Even though your dealer has the skill that comes from years of practice he still cannot always cut a piece of meat or cheese that will weigh the exact amount you ask for. There are bound to be times when the piece he cuts weighs a little less or a little more than you specified. Throughout the last war, only 241 tanks were used by American troops in combat areas, and those were made chiefly in England and France.

15 Years for Fire

Barnett Welansky, who was convicted for criminal neglect in the Cocoanut Grove (Boston) fire trial, was sentenced to serve from 12 to 15 years in the state prison at Charlestown, Mass., on each of the 19 counts in the indictment, the sentences to be served concurrently. Welansky is shown, left, with deputy sheriff, entering prison.

On to Tokyo

"Here we come, Tokyo," says a sign somewhere in New Guinea, leaving no doubt whatever about the sentiments of those who erected it. Since the execution of the American fliers captured after the bombing of Tokyo the "coming" is likely to be speeded up considerably.

Asks Plymouth To Cut Calls

City Cooperates, But More Aid Needed

Plymouth residents are making an effort to comply with the request of the Michigan Bell Telephone company to reduce their long distance calls, stated local manager, John MacLachlan yesterday afternoon, but they can do better, much better.

"On the part of some of our customers there has been a decided compliance with the suggestion, but we do have many newcomers here who have added to the heavy load the company is trying to carry for the government," said Mr. MacLachlan. "However, we have noticed recently a reduction in the number of their calls back home."

Noting a heavy increase in the volume of long distance calls over a year ago, George M. Welch, president of the company, said the situation has become critical. Should the present rate of increase continue, he pointed out, the already overburdened toll lines would be called upon to handle nearly 47,000,000 calls this year, an increase of 12,000,000 over 1942 and double the peacetime traffic of 1939. A great proportion of the calls being handled are vital to the progress of the war, although civilian use of the service also has increased greatly. Welch asked that long distance be used only when really urgent, or when mails or other forms of communication cannot serve the purpose, and that users be brief in their calls.

He also urged such time-saving practices as holding the line after placing a call unless the operator requests otherwise, making "station" rather than "person" calls, giving the operator the number of the called telephone, and reports on the progress of delayed calls.

Paul Wiedman New Air Warden

Floyd Eckles To Remain As Deputy

Paul Wiedman, head of the Plymouth Motor Sales company, who has been deputy chief air raid warden for the city, has been made chief air raid warden, succeeding Floyd Eckles, of the Eckles Coal and Supply company.

Mr. Eckles will become deputy to Mr. Wiedman.

The change was necessitated by the resignation of Mr. Eckles from the chief's post because of the press of business as well as ill health. Mr. Eckles is slowly recovering from a recent severe fall.

Maple Sugar Crop Record One

Price Is Also The Highest Ever Paid

Michigan producers harvested the largest crop in 10 years, 29 percent more equivalent total sugar than in 1942 and nearly 22 percent above the 1932-41 average. The number of trees tapped was 11 percent above the previous year, 11 percent above the 10-year average, and the largest number since 1927. The average equivalent sugar per tree was 1.99 pounds, which is nine percent above the 10-year average. The average opening date was March 10 and closing date April 6, giving a season of 28 days, compared with 25 days the previous year and the longest since 1939. The quality of the syrup was reported at 95 percent of high medium grade, the same as reported a year ago and two points lower than 1941. The syrup was somewhat darker than normal, but otherwise of high quality.

Demand for syrup was unusually active this year and most producers have disposed of their entire salable supply. The average price for syrup was $3.20 a gallon, which is 23 percent above a year ago and by far the highest on our records which go back to 1922. The average price for sugar was 45 cents a pound, or five cents above a year ago and also the highest on record. Due to the ready sale for syrup and the larger relative price increase, only about one-half of one percent was made into sugar.

The bringing together of the two French leaders—key men of the two main factions of divided France—was one of the big achievements of the historic Casablanca conference. ### Books Needed For Soldiers

Asking For Your Christmas Gifts

Why not contribute the books you received for Christmas to the soldiers and sailors of our country? The armed forces still need up-to-date books, fiction, travel and biography for the camp libraries here and abroad. Magazines are not requested, as a sufficient number are contributed by people living near the camps.

The Rosedale Garden Women's club recently donated $15.00 to buy new volumes for the men in the training camps. The Senior class at the Slocum-Truax high school in Trenton donated $5.87 for the same purpose. With the $41.40 given by the Ford C.I.O. local at Northville, these contributions will be used at the National headquarters of the Victory fund to purchase new titles.

