

Upon the recommendation of the chairman of the Plymouth war bond committee, and approval of State Chairman Frank Isbey of Detroit, Mrs. Bert Swadling has been honored by appointment of the United States Treasury department as a "Minute Man" because of her outstanding work in connection with the sale of war bonds and stamps.

The honorary certificate has already been presented to Mrs. Swadling, who declares that it is her intention to try and double the total amount of war bonds she sold during 1942.

Although it was not until the "Main Street Commandos" inaugurated their war bond and stamp sale that Mrs. Swadling became active in the campaign by her energy and tireless effort, "Plymouth's smallest business place" sold nearly $12,000 in war bonds and stamps last year. The distinction and honor which has come to Mrs. Swadling is well-merited.

New Officers of Kiwanis Club

President Henry Appoints Committees

New officers for the ensuing year have been installed by the Plymouth Kiwanis club. Ernest Henry is the new president and has named his committees.

Other officers are: Paul Ramsdell, vice president; Russell Roe, second vice president; Roy A. Fisher, treasurer; Carvel M. Bentley, secretary and Frank Terry, sergeant at arms.

Directors are: E. J. Allison, Claude Dykhouse, and Lyle Worden, all for one year; and Ray Bachelder, William Hartmann, Clarence Moore and Maury Arnold all for two years.

Program chairmen are: Paul Ramsdell, achievement reports; Ernest J. Allison, attendance; Leonard Sanders, agriculture and conservation; Russell Roe, business standards; Pat Wiltzie, boys work; James Gallimore, churches; George Burr, classification; Roy Critch, citizenship and patriotism; Lyle Worden, finance; Earl Mastick, house; Paul Ramsdell, inter-club relations; Chauncey Rauch, music; Kenneth Corey, membership; Frank Terry, publicity; Dunbar Davis, public affairs; Roy Fisher, program; Ray Bachelder; reception; Claude Dykhouse, under-privileged children; Carvel Bentley, vocational guidance; Miller Ross, flowers; Robert Jolliffe, Kiwanis education, and war boards.

The club, which now has 42 members, meets on Tuesday evenings at the Mayflower hotel.

All Is Ready For Tin Collection

Committee Out For Record on Saturday

Tin! Tin! Tin! Saturday is collection day in Plymouth and Plymouth township for the thousands and thousands of tin cans that women in this locality have been saving during recent weeks.

The city trucks will make collections in the city. Housewives are requested to place the cartons containing their tin cans in the place they usually leave their refuse for collection.

Mrs. Russell Powell, general salvage chairman, will direct the collection in the township, which has been secured by Mrs. Robert Willoughby, city tin chairman. Saturday's collection in Plymouth will be a record breaker.

Victory Notes

The Plymouth Garden Mobilization committee met Tuesday evening with Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple. ARE YOU GOING TO HAVE A VICTORY GARDEN? Food is a weapon, in the total war, as well as arms and planes.

The Plymouth Victory Garden committee held its mobilization meeting Tuesday evening, January 12, with 11 enthusiastic members present. Watch next week's Plymouth Mail for information on Plymouth's program.

More surgical dressing workers are needed. Although 17 have signed, at least 20 more must register before it is possible to organize Plymouth's third class. Register with Mrs. Harold Brubois (487-J), surgical dressing chairman.

Mrs. Winston Cooper (387-W) is taking registrations for group III in home nursing; this group will start in February.

Mrs. R. N. Penhale (252-W) is taking registrations for Plymouth's next blood donor day which will be in three months.

The regular meeting of the defense council will be held Tuesday afternoon January 19, at 4 o'clock at the city hall with Mrs. Pelletier of Detroit speaking on the Day Care of Children.

Lt. Col. Cleary of Ypsilanti and Lansing has promised to come to Plymouth to speak Tuesday evening, February 2, according to Paul Wiedman, first deputy air warden. Save the date and watch for further information.

Are your tin cans prepared, ready for tin can collection Saturday, January 16?

Have you read the last right hand column on page 1 of the Plymouth Mail for January 1, 1943?

Linden Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hawley Mills, will celebrate his fourth birthday with a party, Saturday afternoon when several little friends will join him in games and lunch.

A group of eighteen high school students enjoyed a tobogganing party last Saturday night, later going to the home of Miss Jacquelyn Dalton for dancing and refreshments.

Two Plymouth Boys On Hornet, Saved

Harold Leach is Home; Clifford Maddox Writes

Leach Busy Bombing Jap Carrier While Japs Bombed the Hornet

Harold F. Leach, youthful son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Leach, 774 Starkweather avenue, aviation radioman and aerial gunner, and a crew member of the famed American aircraft carrier Hornet, sunk in the Pacific on October 26, is safe at home in Plymouth on a leave and another Plymouth lad, Clifford Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Maddox, 994 York street, also a member of the crew of the Hornet, is known to be safe and secure somewhere out in the Pacific or at some coast base.

Leach and Maddox, who had served on the Hornet from the time it was launched, became separated on the day it was torpedoed and shelled by the Japs, later being sunk by America's own navy to keep the wreck from falling into the hands of the Japs.

Mr. and Mrs. Maddox are expecting possibly that their son may be home soon on a leave, but they have not heard definitely as to his plans. The father is employed by the Plymouth Gauge & Tool company.

It is a thrilling story that Harold Leach tells of his experience the day that his ship went down.

"I had left the Hornet at 8 o'clock on the morning of October 26 with my pilot to bomb a Jap carrier. We hit it square with a thousand pounder and returned to our own ship about 1 o'clock in the afternoon to discover that it had been maddoxed-up by some Jap fliers. We dropped down to about 50 feet above the deck and saw that they were taking men off, so we flew to another one of our carriers some 20 miles away," Harold said yesterday in telling of his escape.

"That was a good hot fight, but our losses were nothing as compared to theirs. From all that I have heard we didn't lose very many men on the Hornet."

"Four Jap planes dove to the Hornet's deck where they exploded and burned up, but did not set the Hornet on fire. Those Japs will do anything. And don't let any one tell you that they are not good fighters."

Harold, a graduate of the Plymouth high school with the class of 1939, lost all of his worldly possessions when the Hornet went down.

"In fact all of my pay for months' back was in my locker. The only thing I saved was the clothing I had on when I was up in the plane," he said.

He enlisted in the navy in April, 1940 and was assigned to the Hornet when it was first launched. He served on no other boat until the time the Hornet was sunk.

"We were down in the Passory I am, and when and if I ever get home, I will come and see you."

The letter was dated November 13. Don was killed in action on November 8.

Magicians Please Big Church Audience

Children, and even the elders of the Presbyterian church were highly entertained Wednesday evening by Jack and Bert Delmar, well known Michigan magicians.

In fact, their entertainment proved to be about the best thing that has been seen in Plymouth in some time. One present at the affair declared that the whole program far exceeded his interest the expectations of those who had arranged it. It is hoped to bring them back here again for a return engagement.

Major Cass Hough Recovering From Attack of Pneumonia

Plymouth residents will be pleased to know that Major Cass Hough, who has been confined to a hospital in England, is making an excellent recovery from a severe case of pneumonia. He entered the hospital before the holidays and spent Christmas and New Years in the care of physicians and nurses. Letters that have been received from him this week indicate that he is now on the road to speedy recovery and will doubtless soon be back in active service.

Students to Provide Program for Club

On Friday, January 22, the Woman's Club program will be provided by high school students under the direction of James Latture. Music will be furnished by the Woman's Club glee club.

Chairman for the day will be Mrs. Murray O'Neil and she will be assisted by the following committee: Mesdames Carl Caplin, Paul Wiedman, William Jennings, M. S. Litsenberger, R. W. Bloomfield, William Hartmann, Myron Anderson and Mrs. Bennett. The meeting will be held at Central grade school gym at 2:30 o'clock.

Rationing Board Members Hear Kicks, But Keep Smiling

They Find That Good Nature is Best "Out" in Dealing With A Public That Doesn't Like Rationing

What with one thing and another, the ladies of the Plymouth rationing board are afraid the people of Plymouth will think ill of them.

And what with one thing and another, Ray Bachelder, the executive secretary of the board is about as afraid as the ladies themselves.

On the whole, the people of Plymouth and its environs have taken the matter of rationing in pretty good spirit. Of course they might as well take it that way, because we have the rationing whether they like it or not.

But there have been some who have gone away from the board a bit miffed about the whole thing.

And then there comes along this order from Washington which tells the board to close up its office on Wednesday afternoons.

The order to close was given widespread publicity, and those who read the papers (including The Plymouth Mail) were quite well aware that the board office was closed last Wednesday afternoon and will be closed each Wednesday afternoon hereafter.

But despite this widespread publicity, there were a few who arrived at the second floor of the city hall and wanted action. There was one fellow who wanted a tire. He was rather nasty about the whole business. And there was a lady from Rosedale Gardens, who wanted to find out about oil, for after all her house was beginning to get chilly, and then there was a fellow who used his precious gasoline to drive all the way from northwest Detroit to see about getting more gasoline.

It was all most disconcerting. The ladies of the rationing board were sorry. They not only said it, they looked it. But what can a guy (pardon—what can a lady) do about orders from Washington? They only work up there.

And speaking of work, that's one of the reasons why the office is closed on Wednesday afternoons.

Y'see during the other days of the week (Sunday excepted) the ladies and Mr. Bachelder sit at their desks and hear more stories of woe than any other eight women and a man ever heard before.

Aunt Minnie wants an extra pound of coffee which she can't get, for after all what is rationing for?; and Joe Q. Public wants a "C" ration book for gasoline instead of the measly "B" book which he got. Bill Public wants a tire, or tires, which ever he can get. And he has a reason. So the ladies listen.

The result is that by the time evening comes, they've listened to so many stories, and have written so many orders of one kind and another, that it would be pretty doggedly difficult to get caught up on the filing and book work necessary in any government office.

So the government figured that if the office were closed on Wednesday afternoon, the ladies could get caught up on their work without interruptions of one kind and another.

It's all rather amazing the way they keep their good dispositions, because Joe and Bill Public and Aunt Minnie can be rather difficult. But the ladies of the rationing board just smile and say the customer must be right, but after all there are regulations and such.

The ladies of the board are Mrs. Luella Cutler, Mrs. Thelma Cushman, Mrs. Alice Vanderveen, Mrs. Jean Rice, Mrs. Isabelle Lueke, Mrs. Ruth Pink, Mrs. Jennie Mills and Mrs. Hyacinth Wiske.

Discuss Plans For City Pensions

Commission Takes up Subject Informally

Possibility that the city commission may extend to city employees the privilege of participating in a city pension system was discussed at a recent meeting of the commission.

Present to participate in the discussion was Herbert Olson, director of the Municipal League of Michigan.

Though the plans for a pension system for the 40 to 43 city employees has been discussed informally from time to time, last Monday night was the first time that it had ever been broached at a public meeting of the commission.

No ordinance was presented at the meeting. It was the consensus that while the pension system is desirable not only for the employees but the tax payers as well, it will require considerable study to determine just what system will be the best for both the city and the employees.

It was pointed out that the city employees are not eligible for social security, and that therefore when many of them reach retirement age they are no longer capable of performing the best service.

There was no discussion of the of the project to the city, but it was emphasized that it would be on a participating basis with the emoluments to the employees dependent on their income, with the top pension running about $100 a month.

City Manager Clarence Elliott said there were two ways of putting such a plan into effect, either of which would require a vote by the people. One plan would be for the commission to submit a city charter amendment which would legislate the proposal into the charter itself.

However, it was the opinion of some members of the commission and the city manager that it would be more suitable for the commission to pass an ordinance granting the pension system, and then referring the ordinance to the people for approval.