Any of your Christmas books which you have read and want to pass along to the soldiers, sailors and marines may be left with Mrs. Ada Murray at the Plymouth library.

Any rags today, Lady? The government is salvaging old rags of all kinds. When you have a sizeable collection call RA 8282 or your favorite charity and a pickup will be arranged.

Want to be a useful string saver? Include excess string with your rag collection for the Wayne county salvage program.

Writes Poem On 84th Birthday

Robert T. Willoughby Takes "Pen In Hand"

Just to add a tinge to his birthday observance, Robert T. Willoughby Sr., last Friday celebrated his 84th birthday by writing two verses which he entitled "Don't Sting and Bite."

As a guest of his son, he attended the Rotary club meeting and recited the verses which he wrote, as follows:

The fruit it bore was not enough. In fact, it was inferior stuff. The tree itself had done its best. But the fruit is spoiled by insect pest.

The blossoms were perfect on that tree. The setting fruit was grand to see. But spoiled by insects' sting and bore and bite.

The fruit we gathered was a sin. Since man to man is so unkind. Please keep this moral in your mind.

As the journey of life you pass through. Don't sting and bite the good others do. But help them on in their task of love.

That perfection may come from our Father above. And when your journey of life is done. The Master may say to thee, "Well done."

Roy Rew's Old School-Mate Wins High Military Honors

The article in a recent issue of The Plymouth Mail pertaining to a youthful soldier who had quickly climbed to a high ranking position, aroused the interest of Roy Rew, 1051 Harding, who believes an old boyhood friend and chum, can better the record previously mentioned in The Mail.

Mr. Rew brought to The Mail a copy of the Louisville Courier-Journal telling of a celebration given in his old home town of Burnside, Kentucky in honor of youthful John W. Wilkinson of Burnside who has won a commission as major in the army at the age of 24 years.

Not only has he been commissioned a major, but he has won the Distinguished Flying Cross and Silver Star for outstanding services as a bomber pilot in the Mediterranean area.

The youthful army officer and friend of Roy Rew is on a brief furlough to his home, where he has been showered with honors because of his services overseas. He was commissioned a lieutenant shortly after the sneak Jap attack on Pearl Harbor and his rise since that time has been exceptionally rapid.

"YOU'VE DONE YOUR BIT NOW DO YOUR BEST!"

DURING the first year of our toughest war, we—

Trained millions of fighting men—made millions of dollars worth of fighting tools—built millions of tons of shipping to carry these men and tools to the fighting fronts.

And to help pay for it all, we bought War Bonds. Altogether, 50 millions of us bought War Bonds. And nearly 30 millions of us started putting, on the average, 10 percent of our pay into War Bonds every pay day through the Payroll Savings Plan.

That was a good start—a whale of a good start. But, every American knows that it was only a start. Nobody would contend for a single instant that what we did in '42 is enough for '43!

Did we make 48,000 planes last year? Believe it or not—we did. But we've got to make 100,000 this year! Sure! We broke every record in the world last year, building 8 million tons of shipping. But everybody knows that the 18 million tons we're building this year isn't enough!

We've got to do more fighting this year. We've got to do more building, more training, more shipping—and more saving.

We've got to buy more War Bonds.

Is that too much to ask? Many of us are making more money than we have made for years. The things we'd like to buy with that money have either disappeared or are as "scarce as hen's teeth." So, why not put that money into War Bonds at good interest—$4 for every $3 when the Bonds mature? Money to help pay for the war—keep prices down—provide peacetime jobs and peacetime goods and a generally decent world for all of us when the war is won.

Chances are, you're already in the Payroll Savings Plan—buying War Bonds—doing your bit. But don't stop there. See if you can't boost your ante! Do your best!

How millions of Americans have done their bit—and how they can do better:

Of the 34 million Americans on plant payrolls, nearly 30 millions of them have joined the Payroll Savings Plan. (If you aren't in yet—sign up tomorrow!)

Those Americans who have joined the Plan are investing, on the average, 10 percent of their earnings in War Bonds. (If you haven't reached 10 percent yet—keep trying!)

BUT...

America's income this year will be the highest in history: about 125 BILLION dollars! In spite of all taxes and price rises, the average worker will have more money than last year—more than ever before!

That is why Uncle Sam has a right to ask us, individually, to invest more money in War Bonds, through the Payroll Savings Plan. He asks us to invest not 10 percent or 15 percent or 20 percent, but all we can!