It was estimated that it would be impossible to institute such a system under two or three months.

The commission also tabled a proposed city ordinance which would require the parents of youths under 18 years to register with the police department their permission for the children to play games in billiard halls and bowling alleys.

The billiard operators favored the ordinance, which had passed its first and second reading, but it was opposed by the bowling alley people.

Wins Fame as A Venison Cook

Attorney John Crandell Shows He Knows How

Members of the Western Wayne County Conservation club are ready to place a crown of roses on the learned brow of Attorney John Crandell, a crown which signifies that he is the best all-around venison cook in the Wolverine state.

It was none other than John Crandell who par-boiled, roasted and toasted the venison—and some bear—that was served at the annual venison supper of the club Monday evening.

Only John knows all of the ingredients that went into the famed venison dish that he served to some 80 hungry hunters. But there is one thing sure, it contained everything from green olives to overgrown mushrooms, with a pinch of garlic here and there.

He was ably assisted by such distinguished experts on methods of preparing venison as Ezra Rot-nour, Maurice Woodworth, and Ernest Henry. Harry Rackham of Northville provided plenty of "advice" as to the "taste" of things—and how tasty everything proved to be—even the boiled potatoes.

The deer came from the larder of Dewey Smith, who shot the big buck on his annual hunting trip up north. The bear tid-bits came from the Crandell cold storage plant. John shot both deer and bear while up north.

There was plenty for all. One wild-lifer declared that the meal had provided him with his portion of "red meat" for the month of January.

The club will soon announce the date for its annual fish supper, which will probably be in March or April, soon after the early smelt runs.

What Kind of Place After War?

Prof. James Pollock To Address Banquet Here

Prof. James K. Pollock of the political science department of the University of Michigan will be the principal speaker at the all college banquet, sponsored by the University of Michigan club, to be held January 28 at the high school.

Tickets for the affair are now on sale at the Plymouth Mail and the Plymouth United Bank, but the sale of tickets will be closed January 21, because of rationing restrictions.

The banquet dinner will be served by the ladies of the Episcopal church, and because of arrangements to be made with the rationing board for some supplies, it was necessary to close the sale of tickets at the earlier date.

Prof. Pollock, who in addition to his duties at the university is a radio commentator, over station WJR on Sunday afternoons, is expected to discuss not only the current news from the war fronts and what that news portends, but also is expected to discuss the peace after the war.

Tickets are priced at $1.10 and any surplus from the banquet will be placed in the U. of M. club's scholarship fund, which will benefit the young people of Plymouth who wish to attend college.

At previous banquets, between 50 and 60 colleges have been represented in the roll call by schools.

Ladies! Sharpen Bread Knives

Sliced Bread Off Market Next Week

Ladies, you'd better sharpen up that old knife, for effective in Plymouth and elsewhere next Monday, you're going to slice your own bread, or eat it in a chunk.

Under government regulations, slicing of bread is not a necessity and must be abandoned. On a national basis it will release a tremendous number of persons for work in the war factories.

Just what the bakeries are going to do with the slicing machines, which have eliminated much of the crooked bread from the nation's tables, is a mystery. But, they can't use them for the general public.

O.E.S. News

There will be a special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star Tuesday evening, January 19th with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 after which initiation of candidates will take place.

Sunday there will be officers practice at 2 p.m. January 27 there will be a Stanley demonstration at Mrs. William C. Hartman's, 383 Blunk avenue. Tea following.

Sick List—Emma Henderson, Clara Todd is up and able to be around again. Ethel Davis is home from the hospital and is coming along just fine.

calls to Information are UNNECESSARY

Needless calls to Information—many thousands of them daily—are being crowded onto Michigan's war-loaded telephone system.

Six out of every ten calls to Information are requests for numbers that are listed in the telephone directory. It's a simple matter to look in the directory first. And if everyone would do that, it would save 1450 hours of switchboard time each day.

Please do not ask Information for any number that is in the directory. If you must call Information, make a note of the number so that you'll have it next time.

There's a Bright Side to Everything

Returning to camp one night, Private D. C. Bowlin of Camp Barkley, Texas, had a flat tire. Rather than ruin the precious rubber by driving further, he got out and walked to the nearest station for assistance. But when he returned the flat tire and the good ones as well had been stolen. Strangely enough the private didn't seem very angry. "Gosh," said the filling station attendant, "what can you do with it now?" "Well, I'll tell you," said Bowlin, "I've been worried about not having anything to give to the USO scrap metal drive. Now I can make a real contribution!"

It Takes Both, War Bonds and Taxes, to Win — Victory Tax Special Direct Levy Asked to Help Meet Heavy War Costs

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Approximately 50,000,000 American workers began to make an added contribution to the War cost this month in the form of a 5% Victory tax.

For many millions of Americans the Victory tax and the 1943 income tax are the first direct levies to be made by the Government to meet the staggering War costs. And it will take both . . . taxes and War Bonds . . . to provide the supplies and materials to win the War and the peace afterwards.

The Treasury Department estimates that the Victory tax will raise approximately $2,000,000,000. Every person receiving more than $12 per week must pay the Victory tax upon that part of his income over and above the $12. For example, a married man with a salary of $50 per week, with two dependents, would make only a net payment of $1.06 per week after allowance for post-war credit.

The Government has made every effort to make the impact of the new tax as light as possible. The law, in effect, provides that in the case of married persons whose sole income is from wages or salary, 40 percent of the Victory tax paid (up to a maximum of $1,000) plus 2 percent for each dependent (up to a maximum of $100) may be used as a credit against whatever Federal income taxes the individual may owe at the end of the year—provided he were roughly 2.5 billion dollars, leaving 73.5 billion dollars of disposable income. During 1943 total income payments are expected to rise to 125 billion dollars and total personal taxes under existing revenue legislation will be 15 billion dollars—leaving 110 billion dollars of income at our disposal as against only 73.5 billion dollars in 1940.

In 1943 Mr. Average American will still be carrying a much lighter tax load than his Canadian or English brothers-in-arms. In Great Britain total national and local taxes paid by individuals at present amount to 31 percent of the national income. In Canada, total individual taxes amount to 25 percent of the national income. In the United States, total personal taxes, Federal, state and local, will amount in 1943 to 18 percent of national income. Our English allies invest an additional 40 percent of national income in War savings. Our Canadian allies invest an additional 11 percent of national income in War savings. We Americans, to match the record of our Canadian neighbors, would have to invest this year 20 percent of our national income in War savings. To match the English record we would have to invest 23 percent of national income in War savings.

Even with the Victory tax, the 1943 income tax, and all other taxes paid by individuals, the average American will have more money with which to buy War Bonds than he has ever had before. Here are the statistics which explain that statement:

In 1940 the total income payments made to the American people amounted to about 76 billion dollars. In that same year the total personal taxes paid, Federal, State and local,

New Wells To Increase Water Supply of City

Flow Enough to Provide Entire Needs of Community

Before spring, Plymouth will have a supply of good water, sufficient to supply a city of at least 100,000 persons.

This was the statement of Clarence Elliott, city manager, based on a letter received from the director of the bureau of engineering of the state health department.

The letter, signed by John M. Hepler, was in response to a sample of the water which was sent to the state board of health from the new well, drilled adjacent to the booster station at the city limits on Northville road.

While it had been previously announced that the well would produce about a million gallons of water a day, it was not until Monday that the purity of the water was adjudged.

The well was drilled by the Layne Northern Co., of Mishawaka, Ind., and the sample of water was submitted to the state board of health by C. M. Young, Lansing representative of the firm.

The letter to Mr. Elliott said: "Mr. Young of the Layne Northern Company, submitted a sample of water taken from the test well located at the booster station in Plymouth. The well is six inches in diameter and 116 feet deep. A dexigraph copy of the results of mineral analysis is enclosed.

"The water has 250 parts per million of hardness. This is considerably less than that of the present well supply which has a total hardness of 348 parts per million of hardness. It is of interest to note that the fluorine content is 0.5 parts per million. This amount of fluorine will help prevent dental caries but will not cause mottling of children's teeth. The iron content is indicated as none on the report; however, I am inclined to question this result simply because the sample which was submitted contained considerable silt. This silt was reported to settle before the water was examined and if there was iron in the water previous to the analysis, it probably was settled out with the silt. Therefore the present analysis should be questioned.

"I would say that this analysis indicates a very satisfactory water for municipal use."

Mr. Elliott pointed out that the figures on the hardness of the water indicated that the new well will provide water about one-third softer than the present supply. However, it is still considerably harder than the water from the Detroit water supply.

The city manager said that the testing of water for fluorine is a new development at the department of health which has learned that the fluorine content of water has a definitely beneficial effect on teeth if in sufficient quantities.

The old well now produces about 900,000 gallons of water a day, which with the million gallons from the new well will give a supply of water adequate for sometime to come.

Mr. Elliott said that it would be sixty to ninety days before adequate screens are sunk to the water supply and the heavy pumps started. It will be at about the same time that this water will be shunted to the water mains for transmission to users.

During the five-year period 1936-40, an average of 970,000 man-days annually were spent in fighting forest fires that burned more than 30 million acres yearly on the average.

There are almost 30 billion ration stamps contained in the 150 million copies of War Ration Book Two, or more than all the postage stamps produced by the government during the past 12 years.

Schoolcraft county's 480-acre Thunder lake conforms in nearly every respect—spawning facilities, food and chemical conditions and cover—to the present conception of an ideal lake for warm-water fish. Yet for some unknown reason its pike and perch grow very slowly. Possibly, say the conservation department's fisheries research men, the forage fish are so well protected by the superabundant weed beds that the pike and perch cannot feed on them as freely as might be expected.

City Plans For After War Work

Officials Believe Now is Time to Prepare

The Plymouth Planning Commission already is making plans for improving the city during the post war period.

City Manager Clarence Elliott said that the commission is taking the position that business affairs in general are apt to be rather slow in the weeks and months immediately succeeding the peace while business and industry is swinging from war to civilian production.

If this assumption proves to be correct, then there will be a period of mass unemployment during which the city plans to make every effort to place in effect the plans now being formulated.

Chief problem facing the city is the matter of sanitation. Mr. Elliott said the commission had placed this as the first project to be undertaken when additional materials become available. It is planned to install a sanitary sewer in the south portion of the city. The sewer would be installed south of Burroughs and Sutherland avenues.

Second most important problem facing the city is the construction of a city hospital. It is anticipated that the planning commission will recommend to the city commission within the next two or three months the employment of an architect to draw plans for a 50-bed hospital.

Mr. Elliott said that the planning commission feels the need for a city hospital because of the inadequacy of present hospital facilities in emergencies and because in about 40 categories of not wish to leave the community when hospital care is necessary.

Third most important problem is that of water distribution. With the increase in the available water to about double the present volume, a ring of 12-inch mains about the city to provide equal pressure in all sections is not only desirable but necessary. The cost of pumping the water will be materially reduced by the installation of this system of mains. About a half mile of 12-inch main already has been installed on Evergreen and on South Main street. About six and a half additional miles is needed.

And, said Mr. Elliott, there also is a great need not only for material things, but also for a community building where an adequate recreational program may be carried out.

In the district of Srem, Yugoslavia, 1,000 Serbs, including women and children between the ages of 12 and 17, were shot at Nazi order on September 29, 1942.

About 30,000 pounds of metal are salvaged on each round trip of large U.S. transports, ferrying armed forces to the Pacific fronts.

from thousands of cans of pineapple, grapefruit, and tomato juice consumed by service men enroute.

British WRENS, corresponding to American WAVES, do not go to sea, but they replace naval men in about 40 categories of shore duty.

At the regular meeting of the local lodge held Friday, January 8, the following officers were installed for the coming year:

Minnie Ray, junior past grand; Betty Mende, noble past grand; Hazel Roach, vice grand; Irene Broegman recording secretary; Ella Knapp, financial secretary; Alma Moyer, treasurer; Lucy Pratt, warden; Marie Hartung, conductor; Mable Mott and Goldie Sherman, right and left supporters to the noble grand; Lydia Drews and Lillian Kennedy, right and left supporters to the vice grand; Dorothy Finney, inside guardian; Bernice Moore, outside guardian; Elsie Bovee, chaplain; Mildred Collins, musician and Irene Broegman, degree staff captain; Minnie Ray and Dora Wagenschutz, flower committee; Lydia Drews, Minnie Gates and Carrie Jewell, finance committee.

Presentation of a new service flag was made to the lodge by Minnie Ray, junior past grand, in honor of Private first class, Elvin Love, a member in service, now located at San Francisco, California.

On Wednesday, January 20, the Past Noble Grand club and Degree Staff club will meet together at the I.O.O.F. hall. A potluck dinner will be served at noon. All members of both clubs are cordially invited to attend.

State preferences for "safe colors" in hunting clothes vary quite as widely as their cover and the kind of hunting they afford. A national survey revealed that Maryland prefers white, Washington likes burnt orange, nine states favor black and white checks, and five (Maine Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey and Colorado) definitely favor red. Michigan is listed with Pennsylvania, New York and Missouri among the 14 states that have arrived at no definite conclusions about which is the most satisfactory hunting clothing color.

Mr. and Mrs. George Farwell are entertaining their club at a co-operative dinner Saturday evening in their home on Adams street.

WOMEN AT WAR

Bessie

"All right, Bessie," said the boss of the little factory which was making jackets for soldiers. "Did you want to see me about something?"

The thin middle-aged woman stood up from the chair in the outer office and looked earnestly at the boss with her huge, grave gray eyes.

"It's about this ten percent pledge," she began.

"Oh, that's all right, Bessie," the boss said. "I'd been meaning to speak to you about that. We don't expect you to pledge ten percent of your pay for War Bonds like the others are doing. We know you have a hard time making ends meet since Jake died. Eleven kids, isn't it? That's quite a lot of mouths to feed. Let's see, you make $25.50 a week including overtime, don't you?"

"Yes, sir, but..."

The boss smiled.

"Don't give it another thought, Bessie. You've got your hands full now. Uncle Sam knows you haven't got a penny to spare. Don't let it worry you. We understand."

The boss turned to go back into his private office.

"But what I wanted to say was..."

Bessie raised her voice and the boss looked around. "I wanted to say, would a dollar a week be too little? You see, after we get the living expenses paid, there's just about a dollar a week left. Would that be willing to accept a dollar a week?"

"They'd be more than willing," the boss said quietly. "They'd be proud."

Bessie looked relieved.

"All we have to do is scripp a little," she said. "I'd feel just terrible if we couldn't give something."

Back in the boss's office a representative of the Treasury Department was waiting. The boss shut the door and sat down.

"I've just seen the greatest single sacrifice I know of," the boss said. "Listen, if you want to hear what American women are made of..."

Army Opens Five Market Centers

Five new market centers for purchase of perishable food for army posts, camps and stations in continental United States, have been established by the army quartermaster corps, the war department announced recently. They are in Spokane, Wash.; Salt Lake City, Utah; Phoenix, Ariz.; Harlingen, Texas; and Philadelphia, Pa. There are now 33 army market centers in the United States. They are near large market and producing areas where car-load quantities can be purchased, and where army installations can be most efficiently serviced.

Jungle Hikes Precede Action in Buna-Gona

After being flown across New Guinea to the Buna-Gona area, U. S. troops hiked six days through the jungles before getting into action with the Japs. Here they found plenty of action, with the Japs coming out second best. Photo shows a group of American troops as they were gathered around an exhausted Jap as he was lying on the ground.

Craig and Crooked lakes in Baraga county are exceptional in having an abundance of forage fish but no large predacious species to transform these into fish flesh suitable for human consumption or for sport fishing. According to the conservation department's institute for fisheries research, introduction of adult largemouth bass should keep the stunted perch and pumpkinseed population of Craig lake reduced enough to provide good fishing for all three species. A small planting of adult northern pike should similarly benefit the stunted perch and green sunfish in Crooked lake.

GAS is the precision fuel vitally needed to keep war plants running at top speed. Normally we could obtain additional materials to enlarge our gas supply and meet all of the increasing needs. Today, this is impossible. You can help by using your gas water heater efficiently and wisely.

7 WAYS TO MAKE YOUR GAS WATER HEATER LAST LONGER—SAVE MORE

- 1 Repair dripping faucets to save water and fuel.
- 2 Avoid letting hot water run while washing hands, dishes or shaving.
- 3 Insulate hot water tanks and pipes to avoid waste.
- 4 Turn off non-automatic water heater when enough water is heated.
- 5 Drain about a gallon of water from bottom of tank once a month to remove sediment.
- 6 Check thermostat setting on automatic water heater. 120° to 150° should be sufficient for normal use.
- 7 Keep coils clean in coil type water heaters.

Alex Trufin Dies In Sanatorium

Not Forgotten in Death by Business Men

Although Alex Trufin left this troubled old world to enter into the unknown without near or distant relative in America to mourn his passing, scores of Plymouth, business men and people who had known him for years, took time off long enough Monday afternoon to pay final tribute to his memory at the funeral services held in the Schrader Funeral home.

Alex died last Saturday in the William H. Maybury sanatorium, a victim of tuberculosis, a disease he had fought cheerfully and hopefully for a long duration.

His native province in Austria torn by racial hates and feuds, he left home when 14 years of age to seek refuge and peace and success in America.

He found his way to Plymouth and for nearly 20 years served as a chef in restaurants in the city. Then two years ago in company with Ralph Honsinger, he started the Plymouth Grill, conducting it most successfully until he was stricken and his partner was called into the armed services. Ross Berry took over the place and is now operating it.

It was a glowing tribute, one worthy of a good citizen, that was paid him by Rev. T. Leonard Sanders of the First Methodist church at a funeral where no relative was present to mourn his passing. Since war has swept across Europe, Alex had heard nothing from his parents or other relatives or what had happened to them.

Burial took place in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Sydney Patton, all of Plymouth and a host of other relatives and friends, Rev. Lucia M. Stroh of Salem officiated. Two beautiful hymns were rendered by Mrs. Velma Searfoss and Mrs. Doris Shuart, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. T. Chapman. The active pallbearers were Messrs. Fred Wagenschutz, George Mott, John Broegman, Dale Rorbacher, Milan Frank and Roy Crites. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

ALEX TRUFIN

Funeral services were held Monday, January 11 at 3 p.m. at the Schrader Funeral home for Alex Trufin who resided at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Warren at 425 Ann Arbor Trail and who passed away Saturday morning, January 9 at the age of 44 years. Rev. T. Leonard Sanders officiated. Two beautiful hymns were rendered on the organ by Mrs. J. T. Chapman. The active pallbearers were Messrs. William Choffin, Tony Vander-Rydt, Arno Thompson and William Garrett. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

There is one hunter's knife in Plymouth that is right now being sharpened to a razor's edge. That knife is going to be donated to American fighting lads battling the Japs in New Guinea and on other far away, Pacific islands.

It is going to be used to cut the throats of every dirty Japanese that can be caught by American boys who are battling to clear these curs from the face of the earth.

President Brick Champe of the Western Wayne County Conservation club advised members of the organization at their meeting Monday night that the army had made an appeal for all of the hunting knives that can be secured for use of American soldiers.

"Army officers have found that hunting knives are of untold value to soldiers. They are appealing to hunters to donate their knives to the soldier boys. If one does not care to make an outright donation, the army asks that it be loaned for the duration," said President Champe.

There are some 100 members of the Conservation club. All do not possess hunting knives. Many sportsmen about Plymouth who do not belong to the club do possess hunting knives.

Wouldn't it be a great thing if the sportsmen of this locality could send not less than 500 hunting knives from Plymouth to the United States army?

The collection will be made at the next meeting of the club, the date to be announced soon in The Plymouth Mail.

Meanwhile might we suggest to patriotic sportsmen that they have their hunting knives sharpened to the razor's edge, so that they will be ready for immediate use by American troops when received?

MRS. SOPHIE M. QUEE

Following an illness of several months, Mrs. Hugh Francis Quee, formerly Mrs. Sophie Ray, died at the Quee home near Farmington last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Quee who lived for many years just north of Plymouth on the Northville road, moved to Detroit some five years ago. It was about a year ago when they purchased their present home near Farmington. She was born in Detroit in 1863. Mrs. Quee was a great lover of flowers and trees. All of the beautiful pines on "Rayvale farm," the former Quee residence near here, were planted by Mrs. Quee. The beautiful Rayvale rose

"Sure thing, Tim. Here's what I told him, Charlie. There's no such thing as votin' a nation, a state, a county, or even a community dry. We had proof enough of that during our 13 years of prohibition. What you really vote for is whether liquor is going to be sold legally or illegally... whether the community is going to get needed taxes for schools, hospitals, and the like, or whether this money is going to go to gangsters and bootleggers. That's the answer, boys... simple as A-B-C."

Want a Job as Rural Carrier?

Postmaster Irwin Has Good Opening

The postoffice is again looking for a rural carrier.

And it isn't such a bad job either, considering that it offers excellent possibilities of being a lifetime spot.

A rural carrier is needed, and while for the present at least it is a temporary job, there is an opportunity for early employment on a permanent basis.

The job is over a route 29 miles in length. It will pay a salary of slightly more than $2,000 a year plus five cents a mile for use of an automobile. That amounts to $8.70 a week, with tires and gasoline assured.

Postal officials said that an examination for civil service employment is expected soon, and that permanent employment on the civil service lists would follow if the person taking the examination is among the top three taking the quiz. Not many are expected to take it.

Church News

Hours of services and notices of church organization meetings.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist. Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service 8:00.

"Life" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, January 17. The Golden Text (Romans 6: 23) is: "The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Ps. 27: 1): "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?" Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 289): "Because Life is God, Life must be eternal, self-existent. Life is the everlasting I AM, the Being who was and is and shall be, whom nothing can erase."

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH. C. M. Pennell, minister. Sunday morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. "The Great Physician Prescribes" will be the sermon subject. Bible school, 11:45 a.m. As our adult classes are studying the Gospel of John during this quarter it would be well for each member to read a chapter of John every day, thus reading through the book several times before Easter. The County Brotherhood plans to hold its first meetings of the year in this church, on January 17 at 4:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. A light supper will be served between services. You are invited to be present.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH. T. Leonard Sanders, minister. Mrs. M. J. O'Conner, director of music. Sunday, January 17: 10:00 o'clock, church school with classes for all. A warm and cozy room for every class. Wesley Kaiser, superintendent. 11:00, morning worship and special music by the chorus choir. The minister will speak on "Things That Remain in a Changing World." 6:30: Youth Fellowship Hour. Mrs. Sanders will lead the discussion on "Jesus' Family and Environment." Mrs. Lois Bowden will speak on "Missions." 7:30: Youth Social Hour. We cordially invite youth to attend. Friday, January 22 at 6:30 in the church dining room will be the Booster class potluck supper. Following supper there will be games for all. Don't wear your best clothes, save them, come for an evening of fun.