LETTER GETS THROUGH FROM WALTER JENDRYCKA FROM NORTH POLE AREA.

Another brief letter has come to The Mail from Walter Jendrycka, one of the composing room boys, who is fighting the Japanese vermin somewhere way up in the northwest Pacific, maybe right near the North Pole. Walter says he received eight copies of The Plymouth Mail all at one time, which means probably that he only had one mail delivery in over a two months' period. In part, his letter follows: "Well, I guess the best newspaper in Michigan is as busy as ever. It's also the same with me. I intended to write you quite some time ago, but have been pretty busy. I'm sure you understand the situation. However, will try to drop you a few lines whenever it's possible. "I'm fine, and hope both of you are in the best of health. Wrote to Sterling and Ray several months ago, but have not received my replies yet. "In the last six or seven months

I have only received eight Plymouth Mails, all of those were received at one time on the first of March. I do really miss The Soldiers' column—galley two—Mail. I guess it just takes time. Just like everything else, it takes lots of time. I'm in the Northwest Pacific.

"I'm sorry my letter is brief, there isn't anything of interest to write.

"Hope to hear from you soon. Give my best regards to The Mail gang."

HERE COMES NEWS FOR SOLDIERS' PAGE FROM A "WAVE."

Seaman, second class, Margaret V. Erdelyi, this week is drawing first place in The Plymouth Mail's "Our Boys" page, with a letter of interesting news from her training camp, somewhere in these good old United States. Which all reminds the editor that the heading of this column must soon be changed because of the rate Plymouth girls are signing up to fight with Uncle Sam and their demand for a place on the Soldiers' page.

In part, Miss Erdelyi's letter follows: "Dear Editor: "A Plymouth "Wave" reporting—thinking you might be interested in the Navy from the feminine point of view! I gather from the Soldiers' page of The Mail, the boys from Plymouth are doing exceptionally well in the branches in which they are serving. I'd like to extend to them my congratulations—could you squeeze it in on the Soldiers' page?"

"I have only been a part of the Navy four weeks and feel like a veteran already. Our indoctrination lasted only three weeks and I am continuing Yeoman training here at Cedar Falls, Iowa; then after 60 days we are sent on active duty to the larger Naval bases. Our indoctrination is a training similar to the "boot training" experienced by most sailors—consisting of Naval tradition, history, and seamanship with a good dose of the good old "Navy slang."

"As far as I'm concerned there is nothing like the Navy (of course I'm prejudiced). As many of the other service men and women have said the change from civilian life to military life means a great deal of readjustment, but one which we all enjoy, because of the training and education it provides. I'm sure it is something I will never regret."

PROUD OF THE WAY PLYMOUTH PEOPLE BUY WAR BONDS.

Joe Scarpulla, a Plymouth lad training for the army's flying forces at Clemson college, South Carolina, writes The Mail that he is proud of the way Plymouth people are supporting the war bond drive. Joe writes, in part: "I don't just know how to assemble into words my appreciation and joy in receiving The Plymouth Mail. Sending The Mail to the boys in the U.S. forces is a deed for which you should be highly praised.

"I receive The Mail every week and when I read through the familiar pages it makes me feel as though I'm right in Plymouth, home on furlough. "The people of Plymouth should be proud of the staggering sum of money they contributed to the war effort by the purchase of war bonds. I'm sure that all the boys from Plymouth who are in the U.S. forces are proud to say they come from Plymouth. I have an awful lot of fun telling the boys here that I come from Plymouth and I do look forward to the paper every week. It helps me keep in touch with my friends in the service as well as Plymouth itself.

JOHN DAoust ASSIGNED TO SPECIALIZE UNIT

Private John Peter Daoust, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Daoust, 412 Starkweather, has been assigned to the 1548th Service Unit of the Army Specialized Training program which was activated at the University of Kentucky, in Lexington, May 5. He was a member of the initial group sent in when the unit was activated in May. The new unit is in charge of Col. B. E. Brewer, University of Kentucky commandant and commanding officer of the 1525th Service Unit which is already training on the University campus.

AVIATION CADET DENIS EGGLESTONE AT MACON

Notice has just come to The Plymouth Mail from the Cochran Army Air Field at Macon, Georgia of the arrival at that place of Aviation Cadet Denis Eglestone, 11405 Berwick avenue, Rosedale Gardens, for a period of training at the flying school located at that place.