ST. MICHAEL'S CATHOLIC church. Father Contway, pastor, Rosedale Gardens. Masses at 8 a.m., 10 a.m. and 12 noon.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL church—Maple and Harvey streets. Sunday morning services: Church school at 9:45 a.m.; morning prayer and sermon at 11 o'clock. Confirmation classes for both adults and children will start next Thursday night and will continue on the same night each week until March 24 when Bishop Creighton of the Diocese of Michigan will visit St. John's and administer the rite of confirmation. There will be separate classes for adults and children. Confirmation class will be followed by choir practice. Recently the women of St. John's organized an organization known as St. John's League. This group will meet on Wednesday, January 20 at the home of the president, Mrs. Seth Virgo. Rev. Francis Tetu, Vicar.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church. Walter Nichol, pastor. 10 a.m., Sunday school; 11:00 a.m., church worship; 6:30 p.m., young people. All young people of high school age are urged to attend these interesting meetings.

BEREA GOSPEL CHAPEL.—Assembly of God church, corner of Mill street and Ann Arbor Trail. John Walasky, pastor. Sunday school, 10:00 a.m.; morning worship, 11:00 a.m.; evening service, 7:45 p.m. Tuesday evening, Bible study, held in the pastime, 1801 Haggerty highway, at 7:30 p.m. Mid-week service on Thursday at 7:45 p.m. "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life." James 1: 12a.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.—George W. Rothery, pastor. This month of January has given us great blessings in the Lord, and we trust that February will give us greater blessing. Monday, February 8, 1943 there will be a conference of Baptist churches at the First Baptist church. During the month of February the pastor will continue his studies at the prayer meeting, each Wednesday evening on "The Blood." The series will continue as follows: January, "Redemption by Blood," a consideration of 1 Peter 1: 18-19, January 27, "Reconciliation Through the Blood" a consideration of Romans 3: 24-25. We trust that you are planning to attend some of these studies in God's Word. The last Sunday in February we hope to have Kenneth L. Pike, Ph.D. to fellowship with us. Dr. Pike is a well known student of philology working with the Wyckoff Fellowship; and will come to us through the courtesy of the Round the Round World Missionary Conference. This Sunday, January 17, the sermon-topic of the morning worship will be "God's Eternal Purpose," the worship service begins at 10 o'clock. The Sunday school will begin at 11:15 a.m. when we continue our studies in the Gospel of John. Tuesday, January 19, the Loyal Daughters' class will meet at the church. The calendar of services for the following week is: Morning worship, 10 a.m.; Sunday school, 11:15 a.m.; B.Y.P.U., (Young People's), 6:30 p.m. Evening service, 7:00 p.m. Youth Hour, 8:30 p.m. Prayer meeting, 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, choir practice, 8:30 p.m. Friday.

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE. Holbrook and Pearl streets. Robert A. North, pastor. Charles and Ethel Cossins, a young couple from Farmington, Michigan, will be our guests at our Song Fest next Sunday evening, beginning at 9 o'clock, following the Sunday Evening service. The play the vibra-harp, piano and sing. Then there will be duets, trios, quartettes, and lots of good old gospel choruses. An old-fashioned hymn-sing some people would call it. What would you like to sing? Come and hand in your request. The other services of the day will be as follows: Bible school, 10:00; morning worship, 11:15; young people, 6:45; evening service, 7:30. The choir meets for rehearsal at 5:30 Sunday evening and the prayer meeting will be in charge of Philo Hurd on Thursday evening at 7:30. We extend a very hearty invitation to all to come and worship with us and we will do thee good.

Dead Letter Office Gets Mail
Nearly 2000 Letters Are Undelivered

If you didn't get that anticipated Christmas card, maybe it was addressed wrong.

The Plymouth postoffice at Christmas time received about 2,000 letters with one and a half cent stamps. When opened they were found to be Christmas cards. All of them were undeliverable because of faulty addresses. Most of them were addressed just to Joe Q. Public, Plymouth, Michigan, and the parties were not on the postal lists.

In addition there were 541 first class mail letters, some of which contained money orders, one of which contained a lady's handkerchief, and the rest were just plain Christmas cards.

The cards were destroyed. The handkerchief will be held at the postoffice for a year and then, if still unclaimed, will be sent to the dead letter office in Washington. The money orders will be returned to the senders.

There also were about 120 parcels with faulty addresses. These will be sent to the dead letter office at Chicago for opening. It is found impossible to return them to the senders.

Mrs. R. R. Lindsay is Elected New President Of The Garden Club

About 30 ladies were present at the annual meeting of the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association held Monday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. O. F. Beyer, with Mrs. C. E. Elliott in charge.

Following the annual reports of the various officers and committee chairmen, the annual election took place with the following results: President, Mrs. R. R. Lindsay; first vice president, Mrs. L. R. Von Stein; second vice president, Mrs. Carlton Lewis; recording secretary, Mrs. Ernest L. Thrall, elected for the second term; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. Austin Stecker; treasurer, Mrs. Le Roy Jewell.

The new president and board members chose the following committee chairmen and assistants: Membership, Mrs. Le Roy Jewell; Mrs. John Elickenstaff; Mrs. James Gallimore; program, Mrs. Edward Bolton, Mrs. R. G. LeVyn, Mrs. Ward Jones, Mrs. R. D. Merriam, Mrs. William P. Wernett; social, Mrs. Floyd Burgett, Mrs. John L. Black, Mrs. William T. Pettingill, Mrs. A. C. Dunn; civic, Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz, Mrs. John McLaren, Mrs. Ralph G. Lorenz, Mrs. Thomas Moss, Mrs. John T. Neale; educational, Mrs. Carl G. Shear, Mrs. J. M. Sweetland, Mrs. Arthur White; marketing, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. William Fehlig, Mrs. Louis Tuedall; transportation, Mrs. Floyd Wilson; conservation, Mrs. Horace Thatcher, Mrs. Winston Cooper, Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mrs. L. G. Manners, Mrs. Walter Sumner, Mrs. C. E. Elliott, Mrs. Scheppele; parliamentary, Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple; scrap book, Mrs. Arthur Mills; custodian, Mrs. A. Lincoln Lantz.

Mrs. C. E. Elliott, who had served so ably for three years as president of the association was given a rising vote of thanks and a gift in appreciation of her splendid record.

The 1943 dues are payable on or before February 1 to the new treasurer, Mrs. LeRoy Jewell, 104 East Ann Arbor road. There will be no meeting in February and the March meeting will be announced through The Plymouth Mail.

Falsified Age, Youth Arrested
Police Angered By Boys Trying to Get Beer

Police Chief Charles Thumme is becoming considerably irked with young men and women who misrepresent their age at beer gardens in order to get alcoholic liquor.

The chief arrested an 18-year-old youth in a local tavern Saturday night and was hustled to the police station, and Monday was taken to Detroit where he was turned over to the wayward minor division of the probate court.

Chief Thumme said that it is an offense for a minor to misrepresent his age in order to get beer. In the case of the youth picked up, he even showed the tavern keeper a chauffeur's license, but the print was so small that the keeper failed to note that he was only 18. He looked the required 21 years.

While it is an offense for a tavern keeper to sell to a minor, it is also an offense when the minor misrepresents his age.

Chief Thumme issued a warning that anyone under 21 years of age will be arrested and turned over to county authorities if caught attempting to get beer.

Ladies! Prepare To Sew Your Own
Shortage of Cotton Dresses is on Way

Ladies, you'd better start learning how to sew.

That is the advice of John Blyton of the Taylor and Blyton store who has just returned from the buying markets in Chicago and St. Louis.

As the result of his trip, he came to the conclusion that if the ladies want to look smart for the duration, they're going to have to take old dresses and make them over.

Of course there are going to be some ready made dresses. The material will be mostly rayon, of which there is a plentiful supply, but cotton dresses will be few and far between.

Nylon dresses and wool suits and dresses are out for the duration.

And cotton yard goods is as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth.

In fact, all general dry goods is scarce in all markets.

Mr. Blyton said that he had been able to buy only a portion of the goods that he had anticipated buying, both in yard goods and ready made dresses. He is going to the New York market in a few days in an effort to get additional merchandise.

Curtains and draperies are affected the same as yard goods.

Mr. Blyton told two stories, which demonstrate the situation with respect to goods.

With the government releasing only a meagre amount of raw cotton to the manufacturers of commercial merchandise, he said the shortage of yard goods is such that dress manufacturers which ordinarily purchase in 1000-yard lots are now tickled when they can buy bolts of from 30 to 40 yards.

Another story, told by a curtain manufacturer was that he had received a contract from the government for the manufacture of eight million yards of fine mosquito netting for use of soldiers in fighting insects in the tropical countries where they are also fighting axis soldiers.

And according to Mr. Blyton this all adds up to the fact that the ladies are going to have to re-make some of their old dresses, for a supply adequate for peace time purchases will not be available.

Horsepower is WAR POWER producing for Victory!

Back of every tank and plane and gun produced in Michigan is the weapon that makes all the rest possible... horsepower. And as scientists have so aptly pointed out—horsepower is WAR POWER.

Our nation alone has more horsepower than the combined total of all our enemies. A single turbo-generator, like the one shown above, produces enough electricity to supply the normal needs of 250,000 average families. A new generator like this one will shortly be added to Detroit Edison lines, and most of its power will go to producing the weapons of war. And that generator represents less than 7 per cent of the entire Detroit Edison capacity.

Today The Detroit Edison Company's total generating capacity is 5 1/2 times as large as during World War I, and more than half of this enormous power is being used in war production. During 1942, power for war production totaled over TWO BILLION kilowatt-hours. In the most important weapon of all—POWER—we are well armed. Electricity must keep the war plants humming... and for that vital job we are prepared.

Official Proceedings of the Plymouth City Commission

Plymouth, Michigan January 4, 1943.
A regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the City Hall on Monday, January 4, 1943 at 7:30 p.m.
Present: Mayor Whipple, Commissioners Hondorp, Jolliffe and Robinson.
Absent: Comm. Lewis.
The minutes of the regular meeting of December 21st and the special meeting of December 31st were approved as read.
The Clerk read the following reports: (1) Health; (2) Treasurer; (3) Building and an informal report of Mr. Young of the Layne Northern company on the tests for hardness for the water in the new well. It was moved by Comm. Robinson and supported by Comm. Jolliffe that these reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.
This was the night set for the public hearing on the proposed construction of a sidewalk on the South side of Carol, west of Harvey. The following resolution was offered by Comm. Robinson and supported by Comm. Jolliffe:

WHEREAS, a public hearing has been held covering the proposed improvement and no valid objections have been received, and
WHEREAS, the plan, profile and estimate covering the proposed improvement have been accepted and are now on file in the office of the City Engineer,
NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Commission approve and declare its intention to proceed with the construction of a sidewalk on the South side of Carol from South Harvey west to the last house.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Assessor be directed to prepare an assessment roll covering the total cost of the improvement.
Ayes: Mayor Whipple, Commissioners Hondorp, Jolliffe and Robinson.
Nays: None. Carried.
A request was made by the Pentecost church to hold street services. Because of the lack of information it was moved by Comm. Jolliffe and supported by Comm. Hondorp that the request be tabled. Carried.
A communication was received from the Michigan Municipal League. This communication was accepted and placed on file.
The Clerk read proposed ordinance No. 116. Mr. Butler and Mr. Todd, representing the bowling alleys in town, objected to the amendment to the Ordinance. Homer Williams was present and thought it would be possible to obtain the necessary regulations concerning pool rooms in another way. It was moved by Comm. Jolliffe and supported by Comm. Hondorp that the question of the proposed ordinance No. 116 be tabled. Carried.
Mr. Herbert Olson, Director of the Michigan Municipal League, was present to discuss with the Commission a Municipal Pension Plan. Many angles were discussed and much information was left in order that the members of the Commission could review the various plans in other cities in the state.
It was moved by Comm. Hondorp and supported by Comm. Robinson that the bills in the amount of $917.48 as audited by the auditing committee be approved.

Ayes: Mayor Whipple, Commissioners Hondorp, Jolliffe and Robinson.
Nays: None. Carried.
It was moved by Comm. Hondorp and supported by Comm. Robinson that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment 10:25 p.m.
RUTH H. WHIPPLE, Mayor.
CLARENCE ELLIOTT, Clerk.

Homemaking Version of Little Red Riding Hood

Once upon a time there lived a little girl. Her name was Red Ridinghood because her mother had made her a cape of red wool lined with brown fur. She had made it of wool because it is the warmest fibre.

Now, little Red Ridinghood's grandmother lived on the other side of the forest and she was sick, so little Red Ridinghood wanted to go to see her and take her some enriched bread and some honey.

On the way she met the bad wolf who was very grouchy because he was out of vegetables and he didn't want to hunt for any. He stopped little Red Ridinghood and inquired where she was going and what she had in her basket. She explained that she had enriched bread because it is better for you.

The wolf ran on. Little Red Ridinghood saw some pretty flowers and stopped to pick some for her grandmother's table. Little Red Ridinghood had learned that artificial flowers shouldn't be used on a dining table.

Meanwhile the wolf had reached the grandmother's house and had gobbled up the old lady which was very hard on his digestive system. He quickly put on the grandmother's nightgown of orange flannel and hid his orange shirt and red overalls under the bed. The poor wolf didn't know much about color combination and consumer buying. His overalls were always too small after washing as he didn't know about the Sanforized ones.

Hearing little Red Ridinghood at the door the wolf jumped in between the percale sheets and pulled the down comforter up to his ears.

"Why, what is the matter, Grandma?" asked little Red Ridinghood.

"I have a bad cold as I went without my rubbers yesterday," replied the wolf.

"But Grandma, what long ears you have," said the child.

"The better to hear you my dear, even if they aren't very clean."

"Oh, Grandmother, what bright eyes you have."

"That's because I eat carrots, replied the wolf, having heard about Vitamin A."

Then Red Ridinghood got out some of her grandmother's mending and darned three socks, patched two aprons and a skirt and sewed on ten buttons.

"Grandmother, there is an ink spot on this apron, shall I remove it with hydrogen peroxide?" said little Red Ridinghood.

"Yes, said the wolf not knowing what she meant."

Then the little girl noticed the wolf's teeth.

Oh, Granny, what have you done to your teeth? They are so big and white. Have you been using an approved toothpaste?"

"Yes, my dear and now I am going to try them," he replied.

The wolf leaped for the little girl and she ran screaming out the door. Some woodcutters heard her cries and came running to save her.

The bad wolf was killed and the little girl returned to her home. Her mother put her to bed and gave her warm milk to drink. Little Red Ridinghood drank all of it because she knew it was good for her as it contained minerals and vitamins necessary for good health.

Junior Rings Due This Month

Due to a slight misunderstanding the juniors believed they would not receive their class rings until March. Mr. Herriek, the jeweler, has corrected that by stating that the rings and pins ordered in November will arrive the latter part of this month. Those ordering rings now will receive theirs as soon as possible, probably in March.

Pioneers Outscore Rocks, 32-16

After taking the lead in the first ten seconds of the game by swishing in a basket, the Dearborn Pioneers scored thirty more points throughout the thirty-two minutes of play to beat the Plymouth Rocks squad 32-16 in a league basketball game here last Friday night. The Rocks could score but two points to the Pioneers six in the first period, but in the second quarter Plymouth got back in the game by making eight points to Dearborn's eleven. The half ended with the score of 17-10.

The third period proved to be the downfall of the Rocks, as they scored but one point. Consequently the Pioneers took a big lead which proved to be too large for the Plymouth squad to overcome, although they gathered in five points during the fourth quarter.

High scorer of the game was Wisely of Dearborn who sank baskets totaling eleven points. Ebersole, Plymouth captain, was high point man with seven points. Gillis, Bennett, and Hunt each had four, three and two, respectively.

Of Plymouth's nine foul shots, the Rocks made but four; Dearborn sank four of their ten foul shots.

Samples of jujuits were given throughout the game.

Starting lineups: Plymouth: Ebersole, f; Bennett, f; Gillis, c; Hunt, g; Donahue, g; Subs: Newton, Upton, Brink, and Sheppard.

Dearborn: Wisely, f; Hix, f; Linton, c; Chaddock, g; Gregory, g; Subs: Filer, Cameron, Hagelton, Wagner and Rothwell.

Here and There

A new club in school, the Lambda Alpha held a party at Peggy Hart's house a week ago Saturday. The members there were Barbara Butt, president of the club; Nan Baker, secretary-treasurer; Virginia Woolsey, Bernice Whyatt, Peggy Hart, Dorothea Petschulat, Dorothy Rowland, Reta Daggett, Annabel Heller, Norma Robinson, Mary Brandt, Irene Neidospal, Jim Baker, Gordon Vetal, Joe Brisbois, Bill Brose, Downing Jewell, Clarence Hoffman, Joe Martin, Malcolm MacGregor, Bill Bartel Warren Mason, Bill Wooster, Dick Neale and Bob Thams. The gang danced to the records and ate sandwiches.

Gloris Eckles entertained Ivan Campbell, Bev. Bovee, and Duane Johnson after the game Friday.

Marion Bakewell entertained about thirty-five people last Saturday. The gang danced and ate sandwiches.

Jean Crandell, Dick Behler, Marleeta Martin, Bill Keefer, Nina Jean Lawson, and Dick Neale went tobogganing last Saturday evening. Afterwards they had hamburgers at Plymouth Grill.

Dorrit Strauss, Esther Mettetal, Sally Jean Haas, and Dorothy Fisher went to an inter-club council meeting at the Y. W. C. A. in Highland Park Saturday.

Bob Fisher and Dorothy Fisher went for a long hike and then to the show Sunday.

Sally Jean Haas, Dorothy Fisher and Bob Fisher saw "For Me and My Gall" at the United Artist Saturday evening.

Pat Hudson, Signe Herge, Marjorie McKeague and Shirley Ely, both of Northville, had dinner at Hunds and stayed all night with Marjorie.

A dinner was enjoyed by Annabelle Becker, Lloyd Clark, Rose and Glen Stapp, Yvonne Sawyer, Junior Rorabacher, Donna Becker, and George Rathburn at Becker's house, after which they saw "A Yank at Eton" at the "Penn." From there tobogganing and a lunch at Becker's.

Class News

The French I class of Miss Killham has received names of pupils in foreign lands with whom they will correspond. Because the names of students in Europe were impossible to obtain this year, the bulk of the correspondences will be with pupils in Quebec, Haiti, and South America.

The International Student Society, from whom the names were obtained, suggested that the letters be sent via air mail to South America as ones going through regular channels would take three months to get there.

Mrs. Bixler's biology classes are finishing the study of the human digestive system. Included in the study are the digestive enzymes and their functions.

Miss Fiegel's American history classes are discussing the annexation of Texas, the Mexican War, and the settlement of our northern boundaries.

Dividing line segments into any number of parts, proving triangles and parallelograms congruent, and constructing figures are the work of Mr. Blunk's geometry classes.

Keeping Up With Plymouth

Say, remember that blonde senior we all used to call "Silly Sally"? Well, I guess we'd all better try to think up a new name for her cause she seems to be more adult lately. It couldn't be she's in love, could it? Don't shake with terror if Noel Hoyer should come up to any of you and start firing questions like, "Where were you on the night of January 16?" (Sunday). He's really not nosie, but just practicing his part for the Senior play.

Note to Pee Wee: Yours truly agrees with you that postum truly is good to drink as coffee, but then milk is better for us anyway.

Here's a bouquet to both Marion Goodman and Gordon Vetal. You have both worked hard for the title of the best citizens in the Senior class and you deserve it.

In government class it was explained to the students (Ahem) that the county clerk issued both marriage and dog licenses. One brains student piped up with the reply, "I thought they were the same thing." Funny but I'm inclined to agree with her.

Jimmy Baker seems to be getting rather interested in two junior girls. Did you know Annie calls him her steady.

Say what is this we hear about the "Murray-off-Spring"? Why not ask J. Murray? Be careful, she might wash your face.

Senior Sketches

Virginia Moss, better known as "Mousey," daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moss, lives at 1279 West Ann Arbor Trail. Her accomplishments in school are many, including the student of the Girl Scouts in her freshman year; the Drama club in her sophomore year, The Junior play, the J-Hop committee, Girl Reserves, and one of the Pilgrim Prints staff in her junior year; and in her senior year she was on the Prom and Senior Annual committees, and is in Girl Reserves and the Junior Red Cross. She has traveled in England, in Canada, in the United States and in northern Michigan. Collecting silver jewelry is her hobby and she names as her pet peeve, having to wait for some one.

Margaret Jean (Mugs) Nichol, says that "nothing in particular and everything in general" is her pet peeve. She is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Walter Nichol, of 737 Church street. She was in the Girl Scouts for two years of her high school and is now in the Girl Reserves. She was assistant editor of the senior annual and has been on the junior play, J-Hop, Junior-Senior banquet, and the Prom committees. In her freshman year she was in the student council and in stunt night. She was in the double quartette in her junior and senior years, is in orchestra for her senior year and has had something to do with music all her high school years. She has taken part, and still does in all sports and has won her 1000 point letter. She plans to be a laboratory technician "or something."

Marie Jossens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jossens, lives at 9627 Arden in Rosedale Gardens. In school she has been a member of the Home Economics club and has worked on Prom invitations and the annual. Marie has traveled through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Canada, Upper Michigan, and Wisconsin. Her hobby is the piano, while her aim in life is to be a child's nurse. Marie's pet peeve is people who talk behind one's back.

Dorothy Marie Fisher, daughter of Clyde C. Fisher of 1034 York street, has music, sports, and reading as her hobbies. Her aim in life is to be successful in whatever she does and her pet peeve is plaids and stripes worn together. In school she was a member of Girl Reserves six years, Leaders club five years, Home Economics club one year, General Chairman of the J-Hop, Secretary of the Student Council, on senior prom and junior play committees, and she is now president of the Senior Girl Reserves, was the intermediate Girl Reserve president, and has a Girl Reserve ring.

Leon Bakhaus is extremely interested in horses and her hobbies are all things connected with them. She lives at 4441 Warren road with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bakhaus. Her accomplishments are being in Leaders club and the student council; she has been on Prom and J-Hop committees. Leona also has gone to the Honor Banquet for three years. Her travels have been through Kentucky, Missouri,

Final Exam. Schedule

Final examination will be held this year in the same manner as last year. They will be given on Wednesday and Thursday, January 27 and 28, during the regular school hours, students taking the first half of their exams on Wednesday during the regular class time, and the second half on Thursday. Thus, if your first hour class is English, you take the first part of your exam on Wednesday, first hour, and the rest of it on Thursday, first hour, and the same thing for the rest of your classes. Although there will be no school Friday, the teachers will be present to make out their records, and students are requested to stay away from the school.

When returning to school on Monday each student will first go to his homeroom where the new classification cards and credit slips will be given out, and promotion slips will then be given to all half-year students.

Goodman and Vetal Best Citizens

Marion Goodman and Gordon Vetal were chosen as the best girl and boy citizen of the Senior class last Friday. At a meeting of all Seniors Thursday, January 7, all the members of the class submitted their choices as to the best boy and girl citizen by secret ballot. The three highest were then given to the teachers who picked the one boy and one girl.

Dependability, leadership, service, and patriotism were the points used in judging. The three from which Marion and Gordon were chosen were Fern Dipboye, Dorothy Fisher and Marion Goodman; Bill Upton, Jack Kenyon, and Gordon Vetal.