Our First Acid Test—War Bonds and War Taxes

THE CENSOR DID THINGS TO THIS LETTER FROM SOMEWHERE.

From somewhere out of the distant Pacific came a letter to The Plymouth Mail this week from Soldier Russell Everson to advise The Mail of a change of address and to discuss the mosquito plague the soldier boys are forced to fight along with the vermin from the island of Japan. "Dear Editor: "Just a few lines to let you know my new address. I'm ..... in the southwest Pacific. We have the usual combination, a nice climate and plenty of big mosquitoes. The natives talk ..... so consequently we have a little difficulty buying anything in town. It's going to take me a while to get the hang of the ..... system, too. Here are some of the prices that they charge here: ice cream, such as it is, 25 cents for two small dips; flash light batteries, 39 cents each; whiskey, $18 a quart. They tell me that when they analyzed a quart of whiskey they found carbolic acid, fuel oil and other items to enrich the flavor. "We work seven days a week down here and I mean we really work. I'm not allowed to disclose the type of work I'm doing but I can say it is dull and hard work. "Now for a little camp information. We get up at dawn and work until dark (unless we are on the night shift). Our water comes in 300-gallon barrels and we use the outer part of our helmets for wash basins. We don't have electric lights in our tents so we read and write by candle light. We have an outdoor theatre where everybody sits on the ground. The show is much better than I expected to get. We have dehydrated eggs, milk and dessert. There is a rumor going around that we'll be having dehydrated water pretty soon. "The mosquitoes are starting to charge in earnest now so I guess I'll retreat. Here's hoping The Plymouth Mail isn't held up at Frisco very long because I'm really looking forward to receiving it."

THIS LAD IN ARMY FOR 18 MONTHS, WANTS ACTION SOMEWHERE

Daniel F. Sloanne, a Plymouth lad who entered the army nearly two years ago and was sent down to New Orleans, writes that he's somewhere out of the country, but is getting no action where he is stationed—and "I'd certainly like some action." He says in his letter to The Mail: "Well, this is a rather belated thanks, but do mean it, and very much. I have been receiving The Mail for sometime now. Issues of good news, tidings and cheer from the old home town. The Mail brings me pictures of people I haven't seen for nearly three years, although I've only been in service 18 months. I've served 16 of those months right down here and I'd certainly like some action. This may be "foreign service," but it's not the action I enlisted for. "I would also like to add many thanks to the people who help the USO. There have been several nice shows here, and this place is really out-of-the-way. How they do get around."

PLYMOUTH MAIL FOLLOWS HIM AROUND THE COUNTRY

Gary V. Tubergen, who has been stationed at several camps throughout the United States, is now located at Maxwell Field in Alabama. He writes as follows to The Mail: "Your paper has been following me all over the United States and I have been getting it about two or three weeks behind time for the last three months. I enjoy reading my home town paper very much and so I'm writing to give you my present address. "I would like to know if you feel the way all of the fellows here, as well as myself feel, about Mr. Lewis, "The great American Traitor." When I last wrote to you I was stationed in California. Since then I have been in Geor-

"Our men in the service in this war have pretty definite ideas about what they're fighting for and the way they want to find our country when they come back...don't you think so, Judge?" "I certainly do, George. Just a week or so ago I was reading in a national magazine the results of a poll taken among our soldiers. Each man was given a questionnaire containing twenty-five 'assignments' for the folks at home. He was asked to check the first five in order of importance to him. "Out of thousands of replies the first 'assignment' to the folks back home was 'Make sure I'll have a job in my chosen field of work when I get back.' Number 5 was 'Make sure that Prohibition isn't put over on us again.' "When the men in the last war came home and found prohibition had been put over on them behind their backs they were sore as boils. You can see from what I just told you how they feel about it this time, too."

Keep Your Powder Dry!

In the battle to produce more food, the electric motor is a vital weapon. But motors are made of copper and other materials now restricted to war production. Even repair materials are scarce. So the motors you now have must be kept operating until Victory.

Protect your motors. It requires only a small amount of time and attention to keep an electric motor in good running condition. A motor needs little care, but it must have some! Here are the most important points to remember:

1. Lubricate regularly but do not over-lubricate.
2. Keep the motor clean. Beware of dust, moisture, and stray oil.
3. Avoid overload. Be sure that your motor is equipped with some type of overload protecting device.

During this crucial year every farm will need to keep every motor in service and ready for action. Don't let neglect rob you of a trusty weapon. Keep your powder dry!