Reserves Trounced By Dearborn 34-23

Although beaten by their Dearborn opponents, too, the Rock Reserves fared better than Plymouth's first team, as they lost by only seven points, 34-23. The Reserves held Dearborn to a five-point lead in the first half, 18-13, but the Dearborn Pioneers proved too much for the Rocks in the second half. Johnson was high point man for Plymouth with seven points, while Schultz was a close second with six to his credit. Neundorf and Lewis each had seven points to share the honors of highest scorer on the Dearborn team. Riemas, Micol, Erdelyi, and Williams had four, three, two, and one points each respectively.

Starting lineups: Plymouth: Schultz, f; Bauman, f; Riemas, c; Johnson, g; Robertson, g; Subs: Phillips, Micol, Erdelyi, Williams, Gdaniec.

Dearborn: Neundorf, Dugeon, Keimi, Dewulf, Lewis. Subs: Cable, Connolly, Johnson, Laroy.

Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, Arkansas, Tennessee, and California. Leona's pet peeve is the United States Marines.

William John Brose, who lives at 11311 Hemmingway with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brose, interested in making the world a better place in which to live. Bill's accomplishments while in school are football, boys' chorus, Prom and J-Hop committees, Junior and Senior plays. His hobbies are sports, model building, and stamp collecting. Bill does not believe in pet peeves. He feels that this world would not be in the mess it is in if we were without them.

Betty Hines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hines, lives at 1051 North Mill street. She has taken part in all girl athletics and was a member of the Senior Prom Committee. Betty has traveled through New England and the northern and southern states. Her hobby is the piano with her tastes ranging from popular to classical music; while her aim is to be successful and happy in life. Betty's pet peeve is girls who paint their lipstick above their lips.

Marie Jossens, daughter off Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jossens lives at 9627 Arden in Rosedale Gardens. In school she has been a member of the Home Economics club and has worked on Prom invitations and the annual. Marie has traveled through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Canada, Upper Michigan, and Wisconsin. Her hobby is the piano, while her aim in life is to be a child's nurse. Marie's pet peeve is people who talk behind one's back.

Honor Roll

The honor roll for the third marking period dropped to a new low. It included nine per cent of the 134 eighth graders, seven per cent of the 234 eighth graders, fourteen per cent of the 277 freshmen, thirteen per cent of the 236 sophomores, nine per cent of the 222 juniors, and eleven per cent of the 235 seniors. The eighth graders raised their percentage three points, the seniors raised one point, the juniors dropped five, the seventh and ninth graders remain at the same level and the sophomores dropped in theirs. Absence due to sickness, the holiday, day of unnecessary absence, and many extra curricular doings were reasons causing the drop in honor roll percentages; aside from the ever-prevalent laziness.

From 7 to 162 Seniors in 60 Years

Sometime before 1830 a school, a log cabin with hevn logs for seats without backs, was erected on Shattuck Hill, just opposite the entrance of Riverside Cemetery. In 1830 this school was replaced by one on Penniman avenue, the first frame school. Other schools (log cabins) were located on the corner of North Territorial and Sheldon, one on the corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Sheldon, and one on Golden street, known as the Ruttner district. In 1836 a select school was built on the corner of Main and Starkweather. In 1840 a school house, called the Seminary, was located on Church street. Later repairs were made on the building to accommodate the increasing population. In 1884 the Seminary was torn down and a new building was erected. Later this building was moved to Ann Arbor Trail across from the hotel and until two years ago the Artificial Ice company occupied it for their own use. In 1907 a new building was erected on the present site and in March, 1916 the school house burned, destroying all records. For the remainder of the school year, and part of the next, pupils were taught in churches, factories, lodge rooms, and in one of Mrs. Allen's buildings. In 1917 they were brought together in our present school building.

Horseshoe Fails To Bring Good Luck

It takes more than luck to win basketball games. That is what the basketball squad and their coach, Mr. Matulis, found out last Friday night. The day after the Plymouth victory over Birmingham, Coach Matulis nailed a horseshoe over the door in his room, hoping that the team would continue victorious. The fate of the horseshoe is now undecided, however, for last Friday night Dearborn rolled over Plymouth to an easy victory. The reason for this bad luck is believed to have been found by Mrs. Matulis, for when seeing the horseshoe she exclaimed, "Why you've nailed the horseshoe wrong-end up."

"Night of January 16" Is Senior Play

The Night of January 16 was chosen by the Senior class for their annual play. All act take place in a court room while the story centers around a murder trial. The plot is extremely interesting and complicated. Tryouts were Tuesday, January 7, but the whole cast will not be announced until a later date. In the past there have usually been two casts, but this year one will play both Thursday and Friday evenings except for the lead.

New Club Discusses League of Nations

The International Relations Discussion group discussed the League of Nations at their first organized meeting. In studying the League they paid special attention to its formation, personnel, aims and objectives. During the next few meetings the efforts of the people to live under the League will be explained. Dorrit Strauss was the discussion leader Tuesday, January 5. Anyone who is interested in the work of this group may listen to the discussion every Tuesday noon.

HALDOR BURDEN WINS FIRST PROMOTION IN U. S. ARMY

Haldor R. Burden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burden of Adams street, writes from Camp Maxey in Texas that he has just won his first stripes in Uncle Sam's army. The young man, who worked in one of the Ford factories before he entered the army service, has been promoted to private, first class and hopes soon to win his corporal stripes. He writes that he is most appreciative of The Plymouth Mail, which not only keeps him in touch with the news of his home town, but with other boys who have entered the service.

ROBERT KENYON HAS BRIEF FURLOUGH

Robert Kenyon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kenyon, has been home on a brief furlough from Fort Lewis, Washington, where he has been stationed for the past few months. The young man likes the army, says he thoroughly enjoys the activities of a soldier's life and declares that army food just couldn't be better. He's a corporal now and is working for promotion to a serjeancy.

HARRY DONOHUE HAS BECOME CRACK SHOT AND WINS ARMY MEDAL

Private Harry Donohue, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Donohue of Hamilton street who is stationed at Camp Carson, Colorado, has just been awarded an expert rifleman's medal as the result of his perfect shooting on the rifle range. The medal he has been awarded is highly prized among the boys in the army.

LIKES EXPERIENCE IN NEW ARMY RAILROAD CAMP IN ARKANSAS

Sergeant Frank W. Loomis, who has been located at Camp Claiborne in Louisiana, writes that he has been transferred to a railroad army training camp in Arkansas.

"We are located here at the home town of the well known 'Arkansas Traveler,'" writes Sergeant Loomis and are getting in our railroad training. We like it here real well. This is a fine camp, with excellent equipment and the people treat us swell," he says.

"There is quite a lot of farming around here and Van Buren being a railroad division point, makes this locality a rather prosperous place.

"We came up from Camp Claiborne, Louisiana some weeks ago and received a royal welcome from the townspeople here.

"The weather has been very nice, quite cold at times, but no snow. There has been considerable rain. The weather here is no where near as severe as it is back home.

"Before I go any farther with this letter, I am certainly going to thank you for sending me The Mail and keeping me in touch with all that is going on. It comes as regular as clock work.

"Expect to be sent to another camp this week and will send you my address as soon as I am sure where I will be. I feel more like an army man now, as I received my promotion to staff serjeant, effective January 1.

"I have received a card from my nephew, Max McDonald, who is now located with the army at Fedahala, French Morocco. He says he is doing well, has been under fire and it's no Sunday school picnic. Thanks a million for the good old Plymouth Mail."

SPENDING WINTER IN FLORIDA, AND HOW HE DOES LIKE IT!

Private Eugene Nipper, a Plymouth lad now stationed down somewhere near Marianna, Florida, writes The Mail that he never thought he would have the opportunity to spend this winter in Florida. He says he is enjoying the weather something like a year ago.

"It doesn't seem much like Christmas down here, as it was quite warm and lots of sunshine. I never thought I would be spending this winter in Florida, but it's nice to be here," he writes.

"I have intended to write to you for sometime and tell you how much I appreciate the fact that you send The Mail to me every week. I have received it ever since I entered the army, and it's just like a great big letter.

"I have been giving an ambulance since I have been down South and spending much of my time out on flying fields in case of crashes, but there hasn't been anything for me to do, as we don't have them. Have had only one or two minor accidents that didn't amount to anything.

"Well, it's good to read in The Mail what the folks back home are doing in the war bond campaign. I am sure Plymouth people will keep up their great work."

"It is surprising to see the number of boys in Plymouth who have gone into service. There are quite a few Plymouth boys within 150 miles of where I am, but so far I haven't been fortunate enough to meet any of them. Thanks again."

CAN ONLY SEE THE SKY FROM THE CAMP WHERE HE'S IN TRAINING

So high are the mountains surrounding Camp White in Oregon that about the only thing one can see from the camp is the sky and the tops of the mountains, says Celestine G. Ash, home on a brief furlough.

"We are right down in a big valley, where the mountains rise thousands of feet above us on every side. It's a wonderful place. Snow covers the top of the mountains all the time. When we went out there they said there were lots of rattlesnakes in that valley, but we have never seen any. I guess the construction crews must have killed them all off. The weather is mighty fine," he added. Soldier Ash was formerly employed at the Wayne County Training school. Before coming to Plymouth he was a resident of Belding, Michigan. He says he doesn't know how he could get along in the army without The Plymouth Mail.

BOYS IN ARMY DON'T LIKE TO READ ABOUT THE STRIKES

From Private Arthur Lockwood, with Uncle Sam's fighting forces down in Tennessee, comes a letter in which he declares that the boys in army certainly do not like to read about the strikes and labor troubles back home.

"Maybe if we should lose this war—which we will not—those strikers would have something to think about, if they can do such a thing as think," he writes.

"We are working seven days a week here and we do not mind it, for we are proud of the fact that we are helping out our country. I'm mighty proud to be an American citizen and I hope when it is all over I can come back to my home on Joy road and marry the girl I've loved since she was 13. Until that day, her name's a 'military secret.' But if she reads my letter in The Mail, I'm sure she will know.

"We are getting ready tonight to leave for a bivouac up in the mountains. It's 80 miles from here, and we'll be sleeping out in tents they say. I have heard that there is more than two feet of snow up there.

"We had a splendid Christmas here and we all pray that we will be able to have many more of them.

"I'm more proud of Plymouth every day when I read of all the things the good people are doing there for the boys in the army."

He sends thanks along to every one who was so thoughtful in remembering him with gifts and cards at Christmas time.

BOYS OF '43 FIGHT OVER DAYS OF CIVIL WAR WITH "CONFEDERATES"

How times do change! Boys who are the grandsons of men in blue and grandsons of men in gray, training together in army and navy camps, the land over, become the closest of friends—but how they will argue over the Civil War!

Harold E. Wilson, Plymouth lad now stationed at a United States Naval Reserve base in Oklahoma, writes as follows to The Plymouth Mail:

"I received my copy of The Mail Monday and I am looking forward to the next copy. It seems swell to read about your friends and home surroundings. It makes distance between here and home much shorter.

"I have six fellow Michiganders in my barracks, also, quite a few shipmates from the southern states, hence the Civil War is fought over again, but always in the friendly argument way. They are still a swell bunch of fellows.

"I really want to thank you for sending all us fellows our hometown paper. I think if more papers followed suit it would do much to help us keep our morale flying high.

"I'd like to correspond with some of my buddies so here is my address (Ask The Mail).

"Thanking you again."

CLIFFORD CLINE NOW SECOND LIEUTENANT IN ANTI-AIRCRAFT FORCES

Clifford Cline, well known resident of this city who entered the anti-aircraft artillery school at Camp Davis, North Carolina, sometime ago, has been graduated as a second lieutenant.

Following the successful completion of his officer's course, he was given a furlough and has been spending several days with Mrs. Cline at their home on Mill street. He left for another camp late last week where he will be assigned to duty. Lieutenant Cline was the first Plymouth resident to enlist for officers' training. When he entered the army he was a junior in the Detroit College of Law. Previously he had been engaged in the brokerage business in Detroit. Mrs. Cline is the present cashier at the Penn theatre.

His father, Fred K. Cline, has for years been superintendent of the Daisy Manufacturing company.

DAVID B. SWEENEY IS STAFF SERGEANT

Sergeant David B. Sweeney, stationed at the Army Air Forces Basic Training center at Kearns, Utah, has been promoted from Sergeant to Staff Sergeant, it is announced by Colonel Converse R. Lewis, commander at the camp.

The brother of Mrs. Lauretta A. Hoops of 35336 Chestnut street, Wayne, Staff Sergeant Sweeney is aiding in the training of new soldiers at this station. He has been in the Air Forces since March 12, 1942.

Staff Sergeant Sweeney was among several hundred enlisted men at this post who received promotions this month.

Each soldier going through training at this station is instructed in formation drill, the manual of arms, and the use of pistol, rifle, machine gun and gas mask. Upon completion of training here men are assigned to duty with various Air Forces units.

THINKS PLYMOUTH CANTEN CLUB IS GREAT ORGANIZATION

Soldier Robert C. Weaver who is stationed at Alameda, California, asks The Mail to express his appreciation to the members of the Plymouth Canteen club for their thoughtfulness in sending the soldiers such an acceptable package of gifts as he received recently.

"It is grand to think that the folks back home have organized such a club. I really appreciate the gift more than I can express," writes Robert.

"I am again receiving The Mail after having been transferred from down in Florida out to the Pacific coast. You don't know how good it seems to read all the news in The Mail.

"Have you ever heard from Roger McClain and Don Schille since they left Florida? We were in school down there together, you will remember. I am hoping for a leave of absence soon and if I get home, will make it a point to be sure and visit you."

Mrs. Earl Gray entertained her "500" club members at a lovely luncheon on Wednesday.

HIS OUTFIT GOING TO BE BEST TRAINED IN ENTIRE ARMY

When old Uncle Sam promoted Melvin K. Zimmer to first serjeant recently at Atlantic City, he made no mistake, judging from a most enthusiastic letter that has just come from the young man.

"Don't know when I will ever get back to Plymouth. Things are happening pretty fast in this man's army. But there is one thing sure, when we get wherever we are going, I'll be up in front leading the best darn outfit that was ever equipped at this field. They've made me first serjeant and I will be given the chance to organize and train my own men before we take off," writes the enthusiastic young man.

"Say hello to Ralph Lorepf, of the Mayflower, Dr. Brisbois, Klaska and my friends in The Plymouth Mail office. Thanks to you again for sending me The Plymouth Mail."

PLENTY OF RATTLES DOWN IN ARIZONA SAYS SERG. VAN AMBURG

Sergeant and Mrs. Keith Van Amburg are spending a brief furlough with relatives and friends in Plymouth and Northville, having arrived early last week from Blythe, California, where Sergeant Van Amburg is stationed.

He is with a heavy bombardment squadron and during recent months has been located in Washington, Oregon and Arizona.

"Down in Arizona where we were stationed, it was pretty hot and no one ever saw so many rattlesnakes as there are in that part of the country. When the camp was being built, they say, the engineers took out truck loads of rattlesnakes," he said.

"Down where we are now, there are not many of them. They grow quite a bit of cotton in this place, but we are so busy we do not have much chance to see the country."

Sergeant Van Amburg graduated from the Plymouth high school with the class of 1938. He has been in the army for a year, declares that the food is wonderfully good and that everything possible is done for the benefit of the soldiers.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Van Amburg, 420 Adams street, where the soldier and his wife are spending their brief furlough. Mrs. Van Amburg is the former Arlene Blaka, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Blake of Northville. She is with her husband in the West.

TRAINS FOR RADIO OPERATING ON FIGHTING BOMBER

Hosea A. Carter Jr., son of Mrs. M. L. Carter of 36461 Parkside Drive, is now at Scott Field, Illinois where he will receive an intensive course in radio operating and mechanics to fit him for duty as a member of a fighting bomber crew.

During his training period there, Private Carter will be taught by experts as to aptitudes for special types of work, and when his course is finished he will be sent to more advanced traiping centers which are part of the vast network of technical training command schools under Major General Walter R. Weaver. Upon graduation he will be well qualified for duty as an expert radio operator or technician wherever his service are required by the Army Air Forces.

Scott Field, known throughout the service as the "Radio University of the Air Forces," is located six miles from Belleville, Illinois in the "Looking Glass country," immortalized by Charles Dickens. Formerly by Charles Dickens. Formerly by Charles Dickens.

ground for aviators in World War I, it is now devoted exclusively to the production of radio operators and mechanics.

FRANK E. OCKERT ENLISTS IN ARMY, GOES TO FORT CUSTER

Frank E. Ockert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ockert of Newburg road, who recently enlisted for services in Uncle Sam's army, left last Thursday with the 22 inducted boys for Fort Custer. It is not known to what training camp he will be assigned, but it will doubtless be somewhere in the South or Southwest, as that is where most of the boys have been going "to spend the winter" since late fall.

Police Pick Up Boys Loitering Back of Stores Early in Morn

Four west Detroit youths were caught loitering in the alleyway back of Wolf's Market Sunday morning at 4 a.m. The boys ranged in age from 18 to 13 and all had police records.

The oldest of the boys was turned over by the police to the wayward minor division of the probate court, and the others were detained by the juvenile court. There is no indication that any of them had broken into any place of business.

However, the fact that they ran when they were accosted by Officers Kenneth Fisher and Loren Johnson was sufficient for their detention.

Police Chief Charles Thumme said that "any youths caught loitering in places where they had no business would be handled in the same manner."

TUNE YOUR CAR TO Today's KIND OF DRIVING!

1943 DRIVING IS DIFFERENT! THAT MEANS YOUR CAR ADJUSTMENTS SHOULD BE DIFFERENT, TOO!

High speeds, long trips, and wasteful use of gas are OUT for the Duration. That calls for new adjustments, to fit today's kind of driving.

TO FIT YOUR CAR FOR THIS NEW KIND OF DRIVING...

- 1 NO MORE HIGH-SPEED PERFORMANCE—Your car was engineered and powered for finest performance at speeds much higher than 35 miles an hour. It should be adjusted for war-time driving.
- 2 NO MORE HIGH-OCTANE GASOLINE—Octane ratings of all gasolines are definitely lower than in pre-war days. Your car should be adjusted to its new diet, to prevent wasteful "pinging."
- 3 LESS GASOLINE—Whether you're an "A," "B," or "C" book holder, every drop of gas must count. All maintenance operations should be made to provide maximum fuel economy at 35 m. p. h. and under.
- 4 LESS DRIVING—It's a fact—too little "exercise" for your car can be as harmful as too much. More frequent checking and adjustment of battery and electrical system will be necessary to prevent trouble.
- 5 CARS ARE BEING DRIVEN LONGER—Today's average car has older tires, older brakes, and older steering equipment. Safety inspection and adjustments are more important than ever.
- 6 SLOWER DRIVING AND SHORTER TRIPS—Slower driving, frequent stopping, and short trips that never let the engine warm up thoroughly, may result in water and sludge in the crankcase, causing danger of sticky valves and clogging of oil screens.

IT SHOULD HAVE THIS SPECIAL KIND OF SERVICE

- 1 TUNE-UP FOR SMOOTH OPERATION AT LOWER SPEEDS—We adjust carburetor, timing, spark plugs, choke, and heat controls, and put all units in top condition for smoother low-speed performance.
- 2 ADJUSTMENT FOR LOWER OCTANE GAS—Your engine may need a valve grind, carbon removal, or a timing adjustment to fit it for today's fuels. We are equipped to do the whole job right.
- 3 FUEL ECONOMY ADJUSTMENTS—In addition to tuning up the engine, we check for dragging brakes, leaking gas lines, and other causes of fuel waste such as the use of improper lubricants.
- 4 BATTERY CHECK-UP—Let us check the condition of your battery regularly, and make sure that your generator and voltage regulator are functioning properly to keep your battery fully charged under reduced driving conditions.
- 5 CHECK BRAKES, TIRES, STEERING, LIGHTS, ETC.—Our "Safety Service" includes the important adjustments and replacements that are so necessary as your car grows older, to compensate for wear.
- 6 MORE FREQUENT OIL CHANGES—Let us check your crankcase for oil dilution, every 500 miles or 30 days. Changing the lubricating oil at correct intervals will keep condensation, rust, acids, water and sludge to a minimum.

WHAT'S THIS?

One of the major legislative questions to be considered soon by Michigan's law-makers will be a request of the new Governor that the executive office be granted extraordinary emergency powers. He is asking for more authority than ever possessed by any other governor who ever served the state to "meet wartime problems that may arise."

Let us see—are we not the same Republicans who have berated and damned congress for giving unto the President "extraordinary emergency power"? Haven't we called congress every vile name we could think of for having surrendered its "rights" to the executive office?

Are we not the same Republicans who applauded congressmen eight or ten months ago when they took the bits in their teeth and denied to the President additional executive authority?

And didn't we slap down a lot of congressional "yes-men" in the last election because they did not have the gumption to stand up and demand that congress assert its rights and not delegate to some official or bureaucrat a lot of extraordinary powers because of the war?

The Michigan constitution gives the Governor a right to convene the legislature in immediate session on "extraordinary occasions." That means the Governor can call the legislature into extra session at any time an emergency may arise.

If necessary to enforce existing laws, suppress insurrection or repel invasion, he can use all of the military and police powers of the state.

A Governor of Michigan has tremendous powers under the present constitution and present state laws, probably more than in most other states of the union.

For more than a quarter of a century we have known personally most of the members of Michigan legislatures. They have been outstanding patriotic citizens, men who have given freely of their time, abilities and efforts to serve their state well and faithfully. Of course in such a large group as makes up a state legislature, now and then there will be a few misfits and unfit, but on the whole, Michigan legislators have been and are a high type group of citizens. Their collective judgment has generally been above par.

Why then take away the benefit of their judgment and their abilities at a time when they are of the greatest value to the state?

If some extraordinary situation should arise as a result of the war demanding unusual action, members of the legislature would instantly and gladly answer a call to Lansing and help solve any situation that might arise due to the war or other causes.

Scores of times in past years Michigan legislators have left their farms, their stores, their offices and their jobs, paid their own expenses and served in extra sessions for days and weeks without extra compensation, to help solve some immediate and pressing problem of the state.

If a Republican legislature in Michigan should grant extraordinary executive powers to the Governor, as he has requested, are we not, as Republicans, making a farce of our position in connection with the very same issue in our national government?

It is quite apparent that the request has placed the Republican party of Michigan in a rather unfortunate position, in view of all that we have said and done in the last few years about this very problem in connection with the national administration.

We have had enough of government by executive and bureaucratic dictation from Washington and we think it a lot of presumption upon the part of any one to ask for the creation of a similar situation in Lansing. The people made it quite manifest last fall by their votes that they do not like it and do not want it. While it is true that we are in a great crisis, we do not believe that justifies the disruption of an orderly conducted government.

Our recommendation in this matter is that the legislature, do as it has always done, use its best judgment and keep its control of state affairs as provided within the constitution. The legislature and Michigan can act mightily quickly if and when the "emergency" should arise. And Michigan will NOT FAIL when that time comes.

LOOK ABOUT YOU!

Grandma Free Press, that famous old lady of Michigan journalism who two or three years ago shortened her skirts and powdered her nose in an effort to look younger than her years, has been quite upset recently by the leasing of a Hamtramck building owned by the Wilkowski family, to the state liquor commission for use as a liquor store in Hamtramck.

Might we suggest to Dear Grandma that talking to Chairman Thomas of the liquor commission does no good. He's the wrong man to interview. Why not talk with Republican Ex-Senator Felix Flynn, member of the liquor commission who was a side-kick of Democratic Senator Wilkowski of the Hamtramck Wilkowskis during their years of service in the state senate? Wasn't it this Hamtramck Wilkowski who stood manfully by Ex-Senator Flynn when the former Cadillac "statesman" was strangling to death in committee a legislative bill that would have enabled Michigan Republicanism to clean up its own backyard and rid itself of McKayism?

Dear Grandma, you wouldn't suspect for one minute, would you, that the leasing of the Wilkowski building to the state liquor commission, was done without the knowledge and consent—and maybe connivance—of Commissioner Flynn?

We have liked you very much down through the years, more than ever, since you have taken on new life and better looks under the Knightly leadership now directing your destinies. But please do not doze off now and then and permit your readers to believe that you really do not know what's what in the background of what's happening hereabouts.

A GRIEVOUS POLITICAL ERROR.

When President Roosevelt delivered his message to the congress a few days ago, the writer was in bed trying to hasten recovery from a severe cold. We listened with intense interest to a message that at the time we thought would go down as one of the greatest of all state papers. There was no politics, no insinuations. It was a patriotic report of the masterful efforts of a patriotic people.

Then came along the presidential appointment of a Tammany hall ward-heeling politician as ambassador to Australia. While Michigan senators said nothing, aggressive Republican Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire branded the appointment as an insult to the people of Australia. Wendell Willkie declared that the appointment is so "crassly cynical that it must be revolting to all decent citizens."

How unfortunate that in a few brief minutes all of the benefits of a glorious presidential message were blacked out by an inglorious piece of nasty Washington politics.

Maybe a grand jury didn't indict Edward Flynn, chairman of the Democratic national committee and newly appointed ambassador to Australia for graft. Maybe he is innocent, but the mere fact that he was accused and suspected of political graft, is sufficient cause to relegate him to the political ashcan where he belongs with all the others of his type.

It seems incredible that at the very time a petition is on the desk of Governor Tom Dewey of New York asking for a re-opening of the paving brick scandal in which Flynn was involved, that he should be appointed to such a high post within the gift of the government. This is the same Flynn, who, when serving as sheriff of New York appointed Dutch Schultz, one of the country's most notorious criminals, as his chief deputy. We hope that both of Michigan's senators will be right out in the forefront in opposing senatorial confirmation of this appointment.

What Other Editors Say ---

JUST THE BEGINNING.

We are facing, among other things, new and greater taxes, more rationing, the necessity of greater food production, a shortage of man power and a revamping of the extravagant concessions made to labor in the 10-year social-political administration. These are domestic problems of great importance that have a distinct bearing on the everyday lives of every man, woman and child in the United States—in the coming year and the next quarter century.—Schuyler Marshall in The Clinton County (St. Johns) Republican-News.

NOTHING SOLVED.

The removal of Henderson from the OPA won't decrease the flood of rationing which is on its way, nor will it prevent an increase in the number of government controls and restrictions which will govern ordinary living for the duration of the war and possibly for a period of years during what we hope will be the reconstruction period. As a matter of fact, Henderson had sound views on price control and was a courageous, fair-minded and honest administrator. As proof of this, both Republicans and Democrats accused him of "playing ball" with the other side. But Henderson, for all of his ability, seemed to have a streak of immaturity which often made him appear as an irresponsible bully. He tried to browbeat the American public instead of guiding it by persuasion—and that never works. The removal of Henderson was undoubtedly for the best—but it does not solve the many problems of price administration and rationing which are still with us.—Richard Cook in The Hastings Banner.

NO TIME TO GET TIRED.

When there is war we must not get tired of doing anything that will help at all the war efforts of our men in service. If we are tired of reading about drives what about those to be made later in the year. No time now to get tired and this newspaper does not expect to let down one minute in our efforts to help the men in service. The home front cannot get tired.—William Irving in The Sandusky Republican-Tribune.

BUGGYWHIPS AND SHOTGUNS

Scanning of the criminal calendar for the January term of the circuit court might lead an old-fashioned person to the conclusion that there is still a place in civilization for the horsewhip and shotgun. There are 25 cases listed on the criminal calendar. Ten of them are sex offenses ranging from indecent exposure and gross indecency up through the list to rape, of which there are three cases.

While we are fighting for civilization on foreign battlefields we must keep up the fight here at home. Sex and sex appeal have been glorified in late years. The shape of a woman's legs has often meant more than the power of her intellect. We have been besieged by sex from Hollywood, from pulp magazines and the newspapers and radio. Undoubtedly the increase in sexual crimes is one of the prices we have paid for rolling in the gutter. The state prisons are packed with men no higher than the beasts. Those men convicted of sex crimes should never be released. Against wild beasts the only law is that of the jungle. Parents should remember that.—Nelson Brown in The Ingham County News.

MIGRATING VOTERS.

Junking the WPA will not only help solve the local labor problem in defense plants, but stop the influx of Democrats from other states who are flocking to this area. This would no doubt have happened months ago but these votes were needed by Brown and Van Wagoner in the recent election.—George Neal in The Orion Review.

Babson Says--

Believes in The Value of Insurance Stocks

Babson Park, Florida, January 15. Since my recent article on Insurance stocks, many letters have come to me asking why I did not recommend some "mutual" stocks as investments. Well, the simple answer is that mutual companies have no stocks outstanding. This not only means that you cannot buy in to a mutual company, but also that the mutuals have no stock equities to give super-security to policyholders above their surpluses. There also have been other questions which lead me now to discuss the entire "ins-and-outs" of mutuals vs. stock companies.

Let me first say that I believe in all co-operative enterprises if they are headed for the right ultimate goal. But for co-operative groups to keep from becoming inert bureaucracies, they must now have competition from privately owned companies. This is especially true of mutual insurance companies which theoretically should provide lower rates than stock companies.

As a practical matter, if you get a lower rate from a mutual company, it may be due either to your forfeiting the security of the stockholder's equity, or to the fact that the competition from stock companies prevents the mutuals from going to sleep. Eliminate the stock companies and you'll see the mutual premiums go up like a rocket through inefficiency and indifference.

There, however, are other far more important reasons why I now favor all mutual insurance, life, fire and casualty—in stock companies. The stock companies are alive and vital groups, actuated by the free enterprise which has made America a better place to live than Europe. Let me illustrate.

Stock life insurance companies are interested, not only in lowering premium rates, but they are interested in the more important needs of lengthening the lives and bettering the health of their policyholders. The profits of the stockholders of such companies increase in proportion to the longer you live. The stockholders and officers of a stock company have a super-urge that the mutuals lack.

The same principle is true of stock fire and casualty companies. The stockholders of such stock insurance companies are interested in reducing the number of fires, accidents and defalcations. They should be credited for the laws which today require fire-proof construction, municipal fire departments, sufficient hydrants, fire alarm signal boxes including safety appliances and other regulations to protect your property and lives. It was the super-urge of the stockholders which got the needed legislation passed.

But the above is not all. These stockholders know that their insurance business increases as new building increases. Hence, they are behind every movement to make it easier for you to build more and better homes. These stock companies even loan their money to policyholders to encourage building. How much do mutual companies bother with such mortgages? Some mutuals even limit the granting of insurance to factories and corporations.

The National Board of Underwriters and such companies as the Gamewell Fire Alarm company owe their being to the stock fire insurance companies. It has been the super-urge of stockholders in fire insurance and casualty companies which has supplied the equipment to provide your community with fire alarms, fire pumps, ladder trucks, good hose and needed legislation for protecting your lives, homes and property.

For these reasons I look forward to far greater co-operation between all stock life insurance, fire insurance and casualty companies and the organizations which are lengthening life and are protecting homes, property and employment. Hence, in such as these corporations, I invest most of my own money knowing that they are working to make a better, safer and happier nation.

One more thought: The stock, life, fire and casualty companies provide an excellent means for small investors to get diversification. These companies own large amounts of well-selected stocks, bonds and mortgages. Many of these companies could pay dividends if they did no insurance business. The income received on their investments now goes far toward paying such dividends. This is one reason why I am tremendously interested in investment advisory work. This dovetails in the insurance business 100 percent.

Some pessimists decry insurance stocks because they claim that the government will some day take over the insurance business. If so, this might be hard luck for the mutual companies; but the stock companies have little to fear. As the government enters the lower bracket ranks, new fields with even a brighter future will open up for the stock companies. Private insurance is a fundamental industry. It has always existed in some form and always will exist in some form. Furthermore, as long as the stock companies keep on their toes and do the right thing, they should always lead the mutual companies.

Pleasure is very seldom found where it is sought. Our brightest blazes of gladness are commonly kindled by unexpected sparks.—Samuel Johnson.

You and I

SMALL TOWN LIFE

In a big, dynamic city
There's a fascination—true!
There is much that's fine and pretty,
There is life, of every hue!
There's a certain charm about it
That imparts to life a zest—
And the small towns are without it—
Still, I like the small town best.

There is not the chance for riches
In a little town—I know—
But I'm not the kind that itches
For a life of pomp and show.
I'd exchange my chance for treasure
That a city might extend,
For the small-town kind of pleasure,
With my neighbor as my friend.

25 Years Ago

News items of a quarter of a century ago taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail.

Everyone around the vicinity of Newburg who can is cutting wood to conserve the coal.

There were about 30 who were brave enough to face the storm Sunday to attend the Newburg church services. The church furnace has not been heating the church, considering the amount of fuel used consequently several of the men met Tuesday forenoon and changed the furnace to the center of the basement; also the registers in the hope that it will give better satisfaction.

The Primrose social club of East Plymouth held its first session at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bakewell Saturday evening. Five hundred furnished the evening's amusement. One partner at a table bid ten no trump, thus winning a game in a single hand. Phonograph selections and a lunch concluded the evening. The dancing class and assembly, formerly managed by Mrs. E. L. Riggs, will be continued under Miss Turner's own management and some interesting surprises by way of entertainment have been planned.

Born, a little daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Rotnour, Wednesday, January 9.

At an early hour Monday morning, the farm house of Charles Decker, three miles west of Plymouth on Ann Arbor road, was burned to the ground with practically all of its contents. Mr. Decker was awakened about 2:30 by being suffocated with smoke, which filled the room. He had barely time to dress and get some papers and valuables and escape.

from the burning building. How the fire originated is not known. The building and contents were only partly insured.

The local Arbor of the Gleaners will give a poverty social at the Grange hall this evening. Every woman who comes must wear a calico dress and apron or something equally appropriate. All men must wear their old clothes and flannel shirts. Boiled shirts and standup collars are prohibited.

An article taken from the Detroit Tribune of January 6 is highly complimentary to the patriotic citizens of Plymouth and vicinity. It reads:

"Plymouth township Saturday took first place in the roll of honor kept for branches of the Detroit Red Cross chapter by turning in $1,278 as its part in the recent membership campaign. With a quota of 500 this township of 2300 people enlisted 60% of its population. Plymouth's showing is due to the activity of its chairman, C. H. Bennett, and of Mrs. Bennett, head of the woman's work in the township."

One of the simplest winter bird-feeding stations to make is a peanut-butter board. Holes bored in a short piece of 2-by-4 may be plugged with peanut butter, little platforms may be tacked on just below the holes, and the board hung in a tree. This feeding station may attract squirrels also.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten per cent every pay day.
